

County Tax Set At $1.20 Again

No Changes Made in Totals of County or School Rates for New Fiscal Year.

No changes were made in the Scurry County tax levy for 1935 when the Commissioners Court met following the annual public budget hearing Thursday of last week.

The 1934 rate was $1.20 on the $100 valuation. The state levy set two weeks ago, also remained unchanged—77 cents—making a total for state and county taxes levies of $1.97.

The school district levies also remained the same with one exception. China Grove's would have jumped from 23 cents to 29 cents but the maintenance levy was reduced to 60 cents from 75 cents, thus keeping the total at $1.

Modern Front Built At Manhattan Hotel

The Manhattan Hotel is this week constructing a modern front entrance. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Deakins, managers, expect the work to be completed this week-end.

Instead of the high paneling at the entrance, a low brick base and large plate glass windows will introduce the traveler to Snyder's leading hostelry.

The lobby will also be rearranged. Mrs. Deakins states that she will continue to maintain her excellent dining room service.

Ford Opening Delayed.

Earl H. Louder, who was scheduled to open the local Ford agency this week, states that he has been unable to get his equipment in shape for an opening before next week. He is moving much of the modern Ford's and service equipment from Rose, where he formerly had the Ford agency.

SIEGE LAID ON PATIENT VOTER BY CANDIDATES

Seven Political Speeches Heard Here in Six Days as Second Primary Approaches.

Candidates have been besieging patient Scurry County voters these last few days before the second primary.

Friday through Wednesday the candidate speaking list totaled seven, and there will probably be more to come today and tomorrow.

George Mahon, candidate for Congress from Colorado, began the fireworks Friday afternoon in a one-hour address. A number of supporters of Clark Mullican, his opponent, were campaigning here on Tuesday.

Both candidates for state representative have presented their causes within the past few days. Leonard Westfall spoke Saturday afternoon, and Joe Merritt was on the stump Tuesday afternoon.

Speakers for state candidates have also been combing the woods. A. K. Doss of Abilene spoke in behalf of the candidacy of Walter Woodward for attorney general Saturday afternoon, and C. F. Sontell carried the cause of Tom F. Hunter for governor shortly thereafter.

Ex-Senator Woodville J. Rodgers of San Antonio waved the James V. Aired gubernatorial banner Tuesday afternoon, and the presence of Aired Harry Tom King of Abilene, preaching the good graces of John Pindt, candidate for railroad commissioner.

Heightening interest in the election—and the presence in town of many folks who have nothing else to do—meant good-sized crowds for all the speakers.

W. B. Seabourn Honored On His 86th Birth Date

The children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of W. B. Seabourn of Snyder honored him on his 86th birthday Sunday, August 12, with a family reunion and picnic. Headquarters for the occasion was the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. E. Glover, 806 West Broadway, Snyder.

After all the guests met at the Glover home they left for the city lake, where lunch was served picnic style, and a cake holding 88 candles was served to the following guests: Mrs. J. T. Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Davis and son, Wade, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Eicke and children, Mr. and Mrs. Wray Huckabee and daughter, Maxine, Miss Ruth Seabourn, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Bises and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ramsey and son, Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Head and son, Mr. and Mrs. Howard McClintock, H. P. Seabourn, Mrs. Mary Ramsey, all of Snyder, Sweetwater relatives were Mr. and Mrs. John Blye, Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Lightfoot and children, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Glover and son, Dale. Two sons and their families of Mr. Seabourn were unable to attend. Joe Seabourn of Big Spring and J. R. Seabourn of Oklahoma.

Some old time friends of the family were present for the celebration and to wish the honoree many happy returns of the day. They were Mrs. Miller Aldridge, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Gibson, and Miss Glime Martin, who lives at Snyder.

Despite his age, Mr. Seabourn is still full of life and enjoying these yearly celebrations, as well as he did in his younger days. He looks forward with pride from one birthday to the next.

Rev. Higgins Returns.

Rev. W. J. Higgins returned Sunday from Floydada, where he attended a three-day session of the West Texas Primitive Baptist Association. He reports a good meeting with large attendance. Rev. Higgins was minus his moustache when he came back home.

SOLON CONFAB OPENS MONDAY

Texas legislators were called into their extraordinary session, to be convened Monday of next week, by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson early this week.

Joe Merritt, representative of the 118th district, will probably leave Sunday for the capital city.

The proclamation by the governor named two purposes for the session: Issuance of additional relief bonds, and to "consider and act on such other subjects and questions as I may submit."

The legislators can issue the remainder of a $20,000,000 bond issue approved by voters at an election in August, 1933. The unissued portion of that sum amounts to $9,500,000.

Men Accused of Snyder Burglary Flee at Dickens

Two convicts, accused with others of burglarizing the Bryant-Link store and the Hugh Taylor & Company store here several weeks ago, fled in a stolen car from the Dickens County jail at Dickens Saturday morning. They were still at large according to latest reports.

The fugitives were both robbers under life sentences—Clarence Brown and Virgil Stakup. They were taken to Dickens two days earlier from Littlefield for trial on charges of robbing a Lubbock hotelier's truck driver of approximately $100. They were caught in Lawton, Oklahoma.

Saturday morning the prisoners managed to open three of the four doors separating them from freedom. Then, when Mrs. Fays Arthur, daughter-in-law of sheriff Bill Arthur, opened the fourth door to enter a supply room, they threatened her with a knife and ran to the street.

Climbing into a car belonging to Frank Speer, they drove westward on the highway leading to Lubbock. Apparently they switched their course after leaving town, for pursuing officers lost the trail.

Woman Is Killed En Route to Snyder To Be Son's Guest

Mrs. Leslie Holmes, 59, died instantly from a broken neck and internal injuries when the roadster driven by her grandson, Luther Holmes, overturned near Albany Saturday morning at 8:00 o'clock.

The two were en route from Killgore to Snyder, when their car overturned as it narrowly missed another machine in rounding a curve. The accident happened five miles east of Albany on the Breckenridge highway.

Mrs. Holmes had been staying with a son, Fred Holmes, in Emory, and was en route to stay with another son, Walter Holmes, father of Luther Holmes, well known farmer residing west of Snyder. Other children of the deceased include Mrs. Mary Belle McCollum and Mrs. Ruth Hornsby, both of Scurry County.

Funeral rites for Mrs. Holmes were conducted Sunday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock, with several relatives from this county attending.

Local Bank One of 823 in Texas With Deposit Insurance

The deposits of more than 823 Texas banks are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Chairman Leo T. Crowley of Washington, D. C., has announced that this number is more than 80 per cent of all the licensed institutions in the state.

This number includes the Snyder National Bank of this city.

In the nation more than 14,000 banks or over 93 per cent of all the licensed institutions are insured.

Although deposit insurance is now a permanent part of the nation's banking system, people generally do not understand it very well, Mr. Crowley said.

"The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation is just what the name implies," he pointed out. "It is an insurance organization insuring deposits in banks. This protection is paid for by the banks. The insurance offers full protection to individual depositors up to $5,000. In other words, if an insured bank fails and a person has, say, $4,800 on deposit the corporation would pay him in full. Our studies have shown that the $5,000 maximum fully protects more than 97 per cent of all the depositors in insured banks."

MORE CALICHE ON HIGHWAY 7

Caliche on the Highway No. 7 roadbed northwest of Snyder has been extended this week opposite the Snyder Country Club course. The heavy shovel was broken down for two days, but it is back in operating shape again.

At the same time, the east approach to the underpass five miles northwest of town has been sloped beautifully, and much dirt is being moved on the west side of the track.

Nothing has been heard from the proposed relief work on No. 7 and No. 83 east and southeast of Snyder, according to County Administrator Joe Monroe.

Interest Continues in Soft Ball Games

Interest continues high in soft ball games on the local school grounds.

It is being proposed that regular games be arranged between teams on the four sides of the square. The east and west sides have played two games within the past week. The winners for places during the last week and the westerners yesterday afternoon.

Most of the scores have been running too high for the score keepers to keep up with them.

POLITICS GETS HOT AS SECOND PRIMARY NEAR

One of Eternal Mysteries of Texas Elections Will Probably Stay Unsolved Saturday.

One of the eternal mysteries of Texas politics will probably remain unsolved Saturday night, after ballots cast in the second primary are tallied.

The mystery is this: In the first primary, interest was evidently at low ebb, for folks talked politics very little; yet they cast more votes in the state and in Scurry County than ever before. Now, with interest running well into the angry mud-slinging stage from county to county, there will almost undoubtedly be fewer votes cast on August 25 than there were on July 25.

Solve it if you can. If you can't, don't worry, for you are in the same political boat with more than a million other Texans.

More Than 1,000,000 Votes. Official returns show that more than 1,000,000 ballots were cast in the state in the first primary. The highest figure in any race in Scurry County was 3,040. Poll tax payments were 2,812.

Only five sets of state candidates, two sets of district candidates and four sets of county and precinct candidates face the Scurry County voters.

Headed by the regulation pledge, "I am a Democrat and pledge myself to support the nominees of this primary," the ballot reads:

For governor—James V. Aired of Wichita County, Tom F. Hunter of Wichita County.

For lieutenant governor—Joe Moore of Hunt County, Walter F. Woodward of Harris County.

For attorney general—William McCraw of Dallas County, Walter Woodward of Coleman County.

For state railroad commissioner—Lon A. Smith of Travis County, John Pindt of Dallas County.

For associate justice of supreme court—H. S. Latture of Tarrant County, John H. Sharp of Ellis County.

For congressman, 19th district—George H. Mahon of Mitchell County, Clark M. Mullican of Lubbock County.

For representative of the 118th district—Joe A. Merritt of Scurry County, Leonard Westfall of Stone-wall County.

For district attorney of the 32nd judicial district—George W. Outlaw of Nolan County.

For sheriff—S. H. Newman, Walter Camp.

For commissioner, precinct No. 3—H. M. (Bub) Blackard, Lee Grant.

For commissioner, precinct No. 4—H. M. (Hoyt) Murphy, H. E. Brock.

For justice of the peace, precinct No. 1—P. E. Davenport, Charles J. Lewis.

Dunn School Plans September Opening

September 10 is the opening date set for Dunn school, Superintendent Guy Stark said yesterday. The school originally had planned to open late in August.

Miss Bonnie Belle Sayer of Hamlin has been elected to teach in the second and third grades. All other teachers will remain the same. Miss Sayer succeeds Miss Pauline Patterson.

A new bus will supplement the Dunn district bus and that used for Round Top last year. It will transport school students from Big Sulphur, Little Sulphur and China Grove districts. Opening enrollment is expected to be more than 200.

Football Training Camp to Begin Monday

The thud of toe against leather. The grunts of young men who fight August heat and football tactics. The triumph and the muscle-ache that always accompany a gridiron training session.

This will be it Monday, and for two weeks more, at Tiger Field.

Coach W. W. Hill has announced that suits will be issued at 9:00 o'clock in the morning. Regularly thereafter, skill practice will be held at that hour, and work-outs on the field will be staged from 3:00 to 5:30 each afternoon.

The new coach is not worried over the fact that he has only five letter-men returning; that he is stepping into the shoes of a man who built three district championships and two regional championship teams in five years; that district competition is admittedly harder than it was two or three years ago. He believes enough raw material will be out there working for places during the next two weeks—that a winning team can be molded.

Of the 15 letter-men of 1933, only five are returning. All of them are seniors. Only Forest Beavers, lanky end, plays on the line. Aubrey

Agent Asks Sheep Raisers for Facts

Sheep raisers of Scurry County are being urged by the county agent to call at his office at once in order to give details concerning their flock.

This county has been omitted from the government's emergency sheep buying program. It is believed in the agent's office that the omission was occasioned by the fact that few sheep were raised here before 1925, when the last detailed sheep census was taken. Thousands of head of sheep are now raised here.

Sheepmen are requested to furnish information concerning size of their flocks and the number of head they wish to sell to the government.

Efforts are already being made to have the county placed in the emergency sheep buying area.

SEEK RAISE IN ALLOTMENT OF COUNTY STOCK

Scurry Stockmen Send Telegram to Secretary Wallace Asking For Larger Number.

A telegram from a conference of Scurry County stockmen to Secretary Wallace Tuesday afternoon petitioned to move more than the county's present allotment of 450 cattle per week.

The petition, signed by Harrie Winston, chairman of the county cattle buying committee, pointed out that nine weeks will be required for movement out of the county of the 5,000 head of cattle already listed for sale in the government's drought relief program.

At the same stockmen's meeting, held in the courthouse, a central committee was named to assist the county agent's office in routing the appraiser's group and in other matters effecting the emergency cattle buying program. J. J. Koonsman was made chairman, with Whit Thompson and W. A. Johnston as the other members.

The telegram sent to Secretary Wallace reads as follows:

"Scurry County stockmen in conference this the twentieth day of August, considering the matter of relief buying of cattle, hereby take notice of the fact that the present weekly allotment of approximately 450 cattle will not permit the movement of approximately 5,000 distressed cattle under nine weeks. The increasing severity of the drought will not permit the cattle to stay without heavy loss, and other cattle are being listed daily which can not begin moving under our present quota before October 20.

"Be it now resolved, that the Secretary of Agriculture be petitioned to grant to our county a larger weekly quota sufficient to move distressed cattle more rapidly, thereby aiding the cattlemen to meet a serious situation."

The following letter from George W. Barnes, assistant state drought director, to the county agent, explaining the present status of cattle buying in Scurry and Fisher counties:

"At a joint meeting August 14 at Austin with the Texas Reuter Commission, Bureau of Animal Industry and Extension Service, the following procedure and movement of drought cattle in Texas were agreed upon, and you will be guided accordingly.

"Scurry and Fisher Counties will each deliver three days per week and deliver 150 live cattle each day to their respective county relief administrators, Charlie Deaton in Scurry and Fisher counties.

"This arrangement will begin on Monday, August 20, in Fisher County, Tuesday and Wednesday, and in Scurry County Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The same veterinarian and appraiser working both counties.

"We regret exceedingly that we are unable to furnish you full time crew, but due to the small quota allotted Texas we have been compelled to group these counties. In order not to give the relief people more cattle than they are able to handle."

W. A. French, district engineer, was unable to attend the event because of illness, and W. E. Eby, state highway commissioner, also failed to attend. The meeting also included the gathering to John Browning, who donated the land on which the park is located.

Two teams of Lions ran up mountainous scores in two innings of soft ball. Forty chickens fried on the grounds, plus a tubful of hot tea, salads and desserts furnished by the women, and other delicacies, featured the picnic spread, which was served at dusk in cafeteria style.

The picnickers were unanimous in expressing their appreciation of the new park, according to the club president.

Miss Ida Mae Maule's Approaching Marriage to Lovell Baze Announced

At a delightfully informal dinner party given Wednesday evening at 6:00 o'clock, the approaching marriage of Miss Ida Mae Maule and Lovell Baze was announced. The wedding will be on September 2 at Roby.

The bride-elect's mother, Mrs. M. Maule, and her sister, Miss Georgia Maule, were hostesses for the occasion at the Maule home, 1203 Twenty-Fifth Street, when a few close friends were invited for dinner. A color note of green and white was attractively carried out in all party details.

Games of bridge and forty-two were enjoyed with pretty tables, on which an arch of flowers with an old-fashioned dressed bride couple standing beneath, placing the players, Misses Grace Elizabeth Caskey and Allene Curry, played high in bridge games. High players in forty-two were not named.

At dinner time tables were laid with pretty green and white table covers, and a tiny envelope with gilt hearts and an arrow decorating it was placed before each guest. When the curiously interested group looked inside the envelopes, they found cleverly hand-painted announcements bearing the words "Ida Mae and Lovell—September 2—Roby, Texas."

A delectable three-course dinner was served to the following: Misses Charles Ella Hamlett, Inez Caskey, Grace Elizabeth Caskey, Alma Alice Eiland, Edna Gene Williams, Mrs. Maxine Stuber, J. W. Roster, Dorothy Terry and Allene Curry, and Misses Woodie Scarborough and W. A. McGlaun.

Ira P.-T. A. in Meeting Friday

Announcement is made to The Times that the Ira P.-T. A. will meet Friday afternoon in regular session at 2:30 o'clock. The following program will be given.

"The Road That Leads to Health"—Pupils from Mrs. Taylor's and Miss Fell's rooms; "How to Control Communicable Diseases"—Dr. Chas. B. Reed; "The School Medicine Chest"—Mrs. W. P. King.

An invitation is extended to all who are interested in P.-T. A. work to be present.

She walked by his side—a being of rare grace and beauty. A simple farm boy was he. And she looked into his eyes, for she, too, loved the country. They came to a gate. The boy carefully opened the gate and gently they passed through. She might have thanked him but she could not—for she was a cow.

Clifford Little of Littlefield was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Houston Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Houston and Mr. Little left Wednesday morning for Fredrick, Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Obert Littlepage and children and Miss Lola Mae Littlepage are visiting relatives in Fort Worth and Mineral Wells this week.

The next meeting will be held September 6 at the home of Mrs. W. A. Cross. Foundation patterns will be made by instructions of representatives of the pattern school.

Those attending the last meeting were Misses E. R. Jones, W. A. Cross, C. M. Perry, E. Wasson, Ed Shaw and A. A. Higginbotham. Guests present were Mrs. A. F. Higginbotham, Mrs. R. C. Waits and Mrs. Carner.—Mrs. B. Wasson, reporter.

Mrs. Landrum Is Hostess.

The Fluvanna Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. P. C. Landrum Friday, August 10, with 18 members, four new members and several guests present. After a short business meeting, Miss Ward gave a very interesting demonstration on the making of processed cheese, an economical dish, yet delicious and high in food value.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The next regular meeting will be at the club kitchen, August 24.

Making Grape Juice.

In retaining the natural flavor of the grape in making grape juice, Mrs. M. L. Andress, member of the Union Home Demonstration Club, will keep the temperature low during extraction of juice and sealing of jar.

The grapes, which are crushed first, may have the juice pressed out cold by squeezing through a bag, or they may be heated after crushing at 160 degrees (below sim-

Farmers Advised To Avoid Losing Seed From Crop

This trade territory will have a feed shortage, all right. But what is worrying many close observers at this early stage is that we will also have a seed shortage.

Since it is estimated that less than 50 per cent of the farmers' seed needs in Scurry County are met each year from his own fields, growers are urged to hold up more than the normal amount of seed this fall in order that they will have something to start on when planting time rolls around.

Even though the drought might have caused feed to shrivel and fall to develop to normal size, the kernels are just as good for seed purposes as if they were full sized. Warning is given, however, that premature rains are faulty.

The federal government has just announced beginning of a program to purchase seed stocks to insure sufficient seed for planting of the 1935 crop. Funds for the program are being made available from the emergency drought appropriation. A seed procurement office has been set up in Minneapolis, with branches in other cities.

The drought has cut down production of good seed this year, and an additional danger lies in the fact that many farmers, because of grain crops being below normal, might be forced to use for feed grain that normally would be held for seed, it is pointed out. Modification of the A.A.A. regulations on cotton, wheat and AAA regulations on cotton, wheat and corn-hog contracts allows harvesting of the seeds from the grain grass and legume crops produced on the rented or contracted acres.

West Texans are drawing lines for a fight to have the proposed "shelter belt" from the Canadian border to the northern border of Texas extended into this section, the Big Spring Herald said Sunday. Other papers and periodicals in this section have carried articles along the same line.

Reception of the federal government's proposal to produce a belt of trees from the northern border to the Panhandle has been varied, but West Texans are proceeding with their plans on the assumption that it is going to become a reality and that it is a good thing.

Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of Texas Tech college, has been engaged for several weeks in leading a fight to have the shelter belt extended into West Texas.

The federal government has proposed to expend $75,000,000 in raising a belt of trees from the northern border to the Panhandle in an effort to aid water and soil conservation.

The belt is calculated to retard the progress of driving winds across unbroken plains and also to serve as a means of conserving moisture.

The press gave the proposal a varied reception, but Dale Miller in the Texas Weekly, offered sound argument that droughts were becoming more recurrent and severe as man progressed and cleared timber away. While Miller did not say that such a belt would be a panacea for the drought ill, he offered conclusive evidence that it might be a step in the right direction.

Many learned West Texans have in the past suggested such a tree belt to break the force of winds and to also aid in moisture conservation. They feel that they are being left out of the program if the belt is not extended into West Texas, where the need is as great as elsewhere.

Support of congressmen and senators is being enlisted in seeking an extension of the belt. Some of these officials have already pledged their aid in the matter.

A judge in the South recently received the following letter: "Dear Sir—Some time ago you granted me a divorce and awarded me $20 a month alimony. You have not paid any of it yet, and I would like to know what you are going to do about it."

THE WEEKLY DOZEN

It's Hard to Decide
 Talkative Tillie, with one eye on the thermometer and the other on her supply of winter clothing, says it's hard to choose between the heat and the humidity.

Politician vs. Statesman
 Pessimism Pete says the prime difference between a politician and a statesman, as he sees it, is that a politician makes promises with his fingers crossed, while a statesman makes crosses on which such promises are hanged.

Nothing That Happens
 "Nothing that happens makes much difference with the world," declares The Dallas News in a recent editorial. The matronly paper refers particularly to the waste of oil that is damaging the petroleum industry today. "Waste," points out The News, "has been the besetting sin of the oil industry ever since the first petroleum deposit was tapped by the drill."

Oil May Save Us
 The government has been coming to our help in various ways to tide us over a period of depression and drought. Now comes some oil play at two points in Scurry County to boost our hopes that something else has arrived to take the place of cotton and feed and constant employment. Above all things, let's keep our heads and take the new oil play sensibly and therefore profitably.

Football Takes a Bow
 Football will take its first bow of the season Monday morning, when the Tigers are issued suits in preparation for a two-week training school. It is not too early for Snyder folks to begin preparing, also. If we make up our minds to stand for clean, hard-playing, 100 per cent supporting football, we can expect a great team, win or lose. Let us determine that no blot shall mar the season.

Long Live the Guards
 The National Guards are back again, with long tales of life at Palacios. It is a good time to tell folks again what an asset this National Guard unit is to Scurry County. Thousands of dollars are brought into the county yearly, many young men are given gainful employment, and disciplinary methods that make more useful citizens are invoked. Captain John E. Scitell is again due the thanks of the entire citizenship.

Pioneering Again
 Trace the doings of practically all our gentlemen these days and you will discover why history is giving them a place among the sturdiest pioneers of the ages. Faced with water shortage, the hardy tribe is scraping, digging, hauling, driving, pumping and otherwise working their daylight out in order that their stock might not die from thirst. With such an example, how dare any of us complain who were born in a soft generation?

Two More Robbers Free
 We should not be surprised to learn of the escape of two prisoners—one charged with a Scurry County robbery—from the Dickens jail. Prisoners escape from much larger and stronger jails. The point that should be made about the escape is that both men were under life sentences, and had been brought to Dickens on alleged robbery of $100. The folly of re-trying a man after he has a life sentence on his head is too apparent for comment.

Thanks, Mother Nature
 Snyder may count herself as one of the most fortunate cities in Texas. While hamlets, towns and cities are getting squeamish about their water supplies, and a few municipalities are tearing their hair over this vital life stream, Snyder's wells continue to furnish many times more water than we need. Maybe the fountain that feeds our wells comes from the snow-capped peaks of New Mexico; maybe from an ocean current that is refined in Mother Nature's bowels; maybe from an underground river whose source only God can know. No matter. We have the water, than which there is no greater blessing. Let us give thanks.

Looking Around the Place
 With drought staring us in the face, many of us are taking stock in a more thorough way than we have known in years. Farmers are being introduced to underground tile and other methods of combating a shortage of water. Ranchers are testing their wits in a battle to provide underground drinks for their stock. In town, merchants are thinking not only of improved sales methods but of industrial enterprises that might be brought to Snyder. A cannery, a CCC camp, a cheese plant, a creamery? It's worth thinking about.

Always in the Headlines
 The R. S. & P. Railway Company is always in the headlines. For one thing, it is a distinctive road because of its short length and its heavy cargoes. For another, it made a profit during at least one portion of the depression while practically all other roads of the United States were losing tens of thou-

Saturday's Question Marks.

Many question marks surround the outcome of Saturday's election, else there would be no need for all this hullabaloo about issues and candidates, records and reputations.

Most of these question marks grow out of the fact that voters became intensely interested in elections just a few weeks before balloting time then forget about the candidates after office holding time begins. It is an old American custom that is largely responsible for the graft and corruption that has crept into every phase of government from precinct to Pennsylvania Avenue.

We make great ado over the governor's race, which undoubtedly offers two mediocre politicians, while we give little heed to other races that are almost equally as important. After all, a governor's real power lies not far beyond pardoning of criminals and appointment of political henchmen to places of responsibility and money making.

It is to the other candidates that we should turn our eyes in this time of changing governments and shifting principles.

Take the attorney general's race and the railroad commissioner's race, for example. All in all, either of these officials yields more direct power over the lives of a majority of the citizens of Texas than the governor. A Legislature of almost 200 members makes our laws; the attorney general is largely responsible for interpreting them. Oil, especially in this period of drought and ill-fitting economic laws, is Texas' leading product, and consequently her leading source of graft and tax dodging. The railroad commission is largely responsible for the legitimate production of the sea of black gold that flows beneath the empire that is Texas.

County politics, which is concentrating before the second primary on the sheriff's race and two commissioner's races, also takes peculiar turns in the voter's mind.

The sheriff's race is all-important, of course, because around it revolves the community's fight against crime and other law violation. But the commissioner's office in any precinct is of much more importance because it involves not only the financial conduct of the sheriff's office but of practically every other phase of county government.

We would do well, if we really want to vote for the betterment of government, to weigh the merits of every candidate for these offices in nation, state, county and precinct that involves most of the rights, the wealth and the future happiness of our citizenship.

A Park of Distinction.

The Lions Club meeting at the Dermott highway park Tuesday was not an elaborate affair, but it may prove to be a forerunner to many worth while things. Texas is learning to appreciate her natural beauties. In West Texas, where trees are scarce, we must learn to love the beauties at our doorsteps. If we can move cactus and sagebrush, mesquite trees and prickly pear, creating spots of attractiveness and usefulness, we shall have come a step nearer being a supremely happy people.

After all is spoken and written of droughts and unemployment, of poverty and depression, the fact will remain that a truly happy people do not depend on material blessings as much as on inward virtues. Finland and Denmark, Switzerland and Norway, as well as other nations whose people are happy in their simple existence, have proven this point beyond the question of a doubt.

Tuition must be paid, then, to the State Highway Department for beginning its campaign of beautiful highways, to the local men and women who have been responsible for building the unique park near Dermott, and to the man who donated the land on which the park is located. We shall all be the beneficiaries of this new era of beauty if we will but become beauty-minded.

CURRENT COMMENT

By LEON GUINN

With the return to the U. S. of President Roosevelt we find the AAA still buying cows to help American farmers. . . . An instance of two objectives in the cattle reduction campaign, wherein the AAA sends out checks and replies to critics. . . . In the purchase of 1,500,000 head of cattle the government has done the unusual, hence unusual criticism is expected. . . . But critics are superficial, since thousands of cattle would have starved to death if not killed. . . . The basis of caustic remarks is that many a cow is killed, allowed to waste. . . . Just now packing houses are glutted with cow meat, and a coefficient of waste is inevitable. . . . And this brings us to the point of canning meat in August for winter consumption, since some meat cannot be conveyed to packing houses.

According to home demonstration agents and the U. S. Department of Agriculture the animal heat must first be drawn out of the meat canned in summer, hence the need for thorough chilling. . . . The info is that cooking meat before the animal heat leaves it only helps bacteria to multiply, that minute media of fermentation. . . . By the way, here is a point officials stress: In the beginning some of AAA's bitterest enemies told attaches to jump in the lake, but since many a lake has dried up the enemies have fallen in line. . . . Indications are that the AAA will reduce the cow crop 7,000,000 head, probably more. To prove the program is helpful farmers are paid for cows indexed on government account. . . . After culling the cattle, it will be five years before an abundance of steaks exist. . . . I don't know how the cow campaign would have succeeded without good critics, for it keeps the wits of New Dealers up to par. . . . This administration has been very sympathetic in reducing commodities, which does not concern the constructive critics; they do not like reduction methods.

In Austria and Germany so much has happened in the last 39 days Austrian and German people still cannot get a lineup on future events. . . . In Austria Dr. Schuschnigg is chancellor, filling the late Dollfuss' shoes. . . . In Germany Hitler has seized the presidency of the Reich post, since Paul von Hindenburg's death. . . . Publicly Germans hail Hitler as leader (under torture threats), yet privately Hitler's popularity just now is on the decline; only the election on August 19 revived confidence. . . . And war in Austria or Germany? In Austria it will be civil war against Nazis, and in Germany it will be civil war against the rationing codes for foods. . . . It is difficult to chart the course of either nation, and the unexpected will likely happen.

sands of dollars. Now the unique road, which has meant so much to Snyder, is sung Uncle Sam himself for alleged over-assessment of income taxes. If the $1,331.48 is obtained, from such an exacting defendant as Uncle Sam, the railroad may well secure top position in the headlines again soon.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

OUR READERS' VIEWS

Dear Readers:

Let's consider the three roads for the farmer. The farmer is the veteran in this depression, in which other business men are raw recruits. For the farmer has been in serious trouble since about 1919. Fourteen years ago, the chart line of crop prices dived through the rising crests of taxes, mortgages and land values to remain submerged to this day.

The roots of the farm problem, we are reminded, go much deeper than the present depression. The farmer can not ever pay toll to the people of the cities through a tariff which makes everything he buys more costly than the things he sells. Now, can he go on forever with his futile fight against vast world tides which have, permanently, I believe, swept away his old job. One instance: He can not go on raising wheat for export unless he is willing to sell it cheaply. The Argentine and Australia can get it to market cheaper than he, and cheap wheat is all the market can buy. Post-war demobilization of American agriculture is yet to be accomplished. There are millions more farmers than are needed.

What to do with them? Looking ahead, we see three diverging roads over one of which the American farmer must travel. First, he says, there is a blind way that disappears over the hills of hope. We hope that with a return of prosperity, industry will expand so enormously that the migration from farms to factory will set away. Poorer farms will be abandoned, their occupants find work in the factories; thus crop production will decrease, but this must be on a scale that will absorb from a fourth to a third of the population now on the farms. Pre-posed also the adjustment of industry to modern economic life wherein it is recognized that the worker's wage sets the ultimate limit of possible sales. Given adequate purchasing power the ability of consumers to use goods has no easily imaginable limit. But food consumption is in elastic.

Then the second road. It leads down—hell. If industry does not revive on such a scale, our farmers, competing with peasants and selling to peasants, will become pauper. The general advance in the use of agricultural machinery well checked, farms broken up into smaller units. The absentee landlord already holds half the farms, or nearly will predominate a tenant class will till the soil.

And nobody knows where the third road leads. It is the road of permanent subsidy. That is, we may tax the city dweller to maintain a decent standard of living on the farm. There can be no economic defense or subsidizing of unproductive production. But the farm problem is not entirely economic. It is social and political; there we may find strong justification. It might well seem important to us to preserve in our country the one large class of property owners, the one stable and rooted element. It might well seem worth high cost, and it might be cheaper than to add them to the bread lines of the cities. It is hard to visualize an American of the future should the stream dry up that steadily feeds us leaders in every walk of life.

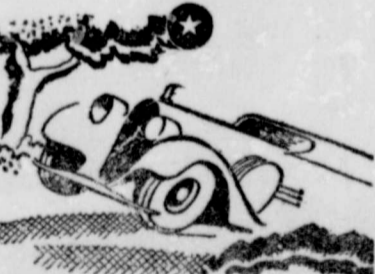

These are the roads that stretch ahead, far beyond the dark gulch in which we stumble today. One of them we might follow.

Yours truly,
 E. E. Jones,

The Choosing of a Governor.

The supreme executive power of the state of Texas is vested in the governor. We might say further that the governor is not only the chief executive of the state, but he is also the chief legislator. The governor's powers and duties are so numerous and important that it requires too much space to fully discuss them in this newspaper. The governor's office should be filled by a serious-minded man. Only men of the highest moral, in-

Roy Jennings Moves.

Roy Jennings moved his shoe parlor early this week to the Martin Building on the southeast corner of the square, also occupied by the Peetless Printery. He will continue his 100 per cent shoe, repairing and dyeing service at the new location, Roy tells his friends.

Intellectual and personal worth should ever receive a good citizen's vote for governor.

It is now time we Texans should lay aside all political malice, prejudice, strife, envy, hatred, and help elect a moral and efficient governor.

Let us take each man in the run-off race and weigh his past record. Jimmie Allied is a young man of a limited business experience in business. He tells us we have had lobbyists in the legislature. He is now and has been attorney general for the past few years, and may we ask him if he has done or recommended a single thing to the legislature of this evil. Why does not Jimmie offer a sound platform instead of trying to find fault with a platform that Mr. Hunter offers for a Texas recovery?

Why does he not tell us how he stands on present day issues and offer a safe and sane platform instead of talking dead issues? What has Jimmie done to help destroy the trusts? Jimmie may call his honorable opponent Hunter Hunter, but we know it is a fact Mr. Hunter's dominion, personality is based on a vigor and character that are essential of a good governor.

Mr. Hunter is a man whose past experience convinces us that he can fill the governor's chair. When he spoke before Congress many economic professors and students of economics raised his speech. They also endorse his platform and say his policies will help our country to recovery.

Let us as citizens wake up and read what each of these men advocate and decide to elect a forceful man that favors a Texas recovery.

Furthermore let us take into consideration what their neighbors think of them now as well as in the past. Both of these run-off candidates live at Wichita Falls. In the first primary this is how the homefolks voted: Wichita County—Hunter, 5013; Alfred, 3763; Wichita Falls—Hunter, 2388; Alfred, 2112; voting precinct in which both candidates vote—Hunter, 101; Alfred, 74.

Do not these everyday neighbors tell us which man to choose as our governor?

Sincerely,
 Lee Cargile,

Never has safe Home Refrigeration cost so little!

with ELECTROLUX, of course...

Owners write to tell us how amazed they are to find how very little gas it takes to operate Electrolux. Many report little difference in gas bills.

Because this is a saving that goes on day after day and year after year we believe you'll be much more pleased with a gas refrigerator than any other type. You will find that it makes no noise—operates constantly to maintain a uniform, steady cold—and is trouble-free, for parts that do not move cannot wear and cause trouble.

It is these fundamental advantages which have swung housewives in all parts of the Southwest to gas refrigeration to reduce the cost of safe food protection in thousands of homes. See Electrolux, the gas refrigerator, today!

INTEREST HIGH IN REVIVAL AT CITY BUILDING

Two Choirs, Orchestra, Powerful Messages, Excellent Singing Featured, Say Baptists.

Interest in the two-week Baptist revival that began Sunday morning in the city tabernacle is increasing rapidly. Pastor Lawrence Hays, who is doing the preaching, said last night that the revival is "truth is stranger than fiction."

Several conversions and additions to the church have already resulted from the services. A feature of the meeting that is particularly pleasing to the pastor is the size of the crowds for the morning services, at 10:00 o'clock. Evening crowds too, have been encouraging, he says.

Musical Program Featured.

Orchestra music will be offered this week-end. Two choirs, one of adults and one of children, add to the singing program, under direction of Evelyn Bone, Haskell. Congregational singing has been excellent, Mr. Bone thinks.

Church leaders emphasize the statement this week that an invitation is extended to all people, no matter what their religious inclinations. Evening services begin at 8:00 o'clock.

Prayer meeting services by departments are being held each evening at 7:30 o'clock. The men, women, intermediates and young people gather in the Christian Church, while juniors are meeting at the front of the tabernacle.

Sermon Subjects Given.

Night sermon subjects, beginning Thursday of this week, have been announced by Rev. Hays as follows:

The Suffering Servant, How to Be Saved, Excuses, Faith, The Convicting Power of the Holy Spirit, Life's Highway to Heaven, Heaven, Refuge, Neglect—Or Why Men Are Lost, The Return of the Prodgal.

Every day next week the morning subjects will be "Prayer," taken from Luke 11: 1. Topics will be as follows: Lord Teach Us to Pray, The Meaning of Prayer, The Power of Prayer, Intercessory Prayer, Un-offered and Unanswered Prayer, Praying Through, and Waiting for Power.

The drudgery of today disciplines us to meet the responsibilities of tomorrow.

Bullfrogs Raised During Drouth By Kent County Scot

From Abilene Reporter-News: If this sounds like a plot for a Disney Silly Symphony or a page from the private notebook of Robert L. Ripley, just remember that "truth is stranger than fiction."

Once set aside by geographers as the "great American desert," at its best practically devoid of marshes and now, with most of the rest of the country in the grip of the drouth, West Texas has a new industry—that of raising bullfrogs.

Basil C. Cairns, a farmer here in Kent County, has gone into the business of raising the croakers for their legs.

He has his "brood herd" in the language of the cowboy, and he's not foolin'. He is going to retail froglets if and when they're ready for market and he is "riding herd" on the frogs in a tank near his home.

Cairns, a Scotchman with the old country's burr on his tongue in spite of the fact that he was born in China, saw the world as a marine engineer and has lived here for nearly a quarter of a century, some time back ordered a dozen bullfrogs from a Louisiana frog farm. They died, either from lack of marsh land, or, as his friends say with a wink, "from heart failure" after they looked at the dry lands.

But Cairns was not deterred and he ordered another dozen, all but one of which is doing very nicely.

"The trouble with the first bunch," Cairns explained, "is that I put them in the wrong kind of a tank. This time they are in an old natural tank and they're doing fine."

In addition to raising bullfrogs in a dry climate, another of Cairns' pastimes—and he's successful at it, too—is discovering errors in grammar and spelling in the Literary Digest. And when he finds one he enjoys life at the expense of the lexicographers.

Scientific Cure For Prussic Acid Poisoning Given

An effective cure for prussic acid poisoning of livestock has been discovered by veterinary scientists of the United States Department of Agriculture. Sodium thiosulphate alone or, better yet, in combination with sodium nitrate, if administered in time, will save the lives of animals poisoned by eating plants that for one reason or another have developed prussic acid or hydrocyanic acid. Treatment should be by a skilled veterinarian, and the Bureau of Animal Industry is informing the profession as to the details of administration and essential results of the experimental work.

Hydrocyanic acid does not develop in dangerous quantities in healthy growing plants but does develop in many valuable forage plants when normal growth has been retarded or stopped by drouth, frost, bruising, trampling, withering, mowing or other cause. Many plants develop some hydrocyanic acid but, under practical conditions, only a few are actually dangerous. Among the more widely distributed of these are Sudan grass, Johnson grass, flax, wild black cherry, arrow grass, Sudan grass and wild chokeberry (not the chokeberry, which is a different species).

A. B. Clawson, H. Bunyee and J. F. Couch of the Bureau of Animal Industry, in testing various chemicals as remedies for prussic acid poisoning, found that methylene blue, sodium tetrathionate, sodium nitrite, sodium thiosulphate were effective and that sodium thiosulphate in combination with sodium nitrite was surprisingly effective. In these experiments, the first of the kind conducted under field conditions, the animals were drenched with doses of potassium cyanide in water ranging from a lethal dose to two and one-half times the lethal dose. The remedies were administered at various times after the cyanide was given.

Santa Ana Party Honors Pioneer Scurry Citizens

Two pioneer Scurry County citizens, residents of California for a number of years, were honored recently at Santa Ana, California, when 75 friends called in honor of their golden wedding anniversary. The couple, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Peterson, formerly resided in this county. Mrs. Peterson was Miss Hattie Belle Pevrell. The wedding ceremony was performed here 50 years ago.

The Santa Ana Register says of the celebration: Hosts at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, with whom they make their home; and the two sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Patterson of Fullerton, and Mr. and Mrs. Hayward Patterson of Santa Ana Gardens. They had used sunny yellow blossoms to decorate the home, and to these were added the handsome clusters of flowers sent by many interested friends.

Prominent among the guests was Todd McClellan of this city, who was at the wedding half a century ago, when Miss Hattie Belle Pevrell was the bride of J. H. Peterson in Snyder, Texas. The young couple remained in Texas many years, among the pioneer residents of their community. Mr. Peterson was engaged in ranching and has many exciting tales to relate of early days in Texas, when herds of buffalo roamed the Plains.

After his retirement from active business life he and his wife came to California a number of years ago, living first near Anaheim and later in Santa Ana. In addition to the daughter and two sons of this community, they have another daughter, Mrs. D. C. Champion, in northern California, and two sons, E. B. Patterson of Texas, and Grafton Patterson of Louisiana. They have also 15 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Grandchildren who were present yesterday were Ould Sanders Jr. of the home, James, Bishop, Bruce and John Peterson of Santa Ana Gardens, and Louise, Joyce and Patsy Peterson of Anaheim.

County Student Is Named to Work on Farm Near Canyon

Ernest Tate of Snyder has been chosen for one of the 40 places on the West Texas State Teachers College farm, Canyon, which is under the direction of Professor T. M. Moore of the agriculture department.

The men who live on the farm are chosen annually from scores of applicants. In order to be eligible for a place, each young man must have at least $100 with which to pay his college fees and his share in the cooperative living plan which is used on the farm.

These young men with their farm associates are to report in Canyon on September 18, when the fall season of college opens. Every man who works on the farm is chosen after a careful investigation of his grades in high school or college, his character and reputation, and his ability to do some one of the special duties in connection with the dairy and farm.

The college farm is located one mile from the campus and the young men reach the campus by means of bus transportation—the bus being locally known as the T-Anchor Fresh Air Taxi Cab.

Cheyenne Cowhands Invited to Abilene

Heavy representation of cowboys who competed in one of the most famous rodeos, the Pioneer Days events held recently at Cheyenne, is anticipated at the American Legion's fourth annual three-day rodeo beginning Labor Day, September 3, at West Texas Fair Park, Abilene.

Printed prize lists were mailed to the secretary of the Cheyenne show. A letter from the secretary to Harry Schlenberg of the Abilene Legion post stated that the lists had been distributed among all of the scores of contestants there.

Relief Is Neutral.

State Relief Director Adam S. Johnson today re-emphasized his position of strict neutrality in the run-off campaigns for political offices and appealed to relief clients all over Texas to vote for whom "you please." Director Johnson says "politics has no place in the Texas relief organization and no man need sell his birthright for a mess of pottage."

Very Much Improved After Taking Cardui

"I have suffered a great deal from cramping," writes Mrs. W. A. Sewell, Sr., of Waco, Texas. "I would chill and have to go to bed or about three times a time. I would have a dull, tired, sleepy feeling. A friend told me to try Cardui, thinking it would help me—and it did. I am very much improved and do not spend the time in bed. I certainly can recommend Cardui to other sufferers."

You'll Save on a FORD V-8 from the day you buy it

LOW FIRST COST!
$505 and up, F.O.B. Detroit. Ford V-8 prices are at their 1934 low.

LOW UPKEEP COST!
The new Ford V-8 is the most economical car to run that Ford has ever built.

HIGH TURN-IN VALUE!
Year after year the record shows that Ford cars retain an unusually great per cent of their original value.

FORD V-8 $505 F.O.B. DETROIT

The Ford V-8 would be a great buy even at a much higher price. It's the only V-8 selling for less than $2500. Ford alone has been able to put a V-8 engine in a low price car.

The first cost of a Ford V-8 is decidedly low. But that saving is only the beginning... Ford V-8 valves seldom need grinding. Carbon removal is virtually eliminated. The new Ford V-8 consumes less gasoline and oil than last year's economical Ford. And Ford V-8 parts cost very little.

In addition, on that distant day your Ford V-8 earns its honorable retirement, you'll find that it has a high trade-in value. The record of years proves it.

Tom Hunter Is a West Texan..

He spent most of his boyhood and young manhood days in Kent and Scurry Counties. He has been in Snyder many times, this being the trading point for the family for many years. He knows the things which the plain people of the state need—and will fight for their just deserts at the state's capitol. He has been, and still is, "just plain folks."

Tom Hunter Supporters Declare He Offers New Deal As Texas Governor

(Note: This is the second of a series of articles on the various state candidates who enter the second primary August 25. All others will be given similar space provided their friends or campaign headquarters furnish the information. The article must not be construed as necessarily reflecting the editorial opinion of The Times.)

By a Local Hunter Supporter.

We are facing a crisis in government, both in state and nation. Roosevelt is giving us a New Deal nationally, and Tom Hunter offers a New Deal in Texas.

Every informed man knows that monopolies and the escape from taxation of intangible assets and big incomes are two of our biggest problems that can not go on as they are. The plain people demand a change. Big interests oppose the change and say that it cannot be done. Tom Hunter says it can be done—and Jimmie Allred says it can not be done. Which man should we choose for our governor?

Tom Hunter was reared around the Snyder tract territory. He and his family followed his parents around trading in Snyder. He worked hard in this part of the state to develop his ability and experience. He grew up with us and knows the road of the plain people, and his heart is ever with them. By sheer ability he has succeeded well in life, and as an independent oil man, general business man and lawyer he has learned how to fight the big companies and the scheming of big business, and has learned well the workings of the government. He knows all the ropes, so to speak. It will be in dealing against the wrongs of monopolies, etc., as governor that his experience will be valuable in behalf of the plain people. He knows the road from both ends.

Mr. Hunter says that we must prevent monopolies in business and give your boy a chance in life. Mr. Allred says that nothing can be done about it, and that we will have to do the best we can as it is. Mr. Hunter says that we must and can make the big fellows pay their fair share of the taxes, and offers a definite plan. Mr. Allred says that it can not be done and that our present laws are sufficient and that we will just have to struggle along.

Mr. Hunter says that utilities are reaping too great profits at the expense of the plain people and offers a remedy. Mr. Allred says that Mr. Hunter's remedy can not be put over. Mr. Hunter says that he favors taxing the luxuries of the rich and relieving the plain people. Mr. Allred says that he is opposed to such a tax and to leave it like it is.

Mr. Hunter wants to reduce the departments and bureaus of the state government. Mr. Allred says that he opposes Mr. Hunter's plan. Mr. Hunter says that he favors making the big companies who are getting richer drawing our natural resources pay a tax so as to relieve the plain people. Mr. Allred says that that would hurt business and that we can get taxes under the present plan.

Tom Hunter has a full printed platform so that you put your finger on what he stands for. Mr. Allred has advocated and opposed first one thing and then another and has no defined platform.

Mr. Hunter is known to be the friend of the plain people. Mr. Allred's record raises a serious doubt as to where he stands. Wichita County, home of both candidates, gave Hunter 5,013 votes and Allred 3,762 votes. Their own voting box, in which both of them vote, gave Hunter 101 and Allred 74. Choose the man you believe will make the best governor for all the people in these unusual times.

Houses Occupied By Relief Folks May Be Repaired

J. R. Masterson, district rural supervisor of the Texas Relief Commission, points out this week that landlords' houses now occupied by relief families may be improved under the rehabilitation plan in addition to remodeling vacant houses. His full statement follows:

"In traveling over this section, I find that many relief families are now living in landlords' houses. These houses can be improved under the rehabilitation plan in addition to remodeling vacant houses. The same amount for material and labor can be spent on rental houses that are now occupied if a relief family is living in a landlord's house.

"A large number of landlords can avail themselves of this opportunity and secure materials to the extent of $75 and labor to the extent of $150 on places that are now occupied by relief families.

"In case the landlord should secure an undesirable family to occupy a house that the Texas Relief Commission has improved, this family can be removed under the provision of the Texas relief organization. In every instance we prefer that the landlord assist in making the selection of a man who is to fill a vacancy on his farm.

"If there is any further information wanted, correspond with J. R. Masterson, rural supervisor, county relief office, Abilene."

A sense of humor is the real fountain of youth.

TO THE VOTERS OF SCURRY COUNTY.

I would like to say a last word in connection with my candidacy for justice of the peace. I have been serving as committee clerk for the emergency live stock feed loan, and have not been able to make any contact with a great many of you, for my time has been extremely taken up. I feel like I am rendering a service to the people that I believe they will appreciate. This is by no means a permanent place, but will only last until the drought is broken.

During my seven years in Scurry County I have served in the following places: Two years as president of the First State Bank of Henneleigh, one year as cashier of the First State Bank of Fluvanna. Incidentally I have been connected with the crop loan office, serving as chairman of their committee without pay, and taking applications for which I only made a charge for notary fees.

I have met and transacted some business with practically every farmer in the county, and in no case has there ever been any dissatisfaction with services I have rendered, so far as I know.

With these facts before you, I ask your sincere consideration.—Chas. J. Lewis candidate for justice of the peace.—Chas. J. Lewis

Adaptability is essential for survival.

ABSENT VOTES LESS THAN 100

It was evident yesterday afternoon that less than 100 absentee ballots would be cast in Scurry County. This figure contrasts with 148 cast before the first primary. Absentee voters had turned in 66 ballots to the office of Mrs. Mattie B. Trimble, county clerk, late yesterday. Wednesday was the last day for absentee voting in person, but mailed ballots will be accepted through Thursday.

TO THE VOTERS.

I wish to thank all of those who voted for me in the first primary, and trust you have no cause to change your vote in the runoff.

I also wish to get a liberal share of the votes cast for my friend, Mr. Brown, in the first primary. This is my first political contest, and the people by their courteous treatment have made it very pleasant for me, and I hereby express my thanks.

Walter Woodul Said To Be West Texans' Friend for Years

When the River-Bed Bill—a measure vital to the interest of West Texas landowners and homeowners—was up for consideration in the senate, one of its strongest supporters and most eloquent advocates was Walter Woodul, while one of its bitterest opponents was Senator Joe Moore.

Senator Woodul is not a sectional candidate; he carried 60 per cent of the counties of the state and is leading in the July primary by 159,050 votes.

West Texas remembers that Walter Woodul has long been their friend, not only in the matter of the River-Bed Bill, but in all other instances.

In the time of crisis West Texas found Woodul on its side—Moore against us. Walter Woodul is solid, substantial, able and a dependable Texan.

FEDERAL HELP FOR SCHOOLS

Any school board member of Scurry County who wishes to secure federal aid for building or re-conditioning school property in his district is urged to get in touch with Frank Farmer, county superintendent, not later than Wednesday of next week.

Mr. Farmer has received word to the effect that federal aid in work and materials may be furnished to deserving schools. He is anxious that all county schools needing such aid make immediate application.

HENRY NEWMAN
 Candidate (Re-election)—SHERIFF OF SCURRY COUNTY

ALLRED AND HUNTER!

Each of us who is paying for this advertisement voted in the First Primary for some candidate for Governor who was eliminated. We have tried to compare as impartially as we can the merits of the two men in the run-off. In reaching conclusions as to who is the best man we considered the following facts:

James V. Allred

- 1.—James V. Allred has been tried in public office, and his record demonstrates that his sympathies are with the common people. He has a proven record of faithful service to the state.
- 2.—As proof of Allred's record, it is conceded that all the big corporations are fighting him. They KNOW he is against them. They at least know he has been after them, and they figure he will continue this course if elected.
- 3.—Allred believes in our democratic form of government; that the men in charge of our affairs ought to be selected by the people and should be responsible to the people. He does not believe that a Governor should have the power to keep himself and his friends in office through control of all state jobs.
- 4.—Allred was old enough to fight for this country 17 years ago, and he is old enough now to serve it again. His poverty should not bar him.
- 5.—Allred believes that the ad valorem tax load should be adjusted by taxing valuable property not now reached by taxation. He is opposed to eliminating the ad valorem tax because the home-owner is now exempt, and to abolish it entirely will destroy the only dependable source of revenue for our schools.
- 6.—Whether one has supported Ferguson or not, all must realize that it will be better for this state if the Ferguson issue is eliminated from our politics for all time to come. It will be if Jimmie Allred is Governor.

Tom F. Hunter

- 1.—Tom Hunter has not been tried, and the fact that he is a rich oil man makes it natural for him to be in sympathy with those who control the wealth of the country, rather than with the "common herd."
- 2.—Tom Hunter himself does a large part of his business through a big foreign corporation, the Hunter Oil Company, with offices in Chicago. He is in a glass house and can't throw stones.
- 3.—Hunter believes in making the Governor a dictator, with power to appoint and remove at will the important officials in our government. Imagine the machine a Governor could build up if he had absolute control of the Railroad Commission, Highway Commission, Department of Education and all other departments of government!
- 4.—Hunter was too old or too busy at the age of 28 to go to the front when he was badly needed. He was making the large fortune which he now has, and which has enabled him to spend thousands of dollars in this campaign.
- 5.—Hunter advocates the removal of all ad valorem taxes. This would relieve the railroads, utilities, oil companies, big hotels of Texas and all the real estate owned by rich corporations and individuals of the just taxes that are now essential to help run the government and keep our schools open.
- 6.—Tom Hunter has Ferguson's staunch support under such conditions as to indicate that Ferguson will continue to be a controlling factor if Hunter is elected. At any rate, after Jim has gone to the front for him like he has, Tom will either have to give him a voice in state offices or prove himself an ingrate. If he should prove to be an ingrate, he is not the sort of man to be Governor, and if he allows Jim to continue to run the state he ought not to be Governor.

These issues are important points for citizens to consider in making up their minds in this race for Governor. We are not rank, biased partisans of either candidate, but we believe the above analysis squarely presents the questions everyone ought to take into consideration. We, therefore, believe that the interest of the average citizen will best be served by electing JAMES V. ALLRED!

COURT ADOPTS ENTIRE BUDGET FOR NEW YEAR

County and Home Demonstration Agents to Be Retained Under General Fund Budget.

The 1935 Scurry County budget was adopted in full by the Commissioners' Court early this week. Minutes of the court do not reveal amounts of the various funds, and no members of the court could be contacted yesterday to secure the details.

The general budget includes appropriations for payment of the county agent and county home demonstration agent. After a despatch of women appeared before the court last week to appeal for retention of the demonstration agent, the court voted to include the county's portion of the agent's salary in the budget. This action was to be subject, however, to a vote at the primary election on Saturday, August 25, 1934.

It is understood by The Times that it was later learned by the court that such an election would be unconstitutional. Following an hour's session on the budgetary action: "The jury budget was adopted. The road and bridge fund budget was adopted. The general fund budget was taken under discussion and adopted, except that the amount to be set up as budget expense for the county agent and home demonstration agent be submitted to a vote at the primary election on Saturday, August 25, 1934, said submission to be at no expense to the county, for holding said election. The election to be held by the election officers of the county primary and the returns made to the Commissioners' Court.

New Census Shows Amusement, Service Figures for Scurry

The results of the first census of service establishments and places of amusement, taken as part of the census of American business in the state of Texas, were released today by William L. Austin, director, Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce.

The census reveals interesting figures concerning such establishments in Scurry County. Included in the survey were barber shops, shine parlors, laundry agencies, mechanical repair shops (excluding automobile repairing) and all types of amusements.

Scurry County in 1933 had 35 such establishments, with net receipts of $84,268. Proprietors numbered 39, full time employees 19, and part time employees 3. Salaries and wages for full time employees were $17,332; for part time employees, $661.

In the state of Texas, there were 19,526 service establishments and places of amusement in 1933, which reported total receipts of $86,331,563. These businesses gave employment to an average of 20,946 full time employees, 8,311 part time employees, and 29,925 employees. The total payroll, exclusive of compensation of proprietors, aggregated $19,134,414.

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN COULD NOT MIRROR STRIDES IN NEW TEXAS

Although he had a vision of an empire in Texas, Stephen F. Austin, the great colonizer, could not mirror the Texas that is today.

Although his compatriots of the same era of the early 1830's, Green DeWitt, Edwards and others predicted great things for the undeveloped empire they were founding, they could not foresee the mighty commonwealth of a century later.

With dogged perseverance Stephen F. Austin, "Father of Texas," stood by his purpose, including time in prisons, long sojourns among a strange people in a strange country, distinguished service in civil life, finally to fall a victim of pneumonia just a short time after he had been made secretary of state in the Texas Republic by Sam Houston.

For three days he had labored in the quaint capitol building at Columbia on the Brazos River. The weather was cold, there was no heat and the fatal disease took hold. His last act was for Texas. His last hours were spent in framing documents for presentation to the United States government, which eventually was to result in the annexation of the Republic of Texas to the United States.

It is a far cry from the Texas of the days of Stephen F. Austin and the Texas of today. It is the century of progress that the state will celebrate with its great Centennial exposition in 1936. That century of advancement is one of the outstanding events of all history.

Then schools were few, the buildings were of log. The children tracked an unmarked wilderness in some cases for miles to reach the little building where one teacher for a period of three and four months taught the rudiments of an education to a mixed assembly of children.

A LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF PRECINCT NO. 3 AND SCURRY COUNTY

It is no doubt possible that the affairs of your County have not been run to your entire satisfaction, nor have the affairs of our National Government. But you must not lose sight of the fact that those in charge are only human, and it is natural that everyone will make mistakes at times—no one is perfect, but I want to say to you that I have done my very best to conduct the business of your Precinct and County in such a way that it would serve the best interests of all.

It is absolutely mandatory upon your Commissioners' Court that a budget be made out and approved before the County can do a single thing. Without this budget it would be impossible for them to carry on the program that they or the National Government has set out to accomplish.

The Federal Government has demanded that we maintain a County Agent in this County. If this agent were not maintained here, the people of this County would be barred from the benefits of the various relief offered the former by our government. Your Commissioners' Court has no voice in the selection of this County Agent—he is appointed by the Federal Government, and the question of his removal or replacement would have to be done by the government.

If you will take the time to inspect the various departments of your County government and compare the expenditures with what has been accomplished, I am positive that you will find for the past several years one of the most economical administrations of your County that has ever been in office.

Further: I have always stood squarely behind the officials of your County in everything that they have done for you, and I heartily endorse their every act. I also endorse the President and the National Administration in what they have done and are trying to do. I have never been "on the fence" on any issue concerning the welfare of the people of my Precinct and Scurry County, and as long as I am your representative I will do what I think is right and for your best interest.

Believing that you want an economical, efficient administration of your County affairs, I am asking for your vote next Saturday, August 25, and I pledge you that your confidence in me will not be misplaced.
