Mr. Farmer:

Give Your Cotton A Fair Chance

Because the price of cotton is low, you should give it the very best chance you possibly can to bring the best price possible.

The GINNING has more to do with QUALITY than many might suppose. In order that the cotton growers of Scurry County might be able to get the very highest price possible for their staple, we installed in our gin a complete set of STREUN'S BUROUT BUR EXTRACTORS, by which process your co ton will pass through four sets of CLEANERS before it gets to the saws. Each stand is supplied with four sets of these cleaners, and it is almost impossible to have any burs, sticks, dirt or any other sort of trash mixed in with the lint.

We need your business and have gone to all this expense in order to merit your patronage, and will not only guarantee the very best of service, but assure you that we will appreciate any ginning, great or small, that you bring to us.

JUNIOR LEAGUE VISITS THE ENCHANTED FOREST.

It was a pleasure much to be hoped for, when Miss Ruth Yoder announced to the boys and girls of the Junior Epworth League of the who lived in the enchanted forest, asking that the league might some day visit them there. It was then an event to be looked forward to, when Ruth announced at a later date, she had received a favora-ble reply, saying the witches would be at home to the boys and girls on Thursday evening, October 28. The witches also stated, that they had visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Yoder early in the afternoon, leaving some games and various kinds of entertainment for them to enjoy before their depar-ture to the enchanted forest. Eager to show their appreciation of low the given instructions lest the anger of the witches be aroused, twenty-five bright and beaming young faces appeared on the Yo-
