CLYDE MARTIN DIES

Clyde Martin, son of J. M. Martin of Union, died Tuesday in the Slaton Sanitarium after he had undergone an appendicitis operation. He was buried Wednesday, October 1st, in the cemetery at Houston. He is survived by his wife, two children, his father, mother, three sisters, and four brothers.

C. M. Bomberger, publisher of The Jeannette (Pa.) News-Dispatch, says:

That the newspaper is the Bible of modern times. It tells the story of mankind's struggles day by day toward the goal of a "better tomorrow." The activities of humans, touching every phase there is, are set forth with the one aim of giving the facts.

In the main the picture presented is an accurate statement of conditions from the visit of Mary Jones to her sister in a neighboring town seeking communion with her nearest and dearest relative to the negotiations the Amtorg Corporation endeavors to start to bring about increased foreign trade in Russia.

The circle of an individual's life today is pretty much the same as it was several thousand years ago, but the environment is different and the viewpoint, perhaps, more in line with what we term spiritual values.

The first important change in the status quo of the universe the Bible tells us is "light." Today the newspaper furnishes "light" to humankind in the shape of information. And it truthfully tells what the humans do with the information they receive.

The newspaper itself furnishes the news of the happenings in every field except the purely mercantile. This it furnishes too, only we call it advertising, for which someone other than the editors pay.

The lie is none too sharply drawn. Many a newspaper gives much information that has to do with buying and selling or building up a community without cost to those who benefit directly.

Mother Leaves Children And Faces Death

Says Farewell Hard, But Recovery Easy Due to Crazy Water

In May, 1929, I was critically ill with rheumatism; in fact, I was an invalid and had to be helped around. My husband decided to bring me to Mineral Wells, as it looked as if there were no hope for me if I remained at home. But I had no confidence in Mineral Wells; in fact, I did not believe that anything of any place would relieve my suffering. You can imagine how I felt when I told my children "Good-Bye," when I did not expect to see them again.

I arrived in Mineral Wells on May 10th, last year, and in one week of the Crazy Water Treatment, I was able to walk and thirty days from the time I arrived I was well again, only a little weak.

I heartily recommend to everyone suffering with diseases caused by faulty elimination that they spend a few days rest at the Crazy Water Hotel in Mineral Wells, Texas, the home of Crazy Water. Mrs. F. M. Hilliard, Adv. 16-4c Tulsa, Texas.

State Highway No. 7, northwest of Lubbock; State Highway No. 9, and State Highway No. 53, entirely through the county, are included for hard surfacing.

MITCHELL COUNTY EXPOSITION ENDS

The Mitchell County Live-at-Home fair climaxed all previous fairs in attendance on Saturday. It is estimated 10,000 were present. The rabbit exhibit had more than 300 entries. C. J. Adams, representative of the American Rabbit Breeders' Association, did the judging.

Scurry county was well represented during the course of the fair. Agricultural exhibits, both community and individual, were far above the average. E. B. Hale winning the sweepstakes on maize with Wood Wadding taking it on hegarri. The mercantile exhibits attracted much attention.

The commercial vocational department of the high school, under the direction of Miss Octavine Cooper, director, maintained a corps of operators for demonstrations. The antique department was perhaps the most interesting with the oldest piece being a silver teapot made in 1560 and which was taken from the Reida Mercedes, a ship sunk in the harbor of Santiago, Cuba, during the Spanish-American War. This belongs to Mrs. Lee Jones.

Entertainment included one-act plays from the rural schools of the county Friday and Saturday nights. Horseshoe pitching, burro races with twenty entries, bicycle races and guessing contests and a battle royal by several negro boys for the closing number were all well attended. So well pleased were the executives of the association over this enterprise paying out on conditions existing as they are, some 100 members of the association underwrote the expense on another fair for 1931.

OLD PIONEER PASSES TO REWARD

Mrs. Julia A. McMillan, wife of T. D. McMillan who preceded her in death ten years, died Monday after a lingering illness at the home of Uncle Billy Nelson. Funeral services were held at the home, Tuesday afternoon, attended by a large concourse of people who came to pay their last respects and tribute to a loving mother and friend to all.

Expressions read by Rev. Thomas M. Broadfoot, who conducted the funeral, said that four children had been born to the wedlock, two of whom survive, T. L. McMillan of Fort Worth now in a hospital there; and Mrs. Charles L. Harless of Littlefield, who was present at the funeral. Mrs. McMillan is survived by five grandchildren; one great grandchild and a niece, Mrs. Lee Greigs; one sister, Mrs. Zeb Owen, Corona, N. M.; two brothers, T. R. Johnson of Stephenville and S. L. Johnson of Snyder; and one brother-in-law, Uncle Billy Nelson of Snyder.

Sister McMillan was born August 1, 1854, married Dec. 22, 1871, and died Oct. 6, 1930, at the ripe old age of 76 years, 2 months and 5 days. Her life was one of love and duty well done. A devoted wife, a loving mother, a faithful neighbor, a conscientious working Christian, having accepted her Lord early in life and having had membership in both the Christian Church and the Church of Christ in the local community.

With those who knew her best, she leaves behind many fond and cherished memories, is the statement coming from all who mention her in passing. The Times-Signal joins with the many friends of the family in extending sincerest condolences to them in their bereavement.

"It came from above my terraces," was the invariable reply of exhibitors at the Okra County Fair in Eastland county when questioned about their crops displayed. It has been a great year for showing the value of terracing, and that it has reduced drought suffering there can be no doubt.

Another factor that has blunted the effects of the drought has been the planting of crops on the two-row-skip-one plan. Scooped at years ago when advocated by county agents, the "two row" method has more than doubled yields for many farmers this season. The agent in Coleman county reports that T. R. Petty of Goldbusk community gathered 12 loads of milo maize from 25 acres planted in this fashion as against two loads from 25 acres adjacent.

The despised careless weed must be accorded rank among the heroes of the dry spell, for a number of poultry demonstrators report the green feed thus furnished kept up egg production through the late summer. In Bastrop county one demonstrator told the county agent he got an increase of 15 eggs daily within one week after a careless weed ration was added to the grain and mash already fed. It must be noted that thorough disinfecting, plenty of fresh water and good house ventilation were contributing factors.

The importance of green feed in a poultry ration is great, however, for in Fisher county it cost the most efficient of seven demonstrators 7.7 cents per dozen to produce eggs in August, using alfalfa leaf meal for green stuff, while the highest cost eggs were produced at 11.6 cents per dozen in a flock that got no green feed.

Drought Tests Merit of Canning Plans

Crowell—That a canning budget, such as each 4-H pantry demonstrator makes, is a good thing at all times but especially valuable in times of drought is the opinion of Mrs. Wallace Seales of the Thalia Home Demonstration Club, in Foard county. She says, "When I first started my pantry work I thought surely it would rain soon and I would have more food than I could can, but there has been very little rain this year or for the past three years. Then I wanted to give up, but our home demonstration agent, Miss Dosca Hale, encouraged me to go on. I am so glad now that I did not quit because I have managed in various ways to secure enough food to can over 300 containers for winter use."

In order to do this Mrs. Seales has used her pressure cooker to can for the neighbors and has received shares of the product in return for the service. She has canned peas, which she raised on bottom land in spite of the dry weather, and has exchanged peas for fruit or other vegetables. As the result of her work and thought, the family will have a balanced diet which otherwise would have been impossible. "I have learned so much about food selection and meal planning I know that it will improve the health of our family," she says.

Furniture Finished at Court House

Tyler—The women of Smith county seem to be perfectly at home in the county court house. The members of eight women's home demonstration clubs met recently in its basement to exchange ideas on refitting furniture. An old walnut wardrobe, a desk, a library table, a small table, and two rocking chairs were cleaned of all old paint and varnish, dressed with steel wool and wood filler and waxed. Some unfinished porch chairs were painted.

Women Plan Diet Then Plant Garden

Midland—Forty women and girls have planted fall gardens in Midland county. Beans, peas, spinach, turnips, kale, collards, carrots, beets and mustard are the vegetables selected to plant to meet the requirements of an adequate diet.

George L. Browning, President of the Seaboard National Bank of Los Angeles, says:

"A father can do no more damming thing to his son than to leave him a fortune without having taught him how to handle that fortune. It is like handing a loaded weapon to a child who knows nothing about handling such weapons. "A daughter at five receives her first music lesson. Continuously she is taught and continuously she practices her music until she reaches her maturity. Because of the foresight, patience, interest and energy of her parents she is an accomplished musician.

"The son at five is given his first lesson in business. Continuously he is taught and continuously he practices business dealings. At maturity he can play the game of business as easily as the daughter can play the piano.

"How foolish are the parents who expect the son to be a successful business man after having neglected to teach him economic principles and business practices in the early formative period of his life!

"Into the child's mind and soul there must be built a solid foundation on which rests the business principles. The child must have formed a habit of close analysis, definite objective, creative thinking, unyielding determination and honesty of purpose. The schools alone cannot give this. The home—the parents must bring this about by directing the child's activities and thereby the child's habit of thought. "A father should make a pal of his son, and as soon as the boy can count, responsibility of paying the bills, of placing values on purchases, of determining possibilities of savings should be placed on the child. The child should be made to clearly understand that money within itself has no value, but is merely an implement to use in the garden of life, and it is either good or bad as it is made so by its use."

in one of the United States is in Texas.

Texas is second among the states in number of airports with 115. Ohio and Pennsylvania with 85 each tie for third place.

The earliest "first bale" in Texas was sold on May 21, 1921, at San Benito. The latest was on August 7, 1903.

Texas will have three of the 29 new members of Congress under the present reapportionment bill, bringing its total to 21 representatives.

Probably the longest cotton row in the world is on the Northcutt farm in Mitchell county—16 miles. It is a complete circle around a hill.

Soil terracing now includes 3,700,000 acres in 202 Texas counties. Scurry county stands third in West Texas.

The financial history of a lot in San Antonio as related by William A. Black is interesting and indicative of the growth of Texas. The lot sold in 1837 for $400, in 1866 for $3,500, in 1889 for $10,000. Next time it sold, it brought $175,000 and is now of an estimated value of $500,000.

The seventh large office building for Dallas this year is the 25-story "Professional Tower" to cost $2,000,000.

Harris county leads the state in tax valuations with $340,000,000. Four other Texas counties have valuations above $100,000,000—Dallas $310,000,000, Bexar $190,000,000, Tarrant $176,360,000 and Jefferson $129,032,000.

Lamesa's $200,000 milk plant is in operation after two years of hard work on the part of citizens and dairymen with over 100 stockholders owning the institution which will handle the milk of nine nearby counties.

A coopeage plant is a new industry at Brownwood with a capacity of 1,000 barrels a day to handle the products of that section of Central West Texas. Orders for 110 carloads of barrels were received with only about a tenth of its territory canvassed, according to The Brownwood News.

Capacity of the Petroleum Iron Works and Pennsylvania Shipyards, Beaumont, will be doubled if railroad bridges are rebuilt to give sufficient clearance for vessels coming to the plant's dry dock.

A Two Dollar Dinner for Six

TOMATOES, onions, shrimps, pineapple, a fresh vegetable, baking powder biscuits, a fresh fruit and coffee! It seems impossible that one could serve such a dinner as this to six people at a cost of only two dollars, but here are the menu and the recipes for the main dishes:

Tomato and Onion Soup.....28¢
Shrimp and Pineapple Salad.....68¢
Lima Beans in Cream.....27¢
Baking Powder Biscuits.....15¢
Fresh Peach Shortcake with Whipped Cream.....47¢
Coffee.....15¢

Tomato and Onion Soup: Put three tablespoons butter, one cup thinly sliced onions and one teaspoon sugar in a skillet, and sauté ill pale yellow. Add two cups water, and boil till onions are tender. Press the contents of one No. 3 can tomatoes through a sieve, and add to the onions with one bouillon cube. Season with salt and pepper. Boil for a moment and serve.

Shrimp and Pineapple Salad: Have the contents of one 5½-ounce can of shrimps, six slices of pineapple (three-fourths of can) diced, and one cup of diced celery well chilled. Then toss lightly together, and pile into a large lettuce-lined salad bowl or on individual plates on leaves of lettuce. Mix three-fourths cup mayonnaise and one-fourth cup chili sauce, and pour over the salad. This will make a liberal main dish salad for six people.

Scurry County 4-H Club Girls Show Good Work

Miss Jessie Lee Davis, Home Demonstration Head, Cites Examples

Achievements of 4-H Club Girls in Scurry County are varied and many, and The Times-Signal is indebted to Miss Jessie Lee Davis, Home Demonstration Agent, for the following records which have been taken at random. In addition to these listed, many other fine examples are shown in the county. Herewith are some of the records:

Aurelia Wimmer, first year club girl, made $75 with sewing. This consisted of constructing 42 garments and articles of household linens. Aurelia made dresser scarfs, quilts, dresses, kimonas, aprons, undergarments, children's clothing, and garments made of flower sacks. She states in her club history that she likes to sew and that she is now able to help her mother by making clothing for the younger children. In food preservation she put up 52 containers of fruits and vegetables for home use. For exterior home improvement she set five shrubs, planted six varieties of annual flowers and cleaned the yard eight times, the latter work being divided with her sister who is also a 4-H Club girl. Aurelia's year in club work has been worth to her $101.57.

Sybil Gilmore, third year club girl, in the Bethel Club has cleared up to date $132.38 on her poultry demonstration. She kept 20 hens and two cockerels from her last year's flock and has been selling eggs for hatching and on the market. Her hens have produced 2669 eggs which sold for $89.35; 62 doz. for hatching brought $29, the remaining 160 sold for $40.35. She not only cared for her hens but she raised 61 young birds, from which she will select hens for her next year's demonstration. Sybil has learned to cull; also the canning of chicken. The value of her birds and of canned chicken is $88.83; the egg sales $69.35; cost of feed and equipment $33.70 leaves a profit of $132.38.

Sybil put up 56 containers of various food products worth $28.80; did $21.50 of sewing, making her work amount to $182.68.

Ovella Gannaway, second year garden club girl, canned and dried $55.15 of fruits and vegetables, which consisted of 93 containers canned, and 70 lbs. dried. She has in addition to this, a garden demonstration, home improvement and clothing, making her a total of $94.99.

Audie Crabtree, of the Dunn 4-H Girls' Club, has made $66.75 worth of clothing. She was the county winner in Afternoon Dress contest, and won a trip to the State Short Course, where she entered the State contest and placed second.

In all of her work for the year including the prizes she has made $163.00.

A 1-4 acre garden cared for by Mildred Davis, Ennis Creek Club, cleared for her $95.33. The cost, including rent of land, seed, fertilizer and labor was $12.70. Mildred canned 130 containers from the plot valued at $43.00 and used 829 pounds fresh, worth $66.03.

From the home orchard and garden she canned 192 more containers of food, its value being $95.55. In clothing, Mildred made $17.75, making her a total of $209.61.

This was Mildred's fourth year in club work. Mildred says "Club work is not hard; any girl can do it; and it's something worth while. I wish there were more than four years as it is such a help to the home as well as the girl."

FORMER COUNTY RESIDENT BURIED AT DECATUR

Mrs. L. J. Malone who formerly resided in Scurry county who recently died at Decatur, was widely known in this section. The Wise County Messenger in eulogizing this lovely character said:

Mrs. L. J. Malone was born in Crawford county, Miss., August 9, 1838, and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. A. Adams, in Decatur, Texas, Monday, Sept. 1, 1930, at 7 p. m.

The funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. J. H. Heathington, assisted by Rev. R. E. Bell, who commented on the many beautiful traits in the life of this old soldier of the cross.

Following the services the remains were borne to the Oaklawn cemetery for interment.

The song service was conducted by Mr. Sim Privitt. The active pall bearers were Bill Taylor, Bill Malone, Alvan Sitz, Dale Wilhite, Hugh Taylor and Andy Malone, all grandsons of the deceased. The great grand-daughters, Misses Jewel Sitz, Onia Lee Bruton, Annie Lee, Josephine and Lois Malone and Miss Ora Mae Wilhite, acted as flower girls.

 Mrs. Malone was married to John Malone in 1855 in Denton county, and to this union there were born five children, Mrs. M. A. Adams, W. R. Malone, J. T. Malone, J. W. Malone and Mrs. Z. M. Taylor, three of whom survive: Mrs. M. A. Adams, of Decatur; W. R. Malone, Decatur; and Mrs. Z. M. Taylor, of Snyder. Mrs. Malone was left a widow with 5 small children shortly after the Civil War.

Mrs. Malone lived on a farm near Lewisville, Texas, until 1885 when she broke up housekeeping, and since that time has been making her home with her children. For the past few years she had been living with her daughter, Mrs. Adams, in Decatur.

Mrs. Malone was a lovable character, though small of stature, just a frail little woman weighing about 60 pounds, yet within her breast beat a heart that was full of love for everyone. She was brought up in a time when a true friend was appreciated. This was so manifested in her life that to know her was to love her. She had lived a Christian life longer than perhaps any other person in this part of the state, having joined the Lonesome Dove Missionary Baptist church in Denton county something like 76 years ago, remaining a member of that church until about 50 years ago when she moved her membership to the Shiloh Missionary Baptist church in Denton county, where she was a devout member up to the time of her death.

Will we miss her? Yes, we will miss her. Her friends will miss her bright face and friendly handclasp, her loved ones will miss her kindly advice and counsel. There will be heartaches that can be healed only by taking them to Jesus who is willing and able to bear our sorrows.

 Just let us remember that though her earthly remains lie in the cold and silent grave of eternal slumber, her spirit has taken its flight to the realms beyond where it will rest forever in peace and harmony around the throne of God.—Contributed.

OLD RESIDENT IN FT. WORTH HOSPITAL

Tom McMillan, old Snyder resident, and who was visiting here last week, was injured in a fall at Big Spring, Friday, and was rushed to a Fort Worth hospital. His condition is said to be very critical, being in such shape that he could not be told of the sudden death here, Monday morning, of his mother, Mrs. T. D. McMillan at the home of Uncle Billy Nelson.

Plenty of mud is found on every car that has occasion to get off the paved streets. Tourists coming through are plastered with it from top to heel.

"Getting out my heaters too early?...."

You wouldn't think so if you'd had a party spoiled as I did last fall!"

"YOU HAVEN'T heard about my famous 'Alaskan' bridge party? I thought everyone knew about it by now. It happened about this time last fall. The weather seemed ideal. I worked like a Trojan and resolved never to attempt such a large party again. Along about ten o'clock that morning I thought it was getting chilly but I was so busy that I didn't notice it much. At two o'clock I began to worry because it was decidedly cooler, and by four it was so cold everyone was playing in their wraps. I was simply frantic.... every heater I had was stored away.... anyhow, it was too late to get them out. You can't imagine how embarrassed I was, because practically every friend I have was there. It cured me though.... the weather will never trick me again!"

Now is the time to get out your gas heaters to avoid any uncomfortable periods and perhaps embarrassing situations. Weather statistics show that during the fall in this section of the country we always have unexpected cold snaps blow up with but a moment's notice. Drop in at your local gas company or gas appliance dealer and inspect the latest model heaters they have on display. There is a gas heater, especially designed, for every room of your home. You will enjoy their new beauty and be glad to learn of their increased efficiency.

CREDIT IS SOMETHING YOU CAN'T BUY

There is one thing I have never been able to figure out, and that is why a man, who having been extended credit by a merchant, and when owing that merchant, will go to another merchant or another town and pay cash for merchandise, when he could have bought and paid cash to the merchant who favored him when he didn't have the cash.

I asked a man who did this for an explanation. At first he said he didn't know, then admitted he was afraid the man he owed would think he should pay the $30.00 on the bill instead of buying more, and he wanted what he had bought. Such an attitude is wrong. It isn't fair to the merchant or the debtor.

Credit is something you can't buy. You have to earn it and a man with good credit has something as valuable as money and should be guarded the same as money.

The credit of the people of a community is an important factor, when it comes to industrial extension, much more so than many people realize. How the people of a community pay their bills is an item often seriously considered by industry in considering a town for location of a factory.

Not long ago a representative of an organization of negotiators told me a certain town was rejected as a possible location for a factory with a payroll of six figures, by one of his clients because the records for a period of several years showed the native residents to be poor pay. This client, he said, made it a policy that all employees must pay their bills promptly and an employee sued was equal to discharge, therefore the client would not consider that town.

This country has been built up on credit, but there are many communities that are being torn down by it, because some people take advantage of it.

To have a good, live town, you must have up-to-date snappy stores, and no merchant can have the kind of stores you would like to trade in if his capital is tied up in slow accounts.

Owing a man money is nothing to be ashamed of, in fact it is a credit to you. You should be ashamed, however, if you can pay what you owe and don't or owing one merchant spend your cash with some other merchant.

Farrar Hester of the Ash club has gathered 54 bushels and 40 pounds from one measured acre that had a heavy crop of grass and stalks turned under last February, and which was fertilized with 400 pounds of 4-12-4 fertilizer. Yellow dent corn was planted in three-foot rows, thinned to 18 inches in the drill, and kept clean by regular cultivation. It was side dressed with 200 pounds nitrate of soda 48 days after planting. Adjoining corn made 12 bushels to the acre.

Columbus-A Colorado county dairy demonstrator, faced with a total loss on an eight-acre field of hegar, contrived to irrigate it at a cost of $8 and now reports 80 tons of ensilage for cow feed. Robert Gillespie, the farmer who worked out his own drought salvation, dug a dirt tank into which he turned the water from his well, and from this reservoir spread the water at 50 cent per acre for irrigation. He plans to repeat in other years if necessary, the county agent reports.

TEXAS FARM NOTES
By W. H. Darrow
Extension Service Editor

Dairy Cows Pay Well for Oats
Sulphur Springs—Six dairy cows have paid Carter Minter $72.88 for milking and caring for them during July and August, besides paying 50 cents per bushel for home-grown oats that were worth only 35 cents per bushel on the market. Mr. Minter is a Hopkins county dairy herd demonstrator living at Dike, and in his records kept in cooperation with the county agent, has found that the fed cost of producing butterfat these months was 10.3 cents per pound.

Farmers Control Wheat Smut
Channing—Orders for 1500 lbs. of copper carbonate have been placed by Hartley county farmers to treat seed wheat for bunt or stinking smut, and many more orders are expected as the planting season progresses. Three years of demonstrations supervised by the county agent, E. R. Duke, have shown the method thoroughly effective. Last year 2830 pounds of the chemical, enough to treat 20,000 bushels was used in Hartley county.

Paid Well for Feeding Pigs
Canton—Feeding 10 pigs for 104 days has made $94.65 above actual feed cost for A. T. Utts, Van Zandt county farmer, who has just finished a feeding demonstration with his county agent, W. D. Seals. At the age of 153 days the pigs weighed 1965 pounds and sold for nine cents per pound, after consuming 2400 pounds of corn, 1200 pounds of shorts and 400 pounds of a protein supplement. They ran on Bermuda and clover pasture.

Graham—The average cost of producing eggs for a 12-month period has been 10.2 cents per dozen. V. V. Heard, poultry demonstration agent of Padgett community in Young county has discovered. His 287 White Leghorn hens have netted him $214 each for the year or an average production of 167.5 eggs. In his record submitted to the county agent sales of $1010.74 were reported.

Terraced Land Grows Big Crop
Brady—Terracing has almost doubled the yield of milo maize for Leon Browning, McCulloch county farmer living at Pear Valley, and has given him a net profit of $900.25 less threshing expense, on 37 acres of land. Using pure line single dwarf milo maize seed from the Lubbock experiment sub-station he has made 81,700 pounds of threshed seed from the field, or 43 bushels per acre, while the same crop on unterraced land adjoining yielded 24 bushels per acre. Both fields were planted by the two-row-and-skip-one method.

Cotton has also increased in yield following the terracing of this farm as a demonstration by James D. Prewit, county agent. Unterraced land has made one bale to every 15 acres while terraced land is going one-quarter bale per acre, and where in addition the rows are planted on the two-row-skip-one plan Mr. Browning estimates he will get three bales from five acres.

Boy Grows Corn Cheaply
Crockett—Corn can be grown for 38 cents per bushel, a Houston county 4-H club boy has found.

WHICH IS MORE IMPORTANT?

When you leave after Bible School because you have an appointment with company, do you ever stop to think that you deliberately walk away from an appointment made with Jesus in the communion? Which is more important? When you leave because you have to get dinner, can it be possible that you forget the more valuable food that is waiting for you in the communion and in the sermon preached on God's word? Which is more important? When you leave because you have small children, remember that the Lord never gave you children to keep you away from church. Thousands bring their children and sit with them. Your minister is patient with children. It doesn't hurt children to sit in public school, or in a picture show. Why so lukewarm about the church? Face it honestly. Which is more important? When you remain at home because your husband, or your wife, is not Christian, remember that the only way you will ever win your loved ones to Christ is by taking your religion seriously. Compromise your principles will never make any upright person admire you. Summing it up, be a genuine Christian, not a superficial one. Stand up to the test. "Be strong in the Lord." Enter into His service with zeal, and live as one who loves the Lord, Who redeemed us all. First Church of Christ. Thomas M. Broadfoot, Minister.

Through lean years and fat, this particular industry has kept its wheels grinding merrily. Production costs have dropped steadily; profits have been maintained at a satisfactory level. The president of this institution knows more about it than any other man; that's why he is president. His knowledge serves his company best when he brings it into intimate contact with every operating problem. He feels the walls of a private office would shut him off from effective communion with the organization built around him. The success of his plan proves its advantages. It not only saves a costly office, with its complement of costly furnishings, but it works.

United Gas System, whose lines serve Texas four largest cities as well as much of the rest of the state, announce an immediate expansion program involving the expenditure of $20,000,000. It is a program which pours into the pockets of Texas workers and Texas merchants millions of dollars of out-of-state capital. In the meantime, Texas banks report deposits far greater than for the same periods in 1929. If Texas capital had the same confidence in the stability and reserve strength of the state as does out-of-state capital, what unprecedented activity and prosperity the state might enjoy! Lazy dollars, sleeping in the vaults of Texas banks, should be rudely and sharply awakened. The time to build, to renovate, to remodel, to improve, is now!

A North Texas Utility Company has coined a most timely slogan. It is: "Texans, Let's Talk Texas." According to this company, six million Texans can't be wrong: Texas premier agricultural producer of the Union, billion-dollar industrial

State, with untapped and almost unmeasured mineral resources, is well worth talking. Facts and figures substantiate the most optimistic predictions. Texas probably has been too modest in their claims, too conservative in the ways and means by which those claims were advanced. The officials of the Texas Power & Light are eminently correct. It is time for Texans to begin talking Texas.

Industrialists evidence remarkable faith in the future of Texas. Republican claims to the contrary notwithstanding, the new governor and the new legislature enjoy the confidence of industrial capital, both within and without the state. Intentions to discriminate against industry in the matter of taxation and the disposition to gouge prosperous industries by exorbitant and confiscatory levies, have been disavowed by the public and officialdom alike. Texas expects Texas industry to bear its fair and equitable proportion of the cost of government, neither more nor less. Under such circumstances, the natural resources, the tremendous facilities of the state exert an appeal to which no industrialist can turn a deaf ear. Texas has felt the pinch of agriculture's distress just have other states, but in the matter of industrial growth and development she faces a future her sister states may well envy.—Editorials of Month.

ROAD BOND ISSUE
by W. C. Ralston

Editor, Times-Signal:

We are face to face with another bond issue. At this time we think such a step would be ineffectual, unreasonable, and unthinkable. The land and home owners of Scurry county are groaning under the heavy burden of taxes they now have to meet, and to place another more than one-half million dollars indebtedness upon the citizens of this sparsely settled county, without a good and sufficient reason, would be absurd, unreasonable and suicidal.

It is claimed it would relieve the present stagnation of business by giving employment to the floating class of laborers. This is not true, but if it were true, it would be wrong and contrary to all democratic principles for it would be class legislation.

Besides, contractors as a rule, have a right to procure their laborers where they can be had the cheapest, and in some cases Mexicans and negroes are imported to do the work and with the improved road implements, it does not require so many laborers.

If we vote this bond, we will need only one highway through the county—just to let home seekers pass through to other sections where they will not be burdened with this heavy bonded indebtedness. Let us face the matter like men and not vote a tax on our children and grand children which they will be ashamed of and will have to pay. Let us call off the election and save the county six hundred dollars election expenses.

Bolt Breaks Up Meeting
Loxley, Ala.—A bolt of lightning struck the Methodist parsonage, almost demolishing the living room where a woman's meeting was in progress. Two ladies were severely hurt but others escaped unharmed.

DEFYING THE DROUGHT

THE widespread drought which recently swept the country undoubtedly brought loss and poverty in its wake, but it did not bring their erstwhile foster-sister starvation. A century ago she would have come stalking after them, but, thanks to the modern canning industry this is no longer true. With our modern methods of transportation and the canning industry's output of billions of cans a year there is now good, wholesome food always immediately available at any or many points of shortage.

Babies Saved

Take, for instance, such an essential item of diet as milk. Cattle died in the fields, and the price of milk and butter went up. But millions of cans of evaporated milk were shipped in to the affected districts, and undoubtedly saved the lives of many babies. And it is better for them than cow's milk, according to scientists, because it is easier to assimilate. Charles Gilmore Kerley, M.D., wrote in one of his most recent books on infants and young children:

"Evaporated milk is to be obtained as a canned product from which by the process of evaporation in vacuum at a low temperature a little over half the water is removed. In this form it contains the same nutritional elements, but in more concentrated form. In the process of evaporation certain changes take place in the structure of the milk that make it much easier for utilization by the infant. A rough estimate would be that its digestibility is enhanced about fifty per cent."

BREVITIES

Of all the officials connected with one of Texas' most successful manufacturing enterprises, the active president is the only one who boasts neither private desk nor private office. He is his general manager's right hand man, his sales manager's chief confidant; but he sits at a subordinate's desk when he counsels and advises.

FLUVANNA NEWS

Mr. Raymond Seale of the First State Bank is the authorized correspondent for Fluvanna, and as such is authorized to receive renewal and new subscriptions. Cooperate with him by sending your news and subscriptions to him.

Church Services:

Sunday school was fairly well attended Sunday, despite the rainy weather.

Visits and Trips:

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Belew left for Mineral Wells Tuesday with their son Ross, who is thought to have an attack of appendicitis. They are taking him to the sanitarium at Mineral Wells.

Ulric Clark of Snyder spent the week end with the writer and wife. The writer and wife made a trip to China Grove Sunday.

Miscellaneous:

Fluvanna and vicinity was visited during Saturday and Sunday and Monday by a very good rain, which will be of great benefit to the grass and will aid in wheat sowing for those who anticipate sowing some for fall pasture. Cotton picking was slowed up but it is thought that the rain did no great damage to the cotton that was open.

Death:

Many friends and loved ones mourn the loss of Mrs. C. F. (Josie) Landrum, who died Monday evening, Oct. 6, at 11:50 p. m. after many months of serious illness. Mrs. Landrum's life was an open book whose pages were filled with deeds of love and kindness and whose title was "Service to Him."

This spotless volume will guide our own lives for the Christian example that it was and for the patient, tender spirit that marks our memory of her.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist Church, Oct. 7th at 4 p. m., Rev. J. I. Kelly officiating. The deceased is survived by her mother, husband, four children, three brothers, and five sisters, all of whom were present.

The writer joins in extending sympathy to those loved ones. We can say with all sincerity of heart that she was a priceless friend whose life was above reproach.

POLAR NEWS

By Mrs. J. A. Martin

Since our last writing Polar has received showers and more showers until it has become a real good rain. There's no need to say we are not proud of it. There is some cotton in the fields, but as one person said, "We'd be proud of a rain if it came on Christmas Day."

The Hofmeister Revival campaign is still continuing through this week at Polar. Bro. Hofmeister is the third preacher who has preached Christ and Him Crucified as the only Saviour of Men at Polar this season. While the other two were preaching, one side of Polar's hypocrites stayed at home; then when this minister came, "tother side of Pharisees stayed at home, so it is 'dis for dat" and "dat for dis" and sinners are still running around here by the tens breaking window lights out and telling lies on the preacher, Sunday School, etc. Well, we hope and pray by the time this is published that many of them will be saved.

Bro. J. I. Kelly of Fluvanna filled his regular appointment at Polar Methodist Church Sunday afternoon.

Ed Hall killed and peddled out a beef in Polar community last week. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoyle were guests of Mrs. Hoyle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hoyle, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Hoyle were guests of Mrs. Hoyle's mother, Mrs. S. B. Wilkerson of Snyder, Tuesday night.

Ernest Elkins of Abernathy and Mrs. Bettis of Lubbock, who made a short visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Elkins, left for their homes last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Shuler of Snyder were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cargile.

J. A. Martin and family were Saturday night and Sunday visitors with Mrs. Martin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Christopher of Dunn.

Corbit Clanton and family of Luther were Saturday night and Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Clanton.

Rev. Horace Watkins who has preached at Polar in former times, was a visitor here last week.

Plan Now an Outdoor Living Room For Enjoyment Next Summer

Think how much it will mean to you and your family to have an outdoor living room next year—a place where colorful flowers and shady nooks invite you out-of-doors!

The outdoor living room is the vogue today. No modern home is in tune with the times until the grounds have become livable as the house itself. No room within the house costs so little to furnish—none gives so rich a return in happiness, contentment and health.

Shrubs planted along the boundaries form the walls of the room, shutting out unsightly views and lending an air of privacy so desirable. You can then work about the plants, serve afternoon tea, or romp with the children, knowing that you are not in full view of outsiders. The shrub walls of this room are, indeed, an asset—they need no redecorating, but instead bear many lovely blossoms and offer an interesting variety of leaf textures and a pleasing variation of sky line.

Shade trees shield the grounds from the hot sun and their shadows make lacy patterns on the grassy carpet.

Flower borders and rose beds provide fragrance and gay color throughout the season, as well as blooms for cut-flower purposes. Garden furniture adds the final touch of livability.

Distinctive features should be taken into account when planning your outdoor living room, for such features will make your garden a place of individuality and charm.

A flagstone path has a charm all its own, especially in spring when it is bordered with tulips nodding their bright heads in the sunshine. Such a path may disappear out of sight behind a group of shrubs and lead to a surprise nook—perhaps a garden seat beside a fountain, or a bird bath with a background of evergreens. A vine-covered arbor is always an interesting feature, and when the sunlight filters through the lattice a pretty pattern appears on the grass or is looseness of the bowels. It corresponds in its frequency, and in some respects in its causes, to colic among children. Scours often occur among calves that are taken from the cow and fed from a pail.

When the conception is about to occur the dam should be given more or less attention to clean stall and fresh. Dry bedding will go a long way toward helping the newcomer to get a good start.

When the discharges from the bowels show traces of blood, it is serious and more drastic treatment should be given. This indicates a contagious disease and it occurs in very young calves, from three to five weeks. Sometimes calves die from it in a few days.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK
 By Edson R. Waite Shawnee, Okla.

On my California trip, at Riverside, I met A. B. West, who, since my last visit, had been advanced to the Presidency of the Nevada-California Electric Corporation, with his headquarters at Denver, Colo., but spending about one-third of his time at the offices of the principal subsidiary company, the Southern Sierras Power Company, at Riverside.

I found Mr. West optimistic about the nation's revival of business this winter, which he stated the corporation of which he is head is preparing to meet by one of the largest new construction years in its history.

"Our companies are looking forward to a general resumption of business and industrial activities in the winter," said Mr. West, "and are continuing the extension of our lines into new territories and the building of increased facilities to take care of the growing demands. We appreciate that the permanent and increased prosperity of the nation depends upon the presence of conditions conducive to the present and future development and expansion of trade, agriculture and industry.

"The budget of the Southern Sierras Power Company alone this year calls for more than $2,000,000 in new construction. In fact, it has already expended more than $1,000,000 for that purpose this year.

"The territories we serve in California, Nevada, Arizona and Baja California reach a great variety of agricultural, horticultural, industrial, mining and municipal enterprises, in most of which is anticipated an increased activity in the winter and spring as a result of an increased national demand for their products. Indicating the new turn in basic conditions that is now taking place, the demand on the electrical systems of our associated companies is now running slightly ahead of that of a year ago after a period of several months showing a decrease."

The scientists have discovered tracks of dinosaurs 60,000,000 years old, but the housewives of Snyder are more disturbed by the tracks made on their carpets by the children's dirty shoes.

Our reformers demand universal brotherhood, and anyway the young men have a lot of girls who have promised to be sisters to them.

If we don't wear out more shoe leather, in the healthful exercise of walking, the doctors will be wearing out tire rubber driving to see us.

The fading of the flowers leads our poets to lament, but it causes less anxiety to our men than the fading of the summer's straw hat.

People who favor trial marriages, should explain what shall be done with the trial children.

Large Cattle Deal Closed
 Bradford Sells 20 Hereford Heifers to Fort Worth Man for $8,000

One of the largest sales of registered cattle made in this section in many months was closed this week when G. E. Bradford sold 20 heifers to C. A. Lupton of Fort Worth for $8,000.

The 20 registered Herefords, while probably sold slightly under the same price of 10 carloads of ordinary cattle, Mr. Bradford said.

The heifers averaged $400 a round.

This carload was said to be one of the best cattle ever shipped out of Sweetwater. The stock represented some of the best bred of the Anxiety line in the country.

Mr. Lupton owns a ranch near Fort Worth and will use the cattle bought from Mr. Bradford to build up his herd.

The carload was shipped out of Sweetwater Monday.—Nolan County News.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK
 By Edson R. Waite Shawnee, Okla.

While visiting in San Diego, California, I was reminded that this beautiful community with its close proximity to the Mexican Border and Agua Caliente, was the first city to extensively advertise its advantages in a business-like manner.

This fact was further called to mind in a brief visit with my friend, Wm. F. Raber, vice-president and general manager of the San Diego Consolidated Gas & Electric Company, who I discovered was also president of the San Diego-California Club. This organization acts as an advertising agency for the San Diego Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Raber told me that San Diego started advertising in 1919, and that results obtained eliminated any doubt as to the value of such publicity. During the decade just past, San Diego's population has increased 100 per cent, while the National increase is but 20 per cent.

"In checking the actual results," said Mr. Raber, "it has been discovered that the maximum efficiency has been obtained exclusively in newspapers, in advertising supplemented by illustrated articles of the community's attraction and livable conditions the year around."

"Talent and business promotion are outstanding among the objectives sought by communities in an effort to increase transient or permanent population. It has become a vital necessity in these modern days for cities to advertise and San Diego is proud of the fact that she was the original community advertiser."
