NEW HOSPITAL PLANS MOVING TOWARD GOAL

Committee Reports That $16,000 Mark Has Been Passed; Talks Construction.

With pledges jumping almost $2,000 since last Thursday, the hospital committee was highly optimistic this morning over the possibility of beginning erection of the proposed building within a short time.

The $16,000 mark has now been passed, and Chairman W. J. Ely states that several out-of-town contacts with persons interested in Snyder progress have not yet been made.

Albert H. Boren, Dallas architect who drafted the floor plan and frontal view of the proposed 14-bed hospital for Snyder, was a Wednesday visitor here. He recently completed a modern hospital at Odessa of the home-like type that has been proposed locally.

Construction plans for the new building were given impetus by Mr. Boren's visit, and the burden of the central committee's work has become one of organization and planning rather than financing.

Pyron Girls Go Places in Roby Basket Tourney

Pyron girls were eliminated last week from the county basket ball playoff by Hermleigh, in a stormy finish, but they journeyed to Roby's invitation tournament for girls' teams later in the week, and whipped the team that won from Hermleigh.

The Pyron sextette were downed by Jayton girls in the semi-finals, 27 to 19, and Jayton was later eliminated in the finals by Cottonwood, 33 to 31. Cottonwood previously had whipped Colorado, 26 to 13.

But before their elimination, the Scurry team beat Sunset, 28 to 19; Wingate, 27 to 20; and Hermleigh, 31 to 26. The Scurry champions eliminated Goodman, 32 to 17, in the initial round.

Softball Game Goes To Uptown Players

A ho-ho-podge softball team composed of business men outlasted a local teachers' squad Wednesday afternoon on the school grounds. The winners gradually overcame a three-run lead the pedagogues gained in the opening inning, and drove in the winning tally in the first of the ninth. Final score, 5-4.

Essay Winners for S. H. S. Are Named

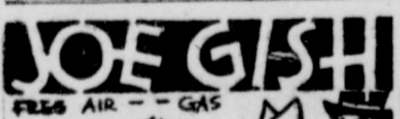

A recent contest was conducted in Snyder High School to determine local entries in the county Interscholastic League essay writing contest.

All winners were girls, as follows: Elizabeth Gordon, first; Edna Mae Dunnam, second; Evelyn Erwin, third.

Faculty members report keen interest in approaching League literary contests.

H. L. Vann's Mother Ill

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Vann and son, Bobby, are in Birmingham, Alabama, this week at the bedside of Mrs. Vann's mother, Mrs. Martin, who is quite ill with pneumonia. The Vanns plan to return here late this week.

Wonder why the courts don't take a tip from the automobile makers and speed up justice by streamlining her?

ANOTHER YEAR

The Pflugina board of trustees Friday night re-elected E. O. Wedgeworth as superintendent of the Scurry County nine-teacher school for his eighth consecutive year.

WEDGEWORTH AGAIN CHOSEN

E. O. Wedgeworth was unanimously re-elected Friday night by the Pflugina board of trustees to serve as superintendent of the Scurry County school for the eighth consecutive year.

At the time of his election more than seven years ago, "Red," as the school man is known, was said to be the youngest superintendent of any full-fledged high school in the state.

Pflugina, under "Red's" superintendency, has erected the most modern school plant in the county, has become an accredited high school, has maintained a staff of nine to ten teachers, and has won wide recognition in Interscholastic League circles.

Dallas Couple Take Over Early's Cafe

Early's Cafe, east side of the square, went under the management last Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Strawn, formerly of Dallas. Mr. Strawn, who has operated the cafe for some time, states that he will remain in Snyder but has no definite plans to announce just now.

Mrs. Strawn, who is cooking for the cafe, is experienced in cafe management. The new operators state that they will cater to folks who want good food and good coffee at reasonable prices. They are making plans to remodel the interior of the eating place.

Bryant-Link Sends Employee to School

Bryant-Link Company sent P. D. Lambeth on his hardware and implement department last week to attend a five-day tractor school for John Deere tractor service men.

Mr. Lambeth heard a factory representative from Moline, Illinois, and four district service men from Dallas. A feature of the area school was disassembling and re-assembling of four John Deere general purpose tractors, two small ones and two large ones, by the local service men, under direction of the five John Deere men.

E. E. Weatherbee, manager of the local Bryant-Link store, states that the Snyder John Deere agency is better prepared than ever before to give up-to-the-minute service on tractors purchased there.

FARMERS GET PARITY MONEY

Fifty-four more cotton contract signers received their parity checks early this week. The new payments totaled $1,010.94.

Before Monday, a total of $34,953.14 in parity payments had reached the county agent's office. These payments were on 1,552 contracts.

No parity payment has yet been received on more than 100 county contracts. Even the first rental checks are due on a few of these contracts, but the majority of the farmers in this group are due only the second rental and the parity checks.

Lattimore Is Made Laundry's Manager

Announcement was made this week that H. A. Lattimore has been made active manager of the Snyder Laundry. Mr. Lattimore has been associated with the business for several weeks.

No other change in the laundry staff has been made, according to H. G. Towle and A. C. Preull, owners of the institution that is located a block west of the public square.

HOG CONTRACT SIGNING TO BE STOPPED SOON

Farmers Interested in Contracts For 1935 Urged to Call at Office This Week.

Signing of the 1935 hog contracts was begun in the county agent's office Tuesday.

Farmers interested in taking part in the county hog program this year are requested to call at the agent's office Thursday or Saturday of this week. Full information is available to those who are not certain as to terms of the contracts.

A school was held in the courthouse Thursday of last week for county hog committee members, with emphasis on terms of the new contracts that differ from those followed last season. Attendees included A. Johnston, Joe Roemisch Jr., Harvey Beights, Luther Edmonson, M. L. Andress, Joe Lewis and County Agent W. R. Luce.

The county had 149 contract signers last year. They reduced the county hog crop by 687 head, and have received or will receive a total of $10,386.90 for participation in the program.

The corn portion of the contracts is practically forgotten here, since grain sorghum largely supplants corn. Only 20.5 acres of corn were signed up last year.

West Texas Cotton Breeder Will Talk To Lions Next Week

Clemens von Roeder of Borden County, cottonseed breeder and successful farmer, will speak to the Snyder Lions Club at its Tuesday luncheon on the trend of cotton raising, especially in Scurry County and other parts of West Texas.

Frank Farmer, second vice president, presided at the Lions Club session this week. Harrie Winston, president of the Chamber of Commerce, was a guest. Rhythmic band music was provided by several Lions, who used instruments recently purchased for club use.

W. W. Hamilton, city attorney, and Dallas Scarborough, Abilene, represented the city, and James P. Stinson of Abilene represented the plaintiff. Arguments were concluded late Wednesday, the six-man jury returning the next morning to reach a decision.

County Court Jury Gives John Howard Judgment for $775

A county court jury decided last Thursday morning that John Howard should have $775 in payment for land and damages wrought by the new routing of Highway No. 7. The jury determined on $250 as the value of the lots sliced by the highway, and $525 as damages to the value of the remaining property.

W. W. Hamilton, city attorney, and Dallas Scarborough, Abilene, represented the city, and James P. Stinson of Abilene represented the plaintiff. Arguments were concluded late Wednesday, the six-man jury returning the next morning to reach a decision.

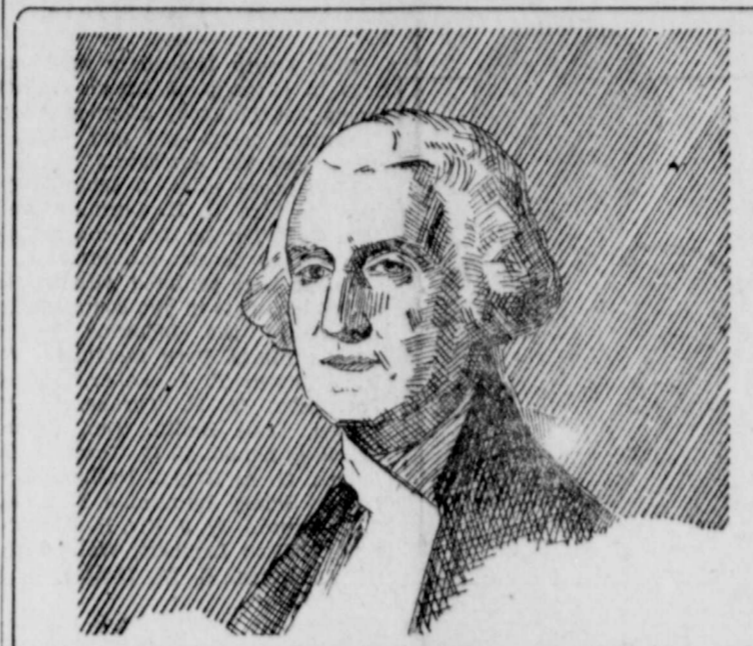

Death Tuesday for J. A. Evans, Who Came Here in 1905

J. A. (Jim) Evans, who moved to Snyder from Dickens County in 1905, died here Tuesday morning at the home of his brother, Zack. He had been ill with stomach trouble for several days.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, with Rev. Lawrence Hays officiating and Odum Funeral Home in charge. Burial was in Snyder cemetery.

Joe Caton, H. L. Davis, Lee Grant, Max Brownfield, Ed Darby and Jim Baze were pallbearers. Two flowers, Vera and Inez Evans, were placed in the casket.

Three brothers, Zack, Frank and Joe, survive. Mr. Evans had been a cripple for 50 of his 65 years, typhoid fever having effected his spine when he was a youth.

FARMER GEORGE WASHINGTON

Students of history will tell you that George Washington, whose one hundred and fifty-third birthday we celebrate Friday, enjoyed life on his Virginia farm more than he loved the battlefield or the realm of diplomacy. "The more I am acquainted with agricultural affairs, the better pleased I am with them," he writes. "I am led to reflect how much more delightful to an undebauched mind is the task of making improvements on the earth, than in the vain glory which can be acquired from ravaging it by a career of conquests." So Scurry County pauses tomorrow to pay tribute to George Washington, first in farming, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen.

Cards Mailed to Tell of Election Plans for County

Farmers who signed 1934-35 cotton contracts received cards early this week advising them of a meeting for selection of community cotton committees for the ensuing year.

All of the 16 community organizations except Dunn will elect tonight (Thursday). Dunn will hold its meeting Friday night because of a conflicting meeting there.

The elections are held under auspices of the Scurry County Agricultural Association, whose officers gathered in the courthouse Saturday to receive election instructions.

Increased interest in farmer organizations during the past year leads the central cotton committee and the county agent's office to believe that good attendance and keen interest will feature the '35 community elections.

Frogs Pushed From Basketball Picture By Peacock Quintet

Peacock, Stonewall County champion, pushed Pflugina, Scurry County champion, out of the district basket ball picture Saturday night at Roby by a count of 52 to 23, in the first round.

Roby was host to a tournament that included the five teams from the northern division of District 5: Roby, Fisher County; Jayton, Kent County; Noodle, Jones County; and the Scurry and Stonewall County squads.

The Noodle Mustangs were tournament winners, with a 27 to 17 win in the finals over Peacock. Noodle advanced to the last round by defeating Roby, 23 to 19, after Roby had eliminated Jayton in the first round, 24 to 21.

Pflugina won the Scurry flag last week by close wins over Dunn, Ira, Hermleigh and Turner.

CATTLE, HOG, SHEEP PROGRAMS Totals Given for Scurry County Purchasing FOR 1934 DESCRIBED BY AGENT

Following are totals and details of the cattle, hog and sheep buying programs in Scurry County during 1934, as given in the county agent's annual report:

Corn-Hog Program.
The corn-hog program started rather slowly, with little interest shown by the producers. The first meeting held, only about 20 producers were present, and for several more the numbers in attendance were small. However, as the program was more fully understood, more producers signed up and at the end there were 149 contracts, only five of which had a corn base, since this is primarily a grain sorghum section.

Total payments $10,386.90
Number hogs reduced 687
Number acres corn 20.5

Relief Cattle Buying.
On June 25 Carl H. Robinson, federal livestock statistician for Texas, made a personal check-up on Scurry County drought conditions.

On June 28 the county agent, with J. D. Monroe, relief administrator for the county, and Harrie Winston, president of the Texas Hereford Breeders Association, attended the drought meeting at Odessa, held by George W. Barnes, Dr. H. L. Darby and C. L. Crain. At this meeting the various

Highway Beauty Sought Through Child Education

Education of children is sought as one of the means of gaining and preserving the beauty of our highways. Mrs. Lee T. Stinson, county chairman of highway beautification, says she has learned from the district chairman at Abilene.

Mrs. Stinson also calls attention to a law prohibiting dumping trash or refuse of any kind within 300 yards of a public highway. A city ordinance prohibits dumping trash along any city street. The state law sets out that the ruling applies whether the land involved belongs to the person or not.

The move to educate school children in highway beauty involves these points:

1. To appreciate natural beauty.
2. To realize that our commonest plants, mesquite, cactus, blue thorn are very beautiful and interesting to strangers.
3. To beautify their school ground and homes.
4. To help keep our rights of way clean and free of trash.
5. To help prevent fires which destroy trees and plants and flowers.
6. To protect trees, plants and wild flowers.
7. To protect planting done to beautify highways which is really theirs for enjoyment in the future.

J. H. Holland Goes To Midland Position

J. H. Holland, assistant manager of the local Perry Brothers Store since its opening here last spring, left Monday for Midland, where he has been appointed to the same position in the Bankhead city. Mrs. Holland accompanied him.

The variety store man became associated with W. C. Shull here in 1933, and transferred to Perry Brothers when the chain store group purchased Mr. Shull's two local stores.

HIGHWAY 7 CONTRACT LET ON 11.5 MILE STRIP

R. W. McKinney Awarded Project Between Hermleigh-Snyder For $85,919.48 Total.

R. W. McKinney was awarded a contract for construction of 11.513 miles of Highway No. 7 through Scurry County at a meeting of the State Highway Commission in Austin Thursday afternoon of last week.

No word has been received from the contractor as to the date of beginning work on the project, Resident Engineer M. E. Savage said yesterday. Contract on the national recovery project was let for $85,919.48. At least 75 per cent of this amount will be paid on salaries if the state-wide trend on projects of this nature is followed.

Grading and drainage structures, caliche base and double asphalt treatment are specified in the contract.

The work will be done between Snyder and Hermleigh, along a newly-surveyed route that eliminates two Santa Fe grade crossings.

Winners Named in Odom Funeral Home Contest for Seniors

Three judges announced Wednesday that Le Ruth Johnston is winner of first prize in a theme contest sponsored by Odom Funeral Home. Second place went to Genevieve Jarratt and third place to Evelyn Erwin.

Competing students compose the senior composition class of Snyder High School, taught by Miss Effie McLeod. They visited the local funeral home recently, and wrote their themes after a tour of the institution.

The three winning themes will be published in The Times, the first appearing this week. Judges of the themes were Mrs. Joe Caton, E. J. Anderson and J. C. Smyth. The themes were graded by number, identity of the writers not having been announced to the judges until after the placings had been determined.

DEATH CLAIMS UNION CITIZEN

Death came Wednesday night at 9:00 o'clock to claim the life of Mrs. W. H. Hucksabe, 75-year-old resident of the Union community. She passed away at the house that has been occupied by the family for more than 20 years, three miles west of Snyder.

Funeral rites are set for 3:00 o'clock this (Thursday) afternoon, at the local Baptist Church, with Rev. Lawrence Hays, Rev. T. L. Nipp and Rev. J. F. Fields officiating, and Odum Funeral Home in charge. Survivors and other details will be published next week.

Colorado Resident Is Buried at Dunn

Mrs. Mollie Pinkerton's mother, Mrs. Joe Church of Colorado, died at her home Tuesday, and burial was in the Dunn cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Church were residents of Scurry County for many years. Mr. Church and several children, all of whom were at the bedside when death came, survive. The local woman had been at her mother's bedside most of the time during a 10-day siege of pneumonia. Funeral services were held at the Church of Christ, Colorado, Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, with J. D. Hardy officiating and Kiker Funeral Home in charge.

2,880 Eggs Stolen From Bob Terry's

Bob Terry's produce house just south of the square was the object of a sneak thief's affection Tuesday night.

Or maybe it was a half dozen of the lowly critters who backed a truck up to the business house, broke in at the back door, and hauled off eight cases of eggs. That is exactly 240 dozen, 2,880, or more than $50 worth of eggs.

Only a night earlier, several dyes were stolen at Bell Brothers blacksmith shop. Gaming boards and tables in the Snyder Candy Kitchen, four doors north of Terry's, were relieved of several dollars in cash Sunday night.

Woodpecker Saves Lipham Pecan Crop

"Strange as it seems," a frugal woodpecker saved all the pecans John Lipham harvested off four acres of pecan trees. Mr. Lipham lives three miles southeast of Midway on the Clear Fork.

Due to crows, hawks, and ravens eating pecans last year, he had despaired of harvesting any nuts for 1934. Last week he chopped down a dead tree with a woodpecker nest in it.

Pecans were hoarded in the tree, and he found more in a woodpecker nest in a mesquite post.

J. W. ROBERTS IN NEW PLANT

After almost five years of continuous service in the newspaper business here, J. W. Roberts left Monday for Lubbock, where he has purchased an interest in the Southwestern Printing Company.

Mrs. Roberts and Marilyn, a freshman in Snyder High School, accompanied Mr. Roberts. J. W., as the co-publisher of The Scurry County Times is known to friends here, has formed a partnership in the job printing concern with Gay Eaves.

The newspaperman came to Snyder in the spring of 1930 from O'Donnell, forming a partnership with George F. Smith. At the beginning of 1931, when The Times was consolidated with The Snyder News, he became co-publisher of the combined paper with Willard Jones and J. C. Smyth.

Collector of Income Taxes to Be in Town

Cam L. Fannin, deputy collector of income taxes for the Dallas district, will be at the Manhattan Hotel Saturday, March 2, for the sole purpose of assisting taxpayers in correctly filing their returns, writes W. A. Thomas, collector, from Dallas. The hours will be 8:30 to 5:00 o'clock.

"Many important changes effecting the filing of income tax returns are embodied in the Revenue Act of 1934, several of which are likely to be confusing to income taxpayers," says Mr. Thomas.

A. A. Bailey Goes To Abilene Meeting

A. A. Bailey, local telephone man, was among 30 Southwestern Bell Telephone Company plant superintendents and wire chiefs from three districts in the Fort Worth division, who gathered at the Wooten Hotel, Abilene, Monday to hear F. L. Joshi, Fort Worth division plant superintendent, outline the company's program for the year.

Mr. Joshi's staff of four men accompanied him from Fort Worth, and spoke to the telephone men, State Plant Supervisor Martin of Dallas also addressed the group.

LAMESA BAND TO PLAY HERE

One of West Texas' outstanding high school orchestras and bands will play in the Snyder High School auditorium Tuesday night, 7:30 o'clock, in a benefit concert for the local bandsters.

The joint concert by a 55-piece band and a 15-piece orchestra will cost only 10 cents per person—adults and children.

Fred P. Rattan, local director, took his Tiger Band to Lamesa recently for a concert that was heard by about 300 Dawson County folks.

Proceeds from both performances are used for band upkeep. Band members and their backers are making an extensive drive to bring out a large crowd for the Tuesday night show.

Back From Old Mexico.
P. W. Cloud, who returned early this week from a fishing-hunting expedition into Old Mexico with a party of Littlefield, Sudan, and Dallas friends, reports that he feasted on so many kinds of fish and game that he hasn't been able to settle down yet to the grind of theatre operation. The party proceeded 50 miles from the border at Laredo.

Display That Opens Tuesday and Closes Friday Is Probably Best Exhibited Here.

More than 50 original works of Texas artists will be displayed at Snyder High School four days next week, under sponsorship of all the women's study clubs.

Probably the most distinguished showing of art ever seen in Snyder, the canvases come here in circuit from the Dallas Fair, where they were viewed last fall by tens of thousands of visitors. The pictures come to Snyder direct from Abilene, under management of the Texas Fine Arts Association.

The girls' reception room of the local school will provide a sitting for the display. No admission fee will be charged, the art exhibit being financed by freewill donations of visitors.

Local Works Shown.
In connection with the outside exhibit, works of local artists may also be seen in the room.

These days and hours have been set for the exhibit:

Tuesday night—Study club presidents as hostesses; Twentieth Century Club in charge.

Wednesday afternoon and night—Altruism Daughters Club in charge.

Thursday afternoon and night—IngleSide Club in charge.

Friday morning, afternoon and night—Progressive Study Club in charge.

School children will view the display during school hours on any of the four exhibit days. Afternoon hours are 3:00 to 5:30 o'clock; night hours, 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock, except Tuesday night, when the exhibit room will remain open until 9:30 o'clock.

Committees in Charge.
The choice exhibit was brought to Snyder through the Art Guild, which asked other women's study clubs to join it in sponsorship.

Miss Grace Avary of the Art Guild is general exhibit chairman. She is assisted by Miss Alta Bowers.

Other committee chairmen are as follows: Finance, Mrs. J. C. Smyth, Altruism Club; publicity, Mrs. E. E. Weatherbee, Woman's Culture Club; local exhibit, Mrs. Alfred McLaughlin, Alpha Study Club.

Many Texas Settings.
A few of the titles of oils will suggest the range of local subjects: "Country Church," "Cypress Creek," "Negress Washing," "Pasture Land," "Homestead," "Pear Blossoms," "Old Ranch House," "Thunder Caps," "Village Street," "Shafter, Texas," "Landscape With Cactus," "Landscape With Red Shirt." Thirty oils are included in the exhibit.

The 16 water colors feature such southern atmospheres as "Trees and House," "Watchman of the Desert," "Old Cotton Oil Mill," "Cypress Trees," "Mexican Houses," "Dogwoods," and "Dodge Bontas."

"Barbecue Shack," "Penitentes," "Taos Houses," "Country Mail Boxes" and "Oil Refineries" are among titles of the seven etchings to be exhibited.

More Practice Debates.
Local debate squads went to Post Wednesday afternoon for practice matches with teams in the high school there. Miss Effie McLeod took the following debaters: Irene Wolcott, Marva Nell Curtis, Royal Corrine and Otha Lee Clark. The Lorraine-Snyder debates set here for Tuesday were cancelled.

An Octopus?

Not frightened by its name, "eremurus himalaicus," Miss Maydelle Bishop of San Antonio displays the strange octopus-looking creature with a smile that says, "It's just a root." The weird plant, one of hundreds being planted in the wild flower garden of Texas State College for Women (CIA), is commonly known as a desert-candle, and grows to a height of 8 feet with a flower head of 4 feet 2 inches.

Junior B's Begin Raising Money.

The Junior B class of the local high school began last Wednesday raising money for their junior-senior banquet, to be had next fall, by charging each member one cent admission to the class meeting.

At the Wednesday meeting a patriotic program was enjoyed by the class. Tommy Winters told of the life of George Washington; Pickas Bell talked on the life of Thomas A. Edison and his inventions; Abraham Lincoln was discussed by Dawson Moreland; and the Benbenek twins—Thaba and Thana—favored the group with a vocal duet, the ever-beautiful old song, "Beautiful Ohio."

Robbers' Roost

by ZANE GREY

COPYRIGHT W.N.U. SERVICE

THE STORY
Chapter I—Jim Wall, young saw-puncher from Wyoming, in the early days of the cattle industry, seeks a new field in Utah. He meets Hank Hays, who admits to being a robber, and tells Wall he is working for an Englishman named Herrick, who has located a big ranch in the mountains. Herrick has employed a small army of rustlers and gun-fighters, and Hays and others are plotting to steal their employer's cattle and money. Hays wants Wall to throw in with the rustlers.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER IX
It was dark by the time Happy Jack called them to supper. Jim carried over an armload of brush to make a bright fire. By its flare Hays was seen approaching, and when he drew near he said: "Jim, did they tell you straight out how I come to draw on Brad?"
"Reckon they did," replied Jim, coldly.
"Anythin' to say?"
"No. I don't see how you could have acted any differently."
"Wal, you've copped it with the ace. The second Brad jumped me I seen in his eyes he meant to egg me on to draw. So I did it quick."
"Jack, what you got for supper?"
By tacit consent and without a single word the men avoided Happy Jack's table that night and ate around the camp fire. Hays stood up. Smoky sat on a stone, Jim knelt on one knee, and the others adopted characteristic poses reminiscent of the trail.
"Cool after the rain," remarked Hays, after he had finished. And he took up a blazing fagot of wood.
"Reckon I'll make a little fire fer my lady prisoner."
He stalked away, waving a fagot to keep it ablaze.
"I seen her last night when he called me to fetch her supper," said Jack. "Fust time I'd had a peek at her face lately. Seemed a ghost of that other girl."
"Yes, and you fellows saw only a ghost of the money Hays got from the Herricks," retorted Jim, divining the moment for revelation had come.
An angry roar arose. Smoky threw up his hands and left the camp fire. Then Jim, in brief, cold terms, exposed the machinations of their chief. After the first outburst they accepted the disclosure in astounded and ominous silence. Jim passed off into the darkness.
Some time during the night he was awakened. As he lay there, eyes open, a soft hand touched his cheek and a whisper brought him wide awake, transfixed and thrilling.
"Jim! . . . Wake up. It is I."
Helen knelt beside him. Jim sat up with a violent start.

CHAPTER II—At the little settlement of Green River, Hays gets into an argument with a gambler called Stud, over a poker game. Wall saves Hank's life by bluffing the gambler out of shooting. With Hays and two other rustlers, Happy Jack and Lincoln, Jim Wall starts out for Herrick's ranch. In camp, the first night out, Jim regrets the step he has taken, but it is too late to turn back.

CHAPTER III—The four men arrive at the ranch. Herrick announces that his sister, Helen, is coming to the ranch. Hays unfolds his plan for getting possession of the 12,000 head of cattle on the Herrick ranch. He and his lieutenants ride away to drive off the first bunch of livestock. Jim remains behind to shoot it out, if necessary, with Heese-man, Hays' rival among the cattle rustlers. Jim sees a dust cloud, which he is certain denotes the arrival of Heese-man and his gang. He stands with rifle ready.

CHAPTER IV—Heese-man tells Wall that Hays was once his (Heese-man's) partner and double-crossed him. Herrick delegates Jim to go to Grand Junction to meet Miss Herrick. Jim gets Barnes, a young cowboy with him, to tell her that he (Jim) is a desperado of the worst type. Barnes does so, but the girl wants the information lightly.

CHAPTER V—On his arrival at the ranch, with Helen, Jim is confronted by Hays, who betrays unusual interest in the coming of Miss Herrick. Jim tells Hays that Miss Herrick brought a Wells Fargo package, probably of money. Jim goes riding with the Herricks and greatly impresses Helen with his revolver shooting.

CHAPTER VI—The cattle drives to Grand Junction are started. Jim Wall finds himself falling in love with Helen. He coaches her in riding western style, and finally kisses her. She is angry and dismisses him, but relents and asks him not to leave the ranch. Hays' men return from the drive with the stolen cattle. The leader has sold the cattle and brought back the money. A quick getaway is imperative. Hays tells his men to go on ahead, that he will join them at a certain canyon. The riders arrive at the canyon and to their amazement and Jim's dismay, Hays and a lieutenant are sighted with Helen Herrick—captive.

CHAPTER VII—The gang is about to break with Hays over the abduction, but he explains that he robbed Herrick and stole Helen for ransom. Realizing that Helen will be worse off if she falls into Heese-man's clutches, Jim Wall rides on with Hank and his men. Heese-man's riders are discovered in pursuit. After a running battle in which Latimer, one of Hays' men, is wounded, Hays leads the gang into a canyon retreat, difficult of access and easy to defend—The Robbers' Roost.

CHAPTER VIII—After camp has been made, Jim seeks out Smoky Stocum, and secures his promise to aid in case Helen is threatened with harm by the villainous Hays. Jim hears a wild cry in the night. Before he dies, Latimer, who was wounded in the fight with Heese-man, tells Jim and Smoky that Hays has held out some of the money he stole from Herrick.

"You! . . . What is it? Has that devil—"
"Hush! Not so loud. Nothing has happened. . . . But I couldn't sleep—and I must talk to you—or go out of my mind."
In the starlight her face had the same pearl-white tint as the clouds.
"All right. Talk—but it's risky," he whispered huskily. His hand rested upon the blanket.
She bent lower, so that her face was closer, and she could whisper very softly:
"First I want to tell you how cruelly it has come home to me—my ignorance, my failure to believe and trust you, even after you—so—so rudely interrupted me that day up on the mountain trail. If I had only had faith in you then! It's too late. But I want you to know I have the faith now. Only the fear and the suspense are wearing me out."
"But you are well—all right still? He has not harmed you?"
Helen.
"No, he has not harmed me, and I am not ill. I'm losing flesh because I can't eat. But that's nothing. . . . Lately I don't sleep because I'm horribly afraid he will come—and—smother me—or choke me—so I can't cry out. I've slept some in the daytime. . . . Jim, the thing is I—can't stand it much longer. I think I frightened him. But I can see—I can feel—Oh, Jim, for God's sake, do something to end—this horror—"
She leaned or fell forward in the weakness of the moment, her head against him. He stroked it gently, his reaction as far from that passionate and mocking embrace at Star ranch as could have been possible.
"Helen, don't—give up," he replied. "You have been brave, and it has gone—better than we could hope. . . . Only a little while longer!"
"We might steal away—now."
"Yes. I've thought of that. But only to get lost and starve—or die of thirst in these brakes."
"That almost—would be better—for me."
"If you can't stick it out we'll plan and go—say tomorrow night."

NEW 1935 DE SOTO AT AMAZING LOW PRICE

In 1934 De Soto made history! The famous Airflow won that coveted award—a Grand Prix at Monte Carlo for beauty. . . . broke 29 A. A. Contest Board records for speed. . . . the New York to San Francisco record for economy.
This year De Soto again makes news. . . . with the most sensational car ever built in the history of popular priced automobiles.
The new Airstream De Soto! Designed by the same engineers that built the famous Airflow. Only the experience and knowledge they gained with Airflow enabled them to build such a car at such a price!
It has independent front wheel suspension. . . . Floating Power engine mountings. . . . hydraulic brakes.
Come and see the Airstream. Try it on the road. You'll be astonished. No one before has ever succeeded in building a car with such speed and power and performance. . . . at anywhere near the price.
See the 1935 Airflow model, too. Drive both cars. Then ask yourself this question: "Which of these two De Sotos will it be?"

A bursting tide of blood through Jim's veins paralleled the lightning flash of his thoughts. Death for both of them was terribly close. His gun was under his pillow. Helen knelt between him and the robber. A move of even the slightest kind would be fatal. Cunning must take precedence of action.
"It's Hays," he whispered, scarcely audibly. "Follow me—now." Then exerting all his will to speak naturally, he said aloud: "No, Miss Herrick, I'm sorry, but I can't oblige you. I don't approve of Hays' kidnapping you, but it's done. And I am a member of his band. I would not think of going against him, let alone trying to run off with you."
There was a tense silence, fraught with much apprehension for Jim. Would she be able to play up to him? There was just a chance that Hays had not heard any of their whispers, in which case it was possible to deceive him. Helen comprehended. It was Jim Wall's privilege then to see the reaction of a woman at a perilous moment.
"I'll give you the ransom money," she said, quite clearly, and certainly most persuasively. "My brother will reward you otherwise."
"You can't bribe me," he rejoined. "And I wouldn't advise you to try it on Smoky or any of the others."
"Hays may have had only money in his mind at first, but now—"
"Don't move, Jim!" came a low, hard voice from the shadow.
Helen gave a little gasp and sagged on her knees. Jim waited a moment.
"I won't, Hank," he replied.
Then Hays' tall form loomed black above the rise of ground. He strode forward. If he had sheathed his gun, Jim would have made short work of that interview. But

AGA approved gas appliances... ASSURANCE for SAFETY QUALITY EFFICIENCY

Few industries maintain a laboratory for research and testing such as the American Gas Association Testing Laboratory. In this laboratory every kind of gas appliance is tested by trained engineers. For instance, a gas range is subjected to about 250 separate tests. These tests are grouped under such headings as: lighters, leakage, burner operating characteristics, combustion, fire hazard, thermostats, oven heat distribution and capacity, and many classifications pertaining to construction and strength. In every detail, a gas appliance, before A. G. A. approval is given, is made to comply with nationally indorsed standards for safe operation, durable construction and satisfactory performance. When buying gas appliances look for this seal.

Union Chapel

Mrs. Nellie Bunch, Correspondent

Folks who failed to attend the Mitchell-Scurry Baptist Association workers' meeting that was held at the Union Baptist Church Monday night and Tuesday, February 11 and 12, really missed some real good services. The program was changed, due to the fact that some on the program were absent. Theme for Monday night services was "The Cross." Rev. Williams of China Grove was in charge of the devotional services, as Rev. Cecil Rhoades of Pleasant Hill was not present. The sermon was delivered by Rev. A. A. Watson of China Grove. The program on Tuesday morning was as follows: Rev. R. R. Cumble of Dunn had charge of the devotional services at 10:00 a. m.; song and praise services were in charge of Jack Inman, as Melvin Newton was absent, at 10:10 a. m. "The Word of the Cross," I Cor. 1-18, by Rev. Lawrence Hays of Snyder at 10:30; Rev. P. D. O'Brien's message was brought from Col. 1-20, on "What the Blood of the Cross Secured for Us," at 11:00 a. m.; "The An" by Rev. A. C. Hardee, instead of "The Blood of the Everlasting Covenant," by Rev. G. W. Parks, at 11:40; quartet by Rev. J. T. Fields and children, instead of four men; at 11:45 Bro. Lyman Wren of Snyder made a short talk instead of "The Glory of the Cross" by Rev. D. G. Reed. At the noon hour lunch was served by the church. After lunch the W. M. S. and board meetings were held at 1:30 p. m.; at 2:30 o'clock a fellowship meeting was substituted in the place of "The Shame of the Cross" by Rev. James Eastwood; and at 3:00 o'clock announcements were made. The next meeting will be held 12 miles south of Colorado at the Spade church. Everyone is invited to come out and be in these services. A CHILD'S LAXATIVE SHOULD BE LIQUID

(Ask any doctor)
For your own comfort, and for your children's safety and future welfare, you should read this:
The bowels cannot be helped to regularly by any laxative that can't be regulated as to dose. That is why doctors use liquid laxatives.
A liquid laxative can always be taken in the right amount. You can gradually reduce the dose. Reduced dosage is the secret of real and safe relief from constipation.
The right liquid laxative gives the right amount of help. When repeated, instead of more each time, you take less. Until bowels are moving regularly and thoroughly, without any help at all.
The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara, natural laxatives that form no habit — even in children. Its action is gentle, but sure. It will clear up a condition of biliousness or sluggishness without upset. Every druggist has it.
