Annual Rally of Will Layne Post Expected to Attract 200 to New Meeting Place.

American Legion veterans, with wives, sisters and mothers of the Auxiliary, are making plans to rally Tuesday evening in their annual feed-fun-business meeting.

The long-advertised get-together, famous because it is so successful every year, will be held in the Legion's new meeting place, upstairs over the Winston & Clements feed store, one block north of the square.

Walla Fish, commander of the Will Layne Post, and Mrs. C. M. Boren, Auxiliary president, are expecting almost 200 persons to be present for the combination rally.

The group will include members and their families and several guests.

Mrs. Boren requests that Auxiliary members who wish to assist in preparing for the big feed should call her at No. 316 or Mrs. W. W. Hull, Auxiliary secretary-treasurer, at No. 317. The women are talking a lead hand in preparing for the annual get-to.

At the business session which is to be held in connection with the rally, plans will be mapped for sale of 1,000 poppies in the county on November 10. Poppy Day here last year saw the sale of hundreds of the little flowers made by the hands of disabled veterans.

Week of Prayer To Be Observed By Auxiliaries

A "Call to Worship" service will be had by the Ruth Anderson and adult societies of the First Methodist Church at the church Sunday afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock, in observance of the "week of prayer." All ladies of the town are invited to hear the program.

The afternoon's program is divided into two major parts. Homer Snyder will be song leader for the afternoon, and Mrs. W. W. Hamilton is to be pianist.

The first part of the program will be "Prayer for the Kingdom," led by Mrs. Snyder. Several songs and special prayers will precede the devotional by Mrs. Joe Caton, taken from Matthew 25. A discussion on the subject "Discipline Necessary if We Really Become Builders of the Kingdom" will be divided into four main parts: "Interest," given by Mrs. John Whitmore; "Intellect" by Mrs. Lee Stinson; "Time" by Mrs. R. H. Odum; and a summary given by Mrs. Snyder.

Mrs. H. P. Brown will talk on "Our Foreign Week of Prayer Specials," and Mrs. J. W. Roberts will give a story titled "Gentlemen, the Sinner."

Mrs. A. C. Preuit will direct the second part of the program with this subject: "The Six Laws Set Forth for Those Who Would Be Citizens of His Kingdom." Each of the following topics will be followed by special prayer: "I Was Hungry and Ye Gave Me Meat"—Mrs. Preuit; "I Was Thirsty and Ye Gave Me Drink"—Mrs. G. Hicks; "I Was a Stranger and Ye Took Me In"—Mrs. R. M. Stokes; "I Was Naked and Ye Clothed Me"—Mrs. H. Keith; "I Was Sick and Ye Visited Me"—Mrs. Joe Stinson; and "I Was in Prison and Ye Visited Me"—Mrs. Ivan Dodson.

Mrs. W. W. Hamilton will have the closing talk on the program. She will speak on "Our Home Week of Prayer Specials."

Service Featured At Hermligh PO

Warren Fargason, who recently became postmaster at Hermligh, has his own ideas about how a post office should be run. For example, he has the new-fashioned idea that courtesy and service should feature Uncle Sam's mail-distributing organization. "I try to give folks more than they expect," he says, "and I find that they like it—and that Hermligh's mail service compares favorably with much larger towns."

Another thing: The former merchant not only moved the post office recently. He was busy this week with paint and tools to complete what will be one of the neatest little post offices in the state.

A Times representative found Hermligh folks feeling fine Monday. Their three girls will be out at least 1,500 bales of cotton this year. That section has the best cotton in the county.

MANAGERS OF T.-P. CHANGE

A change in management for the Texas and Pacific Coal and Oil Company agency here was definitely announced this week.

After serving the company as agent for six years, E. C. Neely has sold the business, effective next Monday, to F. M. (Frank) Brownfield and Max Brownfield. All equipment used by Mr. Neely has been purchased by the Brownfields. They will continue to render the same service to gasoline, kerosene, motor oil and fuel oil customers.

Mr. Neely has been connected with the Snyder business world in several capacities since he came here 20 years ago. He has announced no definite plans.

The elder Brownfield is a veteran county resident and former sheriff. Max Brownfield has been in the grocery business here for several years.

69 Per Cent of Corn-Hog Group Favors Program

A new corn-hog program definitely will be formulated and offered to producers as soon as possible, the local county agent's office has been advised. Approximately 69 per cent of all producers voting in the recent corn-hog referendum meetings favored continuing adjustment in 1935, the Agricultural Adjustment Administration has announced.

Forty-seven producers in the county did not vote.

In Scurry County the proportion was slightly higher than the national average, with 91 producers saying they want a hog program in 1935 and 11 voting against the program. The county referendum was taken in September.

A group of corn-hog committees and extension workers from the counties, who were in Washington during the past week for a conference on corn-hog administrative work and the 1935 outlook, unanimously recommended after studying the preliminary results of the referendum that the administration offer a new adjustment contract.

The development and offering of a program for 1935, on the basis of the referendum result, also was urged by representatives of the Farmers Union, the American Farm Bureau Federation and the National Grange.

Questioned as to whether they favor one contract for each farm, covering practically all products except cotton, 69 in this county voted yes and 32 voted no. The county referendum was taken in September.

What you have, in ballyhoo form, there you may expect if you go to Pylon Friday afternoon and evening. The school and community is staging a fair and carnival, sponsored by the student council, for the benefit of the athletic fund.

The fair will include products of field, garden and feeding pen, home, school and spare time. This feature will be ready for the public at 1:00 p. m.

Beginning at 6:00 o'clock, the carnival will hold forth. It will include fortune tellers, games, mimes, clowns, cats, freaks, drinks and stunts.

INSTITUTE FOR MERCHANTS IS OFFERED FREE

Nationally Known Dallas Lecturer Coming November 8-9; Offers Store Conferences.

Free personal or store conferences will be offered by Henry W. Stanley of Dallas when he comes to Snyder next week—November 8 and 9—for a two-day Merchants' Institute.

This service will be available in addition to the free lectures on salesmanship, merchandising, publicizing, and other business administration subjects, which will be given Thursday and Friday evenings.

Mr. Stanley will come to Snyder under auspices of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce and Wholesale Merchants Association. His short course in business administration will be sponsored here by the local Chamber of Commerce and the Scurry County Times.

Although it is called a "Merchants' Institute," the course will be open to anyone interested in subjects to be discussed by the visitor. Special invitation is extended to all merchants of the smaller Scurry County towns.

Trade Value Set On Certificates Sold by Farmer

Information comes to the county agent's office this week that the value of cotton certificates traded within the county must be approximately $20 per bale, cash or trade. This is a slightly new interpretation of the government's certificate ruling.

In this connection it is pointed out that speculation in tax exemption certificates is strictly forbidden, and that violation carries a heavy penalty. Certificates may be traded only within a farmer's home county.

Surplus cotton certificates must be placed in the national pool later than Monday, November 5, if the farmer wishes to take advantage of the cooperative plan of getting as much as possible out of his certificates. November 10 has been set as the deadline for the papers to reach Washington. Farmers are slow in pooling their certificates because of the nearness of the deadline, the agent's office reports.

County pooling of 1933 cotton option certificates is moving forward rapidly. Farmers who have these participation trust papers—small yellow sheets—are urged to come in at once and make applications for loans of $7.60 per bale, if they wish. In case the certificate has been lost, affidavit may be made out to that effect, and the loan carried through.

Tigerlets Capture Game at Lamesa by Last-Quarter Pass

A long pass in the last few minutes of play brought a 7-0 win for the grade school Tigerlets at Lamesa last Thursday afternoon.

It was too hot for the local lads to play heads-up football, especially after a weary truck ride. So the game dragged toward a scoreless deadlock until the lucky local 1-0.

The young Tornadoes from Dawson County will return the grid mix-up Thursday of next week, Coach Bob Curry announces.

Dunn Family Laying Tile to Aid Garden

Laying 600 feet of tile for next year's garden is the thing; which Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brown of Dunn are doing in preparation for their farm food supply.

The fertility of the soil is being enriched by the application of hulls from ginning. This will improve the texture, making it loose and friable, and at the same time will add to mineral value.

In making the tile before cold weather begins, all dangers of having the concrete frozen will be eliminated. Another advantage is that it will be ready for use when gardening time arrives.

Clarence Brown And Partner Kill Sheriff, Escape

Clarence Brown, Snyder's best-known desperado, and his reputed partner in crime, Virgil Stalcup, freed themselves from the jail at Dickens Saturday afternoon by assaulting and fatally shooting Sheriff W. B. Edwards of Dickens County.

Their escape in the sheriff's car was quickly broadcast, and 100 or more peace officers have been futilely scouring the country in all directions from Dickens. A number of officers armed with sub-machine guns and high-powered rifles have been in Scurry County.

Latest reports indicated that the men had been seen at Plainview and Oton, and were traveling toward Clovis, New Mexico.

The Dickens County Commissioner's Court Monday named the slain sheriff's widow to serve her husband's unexpired term, ending January 1. Sheriff Arthur was the Democratic party's nominee for reelection to the place.

Brown and Stalcup asked the sheriff to come to their cell to repair some plumbing Saturday afternoon, County Attorney Alton B. Chapman learned during his investigation of the shooting and escape. The sheriff was attacked by the two men, who seized his pistol and fired one shot which struck the officer in the neck. Death was instantaneous. Brown and Stalcup fled in the sheriff's car, and sped away in the sheriff's car.

Brown's wife and small daughter live in Snyder. He was captured here shortly after he and Stalcup escaped from the Dickens jail August 18. Stalcup was captured last Tuesday near Clarendon. Brown was facing 254 years in the penitentiary for robbery and other charges in several Texas and Oklahoma counties. Brown faced a 99-year sentence in the penitentiary for alleged robbery with firearms in Wichita County. He was also alleged to have been involved, with Stalcup, in several other escapades, including burglary of the Bryant-Link Company store and Hugh Taylor & Company here May 26.

Stalcup's father, alleged to have been associated with the pair in the local burglaries, was killed by an officer in Oklahoma on June 17, 1932. Stalcup and Brown were captured.

Lions Tamed As Teacher Traces Mexican Picture

Miss Maurine Cunningham, who received her M. A. degree last summer from the University of Mexico, traced a group of Snyder Lions Tuesday at noon as she traced a moving picture of Mexico City and its environs.

The Snyder High School Spanish department head spoke from a background of the country's study in the Republic of Mexico. She told of Mexico City as a mixture of the old, the modern and the futuristic; its cathedrals, its castles, its poverty, its riches, its international air, its natural beauty.

The talk was especially appropriate because the 1935 Lions International convention is to be held in Mexico City.

Prior to the talk, two Tiger Band members, Richard Brice and Wallace Lacy, gave numbers. Eugene Duff, band manager, told of the concert-play to be given that night, and a skit from the play was presented by Frances Northcutt and Roland Bell.

Brief reports were made by W. J. Ely, chairman of the Boy Scout finance committee, and Warren Dodson, member of the blind committee.

H. J. Brice told of a recent visit to the American Legion Club with Bullock and Charley Lockhart, both former Snyderites. "A tribute program to ten-year members proved conclusively that Lionism is here to stay and give community service," he said.

Exchange Gets Paint. R. O. von Roeder has been doing some extensive painting at the Farmers Exchange, east side of the square. The entire store is receiving a new paint job, new light fixtures have been added, and a general re-arrangement and cleaning has been under way.

375 Women-Girls Enroll In Demonstration Work

The four months' report of Scurry County Home Demonstration Club work shows the organization of 18 clubs, 12 of which are women's clubs with 250 members, and six of which are girls' clubs with a membership of 125.

As a result of 11 demonstrations on making of concrete tile, 1574 feet have been made for use in home gardens. Four thousand feet have been used in a demonstration relief purposes, from which 6,220 pounds of vegetables have been produced.

Ninety-three women made canning budgets up which to base their canning, in order to provide a balanced food supply for their families.

M'MURRY WILL BRING BENEFIT DRAMA FRIDAY

Twentieth Century Club, P.-T. A. Sponsor Program to Raise Funds for Park.

Two dramas will be presented in the high school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening by the Theatrical Dramatic Club of McMurry College, Abilene.

The Twentieth Century Club and the Parent-Teacher Association are sponsoring organizations. Proceeds will be used for beautification of the grounds recently purchased for a school park, southwest of the school buildings.

Ticket sales are going forward rapidly, according to Twentieth Century and P.-T. A. leaders. One dime is the admission price.

A clever comedy, "Sunset by Seaside," by John Howard, and a more serious drama, "The Other Apostles," by George E. Callahan, will be offered by the dramatic artists.

Striking costumes and stage settings will be employed. The Tiger Band will assist with the musical score.

Miss Caroline Couch, head of the McMurry department of speech, and sponsor of the Theatrical group, formerly resided in Snyder. She traveled extensively last summer in the interest of her department, contacting some of the country's leading players and producers.

Last year the McMurry department of speech, featuring a cast of more than 100 people, presented a pageant, "At the Sacred Well," which won national recognition in theatre maazines and catalogues "Sky Road," the school entry in the Texas intercollegiate dramatic tournament last year, won second place.

Most of the worries of farmers and ranchers who sold cattle and sheep to the government are over. And most of the officials' worries have passed, too.

All pelts from sheep killed in the county during the government buying program were delivered last week at the R. S. & P. station. The program was completed in an orderly and satisfactory manner.

Audrey W. Lacey, county agent, and Joe Monroe, relief administrator. Practically all papers concerning the sheep program have been sent in for payments.

Pelts Delivered to Government; Cattle Money Still Coming

All cattle papers have been forwarded to the local office, and the majority of sellers have already received checks in full from the federal treasury.

Christian Endeavor Society in Meeting

Members of the Christian Endeavor Society of the local church, Presbyterian Church, were in Sweetwater Friday for the monthly session of endeavors from Roscoe, Sweetwater and Snyder.

After two songs and a prayer, Mrs. W. Gordon, Roberts read the scripture of the day and led in the devotion. Gordon Weir of Abilene gave an inspirational talk on "The Abundant Life." A social period followed the regular program.

In addition, the association will pay a dividend to non-profit cooperative or society gins on the number of bales delivered to the association by such gins.

The dividend to be paid to the first class enumerators will amount to approximately 80 cents per bale, and is in addition to all other settlements previously made. While the dividend from the association to the non-profit cooperative or society gins will also be 80 cents, they will prorate it among their members according to the number of bales each has delivered to the gin.

The net to each member, therefore, will be somewhat less than 80 cents.

Six or eight gins will share in the dividend, and from 2,000 to 2,500 members, in both classes, Taylor said.

The WTCGA manager said "We have every reason for being gratified over the first year's operations, and we look for a bigger season ahead. For example, during the present month we have paid out more than a million dollars on the 12-cent loan to farmers residing within a hundred mile radius of Abilene."

COUNTRY WIDE ROLL CALL SET FOR NOV. 11-29

Maurice Brownfield, Chairman of Membership Drive, Names County Worker List.

Campaign machinery is rapidly being rounded out for the November 11-29 Roll Call of the Scurry County chapter of the American Red Cross.

The entire county has been zoned to insure complete coverage in a personal drive by volunteer workers, according to Maurice Brownfield, Roll Call chairman. Campaign leaders have already been enlisted, he said, and other preparations have been made which promise the most spirited appeal of its kind in recent years.

The helping-hand organization, composed of 370 chapters, is planning its usual annual Roll Call campaign throughout the country. County Chairman J. S. Bradbury points out.

"The Red Cross is no stranger in this community," he continued. "It has rendered thousands of dollars worth of cash, supplies and services during the period of depression and partial recovery. Its work must go on. Since all its activities are made possible by individual support, I am convinced that the local citizenship will respond quickly and graciously when the membership campaign gets under way on Armistice Day."

Following are the general workers selected to assist Brownfield and Bradbury: Marcel Josephson, vice county chairman; Mrs. Max Brownfield, Snyder residential district chairman; Frank Farmer, rural district chairman; Maurice Snyder, business district chairman; J. W. Scott, assistant Roll Call chairman.

These students, also, are on the honor roll: Leon Autry, Mary Helen Bolin, Evelyn Erwin, La Frances Hamilton, Louise Hardin, Charles Hales, Dorcas Hensley, Ernest Morton, Louise Jones, Marie Oliver, Jack Reynolds, Netha Lynn Rogers, H. C. Shuler, Frances Stinson, Wallace Smith, Parents Winston and Maureen Wolf.

Co-op Soon Will Pay Dividend to West Texas Area

The West Texas Cotton Growers Association is getting ready to declare its first patronage dividend. V. A. Taylor, manager, announced yesterday from his office at Abilene.

The dividend will be paid on the first year's season, which ended last July 1. Checks bearing date of November 15 will be mailed from the association's headquarters.

Several hundred dollars will be realized from Scurry County farmers who sold their cotton through the association, according to J. I. Carrell, long-time co-op member.

The Abilene manager makes this statement in regard to the dividend: "The patronage dividend will be payable to all members of our association who delivered their cotton to us direct, and to members who fixed the price on their ten-cent loan cotton and put it into the immediate fixation pool."

In addition, the association will pay a dividend to non-profit cooperative or society gins on the number of bales delivered to the association by such gins.

The dividend to be paid to the first class enumerators will amount to approximately 80 cents per bale, and is in addition to all other settlements previously made. ## Turkey Market Will Open About Nov. 10

The Thanksgiving turkey market is scheduled to open here about November 10, according to local producers.

Snyder Produce Company will operate its dressing plant again, while several other houses will buy the birds and truck them to nearby dressing plants. The dressing plant will employ a number of pickers, according to Felix Parker, manager.

Turkeys are scarce this year because of the severe scarcity of feed, but produce men are planning to buy more than half the normal crop.

The dividend to be paid to the first class enumerators will amount to approximately 80 cents per bale, and is in addition to all other settlements previously made. ## Eight Proposals For Constitution Change on Ballot

With discussion of the eight proposed constitutional amendments reaching a high peak within the past few weeks, interest in Tuesday's general election is expected to attract many more voters to the polls than usual.

Of course there will be a smaller voting electorate than during the primary elections, but it is possible that this November 6 ballot may produce more tallies than any other general election in Scurry County annals.

Amendment No. 3, known as the tax-limiting amendment, has brought forth more discussion than all the others. It is known as the tax-limiting amendment, since it would limit yearly taxation in Texas to $11.25 per capita of total population. Amendment No. 1, generally called the property-classification amendment, has also come in for vigorous defense and attack.

Interest in Amendments. Interest has centered on the amendments because Texas as a whole is little concerned with candidates outside the Democratic fold.

The ticket bears the names of state candidates submitted by the Democratic, Republican, Socialist, and Communist parties. One column is left blank for independent candidates, and another is blank.

Only three district officers are up for a ballot here: J. E. Hickman, Eastland, chief justice of the court of civil appeals; Leonard Westfall, Aspermont, state representative, 118th district; George W. Cullum, Sweetwater, 32nd judicial district.

County Candidates. County candidates are as follows: Robert H. Curmude, county judge; Maude M. Akers, district clerk; Mattie B. Trimble, county clerk; E. W. Webb, county attorney; Mrs. Otto S. Williamson, county treasurer; S. H. Newman, sheriff; Bernard Longbottom, tax collector and assessor; Frank Farmer, county superintendent; H. J. Brice, county surveyor.

In the precincts, these candidates will be voted on: Communist, precinct 1, Forest Jones; precinct 2, Holly Shuler; precinct 3, H. M. (Bub) Blackard; precinct 4, H. E. Brock; precinct 5, J. E. Hickman; precinct 6, J. W. Cullum; precinct 7, W. J. (Bill) Green; precinct 8, D. P. Ammons. Justice of the peace, precinct 1, P. E. Davenport; constable, precinct 1, Albert Smith.

County Curriculum Revision Group in Organization Meet

Scurry County teachers gathered here Monday evening to form a curriculum revision group. C. Wedgeworth, local superintendent, was made chairman, and Frank Farmer, county superintendent, is secretary.

Similar county and district groups are being formed throughout the state in order that a more workable course of study may be perfected for Texas schools.

The county group plans to have its first regular meeting Saturday, December 10. Tentative plans call for general assembly from 9:00 to 10:00 o'clock; sectional meetings, 10:00 to 11:30 o'clock; superintendent and principals' session, 11:30 to 12:00 o'clock. Three other meetings will probably be held during the school year.

The general program committee is composed of Wedgeworth, Farmer, E. E. Kerr, Hermligh, T. B. Bownds of Pylon, E. L. Taylor of Ira and Guy Stark of Dunn. Section chairmen are as follows: R. H. Williams, Snyder, high school; Charles Gimes, Ft. Hancock, grades; Miss Jessie Stinson, Snyder, primary.

Built Up Strength By Taking Cardui

Here's her own account of how Mrs. T. W. Hardin, of Greer, S. I felt better after I took my first bottle, so kept on taking it as I felt such a need of strength, and it helped me so much."

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Former Snyder Man Marries in Timpson.

Miss Katherine Oleta Steadley of Timpson and Gardner Martin of Slaton, formerly of Snyder, were married in Timpson Sunday. Mr. Martin is a brother to Mrs. Joe Graham here.

The marriage vows were said in the living room of the Steadley home before a bank of vines and fern, with baskets of Aztec daisies on either side. Rev. M. R. Turner officiated. Wedding music was given by Mmes. T. J. Molloy and J. J. Futrell. F. E. McDavid of Timpson was best man, and the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. F. M. Steadley, was matron of honor.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a costume of green crepe worn with brown accessories. Her flowers were Tallman roses. Mrs. Steadley, as matron of honor, wore a smart black ensemble and carried Red Radiance roses. Mrs. Martin is known to several Snyder people since she has lived in Timpson all her life. Her father is a prominent business man of that city. She was head of the ready-to-wear department in a store in Timpson before her marriage.

Mr. Martin was graduated from Snyder High School in 1923, and is a graduate of Baylor University at Waco. He left Snyder to work in Kilgore in 1930, after having been with the H. G. Towle Jewelry Company several months. He has had his own jewelry store at G. G. Martin's Jewelry Store in Slaton for about a year, and in addition to that he is railroad watch inspector for the Santa Fe Railway.

The two are at home at 825 West Lubbock Street, Slaton.

TWO DRESSES FOR $1.15

From four and one-half sugar sacks dyed a dull red, students at Texas State College for Women (CIA) fashioned for 25 cents the street dress modeled by Miss Jess Edith Carlisle, Midland, (left). Not satisfied with this achievement, the next problem was to make a lady's tailored suit from a discarded man's suit. Miss Bernice Hubbard, Dallas, (right) models the 90-cent creation.

Younger Set Has Party at Roberts'.

Misses Marilyn Roberts and Wynona Keller were hostess to the younger set of the town with a party given Saturday evening in the home of Miss Roberts' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roberts, 2211 Twenty-eighth Street.

Something to Wonder About.
 "One always wonders how a great man finds time to shave," muses a trade magazine columnist. And, we might add with a touch of regret, how a great woman finds time to look 10 years younger than she really must be.

The Most Puzzling Vagary.
 Some day—and it is not far distant—we shall look back on the hostility to advertising displayed by the Department of Agriculture, its present secretary and his aide, Professor Tugwell, as among the most puzzling vagaries of these confused times.—Atlanta Georgian.

Texasism for a Change.
 Why not forget Fergusonism, Sterlingism, Allredism, Hunterism and whatever other isms that might, under our current style of Texas politics, develop and concentrate on Texasism for a change? It would undoubtedly be a change for the better for every one of us.—Texas Tax Journal.

A Jew for Governor.
 New York is destined to have a Jew governor again. Governor Lehman is renominated by the Democrats and Robert Moses is the Republican nominee. Both are Jews and splendidly capable men. I think Lehman will be re-elected. If they both lived in Germany they would both be thrown into the discard.—Salisbury (Mo.) Press-Spectator.

"Swat 'em All!"
 One of the most unsavory features of these political campaigns on the amendments is the manner in which interested groups often find it necessary to capitalize shrewdly on that susceptibility of the voter to reject all amendments when he really is concerned with rejecting only one. "Swat 'em all" is made the campaign cry.—The Texas Weekly.

Less Oratory and Emotion.
 Says President Roosevelt: "More oratory and emotion are having less and less to do with the determination of public questions under our representative system of government. . . . In a great emergency system we are establishing with each passing month a greater degree of efficiency." Not so, quoth the sage of Palo Alto, the Roosevelt predecessor.

No Use for Russia.
 If Arthur Brisbane and those other boys are so fond of Russia and Russian ways, they ought to go there to live. Me, I have no use for Russia. It is all right to shoot up the people and raise all kinds of Sheel among one another, but they should pay their honest debts instead of inducing fellows to brag on them.—Uncle Bill, in Sterling City News-Record.

Cow, Sow and Hen Again.
 Talk to a farmer who is not in the red, and the chances are that he will point to the cow, sow and hen as the secrets of his success; and he may add to these a vegetable garden. Pin money? Yes, and that is about the only kind of money many a family has had to jingle in the last few months. Whether residing in town or country, polite society reached a financial level early in 1933 where it no longer was good form to poke fun at pin money.—The Earth.

Young Folks Suffer.
 We felt that it was a big mistake when prohibition was repealed to permit the indiscriminate sale of liquor by the drink. It was a violation of the promises made by those asking for repeal. They had made the pledge that if prohibition were repealed that the open saloon would not return. It is back in full force, more gaudy, more alluring and more appealing than ever the old saloon was. And the worst feature is that now it is easier for young folks to get liquor than ever it was before prohibition.—Hillsboro (O.) News-Herald.

Down With No. 16.
 "Texas is so large that the diversity of industrial and agricultural pursuits would afford a fertile ground for the seeds of political connivance. We could reasonably expect a candidate for Legislature promising to 'soak' an industry or occupation existing in another section of the state, at the same time lowering the rate on the classification predominant in his own section. . . . Senate Joint Resolution No. 16 should be defeated. It is dangerous, it is unfair, it cannot accomplish its purpose. Scratch it in November.—Tom Bean Times.

The Candidates May Be Right.
 The candidates who besieged voters with the campaign cry that intangible property was escaping uncounted millions of just taxation may have been right. Forty-six per cent of the property in the state is intangible property and largely escapes the ad valorem tax, according to L. P. Gabbard, of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, who has made a study of the probate records from 47 counties. Now if candidates, after they are elected, will do something about it, we'll be willing to listen to them again during the next campaign.

Pledge
I will think—talk—write . . . Texas Centennial in 1936! This is to be my celebration. In its achievement I may give free play to my patriotic love for Texas' heroic past; my confidence in its glories that are to be. . . .

EDITORIAL OF THE WEEK

THE YOUNG MAN JUMPS BLINDLY.
 The typical young man thinks he is an exception. That makes for strength and weakness. If the young man did not think himself an exception he would lack the daring and the take-a-chance spirit that gives us progress. But, because so few young men are the exception we find an excessive number of dissatisfied, misplaced and unhappy thirty and thirty-five-year-old men. They have discovered that getting ahead is harder than they thought. Children, doctors' bills, high rents, unemployment, and bad investments have increased their expenses and reduced their incomes. Instead of exemption from the usual misfortunes that beset mankind, they have reaped not only their share, but a little more than their share. At least, so it seems.

The average young man is at work at 20, and married at 25. He anticipates that he will be definitely on the way to success at 30. If he isn't he assumes that something must be wrong with his job or his employer. He knows he must have more money. Instead of appraising the situation coolly and making sure that the next step will take him forward, he jumps blindly. In two or three years he is worse off than ever—unless he is an exception. Many have puzzled a lot about this, wondering what advice should be given to a young man. Should he regard himself as a pilot of the business machine, or as a cog? Should he submit to what appears to be a blind-alley future, hoping for a turn which he cannot see?

These are questions that are difficult to answer even for that indefinite "average young man." They are still harder to answer when a real flesh-and-blood young man asks you what to do.

John Hays Hammond refused to reply to applicants who said "What is the future in this job?" He responded that the future of one man would be totally different from the future of another. He would not commit himself, and resented the effort to make him.

Probably there is no gain in attempting to tell anyone what to do to insure a future.

But, like E. W. Howe, the Kansas philosopher, we can tell a man how to avoid failure. Let him be industrious, temperate, honest, fair, and polite. Then he'll probably always have a job. If he is an exceptional person the chances are that his employer, or some other employer, will notice him and offer him a better job.

Before he gets sore at his job or his employer and quits, let him make sure that there is a place for him elsewhere. He may find that he is just an ordinary person holding down a better-than-ordinary job.—Imperial Type Metal Magazine.

CURRENT COMMENT

By LEON GUINN
 In taking inventory of the past, it seems history presents seven outstanding achievements of man, currently referred to as the seven wonders of the world, to show us just how far America must still go to achieve, in a measure, the heights reached by the sons of man in things material. . . . Today, inventions are the real estate of man, and in science, hygiene, medicine, mechanics, and other famed halls of achievement this generation excels all previous races in doing things with eclat. . . . Of civilization's artistic side, it would be superfluous to say we measure up to the masters of Egypt, Rome, Greece, Babylon and Persia. . . . In studying plates by Harold Oakley, Charles M. Sheldon, A. J. Stevenson, and others revealing in their beauty the globe's seven wonders, one finds the perspective thus gained as helpful.

The seven wonders are: The Mausoleum at Halicarnassus (what a name) built by Queen Artemisia and Greek architects in memory of King Mausolus of Caria. . . . Adorned by delicate Ionic columns, it stood 140 feet high. . . . The Hanging Gardens of Babylon, built by Nebuchadnezzar for his Median bride. . . . Planted on terraces and watered by hydraulic pumps, the plants appeared to hang. . . . The Statue of Zeus at Olympia, sculptured by Pheidias of wood, ivory, and gold. . . . From whence the Olympic Games originated. . . . The Pharos of Alexandria, or lighthouse, probably 475 feet high. . . . By inclined plane and windlass the fire at top was fed; probably glass accounted forlightrays reaching out 27 miles. . . . The Temple of Diana at Ephesus, architectural gem full of antique art. . . . The Colossus of Rhodes, and the Great Pyramid are the last two.

One of aviation's prize peaches is the longish London-Melbourne air race, covering 11,325 miles between Britain and Australia. . . . From London to Baghdad, Allahabad, Singapore, Darwin, Charleville, so to Melbourne lies stretches of hazardous flying, with death for some and fame for others. . . . In a sleek de Havilland two Britshers, C. W. A. (familiat?) Scott and T. Campbell Black won the cake this time in two days and 23 hours. . . . Donor of the $75,000 in prize money is Scotsman Sir MacPherson Robertson, eccentric candy tycoon. . . . Starting out in his teens making candy in his mother's kitchen, Robertson candy factories now cover 35 acres. . . . Famed wares are "MacRobertson's Milk Kisses" and "Old Gold Chocolates." . . . Of the three entries in the race from the U. S. the Boeing entry of Clyde Pangborn and Roscoe Turner placed third.

Possibly one reason why field men of various institutions visit West Texas in search of fossils do not care to have some of their finds exploited is due to the fact that many amateur archaeologists often ruin many fields by probing heading into fossil beds and letting old bones crumble without preservation. . . . Experienced field men come and go quietly, taking with them rare bones of vanished animals of the Jurassic and Cretaceous periods. . . . It is probably surprising that a few of the archaeologists who have visited Scurry County in the past five years represented among other institutions, these: Smithsonian Institute, Washington, Duluth Public Schools, Duluth Minnesota, New York City Botanical Gardens and Parks, Texas Tech, Baylor, etc. . . . Generous West Texas does not yet impose taxes on bone and fossil devotees.

We would feel better about present state's assurances that their nations will not start war if all other wars had not been between countries simply forced into 'em.—Dallas News.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
 OUR READERS' VIEWS

Merritt Against Bankhead.
 Editors, The Scurry County Times: I notice in several issues your paper has been granting space to the various writers to discuss the merits and demerits of the famous Bankhead Bill. With your permission I am submitting a brief article expressing my views. I could not discuss this question as ably as some of the writers who have spoken. I shall undertake to discuss the question from a different angle, as I shall undertake to discuss the question from a constitutional standpoint. The Bankhead Bill violates the Federal Constitution in numerous places, as well as our State Constitution. First, let me cite our Federal Constitution, beginning with the very first Section of Article 1, that reads thus:

"All Legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives." This body, and this alone, is the only legislative power in the set-up of our government, yet the Bankhead Bill grants to the Secretary of Agriculture, who is just an appointive, legislative power to change the whole set-up over night, if he cares to. The Bankhead Bill violates Section 8 of Article 1, by giving the Secretary of Agriculture power to lay and collect taxes, when nowhere in our government set-up do we find this power vested in anyone, except the Congress of the United States.

The Bankhead Bill violates this same Section 8 of Article 1, because it gives the Secretary of Agriculture the power to make laws, which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers. The Bankhead Bill violates this same section of our Constitution, inasmuch as it grants to the Secretary of Agriculture the power to lay a direct tax on property, which is not in proportion to the census enumeration directed by the Constitution—it violates our Constitution because it lays a tax or duty on articles exported from a state—it violates the Constitution because it gives a preference by regulation of commerce to the non-cotton producing states.

The Bankhead Bill violates Section 1 of Article 3 because it vests judicial power in the Secretary of Agriculture, when this same section and article says this power shall be vested in the Supreme Court.

This same Bankhead Bill violates Section 4 of Article 4 of the Constitution, inasmuch as it sets up a modified socialism within a state, and thereby denies to it a republican form of government.

The Bankhead Bill violates Article 6 of the Constitution by making a rule or decision of the Secretary of Agriculture the supreme law of the land.

This Bankhead Bill violates Article 10 of the Constitution of the United States—turn with me and read this article for yourself; here is the language used:

"Powers reserved to the people: The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution was prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people." Now turn with me to our State Constitution, Article 8, Section 19, and get the exact language, as follows:

"Farm products in the hands of the producer, and family supplies

LUCKY GIRL

Her mother felt that family physicians and child specialists, and the hospitals must be right. A simple test that proves they are.

If anyone in your family is occasionally sluggish or constipated; especially any child, you should know this medical truth:

You cannot get safe relief with any medicine if you cannot regulate the dose. And to regulate dosage, you should have a liquid laxative. With a liquid laxative, you can gradually reduce the dose. And that is the secret of safe relief from a sluggish, constipated condition.

Why Doctors Use Liquid Laxatives
 A liquid laxative can be measured. Its action can be thus controlled. If properly made, of natural laxative elements like senna and cascara, it forms no habit—even in the youngest child. And such a laxative will help the bowels to help themselves, not make matters worse.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative containing herbs, active senna, and cascara, and is the one widely used. You can always obtain it at any drugstore. Why not make the "liquid test" which has attracted so much attention of late? It helps nearly everyone who tries it. It may make you feel better than you have in a long time.

If you will risk sixty cents to discover the natural, comfortable action of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, we believe bowel worries will be over for your household.

Article 8 and Section 19 was adopted on the first Tuesday in September, 1879, by an election held on that date. Now I think I have cited enough of the Constitution to clearly establish my position. I have taken the oath of office four times here in the Legislature, and each time I swore with uplifted hand I would support and defend the Constitution of our state, and may I ask you, as my constituents, what you would think of me if I had repudiated my oath of office?

Now, in my humble opinion, this Bankhead Bill was created in favor of a bunch of speculators, with a lot of cotton on hand, and the big cotton plantations. If not, why did they not make it an acreage proposition instead of a percentage?

This government was established by the planters of Virginia and the small farmers along the Atlantic Coast—they separated themselves from another government and established one of their own, rather than pay a small tax on tea that another man had raised. Under the Bankhead Bill we are required to pay a confiscatory tax on cotton we have raised ourselves. In my judgment the Bankhead Bill will make peons out of the tenant farmer and shirkings out of the small farmer, if permitted to run its course. More than 60 per cent of the farmers of the South are tenant farmers, and yet the tenant farmer is not mentioned or referred to in this Bankhead Bill. But, on the other hand, he is the man with the hoe, or President Roosevelt's forgotten man. There is no surer way to destroy the government than to destroy the farmer. They have lived on their farms, cultivated their fields, done farm work in all kinds of weather, anchored to their little homes by a love of nature and spirit of freedom, and when you rob them of these rights the government is doomed.

You may destroy the cities of a government, wreck all their buildings, still the wheels of industry until they become abandoned cities, yet if you leave the farmers free under the touch of his industry he will build up these cities and rehabilitate his country and fill it with peace, prosperity and happiness. There has never been in this old world, and never will be, a condition which the people cannot overcome if they are permitted to remain free.

The scribbling is getting too long. Respectfully, yours so serve,

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

OUR READERS' VIEWS

More on the Bankhead. Will the cotton farmers of the south intelligently plan their future policy in cotton production? Or will they stampede like a bunch of wild bovines...

These questions are immediately before us for our decision. Let us analyze the situation and see how our forces are lined up to settle them, and how the battle can be won for intelligent planning and cooperation.

We find on the side of the opposition the farmer who does not wish to cooperate, but who wants to go entirely independently and to increase his cotton production, hoping that the cooperators will raise the price so that he may "cash in" on an increased acreage.

There are also three other classes of farmers opposed to intelligent or controlled production—the farmers who do not read and study, the farmers who are too biased and too obstinate to believe statistics, and some few farmers who through mistakes in administering the Bankhead Law...

Against the above mentioned classes of farmers and their allies (the ginners, oil millers, cotton buyers, brokers, etc.) are arrayed the vast majority of clear-sighted farmers who cannot forget that uncontrolled production has meant in the past, and who are willing to give credit for raising cotton prices where the credit is due.

To keep the good work going on we must first have the ground we have gained. We can improve it as we progress. We must enlighten those who do not study for themselves, and who are being misled by false propaganda, such as foreign competition, that we are being enslaved, that only the drought and the lowering of our dollar has helped cotton prices, etc.

Mr. Townsend in his last article in The Scurry County Times censures me for not replying to every one of his "points." Of course he makes many statements with which I agree, but there are too many of the other kind for me to take each one up separately.

He says I seem to believe the Bankhead Act is a part of the Agricultural Adjustment Act. He also says the latter is the administration program of relief for agriculture, "but when Senator Bankhead forced the enactment of the Bankhead Bill, the administration was forced to substitute the provisions of the Bankhead Act for the administration plan as set forth in the Agricultural Act, insofar as cotton was concerned."

Gins Run Two Days. Snyder gins announce that they will gin only two days—Wednesday and Saturday—next week. For the past three weeks they have been operating on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

once kills his argument of foreign competition. U. S. production control (which he seems to believe in by virtue of his approval of the AAA) would have the same tendency toward increasing foreign production...

My good friend declares it is absurd to believe that supply and demand raise prices unless there is a scarcity or probable scarcity of cotton. Only "if it were possible to curtail the production of cotton brought about a scarcity of cotton higher prices would ensue."

To my mind it is logical that the bigger the surplus the lower the price is as true as that the acuter the shortage the higher the price. This shows another fallacy of his reasoning as evidenced by his long article, and convinces me further that he doesn't "know his onions" on the merits of the Bankhead Act.

It is astounding to me how Senator Bankhead and other "Linglets" through political chicanery and trickery can and did put the things Mr. Townsend doesn't like over our president and secretary of agriculture. Even though I did not vote for Hoover, as Mr. Townsend insinuates I did, I do not believe that the results have been anything but a disaster to the cotton producer.

Mr. Townsend is correct when he says that for 25 or 30 years our government had county agents teaching the farmers how to produce larger crops. Personally, I fought that idea for many years as is evidenced by several newspaper articles I wrote condemning the practice.

That my good friend had been Scurry County's first county agent was indeed news to me. I had heard of the county agent who severely criticized a farmer for the way he pruned a fruit tree, telling him "it would not surprise me a bit if that tree would not bear ten pounds of apples this year," to which the farmer replied that it wouldn't surprise him either because it was a pear tree, but there were no names mentioned and didn't know who the county agent was.

In conclusion I must acknowledge Friend Townsend's challenge to meet him in a debate on the merits of the Bankhead Act. I want to respectfully decline the invitation, for I am no speaker. In a verbal debate Mr. Townsend would have the best of me, even though I have all the facts on my side. He could take the negative side of the question whether twice two is four and beat me, because in a speaking debate it is not so much what you say as how you say it that counts.

Furthermore, in such a debate there is much more danger of personalities being injected and feelings being hurt—which we both wish to avoid. In a friendly newspaper discussion we can have a much larger audience and will be put to less expense than by meeting in debates. We have already stirred up considerable interest among the farmers. Therefore, keep coming, Mr. Townsend!

Sincerely yours, C. N. VON ROEDER. Oct. 27.

Plenty of Uses For Green Tomato Crop From Fall Gardens

When gathering green tomatoes to avoid frost, give the family a change by not putting it all into cold chow, suggests Miss Nellie Ward, home demonstration agent. There are many new recipes which will lend interest and variety to your menu.

Green tomato mince meat may be easily and inexpensively prepared. The ingredients necessary are: 1 peck green tomatoes, 2 pounds raisins, 2 cups chopped apples, 1 pound suet, 2 tablespoons cinnamon, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 teaspoon cloves, 2 tablespoons salt, 1/2 cup vinegar, 2 1/2 pounds sugar.

Put tomatoes through food chopper, drain and heat five minutes. Add to this chopped raisins, suet and apples. Add to this spices, salt, sugar and vinegar. Let simmer 30 minutes and put in containers. Process in hot water bath 20 or 30 minutes.

Other products are green tomato pickle, spiced green tomatoes and Spanish pickle.

Employment now seems to be regarded merely as a fundamental step toward a strike.

League Director Says Variety of Contests Offered

The Interscholastic League of this county offers the schools this year a wide variety of contests, according to Elmer L. Taylor, recently elected director general of the organization for the current school year.

"No other extra-curricular activity," he said, "engages the interest and stimulates endeavor along helpful lines more than the contests which are scheduled for the county meets. Here we have an activity for practically every child. There is opportunity for participation in 15 different fields, both athletic and literary, ranging from the third grade on up to the last year in high school."

"We are advised from the state office that the constitution and rules are ready for distribution and applicants for membership are coming in from schools in all parts of the state."

"The schools in this county should get in on the ground floor and began preparation early. Each school that joins is given a copy of the constitution and rules, a copy of the current spelling list and is entered for a year's subscription to the Interscholastic League. Last year nearly 6,000 schools joined the League and participated in its work in 220 different counties."

"There are contests arranged for every class of public school, including rural, ward, and both small and large high schools, and all-around championships, and decided in each of the divisions at the county meet."

See New Observatory. Butch McClinton and several other Snyderites returned last week from the Davis Mountains apple country, where they worked for several weeks during the harvesting season. While there they saw the Mount Locke observatory, now under construction, which will be one of the world's leading scientific workhouses when it is completed in 1936.

The Whirlwind.

I am a spiral of dust
Singing a canny gypsy song.
Hear the wind's music? It's just
My fun to trail my skirt along.
I powder my face with sand,
Tripping gleefully in swirls;
Send diamonds from my hand
I leave on soft, tender curls.
My home? Oh, West Texas.
My path is field and meadow.
Air currents are little's air.
That call me on forever.
A little flying whirlwind—
Dancing Gypsy is my name;
When tired, I soon ascend
To the air whence I came.
—Leon Guinn.

A Twofold Duty

It is not enough that the funeral director give a funeral service; his duties call for more. He should be helpful to the grieving in their weakness, a trusted friend who makes the road of sorrow easier to travel. He must serve those who are living as well as those who have passed on. That is the view we take toward our mission. We provide capable professional service with a neighborly sympathy and willingness to help in every way we can.

Pranksters Behave During Hallowe'en

Hallowe'en night brought plenty of noise and fun for Snyder, but little material damage was done by pranksters, according to city officers.

"Senior Day" for Snyder Students Spent Near Post

It was a happy group of high school seniors that left the high school building early last Thursday morning for Two-Draw Lake, Post, for their class day fun. Three carloads of Senior A's and their sponsor, Miss Mattie Ross Cunningham, made the most of their class picnic.

Talents of all descriptions were revealed during the day, including amateur poets, grand opera singers and m. h. ty warriors. "This said that the Civil War was realistically reproduced by four of the senior boys."

Boating was enjoyed during the day, as was the picnic lunch served at noon. After lunch kodak pictures were made, and more boat riding, more food, more games and more fun brought the day to a delightful close.

Seniors will call visitors attention to the broken oar which is suspended from the wall in their home room. That oar was one that was broken, and incidentally bought, by one of the picnic group, for the sum of 50 cents. With the words "Seniors—34" and the initials of each member of the class, the oar will decorate the room until graduation time.

The following were present: Miss Mattie Ross Cunningham, Frances Boren, Melba Clark, Lee Alvin Hays, Geraldine Longbottom, Kathleen Dorfman, Helen Witherspoon, Evelyn Erwin, Roland Bell, Murray Gray, Sonley Huestis, Sam Joyce, Bernard Longbottom, H. B. Patterson, Jack Reynolds, G. C. Spence and Charles Westbrook.

Eight Proposed Amendments to Face Voters Who Go to Polls November 6

When voters go to their general election places next Tuesday, November 6, they will be faced with eight proposed amendments to the state constitution, in addition to the line-up of candidates.

Following is the condensed summary of the proposed amendments as they will appear, in order, on the lengthy ballots:

1. For (against) the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform; and that all property in this State, other than that owned by municipal corporations, shall be taxed in proportion to its value as may be ascertained as provided by law; and providing that the Legislature may make reasonable classifications of all property, other than real property, for the purposes of taxation; and that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform; and providing further that the Legislature may impose poll tax and occupation tax and exempting from occupation tax persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits; and exempting from taxation $250 worth of household and kitchen furniture belonging to each family; and providing that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town shall not exceed one-half that levied by the State for the same period.

Second Amendment.

2. For (against) the amendment to Article LX of the State Constitution, by adding Section 2-A thereto, giving the Commission on County Management and Control of County Affairs, and authorizing the Legislature to provide more economical forms of county government and different than as now provided by law.

3. For (against) the amendment to Section 3 of Article VIII of the State Constitution providing for the levying and collection of taxes and fixing maximum amount thereof which can be collected and expended each biennium.

4. For (against) the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas adding Section XVI, abolishing the fee system of compensating all district officers and all county officers in counties having a population of 20,000 or more; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court to determine whether county officers in counties containing less than 20,000 population shall be compensated on a fee basis or a salary basis; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court in all counties of this State to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee or salary basis.

Fifth Amendment.

5. For (against) the amendment to Section 1 of Article IX of the Constitution of Texas, providing that the Legislature may by a two-thirds vote of both Houses create new counties and change the boundaries of existing counties.

6. For (against) the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, permitting any Home Rule City to alter, amend or repeal its charter every 12 months.

7. For (against) the amendment permitting Home Rule Cities to amend their charters that the elected officials of such cities may hold office to exceed four years.

8. For (against) the amendment subjecting the lands of the University of Texas to taxation for county and school district purposes; and providing for the payment of said taxes to the proper authorities of the counties and school districts where said lands are located.

NOTICE.

I will speak in Ft. Worth Friday night, November 2, and in Snyder at the courthouse at 2:00 o'clock p. m. Saturday, November 10. I will affirm that the Bankhead cotton law is unnecessary, unjust, unconstitutional, subversive of liberty and that its effects will be injurious to the farmer, instead of beneficial. I will divide time with anyone who will meet me in debate at either of both appointments.—P. I. Townsend.

Missionary to China Will Conduct School

A church school of missions will be conducted at the First Baptist Church during the week of November 19-25 by M. O. Cheek, missionary to Shanghai, China, for 10 years. Pastor Lawrence Hays announced early this week. He will lecture and teach a course on Chinese missions.

The missionary is a native Texan. He was in China during the recent world-rocking insurrections. Miss Lucille Reagan, a missionary to Africa for 13 years, spoke at the local church Sunday evening, climaxing a series of Scurry County engagements that included Dunn, Ft. Worth, Hermleigh, Ira, Plainview and Lloyd Mountain.

New Moratorium Act for Farmer Fully Explained

Ben P. Smith, conciliation commissioner for Scurry and Borden Counties, has prepared for publication the following statement concerning the federal bankrupt act:

"In order that the people of Scurry and Borden Counties may become familiar with the Frazier-Lemke amendment to the Federal Bankrupt Act, we wish to give a brief outline of the provisions and operations of the act.

"Congress passed and the president signed the Frazier-Lemke amendment, and it has for its primary purpose saving of the farms, ranches and homes of the American people.

"This law provides that where a person who derives his living wholly or in part from farming or ranching may take advantage of this law and save his farm or ranch from foreclosure and sale, and an extension of time to get out from under the load he is carrying. If a person is involved and can't meet his obligations, mortgages, secured and unsecured obligations, you are permitted to come before me as conciliation commissioner and petition the federal court for an extension or composition of your debts. The farmer pays a fee of $10 into the federal court at Lubbock, and the case is referred to the conciliation commissioner, who in turn issues notices to the farmer's creditors, setting a date for the first meeting. He files with his petition a schedule of his indebtedness, both secured and unsecured, and this goes up to the federal court along with his petition for composition and extension of his debts.

"If at the first meeting the majority of his creditors in sum and numbers agree the farmer gets a six-year extension on a small payment schedule over a period of six years. If he shows he can't meet the six-year extension he can amend his petition and ask the federal court to declare him a bankrupt and unable to meet his obligations. The federal court then gives him five years extension on a cash rental basis, the same to be set by the court.

The reason father prefers a roast of beef to chicken when they are having guests for dinner is because with a roast of beef he can get what the guests do, instead of having to decorate his plate with a fool neck.

First Christian Church

The First Christian Church welcomes you to all its services. The Bible school begins promptly every Lord's Day at 9:45 a. m. Church and communion services begin at 11:00 a. m. Evening worship at 7:15 p. m. Junior and senior Christian Endeavor meet at 6:00 p. m. and are through in time for church.

Friends, do you know that the Bible says "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy" (Exodus 20:8)? It is true that the day of worship was changed from the Sabbath (the last day of the week) to Sunday (the first day of the week). But God expects us to keep this day holy. The Pharisees and Sadducees were careful not to desecrate the Sabbath Day in any way whatever, but Jesus said "Whosoever shall break one of these least commandments and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven; but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven." (Matt. 5:19, 20).

Before you neglect your worship next Sunday think deeply about these words of your Savior. Your excuse for staying away from the church might appear plausible to man, but ask yourself this question: "How does it look to God?" Most of the excuses you have to offer won't stand in the presence of your Lord. (Read Luke 14:16-24).

How much more of a blessing you would be to the church if you would but take the advice of the Apostle Peter, who said: "Be diligent, that ye may be found of Him in peace, without spot, and blameless." (II Peter 3:14).

The church was sorry to learn of the serious illness of Bro. Jimmy Reed and of the serious illness of Bro. and Sister Hudson's little son. Its prayer is that both shall share in a rapid recovery.

Prayer meeting is becoming more and more interesting and instructional. Last week Bro. George W. Brown led the meeting in a very profitable discussion on "The Desire of God to Save Humanity."

Complete Corps of League Officials Named Last Week in Teachers' Meet

A complete corps of Scurry County Interscholastic League officials was named Wednesday evening of last week, during a business session of teachers at the Manhattan Hotel.

Superintendent Elmer L. Taylor of Ira succeeds Superintendent E. O. Wedgeworth of Ft. Worth as director general.

E. E. Kerr, Hermleigh superintendent, is director of athletics.

Other directors will serve as follows: Debate—E. H. McCarter, Ft. Worth.

Declamation—T. B. Bownds, Pyron.

Extemporaneous speech—Miss Margaret Dell Prim, Ira.

Spelling—Erton F. Tate, Camp Springs.

Essay writing—Miss Ruth Truss, Hermleigh.

Music memory contest—Mrs. R. L. Williams, Snyder.

Picture memory contest—Miss Violet Bradbury, Snyder.

Rural athletics—Roy O. Irvin, Plainview.

One-act play contest—E. O. Wedgeworth, Ft. Worth.

Story telling—Mrs. W. P. King, Snyder.

Three-R contest—Mrs. Rowena Jones, Martin.

George Mahon to Address Students

George Mahon, whose election as the first congressman from the 19th district will be officially completed next Tuesday, will come from his home at Colorado Monday morning to address the high school assembly.

It will be the youthful statesman's first public appearance here since his nomination in the second Democratic primary. He will come again the second week in November, and for three weeks thereafter, in his present capacity as district attorney.

The public is invited to hear George (even his opponents called him George) at 10:25 a. m. He has been asked to speak on his attitude, as a federal representative, toward education.

An Omaha man says he heard a banker make the same speech 50 times. It's enough to make him abandon the idea of securing the loan.

Methodist Church

At 7:15 o'clock next Sunday evening a Christian Japanese service will be reproduced, including a program comparing the value of other religions in Japan with those of Christianity. Mrs. A. C. Preuit and Mrs. John G. Whitmore, study leaders of the two missionary societies, will direct the program.

There will be six characters in Japanese costumes meeting in the home of a Christian native in a friendly visit discussing the different religions of the country. You will enjoy it as well as get a wonderful lesson. Don't miss this service—bring your Bibles wrapped in a silk handkerchief—Japanese style.

The Board of Stewards is called for a meeting Tuesday evening, November 6, at 7:00 o'clock. A chicken supper will be served, after which the drive for balance of the budget will begin in earnest. The meeting will be in the dining room of the church. The new stewards elected last Sunday night will take their places at the beginning of the new response year November 18.

The response to the church rally during the month of October has been fine; the attendance at both church and Sunday school has been very materially increased. So far we have received 26 new members, making a total of 43 for the year. Let us continue our efforts to the close of the year.

Our church year ends November 15, at which time the annual conference will convene at the First Methodist Church, Abilene. The time is short, so let every member make the best contribution possible during the next two weeks in order that we may raise the balance of the budget for the year.

The pastor will preach at Ft. Worth next Sunday night, and hold the last quarterly conference of the year for the Ft. Worth charge. A cordial welcome awaits you at the Methodist Church.—S. H. Young, pastor.

There can't be a revolution. Every time you catch a radical preacher and give him responsibility, he goes conservative on you.

First Baptist Church

Sunday school—9:45 a. m. Morning worship—10:50 a. m. The pastor will preach on "The New Testament Church." There will be special music.

Baptist Training Service—6:15 p. m. Evening worship—7:30 p. m. The subject will be "The Second Coming of Christ." A quartet will sing. At the evening hour a report will be given as to the result of collections for Pay-Up Sunday. Welcome to the church with a growing fellowship.—Lawrence Hays, pastor.

It takes a pretty good architecture to look well in these modern brevities. The old slogan will have to be changed to "Don't sell Americans shorts."

HOME IMPROVEMENTS

MODERNIZE NOW!

CONCRETE STEPS

THE first place in the house to wear out and decay is the flight of outside wooden steps. Why not recondition with concrete steps? They are safe, non-slippery in wet weather, and last indefinitely. They are easily kept clean and are absolutely rot-proof.

Simple forms for building them are shown in the drawing on this page. Either 1 inch or 2 inch lumber may be used for forms, whichever is available.

Concrete should be of a rather stiff consistency and contain sufficient mortar to produce smooth, even surfaces.

Finish with a wood float so as to produce a smooth, yet gritty surface. Curing should be done in the approved manner.

MANY FEEDERS GO BORROWING

Approximately 1,000 loans for the purchase of live stock feed have been made through the Scurry County emergency live stock feed loan office since July, Manager Charles J. Lewis said yesterday. Demand for the loans continues to be heavy, Mr. Lewis said. The office is located in the district court room. Two or three helpers have been necessary a portion of the time in order to keep up with loan applications.

Allred Supports One Amendment, Condemns No. 3

Governor-elect James V. Allred doesn't want the voters, when they go to the polls November 6, to confuse the proposed property-classification amendment (No. 1 on the ballot), which he heartily favors, with the proposed state tax-limiting amendment (No. 3 on the ballot), which he declares is "opposed to the best interests of Texas."

The governor-designate repeated recently that, as he said in his recent radio speech, he is definitely against the state tax-limiting proposal.

"Proposed amendment No. 3 is far-reaching in its scope," he wired the Texas Good Roads Association in response to a request for his statement. "It provides in substance that the maximum amount which can be collected by the state government from all character of taxes (including licenses, permits and fees) shall be $22.50 per capita for each two years; that is to say, the state government shall not collect during any one year a greater total of taxes from all sources than $11.25 multiplied by the total number of people in Texas.

"This is the amendment vigorously opposed by practically all of our school people and by various other organizations, including the Texas State Teachers' Association, the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, the Texas branch of the American Association of University Women, the Ex-Students Association of the University of Texas and the Association of Former Students of A. & M. College. Likewise the recent state Democratic Convention in Galveston passed a resolution asking that this amendment be defeated.

"Some people have gained the impression that the amendment which I favor is the same amendment opposed by these friends of education. Not so. On the contrary, I am sure that we are heartily in accord and that every true friend of education in Texas is in favor of the adoption of amendment No. 1 and the rejection of amendment No. 3.

S. M. U. Ponies Do Stuff in New York; Beat Fordham 26 to 14

Roby Lions Loom as District Champs After 18-6 Trouncing of Snyder Crew

Roby Lions practically eliminated the local Tigers from the district 13 championship picture last Friday afternoon, winning on the day Fisher County field, 18 to 6.

At the same time, they continued their undefeated race for the district bunting, and loom as easy favorites. Roscoe Plowboys walloped Anson, probably the weakest sister in the district, 38 to 0, to play second fiddle to Roby. Roscoe has won three; Roby, four. Neither has won three; Roby, four. Neither has won three; Roby, four.

Haskell Indians, who tied the home squad two weeks ago, whipped Rotan, 28 to 0.

Snyder Tied for Third.

These lopsided wins leave Haskell and Snyder tied for third position in the district nine-team line-up.

The Tigers are idle this week, but will entertain Roscoe November 9 in a crucial game.

Back to the Roby affair last Friday—if anyone cares to read the disastrous details.

It was probably the worst beating a local football team ever received at Roby, and the Lions have not come closer than a tie (1933) in recent years.

Quarterback Tommy Beene, the little man who led his mates to a tie here last year, was the chief fly in the Tiger ointment, and Headstream, a heavy fullback, was not far behind. Tommy put a star in his crown when he raced 74 yards for a touchdown after he received the first lick-off following the half. Almost perfect interference allowed him to make the jaunt almost untouched.

Twice they advanced the ball within the 20-yard line only to lose it on fumbles. The third time broke the jinx, and Huestis went over by inches on fourth down.

Several long passes, Huestis to Beavers, were completed. Wiese and Wolcott came to life with pretty runs, too. The fierceness of this late Tiger rally is reflected in the fact that Snyder is credited with six first downs to Roby's three.

Beavers, Clark and Orenshaw looked good on the Tiger wall with J. Beene, Ballio and Henry standing out for Roby.

It is estimated that bacteria on the roots of alfalfa and sweet clover annually add 85 million pounds of nitrogen to the soil in the state of Illinois. At average market prices, this nitrogen would be worth eight and one-half million dollars.

Life begins at forty, according to Walter Pittkin, but so many women are reluctant to begin.

In Kansas, officers of the law hold target practice on a picture of Dillinger. A constable can be pushed just so far.

First Monday Will Be Live Time Here

The first Monday in November is expected by horse and mule traders, as well as other trades day followers, to be one of the year's best days of its kind.

In the first place, a lot of trading is going on, especially in the work stock and similar lines. Too, a lot of folks are getting ready for their annual moving spree. First Monday should be a champion.

DEATH CLAIMS AGED RESIDENT

One of the county's oldest residents, Mrs. Alice Caffey, died yesterday at the home of her son, Will Caffey, at Hermleigh. She was 90 years of age.

Rev. C. W. Young, pastor of the Hermleigh Methodist Church, will conduct rites this (Thursday) afternoon, 3:00 o'clock, with Odum Funeral Home in charge.

Rites Will Be Held For Mrs. Dee Allen

Death ended a lingering illness for Mrs. Dee Allen, 28, yesterday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Henderson, in East Snyder. Mr. Allen, a small son and several other near relatives survive.

Rites were to be held this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the First Methodist Church, with Rev. S. H. Young, assisted by Rev. Lawrence Hays, officiating. Odum Funeral Home will be in charge, and burial will be in the Snyder cemetery.

The extent of the damage to the lightning is as yet not described.

Invitation Extended For Special Sermon

The Church of Christ extends a cordial invitation to Snyder and surrounding communities to worship with them next Sunday. A special lesson will be given at the evening service, 7:00 o'clock, by the minister, on "Bible Classes and Women Teachers." Special attention will be given to Paul's language in I Cor. 14:34 and I Tim. 2:11-12, according to Bro. Dial.

The minister will leave after the Sunday services for several weeks' stay in California, where he will conduct meetings. He especially urges all who can be present for Sunday services.
