AND SNYDER SIGNAL

VOLUME XXXIX

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JULY 23, 1925

Number 7

THE TIMES-SIGNAL SIGNALS

A Kansas City man was knocked out of bed the other morning by lightning. It takes that to get some fellows up.

Next to his first baby, nothing makes a Snyder man any prouder than pulling in his first big fish.

If the Japs use the same kind of matches they sent over here they must have a lot of trouble keeping the home fires burning.

The fellows who used to travel about telling fortunes are now going around selling stock in goldless gold mines and oilless oil wells.

There are still a few old-fashioned girls who sit on the floor when they put on their shoes and stockings.

We heard one Snyder man hoping yesterday for everlasting peace. He said we'll have to have it in order to make enough money to pay for the rest war.

Some of us can remember the time when a man always asked a lady's permission before lighting a cigarette. The modern flapper doesn't care what her escort thinks of her—smoking.

Snyder still has a few men who try to impress you that honesty and piety will be getting scarce when people of their age are gone.

Half the world may not know how the other half lives, but the half that doesn't know is working overtime trying to find out.

When prosperity shakes hands too many think the work is all done and signal the picnic train for a ride.

It is because they are cowards, not because they are modest, that most Snyder men don't shed more clothes in summer.

We see where they're using old auto tubes for doormats. They are nice to wipe your feet on when the family has a "blow-out."

Women really are superior. No man could chatter cheerfully while kicking his wife's shins under the table.

We have met Snyder women who will admit they are not handsome, but we never have met one who would admit that she wasn't sensible.

Boys are no worse than they ever were. The only difference is they get by with it now, whereas the old-time boy had to face the music.

The yarn trade is better. This means cotton yarns; fishing yarns are some worse.

Our advice to Snyder boys is to work hard so that when they are old they can have the things that only young people enjoy.

A judge has ruled that a man can't make his girl give back the engagement ring. But the installment man can.

SNYDER GIRL WILL BROADCAST FROM CHICAGO.

Miss Helen Boren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Boren of this city, will broadcast six musical selections from the Chicago Conservatory of Music, July 29. Among the number which Miss Helen will broadcast is "Darwin's Monkey Trot," a musical production by W. R. Faifer and J. D. Boren, two Snyder musicians who are still at Dayton, Tennessee, where the big evolution trial is being held and where they are having great success with their song which is proving a great musical hit.

PAVING RESUMED.

The work of paving Plaid and West Streets was resumed Monday. Both Plaid and West Streets will be paved with brick from Scurry Street to the R. S. & P. railroad, thus adding two more blocks of fine brick paving to the original contract.

JUDGE NOBLE BACK FROM MOUNTAIN.

Judge J. Z. Noble returned Sunday from Fort Davis where he spent two weeks visiting his brother-in-law, C. H. Bird. Mr. Noble says that it was one of the most enjoyable trips of his life, even if he did have a long and tiresome journey reaching his destination. He rode an old, dingy Orient train from Sweetwater to Alpine, and from Fort Stockton to Alpine, a distance of 100 miles he was the only passenger in the car. He says that the conductor got discouraged, disgusted, or something, and went to bed, leaving him in charge of the whole outfit. He says he would have felt like a real railroad magnate, but the conductor went to bed and forgot to light up the car he was in and he couldn't find the water cooler in the dark and almost choked for a drink. He said that the conductor made up for all that when the train reached Alpine. He said that he carried him down the track and let him off at the hotel.

The next morning Mr. Bird drove over from Fort Davis and took him out to his fine mountain home. The judge says that he never saw such an orchard in his life as Mr. Bird has up in those hills. He has 43 acres of fine fruit, consisting of apples, peaches, plums, pears—everything that is to be found in a real orchard. He says that Mr. Bird has one of the most elegant homes he ever visited in, and that it has every convenience. He says that one of the things that struck him was the three dining rooms, and the grub that was set before him each meal. Another thing was the fine senorita that did the cooking. He says that he thought of a Mexican wedding just as soon as he saw her, and that he learned a whole lot about the Mexican language while he was down there that will be useful to him in performing future marriage ceremonies among Mexicans here at home. He says that he feels at least ten years younger by his two week's visit in that high, cool country, and that he believes that a fellow will live longer down there where he can sleep soundly and rest with perfect ease every night during the summer months.

HOBBS CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL.

The $20,000 school building being erected for the Hobbs Consolidated School which is located on the Fisher county line and six miles east of Camp Springs, will be completed in about six weeks preparatory to the opening of school in October.

The structure is two-story; is composed of brick and contains an auditorium, office, seven class rooms and two work rooms for domestic science and manual training; and is modern in its equipment.

The area of the school district is eighty-five square miles. The school site contains fifteen acres; a recently erected teacherage of five rooms; a cistern, windmill, private garage, and a large barn for the four trucks which will be used for the transportation of pupils to and from school, making regular runs and stops twice daily.

The seven trustees composing the board are: E. D. Scott, president; W. P. Martin, secretary; J. T. Williams, Bob Williams, J. F. Aaron, J. M. Benton and Lee McCombs.

A faculty of seven efficient teachers has been elected—Guy Casey, superintendent; Earl Harton, Ennis Jones, Misses Ruby Harris, Jessie May Fox, Corine Hayter and Zella Scott.

Supt. Casey is well and favorably known in Scurry county, he having taught thirteen successful terms in the county schools. He is particularly esteemed by his many friends who rejoice in his merited promotion.

SNYDER DEFEATS POST.

The Snyder Tigers again took Post into camp Sunday afternoon at Wolf Park to the tune of 4-0.

"Lefty" Ragsdale was in fine form and his curve ball was working fine. The Tigers scored twice in the first when Joyce walked, Tinker sacrificed, Hull was out short to first, Coffee singled, scoring Joyce. Post leftfielder dropped McKann's short fly. Coffee going to third and scoring on a passed ball. In the sixth with 2 out McKann and Bradford were on through errors and Woosley hit for three bases.

The Tigers go to Post Sunday for a return game and it is expected to be a hard-fought contest.

The Abilene Game. The Abilene Eagles, said to be the fastest team in the West, were here Tuesday, and, through a succession of errors, bum decisions and interference got away with the game 9-8.

The game was a see-saw contest from the start, brilliant fielding, heavy hitting and costly errors featured the Tiger playing. An argument over a close ball, scoring two men, which an Abilene umpire declared fair, practically won for the Eagles. The grandstand was of the opinion that it was foul. McKann pitched a nice game until hit by a thrown ball and was replaced by Bullock early in the sixth. Tinker with 3, Coffee and Hull with 2 each were the hitting stars for Snyder. Tinker's catch of Wolf's line drive over center, was the best play ever seen on the local diamond. It was a wonderful running one-hand catch that looked good for a homer.

S. O. Nation is at Marlin this week trying to recuperate.

Mrs. Neil Gross left Saturday for Abilene where Mr. Gross has a good position in a drug store.

The soldier boys returned from encampment at Austin Saturday. The boys report a fine time and a great vacation.

W. C. Clagbrook of Cuthbert was here Monday on business. Mr. Clagbrook says that crops out his way look fairly well.

W. T. Echols of Carthage is here visiting his son, T. A. Echols of Dunn. Mr. Echols is very much impressed with Snyder and Scurry county.

J. E. Patterson, cashier of the Hermeleigh bank; Carl Kemp, Howard Appleton and W. T. Thweatt saw the ball game between Snyder and Abilene Tuesday.

V. Z. Perriman, engineer on the T. & P., was here from Baird Saturday and Sunday visiting his brother, L. N. Perriman, one of our substantial former friends.

Clyde Thomas was here from Dunn Saturday. Mr. Thomas says that crops in his part of the county are looking pretty well, and that with a few more showers they ought to make bumper crops.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Crenshaw, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Moore, left Monday for Wichita Falls and Fort Worth. Mr. Crenshaw recently received his license as a registered pharmacist.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Randals removed back from Roscoe Monday, and Dick's smiling face can again be seen at the Higginbotham-Bartlett Company's lumber yard. Dick says he is glad to get back, but he is not a bit gladder to get back than his many friends are to have him return. Mr. and Mrs. Randals are fine young people, belonging to a class that any town would be glad to own as citizens.

GOT THE BIG 'UNS.

Harvey Shuler and Lyman Webb and families returned last week from a fishing trip down on the Llano and San Saba Rivers. Harvey says that he actually got the big 'uns, the largest he caught weighing even 15 pounds. They report a great time, as one would naturally suppose when such whoppers were caught and eaten.

MEETING AT WOODARD'S CHAPEL.

L. H. Beane will begin a protracted meeting at Woodard Chapel, 7 miles northeast of Snyder Saturday night. Brother Beane invites one and all to attend the services.

W. R. Faifer and J. D. Boren, authors, publishers and distributors of "Darwin's Monkey Trot," returned home from Dayton, Tennessee, Thursday at noon. They report a great time at the Scopes trial and en route. They declare that there were men of note from all parts of the civilized world at the trial.

Messrs. Faifer and Boren presented Mr. Darrow and Mr. Bryan each a copy of their song, which was accepted with thanks in each case. The song proved a great hit, and it was only two or three days before men were humming it, girls were singing it and boys whistling it as they went along the street. About 3,000 copies were sold in Dayton, Memphis, Chattanooga, and towns and cities en route.

THURSDAY PROVED BIG DAY IN SNYDER.

(Continued From Last Week) Mayor Fritz R. Smith was master of ceremonies and as usual was highly compatible to the occasion, part of his time being taken up in introducing speakers, delivering addresses and helping Chief Marshal O. P. Thrane in carrying out the program.

The ball game at 4 o'clock between Snyder and Hermeleigh was one of the best of the season. It was hard-fought from start to finish, the final score being 3 to 2 in favor of Snyder. Bullock for Snyder and Hill for Hermeleigh did some real good work in the box. In fact, every member of each team played good ball and before a packed grandstand.

The Cozy Theatre gave two free shows to large audiences. The pictures shown were high-class and were greatly enjoyed.

Owing to circumstances the program for the evening could not be fully carried out. Mayor Smith, however, made a most excellent address, dealing with the importance of community co-operation and of putting away enmity in the building of a town and community. The band rendered some excellent music, and taking the program as a whole, Thursday was indeed a big day for Snyder and Scurry county. The proceeds from the dinner were about $238. There was considerable expense, but after all expenses were paid there was a neat little sum left and which will be used in helping defray the expenses of the members of the boys' and girls' clubs to College Station.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Patterson of Phoenix, Ariz., visited Fritz R. Smith and family and the Dodson families the past week.

The Times-Signal weather-cock declares that it will be warmer this week with probable showers.

MRS. BAZE STICKS NAIL IN FOOT.

Mrs. Tommie Baze had the misfortune to step on a nail one day last week, inflicting a very painful wound. Glad to report, however, that injury is healing nicely.

TOWLE NO. 1 READY TO GO.

Earl Morrison, who recently sold his Adams No. 1, in Mitchell county to the Magnolia Company, is now giving his time to his Towle No. 1, near the Canyon schoolhouse about 11 miles southwest of Snyder. The rig is up, boiler installed and the tools are being put on the ground. In fact, everything is about ready to go. It is thought that drilling will begin sometime about the first of the coming week. The Times-Signal will keep its readers informed as to developments of this well.

J. L. Suits and family of Lorenzo spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Suits' parents, Uncle Tommie Baze and wife. Mr. Suits is owner of the Lorenzo Tribune and is doing well. Lorenzo is growing fast and has a bunch of live business men who appreciate the excellent local paper Mr. Suits is putting out each week. Lorenzo is a thriving little city of about 1,200 in Crosby county.

W. M. Curry and family were here from Crosbyton Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives and greeting old friends. Mr. Curry for a number of years was associated with Roder Bell in publishing the Snyder Signal. Mr. Curry now owns the Crosbyton Review and is doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith were here from Slaton Saturday and Sunday. Albert has only recently been released from the United States Navy and is now associated with his father, Ben F. Smith, in publishing the Slaton Times. Albert says that despite the dry, dull times, their business is holding up pretty well.

J. H. Henderson and son, Dick and wife left Sunday for an outing and fishing trip down in the San Antonio and Corpus Christi localities.

LICE LEAVING COTTON.

N. R. Greer, who lives ten miles west of town, called at the Times-Signal office Monday. He informed the editor that lice which have threatened destruction of cotton in his community, had about all disappeared. He said that while cotton on land that has been well worked was not hurting yet, a good rain would be greatly beneficial.

RUNS SPIKE IN FOOT.

During the festivities given by the employes of the Snyder Utilities to their employers last Friday evening, Mr. Carl Yoder had the misfortune to run a 16-penny spike into the hollow of his foot. The spike was lying on the ground, but Mr. Yoder, while running, kicked it, and in some manner it penetrated his shoe and far into his foot so far that it required a pair of pliers to pull it out. The wound was immediately dressed, and although still painful, Mr. Yoder is able to hobble about.

DUNN.

(Too Late for Last Week.)
The home demonstration club met with Mrs. Ed Anderson Tuesday for the purpose of preparing good eats for "the rainy days."
We were very unlucky in securing cans and only 55 cans were obtainable. There was a number of cans full already prepared to be canned that was taken back home.
A fine dinner was served at the noon hour, and enjoyed by all.
There were about 70 present. We are very glad to see so many taking part in this good work, as we feel sure it will enable us to be better wives and make better homes.
In the afternoon the club was called to order by the president. Old business was discussed and new business was taken up. We received ten new member. The club adjourned about 6 o'clock.

We certainly do appreciate the strenuous effort of Miss Roten in behalf of our community and we hope to have her to be with us regularly.

GO THOU AND DO LIKEWISE.

Once a farmer had 1800 bushels of wheat, which he had sold, not to one grain merchant, but to 1800 different dealers, a bushel to each. A few of them paid cash, but far the greater number said they would pay later. A few months passed and the man's bank account ran low. "How is this," he said, "my 1800 bushels of grain should have kept me until another crop is raised, but I have parted with the grain and instead I have a vast number of accounts so small and scattered that I cannot get around and collect fast enough."

So he posted a public notice and asked all who owned him to come and pay quickly. But few came. The rest said: "Mine is only a small matter, and I will pay you some other day." Though each account was very small, when all were put together it meant a goodly sum to one man, and enough to enable him to pay his own bills and meet his needs. Things went on thus. The man got to feeling so badly that he fell out of bed and awoke. Running to his granary he found the 1800 bushels of wheat still there.

And the moral is this: The next day he went to the publisher of his home-town paper and said: "Here, sir, is pay for your paper, and when next year's subscription is due you can count on me to pay you promptly. I stood in the position of an editor last night, and I know how it feels to have his earnestly-earned money scattered all over the country in small amounts."

Mesdames Walter Roy and Douglas Morrell of Post City are guests of Mrs. O. P. Thrane of this city.

FLUVANNA NEWS.

Sanitation.

We take it for granted that every one knows about the importance of cleanliness and its relation to the state of health in the home or community. Nevertheless, it is a lamentable fact that many of us are very negligent about keeping everything and place about our homes and places of business, scrupulously clean—really sanitary, and yet it often happens that our health, and sometimes life, is actually depending on this very thing. Some deadly diseases are commonly conveyed to individuals by means of contaminated food (over which flies have been allowed to walk), bad drinking water, by the wind, and especially by the common fly. He is one of our worst enemies. He is a filthy and filthy-loving creature. Just now he may be creeping over and feasting upon some foul, stinking carcass (even if it be a small one) or a mass of putrid refuse in the back yard or lots. In a little while he may be dabbing in your face, falling in your drinking water, or promenading over your victuals, leaving deadly germs here and there for us to take into our stomachs. In a few days we are seriously ill and wonder why. After a few weeks—after much suffering, anxiety and expense—we may get well. Otherwise a funeral must be arranged. The family has lost a loved one—possibly the bread-winner or the queen of the home, and the community and the State has lost a citizen. What a pity! In many, many cases all of this could be avoided simply by keeping the entire premises clean—giving especial attention to toilets, burning the refuse, screening and liming the place; in fact, being vigilant in disposing of all manner of filth. A toilet that is really offensive to visit is unfit to exist. Several such toilets are a menace to the community. The fly is a hairy rascal (if you doubt this just put one under a magnifying glass and see), hence it is quite easy and natural for him to convey germs.

Furthermore, accumulations of filth become a breeding place for both germs and flies. Surely it is better to be clean than to be sick.

Our county health officer is insisting on these things being looked after. Likewise, our local assistant health officer is urging that Fluvanna clean up thoroughly and stay cleaned up. Certainly we should be as much interested in our own welfare as the official is.

In this connection we again call attention to what was stated in our article last week, about the peril of tank-bathing.

Sickness.

Uncle Johnnie Gleghorn is still seriously ill.

Hayley Haynes is still quite sick, but apparently improving.

Following a severe case of colic last week Murdock Jones received the kick of a mule on his leg, which came near breaking the bone. The result is that Mert gets out of work for a few days while he goes about on crutches.

E. V. Boynton is afflicted in his feet to the extent that he is unable to attend to business.

Weather and Crops.

Our crops in that part of our territory which has been most favored with rains are doing very well, while the less favored sections are suffering severely.

Mrs. J. W. Squyres, our near neighbor, showed us some "yard peas" the other day which she has grown in her irrigated garden. Some of these pods measured as much as 19 inches, and 20 of them weighed a pound.

Our self-registering thermometer exposed on our north porch last Sunday succeeded in registering 117 degrees of temperature. This was a duplicate of conditions registered by the same instrument, on the same night, June 15, 1924, and the only times this weatherman has ever observed such high temperatures. Still we are not up with Needles, Calif., which reported 125 degrees a few days ago.

Business.

Mr. Oliver Wills is shipping a car of cattle to Fort Worth markets this week.

Jim Holdridge of Snyder is now in charge of the Higginbotham-Bartlett lumber business here, while our familiar timber-dealer, Jake Ross, as we understand, has been transferred to Snyder.

Visiting.

Mrs. Arnett and son, Edward, of Big Spring spent the week-end with the H. H. Haynes family. Mrs. Arnett is a sister to Mr. Haynes.

Lee Spindle, an old-time citizen of this community, but who has been away from us several years, was shaking hands with old friends here this week. Mr. Spindle now resides in Ranger.

Misses Rosa Lee Clark and Girlie Dayne of Snyder were visiting the Boynton family here last Monday.

G. F. Glover and family of Wingate spent the week-end here visiting his father, Uncle Bud Glover, Mrs. H. Lanham and other relatives.

Messrs. Dennis and Bill Cox of Jonesboro, came in Monday for a visit with their aunt, Mrs. L. F. Beaver and family.

Pope Strayhorn and daughter, Miss Eva, of Snyder were in Fluvanna last Monday. Miss Eva is looking out for a music class. We wish her success, for she is both worthy and capable. These old friends of the writer made a pleasant call at his home while in our midst.

Mrs. Burt Herring and son of Waco are visiting Mrs. Herring's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson and other relatives.

J. M. Hunnicutt, wife and daughter, Lela, are spending some two weeks visiting relatives and friends in Dallas and Dallas county.

Vernon Collins, having his crop laid by, has gone for an extended visit with home-folks at Byers, Texas.

J. T. Sturdivant and family spent last week with his father at Hermitage.

Mrs. Sam Beaver and children recently returned from a visit with relatives in other parts.

Messrs. J. J. Belew, W. P. Sims and their families are off for an extended trip to the southward. There is no telling what they may get into.

A Correction.—Through mistake last week, we reported that Mrs. Jenkins of Abilene was visiting the John Truss family. We should have said visiting Mrs. Jeff Trice. We beg pardon.

"Nowadays, Successful Men Dress the Part!"

The quotation is from the address of a well-known industrial leader to a recent convention of business men.

Exceptions come to mind. We all know the artist who never wears a collar, the banker who still clings to his congress gaiters, and the prominent politician distinguished by his vivid vests—respected men, talented, looked up to.

But, chiefly, successful men look the part, and are respected accordingly. The office boy carries in the card of the visitor whose appearance implies success. Women give preference to presentable men. All of us like to be seen with people of "our sort"—a bit of vanity, perhaps, but true. For all practical purposes, "as the world sees us, so are we!" Good clothes, and the right clothes for the right occasion, are a good investment—and so, too, is good pressing. Good clothes can be kept looking good only by continued good pressing.

Knowing this, the discriminating person specifies the cleaning and pressing service of Bantau and Fish.

Strange Things.

Oliver Wills has recently declared to the writer that he will actually be hard at work this week. This announcement may strike his friends as quite a surprise.

L. F. Beaver recently went to — and came back. But he is rather reticent as to where he went, what he saw and heard and what he did. The result is we may never know all the mysteries of this trip.

The linotype man doubtless has corrected many mistakes for this scribe, but I think he got me in bad last week when he mixed up our baby report. The result is it may take a Solomon to determine who the real parents of those kids are. It should be something like this: C. F. Landrum and wife, a five-pound girl, Sid Fulford and wife, a nine-pound boy.—Jas. H. Tate, Correspondent.

CHINA GROVE.

Well, it's still dry down in China. Farmers will finish up work pretty soon if it does not rain.

Not a very large crowd gathered at China Sunday on account of so many people on fishing trips.

Brother Lee Bean of Hermitage preached Sunday at 11 o'clock. No singing in the evening. So many of the singers gone. Joe Hierston and family, Floyd Merket and family, M. S. Allen, Ray Allen, Anton White, Leonard Allen and family are all down on Devil's River fishing.

Billy Price and family and Miss Mary Leek are on a fishing trip this week.

Mrs. Kate Woods is visiting her sister, Mrs. Cara Gee, down south of Loraine.

Ed Guerin of Stanton was visiting his brother, Albert Guerin this week. Mrs. Massey and daughter, Viola, spent Saturday at Mrs. Dean's.

Some of China's people took dinner with the club folks at Snyder, July 16th.

Mr. Dean and family spent Sunday with Mr. Will Shoemaker of near Dunn.

Mrs. Albret Guerin spent this week visiting down near Westbrook.

A revival meeting will begin at the Baptist church at China the 2nd Sunday in August. Our old-time friend, Rev. Green, will help Brother Stalleup. Everybody come.—Happy.

Tom Huffman went to Spring Lake the latter part of last week to take his mother, who will visit her son for a few weeks. Spring Lake is about 40 miles northwest of Littlefield.

MAKE—YOUR—FARM—LOAN

SAVE FOR YOU

Take advantage of the Federal Farm Loan Act passed by Congress in 1916 to provide farm loan money at low rates of interest, and to make systematic payment of a farm loan an easy matter.

33 years is given with privilege to pay after 5 years without notice or bonus. The regular payment of 6 per cent interest and 1 per cent additional kills the entire loan in 33 years. Each year the principal is reduced. Renewal is unnecessary.

Installments are made payable semi-annually so the burden of borrowers will be divided and prevent difficulty in years of short crops and low prices. Arrangements can be made, however, to pay installments annually.

No commissions are charged. Only expense (other than recording and abstracting) is cost of appraising land and examining titles. This expense carries the loan 33 years. Loans of $2,000 to $50,000 are desired. Purchase of stock, residence on land, membership in local association, not required. Borrowers are not responsible for loans made to others.

Before you make final arrangements for your loan let us explain the advantage of the Joint Stock Land Bank plan. Do not let others mislead you. We make no charge for information or assistance.

BUY IT IN SNYDER

If every person bought his requirements from some firm which does business here it would have more to do with the growth and progress of this city than any other one thing.

Do you know that almost everything needed by almost everyone living here is sold by some firm doing business right here in Snyder? How will Snyder ever become the hub of a great trade territory that it has every geographical right to become unless every citizen patronizes home industry?

This is one of a series of home town talks on diversified lines of business which will be published in this paper. Familiarize yourselves with the industries, find out what they sell, learn who operate them. Think and talk Snyder if you want it to grow. Show that you are for Snyder by purchasing your supplies here. Snyder merchants and business firms can give you values not to be equalled in other cities. Glance over this list of progressive firms which made this campaign telling of Snyder possible.

The employees of the Snyder Utilities Company gave a picnic supper to the owners last Friday at the plant which was attended by practically all of the Snyder Utilities family. Outside of one or two who were ill there was practically a 100 per cent attendance and a most wonderful supper was spread which was participated in by more than 30 people. At present the Snyder Utilities Company has in its employ and directly dependent thereon for a livelihood more than 50 individuals and it is to be regretted that Snyder has not more industries of this kind which provide year round employment with a regular payroll. From a small beginning in 1919 this plant has gradually expanded until today it is the largest independent light and power plant in Western Texas, supplying light and power to Snyder and Hermleigh with nearly 800 customers and furnishing all of Scurry county and several communities outside of the county with ice. Recently at an investment of more than $8,000.00 this enterprising concern has erected an uptown ice station and storage such as is only found in cities of many times the size of Snyder. In addition they operate a ten-car cold storage at the power plant held in readiness for the storage of produce of all kinds and should be an incentive to Snyder merchants to handle vegetables, fruits, etc., in car load lots. To make it possible for home patronage in the truest sense this concern extends their facilities.

CROP CONDITIONS IN TEXAS.

By Jno. F. Carmichael.

Weather conditions during June and July have been unfavorable as a whole. Rains have fallen only in local areas, and high temperatures with hot winds have set crops back. There are very few places within the State which have more than surface moisture. In general, it may be said that the northern half of the State is only in fair condition and the southern half is very poor. Wheat and oats have turned out very poorly; in fact, almost a complete failure. Corn and grain sorghums amount to but little except in scattered and limited localities.

Years of Practical Experience as a result of the long duration of the drought. It is the writer's opinion that feed will be equally as scarce and high in Texas another year as it was in 1918.

More Feed and Stronger Credit.

At present in Scurry county the feed outlook is very bad. There is a great deal of the county which will not make the seed back that they have planted unless we have continued rains throughout August and September.

Feed that has already burned until there is no chance of its maturing should be cut off just above the ground and plowed with sweeps through the entire month of August.

Feterita should be planted in middles not later than August 15, if moisture conditions will permit and the milo cannot be saved.

Every effort in the world ought to be made to produce feed enough to run Scurry county.

Credit another year depends upon the amount of feed a farmer has in his barn. Fill your barns and insure credit.

How to Stop Evaporation of Moisture.

If the soil is allowed to form a crust, or baked, surface it very rapidly loses all its moisture. Cracks open up in the soil and form regular chimneys for the escape of the moisture. This hard crusted top surface is also a good conductor of heat and will carry the sun's heat down to dry up the moisture, where if the surface were loose and pulverized it would form a non-conductor so as to retard the heat of the sun's rays.

In dry weather occasional work in the field will bring to the roots every available drop of moisture, thus nursing them through droughts that would otherwise prove fatal. Keep ploughing your crops every week or not longer than ten days apart no matter whether it rains or not.

ROUND TOP GOSSIP.

Everyone in these parts is catching up with their work on the farm until we have more rain. Crops are Actual tests prove that calomel, in connection with pepsin, makes the ideal day-in and day-out laxative, that can be taken at any and all times.

"It takes a lot of nerve for so small a number of business men as those on North Clairmont Street to buy a page ad in a paper for 16 weeks," remarked a Snyder man a few days ago. It required no nerve at all, brother, but sound business judgment. Those weekly page ads will be read each week by something like five thousand persons in Scurry county. Those North Clairmont Street bunch are live wires and have already begun to bid for the big fall business. They are not waiting till harvest time comes to start sowing, but are sowing now in order to be able to reap this fall. Ask them four months from now whether they got value received for their money spent in this rather unique business campaign.

A Dallas policeman was badly bitten a few days ago while trying to separate two women who were fighting. The officers wounds are serious but physicians don't know whether to treat the officer for blood poisoning or rabies, as the woman who bit the officer refuses to have her head sent to Austin for examination.

A Dallas woman called a doctor of that city a few nights ago, ordering him to come quick, as she was dying. The doctor went in a hurry, but found that she had only had a nightmare. But what's the difference between dying and a nightmare, after all? If our readers ever had a nightmare they know the difference. A dead person can't move, while being able to move is the only thing that keeps a fellow with a nightmare from dying.

ROSCOE FARMERS RECEIVE $50,000.00.

Out of the $64,400.00 coming to the farmers of Nolan county from the Texas Farm Bureau Association, and which arrived at the local banks this week, approximately $50,000 of this amount will be distributed among the farmers of the Roscoe section, said M. F. Lockett, Thursday. The two banks of Roscoe received $33,000 this week and a number of the Farm Bureau members receive their check direct from the Association. This little news item is very significant. It proves that Roscoe is not only located in the heart of the farming section of Nolan county, but that the majority of the Farm Bureau members are in this territory. $50,000 distributed among the farmers of Roscoe at this time will be not only a big help to them but to every business institution in town. This is a splendid feature of the association in the opinion of the Times.—Roscoe Times.

POULTRY FACTS

CURE BROODINESS IN OPEN YARD IS BEST

As the hatching season is ended the problem of broody hens will be confronting most poultry raisers for the following months.

Numerous methods have been advocated from time to time for handling broody hens. Almost every one in any neighborhood has a pet plan for breaking the hens of this condition, which is guaranteed to work. Many of these are founded on sense and will give results, while a good many are founded on abuse of the hens, which should not be practiced.

One favorite method we used to have on the farm was to dip the hens in a tub filled with water, says a writer in the Michigan Farmer. We kept them under the water just as long as we dared without drowning them. This was supposed to scare the hen so badly that she forgot about wanting to set. Sometimes it worked and sometimes it didn't. When it didn't, something else had to be tried. The broody trait of hens is not a "notion" but a natural condition in response to natural laws. The longer the hens are tolerated in this condition, the longer it will be before they return to laying and the less the profit realized from the investment.

It is foolish to think that mistreatment and abuse which breaks up the tendency is a wise one. One idea sometimes used was to starve the hens when they became broody in order to break them up and get them back to laying. We now know that this was the exact opposite to what we should have done in order to encourage early laying. What is advisable is to feed the hens liberally on a good egg ration which would within a few days have induced the hens to lay. Once laying is resumed the broody trait will disappear.

The open-yard method of breaking up broody hens is one of the most humane treatments we can give the fowls and is also most productive of results. The method is simple. A small area is fenced off in a grassy and shady corner in which a box is placed for protection in bad weather. The hens are turned loose in this yard and plenty of fresh water and feed is given, and as a rule the broodiness ceases in a short time.

Slatted and wire mesh coops indoors or out work fairly well when the bird is caught in time, but in warm weather do not give satisfaction. According to my judgment, the best method for curing broodiness is the open yard. There is less expense, work and trouble involved in this plan than in any other tried. It breaks up the birds more quickly and thus gets them back into the laying class with a minimum loss of time.

Prevent Limberneck by Removal of Carcasses

If poultrymen would spend a little time in looking over their range during the summer months to keep it free from dead carcasses they would undoubtedly prevent a great many outbreaks of so-called "limberneck," or botulism, in poultry.

This is the advice of Dr. F. R. Beaudette, poultry pathologist of the New Jersey agricultural experiment station, who says:

"At this time of the year decomposition takes place quite rapidly. Flies are attracted to carcasses and there lay the eggs which later hatch forth maggots. If these maggots are eaten by a fowl an outbreak of botulism is very apt to occur. The outstanding symptom is the limberneck, and generally the affected bird shows a bright red comb. The temperature of such a bird is usually always subnormal. This is of considerable importance in making a diagnosis. The disease is not spread from one fowl to another, and therefore can easily be controlled by eliminating the source of poisoning. It is still a question whether the maggots themselves are responsible or whether the poisoning is due to the botulinus toxin which the maggot mechanically carries.

"Ranges which are overrun with weeds or with anything that would obscure a dead carcass are more dangerous than a range relatively free from tall vegetation; hence, it is a good practice to keep weeds mowed during the summer months. Of course there is no danger of botulism in flocks that are confined to runs.

"The disease cannot be cured after marked symptoms have made their appearance, though mild cases will often make a spontaneous recovery. Epsom salts in the usual dose aids in early cases. Confinement in a cool dark place seems to give good results."

Green Feed for Fowls

If possible, rest the poultry yards for a month and grow a green crop to purify the soil. A certain amount of green food is essential to the health of the poultry. When in addition to the food value, we can have the service of purifying the soil, it is thrifty to sow oats, or wheat, or rye in the poultry yard. Even when the yards cannot be spared, and the chickens must have their usual run, by heavy seeding there will be growth enough to benefit the soil.

ROAD BUILDING

HIGHWAY SAFETY IS OF BIG IMPORTANCE

The bureau of public roads believes that consideration of highway safety is of the greatest importance in view of the great increase in highway traffic and highway accidents. A careful study of existing conditions has led to the following statements of basic principles:

1. The development of safe roads by elimination of all known dangers in so far as such elimination is possible within physical and economic limitations.
2. Warning of uneliminated dangers by means of easily recognized signs and other devices of standardized form, uniformly placed with respect to the danger.
3. The development of safe vehicles by perfection of running parts and adoption of safety devices.
4. Diligence and care in the licensing of drivers of motor vehicles to eliminate the incompetent, careless and irresponsible driver.
5. The development of simple, uniform, and effectual traffic regulations and the education of the whole public to a complete acquaintance with them.
6. The rigid enforcement of traffic regulations.

There is little doubt that a solution of the problem worked out on the basis of these principles would have the effect of reducing the dangers of the open road to a minimum.

Increased Traffic Calls for Wider Paved Roads

A catechism for highway users: Paved roads are necessary to carry present-day traffic.

When roads are paved they increase the traffic over them; road users naturally forsake dirt roads for the paved highways.

Wider roads are absolutely necessary to accommodate this increased traffic; what may have been a sufficient width in the case of the dirt road promptly becomes inadequate when the pavement brings a steady stream of motor vehicles.

The greater speeds possible on paved highways make wider roads necessary for safety; rapid traffic on a narrow, congested road is certain to increase the number of accidents, resulting in a great loss of life and property.

Evidence of the truth of these statements is found in the fact that many paved roads are now being widened, even though it was thought at the time they were built that they would be adequate for many years. Road statisticians often have found that almost as soon as the concrete on a road is ready for traffic, the number of vehicles on the road has jumped far beyond expectations, and widening of the road has been necessary in a short time to prevent dangerous congestion.

Build Future Highways to Take Care of Traffic

"It is natural that the change in highways has not been able to keep pace with the swift change in the character of the traffic, but it is important that road developments now be carried forward rapidly to meet present and future traffic conditions," says an official of a big automobile concern.

"Highways must be built to meet the new conditions of automobile traffic just as railroads have been built to meet the conditions of fast rail traffic.

"One-way thoroughfares with roadways kept clear and view unobstructed, will go a long way to solve the present day problem of combining speed and safety. Elimination of blind curves, grade crossings and unguarded crossroads, also the clearing of roadways of pedestrians and parked or stalled cars, must ultimately come."

Police Commissioner Is Opposed to "Jay Walking"

Police Commissioner Enright of New York city declared that if the authority to regulate pedestrians as well as vehicular traffic is obtained by the police department he will order the arrest and fining of "jay-walkers." He proposes to have pedestrians cross streets at intersections only and at the direction of traffic officers.

In Baltimore Police Commissioner Galthier defends so-called "jay-walking." He says that crossing thoroughfares in the middle of the block has the advantage for the pedestrian in that he must only look two ways for traffic, whereas if he crosses at intersections he must watch for vehicles coming from four directions. Commissioner Galthier also declares that when all pedestrians cross at intersections it creates an unnecessary congestion of foot traffic.

Highways in Holy Land

Motor traffic, insignificant in Palestine before the war, is today more developed than in most European countries, due to the system of excellent roads constructed by the British government and the Palestine foundation fund, according to a report from Jerusalem made public by Samuel Untermyer, president of the fund. Thirty-two motor car and motor bus lines are now operating between the various towns and villages of the Holy Land.

PICKED UP ABOUT TOWN

Judge Hamilton says the greatest objection some women have to married life is it takes too long to become a widow.

Maine wants to claim whatever land McMillen finds at the north pole. We suppose she would use it as she does most of that she already has—as abandoned farms.

"You can't blame a bachelor for getting cold feet on marriage," says Ed Darby, "when he sees how hot some women make it for their husbands."

There is one truth that has never been shaken, and that is that there is no dull season for the steady advertiser.

"It might also be better for the world," reflects Dr. Whitmore, "if more girls jumped out of automobiles and walked home."

An unusual man these days is one who can tell you how the girls he has passed had their hair fixed.

"The man who thinks his wife does just what he wants her to," observes W. A. Martin, "has at least one more thought coming to him."

THE "JAY WALKER"

Don't make the mistake of thinking that "jay walkers" are confined to the cities alone. And neither is it wise to believe that every time someone is run down and hurt or killed that it was the fault of the man who drove the car. You don't have to go any farther than Snyder to find "jay walkers," people who cross a street or highway without looking carefully in all directions to see that danger is not near, people who cross from one side of the street to the other without using the regular crossing, or who change their mind and start back when they've reached the middle of the street. All of these are "jay walkers" of the worst type, and are to be found here the same as in the large city. The only difference is there are more of them in the city because there are more people there. But that doesn't mean that death beneath the wheels of an auto is any more pleasant one place than it is another. Watch your step!

DON'T STOP FOR ANYTHING AUTO DRIVER WARNED.

CLEBURNE, Texas.—"Don't stop for anything unless you are compelled to do so."

This is the advice which Night Officers Carroll and Ferguson offer to motorists.

Monday night while Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Jones were motoring on the Godley road, they saw what appeared to be a new casing in the middle of the road. Jones' first impulse was to stop and investigate. He slowed down the car, when two men hidden in the high grass, arose and started towards the car. Mrs. Jones screamed "Hijackers" and as she did so Jones picked up the car. They came on to the city and reported to Officers Carroll and Ferguson, who investigated.

HITS NAIL ON HEAD.

It isn't fair to imagine that all editors of big city papers do not know what they are talking about when they comment on conditions in our small towns. The editor of the New York Evening Post proves his wisdom of small towns and their people when he writes the following words, recently printed in the big New York paper:

"The small town does not live by the mere sufferance of the city. Nor does it run to the city for every good thing to eat, to hear, to wear. It is aware of books and abreast of fashions. It has churches served by ministers who are compensated by the devotion of a flock for their relatively modest income. Moreover, that income is not always small when weighed in the balance with the cost of city life. One of the peculiar satisfactions to the small town dweller is the neighborhood consciousness—the knowledge that next-door neighbors and those beyond next-door will eagerly mobilize to help in time of need. The little town offers its own abundant compensations, best known to its own citizens."

ANY RECORDS HERE?

Arthur Stedman of New York recently came forward in the newspapers to declare that he has worn the same collar button 50 years, or longer than any other man ever possessed one. And he has started something. Now comes J. B. Williams, of Maryland, to state that he hasn't lost his collar button for 54 years, and that record appears to stand. At least we haven't seen it disputed in the "collar button contests" now being held in hundreds of papers throughout the country. We've lost so many that keeping one a year would be a record for us, but it may be that someone in Snyder has learned far better than we have the art of hanging onto them, keeping them from rolling away to an obscure place just at an inopportune moment. Therefore, we are calling attention to the "collar button contest" in the hope that possibly someone around here can gain nationwide fame by displaying a collar button that has seen more than 54 years of service.

The real charm of touring lies in leaving the main-travelled highways and exploring the thousands of alluring side-paths. These dirt roads and trails lead to spots of rare beauty unvisited by the throng—where better camp-sites may be found—finer fishing and lovelier scenery.

In a Ford car, you can enjoy the thrill of exploration and discovery. It is the one satisfactory means of travel for these narrow roads—light—yet so powerful that it will bring you through—easy to handle—sturdy and economical.

It will carry the whole family and the saving in cost often pays for the entire vacation.

OF THE

Growth of CLAIREMONT STREET

This is the first of a series of sixteen ads that the enterprising business men located on Clairemont Street are going to run and tell the people of Scurry county the advantages to be had by trading with the merchants of this fast growing street.

On the left is a picture taken of Clairemont Street in the summer of 1892. The camera was set about where the northwest corner of the courtyard is now located. The ox teams shown belonged to J. V. Riley, H. A. Green and James Cruickshanks. They are shown loaded with heavy bridge timbers that were hauled to Ennis Creek. Mr. Riley stated that he had been out for as long as 12 days at a time with his team and make $40.00 on the trip. The old house shown in the picture was that of Judge H. B. Patterson and stood approximately where the Snyder National Bank is now located. The house farthest north was that of (unable to learn) and occupied the space now used by the Woodrow Hotel. The portion of the building that is seen on the extreme left of the picture is that of a livery stable operated by Jim Ellis. It was located on the site that is now occupied by the First State Bank and Trust Co., and a portion of the Higginbotham Bros. & Co. buildings. There are many of the old-timers here that will recognize the scene as it is only during the past few years that this street has made the wonderful growth which has placed it far in front of any other street in Snyder located off the square. The picture on the right is one taken of the same street from about the same location as was the other. This picture was taken about ten days ago and shows Clairemont Street as it looks today. There is not a vacant building on this street and business locations or space is always at a premium. There is no need of going into details as to dates of the different buildings in this recent picture as it is familiar to all of us.

Today there are 17 firms with their business fronting on this street. It is possible to buy any article of merchandise used from these merchants. Represented in this list are groceries, wearing apparel, restaurants, new and second hand furniture, printing, barber shops, filling stations, cleaning and pressing, banking, hotel, feed and flour and automobiles.

Every firm represented in this campaign is composed of men of the highest integrity and who always apply the Golden Rule in the operation of their business. It has been largely through the efforts of the live, wide-awake merchants listed in this ad that has caused the rapid growth of the business these firms enjoy. They solicit your patronage on the strength of dependable merchandise and efficient service. Watch this space for they will have a different story to tell you each time and set forth the many reasons why you should do your TRADING WITH THE CLAIREMONT STREET MERCHANTS.

Odell Head was a member of the Yearling basket ball team last year and did excellent work in dramatics, being a leading character in one of the commencement plays.

FARM MARKETING SALESMANSHIP

Address By Former Lieutenant Governor Lynch Davidson, Delivered Before Houston Salesmanship Club, Houston, Texas.

Show me the man who is a good home provider and, with few exceptions, I will show you a good citizen. It was said by Napoleon, one of the greatest military geniuses of his age that "An army travels on its stomach," meaning of course, that it must be fed and provided for or else it would not travel.

So it is in all walks of life, and that calls for individual economic independence. It calls for man to first provide for his own security, but not selfishly. Individual economic independence creates good citizens, and upon good citizenship government depends for its existence.

If typical of its title, this organization's membership relies upon salesmanship as a means of maintenance. There are many kinds of salesmen: hardware, grocery, dry goods, lumber, steel, oil stock, cigars and cigarettes, pen and paper, peanut and pop-corn vendors, but how frequently do we ever see or hear of a real "farmer salesman." And so I have chosen FARM MARKETING SALESMANSHIP as a theme kindred to this organization and occasion.

No class of people throughout this broad land enjoy less economic independence than the farmer—the biggest business of all businesses—producing annually more new wealth than any other single business. It provides generally speaking, poorer standards of living, less opportunity to enjoy the luxuries of life than any other single industry, and yet is the very heart, soul and backbone of the nation's prosperity.

The farmers' method of production may be unscientific and wasteful, but cost is variable—up or down, by efficient methods on the one hand, or inefficient on the other—to only a small degree. One single item of Texas farm products—cotton—within a period of less than five years, has ranged up and down in price more than 300%. I distinctly recall in one swift fluctuation it dropped from 36¢ per pound at high point down to 11¢ per pound at low point. Make the cost of production what you will, no business on earth can withstand such violent fluctuations and downward deprecations on its income. The law of supply and demand is ever present and active. Its influence may be minimized by coordinated efficient salesmanship. By the same token, speculative raids upon the farmers' income can be averted.

So long as the individual farmer, with sample in his hands, peddles his crops from door to door, his individual economic independence will be destructively violated and ruin wrought to his business—the greatest business of all—the business of farming.

Salesmanship has become a science. In its most modern and advanced form it is a science of co-operation through corporations. The stockholder buys stock in a corporation—banking, manufacturing or otherwise—and immediately becomes a co-operative unit dealing in some particular product and represented by scientific salesmanship. The agricultural producer is the fundamental basis upon which the success of all such enterprise depends and upon whom your success likewise depends. We are so much concerned with establishing our own economic independence that we are apt at some point to exchange success for selfishness and forget the very basis of our prosperity—the farmer.

But economic independence will destroy the basis of all prosperity—the farmer—if we continue to forget. In his own mad fight for a footing in life, the business man neglects to show the farmer's thirsty field with drops of his business experience. Farm marketing salesmanship is the silver lining to the cloud. Farm co-operative marketing organizations are fighting their feeble way to the front. They are a nucleus around which efficient scientific salesmanship may be established for the farmer. He is fundamental to our success and we should contribute to his.

He can succeed by controlling 50% of the flow of his production, and by the same means control the sale of his output. Financing is the first essential to such control. Create control through co-operation in financing and production. Control farm production and sales control of output will follow. Legislation can aid, but not cure the farmers' ills.

Co-operation of the farmer and the business man, whose interests are one and indivisible, will make the farmer salesman a familiar figure in the marts and markets of the world, and bring to the farmer much needed economic independence. The world's welfare lies in being your brother's keeper in this needed evolution in the marketing of the nation's agricultural products.

EXPECTED, AS USUAL

"Yesterday Smith pointed a revolver supposed not to be loaded at Jones and pulled the trigger." "Such things are terrible! What was the result?" "Nothing—it wasn't loaded."

Grandpa's Rating

"That clock is very old—it's a grandfather's clock," she informed him, as she showed him over the house. "That isn't a grandfather's clock; it's a cuckoo clock," he contradicted. "We-e-ell," she hesitated, "you didn't know grandfather like I did."—American Legion Weekly.

GOING HIM ONE BETTER

"Son, I'll let you knock off six strokes from my score and I'll slip you 75 cents. Get me?" "Sure! I'll make it an even dozen for a dollar."

MISS BERTHA WORTHINGTON GIVES FRIENDS CHICKEN FRY.

Miss Bertha Worthington, popular employe at Higginbotham's gave a number of her friends a chicken fry at the home of her parents in Dunn Tuesday evening. Those present from this city were: Collie Fish, Joe Graham, Seth Bertram, Dick Crowell, C. E. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Loy Ramsour, Mrs. Chas Noble, Mrs. Frank Darby, and Misses. Mary McClinton, Lil Jo Wilson, Jamie Martin, Myrtle Martin and Willie Ferne Curry.

Locals

B. L. and J. I. Baze and families returned this week from a fishing trip down on the Pecos River. Jim and family left before the big doings were pulled off—Berne caught a 16-pounder just after Jim had given up in despair and left for home.

Local officers arrested two tramps here this week for breaking into some cars on the Santa Fe track. They broke into three cars but had taken nothing but some canned goods.

Mr. and Mrs. Walla Fish and Miss Winnie Garner left Tuesday for a vacation trip to Los Angeles.

Mrs. J. T. Whitmore and daughter visited in VColorado City this week.

L. D. Sanders made a business trip to Glen Rose the first of the week.

Mrs. A. J. Towle returned Monday from a stay of several days in Dallas. Collie Fish returned last Thursday from a visit with his uncle in Fort Worth.

Little Miss Lavelle Cooper of Abilene is visiting Eula Pearl Ferguson this week.

Rev. A. B Davidson returned Saturday from his vacation trip.

Miss Nellie Cotton leaves Friday for a visit to Vernon.

Miss Frances Thomas of Greenville is visiting Misses Hattie and Gertrude Herm.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hamilton and children spent Sunday visiting relatives at Merkel.

Hiram Roper and wife are in San Benito visiting and looking after business matters.

Misses Joyce Clemmer and Georgia Maggart are guests of Miss Alice Williams this week.

Mr. W. J. Behrens of Abilene, agent for the State Life Insurance Company, spent Wednesday looking after his interests here.

M. A. Adams and family will leave Saturday or Sunday for various places in New Mexico, and will visit Mr. Adams' sister at Hillsboro before returning home.

family and Mrs. Porter King and children left Thursday morning for Altus, Okla., where they were called by the serious illness of their grandfather.

Two young men from Littlefield, but whose names we failed to learn, were seriously injured last Friday night when their car struck the upright portion of a concrete culvert on the highway northwest of town.

Mayor Fritz R. Smith went to Dallas this week to be at the bedside of Orville Dodson, who is in a hospital in that city. The Times-Signal regrets to report that Mr. Dodson is not improving as his many friends here had hoped that he would under the care of a specialist.

W. M. Morrow and family returned Sunday from a big outing trip on the coast. Mr. Morrow is very reticent as to what he saw and did, but declares that he and H. G. Towle, like Barnabas and Paul, thought it best to separate. Accordingly, Mr. Morrow left Mr. Towle at Corpus Christi and came on home. Mr. Towle will explain, perhaps, when he returns.

J. W. Tilley and family of Ellis county are visiting the Boren families and other relatives here. Mrs. Tilley was Miss Ona Boren and will be remembered by many of Snyder's men and women who were boys and girls only a couple of decades ago. Mr. Tilley says that Ellis county, usually the banner cotton county of the State, will not make more than a fourth of a crop unless it rains within the next few days.

Roy Strayhorn, Chas. Noble, Frank Darby and Jim Bridgeman have just returned from a fishing trip near Junction, wherever that is. Jim was the only one that had any luck, for as luck would have it, he ran across some fellow's hook that had a big catfish fastened on it, so the others declare. At any rate, Roy, Frank and Charlie all declare that they had fish one time, and that Jim dug up the fish from somewhere down the creek, but positively refused to go back for his hook and line. Jim might have caught the fish, but his actions, the boys say, were mighty "fishy."
