

Trim Your Sails---

In line with our preceding ad, in which we printed verbatim an article by Roger H. Babson, may we be permitted to add some more observations along the same line. We are not pessimistic, rather we are optimistic and happy that our community is so much better off financially than other sections of the state. But in view of the existing circumstances, we believe this a great time for all of us to trim our sails, head towards the shore and stay close in. We advise everyone to not take on any new obligations unless you can see your way clear to another crop. We believe this a grand opportunity to get down to bedrock living; to produce as much as possible our living at home and quit buying those things which are not absolutely necessary to our business, health and well-being. We add that nothing will help our credit so much as to pay our obligations, now, no matter what the future may hold.

To the person who has plenty of money, we would say, do not buy luxuries, nor invest in wild-cat schemes. Your money can be safely invested at a nice rate of interest in the upbuilding of your own community and for the purpose of making another crop.

This institution is still urging you to bank with us and you can bank on us to carry our share of the load through to another crop, if by so doing we can help to keep our community on a sound financial basis.

(Crowded Out Last Week)

Fay, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Day, died at the family home in Snyder Saturday of diphtheria. Funeral services were held at the family residence Sunday by Rev. Jeff Davis. Interment in Snyder cemetery. Another child of Mr. and Mrs. Day also has diphtheria, but recovering, the Times-Signal is informed.

Misses Edna and Nan Wilson were business visitors in Lubbock Saturday.

LEADING COTTON COUNTIES.

Eighteen counties of Central West Texas surrounding Abilene had produced $13,288 bales of cotton this season prior to November 1, according to figures just issued by the department of commerce. This is practically the same volume of production that was reached during the 1924 season, the total being only 5,349 less than that for the same counties prior to November 1, 1924.

Although their crop will be much less than that of last year, some counties having produced less than one-eighth as many bales as last year. Central Texas counties are leading, with Runnels in thirteenth position the highest ranking of any West Texas county. Jones County ranks seventeenth and Taylor county twenty-fifth.

Runnels county stands at the head of all West Texas counties, with 47,418 bales, compared to 39,492 to November 1 last year. Jones is second with 40,142 and Taylor third with 32,840.

Probably the greatest decrease from the 1924 output that is shown by any county is in Williamson, where only 10,483 bales had been ginned, compared to 94,938 bales last year. Ellis, the state leader last year is in fourth place with 61,308 bales, compared to 106,492 last season. Collin County is now the state leader with 74,585 bales.

Miss Flois Merrill returned Friday from Slaton where she has been visiting with Mrs. Frank Merrill.

Tom McMillan says he can remember when the only time a woman appeared on the streets with as little on as they wear now was when her house was on fire.

"Some of the girls who get married these days," says Rev. Dodson, "know just enough about housekeeping to think an electric iron does its own ironing."

You've got to say this much for the corn doctor—he knows enough to begin at the foot.

"What the future has in store for you," sagely remarks Rev. Manley, "depends largely in what you place in store for the future."

High hoes are coming back in style. Well, the women have to wear something, don't they?

"If you want to see an old-timer wiggle with delight," says J. W. Templeton, "just watch him when some good-looking woman tells him that he has a fine forehead."

Court reports in the U. S. show marriages decreasing and divorces increasing. It's a race between the fireside and the flivver.

"Whenever a fellow stops you on the street and says he is going to be perfectly frank with you," declares A. C. Wilmeth, "you had better get set to hear some bad news."

Walter Williams says: "I didn't know toothpicks were so fashionable till one-yard dresses came in style."

W. L. Holland of May, Texas, dropped dead at the Woodrow hotel in this city Sunday. He was 63 years old. His remains were shipped to May for burial. He has a brother living in the China Grove community.

THE METHODIST M. W. A.

The spacious home of Mrs. Joe Strayhorn was the scene of a pleasant gathering Monday afternoon when Mrs. Strayhorn assisted by Mrs. J. L. Martin and Mrs. T. J. Thompson received the Woman's and the Young Woman's Missionary Auxiliaries of the Methodist church in a joint "Voice" program. Miss Myrtle Martin presided at the registration table, where many members of both societies recorded their names, also the guests, Mrs. Bolin, Mrs. Youngblood of Seagraves, and Mrs. Roberts of Plainview.

After a devotional service, the roll of each society was called by Mrs.

Snyder and Mrs. Hardy respectively, responded to by interesting missionary excerpts. Mrs. Boren, assisted by Mrs. Howell and Mrs. Gann presented the program, stressing the responsibility of parenthood.

This was followed by the merry mingling of the guests matching their place cards and finding their tables, where the hostesses, assisted by Misses Myrtle Martin, Davida Curry, Cecile Strayhorn and Mrs. Templeton of Houston, served a plate luncheon consisting of delicacies of honored custom at this time of the year. This with the turkey favors, the crackling wood fires and the beautiful autumn flowers reminded these women that once again it was the happy Thanksgiving time and that one of the things for which they were thankful was the privilege of enjoying each others society in this hospitable home.

Owners of one of the largest Life Insurance Agencies in Texas

This week we present Messrs. Ernest Taylor and W. E. Keith, both of whom are strong believers in Snyder and Scurry County. They are General Agents for the United Fidelity Life Insurance Co., of Texas, with headquarters at Dallas. This insurance company is a Texas Company, owned, controlled and operated by Texas people. Every dollar of their income is invested and deposited in Texas. The agency of Taylor and Keith has only been established a little more than 18 months though they have made many records in the matter of life insurance that it will be many days before they are equalled. Some of these records follow: Greatest percentage of cash with applications, considering appreciable amount of business; Largest amount of insurance in force; Best average policy (six months); Largest number of policy holders; largest number of applications written (one day); smallest percentage of rejections (1 year) two; largest number of applications received at Home Office (1 day) one agency; largest amount of business received at Home Office (1 day) one agency, $157,500.00; and greatest number of applications for preferred risk rider. This agency has over $1,250,000.00 of Insurance in force in this county. This year up to the present time they have written more than $700,000.00. The United Fidelity has great confidence in the integrity and ability of the members of this agency and they keep a large amount of money on deposit in the banks of Scurry County to be used in paying off all claims, either death or accident. The agency of Taylor and Keith adjust and pay all claims here. There is no delay in sending away the proof of death, etc., before you get your money on your policy. The papers are all prepared by representatives of this agency and the money paid "instanter." This agency writes some 17 different forms of Life Insurance. A policy to fit every risk. Most noticeable among the policies is the "Preferred Risk" rider is attached to all policies issued by the company of $2,000.00 or more with the exception of the 5 and 10 year term. It has been the writer's privilege to have known the senior member of the firm, Ernest Taylor, for some twenty-five years when he was a long, lanky kid going to the grade school and we are glad to see him ascend the ladder of success until today he has one of the largest life insurance agencies in Texas, president of a bank in his home town, and he is considered by everyone to be one of the most substantial and progressive business men in the county. Not only Ernest, but Mr. Keith is back of every thing (no matter what the nature) that will benefit any town or community in our county. They are strong believers in our schools, our churches, our citizenry, and also believe in trading with those who trade with them. They trade with home merchants. WHY NOT YOU?

Ezra McWhackle, a pickle king, also a down-east Yankee with a happy disposition, takes his beautiful young daughter, Eleanor and goes to visit Dan Soda, ruler of Hot Tamale Land. His object in going to Hot Tamale Land is to take his daughter away so she will forget Bobby Hunter, whom she is deeply in love with, and marry some rich fellow in Hot Tamale Land. Bobby is very much in love with Eleanor, but as Bobby is a poor boy Mr. McWhackle does not approve of his marriage with Eleanor. Members of the party on the trip to Hot Tamale Land are Agatha Fidget, a precise old maid, who acts as guardian to Eleanor, and makes life miserable for Eleanor. Father McWhackle and Ned and Dick, two wholesome young fellows of college age, also friends of Bobby.

Bobby is so in love with Eleanor that he becomes a stowaway and arrives in Hot Tamale Land about the same time as McWhackle's party. Now McWhackle wants Eleanor to marry Punko Dora, a land domineering fellow who is the walking delegate of Local No. 23 Bull Fighters' Union of Hot Tamale Land and tells Bobby that he must earn ten thousand dollars before he can claim Eleanor's hand.

Don Soda Di Poppo arranges a bull fight and offers ten thousand dollars to the man who will fight and conquer El Toro, the savage and untamed bull who has killed seven men. Bobby enters the arena, wins the ten thousand dollars and also Eleanor. But Bobby and Eleanor are not the only ones who plunge into the sea of matrimony, for Ned and Dick are very much taken with Dolores and Juanita, two shy Senoritas. Also Agatha Fidget falls in love for the first time in her life with Don Soda. Up until this time she has never had a good impression of mankind in general, but after meeting Don Soda she soon changes her mind and so the story finishes in the approved fashion.

Charity Should Begin at Home

Charity comes of that fine state of mind and kindly feeling which shows a person to be possessed of an abundance of good will and unselfish interest towards others, finding expression in both word and action. We extend our hearty co-operation to the Lions Club in their genuine desire to do something that falls within the radius of the good, the true, and the beautiful.

May our white robe of charity be big enough to give comfort to all who need a kind word, a generous act, and a helping hand.

FLUVANNA NEWS

(Crowded Out Last Week)

Business Affairs

turns out that our cotton crop very seriously damaged by the freeze of October 28. The usual estimate put our loss at about one-half the yield expected the day before the freeze occurred. This probably means a money loss to the community of some $50,000.00. This is bad, but in a case of sickness, we can stand it if we take good care of our selves. In spite of this loss, some interesting developments are going on. It seems that seven new residences, in the community, are assured. A few days ago D. A. Jones sold to Dan T. Whately, brother to Mrs. D. A. Jones, one section of land, the same being the W. C. Jones tract. Mr. Whately the south half of what is known as (who lives at Iowa Park) is just beginning the erection of four nice four room bungalows, together with other necessary conveniences. About 600 acres of the new land will be put into cultivation. At the same time we understand that Tolley Favor is about to begin the erection of a nice home on his land, some four or five miles north of town. J. J. Belew, our hardware man, is about to begin the erection of a new home on what is known as the James place, some four miles west of town. B. O. Stavelly is bringing a new home to completion here in Fluvanna. All of this means progress and development; and this is just what our community needs. Several more good houses would be in demand here in town, if they were only available. Let the good work go on. A railroad surveying crew is at work between here and Dermott. It seems that no one has been able to learn just what company is doing the work or what the objective point may be. It does not seem certain yet whether the new line may come thru Fluvanna, or whether it may go a little to the south of us. However, in either case, it seems certain that Fluvanna will, by and by, enjoy the conveniences of a new line. Now watch us grow.

On account of the cotton situation mentioned above, the Fuller gin has shut down, leaving the balance of the work to the Boren-Taylor gin. The two plants have turned out, up to this noon, 612 bales.

Matters Religious

Good attendance and good services were reported from both the Baptist and Christian churches last Sunday. Rev. A. D. Leach has been called and has accepted the same charge here for another year. Brother Leach is a good man and we wish him good success in his work. Rev. B. A. Moore, pastor of the Methodist church, was away at Conference last Sunday, but has since returned and informs us that he is to remain on the same field for another year. He and his family are good people and we, likewise, wish them good success in their efforts to advance the Kingdom. In response to the request of the pastor, Rev. H. J. Manley, about 30 of our people of the Presbyterian church, including the principal part of the choir and the former pastor and wife, hied away, late last Sunday afternoon to Snyder where we attended and took part in the service which included the ordination of four ruling Elders, previously elected in the Presbyterian church of that place. In the opinion of this village preacher the entire program was well rendered and was a great success. Sometimes the Snyder and Fluvanna choirs sang jointly, sometimes separately. In either case they seemed to have the real spirit of song and praise uppermost in their hearts, hence, each number was a real treat. Mrs. Wolcott, of the Snyder choir, sang a beautiful solo. This was followed by an appropriate quartet number by Messrs. John and Boss Stavelly, Wallace Jones and Mrs. Maggie Favor, with Mrs. Minnie Jones at the piano. The pastor preached an appropriate sermon and conducted the ordination service, the writer leading the consecrating prayer. All the Deacons and Elders of the two churches were seated in a group. Immediately following the setting apart of the new officers, this scribe, a former pastor of both churches, addressed the Elders, calling attention to the nature and warrant of the office and duties and responsibilities imposed upon them.

Following the benediction, handshaking and cordial greetings were much in evidence. Although there were numerous and pressing invitations extended to the Fluvanna group to spend the remainder of the night in Snyder homes; but we thought best to return to our own habitats, so we hit the pike, bring many wholesome thoughts and happy impressions—all of which were unmarred by any incident on the way.

Rev. Manley will fill his appointment at Fluvanna next Sunday.

Personals

23 pickers, mostly youngsters, were engaged in Sam Beaver's cotton field last week. Racing soon came to be the order of each day's work. Accordingly the young folks were divided into two groups—juniors and seniors—and Mr. Beaver offered a bonus of fifty cents to the winner in each group each day. The older group consisted of eight boys and girls as follows: Rosa Beaver, Phamy and Luke Weems, Nathan and Inez Beaver, Pauline Haynes, Jack and Jim Moore. Luke won two of the three bonuses and tied with Nathan Beaver the third time. The younger group did fine work but we did not obtain their names.

Murdock Jones is gliding about over our roads in a new Ford. What next?

Dan Ed Whatley, son of D. T., is here superintending the erection of the new homes, above mentioned. His parents, former residents of this place, were welcome visitors in our midst a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Melton are returning to Justiceburg where they formerly resided.

Tom Sturdivant and family are moving to the Hermleigh community.

Sam Wooten, for some time with the Fuller gin, is moving back to his farm.

Mrs. Arlis Haynes is in Roscoe this week helping care for a sick brother-in-law, Mr. Andrew Cain.

Strange Things

Strange as it seems to this scribe, quite a number of the Fluvanna people appear to be sharply disappointed because our article failed to appear in the issue of the 5th and the last one was held over to a later date. This upsets announcements carried in those articles; but it may be that the big new printing press, being installed, will bring everything out right in due time. We did not know that these articles were so much in demand until things went awry. "All things work together for good."

JAS. H. TATE, Corr.

The "Devil's" Note:—Sometime we are compelled to leave an article on account of not having room for the entire article and we do not want to run a part of it. The number of pages we are going to issue each week is decided the early part of the week and when once decided it is too late to change and in many instances we are compelled to leave our some very live, "newsy" articles. This we regret as much as do our readers and the writer who happens to be the "fall" guy.

Did Your Furniture Cost Money?

And have you protected it with insurance so that a fire can not sweep away all the time and labor it represents?

Adequate insurance means taking care to safeguard the possessions for which you originally spent large sums of money. It makes your home a permanent investment, because disaster can not sweep away the money you have put into it.

The advice of this agency has saved many a property owner from loss. Why not let us help you, too?

WHEN IS THE POULTRY SHOW— DECEMBER 2 TO 5.

Who is going to show something? A lot of folks from Munday, Haskell, Rule, Girard and Sweetwater say they are coming and you Scurry County Red cranks had better be pouring on the talcum for if you beat that Munday bunch you can pat yourself on the back and say I have won a victory. Someone told me the committee on entertainment was whispering around the corner fried chicken for Friday evening the fourth night of the show if they do I would like to sit by the editor of the Scurry County Times-Signal and see if he can tell the difference in a Brown Leghorn and S. C. Red in a meeting of this kind.

Well, the ribbons are all here from purple, blue, red, yellow, green and white and they are sure beauties.

Cramped and Suffered

"My back and head would ache, and I had to go to bed," says Mrs. W. L. Ennis, of Worthville, Ky. "I just could not stay up, for I would cramp and suffer so. I was very nervous. My children would get on my nerves. It wasn't a pleasure for me to try to go anywhere, I felt so bad. My mother had taken at one time, so she insisted that I try it. I took four bottles of Cardui, and if one should see me now they wouldn't think I had ever been sick. "I have gained twenty pounds, and my cheeks are rosy. I feel just fine. I am regular and haven't the pain. "Life is a pleasure. I can do my work with ease. I give Cardui the praise." Cardui has relieved many thousands of cases of pain and female trouble, and should help you, too. Take Cardui. At All Druggists' E-100

CARDUI For Female Troubles

Some folks say they have the best chickens in the country, but they haven't time to put them in the show. Well, I can enter a dead rooster and beat them. The fellow that wins will be he who enters something. The different committees are working hard to make the show a real success and we trust everyone who has lent a helping hand in any way will receive their reward. Now, Mr. Editor and readers, don't get the idea that I am egotistical over this thing. I am only trying to get our folks to see that a real collection of standard poultry in a good show would only be a feature of education to the fellow who has never had the first fever.

Respectfully yours, J. A. MERRITT, Secretary.

A Bride's First Purchase and her story about it

"When we began to keep house in 1919," writes Mrs. T. P. Tucker of Beeville, Texas, "we bought a four-burner Perfection Stove. We have used it every day for cooking all our meals and still use two of the original wicks."

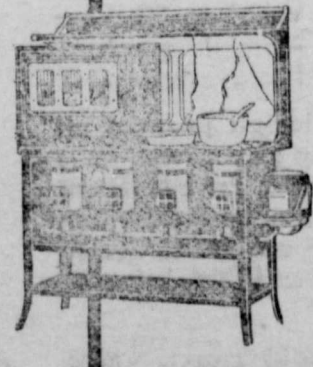

"My stove is in perfect order and has lots of service still left in it. For every kind of cooking I have found it very capable. I know that I can depend upon it at all times."

"I am convinced that the Perfection is the best oil stove to be bought, and you may be sure that my next stove will be a Perfection."

Mrs. T. P. Tucker.

Many women, like Mrs. Tucker, have used Perfections from the time they started housekeeping. For good reasons, too. Perfections burn only kerosene, the safe, household fuel. Fast-as-gas burners, roomy cooking surface, and simple operation make them ideal stoves. Any dealer will gladly show you their many advantages. PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

(Crowded Out Last Week)
A most interesting and entertaining program was furnished the thirty-six parents and teachers that met in the Snyder high school auditorium on last Friday, November 12. "Mistah Sunshine" and "Cheer Up Chilluns," two negro songs, were very cleverly sung by Mrs. Hugh Boren, Miss Lucille Strayhorn playing the accompaniment. Mrs. Roland Bell and Mrs. Marie Palmer Green gave interesting discussions on "What We Should Expect of Our Teachers" and "What We Should Expect of Our Patrons." Miss Erma Taylor read a clipping from O. Henry's "October in June." Mr. I. C. Bagwell briefly discussed the duty of the parents and teachers to each other.

At the business session, Mrs. O. P. Thrane, president, presiding, it was voted to join the County Federation. In the Home Economics room delicious refreshments of sandwiches, oatmeal cookies, and tea were served to the members and guests.

MEAT CANNING DEMONSTRATION

(Crowded Out Last Week)
A meat canning demonstration was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beavers at Fluvanna for the Home Demonstration Club there. The members met at nine o'clock Tuesday morning and work was started on cutting steaks, roasts and stews. In a short time these meats were ready for the sealing and processing. Before the day was over one hundred No. 3 cans, and forty No. 2 cans of steaks, stews, roasts, soup and chile were canned.

In another part of the Fluvanna community there will be a canning demonstration of meats on December 1. Miss Laura Bell Roten, county demonstration agent, states that all those in the Fluvanna community wishing to learn to can meat will please come to this demonstration as it is impossible for her to go into each community as often as they wish.

Mr. and Mrs. Beavers canned 40 No. 2 cans of beans and peas in the summer and report that they are all keeping nicely.

MRS. NAIL FINDS DEMONSTRATION CANNING PROFITABLE.

(Crowded Out Last Week)
Mrs. M. O. Nail, a member of the Home Demonstration Club of Dunn,

Texas, has canned two hundred seventy No. 3 cans of vegetables under the supervision of the county home demonstration agent, Miss Laura Bell Roten. This includes seventy-five No. 3 cans of corn, one hundred fifty No. 3 cans of black-eyed peas, and forty-five No. 3 cans of beans. The loss has been one can of corn. Mrs. Nail is planning to can, within the next month or two, a beef and one half a hog.

Mrs. Nail says she considers home canning very profitable. She has bought a steam pressure cooker and a Burpee sealer, paying around thirty-nine fifty for them. After paying for her cooker, sealer and her tin cans, she feels that she has made something like sixteen fifty. This is not counting her beef and hog.

Mrs. Nail also stated that she could go to church, get back home and prepare dinner for eleven people in forty-five minutes, using her canned foods.

"It's a lot of work to can, but it's done in a few days, then the food is ready for use the entire year," Mrs. Nail declared.

As to the utility of the steam pressure cooker, she uses it not only for canning, but prepares a dinner of from two to three vegetables at the same time with less fuel. Mrs. Nail states that she will be glad to answer any questions with regard to her success in the demonstration canning. However, she attributes her success to the following implicit directions:

"While some have lost from one reason or another, but to be successful in canning work proper directions must be followed," Miss Roten declares. "Vegetables must be gathered at the proper time, prepared and put in cans carefully. Too much stress cannot be laid on proper sealing and processing."

LOCAL LIONS HOLD OPEN SESSION.

(Crowded Out Last Week) The local Lions, each with his own "honess," or his own "feline," as President Jack Harris of the local club put it, left their respective lairs last Friday and spent the evening at their regular place of meeting in feasting, joking, merry-making and in having a royally good time in general.

The following program was rendered: Toastmaster—Mayor Fritz R. Smith. Address—Welcome to Ladies—W. W. Hamilton. Response—Mrs. O. P. Thrane. Dinner Served by the Ladies of the resbyterian Church. Musical—Miss Lucille Strayhorn, Mrs. Hugh Boren. Oration—"Why I Am a Liar Instead of a Lion," 20 minutes. Speaker to be supplied. "What a Lion Club Means to a City"—E. J. Anderson. Musical—Fred T. Wilhelm, W. M. Morrow, J. L. Martin. "Signs of the Times"—J. M. Harris, President Lions Club. Quartet—J. C. Stinson, H. J. Brice, Nest Taylor, Jno. F. Carmichael. Closing Address—O. P. Thrane.

Notes. Fritz R. Smith presided as toastmaster in his usual easy manner, saying whenever occasion demanded, with powerful philosophy and oratory. W. W. Hamilton surprised everyone present, unless it was Mrs. Hamilton; no one knew before that he was such a ladies' man. His beautiful eulogies attested the fact that he is a woman's friend. Mrs. O. P. Thrane again proved her ability as a speaker as well as proving to the satisfaction of all present that she deserved the title given her by the toastmaster—"The Cotton Queen of the South." The dinner served by the Presbyterian ladies was in keeping with the rest of the program as it was befitting the gods of Olympus or the deities of old. Miss Lucille Strayhorn, Mrs. Hugh Boren and Mrs. A. C. Preuit again proved that they are real entertainers, as their musical numbers were highly enjoyed by all.

"Com" Ezell was billed for an oration on "Why I Am a Liar Instead of a Lion." But "Com" failed to respond, as he knew that all present were aware of that fact anyhow. Those who had to pay fines because of his false statements before the official "tall-twister" were unanimous in giving "Com" the honor of chief of all modern Ananiases. E. J. Anderson told what a Lions Club means to a city, and also told what the Lions Club has meant to Snyder. No telling what he might have said if Mrs. Anderson had not stopped him just as he was in the act of exploding both barrels loaded with high powered philosophy and oratory. Fred Wilhelm and his accordion simply brought down the house. A. M. Morris with his mandolin and President Jack Harris with his ukulele, or some foreign music box that talked German like Fred's accordion, or some other outlandish dialect, helped Fred out a great deal by drowning some of the discord of Fred's accordion. W. M. Morrow, who was on the program, but who was not present at all, was unanimously voted the chief of "pikers."

President Harris made a good talk on "Signs of the Times." He began with the birth of Christ and wound up with the death of Satan. He laid down enough premisses, which if they had been properly developed for correct deductions, his speech would have lasted at least seven hours. His scattering remarks were due no doubt to radio influences, as he is said to be a great radio bug, and "tunes in" on nearly everything. In fact, he took the prize for being the city's champion radio receiver-adjuster. J. C. Stinson, H. J. Brice, Ernest Taylor and Jno. F. Carmichael, who sang a quartet apropos, compatible—had everything else that is synonymous to appropriate to the occasion—were brought back for a second spasm by a tremendous encore. They sang long and loud, the vibrations from their perfectly blended voices actually tearing asunder the heavy board backs that enclosed the sheets of music before them. The closing address, by O. P. Thrane, who is always so demure and precise, like the old woman's dance, was "short but sweet." But having received the endorsement of Andy Anderson as to its appropriateness, he was suddenly seized with stage fright and collapsed. At this juncture, the bell—Toastmaster Smith's cow bell—rang and the menagerie quietly disbanded.

FELLOWSHIP CLASS.

The Fellowship Class of the First Presbyterian church had a very pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. P. C. Chenault on Friday evening, November 20. The Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery Knights Templar of Texas.

Sir Knight Bell has held and filled every station in his Lodge, Chapter and Commandery, and is a life member in all these bodies. Before he was 25 he was High Priest of the largest Chapter at that time in Texas, and simultaneously Eminent Commander of Colorado Commandery No. 4 K. T., the largest Commandery at that time in Texas.

To be elected to the office of Grand Commander of Knights Templar is a very great honor and distinction. Texas ranks sixth in the United States having over 90 Commanderies, with upwards of twenty thousand members. Sir Knight Bell will be a guest of Snyder Commandery tomorrow night, November 27.

NOTICE.

It becomes necessary for me to leave town within a few days and I deem it unwise to leave without first arranging for some one to look after the accounts of Grayum Drug Company, at that time unpaid.

I will, therefore, turn all accounts, regardless of personage, over to a collection agency. Until they take the accounts, the ledgers will be at Warren Bros. drug store and they will accept payment for me. Those who know themselves indebted to me will save themselves trouble and publicity by arranging their accounts before the first.

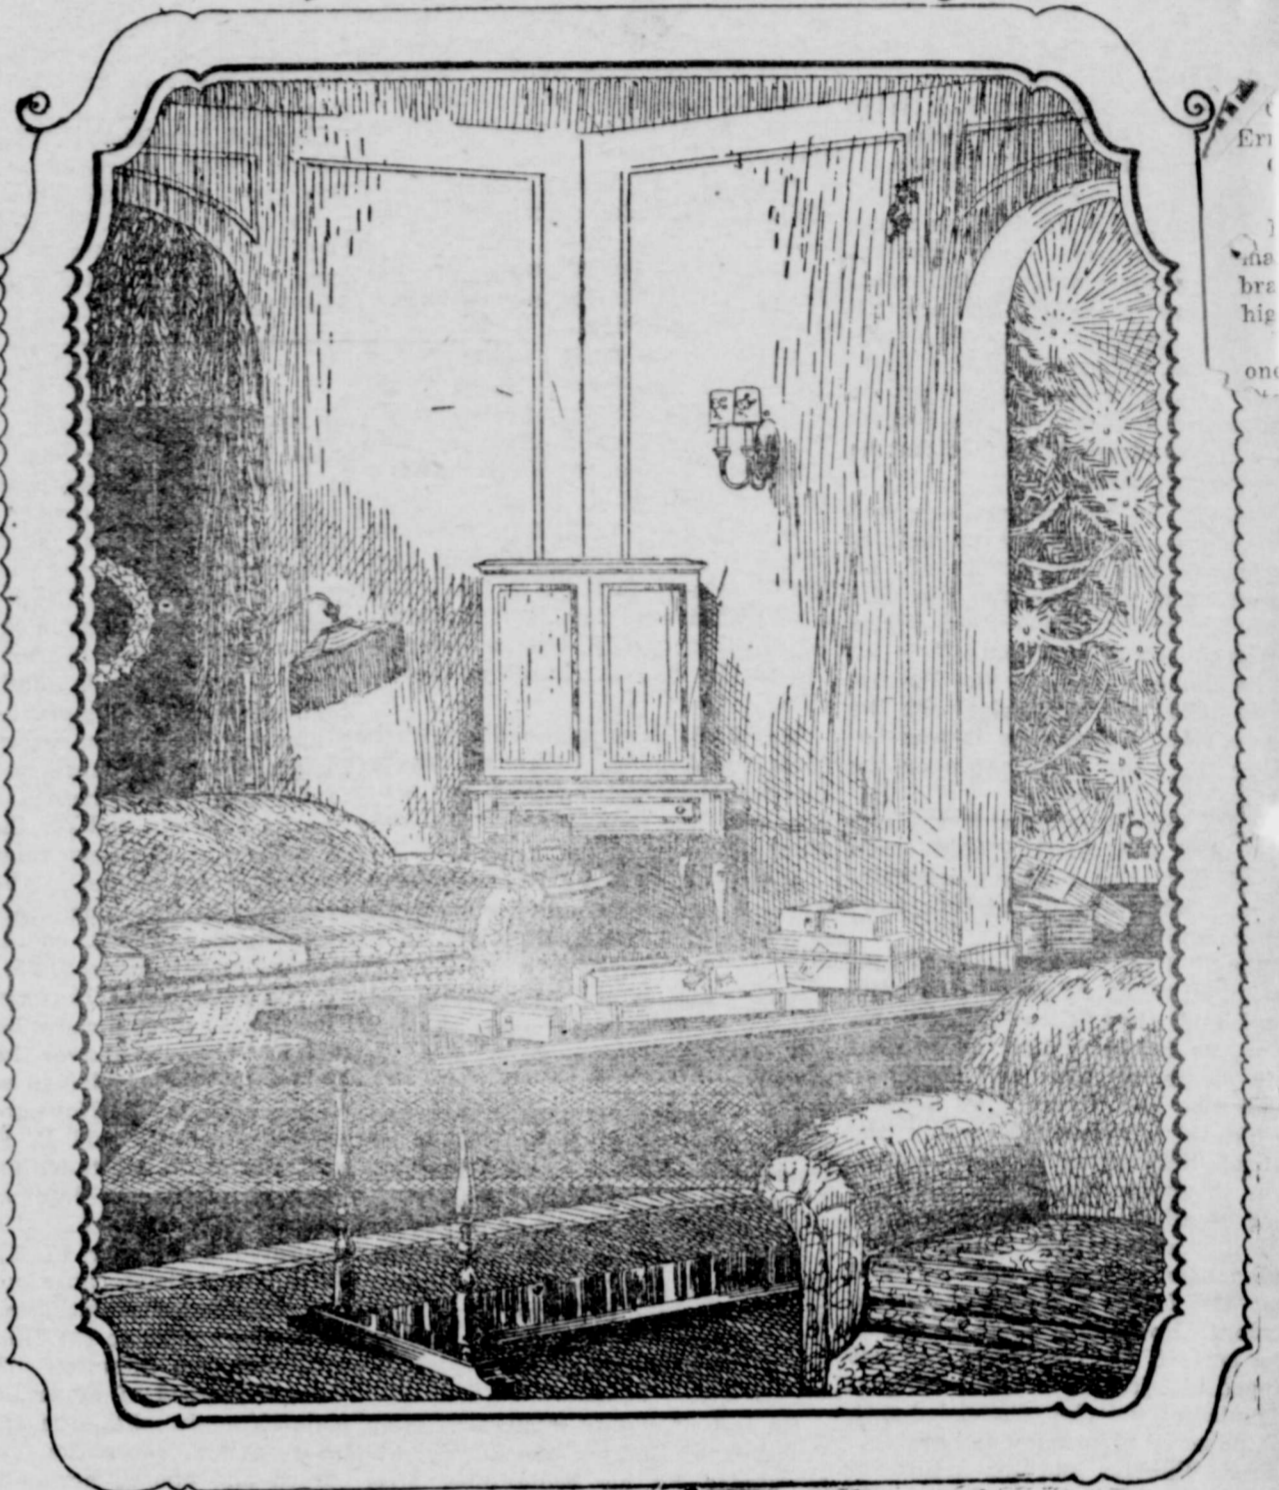

I would like to stay here all winter and look after these accounts, giving extensions, etc., but other matters demand my time, hence I must demand prompt settlement.

NOTICE TO AUTO OWNERS.

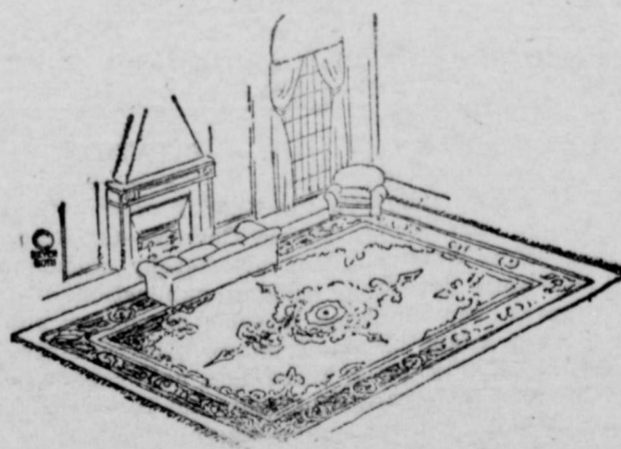

Our Statutes provide that your license for 1926 be paid by Jan. 1, 1926, and we ask you to co-operate with us by paying during the month of December. It will be such a help to the Tax Collector to get the auto receipts issued before the January rush of tax collections, and be sure sure to bring your license receipts with you for it will be such a saving of time and the law requires it. And our Statutes further provides that before any County Tax Collector shall issue a certificate of registration to the owner of a motor vehicle or motorcycle as now provided by law, he shall require the presentation of a certificate showing that the head lights of such motor vehicle or motorcycle have been tested and adjusted at some one of the county test stations, referred to, and that said test and adjustment have been made within the thirty-day period preceding the date of application for registration. Be sure and bring this certificate, for the collector cannot register your car without it. We ask your co-operation.
