Stanton Defeat Marfa 32 to 0 For District Eight
Leadership

Licking their ears down from the opening whistle to the final gun, Snyder Tigers defeated a fast and clean-playing Haskell Indian group, Thanksgiving Day 21 to 0, before an estimated crowd of 2,000. Superior physical condition and "their eyes on the ball" were final factors in the demise of the Haskell contingent. The Tigers will play Stanton three Friday.

Perhaps the Times-Signal readers may think the newspaper is prejudiced in favor of the Snyder Tigers. Openly we admit that fact. We don't believe there is a Class B outfit in all West Texas that can lick them. But to get another perspective on the Tigers, Bob Whipkey of the Abilene Reporter-News was an invited guest at the game. His story, verbatim, follows, and it is worth cutting out and placing in your athletic memory book.

Here 'tis:
Other West Texas teams out after a regional title might do well to take a second look at the danger flag run up by Red Moore's Tiger grid machine here today, as it battered over and through the Haskell Indians to win the district 9 flag.

It was classy competition the Tigers encountered, but if the breaks fell their way, they had the power to make 'em count. They moreover slashed up a crippled Haskell crew for yardage when it counted, and in turn showed up the Indian running attack and killed the tribe's passing efforts. The final count was 21 to 0.

CAPT. COLTON HERE
Captain Ray E. Colton of No-Where in Particular, but Everywhere in General, spent Sunday night, with his brother, in our home, and at the Times-Signal office, Monday morning. Capt. Colton, according to his life story, ran away from home at the age of nine, securing his education in traveling over various spots of the Globe. Gentlemanly in his demeanor and all activity, he speaks six languages fluently, can talk on any subject that concerns any part of the world and is a booster from the word go. His story appearing in another part of the paper will interest readers who enjoy getting another slant on the general activities of the world in general, and what is going on in parts outside Scurry county.

He estimates that he has covered 300,000 miles by the hitch-hike method in the past five years. He has visited every daily newspaper office of any consequence in the entire United States and Canada. While at Amarillo, recently, he desired taking pictures of the Government helium plant there. Local officials refused. A telegram to Washington brought back the information to show Capt. Colton every courtesy and whatever pictures he desired should be taken. That's making things stick.

Anyhow, Capt. Colton was here. The Velvet Hammer was very happy to meet this world-traveled gentleman, together with his kid brother.

WE WELCOME STANTON
As this is being written, both Snyder and Stanton High officials are in a quarrel as to the spot to play their bi-district football championship game. Both towns met at Westbrook, Monday night, to go into a "huddle" and see which one could wear down the other on terms. Whatever way, the ultimate spot is selected, whether Snyder or Stanton, Stanton will find a wholesome welcome should they come here. Even though the Tigers defeated Stanton earlier in the season, it was one of the hardest fought games ever coming to a local gridiron. Perhaps Stanton has greatly improved, there is no doubt of that when they held Midland High to a tie game recently only to be defeated by a very small score by the same team at a later date.

Whatever is the outcome, Snyder welcomes you Stanton. We don't hold one single bit of animosity against you, or your hard playing team.

Later—Snyder goes to Stanton, Friday.

REPORTER ON JOB

When the opening whistle, Thanksgiving Day afternoon, sounded it's clarion call that a championship battle was on, let it be said that the Abilene Reporter-News had one of the finest and best writers on their staff, right on our side line. That gentleman was Bob Whipkey, of Colorado, identified with relationship angles with the owners of the Record there.

And while we are on that subject, one should not overlook that there is NOT a single daily in West Texas that covers Snyder and Scurry County like the Abilene Reporter-News. Not a single one of them gives this section the break in news that the Reporter-News gives and

Veterans and Legion To Meet Here Saturday

MAIL DELIVERY HERE STARTS JANUARY 2ND

Postoffice Needs Help and Co-Operation of All
Patrons

Free mail delivery will start in Snyder, Friday, January 2nd, and the Snyder Postoffice will be needing the co-operation of every patron that is located on the routes to be traversed. This route has been published several times in the Times-Signal, while those who have failed to note the sections to be visited, should go to the postoffice at once and see if they are on the route.

Out of town mail, papers, letters, etc., should be addressed to your home or business number, starting at once, to insure safe delivery. Frank W. Piper, postoffice employee of Uncle Sam's for thirty years, will be the full time mail carrier, while another man will go on part time, serving the down town section. Mr. Piper served as mail carrier in Austin for 25 years, and five years previous had been spent in the main office.

Times-Signal readers are asked to kindly telephone or send their home addresses at once, that will insure paper being delivered to them every week.

Uncle Sam is asking for your help and co-operation to get the free mail delivery started. Perhaps it will not be long until the entire city will have service, if the proper help is given the postoffice on the initial delivery system. Let us get together and help the staff of the Snyder postoffice, in spite of the fact that the Civil Service Commission appear to be very dilatory in holding back the appointment of Snyder's new postmaster, Rip Van Winkle was known to have had a twenty year sleep, the Civil Service Commission, we believe, have old Rip beat to death.

Mammoth Farm Meeting Comes Next Friday, P. M.

Pork Butchering, Cutting and Canning Demonstrations to Be Given

Scurry county will be the cynosure of "West Texas Eyes" next Friday, December 12th, when a Pork Butchering, Cutting and Canning Demonstrations will be given at the Walter Scott Ranch, five miles south of Snyder, on the Colorado road. Two days will be used in the several demonstrations.

R. W. Snyder, Extension Service Meat Specialist and Miss Zetha McInnis, Extension Service Home Industries Specialist will be present to co-operate with County Agent W. O. Logan and Home Demonstration Agent, Jessie Lee Davis.

Mr. Snyder will kill the porker at 2:00 prompt, Friday afternoon, and will then proceed to show how to dress and prepare animal for proper cooling. Saturday morning, starting at 8:00 o'clock, Mr. Snyder will show the newer methods in trimming and curing of the meat. Following this, he will give a demonstration on beef cutting, the method of dividing muscle tissue and how to cut beef to get a tender product for canning. Canned beef sometimes may be tough due to improper cutting.

Following the pork trimming, Saturday morning, Miss McInnis will take the by-products, such as the head, liver, ribs, feet and sausage meat and can it. From the head she will make and can Scrap-ple; the liver, a paste suitable for sandwich filling, or to be used as a baked filling, also sausage making and canning will be shown in cake and bulk style. In addition to these improved methods, Miss McInnis will show how to take care of the ribs, backbone and feet.

Invitations are extended to every family in Scurry county to witness these demonstrations. According to the best authorities, pork products are often wasted at butchering time, and many things can be canned for later use when cured meat is scarce. Not only are the men of the community extended a most welcome invitation, but the ladies have an even more worthy welcome to attend the two days sessions.

BOB GRAY NOW AT ECONOMY STORE

Bob Gray, popular Snyder boy is now behind the Economy Dry Goods counters and will be happy to meet his many old friends.

IT'S A FACT!

Two subscribers who renewed Saturday, and there were a total of nineteen of them in all who renewed their faith that day, said: "We save more than a year's subscription to the Times-Signal in every week's issue of your newspaper, through the advertising alone, not counting the large assortment of news you are giving us."

Such statements are appreciated by any newspaper.

Another subscriber said: "Our family has read your paper for more than forty years and it has improved in its usefulness every year of its life."

That also hits the spot for any newspaper, and our bargain rate of $1.00 per year to Scurry county is still in effect until December 31st, 1930, when the axe starts falling.

Star Market In New Hands Now

Ed Dulaney of Rotan, Well Known Here Has Taken
Charge Store

The Star Market and Grocery which has been operated by L. O. Smith, opened Monday by Ed Dulaney of Rotan, in charge, a deal having been consummated Saturday between Mr. Smith and the new owner.

Ed Dulaney is not unknown in Snyder, as he has been in business in Rotan for many years and is widely known in this section of the state by the older residents. He will make many new additions to the store and the Times-Signal has a genuine welcome to Mr. Dulaney and his family, who will move here. With Mrs. Dulaney will come a ten year old daughter, and twelve year old son.

Mr. Smith, better known as "Chunk" will return to the stock business, and continue to live here. Congratulations are extended to all concerned.

WHO WANTS A BOY?

Do you know of any one who would be interested in keeping a dandy good boy and high school student for his room and board? We know a boy who will be forced to drop out of school after Christmas unless he can find some work to do. If you would be interested or know of anyone who might be, you would be doing the boy and school a great favor by calling at the Times-Signal office and telling us about it.

WAR ON COYOTES STARTED IN SCURRY

Mr. Eddie B. Ligon of the U. S. Biological Survey, and Mr. Bynum also of the Survey were here the first of the week loading and sending out 30,000 fat pork baits to be distributed in Scurry, Borden and Knox counties. Some forty farmers and ranchmen in Scurry have put out about thirteen thousand baits and Garza went stronger than did Scurry while Borden went strong enough until the thirty thousand had to be replaced with several additional thousand unloaded at Post by express.

Globe Trotter Stays All Night At Manhattan Enroute to Mexico

Capt. Colton and Brother,
Enroute to Mexico,
Stop Off Here

To those who believe that soldiers of fortune exist only in the fiction novels of Richard Harding Davis, Captain Ray E. Colton, soldier of fortune, globe trotter and adventurer who visited Snyder, Sunday night is a revelation. The Manhattan Hotel was his residence during his stay here.

Captain Colton, who is accompanied by his young brother Henry, is enroute to the state of Yucatan, Mexico, where the Captain is interested in the exploring of the ancient pyramids and cities of the Mayan and Aztec tribes. Much valuable historical information and excellent material for special features for newspapers will also be gathered by the Captain on this trip. With the co-operation of the Mexican government, he will receive ample protection, and will receive every courtesy, owing to the fact that Captain Colton has many powerful friends who are connected with the Mexican government.

TO SCURRY COUNTY CHILDREN

The Times-Signal has had word from Santa Claus that he wants all Scurry County children who want to write him letters to have them at the office here by Friday, December 12th. Santa Claus states that owing to the fact that he must leave his northern home so early this year on account of one of his reindeers being a little lame, that he wants these letters from the children quite early. Just fix your letter like any other letter and see that it is at the Times-Signal office by the time specified. If you know anything good for a lame reindeer, Santa Claus asked us to have you tell him about it.

So kiddies don't forget old Santa Claus and mail the letters in care of your home newspaper in plenty of time. School teachers and parents are kindly asked to cooperate. Santa Claus letters are always welcome in the Times-Signal office.

PROMOTER DE LUXE

When Snyder High Schools were picking a man to head the Athletic Committee in charge of ticket sales, they picked on Dr. J. G. Hicks, and let it be said, as a promoter, Dr. Hicks is a DeLuxe Jewel in every particular and there wasn't a single hitch in the entire proceedings.

Neither was Mayor Towle and the City Police Department more ably handled than during the Haskell-Tiger game, thanks to the Mayor and Council.

Congratulations are due many more, suffice to say that whatever work was to be consummated or whatever individual or group had it in charge, the day's activities were nobly and well handled.

BIG TIME ORCHESTRA COMING TO SNYDER

Announcement has been made that the famous Ralph Britt Canadian Orchestra will be in Snyder, December 10th, for a dance at Wolf Park. SNYDER TIGERS PLAY STANTON THERE FRIDAY

Marriage Racket Gets
Many Scurry County
People

Two weeks ago, the Times-Signal carried a front-page story of the uncovering of the marriage and birth insurance racket that had been opened up by the Amarillo News-Globe. Nineteen Scurry County folks had come to the Times-Signal office to inquire of the Amarillo story, up to last Saturday. The first lady to come said she had paid in a total of $360.00. Main headquarters in this section for this line of "bohunks" was Lubbock, and the Times-Signal warned against this risk more than six months ago. We were not blind-folded by the swell smoke screen the promoters laid down in this direct section, and we feel proud of the fact that we did broadcast the warning.

Monument Firm Comes To Snyder

Roy Stokes, Old Snyder Boy
Placing Complete
Plant Here

Snyder adds a new manufacturing firm to its credit this week in the person of Roy Stokes who is building a complete monumental manufacturing plant at the plot of ground, next to the Green Flag Golf Course.

Roy Stokes is an old Snyder boy who lived here for twenty-five years, and during that time was in the undertaking game. He moved to Fort Worth, five years ago, where he was in the same business that he is bringing to Snyder. Roy is also moving two families here, the male members of which will be employed at his plant. A new building, 30x40 feet is being built.

The Times-Signal joins in a welcome to Roy Stokes and the new business that he is bringing to Snyder. Always three welcome to an old home town and success in the undertaking. He is not new in the monumental business here, as during the past five years has completed and set up many fine jobs throughout the section.

School Board Has Purchased Enough Tools To Replace Stolen Goods

For some time the boys of the Snyder Vocational Agriculture department in High School have been without means of doing farm shop work due to the fact that all their tools were stolen, but now things are looking brighter. The school board this week purchased the boys sufficient tools to replace he ones stolen.

The school board have also favored the boys with a shop in the basement of the grammar school thus making it possible for them to work at all seasons of the year. The boys are building their own work benches, tool cabinets, and storage equipment, and according to their instructor, R. P. Tull, they are doing an A-1 job.

When the new tools arrive and all equipment is ready for daily school work, Snyder Department of Vocational Agriculture will have one of the most completely equipped and conveniently arranged farm shops in this section of the state.

Tom Davis met a Times-Signal reporter on the square, yesterday morning. Tom says, says he: "I want to renew my paper another year." He had neither money nor check so we dropped into the Snyder Hardware & Implement Co. for a check, and darn if George Northcutt didn't give us a check too. Two in one, that's fine and thanks.

Travels Via Hitch Hike Route
Capt. Colton travels exclusively via the hitch hike route, accepting rides from motorists who desire his company. He estimates that he has covered over three hundred thousand miles in the United States and Canada and Mexico, by this mode of transportation in the last five years.

Large Crowd Will Go With Team to Boost Them
To Another Victory

Football boosters of Snyder will move on Stanton, Friday (tomorrow) to spur the Tigers on to a bi-district victory over the Stanton Buffaloes. Championship of District 8 and 9 is at stake.

Snyder officials had a long drawn out session at Westbrook, Monday night, with Stanton school men, offering every inducement for them to come here. An earlier season game here in which Snyder won by four touchdowns gave Stanton the inside track to demand that the game be played there. Stanton's defeat of Marfa, Saturday, 32 to 0, indicates that the team the Tigers will face has greatly improved.

Coaches of the rival teams provide an interesting sidelight on the game this week. Rufus Hyde, coach at Stanton, captained the Simmons university eleven through 1929; Moore at Snyder was the Cowboy leader in 1928.

United Spanish War Veterans and American Legion
to Hold Discussions

Many Towns Here

Department Commander J.
B. Derden, Ft. Worth
Will Be Here

United Spanish War Veterans from seventeen counties in West Texas, together with American Legion Posts are coming to Snyder, Saturday, for a round table discussion and meeting. Spanish War Veterans, Legion and National Guard members hope to stage a parade around the Public Square, in the afternoon, led by the Snyder High School Band. The banquet will be served at the High School Cafeteria, and will consist mainly of old-fashioned bean soup, rye bread and coffee, with Commander T. H. Chilton in charge. The banquet is expected to be one of the greatest feasts ever held here.

State Commander J. B. Derden of the United Spanish War Veterans, Fort Worth, has already advised Commander Chilton that he would be here, and will bring the state colors of the organization with him. Members from Abilene, Sweetwater, and Lubbock have promised to come, while from many points, American Legion Posts will be here. Executive Chairman V. Earl Earp, Sweetwater, of the Legion will be present and hopes to bring the Gold Medal Band with him.

Senator Woodward of Coleman, and Senator Cunningham of Abilene have agreed to be present for the meeting, which will be a round table discussion of the legislative program that has been arranged for activities of the Spanish War Veterans, who are being ably supported by the Legion. Meetings will be held at the District Court Room.

Snyder should extend a wholesome welcome to the group who will be here, American flags should be flying at all points of the square and a real welcome extended the veterans who will be coming to our city. Let us all join in extending the right hand of good fellowship and hearty welcome to the best small city in all West Texas. Spanish War Veterans will be here, American Legion Posts will be on the job, and the National Guard are co-operating at every point. Supt. Wedgeworth was happy to have the Veterans use the High School Band, so Snyder will all be set for the visitors and the Times-Signal is happy to extend the first welcome to every person eligible to attend.

Drillers Hit New Vein Air At 1171 Feet

Seifert-Dibble Blackburn No.
1 Well Strikes Unique
Power Flow

Drillers on the Seifert-Dibble Blackburn No. 1 well discovered a non-inflammable compressed air, Tuesday afternoon, at a depth of 1171 feet. Other wells in the county are now using the same air for pumping purposes but the new discovery is located about four and one-half miles from the Humphrey producing wells.

This air, first discovered several years ago was heralded by the publicity department of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce around the world as being the only air of its kind, that will take the place of steam power for drilling and pumping purposes. Research and chemistry professors from several Texas colleges were in Snyder this summer, attempting to ascertain just what this air might contain. It is not helium, nor is it gas, but apparently compressed air that is non-inflammable that comes from the ground at terrific pressure. The men who were last here, came from Texas A. & M. College and carried several tire tubes of the air back to College Station. So far as the Times-Signal knows they have made no report back to this county.

The new air discovery in the Blackburn well, according to Head Driller Art Robinson has five times more pressure than was encountered in the Cub Murphy No. 1 well, that is now pumping oil daily. This oil is being run through a pipe line to the Col-Tex Refinery at Colorado.

Hold your horses, folks! Thousands and thousands of dollars have been spent in Scurry county for oil purposes, alone, the past year. Cross your fingers that the new Blackburn is the real discovery well of the entire southwest.

Here's a New Soup

EVERYBODY is drinking chilled tomato juice nowadays, but did it ever occur to you that you can take this same product and eat it, and thus have an excellent hot soup? It's a nourishing soup. Tomato juice, whether you squeeze it from the tomatoes themselves or buy it ready to serve in cans, is not just a watery substance with a tomato taste, but the whole tomato with the exception of the skin and seeds.

So popular is this new drink, hot or cold, that it is now being canned in gigantic quantities. The secret of keeping all the particles of tomato in suspension in the juice, instead of having them settle, has been solved by the same means that the canners use in processing evaporated milk. Scientists state that unsweetened evaporated milk is a good food for babies because of its sterility, its ready digestibility and its uniformity of composition.

Rich in Vitamins
Scientists also commend the tomato as a prolific source of vitamins A, B and C. Dr. A. F. Hess of Columbia University said: "From the nutritional standpoint it may be regarded as a palatable solution of the three vitamins." Dr. Elwood Hendrick characterized it as "one of the most useful food accessories known to man." William Howard Pitch of the United States Medical Service said: "The popularity of the tomato, fresh and canned, is fully justified by our present knowledge of food values, for the tomato is rich in all three vitamins and retains them well when cooked and canned."

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Strayhorn spent Tuesday in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Ottis M. Moore spent the past week-end at Marfa, seeing the Stanton-Marfa game.

Editor and Mrs. J. W. Roberts and daughter, Marilyn, spent Thanksgiving in Dallas. While there they enjoyed visiting WFAA broadcasting station in the Baker Hotel. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Roberts' mother, Mrs. J. D. Smith, who will remain for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Moore, and sons J. M. R. M., and I. M., and daughter Miss Georgia, of Abilene, spent Thanksgiving with their son and brother, Ottis M. Moore and wife, and attended the Snyder-Haskell game.

Mrs. E. L. Darby and daughter, Dorothy, and Wanda Jean Sims returned home Sunday from Amarillo where they spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Miss Wauweta Darby and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Boren. Miss Darby has been connected with the office of Killough and Davies, Gents Furnishing Store, at Amarillo, for the past two years.

Depression Didn't Hit These Homes

San Angelo—A net profit of $772.46 for the last 12 months from her flock of 297 white leghorn hens, an average of $2.60 per hen, marks Mrs. Will Aylor, a poultry demonstrator of Tom Green county, as both a good financial manager and a careful worker with poultry. Mrs. Aylor culled her flock closely and fed them plenty of mash, green feed, maize and some wheat, the cost of which was paid for by the hens before profits were reckoned. Infertile eggs for which she found a ready market was the chief source of her profits.

MEAT CUTTING AND CURING DEMONSTRATION

A. & M. Specialists to be at Scott Ranch, Dec. 12 and 13 (County Agent W. O. Logan)

On Friday afternoon December 12, Mr. Roy W. Snyder, Extension Meat Specialist of the A. & M. College Extension Service will be here, and at 2 o'clock (2:00 P. M.) he will assist in butchering and dressing hogs at the Scott Ranch south of Snyder on Dunn and Snyder road. The following morning, Saturday, December 13, at 8:30 a. m. he will begin cutting up the hogs and trimming them and preparing them for the sugar cure process. Saturday morning Miss Zetha McInnis of A. & M., Specialist in Home Industries will be with him and she will show the utilization of head, feet, liver, making and canning sausage, and other ways of saving the scraps, etc.

ATTEND BAR BANQUET

Judge Horace Holley, C. F. Sentell, Warren Dodson and George F. Smith attended the 32nd District Bar Association banquet at Big Spring, Monday night, at the Settles Hotel. The lawyer boys opened their affair with a wonderful banquet, then guests were cheered with good and happy stories . . . and then the fire works started. As we were leaving, the shooting had not subsided. No injuries reported, but a fine time enjoyed.

In addition to this pork work, Mr. Snyder will cut up a half of a beef, showing the crowd exactly how to cut up beef for canning. There is a way to separate the muscle tissues that will make the canned product more uniform in cooking and tender for eating. He will take time to explain all this and make the cuts with all visitors looking on and following him.

Mr. Snyder has been doing this work for eight years in Iowa where hogs are hogs, and he has a thorough knowledge of Home Curing and butchering.

Mr. Walter M. Scott told County Agent Logan that he would be glad to have every man or woman in the county interested in this Home Butchering, Curing, and Canning of meats, to meet at his ranch and see every step. Mr. Scott is furnishing the hogs and calf and invites those interested to come both days.

Editor Note.—The Times-Signal is placing an advance order to County Agent Logan and Walter Scott for a liberal mess of this pork killing.

LITTLEFIELD ANSWERS TIMES-SIGNAL PLEA

A couple of weeks ago the Times-Signal contained a story of the "pet leopard" that was responsible for a terrible injury to a young boy at Littlefield. This newspaper specifically asked that this animal be destroyed and its owner placed in jail.

LITTLEFIELD, Nov. 22.—Two bullets this afternoon ended the life of the leopard which a week ago today fatally wounded four-year old James Ewins in a drug store here. Upon presentation of a petition signed by Littlefield citizens, T. Wade Potter, Lamb County Attorney, granted permission for return of the leopard from Clovis, N. M., to which it had been taken by authorities after attacking the child.

O. H. Brown, Littlefield chief of police, and Bob Cox of Littlefield, carried the caged cat from Clovis and killed it at Littlefield. J. D. Ewins, father of the boy who was fatally injured by the leopard, was among those presenting the petition to County Attorney Potter. The county had possession of the animal.

The child was virtually scalped by the leopard in a Littlefield drug store shortly before noon last Saturday and died in a Lubbock hospital Wednesday.

Charles Howard, keeper of the cat, tonight still was in the Hale county jail at Plainview awaiting hearing on a negligent homicide charge. Fear of mob violence prompted Littlefield authorities to take him to Plainview.

POULTRY SHOW AT SLATON DECEMBER 10

SLATON, Dec. 3.—Reports received here from poultrymen, chambers of commerce and others over the 54 counties included in the territory of the Texas Panhandle-Plains Poultry Association indicate that a large number of people from the various sections of the Panhandle-Plains area will be in Slaton to see the first annual poultry show which will be sponsored here on December 10, 11 and 12, by the regional poultry association.

and poultry interests here and throughout Northwest Texas have cooperated in arranging a most unusually attractive premium list, a valuable educational program and something of interest to all who visit the show. Slaton citizens have joined in extending a hospitable welcome to the people of the Panhandle-Plains to attend the show, and they are hoping a large attendance will be seen.

IF SNYDER MEETS ALBANY THEN WHAT?

If Snyder Tigers lay away the Stanton Buffaloes in their bi-district clash this week, present indications are that Albany will be the winners in District 5 and 10. In that case, Albany Lions have the following season's record:

- Albany 45, Throckmorton 0.
- Albany 33, Baird 0.
- Albany 28, Hamlin 0.
- Albany 28, Cross Plains 6.
- Albany 1, Gorman 0, (forfeit.)
- Albany 44, Clyde 0.
- Albany 45, Moran 0.
- Albany 45, Putnam 6.
- Albany 14, Rising Star 0.
- Albany total 313; Opponents 12.

Important cogs in the Albany football machine includes Captain Demell Butler, classiest quarterback in their district, with Rea a superb defensive back. Other names who have splendid records, according to the Albany News are: Burlison, Yeazy, Todd, Allen, Sherwood, Childress, Robinson, in the line; with Pate, B. Butler, Leech Demoss and Glass, backs. Coach Downing is their mentor.

The Albany News likewise stated that whoever won the Comanche-Stephenville game would be the next contestants to the Albany team.

CHEVROLET PUTTING "ZIP" INTO BUSINESS

Detroit, Mich. Dec. 2.—Pointed indications of a resumption of buying interest throughout the nation are manifest here today in hundreds of reports on file at the home office of the Chevrolet Motor Company revealing that the reception accorded the new 1931 Chevrolet Six during the early days of the national showing had only one parallel in the history of the company.

To meet the needs of dealers, the manufacturing organization consisting of twenty domestic plants is working on a tentative production schedule for the month of November of more than 60,000 cars. Despite the fact that this is a high goal for the month, the output of cars has already fallen considerably behind orders already booked, the sales division reported.

Telegrams from dealers and field officials in all parts of the country, offering an excellent cross-section of the public attitude, reveal that despite general business conditions unusual buying enthusiasm is being displayed. Particular interest is centering on the new sport models in the line, as well as the new commercial cars which are constantly accounting for a larger proportion of each year's output.

STOVE WOOD SOLD AS SOUVENIR BY LUBBOCK MAN

Another endurance flight record has been established. This time it's a case of hauling stove wood.

Frank Fletcher, editor of the Southland Sun, at Southland, nine miles southeast of Slaton, is responsible for the story that a Lubbock county man, J. A. Gausnell, left Fordyce, Ark., a few days ago with two tons of stove wood on his truck, and that he sold 1,000 pounds of it piece by piece as souvenirs for the folks enroute. The load consisted of pine knots, oak logs and hickory sticks.

Gausnell traveled via Texarkana, Dallas, Fort Worth, Abilene, Snyder, and Slaton, covering a distance of about 850 miles to bring the unsold portion of his cargo into port.

Scurry County Farmer Answer Farmer Letter

Recently there has appeared in the Times-Signal, letters from farmers favoring the enactment of a law to reduce the cotton acreage. I am sure that the writers of these letters are good men, who sincerely desire to bring relief to the farmers, but they have apparently overlooked the evil consequences that will inevitably follow the enactment of such a law.

If the law was enacted, it would very likely be declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court, and if held to be constitutional, it would fail to accomplish the desired purpose because of the fact that the law could not be enforced. Any law that is not backed up by public sentiment is bound to fail. If a really serious attempt was made to enforce the law, an army of officers, spies and surveyors would be required, whose salaries and expenses would amount to far more than any possible gain due to the supposed action of cotton.

In order to have any chance whatever of being effective a uniform cotton acreage reduction law would necessarily have to be enacted by all of the cotton producing states, for if the legislature of Texas enacted the law, and any of the other cotton states failed to do so, the farmers of those states would increase their acreage and thus gain the major part of any advance that might occur in the price of cotton.

But suppose all of the cotton growing states enact the law, what would follow? If any considerable advance in the price of cotton occurred, the farmers of other countries would increase their acreage, and reap the lion's share of the benefits, while we would be burdened with the expense of maintaining an army of enforcement officers without receiving but little if any of the benefits of their work.

It is a fact that the cotton acreage can be increased in other countries, to the extent of supplying the world demand for cotton, even though the United States did not produce a single bale for export. As a matter of fact, due to the constantly increasing quantity of short inferior staple produced here, there has already occurred a lowering of the demand for American cotton in the markets of the world. On the other hand, in India, they are producing a better staple cotton than formerly, and cotton produced in India is a serious competitor in the markets of the world with American cotton.

One of the things that is the matter with the cotton farmers is that they have depended too much upon laws and government agencies for a solution of their problems. There is an ever increasing army of state and federal agents sticking their noses into the private business affairs of the people, who instead of rendering a service to the people they pretend to serve, are in fact a burden, because every dollar paid out by the state or federal government is paid by the people.

Those favoring the enactment of the cotton acreage reduction law are afraid to come out openly and state the real reason for the enactment of the law, i. e. to increase the price of cotton, but they are stating that the purpose is to conserve the fertility of the soil. They cite the laws regulating the oil and gas industry as corresponding in principle to the proposed cotton acreage law. The principle is not the same. The oil and gas stored in the earth is limited in quantity, and when it is all taken out of the earth it cannot be replaced, and the laws governing the oil industry are designed to prevent the waste of a natural product that when exhausted cannot be replaced, whereas the fertility of the soil may be completely exhausted, yet the soil can again be rebuilt, and made to produce even more abundantly than when it was first put into cultivation.

Has it come to pass that the farmers of Texas and of the South, knowing that in order to promote their own welfare, the cotton acreage should be reduced, and a system of crop diversification adopted, that will replace and conserve the fertility of the soil, find it necessary to ask the legislature to enact laws to compel them to do so? If that is the case, then indeed is our cause a hopeless one.

The low price of cotton is not the sole cause of the distress that prevails among the farmers of Texas, but space will not permit me at this time to discuss that phase of the matter. Even if it was proven and admitted fact (which I deny) that the passage of the proposed law would cause the price of cotton to advance to a level that would make the growing of cotton profitable, I would oppose it, because it is a matter about which the legislature has no right to legislate, and the principle involved in the proposed law is in conflict with the Declaration of Independence, and the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Texas.

Shall we in the vain hope of securing a few paltry dollars surrender the priceless heritage bequeathed to us by our forefathers?

If the legislature has the right to limit the number of acres of cotton that a farmer may plant, or to compel farmers to follow any system of rotation of crops, it also has the right to regulate and control every phase of the farmers' business. The number of horses, cows, hogs, sheep, chickens, etc., that a farmer shall keep, the number and kind of implements used, the kind, size and arrangement of barns, the number of hours per day, and the number of days per week devoted to labor on the farm, the way and manner in which the land should be prepared, crop planted, cultivated and harvested, would all be matters that the government could control by law, if this proposed cotton acreage reduction law is enacted and accepted as the law of the state. Before we place ourselves before the world as admitting that we are incapable of managing our own business, and therefore desire to be reduced to the status of mere serfs, let us exhaust every other means of relief. While we are considering the matter it will probably help some if (without waiting for other farmers to act) we reduce our own cotton acreage, and experiment a little by planting on the favored spots of the farm, peas, beans, onions, potatoes, tomatoes, turnips, and other food crops for the family to eat, and also increase the acreage of feed crops to feed the livestock.

We will never get out of the predicament we are now in, until we change our methods. It may be a long and painful process, but the farmers themselves must eventually solve the farm problem.

THE NEW CHEVROLET SIX

Strikingly beautiful, fleet and smart —a masterpiece of Fisher styling

In the entire field of modern coachcraft no symbol has come to mean more to the buyer of a motor car than Body by Fisher. And never has Fisher's superiority been more strikingly exemplified than in the beautiful new bodies of the Bigger and Better Chevrolet Six!

Front view of the new Chevrolet Sport Coupe

Working with the added advantage of a lengthened wheelbase, Fisher designers have been able to achieve in the new Chevrolet a degree of smartness, comfort and impressiveness hitherto considered exclusive to cars far higher in price.

Inside and out, scores of refinements stamp this car as a masterpiece of modern coachwork. Radiator, headlamps and tie-bar are artistically grouped to create an unusually attractive ensemble. Mouldings sweep back in a graceful, unbroken line to blend with the smart new body contours. And new colors lend a new individuality. Interiors, too, are exceptional in every way. The new mohair and broadcloth upholstery is tailored with exceptional smartness. Seats are wider and deeper and more luxuriously cushioned. A deeper windshield and wider windows give better vision for both driver and passengers. And beautiful new hardware, of modern design, lends a final note of charm.

Many mechanical improvements have also been provided in the chassis of this Bigger and Better Six. Among these are a stronger frame; easier steering; a more durable clutch; a smoother transmission; and engine refinements which make the new Chevrolet a car you will be happy to drive—as well as proud to own.

The Bigger and Better Chevrolet Six is now on display in our showrooms. See it. Drive it! Learn for yourself that it is the Great American Value!

It was a notable tribute which Texas voters paid Colonel William E. Talbot when they ran him ahead of his ticket in practically every precinct in the state.

People unaware of the dogged persistence with which good Texas Democrats "vote 'er straight," might miss entirely the significance of the Colonel's remarkable showing.

The Colonel's was not a Republican vote in any sense of the word. It was popular acceptance, delicately expressed, of the economic principles preached by a man who labored under the hopeless handicap of an unpopular political faith.

Now that he may cast aside, once and for all, the halls and chains of political prejudice and partisan suspicion, the Colonel can better carry on with the work so auspiciously begun.

Texasans are not going to permit Colonel Talbot to be buried in the graveyard of political oblivion. Every one of the thousands of votes received above the party total was an invitation for the Colonel to lead the state into a land of industrial milk and honey.

There are community Chest Weeks in Texas.

All over the state, Texas men and women are apportioning a share of their plenty to those who are less fortunate than themselves.

Half a million dollars is a lot of money, but—when you stop to think of it—there are men in both of these big Texas cities who could give the whole amount and scarcely miss it.

It appears that the total of Texas' Thanksgiving contribution to the cause of organized charity will exceed four millions of dollars.

Conditions this year challenge the humanity of man. Babies can die while we quibble, and despair will attend procreation.

THE TOWN DOCTOR "DOCTOR OF TOWNS" SOMETHING A LITTLE DIFFERENT

What can be done when there is the will to do it, was recently evidenced by the almost phenomenal success of a "Business Confidence Week," originated and promulgated by the International Association of Lions Clubs and carried out by Lions Clubs in co-operation with other thinking civic organizations.

Over two hundred million dollars in increased retail business was reported for the week. Two hundred million dollars worth of merchandise taken off the shelves of American Merchants, now means close to half a billion worth of orders for American manufacturers very soon. THAT means money in the pocket of all American people, including yourself.

Like everything else that is attempted in a BIG way, there were those who said it could not be done—just another case of the fellow who says "It can't be done," being interrupted by somebody doing it!

Now that it has beendone as nothing similar has ever been done before, there still are those who will say that they do not see why a man should be a part of an organization such as these Lions Clubs. They will say that they can not afford it; that such organizations never do anything worth while; that there is nothing for them to gain in being a part of the group. Such people always remind one of the story of the farmer who when he saw his first giraffe said "Hell, there aint no such animal."

There are still a few communities whose leaders are blind to the advantages of being a part of a plan for the good of all. Those communities failed to take in thousands of dollars in increased business in the weeks just past, all because of the failure to recognize the opportunity.

There is no such thing as a self made man. Any thinking person knows that, for without the help of others no man can "get" anywhere. Likewise a community can never be what it can and will be, with the right kind of a Service Club—one which works on the basis of Analyze, Plan and Execute—backed up by a working, ACCOMPLISHING, national organization.

My hat is off to anybody or any group that DOES things, and certainly no one can doubt that to be responsible for $200,000,000 increase business in 1930 is DOING SOMETHING.

Angelo Baker Glad That It Came His Way

Argotane Beats Any Medicine He Ever Saw For Troubles Like His, He Says

"I am certainly glad Argotane came in my way," says Ed S. Cole, a well-known baker employed at Herring Brothers Bakery and Grocery, residing at 117 N. Main St., San Angelo, Texas in an interview. "My health had been broken down so bad for two years," continued Mr. Cole. "My stomach was all upset. My food would sour and about two months ago I got poisoned from some food or other and I was in what I might call an awful fix. I had sharp shooting pains through my left and right side, especially at night, and I want to tell you I suffered intense agony. I was con- sidered and at times would nearly die with headaches. I was in a miser- able shape and got to where I almost had to quit work. "I began to pick up in just a day or so after I began taking Argotane and I have been faithfully improving ever since. My stomach feels strong and I can eat and digest many things that I could not eat be- fore without suffering afterwards. I'm not constipated like I was, my headaches are broken up and my appetite is enormous. My side is feeling better right along. I have suffered a long time and have tried many different kinds of medicines but Argotane beats them all. I could never get the right relief until I began taking it, therefore, I have the best of reason for thinking it's the best there is." Genuine Argotane may be bought in Snyder at the Stinson Drug Co.

Christmas Spirit Snyder stores are surely taking on the Christmas spirit as they are decorating with Santa Claus and all kindred spirits to get the Christ- mas thought into every being. That's fine

1930 Boy Baby Is Both Valuable and Lucrative

White House Conference Statistics Show Increase in Life Expectations; Drop in Infant Deaths

Washington, D. C.—The boy baby whose economic value at birth has been estimated by statisticians as $9,833 in a family with an income of $2,500 a year may logically expect to have ten years more of living than the 1910 baby. This is revealed by figures presented by experts of the White House Conference on Child Health and Protection which will meet in Washington November 19-22. Further encouraging statistics supplied by the experts reveal that in 1929 the infant mortality rate dropped to 66.2 deaths among each 1,000 births, the second lowest ever recorded in the United States. President Hoover's purpose in calling the White House Conference on Child Health and Protection, according to Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, Secretary of the Interior and chairman of the Conference, is to find out exactly what conditions of child education, health and mental well-being prevail and what further steps ought to be taken. "The United States Public Health Service has recently stated that in these enlightened days, no child need die of smallpox or diphtheria," the Secretary recalls, "also that it is possible to guard against typhoid by sanitary control of water and milk supplies; that children bitten by mad dogs may be saved by the Pasteur treatment. "All this is splendid but as yet not every community knows how to make use of the precautions that are available and much still remains to be done in the way of research and investigation. "In the findings of the Conference there will be given to the people of the United States the answer of the scientific world to President Hoover's challenge that it should produce some formula which will enable all those who care for children to mold the boys and girls of today into the stalwarts to whom we may safely entrust our hopes of the future."

Strange Case Lubbock Man Speaks For Crazy Water

Thought To Be Hopeless Yet He Lived To Tell His Story

Three weeks ago today, I came to the Crazy Water Hotel on a stretcher from the city of Lubbock, Texas, with what the doctors called Typhoid Spine, and they told me that there was no medicine that would cure me. I started drinking Crazy Water and taking the baths, and on the 12th day after arriving, I took to the wheel chair and on the 17th day I started walking on crutches and can now walk without them, so I feel if Crazy Water will do that for me I cannot say enough for it. "When I would get constipated, I'd feel so sleepy, tired and worn-out. "When one feels this way, work is much harder to do, especially farm work. I would have dizzy headaches when I could hardly see to work, but after I read of Black-Draught, I began taking it. I did not have the headache any more. THANKS JACK MAXWELL FOR HELP TO B. & P. W. CLUB

Jack Maxwell of E. R. Squibb & Sons, manufacturing chemists, was a Snyder visitor just previous to the business carnival produced by the B. & P. W. Club. The company which he represents donated nobly for the cause of charity in Snyder.

In a letter to the Times-Signal, yesterday, Mr. Maxwell said: "I was very sorry that it was impossible for me to return to Snyder so that I might witness personally the carnival that was put on by the Business and Professional Women's Clubs of your city. I sincerely hope that it was a big success and I wish to assure you right now that if they plan to have another one next year, I shall arrange my plans to be there in person."

Thank you, Mr. Maxwell, and on behalf of the B. & P. W. Club of Snyder, the Times-Signal thanks you again and will look forward to meeting you next year. Wish to assure you now, that the carnival is a yearly affair, so that you might arrange your schedule at this time.

Furthermore, if you are a single chap, we shall have a dozen of our fairest maidens to be a honor guard during your time in Snyder. If you are married, and your marriage license is null and void outside your voting precinct, our fairest maidens will likewise show you every courtesy and honor. Wish you a happy yuletide and business new year of 1931. Another thought, the Times-Signal showed your "thank you" to Lee T. Stinson, and he has agreed to join this paper, likewise, in making you welcome to our city. So all in all, Mr. Maxwell, Snyder is 100 percent in its wholesome thanks and welcome to you.

WARNING ISSUED

Three Ford cars were stolen from the public square, Saturday night, a warning that no car should be left standing, without it either being locked or some other precaution used.

Unemployment is causing every department of the city and county law heads to keep their eyes open every minute of the day, and night. "Buck-shot" properly placed is said to be one of the best preventatives in the world for the person who steal a car.

Play Bridge or TRACT Ferguson

A number of times in these articles the writer has called attention to bluff bids that have either worked for or against the bluff bidder. Here, as a matter of variety, is an English version of the same thing, only over there such bidding is designated "Spout-Bridge."

He could have doubled the "Two Clubs" bid, which would, of course, have been a mistake, as A would then have been obliged to bid his Diamonds, in which, however, he could not have gone game. Or he could have left in the "Two Clubs" bid, when A would have been hoist with his own petard, and would have gone down on his contract.

No score, rubber game. Z dealt and bid one spade. A passed, Y bid two diamonds and B passed. Z now bid two hearts, A passed and Y bid two spades. All passed and A opened the ten of clubs. How should Z play the hand so that he can score a grand slam against any defense?

Solution: Y should win the first club trick with the ace and lead the ace of diamonds, on which Z should discard his last club. Y should then lead a low diamond and trump in Z's hand with a low spade. Z should now lead the ace of hearts and discard Y's two losing clubs. At trick six Z should lead a low spade, winning the trick in Y's hand with the ace. Y should now lead another low diamond, which Z should trump with the queen of spades. At trick eight, Z should lead a low spade and win the trick in Y's hand with the nine. Y should now lead a low diamond which Z should trump with the ten of spades. At trick ten, Z should lead his last spade, winning the trick in Y's hand with the jack. Y's diamonds are now set up and must win the remaining tricks.

It is a fairly easy problem but must be handled very carefully or a trick can easily be lost. Follow the solution as given very carefully and compare it with your own. Such comparison may very easily be of advantage.

POLAR NEWS

By Mrs. J. A. Martin

We must add to the many things we were thankful for last week, a good rain for Polar. That is getting to be a common thing but it is fine any how.

The writer happened to be a Snyder visitor last week and the happiest looking person we saw was a farmer selling some good looking sausage that would make one hungry. The farmer was the first one to fail this year too, and then everybody else failed, but he will always be the first to smile.

A number of Polar people actually "muddled" it to Snyder Saturday. That is they said the mud balled up between the wheel and fender until the car was almost stopped.

The Juniors of Polar rendered a Thanksgiving program at the church Thursday night, which was enjoyed by all present. Bro. S. B. Wilkerson is not only a fine gospel preacher but a well educated gentleman and a fine historian.

Only a few met for prayer services Sunday morning, but all present received a blessing. Brother George Elkins was leader. "Pray without Ceasing," "The Sincere Desire of the Heart is Prayer," "Pray to the Father Who Seeth in Secret," are well to remember.

Sunday school attendance was very small Sunday, not on account of bad weather, but because people were too lazy. (At least that is what they say when you ask them why they were not present). "We made our prayer unto our God and set a watch against them day and night." That is what one great bible character did and that is what our Sunday School workers can do. Yes, and "Right will always win."

Senior B. Y. P. U. meeting following Sunday School Sunday afternoon and rendered the following program: Subject: "Our Debt to God."

Leader—Miss Iris Bullock. Scripture—Several members. Introduction—Thanksgiving—B. P. Riddle.

We Are Debtors—Miss Bessie Burnett. Our Debt to God—Mrs. J. A. Martin. Special Song—Miss Dell Marie Cumble.

Our Debt to Man—Mrs. Jimmy Riddle. Paying Our Debt—J. A. Martin. Senior B. Y. P. U. will meet on Friday night hereafter.

Singing was not very well attended Sunday night. We couldn't tell what was the matter by looking but we believe the "Railroad Blues" would have been more appropriate for our singers than "God Be With You."

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Moore, Jeff Cargile, and Neil Helfner attended the Kent County singing convention at Clairmont Sunday. They reported a small attendance.

A Mr. Ratcliff of Brownfield, passed through Polar last week going to a ranch near Coopers Mountain. Mr. Ratcliff formerly lived in these woods so he was greeting friends as he went by. He came from his home by horseback, so not all endurers are dead.

Mrs. W. A. Clanton, Mrs. Will Sellars, and Burl Clanton left Saturday for Luther, where they are visiting relatives this week.

HAPPY DAYS HAVE COME AGAIN

Birth records in this week's Times-Signal show that nine births were recorded since our last publication. Congratulations galore, whole hand-fuls and armloads are herewith extended to the mothers and the baby boys and girls.

One can never know at what point, Scurry county starts to grow, but happy to state, this old-fashioned Spanish custom of boys and girls being added to the population never diminishes... and that's fine. Air, climate, and folks simply keep old Scurry county in the news of the world, and that's something else to crow about.

THE Ford Motor Company's faith in the future of the automobile, is evidenced by the fact that it is spending more than $50,000,000 for new plants and improvements in the United States and in foreign branches and associated companies.

Long Beach, California—This plant, recently completed to serve Southern California, has a capacity of 400 cars a day. Operating at capacity it employs 2,500 men.

Pleading Religious Tolerance

By Thomas M. Broadfoot

This is the season of Thanksgiving, and the heart of America is turned back to first principles of American institutionalism. And rightly should we meditate upon these great fundamental principles, for they reach to the very depths and enter into the very fiber and wood of American civilization, and thus mean everything to our own future development.

structure nor to procedure according to fairly set rules. For one religious body to undertake to apply the boycott rule against another by threatening excommunication of its own members for attendance upon the other's services, is religious intolerance. Such action is to plead the intellectual incapacity of the one threatened. Such an adviser always recognizes the weakness of his own position and the strength of the other; and his gesture should be taken as an indication to invest.

What is religious intolerance? Our lexicographers say that "tolerance" is willingness to bear with others in their opposing views and teachings; and that "intolerance" is a refusal to allow to others their own opinions, or teachings. Then it behooves those who preach tolerance to understand what they preach, lest by the practice of intolerance they place themselves in the predicament of retaining the mote in their own eyes while offering to extract the mote from the brother's eye.

To undertake to swing a civic, or patriotic, organization to curtail the liberty of speech by threatening the boycott is unpatriotic in principle and intolerance of the deepest die. Even to undertake such a boycott by persuasion is intolerant and inexcusable under the flag of liberty.

America is established upon the foundation of religious tolerance. But to preach tolerance and practice intolerance is not American. On the other hand, to strive by any means to prevent one from speaking against what he believes, or knows, to be wrong is to strike a solar-plexus blow at religious tolerance by striking under the belt at that other foundation stone, "Freedom of Speech." These are the Siamese Twins of American Liberty.

Here is the spirit of American tolerance. It is mentioned because it illustrates an extreme case, though a true one. A Ku Klux went to hear a Catholic priest in a mission service. The priest had delivered a strong appeal for the faith of his church. On meeting the priest the following day, the Ku Klux was asked: "Well, how did you like my address last night?" The answer came back in the true American spirit of religious tolerance: "The address was fine. I enjoyed hearing your plea. Of course I do not agree with all you said; but I'd give my life for your right to say it."

ATTEND CONFERENCE Mrs. Joe Strayhorn, Mrs. R. H. Odom, Mrs. W. B. Lemons, Mrs. Ike Boren, and Mrs. A. M. Curry attended the Missionary Conference at Colorado, Tuesday.

Snyder Tigers—

of the day, tapped center for four yards—off average for him—and the fast little McClinton breezed around right end for seven more. Clark did his bit on the next two plays, chalking up a first down. A couple more charges at the Haskell forward wall, and McClinton was through right tackle for the counter. His try from placement was wide, but Haskell was offside and the point was awarded.

Haskell was off on its best sustained attack of the game, soon afterward, but the Tigers' penchant for breaking up passes ended it. Kimbrough, however, showed some of the stuff that makes him one of the area's best class B gridsters. He can pass, and to prove it, shot some fifty ones that would have counted had his receivers held on to the ball. A bullet toss to Pittman netted 17 yards, and then Kimbrough shook off a gang of tacklers to crash through for a 14-yard gain. Another pass to Pittman brought seven yards, but Pittman's toss on the next play was intercepted by Smith as the half ended.

Haskell came back into the fray badly crippled, and Coach Richey couldn't send in the reserve strength booster by the Tigers. Bynum, end, left the game with a badly injured leg, and J. Smith played the last half with his left arm taped to his body.

At that, it was another break that gave the Mooremen their chance to tally again. Soon after the half opened, McClinton's kick was muffed by Sherman, and Clark, down on the play, covered the pigskin on the Indian 12-yard stripe. McClinton stepped the distance on the next play, and added the extra point.

This little chap "Me" who accounted for all the points, was a tricky stepper today. In addition, his kicks, if not above average, were ranking with Kimbrough's, and he did all the Tiger passing. The tosses counted for little gain, and the quarter called them when it evidently wasn't necessary because the power house was working.

Johnson bruised through the line for good gains throughout the afternoon, and he and Clark showed strong in backing the Tiger wall, if backing was needed. Clements and Drinkard were in the midst of the business, and Greenfield at left end, played a flashing game, crashing through time after time to get redskin ball toters on the other side of the line.

Kimbrough had a good day, but not like other days he has had this season. His running mate, Pittman, checked in with as good a game. He was able to make yards, and did his share of the passing. Haskell's line was bolstered by the work of J. Clifton, Gilstrap and Simmons.

After the Tigers' last score, the final period resolved into a see-saw affair, with Snyder holding the edge. The power plays continued to net first downs—Snyder collected 21 during the game, while Haskell annexed seven—and the Indians were forced to attempt aerial work that proved futile.

Officials—Daniel (Simmons) referee; Sims (Simmons) umpire; Bounds (Simmons) head linesman.

Other Notes of Game The Times-Signal observed that no finer Tiger Pep Squad ever went through their paces better than between halves of the game. Much credit is due their sponsor, Mary Alice Underwood. The Band under Millard Shaw, and Drum Major Billy Beggs were simply immense. The entire contingent pranced their stuff nobly. The Haskell Band and Pep Squad likewise were mighty fine and good.

Editor Sam Roberts of the Haskell Free Press was on the sidelines, and Sam just couldn't understand it all to see his team defeated, but the breaks and fate, itself, was with the Tigers.

The Tigers again showed Team Play that was superb. They were all in there, co-operating like a record-breaking outfit, which they were, and are.

Stanton, running at Marfa, 32 to 0, will next play the Tigers for B-District winners of Eight and Nine. The winner of this tilt, which will be Snyder, will then play the winner of District Five and Ten.

folks should realize this in their subscriptions. The writer of this column knows whereof we speak, for the past four years, we have handled Snyder correspondence in the dailies.

The triple entente of the Reporter-News who have been so fine to the Times-Signal include Prexy Anderson, sports editor; his clean-up scrapper and news-gatherer Bob Whiskey, and back of these two gentlemen, stand the Managing Editor, Col. Max Bentley. Thanks to these boys, and we must not overlook Editor Frank Grimes. Boys, we're fer you until the bench breaks, and then some.

Snyder and Scurry county owe you a generous vote of thanks and hope you all may have more than one turkey for Christmas.

HASKELL GOOD SPORTS Haskell Indians and their horde of rooters landed in Snyder, early Thanksgiving morning, loaded up with a real band and pep squad. They were as fine an organized team activity as ever came to Snyder.

Good, clean, honest-to-Jawn sports and it was a pleasure to meet them, and to better know them and Snyder always welcomes you with a glad hand, whether our team defeats you, or you turn the tables on us. Nothing like being fair and good sportsman at every turn in the road.

"GIRL OF THE GOLDEN WEST" THRILLING ROMANCE AT PALACE

Ann Harding Scores As Heroine of Famous Belasco Play, Now Brought to Snyder

The most famous of all stories of the gold rush days, David Belasco's "Girl of the Golden West," opens at the Palace Theatre, Monday, as a First National and Vitaphone special with Ann Harding as the girl.

There has probably never been a more appealing actress in this famous role, and the magnificent outdoor settings of the picture give the production a sweep that was impossible on the stage.

The story is a drama that is vital in its simplicity and stark in its revelation of human passions running high against a background of greed for gold.

It is a love story of redemption and regeneration, James Rennie playing the lead, Dick Johnson, who is also secretly known as Ramirez, the road agent. Rennie is simply splendid in this part, and gives a characterization that is filled with the spirit of the old West.

Harry Bannister is highly effective as Jack Rance, the sheriff, who loves the girl, but is rejected by her. Especial praise is due to the casting of a number of small but important character parts, among them those played by Ben Hendricks, Jr., J. Farrell MacDonald, George Cooper, John Walker, Arthur Stone, Arthur Housman and Joe Girard.

"The Girl of the Golden West," as a picture, is taken from the original play, and not from the grand opera version which appeared later. The action of the story moves fast, and the interest is always tense. John Francis Dillon, the director, has obtained the true flavor of the gold rush days.

The screen version of the Belasco play, and the additional dialogue, were written by Waldemar Young. One of the features of the story is the novel twist at the ending. "The Girl of the Golden West" is a picture that you can't afford to miss.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST

Thos. M. Broadfoot, Minister

CHURCH NIGHT SPECIALS will open again next Sunday night. In time it will feature many different phases of modern spiritual life, drawing lessons from all departments and activities of life that will add momentum to the forward march of our Christian Civilization.

At the Sunday evening program, the church will feature the first of a series of HOME messages which will tend to establish the American home on firmer foundations for future building. The first of these will be: CHRISTIAN COURTSHIP AND MATRIMONY. Its purpose will be to offer God's revealed principles of true Christian courtship, from which should be developed homes of happiness permanently established.

What should I look for in choosing a mate? How should I investigate? Who should I choose? What qualities should I seek? What revelations should I make? These and other questions will be answered from the Word. Your own questions, mailed or handed to the pastor, will be given special, serious and honest attention. Send them now.

Thomas M. Broadfoot, Minister. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Clark, Sr., and Clarabelle, visited their daughter and sister, Mrs. A. M. Belsler at Dallas, last week.

For a Healthy Soviet

WHAT effect is the vast canning industry which is being built up in Soviet Russia going to have on the public health in that ill-fed country? At present its people are living largely on root crops and salt pork, but its canning industry plans to increase its production by 1932-33 to four billion cans of 400 grams (about 14 ounces each), and in 1933-34 the output of this industry is expected to reach six billion cans. Actual orders for more than $35,000,000 worth of American canning machinery have been placed.

The annual production and consumption of these foods has been rapidly increasing since the Civil War," said this report, "yet we know of no impairment to the general well-being of the people resulting from it. Canned foods are cooked in hermetically sealed containers which prevent recontamination until opened. The nutritive and caloric values of the same fruit or vegetable, fresh or canned, are essentially the same."

"Canned foods," it concludes, "whether prepared in the home or in commercial canneries, regardless of the type of container, are sound, wholesome and safe. Their continued use is commended. The advantages to the American health from the use of canned foods in the diet can hardly be overestimated. . . . The nation may have faith in its canned foods."

Our Health Improved

The above question can be answered by quoting the report on the effect of canned fruits and vegetables upon this nation's health made by the Committee on Fruits, Vegetables and their Products of the American Public Health Association.

Those present were Mmes. Forest Sears, Wayne Boren, Wraymond Sims, A. R. Norred, C. F. Sentell, G. B. Clark, Jr., J. G. Hicks, Ixon Joyce, Wayne Williams, Homer Snyder, Alfred McGlaun, Joe Graham, Melvin Blackard, and Miss Hattie Herm, members, and Mmes. Earl Fish, J. R. Hicks, Horace Leath and Melvin Newton, guests.

"THE LAST SUPPER"

Special contribution written for the Times-Signal by Miss Vernelle Stimson, head of the Art Department of the Snyder Grammar School. The article is especially appropriate for the present season, and on behalf of our readers, we thank Miss Stimson and hope she will write more articles for reproduction.

"THE LAST SUPPER"

The Artist: "The Last Supper" was painted by Leonardo da Vinci (pronounced Lay-o-nar'do dah Ven'chee) an Italian. He has been called the "Universal Genius" because he was a master as an engineer, a sculptor, a naturalist, an author and a painter, and because he took the theme nearest to hand and presented it so that a Greek or an Englishman would claim it for his own.

Da Vinci brought changes into the world of painting. First among these was a new conception of composition or arrangement of pictures; his figures were not placed in a straight line. He pointed out that there should be in each picture a center of interest which the eye can locate at once, and that this falls naturally into the upper half of the picture and is most often a single head. His pictures are not a series of episodes, but rather a unified, simplified subject. And doing away with the horizontal lines which his predecessors had used all together, he placed his figures in more compact grouping, the triangle.

These and other changes we note in his influence over other Florentine painters, particularly Andrea del Sarto and Raphael. He surpassed all others, before and after, in his analysis of human character, in depicting the mysteries of personality. No better example can there be found of his work than this picture, "The Last Supper" which illustrates this phase of his genius—the twelve disciples and Christ, each a distinct individual. This work was executed in 1494 during Da Vinci's 20-year sojourn at court of the Duke of Milan in the refectory of the Santa Maria Del Grazie.

The Picture: An idea of the immensity of the painting can be had when we realize that the figures are twice life-size. The subject is the dramatic moment when Christ utters the words: "I say unto you that one of you shall betray me;" the apostles start in amazement questioning Christ and each other. Background: Interior of a room, simple yet spacious, beyond which is seen through open windows one of the most beautiful landscapes in Italian Art; these windows also serve to let light enter the dim room. In the foreground is a long table in white linen cover slightly ornamented. Seated or half-standing along one side and at two ends

JOBS FOR YOUNG WOMEN
 It is the ambition of every young woman to have money of her own, to associate with successful people, to get into a profession where she can have pleasant work and a growing bank account, and to spend her money as she pleases.

Secretarial positions with big business concerns offer just such opportunities. There is Miss Jewel Murray, who took our Private Secretarial Course a few years ago, and who is now private secretary to the Superintendent of the Fort Worth & Denver Railway Company at a salary of $1800 a year; and there is Jewel Hatton, who took the same course a few years ago, became private secretary to a prominent West Texas capitalist, at a salary of $2100 a year, and who has become financially independent through the salary she is earning and through the opportunities for investment her position provides.

The Draughton Training will prepare you for a starting position where your future will be limited only by your own efforts and ambition. It has placed more than 100 students with the Radford Wholesale Grocery Company, more than fifty with the four banks of Abilene, twenty-eight being employed at this time, and more than a score with the big West Texas Utilities Company.

If you cannot enter college at this time, you can take up the work at home until you can enter College, save money on board, and be ready for a position much earlier. Clip and mail this to Draughton's College, Abilene, Texas, for full particulars as to how we can train and place you within a few months. 25-ttc

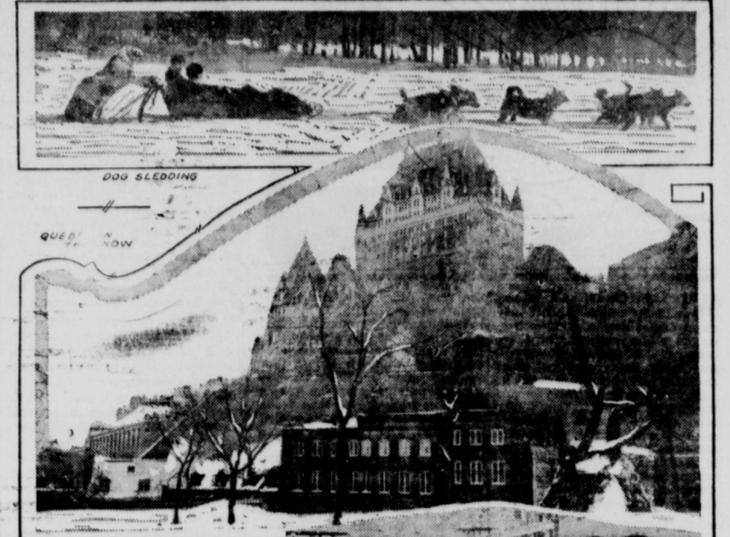

JOBS FOR YOUNG MEN
 It is the ambition of every young man to have money of his own, to associate with successful people, and to get into a profession, where there are broad opportunities for advancement.

Accounting positions with big business concerns offer such opportunities. There is Ray Weldon, a farmer boy, starting a few years ago at a modest salary and who is now auditor for the McMann Corporation at a salary of $450 a month; and there is John Herbert, starting in the same way a few years ago with the West Texas Utilities Company, and who is now accountant for the Cities Service Company at a salary of $300 a month. With million dollar concerns of this kind, these young men, still in their twenties, may reasonably expect to double or triple their incomes within the coming years.

The Draughton Training will open up similar opportunities for you to get started in this highly profitable profession. It has placed more than 100 students with the Radford Wholesale Company, more than fifty with the banks of Abilene alone, twenty-eight being employed at this time, and more than a score with the big West Texas Utilities Company. With concerns of this kind your future will be limited only by your efforts and ambition.

If you cannot enter school at this time, you can start the work at home as thousands of others have already done, save money on board when you enter College, and be ready for a position much earlier. Clip and mail this to Draughton's College, Abilene, Texas, for full particulars as to how we can train and place you within a few months. 25-ttc.

Quebec, Center of Winter Sports in North America, Ideal Setting in Which to Celebrate Holiday Season

No city in the world has the natural advantages Quebec possesses for winter sports. On a sunny winter day, the St. Lawrence below sparkles like a mammoth jewel. When the soft flakes fall, the broad river dims into misty loveliness. Stately and dominating in snow-fall and sunshine alike, the huge rock of the Citadel stands impressive, epitomizing the past. Every trace for miles around wears garlands of crystal. Snow-fields roll away virginal and unending. Far-off mountains raise their frosted bulks as a backdrop to complete the beautiful scene.

Lovely old Quebec provides an ideal setting in which to spend Christmas week, with its parties, dances and excursions into the snow-bound countryside. Skiing, skating, tobogganing on Quebec's celebrated triple-track slide, crowned by Christmas dinner at the Chateau Frontenac is a program which makes a strong appeal.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Wilhelm and son, Henry, spent Thanksgiving in the home of the former's sister, Mrs. O. H. Kunkle, at Abilene.

Sayre Turkey Pool Indicates Splendid Game

So Successful With Turkeys Hope to Start Poultry Pool Soon

Scurry county has had experience recently with a turkey pool, with results that were satisfying, according to many local farmers who have come to the Times-Signal office.

The Sayre, Okla., Turkey Pool Association and Sayre Chamber of Commerce have been so successful in pooling turkeys in late years, that they are bent upon trying the experiment of handling poultry and its products in the same manner. Perhaps Snyder and Scurry county could well emulate what this hustling Oklahoma town has consummated. One of the good boosters for the Times-Signal hands the following announcement to us, which was sent out by the Sayre folks to their farmer friends, outlining the idea, and which states:

"There is no reason why we can not receive as much extra money for our chickens and eggs as we are receiving for our turkeys by pooling them. If we are loyal to each other and co-operate with the Sayre Chamber of Commerce as we have done in the turkey pool.

"After getting more thoroughly organized and becoming more experienced ourselves in marketing our turkeys, chickens and eggs, there is no reason why we should not establish our own dressing plant and prepare our poultry for the market and receive a still greater price for it. We ask that each poultry producer, whether you are a member of the Turkey Pool Association or not, give serious consideration to this matter and communicate with some member of this committee or with Mr. Milburn, the secretary-manager of the Sayre Chamber of Commerce.

"Sayre's experiment will be interesting to watch. The poultry industry has grown with such tremendous bounds in this country that marketing problems are beginning to assume serious proportions. If Sayre is on the right track it will open up a wide field for new endeavor."

Editor Note:—Co-operation and a real get-together of Scurry county interests could well follow the Sayre experiment. The experiment here but needs a leader, and those helpers are County Agent Logan and Home Demonstration Agent Jessie Lee Davis.
