"YOUR HOME COUNTY PAPER"

FORTY-FIFTH YEAR.

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1933.

NUMBER 35

SUB-ZERO WEATHER ON RAMPAGE IN THIS AREA

Sudden Wintry Siege Injures Stock And Other Property.

The Ground Hog's shadow forecast one of the swiftest and coldest onslaughts of winter that Scurry County has seen in recent years. Biting temperatures swept off the Plains early Tuesday morning, dropping the mercury within seven degrees of zero, and spreading a thin blanket of snow and sleet across houses and lands.

Another downward swoop of temperature Tuesday night, after a blizzard day, brought seven-below-zero as the official low, and left a trail of damage even greater than the Monday night surprise.

The lowest point reached here by the official thermometer kept by W. R. Merritt was seven degrees below zero. In 1930, the official was eight degrees below. These two marks are believed to be lower than any others recorded here since 1917.

Damage Not Excessive.

Fortunately, the bitter wind that accompanied part of the sudden burst of cold weather was not too speedy, and no heavy loss of range cattle and other stock is reported. The sub-zero weather has sapped many herds considerably, however, especially in view of the heavy feeding program this season.

Taken as a whole, the cold spell has been a boon to farmers, accompanied by a good rain, and accompanied by sleet, ice and snow, it has left fine moisture. Most observers are of the opinion that fruit trees will be held back long enough to help bring a bumper crop for the first time in several years.

The heaviest damage, aside from that to cattlemen, struck automobiles and water pipes.

Many "Busted" Cars.

Garage men report more repair jobs on radiators, engine heads and blocks, and other auto parts effected by the severe cold, than at any other time that can be recalled. The supply of alcohol and other anti-freeze compounds is said to have been practically exhausted.

Many broken water pipes were revealed, especially in Snyder, when the thaw began Wednesday afternoon.

The cold-breathed clouds made way for bright sunshine yesterday, and the night and Thursday morning dawned clear and not too cold.

All Texas, and practically all of the remainder of the country, bore the brunt of the fast-moving cold streak.

DIRECTORS OF TIMES IN MEET

Stockholders of the Times Publishing Company, Incorporated, publishers of The Scurry County Times met Monday in regular annual business session.

All directors and officers were re-elected.

J. W. Roberts, Willard Jones and J. C. Smith were elected in charge of the plant for the third consecutive year.

Heart Attack Is Fatal To Scurry County Pioneer

Sudden Wintry Siege Injures Stock And Other Property.

A heart attack brought almost instant death to L. Caton, resident of Scurry County for almost 30 years, at 9:00 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The 79-year-old retired farmer was in good health when death came. He had come to town from his home in West Snyder on Monday, and was moving about in the house when the attack struck Tuesday morning.

The remains were carried overland to Medina by an Odum Funeral Home car early Wednesday morning. Services were to have been held at the South Texas town, former home of the Catons, in the afternoon.

Mr. Caton was a quiet, unobtrusive man. He was one of the most faithful members of the local Methodist church. He had lived on his Scurry County farm during most of the past 30 years, and had been in Texas for 42 years. A few years ago he moved to his last home in West Snyder, where he lived with his wife.

Seven children survive. Joe Caton, Snyder merchant for a quarter century, is best known to people of this area. The others are: Ed and P. M. Caton of Medina, Emmett Caton of Independence, Mrs. R. L. Lattin of Stamford, Mrs. Ira T. Bell of Houston, Mrs. O. W. Kesse of Junction, two brothers, T. M. Caton of Waco and F. Caton of Charleston, Arkansas, also survive.

Rural Aid Money Is Delayed For County

Superintendent Frank Farmer states that the latest rural aid money, representing $1 of the appropriation, has not been received, although it is long overdue.

Several schools are said to be in dire need of the money in order to continue regular operation.

Otto Mund Operates His Produce House

Otto Mund, owner of the Farmers Produce Company since 1929, has become active manager of the concern, and has moved his equipment to the building just south of the Poteet blacksmith shop, one block north of the square. He returned to Snyder recently from his ranch home in southwest Texas.

Mr. Mund announces that his company will continue to be local agents for Swift & Company, and is in the market for chickens, hides, cream and other produce.

J. Wright Moorar Holland's Series Are Widely Read

The series of articles in Holland's Magazine, written by Dr. J. W. Hunt, president of McMurry College, Abilene, concerning the experiences of J. Wright Moorar, pioneer Scurry County buffalo hunter, are attracting wide interest, according to the following account in Sunday's Abilene Reporter-News:

Dr. Hunt's articles, entitled "Buffalo Days," are based on the experiences of J. Wright Moorar, famous buffalo hunter, in the American Bison Society of the Zoological Park, New York City, has written requesting information concerning the Hunt series, and has asked for all the articles.

The Abilene man has received a letter from this organization expressing appreciation for his historical contributions. The society also has sent Dr. Hunt a copy of its latest report and the last census on the American bison.

Letters from New Jersey and other northeastern states have been received relative to the articles, and friends of Hunt and Moorar are writing the magazine and the author of their appreciation for the series.

Fire At Snyder Gin Does Slight Damage

A fire that threatened to assume big proportions was put out at the Snyder Gin late Friday afternoon before the flames passed beyond control.

One bale on the platform evidently started the fire when it burst open and spread to other bales. Although several bales were aflame, H. L. Wren, manager, reports that the loss did not exceed a total of two bales.

The two fire trucks made a quick run to the gin.

Schools Delayed on Account of Weather

Several schools of the county have been severely handicapped because of the inclement weather, but most of them have gone back to the regular schedule.

In Snyder, absence has been the lot of many students, but the regular schedule of classes has been followed. Fluvanna schools were dismissed Wednesday, principally because the block of one of the bus engines was completely put out of commission. A frozen boiler forced the Hermleigh schools to turn out the same day.

LITTLE COTTON LEFT IN FIELDS

When the icy weather came down from the north Monday night, Scurry County gins had just about exhausted the 1932 cotton crop.

It is impossible to obtain full reports until after the thaw because several gins are closed. Estimates, however, place the total yield between 56,000 and 57,000 bales. The report printed in The Times two weeks ago showed more than 54,000 bales ginned.

The Times is preparing an article for next week's publication that will show, from official figures, that the 1932 crop is about three times the total yield of the past three years, and at least 25 per cent higher than any previous crop in the history of the county.

OWLS BECOME COUNTY COURT CHAMPS AGAIN

Dunn Basketeers Cinch Crown For Second Year By Topheavy Win Over Pyron.

By running up the topheavy score of 61-11 against the Pyron quintet Friday, the Dunn Owls won undisputed championship of county basketball for the second consecutive year.

The Owls flew through the season without a defeat by a county team. Ira gave them the biggest scare late in January, when the Dunn boys were able to squeeze out with only a two-point victory.

Fluvanna occupies second place in the county standings, and Ira is third.

Full details of late games in the county series have not been turned in to the Interscholastic League athletic director, R. L. Williams of Snyder, and the standings of Pyron and Hermleigh can therefore not be given.

Dunn's team is coached by Gilbert Mize. Its members are Morris Ashley, Charlie Johnston, J. P. Ellis, Ray Sherrill, Paul Johnson, Royce Johnson and W. S. Goodlett.

Tournament Planned

County basketball tournament will be held in Snyder February 25 if sufficient interest is aroused. He asks that every school interested notify him at once.

A meeting of all school officials who wish to enter their schools in the track and field division of the annual League tournament late in March has been called for Saturday afternoon, February 18, in the county superintendent's office.

First Monday One Of Best Trading Days Seen Here In Number Of Years

"Whatabind? Whatabind!"

The call of the auctioneer, the typical swapping and buying of "the good old days," the milling of several hundred men and animals.

This is the picture presented by the best first Monday trades day that Snyder has witnessed in many a year.

The proverbial day of barter not only attracted an unusually large number of farmers, stockmen and others, but produced more cash and better trades than any similar day in some time.

Good horses and mules brought prices that sound exceedingly good and other auctioned goods sold for figures that would have sounded good in some instances to retail dealers.

Guns, incubators, hogs, chickens and many other kinds of produce and every-day articles were swapped in good number. A number of articles that were displayed as a result of free Swap Ads in The Times were in evidence.

Several first Mondays within the past few months have shown signs of a full-fledged return of the old-fashioned trades day, but last Monday witnessed a 100 per cent comeback in these dollar-tight times. Harness

JUMP IN AUTO REGISTRATIONS

Registration of Scurry County cars and trucks has taken a slight upward swing since the statute requiring purchase of license plates went into effect April 1 became effective.

Ten cars and two trucks have been registered here since Friday, February 3, when the governor affixed his signature to the bill that moved up registration limit without penalty two months. This brings the total to 1477 cars and 133 trucks.

The 1933 figures are 375 ahead of those for last year, and 40 less than those for 1931.

Pioneer Farmer Of County Dies Here Wednesday

W. A. Brownfield, 84, died at his home in Snyder Wednesday, after a lingering illness of many weeks.

Funeral services for the pioneer farmer, who had lived in Scurry County for more than 27 years, are to be held Friday morning at 10:00 o'clock, at the Odum Funeral Home.

Rev. Philip C. McGahey will officiate at the funeral home. Burial will be in the Dunn cemetery.

Mr. Brownfield resided eight miles south of Snyder for almost 20 years, moving to town several years ago. His wife preceded him in death by four years.

Six sons and three daughters survive. The sons: F. M. and Jim Brownfield of Snyder, Steve, Paul and Earl Brownfield of Fellows, California, and Berry Brownfield of San Francisco, California; daughters: Mrs. Anna Johnson and Mrs. Lillie Boykin of Wichita Falls, and Mrs. Lizzie Ingram of Bakersfield, California. John Brownfield, a son, who resided in Snyder, died last month. A sister, Mrs. C. E. Arnold of Scottsborough, Alabama, also survives.

Some of Best Bouts Fought Last Friday

Some of the best bouts seen at the local arena this season were unrecalled Friday night.

Kenneth Pitner and Tommy Brown battled valiantly to a six-round draw, while a Dallas and a Snyder negro fought three hard rounds.

The Legion-sponsored affair will feature Shade McGinty and Lefty Barnes in a six-rounder next Friday evening, and another negro bout will also be on tap.

Also Struck By Auto Today.

Burgess, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wilson, sustained a broken collar bone and other lesser injuries today at noon when struck by the Bert Baugh car at the southeast corner of the square. The lad, on his way home from school, ran into the path of the car, and the driver was unable to stop his machine in time to prevent the accident. First aid treatment was administered at the Emergency Hospital. Burgess probably will return to school Monday.

Regular Meeting of Legion Boys Monday

Legionnaires of Scurry County will convene Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in regular monthly session, according to A. C. Preull, commander. The Snyder armory is the place.

Since one of the largest memberships in the history of the Will Layne Post has been enrolled for 1933, the commander expects an unusually good turn-out for the 25th session. Important business will be on tap, he states.

CITY COUNCIL FAVORABLE TO BRIDGE PLANS

Tentative approval of plans to span the Twenty-sixth Street Deep Creek crossing with a concrete bridge was given Thursday evening of last week in a called meeting of the City Council.

The citizens' committee, with D. P. Yoder as chief spokesman, accepted responsibility of completing the bridge according to specifications approved by an outside engineer chosen by the council, and agreed to post bond of $1,000 as a guarantee of good faith.

Representing the committee at the meeting were H. J. Brice, J. M. Dawson, Wayne Boren, Lex Wilmoth, W. R. Bell and Mr. Yoder.

The bridge would be built with labor funds taken from Scurry County's Reconstruction Finance Corporation allotment. The committee proposes to bear all expense of material and supervision aside from $150 furnished by the county and $150 furnished by the city. The Commissioners' Court agreed several days ago to pay its share.

The engineer selected by the council to inspect plans and the building site had not arrived Thursday morning. Mr. Yoder states that work should begin within a few days after his arrival, directed by a foreman who has built a number of bridges acceptable to the State Highway Department.

FEW BUSINESS HOUSES EMPTY DURING MONTH

Several Moves and New Businesses Leave Practically No Vacancies In Trading District.

The past 45 days, and especially the past month, have found local business houses filled almost to the brim.

Several moves by established concerns, and starting of a few new businesses have meant reduction of vacant buildings to the smallest number seen here in about three years.

With removal to the north side of the square by Brown & Son grocery early next week, not a vacancy will remain on the north or the west side.

The building vacated early this year by John Keller furniture store, on the south side of the square, is being used twice weekly as a dance hall, while the southeast corner building is being occupied by the Adams Apple House. Only the theatre building, which is not usable for any other business, is vacant seven days a week on the south side.

Since the first week in January, the east side of the square has presented only one vacant building, the old Strayhorn location. Even the southeast corner basement is occupied by the Thompson grinding business.

On the east highway, a new business is being opened in the third building west of the R. S. & P. tracks, and a skating rink has moved into the western portion of the old Ford agency location. No vacancy occurs in those two blocks.

Establishment of a new produce house on Avenue R just north of the square virtually fills that block. One vacant space is to be found in the business block north of the square on the highway. Only two small buildings are idle on the west highway, while the post office block is completely filled. One vacancy remains on the block just south of the square on Avenue S. To the southeast, only the old creamery building is without an occupant.

Salesmen and other transients declare that Snyder is outstanding in Texas as a town of occupied business houses. And, of course, that means more business than most towns of its size.

BROWN MOVING TO NORTH SIDE

The north side will have a vacant store building for only a few days.

H. P. Brown & Son will move their grocery store into the building occupied until last week by the Snyder Hardware & Implement Company.

Regular business will be conducted until Saturday night of this week. Prompt attention will be given phone orders on Monday morning, and the store will be open for the "carry" trade, also, beginning Tuesday morning.

The Red & White store has been located for some time in the block just west of the square, on Twenty-Fifth Street. Mr. Brown announces that fixtures will be remodeled and repainted before installation in the new building.

State Solons of Area Given Good Committee Posts

Vice chairmanship of the House committee on agriculture for J. A. Merritt of Scurry County, and chairmanship of the Senate committee on town and city corporations for Wilbourne B. Collier of Eastland County are shown in the roster of the two state legislative groups, issued late last month.

These leading places came to this area's representatives despite the fact that Merritt has not served in an official capacity for several years, and Collier has never before been to the Austin capitol as a legislator.

Collier's other committee posts follow: Civil Jurisprudence, criminal jurisprudence, internal improvements, congressional districts, judicial districts, stock and stock raising. Merritt has committee appointments as follows, in addition to his vice chairmanship: Constitutional amendments, game and fisheries, livestock and stock raising, privileges, suffrage and elections.

Many Subscribe For Paper In February

Extension of Times Dollar Days has made a hit with many friends of the paper who were not able to subscribe during the regular bargain period. The number of subscriptions already obtained in the month of February is surprising.

Under the new bargain plan, the subscriber receives The Times from now until January 1, 1934, for one dollar above the regular rate in other words. This means that the longer you wait the fewer copies of the paper you receive. If you live outside Scurry or adjoining counties, the bargain rate until January 1 is $1.50.

Merritt Introduces Trio of House Bills

Three bills that would be of direct benefit to his constituents were introduced in the Legislature several days ago by J. A. Merritt, local representative.

One would protect depositors of banks and trust companies, another would make it a felony to steal cotton in any form, and the last would remit penalties on delinquent taxes.

Baptist Conference To Be Tuesday With Westbrook Church

Westbrook Baptist Church will host the monthly workers' conference of the Mitchell-Scurry Association next Tuesday.

Snyder church, as well as others of the county, will be well represented at the session. Rev. Philip C. McGahey, local pastor, and Billie Eiland are Snyder delegates on the program, which follows:

9:45—Devotional, L. L. Trot, Champion.

10:00—"The Origin of the Church," Rev. Dick O'Brien, Colorado.

10:20—"The Ordinances of the Church," Rev. Patterson, Roscoe.

10:40—"The Security of the Believer," Rev. G. W. Parks, Roscoe.

11:00—"The Individual Baptist's Responsibility," A. C. Hardin, Lorraine.

11:20—Sermon, Rev. E. E. Day, Big Spring.

12:00—Lunch. According to custom, each visitor will bring a dish, with the host church furnishing the bread and drinks.

1:30 p. m.—Board meeting.

1:30—W. M. U. Program: Devotional, Mrs. Whit Hines, Roscoe; reports of officers; reports of craftsmen; reports of W. M. U.; stewardship essays, Mmes. Donaldson and Williamson; Sunbeam, Billy Eiland, Snyder; Junior G. A., Marie O'Brien, Colorado; Intermediate G. A., Frances Williams, Colorado; Y. W. A., Billie Wyatt, Colorado; presentation of awards; closing prayer, Mrs. P. D. O'Brien.

3:00—Inspirational address, Rev. Philip C. McGahey, Snyder.

FAIR RETURNS ON CITY TAXES

City tax collections totaling $14,236.43 for the months of December and January were reported at the regular City Council meeting Monday evening. The December total was $5,226.03, and the January report showed $9,010.40.

Ed J. Thompson, former councilman, was appointed to assess city taxes for the year 1933.

Only $13.40 in fines were collected during January, the report revealed. No building permits were issued.

Routine business was the principal feature of the meeting.

Trading Speeded Up As Third Series Of Ads Are Born.

Swap Ads are entering their third week of popularity among Scurry County folks.

This week, and every week thereafter until interest drops in them, The Times proposes to run them without cost to the advertiser, as long as rules laid down by the publishers are adhered to.

Dozens of users of Free Swap Ads have related tales of remarkable results. Many of the advertisers were present Monday for regular trades day swapping.

We Are Still Running 'Em.

Keep the ads coming, and we will keep them running. Every good swap gives Old Man Depression another swift kick, and the unpopular reprobate deserves all we can give him.

Those who have stuff to trade are invited to bring it into town Saturdays, if possible. The regular trading grounds, just north of the square, will be used, of course.

For the benefit of those who are just now getting on their swapping clothes, we repeat the following rules:

Rules for Free Swap Ads.

1. All Swap Ads will be run two weeks unless otherwise advised. If you get results the first week, kindly let us know.
2. Copy for Swap Ads must be in the Times office by Wednesday noon.
3. No Swap Ad must contain more than 25 words.
4. No money must be asked or offered in any swap deal.
5. Swap Ads are absolutely FREE TO EVERYONE. The publishers are just trying to render a little service while cash is at a premium.
6. Regular classified ads, aside from Swap Ads, are being run, for a limited time only, at the reduced rate of one cent per word each insertion, regardless of length. Regular rates apply to cards of thanks and obituaries.

CIVIC BODY TO MEET TUESDAY

The annual Chamber of Commerce meeting, called for Tuesday evening, was postponed until Tuesday evening, next week, at 7:30, because of disagreeable weather.

Directors for the new year will be chosen, and other business of importance will be transacted. President Harrie Winston urges full attendance of all Chamber of Commerce members and other persons interested in the organization's work.

Skating Rink Going.

The skating rink that opened just east of the square, on the highway, late last week, has been doing a flourishing business, according to spectators and participants. The operators, who hail from the Plains, have a maple floor and plenty of skates.

Old Locust Trees Torn Out By Roots During Past Week

The large locust trees that have provided shade and adornment for the outer rim of the court house lawn for a number of years have torn up by their roots last week. Only red dirt or ravining holes have taken their posts.

But the red red surfaces will soon be covered with a mat of green, and the old guardians will be forgotten even as the first court house in Scurry County is dank with the cobwebs of memory.

Spry young elms, planted not so many suns ago, are growing to stalwart manhood and womanhood to replace the faster-growing pioneer trees. So fast has been the growth during the past year that the spring-time loofers on the lawn, and the mothers who cooled their babies beneath the summery locust shade, probably will come again when higher temperatures are on the throne.

Club Entertains Husbands of Members

Members of the Ingleside Study Club and their husbands were entertained in the John Keller home Friday evening with Miss Keller, R. J. Randals, Neal Gross and R. S. Sullivan as hostesses. The occasion was the regular annual "husbands' night."

The valentine motif was followed throughout the evening with red and white decorations and carnation centerpieces. Entertainment for the evening consisted of "matching hearts" for partners, forty-two games, and last but not least, the passing of a salad plate to the guests.

Those present were Messrs. and Mrs. John Keller, R. J. Randals, Neal Gross, R. S. Sullivan, Walla Fish, Tom Boren, Jack McCarty, C. W. Harless, J. T. Johnson, Tate Lockhart, Charles Noble, R. H. Odom, J. W. Roberts, W. W. Smith, R. S. Snow, Roy Strayhorn and Wade Winston, and Mrs. L. O. Smith and Miss Gerlie Smith.

Laf-a-Lot Club Meets In Arnold Home.

In spite of the near blizzard that raged Tuesday night, the A. W. Arnold home, 1902 Twenty-ninth Street, was made warm and cozy when Miss Eva Nelle Arnold and Dixie Davis entertained the Laf-a-Lot Bridge Club.

During the short business session Miss Ida Sue Williams was elected into the club, and the meeting time was changed to second and fourth Thursday nights. The club will meet the next time with Miss Margaret Deakins on February 23.

The Valentine scheme was carried out in tallies, covers and refreshments. At the close of the bridge play, Miss Wanda Newsom was declared winner of the high score prize, a heart-shaped box of candy.

The six members and one guest who ventured out in the icy weather were served refreshments consisting of chicken salad sandwiches made with red and white bread, potato chips, olives, heart-shaped molds of gelatine salad with whipped cream, mints and coffee. Those present were: Misses Mildred Stokes, Wanda Newsom, Ruby Lee, Margaret Deakins, Mildred Harless, Bonnie Miller and the hostesses, members, and Miss Allene Curry, guest.

Epworth League Has Business Meeting.

The young people's department of the First Methodist Church met in a called business meeting at the D. P. Yoder home Friday evening, with Miss Rayolene Smith, vice president, presiding during the absence of President Hal Yoder.

Discussion of important matters, including the functioning of the worship committee, the union meeting to be held in Snyder church Tuesday night and the district meeting entirely filled the business hour.

A social period was enjoyably spent in playing truth, and Misses Ruth and Virginia Yoder served refreshments consisting of mince pie and coffee to the following: Misses Rayolene Smith, Grace Avary, Ruth Lightfoot, Genevieve Jarratt, Maurine Lambert and Allene Curry and Mrs. Vernon Littlepage and Leroy Pessaire.

Methodist Women To Give Silver Tea.

The adult Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church will give its annual Colonial Tea Wednesday, February 22, from 2:30 until 5:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. D. P. Yoder in Southwest Snyder. It is to be a silver tea.

Proceeds will go in the building fund of the church to be used to finish the new kitchen. The ladies of the town are cordially invited to attend.

THIS WOMAN LOST 35 LBS. OF FAT

Miss M. Katner of Brooklyn, N. Y. writes: "Have used Kruschen for the past four months and have not only lost 35 pounds but feel so much better in every way. Even for people who don't care to reduce, Kruschen is wonderful to keep the system healthy. I, being a nurse, should know, for I've tried so many things but only Kruschen answered all purposes." (May 12, 1932).

To lose fat SAFELY and HARMLESSLY, take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—don't miss a morning—a bottle that lasts four weeks costs but a trifle—but don't take chances—be sure it's Kruschen—your health comes first—get it at any drug store in America. Wedgeworths Give Party For Board.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wedgeworth were host and hostess for the members of the board of trustees, their wives and several guests Friday evening, with a delightful dinner and forty-two party. The Valentine motif was carried out in decorations and place cards.

The following were guests: Messrs. and Mrs. A. C. Preuitt, Hugh Taylor, Clyde Boren, J. G. Hicks, Edgar Wilson, H. L. Davis, R. L. Williams and J. S. Braubury; Mrs. J. R. Wedgeworth, Miss Virginia Thompson and R. L. Sullivan.

Altrurian Daughters Study Moody Book.

The Altrurian Daughters Club met in the Cunningham home, 2403 Avenue N, with Misses Mattie Ross and Maurine Cunningham as hostesses. The study on "The Great Divide" by Wm. Vaughn Moody was directed by Miss Waunita Darby, with Miss Dorothy Strayhorn acting as critic for the evening.

Miss Rowena Grantham gave a biography of William Vaughn Moody, Miss Margaret Dell Prim answered the question "As a National Drama How Does This Play Stand the Test?" and a synopsis of the play and analysis of the chief characters was given by Miss Dorothy Strayhorn.

At the close of the program the Misses Cunningham carried out the valentine motif in the two-course refreshments which they served to the following: Misses Kenneth Alexander, Grace Avary, Waunita Darby, Doris Pope Elza, Rowena Grantham, Polly Porter, Margaret Dell Prim, Dorothy Strayhorn and Opal Wedgeworth, and Misses Kathleen Blackard, Nancy Caton, Myrl Wade and Mary Ruth Spears, members; and Misses Effie McLeod and Margaret Yoder, and Misses C. Wedgeworth, A. E. Harvey, R. L. Williams and Dora Cunningham and Mrs. Anderson of Abilene.

Anderson Auxiliary Meets In Odom Home.

The Ruth Anderson Auxiliary of the First Methodist Church met in the home of Mrs. R. H. Odom, with Misses Odom and Claude Sims as joint hostesses Monday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. A Missionary Voice program on "Scarlette College" was given.

At the close of the program the hostesses served refreshments consisting of coffee and cake to the following: Misses J. G. Hicks, Tate Lockhart, R. J. Randals, Homer Snyder, John Whitmore, C. Y. Yoder, E. D. Curry and Vernon Littlepage, and Miss Ora Norred.

Garland Mustian Honored on Birthday.

Mrs. Oscar Mustian entertained Saturday afternoon honoring her son, Garland, on his tenth birthday. Nine young gentlemen, including the honoree, roasted wieners on the banks of Deep Creek, and then returned to the Mustian home to finish the afternoon playing games.

At the close of the game playing, Mrs. Mustian served refreshments to the following: Donald Ray Scott, Conway Taylor, Jack McAdoo, Preston and Kenneth Wilson, Junior Cleveland, Claude Westerbeke, Lorran Mustian and the honoree.

Mrs. and Mrs. Banks Entertain Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Banks entertained a number of their friends Friday night at their home, 1909 Twenty-seventh Street. Games of bridge and rummy furnished entertainment for the guests.

Tailored suits and the big vogue for mannish apparel brings the shirt waist or blouse back into the limelight for spring. Many of the shirt waists are severe in line to click in with the mannish mode. Other waists, however, retain their feminine distinctiveness, such for instance as the puffed sleeve as shown on the lower figure in the sketch.

Shirt waist dresses made of woolsens, colored suede jackets often without collars, reversible shorter swagger suits are recommended in sportswear. Blouses showed the influence of the tailored suit, with many club collars, bows at the neckline, and simpler sleeves. Bouclé, chenille and polka-dot zephyr sweaters were recommended for spring.

The simplest type of mannish shirt waist made to accompany the tailored suit is developed in white jersey with pearl buttons. It is also available in the market in shirting silks and cottons. There are also many short waist dresses for country or resort wear which add the skirt to a blouse of this type.

B. T. S. Social Given At Baptist Church.

The Crusaders B. T. S. of the First Baptist Church enjoyed a social Thursday night in the basement of the church building.

After a social hour and a series of games, refreshments were served to Miss Effie McLeod, sponsor; Netha Lynn Rogers, Nadine Sumridd, Mavis Shuler, Geraldine Longboham, Lola Mae Littlepage, Earlene Martin, Sadie Tell, Jenkint, Oteka Ware, Opal Crowder, Bonita McGahey, Billie Lee, Emory Smith, Murray Gray, Bob Hamilton, York Murphy, Royce Eiland, Bunice Duff, John Blakey, Bernard Longboham, and Jack Martin.

M. E. Missionary Society Studies Indian.

The Adult Missionary Society of the Methodist Church met in the parsonage in regular study Monday afternoon continuing their study of "The Education of the American Indian." According to several members, the course is unusually interesting, and Mrs. A. C. Preuitt is an excellent director.

The following members were present: Misses Joe Stinson, Charles J. Lewis, I. W. Boren, J. C. Dorward, F. T. Jarratt, R. H. Curmuitte, R. M. Stokes, J. W. Tompelson, H. V. Williams, A. M. Curry and S. H. Young.

The price of a cut of cherry pie

When dining out the meal is usually tapered off with a cut of pie . . . it's the natural thing to do. Besides, 10 cents is not big money to satisfy a sweet tooth—unless you have stopped to reckon with the purchasing power of a penny.

For this same dime you spend for cherry pie, you can cook 10 good dinners with natural gas; or heat enough water for 20 baths; or operate a gas refrigerator for more than three days. By simple comparisons you will agree that natural gas service is the cheapest thing you buy or use.

SIDE-LIGHTS

By MARVIN JONES,
Member of Congress from 18th District of Texas

I feel that the people of our section would be interested in the program on which a number of us have been working during this session of Congress.

We have been doing everything possible to get the members of the House and Senate to realize just how serious conditions are. Ordinary remedies will not be sufficient, for these are not ordinary times. We are face to face with grim facts which call for emergency action.

In the first place, there should be a stay of foreclosures until such time as the necessary legislative program can be worked out. The House has already passed a measure of this kind. I hope the officials of the various states will take such action as is necessary to supplement the work of the Congress.

Refinancing Essential.
In my judgment, it is absolutely essential that a program of refinancing and, if possible, a scaling down of principal and interest rates and a refinancing of farm mortgages on a long-time basis be accomplished. A number of us have been working in every possible way toward this end.

This republic is anchored in the farm homes of America. Wholesale foreclosures on the part of mortgage companies would be detrimental to the companies as well as to the farmers and others who are interested. I hope they are beginning to realize the truth of this proposition.

Revamp Money System.
Another matter that needs immediate attention is a complete revamping of our entire currency system. The price of the American dollar is too high when measured in the terms of commodity prices. There should be a readjustment in such a way as to make our unit of money a true measure of values. This would automatically increase commodity prices and enable people to pay debts.

Every thinking person realizes that taxes bear too heavily on the farm and ranch. While this is largely a local matter, depending upon action of state and local authorities, nevertheless, the expenses of the federal government should be reduced in every possible way. Many bureaus should be abolished and the activities of others curtailed. I have repeatedly urged this before the economy committee and have offered numerous amendments to accomplish this end.

Freight Schedules.
Our freight rate schedules are too great a burden on the products of the farm and ranch. Freight rates at the present time are all out of proportion to the value of the commodities.

I am also glad to know that the president-elect has declared that something must be done in reference to the excessive short selling and gambling in the stock market. He has declared for a correction of these evils, and I shall be more than happy to join him in supporting such a program.

The individual members of Congress are sometimes criticized for not taking action more quickly. Some of this criticism is just. However, I think it is but fair to detail some of the difficulties under which we who represent farming districts are working.

"Consuming" Congressmen.
There are 435 members of the House, each representing a different district. A majority of these members represent consuming rather than producing districts. Again, a clear majority, to-wit, 223 of the 435 members of the House of Representatives, live north of the Ohio and east of the Mississippi River. It takes a majority of the members of the House to pass any kind of legislation. I mention this fact to show the complications which any program must face.

Practically all of the members of Congress who represent farming and livestock districts have been earnestly working toward a solution of the grave problems which confront the country, and I feel it is but fair that the public should know this fact.

Again, not all of the difficulties will yield to legislative remedies, but certainly there are some conditions that can be helped. Most certainly our financial system can be revamped in the interest of the people, and the long-time discriminations in our tariff barriers and freight rates which have had the effect of paralyzing the agricultural sections can be removed, and thus an unhindered opportunity given for equality in the operation of the laws of our country.

In the banks of this city are more than $1,000,000 of unclaimed deposits, including those of churches, schools and social clubs. Addresses are given from all over the world. The last known residence of one depositor is Sing Sing prison.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN.

A Word From Pete.

After viewing the interesting results that have come from Snyder's two dance halls, Pessimism Pete rises to suggest that the two operators form a consolidation known as "Snyder Entertainments, Inc.," in order to protect themselves against preachers and other sober-minded citizens.

"A Tree Whose Lips—"

Every time we see a growing tree cut out by its roots, a twinge of sadness catches our heartstrings, for nature's most useful creation sometimes seems to have life almost as abundantly as man himself. But the ax must come when age comes, and age must give place to youth in all vistas of life.

Whence Cometh the Freeze?

Conjectures as to the mother and the birthplace of this week's heavy freeze were cleared up yesterday by Pessimism Pete. The pungent philosopher says it was bred in the "Hueyed" Senate halls, mothered by the last Lame Duck of the con, and spread outward by the poison of Oklahoma's Alfalfa (Bill) crop.

Good Philosophy.

Dean E. V. White of C. I. A., Denton, is responsible for these little bits of wisdom: "Go to college, but don't stay there too long." "Don't be too good to live on earth nor too bad to enter the kingdom of heaven." "In the school of experience one is his own teacher." "Don't act like a mourner when you are not attending a funeral." "Laughter without spirit is contempt."

Something to Gnow Over.

From The New York Times: "Few seem aware that the more enlightened peoples, such as the Americans, the British and the French, pay of each dollar in taxes about 75 cents to meet the cost of past wars and prepare for future ones. Few realize that the issued capital of the world's biggest private enterprise in armament, Vickers, Ltd., was only $27,700,000 in 1914 and is $80,000,000 now."

The American System.

Did you know this? "The American voter might have believed he was casting his ballot for president and vice president when he went to the polls on November 8, but, in fact, he was only delegating that authority to his state. The actual election of Mr. Roosevelt as president, and Mr. Garner as vice president, for terms of four years, did not occur until Wednesday, February 8, when the House and Senate held a joint session to canvass the votes of the states."

Foreclosures on Farms.

Farm foreclosures are being headlined far beyond their seriousness. An article in Sunday's Dallas News by the agricultural editor reveals that only two per cent of the total loans closed by Federal Reserve Banks have been foreclosed in Texas. It is interesting to learn that a much smaller proportion of foreclosures have become necessary in this state than in Oklahoma, Arkansas and other states of the Southwest. Not one of the 500 farms offered by the Houston land bank is in Scurry County, although the list includes Kent, Dickens, Fisher and Jones Counties.

Our Anchorage.

This republic is anchored in the farm homes of America," Congressman Marvin Jones declares in his radio address, to be published in next week's Times. Jones calls attention to the fact that a majority of the members of the House represent consuming rather than producing districts, and that a clear majority of the members live north of the Ohio and east of the Mississippi River. The short-sightedness of the congressmen who have never realized that the farm is really the anchorage of Uncle Sam's republic makes the work of such "farmer" statesmen as Marvin Jones rather difficult.

Utilities Retail Sales.

An effort is being made in the Legislature to stop sale of appliances by utilities companies. The Times sees no merit in the idea, unless it can be proven that the utilities companies have grossly misused their retailing possibilities. In the first place, the suggestion is constitutionally wrong; and in the second place, states that have sampled the plan find that it doesn't work. It has been proven over and over that appliance sales, instead of changing over to local merchants, go almost entirely to mail order houses. We see no reason for squelching a legitimate business operated for legitimate profits.

The Highway Atlas.

From The Houston Chronicle: "If you want to know who the stalwart young brother of the Texas school teacher is, let us tell you. That robust, youthful brother is the highway system of Texas. The school teacher must rely on him for the only unimpaird and dependable source of revenue today. He it is also who ministers today to the Red Cross, the community chest, the social welfare and the organizations for the unemployed of Texas. It is he who Better Times In Scurry County?

Statistics gathered from a number of sources indicate that the country and the state as a whole are just about holding their own in the third year of the depression war.

But in Scurry County the pendulum of better times undoubtedly is swinging upward, at snail's pace, perhaps . . . but upward, nevertheless.

The root of it all, of course, is the bumper crops of 1932. This favor of an abundant nature has created several optimistic trends here.

An exceedingly small number of mortgage foreclosures have been reported.

A pronounced "back to the farm" movement has come to pass.

"Living at home" has become something more than a theme to be preached by the Extension Service. Hogs and chickens and turkeys and gardens and milch cows are coming back into their own.

A conscious spirit of good cheer has taken possession of our souls, and we have come to realize that this economic collapse can't last forever.

Another good general sign is that legislators and regulators are more and more realizing that the farmer's plight is their plight.

Most important of all, you can travel eight hours some days without hearing anyone say, "If cotton had brought as much as 10 or 15 cents a pound . . ."

EDITORIAL OF THE WEEK.

THE FARMER AND THE TARIFF.

The general run of farmers consider talk of rescuing agriculture with tariffs political bunk. Wayne Gard, Drake University instructor, declares in a tariff study published in The Nation, out today. "These farmers," he says, "realize that tariff reform will not in itself restore prices which will make agriculture profitable again. But they have had enough of high tariffs and are willing to try lower ones."

Writing on "The Farmer and the Tariff," Mr. Gard explains that "the farmer's major grievance against the tariff, of course, is not that he fails to derive the promised benefit from the duties on agricultural products but that he suffers infinite harm from the high rates on manufactured goods." He points out that the net loss of the farmers from the Smoot-Hawley tariff is much larger than even their net loss of $331,000,000 from the Fordney-McCumber tariff estimated several years ago by the American Farm Bureau. "Even more important than this direct loss to the farmers is the indirect harm the tariff brings them in curtailing the foreign market for what they have to sell. This is being done by retaliatory tariffs, embargoes and favorable trade arrangements with rival nations."

Mr. Gard writes: "Most of our agricultural tariffs are of the 'gold brick' variety. Since in the case of nearly every farm product the United States is an exporter rather than an importer, the tariffs on such products generally are ineffective; there are no imports against which they can be charged. Thus they are of no value to the farmer. In fact, they add to the irritation of other nations and spur them to erect retaliatory tariff walls against the American farm surplus. There are, of course, a few agricultural commodities of which we import more than we export, and on these the tariff theoretically is effective. The principal products in this category are wool, cattle and sugar. Yet even on these commodities the value of the tariff is strongly disputed from the point of view of the farmer as well as from that of the consumer, who may be forced to pay higher prices because of the import duties."

"The profitable raising of both cattle and sheep in this country has depended mainly upon the availability of cheap frontier land and public grazing ranges. The tariff has had little effect upon ranching, the number of sheep and cattle fluctuating only slightly in response to changes in rates; in fact, the number of cattle has declined under the recent high rates. The current low prices of cattle, sheep and wool testify to the inadequacy of high tariffs on these products. The production of sugar in the United States has varied more with changes in tariff rates, but in this instance, too, the tariff has been of dubious benefit. The climatic and labor advantages of certain other countries give them a favored position in sugar production which the American high tariff on sugar has not been able to overcome. In the production of cane sugar in this country the development-resisting variety of cane with a high sucrose content has been far more important than the tariff rate."

"Even so, where sugar production has been made profitable in the United States the profit often has been obtained at the price of labor conditions little better than slavery. One of the supposed benefits of high tariff rates is the maintenance of high standards of living, but this benefit is not noticeable in the sugar areas of either Louisiana or Utah. The Utah sugar beets are grown largely by the toil of impoverished Mexicans and their children, under working conditions outlawed long ago in more civilized states."

The Saved Fruit Crop.

The fruit crop has been saved, according to general opinion, because Mr. Freeze came along before too much budding took place. Political note: Sterling supporters will tell you that they have already harvested their crops of sour grapes and lemons.

Legalize Horse Racing?

Definite action on the horse racing bill has not been taken as these editorials are being written. No matter how the bill is interpreted, however, we consider it a slap in the face for the small portion of moral law that Texas has not erased. Its sponsors argue for the stockman, for pedigreed horseflesh, for circulation of new money. More money would be circulated if time locks were thrown off bank safes, and the burglary fraternity was invited to help itself. Gambling is gambling, whether it be at the football game, around the poker table or on the baseball diamond. Our morals are none too good at the best. Let's give the law a chance to help them.

CURRENT... COMMENT

BY LEON GUINN

Beer loving Germans recently had cause to right-about-face when one Adolf Hitler became chancellor of that factional nation. . . . Since Germany influences the well-being of the farmer and exporter of America, it might be of value to point out that the instability of politics there at present is causing worry, no end, to cotton exporters since President von Hindenberg is between thunder and the deep blue sea in attempting to pacify the fanatics as well as the conservatives. . . . Whether good or bad, Hitler's promotion offers many possibilities.

It is felt that the recent strike instituted by 6,000 employees of the Briggs Manufacturing Company will be soothed over and the 100,000 Ford Motor Company workers will draw their pay checks instead of being added to the jobless. . . . Well could Henry Ford concede a point in favor of the workers rather than add 100,000 men with their potential buying power to the "has-beens."

The recent death of Frederick G. Bonifis closes the career of a colorful and adventuresome journalist. . . . His newspaper, The Denver Post, today covers the great area of the Colorado Rockies, and the paper that was "first in everything" introduced the idea of taking issue with any question of importance without fear or favor. . . . High-ly of his career: Colonel Bonifis sensed something phoney when the Teapot Dome deal was negotiated, and, starting on a blind trail, investigators for his paper found clues sufficient to enable the court to do its part.

The motorist now has until April 1 to put 1933 tags on his automobile and in a close analysis it will be found that the registration fees are somewhat burdensome considering the heavy state tax placed on gasoline plus the federal tax, plus the retail sale of the fuel. . . . The automobile becomes a necessity when it carries the farmer, the rancher and the business man to his work and back home, and the automobile becomes an asset when the produce, vegetables or a trailer of cotton is conveyed to market by it; lastly, it becomes a liability when its knocks and ailments go uncorrected until something breaks.

The big guns in the rubber industry are firing along far-flung forests, and as the name of Good-year, Goodrich, Firestone, Seiberling, Dayton, Lee, Allstate and Riverside enter the angle of price cutting, it is probable you will be able to buy tires and tubes more reasonable soon. . . . Inasmuch as the Southern farmer raises the cotton used in tire construction, it is only fair that he be given a cut in the prices (for a limited time) to enable him to equip his automobile with safe tires.

The Southern Cultivator suggests the government crop reports be discontinued since it would mean a saving in tax dollars. . . . S. T. D. (saving tax dollars) is the theme song of each and every one. . . . Complying with the request of Scurry songsters, the hymn history items will be resumed next week.

A Test of Genius.
The shortest verse in the New Testament is "Jesus wept." That tragic note in his story the Gospel record has carefully preserved. How we wish it might also have told us what occurred on the night after the chronic old grumbler was healed at the river. Did Jesus stop suddenly in the middle of the supper and set down his cup while a broad smile spread across his wonderful face? If he did the disciples probably were puzzled——they were often puzzled—but surely we have the reverent right to guess what was in his mind, as he pictured the home coming of that old man after he was cured. Jesus that evening must have laughed.

Someone has remarked that genius is the ability to become a boy again at will. Lincoln had that type of genius. Around his table in Washington sat the members of his cabinet silenced by their overwhelming sense of responsibility. It was one of the most momentous meetings in our history. To their amazement instead of addressing himself directly to the business in hand, Lincoln picked up a volume and began to read aloud a delightful chapter of nonsense from Artemus Ward.

Frequent chuckles interrupted the reading, but they came only from the president. The secretaries were too shocked for expression. Humor at such an hour—it was well his sacrilegious! Heedless of their protesting looks, Lincoln finished the chapter, closed the book and scanned their gloomy faces with a sigh. "Gentlemen, why don't you laugh?" he exclaimed. "With the fearful strain that is upon me night and day, if I did not laugh I should

JEVER STOP TO THINK? By EDSON R. WAITE

Ernest L. Peterson, publisher of the Santa Maria, California, Daily Times, says:

"That competition is keener than ever before due to present economic conditions and for that reason alone, if for no other, the man who goes out after business is the one who gets it.

There are several methods of "going out after it." You can stand on the street corner like any hawk and cry your wares. If 500 people pass by your store every day, perhaps one-tenth of them may enter at your request. But what about the hundreds and thousands of the others who do not pass by on that particular day? They, too, are prospective buyers of your commodities. But you will wear out your lungs shouting from day to day. And imagine the uproar if every merchant started the same hullabaloo every morning!

The only adequate, inexpensive and effective substitute for your voice is newspaper advertising. Instead of attracting only the attention of a minority, it will be read by the vast majority of your customers. It will sell your product in their own homes where the decision to buy or not to buy really is made.

Follow the lead of those who have tried it. Consistent advertising in your home town newspaper will bring you returns far larger than those obtained by any other medium of contact.

Get Rid of That SORE THROAT!
Any little soreness in the throat grows rapidly worse if neglected. Crush some tablets of genuine Bayer Aspirin in some water, and gargle at once. This gives you instant relief, and reduces danger from infection. One good gargle, and you can feel safe. If all soreness is not gone promptly, repeat. There's usually a cold with the sore throat, so before gargling take two tablets to throw off your cold, headache, stiffness or other cold symptoms. Bayer Aspirin relieves neuralgia, neuritis, too. You may use it freely, it does not hurt the heart.
NO TABLETS ARE GENUINE BAYER ASPIRIN WITHOUT THIS CROSS

Simultaneous with the white house announcement that Great Britain was to be invited to an economic conference to take place in Washington in March, a press dispatch stated that Owen D. Young would in all probability be given the treasury berth in the Roosevelt cabinet.

This was a trial balloon sent up to give the Roosevelt forces an idea as to the way the wind was blowing. Judging by the buffeting the balloon received, it is evident that Mr. Young is not a popular candidate for any office. His activities as organizer of the Radio Corporation of America, his more recent connection with Insull as one of that gentleman's stock-buying "insiders," and his testimony as to the reason why the General Electric Company was willing to loan several million dollars to the tottering Insull companies shortly before the crash were cited as holding too much political dynamite.

The East never shows its provincialism more completely than when it discusses cabinet appointments. When you talk with dyed-in-the-wool Easterners you are led to believe that there is nothing west of Ohio or south of Pennsylvania. Somehow they cannot remember that cabinets are representative of the country as a whole.

Whenever they think of a secretary of the treasury they take it for granted that he must be a New Yorker. Whenever they speak of a secretary of labor they imagine that Pennsylvania is the mother of those fellows. And so it goes. When one of the Roosevelt spokesmen said the other day that the president-elect wanted a dirt farmer for secretary of agriculture, New Yorkers felt they had just the man for the job. They wanted to know who was better qualified than Walter Winchell.

The Machiavellian hand of someone close to the radio monopoly is seen in House Resolution 776, a proposal to amend the Radio Act of 1927, as follows: "No license is imposed upon any licensee to allow the use of his station by any candidate, or in the interest or support of or in opposition to any candidate, or for the presentation of views on any side of a public question."

That is a proposal to vest in every holder of a broadcasting license the power of autocratic censorship. Not only that, but it would strengthen the claim now being set up by the broadcasters that their licenses give them vested property rights in the ether. Considering how Mr. Roosevelt was himself shut off the air before he had completed his Portland, Oregon, speech on public utilities, it is not likely that such a resolution will get any hearing from the Democratic chieftains.

The question of free speech on the radio will not down. The other day the Supreme Court of the United States refused to act upon Rev. Bob Shuler's appeal from an order of the Radio Commission barring the minister's Los Angeles station from the air. The court of appeals here upheld the commission's action. When the Supreme Court shut its doors to Shuler, the American Civil Liberties Union took up the fight. It is half and half and will throw whatever influence it has into the contest.

Shuler lost his license because the commission said he had attacked civic and religious organizations, public officials and prominent citizens in California. One of the organizations against which he was most vituperative was the Civil Liberties Union, which now comes to his defense.

In common with the Editor and Publisher, newspaper trade publication, the Civil Liberties Union regards the action of the Supreme Court as a denial of constitutional rights. On the ground that the principle of freedom of speech is involved, that organization takes up the controversy.

More than a year and a half ago The Ventura Free Press pointed out the dangers in permitting the Radio Commission to set itself up as a censor of utterances over the air. The California newspaper took the

REPORT STOCK IN GOOD SHAPE

That livestock of all kinds is in excellent shape over Texas as a whole is revealed in the February 1 report of the Santa Fe Railway Company. The report follows: Texas ranges carry a good crop of old feed, and recent moisture will improve grain pastures and start new feed. Sheep are in fine shape and prospects are bright for early feed. There is plenty of water.

Fall movement of both cattle and sheep from points in the El Paso territory in 1932, exceeded, somewhat, shipments for the same period of 1931. There are more cattle on feed in El Paso and vicinity than ever before. Something like 2,500 head have been brought out of New Mexico and placed on full feed in the El Paso yards. From other areas there have come numbers sufficient to make a total in the district of between 8,000 and 9,000 head. Cattle are in good flesh, although in some areas low temperatures caused slight shrinkage.

Spring Work in Texas.

Farmers throughout Texas, except in lower areas, where fields continued to wet, took advantage of intermittently fair weather during the last month to catch up with land preparation for spring planting. This class of work had fallen off considerably in some sections, but now is about normal. Indications are that the Texas farmers again will devote their first attention to production of foods and feedstuffs. With a firm supply of both sufficient or immediate need, it is expected that they will give as much if not more attention to cotton than was the case last year. With financial aid available through federal crop production loans, it is practically certain there will be no decrease in cotton acreage in Texas.

The widow of Hendrick Jansen Skayler was offered $240 for her home at 49 Wall Street in 1963.

position that public officials have no constitutional authority to silence expression, whether that expression be printed in a newspaper, made on a public platform or communicated to the public through a microphone. The Editor and Publisher has taken precisely the same stand, and called upon newspaper publishers everywhere to study the question.

Senator Wheeler was licked in the first round of his bout to renominize silver, but that question will be kept alive long after the present Congress adjourns sine die. So, too, will the effort be renewed in the seventy-third Congress to inflate the currency. But the incoming body, radical as it is in some respects, is not radical enough to step on the gas for inflationary measures such as are being proposed. The sponsors will not have the votes when and if a vote is taken.

The inflation advocates seem to ignore the fact that every bank depositor, however small his deposit may be, is a creditor. So, too, is every holder of an insurance policy. When it comes to separating creditors from debtors it just cannot be done. As conservatives, even many liberals, point out, all of us are debtors and creditors at the same time. Somebody owes us and we owe somebody—usually a several somebodies. Inflation would depress the value of the dollar—and who's going to like that idea? So don't worry on the score that the currency is going to be tinkered with. It isn't met when the final showdown comes.

Dr. William F. Ogburn, professor of sociology in the University of Chicago, who was appointed two years ago to be director of research of the President's Research Commission on Social Trends, thinks that radio is the chief nationalizing force in the United States. Besides standardizing our speech, making knowledge of public affairs more general, promoting education and improving the public health, radio is developing international culture and bringing the nations closer together, he asserts in his report. The professor is nothing if not optimistic. But he cannot have listened to the kind of radio programs we hear in Washington. Instead of opening a new world to illiterates, as Dr. Ogburn says it has, radio has brought too many illiterates into our homes through the radio tubes. Like so many reports of this commission-ridden government, the Ogburn pronouncement paints a rosy picture that nobody in these parts seems to recognize.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Charles E. Dunn

International Sunday School Lesson For Sunday, February 12 JESUS TEACHING BY PARABLES Lesson Text—Mark 4:1-20 Golden Text—John 15:8

We study this week the familiar parable of the sower who sowed his seed in the different kinds of soil. The principal lesson Jesus teaches is that the victory of divine truth depends upon the quality of the persons to whom that truth is taught, just as the yield of the harvest is dependent on the nature of the soil in which the seed is deposited.

Note that there are four kinds of people described: 1. The hard-hearted, who are represented by the wayside, where the seed can not penetrate, and is eaten by the birds. How many there are in that class! 2. The shallow, who are represented by the stony soil, where the seed can find therein no nourishing lodgment.

3. The worldly, represented by the rocky soil. These shallow persons are to be preferred to the hard-hearted, but they are far from fullness of life. Easy-going, snugly self-satisfied with their own narrow circle and outlook their religion withers away in a time of stress.

4. The devoted, represented by the good ground yielding an abundant crop. These are steadfast, loyal, their hearts honest and receptive, open to the truth and willing to obey it. Paul knew such, and tells us they were a comfort unto him. The seed rests warmly and securely within their breasts and brings forth rich and hardy grain for the glory of the Lord and the bounty of his kingdom!

Following the parable comes that saying, "Who hath ears to hear, let him hear." We are trained to speak well. But are we expert in the art of listening?

THE NEW HEAD MAN: OUR MARVIN JONES

By Ray Tecker in The Country Home Magazine.

Two young brothers dropped off a puffing local train in the tiny hamlet of Georgetown, Texas, about 30 years ago. Even for that day and place they were gawky and green. Laden down with old-fashioned telescope grips, they gaped about the square and then headed for a group of sprawling red brick buildings across the field. Bags and all, they marched through the center door of the most imposing structure and broke into a meeting of the Literary Society of Southwestern University.

The incident was typical of Representative Marvin Jones, then a farm boy starting out on a college career, and now chairman of the House Committee on Agriculture. Despite his rustic ramshorn he saw no reason why he should not interrupt the illustrious society's meeting to announce that he was a new-comer to campus life. He persuaded the surprised upper classmen to escort him to the registrar's office and a boarding house, and he did not mind their lifted eyebrows. Four years later he had won all the honors, prizes and gold watches the society had to offer in debating and scholastic, and he departed as unpretentiously as he had arrived. Then, as now, he had plenty of confidence but no chip on his shoulder.

In the same way he has climbed in Congress until now he occupies the key place in the Roosevelt administration. His record in the farm problem. His chairmanship, for instance, is not a congressional accident due solely to the seniority system. When he first ran in 1917 he denounced his veteran rival because the latter had, as a member, given all his time to chairmanship of the Indian Affairs Committee. But the contest seemed hopeless until 30-year-old Marvin told of a district which grows more cotton than any other congressional district and two-thirds of all Texas wheat.

"My opponent tells you of his love for the poor Indian. Well, I have traveled this district from end to end and the only Indian I ever saw was a wooden one in front of a cigar store. When I go to Congress I will get on agriculture as soon as possible, so as to look after the principal industry of Texas." As ranking Democrat on the committee for years, Mr. Jones has had an important part in framing all recent farm legislation. He is not afraid to experiment in attacking the agricultural problem. Basically he advocates revision of "top-slicing" tariffs that bleed the farmer white, more equitable readjustment of our freight rates, long-term government credit to ease the mortgage situation, a more honest medium of exchange, and revamping of a taxation system which, in his opinion, We Specialize in . . . THE SALT OF THE EARTH By Ed Kressy

IF SOMEONE HAS SENT US AN UNDESIGNED LETTER ASKING ABOUT SALT AND HOW IT IS OBTAINED, HERE IS THE ANSWER AND LETS BE OFF.

AS A SEASONED & PRESERVED FOOD SALT HAS BEEN USED FROM EARLIEST TIMES. IT IS THE SALT OF THE OCEAN. IT IS OBTAINED BY THE EVAPORATION OF SEA WATER. IT IS ESTIMATED THAT THE ENTIRE OCEAN CONTAINS 4,400,000,000,000,000 CUBIC MILES OF DOCK SALT.

IN THE INTERIOR OF AFRICA SALT IS VERY SCARCE AND FOR A LONG TIME HAS BEEN USED AS MONEY IN CIVILIZED COUNTRIES. BANKS IN CENTRAL AFRICA HAVE SALT AS CAPITAL.

WELL LETS GET DEV TO START UP THE OLD DOCKS. PLANE AND GET US BACK HOME. WHAT SAY GUD'N' BUB?

AND JUST AS SALT IS USED IN AFRICA CANES OF SALT WERE ALSO USED IN ANCIENT TIMES IN PARTS OF AFRICA AND THE ARABIAN ISLANDS. SALT TAXES WERE IN EFFECT IN ANCIENT AND MEDIAEVAL TIMES.

IN THE PARTS IN THE PRESENT ORIENTALS USE SALT AS A MEAL TO SIGNIFY FRIENDSHIP. IN THE ARABIAN ISLANDS A PHRASE "THERE IS SALT BETWEEN US" MEANING "WE ARE FRIENDS."

Those helping in the canning at Ed Murphy's Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Sterling of Bison, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Miller of Ira and East Wacoever of Union.

Mr. Ed Murphy spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Jesse Jones at Snyder.

Canned Products Pay Bills.
"During the six years I have owned a steam pressure cooker, canned peas have paid the doctor, the groceryman, the blacksmith, the beauty parlor operator and even for my husband's tobacco," declares Mrs. Solon Lea, president of the Mitchell Home Demonstration Club in Haskell County. "By boarding 11 cotton pickers out of my pantry this year I have paid for a piano. When I need the chicken yard grubbed, hot bed made or garden work done, I pay for the work with canned products."

Another Pen Given Winner of Contest

Susie Johnston, Correspondent

In compiling the list of subscriptions that determined who was to receive the fountain pen offered in the Times January contest for correspondents, three names turned in by Miss Georgia Ruth Pagan, German writer, were overlooked.

Miss Pagan's seven subscriptions won first place in the contest, leading Miss Williams' six subscriptions by only one name.

In order to keep everybody smiling, we purchased another fountain pen. The prizes await the two correspondents.

Attention of Times writers is called to the fact that commissions are still allowed on subscriptions taken at the dollar rate. Now, however, all new subscriptions will be dated to expire January 1, 1934, and renewals will be moved up one year minus six weeks.

Hairston; Katherine Henderson, Evelyn Grimes; Frances, an athlete girl, Elsie Holmes; Julia, a French maid, Edith Murphy; Marston Bobbs, Morris Ashley; Rosa Lea, a society girl, Lois Gills; Obadiah Stump, bellhop, Alvis Gray; Celasta Vanderspool, movie actress, Pansy Moon; Jean Graham, a Delaware peach, Eugene Durham. Admission price will be 10 cents for everybody.

BAPTIST CHURCH

February is to be observed as a month of goals in the First Baptist Church Sunday School, and every effort is urged by loyal members of the church to assist in reaching these goals.

An attendance goal for the entire Sunday School has been set to be reached by the last Sunday in the month. The total is comparatively small, and should easily be reached with everyone now attending working on the job.

The goal of each department has been set as follows: Cradle roll, 18; beginners, 23; primary, 26; junior, 60; intermediate, 55; young people, 80; adult, 78.

With the eight classes in the junior department averaging eight each, the goal will be exceeded by four; with the seven classes in the intermediate department averaging eight to the class, the goal will fall with one over; if an average of 14 are present in the six classes of the young people's department, an excess of four will attend; the adult department's five classes will only have to average 16 to the class, and then will have two more than the set number.

The second goal standard set for the last Sunday in February is the raising of a fund for missions and debt paying through the various departments of the Sunday School. Suggested amounts for each department are: Cradle roll, $5; beginners, $5; primaries, $5; juniors, $15; intermediates, $15; young people, $30; adults, $40; general officers, $10.—Reporter.

Accident Victim On His Feet This Week

B. G. Johnson, who was seriously injured late last month when the car in which he was riding was struck by a Santa Fe train, was moved from the hospital to his home Thursday of last week.

He is moving about the house now, but is unable to get outside yet.

None of Mr. Johnson's injuries will prove to be permanent, the attending physician believes.

Boy Scout Work To Be Postponed Again

Lack of interest has spelled doom for an attempt to revive Boy Scout work in Snyder.

The troop formerly under sponsorship of the First Baptist Church, and another troop for the Methodist Church, have been talked considerably recently, but the sponsors believe the time is not ripe to revive the important work.

In New York's sanitation department $300,000 is charged for the upkeep of 253 horses, of which only 29 are in service.

Banks, Post Office Closed For Holiday

Monday will be observed here by the banks and post office as Lincoln's Birthday, since the national holiday falls on Sunday.

The institutions named will be closed all day, but other business will go forward here as usual.

Special programs in memory of "the emancipator" are being planned by schools in all parts of the county.

DIZZINESS

relieved by Black-Draught

"I decided to take Theodor's Black-Draught, as I had been having 'blissful spells,'" writes Mr. Chas. E. Stinson, of Columbus, Ind. "When I get dizzy I feel sleepy and tired and do not feel like doing my work. I get awfully dizzy. I know then that I had better take something. After I found how good Black-Draught is, that is what I have used. I guess it rids me of the dizziness. I feel better—don't feel like I am dropping off to sleep every time I sit down. That, to me, is a very bad feeling. Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a SYRUP, for CHILDREN."
