Commander T. H. Chilton of Spanish War Veterans Leaves For Philadelphia Meet

Commander T. H. Chilton, District Court Reporter of the 22nd Judicial District and a Snyder resident is leaving this week with Mrs. Chilton as a delegate from the George Green Camp No. 48 to attend the National Encampment of United Spanish War Veterans at Philadelphia, that will open August 17. According to Commander Chilton, the Spanish War Veterans expect to have the greatest encampment in the history of their worthy organization. It is estimated there will be an attendance of Fifty-Thousand, including Auxiliary and allied organizations. Upon the occasion of the national Encampment at Detroit, August 28-31, 1927, the following publicity was given: "The year's most thrilling spectacle will be witnessed in Detroit in August, when the national encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans and its women's Auxiliary will gather thousands of veterans and their wives from all parts of the world. For years, the United Spanish War Veterans' annual reunion gathering has been increasing in interest and importance. With the passing of flags of different fighting organizations again unfurled and fluttering at the head of a column of volunteers who fought together back in the perilous days of the war. Picture the reunion of comrades in arms of land and sea of the days of '98. Picture the living over of the days of McKinley—the days of 'Remember the Maine'—the days of 'Free Cuba'—the days of 'Down with Aguinaldo in the Philippines'—and the days of fighting under the Stars and Stripes against the Chinese Boxer rebels. "What a privilege it is to be a member of an organization so rich in its patriotic memories. "Detroit's parades will be made more colorful by fair ladies of the Auxiliary. Last year's pageant was one thrill after another, with the women's organization sharing honors with and heaping new honors upon the veterans in the parades, in the banquet halls and on the convention floors. "This year it will be bigger and better than ever. "Speaking for the Spanish War Pension Bill in the House, Representative Almon, of Alabama, said: "While Spain had a large trained army in Cuba, still it only required a much smaller army of American volunteers a few days to average the 'Maine' and to free Cuba. "Let us not forget another great service rendered by this volunteer army of about 40,000 men; that is, the healing of the bitterness created between the North and South from 1861 to 1865. The descendants of those who wore the Blue and the Gray and many others who had worn neither the Blue nor the Gray themselves rallied to a common cause, marched under one flag, and bravely followed the leadership of such gallant generals as Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, Gen. Joe Wheeler, Gen. Grant, and Col. Theodore Roosevelt. This service of theirs is deserving of the lasting gratitude of all the American people."

MRS. GARRELL IS WINNER AT STATE MEET

Wins Second Honors Among 2,241 Entrants in County Contests Mrs. J. L. Carrell of the Union Community was awarded second honors in the butter judging contest at the Farmers Short Course at College Station last week. Thirty-three contestants selected from 2,241 entrants in county contests participated in the state meet. Appropriate action on the part of state school officials to bring about recognition in high schools of credits earned by boys and girls doing work in the 4-H clubs of Texas was urged by the Texas county school superintendents' conference Thursday at the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College farmers short course. County Supt. A. A. Bullock presided at the sessions and was one of the first school men in the state to start agitation for recognition to be granted 4-H club boys and girls. Other resolutions by the conference endorsed the newly created division of school plants in the state department of education. Endorsed rural school supervision in Texas and commended the 41st Legislature and the governor for their liberal appropriations and consideration of the needs of the rural schools of Texas.

GRAIN SMUT FOUND IN SCURRY COUNTY

W. J. Higgins brought a sample of cane to the Times-Signal office, Friday, that was found infected with smut. According to agricultural heads, as well as Editor Frank Briggs of Farm & Ranch who was a visitor at the office, Saturday, any feed infected with smut that is fed to cattle is deadly in its action. As quickly as this information was forthcoming the Times-Signal, through the Associated Press, and United Press broadcasted the information to all West Texas for an immediate inspection of all feed crops. Smut has not only been found in cane and kafir thus far but it would be wise to make an inspection now. Tops of the feed when crushed turn to a brownish color and it is very difficult to remove discoloration from hands.

Applications for the Snyder postmasterhood closed July 22nd. Snyder is what is termed a Second Class postoffice with a salary of $2,600 yearly.

Dawson County Farmers Get 40c For Butterfat

New Milk Factory Buys 49,066 Pounds Milk First 7 Days Dawson county farmers are being paid 40 cents per butterfat pound and 42 cents is the price that will be in effect since the first of this month. A news dispatch from Lamesa in the daily papers of the section, Sunday, said: "The first week of operation for the Lamesa powdered milk plant was one of record, according to figures given out by W. M. Whitkamp, manager. The first week the plant received 49,066 pounds of milk, he says. The $200,000 factory received 6,661 pounds on its opening day, July 22, and the amount increased daily until 8,246 pounds were received on the seventh day. Marshall's plant opened with 3,800 pounds Tyler's milk factory with 4,700, and the plant at Mount Pleasant with 3,200. Lamesa's daily receipt of milk has already reached Mount Pleasant's daily amount which is something over 8,000 pounds, and the latter plant has been in operation over a month. The number of customers for the local industry also increased, rising from 91 to 151. 40 Cents Paid Forty cents is the price paid farmers for the milk per butterfat pound. This price was to be raised to forty-two cents after August 1st due to the rich quality of milk received. Whitkamp stated. Not a single bad can of milk has been delivered to the factory, he said. The official opening will be held August 8 in Lamesa when several noted speakers are expected to be here and address the throngs that will swarm to this city. Over 4,000 visitors are anticipated during that day to make inspection of the plant. Lunch is to be served free. The milk plant here is owned by Lamesa and South Plains farmers and business men and is the only plant of its kind in West Texas. Products manufactured during the first week were skim milk powders and sweet cream butter. 'Sunburst' is the trade name of the West Texas Dairy Products company's condenses.

A Two Dollar Dinner for Six

JUST as it has been proved that an airplane can cross the ocean with careful preparation, so it has been proved that a two dollar bill can be made to go a long way with careful buying. It's all in the planning. Here's a dinner for six people for only two dollars which has been carefully planned for you by a graduate dietitian. Strawberries with Powdered Sugar ..... 31¢ Salmon and Peanuts in Cream Sauce ..... 46¢ Buttered Green Beans ..... 35¢ Jellyed July Salad ..... 25¢ Cheese Biscuits ..... 21¢ Chocolate Rice Pudding ..... 19¢ Coffee ..... 15¢ Salmon and Peanuts in Cream Sauce: Melt three tablespoons butter, add three tablespoons flour, and stir smooth. Add two cups milk slowly, stirring constantly until smooth and creamy. Season to taste with salt and pepper, add the contents (flaked) of one tall can salmon and one-half cup chopped salted peanuts, and re-heat. Serve on toast. Jellyed July Salad: Dissolve one-half package orange gelatin in two-thirds cup boiling water, and cool. Add half the contents of a No. 2 can crushed pineapple and one-half cup ground raw carrot, and pour into wet molds or into the trays of your refrigerator. Let set and chill thoroughly. Turn out onto six lettuce leaves, and top with six tablespoons mayonnaise. Chocolate Rice Pudding: Melt two squares chocolate in a double boiler, add one-third cup sugar, and stir smooth. Add the contents of one tall can evaporated milk and scald. Then add two cups boiling water, one-fourth teaspoon salt and four tablespoons rice, and pour into a buttered baking dish. Bake in a slow oven, 250°, for forty-five minutes to an hour, stirring often at first to keep rice from settling to the bottom. Let brown at the end, without stirring.

returning from Chicago where she has been studying music. Editor Frank Briggs of Farm & Ranch, Dallas, was a Times-Signal visitor, Saturday morning. Mr. Briggs and a party were enroute to the Caverns and other New Mexico resort sections and it was a pleasure to meet this gentleman again, personally. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Linecum and daughter Eula May of Chillicothe arrived here last week and after spending a few days left for New Mexico with Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Stinson and daughter Maurine for a ten days' vacation. The Chillicothe visitors are old Scurry county residents and know many people in this section. Mr. Linecum is the Ford dealer at Chillicothe. Ralph Johnson who has been working in Las Vegas, New Mexico, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Johnson. Miss Ora Dorsett who has been suffering with appendicitis the last two weeks is slowly improving. Mrs. John Whatley made a flying trip to Galveston a few days past.

CABLEGRAMS COST REAL MONEY

Following the July primary and the results were known as to the run-off candidates for Governor, the Times-Signal sent a two-word cablegram to Paris, France, at the personal request of Col. Bill Easterwood, Jr. Aside from the address, the cablegram said: "Sterling Ferguson" and it cost $3.74 or at the rate of $1.87 a word. The Times-Signal is of the opinion that this cablegram traveled the farthest of any wire that has ever gone out of the old home town.

CHURCH OF CHRIST REVIVAL SERVICES

Beginning August 17 and continuing to August 27, the Church of Christ will hold a series of services at the City Tabernacle with Bro. J. B. Nelson of Dallas preaching, and Clyde Maddox of Pine Forest conducting the song service. Services at 10:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. a hearty welcome to all.

SOME FISH!

G. L. Hartley was exhibiting a 15-pound catfish yesterday noon that he had caught that morning in the Colorado river southwest of Ballinger. It sure was a pippin, and we had to believe it when we saw it with our own eyes.

ADDITIONAL AID

County Supt. Bullock stated yesterday that the state special aid appropriation was bringing $2,300 additional dollars to Scurry county on 64 transfers; transportation aid of $2,000 and industrial aid totaling $700. That's fine — and mighty good news.

FIRST STRAW VOTE

At a business meeting held after the County Convention at the Court House, Saturday afternoon, when fifteen voters were present a straw vote was taken for the run-off. Sterling received eight votes and Ferguson seven. The vote was taken after the group had adjourned.

ALL NIGHT HIKE

Troops No. 47 and 48 went on an all-night hike, Monday night and report a splendid time. Scoutmaster Smyth was in charge. Joyce & Sons are getting ready for the gin season and Times-Signal presses are grinding out 4,000 gin tickets this week.

Mrs. W. L. Clark has opened a laundry at her place of business. BUILDING PERMITS GRANTED FOR JULY

Table with columns for name, address, and amount. Council meeting Monday night were presented with the good news that $15,150 had been granted in building permits for July as follows: Mrs. Hugh Scarborough, res. $4,000; John E. Irwin, Res. 3,500; R. H. Curmatte Res. 4,000; J. R. Joyce, Res. 3,000; Conoco Oil Station 500; Joe Harrington, Gar. 150. Total $15,150.

The past month's total is unusually good as compared to July, last year of $18,700.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM FOREIGN SHORES

One of the most interesting letters that the Times-Signal has had the pleasure of publishing is included with this issue from Mrs. D. P. Yoder. Our subscribers surely are appreciating the fine newsy letters that this estimable lady is writing for us. One unusual and happy thought in the letter this week is that Mrs. Yoder met her son Theodore at a previously designated spot, and Theodore was right there, Johnny on the spot. We'll bet that was a most happy meeting — and when we think of that, we'll likewise bet that Dad Yoder back in Snyder was mighty lonesome when he read the letter for the first time. We've been threatening D. P. to write the Mrs. and tell her how long he lets his whiskers grow between shavings. Guess we better not do that. It costs $52.50 to ride by plane from Sweetwater to St. Louis, and $11.90 from the Nolan county capital to Wichita Falls.

Dallas was in a state of celebration when I was there not long ago, and was due for an all night stay-up to tune in on the program being broadcast from the super-power radio station WFAA in honor of its entry into the 50,000 watt class. Being quite radio-minded, I inquired about as to what all this "hullabaloo" about 50,000 watts really meant and I found out that WFAA is the first superpower station in the South and also the first to be controlled by newspapers, and is one of the eight stations in America to operate on the highest power permitted by the Federal Radio Commission. It is the only superpower station west of the Mississippi, and has a transmitter that is declared to be the finest in existence because it has all the newest apparatus and refinements that have been developed in the best radio laboratories in the world.

At a few minutes after nine, the evening I was there, with the apparent simplicity of an electric light switch, WFAA changed over from 10,000 to 50,000 watts. And then followed a very appropriate program, with G. B. Dealey, President of The Dallas News, Governor Dan Moody of Texas, Joseph Daniels, former Secretary of the Navy, T. B. Baker, president of the Baker chain of hotels, and other speakers and entertainers. The tone and clearness of the new station transmitter was marvelous.

There is no doubt but that the South may well be proud of this venture into big-time radio, made by the Dallas News, the Dallas Journal and the Baker Hotels of Texas. At times this transmitter will deliver as much as 200,000 watts to the antenna, and will cover a greater area than any other radio broadcasting station in existence today.

The home of Station WFAA is located eighteen miles from Dallas and the same distance from Fort Worth. Housing the elaborate transmitting apparatus is a beautiful white building of modern design, handsomely furnished and surrounded by a beautiful landscape of trees and shrubbery. The aerial towers are 300 feet high. If you ever get to Dallas, don't fail to visit radio station WFAA.

ARTICLE XIII THE RESPONSIBILITY OF RAISING A BULL

Great Care Should be Exercised in Feeding and Training of Young Animal Who Is to Play So Important a Role in the Herd

Editor's Note—This is another story in a series of articles on dairying by the well known national dairy and poultry authority, Dr. L. D. LeGear, V. S., of St. Louis, Mo. The entire series will appear in this paper. Our readers are urged to read them carefully and clip them out for future reference.

We have seen in a previous article how necessary it is in the success of a dairy herd to have a good sire. He is "half the herd" in other words. We take up now the problem of the owner who decides to raise his own bull.

Feeding is an important item in a young bull. For the first six months he should receive about the same rations as the heifer calves. Many farmers feed skim milk to the bull calf for eight or ten months growth. A grain mixture, say five parts wheat bran, four parts ground oats, one part linseed meal, and plenty of legume hay, after weaning is recommended.

There is a strange notion among some breeders that bulls fed on silage will not be as potent as those to which no silage is given. There is no scientific basis for such a deduction that I know of.

Be careful not to let the bull get too fat, especially after he reaches the age of service which is around ten months. He must be well fed, and not too thin, for the best results.

Separate the bull calf from the heifer calves at about six months of age. At this time start his lessons in leading, a little every day. By eight or ten months put a light weight ring in his nose, say one and a half inches in diameter, non-rusting, of course. At the age of two years, a larger and stronger ring should be substituted and at age four about a three-inch ring is necessary. After the ring is installed teach the young bull to lead with a staff.

You can prevent the growth of horns by rubbing caustic potash on the place where they appear when the calf is a day or two old. Or at age two you can dehorn. Unless you wish to use him for show purposes better take the horns off, as they are dangerous.

It is true that bulls at the head of famous herds usually have horns. Some breeders feel that dehorning handicap its breeding powers. I know of no foundation for this. Of course, it does injure his chances in the show ring.

Do not let the bull run with the herd. Keep him in separate quarters altogether, if possible. See that he gets proper exercise. One way is to string a wire cable, with a rope from the ring in the animal's nose to the cable. Some herd owners use a tread mill.

If you have a barn yard turn the bull in there after the cows have been sent to pasture. Above all, do not keep the bull in a dark, uncomfortable stall. He needs good ventilation and should be hardened to the weather.

Teasing a bull should never be allowed. They become vicious enough as it is. Sometimes it is best to have two persons handle him. If you can arrange a breeding pen next to the bull's pen, so he will not have to be handled at all, so much the better.

Remember this, proper exercise, proper feeding and comfortable housing will enable a bull to give service until eight or ten years of age.

One mistake breeders make is to dispose of a bull before his real value is known. His offspring may be marvelous producers but you can't know that until his daughters have come into milk. He will be four or five years old by that time. Sometimes breeders put their bulls out with others under an agreement that they can recall them at a stipulated price.

I have frequently been asked whether it is safe to keep a bull that is the first calf of a young heifer for breeding purposes. I know that bulls from older cows command higher prices. About the only basis for such a feeling is that we do not know how good the mother is when she is a two-year old heifer, therefore, it is sometimes safer to wait until she has proven herself before taking a son to be sire of a herd.

As a final word of caution, do not give the bull a chance to demonstrate its physical powers. A bull has enormous strength. It can break fences, untie straps, and gates with comparative ease, and without much injury to itself if it wants to. Once he learns how easy it is to jerk away from a keeper, he will be a pretty dangerous animal from then on.

"Argotane Is The Most Efficient I've Ever Taken" Says Belew

I. D. DeLew, the well known stock farmer of Bradshaw, Texas is an ardent believer in Argotane as his statement which follows shows:

"I suffered from stomach trouble," said Mr. Belew, "from the after-effects of a surgical operation I had about eight months ago. Ever since that time my stomach didn't act just right. I had to be very careful of what I ate or it would sour and cause gas accompanied by severe pains and my sufferings were hard to bear. I would have dull throbbing pains in the pit of my stomach and was in such a general run down condition had little or no energy and was feeling miserable all the time. I tried a great many medicines and treatments but didn't get any relief so I bought some Argotane.

"I started taking Argotane and it is surprising how quick it put me in first class condition and the results were so good that my wife also started on the treatment and took it, too, and was also greatly benefited by it."

"We both have completely recovered from our troubles and are feeling just as well as we ever did, having taken nothing but Argotane and we think it is the most efficient and finest medicine on earth. Genuine Argotane may be bought in Snyder at the Stinson Drug Co. —adv.

Willie's Poem
The class in school was studying poetry, Willie, a red-haired, freckled faced boy was asked by the teacher to write a short poem and submit it to the class next day. This is the poem he wrote:
"I saw a pretty maiden
With blue eyes and red lips,
She slipped into a puddle
'That reached to her ankles."
"Why, Willie," exclaimed the teacher, "that last line doesn't rhyme at all."
"Yes, I know," replied Willie, "but you see, the puddle wasn't deep enough for it to rhyme."

"WHAT'S WRONG WITH ME?"

(From the Plainview Evening Herald)
It has been a few days now since this column essayed to preach a lay sermon. Rules are made to be violated, so the inexorable law is to be transgressed in a few paragraphs—for one must not "preach" in editorial columns, the journalism schools teach.

It was not so many months ago that a smile of amusement spread on the writer's face as he opened an envelope from a concern which analyzes personality and character of an individual at so much per beakerful. Just another good old, boy parting with his money, he mused.

But as he started to answer the question propounded, he saw that the individual who was having himself assayed must have had a serious intention motivating him.

A few days, another, and another, and another—to the eighth—these envelopes arrived. In the questionnaire were blank spaces to be filled in by the individual, giving his estimate of personal characteristics of the client. They were answered honestly, frankly and conscientiously—for there was the assurance that the information would be reported to the client only as a composite of all answers from several individuals.

That showed an interest on the part of those serious-minded individuals, who wanted the opinions and business associates, that they might realize what others considered their weak characteristics. It showed that they wanted to know what, if anything "is wrong with me."

Few of us are willing to ask ourselves, "What's wrong with me?" A man was in this morning who is having trouble getting along. He doesn't last long on any job under conditions of high or low employment. He is good at getting jobs but poor at keeping them.

He sneered at the stupidity of his employers. He got sympathy, although he probably should have had something like this:
"Has it ever occurred to you that you ought to take an inventory of yourself? Here you are at 45 and the longest you've lasted at any job is two years. If you don't get hold of yourself soon it will be too late. What makes you think your employers are stupid? The only thing that makes me think they may be stupid is that they hired you. In your present frame of mind you are worth less than nothing. Wake up!"

When one begins to ask in all seriousness, "What is wrong with me?" he is on the right road to self-improvement.

TEXAS HAS 1,308 BANKS
There were 1,308 banks in Texas operating under State and National charters on December 21, 1929, of which 84 were in chain and group systems, according to a nation-wide survey recently completed by the Magazine of Wall Street.

It was found by this survey that the grand total of banking offices in the United States at the end of 1929 was 28,129, of which 3,547 were branches, leaving 21,839 independent unit banks and 2,806 banks that belonged to chains and groups, some of which were also branch banks.

APPLYING PAINT TO CONCRETE SO IT WILL STAY
The following is useful by actual experience in getting paint to stay on concrete. First, give concrete to be painted eight or ten applications of vinegar. Apply with paint brush. It can be applied as rapidly as wanted, allow the last coat to dry some two hours or more. Then apply your paint or whatever application of finish is desired. The vinegar chemical action prevents the finish from peeling off.

THE GARNER PROPOSAL

John Garner's proposal that Texas for reasons of political expediency, be divided into five smaller states struck deeper than at first seemed apparent.

Two organizations, one in North and another in South Texas, have been formed for the express purpose of defeating the proposal—evidence that they, at least, took Mr. Garner seriously.

On the other hand, 18 per cent of the candidates for positions in the 42nd legislature have acknowledged concurrence in Mr. Garner's line of thought.

By way of comparison, it is notable that newspaper comment was almost 100 per cent unfavorable to the veteran congressman's proposal.

The odds are all against materialization of the Garner plan within the lifetime of the present generation, but the fact that the proposal is feared upon the one hand, and welcomed upon the other, forecasts lively discussion about the topic.

If nothing more ever comes of his plan, Mr. Garner will have the satisfaction of knowing he made people think—Editorials of Month.

HELPING TO BUILD TEXAS

Sixty thousand acres will be brought under irrigation when the $6,000,000 Maverick county project is finally completed. Work is now going ahead and the first unit of 16,000 acres will be placed on the market in 1932, with two additional units, one of 2,000 and the other of 42,000 acres, to be developed later.

Texas towns are still building schools. Big Spring will let contracts for three ward schools at a total cost of $125,000. Dalhart is building an $80,000 building and Deer Park, Houston suburb, has begun work on a $100,000 school.

Steady increase of tomato juice drinkers is helping East Texas tomato growers. Palatable, rich in vitamins and good to the taste, tomato juice cocktails are coming into wider vogue. Annapolis, Md., E. C. Die, Groveton farmer, received $403 from the sale of tomatoes off one acre with a net return of $186 after allowing for labor and other expenses. He figures he made more money off that acre of tomatoes than he will from six or seven acres of cotton at present prices.

Platonia is going in for garlic and shipped 30,000 pounds of the crop this year, all grown from small patches. Some farmers made up to $200 an acre from the crop.

Rivers and Harbors bill carried $7,485,000 for five Texas harbor projects and provided means for survey of a number of Texas streams, including consideration of a 9-foot channel on the Trinity from Fort Worth to tidewater.

Greenville Herald is to have a new building. San Antonio Public Service Co. has increased its generator capacity by 10,000 kilowatts. Fredericksburg has a new airport and Goose Creek is planning one. Kimble county's new courthouse is now in use. Gray county is to vote on a $3,500,000 road bond issue. Quanah is investing $100,000 in two new school buildings and Luling has let contract for one to cost $50,000. Runge is to have a new city hall. Corsicana is spending $20,000 on improving its parks. Deaf Smith county will spend $500,000 on new roads, including 22 miles of paving. Lipscomb will spend $100,000 on paving No. 33 and Presidio $450,000, including No. 67.

Nacogdoches is spending $50,000 and San Saba $75,000 on street paving. Fisher county $160,000 on highways, Travis county $600,000 ditto. Tri-State Fair, Amarillo, is spending $35,000 on new buildings and other improvements. Denton County Fair Association has bought ground and is starting work on a livestock building. State Fair, Dallas, is at work on a $600,000 stadium. Liberty County Fair Association

THE TOWN DOCTOR
 A DOCTOR OF TOWN
 BUSINESS DEPRESSION IS LARGELY A STATE OF MIND

There have been given a thousand and one reasons by as many experts for the recent falling off of business. Twice as many articles have been written and published expounding and giving "reasons why" for this business depression, and easily three times as many speeches and talks have been made before business organizations explaining cause and effect. All of these opinions admit and agree that there is a depression.

In the face of, and irrespective of all this, I make so bold as to say that all so-called "lack of business," this admitted "business depression," is 90 percent mental; and that the elimination of the hazard lies in proving that it is mental, which requires nothing more than selling—"1930 Selling." Not selling as it is popularly construed and thought of; not just the motions of one person making transfer of ownership of a product, service or thing, in exchange for a consideration; but "1930 Influencing."

There is no intent to make denial of the fact that as a whole the consumer is not consuming as he once did; that business is not as good as it once was. But the fault lies, not with "business," but with the people who are in business and those with whom they do business.

Ninety-nine and a fraction percent of all of us are naturally and instinctively lazy, especially when it comes to continued physical exertion, and more especially when it comes to that exercise commonly known as "thinking." We are constantly looking for an alibi to "let down" and an excuse to worry, which in itself is an alibi for failure to do real constructive thinking.

We are not only lazy by nature, we are all more or less cowards—a bunch of scaredy cats, afraid to disagree with the crowd—one reason for which is that to be different requires brain work.

Many who read this will say, "This fellow is crazy. He don't know what he is talking about. The idea of saying this depression which is as plain as day—which everyone knows is an existing condition—is a myth!"

Others will say: "You can't tell me that I merely 'imagine' that business is not what it used to be, when I see it every day, right before my eyes."

Well it is often the case that to many, what is, isn't at all. Often that which seems to be is not a reality except to those who refuse to look for a reality. Many a mirage is more plain than real. You can't make a crazy man believe you are Napoleon if he thinks he is.

This picture, which so many people have of business, is a mirage; but it might as well be a fact and the real thing, and it will be just that, as long as they refuse to look at anything but the mirage.

There is just as much business as there ever was. And there is just trouble that has destroyed or obliterated the coin of the realm, have you? You haven't read any of the country's money being burned up, and certainly the people of these United States haven't reverted to the customs and ways of doing things of those of the Stone Age. As long as there is money and people there is plenty of business.

This lack of business is all in our heads. It started in the head, continues in the head, and in the head lies the ending of it.

RURAL SCHOOL HEADS SAY TREAT COOPER NICELY

Rural school boosters of Scurry county came to the Times-Signal office, Saturday, and said: "Now you've jumped on Bill Cooper of the Colorado Record pretty rough-like, perhaps he needed some of it, now you boys kiss and make up."

So Bill, by golly! we reach our hands across this space of ground and say "howdy" but for the love of Mike never let any personal expressions such as you made about Scurry county schools get into your columns further, as your article in the July 4th edition. The rural school folks were mighty sore when a personal expression was used that stated: "Scurry county is given one of the lowest ratings of any county listed." They came to the newspaper office in droves. Some of them knew, Bill, that you were a "live and let live" fellow, good-natured, full of the old bologny and all of that sort of thing, but the article rubbed the hair the wrong way.

But Bill, the hot weather needed someone to change up the temperature so you have one coming on us. Now if you were to say that "Secy Jim Greene don't wear underwear in the summer time" would that make you sore enough to jump on us? Or that "Charley Thompson was going to lick every guy that didn't vote for him in the primary?" But jump on us, Bill, sometime, it lowers the temperature somewhat, and makes a fellow enjoy his cocoa better. You got one coming, we have not asked for forgiveness but we have nothing to say against you as the rural school folks are ready to bury the hatchet and let well enough alone, once again.

Come on over, Bill. We want to learn from personal investigation, just how you make that cock-eyed pompadour of yours stand up. Ours lays down, so much, in fact, that like Ralph Shuffler of Odessa, "we ain't got any hair," but at that, Aunt Bina didn't pull it out.

SCURRY COUNTY WINNERS AT SHORT COURSE

B. W. O. LOGAN
 With a group of twenty-two Scurry county people among the four thousand in attendance, from some two-hundred counties of Texas, as, at the Farmers' Short Course, Scurry county certainly held its share of the limelight, in winnings and otherwise.

The Scurry county poultry team composed of Martin Murphy, Eldon Birdwell and Boyce Grimes won seventh place with thirty teams competing, while Martin Murphy won second individual honors and a silver medal, with over a hundred boys and girls competing.

The poultry team scored only fifty-four points behind the winning team, they scored 1334, and the winners 1387. Martin Murphy scored 488 points only 20 points behind the winner who scored 508. Eldon Birdwell made 427 and Boyce Grimes 419. One interesting thing was the fact that Scurry county scored perfect on both classes of eggs and was the only team that did.

Leaf Worms Attacking Cotton
 They say it takes rainy weather to produce leaf worms, however, a dozen farmers have reported they have a nice crop already at work. Now is the time to watch out and keep them poisoned before they ruin the leaves, says A. J. Cody at the Snyder National Bank. Mr. Cody says that he noticed last year the fellows that used WHITE ARSENIC because it was cheap burned their cotton and it didn't grow or do any good afterwards. Ben Brooks says he is afraid of white arsenic, and he had good results with Calcium Arsenate. Two and a half to four pounds of calcium arsenate in fifty gallons of water proved very effective against the worms last year in tests over the county, and did not damage or burn the foliage, so was cheaper in the long run, added Mr. Cody.

ROTAN BRANCH TCCA LEADS IN NUMBER OF MEMBERS SECURED

The Rotan branch office of the Texas Cotton Cooperative Association is leading other branch offices in this section of the State as to number of membership contracts obtained, according to Miss Treva Miller, secretary of the Rotan chamber of commerce, who was in Colorado, Wednesday. Miss Miller reported that a total of 570 farmers had been signed as members of the organization there.

"We have attained this record through hard work and close cooperation, however," Miss Miller explained. "The merchants and bankers of Fisher county have made this campaign their first duty since beginning the drive. We are to sign additional farmers yet, as the Fisher county drive is still on." Baseball Player Suffering From Rheumatism and Other Ailments Finds Prompt Relief

MR. JACK M. LONG

"For over two years I suffered from rheumatism," said Mr. Jack M. Long, 511 Burnett street, Ft. Worth. "My legs and back were affected so much that I could not carry on my work as a baseball player. Finally I was forced to remain in my home for three months. I had attacks of indigestion and my kidneys gave me no end of trouble; the pains in my back were terrible. I was forced to rise many times nightly and became very nervous."

"I tried many remedies without result when a friend recommended Konjola. After taking seven bottles, I was able to resume my work in the K. I. C. League as a ball player. The rheumatic pains have completely vanished and my stomach is in perfect condition. My kidneys are again normal and I do not have to rise at night. The pains have left my back and my nerves are strong. Konjola restored me to perfect health."

Although many men and women state that one or two bottles brought relief, it is recommended that six or eight bottles be taken to obtain the best results.

Konjola is sold in Snyder, Texas, at Stinson Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section. adv.

Table listing election results for various offices including Mayor, County Commissioner, and Justice of Peace, with names and vote counts.

Our State Constitution were wise in providing that the State cannot be mortgaged, and we think it would be had policy and dangerous to ourselves and to future generations to amend our constitution and begin plastering mortgages on the back of the State as a whole, for this policy once begun would never end, and the State of Texas would in the course of a few years become so heavily mortgaged that the property of the State would be reduced materially in value just as the property of many cities and counties of the State have become practically valueless because of the enormous indebtedness and we hereby declare ourselves in favor of a pay-as-you-go policy for both State and County.

The official and complete canvass of the county vote is on file at the Times-Signal office for those interested in getting specific data on any candidates.

STATE FIXES TAX RATE AT 69c ON $100

Yield Over 10 Million on Present Valuation Is Indicated

Texas property owners will pay a tax of 69 cents per $100 valuation on their holdings during the fiscal year starting September, 1930, the state automatic tax board decided today.

The tax for educational purposes was raised to the constitutional limit of 35 cents, four cents higher than last year while the ad valorem tax was reduced from 31 cents to 27 cents. The tax for confederate pensions was set at seven cents.

The education tax was expected to pay an apportionment of $17.10 per student during the next fiscal year.

The ad valorem tax rate was set originally at 28 cents but was reduced on motion of Governor Dan Moody when state treasurer W. Gregory Hatcher reported the deficit in the treasury would not be as large as estimated because of a large amount of the current appropriations would be unexpended September 1. The deficit had been figured at $1,228,000.

A True Statement A colored man doing a hauling job was informed that he could not get his money until he submitted an itemized statement. After much meditation, he evolved the following bill: "Three comes and three goes at four bits a come and four bits a go—$3.00."

THE POPULATION, THE BIRTHS AND DEATHS FILED IN 1929, WITH THE GROSS RATES BASED UPON THE 1930 POPULATION AS ANNOUNCED FOR DISTRICT 2

Table showing population, births, and deaths for 23 counties in District 2, including Taylor, Jones, Howard, Nolan, Mitchell, Dawson, Lynn, Scurry, Hockley, Terry, Dickson, Stonehall, Martin, Garza, Midland, Ector, Ken, Gaines, Cochran, Borden, Yoakum, Glasscock, Andrews, and Fisher.

The above birth and death rates are of value only in estimating the comparative thoroughness of registration in 1929, for they include all records filed. The true birth and death rate of a county would be based on the number of births and deaths that occur and the population of that year.

DALLAS NEWS HITS NAIL ON THE HEAD

The Dallas News prognosticator of the recent election sort of hit a bull's eye. Weeks ahead of the election, their editorial writer said: "A million Democratic voters in Texas will soon be faced with the necessity of choosing from eleven candidates for the Governor's chair, two to be voted on at a second primary. Many voters will stay away from the polls for reasons good or bad, but possibly three-fourths of the whole number will cast their ballots and indicate their preferences."

RULES AGAINST THE "VILLAGE GOSSIP"

We hear from time to time this and that about local residents and county residents, all of which is hear-say and no grain of truth in the matter. Gossips came when Adam and Eve were here but why not let us believe in the following good words:

The remedy for gossip is the regeneration of the human heart. If we could cast out hate, envy, selfishness and strife, gossip would have no cause to exist. But while we are waiting for the "millennium," we might decrease the amount of gossip by remembering a few things.

1. A still tongue makes a wise head. 2. If you can't say something good, don't say anything. 3. A dog that will bring a bone will carry one.

4. Talk all you want to, but never say anything you may have cause to regret. 5. You can rise faster on your own merits than on the other fellow's demerits.

6. Keep in mind your own troubles and let the other fellow's alone. 7. If you don't say it, you won't be sorry for it.

These are trite old sayings, but they are full of wisdom and good sense and a right application of them will help us all to overcome that serious fault we have, talking too much.

Citizens Asked To Plant Affair

Lamesa Milk Plant To Be Formally Opened This Week

An invitation to attend the formal opening of the new powdered milk factory at Lamesa, August 8 has been extended Snyder citizens by officials of the West Texas Dairy Products Company, operators of the concern.

The invitation was received today in the form of a letter addressed to the Chamber of Commerce urging that a number of persons from here help in "eating the stack of sandwiches that are to be spread at noon."

Miles of smiles—it rained yesterday.

Otis Carter, former Snyder resident is expecting soon to have his name at the masthead of a South Plains paper.

Fifth Letter From Mrs. Yoder

July 17, 1930

Ed. Note: Letter written from hotel built on top of Mt. Carmel where Elijah and the Prophets of Baal had their contest.

The Snyder Signal:

Received your letter in Jaffa bidding us Bon Voyage—thanks many times. Also received our first letters from home, too, and that was sure good. We are now at Balbeck, Syria, but before I begin telling you of this country, I want to tell you something of classic Athens, Constantinople and Constanza, Roumania. We were at Athens on Sunday, July 6th. This is a wonderful place. Somehow one is charmed by the many old ruins, but they leave one with an impression that you cannot forget and you want to return again and stay a long time, just sit and gaze and look some more. Before the traveler reaches Athens, we sail into the Piræan harbor, this is a very large harbor and quite a city on the coast, but to get to Athens, 5 miles inland, we took a street car.

Athens has a population of around 600,000. It has paved roads, very well laid out, and is a real hustling city. We visited the Acropolis by moon light and as Athens is the center of Greece, so is the Acropolis the center of Athens and well it should be considered so because of the historic interest. I can only pass over what we saw hurriedly because there is so much to tell and would take up too much space.

But before I go further we had been looking and counting the days to get to Athens as we were expecting Theodore to meet us there and we were not disappointed for when we got off the ship, there he was in the little boat that took us ashore. So from Athens we are enjoying the sights together. The guide took us to the ruins of the Temple of Zeus, dating back to 530 B. C. There are 14 Corinthian columns standing and they are 57 feet high, and 3 feet in diameter. These columns are put together in sections, about 2 feet high and one on top of the other with no cement of any kind. The arch of Hadrian is also close by, built about the same time. There were 104 columns all together before it was destroyed. Then we were taken to the ruins of two old amphitheatres, one was used for all their dramatics, the other where musical entertainment was held. Then we were taken to Mars Hill where Paul proclaimed to the sages "that he observed they had erected an altar to the Unknown God whom you ignorantly worship." As we sat there, and our little group had services, there, somehow, these words of Paul's meant more to us than they ever had before.

We then went to the top of the Acropolis. Acropolis means a city built on a hill, and centuries ago, Athens built her city on this hill but as she grew, they had to go down in the valley. There are steps leading up to the top, and there are two old gates before one reaches the top that are interesting. Also a small temple in a very good state of preservation, but the one outstanding ruins that take one's breath is the Parthenon. If the ruins affect one so, what must have been the grandeur of this building when first built? These ruins are considered the most remarkable in the world. The Acropolis was covered with shrines and a forest of statuary. It was not only a sacred religious center but the residence of Kings and a museum of art.

One cannot help but gaze with wonderment and awe at the Parthenon though in ruins it represents the finest picture in existence of the unrivaled art of antiquity. We were then taken to the museum which contains many rare pieces of sculpture of ancient times. Then to the Stadium with a seating capacity of 75,000 people. This is built in the form of an amphitheatre. The seats are made of marble and much of the buildings of Athens came from a mountain nearby. The old stadium was rebuilt by a wealthy Greek and his statue is at the entrance. He rebuilt this in 1896. The course is 274 yards long, 36 yards wide and is divided into courses and here the Olympic games were played. This feature should interest our friend, Mr. Smith. From Mars Hill we were pointed out the tombs of Socrates where he was held prisoner before his death.

We took our boat again at 5:30 and sailed for Constantinople. Our first glance of this large city seemed very pretty with the round top domes and many shrines of the 500 mosques in the city now called Stamboul, but as we took our cars and began driving through the city which is in the process of decay, and with dirt and filth and living conditions, one had to change their minds for the only thing that is beautiful are their wonderful mosques, three of which we visited.

Stamboul furnishes almost the only touch of real Turkey. The Turks never paint their houses for they believe if their property indicates too much prosperity, their taxes will be raised. The population is inactive and discouraged. Men sit in coffee houses and talk of hard times and the glory before the great war. The most important changes to be noticed are the influx of Russian refugees and the new freedom of the women.

The fires have laid low much of the city and there is none of the atmosphere of modern business. The refugee situation has been serious and only the activities of the Red Cross and Near East Relief have avoided disasters of tremendous proportions. Entire villages have been deserted and the people have poured into the streets of Constantinople. There to live in camps and huts made of boxes and discarded army tents.

The freeing of the women from their practical slavery came suddenly and women are now taking employment whenever opportunity offers, some secure positions in banks and offices, while others work as street sweepers. The strict privacy of the Moslem women has been a rigid custom for centuries.

Before the war, a man and his wife could not walk together on the street and women riding in street cars had a curtained compartment for them. Today a woman may walk with a man of her own faith and even accompany him to places of public assembly.

During the past 15 years many devastating fires have taken place, the greatest one in 1918 when 8,000 homes were burned. The housing situation of course has become acute for with the influx of refugees, the population is 30 per cent above normal being estimated at 2,250,000. The overcrowded city has become the most expensive city in the world.

One of the most historical objects of interest are the ancient walls which have enclosed the city more than 2,000 years. The great mosque of Santa Sophia is another which took 100,000 men ten years working day and night to build and cost sixty million dollars. It is very beautiful and when it was completed the King went in and exclaimed: "Solomon, I have conquered thee." There are 107 marble columns in this mosque. The dome rises to a height of 180 feet. There are eight serpentine columns. The decorations of gold on the inside never fails to impress one of its grandeur. The Turk guide told us that the men only are allowed to come in to pray, while the women may come in and stand. They have troughs in which to put their shoes while in prayer. The tourists all have to put on "mules" before entering the mosque. The guide took us to the museum in which were found rare collections of old rugs and boxes inlaid with Mother of Pearl to keep the Koran in.

Turkish civilization hinges around the Koran and in this museum many books, beautifully hand decorated and hand written were exhibited and considered priceless. The guide told us that Jesus was considered only as a prophet by them and they have 750 words that mean one word. They have done nothing in the way of art or scientific research, have no hospitals. They have only put their time on the Koran, beautiful mosques and making war. The guide told us when we went to the military museum that the Turkish soldiers were very, very brave that that was the reason Turkey had what she has today.

The Mohammedans keep a fast of 30 days and when the guide was asked "if all the people observed this fast," he said "Oh, I cannot say that the Mohammedan religion is the most practical and there are many people who have to work very hard, and they cannot observe the fast." He said you are not to do anything to gratify one's self, not even to smell a rose, or smoke a cigarette. We visited the Blue Mosque named so because the decorations inside are all of Turkish Blue. The Turkish people have abandoned their original dress and now they use the western form of dress. Only a few women in Turkey wear veils. The guide was a nice looking young fellow with soft brown eyes and he said: "Give us ten more years of peace and Turkey will show what she can do."

We visited an underground cistern which is a wonder—these cisterns were made so that the people could have water when the city was under sieges. This cistern we saw was 336 feet long, and 182 feet wide and the supports of the roof are formed by over 300 columns, each about 49 feet high, crowned by Corinthian capitals.

We went to another museum which had many beautiful things but the two outstanding things were a stone that had been found and had inscriptions on it that came out of Solomon's temple. Another one was the sarcophagus of Alexander the Great, the most beautiful thing in marble, I have ever seen, beautiful beyond description.

Two funny things I want to tell that really happened when we were in Constantinople. A young lady was trying to tell our waiter that I had not received my ticket to get off the boat and after trying so hard to make him understand, he left and brought back a bucket of ice.

A lady in our group was trying to explain to her driver that she wanted to go to a store and get a string of beads. So in a few minutes she found herself in a Catholic church. He thought she wanted to say her prayers on her beads.

Some of our group stayed in Constantinople and some went on up to Constanza, but the ones who went on up to Constanza enjoyed it very much because it was a very clean city of 80,000, and very cool too, and that was such a change for us also. Some went bathing in the Black Sea.

We came back through Constantinople, picked up the balance of our party while the ship was moving and made our way to Jaffa. I will write you about our sightseeing in the Holy Land.

POST ENCAMPMENT BRINGS LARGE CROWD

Last week's Post Dispatch said that between 500 and 600 persons were present for the opening of the Post Baptist Encampment and that it was the largest attended in the history of the organization.

Rev. R. C. Campbell, pastor of the First Church of Lubbock was the main speaker for the encampment and delivered some very inspirational sermons to the audience at night. Classes in the various departments of church and Sunday school work were taught to larger crowds than in several years.

Mrs. A. L. Aulick, wife of the University Baptist church preacher at Austin, was leader of the classes in W. M. U. work and her classes proved to be quite popular among Post women as well as among visitors.

The B. Y. P. U. work was enthusiastically received also and was taught by Mrs. James L. Rucker of Abilene who was ably assisted by Miss Mary Preston, Tahoka and Miss Hazel Kokamour, Lubbock. Unusually large crowds attended the song service each night under the leadership of L. A. Wilson of Slaton. Splendid music was furnished by Mrs. A. W. Bouchier and Miss Delma Bishop, both well known and accomplished musicians of West Texas. They both reside at Post.

Tuesday night brought the largest crowd in history, when 1,000 people or more assembled to hear a special program of music prepared by the Lubbock First Church orchestra. The ensemble numbers were beautifully rendered and solo numbers by individuals and Mr. J. D. Carrol were enjoyed.

Sunday brought to a climax the week of splendid programs when a Sunday school rally was held under the supervision of J. D. Carrol, assisted by Andy Allen. All classes in Sunday school met at the tabernacle and a united assembly was held immediately before the 11:00 o'clock hour.

Swimming proved to be the most popular sport for the campers with boating and fishing holding a close second. The encampment closed Sunday night.

CO-OP OFFICIAL WELCOMES AID

Moser Tells Business Men Reasons To Give Cotton Farmer Hand

The first tariff of 1820 and all subsequent tariff legislation has been passed "every time industry gets into trouble," and agricultural legislation is a step in the same direction for the farmer, said C. O. Moser, vice-president and secretary of the American Cotton Cooperative association in addressing a meeting of the Lions' Club Friday at the Adolphus Hotel at Dallas. He added, however, that legislation would be auxiliary only and not the definite means of relief.

"Reasons why the business men have to get interested in problems of the farmer," was Mr. Moser's subject. The average business man thinks that the farmer is very inefficient in his production methods, but American farmers produce more per capita than farmers of any other country, said Mr. Moser.

Four wealth-producing industries are mining, including oil; fishing, lumber and agriculture, the latter including live stock and farming, and the latter has "at last been offered its legislative protection in agricultural marketing enactments corresponding with the tariff and its effect on industries," Mr. Moser said.

"One great economist has said that every opportunity to engage in business comes through agriculture," said Mr. Moser. "We have many important businesses or activities in different communities who are not wealth producers. We should not like to live in a community where there were no doctors. But it remains that many of the important functions of life are not wealth producing functions.

A century ago there was one business in America for each 475 acres in cultivation and now there is one business for every 275 acres in cultivation.

Speaking of the cotton situation, Mr. Moser said that "foreign millers regret the low price of cotton as much as anyone else. I happen to be well acquainted with the mill and textile men both in America and in Europe. These mill executives declare that they make more money on higher priced cotton than on the low. But with the situation as it is, they have to buy as cheaply as they can. With a 6,000,000-bale surplus, with low prices, with probable production known and probable price known, we are now ushering on the market another crop. "And 60 per cent of this crop will move into the market by Jan. 1."

To Be Exact

Milt Fall had just returned from a fishing trip in northern Minnesota. "Talking of fishing," he would invariably break in at conversations, "on my last trip I caught 999 fish, all whoppers." "Come, now," an indulgent friend advised, "why not make it a thousand and be done with it?" "No," replied Fall, "I caught 999. I'm not going to tell a lie for the sake of one fish."

THANKS FROM CHARLEY LOCKHART

Scurry County Times-Signal Snyder, Texas

Gentlemen:

Will you be so kind as to convey to the people of Scurry County Charley Lockhart's appreciation of their great vote of confidence as recorded in the first primary election which has just passed into history.

In a large measure Erath county, where Lockhart spent the first twenty years of his life, and Travis county, where he has resided during the past eleven years, followed in the lead of Scurry county and voted Lockhart a tremendous majority over his nearest opponent. In Erath county it was 2966 for Lockhart, and 396 for his nearest opponent. In Travis county it was 7000 for Lockhart out of a total of approximately 11,000 votes cast. It is upon this endorsement that he is going before the voters of Texas in the runoff primary, and on which he expects to win the election.

Again thanking you for the good work you have done through the columns of your valuable paper, and the citizens of Scurry county for their liberal support, and soliciting continuation of the same to a successful and final conclusion on August 23, we are

Very truly yours,

CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE
by E. B. Barnes.

Editor's Note: To both Lockhart and Barnes, the old home paper are mighty happy to state that West Texas will stay right in there to put

Lockhart where he rightfully belongs, the State Treasurer's office. When old home counties stay by a candidate such as Erath, Travis and Scurry, it indicates the high esteem that is in the hearts of the people for an old home resident. Lockhart's rival, John E. Davis, is a wealthy man and does not feel the office and Charley does, so folks, lets start our campaign rolling along RIGHT NOW.

20,000 SEE CARLSBAD CAVERNS IN JULY

Texas again leads all states in the geographical distribution of visitors through Carlsbad Cavern, it is revealed in figures covering the month of July released by the United States Department of the Interior.

There was a total of 20,137 visitors at the cavern during the past 31 days. The distribution by states is as follows:

Arkansas 140, Alabama 41, Arizona 184, California 622, Colorado 231, Connecticut 4, Florida 25, Georgia 44, Idaho 11, Illinois 171, Indiana 39, Iowa 36, Kansas 206, Louisiana 216.

SCURRY CO. WINS HONORS AT COLLEGE STATION

Beides Mrs. J. L. Carrell who won a second prize in the butter judging contest at College Station last week other winners noted were:

Miss Audie Crabtree, Dunn, who won second in Class B, sheer dress contest. A total of 1979 girls entered the contest with 143 from 97 counties in the finals.

Martin Murphy took second in the Poultry Judging contest, in individual placings.

County Agent W. O. Logan likewise took second place for Class 2 in the Extension Service News Writing contest.

Folks, it is just a hard matter to keep Scurry county out of the agricultural limelight of the state when it comes to contests. They have plenty of 'IT' in old Scurry county.

Terrible Time

Joe—Had a terrible time with my flivver.

Bill—Yeah?

Joe—Yes, I bought a carburetor that saved 30 per cent of gas, a timer that saved 50 per cent and a spark plug that saved 20 per cent, and after I went 10 miles my gas tank overflowed.

Praying for rain.

To The Voters Of Scurry County

During the few remaining weeks of the campaign it will be nearly impossible for me to make a house-to-house canvass owing to the obligations I must fulfill to my oath of office as Sheriff. I want to meet all of you that I possibly can and hope you will give me the same kind consideration and your full influence in the run-off election, August 23rd. Asking my friends for their help and assistance and inviting the taxpayers of the county to fully investigate my record, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

GERMAN-IRWIN

Miss Elinor German, daughter of Mrs. Mabel Y. German, and John E. Irwin, son of Mrs. J. W. Irwin of Midland, were quietly married, Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, with Rev. Cal C. Wright of the First Methodist Church officiating. Only immediate members of the bride's family were present.

The bride wore a gown of blue chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of pink rose buds and gladioli. Her traveling costume was a green and white ensemble with accessories to harmonize.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left on a motor trip to Austin, San Antonio and Corpus Christi. On their return they will occupy their new home at 1203 26th street.

The bride graduated with the mid-term class of Snyder High School, 1929, and is an attractive young lady, loved by all who know her. She is a descendant of two well-known pioneer families of Scurry county, being the granddaughter of the late F. M. German and Arthur Yonge.

The groom is a registered pharmacist and promising young business man, and has been associated with Stinson Bros. since coming to Snyder four years ago, and he is now manager and part owner of Stinson No. 2 Drug Store.

The Times-Signal joins the many friends of this happy young couple in extending best wishes for a full measure of happiness and prosperity.

PROGRESSIVE DINNER PARTY

The courses were as follows: First, cocktail course at the home of Miss Charline Ely. Second, salad course at the home of Mrs. Wade Winston with Miss Mildred Stokes as hostess. Third, main course at the home of Miss Ruth Yoder, and fourth, dessert course at the home of Miss Brentz Anderson.

The guest list included: Misses Jeanette Lollar, Luetta Byrd, Margaret Deakins, Dinaween Bridgeman, Roberta Raybon, Gwendolyn Gray, Johnnie Mathison, Theresa Lokey of Slaton, and Nina Scott of Lamesa.

Messrs. Cloyce Drinkard, Oscar Brice, LeRoy Fesmire, Austin Erwin, John Rankin, J. T. Jenkins, Buck Howell, Creston Fish, Grover Scott, John Billy Beggs, N. R. Clements, Albert Carlton, Billy Lee, Jesse Clements, Bernie Smith, and Emery Smith.

After the dinner the girls were entertained with a slumber party at the home of Miss Roberta Raybon.

MARRIED AUGUST 16TH

Announcement has been made of the coming marriage of Miss Frances Harris, daughter of Mrs. George Harris to Mr. Olin C. Lancaster of San Antonio, at Dallas, Saturday, August 16th. Plans for the honeymoon will include a flight by plane to Mexico City. The newlyweds will live at San Antonio, following the return, where the groom is in the newspaper business. Advance congratulations are extended and best wishes to these fine young folks.

FREE DEMONSTRATION

The Texas Electric Service Co. are announcing a free cooking demonstration at their offices today, Friday and Saturday. The demonstrations are being conducted by a nationally known authority on cooking who will explain many new and tempting recipes, according to District Manager Lon Geer of Sweetwater, who was here Tuesday completing the details with Manager Blakey.

An invitation is extended to every Snyder housewife to enjoy these free demonstrations.

Fryers weighing two pounds and better will be accepted at 50 cents each, at the Times-Signal office, as credit on subscriptions. Bring on the poultry.

WICC PAPER TO FEATURE DEVELOPMENT ARTICLES

"West Texas Today," official publication of the West Texas chamber of commerce, is to feature, a section in which special progress and development news of the different sections and communities of the territory are to be published, according to A. H. Wheeler, editor.

The Times-Signal will cooperate with the editorial office of the magazine in supplying special articles dealing with this section of the state, one of which has already been mailed telling of the rural school development in Scurry county.

NEW TEACHERS HIRED

The School Board in regular session, Tuesday night, hired H. G. Jones of Canyon to take the place of J. M. Claunch as Principal of the grade schools. Mr. Jones is a teacher of wide experience, having served ten years in the work and is a graduate of West Texas Teachers College.

S. M. Miller of Henrietta, T. C. Wallace of a graduate of the W. T. C. was hired as history teacher and assistant coach.

An additional one-half credit secured in Economics the past year now places the total credits for Scurry schools at 30 units.

School will open Sept. 8th, and Supt. Wedgeworth promises a full and complete story previous to opening day.

TRUCK DRIVER FINED

Local officials took in charge a truck driver, truck and cargo of the West Texas Transfer Company of Dallas here today for violation of the Texas Railroad Commission motor trucking law, operating without properly issued certificate of Necessity and Convenience.

The driver was fined $121.00 and held pending further action.

This is the first instance in this section where a test is being made of the motor trucking law and much interest is being displayed in the final outcome by truck operators in this territory.

COL. EASTERWOOD BOOSTING AVIATION

A group of clippings received at the Times-Signal office, Monday, from Col. Bill Easterwood in Paris, France, showed that aviation heads in that country were responding to his offer of $25,000 for a hop from that city to Dallas.

The Paris edition of the New York Herald stated that Col. Easterwood was to have a private interview with the Prince of Wales one day this week. He was likewise an invited guest of the American Embassy at Paris and was accompanied by R. C. Wood, head of the American Legion in that city.

DALLAS MASONS PLAN TO ENTERTAIN SUPREME COUNCIL

Many plans are being made by the Scottish Rite Masons of Dallas for the entertainment of members of the Supreme Council, Scottish Rite of the Southern Jurisdiction, when that body meets there September 24, 25 and 26. The committees in charge of the preparations consists of Walter C. Temple, W. R. Ellis and Boyd Brown, all Thirty-third Degree Masons.

It has been definitely decided that the visitors, the members of the Supreme Council and their ladies would be taken for a trip to Fort Worth, returning to Dallas and then on to Austin to visit the Scottish Rite Dormitory at the University of Texas, to San Antonio for a visit to that historic city, a tour of the famous missions, then to Houston and Galveston.

All Scottish Rite Masons are admitted to sessions of the Supreme Council, with the exception of those which are executive.

HOFMEISTER CAMPAIGN

The Hofmeister Tabernacle Campaign is drawing the people who are interested in the revival of the Old Gospel Faith. The evangelist, Dr. Theodore M. Hofmeister, native of Pittsburg, is preaching masterful sermons at each of the night meetings. The morning meetings at ten o'clock for Bible study and prayer are addressed by Ralph Leonard Morris and the evangelist.

HEY THERE! STAR-TELEGRAM

Col. Dick McCarty of the Albany News "than whom there is no whome" when it comes to taking a pot-shot at any matter that comes under his observation and that he feels should be told. Last week under the caption that heads this article, he said:

"A great paper you are, and you serve all of West Texas. You wield a great influence in this western empire. And now here you are, playing at the game of neutrality. You espoused the cause of a country school teacher, did your utmost to make him governor of this great state. Made it sectional, bucking West Texas against the State of Texas, and you lost. Now you have climbed up on the high fence of neutrality and say hands off. That is to say, you don't give a damn what becomes of Texas. And your country school teacher, he's gone vacationing. And that is to say, he don't give a continental what becomes of Texas. He failed to get a place at the political pie counter, so to hell with Texas, politically. And he's gone a-fishing. Shame on you Star-Telegram, you are a great factor in this western Empire, and now here you are at this critical hour, you have folded your tent and gone into summer quarters. Tain't right, boy, you ought to roll up your sleeves and get in the fight for good government. The god of Democracy hates a quitter. Always get on the battle line and fight like the Devil and Tom Walker for your favorite, then if you lose, accept the verdict and walk up to the lick log and get your salt, that's democratic, that's the part of a good sport. All of West Texas has got its eyes on you, are you going to sulx in the tent, while grand old Texas is making the fight of its life for good government? You are a journal of great influence, therefore the sin of omission will be the greater. Come on old Star-Telegram and show your colors in the time of stress. Neutral, eh?"

OLD PARKER COUNTY SETTLERS INVITED HOME

Scurry county boasts of 28 former Parker county residents who will be interested in knowing that the annual Parker County reunion will be held at Holland's Lake, Weatherford, August 7th, that's today.

District Judge Fritz R. Smith intends going and trying to take as many of the old settlers from there as possible.

COLORADO MAN BUYS GREEN FLAG GOLF COURSE

R. L. Richardson of Colorado purchased the Green Flag Golf Course, Tuesday, taking possession the same day. The Times-Signal extends a welcome to the new resident and wishes much success in the new enterprise here.

'GENE' HOWE DONE IT

Recently the cold-blooded news came out of Amarillo that Mrs. A. D. Payne, wife of an Amarillo attorney had been blown to bits, along with her young son, when a bomb demolished her car. This happened on June 27th.

Since that time the law of Amarillo had been unable to get to first base until Gene Howe, able and versatile News-Globe editor got on the job, and things commenced to happen. He called on a brother editor from Kansas City who with Howe ascertained quickly that Payne had been in love with a former stenographer and who had professed his unbounded love for her.

Imagine, if you can, a young man deliberately plotting the death of his wife and children with the end in view of marrying his former secretary.

Yesterday's dailies carried the story of Payne's arrest and the finding of letters on him, sufficient proof that showed he was the perpetrator of this vile deed. The law spirited him out of town to avoid mob violence—but if ever a mob was entitled to take a two-legged human out and string him up to four posts, Payne is that individual. There shouldn't have been enough left of his damnable carcass for the carrion to feed on. He should have been tried the day he was arrested, convicted and the proofs that were on his person instead of the slow, get-no-place meanderings of the law. Had this self-same thing happened in England, it would have been completely finished in from two to three days.

EXCEPTIONAL SALADS

WE all want salads in summer. They form a cool and refreshing part of the diet, and furnish mineral salts and vitamins besides acting as a whip to jaded appetites. But those jaded appetites are just the thing we have in mind. We want salads, but we want new salads with new tastes and colors as well as the old standbys which everyone likes.

What are some of the things that can find a proper place in salads? The list is one of astonishing variety and length. It includes not only vegetables and fruits, but meats, nuts, cheese, consommé, gelatin and fish.

An Almost Endless Choice

Among the vegetables which are served in modern salads are tomatoes, peas, cabbage, beets, string beans, asparagus, cauliflower, potatoes, chickory, peppers, celery, artichokes, radishes, corn, onions, carrots, lettuce, parsley, spinach, cucumbers, capers and pimientos.

Among the fruits are alligator pears, cherries, cranberries, oranges, grapefruit, hearts of palms, apples, peaches, pineapples, dates, watermelon, apricots, peaches, coconuts, olives, and ginger.

The meats include turkey, chicken, sweetbreads, tongue, ham and roast beef.

The chief nuts used are almonds, walnuts, chestnuts and pecans, and the cheeses are Roquefort, American and cream.

Consommé, gelatin and marshmallows frequently form part of a summer salad, and the fish include shrimp, crabs, lobster, tuna, salmon and sardines.

Some Meat Salads

But let's get specific and tell some of the ways in which this false and was the political game played to keep me out of the run-off. I hold no ill will personally and will only try to pay back in a fair, square way, politically.

Yours for Scurry County,

POSTERS SENT OUT WARNING INDUSTRIES BEWARE OF CROOKS

"Read Before You Sign" On the Dotted Line Advises Business Bureau

The National Better Business Bureau has just released another nationwide warning through 7,500 posters to industries throughout the country reminding executives and employees alike that signing on the dotted line on any printed form is not just a formality.

"Read Before You Sign" is one of the slogans of the National Better Business Bureau. The warning has been preached to business executives as well as industrial and office employees. The Bureau reports that swindling schemes based on getting a signature on a printed form involves a principle that a slick salesman works on business men as readily as on individuals who are not trained to be cautious about what they sign.

According to the Bureau, those who "trip on the dotted line" range from the officer of a large corporation who signs what he thinks is a questionnaire, which in reality is a bona-fide contract to the housewife who signs a form which the salesman on her doorstep says "is merely a formality," but which is a commitment to buy something and usually at an exorbitant price.

The Bureau's warning reads in part: "Don't be misled into thinking signatures are unimportant. They are very important. Read before you sign. If the salesman's representations are not borne out in the printed agreement, don't sign."

Mount Pleasant celebrated in June opening of its new $200,000 milk plant and an echo of its establishment and the high interest in Titus county in dairying is heard in the statement that feed crop acreage in that county this year has been increased approximately 300 percent. Miss Vivian Ellis, Smith county girl, won third place in the farm club girls' contest for the state. She showed $508.35 profit on 250 hens in one year. "Other women of Smith county are doing their bit as shown by the profit of 24c from each hen secured by ten women members of the Home Demonstration Clubs.

"I've been watching that mechanic for the last fifteen minutes. There's a man who knows his business. He didn't spill a drop of oil on the ground. He put the hood down gently, fastened it securely, and left no finger prints on it. He wiped his hands on clean waste before opening the door, spread a clean cloth over the upholstery, meshed the gears noiselessly, and then drove slowly into the street."

"Yeah, that's his own car."

Perfectly Calm

"And what do you do when you hear the fire alarm, my good man?"

"Oh, I just get up and feel the wall, an if it ain't hot, I go back to bed."

TO THE VOTERS OF SCURRY COUNTY

The official report of the County Committee shows that I received the nomination for County Judge in the recent primary, and I most heartily thank you for the votes and support that I received.

My earnest effort to discharge the duties of the office faithfully and economically shall be my response to you.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

EDSON L. WAITE
 Snyder, Okla.

Down in Texas there is a little city of some 20,000 people where many a young man has said: "There is no opportunity here."

And yet several years ago one of them found himself the owner of a business college, and today his college—Tyler Commercial College—ranks as one of the finest in the United States. The young man is not only the head of a splendid institution, but president of the Tyler Chamber of Commerce and a citizen of wide influence and usefulness.

Now and then President Roberts gathers his students before him and talks to them. Here is part of one of his recent talks:

"I get surer, year by year, that education is life-long self-development and this self-development produces the only happiness. Getting education is really a thrillingly happy business—even though some of our experiments blow up and crack in our faces. The child grows for joy when it is able to walk across the floor on its new legs. That is education.

"Our stenographer comes in radiant with joy because she has learned a new figure in dancing. More education!

"I didn't see this back in the old log cabin school at the 'whittled-up' desk with McDuffey's Fifth Reader and Ray's Third Part Arithmetic" before me. I hated education then. I felt like the children of Israel under their Egyptian taskmasters!

"You've felt the fine joy of discovering a new idea or thing, haven't you? It has always been found before. But fogs and mists clear, and, like Christopher Columbus, you finally see the land of the new world and you grow bigger. Your world may be complete for a while, but as you keep growing it gets too small and you must discover a new world. Your happiness for you in the discovery! For the years widen our world and multiply our happiness—just as they should.

"That is education. The education that does not increase our happiness is a failure."

BIRTHDAY CANDLES CAUSE OF BLAZE

Birthday candles caused a fire which destroyed the home of J. T. Pritchett at Colorado, with an estimated loss of $6,000 one day last week.

The fire was started when Pritchett's four-year old son lighted the birthday candles intended for him in a closet, the flames leaping on her arms. Pritchett was burned on her arms and chest while attempting to extinguish the fire.

Jeweler—Your watch is magnetized. Have you been riding on an electric train or been near a dynamo or anything attractive?

Bertie—Well—er—I've been—er—calling a good deal on a very attractive young lady.

Customer—Why do you wear rubber gloves when applying that hair restorer to my head?

Barber—That's to keep hair from growing on my hands.

The man was complaining to his landlord. "Those people in the flat above me won't give me a minute's peace. This morning at two o'clock they were jumping up and down and banging on the floor as hard as they could. I simply won't stand it."

"They woke you up, I presume," said the landlord.

"No, I hadn't gone to bed."

"Working late?"

"Yes, I was practicing on my saxophone."

WELCOME TO JUAREZ, MEXICO

What Others Think of Juarez

Henry L. Mencken, editor of the American Mercury: "If the east knew about Juarez, nobody would stay in the east except to do business."

Joseph F. Leopold, United States Chamber of Commerce: "Los Angeles would raise a cool million in thirty minutes to have Juarez (and its assets) for a neighbor."

Karl Harriman, editor of The Red Book Magazine: "Henry Mencken told me about the delights of Juarez, but even he, with his gift of tongues, did not do it justice. I enjoyed every minute of my visit to El Paso and Juarez and I am coming back to spend a month in this delightful environment."

Otto H. Kahn, International Bazar: "El Paso has the advantage of being on the frontier of a picturesque country. This city's combination of advantages is difficult to surpass. In fact, I do not know its equal anywhere in this country."

"TRUF" IS RITE!

"How is it, Uncle Mose, you are asking for credit when you had such a good cotton crop?" asked the store proprietor in a Southern town. "De ducks got 'bout all dat cotton, sah," was the mournful reply. "What do you mean by the ducks got it?"

"Well, you see," explained the old man, "I sent dat cotton up to Memphis, an' dey deducts the storage charges, an' dey deducts the commission, an' dey deducts the taxes—sah, de ducks got 'bout all dat cotton an' dat's why I'm here."

Judge Horace Holley left yesterday for East Texas points to boost the candidacy of Charley Lockhart for state treasurer. Our former townsman should swamp his rival for John Davis is a well-to-do man, does not need the office and Charley Lockhart does, is worthy and thoroughly conversant with the duties of this important state office.

PROPOSING A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON NOVEMBER 4, 1930.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 5 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereinafter read as follows:

The Legislature shall meet every two years at such time as may be provided by law and at other times when convened in regular Session. The first thirty days thereof shall be devoted to the introduction of bills and resolutions, passing upon the confirmation of the recess appointees of the Governor and such emergency matters as may be submitted by the Governor in special messages to the Legislature; provided that during the succeeding thirty days of the regular session of the Legislature the various committees of each House shall hold hearings to consider all bills and resolutions and other matters then pending; and such emergency matters as may be submitted by the Governor in special messages to the Legisla-

Middle Life Suffering

"THREE years ago, I was in bad health," says Mrs. J. B. Bean, of Kirbyville, Texas. "I was going through a critical time, and I suffered a lot. My back hurt almost all the time, and my legs and ankles ached. My head hurt me until sometimes I would be almost past going. As I had used Cardui before, and knew how much I had improved after taking it, I got a bottle and started taking it. I continued to use it for several months. After a while I regained my health, and I feel that I could never have gotten through that awful time without Cardui."

Economical Corn

THE two things a housewife is most anxious to save are time and money. She can save both by using economical corn, either cooked by itself or in combination with other foods. The following recipe, for instance, costs only about eighty-five cents and serves eight people. It takes nearly an hour to prepare, but it would take longer and cost more if fresh corn were used instead of the canned.

Corn and Beef Soup: Mix together one pound ground rump of beef, one-half pound ground fresh pork, one beaten egg, one tablespoon chopped onion, one-half tablespoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon pepper, one-half cup bread crumbs and the contents of one eleven-ounce can of corn. Place

In a well-greased loaf pan and bake in a hot oven (400°) for about forty-five minutes.

This Tastes Good

And here is a recipe for corn cooked all by itself which will also serve eight people, and which is sure to be eaten to the last kernel:

Sensory Corn: To two cups of canned corn add two well-beaten eggs, two tablespoons chopped green pepper or pimiento, two tablespoons melted butter, three-fourths cup milk and salt and pepper to taste. Pour into a buttered baking dish and cover top with buttered crumbs mixed with an equal amount of grated cheese. Bake in a moderate oven until set and browned on top.

Sec. 2. That Section 24 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereinafter read as follows:

Members of the Legislature shall receive from the public Treasury a per diem of not exceeding $10.00 per day for the first 120 days of each session and after that not exceeding $5.00 per day for the remainder of the session.

In addition to the per diem the members of each House shall be entitled to mileage in going to and returning from the seat of government, which mileage shall not exceed $2.50 for every 25 miles, the distance to be computed by the nearest and most direct route of travel from a table of distances prepared by the Comptroller to each county seat now or hereafter to be established; no member to be entitled to mileage for any extra session that may be called within one day after the adjournment of a regular or called session.

Sec. 3. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the electors of this state qualified to vote on constitutional amendments at an election to be held throughout the State on the first

Monday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1930. (A correct copy.)
