

Tigers to Have 6 Home Games During Season

Coaches Arrange Schedule at Meeting Tuesday in Colorado

At a meeting of football coaches, school superintendents and principals of Section B division of District 9 of the Texas University Interscholastic League at Colorado yesterday, a football schedule was worked out for Snyder High School which gives the Tigers six home games, four games away from home and one open date. As nearly as is practical the "Round Robin" system is to be used whereby every team in this section will play every other team of the division.

The schedule as worked out is as follows:

- Sept. 21, Rotan here.
- Sept. 28, Lorraine here.
- Oct. 5, Tahoka here.
- Oct. 12, Big Spring there.
- Oct. 19, Merkel there.
- Oct. 26, Roscoe here.
- Nov. 2, Lamesa there.
- Nov. 12, Sweetwater there.
- Nov. 19, Open.
- Nov. 29, Colorado here.

The sectional championship will be decided by Thanksgiving. The teams which make up Section B of District 9 are Sweetwater, Roscoe, Lorraine, Big Spring, Colorado and Snyder. The champions of this group will play the champions of District 9.

The state rules of the interscholastic league state that inter-district games can be arranged at the discretion of the teams. The representative body of Section B, District 9, which met at Colorado yesterday, passed a resolution asking that inter-district games be not counted in determining the percentage of the teams, as well.

Snyder was represented at the Colorado meeting by Supt. C. Wedgeworth, Coach General Whitaker and Principal John R. Covey.

FIRST MEAL SERVED IN COLORADO CAFETERIA

The first meal was served by the high school cafeteria Wednesday, and about 130 took advantage of it, with an increase expected to come when the work gets underway, says the Colorado Record.

Plate lunches, consisting of breaded chicken, scalloped potatoes, and string beans, buttered rice, were sold for 15 cents, and mild lead tea, salad, light bread, rolls, and cornbread sticks, were sold on the side at a small additional cost. The whole dinner, with bread and beverage, could be had for a cost of less than twenty-five cents.

A set menu is to be served for each day, according to Supt. Ben Feek, who states that no one is forced to eat at the cafeteria, and that their eating there depends upon the convenience of the parents. The cafeteria, he says, is maintained solely for accommodation and will be run on a profit basis, everything being sold at as near cost as possible.

It may be necessary, he says, for part of the students to eat at 12 and another part at 12:30, so that all can be accommodated. A room has been prepared where those who bring their lunches may eat.

OPEN TO BOTH SIDES

The columns of the Times-Signal are open to both sides in the pending presidential campaign. We have not yet declined or failed to publish any article offered by either side. We are willing to publish any article of length on the issue of the campaign, whether in behalf of Hoover or Smith. Our columns are wide open.

WACO MEN BUY PAPER AT MERKEL

The announcement was made Friday by Thomas Durham, editor and owner of the Merkel Mail for the past nine years, of the sale of his newspaper to C. J. Glover Jr. of Waco, Texas, who will have associated with him J. J. Hutchison and George Caple, also of Waco. All three of these men were formerly connected with the Waco Times-Herald and have moved to Merkel. Mr. Hutchison will be the new editor of the Merkel Mail. Mr. Durham, the former editor, has not announced his future plans.

Yell Leaders Selected

Lions Boost Fair and Enjoy Good Program

With a large attendance at their weekly luncheon yesterday, the Lions enjoyed a splendid entertainment program and discussed the Scurry Fair, and a loud approval was given to the plan.

The Lions Club Quartet composed of Lions Carter, Lollar, Drake and Bullock, sang a beautiful lullaby called "Lullaby Moon" and responded to a hearty encore with their old favorite "The Peppers' Pie, etc." Homer Singleton played the piano accompaniment for the quartet and then played several popular and semi-classical selections to the entire satisfaction of the large den of Lions.

Judge Harris made a motion that Warren Dodson, who had fallen heir to a good lot of tinware two weeks ago, be instructed to lend his large supply to Newlweid Joe Drake, manager of the Community Natural Gas Co., for several weeks. The motion carried, and Dodson, to satisfy himself that he would get his utensils back, questioned Drake as to the latter's need for the articles, making a lot of argument that no doubt was needed to help digest the hearty chicken dinner just eaten.

The announcement was made that all the stores in Snyder had been asked to close from 1 to 6 p. m. Friday, Snyder Day at the Scurry County Fair. Several speakers urged a full co-operation during the fair, and a loud approval followed the announcement that Fluvanna will be closed tight as a plug to attend the fair. H. L. Davis, chairman of the parade committee, urged business men to have cars in the parade, which will be formed at the Tabernacle and wind around the square, ending at the fair grounds. The parade started at 10 a. m.

Rec. E. C. Lambert, new Presbyterian pastor, was introduced and made a short talk.

Rev. J. F. Lawlis, Judge C. R. Buchanan and Joe Cator were appointed as a committee to inform A. C. Alexander, local Red Cross financial chairman, that the Lions Club has gone on record as favoring the launching of a drive for funds for the relief of Florida storm sufferers.

Sec'y M. G. Evans of the Chamber of Commerce made a short report of his recent trip to California with a party of West Texans to study California methods of farm products raising and marketing.

ATTEND LIONS CLUB NIGHT IN COLORADO

Supt. and Mrs. C. Wedgeworth, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Brice attended Ladies Night of the Lions Club at Colorado Friday evening, where Mr. Wedgeworth made one of his inimitable talks, stressing the citizenship of his home town of Snyder. It was a booster talk from start to finish, according to Mr. Brice.

The Times-Signal can see no reason why our Lions Club cannot follow the example of Colorado and entertain the ladies at least one night in every six months.

RUNAWAY BOYS AT FLUVANNA

Our good friend J. F. Dowdy of Fluvanna reported to the Times-Signal Tuesday morning that two runaway boys from Tennessee were in good hands in his home town. One of them is D. H. Bevis, age 70, and the other is Hugh Reeves, age 83 years. Mr. Bevis is with his sister, Mrs. Page, while Mr. Reeves is with his daughter, Mrs. Hanback. Mr. Dowdy stated that these boys are a long ways from home but that they were in good hands.

HERMLEIGH'S FIRST BAILE SEPTEMBER 13

Hermleigh ginned and brought her first bale of cotton for the season this morning. Mr. J. P. Loper of near town was the lucky man. Fifteen hundred pounds of seed cotton ginned out a 500-pound bale. It was sold at 18 cents, and the seed brought $30 per ton. The cotton and seed brought a total of $108.50. Mr. Loper has a premium coming in addition to this.

Williams and Terry both ginned and brought their first bale for 1928.—Herald.

Presbyterian Pastor Is Now On The Field

Rev. E. C. Lambert Assumes Duties Here Sunday Morning

The people of Snyder are glad to welcome Rev. E. C. Lambert into our midst. He began his work in Snyder last Sunday at the eleven o'clock hour and preached instructive sermons both morning and evening to large and appreciative audiences at the Presbyterian Church, C. I. T.

Brother Lambert and his family are comfortably settled in the Presbyterian manse, and he and his family will add much to the religious and moral forces of our community.

He is an active, energetic young man with twelve years experience as a pastor, and for several years prior to becoming a pastor was a successful gospel singer. The Presbyterians in Snyder need very much to complete their church building. The entire community would be delighted to witness such completion, and we devoutly hope that Brother Lambert will be able to lead his congregation and their friends and the community in general in a campaign to successfully complete the church building, as well as to forward the religious and moral welfare of the community generally.

Last week's Tulsa Herald had the following to say:

"Rev. E. C. Lambert, who has served the Presbyterian Church here for the past two years, has resigned his pastorate here to accept a place at Snyder, Texas. He will leave tomorrow for that place to begin his work there, leaving ahead of time in order to place his children in school at the beginning."

"Through Rev. Lambert's leadership the congregation here has erected a modern brick church building at an expenditure of about $20,000, and in addition to what other good may be said of him, he is the minister to have if the congregation wants to enter a building campaign."

"He and family, consisting of his wife and four children, made many friends while in our midst who regret to lose them from our community, but our loss will be Snyder's gain."

The Times-Signal joins in a wholesome welcome to Brother Lambert and family.

LONE STAR GAS AD WINS IN CONTEST

R. A. CRAWFORD, DALLAS, Sept. 19.—An advertisement of the Lone Star Gas Company entitled "Natural Gas Is A Community Builder," one of a series of Lone Star Gas advertisements that appear regularly in this newspaper, received third prize award in the National Better Copy Contest conducted by the Public Utilities Advertising Association.

In notifying R. A. Crawford, vice president and general manager of the Lone Star Gas Co., of this award, the president of the Public Utilities Advertising Association wrote Mr. Crawford in part as follows:

"I take this opportunity to congratulate you upon the uniformly excellent standard of advertising released by your company. The winners in this contest embracing respectively and separately the electric, gas and transportation fields were selected from some 3600 advertisements submitted by 158 public utility companies."

In the large handsome book of 500 representative public utility advertisements published by the association, five other Lone Star Gas advertisements are reproduced in preferred position in addition to the prize winning advertisement.

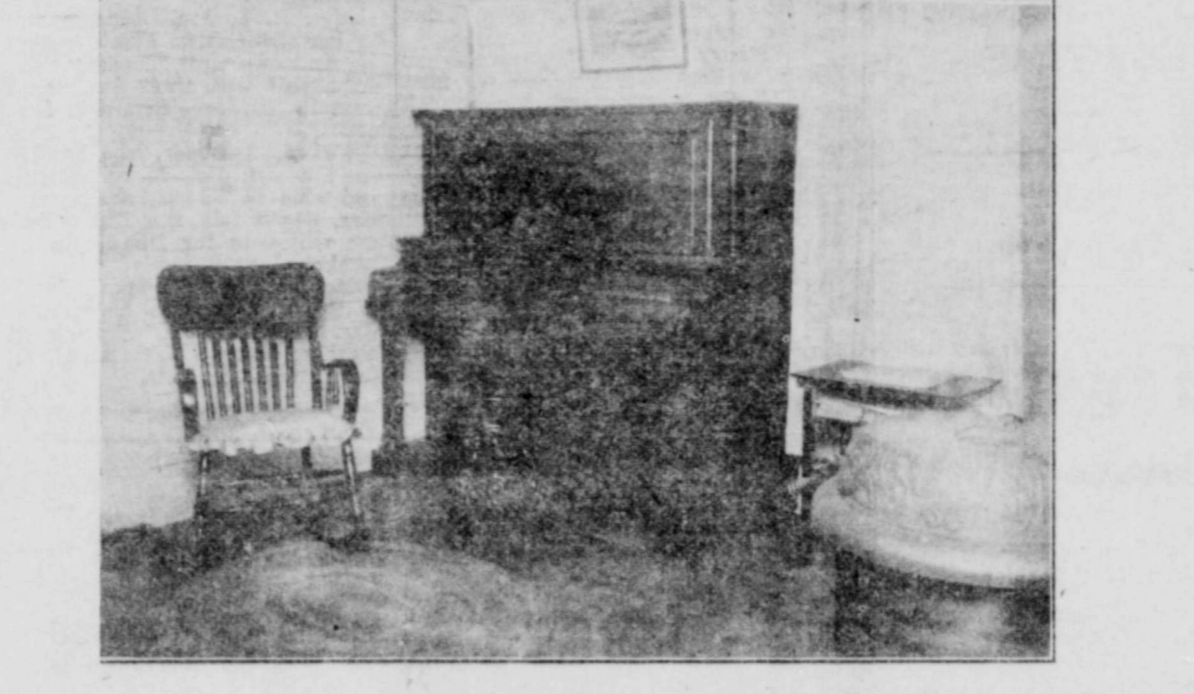

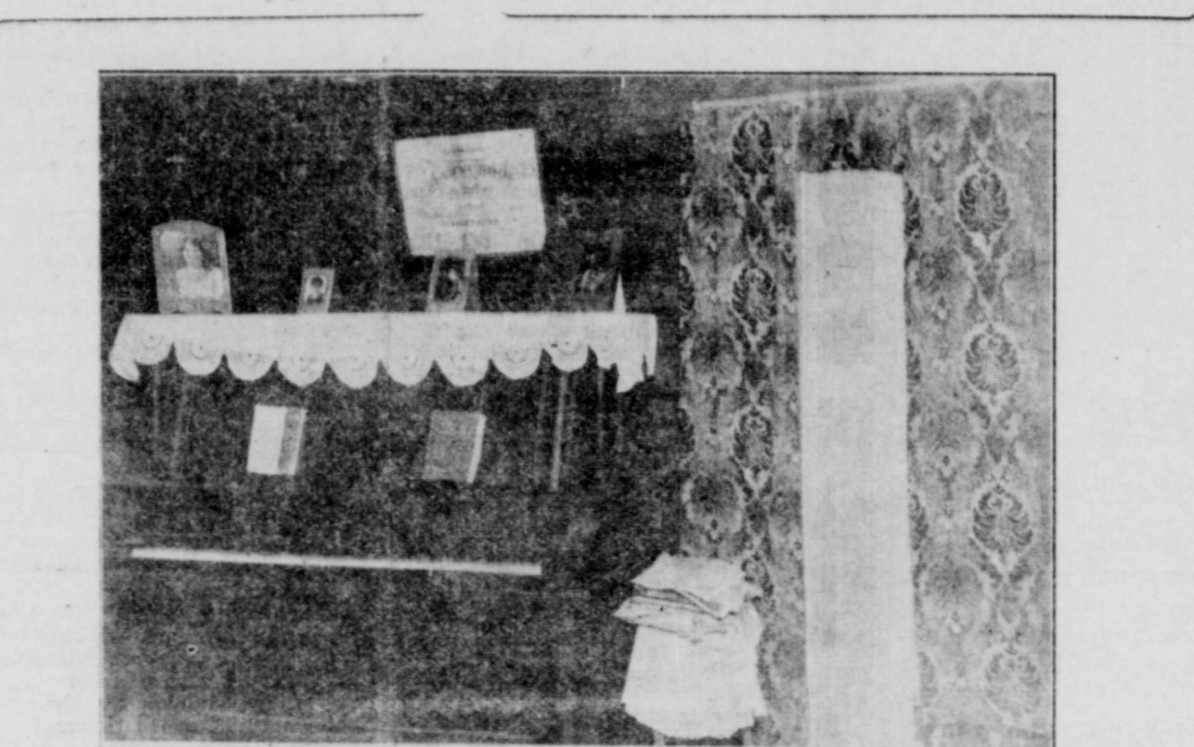

This national recognition of Lone Star Gas advertising carries with it recognition of the advantages possessed by this community and many other southwestern communities served by natural gas through the Lone Star Gas Co., and is most excellent publicity for this section of the country as well as for the gas company.

Lone Star Gas advertising, including the prize winning advertisement, is prepared by Tracy-Loche-Dawson, Inc., Advertising Agency of Dallas, under the direction of Mr. Crawford of the Lone Star Gas Company.

A copy of the ad is reproduced elsewhere in this issue.

The origin of the pocket has been traced to the fifteenth or sixteenth century.

A Typical Living Room Transformation

This glimpse into a contest living room interior tells its own story, according to the Texas Extension Service Farm News. The upper view is the "after" of a corner of the living room in the home of Mrs. J. L. Carrell of the Union community. Below is the same corner before improving. Mrs. Carrell was first prize winner in Class I where the improvement was less than $25. Seventy-seven Texas counties were represented in the first Texas Improved Living Room Contest with 773 contestants. Prizes were awarded at the recent short course by the Dallas Semi-Weekly Farm News, the co-operating agency in the contest.

Rev. Ferguson to Remain Here

After several weeks of anxious apprehension, the members of the First Baptist Church as well as the entire citizenship of Snyder were made happy Sunday evening when Rev. W. F. Ferguson made the announcement that he would remain here as pastor. Two weeks before Rev. Ferguson presented his resignation, but the church in conference refused to accept it and further urged him to continue his work here.

As a further expression of the esteem in which Rev. and Mrs. Ferguson are held, the ladies of the church completely surprised them with a "bonanza" at the church immediately after the mid-week prayer service last night. A large crowd was present and shared in the enjoyable social hour that followed the presentation of the Rev. and Mrs. Ferguson. A delicious refreshment plate was passed to those in attendance.

STATE HIGHWAY DEPT. NOT LIABLE IN BRIDGE DISASTER AT COLORADO

ABILENE, Sept. 13.—Declaring that the state highway department was not directing construction of the Bankhead Highway bridge near Colorado in Mitchell County when it collapsed last Tuesday, causing the death of one workman and the injury of nine others, a statement was issued here yesterday by highway officials.

W. J. Van London of Abilene, resident engineer of Taylor and Mitchell Counties, conducted an investigation of the disaster yesterday.

"A statement issued by the state highway department said: "State highway forces were not engaged in the building of the Mitchell County bridge that collapsed. It was a contract job. The contractor is H. Buchanan of Temple, Texas."

"The contractor was properly bonded and the bridge will be completed."

WILL OPEN MILLINERY SHOP SEPTEMBER 29TH

Miss Floye Reed of Sweetwater will be another new resident and business associate in Snyder when she opens her new millinery and gift shop on North Scarborough Street Saturday, Sept. 29th. Miss Reed has the most excellent training in her chosen work, and the Times-Signal joins in welcoming her to our business interests.

In district court now in session at Chiremont in Kent County, the most important case tried was that of A. F. Tankersley, charged with cattle theft, the jury in the case rendering a verdict of guilty Tuesday of this week, with a sentence of two years in the penitentiary.—Texas Spur.

FAIR BOOSTERS TO LUNCH HERE

The Good Will Caravan boosting the Panhandle South Plains Fair of Lubbock will arrive in Snyder about lunch time Tuesday, according to advice received from Lubbock by telephone this morning. A large number of cars full of boosters from the Hub City are making an extensive tour of West Texas in the interest of their fair. The Lubbock High School Band will lead a mammoth parade and furnish lively music. A big crowd of local citizens is expected to hear the Lubbock boosters.

HEIR TO THE SMITH MILLIONS ARRIVES

According to announcements being received by friends, Wesley Wade, eight pounds, "newest heir to the Smith millions and youngest of the million Smiths," made his appearance last night at 11:35. Editor George F. "Jimmy" Smith of the Times-Signal was so excited when he telephoned the information to the office this morning that he didn't even tell us when he would be home from Lubbock where Mrs. Smith and Wesley Wade are resting well at the Lubbock Sanitarium.

Jimmy did say, however, that owing to the extreme youthfulness of this new arrival, Wesley Wade would not be in the Baby Show of the Scurry County Fair this year, but he implied that he would surely win first prize at the show next year.

The office force hereby congratulates the Senior Editor and Mrs. Smith, and will give the new "devil" a rousing welcome.

HERMLEIGH HERALD HOLDS FIRST BIRTHDAY

Editor R. S. Norman and the Hermleigh Herald completed one year of constructive good service last week. They have had their ups and their downs but with it all the editor and paper have maintained a publication full of pep, able to speak its mind and apparently satisfying its circulation list—and what more is necessary?

The Times-Signal joins in hoping that many more birthdays may be enjoyed by the Herald, and its editor, together with Mrs. Norman and the kids. They are worthy, hard-working folks and do their best at all times. Congratulations.

H. F. Lloyd of Post has purchased the former Cecil Dry Goods Company from the J. E. Grissom chain stores of Abilene and will open for business Saturday, Sept. 29. The new store will have a brand new line of goods purchased last week in Chicago and St. Louis.

Mr. Lloyd has been in business for years at Post where he has made a reputation of being a fine citizen, a good merchant and booster. He will move to Snyder with Mrs. Lloyd and two children, a boy and a girl, who will enter the public schools here. Mr. Barrow, who has been associated with the Post store, will remain there and operate the store.

The Times-Signal joins in welcoming the Lloyd store here and hope they may have the ultimate success due every representative business house.

GASOLINE PRICES PROBED BY ATTORNEY GENERAL

First Assistant Attorney General Galloway Calhoun is absent from Austin on a protracted investigation of gasoline prices, it was said Wednesday by Attorney General Charles Pollard. The Attorney General said Calhoun's activities would take him to points outside the state as well as to many places in it.

Calhoun has been given a free hand in anti-trust matters and the pursuit of the alleged gas price manipulation is his first major effort since his promotion.

Almost simultaneously with the reduction of the gasoline tax in Texas the price went up, and refiners are paying a gallon less taxes and the public is paying 2 cents a gallon more. This is being looked into by Calhoun.

CALIFORNIA VISITOR CLICKS MANY FORD MILES

Mrs. Ellen R. Upton of Los Angeles, who is the guest of Mrs. John E. Hardy, has made many miles in a Ford car. Mrs. Upton, returning to her home from an overland trip to Reateur, Ill., has worked out three Ford coupes and has 33,000 miles on every thing since she began driving 15 years ago. One of her trips was of nine thousand miles, eight thousand of them alone. She recently drove through California, 2,440 miles at a total cost of $2 for everything. She never gets tired while driving no matter how long the way, and she enjoys every mile of it.

According to a three-column article in the Decatur (Ill.) Herald, since 1919 Mrs. Upton has driven 89,130 miles and incidentally has taken a ride in an airplane when she was 72 years old. Today she is 78 years old and is as hale and hearty as anyone half that age. She is an aunt of Mrs. John E. Hardy of Snyder.

Lamesa Chamber of Commerce has applied to the Post Office Department for free mail delivery.

Stores to Close Friday P. M. for County Fair

Fair Starts Off With a Bang This Morning With Big Parade

Added impetus was given the Scurry County Fair yesterday when Snyder merchants went on record that they would close their places of business Friday afternoon from 1 to 6 o'clock, attend the football game between Rotan and Snyder High, and join in the many other important pleasures to be provided visitors, as well as looking over the exhibits.

Another important matter was added when the announcement was made that the Snyder Polo Club would play Rotan Saturday afternoon at a field one mile southwest of town. Snyder won over the Rotan club Saturday 4 to 3, and the game has been added for extra pleasures of fair week. Those who will make up the Snyder team include Don and Ted Gardner, Nathan Reynolds, Allen Stevens, Aubrey Stokes and Wade Wilson. Eight clerks and seven minutes each will be played, and the game will start at 3:00 p. m. The Rotan polo ponies will arrive here today.

All is in readiness for the fair, which officially started off this morning when the annual stock parade was held. The Snyder High School Band led the parade.

As previously outlined for several weeks, the program of the fair includes everything of interest to local and county people. The city of Fluvanna has notified officials that they will close up the town today and come in a body to join in boosting the county fair.

Co-operate with the local committees by attending and contributing your share and assisting in building this worthwhile enterprise.

The famous Alamo Exposition shows that are already here with forty novelty concessions, ten shows and three riding devices and many high-class midway novelties, will be a good drawing card. The shows are under the personal supervision of Jack Ruback.

The show has been showing in many West Texas towns under the auspices of the American Legion, King's Daughters and Elks Lodges and comes highly recommended.

A well-appointed rodeo is a section of special attraction and includes bronc riding, Brahma steers, bulldozing, lady riders, funny clowns and mules, giving performances of a thrilling nature. Nightly prizes are given the best riders. Outside horses are invited, and the assurance is given that the company will bust them.

GRAHAM BEALL OF SWEETWATER IS DEAD

JIM MAY STOP FAMOUS FORUM

Former Governor James E. Ferguson announced the probable suspension of publication of the Ferguson Forum, said to have been issued for the past eleven years in the current number of the publication.

Lack of adequate number of subscribers was given as the cause. Final decision on permanent discontinuance will be made between now and October 1, Ferguson said. He added he would like to "keep going" at least two more years.

"The main thing the Forum would be to pull the 'I told you so' on the present highway commission when the next legislature gets a real investigation under way," he said.

United States Treasury Department figures indicate that the World War cost the United States $35,119,622,144. Naval activities cost $3,480,781,737, while military operations cost $16,283,569,226.

DUNN DOINGS Summer is ended and the big meetings have about closed, so your careless correspondent is back on the job. A. B. Y. P. U. social on the Baptist Church lawn Monday night afforded a good time and much ice cream and cake for forty-odd of the younger set. A Sunday school social at the Methodist Church Tuesday night was well attended by both old and young, reflecting much of the happy life so necessary for the prosperity of social and church life. Cotton picking is the order of the day now, and the hum of the gin is the main music in Dunn at this writing. Re. and Mrs. J. E. McDermott have just returned from a ten days trip to the plains country. They conducted a revival meeting at the Watts school house in Cummer Flat, 20 miles north of Post and report a flourishing community there and a good Sunday school interest. There is no church established as yet, but the meeting resulted in seven professions of faith and two recommitments. A fine class of citizens is settling there, and a good two-teacher school is maintained with a 9-month term. Cotton was hauled out on June 17, and the crop is late, and the worms have done much damage, but most folks are canning the surplus pickling cucumbers, and canning peas and pickling cucumbers, and canning chicken and pickling cucumbers, and canning many other kinds of truck and putting up cucumbers in various ways. Misses Lucile McCaleb, Gracie Moon, Emily Black and Messrs. O. C. McDermott and Paschall Nail are leaving Monday for Abilene to enter Simmons University for the fall term. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Gary are the proud parents of a fine girl. Mother and babe are doing nicely, but the Dad shows symptoms of worry, but his many friends are hopeful that he will pull through all O. K. Sorry that we cannot report any weddings this week, but we believe the prospects look promising, even though there are worms in the cotton. The grave yard working was well attended, and the Dunn cemetery certainly looks better than for many months. JIM PEACH.

DERMOTT NEWS People are beginning to need rain again. Feedstuff is drying up pretty fast, although a light shower fell Sunday night. Charlie Johnson and family, and Mary Hulse and children spent Sunday evening with Mrs. A. W. Browning of Fluvanna. Hade Condon of near Spur was visiting friends here Monday. Will Wheeler of Burk Burnett, former citizen of this place, was here this week on business. Mrs. Joe Wilson spent last week with Mrs. Loy Edmondson and Mrs. Willie Wilson of Snyder. Johnie and Mrs. Browning became the parents of a 9-pound son last Tuesday. His name is Roy J. Mother and child are said to be doing well. Mrs. Lebow is ill this week. We hope she will soon be able to be up. Floyd Smith and wife of Westbrook spent Sunday with relatives here. Mother Adeock, who has been ill for the past month, was able to be with her Sunday school class Sunday. We are glad to have her back in Sunday school again. Newton Frisbie and W. T. Rhea made a business trip to Sweetwater Monday. Miss Bonnie Richardson, Ruby Lebow, Leonard Greenfield and Carl Greenfield are attending the Snyder High School. Lucile Mallon, who was seriously ill the past week, is able to be up. Regular preaching services were held at Dermott by Brother Harris Sunday. A good congregation was in attendance. The Sunday school was well attended also, and several visitors were present. We are glad to welcome you. Miss N. E. Browning and Harvey Lee Browning spent Sunday visiting relatives near Anson. Mrs. Jim Steel and Miss Exie Steel were in Snyder shopping Saturday. A. M. Gordon spent Sunday with Mr. Smith and family. SUNSHINE.

TIMES-SIGNAL FORUM F. I. TOWNSEND ANSWERS REV. TATE'S ARTICLE Editor, Times-Signal: There appeared recently in your paper a communication from Rev. Jas. H. Tate, relative to the "Preachers and Politics." The statements and inferences contained therein are so misleading that I feel impelled to reply. Of course, I do not mean that Brother Tate would intentionally make incorrect or misleading statements, but the best of men, and even preachers, frequently make mistakes. In a spirit of friendship and in the interest of the welfare of our country, I desire to call attention to, and to correct, the misleading statements and inferences contained in Bro. Tate's communication. He began his communication by saying: "There is an idea extant that preachers and churches should keep themselves entirely separate and apart from matters of a political nature." Now, as a matter of fact, no intelligent man or woman has any objection whatever to the preachers taking an active part in political matters. The thing objected to is converting their pulpits into political rostrums and their membership into political clubs. The pulpit is set apart as a sacred place from which the gospel is to be preached, and where those who gather to hear it have no right to reply. A preacher who preaches political sermons from his pulpit, or delivers so-called "lectures" on political matters from his pulpit, is not only violating the spirit of our national constitution which provides for the separation of church and state, but he is disregarding and violating the great commissions as recorded in the 16th chapter of Mark and in the 15th verse, which says: "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." These are recorded as the words of Christ himself. The meaning of the word "gospel" as used in the verse referred to, according to the New Universities Dictionary, is as follows: "The announcement of the salvation of mankind by Jesus Christ." So we see that a preacher is commanded to preach salvation through Jesus Christ, and therefore when a preacher discusses political matters from his pulpit he is violating the express command of Jesus Christ to preach the gospel. Brother Tate refers to Moses and his activity in delivering the Jews from Egypt, to Daniel warning Nebuchadnezzar, to Elijah and Nathan denouncing the sins of king and David, to his forerunner, condemning the marital relations of Herod. None of these instances are germane to the question at issue. First, because in every instance quoted it was not a political affair, but was personal wrong-doing on the part of those reproved. Secondly, even if it had been a political matter, it all occurred under the Mosaic dispensation and before Christ had established his church and before he had given the command "to preach the gospel," as heretofore quoted from Mark 16:15. Brother Tate attempts to prove that Christ meddled with the political affairs of his day by quoting a part of Luke 20:25 as follows: "Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's." But he did not quote the remainder of the verse, which is as follows: "And unto God the things which are God's." Now, at the time this occurred, the Jews were subject to the Roman government, and Caesar was the head of the Roman government. The Jews were required to pay tribute to Caesar. The enemies of Christ sought to entrap him by asking him: "Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Caesar or No?" If he had said "No," it would have embroiled him with the Roman government, and if he had answered "Yes," his enemies would have accused him of taking the side of the Roman government against his own people. Then it was that he uttered the language quoted above. The very fact that he spoke of rendering unto Caesar the things that be Caesar's and unto God the things which be God's, disproves Brother Tate's contention that Christ set the example which authorizes a preacher in his ministerial capacity to meddle with political affairs. I have always believed and do believe that a preacher has as much right as any other person to take part in political affairs, but if a preacher wants to oppose or support anyone for office, he should come out of his pulpit and church to do so. Let the political preaching or occupy the political hustings as do other political speakers, or express himself through the press. In either case any person has a right to reply. Brother Tate says there are those who would put a padlock on the mouth of every preacher who dares to speak out against the policies of a candidate who aspires to the highest office in the United States. While his name is not mentioned, the inference is plain that Governor Smith is the candidate referred to. Now what is the real reason why preachers are opposed to Governor Smith? It is because he is a member of the Roman Catholic Church. Of course there are some exceptions, but generally speaking that is the cause of the opposition. Of course they assert that their opposition to Governor Smith is because of his position on prohibition. This serves a two-fold purpose. It conceals the real cause of the opposition (religious hatred) and under the guise of being a "moral" issue is more easily lodged into the pulpit. Brother Tate says: "That they insist on the separation of church and state, as if this condition did not already obtain."

Recently Dr. Stratton made an attack from his pulpit upon Governor Smith, seeking to influence people to vote against him. Since Governor Smith was nominated for president, a number of so-called "evangelists" are going over the country preaching anti-Catholic sermons and spouting political bunk favorable to the Republican party. I am informed that one of these recently conducted a revival in Snyder and after preaching a number of anti-Catholic sermons wound up the meeting by preaching a sermon against Governor Smith, at the close of which he actually had the congregation to express their opposition to Governor Smith by rising from their seats! How long will separation of church and state continue if practices such as those related above are permitted to continue and become the rule, instead of the exception to the rule? Insofar as Dr. Stratton and the so-called evangelists were able to do so, they nullified the constitutional provisions for the separation of church and state. They profess to believe that if Governor Smith became president that the Catholic Church would control the government, and they hold up their hands in holy horror at the very thought of the government being controlled by the Catholics, yet they are already engaged in doing the very thing that they profess to believe that the Catholics would do should Governor Smith be elected, that is, seeking through the instrumentality of the church to control the government. I am opposed to the control of the government by the Catholic Church, but I am opposed to the attempts of the Protestant churches to control it. The people, irrespective of their religious beliefs or church affiliations, are charged with the duty and responsibility of administering the affairs of the government. Brother Tate says that during the World War the government was continually calling upon ministers and churches for co-operation and moral support. Yes, and there was no distinction made as between Protestants and Catholics. There was no opposition then from Protestant pulpits against the danger of admitting members of the Catholic Church to the service of the country. No, it was all right for them to shed their blood and lay down their lives for our country but when one of them by honest toil, patient industry and right living has succeeded in lifting himself from an humble and obscure station in life to be four times governor of a great state, aspires to the presidency, he is assailed and denounced as a foe to morality and an enemy to the country.

I am not a Catholic. None of my people are members of the Catholic Church. I have delved deeply into the history of churches and of religions. Religious intolerance has destroyed governments, caused innumerable wars, caused the torture and inhuman butchery of millions of victims, and has never been the means of making a people better, happier or more prosperous. Let us instead of being bigoted and intolerant, be charitable. Let us "do unto others as we would have them do unto us." F. I. TOWNSEND.

WHAT KIND OF A MAN IS AL SMITH? The Democratic party wrote a dry plank into its platform. Now then, when the great Democratic party had thus spoken on the liquor question, there were but two things that Al Smith could do. First, he could have said, "My party has spoken. It has declared itself for the dry cause; I will abide by their verdict." The other thing he could have done, had he been on the square, was to say, "I am not in agreement with your decision, therefore I cannot fairly represent you. I refuse to be nominated." Did Smith do either one of these things? No. He was not that kind of a man. What did he do? He waited until the convention adjourned and then declared himself in opposition to the position which his party had done. In other words, he put himself above his party. I ask you, dear reader, is a man who will treat his party thus a common good citizen? Is he honorable? Is he honest? Is he worthy of the least respect as a citizen, much less the honor of holding the highest office that can be given him—the presidency of the United States of America? Shall we not rise in indignation and say to such cattle, "We want no such character to reign over this great government of ours." Talk about having signed the pledge, bolting the ticket, or any such lingo, who bolted the party but Al Smith?

I think this enough to make every red-blooded American citizen raise his dignity and put his stamp of disapproval on such men as Al Smith by voting against him next November. Now, this liquor question is not the greatest objection to Al Smith. If you haven't read the oath of the fourth degree of the Knights of Columbus, you should get hold of a copy and read it, and then ask yourself the question, "Can a man take such an oath and at the same time qualify as president of this country?" Say what you please, he is a subject of Rome and an agent of the Pope, and is seeking to Romanize America. Shall we sit idly by and let them do it? A. P. MORRIS.

Laws against bootlegging have been shamelessly ignored by the Republican administration during the past eight years. Still the U. S. P. now poses as the champion of prohibition. Could hypocrisy go any farther?

Church Services

The meeting at the Fluvanna Baptist Church, after a week's campaign, closed Sunday night with a large congregation in attendance.

Regular services were held at the Methodist Church Sunday at the 11 o'clock hour, but the evening service was called off out of deference to the Baptist meeting.

Also, a funeral service was held at the Methodist Church about 1 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Harris, over the remains of Leroy Wilkerson, age 14, who died Saturday following an operation for acute appendicitis early last week.

We are authorized to say that the Methodist fourth quarterly conference will meet at Polar on the fifth Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Grubbs of the Abilene Christian College was here Sunday for two services with the Christian Church.

Regular services, morning and evening, will be held at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday.

It is expected that Rev. Charles Leslie will fill his pulpit in the First Baptist Church next Sunday.

Sickness

Mrs. John Truss was suddenly taken violently ill last Thursday night with acute appendicitis.

At last report the patient was said to be doing well. The sick woman and her husband were accompanied to the sanitarium by J. E. Craft and Mrs. E. V. Boynton.

Mention is made above of the death of the Wilkerson boy who died Saturday. We all sympathize with this afflicted family.

Jim Green and son, Fletcher, brought Mrs. Green from their home in New Mexico to this place last Sunday. Mrs. Green is suffering from gall bladder trouble.

The family has many relatives here. They are now in the J. E. Jones home.

Edd Jones was sick last week but is now able to be out again. Burt Battles, who has been sick for several months, was able to attend church last Sunday.

Visits and Trips

J. A. J. Jones, Jas. H. Tate and D. A. Jones, representing the Fluvanna congregation, attended the Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church, meeting at Post City Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

Dan Bevis and H. Reeves of Florence, Ala., reached Fluvanna last Saturday for a visit of several days with relatives here—J. E. and Jim Dowdy and other families.

Clifford Haynes and O. F. Harris made a business trip to Roby last Monday.

Ward Harris of Eastland is here for a week's visit with home folks.

T. F. Koonce and family spent the week-end visiting at Lamesa. W. H. Surratt and wife of Foss, spent the week-end here.

visiting his brother, Nute Surratt, and family. Hubert Surratt went home with his uncle.

J. W. and Mrs. Craft and son, J. E. Craft and family have recently returned from a trip to Hartshorn, Okla. Mr. Craft, Sr., says that if any one in this section feels dissatisfied with our situation here, he should make a trip like this.

W. P. Sims and family returned from an extended trip Saturday. This trip was long continued on account of Mrs. Sims becoming ill. It could have been worse.

Ariace Haynes and family spent the week-end visiting a sister, Mrs. Kane, at Big Spring.

Mrs. P. Bratcher, Misses Josie and Lucie, Stacy Bratcher and wife, Earl Bratcher and wife have all gone to Williamson County to pick cotton.

Mrs. J. G. Landrum, correspondent for the Snyder News, together with others, was out on a fishing trip Monday. No doubt that paper will carry a fish story this week.

Miscellaneous

Well, yes, Fluvanna people will be at the Scurry County Fair in force this week. There are plenty of difficulties in the way, but we mean to overcome them—many of them at least.

Yes, they got married—H. Carnell and Mrs. Hattie Boatman—on last Sunday at 4 p. m. in the Carnell home west of Fluvanna. Rev. Jas. H. Tate officiated.

Our Fluvanna garages were all closed last Sunday and will be hereafter except when some actual emergency arises. This is right. There is no use of garages having to stay open all day Sundays. People can put their cars in order and get gas on Saturday just as well as they can get family supplies on Saturday.

The Boren & Taylor gin was being up its machinery last Tuesday.

Birthday Dinner

A delightful and sumptuous surprise birthday dinner was given Grandmother York at the York ranch home last Sunday. The occasion was a most pleasant one for all who were fortunate to be in attendance, and Mrs. York was plainly very happy on account of being remembered so kindly by her children and many friends.

Those attending the dinner were: J. W. and Mrs. Craft, J. D. and Mrs. Robison, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Smith, Miss Pauline Smith, Rev. and Mrs. Jas. H. Tate, J. H. and Mrs. Wicker, J. N. York and family, Miss Grace Avery, Miss Forest Wicker, J. B. and Mrs. York, Mrs. Josie York Lemley and son, Louis Hutto and daughter, Miss Marian, and Don Hutto of Big Spring.

CLASS MEETING

Luella Brice, Mildred Ross and Ray Fessire called a meeting of Snyder High School Seniors and faculty of 1927 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Brice Tuesday, Sept. 11.

We found the house beautifully decorated in our honor, with artistic arrangements of flowers and potted plants with many touches of our class colors. Luella met us at the door and directed us to the register. Mildred and Ray conducted us to seats in rows around the hall to await the arrival of the faculty. Mr. Covey ordered us to meet him in his office but failed to produce the little red book, so no one obeyed.

Arthur Snodgrass, class president called the house to order. Twenty-four students and five faculty members responded with accounts of their activities since disbanding in June '27, and some member present was prepared to answer for each absence.

Interesting letters of regret for their absence were read from Misses Abbie Mae Crozier, and Zeola Philen and Mr. F. Malcolm Crouch.

Response showed varied lines of study and industry. Some outstanding ones being lots of nothing and expert shoe shining. Many class members attended college last year, and a number are returning this week to resume their work.

Mr. C. Wedgeworth gave us a wonderful boost and much encouragement in our study and work.

Margaret Dell Prim played our class song, and we gathered around her and sang in the old fashioned way. Then we found our partners for a game of forty-two.

Mrs. Brice offered prizes for high score to be presented at the home going time.

After an hour of forty-two a dainty ice course, carrying out our class colors, was served to class and faculty members as follows:

BRIDAL SHOWER

Mrs. Odell H. Ryan was honored Monday afternoon with a miscellaneous bridal shower at the pretty country home of Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Smith with their daughter, Lorene, and Miss Dixie Lee Mitchell as joint hostesses.

A beautiful color scheme of white and gold was carried out in the living and dining rooms. Immediately after the guests were assembled, Mrs. W. P. Bowlin in a short talk, complimentary to the bride, summoned the fairies. Little Montie Reed Smith, the white fairy, entered the living room from the front and danced gaily to the feet of the bride, leading the way for the yellow and brown fairies, Mozelle Mitchell and Bernard Smith, who carried a miniature home. Little Montie Reed opened the house which proved to be full of useful gifts; these she handed to the bride who passed them on to the other guests.

The fairies then led the way to the dining room where lemonade was served to the following: Mesdames Odell H. Ryan, C. Jones, D. Mitchell, B. Duck, J. Woodward, S. Smith, R. Davis, L. Ryan, M. Hinyard, T. Brackley, W. P. Bowlin, L. A. Crenshaw, J. Spears and I. F. Smith; and Misses Elva and Faye Lemons, Ruth Alva, Charles Lee and Mildred Jones, Nell Ona and Valren Duck, Eris and Mariel Woodward, Lillian and Saemie Smith, Geraldine and Elsie Davis, Bonita and Capitola Smith, Quinta Mitchell and Fay Ryan.

FAMILY REUNION

An occasion that brought together nineteen relatives in a happy reunion was given at the old Horton homestead four miles east of town last Thursday when an all-day affair was held. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Norton, and their children and grand children assembled at the old home place where they spent a happy day in a general discussion on the past, present and future, which will linger long in the memories of those present. The Nortons have made their home in Scurry County for 33 years.

At the noon hour a feast was prepared consisting of chicken and all the other accessories.

Those taking part in the day's festivities were: Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Morton and family of Maryneal, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Morton and family of Snyder, Miss May Bolin of Maryneal, and Walter Morton and nephew of Abilene.

The meeting was a very interesting one on "The Spirit of Beauty," being ably led by Mrs. J. E. Sontell. Nineteen club members answered to roll call, and the following guests were present: Mrs. WattScott, Mrs. Bob May, Mrs. C. R. Buchanan and Mrs. Grantham.

Misses Martha Gray and Margaret Dell Prim assisted Mrs. Webb in serving a very delicious refreshment plate.

We are reprinting this prize winning advertisement for two reasons: FIRST, because we are just naturally proud of the fact that a Lone Star Gas advertisement—a Southwestern advertisement—was chosen as a winner in such a contest! SECOND, we want you to read again the message that was thought by these nationally known judges to be of such outstanding importance. Of course, we're going to do our best to bring the FIRST PRIZE to the Southwest next year. If you have any advertising suggestions... based on what natural gas means to you—we'll be very glad to get them. Please outline your ideas to the Manager of your local gas company, or mail to the undersigned:

Natural Gas

is a community builder

increases property values and it's one of the cheapest necessities You Buy....

Have you ever stopped to consider just how much of a part Natural Gas plays in the life and growth of your community?

When your local community boosters and builders, your Chamber of Commerce workers, start "telling the world" of your local advantages, what usually heads the list?

Natural Gas! A plentiful, dependable supply of Natural Gas—the cheapest industrial fuel available anywhere!

Other points about your community may carry weight with manufacturers and other industries you desire to attract—but the greatest is usually cheap fuel—Natural Gas. Taking the country over, there are comparatively few places that can offer Natural Gas—so it is a real advantage.

And what does it mean to attract new industries?

It means steady growth for the community—more people, more business, more prosperity, increased property values.

The increased property values resulting directly or indirectly from the community growth stimulated by the possession of Natural Gas have, or will, (depending on length of time you have had Natural Gas) more than offset the cost to the community of the Natural Gas consumed.

Though you may not own property now, you intend to do so, and the advantage of Natural Gas in your community is a real one to you, as you certainly want to know that your community has growth ahead of it when you put your money into property.

And, not to be overlooked, there are the convenience, cleanliness and cheapness of Natural Gas used in your own home for heating and cooking.

As one of the largest Natural Gas pipe line companies in the country, we are happy to be able to contribute something to the growth of your community and to your personal comfort, by rendering the type of service to your local gas company that makes Natural Gas a real asset to the community

Lone Star Gas Company

The Lone Star Gas Company is a producer, purchaser, pipe line transporter and wholesaler of natural gas. It bridges the gap between the gas fields and your local gas company's lines and thus serves you by backing up the service of your local company

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE W. BROWN HONORED

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brown were honored at a delightfully planned dinner last Wednesday at their home when their daughter, Mrs. C. C. Johnson of Nacogdoches, entertained with a surprise dinner in honor of their parents' fortieth wedding anniversary. A two-course dinner was served to C. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown and little daughter, Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brown and family and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brown.

BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL WOMEN TO FEDERATE

The Business and Professional Women's Club met Tuesday night on the court house lawn with Mrs. John R. Covey, Mrs. Sam Hamlett and Mrs. R. E. Gray hostesses. In the business meeting of the club a motion was made and carried that the club federate with the County Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Melvin Blackard and Miss Georgia Bolin were representatives from the Business Women's Club at the last meeting of the County Federation.

Miss Mansfield of Ardmore, Okla., a guest of the club, gave an interesting talk on the Business Women's Club to which she belongs in Ardmore. A most delightful social hour followed the business meeting. Sandwiches and lemonade were served to the twenty-five members and guests.

YOUNG—WHITMORE

Miss Juanita Whitmore, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Whitmore, and J. M. Young of Rotan were married Sunday morning, Sept. 16, in Colorado. The ceremony took place in the home of Dr. Grady Whitmore. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hale were the attendants, and Elder J. D. Harvey pronounced the nuptial benediction. The bride's frock was a model of navy blue crepe Roumaine, and she wore navy blue slippers. Her hat was a small close-fitting felt, and she carried a large blue embroidered bag. The groom received his education in the Texas A. M. College, and is now a leading business man of Rotan.

Mr. and Mrs. Young are now in San Antonio and will be at home in Rotan after October 1. Friends will join the Times-Signal in extending congratulations.

MRS. C. J. YODER AND MRS. H. P. BROWN ENTERTAIN

An enjoyable affair of the past week was the seated tea and musicale given in the home of Mrs. H. P. Brown, with Mrs. Brown and Mrs. C. J. Yoder entertaining.

Cut flowers and blooming pot plants brightened the interior of the home. The house party included the following ladies: Meses. Joe Strayhorn, R. W. Bell, L. O. Smith, Charles Harless, Clyde Shull, J. C. Dorward, H. J. Brice and R. J. Randals.

An entertaining program was given, including piano solos by Mrs. W. W. Hamilton, Miss Ruth Belle Boren and Mrs. R. L. Gray, and readings given by Miss Martha Gray and Mrs. Joe Monroe.

A musical reading was given by Mrs. Tom Gates, with Miss Davida Curry accompanying at the piano. Mrs. Howard McDonald sang a solo, with Mrs. W. W. Hamilton playing the piano accompaniment. Miss Marilu Rosser gave a piano solo and Miss Elaine Rosser a reading.

Delicious refreshments were served to one hundred guests who called during the hours of receiving, and this delightful hospitality will be long remembered by those attending.

GLEE CLUB ORGANIZED

A group of about fifty girls met in the high school auditorium September 13 for the purpose of organizing the glee club for this year. The following officers were elected: Nina Frances Banks, president; Ruby Curry, secretary; Marian Rosser, treasurer, and Reva Lewis, reporter.

The testing for the voices began Monday, and we feel that the club will be much better this year than last. Mr. Springfield, the director, is a very efficient leader, and we know he will give some good worthwhile programs this year. The final number will be about twenty-five girls for the club. Attractive uniforms will be had for various programs.

We are depending on the Snyder people to help us put this club work over by attending the programs we will have this year. Reporter.

DICK AND ABE SAY:

FREQUENT CLEANING NECESSARY
Clothing wears away from grease, stain and dirt. There isn't any suit but what these'll hurt. And frequent cleanings are very much worth while. For reasons other than keeping up with style. So, if your suit needs cleaning its life to prolong. We'd better have it now. Don't wait too long.

ALTRURIANS MEET

Last Friday was a gala day for the Altrurians as their club year opened, holding their first meeting with Mrs. H. P. Brown.

The officers of the club are: Mrs. H. G. Towle, president; Mrs. R. D. English, recording secretary; Mrs. O. P. Thrane, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. C. Pruett, treasurer; Mrs. Whitmore, parliamentarian, and Mrs. W. E. Smith, reporter.

The house was called to order by the president, and the roll was called, each member responding with a personal reaction to the study of poetry. Reports from different clubs were read and helpful plans were discussed for the year's work. Ensemble reading was given by Mrs. English, beginning as follows: "Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed. Let us be done with fault finding and selfishness."

A pleasant social hour followed until refreshment time when a dainty two-course luncheon was served to the club members and Miss Eula Stinson, guest.

EUZELIANS ENTERTAIN WITH PICNIC

The Euzelian Class of the First Baptist Sunday school, entertained their husbands with a delightful picnic supper at Wolf Park Monday evening. The occasion was to fittingly celebrate the first birthday of this splendid, progressive, wide-awake group of women, for on Sept. 17 one year ago this class was organized.

The class has had a most remarkable growth and has had much good done the members in visiting the sick and enlisting new members and, too, the social life of the class has been most excellent.

So the year's work was very fittingly celebrated by this happy outing, and the beginning of the new year's work with this class has every indication of most wonderful success.

The husbands would not mind a birthday more often. The many good things to eat, fried chicken and everything that goes to make a picnic a success, was on hand; the ice cream, soda pop, in fact everything was just in order.

The happy group met at Wolf Park where the picnic lunch was spread on long tables, and about 7:30 all were enjoying the bountiful spread. Some fifty-six shared the evening's enjoyment, and everyone went away feeling that the occasion had been, as Mark Twain said of the Pacific Ocean, "a great success."

The class had an out-of-town guests Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Moore of Fort Worth.

ENTERTAINS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

On Tuesday evening Mrs. W. L. Clark entertained the Cradle Roll of the Methodist Sunday school. They all took part in making a merry affair by playing many games.

Ice cream and drop cookies were served to Nan Blakey, James Thomas Randall, George Harvey Dixon, Lalene Burditt, William Hamilton, Virginia Preull, Sybil Oliver, Billie Gray, Wyna Clark, Charles Edward Blakey, James Edward Drion, Beverly Lambeth, Betty Jane Lambeth, Mary Louise Taylor, class members, and the following guests: Maxine Reed, Marine Clark, Margaret Gray, Mrs. J. E. Chapman, Mrs. J. E. Blakey, Mrs. G. D. Dixon, Mrs. L. P. Lambeth.

Certainly we can't prove it, but we bet the serpent told Eve her husband was too old for her.

A. C. ALEXANDER RESIGNS AS SUPERINTENDENT OF BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL. Mr. Alexander, for over seven years general superintendent of the First Baptist Sunday School, resigned last night at the mid-week prayer meeting. The church at first refused to accept his resignation, but after being urged by Mr. Alexander to accept it, did so reluctantly. Immediately the church expressed its regrets at losing such an untiring and capable superintendent by a rising vote of appreciation for his loyal and efficient service through these years.

Mr. Alexander is known throughout West Texas as one of the best Sunday school builders in the section, and his place will be hard to fill. A committee with N. M. Harpole as chairman was appointed to make recommendations to the church in the matter of selecting Mr. Alexander's successor.

GENERAL ELECTRIC Refrigerator

All machinery needs oil—but each General Electric Refrigerator has its own permanent supply. Inside the steel casing there is sealed every bit of the mechanism of this remarkable refrigerator. And, along with the machinery, there is all the oil it will ever need.

This is only one of the many advantages of the General Electric Refrigerator. It has no belts, fans or drain-pipes. It has no mechanism inside, underneath, or in the basement. It is almost as portable as a fan—can be plugged into any convenient outlet. It uses very little current to make all the ice you need and keep the temperature always below the 50 degree danger point.

You will want to study these unusually quiet, generously roomy, strongly built refrigerators. You are cordially invited to come in. Compare them with all others before you decide. And remember, they are the product of fifteen years of research in the General Electric laboratories—and are guaranteed by General Electric. There is a wide range of models and prices. You will find the one you want among them.
