TEXAS AND TEXANS

BY WILL H. MAYES

Political Spotlighters

Even a careless glance at the "political news" in Texas reveals that most of those whose names appear most prominently in the daily press are the same old spotlighters who are ready to stir up almost any kind of a political mess in Texas every two years if only they may be written about by the political reporters or get their newspaper contributions published in the "Public Opinion" columns. As regularly as a Texas election comes around they trot themselves around for public inspection and at times ready to come to the front and stirring up great political dust. During presidential years, opportunities being nearly twice as great for attracting attention, they feel like they are in a political heaven. Be patient with them. It is a delusion of a kind for which there is no restraining law in this state.

Homestead Law Attacked

A POPULAR pastime for many years has been to attack the Texas homestead law. It is open to some objections. The homestead should be made to bear its part of any expense in building streets and sidewalks about the homestead without the necessity of general taxation under a bond issue. The benefits derived from paved streets and cement walks about a piece of property are of proportion to taxes paid unless all streets are improved alike, and this is impractical. But aside from this objection, the Texas homestead law is a wise safeguard for the home, and often protects it from the wild and unscrupulous lender. The homestead law can withstand all attacks made upon it.

Texas Sulphur Field

AN OIL MAN testifying recently at a hearing of the Interstate Commerce Commission stated that while the proven deposits of the Wharton County sulphur field are 7,000,000 tons, he had every reason to believe they are 15,000,000 or even 20,000,000 tons. While these figures are beyond the calculating powers of most persons, they are enough to show that Wharton County will be supplying the world with sulphur for many years. Wharton is almost as rich in its sulphur and oil fields.

Oiling the Press

OIL WELLS are getting so numerous around Santa Anna and so close up to the business part of the town that the effect is seen in the constantly improving appearance of the News, which is talking on metropolitan looks and airs.

Large Cattle Shipment

CATTLE shipments representing a valuation of a million dollars or more were recently made from Brady in one week. There was one consignment of 12,000 steers to Oklahoma and Kansas points, more than 450 cars being required to handle the week's shipments out of the county. Cattle form only a small part of the many resources that are adding to the wealth of McCulloch County.

Laredo District Onions

LAREDO onions are marketed, ship about 1,200 cars of onions this season, which is only a part of the splendid crop handled between San Antonio and Laredo by the South Texas Onion Growers' Association. Prices at shipping points are ranging from $1.25 to $1.40 a crate for yellows and $1.50 to $1.55 for crystal wax. Systematic and co-operative marketing have done much to make onion growing a profitable industry in Texas.

Tourist Camps Ready

ALPINE announces, through the Avalanche, that its tourist camps are ready for the summer tourists. And the camps are ready at Marfa, at Pecos, at Kerrville, at Menard and scores more places throughout Texas. The tourists are already on the tour and detour. Schools are closing and by the end of the month the roads in Texas will look like the entire population has left home. An experienced observer can tell just how far up-state the cotton crop is chopped and laid by by reading the signs on the cars that indicate where they are from.

UP TO COUNCIL

The Snyder City Council at its first meeting in March announced a unique plan for the beautification of lawns and gardens. Three prizes were offered of free water rent for the best lawns during June, July and August. Texas three months in which the contest is to be waged. Local committees are to judge the lawns and gardens and at the final judging, three disinterested out-of-town judges will come and make their selection.

Mayor Towle appointed the president of each Snyder woman's club as a member of the committee. Prizes announced: First, six months water rent free; second, four months water rent; third, two months water rent. The contest starts tomorrow.

Lions Honor Confederates At Luncheon

Confederate veterans of Snyder and vicinity were honored at the luncheon yesterday by members of the Lions Club and guests. Five gentlemen present, all of whom are worthy and loved citizens of this section, and included: S. L. Milholland, age 85; C. E. Smith, age 84; Uncle Ben Davis, age 82; R. J. Ware, age 80, and W. J. Evans, age 77 years. Beautiful were the tributes paid the veterans by Rev. J. F. Lawlis as he pictured the horrible toll that war have claimed, and beautiful were the thoughts conveyed of what the members owed these veterans who during their youth and prime were ready to lay their life down in defense of what they truly thought was right.

Judge J. M. Harris was chairman, and following a fine chicken dinner that was attended by more than fifty, the Overall Two were introduced, being none other than Messrs. Emmett Butts and W. C. Dever, who sang two clever songs that brought down the house, and as a double encore, with the help of Otis Carter and Pat Bullock, "Where We'll Never Grow Old" was sung and was acclaimed the best musical number ever given at any luncheon here. The chairman in making his announcement said the song was sung as an extra tribute to the "boys in grey" who were present. The club is looking forward to more music from these gentlemen, either in duets or quartets.

Miss Ruth Yoder, one of the prize winners in the recent "My Home Town Contest," gave her interpretation of what Snyder is, and will be. Her conception of the town was remarkable, and the Times-Signal will consider it an honor to publish her story. At the completion of her recitation, Judge Harris pinned the winning medal on the little lady with the crowd giving her a regular Democratic convention ovation.

J. E. Blakely was next introduced in connection with the recent city court case that emanated from the last meeting of the club. He waived the position and passed the honors to Mac Evans who gave a speech one night to the "owls and canaries" in the region of the Pyron school house. But Rev. Lawlis saved the day by remarking that "in Lyons when there is an increase in the family either by marriage or birth, good cigars are ordinarily passed out," and to save himself, Mr. Blakely committed the honors of passing smokes. Clyde Shall will hit his part and will also present good cigars to the bunch.

West Bridge Street Shows Much Activity

The Nicholas Tree Gin Co., who recently purchased the Reichardt gin, have torn all the old machinery out and are placing $7,000 worth of new equipment in the building. The new owners are transforming the old building into one that will be a marked improvement to West Bridge Street. Just across the street is the A. H. Trice gin which is also being improved by the addition of new cleaning and hurr machinery, saws and brushes at a total cost of $6,000.

With these new improvements, with the new De Luxe filling station, lumber yard, and new brick building near to the Snyder Produce Company, West Bridge Street is setting a pace for every other street in town. King & Brown are also contemplating marked improvements to their two buildings, and Higginbotham Bros. and N. M. Harpole are planning extensive improvements.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK DIRECTOR DIES AT SAN ANGELO HOME

J. Moore Shannon, 80, wealthy pioneer banker and rancher of West Texas, died at San Angelo Monday after an illness of several months.

Mr. Shannon was a director of the First National Bank here, and following a telegram to the bank, R. H. Curnette left the same evening for San Angelo. Deceased was interested in a number of banks and insurance companies and other enterprises. He is survived by his widow.

SANTA FE BRIGHTENS UP PROPERTY IN SNYDER

The Santa Fe System wooden buildings in Snyder are now nicely "be-diked" out in a splendid coat of yellow paint with a bronze green trim. They present a fine appearance and add a great deal to their property. Water mains are now being laid to supply tanks which will mean two million gallons of water monthly from the city mains and which Snyder can amply afford whether it be dry or a wet season.

New Bridge Is Needed on Deep Creek

Sentiment for a bridge across Deep Creek has become pronounced at times, then seemed to die down. For the past two months decided impetus has been given to the improvement by not only the large number of residences that have been going up west of Deep Creek, but the general all-round improvement such an addition would make to the City of Snyder.

Taxpayers and citizens who are genuinely interested in this improvement have come to the Times-Signal office with a paper telling of their thoughts in the matter. As good citizens and as cash-paying tax payers the views are welcomed to the columns of this paper, the same as any other resident who has a worthy bit of criticism or suggestion to make, so long as the editor knows the author and the facts of the case. That is a newspaper's duty to the community in which it operates.

The letter verbatim follows: Gentlemen: Your good paper has been boosting for everything, apparently, that you can think of for the good of the city of Snyder and the county of Scurry, so here is another thing that will add much to making the town look better and to the convenience and safety of the property and citizens of both town and county. We are talking about the necessity of a good bridge on West Street over Deep Creek, west of the post office and city hall. This street is now paved to the bank of the creek, and there it dead-ends for all practical purposes. This street is very much congested with traffic at times on account of everyone who drives to the ice station, post office, garage or electric shop has to turn around and come back out. Added to this, the fire station is on this street, and the trucks have to make a short turn in this traffic, and if going to the west side of town have to make two extra turns in heavy traffic with much hazard of life and property, not to mention loss of time to the fire boys when a few minutes may mean the difference between a small loss and a possible conflagration which might sweep half the town if the fire got out of control on a windy day.

This bridge would bridge the creek close to the city property, the trucks would have a down hill run while warming up and miss all the congestion and heavy traffic of the square and save the dangerous turning of this bridge above the creek. The traffic over the bridge, now used and which are expensive to maintain on account of their design. The townspeople who live on the west side could go down town from the ice-station or post office or city hall without turning around, and it would completely solve these problems.

This bridge should be built of concrete with double drive and protected sidewalk on each side. It could be easily built above high water and if built on an incline would give an easy grade or climb from the west.

Another item you might not have thought of in this connection is this: There are a lot of people who like to have some city in town. This bridge would open up to home builders a large area of available building lots. There have been built many thousands of dollars worth of nice homes in the property opened up by this bridge or dip by the county jail. This property was a waste and eyesore before this crossing was made available. The taxes derived from this additional property has made the "dip" a fine revenue producer for the city school system. The same would be true of the proposed bridge across on West Street.

The city and county could divide the expense. The bridge would cost nominal sum, would burden nobody, would solve street congestion, make for safety to life and property and would pay for itself in a few years.

As a matter of history it would be on the site of the old original ford over Deep Creek and would be within one hundred feet of the first habitations in Snyder on the site of the first buffalo hide covered pole structure in the town which was used by Pete Snyder as a home and trading post back in the sixties or early seventies.

Also West Street is the only 80-foot street running through town from east to west and was originally intended for main street, and the first bridge over Deep creek was planned for this place but was moved a block south.

Editor's note—The Times-Signal would like to receive the personal viewpoint of folks who are the most keenly interested in this bridge improvement over Deep Creek.

ACTION IN SNYDER

The Grand Jury assembled Monday morning at 11 o'clock and was relieved of duty Tuesday at 11 o'clock. During that time nine indictments were returned, and according to District Judge Fritz R. Smith, this is the quickest that any Scurry County grand jury has ever completed its work. Five of the nine indictments were for driving while intoxicated, which the Court absolutely insists must stop.

To Speak Here

Louis J. Wardlaw, candidate for governor, with his party, will be in Snyder next Thursday afternoon, one 7, to address the voters regarding his candidacy for office.

Delegate Tells of State G. O. P. Meet at Dallas

To the editors of the Scurry County Times-Signal: As it happened, the writer was a delegate to the Dallas convention on May 22, and from the reception received at the hands of the Dallas people it looked like they were more than glad to place their city at the convention's disposal.

The slightly untoward incident so highly magnified in the state papers was merely the final drawing of color lines in the Republican party of Texas and from reports I am sure the Beaumont delegation looked none the better in comparison. There were 499 accredited delegates seated.

I could not help but feel impressed with the personnel of the convention; men and women who are doing things in our state, rather than office holders, office seekers and chronic politicians, were in dominance. Railroad men, ranchmen, farmers, oil operators, engineers and scientists, mine owners, cotton factors, owners of brick plants, bankers, ship owners, in fact every class of men and women that make for the material prosperity of the state and nation were there. The usual yapping political demagogue was strangely absent, and the convention moved forward with the snap and precision of a directors' meeting in a well conducted business organization.

There was very little recrimination or criticism of the Beaumont bedlam or of the Democratic organization; rather an expression of the part of the delegation that the Houston convention would nominate a real horse for the Presidential Futurity whose ancestral background, personal history and technical training would make him a fit entry against the choice of our convention.

Mr. Hoover was nominated viva voce by the Texas Republicans. There were no other endorsements except that we feel proud of Mr. Coolidge's administration and of a record of the Republican party in Texas for the past several years.

We do feel proud of Mr. Hoover; he is not only a man mentally but physically. Born a Quaker, raised an orphan, fighting his way through life and making good at every turn, he is the type of man we would all be proud to be, the kind of man we try to hold up as an example to follow.

Herbert Hoover's parentage and his own life from birth to date have been raked with a fine tooth comb; the muckers have failed to find a criticism with foundation, nothing but deserved commendation—a real American hero.

Personally, I think that element of church which is so energetically injecting itself into the affairs of state would find leadership in this man.

Annual Appeal For Salvation Army is Begun

The "Home Service Appeal" for the Salvation Army has begun in Scurry County. A meeting of the local advisory board was held Tuesday morning where the quota for the county was adopted. The local board for the county is composed of the following citizens: L. T. Stinson, president; O. P. Thrane, secretary and treasurer; Sam Hamlett, R. H. Curnette, Dr. A. C. Leslie and M. G. Evans.

Senior's of High School Receive Diplomas Tues.

As the audience entered the auditorium their eyes were greeted with a stage setting beautiful to the eye. Profuse were the lovely cut flowers arranged in individual baskets with the front banked with ferns and other harmonizing decorations with the class colors catching the eye at every vantage point.

Following the invocation by Rev. J. F. Lawlis, Miss Ima Lee Thomas rendered a vocal solo, "Swinging," by Wallace Johnson, which was delightfully received and enjoyed, Miss Genoa Cole accompanying. Judge W. W. Hair of Abilene delivered the commencement address in a way that not only endeared himself to the members of the class, but to an audience that completely filled the auditorium. Prefacing the main theme of his admonitions to the class, the speaker gave each individual graduate credit for remaining in Snyder High School to receive their diploma and pleaded with them to continue on to a higher plane of learning, that of a college diploma.

Judge Hair told of an education that not only should affect the brain, but that would combine with the body and heart to make them well-balanced men and women. He said that not all learning, however, is in the books, but that in the outer world youth meets with the practical side of life and that each must carry a large stock of self-reliance in his mind, body and heart, that dependence may be placed in the individual body. He admonished each to be cheerful and unselfish, to be happy and to perform his duties well and to forever drop selfishness and discontent. He stated that dark clouds seem to be hovering and that each individual should analyze himself to get a more intimate perspective of the individual. Each member was advised by Judge Hair to be truly himself in whatever he might undertake. The speaker closed with a beautiful tribute to the flag, and with oratorical flashes that came with the rapidity of machine gun fire, the Judge's address will long remain in the memory of not only the graduating class he addressed, but all who had the pleasure of hearing this learned gentleman.

Miss Genoa Cole rendered a violin solo, "Melody in F" with Miss Ima Lee Thomas accompanying and greatly added to the enjoyments of the evening.

Principal John B. Covey in a splendid short address paid the graduates a befitting tribute, following which they marched as a class across the stage to receive their diplomas. As they passed in review with cap and gown, the spectacle was one that registered in the hearts and minds of the attendants.

The awarding of scholarships was delayed owing to Supt. C. Wedgworth being called away so suddenly owing to the illness of his father. Miss Maurine McInton and Harvey Lee Chenaault were introduced as the honor graduates.

Principal Covey then introduced W. S. Patrick, who has led the Vocational Agriculture class the past year. Mr. Patrick announced Harvey Lee Chenaault, the first prize winner of $10 in gold presented by Editor George F. Smith, with Roe Bavousett, winner of $5 in gold given by Mr. Patrick. Both boys were given an ovation following the presentation. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Lawlis.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WILL HELP FARMERS

Secretary Evans requests each farmer or those wanting work or help to get in touch with him, as cotton chopping time is here. Those wanting any kind of help or wanting to get work are also requested to come to the Chamber of Commerce office where an effort will be made to help them.

Baxter Preaches Baccalaureate Sermon Sunday

Fifty-five graduates, led by Misses Mary Lynn Nation and Una Hart, directly preceded the speakers of the evening. The speakers of the evening, wended their way down the aisle of the high school auditorium Sunday night in an impressive program which included the baccalaureate address by Dr. Bat Baxter, president of Abil Christian College.

The center seats directly facing the stage were reserved for Senior Class, while both sides were reserved for the parents and immediate family of the graduates and members of the faculty and Board of Education. A professional was most impressive as the large group of honor students dressed in full cap and gown wended their way to their respective places.

Following an invocation by R. H. J. Manley and Scripture reading by Rev. W. F. Ferguson, wended their way down the aisle of the high school auditorium Sunday night in an impressive program which included the baccalaureate address by Dr. Bat Baxter, president of Abil Christian College.

It has been said: "The Salvation Army comes nearer meeting every phase of human need than any organization in the world." Its practical common sense, direct method of going straight to the heart of a difficulty, dealing with it with unflinching courage, intense earnestness and refreshing humility have made the name "Salvation Army" a household word significant of hope and help all over the world.

For the benefit of the public, the Salvation Army conducts only the best of work, which is conducted by the local advisory board which is composed of the local citizens. Any other solicitation made by people who say they are the Salvation Army are imposters or do so without the authority of the Salvation Army headquarters at Dallas, Texas.

R. L. Portwood, the campaign director for the organization, is in Snyder to assist the local board in conducting the annual drive. The quota for Scurry County was placed at $250 and the appeal was set for Friday, June 1. So when you are called on to give, dig deep and help those who would help you if you needed it.

Lumber Yard Starts Building Here This Week

The new D. C. Gibson Lumber Company is already on the ground floor in Snyder, two carloads of lumber arriving here last week. Fairy, the new yards are located one block west of the Nicholas Tree Gin on Highway 88, with streets running along the south, west and north sides. Twelve more carloads of lumber are expected here before the end of the week.

R. M. Snow of Amarillo, long identified with the building industry, will be local manager for the company, and on behalf of the merchants and citizenship of Snyder and Scurry County, we welcome the new company and the new manager to the many good things of this section. There is not a finer town nor a finer location for business in all West Texas than Snyder, whether it be for lumber or any other legitimate enterprise.

SNYDER NEEDS HOMES
Never in years have so many requests been received at the Chamber of Commerce for rent houses or apartments. There is indeed a dearth of modern homes for the many folks who are locating in Snyder, and it is high time that either modern rent homes be built, several duplexes or even an apartment building. Snyder needs them.

Chamber of Commerce will tell you that not a single day passes but what from one to three and as high as five requests for homes are made. The Times-Signal knows the situation, for they also come here for information as to what the classified ad columns say. Many of the new people locating here insist on modern homes, and they are yearly able to pay the necessary rent of a modern home.

Years of Service in Model T Fords

Expenditure of few dollars may enable you to get thousands of miles from your old car

THE Model T Ford is still a great car. It led the motor industry for twenty years and it is used today by more people than any other automobile. More than eight million Model T Fords are in active service in city, town and country, and many of them can be driven for two, three and five years and even longer at very small up-keep expense.

The cost of Model T parts and of necessary labor is unusually low because of established Ford policies.

New fenders, for instance, cost from $3.50 to $5 each, with a labor charge of $1 to $2.50. Tuning up the motor and replacing commutator case, brush and vibrator points costs only $1, with a small charge for material. Brake shoes can be installed and emergency brakes equalized for a labor charge of only $1.25. A labor charge of $4 to $5 will cover the overhauling of the front axle, rebushing springs and spring perches, and straightening, aligning and adjusting wheels.

The labor charge for overhauling the average rear axle runs from $5.75 to $7. Grinding valves and cleaning carbon can be done for $3 to $4.

A set of four new pistons costs only $7. For a labor charge of $20 to $25 you can have your motor and transmission completely overhauled. Parts are extra.

All of these prices are approximate, of course, because the cost of materials needed will depend on the condition of each car. They show, however, the low cost of putting the Model T Ford in shape for thousands of miles of additional service.

See the nearest Ford dealer, therefore, and have him estimate on the cost of re-conditioning your Model T Ford. He will tell you, in advance, exactly how much the complete job will cost.

SHADY METHODS

The man who tries to riches gain
By shady methods, tries in vain;
Though he may win great heaps of gold
His lot is hard, his heart is cold.
Of those who hasten to grow rich
But few escape financial ditch.
Most all sure plans you'll find are slow
And those who win are those who grow.
This rule as well to banks applies;
That's why Snyder National ranks so high.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

Good Time to Buy Registered Jerseys

With the greening of pastures, Jersey cattle get cheaper in price, and this time of the year is a good time to import good stock. Every man who has livestock should have good ones. Good grades are all right, but why can not a man be a breeder as well as a raiser? They sell better when they are registered and are higher, and are on the average much better in quality. If you are interested, get in touch with the county agent.

Join a Jersey Club

Why not? The bull circles are growing stronger every day. The farmers are making a mistake if they do not use them. The calves they are getting are proving the point. Look at some of these heifers and the most skeptical man will see that quality pays.

Cotton Seed
A small quantity of cottonseed has been located outside of the county. See County Agent Willis.

SEVENTH GRADE STUDENTS GIVEN DIPLOMAS

pproximately 140 urban and d students were granted di-ns Friday night at the Snyder School auditorium, permit- them to enter into any high ol they might elect. This the first time in the history of rry County such an occasion been held, and thanks to the erative efforts of Superinten- Wedgworth and County erintendent Bullock, it was a gathering of school boosters. s the program started, the s marched down through the ous aisles of the auditorium heir reserved seats, directly ting the stage. Following the s song, Miss Laura Banks rend a pleasing reading, followed a piano solo by Miss Louetta l, both members of the class. v. Lawlis in addressing the s spoke of how impressed he with the remarkable prog- of school affairs in Scurry nty and carried his auditors to the early day school and ight them in easy stages to the present day. The speaker empha- sized the educational standards that all must attain to get any- where today. Functions of the physical body were contrasted to education today.

Rev. Lawlis also emphasized the needs of the students in making some progress during their vaca- tion period for the coming school sessions in the fall. He specifi- cally enumerated some of the things they could do, such as read- ing a good book or to follow the biography of some great man to awaken the power that was in the hearts of each student present.

County Supt. Bullock presented the diplomas following a hearty talk that was met with rapt atten- tion on the part of a crowded house. Mr. Bullock was as happy as the students in his announce- ment concerning this being the first exercise ever staged of its kind in West Texas. It is a decid- ed move onward, and Mr. Bullock was responsible for the major part of the innovation.

Following an invocation by Rev. W. F. Ferguson, an appreciative class and attendants wended their way home.

TAYLOR GROCERY HARVESTS HAMILTON'S UPPER LIP CROP

W. C. Hamilton, popular ram-rod salesman for the H. O. Wooten Grocery Company, has been sporting a most attractive appen- dage on his lip called by some a mustache. While making his rounds last week he dropped into Hugh Taylor's grocery. If anyone likes a joke better or will enter one quicker than Hugh, this news- paper does not know the person. Suffice to say, Hamilton stepped into the store, and following a bit of joking, Hugh, with the assist- ance of several others, pounced on the salesman, plumped him on the floor and proceeded to blacken up the aforesaid mustache. So well did the boys do their work that it was necessary for Hamilton to let the barbers work on him.

But Hamilton took the joke well and what will happen next is only a matter of the most profound conjecture.

SNYDER MINSTREL SHOW NOW GETTING UNDER WAY

The various committees of the Scurry County Chamber of Commerce met yesterday morning with Sec'y Mac Evans to complete preliminary details for the forth- coming minstrel show to be staged by Snyder citizens. Judge Fritz R. Smith was unan- imously chosen as the interlocutor for the first part, and that means plenty of fun to start with. An old-time minstrel first part is being arranged that includes our most prominent citizens who will be in full regalia. The committee will ask Mrs. Dixie Smith, Mrs. C. R. Buchanan and Mrs. H. G. Towle for their assistance in the program.

Mac Evans will be the leading director and will have a large number of assistants to iron out all the angles. Friday night, June 16, has been tentatively suggested as the "night of all nights" for the affair, and as plans are formu- lated the Times-Signal will convey them to readers.

The production of the entire state in 1849, the year after an- nexation of Texas to the United States, was only 58,973 bales.

FASHIONS AND FARMING

DEATH, TAXES AND CONSTANT CHANGE ARE THE ONLY CERTAINTIES, and the farmers are affected by all three, but changing conditions are the most upsetting to the farming industry. He must be alert at all times to meet changing conditions or else go down.

The weather changes and the soils change from the rolling lands to the bottoms and here as the changing fashions. The cotton farmer has witnessed the lessening of the demand for cotton by the discard first of petticoats, followed by shorter and shorter skirts. With short skirts came a change from cotton hose to silk and rayon (wood fibre).

The present day fashion of the slim figure has affected the wheat market and the cotton market as well as a brief dress for a slim figure calls for not much more than a handkerchief. We would go on and on naming changes that are affecting all lines of business, but let us consider just a little something in the dairy business.

We have all at one time or other had our Doctor prescribe milk in some form for our diet, and now comes Dr. Carl Ramus of the United States Public Health Service in his new book, "Outwitting Middle Age," and says that milk, besides being a complete food, contains substances that can kill the bacteria of many severe diseases. He says, "Certain ferments in milk greatly aid digestion The putrefactive poisons in the intestines are the greatest curse of humanity and it is these poisons that cause hardening of the arteries, a condition that brings on old age."

All this above is quoted to show the sound basis for the dairy farming business. All the changes and discoveries merely intensify the importance of milk. It is the best food for stout who want to be slim; for slim who want to get stout. The experts agree that milk is the ideal food for the overweight, for the underweight and for the normal weight person. It is ideal for young, middle age and for the old. It looks like a tragic condition when any farmer is without at least one or two cows.

Fluvanna News Notes

Mr. Jas. H. Tate (V. P.) is the authorized correspondent for Fluvanna, and as such is authorized to receive renewal and new subscriptions. Cooperate with him in building a fine weekly news column for this thriving town.

The Sunday Services

Last Sunday was baccalaureate day for the Fluvanna High School. Accordingly, there were no other services at the eleven o'clock hour. The weather being fine, a large audience assembled at the Methodist Church where this special service—always one of much interest—was held. Superintendent H. L. Massey was in charge of the program. Three fine young ladies—Misses Emily Landrum, Lucile Tarter and Mollie Flournoy, being the members of the graduating class, were seated in front of the pulpit. Rev. H. J. Marley, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Snyder, preached the baccalaureate sermon. While dealing with school matters, let us say here that on Tuesday night the graduating class was pleasantly entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Landrum. A Saturday night, June 2, the graduating exercises will be held in the Methodist Church. Dean Gordon of the Texas Technological College of Lubbock will deliver the address.

Rev. E. Christian of Lubbock was here among his many friends and preached to the congregation of the Christian Church under the arbor at 3:30 in the afternoon. The sermon was of the kind that is calculated to do the people and the cause of righteousness good when and where ever delivered. Rev. Charles Leslie of Hernleigh filled his pulpit in the First Baptist Church in the afternoon in lieu of the eleven o'clock hour as usual.

The Parents Day service, scheduled for 11 a. m. at the Presbyterian Church was moved up to 8 p. m. in order to accommodate the school program, and was finally lost on account of rain. According to schedule there will be services at both the Methodist and Fluvanna Baptist churches next Sunday. Let's all go to church.

Business Affairs
An oil derrick is rapidly being erected a few miles a little north of west from Fluvanna. Two carloads of equipment have been received here, and work is going forward apace. We understand that the contractors are compelled to pad in by June 1.

It seems that there is an abundance of oil in the Fluvanna territory, and that Fluvanna is destined, soon or late, to become an "oil town." So far as V. P. can learn, it is commonly conceded by geologists and oil men that this is promising territory, the only difficulty now being the fact that producers are not in a hurry just now to develop new fields. Rival efforts may, however, bring something to the surface any time.

It should go without saying that the farming interest and outlook day with Rev. and Mrs. Manley for the baccalaureate service at this place.

J. E. Snead is back from Runnels County where he has been some time on a visit.

Mrs. Horace Benson and son, Junior, formerly of this community but now of Olney, are here spending this week visiting Mrs. Benson's parents, J. F. and Mrs. Dowdy, and other relatives and friends.

E. H. Smith and family of Winters are here for a few days' visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Nannie Chapman of Snyder is spending this week with Miss Mollie Flournoy of this community.

R. A. Jones and family, formerly of this community but now of Post, spent the week-end here among relatives and friends.

H. F. Fulford, having resided in Snyder for some time, has moved back to his farm in this community. In this connection, Mr. Fulford states that this is the finest farming community of which he has any knowledge. Evidently his "faith is well founded." Of course the squirrels are never all up the same tree, but perhaps we have as many of them up the same tree here as at any place in the country.

Miscellaneous
We are glad to note that one of our promising young men, Leo Beaver, son of W. J. Sr., graduated from the Snyder High School this week. That's fine. Congratulations, Leo!

On last Saturday night after supper, without any special attraction whatever, at least forty cars were on the main (i. e. 10th) street in Fluvanna. Snyder of them took a moderate "bumper degree," while one young man had the experience of slipping from a running board and allowing a wheel to pass over his leg, resulting in the removal of a considerable section of epidermis.

H. F. Hulsey is renewing his subscription to his paper this week. He says he must have the paper. The reason is patent. He wants the news.

If anyone has any doubt about the possibility of a caterpillar tractor bogging down, let him ask H. F. Hulsey and Vibe Patterson. They know, since having spent a whole day getting one of those worms out of the pit. V. P. got his thinking revised on this score. It looked as if the thing had started an excavation.

It is reported that Louis Jones was "all in" the first of this week on account of getting bumped in the face by a horse's head. On account of the swelling, Louis was considerably disfigured as well as disabled. Too bad. Louis has spent considerable time in the U. S. Navy, but he never had a bump like that before.

DUNN DOINGS

School closed last week with appropriate ceremonies. District Attorney George Mahon of Colorado addressed the high school graduates and Supt. A. A. Bullock addressed the grammar school graduates. Seventeen finished grammar school and seven finished high school. Several are planning on entering Simmons University, Tech College or some other institution of higher learning.

Weather is favorable, and farming is progressing nicely. First planting is coming up to a good stand, and the fields will soon be demonstrating what soil, moisture and climate will do at Dunn.

Unusually large crowds attended church and Sunday school last Sunday. Had three additions to the Baptist Church.

Our Wednesday night prayer meeting is the pride of Dunn. It is the largest in attendance and the most intense interest of any in the Mitchell-Scurry Baptist Association.

Joe Lewis is erecting a modern residence on his farm two miles north of Dunn.

Mr. Linscurn is installing plumbing fixtures in his modern home near Little Sulphur.

Commissioner Johnston has just completed a good bridge on Deep Creek, opening a new road east and west by Ira, Roundtop and Hernleigh.

Dunn's carpenter force, headed by J. E. McDermott, and consisting of Russ Crabtree, Fred Moore and Jim Moore, are erecting a 5-room bungalow in Colorado, driving back and forth each day.

Painters are decorating the new Methodist Church building, and the opera seats are expected to arrive next week, so Dunn churches will soon be in position to accommodate the most particular, as each denomination is getting up-to-date equipment for church houses and tabernacles.

Mrs. Blackard and family of Colorado attended the school exercises in Dunn Friday night.

Mrs. J. E. McDermott and Opal are spending a few days in Lubbock.

Mrs. Inilt, who was reported injured by a fall by which her hip was broken, is still in the hospital at Colorado but is getting along fine.

The Baptist Workers Conference will meet at Dunn June 10. The program is published in the Baptist Messenger. Everybody is invited to spend the day and enjoy the dinner on the ground. We have already previously told the world how the chicken industry is flourishing here.

Everybody is too busy to fuss, so the usual tide of peaceful pursuit of happiness is moving on without a ripple.

JIM PEACH.

DUNLOP'S

"WHAT OF IT? . . . Dunlop's resources may be $195,000,000. Does that put any money in my pocket?"

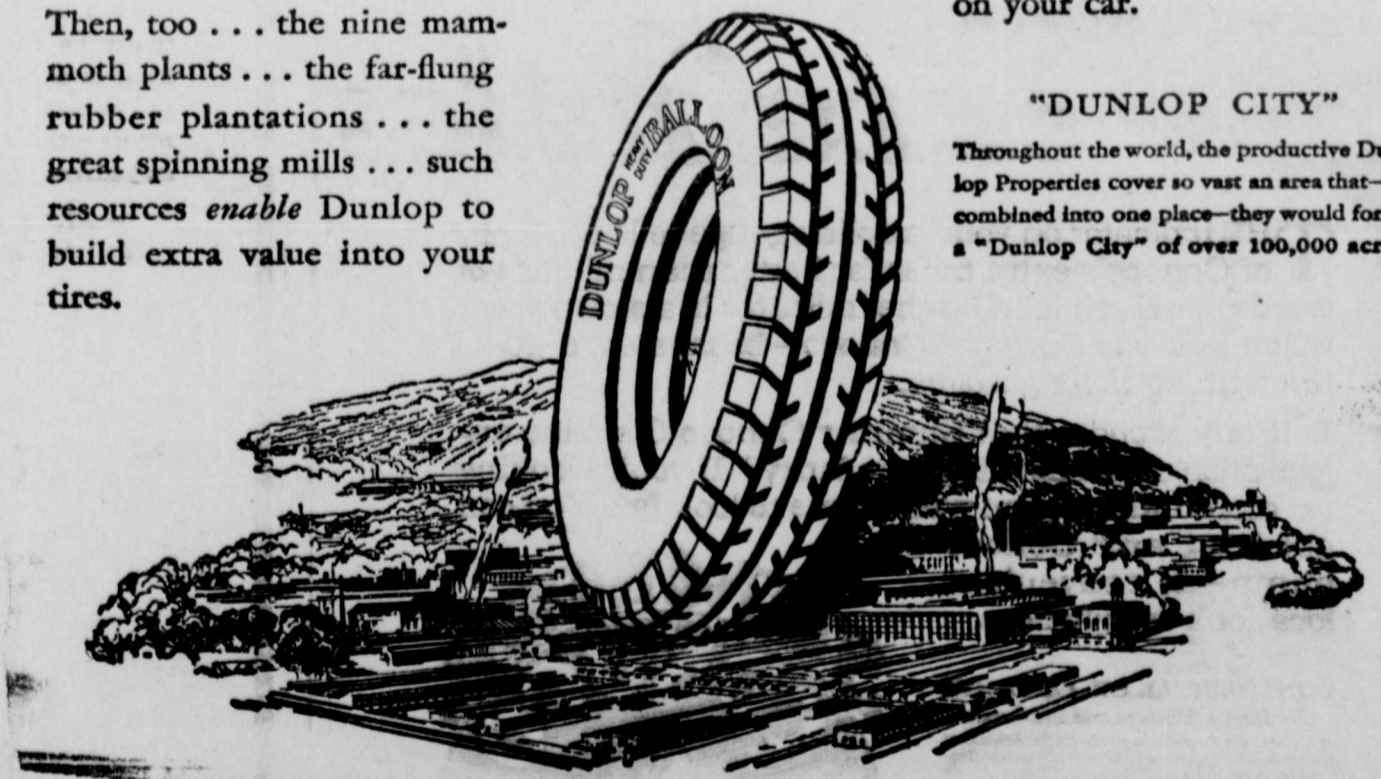

Yes . . . In this way . . . Dunlop's investment is so great, it must be safeguarded. The only sure protection is to give you greater value than you can buy in any other tires.

Then, too . . . the nine mammoth plants . . . the far-flung rubber plantations . . . the great spinning mills . . . such resources enable Dunlop to build extra value into your tires.

The 40 years of experience helps too. But the biggest meaning to you of Dunlop's $195,000,000 is this: Dunlop could never have grown so great, if Dunlop tires had not only won, but held a vast army of users. 26 million Dunlop tires are now running. That bare fact is eloquent proof that you will profit by putting Dunlops on your car.

4-H Club Boys Are Doing Big Work in County

Scurry County 4-H Club boys have taken as one of their projects this year the raising of poultry on a larger scale than ever attempted in this section before. More than 5,000 baby chicks have been purchased, Noble McDaniel leading with a buy of 500 chicks. Most of these chicks were purchased at the Green Hill Hatchery here who installed a new 18,000-egg electric incubator this spring.

Government reports show an alarming shortage in storage eggs this year, being 78,000 cases short of what was on hand at this time last year. This shortage caused County Agent Willis to call a special meeting of the club boys who responded along with many school leaders in the county. At Pyron Supt. T. J. Bryant is leading their organization in what promises to be one of the most outstanding successes of the year. At Camp Springs Morris Casey, whose project is pig raising, is averaging a pound a day with his porkers. The Camp Springs boys are also interested in securing more Jersey cows for their section.

With the greening of pastures caused from the recent rains totaling 5.30 inches of moisture, Jersey cattle are cheaper in price, and many farms are stocking with registered stock. The three bull circles now organized in Scurry County are proving their worth to the skeptical. Scurry County farmers are planting 1,000 acres to peanuts this year. With the advent of 6,000 dairy cows the peanut hay is taking the place of alfalfa which many farmers had rather feed. With 12,000 acres planted in grain sorghum, and 140,000 acres in cotton, the farmers will have a variety of feed that the dairy industry will be supplied.

Now that school is out, it may be a little harder to get the boys together and meet as often as when school is going on, but let us all make up our minds to be right on hand at the various meetings listed below:

June 19, a. m., Camp Springs. Afternoon, Plainview.
June 20, a. m., Fluvanna. Afternoon, Turner.
June 22, a. m., Pleasant Hill. Afternoon, Dunn.
June 27, a. m., Pyron. Afternoon, Hermleigh.
June 28, a. m., Sharon. Afternoon, Ira.
June 29, A. M., Bison.

Judging Training Course
Will be held at Lubbock, and each boy should get cubs, each man carrying his own bedding. Will cost about $1.50. Livestock, poultry and grain will be judged. If you want to make the trip, mail your name to the county agent.

Special Prizes
To the A. & M. Short Course, July 30 to August 4 at College Station, Stinson Drug Co. offers trip to short course for best pig feeder's report: Daily gain, 30 per cent; cost of feed to make pound, 30 per cent; story of how raised, bought, fed, housed and cared for, 40 per cent. Special Pins
Warren Brothers have ordered 4-H Club pins that will be given at the meetings in June. Cut these dates from the Times-Signal and keep them.

Club record books can be secured at any time at the county agent's office or by writing for them.

Important Questionnaire
Would you be interested in buying a registered Jersey heifer or cow? Number _____

Would you want to borrow money? _____ At what bank? _____
Would you like to feed a beef calf for the Fort Worth Stock Show? No. _____
Send these in signed to the county agent.

Get the weeds and plow deep and well the first time. Remember the County Fair.
Feed your chickens. Don't stop feeding your chickens when they are three weeks old; keep them coming and sell off the roosters. Keep them on clean ground and in clean, cool houses. Sack houses 6 by 6 feet make good summer roosting houses. Make frame and cover well all but South front and move to clean ground.

Feed some good growing mash, or if not give them milk, all you can get, with grain, and if not very much milk, feed shorts in self feeders. Feed oyster shell, a good home-mixed growing mash would do: 5 parts yellow corn meal, 2 parts shorts, 2 parts bran, half part meal, half part oyster shell, tablespoon salt. If you don't have plenty of milk, it is cheapest to buy a little feed.

Feeding Your Pigs
Pigs ought to make you money. Buy them right and feed them. Watch your gains, watch for worms. Treat worms with 1 oz. of copperas to 1 quart warm water mixed with slop for 12 pigs, five successive days.

Feed soaked ground maize, fed in thick slop, mixed with milk. In case you do not have enough milk, add shorts or pig chow or shorts and cottonseed meal, half pound per day of both, to make the slop richer. A little feed bought will make you money.

Keep pigs on pasture. If they have nothing to graze, they will get some exercise and will gain faster.
Make a frame brush arbor for shade.
Use crude oil on them for lice. DON'T BE A DRONE! DO SOMETHING! DO YOUR BEST!

LARGE CROWDS VISIT LIVING ROOM EXHIBITS

The country homes of Mrs. Mattie Minor near Ira and of Mrs. J. L. Carrell of the Union community were both visited by large crowds last Thursday when open house was maintained for county and town folks who wanted to make them a visit.

Mrs. Minor, first prize winner in Class Two at a cost of $68.85 made decidedly unique changes in her living room by adding French doors to give more light, writing center, reading table, magazine rack, footstool, flower stand, Coleman lamp, re-papered room, stained floor and woodwork, re-finished piano, couch and two rockers, added curtains and small scarfs for table, pillows and pictures added and mirror to give more light. Mrs. Minor served a delicious lunch to the many visitors.

Mrs. J. L. Carrell, first prize winner in Class One, at a cost of $15.10 made a most pleasing living room that appeals. The most decided changes made were the adding of a library table, walls re-finished (and you should hear J. L. holler about that), floor, piano and desk re-finished; addition of lamp table, chairs remodeled and stove re-finished; shade remodeled and addition of curtains to harmonize with the other furnishings.

Mrs. Carrell also served luncheon, which received the same kind of attention as at Mrs. Minor's. Those who were so lucky as to be present at these two homes were well repaid with the time spent and the social enjoyed.

"We are too ready to allow government bureaus and commissions to restrict and hamper individual initiative. Yet it is important to our industrial and, indeed, our spiritual life, that full freedom be allowed for individual effort in every line of business. For therein lies the opportunity for the development of that interesting and necessary side of our nature—the romantic and adventurous."

—Merle Thorpe
Editor of Nation's Business

Yet the planning that keeps electric service ready to meet the growing volume of industrial and domestic needs, the engineering genius which daily increases its usefulness and lowers its cost, and the great funds of capital required to turn plans and engineering genius into service-producing equipment—all these depend upon the service of individual men.

Men built these systems and men must run them. And since time began, men have only done their best where individual initiative has had free play.

That America today enjoys an electric service which in efficiency and extent cannot be equalled in the world, is due to the individual efforts of men working under the American principles of free business enterprise.

OPTOMETRY

It's Value to the Public

V. H. G. TOWLE, O. D.

Snyder, Texas

What Does the Optometrist Sell Principally?

Service. His greatest value to his patients is determining what errors of vision are present and how they may be corrected.

Then Optometry is not a business? Not any more so than any other profession.

The Optometrist is not a seller of spectacles? No, as has been said, he sells service.

Explain the Optometrist's Services

An error of vision is usually caused by a defect in the size or shape of the eye. It is impossible to alter the eye itself, but by the use of lenses ground especially for each case, the Optometrist corrects the error.

Does the Optometrist make a specialty of comfortable vision? Yes, he strives in every case to give his patient the most comfortable vision possible.

Is it Likely that Many Persons Who are not Now Doing so Should Wear Glasses?

Yes, investigation has proven that many persons of all ages would be better for the help of glasses.

Why do these not seek the aid of an Optometrist? Because in most cases they do not know they need it.

Even though a person may see well without glasses they may be needed?

Yes, seeing well is no proof that glasses are not needed.

Does the Optometrist Realize that His Profession Could be of Much Greater Benefit to the Public than it is at Present?

Yes, if even a small percentage of those who need an eye service would avail themselves of the services of the Optometrist, much good would result.

What would happen if all errors of vision received the attention of an Optometrist?

There would be an immediate and surprising increase in health and efficiency.

An Ethical Optometrist Does Not Feature the Price of his Service?

No, he is not able to do so even if he had the desire, which he has not.

Then an optometrist service has no definite, fixed value before the nature of the service required is determined by an examination?

No, until the examination is completed no idea of the nature of the service required can be known even to the Optometrist. For that reason he cannot quote prices in advance.

SNYDER STREET STORES NEW INNOVATION HERE

The Snyder Street Store Company is a new innovation. Preston P. Reynolds, personal representative of the Portable Self-Serving Company of Houston, was here yesterday consummating details that will bring this new idea here.

Mr. Reynolds is a Texas product and through his company is providing citizens with an easy, quick serving proposition when it comes to the various small luxuries that most humans enjoy. The idea works 24 hours a day, never tires, and is just one of the new ideas that twentieth century minds are bringing to the highways and byways of living. An ad in this issue tells more about the self-serve idea.

LORAIN MAN GETS FIVE YEAR SENTENCE

J. W. Burrier of Loraine was found guilty on a charge of murder and his punishment fixed at five years' imprisonment by a jury which reported in the Thirtieth District Court at Archer City Friday morning after 18 hours' deliberation.

The charge against Burrier grew out of the slaying on the night of May 5, 1927, of John V. McDaniel at the McDaniel filling station, eleven miles south of Wichita Falls on the Archer City road.

Burrier had based his defense upon an alibi. Through more than a score of witnesses he had sought to prove that he was at his home, near Loraine, more than 200 miles from Archer City, when McDaniel was slain.
