"YOUR HOME COUNTY PAPER"

FORTY-FIFTH YEAR.

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 25, 1932.

SCURRYLY SPEAKING

By JAKE

I AM only one out of almost a million people who will go to the polls Saturday. Yet I plan to vote as if my ballot alone will be capable of choosing 17 state, district and county officials.

If I vote my prejudices, or if I vote without taking a squint at both sides of every issue and every candidate, I will not be a good citizen.

If I go to the polls unarmed with information that will permit me to vote intelligently, I am an amateur traitor to my citizenship.

If I allow the thought of personal gain to be my sole motive in voting, or if I allow my ballot to be secured by designing politicians or public-heat suckers, I should live in an absolute monarchy.

If I allow a newspaper or an individual or a group of individuals to tell me how to vote, I am no longer worthy to be a citizen of these United States or of this grand old state.

BUT IF I fail to read and listen to the facts and arguments extended by those who are working in the interest of candidates I oppose, I am neither fair nor unprejudiced nor a good citizen.

If my home newspaper, or any other newspaper, were to attempt to TELL me how to vote, I would boycott it. But if it presented the side of a question that I thought would benefit me and my neighbors, I would read what it had to say—then I would go and vote as I darn pleased.

Again, if I knew (and I do know) that my home newspaper has not turned down a single line of news matter from candidates it openly opposes, and that it has thrown its news columns open to Jim Ferguson just as it has to Ross Sterling, I would think twice before I condemned. Would you condemn your home paper if it happened to support YOUR candidate in its editorial columns?

WHEN I go to the polls Saturday, I shall vote as I see fit. It is absolutely opposite from yours, perhaps. But I shall vote if as honestly as you vote yours, as unashamed and as American as you vote yours, I shall be as patriotic as you, for I shall vote only after considering every candidate from the standpoint of the future prosperity and progress and good governmental policies of my state and nation and country.

I shall vote—

For Ross S. Sterling for governor of Texas, because I believe he is an honest and capable and responsible official, and because I believe, in particular, that his highway policy will continue to give Scurry County and the remainder of the state a system of modern roadways in such a manner as to give farmers and laborers a maximum of work. I believe the Sterling highway policy is for the common people, while the Ferguson highway policy is for the Legislature and the large tax payer.

FOR Kirk Parrish of Lubbock, congressman-at-large candidate, because he is capable, and because West Texas deserves two of the new congressmen, and has only this one chance of getting even one.

For Joe Merritt, candidate for state representative, because he has already proven his honesty and his desire to stand by the interests of his constituents. A vote for Joe Merritt, I believe, is a vote for uprightiness and straight-forwardness in state affairs.

The Times publishers have supported these three candidates editorially, and no others. They have not sought to be dogmatic. Rather, they have sought to present unvarnished facts, and to let their readers decide for themselves how they shall vote.

We dare any man to prove that we have been unfair to any opponent of either of these three preferences. We shall abide by the choice of the voters, without shedding a crocodile tear, even if all these preferences are not elected.

State Commissioner of Agriculture Coming to Von Roeders' Tuesday

Annual Field Day on Cotton Farms Expected to Attract At Least A Thousand Visitors.

J. E. McDonald, commissioner of agriculture, will be guest-in-chief at the annual field day on the von Roeder Farms, it was learned early this week. He will be accompanied by R. V. Miller, chief of the Field Seed Certification Division of the Department of Agriculture.

Tuesday, September 30, has been set for the event which has become one of the outstanding farm attractions in West Texas.

Preparations are being made to entertain at least 1,000 persons, according to C. N. von Roeder, who, with Nolan and Edgar von Roeder and Ed Murphy, have developed and propagated the Texas Mammoth cotton seed—a West Texas seed for West Texas conditions.

In addition to the two state officials, a number of other distinguished guests are expected. Victor Schoeffelmeier, agricultural editor of The Dallas News, has been invited. Managers of the Spur and Big Spring experiment stations are almost certain to be present.

Business Men Invited.

The von Roeders especially urge that business men from Snyder and other nearby towns attend the annual celebration. "We know every farmer within 50 miles who can possibly get away will come, but we also want everyone else who is interested in the future of West Texas crops" urge the hosts.

The main demonstration and entertainment will be held on the Nolan von Roeder place, 24 miles to the southwest of Snyder, in the edge of Borden County. Neighbors and other friends of the breeders will assist for Murphy community has been invited for its cooperation and hospitality.

In addition to the cotton demonstration, speeches and several forms of entertainment, there will be a giant feed at noon, free to all comers. A thousand watermelons have been saved for the occasion, and two large beaves are being made ready for the slaughter.

Work Started in 1923.

ANOTHER GANG ON ROAD WORK

At least one other gang of teams will soon be placed on the highway construction job northwest of Snyder, it has been announced by M. E. Walsh, foreman.

Three gangs of five teams each have been moving many tons of dirt within the past week. More gangs are being added as the work enlarges enough to permit.

With the exception of a few skilled workmen, all work is being done by Scurry County workers with their own teams. A man with a team is paid $6.24 an eight-hour day.

The job is extending northwest from the Davis place, seven miles in the order of the day, since bridges and other such structures will be completed near the end of the job.

The gang of teams that started just south of the Santa Fe depot already is breaking into the golf course, more than a mile northwest of town.

Workmen continue to be used on a six-day basis, in order that all who wish to work may do so. All applicants who can do the work are being used as their turn comes.

Youth Drowns In Tank Near Home East of Snyder

Funeral rites were held Saturday afternoon at the Hernleigh Baptist Church for Clyde Crumley, 15 years old, who drowned late last Thursday in a ground tank, nine miles east of Snyder.

Rev. Walter Deavers of Snyder officiated, assisted by Rev. C. E. Leslie of Hernleigh and Rev. J. F. Fields of Pleasant Hill. Interment was in the Hernleigh cemetery.

Clyde was the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Crumley. It is assumed he was white, and took the cramps and was unable to make it to the tank's shore.

Surviving are his parents; two sisters, Irene and Vera Crumley; and three brothers, Horace, Fred and Gerald Crumley.

Boss Ready for Biz.

We forgot to tell the world last week that Boss Baze and his wife are ready to face the world with a smile. A general front-to-back cleaning, a new paint job, newly calculated walls and new linoleum among the attractive features now offered all customers—and fine food, Boss reminds us.

Press Body Hits Illegal Balloting, U. S. In Business

Illegal voting, government in business and failure of the Legislature to re-district the state in order to give West Texas her share of congressmen were hit in resolutions adopted by the West Texas Press Association, in annual session at Big Spring Friday and Saturday.

Cooperation with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in its public expenditures program was pledged.

J. W. Roberts of Snyder won the annual golf trophy by shooting the Big Spring course with a 75. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smyth and daughter, Margaret, also attended the session.

San Angelo was given the next year's meeting. New officers are as follows: Ralph Shuffler, Odessa, president; Max Bentley, Abilene, vice president; Trena Miller, Rotan, secretary-treasurer; Wendell Bedichek, Big Spring, chairman of the board; Charles A. Gray, Lubbock, one-year member of the board.

A clever Friday night banquet program, over which Max Bentley presided, featured the entertainment program. An address by D. A. Bandeen, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, was outstanding Friday at the luncheon period.

PROMISE WORK ON HIGHWAY 83

Today's Abilene Morning News contains the following information concerning highway work in Scurry County:

"The $3,000,000 (West Texas) program will include the following projects, including the bridge construction:

"Paving of No. 83 from Roby west to the Scurry County line and building of the road in Scurry County.

"Rebuilding of Highway No. 7 (already under way) in Scurry County."

The Scurry County projects are included in a list of $10,000,000 worth of work for which bids will be taken at sessions of the commission September 18 and 19 and on an unannounced date in October, says the Abilene paper.

No other information concerning the work on Highway No. 83 is available to The Times.

SURFACING OF HIGHWAY NO. 101 PROMISED

French went ahead to state that surveys for the route, essential to determining whether highway construction should be made, would be started at an early date.

"The state is going to build this important road with absolutely no cost to the two counties involved, and from the right-of-way," Mr. French declared. "This has been made possible through the huge federal emergency road building project recently announced from Austin."

Whether or not any changes in the present route would be made can not be announced until engineers have made surveys. Mr. French said. He committed himself to the promise, however, that the paved thoroughfare would connect Colorado and Snyder and would pass through the town of Dumas.

French stated that the highway commission realized the importance of a north and south highway through Colorado. "I am confident," he said, "that within the near future Highway No. 101 may be extended south to intersection with Highway No. 9."

Revival for Church of Christ Concludes On Tuesday Night

The Church of Christ revival was ended at the city tabernacle Tuesday evening with one of the largest crowds of its 10-day tenure. Keen interest in the entire meeting was a source of pleasure to the visiting preacher, J. B. Nelson, of Dallas, as well as all local members of the church.

Seven were received for baptism during the meeting, and a number of reclamation were announced. A feature of the revival was the attendance of many people from various Scurry County communities.

The song leader, Curtis Rogers, of Colorado, is said to have been a deciding factor in the success of the meeting, since his leadership brought out the best singing that the tabernacle had heard in many a day.

Leaders of the local church ask The Times to express their appreciation for the cooperation of other Snyder churches.

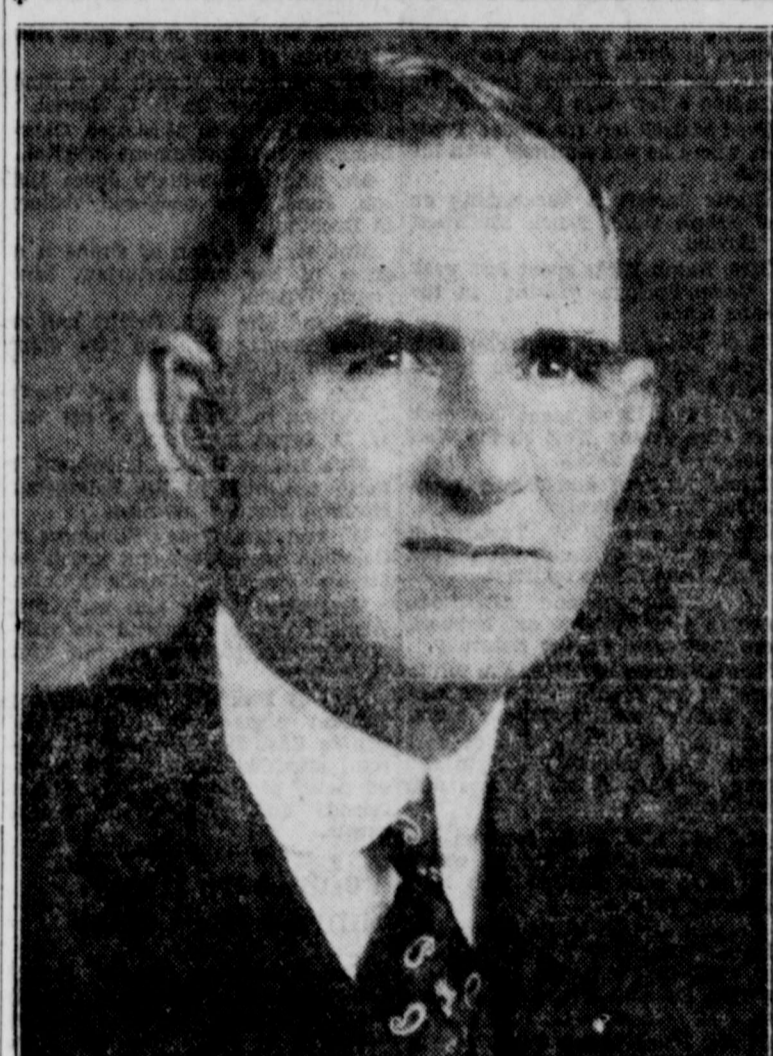

Postmistress To Be On District Program

Mrs. Gladys M. Anderson, Snyder postmistress, will speak in Littlefield on Labor Day—September 5—during the annual meeting of postal workers from the 18th District.

"What Three Cents Will Buy" is Mrs. Anderson's subject. It is probable that other local postal workers will attend the meeting, since Labor Day is a holiday.

Littlefield is making plans to entertain 150 visitors.

To Do Preaching in Baptist Revival

Dr. W. Y. Pond, outstanding evangelist, who has held religious revivals in every portion of Texas for a number of years, will do the preaching for the First Baptist Church protracted meeting which opens Sunday morning. Services, except on Sunday, will be at 10:00 o'clock and at 8:00 o'clock. Willard Jones will lead the congregational singing.

Company "G" Again Wins State Trophy

Company "G" did not bring home any bacon from Camp Hulen, Palacios, but her 67 men and officers captured a beautiful plaque engraved as follows: "Champion Combat Rifle Company, Thirty-Sixth Division, for 1932."

The trophy is doubly valued because it was also won last year and because all the other 41 rifle companies of the state tried for the prize. The honor designates the company as the governor's bodyguard for the year.

A streamer bearing the same legend as the plaque will later be forwarded to Snyder.

CHAIRMAN NOT WORRIED OVER BALLOT FRAUD

Thinks Carelessness and Lack of Knowledge May Be Behind Large County Vote.

The excessively large vote polled in Scurry and more than 130 other counties in the first primary is attributed by F. I. Townsend, local chairman, to natural causes and not to intentional fraud. Especially is this true in Scurry County, he says, since he believes that "there is no other group of voters in the state that have a higher regard for the integrity of their vote."

Mr. Townsend thinks that the unusual interest in this year's election, carelessness of election officials, and lack of knowledge on the part of some citizens account for most of the excessive voting, although rare cases of intentional fraud may have occurred.

Local Women Attend Eastern Star School

Nine representatives from Snyder and Scurry County attended the school of instruction, Order of the Eastern Star, held in Big Spring Monday.

They were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Black, Mrs. George Brown, J. E. LeMond, Lynn Wren, Odie Grump, Evelyn Browning, Mollie Conroe and Miss N. E. Browning. Mrs. R. V. Wilson of Crane accompanied the Snyder group.

Mr. Black, Mrs. Temple and Wren already have received certificates. The remainder of the party received their Monday, thus making the representatives 100 per cent with certificates.

FIRST COTTON OF SEASON IS BEING SEEN IN SNYDER

J. H. Norrell, living 15 miles southwest of Snyder, brought the first cotton of the season to town Wednesday evening, but he had to wait until this morning to get it run. Trice gin did the work.

The bale had not been sold as The Times went to press, but as the cotton grades strictly middling, 15-16 of an inch, it is expected to bring a handsome premium.

The bale weighs 410 pounds. It came out of a field of 68 acres, which Mr. Norrell estimates will easily yield a third of a bale to the acre.

Last year's first bale was owned by Hubert Robinson, living four miles northeast of Snyder. It was ginned August 27. The first bale in 1930 was ginned August 25, the first in 1929 August 12, and the 1928 bale September 12.

Three Speakers Orate Ferguson, Sterling Merits

A trio of speakers, two of them for Ferguson and one for Sterling, have told Scurry County voters the merits of their respective candidates within the past week.

Harry Tom King, Abilene, war-horse of the Ferguson regime, spoke at Fluvanna the middle of Saturday afternoon, and in Snyder at 5:00 o'clock. He was preceded here and followed at Fluvanna by Ellis Douthitt, speaking in the interest of Governor Sterling.

C. C. McDonald of Wichita Falls spoke for Ferguson here Tuesday evening.

Fair-sized crowds heard all the speakers. The Ferguson speakers largely followed the beaten trail of "Jim" campaigning, holding the past Ferguson record on high and condemning the Sterling administration. McDonald lattered on a bypath long enough to display a copy of the recent highway edition of The Scurry County Times and to refer to the publishers as ignoramus.

Douthitt was most concerned with the Sterling accomplishments, which he termed outstanding and helpful in Texas' hour of need.

Watt Glover Severs Blood Vein in Hand

Watt Glover accidentally cut a vein in his left hand, between the thumb and forefinger, Tuesday noon while building a cabinet at his home, 17 miles west of Snyder.

He was rushed to the Emergency Hospital, where first aid was given. He is very weak from the loss of blood, and is remaining in town at the home of C. L. Banks.

Local Budget MEET PLANNED

The proposed 1933 budget for the city of Snyder will be publicly discussed Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in the city court room.

As in the case of the school and county budget hearings, all citizens are invited to take an active part in the meeting, which is for the purpose of determining a fair and economic balance of expected revenue and proposed expenditures.

Free Election Party to Be Staged Again by Stinson Drug and Scurry County Times.

Voters who go to the polls Saturday—and Texas will have almost a million of them—will be obliged to choose 17 candidates from a list of 34, in contrast to the huge task of selecting men and women out of more than 130 names in the first primary.

Because of the keen interest in the governor's race, and in two or three local races, Scurry County is expected to poll as many votes as she did in the first primary, when the total advanced to about 2,400.

Grain O'Sand: An Ant in Distress

By Lucile Robertson
A STORY FOR CHILDREN

Grain O'Sand walked slowly down the path away from the leg, still thinking about it. He had forgotten all about the clouds overhead, he was just keeping a sharp lookout ahead, for he didn't know at what minute someone might come along.

"Pit, pat, pitter, patter, pat!" began the rain in big splashes. One drop hit Grain right squarely on the head so hard it knocked him over! He scrambled up, brushed the water out of his eyes, and finally got his breath again. By that time the rain was coming hard and fast, so the sand boy made for a grass root at the side of the path.

He settled himself comfortably under it to watch the drops falling and dancing about him. It was lots of fun, for some of the drops came bubbling and gurgling right up close to him, to invite him to come, and join the fun.

It was then that Grain heard a faint shout. "What was that?"

"Nothing," answered the rain drops. "Now, come and play with us."

But he turned his head to listen, which example the rain drops followed. Again came the faint shout, followed by a soft moan.

"Why, it's right down the path." He suddenly remembered the leg. "I think it is probably an ant who got hurt and it might be one of my friends."

"We'll take you down there," offered the rain drops, "for you might get tumbled all around in the water so you couldn't get there."

"Oh, thank you! But let's hurry."

Four or five of the drops seized him, to go dancing and whirling over the top of the water collected in the path.

"Oh-h, oh-h, what fun!" cried Grain. "You are my sea horse!"

But they all ceased laughing at once. In the path before them was an ant, lying on his back, and almost drowned by the water that was rising higher and higher over him.

"Why, you poor thing!" cried Grain. "How did you happen to be here like this?"

"Oh, help—help me—help me up," gasped the ant. Then Grain saw. One of his legs was gone. He was the wounded soldier ant.

"How can we ever move such a huge thing?" was Grain's next question.

"We will help you," answered the rain drops all together. "Here, you four go to his head—we need some more help. Hey! Come on, Drops, here they come. Now, some of you go to the other side and roll him over."

The rain drops went to work with a will, and soon had him over on his side, but he was writhing in pain.

"Oh, did we hurt you? I'm sorry," said Grain. "We were just trying to help you, you know. Can you stand up?"

"Yes. The water washed me over, because five legs don't hold one up as well as six, when he is used to six."

With the aid of Grain and the rain drops, he was soon standing up and shaking the water off.

"Look out!" called Grain, for an eddy of water had almost taken his feet from under him again.

"We'll guard you," the rain drops offered, gathering around him to keep back the current of water coming down the path.

"Now, who are you, and how did you get hurt?" Grain wanted to know.

"Well, since you have all been so kind, I'll tell you my story, as soon as I can get my breath a little bit."

VERY LATEST by MARY MARSHALL

Those restless home needles which already are yearning for activity on fall and winter apparel can now swing into action with full confidence of their owners as to style trends in the new fall dresses, suits and coats. The full Dolman sleeve and draped bodice are very correct and so diversified in adaptation that almost any figure can be made to look very chic.

Above is a new fall frock which has very much "it" as to style lines. In a gay lightweight woolen or a rough silk crepe this model will be one of the smartest of the new season and its wearer may step forth in confidence that admiring eyes are upon her.

In an off-navy blue, in a gay green or a bright hued rod crepe of red—the frock will radiate an autumn newness all its own. Note the pocket, note the sleeves and notice the straight lines to the skirt. They are all sartorially new.

POLITICAL Announcements

The Times is authorized to announce the following candidates for office...

For State Representative: 11th Representative District—JOE A. MERRITT of Snyder FRED C. HALE of Spur

For County Clerk: MRS. LOUISE E. DARBY MRS. MATTIE B. TRIMBLE

For District Clerk: MABLE ISAACS MARY MAUDE AKERS

For County Treasurer: MRS. OTTO S. WILLIAMSON EDNA B. TINKER

For Sheriff: G. H. LEATH S. H. (HENRY) NEWMAN

For Commissioner: Precinct No. 1—J. C. (LUM) DAY FOREST JONES

For Commissioner: Precinct No. 2—H. C. FLOURNOY HOLLY SHULER

For Commissioner: Precinct No. 3—LEE GRANT E. P. WICKER

For Public Weigher: Precinct No. 1—ZACK EVANS J. T. (JOHNNIE) JENKINS

To the Voters of Scurry County:

I wish to thank my friends for the loyal support given me in my race for county clerk in the July primary. Since then, I have given my entire time in an effort to see every voter, but I find I shall be unable to see them all.

If elected, it shall be my pleasure to serve you impartially and efficiently, with the utmost care to the details of the daily routine of official duties. I can confidently say I am qualified to be your county clerk because of my years of public life which have centered around the clerk's office from two different angles.

I have never before asked the people of Scurry County to elect me to office. I realize that election to office is evidence of the trust and confidence of a majority of those citizens who wield the ballot, and I am impressed with the responsibility which it brings.

To the Voters of Scurry County:

As my campaign for the office of county clerk draws to a close, I wish to again thank you for your kindness and support in the past, and ask your further careful consideration of my candidacy.

During the last days of a campaign there usually are various erroneous reports circulated. In the past few days I have heard reports from the various communities that my opponent is supporting her parents. Knowing my opponent as I do, I feel sure that she is not responsible for such report, since her parents are financially taken care of by Pension No. 28590 for $50.00 per month, according to the records of the state comptroller.

Either of our claims on financial grounds should have only minor bearing on the campaign, however, as after all, qualifications should count more than anything else, but I feel that the people should be set right on this erroneous report.

I am still running on my own merits and special qualifications. I am making no last minute claims. I can and shall serve you speedily, efficiently and courteously if elected. I ask that you remember me favorably next Saturday.

LOUISE E. DARBY.

To the Voters of Scurry County:

I have tried to see every voter and solicit your vote in this coming primary, August 27, and if I have failed to see you it has been unintentional. It is impossible for a candidate to see everyone personally, so please accept this as a solicitation of your vote and influence. It will certainly be appreciated.

At present on the public weigher's cotton yard tickets it says, "Not responsible in case of theft or fire." If I am elected I will strike out the word "theft," and assume all responsibility in case of theft.

I am asking you to cast your vote for me for public weigher, and you will never regret it. I will make you a good weigher and stay on the job. Sincerely, J. T. (JOHNNIE) JENKINS.

Mr. Collie Has Clean Record in Private And Public Life

AN EDITORIAL. The following editorial appeared in the Eastland Daily Telegram and the Eastland Weekly Chronicle on August 19th:

"Hon. Wilbourne B. Collie of Eastland, in the run-off for State Senator from this district, which is composed of 12 West Texas counties, is entitled to the undivided and solid support of every voter in Eastland County and should run well ahead of his opponent, Senator Oliver Cunningham, of Abilene, in the other counties of the district, with the possible exception of Taylor County, where Collie received an overwhelming majority of the vote.

Mr. Collie, a native of Eastland County, has a clean record, both in private and public life, and against which nothing could be said. He possesses innate ability, is absolutely honest, energetic and trustworthy. He is a tried and true Democrat, as the people well know, and against whom the charge can not be truthfully made that he ever bolted the ticket.

Fellow Citizens:

On August 27, next, you, in exercising your right and in keeping with your line of duty for responsibility in affairs of state, shall approve or reject the bids of those citizens who aspire to serve you.

To this consideration I humbly submit my candidacy and my record for county treasurer—over five years without a fumble. This record to me for years to come shall be a source of glowing pride, and never-ending gratitude for the privilege of giving my best efforts.

Elect public servants who are conscious of their responsibility for your interests. Elect public servants who have the courage, ability and initiative to "bring home the bacon."

The FAMILY DOCTOR by JOHN JOSEPH GAINES, M.D.

After Operation. An operation for diseased ovary? Removal of tumor? Of the appendix? Or, for hernia? If you have had any of these operations, yours is a "surgical abdomen," or has been. And, the nerves within that wonderful structure may not function for a good while as they did before you had the disease requiring the surgery.

I often tell my patients that have had operations: "Let a mechanic stoop down before your piano and saw a hole in its 'abdomen.' Let him go inside the instrument and remove part of the wires, and twist the others here and there. Then let him fill the wound in the wood-panel and varnish it anew, so that all evidence of the job is hidden. Would you expect the piano to play, after the internal damage to its strings?"

So it is with the surgical abdomen, whose nerves have been originally adjusted far more perfectly than any piano strings. You may have had the best surgeon on earth, for a most malignant condition—the operation may have been done in the highest skill of perfection—yet the damaged nerves may not perform naturally for a long time, until the parts have become adjusted to the new order of things. Give yourself a few months' time to get over the effects of your possibly life-saving operation.

If you have had a capital operation and yet have a quarrelsome belly, for goodness sake let up on your carpet tack diet of "roughage." Eat soft, easily assimilable, nourishing food—the kind that builds up wounded tissue and nerves. Let your bowel rest from the rough stuff; try smooth stuff.

How Modern Women Lose Pounds of Fat Swiftly—Safely

Gain Physical Vigor—Youthfulness With Clear Skin and Vivacious Eyes That Sparkle With Glorious Health

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses.

Every morning take one half teaspoonful of hot water before breakfast—cut down on pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar—in 4 weeks get on the scales and note how many pounds of fat have vanished. Get a bottle of Kruschen Salts—the cost is trifling and it lasts four weeks. If even this first bottle doesn't convince you this is the easiest, safest and surest way to lose fat—if you don't feel a superb improvement in health—so gloriously energetic—vigorously alive—your money gladly returned. But be sure for your health's sake that you ask for and get Kruschen Salts. Get them at any drugstore in the world. (Adv.)

Furniture Shipment Received by Keller

A full carload of new furniture is being unloaded and displayed by John Keller this week. The local merchant was in Dallas last week, where he purchased the large shipment.

Furniture for all parts of the house, including a number of suites at all prices, make up the shipment. "This furniture all is well built and beautifully finished, yet it is selling at remarkably low prices," states Mr. Keller. He believes the general upgrade within the past few weeks means that Scurry County people will be able to buy needed furniture which they have been denying themselves for some time.

Snyder, Texas, Thursday Afternoon, August 25, 1932

The Times Creed.

For the cause that needs assistance; For the wrongs that need redress; For the future in the distance; And the good that we can do.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN.

Clipped Philosophy.

The way to keep young is to associate with young people, and the way to get old is to try to keep up with them.

The Furs of the Times.

Pessimism Pete believes that the sale of fur coats is rushing in August because so many of the women in these parts have been given the cold shoulder by their husbands' pocketbooks. The next question is: How far will husband's credit go?

Here Is Saturday's Proposal.

From The Texas Weekly: "The proposal is that Jim Ferguson, a private citizen, shall exercise the powers of the office, without any accountability under the law for the manner in which he exercises them. And, as we have said, no man is good enough, or wise enough, or able enough to be entrusted with such powers in such circumstances."

Wise Merchants of Snyder.

Wise merchants are not taking any chances this year. They are stocking their shelves with brand-new, seasonal goods that will fill the bill for those who want the best at the lowest prices. There will not be a worth-while excuse under the sun for Scurry County folks to go elsewhere for merchandise this fall, or to send for stuff they have seen pictured in mail order catalogs.

Friendship vs. Politics.

No matter how heated we may become over politics—and heaven knows The Times has not been heated at all, although very much in earnest—all of us are due to remember that we must live as neighbors and friends until death do us part. If politics means the breaking of worth-while friendships, there must be something the matter with politics. Sterling or Ferguson, Davis or Bailey, Thompson or Hatcher, let us be friends.

Tom Hunter Speaks Softly.

Tom Hunter, the newly-risen giant in Texas politics, spoke softly a few days ago, for he has determined not to express his sentiments concerning the governor's race. But he called on voters of the state to go to the ballots box Saturday, regardless of their gubernatorial choice. The portly oil man-lawyer is priming himself for the chief executive's race two years hence, and he already has learned the value of silence such as Clint Small did not know after 1930's first primary.

Going Out to von Roeders?

Offhand, we can think of four reasons why you should attend the von Roeder field day next week. First, because the von Roeders have done a marvelous job of developing a West Texas cotton for West Texas. Second, because you will have fellowship with hundreds of your neighbors. Third, because the state commissioner of agriculture and other distinguished men will be on hand. Fourth, because there will be plenty of watermelons, barbecue and trimmings. Meet us at the watermelon patch!

The Dairies Suffer.

The ridiculous price at which milk is being in Snyder is due to the willingness of some buyers to forget that we will need good dairies long after the man with two or three cows has gone to work from another angle. Our dairymen are actually suffering. They are barely making enough income to buy feed for their cows and sustenance for their families, much less take care of all the other expenses incident to a well-kept dairy. We have good dairies, sanitary dairies. Let us keep them by patronizing them.

What School Time Means.

Announcement of the opening of a Scurry County school next week should remind all of us that a genuine crisis exists in connection with some of our institutions of learning. Delayed openings, skimpy equipment and inefficient methods will be necessary in some cases, but in many instances we can eliminate these little tragedies by sacrificing for the sake of our schools. If we depart from the very foundations of our nation's and our community's strength, how can we expect to be ready for prosperity when she returns?

No Time To Be Forgetting.

A few politicians would have you believe that Texas history and romance should be consigned to the waste-basket just because most of us are temporarily broke. They are advocating that the Texas Centennial Exposition be forgotten when we go to the polls in November, and that the amendment which would permit the Legislature to levy centennial

The Fergusons and the Newspapers.

The shower bath of diatribe and invective to which Texas newspapers are now being subjected by James E. Ferguson and his supporters on the stump finds none of them unprepared. All knew of old that this sort of thing was to be expected; it is a part of the price that must be paid in opposing men of the Ferguson stamp when they attempt to seize office. It has been the habit of professional politicians and office-seekers since the beginning of politics to charge unfairness to their opponents. It is one of the oldest in the politician's bag of tricks to accuse the newspapers which oppose him of being bought or subsidized. It is his defense when driven into a corner, when confronted with accusing facts which he cannot answer, or when faced with a record that will not stand the light of day.

That is the case today. The newspapers opposing the Fergusons—and they include practically every large daily newspaper in the state and the vast majority of those published in the smaller cities and towns—are doing so because of two things which touch closely the respectable newspapers' creed of responsiveness to public duty. These are the issue of responsible government and the official records made by the Fergusons themselves when they held the office of governor. The newspapers do not approve of setting aside the intent of the laws of the state and destroying the checks and balances provided by the constitution for the protection of the people. They would not approve even if there were assurance that no harm might result to the state. They specifically do not approve when it is a case of a politician who at a previous time when these protections were set aside established such a record as did Jim Ferguson when his wife was governor six years ago.

The newspapers believe that the person who occupies the high office should be subject to the laws of the state and the will of the people. With Mrs. Ferguson in the governor's chair, it has been proved, such will not be the case. Her husband was the actual governor during her term; he would be the actual governor again should she be elected, and everybody knows it. Into his hands would be given all the power and influence of this great office without any of its responsibilities. He would not be required to take oath of office; he would not be subject to the laws and will of the people; he would not be required to abstain from those forms of private employment which the constitution prohibits to the governor while in office. It is neither right nor safe public policy for any person to have such powers without the responsibility which the constitution hedges them about; it is specifically neither right nor good public policy for Jim Ferguson to have those powers again when the record of the time when he had them before is plain upon the state's books.

In such a situation, it is not surprising that the newspapers of the state should be found opposing Mrs. Ferguson. It would be surprising if they were not, for in that case they would be false to the obligations they owe their readers and recreant to the great cause of public righteousness. If the candidate were other than Jim Ferguson, the very people who are now assailing the newspapers with charges of unfairness would be denouncing them for faithlessness to public trust and for cowardice.

Jim Ferguson and politicians of his stripe never engaged in a campaign in which they did not charge opposition to them as actuated by improper motives. In this case it appears to be perfectly legitimate for Ferguson and his followers to assail the motives of their opponents, but grossly unfair for the newspapers to remind the public of the official acts of the Fergusons. The newspapers have done nothing more than this.

As to the charge of discrimination against Ferguson in news reports, it is but necessary to refer to the columns of the newspapers themselves. We have noticed that the larger newspapers which customarily travel correspondents with the candidates have traveled one with Mrs. Ferguson and her husband quite as often as they have with Governor Sterling. The Associated Press, which serves most of the newspapers, has done the same thing. We know of no large newspaper that has denied access to its columns to the Fergusons or their supporters, and if more space has been taken by Sterling speeches than by Ferguson speeches it is because Governor Sterling has spoken daily while the Fergusons have spoken but three times a week.

As to there being any unfairness in reminding the public of the records of the Fergusons, it may be pointed out that those records were not made by the newspapers, but by the Fergusons themselves, by their friends, appointees and administrative favorites. The newspapers had nothing to do with the awarding of highway work running into the hundreds of thousands of dollars without bid, contract or bond during the administration of Mrs. Ferguson. It is, however, their duty to remind the public that in the administration that now seeks a return Mrs. Ferguson's highway commission paid contractors 30 cents a square yard for asphalt surfacing which the contractors sublet at a little more than nine cents and on which one firm made $900,000 profit on $1,330,000 worth of work within a few months; that another made a $900,000 profit on the same character of work; that the courts held these prices and profits unconscionable and forced funds should be scratched. It seems to us that if ever there will be a time when Texas needs to raise her head above a crisis, and memorialize her pioneers and her accomplishments, 1934 is the time.

Ballot Box Purity.

The Texas Weekly calls attention to the fact that Texas could easily have polled as many votes as were recorded in the first primary, without a semblance of fraud. "Overs" and "unders," Editor Molyneux believes—and he proves his statement with the census figures—are thicker in the state than press reports have led us to believe. Nevertheless, says he, the possibility of fraud in a few instances exists, and should be summarily dealt with. It is our belief that not a false vote was intentionally cast in Scurry County, although a few might have been cast wrongfully without the knowledge of the voter.

The Campaign Hatcher.

W. Gregory Hatcher is fighting for a place on the State Railroad Commission through the use of that old, old theme song, "Down with the oil companies and monopolies!" It seems peculiar that Hatcher accuses Ernest O. Thompson, commissioner by appointment, of being a tool of the big interests, when we remember that the former Amarillo mayor was largely responsible for reducing utilities rates in the Panhandle city. Here is another typical Hatcher statement: "When an official has handled hundreds of millions of the state's fund while drawing a salary of $2,500 a year, and has never let one red cent 'stick to his fingers,' he should be elected to any office in Texas to which he might aspire." In other words, Mr. Hatcher is saying that just because a man has made an honest treasurer, he should be elected as governor, or what have you. Such is the philosophy of demagoguery.

THE SPEED CONTEST

By Albert T. Reid

the two contracting firms to return to the state approximately a million dollars. The newspapers had nothing to do with a highway contractor's testifying under oath that his profits from the Ferguson contracts had become so great that he was ashamed to look at them, but it is their duty to remind the public of the danger of such conditions returning.

This is the record of Mrs. Ferguson's administration—one phase of it only—but it is a record made not by Ferguson enemies but by Ferguson friends.

Neither did the newspapers have anything to do with the circumstances that brought about the impeachment of Jim Ferguson and the verdict forever barring him from holding office in the state, but it is the duty of the newspapers to remind the public that record when the man who made it is again endeavoring to get hold of the powers of government.

The newspapers opposing Ferguson have based their opposition upon these records and upon the principle of government involved. Being responsible institutions, the newspapers are constrained by the laws of libel to stay within the record, and if there were no libel laws the rule of fairness and responsibility to their readers, which every newspaper worth the name holds inviolate, would be as effective.

Do the publications which are the chief organs of the Fergusons conduct their part in the campaign in a fashion even approaching high-mindedness? These chief organs of the Fergusons are two—the Gladewater Journal and the Ferguson Forum. The former is not restrained by the laws of libel; the latter is not restrained either by libel or decency and good taste, as witness this, signed "Jim, the editor," in the issue of July 7, referring to those who oppose the Fergusons: "They are using the same lies that their hired character assassins who know not their father's name and whose mothers are lacking in virtue, used two years ago in connection with bastard hood to buy the governorship of Texas."

No newspaper opposing the Fergusons has used such language in referring to the opposition to Governor Sterling. None with the slightest regard for decency or the sensibilities of its readers would use such language. We repeat it for the apology to our readers, for the purpose of showing with what "kindness and fairness" Jim Ferguson, who complains of "unfairness" of others, regards those who oppose him, and as illustrating his ideas of how a newspaper should be conducted. Does Mr. Ferguson's Forum practice fairness toward those who oppose its candidate? Does the Forum publish accounts of Sterling speeches?

However, Mr. Ferguson's newspaper ethics can be discussed only in their absence. Undoubtedly he saw nothing wrong or unethical in using the power of the governor's office to obtain advertising for his Forum, as he did on April 30, 1925, when he sent out letters on the stationery of the governor's office asking "cooperation" in a campaign to advertise the resources and industries of Texas through the Forum. The letters were accompanied by a pledge form leaving blank the amount of the subscription, and they were sent to banks, industries and business men generally, and his solicitor called upon the highway contractors, the material men, the oil companies and all others who, having business with the state, might be desirous of currying favor with the proxy governor or of avoiding incurring his disfavor. And the pay received through this "co-

Supplying a week-to-week inspiration for the heavy-burdened who will find every human trial paralleled in the experience of "The Man Nobody Knows."

It was very late in the afternoon in Galilee. The dozen men who had walked all day over the dusty roads were hot and tired. The sight of a village was very cheering, as they looked down on it from the top of a little hill. Their leader sent two members of the party on ahead to arrange for accommodations, while he and the others sat down by the roadside to wait.

After a bit the messengers were seen returning, and even at a distance it was very apparent to them that something of unpleasant nature had come about. Their cheeks were flushed and their voice were angry. Breathlessly they told it—the people in the village had refused to receive them, had given them had notice to seek shelter somewhere else.

The indignation of the messengers communicated itself to the others. This back-woods village refuse to entertain their master—it was unthinkable. He was a famous public character. He had healed sick people and given freely to the poor. In the capital city crowds had followed him.

"Lord, these people are insufferable," one of them cried. "Let us call down fire from heaven and consume them." The others joined in with enthusiasm. Fire from heaven—that was the idea! Make them smart for their boorishness! Show them that they can't affront us with impunity! Come, Lord, the fire—

There are times when nothing a man can say is nearly so powerful as saying nothing. Every executive knows that instinctively. To argue brings him down to the level of those with whom he argues; silence convicts them of their folly; they wish they had not spoken so quickly; they wonder what he thinks. The lips of Jesus tightened; his fine features showed the strain of the preceding weeks. He needed that night's rest, but he said not a word. Quietly he gathered up his garments and stared on, his outraged companions following. It is easy to imagine his keen disappointment. . . . Would they never catch a true vision of what he was about?

Down the hot road they tramped after him, awed by his silence, vaguely conscious that they had failed again to measure up. In the operation" plan for Forum advertising in many cases would have paid for page advertisements in any of the larger papers Jim Ferguson is now accusing of being "bought," and in some instances in all of them.

The newspapers which are opposing Ferguson are not concerned about the accusations he and his followers make against them, knowing that such are only the expected. They know that the one purpose of those making them is to divert attention from their own records and acts. And the newspapers know that by standing for public morality now they will be able to face the future when inevitably, whether or not the Fergusons are elected, the principles of public honesty, of responsibility in government as demanded in the constitution, will hold sway in Texas.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

The billion-dollar revenue act which has been the source of much speculation is causing the shekels to clink in treasury vaults, with bank checks producing the most revenue money and the gasoline tax bringing in the second largest number of shekels. . . . And the report for June's last nine days says the two-cent check tax brought in $1,094,267 on this item. . . . Whether the billion dollars in special taxes will be raised is an uncertain question, but Washington notes an improved morale among treasury officials.

An ex-convict made an interesting talk in Snyder last week while on his way to Austin to attempt to regain his citizenship papers. . . . His theme was: Don't violate the law, because you can't get away with it. . . . Typical oratorical broadside: The garden spot of the world is in you own home. . . . Be sure to read the account of the West Texas Press Association on another page of this paper. D. A. Bandeen timely urged a home town week for every city as one of the association's highlights. . . . Progressive Texans, Inc. and this organization of newspaper men are going to put West Texas on the map of progress, and are sure to join as a booster for West Texas.

John Gilbert used clever strategy in "Downstairs," which you saw the other night. . . . Finding that he ceased to be a hero, he wrote "Downstairs," sold it for $1, is now popular as a villain in reel life. . . . August 16 telegraph operators had an exciting day, because they flashed to the vast network of newspapers the news of the birth of a second child to the Limberghs. . . . Oftentimes a trail of adventure and romance is the news photographer's lot, as he sets up his camera to tell "a story in pictures, which leaves nothing untold." . . . Because Charles A. Americans are eating more meat. They ate 152,000,000 pounds more of pork and 13,000,000 pounds more of lamb for the first six months of this year than last year, and increased meat consumption is upping cattle prices. . . . The Indians have their cliff dwellers; while we have river dwellers. A typical example is in Oklahoma, where impoverished white people exist in crude tents along river banks. Fishing supports them, and as they move from place to place they present a pathetic picture of citizen backwash eking out a scant fare of living, interspersed with bootlegging frays, which they settle with fights.

Another Collie Falsehood Explained

Collie in a last-minute circular and publication in his home paper states as follows:

"Your Senator asserts that he is against Bond Issues but the record discloses the fact that he introduced two resolutions himself calling for gigantic bond issues. One of them was Senate resolution No. 11 in which he tried to put over a $50,000,000 State bond issue and create a State Farm Board of commissions modeled after the one that has cost you people $400,000,000 under Hoover's administration. In his bill Cunningham provided that this Board could tax the farmers $1 for every bale of cotton they grew to pay the interest and loss."

The truth is Congress passed the Hagan-McNaire Farm Relief Bill providing for loaning money to farmers on their products, and for an equalization fee to pay interest and storage charges. This bill was vetoed by President Coolidge, leaving no law giving any relief. I then sought to give relief through the State and introduced a resolution to amend the constitution so as to permit the State to loan money to farmers on their cotton and to issue State Bonds not to exceed $50,000,000 to raise the money to loan the farmers. To reduce interest and storage charges to the lowest possible amount I provided for a charge not to exceed $1 per bale.

The farmer who borrows money now on cotton pays more than $5 per bale for storage and interest under the present Hoover bill.

After my message was introduced Congress passed the present Hoover law which permits the loan of money through corporations. The statement that my bill was patterned after the present Hoover bill is false. My bill was patterned after the one that was vetoed by President Coolidge.

Resolution No. 14 referred to by Collie sought to amend the constitution so as to authorize the State, Counties and Cities to establish and run electric light plants so as to try and break the present monopoly of the Utilities which is crushing the people.

Our pastor, Rev. J. W. McGaha, of Ira, preached three fine sermons at the school house over the week-end. The Baptist revival meeting which was supposed to be held through this week was postponed. There is such an abundance of feed in this community to be harvested and part of which has already begun to fall, it was decided best to save the feed as working in day time and sitting up nights doesn't mix well.

TIGER TRAINING CAMP SET FOR START MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 5

A Few Lettermen and a Flock of Greenhorns Anticipated by Red-Headed Coach.

With two consecutive regional championships to their backs, and with the possibility of winning another, Snyder's High School Tigers will open training camp on Monday, September 5.

At least 40 men, including seven lettermen, a dozen or so second-stringers from last year's squad, and a whole passel of greenhorns are expected to be ready for their preliminary paces when Coach Red Moore blows the first whistle in 10 days. The camp will be held on Tiger Field, which has been kept in excellent shape by good summer rains and care.

The coach is not as confident about his chances of coping another title as the majority of drug store coaches and players. "Let's wait and see what the boys can do," reads his cautious prophecy.

Plenty of Prospects.

Like West Texas farmers, Snyder has fair and brightening prospects. If a whirlwind in the form of unexpected competition doesn't come along, and if some of the budding prospects don't break their necks, a third banner may float over the battle-scarred stadium next fall.

But there is plenty of room for argument. Although Moore's backfield gives promise of mucho power and speed and defensive strength, the line has a different story to tell. In fact, the line has Red a bit worried. Unless some of the new material comes through with a winning punch, there will be two or three weak spots in the line, just as there were early last year.

Intensive Training.

Moore's pre-school training camps are noted for thoroughness. Soft muscles become hard, and huddled brains get going. A back-ground of hard training is one of the reasons for the Tigers' success, the coach will tell you.

This year's camp will be no exception. Two or three drills will be held daily, in addition to one session of skull practice.

Bedford McClinton and Theo Rigby are the co-captains who will lead their buddies through the paces of 1932. Buck Howell, Clint Fesaire, Richard Jenkins, Billy Lee and Green complete the list of seven lettermen out of the 16 who graduated last spring. Three out

ONLY TWO OPEN DATES ON TIGER SCHEDULE OF YEAR

Only a pair of open dates remain on the Tiger schedule, said Coach Moore yesterday, and it is probable that these will be filled by Lamesa, Midland or Slaton. A game with Sweetwater is practically certain, but no date has been set.

The conference schedule reads in this wise:

October 14	Rotan at Snyder
October 21	Blackwell at Snyder
October 28	Roby at Roby
November 11	Roscoe at Snyder
November 18	Merkel at Snyder

of this group were only semi-regulars.

Good Second Stringers.

A group of hard-hitting second stringers last season are destined to be part of the team's backbone this year. Among these are Royce Eiland, Eldon Birdwell, Ralph Neal, Sonley Huestis, Aubrey Wiese, Jack Martin, Studie Smith and Roy Burnett.

One of the big assets of the new line-up will be Elmo Dunn, letterman at Colorado two years ago, who attended the local school last year and qualified for local competition. Plenty of stories have been told of his ability. If he lives up to them, he will be a healthy cog in the backfield or line.

It is possible that some unsung heroes may spring out of the wilderness, just as Johnston and Greenfield appeared two years ago and Johnson appeared last year.

Mitchell-Scurry Association Will Meet Next Week

The Mitchell-Scurry Baptist Association will convene at Loraine Tuesday in annual business session, according to Rev. Philip C. McGahey of Snyder, moderator of the two-county group.

One of the largest crowds ever to attend such a gathering is expected to be present, since unusual interest in association work has been prevalent this year, says the moderator. A number of local church members, as well as many from other parts of Scurry County, are making plans to be present.

Rev. T. L. Nipp of Fluvanna will preach the introductory sermon. Reports will be heard from all phases of the work for the past year, and lunch will be served by Loraine people. The W. M. U. and pastor's and laymen's conference is to be held at 10:00 o'clock in the morning.

Officers of the association, in addition to the local pastor, are: Rev. A. C. Hardin, Loraine, vice moderator; J. Q. Woodard, Roscoe, clerk; Rev. L. L. Trott, Champion, corresponding secretary; J. L. Bowen, treasurer.

Work at Post Office.

The post office building, on which a large amount of repair work recently was done, has been receiving a brand new coat of inside paint this week, with Travis Rhoades wielding the brush. The federal building has certainly changed complexions during the summer months.

Little Dorothy Is Playing Today, But Not So Last Week

Today, Dorothy Moore, 15 months old, is playing contentedly on the floor at her home.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Moore, who reside four miles southwest of Snyder, are happy also. They have a right to be happy.

As a result of immediate respiration little Dorothy's life was saved Friday morning. About 9:00 o'clock the child followed its mother and grandmother into the garden. Unobserved she fell into a nearby ground tank.

Frantic cries attracted her parents, who rescued her. She was hardly breathing. Mr. Moore worked with the child for 15 minutes. Then Dr. W. B. Johnson and Joe Stinson arrived to assist with the artificial respiration, which was continued for many minutes before the child was breathing freely.

That's why Dorothy is enjoying her playthings.

BALLOT FRAUD

and fairness in conducting said primary election, I am giving you this notice.

The election laws of this state read as follows regarding illegal voting:

"If any person knowing himself (or herself) not to be a qualified voter, shall at any election vote for or against any officer to be then chosen, he (or she) shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years."

It is further provided that any person who shall swear falsely as to his (or her) qualifications to vote shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. Illegal voting will be required into and if it is found that any person or persons have committed any offense against the election laws, such persons will be promptly indicted and prosecuted.

Who Is Qualified to Vote.

If it comes to my knowledge that any of the officers of the election in this county are wilfully guilty of violating the election laws in order to favor or defeat any candidate, I will personally see to it that such person is prosecuted to the full extent that the law permits. Any person who is otherwise qualified, and who is totally blind or deaf and dumb, or who has lost a hand or foot or is permanently disabled, or who is 60 years of age BEFORE January 1, 1931, or has become 21 years of age SINCE January 1, 1931, is entitled to vote without a poll tax receipt.

All other persons must present their poll tax receipt to the presiding judge of the election, and the receipt must show that the poll tax was paid BEFORE February 1, 1932. If payment was made AFTER February 1, 1932, the judge of the election should refuse to allow the holder of the receipt to vote. If you have lost or mislaid your poll tax receipt, you can make affidavit to that effect and be allowed to vote, but in order to expedite the work of holding the election, I urge all voters to have their poll tax receipts with them when they present themselves at the polls to vote.

DR. POND WILL LEAD REVIVAL FOR BAPTISTS

Two-Week Meeting Begins Sunday Morning: Willard Jones in Charge of Singing.

The leading role in the protracted meeting which begins at the Baptist church Sunday morning, will be played by Dr. W. Y. Pond, head of the Baptist state evangelistic department, one of the denominations outstanding revivalists and soul winners for a number of years. He will preach morning and evening for two weeks.

Morning services will begin at 10:00 o'clock, except on Sunday, when the regular 11:00 o'clock service will be held, and evening services will begin at 8:00 o'clock. Willard Jones, local choir leader, will be in charge of congregational singing. A junior choir will be organized.

Rev. Philip C. McGahey, local pastor, makes the following announcement in regard to the meeting:

Everyone Is Invited.

"The public is cordially invited. We trust that every Christian in this town will feel an interest and concern in this revival. Our town needs a great revival, and it is up to us Christians to pay the price for it. If we do not it will not be had. We want you to come and we also want you to pray for the meeting. Prayer and faith will do mighty things. We ask that you help us do mighty things for the glory of the Lord."

"No greater preacher could be obtained than Dr. Pond. He is a soul winner. He lives and thinks soul winning every hour of the day. By his mighty preaching he causes men and women to desire to be soul winners, and also causes souls to desire to be won to Christ. He has been in the evangelistic work in Texas for the past nine years. During that time he has been known to Christ under his ministry and preaching. He knows the need of every lost man's soul. He loves lost men's and women's souls. He is literally giving his life for them. He knows what sin is, and he hates the sin and the devil, but he loves the sinner, and desires to win him from sin."

Hear Sin Denounced.

"If you do not want to hear sin denounced in no uncertain terms, then you had better not come to the meeting. The church here begins next two weeks for Dr. Pond fights sin with all his power."

"The Baptist Church of Snyder feels itself fortunate to be able to secure the services of this man of God. He is one of our greatest and best. We are praying to each one of you some spiritual blessings that will remain with you throughout life if you will come and be with us in this great soul winning campaign. We want you both lost and saved, each service of this revival. 'Come, thou with us and we will do thee good.'"

FINE CROWD AT DRUG MEETING

Lee Stinson, local druggist, attended the annual meeting of the West Texas Druggists Association held in San Angelo last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

The Snyder man states that it was a splendid convention and that the attendance was above the average. Floyd Brown of Lubbock was elected president and E. C. Phillips of Big Spring was elected vice president. Amarillo was chosen as the 1933 hostess city, competing with Abilene and Mineral Wells.

Besides the business sessions, various socials were given. An old-fashioned chuck wagon dinner was served Wednesday. Thursday noon a luncheon was given, and that evening the guests were entertained with a business and dance.

Bill Ingram of New York was a prominent figure at the convention.

Presbyterian Church

You are cordially welcomed at the Presbyterian Church Sunday, Sunday School at 9:45 a. m., morning worship at 11:00. At the morning service the pastor will preach on the subject "The Living Christ in the World of Today."

This will be the last service conducted by the present pastor in the Snyder Presbyterian Church.

If Voting Repeats Itself, These Are Saturday Results

Even if voting in the Texas governor's race "ain't what she used to be," some prophets are using results in the first primary and in the two primaries of 1930 to prove that their favorite will come through with flying colors.

A few tell-tale figures are here presented:

First primary, 1930—
Ferguson, state	242,958
Sterling, state	170,754
Small, state	138,934
Ferguson, county	631
Sterling, county	1,011
Small, county	1,011
Second primary, 1930—
Sterling, state	473,371
Ferguson, state	384,402
Sterling, county	1,426
Ferguson, county	1,234
First primary, 1932—
Ferguson, state	400,000
Hunter, state	295,000
Hunter, state	200,000

(These figures are approximate.)

Ferguson, county	768
Sterling, county	563
Hunter, county	839

Mary Harkey Not To Be Moved Next Week

A godsend in the form of a "stay" order was received by Miss Mary Harkey, local Western Union manager, a few days ago. As a result, the "go" order, over which Mary and Snyder citizens had been mourning for several weeks, was thrown into the wastebasket.

Miss Harkey was to have been laid off temporarily, at least, and replaced by a man who is her senior in point of service. Opening of a new office in Arkansas, where the proposed new manager has been stationed, saved the day, so Mary will not move. She is the youngest manager in the division.

A petition containing the names of practically every Snyder business man was circulated recently in the interest of keeping the manager in Snyder.

FIRST SCHOOL OPENS MONDAY

The first school opening exercises in Scurry County this year will be staged at Dunn Monday morning at 9:00 o'clock. Guy Stark Jr., who succeeds W. C. Hooks as superintendent, states that a program has been arranged for the occasion, and that a fine group of patrons is expected to be present.

A. A. Bullock, county superintendent, will be among the speakers.

Mr. Stark was promoted from the principal's place when Mr. Hooks resigned last year. Cleo W. Tarter, formerly with the Fluvanna schools, is the new principal.

The Dunn board of trustees is composed of T. J. Fuller, president; O. Farrar, secretary; Jackson Ellis, Fred Cotton, Nat Bilingsley, Henry Ellerd and Thomas Echols.

VON ROEDERS

long, hard staple, 'way back in 1923, we more or less wasted the next few years from a cotton breeding standpoint," the von Roeders declare. "We didn't know the best way to propagate and develop our wonderful plant. True, we made several single stalk selections in subsequent years, but we carried them only one or two seasons before we "massed" their seed and thus lost their individuality.

"In the last few years we have studied cotton breeding from a more scientific angle, and now we develop our commercial seed from a single stalk that makes the most satisfactory score in our breeding block and first multiplying blocks each year."

But It Takes Time.

"Of course, it takes four years with good yields for a single stalk to develop seed in commercial quantities. The first two of these years we had the seed ginned on a mill-lature gin at Texas A. & M. College, where we get absolutely no seed mixture, and the next two on our local gins under the strictest care and supervision. Thus our cotton should be pure and linebred."

Despite the fact that practically no cotton seed was sold last year in West Texas, the von Roeders easily disposed of their full quota of seed, and had calls for more. All cotton grown from their seed brought a handsome premium. It is already being raised in a number of counties. State certification has been virtually assured for this, the third year of inspection. Certification can not be obtained in a shorter length of time.

Between 500 and 1,000 persons attended the field day last year. The number is expected to be doubled this year, since the celebration has been advertised extensively. The hosts insist that no charge will be made for anything, and that arrangements have been made to entertain a crowd of any caliber. The demonstration will begin about 9:00 o'clock, and will continue throughout the day.

"Ain't this just like hell?" ejaculated a Yank.

"Ah, zese Americans," exclaimed a Frenchman, "where have zey not been?"

UNEQUAL REGULATION IN TRANSPORTATION CAUSES DISORDER AND CONFUSION

● The instability, confusion and disorder which unrestrained truck transportation has brought about is responsible in large measure for much of the distress to which all business finds itself today. Texas has moved to find a remedy and all concerned in the welfare of this state and its institutions should cooperate in the effort to restore stability and order to our transportation systems.

The Texas Railroads, in these advertisements, have endeavored to place before the people of this state some of the reasons why the existing laws, regulating motor transportation, should be upheld and enforced.

1. The railroads are necessary for the successful marketing of the enormous production of this state, which is used and consumed in every other state in the union.
- Uniform, published, non-discriminatory transportation service rates are essential to the orderly conduct and welfare of business.
- Unregulated truck transportation inevitably results in discriminatory charges and practices, rebating, unfair and unbusinesslike competitive methods, bringing about losses and commercial insecurity.
- The wholesaler, jobber, retailer and local merchant suffer from the unfair competition of truckers and peddlers who, for the most part, are non-residents, pay no taxes and contribute nothing to the community welfare.
- The farmer and agricultural producer must have at his command facilities adequate to transport crops and produce which move long distances in large volume, at low cost, by rail.
- The railroads build and maintain their own roadways, pay heavy taxes for the support of state and municipal governments and institutions, and expend millions of dollars for payrolls, materials and supplies. Railroad workers are substantial citizens, home owners, and valued members of their communities.
- Rail transportation is the most efficient and economical in existence for the movement of traffic in volume by land.
- Texas highways belong to the people and are built and maintained at heavy cost. Their use for commercial purposes is a privilege, not a right. They should be kept safe for general use and not prematurely destroyed by heavy trucks.
- The stability, security and orderly conduct of business require reasonable control and regulation of all transportation agencies.

YES, MA'AM, WE DO TRY TO BE HELPFUL

Women who patronize Conoco Service Stations are delighted with the courtesy and helpfulness of Conoco salesmen. There is nothing forward or obtrusive about their service, but it has the little touches of respect and thoroughness that make it pleasing.

Conoco men always see that your windshield is polished clean, that your tires are checked accurately and that the radiator is filled... without splashing. They are glad to furnish battery water, if you desire.

Women are especially pleased with the spotless, plainly marked Conoco rest-rooms which are available for them.

Women who are traveling by car find Conoco service invaluable. At any Conoco station they can learn the condition of near-by roads, receive accurate mileage and route information, obtain dependable road maps and authentic details about local hotels, camps, sports and sources of supplies. The Conoco man will check packages and arrange to handle mail and telegrams.

All of these services are free, of course; not only free, but rendered with a spirit that leaves no doubt that the Conoco man is eager to be helpful.
