Group Meeting District 37 Held in Snyder

Three Towns Represented at Snyder Luncheon Yesterday Noon

GROUP MEETING (GUIDE) With Lamesa, Colorado, and Big Spring each having a fine delegation here yesterday noon, the Snyder Lions enjoyed one of their finest meetings.

Cecil Webb, Lions International representative, brought a message to the members and guests that was truly astounding. With 90,000 Lions throughout America and 4 foreign countries, he brought the attention of his auditors to the fact that each Lions Club has 600 definite community problems they can solve. Texas has 242 Lion Clubs and 9,000 members, the largest of any state. One of the fine thoughts Mr. Webb gave was that 110 crippled children were taken care of from the Panhandle district at an Oklahoma City hospital. The speaker brought a personal message from International President Ray Riley and gave a fine address.

Lion T. S. Christopher of Lamesa paid a beautiful tribute to the memory of William Howard Taft and at his close, taps were sounded by J. W. Crowley with the entire audience at attention, facing the American flag.

Short talks were given by District Chairman Collins and Frank Boyles of Big Spring, and Elbert W. Smith of Lamesa. Smith was later presented with a bucket of "grass-burns" the use of which was confined only to members present. He accepted them graciously.

Fred A. Grayum, old Snyder resident, was present and announced that he would return to Snyder to live, within two weeks. Pres.

Dodson also called on J. W. Roberts, new partner in the Times-Signal for brief remarks.

Supt. C. Wedgworth threw a bombshell into the ranks in his announcement of Frank Boyles of Big Spring. Regrets were read from Deputy Gov. W. F. Patterson of Pecos.

SNYDER'S FIRST JAIL A MEMORY IN THE RELICS OF FORMER DAYS

Through the courtesy of E. J. Anderson, the Times-Signal is privileged to print a picture that will bring memories, some perhaps sad, some perhaps laughingly, of the city's first jail. We wonder who might write an interesting story around the first jail that would be of interest to present day residents? The Times-Signal trusts and hopes that some of the older pioneers will assist in getting up a story of the jail, and while this subject might be a little bit away from the beaten path of news, yet it remains an integral part of city and county history and the matter should be preserved for future generations.

Hobbs Will Entertain Next Four County Singers Meet

Nolan, Mitchell, Fisher and Scurry Met at Sweetwater, Sunday

Hobbs independent school district, Fisher county, won the next meeting of the Four County Singing Association Saturday night in the opening session of the convention held at the Highland Heights Methodist Church at Sweetwater.

Several other places had entered bids for the meet but withdrew them after it had been recalled that Fisher county had not had it for the past two years. Dates were set for Sept. 13 and 14.

More than 400 persons, representing six or eight counties, were at the Highland Heights church for the opening of the convention. Twenty conductors of singing classes were included in the group. Scurry county was well represented.

Predictions were made that attendance for the all-day singing Sunday ran higher than 1,500.

Frank Stamps and his Brunswick recording quartet were present Sunday. This quartet is known as one of the best on the road and has had numbers of its songs recorded for the phonograph.

Officers of the association are T. H. Westbrook, Loraine, president; H. C. Stephenson, Sweetwater, vice president; and O. D. Peden, Roscoe, secretary. Mitchell, Scurry, Fisher and Nolan are the four counties in the organization. New officers will be elected in the September meeting at Hobbs.

THE VICIOUS CIRCLE

Borrowing money to live on while making a crop with which to pay back the money so that more money can be borrowed to live on while making a crop to pay that back, has begun once more.

The vicious system has endured since the days that followed the Civil war. Few in those days had money. Small farmers were "furnished" by creditors. They farmed a year behind. And now the third generation is doing the same thing "iniquity into the third and fourth generation."

It's no impossible task to break the bonds that tie a man to this economic slavery, mis-called farming. The money borrowed in the spring is spent for food to put on the table, feed to put in the manger and seed to put in the soil.

All the food, feed and seed bought with borrowed money is grown somewhere on another farm. When bought the price paid is two to four times what the other farmer got for it. The place that food, feed and seed ought to be grown is right on the farm where they are consumed.

But to break the vicious circle plans must be laid a year ahead. Right now is the time to begin doing those things that will result in an abundance of food, feed and seed being on hand a year from now, which will make borrowing to buy them in 1931 wholly unnecessary.—CLARENCE ROBERTS in the March 1 Oklahoma Farmer-Stockman.

RAVENS PRESENT MENACE; SHOULD BE ELIMINATED

Presence of These Migratory Birds Endanger Field And Other Crops

With an ever-increasing number of ravens to frequent every community of the county during recent weeks, has risen a feeling of alarm in the minds of farmers who are familiar with the destructive characteristics of this migratory bird. Farmers here Saturday, with whom this question was discussed gave support to the suggestion that definite measures to check the pests, if not eliminate them, ought to be undertaken.

"The raven presents a real menace to the farmer of Scurry county, and something should be done to protect our crops, orchards and gardens against the threatening condition his presence suggests," are more ravens in the county declared one of the farmers at the Court House Saturday. He said: "There are more ravens in the county this year than ever before, and I know this to be true because I have lived and observed here for many years. Not only will they make destructive inroads into our field crops, but are equally as menacing to our orchards and gardens. Especially is the raven fond of melons and sorghum grains."

Other farmers who were interested were found to express equal alarm. Just what measures should be undertaken were not suggested aside from the recommendation that poison could be used with profit. However, in the opinion of most of the planters, it is now late to undertake an effective campaign against the depredators.

It is estimated that more than 50 per cent of American families live in rented homes.

POLAR NEWS

By Mrs. J. A. Martin

There's a saying that a fellow always gets what he expects, but our folks expected a rainy March because the wind blew in February, and we are disappointed. Last Wednesday our community was visited with a regular West Texas sand storm. At this writing (Mon.) we are having another.

Prayer meeting was led by Bro. John Davis last Saturday night and a good service is reported.

Singing was well attended Sunday night, with the Dermott Singing class as visitors, and a number of visitors from other places. Those present enjoyed a duet by Mrs. Johnnie Hoyle and Miss Ruth Cantrell accompanied on the guitar and banjo by Johnnie Hoyle and Warren Cantrell, also a number of interesting quartets by Messrs. Neil Helfner, S. B. Weatherby, B. A. Moore and Miss Glyn Weatherby.

Bro. T. L. Nipp will preach at Polar next Sunday afternoon. Everyone is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Peterson honored Mrs. Peterson's father, Mr. James Cruickshank with a birthday dinner Sunday for his 80th birthday. Those present were Mrs. B. P. Moffat and family of Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. James Cruickshank. Mr. Cruickshank went home saying that he didn't know when he had enjoyed himself better.

Mrs. A. C. Elkins who had her tonsils removed recently made a trip to Lubbock last week for medical treatment. Mrs. Marvin Bailey of Angleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elkins is here during her mother's illness.

W. G. Williams shipped a carload of cows from Colorado last week, where he has had them on winter pasture.

J. T. Simms went to Justiceburg last week to look after some cattle there.

J. A. Martin went to Tulla Wednesday where he attended the bedside of his mother who has been ill for some time. He was accompanied by his father, J. B. Martin, and two brothers, Ben and Sam Martin.

Mrs. J. T. Simms is visiting her sister at Odessa, Texas this week.

Mrs. W. H. Mercer of Meade Kansas and Mrs. S. D. Mercer of Eldorado, Okla., who have been guests of Mrs. J. A. Martin the past their LIVES are in YOUR HANDS!

DOWNY LITTLE THINGS... not long out of their shells... how much they must depend on you for the things they need to live and get big. They need a feed filled with nourishment. A feed which will build bones quickly... building muscles strong... change fuzz to feathers in a hurry... all this they demand... and yet their little crops can handle only one tiny thimbleful of feed a day! What a job for feed!

Consider Purina Chick Startena (mash) for this job! In every thimbleful are twelve ingredients! Cod-liver oil... dried buttermilk... alfalfa flour... granulated meat... these and eight others are there... each one with a real job to do. Purina Startena is mixed over and over again... 960 times just to be thorough! And you will find the same care taken with Baby Chick Chow (scratch)... to be fed with Startena.

Your chicks... what they do for themselves... what they do for you... is entirely in your hands. They eat so little... yet it counts so much... that you can afford to do only one thing... feed Purina Chick Startena!

THE TOWN DOCTOR. DOCTOR OF TOWN. PLAY THE GAME

There are a lot of people in every community who say "Sure, I'm willing to do something to help push my town along;" but when it comes right down to brass tacks they stall with "well, I can't do it today," or "I'll see about it tomorrow."

Too many people think that the only thing that counts in community building is something big. If it isn't something that will get their name in the paper or grow a halo around their head doesn't interest them.

A chap told me not long ago that he was no use for him to do anything for his town, because nobody ever appreciated it when he did.

The sacks, bags, bottles and cans of community groceries are labeled "pop," "pride," "gumption," "co-ordination" and "common-sense," without which any community will cease to grow.

When a town ceases to grow it dies on its feet, and not even the undertaker makes any money out of it; for there isn't even enough inspiration left to have a good funeral.

A dead town is a sorry sight, and the saddest part of it all is that we cannot lay our hands on the fellow who killed it.

Scurry County Farmer Says Less Cotton—Longer Staple

J. L. Carrell, Union, Gives His Personal Viewpoint on Important Matter

"We are now facing a new situation in the production of cotton as well as the old situation of machinery which has been the bane of cotton production ever since cotton has been grown for the market."

"Both conditions are real and should have our most careful thought and consideration."

"The new situation that is very prominently before us at this time is, that the government has at last undertaken to help agriculture in all its branches to become a remunerative business so that those of us who are agriculturists may at least make a living plus a reasonable profit so that the business of farming will not go on the rocks."

Welcome to County Interscholastic League Meet Saturday, March 22nd. J.C. PENNEY CO. Snyder, Texas North Side Square

not the only producer of cotton, for indeed we find that the United States is gradually taking second place in the production of the fleecy staple. We find our neighbor Mexico increasing her production, China and Japan are experimenting with and growing some; the provinces of England which are in India are growing cotton in large quantities.

"Therefore the Farm Relief Board knowing the condition as it now exists are coming to us as growers asking that as a proper precaution we reduce our cotton acreage at the least 6,000,000 acres or in other words cut the acreage to 40,000,000 acres."

Now as I see it, the reduction is entirely too small, for in 1914 we produced one of our largest crops on between 35 and 40 million acres of cotton.

But be that as it may the Farm Relief Board is not only asking that the cotton growers reduce the cotton acreage but they are warning us that they cannot step in the breach and help to hold the price up if we as growers persist in growing so much cotton that the manufacturer and the consumer can't use it.

"The sowing Palmolive building is indeed a masterpiece," says President A. E. Dickinson of the Indiana Limestone company "For the exterior more than 225 carloads of variegated limestone was used."

"With these facts before us and with our knowledge as to the cost of growing, gathering, and marketing are we going to continue to buck the market by growing all the cotton we can on all the land we can get in cotton and are we going to say as some do always say that this acreage reduction talk is all bunk and we are not interested?"

"I am coming with this plea to the farmers of Scurry County, by all means let every farmer in the county reduce his cotton acreage some. Of course, some can reduce more than others, but any farmer can if he will, reduce not less than 5 or 10 acres."

UNCLE CHARLIE DODSON TELLS OF "SLEEPING"

Uncle Charlie Dodson of the city of Galveston has prepared the following story which suggests the subject of "Our Friend Lazarus Slept".

Some of you girls will talk from this subject some day and some of you boys will preach from this subject some day. This is my subject for 5 or 6 minutes.

The proud cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, indulged in sin that was revolting to human decency. They slept on their religious inclinations until God became so disgusted that He decided to destroy them from the face of the earth.

Pompeii and Herculaneum were warned by the reptiles and other animals that came from the hills and wild woods of Vesuvius, seeking safety. They knew by instinctive nature that some tremendous convulsion was going to take place. We do not know by what impulse of nature these animals knew that old Vesuvius was going to belch forth fire and ashes and lava and cover these cities, completely destroying them. The people knew the coming of these animals forebode wreck and ruin but they were so in love with their possessions that they SLEPT on and risked the consequences. They were plunged into eternity with all of their costly possessions.

The city of Galveston "Slept" but the storm gathered upon the Gulf of Mexico, soon the lurid lightning began to rip the clouds and the awful thunders verily shook the sea, the storm tossed mariner's ship was tossed against the shore, all the elements went on a rampage, yet Galveston SLEPT. The winds became more and more boisterous, the mad waves of the Gulf became more angry. Soon they began to rush over the seemingly inaccessible fixed walls. Hundreds of lives were ushered into eternity, some prepared, and some unprepared, they SLEPT regardless of the dangers surrounding them. Think, oh, think of the destiny of the prepared and the unprepared.

San Francisco

San Francisco SLEPT, while one of the most gigantic and destructive earth-quakes had beneath its foundations was preparing to shake that wicked city from center to circumference, and plunge hundreds into a hell more awful than they were to experience on earth. The elements were darkened, the rumbling, thundering noise gave the people warning but they Slumbered on. The water connections were severed, the electric lights were torn asunder. Houses fell crumbling to the ground. Fire broke out and could not be controlled. Pandemonium reigned almost without restraint.

Jerusalem Slept

Jerusalem "slept" when Jesus the Saviour with sadness and sorrow stood no doubt with tears running down his cheeks, wept, and said, "Oh! Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the Prophets and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings and ye would not: Behold your house is left unto you desolate."

I would like to talk some about the wickedness of the people before the world-wide flood, but time would be taken from your lessons. Suffice it to say that, they became so wicked that God sent a general flood over all the world. Noah and his family, who made an ark in which they were saved from drowning. The people SLEPT on their religious opportunities until they were swept into an unending eternity without any preparation. Many people in Snyder are going to do just as these people did.

Ninevah

Ninevah was a very wicked city. God told Jonah to go and preach to them for their wickedness had come up before Him. Jonah did not want to do what God told him to do, so he went down to Joppa and took shipping for another city to get away from God. He went down into the ship, thinking that he was clear away from God and his duty, and absolutely went to sleep. God sent a great storm upon that sea and they were in great danger of being wrecked. The mariners did all they knew to appease the anger of the sea but it did no good. They went to Jonah, he confessed that he was the cause of the trouble and to throw him overboard and the storm would cease. They regretted to do such a thing, however they did it. God had prepared a fish, which swallowed Jonah. And he was in that fish's belly for three days and nights. This was a type of Christ. He was in the heart of the earth for three days and nights. That fish spared Jonah up on dry land. Jonah went to Ninevah and did what God had told him to do. He told them to repent or in forty days Ninevah would be destroyed. They repented and God spared the city. Christ was in the grave three days and nights and He came out of that grave. He was here on earth forty days after his resurrection, talking to the Disciples about the Kingdom. Just after his ascension a few days later, the people repented and thousands were converted and surrendered their lives to Christ.

Some how or another I can't help but believe that there are more people asleep now as to where they will spend eternity than has been for a long time. I don't know whether it indicates the end of the gentile age or not. The thing for you and everyone else to do is to be ready. Then if Christ should come soon you will be caught up to meet Him in the air. My advice to you as your superintendent is to take Christ into your life. It is the only life to live, that is worth while. Will you do that before you go to sleep tonight? Time is up.

Uncle Charlie.

WEST TEXAS NEWS TRAVELS TO OHIO

That West Texas news travels is shown in a newspaper that comes to the Times-Signal office, this week. It likewise proves beyond the shadow of a doubt that West Texas is not the only zone of living that has officials concerned with basket-ball matters with no more intelligence than a child of unmentionable age such as we had at Big Spring several weeks ago.

The paper in question was the Leipsic, Ohio, Free Press, one which had a little to do with the raising of the Times-Signal editor, whether that was good or bad does not enter into the present matter but under a heading: "Even in West Texas" they said:

"Down in West Texas they also have their troubles at basketball tournaments. Jimmie Smith's Snyder Tigers were edged out of the sectional championship by sculduggery according to the Scurry County Times, and Jimmie does not hesitate to tell the folks about it in a column length article in a way that clearly indicates Smith has lost none of the fire that was born in him when he knows he is right.

"It seems as if incompetent tournament directors ruled off one of the Snyder stars for no good reason and then switched the schedule so as to make the Snyder boys play two games in succession while other teams in the tournament had not even been on the floor.

"Sympathy extended, Jimmie."

But the Times-Signal thanks the Ohio scribe and is advising tournament officials in this territory to place "clear Indians" to head district matters next year instead of what they wished on us this year. It would be just as sensible and much more satisfactory to the coaches and fans of the entire territory.

WHERE IS YOUR MONEY?

It is interesting to read figures about the financial condition of the country, but somehow or other many of us never seem to get hold of our share. We read today where the national wealth is three hundred billion dollars; the national income ninety billion dollars. Saving bank deposits amount to ten billion five hundred million dollars, and those of national bank and trust companies, thirty-four billion dollars.

One thing that is a little disconcerting is the fact that one-fourth of our population, the farmers, get only one-twelfth of the national income. Make up your mind to get more—and get it—if you can.

FIRST BABY NAMED AFTER NEW TOWN

"Penwell is the name of the first baby born in Penwell, new boom oil town in Ector county.

Penwell Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cunningham, was born in a tent Wednesday night, Thursday morning she was reared with a town lot. Five lumber companies donated lumber for a house and carpenters donated work to erect the house, while business men gave the first Penwell baby a purse of money.

Snyder has a spirit and a citizenship that is not excelled by any other West Texas town.

Konjalo Wins Triumphs Every Day Everywhere

New and Different Medicine Results are What Count Welcomes any Test—

MR. RAYMOND SCHMIDT

Results are what count; mere words and promises mean nothing. Konjalo has won fame and friends just by making good, and that is the medicine sufferers want and should have. Imagine the joy of Mr. Raymond Schmidt, R. F. D. No. 1, Sedalia, Mo., when he was able to say:

"Though I know it to be true I find it hard to believe Konjalo in just three months, ended my sufferings of nine years duration. For that long time I suffered from indigestion, constipation, kidney trouble and catarrh. No food agreed with me; every night I had to get up numerous times, and the catarrh certainly added to my misery. In those nine years I tried no end of medicine and treatments, and everyone was miserable failure. But how different with Konjalo! Week by week I grew better, and in three months I was my old self again. To me Konjalo is the most wonderful medicine in the world, and I recommend it with all my heart."

Konjalo is sold in Snyder at Stinson Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

WHY? This Cream?

According to express office records which may be confirmed by any interested person, sixteen five-gallon containers of cream were shipped out of Snyder, Monday, by Santa Fe to Trinidad. They were paying 31c.

On the same day, eight five-gallon cans went to El Paso who were paying 31 cents.

Forty-eight cases of eggs (that's 1,440 dozens) went out of here by express, Sunday, to El Paso.

Cream shipments out of Snyder average one to three times a week, some of it going to Oklahoma City, in addition to the cities named above.

Why cream or eggs can be transported by express these long distances and pay the money they do, when we have three receiving stations in Snyder is beyond any scrappy argument that we can put up, as we have explained before. There is something wrong in Denmark. No one blames a man for getting every "dad-blamed" cent he can for his farm products.

Note—Whoever is responsible for handling the honor roll in the grades should provide legible copy, for any mistakes occurring in names in the above list is not the fault of the Times-Signal but the poorly written copy that we had to decipher. There may be mistakes in some of the names, and if such is the case, the paper wants to place the blame directly at the source of the news copy. And that's that.

Miss Margaret McIntyre of Plainfield, N. J., 23 years old, has been baffling to scientists since it was observed some time ago that she breathes only from three to five times a minute, while the average person breathes 15 to 18 times in that period.

DON'T PERMIT YOUR CHICKENS TO ROAM IN NEIGHBOR'S YARD

Now that spring is just around the corner and residents of this city have already prepared their gardens and flower beds, it is time to call attention to the fact that there is a city ordinance prohibiting chickens from running at large.

Your next door neighbor may have a pretty flower bed that she has spent much time in cultivating and in which she takes much pride not only in beautifying her own premises but in adding to the appearance of the street in general; your neighbor has started his garden and has all the plots marked off and the plants may be just beginning to show up.

Just picture the havoc by trespassing chickens and you will at once decide it is your duty to observe the city ordinance and confine your chickens to your own backyard or chicken runs.

HERMLEIGH FARMER BOOSTER FOR TRACTOR

According to Editor Norman of the Hermleigh Herald, many arguments pro and con are heard on tractor farming and he cites the case of Robert Schulze and states that the best argument in favor of tractor farming is that when a man starts to farming with a tractor, he seldom, if ever, goes back to horse farming. Just like the man who has tried an automobile does not go back to the horse and buggy.

Robert Schulze of the German School Community is one of our county's best examples of a tractor farmer. He has been farming with a tractor for ten or twelve years and still stays with it. He says that farming with a tractor is no excuse for planting the land all to cotton. The usual amount of feed should be planted so as to keep up crop rotation. The feed can be fed to hogs, chickens and cattle, which in turn will produce more than enough to pay the expenses of the tractor.

When he bought his farm it was badly set in Johnson grass. He has practically rid the farm of this pestilence, and has one of the best cultivated farms in the county. He has a nice, well furnished home and keeps a good automobile, all of which is a good argument for tractor farming.

Besides being an up-to-date farmer, Mr. Schulze is an excellent community man, being always anxious and ready to do anything he can for his school and community.

Workmen are reaming out the hole in the new city water well on the north highway and hope to have another fine water supply at that point. The well is located on land formerly belonging to Mrs. Jack Smith.

THINK OF YOUR AUTOMOBILE IN TERMS OF TOMORROW

Ultimate cost is as important as first cost in the purchase of an automobile

WHEN you purchase an automobile you are making an investment of a considerable amount of money. It is essential, therefore, that you give careful thought to the best selection and know what you are getting for your automobile dollars.

The first cost is important because it may mean an immediate, satisfactory saving. Of equal importance is the ultimate cost after thousands of miles of service. This ultimate cost is the true measure of automobile value.

THE first cost of the new Ford is unusually low not only because of economies in manufacturing, but because the same principles that inspire these savings are extended to every other step that means greater service to the public. It is easy to see that economies in production would be of little value if they were sacrificed later through high charges for distribution, selling, financing and accessories.

The Ford dealer, therefore, does business on the same low-profit margin as the Ford Motor Company. His discount or commission is twenty-five to fifty per cent lower than that of any other automobile dealer. You gain because he makes a small profit on many sales instead of a large profit on fewer sales.

The difference in selling cost, combined with the low charges for financing and accessories, amounts to at least $50 to $75 on each car. This is as important as economies in production in keeping down the price you pay for the new Ford.

THE low ultimate cost of the new Ford is the result of sound design, quality of material and unusual care in manufacturing. Friction and wear are reduced by the accuracy with which each part is made and assembled.

These factors combine to decrease the cost of operation and add months and years to the useful life of the car. The good performance and low yearly depreciation of the new Ford are indicative of the enduring quality built into it at the factory.

SERVICE charges are on the same fair, economical basis as the making and selling of the car and replacement parts are always available at low prices through all Ford dealers. In two, three or five years, depending on how much you drive, the saving in operating and maintaining a new Ford will amount to even more than the saving on the first cost.

Think in terms of tomorrow, therefore, when you purchase an automobile. For tomorrow will reveal its true worth.
