Is Progress Based on Canning Process?

Is the perfection of our processes for preserving foods responsible for the modern world's remarkable progress? Is our present day civilization epitomized in an ordinary tin can of preserved food? "The Canning Trade" thinks so, and recently justified its opinion in a remarkable editorial. Under the heading "Becoming World Wide" this magazine said:

Canning Foods Grew Rapidly

"Considering how rapidly the canning of food products grew in these United States, and in North America generally, and particularly in France, the house of Appert, importance, convenience and palatability of the food in cans, the wonder is that other nations did not follow our lead and install canning as their main food reserve.

"Of course, there has always been some canning done in all countries of the globe; the house of Appert, in France, for instance, continuing to this day to produce canned foods. But even this now famous house turns out a quantity that would compare only with the fair-sized home-canning outfit in our country. And that remains largely true with the so-called commercial canneries of France, Germany, Sweden, Norway and Spain, though the fish canners in the north and the Italian canners have reached a production which entitles them to exception.

"But since the great war, and the prominent part canned foods played in it, even as they did in our Civil War, and which made the canning industry in America, the canning of foods has steadily grown in all countries of the globe, and there is an immense amount of interest shown everywhere and a desire to know more about the business and how to conduct it. In other words, the whole world is now taking hold of canned foods, and we may expect to see it grow, even as it has grown in this country, though in no other country to the huge bulk it has assumed in our country.

"England has been the latest to show a definite drift towards the establishment of the canning industry as a means of saving surplus food crops, and in her characteristic thorough manner has gone to the bottom of the matter and is building up, slowly but steadily and well. Following the efforts to solidify the industry in the home country, we may expect to see her Colonies take up the procedure and to build the whole into a worthwhile and prominent industry. (The editorial explains here that Canada has always been reckoned with us in the development of the canning industry.)

"There is nothing surprising in this awakening of the world to the value and importance of the canned foods industry, because it was bound to come. We have long claimed, and without fear of successful contradiction, we believe, that the great advancement of the world is due to the discovery and introduction of the method of preserving food by canning.

"It may be a mere coincidence, but it is, nevertheless, the fact that not until mankind had discovered this means of making sure a steady supply of nutritious foods—and which only canning makes possible—progress was halting and slow. But since that day when Appert proved the correctness of his theory history has gone forward with leaps and bounds in every effort of mankind.

Human Progress Now Rapid

"Turn back to your history and note that for the about seven thousand years of recorded history previous to Appert's time, mankind had developed no way to provide even for a few days in advance his necessary food supplies, not even through preservation through ice. He had, of course, learned to dry some foods; to take the grain crops and the root crops and store them against the winter months, and had ventured very slightly into preservation through sugar but, with all these, scarcity continued as a dreaded evil that held men to their homes and caused armies, explorations and almost every human endeavor to hesitate, and very properly so, because man was poorly fed, and a poorly fed man is not a good worker.

"Came the method of preserving foods with all their natural succulence and food value, through the instrumentality of canning, and the world took wings and spread out to the wonders you see on every hand today. Compare the developments of the world in those first seven thousand years with the developments of the past 125 years and you have the picture which we claim was caused through the discovery of canning."

Mrs. W. L. Albough and daughter, Margie Lee, of Shamrock, is visiting her husband who is a driller on the Landreth well.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Johnson spent last week-end with Mr. Johnson's father, W. A. Johnson, in Austin.

E. O. Wedgeworth of Fluvanna spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. C. Wedgeworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Gass of San Antonio spent last week-end in Snyder. Mrs. Gass was formerly Miss Chapman and was a teacher in the Snyder school.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Hyepock and two daughters, Misses Inez and Grace, expect to move back to Snyder the latter part of this week from Spur.

Miss Jessye Stimson returned Sunday from the teachers convention in San Antonio. She also visited Misses Eula and Vernell Stimson and Harold Brown in Austin.

Homer Springfield and Forest Wade and Misses Georgia Boyon and Jessye Stimson returned Sunday from San Antonio where they attended the convention of the Texas State Teachers Association.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hartman spent Thanksgiving in Canyon with Mrs. Hartman's parents. Mr. Hartman came home Friday, while his wife remained over the week-end.

"Seeing is believing, you know." "Not always. I see my girl often, but d— if I believe her."

Mrs. George Garner and daughter, Miss Winnie, were called to Quanah last Monday on account of the illness of Mrs. Garner's nephew, John Campbell, age 9. They returned last Thursday and left the little boy doing nicely.

Mrs. R. G. Davenport and son, Mack, of Denver, Colo., have been visiting friends in Snyder for about two weeks. Mrs. Davenport returned to her home in Denver Monday, while Mack will be here several days longer.

BROWNFIELD CHURCH EXTENDS WELCOME TO FORMER SNYDER PASTOR

The Northwest Texas Conference, which closed its session at Lubbock last Sunday night, moved Rev. J. W. Chisholm from Brownfield to Panhandle and appointed Rev. B. W. Dodson, D. D., to the pastorate of the Brownfield Methodist Church in his stead. Doctor Dodson is a graduate of Vanderbilt University at Nashville, Tenn., and has filled some of the leading stations in the Northwest Texas Conference, and was also a presiding elder for a number of years.

He has recently returned from New Mexico where he went on account of health conditions in his family. We feel sure that the Methodists of Brownfield and all the rest of our citizenship will give Dr. Dodson a hearty welcome to our little city.—Brownfield Herald.

Rev. Dodson was pastor here until two years ago.

FLUVANNA BOOSTER WRITES

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Sewalt of Fluvanna added their names to the Times-Signal pioneer list this week with the information that they settled in Scurry County in November, 1897, thirty-one years ago. Mr. Sewalt stated that when they landed here this country was then known as the Jumbo Cattle Co. range, and that folks building had to haul their lumber from Colorado City to build dug-outs. Snyder was their post office when they came here. The Times-Signal would welcome written expressions from all the old settlers.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Lee, Jr., a bouncing baby boy, last Thursday. "String," as they call him at the Snyder Laundry, laid off for two days following the presentation of this new member in the family. Mother and son are doing fine.

Miss Dorothy Strayhorn of Snyder, who is a member of the Trinity Chorus, will take part in a program to be given by Trinity musical organizations at City Temple Presbyterian Church of Dallas Sunday evening.

OIL LAND LEASE HOLDERS ORGANIZE

Activity in Scurry County oil land leases seems to be on the increase constantly. We have just learned that at Duluth, Minn., recently the holders of oil leases in Sections 65, 66 and 88, and a part of 67, Fisher County, comprising a little more than 2080 acres, held a meeting and organized, adopting the name of "The 2080 Acre Trust," and elected three trustees to handle the entire affairs of the company.

The land is well located. The Dutch Shell Company has its pipe line running across it, and Hugh H. Tucker, who located the Big Lake oil fields, has examined the property and considers the prospects for oil excellent.

The Hernleigh Chamber of Commerce is cooperating in a terracing movement to have every farm owner in that section to terrace his land. County Agent Logan is giving his personal help to the movement.

Rev. C. E. Jameson, former pastor of the Methodist Church here, has been transferred from Memphis to Canyon.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Mrs. Sue Pitner and son, Fred, were pleasantly surprised Nov. 25 by a large group of friends and relatives, the occasion being Mrs. Pitner's 68th birthday anniversary. Many expressions of interest in the county's welfare were expressed as practically all the visitors had originally come to this section from East Texas. Conversation concerning old ties back in Rains County were cited and one expression concerning a statement of Uncle Charley Dodson was interesting. Uncle Charley says he is "just beginning to find out why so many people move from Rains County to Snyder. It is either because they visited their neighbor's smokehouse or his corn crib too often." Visitors said Uncle Charley ought to know because he has been dealing with some of the Pitner folks for five years who occupy one of his farms.

Four sons and their families were present, including B. S., J. P., Fred and John; one daughter, Mrs. Claud English; and granddaughter, Loretta Smith; one sister, Mrs. P. L. Gee, and family, and one old-time friend, Mack Hall, and family. Mrs. Pitner was made very happy on this occasion and hopes to make the event even greater and better next year.

If eligibility rules had held, the Sweetwater Mustangs would have been the unquestioned leaders of this district. Anson, who won the eastern section of the district, had trouble defeating Stamford 3 to 0, while the Mustangs waded through Stamford 27 to 0 Thanksgiving day. At the same time Anson was defeating Colorado 26 to 0.

Arrive From Australia Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winston of Sydney, Australia, have arrived in Snyder to be the guests of the Winston families. Mr. Winston has been associated with The Texas Company as auditor and was but recently married to Miss Alecia Ann Hunt, a native Australian.

Mr. Winston is well known here, and the best wishes of the many friends of the family will join the Times-Signal in extending congratulations.

SELLS JERSEY HEIFER FOR HUNDRED DOLLARS

Hoyt Murphy, one of Scurry County's most prominent farmers, sold a Jersey heifer last week for $100.00 cash to a man from the plains. Mr. Murphy has made many records on his farm, and the Jersey sale is but his latest move to prove the absolute dependability of the cow, sow and hen movement.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Sunday was another good day. Good, attentive crowds. Come, we need you and you need to hear the lessons Mr. Speck is giving on "The Mowle Church." All who are coming are delighted. Shall we look for you Sunday? Thanks. We had 45 present at the young people's class at 6:00; 143 present last Tuesday evening at prayer service; 21 present at the ladies' Bible class Monday afternoon at 2:30; and 147 present at our Bible study Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

We thank the good people for being so attentive at all services.

HOW HE FELT

The Star is edited by W. E. Gilliland, who is about eighty years old and a Democrat who never in his life scratched a ticket. Following the returns from the late election his paper carried the following as a leading editorial:

We will not attempt to tell how we feel about the election, but will relate a story: A certain old-time oil driver was noted for his profanity; at the slightest provocation he would cut loose with a streak of cuss words that would curl the hair on his oxen. Plodding along one day with a big load of timber on his wagon, all at once the king bolt in his front axle broke, the front wheel of his wagon was pulled from under the timber and down it went with one end of the timber resting on the ground and the other end up on the hind wheels. About this time three friends who were nearby and witnesses of the accident, rode up, expecting to hear an explosion of wrath and profanity from the high-tempered old teamster, but he sat on his old pony, dumb as an oyster, speechless. Finally one of his friends said: "Jim, what is the matter with you? On the slightest excuse and no excuse you can out cuss any man on this road, and here you have the best opportunity of your life to give us a fine example of your proficiency in cussing, and you are as mute as a mouse. What the devil is the matter with you?" Slowly turning to his friends, the old oil driver drawled: "Gentlemen, I feel myself unable to do the damn subject justice, and therefore have nothing to say."—Honey Grove Signal.

PIONEER WRITES

Rotan, Texas, Nov. 29, 1928
 The Scurry Co. Times-Signal, Snyder, Texas.
 Dear Sirs:
 I noticed in a copy of your paper that you wanted to hear from the pioneers. I suppose that I am entitled to the honor of being one of the "old pioneers of Scurry County." My father settled in the northeastern part of your county Sept. 15, 1892. We lived just a few miles from the Cottonwood Flat school house, and I attended there several years. I also taught several terms at Bethel and Bison. My old friends and schoolmates will remember me as Miss Bobbie Hester. I attended school at Snyder during the term that Prof. Tyler was our principal and Mr. Charley Dodson our assistant. I have spent several years of my life in your county but have been living in your sister county, Fisher, for a number of years. I hope to meet many of my old time friends at your poultry show next week. Very respectfully yours, MRS. W. B. WILLINGHAM, (Nee) Miss Bobbie Hester, Route A, Box 162.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

My Gerson R. Waite Charles E. Mullen, general manager of the Tampa (Fla.) Times, says: THAT here in America we live better than any other people in the world, and much of the credit for this high standard of living goes to advertising. Advertising makes mass production possible, and mass production brings efficiency and lower costs. Thus, through the speeding up of industry under the stimulation of advertising, a day's labor in America produces more goods than elsewhere in the world, and a day's wages buys more.

Because it does create new desires, improves old habits, increases efficiency in industry and distribution, advertising is economically sound and contributes to grow in influence. And as it does develop greater power of appeal, it will further raise our standard of living by making necessities and luxuries cheaper and well informed people. Almost everyone reads now. Old prejudices are breaking down, and we are attaining a new appreciation of the art of living.

That business concerns who are progressive tell that interesting fact by advertising. THAT advertising tells the story of a business. It is the service by which the public can judge a business. THAT advertising is a presentation of what a business concern has to sell. THAT persistent advertising means quicker, easier and larger sales. THAT well advertised products are always of superior quality. THAT persistent advertising is a guarantee of quality. THAT the wonderful growth in sales of well advertised products proves their worth. Anything worth selling is worth advertising! Truthful advertising is an honest service to the public.

Must Have Meant January

A merchant in a Wisconsin town had a Swedish clerk and sent him out to do some collecting. When he returned from an unsuccessful trip, he reported: "Yim Johnson say he vill pay ven he sell his wheat, and Bill Puck say he vill pay in January." "Well," said the boss, "that's the first time he ever set a date to pay. Did he really say he would pay in January?" "Well, Aye tank so," said the clerk. "He say it bane cold day ven you get that money. Aye tank that bane in January."

A father took his son of four years to the incubator in the cellar to see the eggs hatch. Said dad impressively, "Isn't it queer how little chicks get out of the shell?" "Gee," said the youngster, "what gets me is how they get in there."

A minister, in addressing his flock, began: "As I gaze about, I see before me a great many bright and shining faces."

Just then eighty-seven powder puffs came out.

MRS. THOS. H. LEE'S DIARY

June 19, 1906. Miss Lucy Rutherford is living with me. She demonstrates the "Vivi Goods." Dr. Redford and family from Boyd, Texas, are visiting in Snyder this week.
 June 20. Miss Bessie Lane, Mrs. Singletary, Belle Person and I sang a quartette, "The Coming of Spring."
 June 23. Baxter Scoggins and some more cowboys came in from Pete Scoggins' ranch today. One Mr. Anderson from Tennessee has moved to Snyder.
 June 24. Miss Nora Westbrook, Little Chas. Lockhart, Earl Nation and I took supper at Miss Hattie Glascock's and had a real good time after supper playing blinch and looking at postals.
 June 25. Mrs. John Helms and daughter, Clyde, came in to Snyder on business. They have a big ranch at Hud, Texas.
 Dick Bogart of Hud was in town today on his way to Fort Worth.
 June 26. Riley Manry and I went to prayer meeting.
 Mr. and Mrs. Becklin had a good number of young music lovers at their home over Towie's jewelry store. He played his Edison (the big horn kind and round cylinder records).
 Hardy Boyd and Joe, his brother, are certainly nice young men. They have recently moved to Snyder.
 June 29. Mrs. W. A. Watkins and Miss Lucy Rutherford spent the day at Mrs. J. R. Moon's ranch.
 June 29. Miss Ida Ingle, Miss May McClinton, Miss Lois Gross and I made masks for Edgar Davis, Ed Nation, Gilbert McClinton, Naoma McClinton and Etta Jones. The girls met at Mr. and Mrs. Watkins' house, while the boys gathered at the hotel (at that time the "Old Eastern" was the hotel). Ella Dodson and Mrs. Kate Nelson came later, and we all had a masquerade party at the skating rink. Dr. Harlin and I led the march.

June 30. Last day of June. May McClinton began her diary today. (I do not know whether Miss May has been as faithful in keeping her diary as some more people I know, but will say she sure began one June 30, 1906.)
 July 1. Mrs. Pete Ingle is very ill at her home at the Old Eastern Hotel.
 July 2. Herman Nickleson and Walter Adamson led a serenading bunch around town, and my! they were well paid for their music! Good music, too!
 July 3. Five years ago today I was baptized in Wolf's tank and joined the church during the meeting held by Bro. Boren.
 July 4. Miss Vena Elkins of Post visited friends in Snyder this week.
 Have the honor of going with Mr. Kemp to Deep Creek picnic this eve, but most of us later went to Lon Smith's ranch.
 The Thompson Hotel (now the Alamo) was just completed this year, and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson manage it.
 Monday, July 9, 1906. The skating rink is where everyone goes and has a great time. Skated with several, among whom was Jim Lockhart. We fell and Mr. Jim hurt his thumbs. (Ha, ha! But you can ask him, and he'll tell you the same thing.) O. L. Smith was another one of my partners.
 July 10. Began working on tax roll today—Orville Dodson and I. Mr. Wilson is tax collector.
 July 11. Gilbert McClinton went to Big Spring to be gone indefinitely.
 Little Westbrook and I went to Plainview school house to preaching. Brother Carnette preached. A solo, "A Bird in a Gilded Cage," was sung by Mrs. Stephens at a recital later.
 July 14. W. A. Watkins sold his home place on east side of square to Messrs. Fritz R. Smith and Harkey, realtors.
 We moved to Mrs. Manry's house where Edna Bird used to live.

July 15. Buck Allen of Sweetwater visited in town today. We had supper at the Thompson hotel. Saw Joe Caton and Chas. Cooper. (They were also very young, unsophisticated dudes of that day.)
 July 16. Bro. Ammond, a friend of Mr. Wilson, was killed lightning last night. He lived at Pyron.
 L. P. Barnes, brother of E. B. Barnes, is in the City Drug Store on Clairmont St.
 July 20. Mrs. Jim Lockhart and I went to skating rink this morning. Several girls fell, some lost their "rats" when their hair came down. (Styles change!)
 Came by Mr. and Mrs. Perry Morris' house and he was playing a "graphophone." We listened and enjoyed the music very much.

Grandpa and Grandma Morris were living near them.
 July 21. Allen Grimes took me to church. Heard Bro. Dale preach a good sermon.
 Tuesday, July 24. Mrs. Jack Smith gave us a party at her home north of town near the Jeff Justice place. Had a wonderful time. Tay Nation, Will Warren, May McClinton, Gilbert McClinton all came by my home for me.
 Naomi McClinton and Bert Baugh were missing today. (Remember that, Bert?)
 July 27. Mrs. W. A. Watkins and Mr. and Mrs. John Parsons went to a W. O. W. picnic today. A great crowd of young people were there. I met a Mr. Bridgeman. (How about that, Jim?)
 Miss Hattie Petty, Gus McClinton (May's brother) Little Chas. Lockhart, Ed Thompson (the Frigidaire boss) and Jim Bridgeman were all having a chance at the dinner baskets.

Desmond Autry and L. B. Barnes were callers this afternoon.
 July 31. Got letter from Abbie White. She lives at Roscoe.

Natural Gas for every HEATING need

THE CONVENIENCE, cleanliness and cheapness of gas have prompted inventive minds to devise many ways of utilizing the heating as well as cooking value of this care-free fuel. There's a type of gas heating unit to meet every need—from the small bath room heater to the modern gas furnace that heats a large house or building. The exact fitness for its purpose of each type of heater does much to make gas completely satisfying to you.

Look over your gas heating equipment. Perhaps some portion of it may have outlived its principal usefulness. A new heater, or a new type of heater, may much more justify its cost to you, either in greater satisfaction or fuel economy. Responsible heating equipment dealers and distributors will help you determine the exact type of heater for your special needs. Or, your local gas company will gladly advise you. Enjoy to the fullest the heating advantages of natural gas, by making sure of your heating equipment.

Refreshments were served in two courses to Mesdames Wesley Evans, Claude Sims, Dee Singletary, N. Von Roeder, Addison Casstevens, Bill Hutchinson, Henry Ware and Mrs. Ben Davis Jr., and Mrs. Wellington Taylor, who were guests.

You Wouldn't Go to Dinner With a Dirty Face!

IT'S ODD, but a lot of "go-getters" who would not think of going to dinner unshaven or without a clean shirt go to business in badly worn, wrinkled clothes. Just take note of this yourself. New suits, made to measure by—

DICK AND ABE SAY:

EQUIPMENT AND SKILL VERY NECESSARY. Just because a man can drive home a nail, Saw a board true to scratch without fail. Is no sign he can build a boat that will sail. Or, because you have a flatiron handy, And an ironing-board that's a dandy, Is no sign that at pressing you'd be a Handy Andy. 98 DRY CLEANERS

AN UNEXPECTED DRASTIC REDUCTION ON WOMEN'S DRESSES THIS WEEK AND NEXT

This is not a hullabaloo sale where you mark the price up instead of down—just an honest-to-goodness price reduction event—as we want to unload all the merchandise we can by the first of the year and save that much expense of moving. It will pay you big to investigate our prices before buying elsewhere.

WE ARE NOT GOING OUT OF BUSINESS—JUST GOING AFTER BUSINESS

Only by coming and seeing can you appreciate these wonderful values. It is only through Bryant-Link's tremendous buying power and their decision to sacrifice profits that these prices are made possible. Our loss is your gain.

This drastic reduction will enable you to be smartly dressed for the holiday season. Beautiful new dresses, as light as butterfly wings, and as richly colorful—in all the wanted shades of georgettes, canton and flat crepes, uneven hem lines, drapes and flares. Dresses you would be satisfied to pay as much as $20.00 for if demanded.

It is a great satisfaction to feel thoroughly at ease about the character of merchandise which you buy. The quality ideals of this store, which assure a high degree of worthiness of every item in stock, are of particular significance and advantage to you during the Christmas season.
