"YOUR HOME COUNTY PAPER"

FORTY-FIFTH YEAR

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 27, 1933.

NUMBER 146

SCHOOLS WILL BENEFIT FROM SOLON ACTION

Snyder Alone Would Profit $600 From Emergency Bill Passed By Texas Senate.

Message by the state Senate late last week an emergency bill that would allocate $1,500,000 to care for 1932 unpaid high school tuition, and transportation and consolidation bonuses, was cause for rejoicing in Scurry County. If the House passes the bill this week, the passage is believed assured—Snyder schools will profit $600 in high school tuition, and several other schools in the county will profit considerably in transportation and consolidation bonuses.

Frank Farmer, county superintendent, and C. Wedgeworth, city superintendent, were among more than 200 school leaders, trustees and business men called to Austin last week at the suggestion of the State Teachers Association, for the purpose of convincing legislators that drastic action is necessary if public schools are to get an equitable per capita allotment next year.

The Kayton sales tax bill was discussed in open meeting Friday by the visiting school people, the bill's author and others interested in an effective revenue for the public school system. It was killed in the House committee room by a vote of 10 to 9, but on a minority report the House proper accepted it for printing along with other bills to come up later in the session. The House vote was 68 to 46.

The Kayton bill is substantially different from the sales tax legislation sought earlier in the session under Governor Ferguson's sponsorship. It is not an additional tax, but it is designed to offset county and municipal ad valorem taxation. It is not a pyramidal tax such as the previous bill embodied, and it calls for two per cent rather than three per cent levy on sales. Foodstuffs are exempt under the new bill's terms.

Farmer Dies At Home In County Late Last Week

F. O. Clarkson, 60, farmer residing on the south of Fluvanna, died at his home early Friday morning of natural causes. Although he had been a resident of Scurry County for only seven years, he had been active in civic affairs, and was a leader in the community in which he resided.

Funeral rites were held Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Snyder Church of Christ. Bro. O. D. Dial, minister, officiated, and the Odum Funeral Home was in charge. Burial was in the Snyder cemetery, under auspices of the Masonic lodge, of which the deceased had been a member for a number of years.

Surviving are his wife, two sons, four daughters, and a brother, Ed Clarkson, all of whom reside west of Snyder.

Last of Crop Loans Available Saturday

If you want a crop loan this year, you'd better see Charles Lewis, local manager, not later than Saturday.

Mr. Lewis calls attention to the fact that April 30 is absolutely the closing date set by regional authorities, and that applications can not be received after this week. Not many applications have been received within the past few days.

MORSEL OF HISTORY COMES TO LIGHT REGARDING OLD DERMOTT

Captain Sentell Is Pleased With Guard

Captain John E. Sentell, commanding officer of Company "G," 142nd Infantry, was well pleased with the showing of his National Guard unit during federal inspection Thursday of last week. "The men acquitted themselves remarkably well," he said yesterday. "In my opinion it was one of the best showings we have ever made." The inspecting officer, Major Paxton of Fort Worth, was also pleased with the unit's showing.

Only one man was absent out of a roster of 65 enlisted men and officers.

Snyder Group Goes To Santone Fiesta

A group of four Snyder people were in San Antonio Thursday, Friday and Saturday for the annual fiesta of the South Texas city. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Deakin, Mrs. T. L. Lollie and Mrs. Woodie Scarborough.

Flower-laden floats, giant parades and entrancing fashion shows, as well as other features, made the fiesta enjoyable from start to finish, according to the local attendants.

Borden Sends Her No. 1 Penitentiary Citizen Thursday

The county to Scurry's west was carved in 1876, 53 years ago, but that lengthy stretch of history had not been filled with a single criminal conviction until about two years ago. John Day, a Scurry County resident, was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary for manufacture of liquor. He appealed, and was released on bond.

Wheels of justice ground slowly, but they finally affirmed the original sentence, by way of the Austin court of criminal appeals. Day was promptly re-arrested and placed in the Scurry County jail, since Gail (county seat of Borden) does not offer a home-like bottle. He had been awaiting transportation to the pen since that time.

Borden County's first criminal case attracted considerable attention three years ago, but the cattle theft charge did not result in a conviction.

GAIN REVEALED IN SCHOLASTIC CENSUS TOTAL

County Superintendent's Office Is Compiling Scholastic Rolls For State Education Use.

Returns from census takers in the 28 Scurry County school districts reveal that the 1933 rolls show a substantial gain over those for 1932. This is accounted for largely by the fact that many new families have moved into the county during the past few months.

Snyder's total, reported two weeks ago, reveals an increase of 73 scholars—from 1,903 to 1,976. Several other districts report proportionate gains, and practically none of them lost over last year's total.

Following is the complete scholastic total by school districts, as compiled in the county superintendent's office. The rolls are being prepared this week for acceptance by the state department.

Guinn, 47; Camp Springs, 74; Canyon, 120; Bismarck, 88; Triangle, 15; Bethel, 103; Independence, 70; Plainview, 84; Dermott, 46; Ganaway, 45; Crowder, 68.
Strayhorn, 73; Martin, 54; Ennis Creek, 70; Turner, 36; Stribling, 44; China, Grove, 63; Whitley, 12; Woodard, 25; Arah, 26.

LaRues Go To West Texas Gathering of Laundry Operators

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. LaRue were in Abilene Thursday for a called meeting of West Texas laundrymen. Ralph Lee of Colorado, president of the sectional group, presided.

The laundry operators set May 18 for their next regular meeting, which they intend to hold at the hotel in Abilene. Mr. LaRue stated that the laundrymen discussed the unfair competition given them by makers of home washing machines, and they realized their belief that the public was coming to realize that the misleading statements would not hold up when put to the test.

The consensus of the gathering was that steam laundry work at present prices is cheaper and more sanitary in the long run and in the short run than any other process for cleaning clothes.

Action of Commissioners' Court Monday Revives Story of Abandoned Townsite.

When the Commissioners' Court declared Monday that streets and other improvements were no longer needed in "old" Dermott, one of the final chapters was written in the history of an interesting episode in Scurry County annals.

Old Dermott was built on the R. S. & P. about a mile southwest of the town now called Dermott. The townsite extended from the R. S. & P. to the proposed line of the Santa Fe (where the Santa Fe now runs). Nearly was the proposed crossing of a branch of the Houston & Texas Central, from Rotan. Records in the county clerk's office reveal that the townsite was mapped and platted in September, 1910.

But the tide turned toward the Santa Fe soon thereafter. Old Dermott failed to "expand" to cover the terrain between the two lines, and soon the town was moved to new Dermott, where it now stands. Since that time, old Dermott has been officially composed of lots, alleys, streets and a site for a city hall, but actually it has been just another portion of the John W. Mooser estate, with not even a road leading through it.

The commissioners' official action was taken Monday in order to clear title to the property.

Miss Effie McLeod, local teacher, was called Thursday, for the second time recently, to the bedside of her father at Florence. Mr. McLeod was near death when she was called, and a card received Wednesday by Mrs. J. W. Templeton indicated that he was not improved. Miss Doris Pope Eliza is teaching Miss McLeod's class.

SNYDER NAMED NEXT HOSTESS TO METHODISTS

D. P. Yoder Again Chosen As Lay Delegate to Annual Convention At Clarendon In Fall.

Snyder was selected last Thursday as next hostess to the Sweetwater district conference meeting of Methodists. The choice was made at the Big Spring session, which was attended by a number of Snyder and Scurry county delegates.

D. P. Yoder of Snyder was again named as one of the 10 lay delegates from this district to the next annual convention, which will be held at Clarendon in November.

Other lay delegates were selected as follows: Mrs. O. P. Clark of Sweetwater, Mrs. J. W. Sheppard of Colorado, George Mahon of Colorado, Frank Logan of Coahoma, J. P. Bodine of Colorado, J. W. Brashear at Sweetwater, Dr. A. O. Dudgeon of Sweetwater, Mrs. R. L. Manion of Big Spring and Mrs. F. L. Williams of Roscoe.

Delegates unanimously approved a resolution petitioning the bishop and elders cabinet to reduce the number of presiding elder districts from eight to six if such can be done. The petition will be presented at the annual conference at Clarendon in November.

Dr. J. W. Hunt, president of McMurry College at Abilene, addressed the morning gathering as did Dr. O. P. Sornabough of Southern Methodist University, Dallas.

Reports showed a larger number of conversions during the year than usual. Interest in men's Bible classes over the district is on a decided increase, according to statements.

Delegates were served luncheon at the church Thursday. The conference opened Wednesday afternoon and was featured by an address by Dr. William Quillen Wednesday evening. The speaker is general secretary of the board of Christian education at Nashville, Tennessee.

The Rev. O. P. Clark, presiding elder of this district, was in charge of all sessions.

Distribute Seed For Gardens To County's Needy

Garden seeds are being distributed in the county this week through funds provided by the R.F.C.

Harris Winston, in charge of purchasing the seeds to be passed out in this county, stated yesterday that anyone wishing to raise a garden would be given seeds, providing he is not financially able to buy seeds for himself.

Applications for seed can be made to the R.F.C. committee at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Judge Robert H. Curmiste, who will be in charge of the public garden plot at the city farm, two miles south of Snyder, stated yesterday that the work would be started within a few days. Only staple crops, such as corn and beans, will be planted, he said.

A number of men continue to work on various projects throughout the county, including streets, public buildings and grounds, and the bridge over Deep Creek, just west of the Snyder square.

LIGHT CROP OF RAIN SATURDAY

Thunderheads rolled and rumbled Saturday and Saturday night, leaving behind a trail of light rains, practically all the county. Although the downfall was not enough to run much in some sections, it gave planning encouragement to many farmers who had been waiting for some wetness.

Clouds have continued every day for almost a week, and the visceras continue to say that a good rain will come before the week has passed.

A few localities have reported cotton coming up in spots, but for the most part there is not much of the seed in the ground. It is conservatively estimated that 125,000 acres of the staple will be planted in the county this year, as opposed to about 110,000 acres in 1932.

115 Applicants Get Agricultural Loans

Checks had been received here through Tuesday for 100 loans through the regional agricultural credit department set up by Uncle Sam, and about 115 loan approvals were on their way, according to A. C. Alexander, county chairman.

Mr. Alexander and other members of the committee are anxious that all applications be made within the next few days. The fact that borrowers are compelled to materially reduce their "money" crops in accordance with the loan agreement has probably held down applications considerably.

J. C. McLeod, local teacher, was called Thursday, for the second time recently, to the bedside of her father at Florence. Mr. McLeod was near death when she was called, and a card received Wednesday by Mrs. J. W. Templeton indicated that he was not improved. Miss Doris Pope Eliza is teaching Miss McLeod's class.

Advertisers Given Thanks For Aiding With Bulky Times

Thanks to the liberal patronage of Snyder merchants, The Times was enabled to issue its largest edition last week that has come from the plant in more than a year.

Advertising was so heavy, in fact, that the publishers were obliged to enlarge the paper to 10 pages. Advertising is at a fairly high peak again this week, and we again extend thanks to merchants for their cooperation.

We are reminded that hard-earned dollars are not spent these days unless practically certain results are assured, so we can say without fear of contradiction that advertising in The Times is reaping rich results for far-sighted merchants and others.

It might be interesting to readers to learn that an eight-page copy of The Times contains about 350 inches more ads and reading matter, or the equivalent of about two and one-half average pages, than the average weekly newspaper. This is due to the extra large size of the Times sheet and to the fact that we use a smaller type than most weeklies.

Four Choruses of Juniors Compete In Hymn Contest

To the 29-voice chorus under direction of Miss Hattie Herra went first prize in the hymn contest staged Wednesday afternoon at the Snyder High School auditorium. The group was made up of children of the grammar school not in other localities.

A total of 83 voices of juniors in Scurry County were competing in this year's event. A fair-sized audience was pleased with the music and the memory work of the groups.

First Methodist Church chorus of 18 voices, under direction of Mrs. W. W. Smith, placed second. Juniors, with Miss Margaret Dell Prim leading, ranked third, and the First Baptist Church singers, under direction of Willard Jones, was fourth.

Miss Virginia Peden of Colorado, in charge of the oral work of the contest, and Mrs. J. C. Sheehan of Hermleigh were judges.

Planists for the groups were: Miss Nora Carr for Miss Herra's class and the Baptist juniors; Mrs. A. C. Prentiss for the Methodists; and Miss Flora Vida Holley for the Trinity.

All singers in competition Wednesday afternoon are slated for a massed sing-song for Sunday afternoon, 4:00 o'clock, at the First Methodist Church. The public is invited to be present.

Mrs. Bob Ethredge Passes On Monday After Brief Illness

After an illness of only a few days, Mrs. Bob Ethredge, 40, died Monday at her home here. Funeral rites were held at the First Baptist Church, Hermleigh, Tuesday afternoon, with Rev. R. B. Hester officiating and the Odum Funeral Home in charge. Burial was in the Pylon cemetery. Mrs. Ethredge was a former resident of the south end of the county. Rev. Hester paid high tribute to her as a mother and neighbor.

Surviving are the husband and nine children.

Pallbearers were as follows: Everett Sturdivant, Roy Shipman, Albert Coley, W. J. Sturdivant, Blake Walker and B. Walker.

These were in charge of flowers: Misses Mattie E. Walker, Ola Mae Walker, Opal Ethredge, Thelma and Vera Pay Sturdivant.

Knights Templar In Abilene For Conclave

Nine members of Snyder Commandery, Knights Templar, were in Abilene Tuesday to attend the state convocation of the Masonic order. All but one delegate, Dr. Hicks, returned to their homes Tuesday night. They reported a highly beneficial and pleasant convention.

Representing the local commandery were Wayne Brown, W. R. Bell, Porter King, W. J. Ely, G. H. Leath, J. G. Hicks of Snyder, Ernest Peterson and J. F. Cargile of Polar and Mr. Hale of Rotan.

COUNTY BOYS NEW MACHINES

The Commissioners' Court in regular session Monday accepted bids for purchase of four new pieces of machinery to be used on county roads.

Two of the machines were purchased from the Austin Western Road Machinery Company for a total of $2,700. Four old graders are to be given in lieu of one-half of that amount, or $1,350. Four old machines were also disposed of at a valuation of $2,800 in a trade for two tractors from the Allis-Chalmers people, with $5,200 additional to be paid by the county.

A number of accounts were allowed by the court Monday and during a brief Tuesday session.

BANKERS NAME THIS CITY FOR NEXT MEETING

A. C. Alexander Conducts Round Table Discussion At Annual District Convention.

Snyder was named Friday as the 1934 entertaining city for the South Plains Bankers Association. One day earlier she had been named as hostess to the next quarterly session of district Methodists.

The selection was made at the annual San Jacinto Day gathering of South Plains bankers, held this year at Lamesa. One of the afternoon round table discussions was led by A. C. Alexander of the Snyder National Bank.

Among the Lamesa delegates were these four from Snyder: O. P. Charne, vice president; A. C. Alexander, cashier; A. J. Casig, assistant cashier; Wayne Williams, teller.

Judge John Doyle of Levelland was named as the association's new president to succeed E. Reagan of Big Spring. W. R. McDuffie of Waco, secretary-treasurer, and Paul Hardwick of Lubbock was re-elected as secretary-treasurer.

The address of welcome was given by Judge Carl Rountree of the host city, and Judge Doyle gave the response. The principal address of the day was by Champ Clark of Fort Worth. Mr. Alexander and John D. Mitchell of Lubbock conducted the afternoon round table discussions.

Grid Training Ends After Spring Debut

After more than three weeks of spring training, 40 candidates for next season's Tiger eleven called it a day Tuesday. Coach "Red" Moore says the weather and many of the boys need for additional classroom study, brought about the end of practice.

"Red" is fairly enthusiastic about his 1933 eleven. With only a small nucleus of old team members, he is nevertheless confident that many of the greenhorns will round into good shape before the playing season begins.

Optometrists Have Good 1933 Session

Brownwood was an ideal host city to the 1933 session of Texas optometrists. Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Towle said yesterday when they returned from the three-day convention. Good attendance and excellent programs were features of the meeting.

New officers of the men's group include Dr. P. T. Pray of Beaumont, president; Dr. Don Hayes of Waco, secretary-treasurer. In the women's division, Mrs. J. F. Doyle of San Antonio succeeded Mrs. Towle as president, and Mrs. Otis Parris of San Angelo was made vice president. Mrs. M. L. Allen of Corpus Christi is the new secretary-treasurer.

Semi-Annual Rexall Sale Started Today

Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week are red-letter days not only for the two local Sincin drug stores but for patrons of the two stores. The semi-annual One-Cent Sale is being staged, and many customers are taking advantage of the opportunity to purchase toilet goods and other articles at practically one-half of the regular price.

Joe and Lee Sincin, owners of the stores, stated this morning that indications pointed toward the most successful One-Cent Sale in the recent history of the bargain events.

Senior Play Will Be Presented on May 19

W. W. Hill, sponsor of the class, will direct play, and characters will be announced later.

Last Friday's program at school assembly was of a San Jacinto nature, with the public speaking department in charge. O. D. Dial, minister of the Church of Christ, brought a message Monday of this week. The home economics girls will be in charge of the Friday program this week. Patrons are invited to all these programs.

SINGERS ELECT OLD OFFICIALS

Meeting in annual business session at Plainview Saturday night, the county singing convention re-elected all its old officers, as follows: Emmett Butts, president; Walter Holmes, vice president; Miss Connie Shepherd, secretary.

Snyder's county convention provided for the singing of hymns in many seasons. Singers and visitors filled the school building to Plainview, and "ran over" into doors and windows. Singing for the day was well above par, with a number of out-of-county visitors to strengthen the program.

Mrs. Bertie Bell Putman is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. "Dusty" Miller in Sweetwater this week.

EVELYN ERWIN QUEEN OF MAY

Meet her royal highness, Queen Evelyn of the House of Erwin (A. D.), who will rule over the May festival to be staged by Snyder schools on May 5, under sponsorship of the Parent-Teacher Association. The new queen was junior class candidate.

The spirited balloting for May Queen netted $112.53, a sum not even anticipated by P-T. A. officials. Of that amount, $61.87 was raised by Queen Evelyn's supporters, at a penny a vote. Her majesty's success was largely due to her campaign managers, Frances Stinson and Leslie Kelley. Miss Stinson, in particular, was a tireless and sacrificial worker, and deserves much credit for the sensational victory. She will be maid of honor to the queen.

Second in the voting was Mildred Stokes, senior candidate, with 3,837 votes. The freshman candidate, Lyndal Westbrook, ran third with 844 votes, and the sophomore choice, Frances Northcutt, was fourth. The three defeated candidates will be dufhessees to the queen. Several other dufhessees and their attendants are exempted from other schools of the county.

More than 200 students from grammar and high school will take part in the gala affair at Tiger Stadium on May 5. The participants will include the school band and the choral club.

OPENS AGENCY DRIVE ON RATS FOR CHRYSLER OPENS MONDAY

Everyone interested in ridding his premises of rats is urged to attend at least one of the gatherings.

The fifteen hundred Red & White Stores in the mid-west area of the nation-wide volunteer group announce a special sale of a number of food products at exactly the same prices, beginning Friday of this week, with the express purpose of gaining a million new friends. The stores are pioneering in the mid-west in this type of cooperative sale.

Among participants in the regional sale are the nine stores in the Snyder division—four here, and one each at Dunn, Fluvanna, China Grove, Hermleigh and Justiceburg. W. C. Hamilton, manager of the H. O. Wooten Grocery Company's local branch house, states that the sale will continue through Saturday of next week.

The Red & White Stores in this division are announcing their regular Friday and Saturday specials this week, in addition to the reduced prices on a number of standard products handled by the mid-west group of stores bearing the same name.

Two Forest Workers May Go From County

D. P. Yoder, county chairman of federal reforestation relief work, was advised Wednesday to have two men from Scurry County to report at the Lubbock army recruiting office for orders.

Mr. Yoder received application blanks and additional information concerning the program this morning. The Times learns as it goes to press. Later word indicates that this county may send one reforestation worker for each 500 persons in the county, and that the age limits are 18 to 25 years.

INSPECTION OF SCHOOLS HERE

An exceedingly favorable oral report concerning local schools was left Monday by Miss Opal Gilstrapp, state supervisor, after the annual inspection tour.

Miss Gilstrapp's written report will be available for publication next week, according to C. Wedgeworth, superintendent.

The county's other first class high schools—at Fluvanna, Dunn and Hermleigh—were also to have been inspected this week, but The Times has received no reports from them. Their reports last year here highly complimentary.

First of the foundation material will be used on the north end of the road, and the work will move toward Snyder. A steam shovel capable of moving 400 yards a day will operate on the Fuller place, about four miles from the first surfacing job. It is estimated that each truck can move about 15 loads daily, at 48 cents per load.

About eight months will be required for the surfacing work at the job, since loading will be automatic, and the caliche will be spread by graders.

Colorado will play Snyder on the local course next Sunday afternoon in the fourth scheduled game of the association.

Wednesday girls of the Snyder High School were inspired by Mrs. E. F. McCarty's splendid suggestions for a successful life. Following are some taken from her talk:

"How may a successful life be obtained? By right living. Essentials are personality, character and efficiency. We must seize every opportunity which leads to higher education; build nobility of character; it is a personal matter which can not be bought, inherited or sold. The best materials with which to build a noble character are honesty, dependability, faith, persistence, obedience and service."

"Character is wisely defined by two words, self control. We must remember the law of sowing and reaping which is true in physical and spiritual life. 'Be not deceived, God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.'—Reporter.

Two Draw Lake Open To Anglers Monday, May 1

There may be greater joy in this world, but to the angler there is no day equal to May 1, as it is the opening day of fishing season in this section. On this day Two Draw Lake, located one mile north of Post, will be opened to fishermen.

The lake is in better condition this year than it has been in a number of years. Repairs of every nature have been made in anticipation of the vacationers, who will spend many days fishing and camping there. New boats, new bridges, new furnaces, new tables, new benches and new playground equipment have been added, and a general clean-up of the entire lake grounds has been recently made.

The lake is an ideal spot in West Texas, not only for anglers but for the whole family. It is surrounded by beautiful shade trees, under which free camping grounds are available for everyone. Brick furnaces, stationary and movable tables and benches, garbage cans and city water and lights are accessible to the campers.

The center of all sports begins at the bath house, where the caretaker rents bathing suits, boats and fishing equipment and where a large concession stand is located, in which visitors can buy candy, cigars, cigarettes, sandwiches, fishing tackle, live baits, campers' supplies of groceries, etc.

Another feature of the lake grounds is the small zoo which has been started within the last month. Cages and pens are now being built to house West Texas game that is being donated by Post citizens and for other animals and birds that will be donated during the summer. The zoo has created quite a bit of interest, and with the proper management more interest will be shown as other animals and birds are added to the collection.

Fishermen of this section who will fish at the lake are assured of good boats this season, as all boats have been repaired and repainted and boats have been added. No other lake of this section of the country offers so great a variety of fish and in such quantities. The lake is restocked each year with government fish. In the fall of last year 29,000 baby bass, crappie and bream were put in Two Draw Lake.

The lake is under supervision of the Post Chamber of Commerce, and the services of Bob Morgan, an angler of some repute, have been secured as caretaker this season. He lives on the lake grounds and will be at the service of all visitors at all hours.

Fluvanna Church of Christ Planning To Have Lecture Week

Fluvanna Church of Christ is sponsoring a week of lectures on the theme of "Work of the Church." A group of young preachers from Abilene, with a quartet, will lecture and sing the first day of the lecture week course, which will be Sunday, April 30. The entire day will be spent together at the church building of the Church of Christ in Fluvanna. A basket lunch will be spread at noon.

A hearty invitation and welcome is extended to everyone to come and enjoy the day with us. Speakers will lecture each night of the week on the general theme. Such speakers will be used as O. D. Dial of Snyder, C. A. Buchanan of Rotan and other church men of interest.

Remember, this is just one week only, beginning Sunday, April 30, and closing Sunday night, May 17. Don't deny yourself these inspirational and uplifting lectures.—Chester L. Bryant, local minister at Fluvanna.

Welcome Additions.
Among the welcome additions to Snyder's street system may be included the caliche placed on both sides of the Twenty-Seventh Street bridge, and the drainage ditches along several thoroughfares over town.

Many grave questions confront Roosevelt's cabinet, but we venture the first to come up will be: "Do you mind, Miss Perkins, if we smoke?"—Corpus Christi Caller.

TEMPORARY pain relief remedies may save you much suffering at the moment, but putting a mask over a warning signal does not clear up the condition it was telling you to avoid.

The Times Creed.
For the cause that needs assistance;
For the wrongs that need resistance;
For the future in the distance,
And the good that we can do.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN.

An Irishman's Rule for Health.
You should like this rule of health from an Irishman's tongue: "Whatever ye do, be say, but if ye can't be say then be as ay as ye can."

A Hint to the Wise.
The Legislature's wrangling and bickering in a long-drawn-out session reminds us of this witty saying: "Why write a book if all you've got to say can be expressed in an epigram?"

One of the Compensations.
"One of the compensations of being poor is that you can get a thrill out of finding a dime in the pocket of an old overcoat," writes one editor. He neglects to say that many of the poor don't have any overcoats, new or old.

A Tribute to Roosevelt.
Our congressman, Marvin Jones, is responsible for this tribute to Roosevelt: "I am glad we have a man in the White House who is unafraid, who is willing to assume responsibility and who has a program. The American people are thrilling with a new hope under his leadership."

Now For a Rain.
After all the clouds of Friday, Saturday and Sunday, maybe the time is almost ripe for a rain. Our old whoopie sighs every time it goes around those rough corners on the West Side. It longs for wetness because it knows the kinks can be largely ironed out if they are watered down.

Going Up in the World.
The Times must be going up in the world. The Associated Press, that world-wide news gathering agency, would have us as a weekly user of one of its smaller services, provided we were voted into membership. Our refusal was polite, but it was gratifying to be placed in the group of "better weeklies."

The Value of Whitewash.
Whitewash is one of the most potent beautifiers that we use in West Texas. It seems to cancel a lot of dust and bareness that nothing else can approach. But when whitewash is used in the legislative halls at Austin, as it has been used so freely recently as regards economy measures, the stuff takes on a sticky pall that shatters faith and pocketbooks.

Another Health Note.
Health Note No. 2: "Three of four people who come whimpering around to the mind doctors ought to be learning common sense about their stomachs, eyes, noses and lungs instead. . . . When you feel gum, and are about to break with your friends or your job, make sure that your trouble is not due to lack of sleep, over-eating or ill-fitting spectacles."

The Radio Spongers.
Did you ever stop to think that half the stuff you hear over the radio would be unprintable in The Times or in a first class daily? By that we mean that radio stations are allowed to broadcast advertising hokum schemes that would be stopped before they reached the post office if an attempt were made to publish them in a mailed newspaper. Congress would do well to think on these things.

We You Born?
That question may sound like a joke, but it's not. The fact is that hundreds of Texans have never been born, officially. In other words, many births are not registered, and many deaths are likewise never recorded. Texas (shame on us) is the only state not now included in the federal registration area. You can help put her there by filling out birth and death cards that will be sent you soon by the government.

A Poetic Prophet.
Prophets of all ages have been laughed to scorn. We are not unique when we guffaw at the men and women who purported to be sages back in the prosperous days of 1926-28. Here is a poetic thrust at sages old:

Why, all the Saints and Sages who discuss'd
Of the Two Worlds so learnedly are thrust
Like foolish Prophets forth; their words to scorn
Are scatter'd and their Mouths are stop't with Dust.

News for Dressmakers.
Three bulletins received by The Times this week from the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station should be of keen interest to dressmakers, hard-working editors, drug store clerks and scores of other taxpayers. We estimate, quite conservatively, that the three issues cost Mr. John Citizen no more than a total of 75 cents. The titles, if you please: "The Relation of Body Shape of Freeder Steers to Rate of Gain, to Dress Per Cent and to Value of Dressed Carcass;" "The Effect of Sunlight and Other Factors on the Strength and Color of Cotton Fabrics;" and "Citrus Orchard Management in the Lower Rio Grande Valley."

The Rule of Rehoboam.

(This timely editorial from The Dallas News hits the spot with 99 per cent of our Readers, we are sure. If you have kindred sentiments, it might be well to let our West Texas legislators know how you feel. A little letter could be a wonderful thing).

"My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke; my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."

So spoke the young King Rehoboam when he took the throne of Israel upon the death of Solomon. It seems that the Rehoboams have taken charge of the House at Austin. Faced with the urgent need for less taxes, they pile on more. Hard times, say the Rehoboams of the House, are to be cared with harder taxes.

Anybody with the white collar wages of $2,500 a year is to feel the blow. Any business prosperous enough to be able to meet its pay-roll will be staggered afresh with the tax gatherer's demands. Corporations do not vote. All they do is to provide jobs for voters—and voters are so simple-minded that they will tax the possibility of their jobs in blissful ignorance that these jobs now hang by all too slender a thread. Thus do the Rehoboams of Austin reason.

The House was not willing to cut its own salary. The House refused to enact any of the major reorganizations in the interest of economy as recommended by the Graves committee. The House has been timorous in the presence of lobbying minorities seeking to maintain the old wasteful ways of government and of education. The call therefore, is for these $10-a-day Horsemen of the Depression to ride roughshod over the last remnant of solvency in Texas with the scourge of Rehoboam.

Some members of the House deserve none of these strictures. Some of them have done their best for the beleaguered taxpayer. Some have a record beyond criticism. But the majority gives character to the group, and the majority has done but little to meet a great emergency.

CURRENT COMMENT BY LEON GUINN

Twelve months ago the futures market in wheat ebbed at a low level so far as optimism tide waves were concerned. . . . Since the Department of Agriculture greased its adding machines and figured the winter wheat at 334,087,000 bushels, wheat prices have upped over a six-day period. . . . Wheat at 70 cents isn't far off, with wheat today at better prices, although the profit-taking boys caused a mild reaction. . . . Inflation talk helped things along, caused flour at $1.50 (for 48 pounds) to loom over the horizon.

Rock garden fans are determined to bring part of the country to the city, making a rock wall indicative of rustic yens concreted. . . . The country residents don't think the idea is so hot inasmuch as rocks belong to hills and valleys, whitewashed fences to irrigated lawns. . . . You can bring a hoosier to the city and slick him down with hair grease; perhaps make him believe he's civilized, but rocks belong on the hills where Providence placed them, moss-covered with age. . . . Rocks are rocks, whether chipped into rock gardens or fish ponds, but human nature seems to demand a solid rock on which to build its hope.

Physicians in all large cities have yelled for 12 months that the regulations restricting the sale of medicinal liquor be carted to the wastebasket. . . . Heeding this plea, Washington congressmen liberalized prescription whiskey regulations, left volume sales to medical judgment. . . . The very M. D.'s wanting the law discard asserted ethics of the profession prohibited issuance of a proper amount of medicine, in the beverage sense of the word. . . . Each year 1,500,000 gallons of medicinal whiskey has been consumed, but now it is expected to touch the bracket of 5,250,000 gallons annually. . . . Just why the restrictions were lifted to please the microbe probing clique would make intensely interesting reading. . . . Revenue was a secondary consideration.

When Franklin D. Roosevelt was elected president he sounded out sentiment on this term construed to popularize a "new deal." . . . After 10 days in office he sent a private statement to Jim Farley telling "the boys" to refrain from overselling him to Americans, world weary of economic conflicts. . . . Since America eased off the gold standard many wonder if Roosevelt has not been oversold to John K. Public as the bigwig ready to cure any and all political or economic ills. . . . Mr. Roosevelt has already achieved enough recognition to make him a George Washington with hair gloss on. . . . As a fearless experimenter Roosevelt has no equal. . . . But when he says issue $3,000,000,000 worth of currency to lower the dollar, up commodity prices, it exposes the fact that Roosevelt is not acquainted with the inside of sound finance. . . . Even though we are temporarily off the gold standard, no history gives an example of a president able to control inflation, congressional decrees included.

In saying that our president is not acquainted with the inside of sound finance, it is meant from a conservative standpoint. . . . Roosevelt is intimately versed in money and monetary values, little understood anywhere. . . . But Mr. Roosevelt is a liberal in dealing with money, whereas a conservatism such as Coolidge advocated is needed when the American dollar pinches the screaming eagle. . . . Mid-western farmers have sobbed around for cheaper money ever since their wheat took the "heebie-jeebies and way-down-yonders" in price. . . . Inflation talk skyrocketed the prices on the New York Stock Exchange last week, caused 7,000,000 shares to be sold in one day. . . . Common shares advanced to new high levels for a three-year period. . . . Cotton on the tickers upped $2.50 per bale, reacted nervously until profit-takers sold holdings, then upped until the net gain was $3 per bale. . . . The developments henceforth will be worth watching as an agreement concerning international currencies will shortly be reached.

Paul De Bruff, writing in The Country Gentleman, brings hope to many with the announcement that the radiotherm may destroy the disease germs of serious maladies. . . . Fever was formerly considered an enemy to humanity, but since the experiments of Wagner-Jauregg have proven fever to be beneficial in burning out microbes, science has changed tactics in fighting dreaded diseases. . . . The radiotherm sends out short waves that causes fever in the human machine, which cooks microbes surely and efficiently. . . . After the science of treating patients has advanced more it might be advisable to try the radiotherm in T. B. cases to ascertain its value in that field. . . . The Chaser contains the information that tubercle bacilli often infect people during childhood, reaching a state of virulence before 35 years old. . . . Therefore, it is obvious the radiotherm should be tried on children when the bacilli are in a latent state.

THE OTHER MAN

by RUBY M. AYRES

Eight Installment
SYNOPSIS—Pauline, sentimental, trusting, sincere and loving love, becomes engaged and marries Dennis O'Hara in the belief that their blissful happiness will continue through all the years. On her wedding morning she awakens with a strange premonition that maybe love does change, a thought buried in her mind by a letter from her closest friend, Barbara, the night before. Pauline adored Barbara, who had been married, was the mother of a child which died, but now divorced and living a life which some of her friends could not understand. He loved a play like that. It's two men and a woman, I suppose? He made no reply, and she laughed with soft triumph. "You won't be able to," she whispered. "I'll never let you!"

In the theatre Barbara told herself that she had behaved like a fool. Dennis was sitting next to her. "I hope you'll like the show," she said casually. "It's the latest success; the usual three-act-recessed affair, you know." Pauline laughed. "How exciting. I love a play like that. It's two men and a woman, I suppose? He made no reply, and she laughed with soft triumph. "You won't be able to," she whispered. "I'll never let you!"

She didn't listen to a word that was said on the stage—she could only hear the words that Dennis O'Hara had spoken to her a little while ago in the hotel lounge. "I came to town to see you." She opened her eyes with a sigh. He was sitting very still, quietly attentive, his broad shoulders rather hunched and his profile a little stern. What was he thinking about, she wondered? Was he hating her very much? The curtain swung down on the first act, and the lights went on. Dennis rose to his feet. "They don't give you much leg room," he complained. Pauline glanced at him anxiously. "Why not go outside and have a smoke?" she suggested. "Most of the men are going."

She leaned across to Barbara. "No, go, too," she urged. "Mr. Barnett will stay with me, won't you?" She appealed to Jerry. "Of course—delighted," but Jerry was not very enthusiastic. "I don't care about smoking just now, thanks," Barbara said lazily. She felt angry with Pauline. "We may as well get some air," Dennis said calmly. He took up Barbara's cloak, which had slipped from her shoulders. "Oh, very well," she agreed, and rose. After all it would seem pointed to refuse.

They went out into the foyer, and Dennis gave her a cigarette and lit it. "Most of the men have gone to the bar," Barbara said. "Why don't you join them?" "I'm not thirsty, thanks." "Do you like the play?" "So far it seems quite possible," Dennis answered. There was a little silence, then he asked deliberately. "Did you choose it purposely?" "What do you mean?" "He met her eyes steadily. "I wondered if you intended it for an object lesson for me." "I don't understand." "Dennis O'Hara frowned. He dropped his half-smoked cigarette to the floor and trod it out. "Six weeks ago when I smashed you up," he said bluntly, "I made a very interesting discovery."

"I knew they wanted a drink," Pauline said. She moved into Dennis's seat beside Barbara. "I don't believe in typhoid," she said upon strings, do you? I always let Dennis do just what he likes and go where he likes." "I suppose you won't be able to dance," Barbara was saying to him casually. "I suppose your leg isn't really fit enough."

Pauline broke in eagerly. "Oh, but it is, and Dr. Stornaway said it would do him good to exercise it. You must wait with him, Barb—be he waltzes perfectly. Before we were married—"

"I dare say your idea of a perfect dancer and Barbara's are very different," Dennis broke in calmly. "And hadn't you better sit down, my dear? You're in the way there."

Pauline's eyes clouded. "And he seems no nice!" she said. Barbara moved restlessly. "I don't make him any less nice because he doesn't care for his wife, does he?" she asked a trifle impatiently. Pauline sat silent, her eyes downcast. "If Dennis ever loves anyone but me I shall die," she said excitedly. "I was only thinking just now, when that woman in the play took the man away from his wife—supposing it was Dennis—and you may cheer up. In the play he goes back to her, so it's all quite satisfactory."

Pauline shook her head. It could not be. Once he'd stopped loving his wife and cared for someone else, he would always be Linnard of the other woman—and wanting her. A sudden wave of pity swept Barbara's heart. She laid a hand on Pauline's arm. "It's only a play," she said. "Don't look so tragic." "But it's so real," Pauline said wistfully. "Afterward, when they were leaving the theatre, she caught her husband's arm. 'Did you like it?' she asked. He glanced down at her with preoccupied eyes. 'Well enough. Did you?'"

"I thought it was dreadfully sad," said Pauline with the stereotyped happy ending. "I don't call that a happy ending. I am sure he really loved the other woman best all the time." "Dennis laughed. 'Don't take it so seriously. It's only a play.' They went on to a night club for supper. It was hot and crowded and garishly lighted and furnished with many gilt chairs and tables. Pauline had never been to such a place in her life. She kept close to her husband and talked almost in a whisper. "Isn't it lovely? I've never seen anything so lovely. Look at the masses of flowers and all the beautiful girls."

"They won't look very beautiful at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning without their make-up," Dennis said ruthlessly. Barnett had booked a table near the center of the floor. Both he and Barbara seemed well known to the manager and waiters. The leading violinist in the orchestra bowed and smiled across the room to them.

POISON in Your bowels!

Poisons absorbed into the system from souring waste in the bowels, cause that dull, headachy, sluggish, bilious condition; coat the tongue; foment the breath; sap energy, strength and nerve-force. A little of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will clear up trouble like that, gently, harmlessly, in a hurry. The difference it will make in your feelings over night will prove its merit to you. Dr. Caldwell studied constipation for over forty-seven years. This long experience enabled him to make his prescription just what men, women, old people and children need to make their bowels help themselves. Its natural, mild, thorough action and its pleasant taste commend it to everyone. That's why Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as it is called, is the most popular laxative drugstore sell.

Official Band Of WTCC Starts Its Rambling Round

The "West Texas Gypsies" (Antony), official band of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, are rambling around again. The Gypsies are musical crusaders—of West Texas—for West Texas, and the large stand covered bus belonging to this band of Gypsies will be much in evidence for several weeks now as the Gypsies fill their numerous spring engagements over West Texas and Eastern New Mexico.

The fifteenth annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be held in Big Spring on May 11, 12 and 13, and, as official band, the Gypsies are spreading the news and extending a hearty invitation to all attendees. The convention program includes a massed band concert Friday evening of the convention, with all attending bands participating—Mr. Thornhill directing.

To the Legislature. An exchange suggests that the handkerchief industry should be helped by allowing beer to pour legally in the state. "Men will buy and drink cold beer because of the warm weather; the weather will open up the pores and the beer will speed the circulation. Result: The citizenry will be sweating like so many sponges under a squeeze. A dozen handkerchiefs a day won't be enough."

Registration Of Every Birth And Death Is Sought

Scurry County homes are this week receiving post cards from the post offices serving them, destined to help complete birth and death records for the past 12 months. Each family in which a birth or death has occurred during the year is asked to fill in and mail the cards promptly, even though the family knows the birth or death has already been registered. The importance of birth and death registration is now universally recognized. Vital records have become indispensable to the adjustment of problems involving heredity, legitimacy, property rights, and identity. In certain of our states and territories, the question of citizenship itself may be determined upon the basis of birth records. Federal registration, however, is accomplished wholly through the cooperation of the states in furnishing transcripts of their records to the Bureau of the Census, the federal government paying for the transcription at an established rate.

Snyder Choice Given. Snyder choice as director for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, W. J. Ely, is included in a publicity article sent out from Big Spring last week. Mr. Ely was chosen at a called meeting here several days ago, subject to approval of the WTCC convention at Big Spring May 11-13.

BRIGHT WOMAN LOST 20 POUNDS Feels Much Better

"June 28, 1932, I started taking Kruschen salts. Have lost 20 pounds from June 28 to January 10. Feel better than have felt for four years. Was under doctor's care for several months. He said I had gall stones and should have operation. Kruschen did all and more than I expected." Mrs. Lute Bright, Walker, Minn. (January 10, 1933).

To lose fat and at the same time gain in physical attractiveness and feel spirited and youthful take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning. A jar that lasts four weeks costs but a trifle at any drugstore in the world, but be sure and get Kruschen Salt, the SAFE way to reduce wide hips, prominent front and double chin and again feel the joy of living—money back if dissatisfied after the first jar.—adv. w-3

Feeders' Day At Spur Experiment Station on May 5

Since the establishment of the Spur Experiment Station in 1909 through an act of the Texas Legislature much attention has been given to the introduction, developing, growing and utilization of feed crops for the drier sections of the West. Development and growing of feed crops made much faster progress than utilization. With this thought in view, the Spur Experiment Station adopted a number of years ago as one of its major activities a study pertaining to the utilization of West Texas feeds on the farms where they were being grown.

Parm feeding in Texas, and West Texas particularly, is rapidly becoming one of the leading sources of farm revenues. Feeding facts developed in carefully conducted experiments have done much to reduce the risk element in feeding and to convince the skeptical that the sorghum grains and forages are excellent for production of beef, mutton, pork, butter and eggs. "Feeders' Day" will be held at the Spur station May 5, at which time the final feed lot results of a 168-day feeding test on five pertinent feeding problems of Texas will be announced:

1. Which is the best variety of bundle feed?
2. Does it pay to grind feed for yearling steers?
3. Can cotton seed be profitably substituted for cottonseed meal in the fattening ration?
4. Is trench silage more profitable in the ration than cured bundle feed?
5. Is it profitable to add oyster shell flour to the ration of fattening steers?

Eighty-five head of steers divided into eight feed lots are doing their part to answer these questions. Their answers in terms of pounds gained, finish and cost of gains is exceedingly interesting. A day at the Spur Experiment Station inspecting the feeding tests and other experiments, and swapping experiences with feeders from other sections should be profitable and enjoyable. Advance reports indicate that representative delegations from 40 to 50 West Texas counties will attend. Representatives of the A. & M. College, the Texas Technological College, the U. S. Department of Agriculture and other institutions and industries will be in attendance. All those interested in farm problems are invited to attend.

Orchestra Music Postponed. Because of inclement weather last Saturday night, Red Wedgeworth's orchestra did not appear as scheduled at the Green Cabin, sandwich shop in East Snyder. However, the popular music makers will be presented Friday evening at the eating oasis, Bob Gray and Fred Merrell, proprietors, announce.

Holdover Cotton Sells In County As Prices Climb

Several thousand dollars was realized by Scurry County farmers during the past few days, as they sent their holdover cotton into the rising market. The average rise over lows of the past fall and winter was 150 to 175 points.

Not much wheat was left in the county, but a few growers took advantage of the heavy rise in that crop and realized a gain of more than 40 per cent over the lows of the past season.

Commodity prices are taking rapid jumps, especially in the grocery line. Staples such as flour and sugar have upped as much as 25 per cent since the bulge in markets began a few days ago. Local merchants who were fortunate enough to have good stocks on hand are patting themselves on the back. Most of the rises, of course, are being passed on to the consumer.

Snyder Women Go to District P-T. A. Meet

Mrs. B. M. West, president of the Snyder Parent-Teacher Association, and Miss P. C. Chenault and J. L. Caskey represented Snyder when they attended the fifth annual conference of the Fourteenth District, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, which convened Friday and Saturday in Brownfield.

The delegates report an unusually good attendance. The theme of the meeting was "Safeguarding Childhood Through This Crisis." Among the principal speakers were Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of Texas Technological College, Lubbock; Mrs. J. M. Crane, state publicity director; Mrs. A. C. Surman, past president of the Fourteenth District P-T. A.; and Mrs. James B. Day of Rotan, president at this time.

With new ideas and enthusiasm brought home the representatives hope to renew the spirit of the local Parent-Teacher Association. At a meeting of the Snyder organization this afternoon, 3:45 o'clock, at the high school auditorium, Mrs. Chenault will give a full report of the conference.

Invitations were received from several cities for the 1934 conference. Snyder also attended her invitation and it is probable she will be selected as the hostess city.

J. I. Burroughs visited Sunday and Monday with his son, W. I. Burroughs, and family at Plainview.

He Sells Insurance. A. L. Francis, formerly associated with the Bryant-Link store here, was in Snyder early this week as a representative of the Abilene office of Seaboard Life Insurance Company. He was accompanied by Joe Smith, also of the Seaboard, who was recently narrowly defeated for a place on the Abilene City Council. Mr. Francis has been in the insurance business since he left Snyder.

"The Churches In Snyder"

By Bro. O. D. Dial, Minister of the Snyder Church of Christ

THIS is the fourth of a series of articles appearing on this page written by ministers of three churches in Snyder, for the purpose of stimulating church attendance. I trust that I may assist the reader by giving a bit of history and a few facts relative to each church whose Directory is found on this page. Giving briefly, its founder, when established, where, and the outstanding points of doctrine and teachings peculiar to each.

The Presbyterian Church was established by John Calvin, a Frenchman, who was driven from France because of religious sympathy and disposition. He went to Basel, Switzerland and while there founded the Presbyterian Church in the year 1535. The five main points of Calvinism accepted by Presbyterians today are as follows:

1. Election, Predestination. "That God has from all eternity decreed whatsoever comes to pass, especially concerning men and angels."
2. A limited atonement. That is Christ died for the Elect, but not for the Non-elect.
3. They believe in the doctrine of total depravity.
4. The effectual calling of the Holy Spirit, by the will of God without the consent of man.
5. The preservation of the Saints. The impossibility of apostasy.

The Baptist Church was first founded in Holland in the year 1608. Another soon followed in England in the year 1611. The American Baptist sprang up in America, and have been slightly reinforced by immigration, by Roger Williams and E. Holliman at Providence, R. I. in the year 1639. See McGlothlin Guide to the Study of Church History. Mr. McGlothlin was teacher of Church History in the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Kentucky. They believe:

1. Salvation or justification by Faith only.
2. Conditional Salvation.
3. That the Scriptures teach there is "one body."
4. The impossibility of apostasy.
5. They are somewhat Calvinistic in teaching, but believe in Congressional government.

The Methodist was founded by John Wesley in the year 1729, which was 9 years before he was converted. See Bishop McTier's History of Methodism. Their doctrine is found in the Methodist Discipline, which taught before the year 1900 that all infants were lost that died without baptism. That it was in baptism the Adamic sin was destroyed, and they arise to walk in newness of life. Since 1910 they are all born in Christ Jesus and heirs of eternal life. Hence do not have to be baptized to be saved, since that year.

2. They believe in church government and doctrine controlled by conference.
3. Baptism by immersion or affusion as the candidate may desire, or if he is an infant and has no desire, it will be decided by his parents or others.

4. The possibility of apostasy.
  5. A direct operation of the Holy Spirit and Baptism of the Holy Spirit.
  6. Salvation by Faith only. (See Jas. 2:24.)
- The Church of Christ, church of God, church of the first Born, house of God, are all expressions used in the Bible, interchangeably, but the same institution. See Isa. 2:2-3. Act. 20:28. Rom. 16:16. I Cor. 1:2.

It was promised by the Prophets (Isa. 2:2-3, Dan. 2:31-35). Was promised again by John the Baptist, Mt. 3:2. Jesus Christ also promised it, about 2 years after the death of John the Baptist, Mt. 16:18. The church of Christ was in existence on the day of pentecost. (Acts 2) And the Lord added 3000 souls to it on this, its first day. In the city of Jerusalem, A. D. 33, it was founded by Christ.

It is opposed to all human names, organizations; institutions—in short to everything not authorized in the New Testament. It is opposed to altering God's word, Rev. 22:18-19.

- The Church of Christ believes:
1. Faith in Jesus. Heb. 11:6; Col. 3:26.
  2. Repentance from sin. Luke 13:13; Acts 2:38.
  3. Confessing Jesus before men. Matt. 10:32-33; Acts 8:37.
  4. Baptism in the name of Father, Son and Holy Spirit, for the remission of sins. Acts 2:38; Matt. 28:18-20.
  5. Adding the christian graces. I Peter 1:5-11. Assembly on the Lord's day (Heb. 10:25) to observe the Lord's supper. Acts 20:7.
  6. Its plea is "back to the Bible: Where the Bible speaks we will speak and where the Bible is silent we will be silent. Just be a plain New Testament Christian, no more, no less."

The First Christian separated from the Church of Christ, in Texas, about the year 1900, chiefly over the question of instrumental music in the worship and societies, a thing the restorers of primitive Christianity were not in favor of and warned against. As for the plan of Salvation, they contend for the faith as delivered by the Saints, Jude 3.
