Roscoe Plowboys Coming Friday for Annual Battle With Tigers

LARGEST CROWD OF SEASON TO WATCH CRUCIAL DISTRICT GAME

Three O'clock Is Starting Time; Visitors Will Stay in League Picture If They Win.

Roscoe Plowboys, perennial gridiron foes of the Snyder Tigers, will come to town Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock for the season's most attractive Tiger Field game.

Anything may happen in a Roscoe-Snyder game. That is why the grandstand and sidelines will probably be jammed to capacity with hundreds of folks from Roscoe, Roby and Scurry County.

Coming annually during the Armistice holiday period, the clash always has championship possibilities. This year the air is taut with all the elements that make football a national delirium.

If Roscoe Wins—If Roscoe wins, her Plowboys will probably go on to win the district 13 championship, or at least tie for it with the Roby Lions, who also have an undefeated record. Roscoe has not been scored on this season. Her victims include Merkel and Colorado.

If Snyder wins, she will have a mathematical chance at the district title. Her Tigers have won two conference starts, lost one to Roby, and tied Haskell.

There will be Plowgirls, too. The purple and white pep squad of 33 members will be among those present in a motorcade of several hundred people that is planning to leave Roscoe at 1:30 o'clock. Snyder will have her 50-member pep squad on hand, of course, and the snappy Tiger Band under direction of Fred P. Rattan.

Boys in Good Shape.

Both elevens are in good shape for the crucial battle. The Tigers scrimmaged vigorously Tuesday afternoon, and they were put through fast paces all this week. Coach "Red" Hill says his lads are in as good shape, physically and fightingly, as they have been this season.

During the past five years both squads have been in the championship picture most of the time. In that time, Snyder has won three times, Roscoe has won once, and last year's battle was tied.

Admission prices remain unchanged—20 and 35 cents.

Following are probably starting line-ups of the two elevens:

Roscoe	Snyder
Ward	Crenshaw
Hawkins	Left End	Patterson
Moore	Center	Moffett
Stevens	Right Guard	Morgan
Stewart	Right Tackle	Beavers
Coleman	Right End	Wolcott
H. Jones	Left Halfback	W. Boren
P. Jones	Right Halfback	P. Johnson
Emerson	Fullback	Huestis
	Quarterback

Attend Stanton Funeral. H. H. Eiland and family, Mrs. John Cox and daughter and Mrs. Ethel Eiland attended the funeral of Mr. Eiland's uncle, W. D. Smith, in Stanton Sunday.

Vegetables Grown in Relief Project Valued at $248.80

The needy of Scurry County have received vegetables valued at $248.80 from the relief garden this season, the home demonstration agent announced yesterday.

This cash value was placed on 6,220 pounds of vegetables of many varieties.

The garden consists of a plot 118 by 124 feet, sub-irrigated by concrete tile. It was provided jointly by the city, county and relief administration, just northwest of the Snyder square.

These vegetables have been produced: Swiss chard, 659 pounds; pinto beans, 420 pounds; black-eyed peas, 450 pounds; lima beans, 78 pounds; radishes, 106 pounds; spinach, 105 pounds; beets, 735 pounds; turnip and rape greens, 3,667 pounds.

ANNUAL POPPY DAY SALE SET FOR SATURDAY

Red Flowers Made by Hands of Disabled Veterans to Be Sold By Auxiliary Women.

On Saturday morning, November 10, the people of Scurry County will be offered little red poppies to wear in memory of the World War dead. They will also be offered an opportunity to contribute to the welfare of the war's living victims.

All day Saturday members of the American Legion Auxiliary will be on the streets with baskets of the poppies and with coin boxes to receive contributions in exchange for the memorial flowers.

The custom of wearing poppies in memory of the war dead is 15 years old this year, and is generally observed throughout the English-speaking world. In the United States the women of the American Legion Auxiliary have developed it into a great national program for commemorating the service of those who died and for bringing aid to those who sacrificed health and strength in the nation's service.

Explaining the program, Mrs. J. E. Shipp, poppy chairman of Snyder unit of the Auxiliary, said: "The Auxiliary and Legion will sell 1,000 poppies."

"The funds donated for the little red memorial flowers will go to support the work of the Legion and Auxiliary for the welfare of the disabled veterans and the children left fatherless by the war. The bulk of the funds collected here will be used by the local Legion and Auxiliary organizations in meeting the needs of disabled veterans and the needy children of veterans in this county during the coming year."

"Every penny of the dimes, quarters and dollars dropped into the contribution boxes of the poppy workers Saturday, above the base cost of the materials in the flowers, will go to the disabled and their children. The poppies have been made by disabled veterans and the workers who will distribute them on the streets have volunteered their services."

"Croak" Published For Fluvanna Again

Another "Croak" is being heard from the Fluvanna end of the county.

First issue of this season's Fluvanna school paper will be delivered Friday afternoon from the Times plant. It is being financed by a liberal supply of ads from Fluvanna and Snyder, and by funds raised in a whirlwind subscription contest that ended last week.

"The Croak" is being edited and managed as follows: editor-in-chief, Aven Shipman; assistant editor, Frances Jones; business manager, Murrel Lemons; assistant business manager, Charles Dietz; social editor, Izora Patterson; sports editor, Lucian Thomas.

Several Snyder stores will be closed Monday to commemorate Armistice Day, but others have announced that they plan to remain open all day.

New Features in Enlarged Times Benefit Readers

The Times comes to you this week 16 pages strong, with an array of new features that have been selected with a view to making this paper of greatest possible interest to all members of the family.

Some of the best known writers of the country will be regular contributors to The Times during the coming weeks. There will be a serial story by Zane Grey, a weekly letter from Washington, a comic section, and other features of family-wide interest.

These features, as well as several added articles of strictly county interest, are being brought to subscribers this week, for the first time, in a 16-page edition.

Here, briefly, are a few of the new features that you will find in The Times beginning this week: A Washington letter, in which William Bruckart, veteran correspondent, interprets events at the national capital in a way to give you a clear idea of just what it all means to you and your neighbors.

"This Week," a column of comment on the news of the week by Arthur Brisbane, one of the most brilliant letters of the age and for many years the highest paid newspaper editor in the United States.

A column of characteristic comment by Will Rogers, who is too well known to all newspaper readers to need any introduction.

Five columns of "funnies"—cartoons and strip comics by well known artists—that father and mother will enjoy just as much as the youngsters.

"Captain D. L. Payne, 'Cimarron Scout' and 'Father of Oklahoma,'" a four-column special feature article by Elmo Scott Watson.

Starting in next week's edition there will be a liberal installment of that stirring, colorful western story, "Robbers' Roost," by Zane Grey, one of the best known and most popular American authors.

All of these, and other interesting features, together with all of the news of your own community, you will find in The Times hereafter.

Club Women Plan To Attend Texas Federation Meet

Several local club women plan to attend the annual convention of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, which will be held at the new permanent headquarters in Austin, November 12-16. A splendid program has been arranged and a large attendance is expected, according to Mrs. Volney W. Taylor of Brownsville, president.

Special features on the four-day program will include a president's conference on the afternoon of the 12th, with discussions to be led by district presidents; a "Texas Dinner," featuring the 1936 Centennial, on the 13th, with Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker as speaker; "Pioneer Dinner" and fine arts program on the 14th; junior day and president's evening on the 15th. The speaker for president's day will be a man of international reputation, S. Miles Bouton.

The Driskill Hotel in Austin will be convention headquarters.

Mrs. Alice S. Caffey Buried Thursday in Hermleigh Cemetery

Rites were held Thursday afternoon last week, at the Hermleigh Methodist Church, for Mrs. Alice S. Caffey, 90-year-old county resident who passed away Wednesday at the home of her son, Will Caffey, in Hermleigh.

Rev. C. W. Young was assisted in conducting services by Rev. M. H. Hudson. Odom Funeral Home was in charge. Burial was in the Hermleigh cemetery.

ROLL CALL CAMPAIGN TO BEGIN IN CITY-COUNTY NEXT TUESDAY

Every Community Expected to Be Reached in Personal Campaign Under Direction Of Maurice Brownfield and Aides.

Tuesday of next week has been set as opening day for the Scurry County and Snyder Red Cross Roll Call campaigns.

Material is going forward to the chairmen in all communities, according to Maurice Brownfield, Roll Call chairman. Workers are being urged to complete a personal canvass of their communities next week, if possible, but not later than November 29.

Chairmen in the larger communities are as follows: Fluvanna, E. H. McCarter Jr.; Dunn, J. C. Beakley; Hermleigh, Luther Fargason; Ira, H. M. Blackard; Pyron, Tom Weaver. Names of others will be published next week.

R. H. Odom will be in charge of a corps of business district workers here. Mrs. Max Brownfield will supervise the residential work in Snyder, which is to be done again this year by club women. Frank Farmer is in general charge of the rural organization.

"With the knowledge the local citizenship has gained of the Red Cross in recent years," the Roll Call director said, "anything but a swift, successful campaign is inconceivable. Because so many more of us have seen it in action during the depression period, there are few who do not recognize that the organization has become a vital part of our community life. Its work must go on—and will, with the individual support of local citizens."

FALL TERM OF COURT BEGINS HERE MONDAY

New District Attorney Comes on Job First Time for Four-Week Scurry County Session.

District court will be opened here at 10:00 o'clock Monday morning by Judge A. S. Mauzey.

The four-week Scurry County session of the court will introduce a new district attorney, whose name is expected to be made public today by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson.

Appointment of another prosecuting attorney became necessary when George Mahon, newly-elected congressman, forwarded his resignation to Mrs. Ferguson early this week. District court attaches are expecting the appointment of Geo. W. Outlaw of Sweetwater, who was elected to take the office January 1, 1935.

A full docket faces the court. Indications are that it will be the most active term that Scurry County has witnessed in the past two or three years.

METHODISTS IN MEETING SOON

Pastors and laymen of the Northwest Texas Methodist conference, which convenes in annual session at Abilene November 14-18, are preparing to make the 1934 meeting one of the best on record. Rev. S. H. Young of the First Methodist Church, Snyder, said yesterday.

Scurry County will be represented by a number of laymen and laywomen, in addition to the following pastors: Rev. Young, Snyder; Rev. C. W. Young, Hermleigh; Rev. Grady Anderson, Dunn; Rev. Frank Story, Fluvanna.

Auction Features Annual Legion Fun Fest Tuesday

Everything from mouse traps to hair oil, and from long-handle drawers to hand soap, went on the auctioneer's block Tuesday night at the annual American Legion fun fest.

"Red" Townsend, already famous as a Barker at horse sales, mule sales, harness sales and hardware sales, added a new feather to his cap as he bid the odds and ends, donated by Snyder merchants, up to 25, 35 and 50 cents. A. C. Pruitt will be in general charge of the auction. Proceeds went into the Legion treasury.

About 135 Legionnaires, Auxiliary members and guests were on hand to make merry at the auction, take part in a membership contest, and fill their faces with baked ham sandwiches, potato salad, cake, pie and coffee. Members of the Auxiliary were responsible for the sweets, while the Legion committee composed of Boss Baze, Bill Nichols and Harry Lee did the rest of the providing. Cliff Birdwell and A. C. Pruitt were winners of 10-cent memberships in the lively contests.

Escaped Pair in Jail at Lubbock After Recapture

Virgil Stalcup, above, and Clarence Brown, accused of slaying Sheriff W. B. Arthur in a jail break at Dickens October 27, were captured on the coast last Friday. Brown calls Snyder his home. An aggregate of 99 years in prison sentences are over his head.

Virgil Stalcup, above, and Clarence Brown, who twice escaped from the Dickens jail, were recaptured on the coast last week, and have been placed in the Lubbock County jail. They are faced with murder charges in connection with the slaying of Sheriff W. B. Arthur when they made their last break for freedom October 27.

Stalcup, under sentences aggregating 254 years, and Brown, a former Snyder resident with sentences totaling 99 years, admitted their jail break, and both are reported by officers to have said that Stalcup fired the fatal shot.

The young Panhandle desperado had been captured near Glarendon only a few days before the second break, and Brown was caught by local officers at his home here.

Brown told Harris County officers that he and Stalcup ran Sheriff Arthur's car, in which they had made their escape, into the Brazos River, after they had stolen another car at Calvert.

A write-in campaign in Dickens County Tuesday gave the sheriff's job to John Koonsman, who was defeated by Sheriff Arthur in the democratic primaries.

Bison Girl Papers And Paints Room in 4-H Club Project

Papering the walls and ceiling with a light colored paper, and painting the wood work a cream color are the things which La Verne Miller of Bison is doing to improve her bedroom.

She wishes to increase the apparent size, and this she will do by selection of design for the walls. She also wishes to improve the lighting of the room, which has only one window. This she will do by papering the ceiling, which is now painted a dark color, and by painting the wood work. She will also replace a dark window shade with a light one.

Other improvements will be the refinishing of an old wood table, which will be used as a study table, and the adding of a small set of shelves for the storage of books.

IN TOW AGAIN

Virgil Stalcup, above, and Clarence Brown, accused of slaying Sheriff W. B. Arthur in a jail break at Dickens October 27, were captured on the coast last Friday. Brown calls Snyder his home. An aggregate of 99 years in prison sentences are over his head.

FIRST SESSION OF INSTITUTE TO BE HELD AT 7:30 P. M. THURSDAY

Election Interest At Low Ebb Here And in All the State

Tuesday's general election was one of the slowest vote-casting days seen around here in recent years. Complete returns from three county boxes indicate that only about one-third the first-pollination vote was cast. The Commissioners' Court will check official returns Monday.

Scurry County followed the state in voting against all the amendments, with the possible exception of the University land tax measure, these partial returns indicate. Out of more than 300 votes reported, only three were for Republican candidates.

Late returns from the nation show that Democrats are more strongly entrenched than at any time since the Republican Party was organized, before the Civil War. They have far more than two-thirds majorities in both houses of Congress.

SHORT TURKEY CROP TO BEGIN MOVING SOON

Dressing Plant and Three Buying Establishments Ready to Rush Birds to Market.

Movement of Scurry County's turkey crop, which has been cut almost in half by drought and high priced feed, is expected to begin early next week, say local producers. No definite opening date for the Thanksgiving market has yet been announced.

Snyder offers turkey producers three experienced buying establishments and a complete dressing plant. The Snyder Produce Company will use 100 to 200 persons in preparing turkeys for shipment to eastern markets. The Farmers Produce Company, operated by Dock Bynum, and Bob Terry's produce house, will purchase birds on the open market.

While this county's turkey crop is cut almost in half, the remainder of the state reports a three-fourths crop. As a result—and because of a limited demand in eastern markets—the price level will probably not be stilted.

Turkeys, as a rule, are not in extra good condition, although some raisers have been fattening their fowls despite the high cost of feed.

INDIAN 'CHIEF' TALKS TO BOYS

An honorary Blackfoot Indian chief was the Monday night guest-speaker of Charlie Ben Shel's American Legion Boy Scout troop. He is Rev. Archie Mac Nab Wilson, native of Scotland, world traveler, who is conducting Sunday services at the First Presbyterian Church for three weeks. The minister gave details of how he was made a chief of the Blackfoot tribe on a Montana reservation, and also outlined other interesting experiences. He has been a scout for many years.

E2M Sisterhood Has Charge of Program

Miss Estine Dorward was mistress of ceremonies for the chapel program sponsored by the E2M Sisterhood at the local high school Friday morning. Miss Effie McLeod, head of the high school English department, is sponsor for the club.

The program was outstanding, state students present for the assembly. Miss Dorward told the "History of the Good Book Movement"; "The Value of Good Books" was discussed by Louise Jones; "The Virtue of a Good Book" was given by Mabel Watkins; Maxine Huckabee's subject was "Our Present Library"; and Mrs. Odell Ryan, a grammar school teacher, gave a review of "A Lantern in Her Hand" novel by Aldrich.

Employers and Employees in All Parts of Scurry Invited to Attend Two Meetings.

Henry W. Stanley, nationally known authority on economics and business, will open a two-day Institute of Business here tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 o'clock, in the district court room.

The institute is absolutely free to merchants, professional men and others of this trade territory who are interested in expansion and improvement of their businesses.

The second session of the institute will be held Friday evening at the same time and place. Both sessions will close promptly at 9:30 o'clock.

Subjects will be chosen by Mr. Stanley from this list: "The Merchandising Outlook," "Salesmanship—the Keystone in the Arch of Business," "Making the Sale," "Suggestive Selling," "Advertising for the 1935 Volume."

A question box will be conducted at each meeting. Anyone having a question on the subjects listed above is asked to prepare his question in written form and present it to Mr. Stanley at the close of the first lecture each evening. As far as time will permit each question will be answered in the meeting and written reply will be given those which time will forbid answering.

Round-table discussions will also be featured.

Dallas Wholesale Merchants Association is offering the services of this merchandising authority in the belief that as Dallas is a recognized market center, it should assist in every way possible the merchants who patronize it.

Service to Merchants. An unusual feature of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce representative's visit here will be a confidential service to the individual merchant. Mr. Stanley, during the day, is arranging to devote his time to a study of the problems of the individual merchant.

In view of the fact that the speaker who bears a national reputation as an authority on merchandising, is to be here without cost to our business men the Chamber of Commerce and The Times urge every merchant and salesperson to attend the opening lecture. No books or courses will be sold following this institute and no charges are made for individual consultation. The service is a gesture of good-will toward Snyder on the behalf of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce and the Dallas Wholesale Merchants Association in recognition of the patronage extended to the wholesale market by local merchants.

Special invitation is extended the merchants of Dunn, Ira, Fluvanna and Hermleigh.

RED & WHITE STORES ARE UNIQUE

The local Red and White stores are important cogs in a nationwide organization of between 15,000 and 20,000 independent owned stores, which has introduced a new vogue in merchandising methods in the grocery fields. The local stores are sponsored by the H. O. Woolen Grocery Company wholesale grocery.

Ten years ago many grocers thought that methods in vogue continue along fixed lines for an indefinite period. However, changes came in buying habits of the public, induced largely by the war, and economic pressure. Experiments in supplying goods to consumers without service and the public response which attended efforts to sell goods for less were important among these changes which offered the retail grocer opportunity to pioneer. Numerous plans were evolved, tried and failed; but among those which succeeded was the Red and White plan first instituted in Buffalo, New York, in 1921, but which, because of its success in giving to the consumer the utmost in price appeal and quality with no sacrifice in service, soon expanded into a nation-wide organization.

Every one of these stores is owned and operated by one of your fellow citizens, who, in most cases, has been born and reared in your town and who keeps 100 per cent of his profit in your town, where it is put back into circulation in ways that are beneficial to the community. These independent owners have formed an organization whose buying power as a whole has enabled them to offer prices to consumers unsurpassed by any other organization, with no sacrifice in quality.

Go to the Red and White stores and compare them with the ordinary grocery store, which has gradually but completely gone out of existence. In contrast with the stores of a generation ago, the Red and White stores are years ahead in even the minutest details.

Red and White stores have, in cooperation with national food distributing organization, liberated you from restriction of season, and you are now able to obtain from them the world's finest food products almost without regard to time of year or distance from the source of production.

Other grocery organizations have admittedly achieved similar results, but to Red and White stores goes the distinction of offering price appeal, unusual quality and still operating on the service basis upon which the retail food business of America is firmly founded.

Palms and large bowls of roses were used as decorations for the chapel. The bride chose as her costume for the wedding a frock of royal blue sheer. Her accessories were of black, and she carried an arm bouquet of roses.

Mrs. Lawrence attended the high school here three years, and she is a graduate of Lubbock High School. She entered Texas Technological College in Lubbock last year, and was chosen by a New York artist as the most beautiful girl on the campus. VALUABLE SERVICE BY LAUNDRY

The Snyder Laundry & Dry Cleaners at 1931 25th Street features special family services at pound rates which are highly economical.

Modern laundry owners of the United States are affiliated together in an organization known as the National Laundry Owners' Association, the purpose of which is to develop better laundry practices. They maintain a one million dollar plant in Joliet, Illinois, in which washing formulas, supplies and methods are tested and improved as well as a research fellowship in the Mellon Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where textiles and fabrics are tested for wear and laundability. There is also a state association in every state in the Union, all of which extend to and receive from each other any new ideas that are beneficial to laundry practice.

The Snyder Laundry & Dry Cleaners have access to these findings with the result that their methods represent the last word in laundry practice. This extensive knowledge combined with their special equipment enables them to do a quality of work impossible to duplicate by an individual lacking this knowledge.

Their rates on various special services are also appealing to the discriminating housewife who demands high quality work as well as economy. Their rough dry where flat work is ironed and finished and wearing apparel returned dry and starched, and their family finish, where everything is ironed and finished and priced on a pound basis for flat work and wearing apparel, are two extremely economical services.

Another thing not generally known is that all clothing sent to the laundry is thoroughly sterilized so that it is impossible for contagious diseases to spread in this manner. The Board of Health of New York City as well as those of other cities have repeatedly stated that laundries were of immeasurable value in helping to prevent the spread of contagious diseases because of this fact.

Call number 211 for further information regarding the services and prices that the Snyder Laundry & Dry Cleaners make available. They also maintain a complete cleaning and pressing plant with only first class work featured. Remember that only the well-equipped and expertly informed laundry can supply you with high quality work.

L. Mosley, Fred Johnson, Melvin Willis, Weldon Hart, Jack Hamilton, B. Clements, J. C. Pitner and the honoree.

All of the guests were delivered home after the party on a hay ride.

CONCRETE TILE AT HERMLEIGH

Making 800 feet of concrete tile to be used in his garden is the thing that Neal Parr of Hermleigh has done in preparation for next year's garden.

Mr. Parr expects to lay 1,200 feet. A garden of this size will produce a great many vegetables for fresh use and for canning, as control of moisture affords intensive successive planting throughout the growing season.

Many other farmers are making tile during spare time in order to have it on hand when needed, and to get it prepared before freezing weather.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Curry of Blanket and Mr. and Mrs. Chet Coleman of Miles visited in the home of Mrs. A. M. Curry during the week-end.

Favorites Win All Friday Grid Games

Roby, Roscoe and Haskell continued their victory marches in district 13 gridiron circles last week-end, with wins over Merkel, Rotan and Hamlin, respectively. Snyder, Stamford and Anson were idle.

Headstream started in the Roby-Merkel mix-up, as the Lions won 13 to 0. First downs were nine to seven, Roby.

Captain Mack Jones led the Plowboys in piling up a 20 to 0 score against Rotan.

Adkins shared with Jack and John Kimbrough the scoring honors at Haskell as the Indians whipped Hamlin, 25 to 0. First downs were 13 to 7, Haskell.

Mrs. Mary E. Banks, local Spencer coeditor, attended a district meeting at Lubbock last Wednesday and Thursday. She was accompanied to Lubbock by her son, Adrian, who visited relatives there.

ENLARGE OIL COMPANY SERVICE

The Sinclair Refining Company has set the pace in quality products and service to patrons. Its products, Sinclair H. C., Sinclair with Ethyl and U. S. gasolines, and Sinclair-Opaline and Sinclair pure Pennsylvania motor oil, distributed by R. H. Curmutte, local agent.

The amazing manner in which the automobile industry has, in the last quarter century, mushroomed into a position that now makes it one of the five leading industries of the world, has been responsible for the development of the oil industry into one equally as large. From a business whose products were marketed in a limited field which, due to the increasing use of gas and electricity, was rapidly diminishing, it has grown side by side with the automobile industry.

In this respect the Sinclair Refining Company has, since it was originally established, been regarded as a leader in producing and marketing these products, in both service to patron and quality of

In the past few years this company has established bulk plants and offices in the smaller communities and cities throughout the United States, and the thoroughness with which it has covered the country has been overshadowed only by the quality of its products and the apparent desire of its representatives and employees to serve the public pleasantly, efficiently and courteously.

This company, through its local agent, R. H. Curmutte, distributes Sinclair regular H. C., Sinclair with ethyl and U. S. gasolines, Sinclair Opaline and Sinclair pure Pennsylvania oils, kerosene and kindred products through its service stations and from its local bulk plant; and its trucks deliver everywhere in the Snyder trade territory.

Sinclair products are products which give results. Refined from the world's highest grade crude oils in modern refining equipment known, both are unexcelled in the spirited power and protection they lend a motor.

Both can be obtained at any of the numerous Sinclair stations in Snyder and vicinity, which can be identified by the big H. C. sign, and at which the attendant will gladly extend every courtesy making for super service.

If you are not already a confirmed user of Sinclair products a trial will convince you that their reputation is warranted.

State Advisory Nurse Rushes Lions Through Fast Health-Giving Paces

Members of the Lions Club were dizzy with health ideas when they gathered for their Tuesday meeting at the Manhattan Hotel.

They had been taken in tow by Miss Olga Buresh, advisory nurse of the Texas State Department of Health, who put them through a series of vegetables, hand washings, milk diets and questionnaires that left many of them wondering how they had wandered through life so far.

At the Manhattan door the members were pinned down with bouillottes of peas in the shell. Just outside the dining room door they used water from an oil can, liquid soap, paper towels and toothpicks, for hands and fingernails.

Inside, an array of vegetables, some of them dressed like animals, decorated the tables. Everyone had milk; no coffee or tea was allowed. The tall twister saw to that.

Health songs, headlining milk were sung. Capsules containing humorous and serious health reminders were passed to each member and guest.

Then the questionnaire. Each diner answered a group of questions concerning his personal health, much to the dismay of a few. Joe Edinson received first prize—a bottle of Isterine—for being the biggest liar, and Harold Brown won the colored wash rag for making low score on the personal health questions.

Miss Buresh arranged the special program in order to acquaint the men with some of the simple health lessons that are being stressed in the West Texas area she serves.

She placed special emphasis on careful reporting of deaths and births in this county, and urged the Lions to do their part in seeing that Texas remains in the birth registration area.

Truitt Kennedy was introduced as a guest by his uncle, John E. Sentell.

Warning Issued to Mail Box Prankers By U. S. Official

Warning was issued from the local post office this week that those who tamper in any way with United States mail boxes or other mail receptacles are subject to heavy fines or imprisonment.

Mrs. Gladys M. Anderson, postmaster, states that several rural route mail boxes have been wilfully damaged recently, and that Snyder boxes have also been tampered with.

"Whoever shall wilfully or maliciously injure, tear down or destroy any mail box, or other receptacle intended or used for the receipt or delivery of mail on any mail route," the official ruling says, "or shall break open the same, or shall wilfully or maliciously injure, destroy or deface any mail deposited therein, or shall wilfully take or steal such mail from, or out of, such letter box or other receptacle, or shall wilfully aid or assist in any of the above-mentioned offenses, shall for every such offense be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than three years."

AGENT RUSHES COTTON PAPER

Cotton tax exemption certificates listed through the county agent's office in a national pool, were rushed to Washington early this week.

November 5 was the last day for farmers to list their surplus certificates.

The agent's office issues the statement that farmers who have not borrowed on their 1933 cotton options can now make application for loans. Plenty of blanks are in the local office.

Misses Charline Ely, Elsie Pearl Couch and Dorothy Mathews, all students in McMurry College, Abilene, spent the week-end here as guests of Miss Ely's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ely.

E. J. "Doc" Richardson, who has been associated with The Fair Store here, was transferred to Littlefield this week. Mrs. Richardson and children will join him there as soon as he locates a house.

MANY VISITORS GO TO SCHOOL

Visitation Day at the Snyder schools is proving popular with parents, faculty members report today.

Several parents visited classes in the morning, and a number of others came for assembly and for afternoon classes.

A special program in keeping with the National Education Week was given in the assembly, with the National Honor Society in charge.

New Assistant for County Agent Here

V. G. Young is the new assistant county agent employed in the office of W. R. Lacey. He comes from Henderson, in Rusk County.

The A. & M. man succeeds Homer Thompson, who recently resigned the position here to become a flying cadet at Randolph Field.

Young will assist chiefly with the cotton adjustment program.

FIRST OF SPLIT TAXES PAYABLE

W. W. Nelson, county tax collector, calls attention to the fact that the first installment on split county and state taxes is due not later than November 30.

The last half of the split taxes will be due in June.

Tax payments so far have been slow, Mr. Nelson said yesterday, because of pending action in the Legislature concerning split taxes.

COTTON MARKET IS ESSENTIAL

The Lee Cotton & Grain Company has long been established as one of Scurry County's leading cash buyers of cotton and grain, and is known as the farmer's friend.

W. B. Lee, sole owner.

The most important feature to be considered in any line of business, whether it be a manufacturing venture, a retail establishment or farming on a small or large scale, is the local facilities for marketing the products stocked or produced. We find that this is especially true in agricultural industries where cooperation and the banding together of the individuals participating in this vocation is hardly possible, since the problems presented in the various sections of the country vary to a great extent. Due to this fact, it is impossible for the farmers as a whole to satisfactorily carry out the work of marketing their products collectively.

Numerous individuals in all sections of the United States have taken cognizance of these facts and have formed organizations to aid the farmer in disposing of his products at the highest price obtainable. As in all lines of business, a percentage of these firms or individuals, so organized, have held the interest of the farmers foremost in their business policies, protecting them at every opportunity, meriting their confidence and enjoying a steadily increasing patronage until they have become a definite part of their community—others have taken the opposite course with absolute disregard for the producers' interest and have passed out of existence.

For over a quarter century W. B. Lee has served this section and he has always championed the farmers' cause and has lent his counsel and other facilities unhesitatingly to the community, securing and passing on to the farmers the highest prices that the market afforded, grading their products honestly and furnishing free late market reports in season. This has earned for him the name of being "Farmer's Friend"—a slogan that has been well merited; and it is with pleasure that we in this review remind the farmers of this entire section to bring cotton and grain to Snyder; see Mr. Lee, the farmers' friend, and enjoy the pleasant business relations that are always present in fair dealing.

AN INSTITUTION OF REAL SERVICE

The Odum Funeral Home has become a definite part of this community, realizes its responsibilities and has left nothing undone that would improve on the service that it makes available. R. H. Odum is Director.

In recent years the most progressive of funeral directors have assumed a position of importance in their communities almost equal to that of the church or school. They perform an essential community service, one requiring technical training, business ability and personal integrity. They also perform a wide variety of services which were formerly expected of others or left on the shoulders of the bereaved family.

For this reason the funeral director should be chosen as carefully as you would choose other professional services. Training, experience, personal integrity, facilities for service and a sympathetic desire to lighten the burden of the bereaved all enter into this problem.

In this respect a characteristic stamp has been placed upon the Odum Funeral Home service in their constant effort to attain a high degree of perfection. It has become known as a service distinguished by competency, dignity, sympathy and moderate cost.

Their chapel is commodious, with a seating capacity of about 175, and is beautifully appointed, and their least expensive funerals are given the advantage of this setting if desired. Their personnel, which includes Mr. and Mrs. Odum, who are both licensed embalmers and semi-surgeons and a lady attendant whose years of experience in this work makes their help and understanding invaluable in caring for our loved ones, and makes of these last rites a beautiful tribute to the deceased.

Their rolling equipment, which includes an ambulance and funeral coach, is modern and is complemented by approved cemetery equipment. Their service is available 24 hours of the day, and with their complete automobile equipment, they can serve remote districts as well as those near at hand and with perfect satisfaction.

NEED OF ADEQUATE FOOD CROPS HOLDS DOWN COTTON IN CHINA

High Prices Would Mean Increase In Fleecy Staple Planting in Oriental Country.

(Note to Readers: The effect of the AAA cotton programs on the foreign cotton situation is one of the liveliest questions in Texas today. Before returning to intemperate cotton production, Texans should examine this bogey of foreign competition. This is one of a series of articles prepared by the AAA on the basis of reliable statistics gathered by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Cotton acreage reduction campaigns in the South in 1905, 1915, 1921 and 1927 were acclaimed as life-savers to the South, but except for the 1905 campaign they were not very successful. The present Agricultural Adjustment program has effectively curbed production, removed a huge price-smashing surplus, helped cotton prices and started farm and business recovery. There are some, however, who question these gains because of the fear of surrendering cotton markets to foreigners.

This series basket cotton. Many areas are entirely shut off from the outside food supplies and must grow all their own food.

China had six million acres in cotton last year and this increased an estimated five to ten per cent this year. The estimated increase for this year is seven per cent over last year. Average yields of Cotton is high, being 206 pounds per acre over a period of years. The Japanese are a strong influence in China. They are attempting to develop the country, and this of course tends to increase cotton production. The average cotton production of the Chinese farmer in Kiangsu Province, which is a leading cotton section, is 37 acres. The average size of cotton patch per farm is slightly less than one-half per acre per farm. Modern gins are unknown in many sections. This means that ginning must be done by hand, but there is no lack of labor for this work.

If cotton prices should get so high in China that they are out of line with food prices, there would probably be a tendency to increase cotton acreage in certain parts of the country. The chances, however, are that cotton acreage will continue to grow very slowly. At present China offers little threat to the American cotton grower.

No one would deny that foreign competition in cotton growing is a constant threat to the South and this limits the importation of food into the interior where cotton is hard to market. Many areas are entirely shut off from the outside food supplies and must grow all their own food.

China had six million acres in cotton last year and this increased an estimated five to ten per cent this year. The estimated increase for this year is seven per cent over last year. Average yields of

Insurance is a recognized essential

The Boren-Grayum Insurance Agency in Snyder offers to this section a complete service in the insurance business. Hugh Boren and Fred A. Grayum, owners.

The modern insurance system that all big insurance companies use in their business policy is undoubtedly the greatest benefit that business men and property owners have. Just as life insurance is recognized by all capable financial authorities as being one of the finest investments an individual can make, not only for the protection that it offers his dependents, but also for the estate he creates, so, too, is property and general insurance considered to be one of the prime necessities of the crop grower and property owner.

When one investigates insurance rates of all kinds it is almost unbelievable that the owner of anything of tangible value would jeopardize his investment by lack of insurance and this is especially true when we think of the many things, over which we have no control, such as storms, fires and other acts of providence which might in a short time totally destroy our property. This property in many cases must be insured before it can be used as a basis of credit. In case of losses the insured is immediately indemnified and can replace the destroyed property and continue his business.

The Boren-Grayum Insurance Agency of Snyder has been in successful operation for almost half a century, and under the present management for the past nine years, and represents many companies that enjoy enviable reputations throughout the country. This firm sells fire, tornado, hail, automobile, plate glass, liability, and as a matter of fact, any known kind of insurance you may require, including life. No policy holder of theirs has ever lost one cent due to the financial difficulties of any company represented by them during their term of operation.

The business policy of this agency is one of public service. Careful and courteous attention will be given to any inquiry you wish to make. They cordially invite you to avail yourself of any advice you may seek touching on insurance needs.

They specialize in notary work of all kinds, giving all details careful attention. Their office is conveniently located, being the entire basement of the First State Bank & Trust Company building, fully equipped for every need and you will always find a welcome there.

Announcing... A New Type of Life Insurance Policy To Meet Today's Needs

We have originated and offer a new type of policy to meet today's needs. . . . A policy on the whole life, low cost term plan, issued at any age, without medical examination, in amounts of less than $1,000 when desired. . . . permits payments of premiums monthly.

This policy finds ready acceptance not only because of its liberal provisions, but because it is backed by a strong, well-known Old Line, Legal Reserve company, rated "A" by Best.

We write for ages from 5 to 21 years at rates of $1.20 per $100. We also have the Family Group Policy at rates as low as 90c per $100.

Crops Fair, But Cattle Poor For Winter In Texas

Friday Night Sand Prances Fiercely

Favorable weather conditions over most of Texas during the last month were beneficial to all growing crops, according to the Santa Fe report issued November 1.

Cattle will enter winter in the poorest condition on record, says the report. Ranges and pastures have shown some improvement, but still are far below requirements for winter grazing. Despite reduction due to government buying, there yet remain more cattle than prospective feed supply will carry.

Turkey movement will begin early this month. Indication is for a crop about three-fourths of normal.

Cotton picking and ginning are making rapid progress, and nearing completion, except in the northwest sections where harvesting is well under way. Leaf worms and weevils are numerous and active, and are stripping plants, hence there is little prospect of a size of cultivated tract per Chinese farmer in Kiangsu Province, which is a leading cotton section, is 37 acres. The average size of cotton patch per farm is slightly less than one-half per acre per farm. Modern gins are unknown in many sections. This means that ginning must be done by hand, but there is no lack of labor for this work.

If cotton prices should get so high in China that they are out of line with food prices, there would probably be a tendency to increase cotton acreage in certain parts of the country. The chances, however, are that cotton acreage will continue to grow very slowly. At present China offers little threat to the American cotton grower.

No one would deny that foreign competition in cotton growing is a constant threat to the South and this limits the importation of food into the interior where cotton is hard to market. Many areas are entirely shut off from the outside food supplies and must grow all their own food.

China had six million acres in cotton last year and this increased an estimated five to ten per cent this year. The estimated increase for this year is seven per cent over last year. Average yields of

Insurance is a recognized essential

The Boren-Grayum Insurance Agency in Snyder offers to this section a complete service in the insurance business. Hugh Boren and Fred A. Grayum, owners.

The modern insurance system that all big insurance companies use in their business policy is undoubtedly the greatest benefit that business men and property owners have. Just as life insurance is recognized by all capable financial authorities as being one of the finest investments an individual can make, not only for the protection that it offers his dependents, but also for the estate he creates, so, too, is property and general insurance considered to be one of the prime necessities of the crop grower and property owner.

When one investigates insurance rates of all kinds it is almost unbelievable that the owner of anything of tangible value would jeopardize his investment by lack of insurance and this is especially true when we think of the many things, over which we have no control, such as storms, fires and other acts of providence which might in a short time totally destroy our property. This property in many cases must be insured before it can be used as a basis of credit. In case of losses the insured is immediately indemnified and can replace the destroyed property and continue his business.

The Boren-Grayum Insurance Agency of Snyder has been in successful operation for almost half a century, and under the present management for the past nine years, and represents many companies that enjoy enviable reputations throughout the country. This firm sells fire, tornado, hail, automobile, plate glass, liability, and as a matter of fact, any known kind of insurance you may require, including life. No policy holder of theirs has ever lost one cent due to the financial difficulties of any company represented by them during their term of operation.

The business policy of this agency is one of public service. Careful and courteous attention will be given to any inquiry you wish to make. They cordially invite you to avail yourself of any advice you may seek touching on insurance needs.

They specialize in notary work of all kinds, giving all details careful attention. Their office is conveniently located, being the entire basement of the First State Bank & Trust Company building, fully equipped for every need and you will always find a welcome there.

Crops Fair, But Cattle Poor For Winter In Texas

Friday Night Sand Prances Fiercely

Favorable weather conditions over most of Texas during the last month were beneficial to all growing crops, according to the Santa Fe report issued November 1.

Many of Writers' Letters Are Late

Times publishers want to impress community writers this week with the fact that several news letters are arriving too late for publication, and others are arriving so late that getting them ready for the paper works a hardship on the entire Times force.

Please remember, writers, that your letters should reach the Times office not later than Tuesday afternoon, and, if possible, Monday afternoon or Tuesday morning. If you are not sure how your mail runs, please ask your postmaster or carrier. Early news means more news, a better paper, and more satisfaction for all concerned. If you are a Times correspondent, we know you will be glad to cooperate.

Seiberling Process Described by Hicks

"You wouldn't dry a wet fish one in a hot oven, would you?" asks J. R. Hicks, local Seiberling tire dealer, located on the northeast corner of the square. "Of course not, yet all tire manufacturers with the exception of Seiberling put their tires in an oven-like mold and bake them at 300 degrees F. from 40 to 120 minutes. No wonder hundreds of miles that you pay for are baked right out of them before they even leave the factory."

"Seiberling tires are cured by what is known as the Seiberling vapor cure process, which lets the tires soak in a gentle steam bath instead of a hot searing mold. "We are anxious to have all our

MOTOR LINE IMPROVES SERVICE

Snyder Transfer Company maintains regular schedules between Abilene, Lubbock, Lamesa, Big Spring and Intermediate Points. Offers Express Service at Freight Rates. Pete Bridgeman is Owner and Manager.

The achievement of the automobile industry in the last decade and a singular need for a swifter and more flexible mode of transportation have been the controlling factors in the establishment and almost phenomenal development of a new utility service—that of motor freight service.

At one time people were led to believe that motor trucks destroyed highways unscrupulously. However, honest investigation of the open records of the State Highway Department at Austin reveal an entirely different fact. These records show that motor trucks and busses in Texas pay more taxes than any other mode of transportation. They have, therefore, contributed much toward the rapid development of our roads and highways in the last decade.

Motor freight lines, with their rapid and flexible service and a friendly and courteous personnel, have been entirely responsible for a complete transformation in services offered by other transportation organizations. It is a well known fact that motor freight lines pioneered the movement for free pick-up and delivery service, thereby saving the shipper and consignee, not only in transfer charges but in time required for movement of freight. The shipping public can not forget conditions that were prevalent be-

Mother of Mrs. A. M. Curry Dies At Age of Eighty

Mrs. M. L. Teague of Waxahachie, aged 80 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. M. Curry, in Snyder, Sunday afternoon after an illness of six weeks. Odom Funeral Home, Snyder prepared the body, and it was carried to Waxahachie for burial by Spalding Undertakers, who had charge of the funeral service.

Last rites were had at the Sardis Church, near Waxahachie, Tuesday morning. Burial was in the Sardis cemetery.

Survivors include six children: Mrs. A. M. Curry of Snyder, Mrs. Minnie Jonte of Dallas, L. F. Teague of Rosser, Mrs. C. L. Verheyden of Waxahachie, Mrs. E. P. Thompson of Dallas, and Ike L. Teague of Waxahachie. Thirty-one grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren also survive.

Mrs. Curry and daughters, Mrs. Homer Snyder, Mrs. Rubye Littlepage and Miss Allene Curry, of Snyder were among funeral attendants. Mrs. Minnie Jonte of Dallas, who had been in Snyder for several weeks preceding her mother's death, also attended the services.

Friends and customers drop into our station," says Mr. Hicks, "and let us demonstrate and explain this Seiberling process."

Baptists Attending General Convention

Glenwood Trigg Is Coast Grid Captain

Word comes to L. B. Cope of Snyder that his grandson, Glenwood Trigg, is captain, quarterback and all-around star on the Jordan High School Panther grid team at Long Beach, California. Glenwood is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Trigg, former Snyder residents.

"Tex" Trigg's mates have virtually a cinch of their football league championship. They smothered Torrance High, 51 to 0, and Gardena Junior varsity, 25 to 0, recently. The former Snyder boy passed in one game for a total gain of 60 yards, and shot a 37-yard pass that led to a touchdown in the other game.

Ft. Worth Surgeon To India Eye Clinic

Dr. William S. Webb of Fort Worth, who is well known to a number of Scurry County people, will leave Saturday for India, where he will attend a 30-day clinic for removal of cataracts from afflicted eyes of Indian natives.

He will be located at Moga-Tasli, Punjab, India, in conjunction with other world-famous eye surgeons. The Fort Worth man is one of the few American eye surgeons and the only one in the Southwest to be honored with an invitation to operate in this world-famous eye clinic.

FIRE CHIEF POPULAR GASOLINE

Wholesaled by Gay McGlaun and retailed by Numerous Texas Service Stations in Snyder and Vicinity. Greater Fire Chief Gasoline and other Texaco products have gained an enviable reputation.

The growth of oil companies during the past quarter century has been one of the marvels of modern business and in this respect none has shown a more rapid expansion than the Texas Company. This company was established over 30 years ago and has grown in that time from a small company to one now operating in every state in the union and in over 100 different countries of the world. It is a thoroughly independent organization, with over 90,000 stockholders scattered throughout the United States and many foreign countries.

The Texas Company, through its local agent, Gay McGlaun, wholesales Texaco Crank-Proof Motor Oil, Havoline Wax Free Oil and their greater Fire Chief Gasoline. Fire Chief Gasoline was developed over two years ago because of the U. S. government's desire to secure a fuel with a high octane of antiknock rating and one providing quicker starts and speed with no sacrifice in power. Government specifications were used and Texaco Fire Chief gasoline was the result. It immediately gained popular favor and today it is an even better gasoline, for within the past year the Texas Company has added lead to it, which greatly increases its anti-knock rating as well as mileage results.

Texaco service stations, of which there are a number in Snyder and vicinity and which can be identified by the familiar Texaco red star and green "T," now have this gasoline for the convenience of all motorists. Attendants at these stations fill tires, batteries, radiators and extend other courtesies in keeping with good service.

Mr. McGlaun acts in the capacity of commission agent for the Texas Company, owns his own equipment, employs his own personnel and is justly regarded as a local business man, not subject to being transferred to some other community at the discretion of the Texas Company. One tank of Fire Chief Gasoline will convince you of its merits.

HOSPITAL IMPORTANT TO COUNTY

The Emergency Hospital in Snyder is daily rendering an important service to Scurry County residents. Located at 1875 1/2 25th Street.

Of all the institutions which go to make a small city commercially efficient none is of greater importance than the hospital. In this respect Snyder is fortunate in having the Emergency Hospital, one which is splendidly equipped and managed for a town of this size. This institution is prepared to care for its patients which come from all over this section of Texas in a competent way. A spirit of sympathy and understanding is reflected in the attitude of every employee and their policy indicates a sincere desire to serve with small regard for financial reward.

The Emergency Hospital has 10 adult beds, which are in private rooms and wards, as well as bassinets for children. It has a maternity delivery room, surgical laboratory and the entire establishment is equipped with modern hospital fixtures, including X-ray equipment.

The general opinion of people who have been patients in hospitals is that hospital charges are exorbitant, when as a matter of fact they are rarely high enough to pay the cost of operation. A survey made by representatives of the French Hospital in New York City last year showed that the average cost of keeping a patient in any one of the 30 leading hospitals investigated was $6.50 per day. This was actual cost to the hospital, exclusive of any profit whatsoever. This is startling news to the average person, for he fails to think of the tremendous amount of money invested in equipment as well as a multitude of expenses necessary for operation. It is of further interest to local residents to know that the rates of this institution are most economical and substantially lower than that quoted above. The Emergency Hospital is equipped to care for medical, surgical and obstetrical cases of any sort, including as they do, doctors of established ability on their staff. The satisfaction expressed by those who have been their patients is indicative of the results they achieve.

George Mahon's Resignation Set Early This Week

George Mahon of Colorado, congressman from the new 19th district, will not serve Scurry County as district attorney during the fall term, which opens Monday.

He wired his resignation as attorney of the 32nd judicial district to Governor Miriam A. Ferguson Monday night. The resignation became effective Wednesday night.

"George," who was completing his fourth term as district attorney, prosecuted his last case in district court at Colorado Monday.

The congressman's official statement to The Times reads as follows: "I am tendering my resignation as district attorney effective just after the election. It is a financial sacrifice for me to resign at this time, but I feel I owe it to the people of our congressional district to give all my time to my new duties, which are increasing daily. I shall never cease to have a feeling of gratitude in my heart for the people of Scurry County. It is my ambition to try to show my gratitude by doing all in my power to worthily represent them in Congress."

Sweetwater Plans Veteran Rodeo for Armistice Benefit

Sweetwater Legionnaires plan to stage an Armistice rodeo on Monday, November 12, at the Midway Exposition grounds.

Stock from the Ollis Cox Double Heart Ranch will be used, and the arena direction will be in charge of Cox, who for the past three years has staged a rodeo on his ranch south of town. The Cox cattle and horses consist of 60 Brahma cattle, which have figured prominently in the Big Spring and other rodeos in this section during the past summer.

The Humphrey's bull that has wound up the season with a record of throwing 100 cowboys and still holds his record of being unriden, will be an attraction.

Purses in each event will be large enough to attract the best talent. A cowboy ball will be a feature in West Texas. The rodeo will be held in the Legion pavilion near the arena. A cowboy parade will be staged at noon.

NOTICE

I will speak in Fluvanna Friday night, November 2, and in Snyder at the courthouse at 2:00 o'clock p. m. Saturday, November 10. I will affirm that the Banthead cotton law is unnecessary, unjust, unconstitutional, subversive of liberty and that its effects will be injurious to the farmer, instead of beneficial. I will divide time with anyone who will meet me in debate at either of both appointments.—F. I. Townsend, 21-22c.

We received about $75 from the carnival. We wish to take this opportunity of thanking those who helped in any way, and especially the business houses in Snyder who donated the things they did. They were very much appreciated.

Mrs. Edgar Taylor and daughter, Helen Joy, and Mrs. Albert Leach and son, Alton, all of Abilene, visited here Sunday.

Rev. Cal McGahey resigned his place as pastor of the Baptist church here. We regret very much to lose him and wish him the best of luck in his new surroundings.

Ophelia Devenport and Clara Fields spent last Sunday in the home of Veta Sheppard in the Egypt community.

Misses Mayme, Ruby and Irma Deen Giddens entertained the senior B. Y. P. U. with a Halloween party last Tuesday night. There were plenty of spooks present and everyone enjoyed the occasion.

Rev. Cecil Rhodes of Pleasant Hill preached for us last Sunday morning. His message was enjoyed by all.

A large group from this community attended the singing at Canyon Sunday night. Folks, we have singing every Sunday evening at 2:30 o'clock. Everyone is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill of Canyon attended singing here Sunday afternoon.

First Christian Church

This church welcomes you to its Bible school, which begins promptly at 9:45 a. m. each Lord's Day. Bible school is important, and when properly conducted, untold good comes from it and we desire your attendance in our Bible school if you do not attend elsewhere. If you are enrolled elsewhere, why not edify yourself and make your Bible school better by attending?

As beneficial as the Bible school may be, friends, please remember that it is an auxiliary to the church. As a helper, it should show its influence by increasing the spiritualness and the attendance of the church. If it fails to be a help to the church in these ways it has no excuse for existing and should be abolished. Knowing this to be true, there is but one thing for us to do—attend the Bible school and be blessed with its splendid spiritual instruction, then remain for the most important part of the worship, the part established by our Savior, Jesus the Christ. This service consists of communion, which we observe at 11:00 o'clock, and preaching services that follow immediately after the communion.

There was a decided increase of attendance at both services last Sunday morning, and our prayer is that it shall continue and our goal of an average attendance of 150 in Bible school by January 1, will be reached.

Let us not forget prayer meeting. These meetings are becoming more and more interesting and beneficial. Geneva Glasscock led the discussion of "God's Eternal Plan to Save the World," in a very interesting way last Wednesday evening. This week the interesting subject, "I Discover the World's Savior," will be studied.

The Hallelu Volunteer Club will meet at the church Tuesday, November 13, 7:00 p. m. After the business session a short social period will be observed, and refreshments will be served.

Christian friends, we are not only required to believe, but to manifest our belief to the world. God does not permit anyone to hide his faith. It is something too precious to be concealed. A strong living faith cannot consent to be silent. It cannot live shut up in one's heart. It must out. It will show itself. It enthrones itself in the heart, and then by words of the lips and the work of the hands it proclaims its presence and its powers. We cannot be possessed of a living faith without at the same time being characterized by obedient lives. Faith alone is dead. It cannot benefit anyone.

The question you should ask yourself is: "What about my faith? Is it dead or alive?" Are you manifesting the faith you as a Christian claim to have, by your attendance at the Lord's table, by your financial support of the church, by your presence at prayer meetings, Bible school and Christian Endeavor?

Show your faith by following Christ in His appointed ways, great as may be the self-denial and the sacrifice required. We are not threatened with persecution now, as were those who followed Christ during the infancy of the church. But there is self-denial and sacrifice even now in being a true disciple.

Oh for that faith which says: "In all my Lord's appointed ways, My journey I'll pursue; Hinder me not, you much loved saints, For I must go with you. Through flood and flames, if Jesus leads, I'll follow where He goes." Come thou with us and we will do thee good.—Rev. G. E. McPherson, Pastor.

Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.; morning worship, 11:00 a. m. Morning subject, "The Three Great Divisions of Human Existence—Life, Death, Eternity," an exposition of the 23rd Psalm.

Young people's societies, 8:30 p. m.; evening evangelistic service, 7:30 p. m. Evening subject, "The Forgiveness of Jesus."

There will be a song service in the evening, which will be a happy, cheerful occasion. If you have no other engagements for Sunday evening, come to the Presbyterian Church—the church with a home atmosphere. Jesus said: "Come unto me, all ye that are weary and I will give you rest."

Mrs. Allan Moses of Lubbock visited here during the week-end.

C. J. Sims was in McCamey the latter part of last week on business.

Rain or No Rain, Borden Man Finds Cotton Work Pays

"It pays to work your cotton land whether it rains or not," A. N. Surratt, Borden County farmer, told Ralph Howe, farm demonstration agent.

Mr. Surratt has produced 1,540 pounds of net lint from 12 acres of cotton and expects to get about one-half bale more from the same acreage.

He sumped furrowed his land and worked it four times before planting his certified seed.

He made a large yield in spite of the fact that less than one-fourth inch of rain was received on this crop from the time it was planted until it was harvested.

J. I. Burroughs spent the week-end in Plainview with his son, W. I. Burroughs, and Mrs. Burroughs.

Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Towle and daughter, Miss Mary Margaret, and Mrs. Pearl Shannon were in Colorado Sunday.

Miss Melvina "Teet" Cary spent last week in Colorado.

MISS MANN TO VISIT SCHOOLS

Miss Sue E. Mann, deputy state superintendent, will be in Scurry County next week for inspection of all schools asking for rural aid.

Frank Farmer, county superintendent, announces that a schedule of Miss Mann's visits will be sent out this week-end. He requests that trustees be present at their respective schools when she comes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Robinson and daughter, Miss Virginia Robinson, of Dallas visited relatives and friends here during the week-end.

QUALITY OF BREAD IS IMPROVED

Ware's Bakery, one of Scurry County's leading bakeries, are bakers of Ware's Bread, rolls, cakes, pies, doughnuts, and other bakery products, which are distinctive in both flavor and taste. W. H. Ware, proprietor.

Since our earliest known era bread has been an important part of human food and in late years physicians have endorsed it as a food of extreme value because of the high content of protein and carbohydrates which it possesses. Both are obtained from wheat, however, and of equal importance is the fact that a very important change has been made in the last 15 years. A large percentage of milk is now used in its composition, whereas recently as 15 years ago very little, if any, was included. This is an important change; in fact, this practice has increased the food value of the average loaf of bread from 25 to 50 per cent over that of a decade ago.

Ware's Bakery has kept pace with the baking business in both baking equipment and methods. From the time the mixer starts until the bread is offered to the public, every effort is made to supply its patrons with a product made under the most sanitary conditions.

They feature Ware's Bread, made from the richest and purest of flour, shortening and other ingredients and containing a high content of milk. They are just as expert in the production of cakes and rolls which are baked and which are distinctive in both quality and taste. They carefully maintain the quality of their products regardless of cost of materials and other circumstances. Waxed paper is used to wrap all products.

This bakery is always open to public inspection. Their business policy is one of cooperation with Scurry County residents, buying as they do their supplies in Snyder whenever possible thereby supporting home industry. Ask for their products at your store and do likewise.

Tested in Coldest Canada! NEW WINTER GRADES at all Conoco Stations

A Sure Way To Prevent Winter Trouble for Motorists of SNYDER

Special Winter Grades of Germ Processed Oil Give Positive Starting, Improved Gasoline Mileage and Utmost Motor Protection!

Change now to the proper grade of New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. You'll get:

1. Positive Starting. These new lighter grades permit your motor to reach higher "cranking speed." You save your battery. You choke less—waste no gasoline.
2. Definitely more miles per gallon of gasoline. These lighter grade oils flow freely and minimize friction.
3. Utmost Motor Protection. Other oils drain away, leaving parts unprotected when you start. Only Conoco Germ Processed Oil penetrates and combines with metal surfaces, forming the "Hidden Coat that Never Drains Away." Every part is fully oiled from the first turn of the motor. It cuts down starting wear—saves repair bills!

Conoco dealers and stations have the new Winter Grades, namely, 10W and 20W—heavier grades, too—in refinery-sealed cans and in bulk. Consult the Conoco chart, fill with the proper grade—and stop worrying!
