A QUICK READ OF THE NEWS

Washington honored

GOODWELL, Okla. — Longtime city resident George Washington was honored Saturday during a Panhandle State homecoming football game against McMurry.

During the second quarter, Washington was announced as a special homecoming guest. Washington was an all-conference center and tri-captain of the 1951 Panhandle team.

Several of his teammates also made the game.

"I had a great time," said the man affectionately known as "Coach" around Muleshoe. "I think I was the only one in town that didn't know about it. It was a real good outing with the boys."

It was his first trip back to the Goodwell area in 35-40 years, Washington said.

Former NFL coach Buddy Ryan was Washington's high school teammate at Fredrick, Okla. Washington then played one year at Cameron Junior College in Lawton, Okla. before attending Panhandle. While at Cameron JC, he played in the Junior Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. in 1949.

Mules hunt first district win on road

By RICK WHITE

Woody Martin is already using the play fake. The Dalhart head coach was purposely evasive Tuesday about the playing status of starting quarterback Michael Montoya when the Golden Wolves host Muleshoe Friday in a District 1-3A tilt.

"We really don't know yet," Martin said about a shoulder injury that forced Montoya from last week's 21-14 loss to Amarillo River Road. "Come to the game and see."

Both Muleshoe and Dalhart dropped their district openers last week and are 1-3 overall.

Montoya accounted for 190 yards before leaving the game four plays into the second half with Dalhart up 14-2.

"He played last week so (Muleshoe) knows what the offense is like when he's in the game, and they know what it's like when he's not in the game," Martin said. "They saw us in both situations."

Junior Joe Otrez relieved Montoya last week, but Martin wouldn't even concede Otrez would start this week if Montoya isn't ready to go.

Muleshoe head coach David Wood said the Mules will have to prepare for all the possible scenarios, eating away valuable practice time.

"Without their starting quarterback, we don't know what they're going to do," Wood said. "They could continue to do what they've been doing or they could completely alter their game plan."

Locker takes Invite

AMARILLO — Stacy Locker credits a fast start with her best finish of the season.

The Muleshoe High School sophomore relied on a strong kick to edge Farwell's Valerie Mace and win the Amarillo Invitational Division I cross country title Saturday at Thompson Park.

Locker overtook Mace in the last 100 yards and beat her Farwell nemesis by three seconds with a time of 13.11.

"I'm usually not very good at getting out of the pack," Locker said. "But I got off to a good start and stayed just behind the leader."

Muleshoe coach Amy Kelly said running against most of District 1-3A's top runners also served as motivation for her sophomore standout.

Plus, Thompson Park is the sight of the district meet Nov. 1.

"She was real focused," Kelly said. "We've been working hard on our finishing kicks in practice and I think it helped."

Other Lady Mule runners who ran at the invitational were

Orozco wins football contest with near-perfect effort

Week 4 of the Journal's weekly football contest pitted father against son for the top spot.

Father knows best.

Hard-core contestant Richard Orozco of Muleshoe edged his son J.C. Orozco by one point in the tie-breaker, Detroit's 23-15 upset of Green Bay. Both Orozcos correctly picked 17 of 18 games.

The elder Orozco guessed 48 points in the tie-breaker. J.C. Orozco guess 49.

Richard Orozco wins the $15 first prize and J.C. Orozco takes home the $10 second prize.

Steve Foster of Lazbuddie finished third and won the $5 third prize.

Foster and three other contestants correctly picked 16 of 18 high school, college and pro games. Foster's tie-breaker score was 44 points.

It was a rather routine week for the 32 contestants, with no real upsets. Two of the games that hurt contestants most were Morton's win over Olton and Kress beating Sudan.

Contest entry forms are in Sunday editions of the Bailey County Journal.

Maple Coop gins first cotton bale in Bailey County

MAPLE — The Maple Coop Gin produced the first three bales of cotton in Bailey County of the 1997 season.

The dryland cotton was grown by Cochran County farmer Scott Simpson, who reported an average yield of 403 pounds per acre.

Simpson planted the Paymaster HS-26 Round-up Ready seed May 21 and harvested the cotton Thursday. Simpson farms about 1,600 acres. The average turnout was 19 percent.

The first bale of cotton grown in Bailey County belongs to Keith Price of Enochs and was ginned at the Enochs Co-OP Gin Friday. The bale weighed 640 pounds.

Price planted the dryland cotton in late April and it was harvested by a Burr Extractor, reported Enochs Gin manager Wade Baker.

R.C. & BUD

BAXTER BLACK

ON THE EDGE OF COMMON SENSE

R.C. is an animal lover. Maybe not the kind of animal lover that the term has come to mean in this era of animal rights activism, but the kind that requires a greater commitment.

He would tell you he's a farmer. But, he's a horseman and trainer, cattleman, hog producer, corn grower and great-grandfather. He's also a dog man, with the patience and persistence to deserve a good stock dog.

R.C. has had a wide variety of dogs in his life. One day he asked his wife, Doris to keep an eye out for a Blue Heeler. They appealed to him but he'd never had one. 'Kinda 'rough dogs', he thought.

Soon she found one advertised in the Albia paper; a two year old male lookin' for a home. R.C. was suspicious. Takin' a dog that old was risky. Bad habits would be developed, old loyalties established. One just never knew.

"Well, it wouldn't hurt to look," Doris chided him.

Finally, three weeks later R.C. went by to look at the dog. As Doris was introducing themselves to the lady of the house, the two year old blue merle walked right up to R.C. and looked at him. They exchanged studious look—something unspoken passed between them. R.C. picked the dog up under his arm and took him to the truck. He just knew. The same way people know when a guitar string is in tune or a steak is cooked just right. R.C. knew the dog would be fine. And, I think the dog must have come to the same conclusion because they became constant outdoor companions. He named him Bud.

Two months after Bud had moved in with them, R.C. was out feeding. He slung a bushel basket of ear corn over his shoulder and walked into the pig pen. Bud was dawdling by the gate.

Sixteen sows came squealing from the corner as R.C. approached. His foot hit something. He slipped, went down on his back, cracked his head on a rock, and was knocked unconscious.

His last memory as he fell was a three ton wall of hungry sows charging.

He woke to find himself looking skyward in the pig pen with sticky blood on his face, in his hair and on his shirt. Bud had worn a circle around his sprawled out body. Just a few feet away the sows waited, watching, a dark look in their eyes. Several ears of corn still lay by his head. Bud stood guard.

Another true dog story like we hear so often. If R.C. had not been an animal lover, would it have had a different ending?

But from their first meeting, dog and man somehow sensed that they would be there for each other. I can't explain how it works, it's beyond me. But it wasn't beyond Bud...he just knew.

SBA seeking nominations

WASHINGTON — The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) is seeking for the "Small Business Person of the Year" for 1998.

"The small business person represents the modern American Dream — the chance for someone with an idea and a goal to make the fullest use of his or her own abilities by taking that goal, that dream, and making something very real out of it," said Aida Alvarez, SBA's Administrator.

Each year since 1963, the President has designated one week as National Small Business Week in recognition of the small business community's contributions to the American economy.

Business owners from every state, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and Guam, who have been named as their state's "Small Business Person of the Year," travel to Washington for three days of small business-related activities and meetings with government officials.

Small businesses today, some 22 million strong, generate more than 47% of all sales in this country, 51% of our domestic private sector output and about 55% of all innovations. Small businesses also lead the nation in job creation, providing about two-thirds of all new jobs.

Traditionally, the national winner is announced by the President of the United States during a White House ceremony.

Each state's Small Business Person of the Year must meet criteria which include staying power, growth in employment, increase in sales/unit volume, innovation, response to adversity, and evidence of contributions to his/her community.

Nominations in the Small Business Person of the Year, Advocates of the Year and special Small Business Week award categories can be made by individual, or organizations such as professional and trade associations business organizations, chambers of commerce, banks, or small business' employees.

All nominations must be received by the SBA district office no later than November 3, 1997.

To obtain information on completing a nomination package call Ruby Abarca, extension 230 or Vicky Norton, extension 241 at 806/472-7462 or 1-800-676-1005 with the U.S. Small Business Administration, Lubbock District Office, 1611 10th St., Suite 200, Lubbock.

Groom zooms past Eagles 49-12

COTTON CENTER — Three Way scored twice in the first five minutes of the game and appeared headed for a shootout with Groom.

But Three Way soon started misfiring and couldn't keep pace with Groom's relentless rushing assault.

The Tigers rushed for 328 yards and rolled to a 49-12 win during a scorching Saturday afternoon game.

"Our consistency on offense was horrible and on defense we didn't tackle people," Three Way coach Danny James said. "Do those two things and you're going to get beat."

Wade Ritter led Groom with 181 yards rushing and three touchdowns.

Groom (3-1) ended any hope of a Three Way comeback with a 21-point fourth quarter.

The Eagles (1-3) suffered their third-straight setback despite gaining 301 yards.

Cody Wilson passed for 139 yards in the first half, including a 66-yard touchdown pass to Randall Rodriguez on the Eagles' first play from scrimmage.

The Eagles took a 12-8 lead on their next possession when

Sweating out a loss

Three Way's Daniel Reeves wipes sweat from his face during a timeout Saturday during a 49-12 loss to Groom in a non-district game at Cotton Center. The Eagles play at Melrose, NM this week.

Friona and Amarillo River Road opened with wins and meet this week in the first big game of the district season.

Friona (4-0 overall, 1-0 in 1-3A) has won 13-straight regular-season games and is clearly the team to beat. The Chieftains piled up more than 400 yards in a 43-6 win against Tulia Friday and has outscored opponents 138-26.

Don't count out River Road despite a 0-3 start. The Wildcats rallied from a 12-point deficit to beat Dalhart 21-14 and have qualified for the state playoffs the last four years.

FRIONA 43, TULIA 6

Aaron King threw three touchdown passes and added 55-yard touchdown run while Matthew Kendrick rushed for 132 yards and scored twice for the seventh-ranked Chieftains. Angel Vega caught touchdown passes of 34 and 23 yards.

Tulia (0-4, 0-1) scored in the fourth quarter on Roy Gonzalez' 6-yard run. Gonzalez finished with 61 rushing yards.

RIVER ROAD 21, DALHART 14

QB Jerod Fikac rushed for 97 yards, including a 30-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter that sealed the Wildcats' fifth-straight win against Dalhart. Cody Smith gave the Wildcats a 15-14 lead earlier in the fourth quarter on a 2-yard run.

Trent Mills added 88 yards rushing for the Wildcats, who finished with 263 on the ground.

All three of River Road's losses have been to Class 4A schools.

QB Michael Montoya guided Dalhart to 14-2 halftime lead, but left the game with a shoulder injury late in the second quarter and did not return. Montoya rushed for 89 yards and a touchdown and completed 5 of 11 passes for 78 yards. Without Montoya, Golden Wolves (1-3, 0-1) managed just 66 yards in the second half. Garland Swecker rushed for 68 yards.

PERRYTON 31, SANFORD-FRITCH 7

Perryton rushed for 232 yards and Trey Duke connected with Coby Habertur for two touchdown passes in a 31-7 romp against Sanford-Fritch.

The Rangers (2-2, 1-0) blew the game open with 21 points in the third quarter after leading 10-7 at halftime.

Shaun Eckhart rushed for 81 yards and Alan Adkison added 69 yards and a 21-yard touchdown for the Rangers.

A 15-yard pass from Haven Reed to Terry Cole in the first quarter gave Sanford-Fritch (0-4, 0-1) a 7-3 lead.

Bubba Winkle gained 58 yards on 26 carries for the Eagles.

'Horns rebound with 53-6 romp

NEW HOME — Still smarting from last week's upset loss, Lazbuddie rebounded resoundingly Friday by hammering previously unbeaten New Home 53-6 Friday.

Lazbuddie played poorly and was knocked from the unbeaten ranks last week by a 44-20 loss to Samnorwood.

The Longhorns took it out on New Home.

The eighth-ranked Longhorns (3-1) exploded for 31 points in the second quarter against New Home and led 39-6 at halftime.

Lazbuddie finished with 435 total yards before the game was halted by the 45-point rule a minute into the fourth quarter.

"They had their egos hurt real bad last week," Lazbuddie coach Mark Scisson said. "I don't think (New Home) had played anybody like us."

New Home had been limiting opponents to 134 yards and 10 points per game.

Josh Morris completed 13 of 16 passes for 227 yards and two touchdowns to Chris Smith. Adam St. Clair added 167 yards and three touchdowns on the ground.

"We just didn't make many mistakes," Scisson said. "We only had two penalties."

Smith caught nine passes for 153 yards after sitting out last week with a neck injury.

Seth Black and Jeffrey Seaton added short TD runs for the Longhorns.

mitt in its district opener. The Mules have lost three straight since shutting out Portales 31-0.

"Our defense is playing well enough to win games," Wood said. "We're just making too many mistakes. If we continue playing hard and the chips fall our way, we're going to win some games."

Muleshoe is averaging 237 yards a game, but haven't be able to sustain drives because of penalties and turnovers.

"We've just got to finish our drives," Wood said. "We get down around the red zone and we just seem to lose our heads."

Both tailback Gilbert Vela and fullback Greg Pena have rushed for more than 200 yards.

In contrast, Dalhart likes to throw the ball.

The Golden Wolves are the only team in the district that has more passing yards (594) than rushing yards (531).

Montoya has completed 47 of 102 passes for 571 yards and four touchdowns.

Dalhart also likes to run the draw play.

"Any team that runs the draw well concerns me because anytime you get us spread out it hurts," Wood said. He said that running back Garland Swecker is especially dangerous running the draw because he possesses deceptive speed.

Look for the Mules to counter the draw by using a lineman or linebacker as a spy.

The Golden Wolves are taking a much more aggressive approach defensively this season.

Dalhart still plays a 4-3 but will come after teams with line stunts and even send a cornerback when the offense team is in a tight set.

"Last year, you could line up and shove us around," Martin said. "This year, we're lining up and getting after their tails."

Opponents have scored 100 points on the Golden Wolves.

Wood said Dalhart's defensive players to watch are tackles sophomore tackles Jaime Puga (5-8, 180) and Miguel Barron (5-10, 210), middle linebacker Jose Barron (6-0, 190) and cornerback Tate Fuller (6-0, 160).

Neither coach was willing to admit it was a must game.

Martin did offer this assessment.

"Unless something outrageous happens, an 0-2 start is death," Martin said.

Three Way stalled and was forced to punt. But the snap skipped along the ground, through Wilson's legs, and into the end zone. Dusty Crump fell on the ball for a gift touchdown to give the Tigers a 34-12 lead.

James called it a forgettable performance.

"We're just going to chunk it and go back to fundamentals — blocking, tackling and reading our keys," James said. "Right now, we're just trying to get better. And with the toughest part of our schedule still left, we've got to get better."

Wilson finished the day 7 of 15 for 167 yards. Jonathan Kindle had two receptions for 51 yards while Rodriguez led the Eagles with 61 yards on 11 carries.

Three Way plays at Melrose, N.M. this Friday.

ARTS & CRAFTS

Muleshoe woman featured in ceramics magazine

By TERESA STONE
Journal staff writer

Smokie Little is developing a worldwide audience for her ceramic talents.

Little, who has lived in Muleshoe for seven years, has had two of her project ideas featured in Ceramics Magazine, but that's not all the world will see of Little's projects.

Ceramic magazine has requested nine more projects from Little with an open invitation to keep submitting ideas and samples.

Little's first feature in the magazine was two months ago in the August issue with her lobster platter.

In September, her cactus and chili pepper Christmas wreath platter graced the front cover of the international magazine.

"My favorite pieces to make are utility pieces, such as plates, platters, canisters, bowls and vases. People associate ceramics with making ashtrays, but ceramics is much more than that," said Little, a certified ceramics teacher.

Little's talents are getting local and world wide acclaim.

Muleshoe's Smokie Little has gained acclaim for her work with ceramics

She recently won five Blue Ribbons at South Plains Fair which will be added to her wall full of trophies and ribbons which she has been awarded.

Little has been asked to teach across the United States, Mexico and Australia, where she will be going in late 1998 to share her ideas and experience.

"Ceramics gets in your blood, it's a great way to express yourself, it's creative and it's unlimited," said Little, who has been enjoying her hobby for thirty years.

Eight years ago ceramics became more than a hobby when she began teaching ceramic classes. Her students range from inexperienced to advance.

"I've taught classes to senior citizens and classes to girl scouts. I've even taught a few big burly men to paint tiny little roses," Little said.

"You can do it forever, you won't ever be too out of shape, too young or too old, and you don't have to be an artist and student's get such a sense of accomplishment when they are through," said Little.

Although Little travels extensively teaching ceramics, she hopes to promote local interest in ceramics by conducting a class this fall in Muleshoe.

Depression screening offered at Clovis CC

Depressions strikes more than 17 million Americans each year and fewer than half of those people affected actually seek treatment even though statistics show that 80 percent can be help.

Mental health professionals from Clovis Community College(CCC) and the surrounding area will offer community residents the opportunity to learn about the signs and systems of depression.

Individuals may participate in a free confidential screening as part of National Depression Screening Day on Thursday Oct. 9.

"CCC is pleased to be a part of this activity and to offer these free services to our students and to area residents," said Rosalie Richards, coordinator of the EVOLVE program at CCC.

The program will be held from 9 a.m. to noon, Thursday Oct. 9 in room 409 at Clovis Community College.

Participants will complete an anonymous, short screening survey which will be available in English and Spanish.

While the surveys are being scored, Dr. Michael Shaughnessy, professor of special education at Eastern New Mexico University, will make a brief presentation on the causes, symptoms, and treatments of depression. A short videotape will follow his presentation.

Following the presentations, mental health counselors will meet with audience members on a one-to-one basis to explain the confidential survey results.

Common symptoms depression include feelings of hopelessness, worthlessness, restlessness and irritability, changes in sleep and appetite, loss of energy and thoughts of death or suicide.

"We hope that this nationwide effort to provide mental health screening for depression will educate the signs and symptoms of depression and encourage those who may be vulnerable to seek evaluation and treatment," Richards said.

Richards encourages people to attend the entire program, but if that is not possible the mental health professional will try to accommodate latecomers on a space-available basis.

For more information contact Richards at 505-769-4099 or Gloria Urban Hutchens, Adult Re-Entry coordinator, at 505-769-4089.

Old Ways, New Visions

Hispanic and Native American Traditions in New Mexico

In New Mexico, Native Americans, Hispanics, and Anglo Americans have clashed and fought for scarce resources for over 300 years. Each group has retained a strong sense of its own history and, in the process, learned to live together and respect each others' right to be who they are.

Old Ways, New Visions, sponsored by the Museum of American History, Smithsonian Institution, and the State of New Mexico, looks at issues of cultural survival and presents three stories from New Mexico about three groups of people who are struggling to preserve their culture and heritage.

"Corn Is Who We Are" examines the central role of food and agriculture in the Native American Pueblos of New Mexico. Foods like corn and wheat are at the center of their religion and represent both continuity and connection with the land. The old ways of growing represented a healthier lifestyle, and old crops like blue corn have become desirable commodities.

"Only Death Will Take Me From This Place" explores the world of the small Hispanic villages in northern New Mexico, looking at the bonds that have allowed them to survive for centuries. Shared values are expressed in things like community participation in maintaining the ditch system that provides precious water for irrigation, and rebuilding and supporting parish churches. Even Los Alamos Laboratory, where the atom bomb was born, is an important factor in the survival of these communities.

"Spreading Beauty Wherever I Go" celebrates art and life as expressed by the custom cars called lowriders that flourish in New Mexico. The film shows how car building and decoration are linked to a long tradition of folk art and craftsmanship in New Mexico, and bring friends and community together.

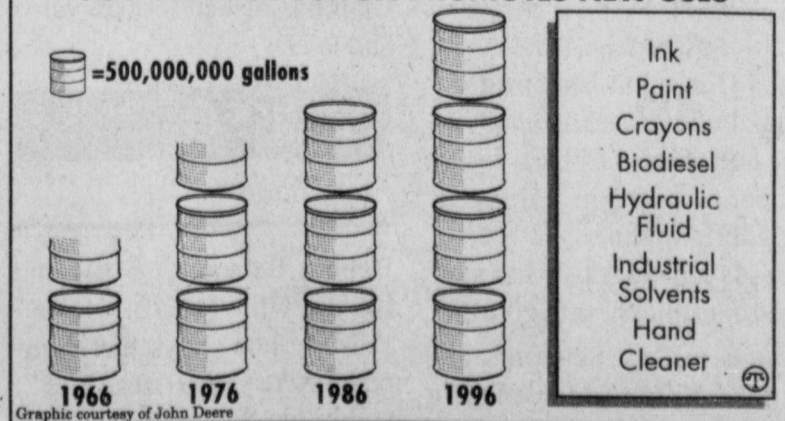

Old Ways, New Visions airs Monday, October 13th at 10:00 p.m. on KENW-TV.

Extension Service director retires

COLLEGE STATION — Dr. Zerle L. Carpenter, who has provided leadership for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service for the last 15 years, has decided to retire as its director, effective Dec. 31.

"I have never met a professional in the A&M System for whom I have more respect," said Dr. Barry Thompson, chancellor of the Texas A&M University System.

"It has been a privilege for me to serve the people of Texas and to provide leadership for our Extension educational programs across the state," Carpenter said.

"During my tenure as director I have visited every county in Texas and have seen the many outstanding programs our county faculty are conducting to meet the needs of the local citizens. The Extension organization has been truly blessed with the dedicated and committed people who are working hard to serve the people of Texas, and it has been my privilege to work with them."

Carpenter, 62, heads the largest state Extension Service in the country; it has long been the A&M System's key means for serving the educational needs of Texans throughout the state.

The agency's programs, delivered primarily through county Extension agents, serve all 254 counties, providing research-based, practical information and education for agricultural producers, businesses, consumers, families and youth.

Carpenter has gained national attention for his leadership ideas.

He increased involvement of local citizens in the planning and developing local educational programs by launching an issue based Extension program.

Carpenter also established an urban initiative that sought to target more diverse and hard to reach audiences in urban centers and developed partnerships with such diverse entities as the Texas Juvenile Probation Commission, the Texas Restaurant Association and the U.S. Army and established

A native of Greer County, Okla., Carpenter earned his bachelor's degree in animal science at Oklahoma State University in 1957. He received a master's degree in meat and animal science and biochemistry from the University of Wisconsin in 1960, and two years later earned his doctoral degree in meat, animal science and biochemistry from the same school.

Carpenter began his career with The Texas A&M University System as an assistant professor of animal science at Texas A&M University in 1962. He rose to become a full professor of animal science in 1971, head of the animal science department in 1978, and the director of the Extension Service in 1982. He was named associate vice chancellor for agriculture in 1988.
