AND SNYDER SIGNAL

VOLUME XXXVIII

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1925

Number 49

ECHOES FROM MINERAL WELLS.

Owing to the heavy rains that fell in Mineral Wells and community, the Snyder delegation came straggling in, some not reaching Snyder until Saturday night. Every fellow has an alibi, of course. C. E. Ferguson broke an axle in his car; Earl Brown got separated from some of the children entrusted to his care; Morse Bantau didn't get down there until the convention was nearly over and had to stay a day longer to make up lost time; the Times-Signal man had to go to Fort Worth and Dallas; Judge Holley got lost and stuck in the mud; H. J. Brice ran out of gas; Hugh Boren got a "flat;" A. F. Morris blew a valve out of his tuba, and various other excuses are being offered for not getting in on time.

But, after all, the 40,000 people who attended the convention knew that the Snyder and Hermleigh delegations were present. Snyder's excellent band won second prize in the two-year-old band contest, a thing that made the band very much like a sock leg without a foot, a ball team without a short-stop, or a quartet without a tenor, the boys played well and never failed to produce a roaring applause. O. P. Thrane was re-elected vice-president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to serve with Hon. R. Q. Lee of Eastland, president.

Further honors brought back by Scurry county was the winning of first prize in the one-year-old band contest by the Hermleigh band. The Hermleigh band played more like professionals than a band less than a year old. The Hermleigh band had the misfortune, however, to lose some of their clothing and other regalia by high water. They were encamped in a camping ground, and a swollen stream rose suddenly during the night and before they were aware, some of their clothing had been carried away by the water.

The Snyder band has already received an invitation to enter the contest with the East Texas two-year-old bands at the Dallas State Fair this fall. The Times-Signal hopes that the local band will make arrangements to enter the contest, and keep right on in order to be ready to carry off honors at the next meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Amarillo.

NOTED ROAD BUILDERS HERE.

Mr. C. H. Hurdleston and Mr. H. A. Peabody have been in Snyder for several days, visiting Mr. Hurdleston's old friend, Mayor Smith, and looking into the matter of good roads in West Texas. Mr. Hurdleston is a builder of roads and a buyer of road bonds. He is in close touch with the State Highway Commission and gave our people some sound, timely advice as to how to proceed in the matter of securing the highways Scurry and other counties in this district are about to secure. Mr. Hurdleston and Mr. Peabody met with the Lions Club at their luncheon Tuesday and made excellent talks before that body.

BUY CHAUTAUQUA TICKETS NOW.

If you have not purchased your Chautauqua ticket, why not make the purchase at once? Don't wait till the last day and then regret it because you are unable to get a ticket. The numbers this year are the best yet, everyone being high-class and highly entertaining.

THE TIMES-SIGNAL SIGNALS

With a lot of people the eighteenth amendment is about as popular as the ten commandments.

Most any Snyder married man can tell you that the honeymoon is over about the time she asks: "Why don't you eat something besides meat and potatoes?"

Never mind whether it is proper to say a hen is "sitting" or "setting." The main thing is whether she is laying or lying.

Still, if there were no crooked lawyers in this country, what would all of their crooked clients do?

We heard a wise Snyder woman say a few days ago that marriage is a good deal like going to school—too many quit before they finish the course.

A Georgia judge says a man has the right to spank his own wife. But we'll bet he never tries to carry out his own decree.

If more children in this country were properly brought up fewer would have to be sent up.

Most any Snyder man is willing to go on a diet if he does not have to give up anything but carrots and salad dressing.

Austrian scientists claim to have found bones buried 200,000 years ago. Wonder if they've found the dog that buried them?

A movement has been started in New York to preserve wild life. It is certainly the proper place to start such a movement.

One of the hardest things to do that we know of is to convince a Snyder family that an auto is a luxury and easy to do without.

The trouble with many of us is that we are interested in great men's lives only because it brings us a few holidays every year.

You can lose anything these days. We see where a St. Louis man is advertising for a 250-pound wife that has strayed away.

The only Snyder man who yearns for a younger wife is the one who doesn't know how old he looks.

Mary Pickford and Doug. Fairbanks are celebrating their fifth wedding anniversary. That seems like a long time for moving picture people to be married.

With increased cost of baggy-legged pants and the big consumption of cigarettes a college education is getting more expensive every day.

It's about as easy for the average Snyder man to start a garden as it for the weeds to take it a little later on.

E. A. WATSON'S RESIDENCE BURNS AT HERMLEIGH.

Fire thought to have been caused from an oil stove completely consumed the residence occupied by E. A. Watson of Hermleigh, last Monday night. Mr. Watson stated that his wife was in Dallas and he must have left a burner of the oil stove lighted which caused the blaze. The contents of the house were a total loss. Mr. Watson not escaping with enough clothes to make a trip to Snyder with. While the building and contents were partly covered by insurance it will by no means pay for the loss to Mr. Watson and family of their personal effects. The building was owned by Adams & Leverett and was partially covered by insurance.

ED MILHOLLIN HURT.

Ed Milhollin, the 19-year-old son of Bob Milhollin, living 9 miles southwest of Snyder, happened to a very painful accident Wednesday. His team became frightened and ran, and he jumped or fell from the wagon, dislocating his right ankle and fracturing the end of the tibia bone. It was a bad injury and he will probably be incapacitated for work for several days.

Mrs. R. L. Howell and two small children were here from Brownwood the latter part of last week visiting Dr. Howell. Dr. and Mrs. Howell lived in Snyder before removing to Brownwood, where Mrs. Howell is teaching. Mrs. Howell was greatly surprised at the growth of Snyder since she was here before. The doctor recently purchased some nice lots in East Snyder and will probably build a modern residence thereon this summer or fall.

Mrs. Ethel Hall of Abilene was visiting Mrs. J. G. Drinkard Sunday. Mrs. Hoyt Murphy and Mrs. E. R. Cotton were shopping in Snyder Tuesday.

SNYDER PAVING GIVEN COMPLIMENT.

During the visit of the Kansas City boosters last week they spoke of the fine paving we were putting down. They said that they believed that the brick was one of the best that could be used. They have brick on some of the most important streets in Kansas City that has been in use for the past forty years and it is still in fine shape. They also stated that the class of work being done by the construction company doing the work was as good as they had ever seen in any place. We appreciate this compliment coming from men who, we believe, know good paving.

HON. JOE BURKETT COMING TO SNYDER.

Hon. Joe Burkett will visit Snyder on his trip over the eighteenth road district next Thursday. Let everybody turn out to meet the man who is trying to help West Texas to help itself.

W. A. Loure and son, Elmer, of Hermleigh were on the streets of Snyder last Tuesday shaking hands with old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wicker returned last week from a visit with Mr. Wicker's sister, Mrs. Tommie Ward, at Cloud Chief, Oklahoma. Mr. Wicker says that they lacked only a few hundred yards of being in the path of a cyclone while on their trip. He says that the twister uprooted and snapped off large elm trees in its path.

PATENTS GRANTED TO TEXANS.

Compiled by Munn & Co., Patent Attorneys.

Of 1065 patents issued in the last week Texas inventors obtained 12.

Rose M. Shearer of La Pryor. Pump rod elevator. This provides a device for raising or lowering pump rods, casings and the like in wells.

Makers of Snyder

GEORGE NORTHCUTT

The subject of this sketch this week, George Northcutt, is a native Texan being born in Erath county (as to when we cannot say as he refused to furnish date of birth). He first came to Scurry county in 1914 as local manager of the Higginbotham Brothers & Company store which they opened here at that time on the East Side of the square. In 1917 he was transferred to Texarkana as manager of the Higginbotham Bros. & Co., store at that place where he stayed for four years, returning to Snyder in 1921 as manager of this store. George has been in the mercantile game for a long while having been connected with his present employers for the past 22 years. The business here has made a splendid growth under his management and their store at this place would be a credit to any town of much larger size than Snyder. The store here has never less than 15 employees and during the fall season is much larger.

George is known as a "great hunter" as he attends all the rabbit drives held within traveling distance of town and also spends some of his time shooting the "poor golf." And it has been said that he has shot the Chutes. He is also president of the local club of Anglers, whose fishing grounds are principally Deep Creek which very seldom has enough water in it to sink a hook in, but on their return from a fishing trip they also have wonderful luck (to listen to their story) but it appears that the "biggest" ones always get away. He also has the reputation among local folks of being an expert "42" player (if the dominoes are marked) and if you will let him choose his partner, challengers all comers. But with all these short comings, George is a man that is liked by all who know him, always on the side of everything that will have for the upbuilding and betterment of the town, the county and its citizens.

SCHOOL FACULTY CHOSEN.

The Snyder school board at a recent meeting elected the following teachers for the year 1925-1926. Supt. I. C. Bagwell was chosen last year for a period of two years.

High School Faculty.

Principal, F. A. Cary; John A. Roberts, Mrs. I. C. Bagwell, Miss Ouida Greene, Miss Zadie Runkles, Miss Mattie E. Clark, Miss Clara Mitchell.

Grade Teachers.

Mrs. L. D. Sanders, Mrs. Marie Palmer Greene, Miss Lorena Huggins, Miss Alice Waldrop, Miss Grace Mann, Miss Myram Steward, Miss Bess Johnston, Miss Kathleen Eiland, Miss Erma Taylor, Miss Vita Wasson, Miss Gladys Boren, Miss Rhoda Martin, Mrs. Ivan Gatlin and Miss Jo Hailey, who will perhaps be used in both the high school and the grammar school to relieve congestion wherever needed. None but degree teachers are used in the high school. It is not yet known whether all of the above will accept. It was known by the board in advance that some of the old faculty would not return.

There is now coming to a close one of the most successful terms in the entire history of the Snyder school, the success of which has been in a great measure due to the hearty co-operation of the board and parents with the teachers. That is the only spirit that will build a real school, the kind that Snyder now has and the one of which everybody is justly proud.

Mrs. Mary S. Brown returned from Sweetwater Wednesday night. She had been in attendance at the School of Instruction of the Order of the Eastern Star which was held at that place Tuesday and Wednesday. Mrs. Brown reports a good school was held at Sweetwater and much of benefit to the Chapter resulted.

A CORRECTION.

It last week's issue of the Times-Signal it was stated that the J. Wright Moorar ranch had been leased to the Sun Company. The article was gathered from street talk, which the Times-Signal has been informed was without foundation. The Sun Company has not so much as entered into negotiations for the Moorar ranch. The Times-Signal is sorry that the mistake was made and is glad to make the correction.

HARD SURFACING HIGHWAY.

Jodie Monroe, road commissioner for the 18th district, now has fifty men at work on the highway east of town removing the larger pebbles preparatory to giving the road an asphalt surface. This surfacing will extend the length of the county except at the east and west ends of the highway where there is no gravel. There is a distance of something like 8 miles that will not receive any surfacing unless the county graveis that distance.

FRED WILHELM HOME.

Fred Wilhelm arrived home Wednesday from an extended trip through Europe. Mr. Wilhelm says that it was the greatest treat of his life. He says that he got the Times-Signal in Europe every week, and had the pleasure of showing his friends and relatives over there the cartoon that was run on him in the Times-Signal several weeks ago. Mr. Wilhelm has promised us an account of his trip for next week's issue.

O. S. Leverett was here from Hermleigh Tuesday. Mr. Leverett recently disposed of his holdings at Hermleigh except two farms and says that he is thinking of locating at Abilene.

WHY NOT ENTER COTTON GROWING CONTEST?

The Times-Signal can't see why at least fifty Scurry county cotton farmers should not enter the 5-acre contest this year. Any farmer in Texas, who does not irrigate, is eligible to enter. There will be a total of $3,900 in prizes. The grand prize is $1,000.00; three $500.00 prizes in three districts of the state and second and third prizes of $200 and $100, respectively. Also there will be four prizes totaling $500 for the best crop records kept by contestants.

Why not measure off 5 acres, follow the rules laid down by the Dallas News, and win one of the valuable prizes?

COUNTY AGENT WARRING ON "HOPPERS."

County Agent Jno. F. Carmichael and Prof. R. R. Reppert, an entomologist from College Station, who is said to know all about everything in the category of "bugology" from a "humbug" to a "bug-a-boo," put on a demonstration at Camp Springs Wednesday, showing the farmers of that community how to kill "hoppers."

It is said that Prof. Reppert thoroughly understands the latest and most highly recommended methods of exterminating these pests, and it would be well for our farmers to consult County Agent Carmichael before beginning the work of poisoning their pests, as it will probably save them time and money, saying nothing about the more satisfactory results from experts in this line.

Addison Casstevens returned home this week from a trip over New Mexico. He says that some parts of New Mexico are still dry as the Sahara Desert.

DAYLIGHT SAVING.

The advent of May brought the usual tangle of time throughout the country, "daylight saving" time having gone into effect in various sections. Since there is no uniformity in the change, endless confusion is being caused in many states both east and west of the Mississippi river. In many instances cities and towns within a dozen miles of each other are operating under two different kinds of time, while the railroads running through them generally operate under still another.

Snyder citizens who have at some time or another been the victims of this annual shifting of clock hands will learn with much pleasure that an organization known as the National Daylight Saving Association has been formed to work out some method whereby there will be uniformity in time all over the United States. At present residents of the rural sections are opposed to moving the clock hands up an hour every spring and back an hour every fall. In our larger towns and cities, however, where the residents are employed in factories, stores and offices, the faster time is favored in the summer months since it enables the workers to quit an hour earlier, thus affording them an hour more of daylight in the later afternoon.

At any rate the new organization is going to try to bring order out of chaos, though it realizes that it has a hard job ahead. We had uniformity of time during the war, when the entire country was on a daylight saving schedule. But then we were at war. Now that we are living in a time of peace we've more leisure in which to argue over the subject—and the argument bids fair to last a long, long time.

THE JUNIOR LEAGUE.

The Junior League met at the Methodist church at 3:00 Sunday evening, May 10, and organized a junior missionary society. Our officers were all present but a few and we hope that they are present next Sunday. Next Sunday will meet at 2:00 o'clock. Our program is as following:

NOTES OF HAPPENINGS AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

Furnished by the Faculty and Students of Snyder High School.

The band left the tabernacle Sunday morning at 7:30. We made a few stops of fifteen minutes each at Roby, Anson, Albany and Caddo. Upon arriving in Mineral Wells we drove to a house that we had the use of for a few days. On Monday evening we played over the contest pieces and marched for about 45 minutes. On Tuesday morning we met at the house and marched to the convention hall where we joined in the massed band concert. On Wednesday it was raining. About 12:30 we played over the contest pieces. After that we put on our uniforms and met at the First Baptist church at 2:00 where we won second place in the two-year-old band contest. After the contest we met in front of our headquarters downtown and played a number of pieces. After we had finished we marched to the convention hall and from there to the house. We left Mineral Wells Thursday morning and came back by way of Abilene.—Willford Brown.

NATIONAL ECONOMY FROM THE STANDPOINT OF VISION.

Vision may well be said to be one of the greatest factors to consider in solving the problem of economics. The progress which any country makes may be measured by its most prominent men, their ability to see and act.

A great many years ago when industry began to grow men could not see very far in fact they could see only one road and seemingly everyone was trying to get on that road. There were very few great opportunities far less than there were men who were eager to grasp them. Naturally the stronger would overcome the weaker, thereby crowding them out of employment. Perhaps this was where the first swindling began, if a person did not have the means to supply his wants he would get them one way or another. But during the present age more opportunities are afforded; the truth is that there are more opportunities than there are men now; so naturally the number of swindles would be decreased occasionally. We hear of some professional shrew who is said to be very smart, crooked and clever, but he is not really intelligent. What passes for his smartness, shrewdness and cleverness is merely a measure of the public's stupidity.

We also hear of men who are too honest to succeed. This is not true, for a person may be honest and succeed just as anyone else if he possesses all of the traits which a successful man must possess. We have some few dishonest men who make business a success but they possess qualities which exceed in serviceable value their dishonesty.

What we need in this world is strong, honest and upright men, men who have the mental ability to look into the future. The age in which we live demands the keenest mentality for this problem of national economy requires not the brains of our ordinary men but demands the foresightedness of our best trained thinkers.—James Martin.

"THAT'S ONE ON BILL."

The senior class of the Snyder high school is presenting "That's One on Bill," a three-act comedy drama, Friday evening, May 15, 1925. The play is a screen from start to finish, having a modern flapper in it. Come out and help the seniors as the proceeds go into a fund for a good cause. We will give you your money's worth.

The Synopsis of the Play.
Bill Haily objects to the efforts of his rich Uncle Jimmie to mate him with Mab, a sweet, but quiet girl. The uncle has promised to leave part of his fortune to Bill if he will marry as instructed. If he does not, Uncle Jimmie will give his fortune to Battling Bennie Bazo, on condition that he remains a bachelor.

Bill's sister, Lil, seeks to have her brother marry Mab as her uncle desires and plots to make him tired of his romantic desire for a "movie queen." So Lil gets her school friend, Patricia, to visit her home in the guise of a motion picture star and Pat loses little time in capturing the hearts of all the boys in the neighborhood. Bill so completely loses his head over her that he takes money from his uncle's trunk to make an impression on the "movie queen."

The theft is discovered and Mab pleads guilty to save Bill. Pat saves the situation by a "movie stunt." Bill begins now to appreciate Mab. While pretending to flirt with all the others, and "scaring Battling Bennie out of his wits" Pat confesses her identity to Uncle Jimmie and brings a sudden end to her flirtation by announcing their engagement. The other romances are settled equally satisfactory.

CLASS HISTORY.

It was on a bright September morning in the fall of 1921, when we entered the old West Ward building to begin our eventful high school career. Most of the girls wore their hair in long braids and boys wore short trousers, but despite these childish habits we felt our importance greatly.

After answering many questions and presenting our report cards from the seventh grade we were duly enrolled as freshmen. As there were a hundred of us, we were all seated in a large room and introduced to our future sponsor, Miss Runkles. Miss Runkles was so small that we thought it would be an easy job to put things by her, so we immediately began planning wonderful frolics to make the long days bearable, but alas! Miss Runkles wasn't in the room five minutes until all our dreams lay shattered at our feet, for we soon realized that she meant what she said, and what she said went, so we decided that the safest thing to do was to settle down to work.

Even though we stood in awe of her we soon learned to love her and our affections have not ceased even unto this day.

Everything was strange and new and we were often homesick for our seventh grade room as we wandered about trying to find the right class room.

After things began to run smoothly we organized our class and chose our motto, colors, etc. We chose the most brilliant students to select for us a motto. Of course some wanted "green but growing," but we rejected that in scorn, and chose the motto, "Build for character and not for fame." In our freshman egotism we felt that our class was worth its weight in gold so we chose for our colors gold and white.

We were learning so much English that we wished to display our ability along this line, so we decided to give a play. The one we chose was entitled, "Not a Man in the House." We presented it one morning at chapel and of course everyone told us we did fine, and as we in our innocence believed everything we were told, our heads were swelled with pride.

At the end of our freshman year we all determined to return in the fall as sophomores and push onward towards our goal, which was "graduation."

The following summer they started building a new high school building, and as it was not completed in the fall we started out as dignified sophomores in the county courthouse. Many freshmen, whose greenness could not be described, came into our midst, and as we remembered our sad experience the year before we looked upon them with pitying eyes.

Our hearts rejoiced when Miss Runkles was given to us as our sponsor. Our motto and colors had proved so satisfactory the year before that we decided to keep them for another year.

After Christmas we entered our new high school building. We were seated in the hall with the juniors, and we gallantly assisted them in all of their fights with the seniors.

As we were over our stage fright by this time we decided to put on another play. This time it was, "The Kingdom of Hearts' Content." The audience drew a sigh of relief when the curtain went down for the last time, but as they all knew "ignorance is bliss," they left us in ignorance of the real effect of the play, and only told us the nice things about it.

As we entered our junior year our hearts were singing for joy, for were we not now nearer our goal than ever before? The seniors were insulted because they had to sit in the hall with us, but of course we felt highly honored to sit with them.

We had our same sponsor, same motto and same colors, so we felt that at least we were starting the year right.

It would take a volume to tell the history of that junior year. The juniors and seniors presented the school with an electric bell and clock system, so we worked hard making our part of the money. We presented a play entitled, "The Fifteenth of January," and used the proceeds to help pay for the electric bell.

It was during our junior year that we realized we could not ride through high school on flowery beds of ease. Many were the sleepless nights we spent struggling with geometry propositions, or trying to follow the wanderings of some Spanish or Latin hero.

And then came the grandest day in all of our young lives so far, the day when we entered as seniors. A casual observer would have hardly recognized this senior class as the freshmen who had entered four years before. How changed in appearance they were! Now instead of long braids of hair, all but two of the senior girls were modern flappers with bobbed hair. The boys were all in long trousers and strutted about with an air of importance.

We were glad when we were given a room to ourselves and rejoiced still more to learn that Miss Runkles was to again be our sponsor. She has now carried us safely through all of our high school life, and we realize that without her faithful guidance our class would not be the class that it is today.

We kept the same motto and colors that we had had all through high school, and we resolved to each and everyone try to live true to our wonderful motto, "Build for character and not for fame."

We entered every field of intellectual and athletic endeavor and won laurels beyond all calculations. We were all proud when eleven of our seniors carried off honors at the interscholastic meet.

Our boys went in for football and came out with many victories, and some defeats, to say nothing of bruises and dislocated joints. Our girls won many laurels in basket-ball and while they were developing their muscles, the rest of us developed our lungs by cheering them.

We decided to put forth our best efforts in an endeavor to buy an athletic field, and present it to the school as a token of our appreciation of what it has done for us.

We again entered dramatics and presented "Mammy's Lil' Wild Rose," using the proceeds for the purchasing of the athletic field.

As the years went by, our numbers kept decreasing until the number to receive their diplomas were thirty-one. Some of our members had moved away, others said, "I have to make a living" and a few of our classmates embarked upon the stormy sea of matrimony.

If you will allow me to change the words of the good Book I will say, "Verily, I say unto you that broad is the gate and wide is the way that leadeth to the high school, and many there are who go in thereat; but straight is the way and narrow is the gate that leadeth to graduation and few there are who pass through it."

For seven years we have eaten of the fruit of knowledge and now we are ready to enter the wide world and make use of our knowledge. Let us not grow weary, but remain steadfast and true to our senior motto, for we must remember, he that remaineth faithful unto the end shall reap his reward.—Margaret Rouse.

THE TEN GREAT DISCOVERIES.

By Ora Lee Christian.

Man came to the thought that the stars were making silent signals to him, that the days grew longer and shorter, and the shadows of hills and rocks stretched further and further, and then receded as seed time approached and passed. It was at this time the calendar was discovered. A class of men, the calendar guardians, the first priest, arose and they made special erections and contrivances, pyramids and obelisks and stone circles and temples for their primitive observations. From these, older and wiser men learned when the seed should be scattered.

The idea of human sacrifice is mixed up with the idea of sowing, so thus agriculture came into existence. It was man's nature that would dispose him to make sacrifices for luck

Good Business vs. Bad Business

"Too Much Credit"

One can hear on every side that there is too much credit. We do not believe that there is too much credit of the right kind. There are many important and necessary industries and businesses in this country that are undeveloped, or handicapped in their operations because of the lack of capital and "borrowed power."

There is entirely too much credit being extended to industries that are making or selling products that are not absolutely necessary to the life of the country. There is too much credit being extended to the individual who does not know the value of a dollar, and especially a borrowed one, and is investing it in commodities that are unnecessary in his life. There are too many organizations and individuals that are willing to loan money for any purpose, with a greater element of risk, but, a higher rate of interest.

THIS SECTION OF THE COUNTRY IS TOO NEW AND UNDEVELOPED FOR THE PROMISCUOUS LENDING OF MONEY FOR ANY PURPOSE AND TO ANY SOURCE.

The Passing of Bachelor's Den.

A few days ago I chanced to step into that which was once the rendezvous of the town council, but after the employment of Elvin Thompson as the chief officer of the water works and fire extinguisher it became Bachelor's Den. It has now passed fro B. Den to Cozy Cottage.

How did it pass! and what wonderful changes have taken place!

Herculeum and Pompeii were buried 'neath the lava from the eruption of Vesuvius and passed away.

Rome, the once proud mistress of the Mediterranean world, was trampled beneath the tread of a mighty army and passed away.

The thirteen colonies once under the tyrannical hand of John Bull, but by the planning orators of Patrick Henry and others were caused to rise up and assert their rights. A bloody war followed. The colonies passed away and became free and independent states.

A mighty struggle took place between the northern and southern states and negro slavery passed away.

Sodom and Gormorrah, the two wicked cities were destroyed by fire. San Francisco was shaken to pieces by an earthquake. Galveston was swept to the ground by a thundering tidal wave. The antediluvian world was washed into eternity by a flood.

The world war was chased out of existence by the American soldier boys. Many other things too numerous to mention have passed away. Some by tread, tread, tread of soldiers with implements of war; some by fire, some by earthquake, some by volcanoes, and some by floods.

Not so with the passing away of Bachelor's Den.

As stated before: I dropped in to what I thought to be the Bachelor's Den to have a talk with the invincible truth teller, Elvin Thompson. But, lo, he was not there. He was out at his post of duty. There was no mud on the floor. No old brogan shoes in this corner, nor old dirty shirt and ducks in that corner. No yesterday's daily paper scattered all over the floor. No rickety chair upon which to sit down and then tumble over and skin your elbows. My! my! What a change. Everything was so clean and tidy. The rubbish had disappeared. A conveniently arranged two-room cottage had taken the place of the Den. It passed without the thunder of a deluge, without the blast of a war trumpet, without the eruption of a volcano, or the shaking of an earthquake. Not a struggle, not a sound.

It passed like the receding of an evening twilight, as the last lingering rays of the setting sun kisses to sleep all innocent nature and seeks its nocturnal resting place behind an occidental horizon.

On the morning of May 3, the sun arose and cast a beam athwart the eastern sky to linger not upon Bachelor's Den but upon Cozy Cottage, for Bachelor Den had faded away before the smile of the beautiful, innocent face of a newly-made bride.

Now Deep Creek ripples more sweetly. The song of the mating springtime warblers blend more sympathously with the loving bride and groom. The sky takes on a deeper azure. Life is more joyful. Your dream of bliss has come to be a reality.

May conjugal affinity never be disrupted. May the joy of one always be the joy of the other. May the trouble of one always be the trouble of the other.

May your friends be many, faithful and true; Your foes, if any, be weak and but few."

Mr. Elvin Thompson and Miss Lavada Craig were united in the holy bonds of matrimony; made one and one by the Rev. Jeff Davis, on the 2nd day of May, 1925.

PRINTING CRIME NEWS.

Newspaper men all over the country have been watching with interest the experiment of a Des Moines paper in keeping all crime news off of its first page and grouping it, under small heads, on an inside page where a reader can either "enjoy" it or leave it alone. Still another paper has decided to try printing crime news only on certain days of the week, and a third big daily is experimenting with the plan of leaving crime news out of its columns altogether.

No reports have been made by any of the papers doing the experimenting, so as yet we cannot state whether or not the readers in those particular sections want to read crime news or prefer to have it either "down" or kept out of the paper. If we had so tpeak for the people of Snyder we would say that they want all of the news that is news in their daily papers regardless of the size of the head or what pages it is on. We are a law-abiding community, and our people are capable of doing their own thinking. An unusual amount of crime news does not mean that we are going to be tempted to join in the procession. It may have an ill effect in other sections—we cannot say. If so, then it is a question for papers in those sections to work out in their own way. Personally, we do not believe in parading in print every misdeed in the community. We prefer to print news that makes people happy, instead of something that makes them sad. We'd rather say something nice than something bad about anyone. And yet the mission of a newspaper is to print the news—and there are a good many instances in which it would not be a newspaper if it didn't do so.

Mr. Huston Cotton and family of Dunn have moved to Joe Drinkard's farm east of town.

Judge Nobles was another Snyder representative at the Mineral Wells convention last week and reports a good time. He says that West Texas is looking mighty prosperous to him. He has been in Scurry county for 16 years, and says that he never saw better prospects at this season of the year than West Texas has right now.

PLAINVIEW NOTES.

We have lost a number of pupils from school because of the recent rains. They had to plant cotton.

We have been playing ball this wet weather and have won every game. We played Camp Springs Thursday winning over them. At last we "poured it on" Snyder high. Saturday evening we got our team together for the first time, with an exception of one player, and went to Snyder for the game. We all met at Wolf Park and the game was on. It was a well played game but luck was with us. The scores were 11 and 3. Batteries for Plainview, Smith, Davis and Hill. Snyder, Cotton, Curry and Joyce.

Cleber Smith, Paul Jones and Misses Lola Perser and Lunda Peden attended a Mothers' Day program at Mt. Zion Sunday.

Ody Smith and "Babe" Perser went to Big Sulphur Sunday.

Russell Peden spent Sunday afternoon with Aaron Sturgeon.

Mr. Mitchell and family spent Sunday at Mt. Zion.

Clarence Moore and Miss Bertha Hauser attended singing at Mr. Zion Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt Watson spent Sunday with parents at Ira.

Miss Opal House spent the weekend with relatives at Ira.

Mayor Earl Horton of Camp Springs was a Plainview visitor Saturday night. He was en route to Snyder but the rain that came up drove him back to Camp.

Quite a few from here were seen at Pleasant Hill Monday night as Mr. Edwards gave the young people a pound supper.

They all report a splendid time but Paris Perser. He was thought dangerously ill for a while but is alright now.—Mutt.

ALTRUIAN CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. KING.

The Altruian Club met with Mrs. Porter King May 8.

After the business meeting it was decided our regular program would be dispensed with and time given to the delegates report.

Mrs. R. H. Curnutte as our delegate to the seventh district meeting of Women's Federated Club which convened at Canyon, gave us a most excellent report on all phases of the Federation.

Mrs. Whitmore followed her report on items of interest to the club, mostly pertaining to the election of the officers ensuing years.

We are proud of the honor of having Mrs. Whitmore as our second vice-president of this district. Mrs. Whitmore won this office through her splendid merits as a club worker and we feel like it is just one more step to the president's office.

The fine arts member was given over to the better homes committee, and Miss Greene, our home economics teacher, gave a splendid talk on Interior Decoration. Mrs. King, assisted by Mrs. Lee Stinson, served a two-course luncheon. Mesdames Chenault, Richardson, Carter and Shannon of Colorado City, and Miss Greene were guests.

Our last meeting of the club year will be with Mrs. W. E. Smith, May 22, at 8:30 p. m.—Reporter.

THE LITTLE TOWN

I think God loves the little towns
That go to bed at night;
The little towns, all hushed and still
Beneath the quiet light
Of far, white stars. I think he loves
The little yards fenced in
With picket rows, where flowers nod
In sleep themselves; the thin,
Sweet, drowsy sounds of birds at rest.
The yellow lamps that glow
Through windows in the little towns,
Where ruffled curtains blow
Across their paths. I think he loves
The old in those still places
Who put away their toil at eve
And sleep with tranquil faces
Until the morn. . . Here it is day
At night, the white lights glare
Down in the passing faces. All
Along the thoroughfare
Is life and noise. There is no sleep;
Young eyes are hard and bright.
. . . I think God loves the little towns
That go to bed at night.
Thus Irene Mary Davidson of Wichita Falls, Tex., one of the singers represented in "Voices of the Southwest," an anthology edited by Hilton R. Greer.

City Garden Work.

The local campaigns for the cleaning and beautifying of cities and the promoting of gardening were reinforced by the "national garden week." This is a worthwhile work, and Indianapolis should realize with some pride that it was one of the first cities to take it up. It began with the cultivation of vacant lots by people who were glad thus to eke out their living. The man who introduced the idea was Mayor Pingree, of Detroit, who, in the hard times of the latter nineties, obtained the use of lots over the city. The papers at first saw only the absurd side of it, and poked fun at the mayor by calling him Potato Pingree, but since then thousands have had reason to bless the man who started the plan.—Indianapolis News.

BIG PUNCH SCENE IN "SACK-CLOTH AND SCARLET."

Orville Caldwell, leading man in the Paramount picture, "Sackcloth and Scarlet," which opens next Monday at the Cizy Theatre, changed his opinion of his horsemanship during the making of the rescue scene in the production which was produced by Henry King from the novel by George Gibbs.

The spot selected by Director King for the "rescue" was an uncertain mountainside trail. Caldwell was to gallop at neck-risking speed down the incline, come alongside Dorothy Sebastian's runaway mount on a path none too ample for one horse, and lift her to safety.

A downhill ride on a narrow path—and not much of a path inasmuch as the ground was loose and covered with pbbles would have been bad enough. But to make the rescue made it even more difficult. Caldwell says that even when he practiced stunt riding while he was punching cattle six years ago in Yuba county he never had attempted anything like this.

As a matter of fact, the situation was none too pleasant for Miss Sebastian. However, the scene was filmed, not only once, but three times, and while it proved spectacular none of the participants, including the horses, was scratched.

Miss Sebastian and Caldwell head the cast of the production which features Alice Terry. Others include Otto Matiesen, Kathleen Kirkham, John Miljan, Clarissa Selwynne and Jack Huff.

LETTER FROM HERMLEIGH.

The county has gone wet, and everyone in good spirits, and that was the way the Hermleigh band boys felt and were, at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention, Mineral Wells. The band and good delegation went and camped out in the Tourist Park, a nice place, but had not figured on a big rain. The tents were pitched between two little creeks on a nice level ground. The first and second day we got along o. k. but the third day it rained all day. Most of the boys moved their belongings to the camp house, but a few stayed in the tents the third night, sleeping on cots. They did not know of the water rising, sleeping away while the water was running under them, washing away 2 pair shoes and a suit case with clothes. When they awoke in the morning they dived out, scared but smiling, glad it was not any worse.

The Hermleigh band got 1st prize in the contest for 1st year bands, and the boys say they would go through the experience again, sleeping in water for 1st prize if necessary.

Hermleigh and the county ought to be proud of their bands as it is reported that Snyder band received the 2nd prize in the 2nd year class.

Let's get together and strive to do that again at the next convention at Amarillo for that is what it takes to put Scurry county on the map. Let the work know we are not dead.—A Reporter.

J. W. McCoach, local agent of the Santa Fe, and wife went to Post Sunday afternoon to visit with their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Stallings, and family. Mr. McCoach returned Monday morning but Mrs. McCoach will remain the balance of the week.

D. J. Neimeyer, one of the real boosters of Hermleigh, was in our city Monday visiting with friends and transacting business.

SUMMER SCHOOL STARTS MAY 30.

The Summer School will open for enrollment Saturday, May 30, and will continue 6 weeks with 6 days' work per week.

Classes will be given in any subject, high school or grades, with sufficient enrollment.

We expect to give two 1-hour recitations per day in each subject above 6th grade, and two 45-minute recitations per day in each subject below the 7th grade.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

With the coming of a new pastor the Presbyterians are looking forward to the most progressive year they've ever had. They expect to do big things, both spiritually and financially.

They have just completed a new five-room manse, complete with all modern conveniences.

They are planning to have the church finished in the course of a few months.

All departments of the church already show a marked increase over last year. The Sunday School is one of the best in town—with an increase in attendance every Sunday.

The Missionary Society is one of the best in this Synodical district. It has an active membership of 26 members. The year's report of this society was the best given in to the Presbytery which met at Abilene in the early part of April. They obtained this standard of excellence in their work last year. Only one other society in the Presbytery reached this standard. We are proud of this record and hope to have a better one for the coming year.

The cradle roll department with Mrs. Grantham, superintendent, is doing fine work. We now have about 24 babies enrolled, and have several more to enroll, as soon as the new certificates arrive. If you are a Presbyterian come to church, give the church your help and it will help you.

(Too Late for Last Issue)
 All the farmers here are very busy planting cotton and feed. Most of them will get "stand" as there is enough moisture in the ground to bring up the seed.
 The Stamps Quartet gave a concert here Thursday night. It was well attended and enjoyed by all.
 We are glad to be able to state that Tonnie Hauser's hand, which had blood poison in it, is improving fine and will not have to be amputated as feared last week.
 Friday evening the local baseball team went to Hermligh for a game. It was their first game to play since they got their new uniforms, so they naturally "strutted their stuff" out. They got beat anyway.
 Batteries for Plainview were: Smith, Davis and Hill. Hermligh, unknown.
 Mr. Davis gave the young people a party Saturday night, as they were the first one we have had in some time it was enjoyed very much.
 Jim Shepherd of Pleasant Hill was seriously ill Saturday night. We know, because he wasn't at the party. Aubrey Rhoades was seen at the party.
 Cleber Smith, Lawrence Dever and Paul Jones attended singing at Camp Springs Sunday. They report some excellent singing.
 John Woodard and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jenkins.
 J. L. Moore, E. H. Dever and families spent Sunday with parents at Camp Springs.
 Clarence Moore, Paris Purser and the Misses Cooper of Snyder attended singing at Camp Springs.
 Charlie Dever has returned from Dallas. He says he had a splendid time.
 Jim Hassell and family went to Dripping Springs Sunday. Paris Purser went to Big Sulphur to practice a play he's taking part in. He says it's sure to be a success.—Mutt.

 On Sunday, June 7, Bishop Edwin D. Mouzon of Nashville, Tenn., will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates. On Monday night, June 8, the commencement proper will be held in the Memorial Stadium, where Dr. W. M. W. Splawn will be formerly inaugurated as President, and degrees will be conferred on the graduates.

TOO MANY BUREAUS.

The child labor amendment to the U. S. constitution has been defeated. Only a few state legislatures have voted for ratification, and many of them have rejected it. There is a possibility, but a very small one, that some of the states may recommend it later on. Already this country has too many bureaus at Washington, too much "regulation" and "commission," all of which makes too much taxes. The log-rollers who have nothings better to do than try and create more public offices are becoming decidedly unpopular with the people of this nation. Of course, no right-thinking person wants to see little children toiling in the fields and factories, but that is not the point. The states of this union know what is good for their own citizens, so let them frame their own laws to cover their own conditions. When more of that is done our taxes will be lowered, our laws will be more adaptable to the sections for which they are intended, and the people of the entire nation will be happier and far more prosperous.

GOVERNOR BYRAN COMING.
 Late Vice-Presidential Candidate a Chautauqua Visitor.

The people of Snyder will have an opportunity this summer of meeting and listening to the eloquence of Governor Charles W. Bryan of Nebraska.
 Chautauqua and Bryan seem to be terms that are almost synonymous. The silver-tongued W. J. Bryan has visited most of the Chautauquas in the country. Later Ruth Bryan Owen, W. J.'s daughter, became a feature on the circuit, of which this city is a part. Now we are to have a visit by the Commoner's brother, the late Governor of Nebraska.
 Mr. Bryan is a few years younger than W. J. He is tall, distinguished looking, and very affable and popular among his friends.
 In a state that is closely politically, he was elected governor by a very large majority.
 His long experience in public life and his close acquaintance with many of the outstanding figures of the world add greatly to his attractiveness as a public speaker.
 The people of Snyder and vicinity will be happy indeed, to welcome this distinguished visitor.
 Chautauqua opens May 25.

BURNS OF THE MOUNTAINS

To Tell Thrilling Story of Kentucky Feuds—Noted President of Oneida Institute to Lecture Here.
 It required a valiant and red-blooded man to stem the tide of bloodshed and hatred in the Kentucky Mountain Feuds.
 Such a man was James A. Burns, known everywhere as "Burns of the Mountains."
 The story of the Cemberland Mountain feudists is as thrilling as any written by Sir Walter Scott.
 Down there in the mountains where there were no roads and no schools, there lived a race of people who had remained practically unchanged since the days of Daniel Boone. "They were not poor whites." They had in their veins some of the best blood of the old Scotch Highlanders. They lived there in a state of arrested development, each man a law unto himself, each man fighting for his own rights.
 It is not strange that terrible feuds plunged the country into bloodshed.
 Then came Burns, the son of a hard-shelled Baptist Minister. Burns had been away to school. He felt that these feuds were all wrong.
 The story of how he went about it to bring an end to the feuds and to establish a school known as the Oneida Institute, where the boys and girls of the mountains are educated in the fine things of life instead of in the best way to pump a rifle,—all this is told by Burns, the founder and President of the Oneida Institute, on the afternoon of the second day of the Chautauqua.

WE LIVE AND LEARN.

We'll venture to say there isn't a garden in all this neck of the woods without a few feet of ground planted to potatoes. And yet we read in an old agricultural report that it took people more than 100 years to discover that potatoes were good to eat. In 1728, when an attempt was made to introduce potatoes into Scotland they were denounced on the ground that they were not mentioned in the Bible and, therefore, unfit for Christians to eat, and because they were supposed to cause leprosy and fever. Ask any of the older citizens of Snyder and they can possibly remember when tomatoes were called "love apples," and considered deadly poisonous and fit only to grace the mantel or center-table for ornamental purposes. The same is true of a great many other things we now eat and enjoy, and maybe in the years to come gardens will contain the very articles we now look upon as dangerous. There's a good deal of truth in the old statement that "we live and learn."

 "My wife's health broke down and for years she was just a physical wreck," says Mr. Thomas Glynn, of Gibson, La. "We did everything we know, yet she seemed to get worse and worse. She was so weak till she couldn't stand, and had to be carried like a baby. It looked like nothing would save her that had been done."
CARDUI
 For Female Troubles
 "I began looking around. I knew that Cardui was for women. I decided to try it for her as all else had failed. She couldn't eat, she couldn't sleep, and I was desperate. "After taking a few doses of Cardui, we were so glad to note that she wanted something to eat, and with each bit of nourishment, and each day's doses of Cardui, she grew stronger and got up out of bed. She is now able to cook, and stronger than in a long time."
 Cardui has been in successful use for nearly 50 years in the treatment of many common female troubles.

HERMLEIGH NEWS.

The delegates who accompanied the Hermleigh band to Mineral Wells to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention returned the latter part of last week. They all reported a nice time although they were almost washed away on account of the heavy rains. Hermleigh's band won first place in the one-year-old band contest. We are very proud of this fact and feel that it is a credit to Mr. Claude Henderson, the director.

Mrs. Ross Williams entertained the young people of this community with a party Saturday night. On account of the rain not a very large crowd attended.

The students of the McCauley school presented the play, "The Path Across the Hill" Saturday night. On account of the rain there was not a very large attendance.

The residence occupied by Prof. and Mrs. E. A. Watson was completely destroyed by fire Monday morning about two o'clock. The contents and structure were a complete loss. Mrs. Watson was at the time visiting her daughter in Dallas and Mr. Watson barely escaped with his life. The bed in which he was sleeping being on fire when he was awakened. The structure and contents were covered by insurance. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to Prof. and Mrs. Watson in their loss.

The Ira baseball team came to Hermleigh Monday evening where they played the Hermleigh boys.

Saturday afternoon the Hermleigh baseball team played the McCauley baseball team which was a very interesting game.

Rev. Stewart, the presiding elder of this district preached at the First Methodist church Sunday night, after which quarterly conference was held.

The Hermleigh baseball boys motored over to Westbrook Sunday where they played the Westbrook team.

C. W. Hooper has returned after an extended trip to California.

The Roscoe senior class entertained the Hermleigh school last Tuesday night. The room was artistically decorated in the three class colors. Many interesting games were played after which fruit salad, cake and punch were served. Everyone reported a nice time and we are glad that such a friendly feeling exists between the neighboring schools that enables them to enjoy such social gatherings together.

Miss Polk from Rotan is visiting her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Shad Ragsdale of this place.—Fanny Russell.

PLEASANT HILL.

Had another good rain Saturday night and Sunday night, the largest one we have had.

The cheer' 16 and Busy Bee Clubs will meet at Mrs. Harvey Williamson's Tuesday evening at 2:30. Everyone is invited to come and be with us and make it the best club in Scurry county.

Miss Dottie Hall spent Sunday with Goldie Edwards.

Mr. Hall and family of Plainview spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. William Isbell.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Edwards gave the young folks a pound supper Monday night. All report a good time and plenty good eats.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shepherd and little junior of Colorado visited the former's parents Sunday night and Monday.

No Sunday School Sunday on account of rain, but Maybe we will have a fair Sunday next time, as it is church day and singing also.

Everybody is invited to come to help us out in Sunday School and also singing Sunday afternoon.

News is brief at this writing. Will try and do better next week.—Happy.

OLD-TIMER VISITING DAUGHTER HERE.

Mr. B. F. Boren, an old-timer of Snyder and Scurry county, but for a number of years a resident of Ennis, is here this week visiting his daughter, Miss Gladys Boren, one of our popular teachers. Mr. Boren says that he is having a great time meeting old friends and former associates. The Times-Signal acknowledges a pleasant call from Mr. Boren.

THREE TIMES BETTER THAN PLAIN CALOMEL

Here is a new combination of well known drugs that regulate liver, aid digestion, stimulate kidneys and acts as an intestinal antiseptic.

Actual tests prove that calomel, in connection with pepsin, makes the ideal day-in and day-out laxative, that can be taken at any and all times.

Whenever you need a good laxative, whether for toxemia, torpid liver, biliousness, headaches, constipation, indigestion or colds, go to any drug store and get a package of "pepsinated calomel" and you'll feel fine and fresh next morning. Sold by STINSON DRUG CO.

A VAST DIFFERENCE.

We read of mobs of gunmen intimidating voters at the polls in the recent municipal election in Chicago, and we learn that many citizens of the Windy City undoubtedly stayed at home on election day, fearing to risk appearing where they might be shot. Then we reflect that here in Snyder we can visit the polls, talk with our neighbors, smoke a campaign cigar or two, cast our ballot and go home again without encountering anything more unpleasant than the necessity of shaking hands with numerous candidates who are making last minute rushes to build their political fences. Whoever heard of polling places in this town being dangerous? Whoever heard of our people contending with a lot of disagreeable things that those who live in the great city by Lake Michigan have to contend with? The more we read and the more we see the more we are convinced that it is decidedly more pleasant to live in a small and friendly town.

RAINFALL 4.05 INCHES.

Rainfall at Snyder since the rains began has amounted to 4.05 inches, as follows:

April 22	1.45
April 23	1.00
April 28	.30
May 5	.35
May 9	.65
May 10	.30
Total	4.05

In some parts of the county the rainfall was much heavier than at Snyder. In fact, it seems to have been lighter in town than in any other place in the county. Farmers all report a good season, and with a few days of warm, fair weather, most of the land that was prepared before the rain will soon be planted.

BITTEN BY SPIDER.

Mrs. Jeff Davis was bitten by a spider or some other poisonous insect last week. The wound, although painful, is rapidly yielding to treatment, the Times-Signal is glad to state.

at seed time. The fifth and sixth discoveries developed more about the time of Alfred the Great in England, for their life was controlled almost entirely by a priesthood, and this priesthood seemed to concentrate its attention upon two things: The continual elaboration of the calendar of carefully chosen youths and maidens to the garden gods of harvest. The creation of the calendar may be counted as a part of the sixth great discovery, another part of the same sixth great discovery is the appearance of the fermentation as a human device. This was very important for until man knew of fermentation and could raise his dough with yeast, his bread must have been a forbidding slab of baked paste, and very indigestible. The sixth discovery was the greatest in all the revelations in man's fate that have happened since he became man.

The seventh great discovery was the subjugation of water. The savage had very little use for water except to drink it sparingly brought man down to the big rivers; then he ventured to wash, to paddle, and to float. The great river became an easy way of moving things from place to place. Its waters could be used to wet the thirsty soil. Then came the canals and irrigation and washing. Then men began fishing and trading upon the seas.

Now with sculptured calendars, boats and ships an eighth great discovery dawned upon the world and it was writing. This grew by imperceptible degrees. The calendar developed a formal picture writing, and sculpture of a very elaborate sort. It became necessary for men who went to and fro to put their traditional law on record. Picture writing finally became alphabetical. This extended the range of power upon human development.

Printing helped the small cities to grow into kingdoms and empires. It became possible to hold together great masses of men by the written word and to recall them to it when they forgot. The time had come when men could be held together in sympathy and purpose by epics and Bibles, and their thoughts and ideas could be set down and scrutinized and corrected with an exactness that had hitherto been neglected.

With implement, the taboo, fire and speech man became man; with the domestication of animals, agriculture and writing man became civilized and began to spread his community until now it promises to embrace all his speeches.

The ninth great discovery is money or finance. Coins grew out of the use of precious metals used by traders as a compace. The stamping of ingots as a guarantee of weight and quality led to a standardization of coins. The bartering of commodity for commodity gave place to the exchange of commodities for money, which became more and more a mere symbol of a generalized claim upon commodities. This great discovery is still in the process of development. The last great discovery is abolition of insurmountable distance on our planet and the realization that the world is round and complete. The building of bigger ships, the utilization of steam, the iron ship and the railway came crowding to achieve the final defeat of distance, and to bring all the world into relations of policy and possible warfare. The last great discovery of human neranness has culminated very rapidly.
