AND SNYDER SIGNAL

VOLUME XXXIX

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1925

Number 15

THE TIMES-SIGNAL SIGNALS

It's an ideal marriage if she can read him the love letters he sent her ten years before without making him want to go out and get gloriously drunk.

What a lot of Snyder children of today can't understand is how their parents have managed to live so long knowing as little as they do.

There is anything easier to start than a domestic fight its a church fight—and love is supposed to rule in both places.

People might stop at grade-crossings if they'd keep a man there painting a sign or digging a ditch.

A regular fellow is the Snyder man who thinks that table manners should be suspended during the corn-on-the-cob season.

Many a fellow who was at the head of his class in college wears a dunce cap in the school of experience.

A girl agrees with her man who says he is not worthy of her—but she always waits until after she marries him to tell him so.

Maybe one reason why more Snyder women do not get divorces is that their husbands are not nearly as bad as the neighbors assert.

The old world is full of queer nuts, including the one who can't enjoy an auto ride unless he dries carefully.

They could save a lot of money on signs if they'd put them where you can park instead of where you can't.

Most of the violent exercise that is done around Snyder in warm weather is done with a knife and fork.

We suppose that from now on when they lay out new towns in this country they will have foresight enough to put the cemetery close to the railroad crossing.

The fellow who can memorize the license number of the car that hit him can really be said to have presence of mind.

Snyder people who have tried dieting tell us that the best thing about it is getting back to a square meal.

We imagine that the saddest sight on earth would be to see a one-armed man trying to tell about a fish that got away.

Sure, clothes make the man. That is, they make him get out and hustle to get money enough to pay for them.

We've noticed that the worst thing about the Snyder man who sings his own praises is that he always has such a bum voice.

The official emblem worn by those attending the school of experience is the blister.

FIVE OF SNYDER'S GINS ARE READY FOR GINNING.

Elsewhere you will find a page advertisement of five of the gins of Snyder who appreciate your ginning and are asking you to bring your cotton to Snyder to have it ginned. They have taken this method of co-operatively telling you of the advantages in having your cotton ginned here—of the excellent market to be had for your cotton. It is the co-operation of such enterprising firms that helps build cities where towns were once located. Business of this spirit of co-operation should have the hearty endorsement and the support of every farmer in this territory.

WEST TEXAS GETS REAL SOAKER.

Last Thursday night the drought in the town of Snyder was broken by a downpour which amounted to 3 1-4 inches. This is the first good rain that the farmers right adjacent to the city has received in several months. The rain of Thursday night was general over all of West Texas. Since Thursday the rain fell in Snyder, according to the government gauge has been 4 1-4 inches. The Times-Signal has been informed that there was considerable hail in parts of Mitchell County but as yet we have received no reports of hail damage in this county.

COUNCIL TO PUT ON DEGREES FRIDAY NIGHT.

Companion Shepherd of Colorado will be with Snyder Council next Friday night at which time the Council degrees will be given to all Royal Arch Masons who have not received them. Should you fail to be notified and you know that you have not received the degrees be on hand. If you have had the degrees be on hand and help put this work on. Assist the officers and companions in this with your presence. Let's have a large turnout.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF SNYDER.

The public school of Snyder opened Monday morning with a vast increase in attendance. A great majority of the new pupils are from surrounding communities.

The first exercise was rendered at the city tabernacle where the following program was carried out:

Rev. A. B. Davidson—Invocation.
Rev. Manley—Scripture.
Rev. Riddle represented the pastors.

Mrs. Whitman represented the women of the board.

Mr. Yoder represented the men of the board.

Mr. Clark, announcements, etc.

Introduction of Teachers—Mr. Carey, High School Teacher; Mrs. Green, Grade Teachers.

Mr. Bagwell, general announcements about school work.

After this the teachers and pupils went to the school building where enrolling and issuing of books began. By the second day the grades were ready for work and everything has been progressing nicely since.

The high school schedule has been somewhat interrupted on account of a new course, vocational training, being put in, but all will be at our books in a few days.

The school has made steady progress the last few years. Three years ago the home economic department was put in for the girls and since then it has been affiliated in seven subjects, which gives three and one-half units. This year vocational training has been added for the boys under the management of Mr. Lewis. Many seem to be interested in this work and it promises to mean much to the people of Snyder.

The following is a list of the names of the high school teachers:

Supt. I. C. Bagwell, Snyder, A. B. Daniel Baker.

Principal, F. A. Carey, Snyder, L. L. B. University of Texas.

Home Economics, Ouida Green, Centerville, Iowa, B. S. Iowa University.

Vocational Training, M. S. Lewis, Thorndale, B. S. A. and M.

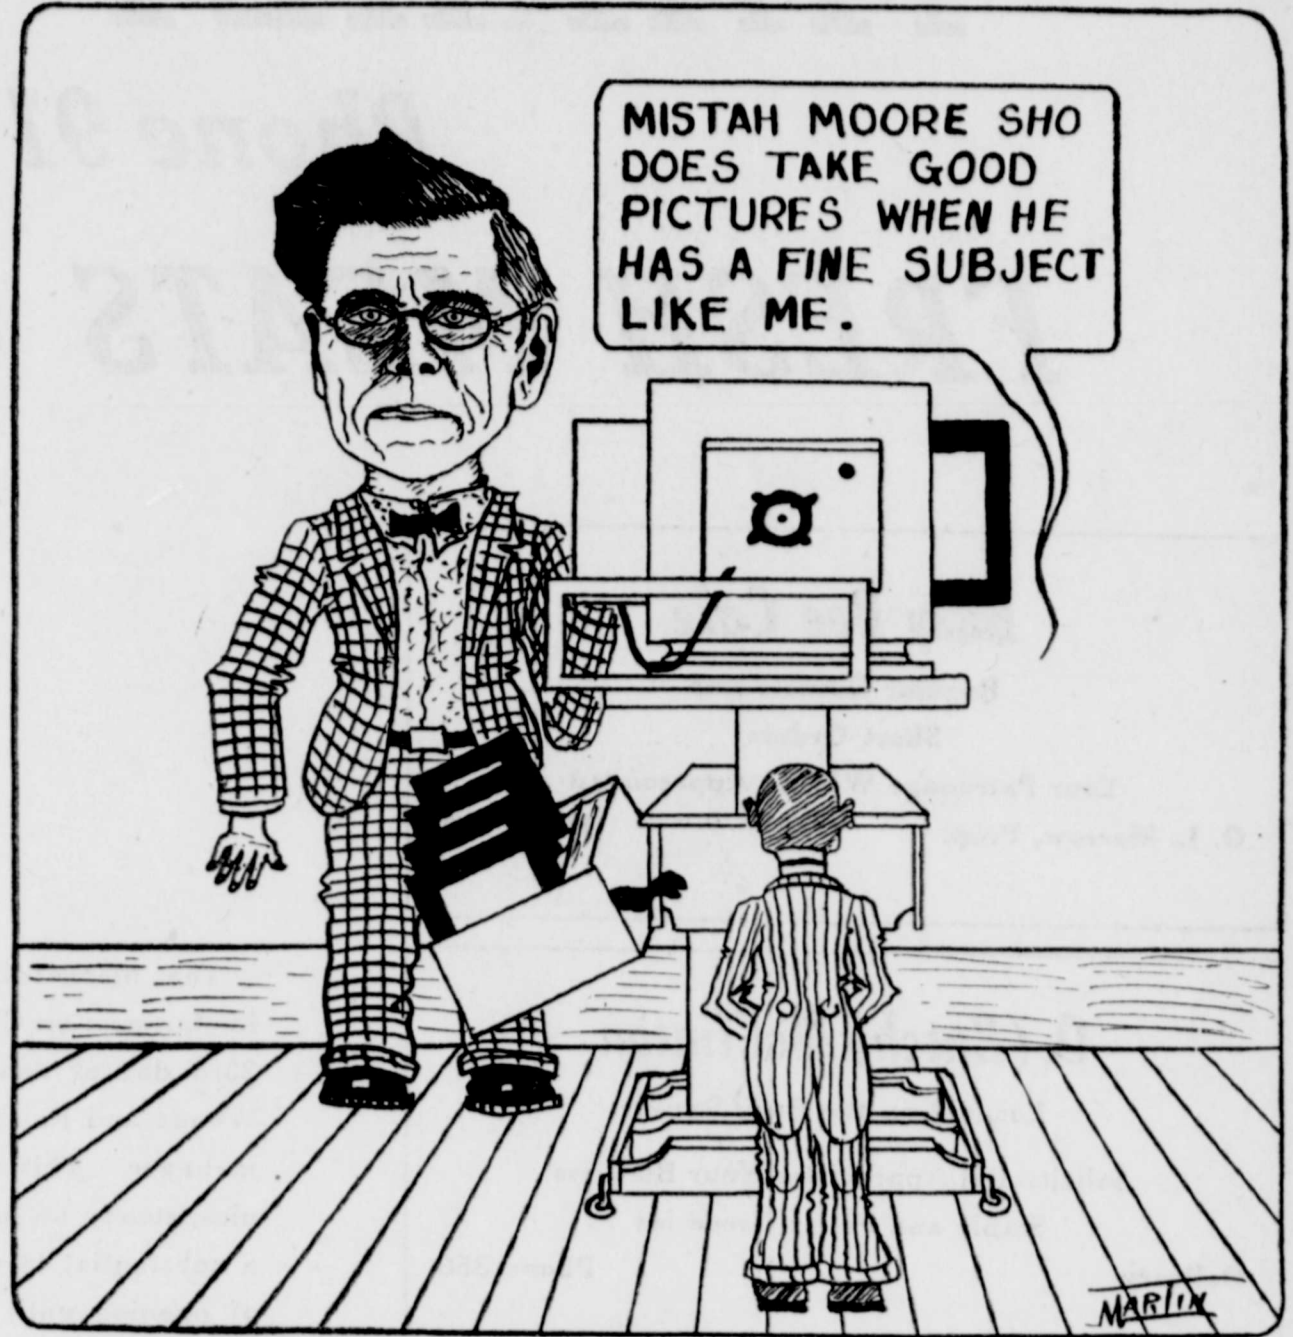

Athletic Director and Science Teacher, J. A. Roberts, Waco, B. S. North Texas State Teachers' College.

Latin, Clara B. Mitchell, Grand Prairie, A. B. Trinity.

History, Mrs. Bagwell, Snyder, A. B. Baylor College.

English, Mattie E. Clark, Hico, A.

E. P. MOORE.

Well, we at last landed another Texan for our artist to work on and his work is a likeness of E. P. Moore, photographer, who was born in Lazy Neck (he says in Collin County) Texas, in 1875. Mr. Moore began photographic and kodak work some twenty-five years ago and has followed that with the exception of one year spent farming in Arkansas when he returned to the United States. (We have another story as to who did the farming but we will let it stand that E. P. did the work.) Mr. Moore received his photographic training at Dean's in Dallas at which place he was employed for a number of years. He was for three years with Jack Cones of San Antonio, one of the largest photographers in the South. He was also in business in Fort Worth. Mr. Moore was official photographer for the City of Santa Barbara, California. Also official photographer for an airplane and seaplane company and the American Film company all of Santa Barbara. He made a camera especially for airplane use. He has the distinction of photographing the King and Queen of Belgium on their visit to the United States in 1920, and has a picture of himself taken with King Albert and shows the King inspecting the special airplane camera. In 1921 he returned to the state that he always calls home, Texas, and landed in Snyder and started in business. To say that he has been successful since coming here would not do him justice for he has one of the largest businesses of his kind in West Texas and it has been built largely through his excellent quality of work and the pleasant way he has of meeting you. When you once visit his place of business, which is located on the southeast corner of the square, or meet him on the street, he is so pleasant and agreeable that you want to go back again and again and have a short talk with him. He is what we would call an OPTIMIST. Always cheerful and (apparently) happy but we have our first time to see him in action that he is not going in a run. We have accused him of it being a habit with him but he declares that it is the urgent press of business that causes it. At any rate we half way believe him for he always appears to be snowed under with work. He has a hobby to a certain extent of kodak work and has built up a wonderful developing and printing business by really going after this class and giving the users real service. We have always found him to be a real Christian gentleman and a loyal supporter of everything that will improve our town and county and better the moral and religious sides of everyone.

MEETING TO START AT SHARON.

Brother W. A. Shultz is to commence a meeting at Sharon next Friday night and will continue through two Sundays. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these meetings and they will be treated to some fine song services and interesting sermons.

SNYDER FOLKS OFF TO SCHOOL.

This week quite a number of Snyder boys and girls have gone to enter the various schools in the country. Following are those and the schools they will enter: Ellen Bruce Johnson, Sullen's, at Bristol, Va.; A. D. Dodson, Jr., Kemper Military Academy, Booneville, Mo.; Fritz R. Smith, Jr., Helen Boren, Ruby Sparks and Tracy Smith, T. C. U., Fort Worth; Neoma Strayhorn, Leland Martin, Raymond and Robert Greer and Elmer Spear, Simmons; Beecher Bennett, Tech, Lubbock; Othello Herm and Joe Woodfin, W. T. S. T. C., Canyon; Maxine Whitmore, A. C. C., at Abilene; Alex Davis, San Marcos Academy, San Marcos, Texas, and Alta Belle Davis, Howard Payne College, at Brownwood.

Possibly there are others but if so we were unable to learn who they were and are not left out of this article intentionally.

LEAF WORMS ACTIVE SINCE RAINS.

In some sections of the county the leaf worms have made their appearance and are doing considerable damage to the cotton. County Agent Carmichael, in conversation with a Times reporter, stated that no delays should be made in poisoning these worms. It is in the west and south portion of the county that the worms are thickest and this is due to the heavy rains they have had in this part of the county. No time should be lost in putting out the poison and we give below two or three recipes for poison mixtures that have been tried out and found to do the work:

"Four pounds of calcium arsenate, undiluted, to the acre dusting it thoroughly."

"Three pounds of lead arsenate and 1 pound hydrated lime to the acre. This is to be dusted."

"Should you desire a spray you can use 3 to 5 pounds of calcium arsenate to 50 gallons of water. But it must not exceed five pounds of the arsenate."

"One pound of Paris green, 1 pound flour and 3 pounds lime. Not less than 3 pounds of lime should be used to prevent burning plant."

These recipes will all do the work but the first one is recommended as the most successful. If the worms appear in your cotton you should go to poisoning immediately as a few days of sunshine will increase the number of worms.

T. C. Stinson and wife are visiting their son, Jim Stinson, at Abilene this week.

R. J. "Dick" RANDALS UNDERWENT OPERATION.

R. J. Randals was taken to Lubbock last Thursday where he was operated on for appendicitis and some stomach trouble. Reports coming from his bedside are to the effect that he is making rapid progress and that he will be home in a short time.

UNABLE TO OBTAIN RESULTS OF MEETINGS.

The ministers of the various churches participating in the recent revival meeting are out of town and we have been unable to obtain the results of the meetings which closed last Sunday night. We will do our best to publish this information next week.

GOLDEN GATE GIRLS COMING TO PALACE THEATRE

Mr. Lollar, owner of the Cozy and Palace Theatres has been very fortunate in booking the Golden Gate Girls Revue for two days at the Palace next Monday and Tuesday nights. They feature the ladies' orchestra, singing and dancing and are real artists in their particular line of entertainment. Mr. Lollar says that he especially recommends this attraction in connection with the picture for that date will give the people a show of real merit.

OBITUARY.

Children are their parents' priceless treasures. In the death of little Nadine V. Dorsett, infant daughter of Brother and Sister Dorsett, our hearts are sad and lonely, but heaven has been made richer and more inviting. Nadine was six months and one week old. The funeral service was conducted by the writer, at the Methodist Church. The good Book says, "A little child shall lead them." How true this is! In the home here, in the church, in life and in death, tiny hands touch, tender cords rebuke discords and produce harmonies. They are God's evangelists to us. They "cannot come back to us, but we can go to them." They are in heaven and where our love centers there we want to go. There we shall see, know and be forever with them. "He shall gather the lambs with his arm and carry them in his bosom." "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning."

DR. NEAL MONGER MOVES TO SAN BENITO.

Dr. Neal D. Monger, wife and baby daughter, left Monday morning for San Benito, Texas, where they will make their future home. They have made many friends during their stay in Snyder who regret to see them leave. Dr. Monger was an active worker in the church and Masonic lodge. Snyder's loss is San Benito's gain and the Times-Signal wish them well in their new home.

FINE STALK OF COTTON.

Andy Trevey brought to the Times office last Saturday as fine a stalk of cotton as we have ever seen. It was grown by F. M. Addison, southwest of Knapp on Bull Creek. He has eight acres of this fine cotton and several who have seen it say that it will make two bales per acre. The stalk brought in was about four feet high and loaded with bolls. Mr. Trevey says he did not hunt over the patch to get the largest stalk but that the entire eight acres was just as good as the one brought in.

Miss Miriam Stewart came in last week in order to be on hand at the opening of school where she is employed as teacher.

MEXICAN COLONY HOLDING FIESTA.

The Mexicans of Scurry and adjoining counties have just closed a three-day fiesta. This celebration was held in the north part of town near the depot. Large crowds were present each night and the closing night was full of entertainment, such as imitation bull fights, Spanish fandango, a real Mexican supper of Mexican and Spanish dishes and dancing. This celebration is an annual affair among the Mexicans.

J. A. Farmer and wife of Dallas and Mrs. A. F. Cole of Fort Worth are here visiting Joe Strayhorn and family and other relatives. Mesdames Farmer and Cole are sisters of Joe and Pope Strayhorn.

C. W. Ladwig, father of Mrs. Lee Stinson, and Miss Hattie Ladwig is visiting his sons at Ballenger. He was accompanied by Miss Ladwig, who returned Monday morning.

The "Devil" came very near overlooking a news item. The "boss" is on a business trip to Cleveland, Ohio, New York and other Eastern points and while away the "devil" has been pretty busy and if any local news is left out don't pan us for it too hard.

Clairemont Street Tailors

The Market-Grocery was opened for business on Clairemont Street, the 23rd day of June, 1925, By D. P. Woody and Ray Hardin, with Ray as manager. This firm has enjoyed a nice, steady business and have shown a substantial increase from the date of opening until they now have a splendid patronage. The personnel of this firm is well-known to the people of Snyder and Scurry County. Mr. Hardin is not new in the grocery and market business as he was connected with J. W. Templeton for four years and F. T. Wilhelm for some 18 months. He is known for his affable disposition and smiling face. He always appears to be in a good humor as he has a smile and kind word for everyone. You need not be a patron of the Market-Grocery in order to be greeted in a way that proves popular to all. This firm is known chiefly for the high grade Groceries, Meats and Vegetables they have on hand. They have well filled shelves and bins of Nationally Advertised goods—goods that speak for themselves. They take the position in their dealings with the public "we will not sell anything that we would not use ourselves." They are back of anything that will promote the welfare of the people of this community, especially CLAIREMONT STREET MERCHANTS. They believe that the businesses on this busy street are entitled to a share of your patronage and they say "if quality merchandise with fair dealings and honest prices will get the business, they are going to get it." The claims of these merchants are worthy of your consideration.

A WORD WITH HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS.

Can you write a theme without making an erasure to correct an error? Is it not true that where you have made the correction there appears great evidence of your having made it, due to the quality of the paper you were using?

When you have been able to write your theme or do other written work without an error, is it not a fact that, regardless of the pen point used, there will appear various widths of pen lines all through your work, due to soft spots in the paper you use?

If you will buy your filler paper from us, you will be enabled to make a correction in the way of an erasure in a very satisfactory manner and you will not find those soft spots in your work. The paper we offer you is as hard a texture and as even surface as can be made from wood pulp. The use of one ten cent package will convince you. This paper is made in the State of Massachusetts; we buy direct from the mill. It costs us more money than any paper offered us on the American market.

NEWSPAPER NEEDS TELEPHONE ALL THE TIME.

The important part played by the telephone in getting out a newspaper is shown in one case where an average of 22,506 telephone calls is made for one day's issue of the paper, says the Texas Public Service Information Bureau.

Not only is the telephone of the greatest value to editorial workers, the reporters and the city desk, where it is a vital time-saving factor, but it is equally important to the advertising department. On a recent Friday and Saturday one big newspaper received as many as 3,963 want ads entirely by telephone. To handle the immense amount of telephone traffic which this single newspaper requires, a special machine switching system was installed this year.

Today, in all the important cities there is a corps of newspaper reporters who never, or hardly ever, write in single line of copy. Their duty is to secure the news and get it to the newspapers. They telephone the facts to the city desk, which assigns a writer—usually known as a "rewrite man"—who jots down the facts and prepares his "story" his own way, but the man in the field is no less a news writer than is the man at the desk who takes the points as they are telephoned, and weaves them into newspaper copy.

average man is interested in religion, often to a deeper extent than you know. He doesn't go around talking and bragging about his religion, but the average man tries to lead a good and honest life. That goes for the average woman and girl, too. Church statistics show increased membership, and there are other things to contradict the fellow who says we're living in "a godless age." Do not lose faith in your fellowman by believing it. He may not go to church as often as he should, but that doesn't mean that he isn't leading a decent life. Turn a deaf ear to those who would cripple our moral life by painting disagreeable and untruthful pictures.

LAW PARTNERSHIP.

Judge W. P. Jones and Judge E. A. Watson both of Crosbyton, have formed a partnership for the general practice of law under the firm name of Jones & Watson, and have office in the Collier Building over the Carter Drug Store in Crosbyton. Judge Jones has practiced law in Crosbyton for the past several years and has met with splendid success. Judge Watson came to Crosbyton this year from Snyder, having practiced several years in Fort Worth, where he was very successful. For several years he was in the practice in Fisher County where he served as County Attorney during which time he was eminently successful in his chosen profession. Both of the members of this firm brings to the combination years of ripe experience and no doubt will render superior service to their growing clientele. They have one of the most complete law libraries in all West Texas and being thus equipped will not want for the tools to work with.

We welcome this new firm and predict for them many years of useful service to the citizens of Crosby County and West Texas.—Crosbyton Review.

IN THE FARM HOME.

For years we've heard about the drudgery and dreariness of domestic life in rural communities. For centuries the good housewife was condemned to human slavery in doing her part to make the old farm earn a living. But today the farms of this country are yielding an income, and the burdens of the women who live on them have been lightened.

Not long ago the government picked out one county in northwestern Ohio in which to conduct a survey. It developed that almost every farm house boasted a sewing machine and sink. The auto was outnumbered only by the sewing machine. Out of 100 homes canvassed, the following conveniences were found: Automobiles, 66; sinks, 63; oil or gas stove, 61; washing machines, 55; piano or organ, 38; phonograph, 33; gas or electric iron, 32; telephone, 22; carpet sweeper, 13; bath, 12; fireless cooker, 3. Residents of Snyder who study over that list for a few minutes will see how drudgery is disappearing from the farm home and how labor-saving devices and modern conveniences are slowly but surely coming to relieve the woman of the rural district of back-breaking toil.

That was in an average county in Ohio. In many other states the percentage would be as great, or greater. Farm lighting systems and power from gasoline engines or dynamos are to be found now in every State in the union. And these are the things that are freeing the farm wife from the slavery that has already existed entirely too long.

Dear Doctor.—My normal weight was 150 pounds. I lost weight until I only weighed 115 pounds. I had all the symptoms of Pellagra—stomach trouble, hands sunburned, diarrhoea, very nervous, had crying spells and thought I would lose my mind. I took your Pellagra Treatment in 1923 and it entirely relieved me. I now weigh 175 pounds.

Firestone

will ALWAYS give Most Miles per Dollar

No matter where crude rubber prices may go—Firestone advantages in securing raw material, in manufacturing and distribution are always active to make good the pledge of Most Miles per Dollar.

Racing drivers—hill-climbing and endurance record holders—taxicab, motor truck and bus operators—and hundreds of thousands of car owners—are daily emphasizing the unheard-of mileage and service delivered by Firestone Gum-Dipped Cords.

Gum-Dipping is one of the biggest factors in tire performance and long mileage, making Firestone Gum-Dipped Cords the most economical tires ever offered motorists.

The cord from the fabric mills is first delivered to a separate plant where it is treated in a solution of gum, which insulates every fiber of every cord. This protects against internal friction and heat, giving the sidewalls greater flexibility and additional strength.

Prove Firestone's many superiorities for yourself. If you have never had the safety, comfort and economy of these serviceable, long-mileage tires—go to the nearest Firestone Dealer—for Firestone only builds Gum-Dipped Cords.

WHY WE HAVE DENOMINATIONS.

By Rev. Jas. H. Tate.

This article is neither a theological, dogmatical nor historical presentation of this subject; but simply and briefly offers a few practical suggestions. Our meetings have closed. We have had one union meeting—three churches co-operating—and two separate or independent meetings here in Fluvanna. All have been very good. Why all these churches and all these meetings? Some may ask. The answer is at hand: As in other matters, simply because the people want them. If we didn't want several churches, we probably would only have one or two. The fact that we have several does not prove that the people are bad. It does, however, pave the way for controversy though it should not do so. People are naturally differently constituted. They will also naturally look at matters—even religious matters—from different angles; hence, they see things differently. You can hardly find two people to whom the full moon looks to be the same size. Perhaps you never saw two homes constructed and furnished exactly alike; yet they are all homes. As long as people are free to choose for themselves in church matters (and the Lord forbid that it should ever again be otherwise), it is evident that they will never all—nor even half of them—unite with any one denomination. But, as it now is, already nearly half of our entire population belongs to our various churches. Why? Because they are at liberty to take their choice—to worship and serve God according to the dictates of their own consciences. People will have a preference even when there is little difference. Take an illustration.

Several years ago our merchants here were handling three or four different brands of high grade flour; some preferring one brand and some another, each faithful cook declared that her favorite flour made the best bread. Finally some merchant, hoping to hold a customer, perhaps; ventured to tell the plain truth, to-wit: "These different brands of flour not only come from the same mill but from the same spout in that mill, the only difference being that sacks, bearing different brands were used." This report went the round over the community, but, of course, it convinced none of these good bread-makers. It did, however, precipitate some lively discussions between husbands and wives—one, at least, I well remember.

Later I had occasion to go to another section of the State to attend a meeting of Texas Synod. On my return home I stopped in the town in which this same flourmill is located—the mill that was putting up the flour in question. As I am always interested in seeing machinery in operation, I visited this fine mill and was shown through its different departments. Finally I came around to the man who was sacking the flour. Remembering what I had heard about the same flour being sold under different names (or brands), I asked the man about it. He promptly stated that it was true, explaining that it was necessary in order to meet the demands of the trade. The reader will make the application. It is true the church is not a commercial concern. It is also true that there is some real difference between denominations, whereas the flour was all alike. At the same time there are many people of various shades of thought and temperament, whose preferences and needs should be met. They long for their favorite brand, hence, the great Christian church—God's church—has naturally, if not necessarily, fallen into many branches. True the existence of some, perhaps many, of these 194 branches, are superfluous—rather parasitical. It is human to err.

Nevertheless, in the estimation of this village preacher, the great outstanding, historical, evangelical, tried and true denominations of America are necessary to meet the needs of our vast multiplex population. Let no man hinder them in their great work; but, rather, let each one of us aid and encourage the noble work being carried on by these several organized groups. By all means, my brother, join and work in the church of your choice, but at the same time, allow your neighbor to live in his church in peace. Then let us all work together—co-operate—for the promotion of righteousness. "So mote it be."

DR. J. FRANK NORRIS ON CATHOLICISM IN POLITICS.

Speaking of Roman Catholics converted in the meeting here, suggest that if the South and West only understood how thoroughly and absolutely the Roman Catholics dominate New York through Tammany Hall, they would never support another Tammany ticket. It is generally conceded and understood that Gov. Al Smith will be the next Democratic nominee for President. But for W. J. Bryan he would have been last year. I hope he is nominated. We have got to face the issue of Romanism in this country and the sooner it comes the better. Up here they think the solid South would still go Democratic, even though a Roman Catholic headed the ticket. They will have another "think coming." I would pull off my coat roll up my sleeves and campaign the South for the Republican ticket if the Democrats nominated a Roman Catholic. So would ever other self-respecting Protestant minister. But its coming. Rome is showing her teeth with an arrogance and a hiss never surpassed in all her bloody history. A good woman, member of the First Baptist Church here told me this incident. Her daughter gave her butcher a Bible. He was a Romanist. The next day a black bosomed celibate called at the door of the Protestant home and demanded that this girl give out no more Bibles in the neighborhood, and boldly and blasphemously told her that he ran that neighborhood. Just as well wake up to it, if the Romanists had the power they would burn up every Protestant Bible, burn every Protestant church and burn every Protestant minister. Rome has not changed.

RELIGIOUS LINE-UP IN CONGRESS.

There are 304 Masons in the House and 65 in the Senate. There are 90 Methodists in the House and 27 in the Senate. Presbyterians have 63 in the House and 11 in the Senate. Episcopalians number 57 and 22. The Baptists have 48 and 5. The Congregational have 32 and 6. The Christian Disciple have 21 and 1. The Lutherans 17 and 2. The Roman Catholic have 32 and 4. Only 35 in the House and 10 in the Senate belong to no church. Southern members are Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian. From the East come Episcopalians, Catholics and the 8 Hebrews, who are all in the House. The Middle West is well represented by almost all denominations. The total membership of the House is 435 and of the Senate 96.

MUZZLING THE DOG.

We thought so. Just about the time Americans acquired the "hot dog" habit, and every carnival and county fair and roadside stand began to popularize it and we had learned to forego cheese and crackers and bologna and a lot of other truck for the toothsome "hot dog" here comes a doctor to declare that "they are ruining the stomachs and digestive organs of the American public." That's a fine indictment to return against our new national dish, the nearest thing to a square meal that a dime will purchase. And just at a time when the joys of driving along a nice smooth pike lay in the fact that it was dotted every mile or so with a "hot dog" stand. But such is life. The things we learn to like most are sooner or later marked "poison" and put on a top shelf where we can't reach them. And all because we haven't yet learned that about nine times out of ten the fellow who wants to make us believe that something isn't good for us is only trying to boost something else that he can get a profit out of.

Weak In Back and Sides

"Before the birth of my little girl," says Mrs. Lena Stancell, of R. F. D. 2, Matthews, Mo. "I was so weak in my back and sides I could not go about. I was too weak to stand up or do any work. Honest Prescription Service

When your physician hands you the Prescription which he has carefully written according to the nature of the ailment, you may not know it, but the responsibility is then placed in your hands. You at once become the mediator between your physician and the pharmacist, with nothing compulsory on your part—you can have it filled where you please.

But it stands you in hand to go where you are assured of Efficient Prescription Service, which also calls for Honesty on the part of the Druggist. Not carrying in stock, or being temporarily out of a certain drug, how easily could he destroy the effect of the medicine by SUBSTITUTING SOMETHING ELSE for one of the basic ingredients, if Honesty were not one of his business principles!

We are soliciting your Prescription trade on our honest claims of being adequately able to render Efficient Service, which necessitates our carrying a stock large enough to enable us to meet every requirement.

Bob Collier of the Slaton Slatonite sent us a copy of his usually good paper with four pages perfectly blank. We know, Bob, that printers' ink is valuable as well as costly, but next time try and put on enough to color the paper anyhow.

The Star-Telegram tells a story of a "corpse" that recently came to life while on the way to the cemetery, and which reminds us of an old story we heard many years ago of a woman who came to life after the pallbearers had accidentally dropped the coffin. The woman lived for several years after that, as the story goes, before she finally "died" again. The pallbearers started with the corpse to the same cemetery, and when they came to the place where the coffin was dropped the other time, the husband of the woman said calmly: "Steady, boys, steady!"

BUFFALO WALLOW BATTLE VETERAN IS DISAPPOINTED

AMARILLO, Texas.—John A. Cotton of Snyder didn't know the Buffalo Wallow celebration had been called off. He arrived in Amarillo Saturday to visit the site of this famous Indian battle near Miami, and live over the stirring days of '74 when he fought the Redskins on numerous occasions and incidentally aided in the rescue of Billy Dixon and the five survivors of the Buffalo Wallow encounter.

Cotton was in the Federal army and his company rescued the Dixon party on Sept. 12, the day following the Indian battle. Mrs. Olive K. Dixon, widow of the Indian fighter, said lack of co-operation made it necessary to postpone the celebration.—Fort Worth Star Telegram.

AN URGENT APPEAL FOR BIRD PROTECTION.

By Jno. F. Carmichael.
Birds have existed since early Mesozoic times and exhibit an interesting evolution within very compact and well-defined limits. They dwell in every part of the globe, are adapted to every sort of climate and food, show mental qualities of a high order, and are of great importance in their economic relations with man.

Adult birds eat almost continuously, and digestion is extremely rapid. This ability for enormous consumption makes the birds of vast value to man in the reduction of insect pests. Eighty-five per cent of their food consist of worms, and the remaining fifteen per cent of noxious weed seed. A quail will consume three hundred boll weevils in one day in an infested field.

"For economic as well as for esthetic reasons an effort should be made to attract and protect birds and to increase their numbers," says the United States Department of Agriculture. Birds feed upon practically all insects pests. They are voracious, able to move freely from place to place and exert a steady influence in keeping down the swelling tide of insect life.

It is not only possible to attract numerous species of birds by supplying boxes and other nesting facilities, says the department, but it has been amply proven that the total bird population on a given area can be raised far above normal by these and other methods of attraction. The larger the number of birds, of course, the greater the drain upon their food supply. If this food supply consists chiefly of injurious insects, man profits; if of the products of his cultivation, he suffers.

All things considered, however, it is better to have more birds for the injurious individuals or kinds can be controlled, or suppressed, while the useful species, if not present in time of need, cannot be hastily summoned. Experience has shown that those who have increased the number of birds on their property have had cause for satisfaction rather than regret. The average numbers of birds over the eastern United States is a little more than one pair to the acre, but it seems fairly easy to increase this number in suburban, residential and parked areas to about ten pair to the acre. This has been accomplished at Golden Gate Park, San Francisco. Even higher records have been made, as 135 pairs to 5 acres at Wild Acres, Md., near Washington, D. C., and the number may run up to a much higher figure on a single acre where a thriving colony of purple martins is domiciled.

A frequently cited familiar European example of the value of attracting birds is worth repeating, says the biological survey of the department. On the estate of Baron von Berlepsche, in Germany, bird attracting methods of every kind were practiced, and among other things more than 2,000 nests were supplied, of which 90 per cent were occupied. During an outbreak of the oak leaf roller other woods in the region were entirely devastated, but that on the Berlepsche estate stood out as a green oasis. With this example before them, municipal and provincial governments took up the providing of nest boxes for birds.

We often wonder how the so-called sportsman, who slaughters the birds of our land, can have any interest in agriculture to say nothing of his love of nature. From an artistic point of view the sportsman should have more respect for his own country.

Farmers are urged to keep their land posted in order to prevent the heartless slaughter of these innocent victims of a so-called sport.

Stinson Bros. have already sold upward of 30,000 lbs. of calcium arsenate. If our bird life was properly protected this unnecessary expense to the farmers would be avoided.

Satisfied Customers Is Our Motto

PICKED UP ABOUT TOWN

Judge Noble says the government might also let Henry Ford have a bargain lot of laws that are not being enforced.

The quickest way to make two blades of grass grow where one grew before is to plant a vegetable.

"At last," says Tom Condra, "Ford has found a car that will run smoothly over the bumpiest road. He has gone into the airplane business."

An Italian scientist says he can predict earthquakes, and if he is a married man perhaps he can. Also a thunder storm.

"The fellow who complains when he finds a hair in his soup," says Andy Anderson, "ought to have married a blonde. Blond hairs don't show up so plainly."

Nobody loves an egotist but at that it's better for a man to talk about himself than to have the neighbors talking about him.

H. G. Towle declares that it takes as much courage for some men to be good as it does for a hen-pecked husband to be wicked.

"Speaking of safe bets," says N. M. Harpole, "I'm willing to bet that a wife-beater never beats the carpets, too."

THE WORD "DADDY."

We wonder if the average father or mother really know what the word "daddy" means to a child 4, 5 or 6 years old? To the boy, daddy is an ideal, a man so skillful that he can set the pace in any impossible game; so wise that he can build boats and slingshots and kites that soar high; so heroic that he can go out each morning into the big world and come back each evening without a scratch. To the girl daddy is the source of candy and dolls and nice dresses; the teller of stories that delight her; the big, strong man who catches her in his arms and squeezes her "most to death." He is her ideal, too, of manhood.

All around us as we go and come, we see these little manifestations of child-life, but we don't think much about them. They are taken just as a part of our every-day life. Then there comes, through the columns of the newspaper, perhaps, a call from a little child whose father has strayed from home, and we begin to realize just how powerful daddy is, and what he really means to someone. A few days ago we read of an instance of this kind, the case of a little Milwaukee girl who died of a broken heart because her daddy had taken sick and "gone away." Her play mate, her child's ideal, was absent and she refused to eat or to be consoled. Impossible, you say, in a child of 4. No, it isn't. Just multiply a few times the intensity of child love that you see about you right here at home, and you will have just that thing.

What does the word "daddy" mean? Well, joined with the word "mother" it means just about everything in the child's life, including at one end the material playmate and the other divine power and love.

IT MOUNTS UP THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

Loss of a barn by lightning is not an uncommon occurrence. The total loss from such fires in the entire country may not be great in a year, and yet when we get hold of figures for the entire nation it is apt to set us thinking. The government has just reported that property loss by lightning last year amounted to $12,000,000. Illinois stood first, with a loss of more than $1,000,000; Texas was next because of its large area and many oil-storage tanks, and New York was third. The report does not go into the insurance end of the matter, though we feel sure that it would have totalled but a small part of the entire amount involved. This is one thing the modern farmer has not given the attention it deserves—and that is protection through insurance. He can't always get the protection of a fire company, but he can secure an insurance policy, no matter where he lives. Insurance is one thing that can be made to cover as much territory as lightning.

A COFFEE STRIKE.

Several months ago the price of coffee began shooting skyward in this country, and even now we are paying considerably more per pound than we were paying one year ago. But our coffee drinkers will be glad to know that a break is in sight and that, according to a big eastern coffee merchant, it should come about as quickly as the advance came. Brazil controls the world's coffee market, and she shot the price up on a flimsy excuse, without taking into consideration the fact that while America likes her coffee, she doesn't relish robbery in any form. So when the price went up Americans here and there cut down a little in their coffee drinking. The result was that when the entire nation's coffee-drinking reduction was figured, Brazil was loser. She was actually getting more money when the price was low, because more coffee was being used. So now, having learned her lesson, she is hunting for an excuse to shift the price back toward normal—and it is safe to wager that she will not be long in finding that excuse.

FRANKING ABUSES.

The postoffice department has filed its annual report and the actual money loss in operating runs far into the millions, more than during any one year in history. Our congressmen will blame it, of course, on "too much second-class matter" instead of admitting that if the franking privilege was cut off and they were forced to pay postage the same as everybody else many millions could be cut from that annual loss. Congressmen and senators mail out millions of pieces of mail to and from Washington every year—they mail everything from soiled laundry to typewriters—and the government doesn't get a penny of revenue for handling and carrying it. Thousands of tons of speeches that were never made, and that only serve to fatten waste paper baskets, clutter up the mails—without a penny of revenue to the government. If we really want to put the postoffice on a self-sustaining basis, why not start at the seat of the trouble. Cut off the free mailing privilege of congressmen and senators and see how quickly the loss would be reduced.

Does Your husband expect this too?

The average husband wants his wife to keep her prettiness and charm. And, at the same time, he wants her to look out for his comfort and cook three meals every day. No small order, but it can be filled if wives put their housekeeping on a scientific basis.

The logical place to begin labor saving is in the kitchen—at the stove. Perfection Stoves are designed for women's convenience. They burn kerosene, the safe, household fuel, so there is no laborious hauling of coal and ashes.

Their roomy cooking surface is at the most convenient height, 32 inches from the floor, just like a kitchen table.

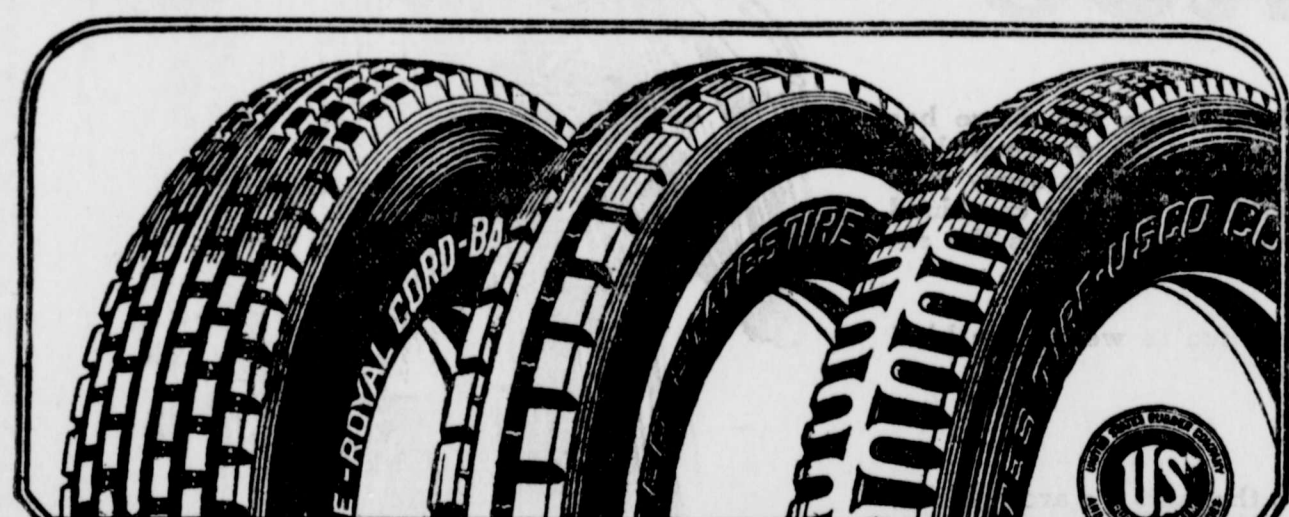

Every drop of oil is completely burned before the heat reaches the utensils, so there is no soot to blacken kettle bottoms. You are spared strenuous scouring.

These are just a few of Perfection's convenience features. Any dealer will demonstrate many more. Get a Perfection. It can help you live up to your husband's expectations.

FLUVANNA NEWS.

School Opens.

On last Monday morning the Fluvanna public school opened and started its work in what appears to be a very auspicious and encouraging manner. Notwithstanding the fact that roads and streets were very wet and soggy, a large proportion of the normal student body—about 200 of them—were present, on time. There was, also, a very good representation of the patrons and friends of the school present.

Two of the trustees, two ministers and the faculty were on the rostrum facing practically a full auditorium. The superintendent, Prof. Otis Hilliard, had charge of the improvised program. Rev. Moores conducted the chapel service. The writer made a short, impromptu talk; and was followed by Mr. E. V. Boynton, secretary of the board of trustees, who spoke well to the point. Last, but by no means least, Prof. Hilliard delivered his opening address, in which he asked the co-operation of all the people in the district; set forth the general principles on which he expects the school to operate and, for himself and the four lady teachers, assured his audience of their readiness to co-operate with the community in every good work. This is as it should be. Teachers who fail at this point, fail in a very important part of the work which is naturally and reasonably expected of them. Example, as well as precept counts for much.

The distribution of the work will be as follows: Miss Delia Carroll of Snyder will have charge of grades 1 and 2. Miss Mable Houston of Snyder will have charge of grades 3 and 4. Miss Winnie Houston also of Snyder will handle grades 5 and 6. Miss Cora Sealey of Borden County will have grades 7 and 8. The principal, Mr. Otis Hilliard of Denton will take care of grades 9 and 10. We certainly wish these teachers (all new to us, though not to the profession) great success in their great work.

Rains and Crops.

In spite of our many short comings, the Lord has been very gracious to us. For, almost immediately after the fine union meeting started in August the rains began to fall and have continued at frequent intervals with the result that since August 5, 5 7-8 inches have fallen here in Fluvanna. In some parts of the community it seems that considerably more water has fallen; at the same time some portions have probably received less. The first 14 days of September brought us 3 1-16 inches. These rich blessings have thus come to us without any sort of storm. "Bless the Lord O my soul, and all that is within me, bless His Holy name. Bless the Lord O my soul and forget not all His benefits."

Our part of the country now looks like exuberant spring time. Vegetation, crops and grass, are growing rapidly and looking fine, except that much of our stuff is yet rather small as a result of the drouth in early summer. No cotton has yet been ginned here, but business of this kind will soon be picking up.

Matters Religious.

Because of the Sunday morning rain our Sunday schools were non-plused, with the further result that there were no morning services.

Nevertheless, Rev. Wallace Ditto, who is here holding a meeting, preached at the Methodist church in the afternoon and at night. We understand that these meetings, which began on Thursday night of last week will continue for some time.

Those who attended the Baptist Association from this place at Colorado City were: W. G. Sims, Ted Melton, Mrs. Ted Melton, E. V. Boynton, C. E. Trussell, Mrs. J. W. Clawson, Mrs. John Buchanan, Mrs. Johnnie Bley, Mrs. Dr. A. W. Browning. All report a great spiritual feast on wonderful gospel messages of Rev. G. W. Parks, Rev. Jeff Davis and many other, an inspiring meeting of the W. M. S. and a very enjoyable time generally.

They say the good people of Colorado are not lacking in good things to eat or true West Texas hospitality.

Personals.

Burline Boynton left Saturday for Fort Worth to spend a few days with her aunt, Mrs. W. B. Dane.

W. G. Sims left Monday for Fannin County to attend the funeral of

Mrs. Sturdivant left Monday for Slaton to spend a few days with a sick sister.

The R. S. & P. railroad is doing considerable repair work on this end of the line.

D. A. Jones and son, Wallace H., made a business trip to the Plains country and returned last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jones, who for several months have resided at Justiceburg, have moved back to Fluvanna, where they are always thrice welcome. Russell will assist in operating the Fuller gin through this season.

Mrs. C. D. Cribbs returned Tuesday from the Alexander Sanitarium, of Abilene, where she recently underwent a serious operation. Her many friends are glad to have the good lady back with a prospect for renewed health.

We understand that Mrs. E. W. Lemon was taken to Lubbock Tuesday where she expects to undergo an operation. We hope it goes well with her.

Dr. J. T. Jones has been on the sick list for several days, but is reported better.

Visiting.

Mrs. W. D. Pace and grandson of McGregor, Texas, and Mrs. S. D. Wood and granddaughter of Dallas, are visiting their sister, Mrs. D. A. Jones of this place for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Davis visited her sister, Mrs. Ed Boles of Post, last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. John Stavely and daughter, Rosenell are visiting Mrs. Stavely's parents at Southland this week.

J. L. Roddy and family have recently returned from a visit to Fannin County.

Strange Things.

One day this village preacher (a Presbyterian) presented himself at the general delivery window of our postoffice and asked, rather indefinitely, for some postage stamps. The genial postmaster promptly inquired (as doubtless he often has to do) "What denomination do you wish?" Why, Presbyterian, of course was our reply. It seems strange that an experienced postmaster should not know what stamp-denomination a Presbyterian preacher would prefer. Uncle Sam is certainly accommodating in that he undertakes to meet the wishes of all denominations without prejudice. See?—Jas. H. Tate, Cor.
