AND SNYDER SIGNAL

VOLUME XXXIX

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1925

Number 13

THE TIMES-SIGNAL SIGNALS

The trouble with a good many Snyder boys is they insist on doing as father did instead of as father says. The most astonishing thing about a "flapper's" clothes is the length of time it takes her to get into them. Another way to tell whether your wife is doing all of her own cooking is to note the number of tin cans she throws out.

The "good old days" in Snyder were the ones in which molasses came in a barrel and a case of salad dressing would last the groceryman nine years.

"What shall we do with our children?" asks an exchange. We don't know, but we know what dad would have done with his.

New York crooks recently stole $200,000 worth of jewels from one store. It's a good thing both ends of the Brooklyn bridge are fastened down.

It's getting so around Snyder that the biggest problem our people face is where to park and where to jump.

Face cream and powder doesn't look so bad when properly used, but most girls put it on as though they used a putty knife.

After all, a millionaire doesn't have much fun. How is a millionaire going to realize the excitement of holding out a five-spot on his wife on pay-day. The Prince of Wales started on a trip with 21 cooks and 300 trunks. And at that we'll bet he doesn't have as much fun as the Snyder man who starts out with nothing but a flivver, a frying pan and coffee pot.

The best definition of a "Go-getter" is the fellow who runs out of gasoline two miles from a filling station.

Probably by now the ex-Kaiser realizes that the mistake he made was in not fighting the other nations one at the time.

We've noticed that about the only thing that comes to the Snyder man who waits is a good big crop of whiskers.

Nothing disgusts a bride more than to find out that the man she has been posing for isn't any better than she is.

Education pays this day in time, unless you settle down to be a school teacher.

A lot of us around Snyder wish they'd talk less at Washington about reducing next year's taxes and give us back some of that we paid last year.

Had he not become a builder of automobiles Henry Ford would have made a wonderful junk dealer.

FLUVANNA NEWS.

Matters Religious.

The meeting conducted by Rev. Robinson, for the Christian Church, came to a close Sunday night. Weather conditions prevented the holding of several of the scheduled services. Notwithstanding these frustrations, five people united with the church, four of whom were baptized Sunday afternoon. According to announcement made last week, dinner was served at the arbor. A beautiful repast was spread and a large number of people remained on the ground for the feast. This scribe was there, hence, he knows that it was a real feast. Soon after dinner a threatening raincloud was approaching, hence the afternoon services were carried to the Presbyterian church. This service (largely attended) was devoted to a discussion of the evolution question. Rev. Robinson spoke briefly and was followed by Rev. J. D. Boren of Snyder, who told the people of the Dayton trial and the attendant circumstances.

Rev. Charles Leslie, pastor of the First Baptist church, started his meeting Sunday night in the Presbyterian church, while the Christian church was closing their meeting at the arbor. There was a good attendance at both places.

Rev. J. F. McClung of Italy, Texas, is doing the preaching for Bro. Leslie. For those who enjoy lucid, spiritual, gospel preaching, these opening services have been a real treat.

Deaths and Funerals.

On last Friday, at about midnight, Grandfather (Uncle Johnnie) Glegghorn, who has been sick for more than two months, passed on to his reward, leaving two daughters—Mrs. T. K. Jones and Mrs. Newt Surratt, and many other relatives (many of them living here) to mourn their loss.

At about five o'clock Saturday morning the nine-months-old babe of Mr. and Mrs. James Higgins was relieved of its painful illness.

A very unusual, but none the less beautiful thing followed, in the way of a double funeral service, held in the Methodist church, at 3 p. m. The house was crowded to the limit. Two caskets, laden with lovely flowers—one containing the body of the baby boy, the other that of an old man of nearly 82 summers—were placed in the altar-place just in front of the pulpit. Rev. T. A. Dunn of Crosbyton, a Primitive Baptist and former pastor of the Higgins family, preached the baby's funeral. Following this Rev. Robinson, minister of the Christian Church, to which Uncle Johnnie belonged, preached a sermon, referring to both cases. These sermons were followed by a few remarks by the writer, who had known Brother Glegghorn for many years. He also referred to both subjects, touching upon the henceforth happy estate of the two departed spirits. Then the large audience quietly repaired to the cemetery where the two bodies were tenderly committed to their graves—"earth to earth and dust to dust"—where they await the resurrection of the just. We extend hearty sympathy to the relatives of both families.

Rains and Crops.

Last week our "weather station" recorded 1 1-16 inches of rain, making two and thirteen-sixteenths inches for August, and 10 5-8 inches for the year up to September 1. This gives us 1 9-16 inches more rain than we received during the whole of last year. The south portion of our territory has, however, received much more rain than is here recorded. Vegetation of all kinds has responded exuberantly to these refreshing showers. We may yet get grass and rough feed sufficient to winter our stock.

J. R. Will shipped one car of cattle Monday to the Fort Worth market.

Visiting and Personal.

Mrs. L. E. Butts and Miss Cora Freeman of Ponomo, Calif., will be visiting Mrs. John Glover and other relatives and friends this week in Fluvanna.

Mr. N. Emmons and family of Honey Grove, was visiting relatives and friends here last Friday and Saturday.

Sanc Glegghorn and wife and Charlie Weems of O'Donnell were here Saturday and Sunday for the funeral and the Sunday services.

Mr. Dan Cribb and wife, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Hunnicutt, went to the Alexander Sanitarium Tuesday, where it is expected that Mrs. Cribb may undergo a serious operation. We certainly hope that she does well.

Miss Olive Will returned last Saturday from Canyon where she has been in school for some time.

Professor D. A. Snellings was on our streets meeting old friends last Tuesday. The old-timers are always glad to see Dorus (as we are wont to call him) back among us. He was principally reared in this community. He is now a graduate of the State University and a teacher of English in that institution. It may well be said to the everlasting credit of this worthy young man that he is "self-made." Any normal young man might do as well.

Strange Things.

Joe Quince Shelton says his cotton has shed all it had on it except the mortgage. It seems strange that the natural laws would work out a situation so one-sided as this. The only explanation the village preacher has for a situation like this is that a mortgage is not the natural product of the cotton plant; it is a sort of parasite, so to speak; hence, if Joe hung one of these things on his cotton, he, himself, will have to take it off. That's it.

If you would like to understand the wonderful feeling and thrill, resulting from laughing out in church

Mr. and Mrs. P. I. Townsend and two sons, Walter and Horace, returned the past week from a visit at Dallas and Cleburne. Mr. Townsend says that they had a great visit, but that he was glad to get back to old Scurry County, where crops are just a little better as a whole than any he saw while on his trip.

Earl Jenkins and family arrived here a few days ago from Holland, Bell County, and will reside here indefinitely. Mr. Jenkins having accepted a position in his brother Homer's store. Mr. Jenkins was in the drouth region, where some of the farmers actually killed their stock because they had no feed and could borrow no money with which to buy it.

N. B. (Pole) Ross of near Hico was here this week visiting his daughter, Mrs. Sed Harris. Mr. Harris told a Times-Signal reporter that he knew all the old-timers, which probably accounted for his hob-nobbing around with Joe Strayhorn, who was also frank to confess that he knew Mr. Ross back in those good old days when a fellow could stand on the bridge at midnight and see two moons rise over the city when there should have been but one.

(while at the same time trying to subdue levity), we suggest that you see Mrs. Boynton, on Main Street.

Strange as it may seem, this village preacher expects D. V., and the good editor permitting, to explain, in our next article, why we have many churches or denominations. Of course the V. P. does not mean to write a lengthy dissertation on an endless subject, but rather to suggest a thing or two. Watch for it.

A WHALE OF A STORY.

Andy Trevey received a card a few days ago from Mrs. Trevey, who is still visiting in California. Mr. Trevey says that among other great things that Mrs. Trevey is seeing in the "Golden State," was a fish that weighed sixty tons, 120,000 pounds, or in other words, three full car loads.

Mr. Trevey declares that George Northcutt, H. G. Towle, W. M. Morrow and all other Snyder fishermen will now have to take a back seat. But George, H. G. and W. M. all declare that Mrs. Trevey's big fish was probably weighed by the scales on its own back, and they know to their own personal knowledge that such scales often vary in weight, as they are governed largely by a fisherman's imaginative powers. Mr. Trevey says that he would not question Mrs. Trevey's word for anything, he is only wondering what they make home brew out of in California, as he has never got hold of any that magnified so much as the California kind. "No," he said to a Times-Signal man, "I don't doubt but that she saw a fish that actually weighed 60 tons, but I wrote her that it must have been a whale of a big fish."

Mrs. A. A. Pruitt is visiting at Wichita Falls and some other places farther east.

Mr. Charles E. Travis, division sales manager for Victor American Fuel Co., with headquarters in Amarillo was in Snyder this week on business. Mr. Travis is the salesman who was instrumental in placing a train load of labeled coal with W. T. Beze & Son, in Snyder. Mr. Travis says he likes West Texas mighty well and especially Snyder.

E. B. Barnes, formerly of this place but now of Austin, where he holds a good position which the editor knows he is holding competently, is here this week greeting old friends and former cronies. Mr. Barnes lived here for many years and he and his good wife have many friends in Snyder and Scurry County who would be mighty glad to have them return.

A car belonging to M. C. Robinson turned over on the highway west of town Sunday afternoon. It contained several young people, but fortunately none was seriously hurt.

Grady Burditt is visiting in Oklahoma this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Neal Monger and baby returned last Friday from a visit of three weeks in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. The doctor says he never saw such wonderful crops as they have in that part of the country.

PRETTY PARTY GIVEN.

Mrs. W. B. Lee entertained Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock with a pretty party at her home. Vases and bowls of flowers added beauty and fragrance to the decorations of the home and provided a perfect setting for the gathering of the charming guests. Mrs. P. M. Chambers presided at punch bowl. Attractive place cards marked places at tables arranged for forty-two and bridge.

After a series of interesting games a delectable two-course plate luncheon, consisting of chicken salad, potato chips, crackers, pickles, olives, iced tea, apricot freeze and angel food cake was served to Mesdames Lee, Stinson, Tom Winston, Joe Stinson, T. L. Lollar, Ruby Smith, A. J. Towle, Chas. Cooper, O. P. Thrane, Geo. Northcutt, Wm. Wilsford, J. C. Ezell, T. L. McMillan, Earnest Taylor, W. R. Johnson, A. D. Erwin, W. W. Lechner, Jack Harris, P. M. Chambers, R. H. Curnutte, T. E. Jenkins, E. J. Anderson, Hugh Boren and L. O. Smith.

MEETING OF CITY FEDERATION.

The City Federation will meet Saturday, September 5, in the county court room at 4 o'clock. Miss Laura Bell Roten, county home demonstration agent, will be present.

All members are urged to be present, as important business is to be transacted.

President, Mrs. Lee Stinson; vice-president, Mrs. Allen Warren; treasurer, Mrs. Fritz R. Smith; recording secretary, Miss Myrtle Akers; corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. D. English.

HIGGINBOTHAM'S ENLARGING

The Higginbotham Company of this city is building a deck over a large portion of their store in order to give room for the increase in their already large stock. We understand that the deck will be used for the greater part for their stock of furniture.

MRS. BAGWELL IMPROVING.

The Times-Signal is glad to report that Mrs. I. C. Bagwell, who recently underwent a major operation, is improving, and her physician is lending encouragement that she will be able to take up her work in the Snyder school when the school opens. This will be good news to Mrs. Bagwell's friends as well as to all of her pupils.

THE MEETING.

The meetings at the several churches in this city are going like an avalanche. Large crowds are in regular attendance at each service, and great interest is being manifested. And almost full membership is expected to be in attendance by the end of the first week. At any rate, this is as it should be. Every church member in Snyder and community ought to be able to say what David said, "I was glad when they said let us go into the house of the Lord." So, come right on, you Christian soldiers, and let's take the town and the whole community for the Lord.

ALL-DAY SINGING.

There was an all-day singing at Union last Sunday, which was the fifth Sunday. There was a large crowd, a good dinner and some mighty good singing. The next all-day fifth Sunday singing will be held at Dermott. Everybody is invited.

Abe Rodgers and family, formerly residents of Snyder, arrived here this week and will be permanently located here. Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers have many friends in Snyder and Scurry County who will be pleased to learn that they have returned to make their future home.

Mrs. E. H. Winn and Mrs. Wulfjen of Colorado, and Mrs. Willis and children of Tucson, Arizona, and R. H. Shuttles of Dallas are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Towle this week. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Shull were at Jayton Sunday. They were accompanied home by Mrs. McGlofin of Rhome and Miss Dannie Sampson of Clairmont.

E. B. Sikes and children of Bangs visited Mr. Sikes' old friend, J. A. Howell, this week.

Miss Violet Graham spent Tuesday in Snyder en route to Lubbock, where she will give a recital September 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Rogers and children returned Monday from Harlingen and will in the future make their home in Snyder. Mr. Rogers has secured a position with Brandon & Moffice. Their many friends rejoice in their return and wish them much success.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone of Lockney spent the week visiting Miss Lizzie Smith and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harris spent week-end at Lubbock.

Mr. Orville Dodson went to Dallas Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Reynolds returned from Kent where they spent the summer.

Mrs. McLeary and Mrs. McCombs of Jayton are visiting Mrs. McCombs' mother, Mrs. Jack Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Towle have as house guests this week Mesdames Wallace and children of Tucson, Ariz.; Everett Winn of Colorado; J. D. Wulfjen of Colorado.

Prof. and Mrs. I. C. Bagwell returned Saturday from their vacation trip.

The Caviness family, accompanied by Miss Doris Buchanan and Chas. Shell, spent a few days last week in Canyon, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Knighton. Mrs. Knighton was formerly Miss Grace Cavness.

B. R. Buchanan and wife of Altus, Okla., visited last week with his brother, G. C. Buchanan and family, leaving Saturday for a tour of the El Paso-Roswell country.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Cavness and daughter, Clarice Joy Cavness, after a ten-day visit in West Texas, will visit at several points in Central Texas before returning to their home in San Marcos.

WILL DOUBLE COAT HIGHWAY.

The Times-Signal is reliably informed that another coat of crushed rock and asphalt will be laid on the highway. In other words, two layers instead of one will be put on the highway through Scurry County. One coat would have preserved the gravel and made a good road for several months, but those at the head of the road building department decided that it would be a saving in the long run to give it two coats at this time, and there is no doubt but that they were right in their conclusions.

He has since owning the shop moved it from its former location, 2 doors north, to its present location. Mr. Patterson is conducting a clean place, one where any woman may go without fear of being offended in any way. He is ably assisted by the following who all expert barbers and real gentlemen: Earl William, Leamon Williams and Sterling Dozier after the 15th of September. Messrs. Earl and Leamon Williams are well-known to most everyone as they have lived here for a good many years. Mr. Dozier is at present at his home near Little Sulphur on the Snyder-Colorado road and is known by a great number of Snyder people as he was in the barber business at Colorado for a number of years with his brother, Roy Dozier.

Mr. Patterson and his corps of experts receive a regular service from the eastern centers showing the very latest in "bobs" and "shingles" and they are specializing on Ladies' and Children's Work. TWO STATES REPORT ON PROGRESS IN RURAL SCHOOL CONSOLIDATION.

Consolidation of rural schools is making some progress in Kansas, according to a study of the school situation in that State made by the Kansas State Teachers' College at Pittsburg, a copy of which has been received in the Bureau of Education, Department of the Interior. There are now 140 consolidated schools in 55 counties (a little more than half the total number of counties) distributed among practically all sections of the State. Nearly 18,000 children are enrolled in these schools. They ride to and from school in 263 school trucks or motor buses. There remains in Kansas nearly 7,500 one-teacher schools, of which 1,600 have an enrollment of 10 or less. It seems probable that if the children in these 1,600 schools could be taught in buildings of two or more rooms each, a saving of at least half of these teachers' salaries would be possible. Economy and efficiency would thereby result.

A report from the Ohio State Department of Education states that small schools in the open country are being abandoned in that State at a rapid rate. From 1914 to 1924 the total number was reduced from 9,489 to 5,222, or 3,967 in 10 years, an average of 396 schools for each year and more than one for each day. The State of Ohio apparently favors consolidation, since the report states that nearly half of the remaining one-teacher schools can be abandoned and quotes all of the county superintendents in the State to the effect that children advance more rapidly in school work in consolidated or centralized schools.

FEED CROPS FOR DROUTH-STRICKEN SECTIONS OF TEXAS.

By E. A. Miller, Agronomist, Extension Service, A. and M. College of Texas.

The prevailing drouth over a large section of the State makes it very necessary that the farmers prepare to plant supplementary feed crops for livestock through the winter.

Renew Your Health by Purification

Any physician will tell you that "Perfect Purification of the System is Nature's foundation of Perfect Health." Why not rid yourself of chronic ailments that are undermining your vitality? Purify your entire system by taking a thorough course of Calotabs, —once or twice a week for several weeks—and see how Nature rewards you with health.

Calotabs are the greatest of all system purifiers. Get a family package, containing full directions, price 35 cts.; trial package, 10 cts. At any drug store. (Adv.)

The crops best adapted for this purpose are small grains. When small grains are planted for grazing only, they may be planted somewhat earlier than would be advisable if planted for a grain crop. They may be planted in September if the moisture is sufficient, or they may be planted as late as the latter part of November. Small grains may be sown either broadcast and plowed under shallow, or they may be harrowed in with a disc or spike-tooth harrow. They may be sown in the cotton fields and covered with a small one-row harrow, cultivator, or double shovel. They may also be planted with a grain drill or even with a one-row planter.

Over most of the drouth-stricken section of the state, oats and rye will be the chief cover crops, while wheat may be better in some localities such as the northern part of the State. Barley also makes a good grazing crop on any soil where wheat or oats thrive. Wheat and rye do not winter kill as easily as do oats or barley.

Rate of Seeding.

In planting small grain for grazing purposes, about twice the amount should be sown per acre, as when planted for grain production. When planted thick it gives a better sod and consequently it can be grazed sooner after a rain and it furnishes a greater amount of grazing per acre. For grazing purposes, wheat and rye may be sown at the rate of about two bushels per acre, and oats at the rate of four bushels per acre. Barley may be sown at the rate of about three bushels per acre. When planted with a drill, somewhat smaller amounts may be used than when broadcasted.

If it is decided to leave the thickly planted crop for grain production, it may be thinned in the early spring by the use of a plow or harrow, as it will make more grain when it is not too thick.

Grain Sorghums.

In the section of Texas north of an east and west line through Waco, it is too late to advocate the planting of grain sorghum. South of this line, however, grain sorghums still have a fair chance to make when planted up to the 15th of August; while in the extreme southern part of the State they may be planted even later. They require about three and one-half months to mature.

Sorghum and Sudan Grass.

Such hay crops as sorghum and Sudan grass may be planted about two weeks later than the grain sor-ghums and still have a good chance to produce paying hay crops. Sudan grass will be ready to cut in from 6 to 8 weeks if moisture is sufficient, and sorghum in about 10 weeks.

Millet.

Millet, such as German millet is another quick maturing crop requiring only about 45 days before it is ready to cut for hay. It is also fairly drouth-resistant. Millet should be cut for hay right after blooming and should not be allowed to go to seed, especially when it is to be fed to horses or mules. It is best to sow the seed broadcast at the rate of about 30 lbs. per acre.

Rape and Kale.

Rape and kale make good grazing crops during the fall, especially for hogs and they can stand considerable cold weather. They make a good growth on rich land especially with plenty of moisture.

Root Crops.

Root crops such as mangel Wurzel, rutabagas, turnips and even beets and carrots provide a good deal of succulent feed for fall and winter if planted on rich land or on land that has been well manured or fertilized. All of these crops usually do well in the fall and they can stand some freezing weather. However, before very cold weather sets in they should be dug and stored in well ventilated cellars or buried in small heaps in a well drained place. It is best not to feed mangels until they have been stored for a few weeks as they may cause scours when fed fresh. These crops are merely suggestive as emergency crops.

Fall Gardens.

No effort should be spared to have a good fall garden to supply table use and for canning. Over the southern half of the State it is possible to produce a fall potato crop as a source of revenue as well as for home use.

Slates were eliminated from the public school for two reasons, first because they were unsanitary and secondly because of the noise made by their use in the school room. We contend that the paper tablet is just as unsanitary as the slate and more so. The boys did not chew wads and the girls did not "graze" upon them as they do the paper from the present day tablet.

The majority of the paper stock for school tablet series is made up from dirty rags and dirty paper taken from waste cans on the streets of our great American Cities. The water used in its manufacture contains various impurities and minerals, two of which, iron and lead, are traced by discoloration, weak places and transparent spots all through the sheet.

All the finer grades of paper are made in the Berkshire hills of Massachusetts—only one line of school tablet series is made in these mills, it is made of pure wood pulp of the highest grade and from pure spring water, hence a clear, flawless sheet of paper is produced, free from iron rust spots and absolutely clean.

The mill in Massachusetts makes one and only one series of school tablets. It is the only one we know of or have learned of in our twenty years of active business which is not made of waste rags and paper, it is produced at a higher cost to the mill than any line now offered the American school children. This paper mill is owned exclusively by the Rexall stores of the United States. The line they produce is the famous blue Rexall series, the biggest seller on the American market. The ink series, filler paper for instance, is exclusively used in the larger Universities of America.

J. S. & W. M. Morrow own stock in these mills and have the selling franchise on the line for Scurry County through their organization, the Grayum Drug Co. and you have an equal privilege with other school children throughout the United States, to have the best school supplies made at exactly the same price you have always paid for inferior lines, the entire blue back series sell for 5c and the filler paper for 10c.

Nothing but a mint can make money without advertising.

A fresh war has just broken out in China. If those fools down in that country don't quit declaring war some one will get hurt yet.

Had you observed that the fellow who says he doesn't believe in advertising is the one most interested in having the editor keep mum whenever he does a thing he doesn't want the public to know about? Well, it's a fact, whether you have observed it or not.

A large "cure camp" for sick cats has recently been established in England. People today are looking more to the caring of cats, dogs and hogs than they are to the proper rearing of children, and yet some folks are wondering what's the matter with the morals of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Webb of Snyder, accompanied by Mrs. Mattie Trimble and Charlie Ben Shell were here Sunday visiting relatives.—Seminole Sentinel.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Doss and children returned Wednesday from a two weeks' visit with relatives in Weatherford. They were accompanied by their cousin, Miss Ruby Harris of Snyder.—Seminole Sentinel.

Fred Nichol, a wealthy Dayton, Ohio, manufacturer, has turned out to be the "phantom bandit" that held up a bank and robbed it of $28,000. In other words, he represents another class of "gentlemen robbers." He took enough to put him in that class. Had he been a poor man and had stolen a sack of flour to keep his wife and children from starving, doubtless he would have been convicted as a "common thief," and given a jail sentence. But since he robbed an institution of $28,000, it will probably be proved in the courts that he was a kleptomaniac or a moral pervert by nature and be cleared on those polished up proofs. Later, when politicians of the old gang are looking for good political timber for some important office, he is recommended as a great success, and this with a lot of crocodile sympathy on the part of a lot of fools, puts him in office instead of having put him in the penitentiary where he belongs.

Report comes from Austin that the "oyster laws" are to be rigidly enforced. The Times-Signal man is in no danger of violating any of the "oyster laws" of the country. In fact, we are not an oyster hunter. We wouldn't know whether to catch 'em with traps or water spaniels, or whether to buy a diver's outfit and capture them alive with our own hands. In fact, we don't know what an oyster really is, no how. We read of experts who "plant oysters," and we occasionally see where mention is made of "oyster beds," and all that. So, we actually don't know whether an oyster is an animal or a vegetable, except that it is protected by the "game laws" of the State, which naturally lead us to believe that the thing must be some sort of animal. But even at that one couldn't tell with any degree of certainty, since Texas has so many freak laws. There may be one on the statute books for all we know, making it a fine to shoot the "chutes."

A gentleman handed us a letterhead the other day and asked if we could reproduce it and we said certainly. He said for how much for one thousand and we said so much and he said that is less than the Abilene

Printing Co. offered to do it for and we got the job and are grateful. The Chronicle is the only concern in Jayton that we know of that is asked to compete in prices with Abilene, Fort Worth, New York and London and Timbuctoo. We wonder why?—Jayton Chronicle.

You didn't tell half. You might have told that the local paper is the only institution in town that has the Government for a competitor. The Government sells the stamp and practically gives the customer the envelope with the printing thrown in. So could the local printer do the same thing if allowed to charge two cents for a homemade stamp. Now, the thing for the Government to do is to put in a grocery store—a dry goods store, hardware store—every other kind of store in every town or else go out of the printing business in competition with the country printers. If the business men and professional men of the country would quit buying Government envelopes, the Government would soon quit manufacturing and printing them for the trade. If you are using Government printed envelopes you are helping the Government to put the local printer out of business.

MORE GOOD NEWS.

When citizens of Snyder are again called upon next March to file their income tax returns it is more than likely that they will have to pay but one cent on the dollar, instead of 2 per cent as at present. For figures have been given President Coolidge showing that a tax cut of $350,000,000 is now warranted, and he has told congressional leaders that he wants this winter's session to lop off income taxes. It is also proposed to eliminate entirely the tax on theater tickets, club dues and a few other things. But the thing that will help this section most is the income reduction, and taking off another 1 per cent would bring it down to the point where there could be very little room for complaint, since we must raise money to pay for the war. State and county taxes are burdensome, and always will be. So since there appears to be no hope of getting them reduced, let us be thankful for this still further reduction in the taxes assessed by Uncle Sam.

BACK TO BOOKS.

Ask any Snyder boy which of the twelve months in the year he would be willing to eliminate and he will answer "August." And when you ask him why the chances are he will explain that August only brings him around to September—and September brings school.

Yet somehow we can't help feeling that the old dread of school that once hovered over some of us like a nightmare has disappeared. We believe new methods of teaching, new forms of recreation during the leisure moments and, perhaps, more interesting text-books, have all served to make school attendance far more popular and pleasant now than it was in earlier times. There isn't the grind to the "three R's" there was when we were young, and neither does the inclination to "play hookey" appear as strong in the present generation. Teaching children thrift and what it means to be able to take a good position in the world at the close of their school days has had much to do with taking the sting out of school attendance. Examples of success are more numerous than in days when opportunities were not so great. So, all in all, the return of September and school days doesn't mean as much grief among the youth of the land as it once did. And it means still greater things for the world when those now of school age come on to take charge of things.

"HERE TODAY—GONE TOMORROW."

House-to-house canvassing, or front-gate merchandising as some have seen fit to call it, is growing to be a serious problem all over the country, so much so, in fact, that merchants in many sections have found it necessary to co-operate in an effort to stamp it out.

More and more producers of kitchen utensils, toilet preparations, hosiery and other articles of clothing are pushing their wares through itinerant—merchandise solicitors—ordinary peddlers, as we called them before they coined the word "solicitor."

Today it is said by those who have gone carefully into the problem, forty per cent of household furnishing sales in some localities are door-yard trades.

We feel that we cannot insist too strongly or too often upon citizens of Snyder giving this matter serious thought. The out-of-town concern selling by peddler and delivering by parcels post does not protect the customer either in price or quality and his "guarantees" are meaningless. The price argument is not sound, because the agent's commission often exceeds the total mark-up of the local dealer. The out-of-town dealer does not contribute to the taxes of the county or the town. The firm the solicitor represents has never done anything to help build up this community, and to make a sale the solicitor, or peddler, attacks our entire system of home co-operation. If goods are not as represented by him there is no chance of a personal appeal for justice. In other words, he is here today and gone tomorrow. Dismiss the next canvasser with a smile—and tell him that you believe in buying what you need from your friends right here at home.

HOW PHONE GIRL KNOWS WHEN CALL IS ENDED

How is it that a telephone operator knows when a conversation has been finished?

The telephone operator, of course, does not listen in on the conversation. She is too busy setting up other connections to do anything like that, and besides, neither the public nor the telephone company would permit it, except in cases of certain emergency calls, when it is her duty to "follow the call through" so as to see that the policeman, the fire department or the ambulance, as the case may be, is reached as quickly as possible.

The telephone operator is able to keep track of calls by little signal

PICKED UP ABOUT TOWN

Fritz R. Smith says that it isn't safe any more, now that we have so many autos, for a politician to put his ear to the ground.

Money may not bring happiness, but it gives a fellow a wider choice as to what he will worry about. Most of us know that being poor is a terrible inconvenience.

"A reformer," says O. F. Darby "is the fellow who itches to enforce the law, no matter how many laws you have to break to do so."

We read where a movie actress denies that she has had her face rebuilt. She must have only had some refinishing done.

"All things come to those who wait," declares Joe Merritt, and then he adds that a fellow doesn't have to wait long for the brickbats.

In this summer's battle between the porch swing and the auto, it looks like the former lost by a wide margin.

According to W. M. Morrow, "There are magazines printed now to enable you to keep up with everything but your expenses."

FROM A. C. WILMETH.

Editor of Times-Signal.

I attended Tuesday the 25th the funeral of Wiley Ernest Smith, son of E. K. Smith and grandson of J. I. Green of Snyder, Texas. The funeral was under the auspices of the City of Los Angeles, for this native son of Snyder had become an officer of this great city and on last Saturday made the great sacrifice—gave his young life in defense of her citizenship and law.

Briefly it occurred this way: Wiley was traffic officer and directing traffic. Four bandits had held up a bank some six or seven block away, secured $20,000 and was making their getaway in a large touring car. A brave motor policeman was following and had been for several blocks and the bandits were so terribly hemmed that they were shooting at everything that looked like a policeman. As they approached Wiley's station they were running 50 miles per hour. He signalled for them to stop. They began shooting at him. He return the fire, stopped their car and a general battle ensued. They killed one of the bandits outright, wounded another, disabling him so he could not fight and two made their escape. A bandit in the car evidently shot Wiley, as the bullet struck him in the right breast, deflected in the body and lodged under the skin back of his heart. The bullet knocked him to his knees. He immediately arose, continued in the fight calling to his fellow officers to "get them" that "they had got him." He was hurried to the hospital and all that men could do for him was done, but the ball was evidently a soft-nosed thing that spread on striking and tore him up internally and the next day he died.

None of the other policemen were seriously hurt, the motor cop got hit four times but only scratches. All Los Angeles have paid tribute to Wiley's bravery. The city council met in special session and voted him a medal of honor, the second ever awarded, I am informed. The papers have been full of eulogies. The floral offerings were large and very beautiful and his fellow officers attended in a body his funeral and escorted his body to the train, for he is to be buried at Miami, Arizona. It was a very impressive sight—all of the motor policemen on their motorcycles and the chief and captains in cars. No Roman was ever brone to his resting place with a more imposing guard.

While I sorrow for the loss to society of this young officer, but the paths of glory lead but to the grave. I am proud to have known him and that he hailed from Snyder, Texas. That he, like Bryan, made fame and name by being true to duty.

Bend your knee and bow your head,
Let mind keep time to martial tread,
They bare a hero's clay,
Today it may be but a clod,
But once there dwelt with a god,
That soul may pass this way.

Let those who yet hath mortal breath,
Pay homage to that clay in death,
That housed a soul so brave
May what it did in its short life
Make duty easy in all strife,
And glory crown each grave.

GENERAL MOTORS DENIES NEW TYPE AUTO AND FUEL.

DETROIT, Mich.—Reports of the discovery of a new automobile fuel that would revolutionize the motor car industry today were characterized as ridiculous by A. P. Sloane, Jr., president of the General Motors Corp. Mr. Sloane took cognizance of reports published on the strength of a statement reputed to have been made before the annual convention of the American Chemical Society of Los Angeles.

"My attention has been called to recent statements in the public press relative to revolutionary inventions in the way of a type of automobile fuel new and radical.

"These reports are ridiculous on their face for General Motors has recently announced new series of cars which should be a sufficient answer. In addition to this there it absolutely nothing to form even the slightest foundation for such a statement.

HERMLEIGH.

Church News.

The Church of Christ just closed a very successful revival meeting here last Sunday night. There were several additions to the church during this meeting.

A revival meeting has just begun here with the Methodist church. Rev. Scoggins, cousin to Bro. J. A. Scoggins, present pastor here, is conducting the services. Let us hope and pray for a most successful outcome of the services.

Bro. Foster of Loraine, will lecture at the Central Baptist church on Monday night following the first Sunday of next month. Bro. Foster is the newly elected pastor of this church, but has not yet accepted the place, so let everyone come and bring a friend to welcome Bro. Foster.

Business.

(To late for last week.) The stock of the south side store of the Hermleigh Drug Co., a branch of the Sweetwater Drug Co., has been removed to the other store in this place, and the fixtures removed to Sweetwater, where there will be another store opened next door to the Cozy Cafe.

Mr. D. W. Louder has removed his place of business across the street in the old Smith's Cafe building, where he has opened a first-class cafe.

Personals.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Ward have returned from an extended visit in East Texas. Dr. Ward brings the report that crops in Scurry County are as good as any he saw while on his trip, and a great deal better than the majority he saw. He is all smiles now because of the present conditions of crops around here.

Mrs. Wilsie Gable and daughter, Alma Bralley, are here from Wichita Falls, visiting her son, J. M. Bralley, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. W. Harlin.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Whaley moved to Sweetwater last Tuesday and Mr. Whaley will be connected with the Sweetwater Drug Co. there. Mr. Whaley has been in the drug business here for the past two years, and there are many friends here who regret his leaving. Mrs. Whaley's many friends here regret, indeed, to see her go.

Dr. and Mrs. Brock, old time residents of Hermleigh and their daughter, Mrs. Walter Bell, nee Bernice, were here last week visiting relatives and old friends and acquaintances. They left for Fort Worth Saturday.

Mrs. Luther Fargason, who has been seriously ill for quite a while, is considerably improved at present and is able to be up out of bed.

The firm of King & Brown was formed by Porter King and Earl Brown in the latter part of 1921 and purchased the building, business and Dodge Agency from Guy Paxton. We have continued this business at the same location and today we are one of the largest automobile and Accessory Dealers in the County. We handle the Dodge Brothers cars and the Graham Brothers Trucks. One of the trucks is in operation by the Model Farm Producers of Snyder and is used by them to haul Chickens, eggs, etc., from all over the Plains and New Mexico to Snyder. Our business in Gasoline, Tires (McClaren Cords) and Accessories and Willard Batteries has enjoyed a steady growth until today our sales from these run into thousands of dollars yearly.

neighbors, our town and our county. One of the best ways to assist our neighbors, help our town and county is to spend our money with the merchants who help you. When you have cotton, feed, vegetables, chickens, butter, etc., where do you sell it? Who buys it from you? Does it seem right to you that the money paid you for your produce should be sent out of town for merchandise that these same men buy from you. If they patronize you, why not you patronize them—time about is fair play.

When you need Tires, Tubes, Batteries and first one little Accessory why not buy it from us—if not from us from some other Snyder concern. If you will spend that money at home we will all get another chance at it again. Patronize Home People and you will see Prosperity—send your money out of town and you will see a period of Depression.

WOLF HUNTERS ORGANIZE.

Pursuant to a call issued by Hon. J. A. Merritt, the hunters and sports men of Scurry and adjoining counties met in the county courtroom at Snyder, Texas, August 19, for the purpose of organization.

The house was called to order by J. A. Merritt, who explained the object of the meeting, after which temporary organization was gone into by the election of J. A. Merritt, temporary chairman, and Jno L. Webb, temporary secretary.

While the committee were preparing their report talks were made by Dr. Coleman, Mr. Reed and others relative to the promiscuous use of poison endangering the life of valuable animals.

The president appointed H. A. Brown of Mitchell; L. A. Reed, Garza County; Geo. Bishop of Scurry County, and Jno. L. Waskom of Borden County, to select time and place for trial meet.

A FLOOD OF LAWS.

Doubtless everyone in Snyder is acquainted with the old assertion that "ignorance of law excuses no one." And yet we would like for someone to point out to us one man, here or anywhere else, who is not ignorant of our laws. A learned eastern man has just finished an investigation that required years of his time, and he has given out figures to show that there are in this country today a little over 2,000,000 laws. They are State and National and municipal—but they are all laws, and all are to be obeyed if a man stays

"within the law." Now, where is there any reason for blaming a man for happening on a new one occasionally—usually after he has broken it? Two million laws! Think of that! And yet here we are spending our hard-earned money in every State in the Union to pay legislators to make more of them.

Frequent Bilious Attacks

"I suffered with severe bilious attacks that came on two or three times each month," says Mr. J. P. Nevins, of Lawrenceburg, Ky. "I would get nauseated. I would have dizziness and couldn't work. I would take pills until I was worn-out with them. I didn't seem to get relief. "A neighbor told me of

BLACK-DRAUGHT

and I began its use. I never have found so much relief as it gave me. I would not be without it for anything. It seemed to cleanse my whole system and made me feel like new. I would take a few doses—get rid of the bile and have my usual clear head, feel full of pep, and could do twice the work."

Bilious attacks are "seasonal" with many people. Millions have taken Thedford's Black-Draught to ward off such attacks, and the good results they have reported should induce you to try it.

LETTER FROM J. S. HARDY.

Amarillo, Texas, Aug. 27. To the Times-Signal.

An occasional letter from the great Texas Panhandle may possibly be of interest to people further down-state.

Of course it is not necessary for a disinterested writer to tell about the wonderful development of the South Plains region. That matter is being paramounted by people who have something to sell, but aside from that there is enough to be told to cause a slight feeling of skepticism and incredulity in the minds of people who have not had opportunity to see and study the progress and opportunities in the Panhandle proper, of which Amarillo is the logical center of activity.

Activities in oil production are on the increase and the vastness of the gas fields is leading all the time to the expansion of manufacturing interests. A move is now under way for a Federal survey of the Canadian river with a view of starting a general irrigation campaign.

The dawn of progress portends a great future for Amarillo. Let no body conclude that everybody here is rich. I suppose there are as many poor folks here, according to population, as are in Chicago or New York, but the population here is 98 per cent American and up to now mostly Democrats with a fair percentage of jellybeans and flappers.

It is conceded to be the quickest and surest way to impress the facts by getting the people of West Texas to visit the Tri-State Fair to be held at Amarillo Sept. 26 to Oct. 1. There will be seen a collection of agricultural, civic, industrial and live stock products from no fewer than thirty Panhandle and Plains counties and auto races and horse races galore.

The agricultural conditions are better than for many years. The cotton outlook is favorable and while the 1915 wheat crop was below normal the rains here in recent weeks will insure the planting of a greater acreage than ever before.

Right now there is a strenuous campaign on for general development. President Lee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has been touring the north and east sections of the Panhandle country preaching the gospel of crop diversification and from reports he is arousing the people to greater interest in that line and from present indications there may be fifty thousand people in Amarillo to attend the 1926 Chamber of Commerce convention next year.

The Farmers Congress in session here this week has brought together a great number of farmers and business men from over Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Colorado and Kansas and matters of farming, stock raising, marketing, transportation, irrigation and other ramified interests have been discussed by such men as Lynch Davidson, B. F. Yoakum and others of national prominence.

In the way of transportation, Amarillo is fortunate in already having three trunk railroads with outlets in seven directions and prospects are good for a rail line due north to connect with the Rock Island at Liberal, Kansas.

The recent establishment here of a first class packing plant insures for Amarillo as good a livestock market as Fort Worth or Kansas City and I am hoping to see the people of Scurry County selling their hogs and cattle on this market.

Government surveyors are now making examination of this region with a view to building a string of dams along the Canadian river to provide for irrigating millions of acres of Plains and Panhandle lands and for the establishment of a super-power plants for handling the water and to utilize the gas here for cotton mills and other industrial enterprises.

Come to the fair, Sept. 26 to Oct. 1 and see what is here.

J. S. HARDY.

Mrs. T. C. Watkins left Monday night for eastern market to buy a large stock of fall and winter goods. She expects to be away about ten days.

Alberta, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sturgeon, east of town, who has been sick with typhoid fever for the past six weeks, is improving nicely.
