COMMISSION SAYS HIGHWAY 83 WILL BE IMPROVED SOON

WATER SAVING PLANS LAID IN AREA MEETING

Progress of West Texas Said to Depend on Development of Storing Possibilities.

Progress of West Texas will depend upon the extent to which its possibilities for storing water are realized and developed, a group of county officials, farm agents and state highway representatives were told at a meeting in Abilene Tuesday.

The conference, culminating with a luncheon at Hotel Wooten at noon, was called by W. A. French, highway division 8 engineer, and the men in attendance—approximately 60—were from the 13 counties of his territory. The morning meeting was in the county courtroom, with French presiding.

Scurry County was represented by W. R. Lacey, county agent; M. E. Savage, resident engineer; H. J. Brice, county judge; W. J. Ely, West Texas Chamber of Commerce director; and G. R. Austin, section highway foreman.

Borden County sent these delegates: C. E. Morris, county agent, and E. W. Holler, maintenance foreman, Borden County.

Coordination Planned. Ultimate purpose of the gathering was to launch a movement for co-ordination of efforts on the part of various agencies interested in soil and water conservation, to secure maximum results at minimum costs.

A proposal to terrace entire drainage areas, instead of individual farms, in order to prevent washing on low sides of abutting highways, was presented by French, who called for cooperation of property owners, commissioners courts, farm agents and erosion engineers in the movement. A hope that small model terraces, demonstrating the feasibility of a unified program, might be set up in each county, was voiced, and willingness to cooperate was expressed by many of the representatives present.

Emphasis on the importance of storing water was given by B. E. Eickson, superintendent of the Texas experiment station at Spur, who said: "If we prepare to store rain in the ground when we get it, we are

The entire school will be offered for $5 per individual.

FIGHTS LIQUOR

Joseph R. Griggs, county superintendent of Lubbock County schools, will be principal speaker for the county-wide rally for young people to be held at the First Methodist Church here on Thursday evening, July 25, in connection with a campaign against passage of the amendment to repeal state prohibition.

Griggs is chairman of the Youth Allied Forces for Prohibition in Lubbock County, and is said by local dry leaders to be a forceful and logical speaker.

Livestock Being Tested by Squad of Federal Men

Several Scurry County herds and scattered head of cattle being inspected since Monday morning by a squad of eight men with the federal Bureau of Animal Husbandry. The group is headed by Dr. E. L. Jones.

Dr. Jones states that another inspector will be added next week, and a tenth will come the third and last week expected to be needed for the county tests.

All livestock owners are being notified in advance that they will be expected to have their herds ready when the inspectors arrive. Full cooperation of owners is requested in order that the tests may be made with a minimum of time and inconvenience.

All dairy breeds in the county are being tested. Ten per cent of grown range cows, all bulls, and all purebreds are also undergoing tests.

Workers and their territories are as follows: Northwest portion of the county—Dr. L. B. Hodges, W. B. Taylor; northeast—Dr. C. W. Dunn, Alvin Koonsman; southeast—Dr. E. W. Frahm, Connie Gardner, Dr. Albert B. Eschenbacher, Ivy Studvant; southwest—Dr. J. S. Crabtree, Whit Thompson, Dr. H. J. Jewell, Hugh Birdwell.

Dr. Johnson Hook will be added to the staff after next week. John R. Haney is clerk to the supervisory veterinarian.

Ira to Be Host at August Meeting of Baptists From Area

Ira was selected Tuesday at Westbrook as the next site for the monthly workers' meeting of the Mitchell-Scurry Baptist Association. The August session will be held the 20th.

At the July meeting in Westbrook, "The Holy Spirit in Church Work" was the chief theme. Rev. Lawrence Hays of Snyder, who led a group of several local delegates, was one of the speakers. His subject was "The Power of the Holy Spirit."

Rev. P. D. O'Brien of Colorado was another speaker on the Holy Spirit. Jimmie Lunsford, a student preacher from Seminary Hill, Fort Worth, preached the 11:00 o'clock sermon.

The meeting was largely attended, several visitors being present from the Big Spring Association, according to local delegates.

BLOODED JACK TO BE HERE IN LATE SUMMER

Definite Assurance That "General Linden" Will Be on Stud Is Received From Austin.

Definite assurance that "General Linden," one of the best jacks in the United States, will be on stud in Snyder late in August was received by the county agent this week from J. E. McDonald, commissioner of agriculture, Austin.

This assurance culminates efforts by Andy Trevey of the Knapp community, in conjunction with others, to bring a blooded animal to the county for breeding purposes.

The secretary of agriculture writes: "General Linden" will be on stud in Kaufman County from July 25 to August 25, going direct from Terrell to Snyder. It will be an opportunity for farmers to have the service of an outstanding jack, and I trust that they will avail themselves of this opportunity, because I think this is as good a jack as can be found in the United States and he will be in care of an experienced breeder.

"Farmers could well afford to truck their mares several miles to breed to a jack like this, and I trust that if there are any outstanding jennets that they will be bred to this jack so that we may raise our own jacks."

A nominal breeding charge is made, in line with the policy established for the state-controlled animals.

Birthdays of Two Snyder Men Made Annual Celebration

This year, for the fourteenth successive year, W. P. Thompson, 75, and W. H. Crowder, 83, celebrated their birthdays together. The celebration was had at the Thompson home in East Snyder Friday.

Relatives and close friends were invited in for the bountiful dinner served in the back yard at noon. The birthday cake was contributed by Mr. Thompson's sister, Mrs. Lou Harmon of near Gattsville, who was unable to attend the party this year.

The two pioneer men have been close friends for almost 30 years. The Crowders were residents of Scurry County when Mr. and Mrs. Thompson moved here with their children in 1906. For fourteen years the two men have celebrated their anniversaries, both of which fall on July 12, together, at one home one year and at the other home the next.

The following relatives attended the dinner Friday had under an arbor in the Thompson yard Friday: The two honorees and their wives, Joe Thompson and family of Sharon, Mrs. Louie Vaughn and son of Sharon, Tank Thompson and children of County Line, Miss Irene Thompson of County Line, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Crowder of County Line, Ed Crowder and wife of County Line, Willie Crowder and family, Mrs. Will Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. McClure, Milton McClure, Miss Thelma Lee Burditt, Mrs. Jennie Thompson, Roy Harrell and family of Merkel, Dick Harrell of Merkel, Mrs. G. E. Phillips and son of Ralls.

Friends present were Mrs. John Miller, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Vaughn, Mrs. N. B. Moore, Hugh Taylor and Horace Holley of Austin.

To Visit Canada. Mrs. H. G. Towle and daughter, Mary Margaret, left this week for a trip through the Eastern states and into Canada. They will go to New York City by way of Washington, D. C., and will be joined in Montreal, Canada, by Mrs. Pearl Shaanon, who has been in New York City for several weeks. The Snyder people plan to return by August 1.

Cattle ranges were in 85 per cent normal condition on July 1, an improvement of 7 per cent since May and 14 per cent above the condition registered in June, 1934.

Western sections of the state still showed effects of the prolonged drought last year and need of additional rainfall.

Cattle raisers were happy over the whole outlook, however, their herds were reported in good condition and an ample feed supply was in the making July 1.

Graham and Martin Add Silk Specialist

In their efforts to keep step with the progress of the cleaning industry, Graham and Martin last week added a silk specialist to their cleaning and pressing staff.

The newcomer is Jack Emmons, formerly of Kansas City, who has been more than 15 years of experience in his chosen field—silks.

"If your silks can be cleaned, Emmons can clean them," declare Joe and Jack.

OUR HOSPITAL

An Editorial Survey.

Many Scurry County folks have been driving out in East Snyder these days to view the new hospital. It is an inspiring sight, with its white walls proclaiming the fact that this county is sacrificing in order to provide protection for its afflicted.

Behind the walls, so to speak, lies a story of community enterprise and cooperation that is seldom equalled. Organizers of the hospital movement realized before a dollar's worth of stock was sold that they faced a tremendous task. They have come to realize, as they anticipated, that this task would be lightened and melted by a citizenship that wants to care for those who need hospitalization.

The county has one of the ablest medical fraternities that can be found in any similar community. This group has materially aided the progress of the hospital by pledging its whole-hearted support and backing up its pledge with action. We would have small use for such an institution if we did not have doctors who would add prestige and professional honor.

The financial status of the hospital, too, is especially pleasing. Capitalized at $20,000, the incorporation controlling the institution announces that this amount will care for all construction costs. In short, the building will be completed as a "turn-key" job, with not a penny of indebtedness.

In order to equip the hospital, however, an additional $5,000 in stock is being issued. Several county citizens have already expressed a desire to have a part in the most progressive step that Scurry County has taken in several years. Small wonder, for it is difficult to imagine a safer investment than this hospital, with all building costs already provided, and with prospects of immense returns in health and happiness for our friends, relatives and neighbors.

Those who want to share in this community enterprise may contact W. J. Ely or N. M. Harpole, who compose a committee named by directors to care for the remaining $5,000 in stock subscriptions. Every figure in connection with the institution is open for public inspection. Every detail will be gladly explained to interested citizens. It is a rare opportunity to invest in the future health and happiness of those whose health and lives are price-less.

LEGION PLANS INSTALLATION THIS WEEK-END

Walla D. Fish, retiring commander, announces that plans are complete for one of the biggest meetings of the American Legion year at the regular hall next Thursday night, July 25. Installation of officers elected recently, headed by J. E. Shipp, commander, will be the principal feature of the gathering.

Charles Whitacre, prominent legonaire of this district, and several other buddies from Lubbock will conduct the installation service.

In connection with the installation service, veterans and Auxiliary members will enjoy one of the feeds for which the local post has become widely known. Fish and Clyde Boren, adjutant, are working toward a hefty turnout of buddies.

Relief Funds Total $3,009,119 in July, Directors Disclose

Thursday, July 25, 12:15 p. m., is the next Lions Club meeting time, instead of the usual Tuesday hour, it was decided by a unanimous vote of the club this week.

The two-day change was made in order that the members might hear W. A. Thomas of Dallas, a representative of Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau. Federal financing, with particular emphasis on the government's "baby bonds," will be the visitor's theme. It was announced by President John E. Sentell.

This week's musical program featured two vocal duet numbers by Misses Alma Alice Caskey and La Frances Hamilton, accompanied by Miss Estine Doward, club pianist.

Another musical slant was given the program when Tall Twister Holcomb passed blank sheets of paper on which the names of musical measures, played by Miss Doward, were placed by the members. It was announced that the winner will be rewarded next week.

The president complimented Lion Reeves for placing the club's American flag, with staff, in the proper position in the club dining room.

TEXAS CATTLE OUTLOOK GOOD

Texas' great livestock industry continued on the upgrade during June, the federal division of crop and livestock estimates at Austin reported Friday.

The report tallied with recent statements of Scurry and Borden County ranchers, who see 1935 as the best year they have experienced in recent years.

Cattle ranges were in 85 per cent normal condition on July 1, an improvement of 7 per cent since May and 14 per cent above the condition registered in June, 1934.

Western sections of the state still showed effects of the prolonged drought last year and need of additional rainfall.

TOURIST FROM NEW MEXICO IS KILLED BY CAR

W. T. Sirmons Victim of Mishap On Highway No. 7 Early Tuesday Evening.

Assisting his son to repair a broken radiator on their machine, W. T. Sirmons, 80-year-old resident of Portales, New Mexico, was instantly killed about 6:30 o'clock Tuesday evening when struck by a passing automobile on Highway No. 7, 16 miles northwest of Snyder and one-half mile from the Garza County line.

Mr. Sirmons had crossed the highway with his son, Dan Sirmons, to get a piece of wire and was returning to the International pick-up in which they were traveling when the mishap occurred. He was walking ahead of the younger man and apparently did not see the approaching car. His body was dragged and thrown at least 25 feet by the impact, and he was dead when his son reached him.

The accident was also witnessed by Mrs. Susie George, niece of W. T. Sirmons, and her three-year-old daughter. The driver of the automobile stopped, went to West, toward which he was traveling when the accident occurred, and sent assistance to the scene. His name was not learned.

H. J. Brice, judge of Scurry County, who went to the scene soon after the accident, rendered a verdict of accidental death.

The body was held at the Davis-Mason funeral company, Post, until funeral arrangements were made Wednesday.

The Sirmonses were en route to their home in Portales from Lumberton, Comanche County, where they had visited in the home of W. A. Smart.

Besides the son, Mr. Sirmons is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Beulah Smith and Mrs. Ethel Walker, both of Portales.

Next Lions Meet Slated Thursday; Special Speaker

Thursday, July 25, 12:15 p. m., is the next Lions Club meeting time, instead of the usual Tuesday hour, it was decided by a unanimous vote of the club this week.

The two-day change was made in order that the members might hear W. A. Thomas of Dallas, a representative of Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau. Issues of the Bellevue News have been received by several Snyder people since J. W. Roberts, formerly co-publisher of The Times, assumed charge of the Clay County publication several days ago. Good business patronage is reflected in the columns of the News under its new management.

Roberts moved to the new location with his family from Lubbock July 1. He was an owner of the Southwestern Printing Company at Lubbock before his move.

Softballers Settle Down to Fewer Runs, Fewer Errors; No. 1 Leader

Standings of Teams.

At the end of eight games on Snyder's softball schedule, the team standings look like this:

Team—	W	L	Pct.
Team No. 1	4	0	1.000
Team No. 3	2	2	.500
Team No. 4	2	2	.500
Team No. 2	0	4	.000

Softballers of Snyder's newly organized four-team league settled down late last week and early this week to fewer runs and fewer errors than they put out during the first four games.

Result: Interest is growing. Red Hill's No. 1 squad is keeping the lead; Shorty Sims' No. 2 battlers remain in the cellar, and No. 3 and No. 4 are tied for middle position with two wins and two losses each.

Tommy Winter's one-hit game last Friday, as his No. 1 team whipped No. 4, 8 to 2, was a feature of late games. The last game, Wednesday afternoon, was the closest of the eight played, No. 3 downing No. 4, 5 to 4, although the losers gained 13 hits against the winners' 5, and 1 error against the winners' 5.

Sims' No. 2 outfit broke the error record last Thursday, tallying 21 in a single game as they lost to No. 4, 22 to 14. Then came Winter's one-hit game Friday.

Sims' team lost Monday to Norman Autry's No. 3 bunch, 10 to 4. Hill's tribe trounced No. 2 Tuesday, 13 to 4.

Workers were there not only from the immediate community six miles below Hermleigh, but from Hermleigh, Snyder, Pryn, Madala, China Grove and other localities.

A bountiful dinner was served at noon by women of the helping-hand families.

CHURCHMAN

Formal Installation of Rev. Alfred M. Dorsett as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church will be made at a special ceremony at the local church Sunday evening. Call to the pastorate of the young minister was made in April, and Sunday's service will officially mark beginning of his pastorate here.

Rev. Alfred M. Dorsett will be installed as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock, under auspices of the Abilene Presbytery, of which the local congregation is a part.

Rev. J. A. Owen of Albany, moderator of the presbytery, will deliver the charge to the young minister and preside over the service.

Call to the pastorate of the local church was extended to Rev. Dorsett through the Abilene Presbytery at its meeting in April by the local congregation. Sunday evening's installation service will be the consummation of the call and the beginning of Rev. Dorsett's pastoral relationship with the congregation here. The minister has been filling the pulpit since the latter part of the spring, as well as the pulpit of the Fluvanna Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Herbert G. Markley of Breckenridge will deliver the sermon for the installation service Sunday evening, and Elder H. C. Cook of Breckenridge will deliver the charge to the congregation. Special music for the occasion is being arranged by the choir under direction of Mrs. Fred Wolcott.

Quarterly communion service will be observed by the church at the morning hour Sunday, it is announced by local Presbyterians. Rev. Dorsett will preach on the sermon theme, "My Body for You."

These sunny days are making most crops perk up in good shape, although the overbalance of dryness for three weeks is browning some of the feed and youngest cotton.

The July fall came Friday night. Several communities, notably to the west, received fine showers. The Tuesday afternoon fall was beneficial in areas west and north of town.

Manager Buel Fox and other members of the Edd Dodds grocery and market staff were proudly displaying a brand new modern vegetable and fruit rack Tuesday.

The porcelain rack is 10 feet long, and is equipped with three of the latest type automatic sprays that shoot tiny streams of cooled water over the fresh stuff. The base is filled with heavy wire baskets for less perishable vegetables and fruits and the upper shelf is perforated to allow moisture to cool the articially arranged fruits.

The addition to the south side food store matches the white porcelain of the meat counter installed when the store was established here more than a year ago.

DEADLINE SET FOR BANKHEAD

Saturday, July 20, is the last date on which Scurry County farmers may place last year's Bankhead certificates in the special pool. It is announced from the county agent's office. Approximately 25 per cent of the outstanding certificates have been placed in the pool.

All sales out of the pool will be closed in about four months—November 20.

Farmers who do not pool their certificates may exchange them for the issue of 1936, pound for pound, at no extra cost. It is likely, says the agent, that this opportunity will close July 31. The 1934 certificates in their present form will not be accepted by ginners this fall.

Helpful Neighbors Work Cotton Crop

Thirty men with hoes and several with cultivators proved last Friday that the touch of human kindness has not dimmed.

They spent the day cleaning the cotton crop of Mrs. Albert Thompson, whose husband died several days before.

Workers were there not only from the immediate community six miles below Hermleigh, but from Hermleigh, Snyder, Pryn, Madala, China Grove and other localities.

A bountiful dinner was served at noon by women of the helping-hand families.

OFFICIALS ARE INTERESTED IN CAVERNS ROAD

County Has Brightest Highway Outlook in Years Following Monday Decision.

The State Highway Commission's enthusiastic reception of a large delegation from 11 counties traversed by Highway 83, plus Chairman Harry Hines' definite assurance that all gaps in the route will be closed as quickly as possible, gave Scurry County her brightest highway outlook in years.

It all happened at Austin Monday, M. E. Daniels of Breckenridge, spokesman for the group, had hardly finished talking when the commission chairman declared that further reception was unnecessary, "because the commission is just as enthusiastic for improvement of that road as you are. In fact, we are already arranging for a conference at Carlsbad with the governor and commission of New Mexico, and we have conferred with officials in Washington, and all of us are anxious to get those gaps closed as soon as humanly possible."

County Delegation. The 11-county delegation included these from Scurry County: H. J. Brice, county judge; Dr. H. G. Towle, mayor of Snyder; W. J. Ely, WTCC director, and J. W. Scott, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Borden County was represented by Bert Massingill, A. O. Murphy and Dave Burdett. Gaines, Dawson, Stephens, Palo Pinto and Parker were among other counties represented.

Statements by Chairman Hines and the general attitude of the commission convinced the Scurry-Borden group that Highway 83 is considered one of the key routes in Texas running east to west. The importance of the public action of the commission is indicated by Byron C. Trecht, Star-Telegram correspondent, as follows:

"While the commission Monday canceled all new designations and applications for newly designated roads, with certain exceptions, until the federal government may act under its gigantic relief program, nevertheless, here and there definite assurance was given on a number of projects. Perhaps the most significant move by the commission takes in Highway 83, extending across West Texas as the most direct route to the Carlsbad Caverns."

Delegation Applauds. After Chairman Hines' significant statement, the delegation from the 11 counties applauded, shook hands with the commissioner, and departed. The road goes directly west from Fort Worth to Seminole in Gaines County, cutting Scurry and Borden in half. All but 163 miles is in first class condition, and the route is 80 miles shorter to the caverns.

An attendant said: "What could have been more tempting than a clear clean pool bordered with green grass, shade trees and the odor of crisp bacon and steaming coffee and scrambled eggs, and the sight of colorful jellies and jams on one of the newly-painted tables?"

The happy group that enjoyed the early morning swim and delightful breakfast included the following: Annie Ruth Williams of Chillicothe, Bobbie Clark of Memphis, LaFrances Hamilton, Roberta Ely, Frances Stinson, Elizabeth Gordon, Elizabeth Blakey, Mary Davis, Virginia Yoder, Louise Wilford, Hazel Gordon, Evelyn Erwin, Sterline Taylor, Dossie Mae Cato, Mrs. Joe Cato, teacher, and the hostesses.

Motto, Colors and Flower Are Chosen.

"Always face the sunshine, and the shadows will fall behind" is the motto chosen by members of the Grossest Junior Club at its meeting this week. Miss Mary Jane Beall was hostess to the club Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Zack Taylor.

White and yellow were chosen as club colors and the daisy will be the club flower. A committee composed of Jan Thompson, Adelle Baugh and Loraine McCormick presented some suggestions to the club, and the selection was made by the entire group.

Jan Thompson directed an interesting English drill in connection with the evening's program. Little Miss Helen Kay Shields, small daughter of Mrs. Eupha Shields, was guest artist for the evening. She complimented the group with readings, "My Beau" and "The Bad, I Is."

A dainty plate of sunburst salad, rolled sandwiches, cookies and iced orangeade was passed by the hostess, assisted by Lera Mae Scott, to the following: Helen Kay Shields and Ruth Treadwell of Abilene, guests; and Almaren Heard, Frances Boren, Ruth Yoder, Adelle Baugh, Loraine McCormick, Jan Thompson and Allene Curry.

Miss Warren left early this week for a visit in Utah before returning to her home in Los Angeles.

Lady's Painful Trouble Helped by Cardui

Why do so many women take Cardui for the relief of functional pains at a monthly time? The answer is that they want results such as Mrs. Herbert W. Hunt, of Hallsville, Texas, describes. She writes: "My health wasn't good. I suffered from cramping. My pain would be so intense it would nauseate me. I would just drag around, so sluggish and 'do-less.' My mother decided to give me Cardui. It began to mend. That tired, sluggish feeling was gone and the pains disappeared. I can't praise Cardui too highly because I know it helped me." — If Cardui does not help YOU, consult a physician.

Hectic Days Sleepless Nights

If YOU are nervous today, you probably will not sleep well tonight. If you don't sleep well tonight, you will probably be nervous tomorrow.

Don't allow yourself to become nervous. Take Dr. Miles Nervine. It will relax your tense nerves and let you get a good night's sleep.

Irritability, Restlessness, Sleeplessness, often lead to Nervous Headache, Nervous Indigestion, Hysteria—sometimes to a nervous breakdown and organic trouble.

Some of the people, whose letters are printed below, were as nervous as you are—possibly more so—yet they have found relief.

"Three years ago I was so nervous I could not bear to go out in company and could not sleep nights. A friend recommended Dr. Miles Nervine. I now enjoy myself thoroughly and sleep every night." — Miss Juliette Currier, New Market, N. H.

I have used Dr. Miles Nervine in liquid form and find it the best medicine for the nervous I have ever used.

Christene Lanier, Middleton, Tennessee

Whenever I have over-indulged and feel restless I take one or two Nervine Tablets just before I retire. In the morning when I awake I feel like a new person and can go about my work as usual. Dr. Miles Nervine Tablets quiet my nerves, brace you up and are the simplest, most convenient tablets to take I have ever found.

Miss Grace Redman, St. James, Miss.

Before using your Nervine I was very nervous and irritable. Since I have started to take it I feel so much better that my family notice the difference. I still take it from time to time and the good result is wonderful.

Gas Consumers Of Snyder Not to Have Reduction

Consumers of natural gas served by Lone Star Gas Company cannot receive at this time the eight cent rate reduction ordered against the company by the Railroad Commission and recently sustained by the Austin Court of Civil Appeals, according to a telegram from L. B. Denning, president of the company, sent last week to the mayor of this city.

The telegram explained that until the case had reached the highest courts, the recent decision is inoperative, and that until company property in each city involved had been evaluated and a rate case carried through various hearings and courts there could be no reduction of burner tip rates. Even though higher courts sustain the gate rate reduction, it cannot be passed on without each city going through a rate case, according to attorneys.

Full text of Mr. Denning's telegram follows:

"In our opinion there is a general misapprehension concerning the holding of the Austin Court of Civil Appeals in the Lone Star rate case and its effects upon the rates of the Lone Star Gas Company and the distributing companies to which it supplies gas.

"One erroneous conclusion is that the eight-cent per thousand cubic feet reduction ordered in the gate rate will necessarily result in a similar reduction in the burner tip rates. As a matter of law and fact, there can be no determination of rates in any of the distributing companies until the property and business in each town has been evaluated and all of the processes of rate making have been gone through as provided by law, including hearings before the Railroad Commission and review of the Commissioner's order by the courts.

"We have the greatest deference for the opinion of any court of this state, but under the laws of the state the opinion of the Court of Civil Appeals is not final; and, believing as we do that the preservation of the company's property and of the public service which it has undertaken to render demands that this case be prosecuted to higher courts for the purpose of having the issues ultimately submitted and determined, our attorneys are now in the process of preparing the necessary proceedings looking to this end. While the appeal is being prosecuted to the Supreme Court, the judgment of the Court of Civil Appeals is suspended and inoperative."

Barbara: "Would you recommend the lawyer who got you your last divorce?"

Peggy: "Well, his charges are reasonable, but some of the others have managed to get me more publicity."

First CCC-ite: "I think that new cock must be an old baseball umpire."

Second Ditto: "What makes you think so?"

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO BE EXPLAINED TO TEXAS VOTERS

Departing slightly from custom, and at suggestion of many Texas newspaper men, the Department of State this year is attempting to make an extra effort to acquaint the voters of Texas with the text of proposed constitutional amendments to be voted on in August. The complete amendments were published in The Times several weeks ago.

In releasing the series of articles dealing with the proposed amendments, Gerald C. Mann, secretary of state, explains that his department has no desire to be placed in a position of endorsing or opposing any of the proposed amendments. Rather, it is their interest to strive to acquaint the people with the contents rather than the merits of each of them.

Mr. Mann announces that he probably will go on the air early in August over a Southwestern hook-up in a discussion of each of the amendments.

First of the series appears below. Amendments will be numbered from one to seven.

The first proposition to be found on the ballot in the August 24 special election on the constitutional amendments is the so-called old-age pension amendment. This year, for the first time, the amendments will be numbered, according to Secretary of State Gerald C. Mann.

The Old Age Pension Amendment proposes to give the Legislature the authority to pay these pensions to persons over the age of 65, who are not habitual drunkards nor habitual criminals, nor inmates of any state supported institution. Those who are eligible must have lived in Texas at least five years during the nine immediately preceding application and in the state continuously for one year.

All other restrictions and limitations would have to be set up by the Legislature.

The amendment authorizes the Legislature to accept money from the federal government for the same purpose. It is presumed that federal funds would match state funds. The maximum amount to be paid by the state would be $15 per person per month. It is presumed that the federal government would match state funds. The total pension per person per month in this case it is presumed would be $30. The amounts might be smaller, however, but not larger.

It is estimated that the cost of this pension to the state would run between 40 and 50 million dollars annually. No provision is made for the income. It would be up to the Legislature to determine where the money would come from. The Legislature would have to enact such laws as it deemed proper to utilize the right granted by the amendment. The Legislature might do this at once, or some time later—or for that matter, not at all. The amendment is permissive and not mandatory, though few doubt that some form of old age pensions would be enacted if the amendment is adopted in August.

Dr. Brown Tells Many Ways Flies Spread Disease

Flies spread disease. They are reared in filth and through life make frequent trips from filth to food. Germs causing dysentery and other intestinal disorders are transported to the hairy feet of flies.

These insect pests are regarded as having played a leading part in causing food-borne epidemics of typhoid fever, stated Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer.

Flies multiply rapidly as soon as warm weather comes to stay. A female deposits more than a hundred eggs at a time in organic material such as manure or in an insanitary outdoor toilet. The life cycle from egg to larva (maggot), to pupa, to adult male or female fly requires but 10 days. A week later, 50 females, under favorable conditions, are ready to deposit a total of 50,000 eggs. During the summer season, nine generations of flies may result from one female that laid the first batch of eggs in the spring. It is estimated that if the offspring of a single overwintering female were to survive through nine generations, descendants in the fall would number over five and a half trillion.

Fortunately, modern sanitation and knowledge regarding the life history and habits of the house fly render possible complete control over the fly nuisance. Proper disposal of human and animal wastes in urban areas and on farms will prevent the breeding and multiplication of flies. Practical suggestions relative to methods of fly control may be obtained from the State Department of Health and U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Hotel Clerk: "Is this $100 bill the smallest you have?"

Departing Guest: "I'm afraid it is."

Clerk (to bell boy): "Here, take this out and get some relief worker to change it."

Rufus: "I hear there's a bill in Congress to abolish tobacco coupons."

Goofus: "That's just my luck—when I only need 11,000,000 more to get a mouth organ."

Father: "My son, I want to impress you with the fact that it takes even better judgment to spend money wisely than to make it."

Son: "I can understand that, Father. Let me take half the burden off your hands. You make it and I'll spend it."

HEALTH NEWS

From Dr. John W. Brown,
State Health Officer

This is the time of year when we put much effort and money into the summer outing and justify the expenditure on the ground that we and our families require an opportunity to recuperate through change of surroundings and to improve our well-being. But there is often a very little common sense in the management of the vacation, especially that of the children. The essentials of good care are ignored, so that the child is often in less satisfactory condition, physically and mentally, at the opening of the school in the fall than he was at the beginning of the summer, said Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer.

Insufficient rest and over-exercise are particularly common. It is more difficult, of course, to see that the child obtains sufficient rest during the summer, the long days and planned diversions being largely responsible; but more rest, not less, should be the rule during the summer months. Heat and exercise may interfere with proper digestion, indiscretions in diet are often permitted or even encouraged. Milk, the child's staple food, which deteriorates rapidly in warmth, is not sufficiently protected; and other foods are subjected to contaminations which would be less likely to occur in winter.

A sudden change from an indoor to an outdoor life often leads to long exposure to the summer sunshine and when this is unduly prolonged sunburn often results. Children who have played out in the sun all the year have become more or less hardened to the effects of the sun but those that don sun-tan suits for the first time should be careful not to prolong the exposure at first. Exposing the skin a short time at first and gradually increasing this will soon build up a beneficial tan without sunburn.

Locals Will Attend Tri-County Meeting

Several young people of the First Presbyterian and First Christian Churches of Snyder will attend the Tri-County Christian Endeavor Union meeting Friday at Sweetwater. A picnic will be held at Lake Sweetwater in the afternoon, followed by a union meeting in the evening.

Gordon Weir of Abilene, president of the Texas State Christian Endeavor Union, will be the main speaker on the program for the Friday meeting.

J. A. J. Jones Has Moved From County

One of the oldest Ft. Worth Joneses, J. A. J., left the county this week after having resided in the northwest part of Scurry for 40 years. He is going with Mrs. Jones and their son, Ed, to Pie Town, New Mexico, where he will be in the livestock business.

Mrs. Jones has been in the county continuously even longer than her husband—almost 50 years.

The pioneer has leased a large block of pasture land in New Mexico. "I may not be leaving for good," he said. "You may see me back in old Scurry almost any time."

Women and Families At Local Gathering

Home demonstration club women and girls of the county gathered at Wolf Park Saturday for a social and judging gathering. The crowd was light because of rain "squalls" and the fact that many families are yet busy in the fields.

Miss Evelyn Jennings, Fisher County home demonstration agent, and Miss Jewell Faulkner, Jones County agent, were judges of a dress contest for girls and women. They say the work being done is exceptionally fine.

A basket picnic was enjoyed at the noon hour.

The telephone goal of Europe is JUST A GOOD JOB here

The fast, clear, far-reaching telephone service of America has never been equalled by European nations. Differences in equipment, methods and policies have barred the way to such service among the many countries there.

In America, your telephone service has over-leaped state and regional lines. Here there are no telephone boundaries.

Your telephone is "first cousin" to each of 13 million other Bell telephones here. It is designed and manufactured to meet uniform operating standards.

Team-work

Every Bell telephone line, local and long distance, is built to conform to uniform tests of clarity and volume in carrying your voice.

Every Bell telephone operator, whether in New York, in San Francisco, or in the thousands of towns and cities between, is trained to use the same methods . . . the same team-work in operating the vast national communications network.

Organization

That these things are true is due largely to the Bell System form of organization.

American Telephone and Telegraph Company, the parent company, studies and standardizes better and more economical methods, apparatus and materials for the 24 operating companies of the System. Bell Laboratories carries on the research work. Western Electric manufactures, purchases and distributes.

Without this organization behind them, the Southwestern Bell men and women here who give your telephone service could not do their job so well. For many years it has materially helped us, as one of the group of operating companies, in holding the cost of good telephone service low to the user.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN

(Note: "The Weekly Dozen" as reproduced here appeared in the July issue of "West Texas Today," official publication of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. It is one of a series of West Texas newspaper columns being published by the magazine from month to month.)

Yep, This Is the West.

W is for West. The West really begins where the real new country begins this side of Fort Worth. It rides through rich farm land and steamrolled pasture land until it reaches the New Mexico border on the Panhandle and El Paso on the sharp end of the frying pan. New Mexico can never be the real West again; she is too mixed up, racially and geographically. Arizona is becoming too dude-ranchy to be the West. California is too artificially civilized. Colorado is shifting into the realm of commercialized tourism. This is the West, all right, if you mean the folks and the country—and the way they do things together.

Not Twain of a Kind.

E is for East. Never this and the other half of the twain shall meet. What did the poet mean? He surely wrote of something more than a racial union. Don't ever push yourself into believing that the West and the East will be gradually welded into one great unit. Oh, certainly, there will continue to be unity in government, in Americanism, in the gigantic principles that no Roosevelt and no Supreme Court can shake. But not unity in custom, in drawl, in those precious provincialisms that neither historian nor novelist can ever really translate onto the printed page. Just as small clans or provinces have maintained a distinct identity in Europe through the centuries, so will the East and the West of our nation maintain theirs. We'll be saying drawly things, neither Southern nor negro style, as long as time is.

This "In-Between" Country.

S is for Stunned. Did you read the article in last month's Atlantic Monthly that ran the higher education scale of our United States? The doing West is dreaming of education now, and she is proud of her bristling young schools. But the Atlantic writer, as he sings of higher education, does not touch a huge strip of territory that lies between North Carolina and the Pacific coast. Even the Middle West, with the exception of the Great Lakes country, is not mentioned. Out of more than 200 outstanding departments of learning in this country, not one lies in this tremendous South, Southwest, West or Middle West territory. What this "in-between" country needs more than a good five-cent cigar is two or three millionaires who dream of departments rather than department stores.

Page Us a Three-Lifer!

T is for Texas, of course. For years now we've been looking for an article or a book or an analysis of our state, by a non-Texan, that was fair, comprehensive and representative. We haven't found it. Irvin S. Cobb's delightful "Some United States" made a mess of Texas, although his slants on some of the states you've never visited sounds mighty good. The National Geographic has never carried articles or pictures that skip the almost-extinct longhorns and the story-book senioritas of the Santone country. If some visitor will just take a lifetime off, after two lifetimes of developing a lucid vocabulary, perhaps the hem of Texas' garment may sometime be touched.

He Doesn't Need to Do It.

T is for Towle. For several years we've had an itch to tell the balance of West Texas about this man Dr. H. G. Towle, who resided in Snyder even before Colorado City became a city. As mayor of Snyder for eight or ten years, he has never made a speech. As a member of the State Board of Optometry for almost as many years, he has never made a speech. As one of the most ardent and most successful—go-after-the-state-highways men, he has never made a speech. As a close friend and counselor of many of the best politicians in the state, he has never made a speech. He has never made a speech.

Not Counting Kansas Dirt.

E is for Extras. Thanks largely to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, this resource-filled section of the state is getting a few little extras in state and national government that she never dreamed about a few years back. When the WTCO settled down about six years ago (at least two years before the rest of us settled down) to doing things for West Texas instead of just talking about West Texas, the transformation had begun in earnest. The little extras have been pouring in these last few years—and we all like 'em.

Blotting Out the Spots.

X is for the Spot. A lot of the dufters were on it when they began griping early this year about the slim prospects for a crop, about the lower end of nothing, about anything that came to their awkward hands. X—a cross—should mark the spot where these dufters are buried.

Love Me, Love My Tomatoes.

T is for Tomatoes. Why not? A few generations ago, it is said, the beautiful fruit was considered a decorative garden product—a love fruit. Finally some courageous fellow dared to eat, and his gullet was pleased. Out here in West Texas we follow in this adventurer's footsteps, but we import most of our fruit. Why haul tomatoes from Jacksonville or Grapevine, when West Texas could raise her own? Prophecy: West Texas' output of truck crops will more than double within ten years.

Mr. Dempsey's Prices.

FROM STATE PRESS IN THE DALLAS NEWS.
Scurry County Times (Snyder): Back in the good old days, Jack Dempsey was famed for his right "sock." The New York lick he has developed in recent months is equally as effective, judging by some of these prices at his restaurant: Coffee, 25c; steak sandwich, $1.25; large bottle champagne, $17; fried chicken, $3.50. No wonder New Yorkers call it "the house that Jack—and jack—built."

Mr. Dempsey's restaurant is not just an eating house. It is a place where food and drink may be bought, but in addition to that side of the business Mr. Dempsey keeps a place where the leading lights of the sporting world make rendezvous. Also numerous members of the haut ton foregather there, gentlemen and ladies who are accustomed to grace the citadels of high society. Society often turns to sports for release from the ennui which so frequently assails those who have naught to do but dress up and drive out day after day. But our thought was to excuse Mr. Dempsey for his high prices. He found himself embarrassed recently, financially and socially. His first wife held a mortgage on Mr. Dempsey's California ranch, and was going to foreclose on same. Such a procedure would have injured Mr. Dempsey's credit, no doubt, and when one is in business one needs credit, often and for long, as a rule. Under the circumstances confronting Mr. Dempsey, can't he be relieved of the suspicion that he is pricing his steak and coffee too high? As a generality, when a business man owes money to an ex-wife he is between a rock and a hard place.

CURRENT COMMENT.

By Leon Guilan.

Gasoline in solid chunks for tomorrow's drivers is one of the most outstanding promises offered for scientific analysis by Adolph Prussian, German chemist, working with Alexander Klein at the New York Guggenheim School of Aeronautics. . . . Named Solene, this solidified gasoline is causing much excitement in the petroleum industry, has been for years one of the researching chemists' vaunted dreams having to do with revolutionizing transportation. . . . In 1927 when Prussian tried to separate fatty acids from hydrocarbon fluids he pounced on gasoline put in a steel cylinder. . . . Into the gasoline went a catalyst (promotes chemical reaction without taking part in it) and a temperature of 150 degrees F. . . . Thus was produced the world's first solid gasoline. . . . Solidified kerosene by the Prussian method is widely used, is superior to alcohol in camp stoves and outdoor heating appliances.

A Pinch of Philosophy.

O is for Often. Largely because of the things we do not perform often enough, life is like a railroad crossing with outmoded signals and a high dump on each side of the track. An "often" siver of praise for the man who has a thankless job in your town or in your two-room church might lift a modern electric arm and raze the dumps on both sides.

Don't Use the Cuss Word.

D is for Doldrums. How can anyone have them when thousands of new cars are being sold, dire hunger is practically unknown in America, and the counter-balance of justice and democracy is more perfectly attuned than ever before? When West Texans get down in the doldrums and stay there, they should move, for they are no longer made of West Texas stuff.

Talkative Tillie Muses.

A is for Anxious. Talkative Tillie is anxious about these coming streamlined styles for women. "What if," muses she, "they should be adopted by young gals that are already so far ahead of their ma's that an oil boom can't catch 'em?"

Just "West Tex. Today."

Y is for the Yend. Pessimism Pete opines that the easiest way to write a page for West Texas Today is just to make your key words spell out the name of the most readable regional chamber of commerce magazine in-between and including the two twains that shall never meet.

For the wrongs that need resistance;
For the future in the distance,

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By Edison E. Waite

A lot of citizens in every city "pass the buck" to the home newspaper to do all the home city boosting. They should do a little themselves.

It never pays a politician to go around abusing men they may need to be friendly with later.

Building castles in the air does not build cities.

Most cities talk much about enforcing safe traffic regulations. Some do—some don't.

There are many medicine companies in the South. I note the Chattanooga Medicine Company has been a continuous newspaper advertiser for years. No wonder its products are sold everywhere. It's just another case of quality plus advertising building and maintaining a big business.

It is a good idea to express sound sense in plain words.

State Auditor Asks Public Cooperation

George B. Simpson, state auditor and efficiency expert, requests that we give publicity to his letter to the public, which follows:
"Under acts of the forty-third Legislature, the state auditor's office is charged with the duty of auditing relief expenditures and making quarterly reports to each member of the Legislature and the press. However, adequate provisions were not made for auditing expenditures of the various county administrative offices, where most of the relief funds are actually disbursed."

"The cooperation of the public is sought in this connection, and we would be pleased to receive suggestions for improvement in the manner of expending relief funds by county organizations. Also, any criticism of past expenditures will be carefully considered when called to our attention."

Motorists Given 15 Ways to Save Their Gas Money

When the man bites the dog, it is news. And when a gasoline company advises motorists how to save gasoline, that is news, too.

Hence it is news to announce that the Gulf Refining Company has just issued a booklet entitled "15 Ways to Save Gasoline Money." Although the information contained in the eight-page booklet is simple, it consists of driving hints which should benefit millions of motorists.

Do you know what parking secret saves gasoline? The booklet tells you. Have you discovered what driving speeds assure you the greatest economy in gasoline consumption? The booklet tells you. And what fact concerning the inflation of your tires boosts your gasoline mileage? The booklet tells you this, too.

According to Dr. Paul D. Froste, vice president of the Gulf Research & Development Corporation, considerable care was given to the preparation of the literature. The data was prepared, changed, and checked over and over again by the leading petroleum and automotive engineers. Caution was exercised in listing the various methods to save the motorist's money, and at least 15 additional ways to cut gasoline costs were eliminated because they were open to debate.

For convenience's sake, the Gulf booklet is divided into three sections. The first chapter is devoted to economy short-cuts which can be controlled by the motorist. The second part is given over to economies which can be secured at no cost at reputable service stations or dealers, such as Gulf's stations. And the third section consists of savings which can be obtained through enlisting the help of competent garage mechanics.

To announce this new booklet, "15 Ways to Save Gasoline Money," to the motoring public, the Gulf Refining Company has undertaken an advertising campaign which is outstanding in many ways, including the number of newspapers to be used. More than 1200 newspapers from Maine to Texas, the largest journalistic army in the modern history of petroleum advertising, will be employed. The offer of the free booklet to any motorist who will drive into Gulf's 40,000 dealers is allied with an interesting "sporting offer" to car owners.

West Texas Press Association Will Meet in August

West Texas Press Association will hold its annual convention at Big Spring August 16 and 17. The dates were fixed Saturday by the association's board of directors whose members were in Big Spring with the host publisher, Joe Galbraith of the Big Spring Daily Herald, and the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce staff.

Four guest speakers have been invited to speak at the two-day session. They are:

Ray H. Nichols, publisher of the Vernon Record and president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce; Harry Hines of Wichita Falls, chairman of the State Highway Commission; Dr. W. C. Holden of the Texas Technological College faculty, and H. H. Williamson, chief of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service.

E. B. Harris of the Rule Review was elevated to the presidency of the press group following the resignation of J. W. Roberts, formerly of The Scurry County Times. Mr. Roberts is now a publisher of The Bellevue News, out of the association's territory. R. Henderson Shuffler of Odessa is secretary.

Contest for picking West Texas' best weekly newspaper will be a new feature of this year's meeting. A loving cup will be given the winner by Charles A. Guy, publisher of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, and Max Bentley, publisher of the Abilene Reporter-News.

The convention's social affairs will be, as usual, a Friday luncheon, dinner and dance.

Texas has handled AAA programs in which the aggregate payments amounted to about one-seventh of the total for the United States.

"DODGE BLAZES ECONOMY TRAIL" says ROY CHAPMAN ANDREWS

"Sturdy, rugged Dodge helped me blaze a way through trackless wastelands in the Far East," writes Roy Chapman Andrews, famous explorer. "And now Dodge blazes a new trail—the economy trail. I know my new Dodge costs less to run than a small car." Dodge cars everywhere are getting gas and oil mileage heretofore considered beyond reach. Many figure it costs less to own a Dodge than a small, competitive make. They say their gas and oil savings quickly make up the difference in price.

More Acreage in Cotton Seen for 1935 Over 1934

Estimating that 29,166,000 acres of cotton were in cultivation July 1, the federal department of agriculture said last week that with the exception of 1934 this was the smallest July 1 acreage reported since 1905.

Texas had 11,357,000 acres of cotton planted July 1, the federal crop and livestock division of the state estimated at Austin Friday. The acreage is 10.3 per cent greater than last year's final crop and 5 per cent more than the 10,816,000 acres under cultivation July 1, 1934. All sections shared in the increased planting.

The current total for all states was said by the Washington department to be an increase of 4.8 per cent over July 1, 1934, but 28.8 per cent less than the average acreage for the five-year period, 1929-1933.

A report on the probable production of lint cotton this year is to be made August 8.

going to make more progress than by any other method of water control. If all the water that fell in April and May had soaked into the soil, we would not now be crying 'give us more rain.' Our progress is going to depend on how fully we realize and develop the possibilities of storing the water that falls.

Speakers besides Dickson were Jac L. Gubbels, landscape engineer of the state highway department; and H. O. Temple, chief engineer of the U. S. soil conservation service.

"There are two problems, both on the highways and on the farms," said Dickson. "Those problems are: What constitutes surplus water and what to do with it? Before we can determine what surplus water is, we have to know the water holding capacity of the soil, and that differs according to type of the soil. The Abilene clay soil—the kind we have at the experiment station—has a 35 to 40 per cent capacity. Some soils have more, others have less."

Terracing Methods. Dickson also discussed the methods of terracing and gave results obtained by two systems—level terracing and drop or inclined terracing—at the experiment station. The former method, he said, had been most satisfactory. Based on a 10-year average, a tract of land with level terracing lost only 12 per cent of the water and produced 429 pounds of seed cotton, while on a tract terraced with a three-inch fall to the 100 feet, the water loss was 22 per cent and the production 327 pounds.

"But figures are the biggest liars on the face of the earth except public servants," Dickson added. "There are a thousand different conditions and you can't follow out and dried rules. Some lands don't need terracing. They have practically no run-off and they simply drink water up."

French stressed the thought that in planning to reduce erosion along the highways, the department does not expect to direct water directly onto farms, but into roadside ditch-ways on the lower side from which it can be spread evenly over the adjacent farms.

Unification Sought. "Farmers have had cause for complaint against our method and we have had cause for complaint against theirs," he said. "But if land on both sides of highways could be properly terraced and maintained, there would be an increase in crop production."

"Don't get the idea we think we know anything new about soil erosion and water conservation," he said. "The only thing new in this meeting is an effort to unify efforts."

Gubbels, in a brief discussion, said the state highway department is interested in prevention of soil erosion from a financial standpoint, "because more money is spent in holding the roadside together than in any other part of highway maintenance."

Hill pledged the assistance of the U. S. soil conservation service in proposed efforts to set up terraced units for demonstration purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Taylor have as their guests this week, Mrs. Taylor's sister, Mrs. O. M. Bantau, and Miss Virginia Allen, both of Abilene.

Daniels, the spokesman from Breckenridge, said the route will serve 270,000 people and that it was first designated by an act of the Legislature. It has been known for a number of years as the shortest and quickest route to the caverns, but the portions of dirt road prevented its being traveled extensively except in best weather conditions.

At present, the road coming east—it leaves the Bankhead at a point between Palo Pinto and Strawn—is paved as far as Roby. From Roby to the Scurry County line it has been widened but not surfaced. It is paved in Scurry County only along the four-mile stretch from its intersection with No. 7 through the Snyder square.

No. 101 Not Settled.

The exact status of No. 101 is not yet settled. J. W. Scott remained a day longer than the remainder of the other three members of the county delegation in order to confer about that southern highway. The commission's decision not to make new designations, which wipes out immediate prospects of the new routing sought by way of Robert Lee, Colorado to San Angelo, may also mean that the unimproved section from the Mitchell County line into Snyder may remain as is for the time being.

As the huge slice of enlivening news comes in from Austin, work continues at a fast pace on No. 7. The entire route through Snyder, east side to the R. S. & P., is under construction this week. Surfacing Contract for building a four-lane traffic bridge across Lone Wolf Creek in the city of Colorado was let last week to West Texas Construction Company of Fort Worth for $52,416. between Snyder and Hermleigh, and possibly on the newly contracted strip from Snyder to the proposed underpass north of Snyder, is expected to begin at any time. The underpass, now approved by all parties concerned, is listed among the first state projects to be completed through the giant federal grant, expected to be released at any time.
