SNYDER, TEXAS, FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 18, 1930.

NUMBER THIRTY-FIVE

MURPHY WELL IN IRA SECTION HITS PAY DIRT

When the Cub Murphy oil test, just southwest of Ira, hit a strong showing several days ago, the report that a big well was in the prospect brought a number of interested men to Snyder. Local hotels were crowded for two or three days.

Mr. Murphy stated Wednesday that the well was good for 25 to 30 barrels daily at its present depth, about 1,900 feet, but the drillers are sinking their bits deeper in an effort to hit better pay sand. The hole will go to at least 3,500 feet, and if no better showing is then found, pumps will be set for the shallow water. It is reported Tuesday that depth had made things look bad in the hole was allayed Wednesday when Mr. Murphy stated that the water had come from the top.

Many have gone out from Snyder to see what promises to be one of the best paying tests yet sunk in the county.

It is understood that the Moore test, northwest of Snyder, and the Camp Springs test, are both keeping on the job below 4,000 feet.

MANRY HEARS CALL OF DEATH

J. R. Manry, 71, Scurry pioneer and builder, died here Saturday, and was laid to rest in the Snyder Cemetery Sunday afternoon.

A longtime illness brought death to a man who was once a prominent merchant of Snyder, and who helped to build up the south side of the square. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Tom Hale and Mrs. R. W. Taylor, and two brothers, Roe Manry of Anadarko, Oklahoma, and Richard Manry of Denton.

Mr. Manry was never married. He came to West Texas with his brother when Scurry County was little more than a name, and settled in this section later. He was in the dry goods business for many years.

Known throughout this section as a man whose word was as good as gold and whose conduct was beyond reproach, Mr. Manry's death is mourned by a large group of the old timers.

He left here several years ago, and has since lived most of the time in Dunn and San Angelo. Two weeks ago Ernest Taylor, a nephew, and a doctor, brought him from San Angelo in extremely poor health.

Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church, with Rev. E. C. Lambert, officiating by Bro. W. M. Harris, assisting.

Active pallbearers: Joe Caton, Rich Miller, J. C. Dawson, Joe Monroe, Jeff Isaacs, and Joe Strayhorn. Honorary pallbearers were: Sam Head, J. C. Maxwell, H. P. Wellborn, Uncle Billie Nelson, N. M. Harpole, Jim Henderson, S. R. Fickas and A. D. Dodson.

LAMESA TEAM TAKES HONORS

Lamesa ran away with the three-cornered track and field meet to which Snyder was host last Friday, piling up a total of 52 points.

The Plainsmen led the Wolves of Colorado, who scored 37 points, by 15 points, while Snyder trailed with 20 points.

Lamesa presented a well balanced team which neither Snyder nor Colorado could stop. Most of the events, however, were extremely close, and the meet was in every respect successful and beneficial.

R. S. & P Crossing On Highway Fixed

Improvement of the R. S. & P crossing at the passenger depot was made last week-end, when a crew of men put in new boards on both tracks that cross the highway.

The crossing has been in bad condition for some time, travelers either slowing down to a snail's pace for the place or getting a severe bumping.

Local Agent A. C. Prentiss states that the railroad is always anxious to serve Snyder in every way possible, and that constant efforts are made to keep the road in good shape at crossings and elsewhere.

Special Services for Methodist Meeting Begin This Evening

Continuing through Easter night, the Methodist revival which started 11 days ago is expected to reach new heights in sermon and song this week-end. Appreciative crowds have heard all sermons and helped the choir in making the song services attractive.

Rev. Cal C. Wright, pastor, who is doing the preaching, is expecting great results from three special services which have been scheduled. Tonight (Friday) there will be a special service for high school students. Young people's services are being held at 7:30 each evening, a half hour before the preaching service, under direction of Miss Irene Meador, special church worker, from Westbrook.

A Knight Templar service, headed by a women's quartet from Rotan, will be held Sunday morning at the 11:00 o'clock hour. The Knight Templars will have charge of this hour of worship.

Sunday evening an Easter cantata, "Redemption Song," will be rendered by the choir. Special training for this rendition has been made, and a packed house is expected to greet the singers.

There will be no Saturday services.

Walton May Speak To Seniors May 23

T. O. Walton, president of the Texas A. & M. College, may deliver the address to the senior class of Snyder High School on May 23.

Superintendent C. Wedgworth has written the well known educator for an appointment, but no answer has yet been received.

The baccalaureate sermon will be preached on Sunday, May 18. No speaker has been selected.

CROWD HEARS CANTATA HERE

Nine women's voices and eight men's voices were heard Wednesday evening at the Baptist church in "The Crucifixion," an Easter cantata sponsored by the Musical Coterie, and directed by Thomas Dawes of Colorado. An appreciative audience, quickly sensing the spirit of the hour, seemed to catch each note and blend it perfectly, as the select choir had done, into the Easter spirit.

Mrs. A. C. Prentiss was accompanist. Following is the program:

Recitative (tenor), "And They Came to a Place Called Gethsemane"—Willard Jones, soloist.

Chorus (with contralto), "The Agony"—Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, soloist.

Chorus (with tenor), "Processional to Calvary"—M. Y. Lewis, soloist.

Chorus (with solo), "Fling Wide the Gates"—Mrs. Hugh Boren.

Recitative (bass), "And When They Came"—Homer Springfield, soloist.

Chorus—"The Mystery of Divine Humiliation"—Mrs. R. S. Snow, soloist.

Recitative (bass), "He Made Himself of No Reputation"—G. F. Smith, soloist.

Soprano solo, "The Majesty of Divine Humiliation"—Mrs. R. S. Snow, soloist.

Recitative (bass), "And as Moses Lifted Up the Serpent"—Homer Springfield, soloist.

Chorus—"God So Loved the World."

Recitative (tenor), "Jesus, My Father, Forgive Them"—M. Y. Lewis, soloist.

Duet, "So Thou Liffest Thy Divine Petition"—Meses. C. E. Fish and J. E. Sentell.

Recitative (bass), "And One of the Malefactors"—Homer Springfield, soloist.

Recitative (bass), "When Jesus Therefore Saw His Mother"—M. Y. Lewis, tenor; G. F. Smith, bass.

Recitative (bass), "Is It Nothing to You?"—Homer Springfield, soloist.

Chorus—"The Appeal of the Crucified."

Recitative and Chorus, "After This, Jesus Knowing That All Things were Now Accomplished"—Willard Jones, soloist.

Garner Back From Winer on Coast

G. M. D. Garner, one of Snyder's colorful Civil War veterans, returned the other day from California, where he has been visiting in the homes of his children, W. C. Garner of Ingwood, and Mrs. C. E. Moore of Owenmouth.

Mr. Garner, who has been in California since the cold weather started in earnest, says he enjoyed the sunshine of the coast but was glad to get back to West Texas.

Keeping Books on Poultry Raising in County Proves Profit Being Realized

Profit-showing facts and figures can do more to hoodoo the "hard times" demon than anything under the sun, according to Miss Jessie Lee Davis, county home demonstration agent, who tells, in the following manner, how to—but read it:

Mrs. R. E. Jones, one of the special poultry demonstrators of the County Home Demonstration Club, made a profit of $63.16 from her flock of 285 White Leghorns for each of the months of January, February and March. Average egg production of the 285 hens for the month of March was 21 1/4 eggs, five eggs per hen above standard production.

Mrs. Jones sold $270.10 worth of eggs, used $22.50, a total of $292. She spent $102.10 for feed for the three months, leaving her a net profit of $189.50.

The eight other poultry demonstrators for the home demonstration of the county are as follows: Mrs. J. R. Tenney, Fluvanna; Mrs. Delia Carrell McPherson, Scurry; Mrs. G. W. Lewis, Ira; Mrs. D. E. Watson, Gunnaway; and Mrs. H. C. Campbell, Gunnaway.

Girls Make Poultry Club Too.

Four-H Poultry Club girls are finding poultry profitable also. Sybil Gillmore, second year club member, of the Bethel Girls' Club, has 20 White Leghorn hens. They produced 322 eggs during the month of March. The eggs were sold for hatching purposes, and brought Sybil $7.54. The feed cost $2.80, leaving a net profit of $4.74, or 23 7/10 cents per hen.

THOUSANDS IN PLAINVIEW FOR DAIRY EXHIBIT

The dairy show at Plainview last week was witnessed by thousands of people from all over West Texas and New Mexico. The production contest was won by a Tech cow that produced 91.8 pounds of milk, with 3.00 pounds of butterfat, in 24 hours. Other winners produced 2.45 pounds to 2.02 pounds butterfat in 24 hours, according to contest rules. Under rules of the contest all cows were milked dry at 6:00 p. m. Sunday, then those who wished could milk at 2:00 a. m., 10:00 a. m., and 6:00 p. m. Monday, while those milking twice were checked at 6:00 a. m. and 6:00 p. m. Monday.

The winning 12 cows this year averaged 2.24 pounds butterfat, while last year the 12 winners averaged 1.96, which shows progress.

There were some 200 Jerseys on display, and all classes were full and highly complimented by the judge, who said that only as good in some classes. The National Dairy Show boasted a little over 300 entries in Jerseys last year. Why can't the Panhandle Plains Dairy Show be the biggest show in America, if we all do our best and keep it growing as it has these three years?

Two progressive dairy-minded Scurry County farmers were over to see, first-hand, the progress that has been made in the Panhandle Plains country, and they came back enthusiastic. Ben Brooks and C. W. Morton, as most everyone in the county knows, have some purebreds and some first class grade cows that are good producers.

Watt Scott, Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Maxwell, and County Agent W. O. Logan, also took in the show. The county agent and Ben Brooks attended the annual banquet for the exhibitors, directors, and this year the press were guests of the Association.

Watt Scott, Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Maxwell, and County Agent W. O. Logan, Also Took in the Show.

TWO CHANGES ON CITY FORCE

Two changes of city employees were made, effective immediately, when the aldermen met in called session Monday night.

Guy Adams now has the place as water superintendent formerly held by B. L. Baze, and Charley Burke has replaced John Johnson as city fireman and keeper of the fire hall.

The new men took their posts on Tuesday morning.

Easter Song Service Will Be at Sunrise

The Musical Coterie will sponsor a sunrise song service Easter morning at 7:00 o'clock in the First Christian church. This is a community program and it is desired that all who will and can be present and enjoy the service.

The following program will be rendered:

Song, "Praise Him," No. 237—Congregation.

Scripture reading—Rev. E. C. Lambert.

Prayer—Rev. Cal C. Wright.

Solo.

Quartet, "The Nail Scarred Hand"—Meses. Cody and Brown, Mrs. Cody and Miss Smith.

Duet—Meses. Maurine Stinson and Louise Carlton.

Chorus, "The Holy City"—Snyder High School Choral Club.

Solo—Willard Jones.

Duet, "Tis Midnight in the Garden"—Meses. Hamilton and Dixon.

Song, "All Hail Emmanuel"—Congregation.

Benediction.

Poultry Specialists Make $375.30 Net

Five poultry demonstrators in Scurry County show the following interesting facts for March, according to the poultry calendars furnished them by the county agent and the Extension Service of A. & M. College.

The five men keep 1,533 hens, that laid 34,189 eggs. They ate $224.30 worth of feed, and paid $599.60 for eggs and a few culs, leaving $375.30 net for their owners.

It is interesting to note that the standard for March is 19 eggs per hen, while the 1,533 hens owned by these demonstrators laid 20 eggs each.

Rain and Hail Visit Camp Springs Land

Folks who traveled a five or six mile strip of the Camp Springs or Rotan roads Sunday afternoon were greeted with a rain and hailstorm that added enough moisture to several miles of country to be of great benefit to planting.

A valley of hail, lasting for several minutes, fell along with the rain.

TELLS OF FORMER Visits Tates, Johnson SCURRY CITIZENS

Uncle Billie Nelson received a letter from his son, W. W. Jr., of Los Angeles, California, in which a visit to some of the Scurry County old timers was described.

The younger Nelson told of visiting Rev. Jos. H. Tate and wife in their new California home, more than 100 miles from Los Angeles. The man who was pastor of the Fluvanna Methodist church for many years, and who moved to California a few months ago, is well settled in his new place, and likes to make his vegetables and fruit just about pay his way a little later.

W. A. (Billy) Johnson of Pasadena, was also host to Mr. Nelson. The former president of the Snyder National Bank of Snyder fell recently and broke his hip, making it necessary for him to remain in bed. It is possible, say physicians, that he will never recover from the fall. W. A. Johnson is the father of Sid Johnson of Snyder, and was one of the pioneers of West Texas.

CAST FOR MAY FETE CHOSEN

Brisk interest in voting for the Queen of May, who will preside at Snyder's elaborate May Fete the first of next month, is being created in the high school. Ballots, at one cent each, are being cast for four senior favorites nominated by the four high school classes. Any one is eligible to vote.

Lucille Brown was chosen by the seniors, Enid Sears by the juniors, Evelyn Pratt by the sophomores, and Aubrey Jenkins by the freshmen. Each candidate is sponsoring a chapel program this week, at which campaigns are made for votes. Monday is the final balloting day.

With Meses Nona Carr and Jessyle Stinson handling a lone 500 children, who will present a Pageant of Nations, an elaborate setting is being laid for the fete. Many out-of-town ladies and dress-makers, as well as those from every room of the local schools, are expected to attend.

The Parent-Teacher Association, which is sponsoring the affair, has, besides its president, Mrs. Hugh Taylor, the following chairmen to carry out details of the program: Mariwade Harless, decorations and invitations; Mrs. J. C. Dornand, costumes; Mrs. Wade Winston, finance and advertising; Mrs. C. W. Harless, entertainment.

FIVE VISITORS AT CLUB MEET

Boyce Grimes and Martin Murphy, who are Scurry County's representatives in boys' debate at the Abilene district meet this week-end, were guests of the Business Men's Luncheon Club Wednesday at noon. They, with their superintendent, W. C. Hooks, came in from Dunn, to be greeted by one of the peppiest sessions the club has held this year. All three visitors expressed their high regard for the business men who had sacrificed their time in judging debates during the recent tourney.

E. F. Rankin, formerly of Snyder, now a resident of Dallas, was a guest also. He recalled the "mellow ones" he spent here, and the mellow ones, and stated that he was feeling at home with such youngsters as Fritz R. Smith. Dr. W. R. Johnson of Snyder was a fifth guest. He hesitated to speak, he stated, in the presence of so many school teachers, but thanked the club for its hospitality and good will.

As 28 men listened, Homer Springfield played two piano selections, and Jimmy Smith and Mung Lewis led the group in a trio of old-time songs.

Eight Senior Make A's

Eight members of the senior class of Snyder High school made straight "A" report cards, according to Principal W. N. Carry.

Golfers Paired Off For Inter-Club Play As Sun Shines Hot

It's a case out of a fish vs. a bunch of Hicks out on the Snyder golf course these warm days.

Earl Fish and Dr. J. G. Hicks chose sides the other day, and the golfers are fighting it out for the honor of their leaders, in 18-hole twosomes. When the 17 pairs of partners have played, the points will be counted up, and the losing side will throw a party for the luckier ones.

Here they are, with the Fish-men first in each case:

Ivan Dodson vs. Dr. J. G. Hicks.
P. W. Cloud vs. O. O. Harris.
W. T. Rayton vs. G. A. Hagan.
Nathan Rosenberg vs. Cleve Blackard.
Morris Brownfield vs. A. C. Prentiss.

Austin Erwin Jr. vs. Creston Hunt.
A. D. Erwin vs. George Northcutt.
Billy Lee vs. John Billy Beggs.
Max Brownfield vs. Ralph Odum.
Charles Harless vs. Hugh Boren.
Marshall Higgins vs. J. P. Strayhorn.

Robt. Curran vs. Roy Strayhorn.
Dr. W. R. Johnson vs. H. G. Towle.

Earl Brown vs. H. J. Brice.
Earl Fish vs. Wayne Boren.

TRUSTEES FOR COUNTY GIVEN FOR NEW TERM

School trustees for the majority of Scurry County districts were elected Tuesday of last week, and returns were counted Monday by the commissioners' court. The county board was scheduled to meet on Thursday morning of this week to appoint board members in districts which had no election.

Following is the commissioners' report:

Snyder Independent—J. G. Hicks, C. W. Harless, H. L. Davis, Hugh Taylor.

Hermleigh Independent—Neal E. Farr, D. R. Layman and Jeff Hod-ney.

Fluvanna Independent—J. I. Boren, W. P. Sims, H. D. Sneed and T. F. Koonce.

Schools To Observe Music Week in May

Music Week, May 4 to 10, will be observed in Snyder schools, from Monday until Friday, with special music from all departments.

The high school band will render a concert each day, and glee clubs from the grammar school and primary department will pit their voices against each other. Homer Springfield will have charge of the grammar school singers and Miss Hattie Herm will lead those in the primary department.

First and second prizes will be given in the contests. Judges outside the school will be used for determining the winners.

Abilene Takes Most District Net Titles

Abilene again carried off major honors in high school tennis of District 8 as a two day tournament came to a close Saturday afternoon with the Eagles in possession of three-out of four championships.

Scurry County's girls pair, Byron, went to the finals with the Abilene entries, losing 6-1, 6-2. This county's team was composed of Misses Geneva Glass and Emma Barrett, who lost to Meses Loree Guffey and Earlelye Sivley. Byron's singles entry, Daisy Glass, was eliminated early in the tournament.

All Snyder entries, Weldon Alexander in boys' singles and Grover Scott and Buddy Martin in doubles, were eliminated in first round play. Scott and Martin lost to the Roscoe boys, who went to the finals, in three hard fought sets.

Hugh Wells of Lone Wolf Dies at Home

Hugh Wells, 42, of the Lone Wolf community, died Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock, at his home, following a stroke of paralysis that struck him Thursday. Funeral services were held at Lone Wolf, and the body was shipped to Denton County for burial.

Surviving are his wife and five children, a brother, Hob Wells, of Snyder, a sister, Mrs. Cornelius Davis, of Ennis Creek, and his parents, who live in the Lone Wolf community.

83 GATHER AT BANQUET FOR LEGIONNAIRES

Eighty-three men lined up in army style before the tables in the National Guard armory Monday night. Eighty-three men enjoyed one of the best feasts and one of the best programs ever held by the local American Legion post.

The banquet was a combination social affair and an effort to entertain new men for the Will Layne post. Four recruits, Ivan Dodson, Forest Sears and Roy Taylor of Snyder, and Clem Smoot of Gail—joined the ranks, carrying the chapter three members beyond its quota of 50. Five more have promised that they will join later, according to Adjutant A. C. Prentiss.

Dr. W. R. Johnson was the effervescent toastmaster. Speakers included Judge C. C. Thompson of Colorado, Bill Cooper of Colorado, L. T. Stinson, Chairman John Sentell of the service committee, Chairman Melvin Newton of the membership committee, Post Commander Harris Winston. All speakers stressed the fellowship afforded by the American Legion, and prophesied a better future for the local post than it has seen in the past.

Ollie Bruton entertained with several brilliant-of-hand performances, Bos Stuvally and E. O. Wedgworth, the Fluvanna Twins, furnished several crooning melodies. Jimmy Smith led the group in several songs and rendered a solo.

Boss Baze was ideal as a host. Unlimited praise is due Joe Monroe, the Legion boys say, for the son-of-a-gun he made for the banquet. The remainder of the menu, including chicken salad and all the trimmings, passed away in true army style.

Wilburn Harrins, R. E. Adams, N. J. Sealy, J. C. Rea, Elmer Louder and W. H. Kinzey composed the Hermleigh delegation. Colorado had six attendants also: Judge Thompson, Bill Cooper, Roy Donier, C. W. Cook, Adjutant E. A. Stokes and J. Y. Frazier.

Other visitors included: Clairmont—J. B. Johns, W. H. Griffin, C. A. Hamilton and H. S. Taylor; Camp Springs—E. W. Boatwright, Ira Simmons and D. L. Moffett; Gail—Clem Smoot; Fluvanna—Bos Stuvally, "Red" Wedgworth and R. B. Wells.

Believe it or not—the banquet cost the Post exactly $11.25. Practically all the eats were furnished by local stores and by the members. All city meat markets, Piggly Wiggly, Clarence Saunders, and the Hill Coffee Company are due special thanks, according to Post officers.

Woman Evangelist To Lead Church in Series of Meetings

A series of revival services was begun at the Apostolic Church on Wednesday, and good crowds have been in attendance at the meetings.

Mrs. Winfred Westfield, celebrated woman evangelist of Phoenix and Los Angeles, has charge of the preaching during the series of meetings. She is regarded by members of the Apostolic Christian church as a woman of exceptional ability as a woman of exceptional ability in the ministry.

She is accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Audrey Souder Buck, who is leading the singing at the revival meetings.

According to local church officials, these meetings are conducted for the benefit of the general public as well as for members of the church, and invitations for members of other congregations to attend the services have been extended.

Services are held each evening at 7:45 o'clock. The meeting will continue through April 27.

12 WILL GO TO ABILENE MEET

Twelve from Snyder and several from other parts of the county will take part in the district Interscholastic League meet at Abilene this week-end.

The county is strong in practically all literary events, and several track men of merit are expected to take honors.

Snyder representatives include Lee Francis, York, senior essay writing; Nathanael Brenz, Anderson, declaration; Brentz, junior, senior declaration; and the athletic squad will be G. L. Huestis, Bedford McClinton, Buck Howell, J. T. Trice, C. and L. Greenfield, Jesse Browning and Shade McGinty.

Revival for Church Church of Christ Is Ended Last Sunday

The Church of Christ revival, in which Bro. Charles J. Hardin of Anson did the preaching, drew large crowds morning and night until the time of its closing Sunday night. Several reclamations and additions to the church were made, and the general revival of spirituality was noted from day to day.

The song services, aided by new books, were especially appealing, along with the gospel preaching of the visiting pastor.

First Football Scrimmage.

Coach "Red" put his 30 men through a 45-minute scrimmage Tuesday—the first scrimmage of the spring training season. The real set-to will be in about two weeks, however, when the co-captains will choose sides and lead their teams in a regular game.

Miss Mary Lynn Nation Stinson to Wed J. D. Scott

Announcing the engagement of Miss Mary Lynn Nation Stinson and J. D. Scott, Misses Walter Cook of San Angelo, Robert Strayhorn of Rotan, and L. T. Stinson entertained with a tea Friday afternoon, April 11, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Strayhorn.

Yellow, green and white were the colors favored for all details, and Ranunculus, lilies and roses were very attractive.

In the reception room, guests were received by the hostesses, and Misses W. M. Scott, O. D. McCoy of Wichita Falls, H. G. Towle, J. P. Stinson of Abilene, Lon Adams and C. R. Moon of Rotan, E. W. Ledbetter of Abilene, and Miss Mary Jane Mitchell of Sweetwater.

From there they were ushered to the dining room by Misses Dixie Smith and Ernest Taylor. The table was laid with Normandy lace, and centered with a crystal punch bowl. Green tapers were in crystal holders at either end of the table, and crystal composites held yellow mints. Guests were served by Misses Joe Strayhorn, J. M. Harris, Garrett Harrell, Misses Dorette Beggs, Hattie and Gertrude Herin.

Plate favors were dainty scrolls tied with yellow ribbon and a spray of lily of the valley. On the parchment was written:

Another secret a little bird told
Of two lovers whose vows are plighted;
And this is the story sweet and old:
On Easter morn they'll be united.
J. D. Scott and Mary Lynn Nation.

Mrs. Wilson Hartgrove of Point Rock and Miss Eloise Scott presided at the register. The bride-elect, dressed in a lovely flowered chiffon, necessaries to match, and wore a corsage of deep lavender and pink sweet peas, was presented by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Stinson.

Other members of the house party were Misses Kenneth Camp, W. R. Johnson, J. C. Ezell, Joe Caton, Allen Warren; Misses Martha Gray, Dean Whatley, Neoma Strayhorn, Frances Stinson and Mary Margaret Towle. During the afternoon, Misses Floye Brownfield and Eula Pearl Ferguson complimented the guests with piano selections.

Guests calling between the hours from 3:00 until 6:00 o'clock were Misses George Oldham, J. E. Scutell, G. B. Clark Jr., Wayne Williams, Bessie Glascock of Eastland, Amos Joyce, J. P. Nelson, E. J. Anderson, Ixon Joyce, Melvin Blackard, Sam Hamlett, Lewis Blackard, W. C. Shull, G. A. Hagan, Fritz R. Smith, A. C. Preuitt, Hugh Boren, H. M. Blackard, W. W. Hamilton, J. W. Scott, J. C. Dorwood, E. J. Richardson, W. R. Bell, H. P. Brown, C. R. Buchanan, J. T. Whitmore, George Northcutt, E. E. Wallace, Orby Randolph, Roy Strayhorn, R. E. Gray, C. E. Ferguson, J. W. Leftwich, H. L. Davis, J. ## Full Program for District Federation April 23 to 25

The complete program for the meeting of the Seventh District Federation of Women's Clubs, which convenes in Pampa April 23, 24 and 25, has been announced by Mrs. Wayne Boren, of Snyder, program chairman. The program affords much of interest to the great body of women in the 49 counties comprising the seventh district, with their 75 lines of distinct organized activities in the interest of progress. The theme of the convention will be "An Awakened Public Sentiment."

Pampa, a modern city of beautiful homes, splendid churches, and other public buildings, is one of the liveliest commercial centers in the Panhandle. Having both the rich wheat farming region and a very productive oil field situated nearby from which to draw her resources, with the oil district entirely segregated so that there is no reminder of the unsightly or unsavory elements pertaining thereto, and with a forward-minded citizenship centered, for the present, upon a cordial reception and a lavish entertainment, there is no reinforcement that could be added to be there.

Interspersed among the reports of the 140 or more clubs, the 75 board members and the officers, which reports will reveal the enormity of the work being done, will be addresses by prominent speakers, notable among them being: An address on law observance by State Senator C. Small of Wellington; an address by Mrs. Geraldine Green, dean of women in West Texas State Teachers' College, the subject being "The Place of the Dean of Girls in a High School"; "Conference and Round Table Discussion," conducted by Mrs. R. F. Lindsay of Mount Pleasant, state president.

The singing contest, an annual event in federation programs, will be participated in by a number of groups of singers, and a silver loving cup will be awarded the winning team. Mrs. Chas. F. Smith of Amarillo, chairman of folk music, will be in charge. Mrs. Smith holds a favorite place in the hearts of her audiences for her rendition of the negro spirituals.

A memorial service will be conducted in tribute to those who have fallen before the scythes of the Grim Reaper since last year.

The theme of spring-time will be evident in the social affairs by the use of the flowers of the season in decoration. The first of the social events will be the Board luncheon in the home of Mrs. Mel Davis, at 12:30 on Wednesday, April 23. This will be given in honor of the Seventh District Board members, and will be followed by the Board meeting at the First Methodist church, where all the business sessions will be held. At 2:30 the guests will be taken on a tour of the oil fields, situated near Pampa, and at 5:00 o'clock they will be complimented in an Oriental tea in the home of Mrs. I. B. Hughey. At 8:30 the fine arts program will be given in the high school auditorium.

Thursday morning at 9:00 o'clock the convention will be formally opened. The address of welcome will be given on behalf of the city of Pampa, by Mrs. F. M. McQuinn; Mrs. W. Purviance will bring the welcome in the name of the women. At 12:00 o'clock luncheon will be served in the basement of the Methodist church under the auspices of the department of education, with Mrs. S. W. Mehar of Plainview presiding.

At the apple-blossom dinner, the beautiful emblem of spring suggested by the descriptive title, will be used effectively to "say it with flowers," honoring the district president, Mrs. J. T. Whitmore, of Snyder. This will be given in the church basement on Thursday evening. A cleverly arranged program will be rendered; music by high school orchestra; invocation, Rev. Tom Brabham; pantomime, "It's Apple Blossom Time in Normandy"; Miss Audrey Neel and Mr. Grady Morten; Budding Tendencies, Mrs. S. W. Mehar of Plainview; male octette, local talent; Blossom Tribute, Mrs. H. H. Hicks; The Fruit, Mrs. R. F. Lindsey; piano duet, Misses Dorothy Pollard and Ruth Ann Mitchell; selected reading, Mrs. W. T. Frazier; The Blooming Men, Mrs. J. T. Whitmore.

As a sequel to the apple-blossom dinner will be the president's evening program, with Mrs. Tillman Jones of Post, first vice president, presiding. The invocation will be given by Rev. A. A. Hyde, after which music will be furnished by the local choral club. Greetings from Pampa will be brought by Mrs. Tom Rose, general chairman, followed by greetings from the state president, Mrs. R. F. Lindsey. A violin solo will be given by local talent, after which an address on home and education will be delivered by J. W. Hale of Littlefield, Mr. Hale, who for many years has been a prominent educator in the state, is a brother of the district president, Mrs. J. T. Whitmore. The concluding address will be delivered by Mrs. Whitmore on the convention theme, "An Awakened Public Sentiment."

The public welfare program will be given at the luncheon in the church basement at noon Friday, with Mrs. Q. S. Barrett of Childress presiding.

Previous to adjournment Friday afternoon, prizes will be awarded for excellence in the following lines: for the best individual club report; for the best county federation report; in the choral contest, and to the club organizing the most junior clubs.

Luncheon Honors Bride-Elect.

Honoring Miss Mary Lynn Nation, whose marriage to J. D. Scott has been announced for Easter morning, Mrs. Dixie Smith and her daughter, Mrs. Wilson Hartgrove, of Point Rock, entertained with an exquisite appointed luncheon and miscellaneous shower Tuesday at the lovely home of Mrs. Smith.

The unique party carried out the "April Showers" motif. Tables were centered with rain barrels containing rice, and on which were cupids holding umbrellas. Favors were miniature umbrellas.

A delectable menu, consisting of fruit cocktail, turkey a la king, asparagus, pea salad, olives, toast cubes, ice cream, cake and mints, was served.

Mrs. Hartgrove announced that there was a big shower coming and presented the honoree with an immense rain barrel, which was beautifully decorated and contained many dainty and useful gifts.

Attractive bride and bridegroom tallies were used for bridge and forty-two games, high score prizes for bridge games being awarded to Misses W. R. Johnson, H. G. Towle and W. W. Cook of San Angelo.

The invitation list for the luncheon included Misses J. M. Harris, Ernest Taylor, Forest Sears, Charles Cooper, Garrett Harrell, Maurice Brownfield, H. G. Towle, W. D. Beggs, Joe Stinson, G. A. Hagan, R. H. Curran, Joe Strayhorn, W. R. Johnson, O. P. Thrane, W. R. Lee, A. C. Preuitt, Roy Strayhorn, R. H. Curran, Allen Warren, C. C. Higgins, O. Randolph, J. C. Ezell, Joe Caton, J. W. Scott, George F. Smith, Cal C. Wright, L. T. Stinson, A. H. Sams Jr., Sam Hamlett, A. D. Erwin, Fritz R. Smith; Misses Myrtle and Faye Harrell, Neoma Strayhorn, Dorette Beggs, Frances Harris, Vera Nell Grantham, Martha Gray, Brookside Wright and Eloise Scott.

Miss Nation Honoree At Club Meeting.

Mrs. L. T. Stinson and Miss Eloise Scott entertained the Altrurian Daughter's Club Monday evening, with Miss Mary Lynn Nation Stinson, bride-elect of J. D. Scott, as honoree.

The Stinson home was beautifully decorated with yellow Ranunculus and Easter lilies, a color scheme of yellow, green and white being carried out.

After the short business session, an interesting program was given. Miss Inez Caskey gave a reading, "Out Where the West Begins." Another reading, "Original Criticism of the Book, 'Ramona,'" was given by Miss Mary Lynn Nation. Miss Vera Nell Grantham told a picture story of "Ramona Scenes Today," and a parliamentary drill was led by Miss Marilu Rosser.

After the program, Mrs. W. W. Hamilton arose and gave a lovely talk, divulging a secret, that Miss Mary Lynn Nation, club president, was soon to be a bride.

A toast to the bride was given by Miss Martha Gray, after which Miss Eloise Scott gave a toast to the "left overs." The bride's fortune was read by members. Little Billie Joe Stinson, dressed in a unique rabbit costume, hopped into the living room and led the honoree into the dining room, where the table, laid with Normandy lace, was centered with an immense Easter basket. Yellow streamers from the basket led to two white rabbits. Orange tapers in crystal holders were at either end of the table, and in front of the basket were the miniature bride and bridegroom.

Upon investigation by Miss Nation, it was found that the basket did not contain eggs, but 24 lovely ebony and crystal dinner and salad plates.

A delicious refreshment course, with miniature brides for plate favors, was served to the following members: Misses Inez Caskey, Marilu Rosser, Vera Nell Grantham, Mable Isaacs, Elmer German, Olla Lee Cauble, Martha Gray, Brentz Anderson, Luyille Brown, and Mrs. Joe Caton. Guests were Misses O. D. McCoy of Wichita Falls, Walter Cook of San Angelo, Wilson Hartgrove of Point Rock, W. W. Hamilton, W. M. Scott, J. C. Stinson, Kenneth Camp and J. W. Scott.

Bride-Elect Honor Guest at Luncheon.

Among the pre-nuptial entertainments given in honor of Miss Mary Lynn Nation, bride-elect of J. D. Scott, was a luncheon of unusually pretty appointments given in Abilene Saturday.

The luncheon was given in the home of Judge and Mrs. J. P. Stinson, with their daughter, Mrs. William Ledbetter, cousin of the bride-elect, hostess.

Black and white were artistically favored in appointments for the luncheon table, made unusually pretty by ebony and etched crystal glass service.

The honoree's favor was the ebony and crystal console set and shawers. Places were marked for the following guests: Misses Frances Brooks, Caroline Couch, Naomi Stone of Abilene, Eloise Scott; Misses J. R. Strayhorn of Rotan, J. C. Stinson, W. M. Scott, L. T. Stinson, Wilson Hartgrove of Point Rock, O. D. McCoy of Wichita Falls, Walter Cook of San Angelo, Lacy Beckham, Pliny Armour, Dub Wooten, Le Roy Jennings, Lois Miller, Bob Fields, Guy Paxton, J. W. Couch, C. M. Caldwell, T. F. Grisham and Nib Shaw, all of Abilene.

A clever feature of the affair was the presentation of little Miss Tommie Gaye Grisham as a miniature bride who read "Don't Tell," and Geraldine Shaw as the groom who sang "I Love You Truly." They also did a clever dance.

Mrs. Lois Miller, of Abilene has been the house guest of Mrs. Dixie Smith this week.

A Final Admonition

By Albert T. Reid

AND KEEP CAREFUL TAB ON THOSE ALIENS WHOSE OCCUPATIONS ARE GENERALLY UNDER SUSPICION.

A History of the Alamo

The following history of the Alamo was written by Miss Tennye Mae Jeffress, of the Union Chapel community, after she had gone through the old San Antonio fortress on a recent trip and grasped its full significance.

The siege of the Alamo began on February 22 and continued at intervals until the final bloody conflict of March 6, 1836. The roof (formerly an arch of stone and adobe) was already in ruins at the time of the siege; yet enough of the walls remained, with the aid of the parapets, for the Texans to make a heroic stand until their ammunition was exhausted. They then returned to this room (main chamber), and it was here that the fiercest of the fight took place. When the Mexicans found they could seal the walls in safety, they entered in that way, and also by making a breach in the rear, and blowing open the front door with powder blasts.

Built in 1718.

The Alamo Church was built according to Yeakum, in 1718; but according to church authorities its erection was begun in 1716, being contemporaneous with that of the third mission, San Juan de Capistrano. Its object was to convert and civilize the Indians; and it was originally known as the Mission of San Antonio de Valero, being named in honor of San Anthony of Padua and the Duke de Valero, a Spanish viceroy. The name "Alamo" was first given because of a grove of cottonwood trees nearby, "alamo" being Spanish for cottonwood. Built for a church, it became a fortress, and the scene of many conflicts prior to the immortal siege of 1836.

The first repairs were made in 1848 by the United States government, at which time the roof was restored and side and back windows made. All wood work was then inserted and doors put in place, to make ready its use as government commissary and work house.

Poem Makes Appeal.

"Our Alamo," by Charles C. Wood.
Don't tear the Alamo down—
Let the old building stay.
It is the Cradle of Texas,
So just let it rock away.

In Bowie's room, Mrs. Dickinson and the latter's infant daughter; afterward known as the "Babe of the Alamo," took refuge during the siege. The negro servant boy of Col. Travis also sought safety here. After the siege, Gen. Santa Anna spared the life of Mrs. Dickinson and her child merely to send her on horseback to G. N. Houston as a messenger to tell of the Alamo's fall.

Crockett's body was found just inside this doorway, with dead Mexicans piled about him, whom he had slain before giving up his life. The remainder of the garrison loaded and reloaded their own weapons and handed them to him. From this point Travis drew the line with his sword, calling upon all who would remain at their post to cross over to him. All except Moses Rose joined him, Bowie being carried over in his cot. Rose later lowered himself by means of blankets down the rear wall and made his escape after fighting had begun in front. But for this fact, no account of the beginning of the siege would belong to history; as the two women and the negro boy who were spared were in hiding and only they knew the end.

But-hered and tortured by steel and blast,
It made the heavens cry.

They dragged their victims, freshly killed,
And piled them on a pyre,
And then their eyes, with hatred filled,
Watched that human fire.

Your bodies died, but your soul still lives,
And your spirit spurs us on,
And makes of misers, men who give,
And shirkers, the khaki to don.

Today we face a crucial trial—
To be or not to be—
We'll meet with a firm smile—
You've helped our destiny.

You've planted in a nation's soul
What only gods bestow.
Self sacrifice will be our goal,
Oh, Alamo! Our Alamo!

The organ loft of solid masonry was over this entrance.

James Bowie Lies III.

In Crockett's room, James Bowie lay ill at the time of the siege; but asking to have his cot lifted across the line drawn by Col. Travis is said to have met his fate in the opposite room.

Houston's room was the monks' burying ground. Then the Alamo was sold to the state in 1883, by Bishop Neuz, representing the Catholic Church. The bones were disinterred and placed in the San Fernando Cathedral. The little niche in the wall to the right was used to hold the vessel containing holy water and also for burning candles. The room to the right was known as the sacristy and afterwards as a powder magazine. Evans was killed while in the act of destroying the magazine.

Poem Describes Fortress.

"The Alamo," Lieut. S. M. Marcus.
I had read about the Alamo,
I had heard the famous cry
Raised in respect to those we know
Were unafraid to die.

I often wished that I might come
And worship at that shrine;
I often dreamt of the noble one
Who drew that world famed line.

While I wore khaki in San Antonio,
My footsteps one bright morn
Led me unto the natal stone,
Where was a freedom born.

I entered it with bated breath,
My very soul seemed hushed;
Three generations at the death
Of men thru honor crushed.

The walls were marked by vandals
bold,
Initials everywhere,
The sacred shrine in way untold
Polluted here and there.

The gashes in the walls were deep,
The very signs were marred;
The rooms they laid in their last sleep,
By cowards' hands were scarred.

We talk about a beastly Hun,
'Bout humanity we rave,
But how about the beastly one
Who spoils a parent's grave?

Here on the left was Bowie's room,
Where, mortally wounded, he asked
To cross the line before the gloom
Of death his features masked.

There on the right was Crockett's room;
That hero ne'er excelled
Who protected Bowie, in spite of doom;
And his heart ne'er once rebelled.

Mrs. Dickinson, the messenger,
Hid in this very place;
She alone became the harbinger
Of glory—through God's grace.

The Mexicans sealed the back of the wall
In overwhelming numbers;
They fought out in the Prayer Hall,
Where now the memory slumbers.

Bonham defended the back of the
wall,
While Travis the cannon did tend,
When asked to surrender they heard him call,
"I'll fight it out to the end."

When hope had died in their brave hearts,
And death was a friend in need,
For the magazine Evans did start,
But a bullet did stop his deed.

And so they fought it out to the last,
And they saw their brothers die.

The Snyder News Creed.

For the cause that needs assistance;
For the wrongs that need resistance;
For the future in the distance,
And the good that we can do.

The Weekly Dozen.

In other words: All that listens well is a candidate's paradise.

One Scurry County man suggests that what we need is a full-grown crop of weeds.

Another one is certain that the country will go to the dogs unless his cow gives more milk and eats less store-bought feed.

If everybody liked the kind of people that some people like, what a time the Creator would have in forgetting Sodom and Gomorrah.

It's funny about talking pictures. The lover always seems to say the wrong thing, and "Yes" sometimes sounds too much like "Maybe."

Trustee election time is over. Teacher election time is here. I'd like to be a trustee's son under most any teacher who hasn't been voted on.

The only trouble with having so many tops down on the Bank and Highway is that too many coppers make too many dollars—for the state fining system.

Want some poetry? Here I stand with my nose full of sand; if you don't get a shovel, I'm bound to expand.
Let's call it "And a Little Wind Was the Cause of It All."

Speaking of easy jobs: The night watchman's job is not one. There's too much standing and not enough interesting sights to behold in connection with that job, believe you me.

Roosevelt had a fierce look and a fierce constitution, it is said. But he didn't have anything on Herbert Hoover.
Our present presidential friend doesn't quake for anybody or anything.

Now that only twelve or nineteen candidates are in the race for governor, what is the matter with declaring a third party vogue—the Candidate Party, if you please?
In that way the candidates could all frame up, vote for each other, and assure themselves of election.

There is only person in a hundred, statistics tell, that doesn't have a desire for licking. The postmaster is always licking stamps, the school teacher is always licking kids, the glutton is always licking his chops, and the newspaperman is always licking his weight in wildcats —paper.

"R" as in Rain.

Once in a blue moon, a newspaper breaks away from crap and crime, politics and palaver, to whale off and do something that is of importance and benefit to the community which it happens to serve. That is, some newspapers do. Some, sad to say, content themselves with stinging words and phrases into the desired number of columns, and going to press. Others think long and laboriously on some subject of common good and act accordingly. We bow our heads in becoming modesty and admit that we fall in the latter classification.

We inaugurated, after careful deliberation, a gigantic undertaking. We called it the News Rain Campaign.
It was aimed to break the current drought, bring refreshing downpours, by using the power of the press, the pull of printer's ink, to sweep Jude Pluvius off his cloudy feet. And, it is a matter of record that within 24 hours after our first announcement, we got the first sprinkle of 1930. And, furthermore, we got a second shower.

And now, by crapes, we have written untiringly, but without results, and it still hasn't rained. Are we discouraged? Not a bit! This battle we have entered can have but one ending. It will rain. It will rain torrents, in small floods, in roaring downpours. We need only the backing of the public. Did you pay your taxes?
Vote? Go to church? Advertise? Clean up your yard?
Drink more milk? Subscribe to the News? Buy the wife an Easter bonnet? Join the Sweetwater Club?
Asked to be excused from the jury? Put on that hat?
Call on your neighbor? Pay the parson? Trump your pod's ace? Water the lawn?
Shucks! How do you expect us to do anything?—
Nolan County News.

Where there is such a will there is surely a waterspout. But The Snyder News, follower of the Nolan County News Rain Campaign for several weeks, believes that even a strong will and a facile pen are not weapons potent enough for the waging of warfare against the nimble rain god. May we make a suggestion?

Just as it is a thousand times easier to whip a man by getting his wife on your side, so it is a thousand times easier to whip the rain god by getting his archenemy on your side. In brief, tackle Old Lady Drouth, in Beau Brummel fashion. Tell her of her manifold charms: The beauty of brown, withered grass; the delicious fragrance of burnt-cod perfume; the winsomeness of naked fields and denuded lawns; the loveliness of unplanted seed and listless livestock. Then, when Old Lady Drouth has become enamored with your palaver, put in a good word for Old Man Rain. She will balk at first, of course; but a few more honeyed phrases and she will be inveigled into giving the old man a chance to prove that he really can make a living for the whole bloomin' family.

After that it will be easy. Brother Gripes and Sister Longface, Baby Howler and Grandma Boo-Hoo—they'll all be falling in line with the old man, as the poor, misguided old lady will see her beauties become as chaff on the threshing floor of Prosperity. Selah.

The Love of the Soil.

Some editors think. Hear what one has to say:
"The first farmer was the first man, and all historic nobility rests on possession and use of land."

So wrote the great Emerson, and so think millions of men and women each spring, when they look over their forks and hoes and plows and anticipate the joys of taking winter's barren soil and clothing it in greens, crismons and purples.

It is now time to think about the little home garden.
In the Southland they have probably thrust their spades deep into the earth. Farther north, eager town and city farmers are choosing their seeds carefully.

But no matter where these soil lovers be, each is anxious to get at his regular summer task. He hopes to grow better tomatoes than he did last year. He craves the honor of serving a mess of fresh peas upon his own table before any neighbor has succeeded.

He may even have ye editor in mind—and ye editor, who for years has relished the firsts of many little garden plots, assuredly wishes him fortune at this opening of another season.

That is all from our worthy contemporary. A fellow just told us yesterday that he has the finest 'tater patch in Scurry County—in Scurry County, mind you.
And who knows but that this county may not be raising champeen watermelons and maize before next Christmas rolls around?

NOVARRO HAS LEADING ROLE IN NEW TALKIE

Ramon Novarro, dressed in the handsome uniform of a lieutenant of Napoleon Bonaparte, making his escape from a firing squad; climbing into a beautiful young woman's bedroom; masquerading as a footman; duelling his way to fame and fortune . . . these are some of the sequences of "Devil-May-Care." Novarro's all-talking screen romance which will show at the Palace Theatre Saturday matinee and night.

With Novarro's starring picture will be a Fox newsreel and a two-reel all-talking comedy.

The new picture, adapted from the French play, "La Bataille des Dames," is said to be a perfect vehicle for the romantic Novarro. The story tells of the adventures of Armand, the exiled Napoleon's trusted lieutenant who schemes to bring back his liege to the throne of France. When he falls in love with Leonie, ardent Royalist, complications begin.

Sidney Franklin, director of the production, is said to have set a new standard for camera excellence. Among the scenes which stand out are "shots" of a cavalry troop riding down a mountain road; the historic scene in which Armand and Leonie go horseback riding; scenes in a French chateau and a scene filmed in technicolor in a reproduction of the gardens at Versailles.

The supporting cast of "Devil-May-Care" includes Dorothy Jordan as Leonie, Marion Harris as Countess Louise, John Miljan as the villainous de Grignon, and others.

Novarro sings a variety of attractive musical numbers in the picture written by Herbert Stodhart and Clifford Grey. Songs are also sung by Miss Harris, who is well known as a "blues" singer, and Miss Jordan, who was formerly in New York musical comedies. The musical numbers range from sentimental love songs such as "Charming," "If I Care" and "The Shepherd's Sarcasmod" to the comedy songs, "Pompadour" and "Bon Jour, Louie," and the rollicking military number, "March of the Old Guard," which Novarro sings with a large chorus.

Mrs. Williams, Old Resident of Camp Springs, Passes On

Funeral services for Mrs. Paralee Williams, 74, a resident of Camp Springs, were held Saturday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock, at the Camp Springs Methodist church.

Rev. M. L. Moody of Hermleich officiated, and interment was made in the Camp Springs Cemetery.

Memoir.

Mrs. Paralee Williams (nee Long) was born June 19, 1856, in Jackson County, Alabama, and moved with her family to Texas in 1874 and settled in Hill County, near Aquilla. She was converted at the age of 13 and joined the Methodist church, of which she was a faithful and devoted member until summoned to her reward.

On February 10, 1881, she was happily married to R. T. Williams, who survives. Of this union seven children were born, four daughters and three sons, namely: Mrs. Beulah Tipps, Elm Mott; Mrs. Maud Montgomery, Aquilla; Mrs. Edna Smith, Camp Springs; J. H. Williams, Whitney; R. K. Williams, Alta Loma; Mrs. Laura Phillips, Rotan, and Garland L. Williams, who is in the U. S. naval service.

All the children were present at the funeral service except the last named, who was somewhere in South America.

Sister Williams passed to her reward April 11, at 10:30 p. m., at the age of 74 years, eight months and 22 days—over 49 years a faithful wife and mother and neighbor, and over 61 years a faithful Christian—and a more saintly character I have never known. So closed this beautiful life. Rest, thou blest of the Lord, from thy labor of love, and enter with joy the land of light and song. Uncle Bob, you and the children shall greet her some sweet day where sorrow is not known.—Her Pastor.

Fred Merrill has returned from a several weeks visit in Dallas.

Brentz Anderson to Try for Loving Cup

Miss Brentz Anderson will represent Snyder in the "Home Town Contest" at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Abilene in May, according to Superintendent C. Wedgeworth.

Each member-town in the regional organization may enter one contestant. Each contestant delivers a speech of her own compilation on her home town before the judges.

A beautiful loving cup is awarded the contest winner.

GIVES TALK ON HURT FEELINGS

By Uncle Charlie Dodson.

(Note: Uncle Charlie has been a teacher in the junior department of the Baptist Sunday school of Snyder for many years. This talk for junior boys and girl holds interest, however, for old and young.)

The following note gave rise to this article: "That was a good talk that you gave us juniors this morning."

This note came from a teacher, who perhaps felt somewhat sorry for the superintendent, who is in the habit of making failures and blunders and mistakes, and often becomes so discouraged that he weeps over his incompetency and other things.

Following is a reproduction of part of the talk:

My dear boy and girl companion travelers to the end of life's fitful and stormy dream:

Our subject this morning is: "Wounded or hurt feelings and anger." Please turn to Matt. 2: 28-30, and read: "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

These words came from the lips of our meek and lowly and tearful and weeping Saviour. Some people claim that Jesus died of a broken heart. Publius Lentulus, a reporter for the Roman governor, said of Jesus that he had often been seen to weep, but no one ever remembered to have seen him laugh. He was a man of sorrow, and acquainted with grief.

When He was in the garden of Gethsemane, He said to some of His disciples, "My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death."

I love to see children of the same family, brothers and sisters, when one's heart is broken that they are all broken. It shows that they love each other. I don't love to see them get angry at each other. It reminds me of Cain, who slew his own brother. Anger carries in its hand a deadly weapon and in its heart a spirit of revenge; but wounded feelings like our Saviour's carry a spirit of love and sympathy and a longing to forgive. No one ever shed a penitent tear that Jesus did not see that tear and want to forgive and save them if they would only repent and turn to Him and pray for pardon.

A Broken Hearted Girl.

In the long, long ago, during the war between King Charles I of England and Oliver Cromwell, the daughter of King Charles was on the Island of Wight on the south coast of England. She was so good and sympathetic and tender hearted that all looked upon her as an angel of mercy when they saw her coming. They knew that she had a kind and consoling word for every sad and sorrowing or broken hearted one, for this was in the tearful and broken hearted age of Great Britain. She was so much beloved by her friends and foes that the followers of Cromwell thought it best to put her in prison. She was imprisoned without any fault of hers. She was not to blame for being the idolized daughter of a king.

She wanted to hear the news of the war and of her father, and yet feared to hear. She did not know that Cromwell had won the war and had put her father to death. The prison keeper knew of the death of her father, but did not have the heart to tell her of the sad, sad death.

Cries Over Scriptures.

One morning the prison keeper went into her prison room and found her with her face on her open and

WHAT'S WRONG AND WHERE?

How good are you at finding mistakes? The artist has intentionally made seven obvious ones in drawing the above picture. Some of them are easily discovered; others may be difficult.

To the first person bringing to this office a list of corrections for the seven mistakes, two passes to either the Ritz or the Palace Theatre will be given. To each of the next two persons bringing in corrections, one pass to either theatre will be given. The same person or persons may not receive free tickets on consecutive weeks. No answers will be judged before Friday, the day of publication.

These "What's Wrong and Where" pictures are weekly features in the Snyder News. Watch for them—and win one or more free tickets.

much loved Bible on her desk, all stained with tears at the Scripture which you have just read: "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." This was doubtless a favorite Scripture of hers. She had lived and loved and sorrowed and grieved and died of a broken heart, never having said a harmful word of those who had her so unjustly imprisoned.

Let us take a lesson from the life of this sweet, innocent, Bible-loving and Bible-obeying girl and never say a harsh or harmful word of anyone, even though they may harm us and that unjustly. It does no good to speak evil of anyone. What good have you accomplished when you say harmful words of anyone? If you will never speak evil of anyone, you will live a sweeter, better, nobler and more useful and a happier life.

Don't Ever Get Angry.

One more thing I want to add. Don't ever get angry at anyone if possible, especially at home folks—mother, father, brother or sister. They might be plunged into eternity in an auto wreck or some other way, and you never have an opportunity to take back a cruel word that you had spoken.

Once more let us look beyond the life of this sweet girl whose forgiven spirit had taken its flight to Him who could wipe away all tears and heal all broken hearts. Yes, let us take Him into our lives; let us go to Him if we have ever lied to anyone or disobeyed our parents or done anything that Jesus would not want us to do. Let us go to Him before we sleep and ask Him to forgive us; and be assured, that you never shed a tear or had a penitent sigh that He did not see or hear and know all about it and wanted to forgive you. If you are like Christ in this world, take Him into our lives; let us go to Him if we have ever lied to anyone

Party From Abilene Visit Baptist Church

Rev. and Mrs. A. T. Douglass, of the Douglass evangelistic party, representing Simmons University, Abilene, were guests of the First Baptist church Sunday morning and afternoon. Rev. Douglass preached at the morning service, and Mrs. Douglass made a brief announcement of their purpose—to help Simmons University.

In the afternoon the Simmons Brazilian trio was presented to a group of church people and visitors gathered to hear the special messages in song and sermon.

No preaching services will be held at the Baptist church next Sunday, in deference to special services at the Methodist church.

Twelve Scouts and Leaders Go to Ira As Guests of Boys

Twelve members of Boy Scout troop No. 48, with their scoutmaster and assistant scoutmaster, went to Ira Saturday night as guests of a group of boys in that community that is organizing a troop under the scoutmastership of Elmer Taylor, superintendent of schools.

Two Snyder boys, Kelsie Brackeen and Otis Martin, demonstrated the making of fire by friction, with sets they had made. Each Scout gave a Scout law, and the group, led by Elmer Watkins, leader of the Bob White patrol, gave the Scout oath.

G. L. Autry told the significance of the Scout badge, and James Hendryx gave a history of the United States flag and told the forms of respect due the flag. Garth Austin demonstrated the nine principal knots used in scouting.

After G. L. Autry and James Hendryx, who have recently passed their Tenderfoot tests, were given certificates and badges in a candle ceremony, the Ira and Snyder boys joined in several games on the school campus.

Those making the trip were: Otis Martin, Kelsie Brackeen, Bob Hamilton, James Hendryx, G. L. Autry, Kelsie Brackeen, Garth Austin, Horace Holley Jr., Cullen Clements, Truman Iverson, Elmer Watkins, Jack Reynolds, Scoutmaster J. C. Smyth, and Assistant Scoutmaster Roy Irvin.

LARGE GROUP OF OKLAHOMA MEN TO VISIT

Many of Oklahoma's public officials and Oklahoma City's business and professional leaders will be on the special Good Will Tour which will visit Snyder Wednesday, May 14.

Among the first to make reservations for the trip are: Governor W. J. Holloway; Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of Oklahoma University; Dr. H. G. Bennett, president of Oklahoma A. & M. College; Mayor Walter Dean of Oklahoma City, and Ed Overholser, president of the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce.

Others of the 150 making the trip will include the presidents and managers of the leading business institutions of Oklahoma City.

Stops are scheduled at more than 70 cities through Southwest Oklahoma and West Central Texas. Night stops will be made at Wichita Falls, Abilene and Lubbock, Texas, and at Alton and Clinton, Oklahoma.

"Oklahoma City is going to get better acquainted with the folks with whom we are going to cooperate in the development of this vast southwestern empire, in the very heart of which we are located," Overholser said. "We are not sending our office boys to do our hand shaking for us. The Oklahoma City Good Will train will be filled with the highest public officials, the presidents and managers of our leading business institutions, and our outstanding professional men."

Seventy Exhibits in Junior Stock Show

Colorado's first junior fat stock show was held Saturday, with 70 heaves on exhibit and all sold at auction, ranging from 11 to 15 1-4 cents per pound.

All calves entered were fed by members of Mitchell County men's clubs, 4-H boys' clubs and students of the vocational agriculture class of the Colorado high school. Feeding was directed by W. S. Foster, county agent, and Doyle Williams, vocational teacher, and the show was sponsored by the Colorado Chamber of Commerce. Cash prizes amounting to more than $300 were awarded.

"The Silver Lining" Will Be Staged at China Grove School

A play, "The Silver Lining," will be presented at the China Grove school house tonight. It is a comedy drama in three acts.

Admission will be 10 cents and 25 cents, all proceeds to go to the school for the paying of a stage just built in the school house.

The characters are as follows:

Betty Harthy—Mrs. Clarence Newby.
Carlisle Harthy—Clarence Newby.
Dawson, the butler—Herman Webb.
Mary, Irish maid—Gladys Collier.
Sadie Sanders—Mrs. J. C. Carter.
Anne Harcourt—Lula Mae Seale.
Rev. Samu'l Hartley—J. C. Carter.
Lovesy—Florence B. Seale.
Everyone is invited to come.

Misses, Lois Miller of Abilene, Wilson Hartgrove of Paint Rock, Dixie Smith and son, Banie, were visitors in Spur Sunday.

MAN CHARGED IN DEATH OF 2

The Abilene Reporter gives this follow-up account of the accident on the Bankhead Highway last week in which Virgil White of Snyder, was killed:

As aftermath of a highway accident which cost two lives near Roscoe Tuesday night, charge of negligent homicide was filed at Sweetwater Saturday against John F. Finch, Abilene truck driver.

The charge, preferred by Lieut. Martin Koonsman of the Texas highway patrol, was filed in Nolan County court. Finch waived examining bonds, totaling $1,000 when the warrant was served here by Constable Dave Booth.

Virgil White, 25, of Snyder, and Miss Thelma Hash, 20, of near Roscoe, were killed when the machine in which they were riding with three other persons, crashed into a West Texas transportation truck driven by Finch.

The truck was parked on the highway, with exception of the right front wheel, which was 30 inches off the pavement, and there was no bulb in the rear light socket and no reflector, Lieut. Koonsman said.

Charges of driving a car while intoxicated had previously been filed against Robert (Buster) Baker, 28, of Colorado. Baker was driving a Chevrolet coupe in which White, Miss Hash and her brother and sister, John and Margaret Hash, were riding. John and Margaret were only slightly injured.

The Nolan County news reports that an attempt was said to have been made by one of the occupants of the car to avoid the collision by taking the wheel from Baker. The result was a side-swipe of the truck that whirled Virgil White, said to have been riding on the running board, into the truck and tore one side off the car, killing Thelma Hash, who was riding on the right side of the other occupants.

Eight Page Edition Of "Croak" Printed

An eight-page edition of The Croak, Fluvanna school publication, was issued from The Snyder News office Monday, and has been judged one of the best school papers ever printed in the county.

Copy and ads for the paper were prepared by the senior class, composed of eight members. Pictures of the entire class, with those of E. O. Wedgeworth, superintendent, E. H. McCarter, principal, Miss Myrtle Turner, primary leader, Inez Beaver, sophomore honor student, Charley Bley, star athlete, and the architect's drawing of the new school building, were also used.

Liberal advertising patronage from Fluvanna and Snyder permitted increase of the regular four-page paper to its eight page size.

R. W. Cleaver of Cisco was a business visitor in Snyder last week-end.

Baptists Meet With Roscoe Church for Council of Workers

The Mitchell-Scurry Workers' Conference for Baptists met with the Roscoe Baptist church Tuesday of last week in an all-day session. More than 200 workers from the various churches in the association were present to enjoy the full day.

The meeting opened with a spiritual devotional led by T. D. Wiman of Wastella. Two splendid discussions on the "Leadership of the Holy Spirit in the Work of the Church," were brought to the audience.

Rev. Chas. A. Powell, pastor of the University Baptist church, Abilene, delivered the 11:00 o'clock sermon. His subject was "The Lord's Map of Missions," and the audience was lifted to heavenly places.

The ladies of the Roscoe church served a bountiful dinner of baked chicken and dressing, salads, pie and coffee. The dinner was served at the tabernacle.

The afternoon was rich in good discussions on church finances and Kingdom progress.

The next meeting of the workers will be held at Union church on the Tuesday following the first Sunday in May.

Pleasant Hill Club Girls Meet Friday

The girls of the Pleasant Hill 4-H Club met at the home of Mrs. Earl Shepherd Friday, April 11. All the girls had their work. The house was called to order, and each member gave a brief report of what she had done since the last meeting. As the secretary could not keep up with her school work, club work, and keep the secretary book up like it should be, she resigned. Ruth Merritt was elected secretary, and Lola Bills as reporter.

Miss Jessie Lee Davis, demonstration agent, then looked over the work. This question was left up for us to decide on, "How should we make money for our treasure?"—Reporter.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS First Baptist Church

As we are almost through with our study of Paul's life, and as next Sunday is Easter, the nineteenth century, and the 1900th anniversary of our Lord's resurrection, it seems both fitting and proper to drop our regular lesson for the day, and give our reverent attention to that first Easter Day; the events that occurred on that day, and what it means to us, now and in the future.

So let every member of the class be present, be on time, and bring two or three others along; and let's have a pleasant and profitable 30 minutes together.—Your Teacher.

Legion Will Sponsor Comedy of Rookies

"Corporal Eagan" is the title of a home talent play that will be on in Snyder June 5 and 6 under sponsorship of the American Legion. Contract has been signed with the Universal Producing Company of Fairfield, Ohio, for the play, and preparations will be started within a short time.

An out-of-town director will have charge of staging the play. Special scenery and costumes are provided. "Corporal Eagan" is a sensational comedy of the American rookie. Choruses and many other musical numbers will feature the performance.

It May Be Urgent

When your Children Cry for It

Castoria is a comfort when Baby is fretful. No sooner taken than the little one is at ease. If restless, a few drops soon bring contentment. No harm done, for Castoria is a baby remedy, meant for babies. Perfectly safe to give the youngest infant; you have the doctors' word for that! It is a vegetable product and you could use it every day. But it's in an emergency that Castoria means most. Some night when constipation must be relieved—or colic pains—or other sufferings. Never be without it; some mothers keep an extra bottle, unopened, to make sure there will always be Castoria in the house. It is effective for older children, too; read the book that comes with it.

WHAT DR. CALDWELL LEARNED IN 47 YEARS PRACTICE

A physician watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the system and is not habit forming. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it.

Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic purges and purges. He did not believe they were good for anybody's system. In a practice of 47 years he never saw any reason for their use when Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly. Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope, but go to the nearest druggist and get one of the generous bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, or write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept. BB, Monticello, Illinois, for free trial bottle.

Gannaway Women Meet April 9 With Mrs. Fred Mueller

The Gannaway Women's 4-H Club met Wednesday, April 9, in the home of Mrs. F. D. Mueller. Mrs. D. E. Watson, president, called the meeting to order and members responded to the secretary's roll call with suggestions for the improvement of bedrooms. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, and a report from the membership committee heard.

Mrs. O. C. Maule, leader, directed a discussion of bedroom improvement, as follows:

"Walls and Their Finish," Mrs. J. W. Wade. 1. Color in Relation to the Room. 2. Wall Finishes. "Care and Cleaning," Mrs. Lon Hamil. 1. Daily Care. 2. Thorough Weekly Cleaning.

After adjournment a social hour was enjoyed. The hostess passed dainty plates of sandwiches and cake with lemonade, to: Misses, Lon Hamil, E. R. Jones, O. C. Maule, D. E. Watson, N. B. Wallace, J. W. Wade and H. C. Campbell, members; and Misses Johnnie Watson and Katy Ruth Wallace, guests.

Music Man Says He Likes It on Square

J. S. McEllothlin, proprietor of the Snyder Music Company, which has moved into the north section of the Snyder News building, likes his new location fine, he says. But he is not fond of the fellow who pilfered some of his records one night last week.

Someone who entered the building a day or two after the new store had moved in took nothing, as far as could be learned, except 12 or 15 records.
