"YOUR HOME COUNTY PAPER"

FORTY-EIGHTH YEAR.

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 26, 1935

NUMBER 16

TAX VALUE OF PROPERTY SET AT $5,303,659

Commissioners Court Completes Its Checking of County Assessor's 1935 Tax List.

After several days of checking and double checking, the Commissioners Court early this week approved County Tax Assessor-Collector Bernard Longbotham's 1935 tax list, which shows a taxable county valuation of $5,303,659. This figure is slightly lower than the 1934 rendition.

The total state tax valuation is $4,110,688—lower than the county's because homestead exemptions must be deducted.

If all assessed taxes were paid, at the recently-set rate of $1.20 on the $100 valuation, the county treasury would be swelled by $63,643.91. Total state taxes assessed in the county, at the rate of 62 cents, are $25,485.88.

Poll taxes assessed total $4,684.75, of which $4,015.50 would go to the state and $669.25 would go to the county. Out of the state's six-sevenths of the total poll tax collections, four-sevenths, or $1, goes to the school fund, and two-sevenths, or 50 cents, goes to the general revenue fund.

Real estate valuations were set at $2,767,110, exclusive of railroad property and homesteads.

Personal property was assessed at $640,455.

The tax assessor-collector said immediately after the list had been checked that his office is prepared to begin collections of taxes on October 1, the due date.

Death Takes Dunn Farmer After Long Months of Illness

Death claimed the life of J. R. Jones, 34, last Sunday, after the Dunn farmer had suffered many months of illness. He died at his home on the Cotton place.

Bro. O. D. Dial of Snyder was in charge of funeral services at the Dunn Church of Christ Monday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Odum Funeral Home was in charge of burial in the Dunn cemetery.

The farmer, who moved to this county from Arkansas two years ago, is survived by his wife and three children.

Palbearers were Clifford Leard, Vell Ryan, Pete Coker, J. B. Coston, Fred Cotton and Oscar Worthington. Floy Brinkley and Ina Brinkley were in charge of flowers.

Haste Urged in NYA Program for Studes

Lyndon B. Johnson, state director of the National Youth Administration, Sunday evening issued a warning to county superintendents of schools to allocate high school aid jobs to high school principals at once in order to prevent possibility of their allotments being lost to them and transferred to other counties.

Several applications have been received from students in this county. Superintendent Frank Farmer said yesterday, and all applications must be received this week.

The NYA student aid program will provide jobs for 23 high school students in Scurry County, at the rate of $6 per month, or a total of $138.

LOCAL REVIVAL ENDING SUNDAY

Revival services at the local Church of Christ began Sunday night, and will continue through next Sunday morning's services, according to church leaders.

Bro. Everett O'Dowd of Waco is doing the preaching. Song services are in charge of Bro. O. D. Dial, church minister. Services begin at 7:45 o'clock each evening.

The messages that are being brought by the visitor are of vital importance to the membership of the church as well as to the individual life, says the minister.

Commercial Course Planned by School

A program of commercial work that will be extended to adults may be offered by the local school system, Superintendent C. Wedgeworth said early this week.

The work would be installed through the Smith-Hubbs plan, which divides expense between the state, federal and local governments at units. If it is offered, it would be available to persons 16 years of age and above, with special classes offered non-school young people or adults. There would be no charge except a small material fee.

Everybody's Goin' To Colorado Game

From Colorado comes word that opening of the Wolves' football lighting system will be the occasion for one of the biggest turnouts of fans in the history of the Mitchell County capital. And from every nook and corner of Snyder fandom comes assurance that several hundred folks will be in Colorado when the opening Wolf-Tiger whistle blows Friday night at 8:00 o'clock.

Pep squads and bands of both schools will be out in full regalia. And both gridiron squads will be on their toes for the greatest battle of the year.

For details of the game, including full line-ups, see page five of this issue.

Pioneer Honored Sunday on Heels Of Long Illness

Members of the family of S. S. Williams entertained the 87-year-old pioneer of Borden and Scurry counties with a reunion-dinner last Sunday in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Frank Berry, West Snyder.

The celebration came on the heels of an illness of two and a half months that kept Mr. Williams bed. He is expected to resume his daily visits to the business section soon.

Mrs. Williams, who is 84, came with her husband to Borden County in 1906. They moved to Snyder seven years ago, and have since resided with Mr. and Mrs. Berry.

Mr. Williams was born September 20, 1848, at Cedar Bluff, Alabama. He enlisted in the Southern army during the Civil War, took part in many important battles, weathered the hardships and terrors of war to the end, and returned to his home community. He was married 68 years ago to Miss Eliza Bryan, his companion through the years.

They moved to Texas in 1885, first settling in Hill County. Borden County was their next destination. They reared five daughters and three sons.

The children, with their families, who attended the Sunday reunion-dinner, were: Mrs. Berry, Mrs. J. L. Robinson of Snyder, Bryan Williams of Post, John Williams of Big Spring, Mrs. Della Kent, Dallas, and Mrs. Ben F. Smith, Hillsboro, were the only living children who were absent.

Tuesday—Physical education; Dramatics Club, directed by Miss Irby; girls' Choral Club, 3:30.

Wednesday—Clubs; home room programs.

Thursday—Physical education; boys' Glee Club.

Friday—General assembly.

Abilene, Ft. Worth Publicize Hospital

Snyder General Hospital has received considerable publicity in the Abilene Reporter-News and the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, local readers of the dailies have noted.

The papers carried articles about the hospital opening in their Sunday editions, then reproduced the hospital picture and comment Tuesday. Previously, both papers had carried news of the hospital's beginning and progress.

Plans are being made for further publicity in state and regional monthly magazines.

W. D. Sanders Named High School Mayor on Reform Party's Ticket

W. D. Sanders rode to victory Wednesday as mayor of Snyder High School. His vehicle was the ballot of the Reform Party, which lacked only one candidate making a clean sweep in the hotly contested school election.

The annual election of student government officials, conducted on the lines of a regular legal election under sponsorship of Mrs. J. P. Nelson's civics class, produced keen interest and high balloting. Climax of the race was reached Tuesday morning, when rival campaign managers outlined the merits of their candidates in an assembly program.

W. D.'s victory was over Otha Lee Clark, 1934-35 mayor. Fickas 1934 was the Progressive Party's only successful candidate.

SAVE FEED BY STORING IT IN TRENCH SILOS

Several Farmers Answer Suggestion By Getting Busy With Their Fresnos and Wagons.

"Save that feed!" is the cry of those who have seen West Texas suffer in dry years because feed rots to tremendous prices.

With late rains and improved feed prospects, the county agent and others who have made a study of the situation are suggesting trench silos as the cheapest and least troublesome of all methods devised for storing surplus feed.

The history of West Texas has proven that short feed crops may be expected occasionally, and that the majority of farmers and ranchers are caught in the lurch of top-heavy feed prices. Years of investigation and experience have proven that the trench silo is the solution.

County Farmers Busy.

Several county farmers are already using trench silos. George Brumley, who resides west of town, was one of the first to dig a trench silo. He has filled one 70-ton silo, and is digging another this week.

Ben Brooks, on whose place in the Plainview community a demonstration was given recently by E. R. Eudaly, state expert, has filled his 40-ton trench. He reported that the feed storage cave was dug in 12 hours with a three-foot Fresno and two men.

Charley Eastman, living west of Snyder, who is also a county leader in trench silo work, has dug and filled two 65-ton storage bins.

Increasing Interest.

County Agent W. R. Lacey reports increasing interest in digging the trench silos, and he expects several dozen will be in use before cold weather sets in.

Farmers and ranchers interested in digging the feed storage silos may get details by seeing those who have dug and filled theirs, or from the county agent.

Trench silo work in West Texas as a whole was given a decided boost Friday at the Spur experiment station and farm, when more than 2,000 persons saw demonstrations in filling trench silos, both by bundles and grinding, in cutting bundle feed in the field and preparing it for the silo, all in one operation.

Jewish Holidays to Be Celebrated Here

Local Jewish-operated stores will be closed all day Saturday, except late in the day, in order to celebrate Rosh Hoshonah, the Jewish New Year.

The Economy Store will open its doors at 6:00 o'clock in the evening, and Pick & Pay Store will open at 5:00 o'clock in the evening.

Monday, October 7, will be celebrated at Yum Kipper, the Day of Atonement.

MORE COUNTY SCHOOLS OPEN

The three-teacher Canyon school will open its doors to students Monday morning, with a new principal, Leonard Stock, in charge.

Mrs. Stock, the former Miss Eric Gilmore, who has taught in the Plainview school for several years, and Miss Alta Bowers, who taught at Canyon last year, complete the faculty.

Strayhorn, with D. L. Gilliland as principal and Mrs. W. D. Davis as teacher again, will also open Monday. Only three other county schools—German, Woodard and Lloyd Mountain—will remain closed until some time in October.

Tra schools have closed for a six-weeks cotton picking period.

W. D. Sanders Named High School Mayor on Reform Party's Ticket

W. D. Sanders rode to victory Wednesday as mayor of Snyder High School. His vehicle was the ballot of the Reform Party, which lacked only one candidate making a clean sweep in the hotly contested school election.

The annual election of student government officials, conducted on the lines of a regular legal election under sponsorship of Mrs. J. P. Climax of the race was reached Tuesday morning, when rival campaign managers outlined the merits of their candidates in an assembly program.

W. D.'s victory was over Otha Lee Clark, 1934-35 mayor. Fickas 1934 was the Progressive Party's only successful candidate.

Fluvanna Man Has Hospital Operation

Bob Jones, young Fluvanna resident, underwent the first operation early Wednesday morning at Snyder General Hospital. He was operated for appendicitis. His condition this morning was excellent.

Four other patients entered the hospital for medical treatment Wednesday. They are Mrs. George Bousher of the Dunn community, Mrs. Charley Eastman, who resides west of town, William Hinson of Knapp, and J. F. Gatlin.

Four out-of-county residents—two from Mitchell County and two from Fisher County—visited the hospital Wednesday for consultation.

Lions Entertain New Members of Hospital's Staff

Members of the Snyder General Hospital Staff were guests of honor at the Lions Club Tuesday at noon, just three hours before the new institution began its formal opening period.

The guests were: Dr. Grady Shytle, chief surgeon; Miss Edith Robinson, superintendent; Miss Millie Davidson, surgical nurse; Miss Josie Ham, night nurse; Miss Melba Lee, X-ray and laboratory technician; Mrs. Aubrey Stokes, secretary, and Miss Rube Lee, registrar.

W. J. Ely, vice president of the hospital organization, and A. C. Pruitt, secretary-treasurer, gave an outline of the hospital plans and construction, as well as plans for this week's opening.

Hugh E. Sticksel of Dallas was also a club guest.

Frank Farmer, H. L. Vann and H. J. Brice were introduced as members of a Lions Club committee that worked with the Chamber of Commerce committee toward erection of the hospital.

Several musical numbers were rendered by the school orchestra, which is composed of nine members. They were given hearty applause. The director, Fred P. Rattan, was unable to be present.

Piano Added as Credit Study in Snyder Schools

It is with pleasure that Superintendent C. Wedgeworth announces that piano has been added to the credit courses of Snyder High School. This is a decided forward step for the local school system, since only a few state high schools give any credit in piano study toward graduation.

The teaching will be done, as heretofore, by local piano teachers. The course of study for the year, as outlined by teachers and the superintendent, will be followed by every teacher.

At the end of the first semester an examination will be given in both piano and theory. At the close of the spring semester a hearing will be given each pupil and credit will be given to those successfully passing the work required.

The course of study includes technique, sonatina or sonata, and Bach, works of Schuman, Schubert, Mendelssohn or other Romantic composers, and approximately four memorized compositions from other composers.

This will be quite an incentive to students to continue their musical study, as it will allow them to fit their music into their regular high school work and receive credit, the superintendent says.

Christian Endeavor Leader Will Speak

The First Presbyterian Church congregation will hear Gordon Weir of Abilene, president of the Texas State Christian Endeavor Union, Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Alfred M. Dorsett.

Completing his second year in the position, Mr. Weir has made a creditable record, according to local endeavorers, to whom he is well known and to whom he has spoken several times. He recently led the Texas delegation to the international Christian Endeavor convention at Philadelphia, where the group took many honors accorded to no other state in the Union.

Highway Surfacing Begins in Few Days

Barring a continuation of wet weather, surfacing of Highway No. 7 between Snyder and Hornleigh will be begun within the next week, it was reported yesterday. Practically all materials are ready for the "hot topping" job.

The contractors were set for the surfacing job when the showers began several days ago.

TIGERS READY FOR COLORADO AFFAIR FRIDAY

Special Program is Planned for Dedication of Newly-Lighted Wolf Gridiron.

Stinging from the 40-0 defeat handed them last Friday by Lamesa's regional championship Tornadoses, Red Hill's hustling but inexperienced young hopefuls are being shoved through some fast steps in preparation for the game at Colorado Friday night at 8:00 o'clock, which will open the Wolves' newly-lighted field.

SPECIAL PROGRAM.

Colorado has planned a special dedication program in connection with opening of her newly-lighted field Friday night. Congressman George Mahon will be principal speaker.

Other speakers will include C. Wedgeworth, Snyder superintendent; J. E. Watson, Colorado superintendent; J. H. Greene, secretary of Colorado Chamber of Commerce. Brevity will feature this pre-game program.

Bands and pep squads of both schools will add to the occasion's color.

Coach Hill rushed in practically all his substitutes against Lamesa, and a few of the bench-warmers looked so good that there is no telling what might happen to the lineup at Colorado. Judging from the way they have been lined up in this week's workouts, however, it is probable that the first string that started against Lamesa will be given another chance to show its wares.

Two or three of the boys are ailing, but they looked well enough yesterday for the coach to think that they may all be able to start at Colorado.

Following are the 30 men who are coming out for places on the Tiger line-up:

Blow Sand Yields Plenty of Results To Borden Farmer

Ten acres of blow sand on the farm of Nolan von Roeder of the Murphy community in Borden County paid $738.50 in 1934, according to Cline E. Morris, county agent, in an article just released by the Extension Service of A. & M. College.

While numbers of farmers in this part of the state were worrying about what to do with their blow sand spots, von Roeder was setting out peach and plum trees on his higher dividends than 100 acres adjoining it. So the article continues.

To date, von Roeder has sold 800 bushels of peaches and plums from this orchard at 75 cents to $1 per bushel and still has his late crop of peaches to sell. This will be approximately 200 bushels.

Brown & Son Have Put in New Market

Pat and Harold Brown announced last week the addition of a complete meat market to their grocery on the north side of the square.

A large meat counter displays fresh and cured meats, cheeses and other foods that must be kept constantly cold. A regular market refrigerator has been moved into the store in order to carry a full supply of meat needs for customers of Brown & Son.

"We are now fully equipped to offer anything our customers want to eat—right from our own store," the Browns declare.

Smith Azam Appointed.

Ben F. Smith has been named as a commissioner for Scurry County. He will again assist farmers on verge of bankruptcy to secure a three-year moratorium through government aid. Seven county farmers have been assisted in this way since last October.

More Than 1,000 At Opening of Hospital

81,550 Acres of Cotton Grown in County This Year

A final recheck of measurements in the county agent's office reveals that 81,550 acres are planted to cotton in Scurry County this year. This figure contrasts with a five-year base average of 126,780 acres.

The county's 1935 Bankhead allotment, revised, is 8,715,938 pounds, or approximately 17,432 bales of 500-pound average. The figure was given in last week's Times as 17,464 bales.

With addition of about 3,800 carry-over bales from the 1934 crop, plus the county's probable quota of about 1,000 bales from the state reserve, the total Scurry County Bankhead allotment for 1935 will be between 22,000 and 23,000 bales.

The Bankhead allotment of 8,715,938 pounds for this year's crop was made on the basis of 12,849,932 pounds, computed as the five-year average. The county has a correction factor of .6783, or about 68 percent of that is, its quota out of the total U. S. quota of 10,500,000 bales is based on that percentage of former production. The U. S. average is 65 per cent.

Distribution of certificates was begun 10 days ago. All 1934 carry-over certificates and new 1935 certificates, with the exception of this county's share of the state reserve, have been received.

Cotton Co-op Opens Local Office Again

The local cotton co-op office, closed last season, was opened again several days ago by J. E. Brown, resident of Rotan, for 16 years and a cotton man of several years experience.

The former co-op office, over the Towle Jewelry Company, is being occupied by the newcomer.

Mr. Brown states that he will be pleased to talk over cotton marketing problems with farmers, especially details of the 12-cent government subsidy.

Grocery Supply for Hospital Is Donated

The Snyder General Hospital staff was surprised Tuesday when its kitchen pantry was filled with a full stock of $40 or $50 worth of groceries and meats.

The array of cans, sacks and boxes came from the shelves of Maurice Brownfield's Piggly-Wiggly—thanks to Maurice's desire to see the institution off to a good eating start.

EASTLAND MAN LEADS REVIVAL

With Rev. N. E. Scott of Eastland in the pulpit, a revival will begin at the city tabernacle Thursday, October 3, under auspices of the Church of the Nazarene of Scurry County.

Announcement of the meeting was made early this week by Rev. J. Ollie Hux, county Church of the Nazarene pastor.

Services will begin at 8:00 o'clock each evening. Day services will be arranged later.

"Everybody is invited to assist in this old-time gospel campaign for God and souls," said Rev. Hux. "Come, let us pray and sing and worship the living God in spirit and in truth, and study the Bible together."

Mail Free Copies Of Hospital Issue

The Times has several copies of last week's special hospital issue on hand, and is making them available to readers on the "first come, first served" basis.

If you will turn in names and addresses of persons to whom you would like to mail news of the new hospital, before Saturday noon, the publishers will mail them without cost. Several hundred extra copies have already been mailed to practically every state in the Union.

WETNESS AGAIN SLOWS COTTON

Scurry County cotton was given another temporary setback early this week when light showers visited practically every community, and heavy rains struck in a few sections.

The precipitation, often merely a heavy mist, continued several hours from Monday morning until late Tuesday.

Despite the temporary delay in picking cotton, the general belief is that the rains will be of much benefit than harm in the long run. Winter grain, late gardens and late feed, as well as pastures, have been greatly benefitted, and unless frost comes early it is probable that the moisture will actually increase the cotton crop.

Gins are continuing to operate only two days each week—Wednesday and Saturday—until cotton begins moving more speedily.

Baptist Meeting Will Close With Sunday Services

The revival services that have been in progress at the First Baptist Church since Sunday, September 15, will close Sunday night, September 22.

Climax of the meeting was reached Sunday morning, when a number of reconsecrations and conversions resulted from a talk at the Sunday school hour by Joe Trussell of Brownwood, visiting singer, and the pastor's sermon at the regular church hour. "It was truly a high hour," Rev. Lawrence Hays, pastor, declared.

A baptismal service was held Monday night, and another will be announced shortly after the close of the meeting, the pastor said yesterday.

Tentative sermon subjects for the remaining evening services and for Sunday morning have been announced as follows: Thursday, "The Voices That Call Us"; Friday, "What Shall I Do to Be Saved?"; Saturday, "The New Birth"; Sunday morning, "The Surrendered Life"; Sunday night, "The Prodigal Son."

Mrs. Belle Rivers, Colored, Is Buried

Funeral for Mrs. Belle (Perkins) Rivers, 50, resident of the Snyder colored district, was held Thursday morning of last week, 10:30 o'clock, at the colored church, with Rev. Taylor, Methodist preacher from Colorado, officiating. Burial was in the Snyder cemetery, with Odum Funeral Home in charge.

Perkins, employe of Scurry County Motor Company, is the only immediate survivor. Pallbearers were Bill Clay, Doc Jennings, Earl Moore, K. C. Sparks, Bill Miles and Sam Lawson.

Co-op Gin Meet Monday

Stockholders of the Snyder Co-operative Gin Company, operators of the old Trice gin, will meet Monday in their first regular monthly business session since the recent organization, announces Sterling Taylor, secretary-manager.

SINGERS WILL MEET SUNDAY

China Grove singing class is making plans to entertain a large group of singers at the Fifth Sunday Scurry County Singing Convention at the church building Sunday at 2:00 p. m.

Since the Mitchell County classes that were planned for the day have been called off, it is expected that many singers in the adjoining county will be present.

All singers are invited to come and bring their books. Anton White is president of the China Grove singing class.

Doctors and Wives of Area Entertained at New Hospital Monday

WEALTH OF CUT FLOWERS GREET MANY VISITORS

A wealth of cut flowers and ferns turned the new Snyder General Hospital into a lovely flower garden for entertaining out-of-town doctors, their wives, and other invited guests Monday. The formal opening of the hospital came Tuesday afternoon and evening.

For the formalities, large Boston ferns presented by the General Electric X-Ray Corporation of Dallas formed the background for the floral decorations. Other ferns were from the local Bell's Flower Shop. Giant dahlias and zinnias, periwinkles, roses, marigolds and jack-bean blossoms were in profusion.

Yellow was featured in the reception room decorations, with huge bouquets of marigolds. Bouquets of flowers were placed in each room, and baskets filled with cut flowers and ferns lined the hallways.

The wide hall just outside the kitchen was used for the serving of refreshments. A color scheme of pink and green was used there. Festoons of ferns lined the walls and large pink dahlias in baskets were placed along the walls. The lace-covered table was centered with queen's wreath. Mmes. N. M. Harpole and G. B. Clark Sr. poured coffee from the two silver services at each end of the table. Refreshments consisted of meat sandwiches, olives, pickles, cake and coffee.

Mrs. Lee T. Stinson was general entertainment chairman, and Mr. Stinson, W. J. Ely and John E. Sentell composed the directors' committee. Mrs. W. J. Ely presided at the register, where 75 guests registered during the day.

Club meetings are weekly events for "The Weekly Club," and Tuesday is its meeting day. At the meeting this week the following program was enjoyed: Tap dance, LaNelle White; piano solo, Virginia Preullit, and a poem by Doyle Stokes.

Roberta Ely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ely of Snyder, made one of the highest grades on freshman English placement tests in McMurry College last week, and as a result has been classified in an honors course by Miss Julia Luker, head of the department. More than 200 freshmen took the examination.

A luncheon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Woodfin last Tuesday was the first meeting of the year for the Woman's Culture Club. Mrs. Woodfin is serving the club as president for the second year.

Pink and green, club colors, were emphasized in decorations and appointments for the affair. Bouquets of lovely crepe myrtle in green bows and green candles burning in the rooms further carried out the chosen colors.

Following the luncheon Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn directed the program. Ensemble singing was the opening number on the program, as the club sang "Just Be the Tie That Binds." Mrs. Woodfin gave a toast to the club and Mrs. J. R. Huckabee, club poet, gave the response.

A picture will be presented at the end of the year to the room in the school which has the most mothers present at monthly P.-T. A. meetings during the year, it was decided during the business meeting. Plans are being made by the hospitality committee for a tea, to be given soon, honoring the teachers. The committee, which is headed by Mrs. B. M. West, will announce the date for the tea at a later date.

On the afternoon's program, Mrs. D. P. Yoder appeared to talk on "The Home's Responsibility for the Success of Schools." Joe Trussell of Brownwood favored the group with a vocal solo, "Grace," accompanied by Mrs. R. S. Sullivan.

Meetings of the parents and teachers will be held every third Thursday. All school patrons are urged to attend.

Nervous, Weak Woman Soon All Right

"I had regular shaking spells from nervousness," writes Mrs. Cora Sanfers, of Paragould, Ark. "I was all run-down and cramped at my time until I would have to go to bed. After my first bottle of Cardui, I was better. I kept taking Cardui and soon I was all right. The shaking quit and I did not cramp. I felt worlds better. I gave Cardui to my daughter who was in about the same condition and she got such all right. Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician."

LET'S TALK ABOUT CLOTHES
By a "Young Modern"

With the advent of each new season, the question that invariably comes up is "What colors and materials will be 'top notch' in the fashion parade?" Particularly true is this of the fall and winter season when fashion tries to outdo the deadness of the season in a display of brilliant woolsens and silks that add spark to the general atmosphere.

The 1935 autumn selects purple as one of the most outstanding hues on the color chart. A brilliant regal tone that is smartly new in soft rabbit's hair wool makes a charming ensemble for town wear. It can be worn with either black or brown accessories. Closely akin to the royal shade of purple is that shade fashion exponents call tulle, a dull rich tone that is smart in its restrained sophistication. It, too, is shown in soft clinging wools and smooth texture silks.

Bright green is a feature color for fall and is greatly in demand by the younger groups, according to students at Texas State College for Women (CIA). Accents of black in large "frog loops" buttons and patent leather conventional flowers are again seen on the fashion roster. They make chic suits and can be effectively trimmed with velvet or fur.

The wine shade of a season ago has given way to a more brilliant tone and comes out, fresh from the designer, in a brick color. The material is self-woven into strips making a pleasing fabric for semi-sport frocks. This brick color is popular in mingled tweeds with brown and green, and is nice when trimmed with dark brown fur.

Club Enthusiastic As New Year Begins.

Members of the Altrurian Club are optimistic as their new club year begins. Under the leadership of Mrs. O. P. Thrane, president, the study group already has its work well-organized, and the president expects numerous accomplishments for the club during the year.

Re-assembly Day at the home of Mrs. E. J. Anderson Friday was a happy occasion for the Altrurian Club. Mrs. W. R. Bell was director for the program. An introduction of the new club officers was the most important event of the meeting. Mrs. Bell acted as mistress of ceremonies, introducing Mrs. Thrane, who responded with a beautiful president's message.

Other officers presented were: Mrs. Joe Caton, recording secretary; Mrs. J. W. Leftwich, corresponding secretary; Mrs. F. W. Wolcott, treasurer; Mrs. E. J. Anderson, reporter; and Mrs. R. D. English, parliamentarian. Each responded briefly when presented. Mrs. Hugh Boren, vice president, was not present at the meeting.

Mrs. H. P. Brown gave a selected reading, and the club quartet, composed of Mmes. R. L. Gray, A. C. Preuitt, W. W. Hamilton and P. W. Wolcott, sang "Rounded Up in Glory."

The hostess passed a salad course at the close of the program to the following: Mrs. R. L. McCormick, a guest, and Mmes. W. R. Bell, H. P. Brown, Joe Caton, R. H. Curnutte, J. C. Dorward, R. D. West Texas and Taxation.

If you are not interested in taxation, you will not be interested in this editorial. The vital question of how revenues shall be raised during the approaching year is probably of keener interest to West Texas than it is to any other portion of the state, for West Texas has little to be taxed except lands, livestock and other visible property.

It is especially pertinent, therefore, that the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, true to its nature of tackling man-sized jobs in man-sized fashion, should take an active part in shaping tax measures that will be fair to West Texas. Carrying out this plan of definite action, the WTCC has addressed a letter on taxation to each of the West Texas legislators. This letter, signed by Ray H. Nichols, president, James D. Hamlin, chairman of the public expenditure commission, and H. C. Custard, vice chairman of the commission, reads in full as follows:

"We hope you will not think us presumptuous for presenting to you and all of our West Texas legislators the views of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce relative to vital revenue and taxation problems confronting the special session of the Legislature.

State Deficit of $10,000,000.

"With an estimated state deficit of $10,000,000; with the potential costs of the old age pension running all the way from $7,500,000 to $56,000,000 per year; with inadequate support of our public schools, and with the unconscionable tax burden on real estate, it is obvious that new sources of revenues must be found and additional taxes must be raised.

"Nearly everybody will agree that new revenues cannot be raised by additional taxes on real estate. The constitutional limits in nearly all political subdivisions have been reached. The assessed values in West Texas practically exceed market values, and we find in West Texas a growing and insistent demand that the total load of ad valorem taxes be decreased permanently rather than increased.

"In all fairness and justice the tax load on real estate should be lightened. It is not fair for real estate, representing only one-third of the wealth of the state, to bear 75 per cent of all the taxes of the state and its political subdivisions. It is not just either for taxes to consume so great a percentage of the net returns from property. It is stated by authorities that ad valorem taxes are consuming on an average 89 1/2 per cent of the net earnings of property. Our staggering amount of tax delinquency estimated at $150,000,000 is proof of the fact that property is not earning its taxes and that these taxes are becoming confiscatory. Surely every reason of justice and fairness exists for giving the property owner some tax relief.

Important Matter to West Texas.

"This is an especially important matter in West Texas. All we have in West Texas are our lands, livestock and other visible property. Our welfare is dependent upon our net earnings from property, and the ad valorem tax load is stigmatizing West Texas. Because of taxes, land tenancy is increasing and our lands, homes and property are reverting back to Eastern and Northern bond holders. There is little investment in, or exchange of property and this only at ruinous low prices, which leaves the property owner stranded and on the relief roll. In addition, our assessed values are higher in West Texas than elsewhere and we pay proportionately more into the state treasury than other sections. We feel that nothing would contribute more to the recovery and prosperity of West Texas than taking some of the burden of taxes off real estate.

"Many other states in the Union have lightened the tax burden on real estate and we believe that Texas should and must do the same thing. Now, when the question of new revenues and taxes confront us in order to provide relief to the destitute and unfortunate, it is imperative that we, like other states, also give the destitute property owner relief. We, therefore, suggest that at least one-half of new revenues raised be used for the purpose of supplanting and replacing present taxes on real estate and visible property, and we request your support of this proposition.

"The problem of new revenues, of course, will be considered in providing for the old age pension. We favor and support the old age pension, providing provisions are made whereby the needy and the worthy are assured and guaranteed its benefits. A study of what other states have done in this connection reveals that practically all of the 36 states having the old age pension have required that need be the basis of granting the pension. The provisions of other states vary from "wholly destitute" and "without other means of support" to "resources of not more than $3,000." We are confident that the Legislature will make some such provision as these in extending our pension; and we are confident that the Legislature will see to it that those who can support themselves, or have relatives able to support them do not take the pension away from the needy.

Staggering Pension Figures.

"Published figures show that there are 283,000 persons in Texas over 65 years of age, and that 41,787 of these are on the Texas relief rolls. To give a pension to all would require raising over $56,000,000 annually which is twice the amount of money spent by the state on our public schools. Such a program would result in the collapse of the entire program, and would deprive the needy of the benefits.

"Those on the state relief roll (41,787) in our opinion provide a basis for very generously estimating the amount of revenues necessary for the old age pension. There might be some who are entitled to the pension but who because of pride are not on the relief roll. There are many others, however, who are temporarily out of employment, who have other means of support and who are on the relief roll. Hence it is our opinion that the relief roll is an amply generous basis for estimating pension requirements. To provide the maximum pension to a number equiv-

The Safety Lane Idea.

The state-wide Safety Lane idea, conducted through the state highway patrol in order to cut down auto accidents and fatalities, should spread into every community in the state. At Abilene, where hundreds of cars were examined, it was discovered that a heavy percentage of vehicles are unfit for safe travel. Education, plus the heavy hand of the law, must bring a stop to auto deaths, which are greater almost any year than the American World War toll.

EDITORIAL OF THE WEEK

BAD COLLECTORS.

The publisher of a prosperous newspaper in a substantial county seat of West Central Texas writes: In that he recently became dissatisfied with the amount of county printing he was getting. Like any good business man, he decided to go to the root of the matter and find out how much was going to others in proportion to the little that was coming to him.

Examining the records at the courthouse, the minutes of the Commissioners' Court, etc., he "came to the conclusion that our place was fortunate in not getting any great amount of the county printing." The reason for that good fortune, it seems, lay in the fact that "warrants drawn against the general county fund are being discounted for cash at the rate of about 50 per cent. Of course no one can afford to take business on that basis."

Certainly not—unless the price charged should contemplate the discount. "Another thing I discovered was that the sum of the delinquent taxes in this county is almost enough to pay its operating expenses for the present fiscal year. If collected, these delinquencies would eliminate the necessity for any levy for the year 1934. If we allow property owners, many of whom can pay, to continue on the delinquent rolls, with a subsequent addition each year, I am just wondering what the increase will be on our next assessment.—State Press in The Dallas News.

Youth is the period of progress through action and I shall be mindful as I talk to them that they are firm in the faith that the purpose of government must ever be the welfare of all the people.—President Roosevelt.

I don't think much of a man who is not wiser today than he was yesterday.—Abraham Lincoln.

alent to the relief roll would require an annual appropriation of about $7,500,000. We, therefore, suggest that provisions be made for extending the old age pension to the needy only and that revenues no greater than $7,500,000 annually be allotted to the pension fund.

"The pressing problem of course is where to get the revenues with which to handle the pensions and by which to relieve property taxes. The position of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce on this matter is well defined as you will note by enclosed copy of our Plainview convention resolution, which requests our Legislature to inquire into the general sales tax field as a means of broadening our tax base and of raising additional revenue.

Consumer Pays in Long Run.

"In the end the consumer pays nearly all of the taxes anyhow, and why not now, when the state must have additional revenue, have a square and honest sales tax stripped of subterfuge and evasion. A gross receipts tax is merely an evasion, not supposed to be passed on to the consumer, but which will be passed on to the consumer in a greater percentage than a definite sales tax. The consumer should not be tricked into believing that he is not going to pay this tax when the facts are that he will pay it. It would stagnate and ruin the merchant to absorb a gross receipts tax and the welfare of the state demands that merchants be not penalized by an additional tax. Natural resource taxes will not produce enough money and besides we can't tax out of existence our best means of giving employment to people. The income tax field is already occupied by the federal government and will in future years be greatly added to by the federal government.

"There remains only the general sales tax paid by the consumer from which to raise adequate revenues. Twenty-eight other states including three of our bordering states have adopted it in order to provide for welfare needs and to relieve ad valorem taxes. A two or three per cent sales tax would raise from 30 to 60 million dollars. Here is an ample fund from which to take care of the old age pensions, to give property some tax relief and to balance the state's budget. From such a fund the state could abolish the state and school ad valorem tax, thereby relieving property from a portion of its unfair tax load. We urge your support of a general sales tax providing at least one-half of the revenue therefrom be used to supplant ad valorem taxes.

"Such a tax program, providing for old age pensions, relieving property taxes and balancing the budget, we believe will secure widespread support. The imposition of new taxes without recognizing the plight of the property owner and without giving him some relief, we believe, will be militantly opposed by our people."

FLUVANNA COUPLE WRITE OF RECENT JAUNT TO SIX STATES

Mrs. and Mrs. J. E. Jones of Fluvanna, who, with Wayne Green, recently returned from a vacation trip into six states, say they had a great time on their lengthy jaunt. While in Arkansas they visited many places of interest. About the most interesting was the Mammoth Spring and Roller Dam. This spring is known as the world's largest spring.

They also visited the Hot Springs National Park. They rode an elevator to the top of the observatory tower. This tower is 815 feet above the city. There are over 32 curves going up the hill to the tower. Another place of interest is the big fifth farm at Mammoth Springs.

They visited their nephews, Charles Clanton, at Wheeler, and Turner Clanton, at Salem. After leaving Arkansas they came into the state of Mississippi. They crossed the Mississippi River on a steamboat at Vicksburg.

Mrs. Jones says the most beautiful and interesting place they visited in Mississippi was the Vicksburg National Military Park. The park consists of 1,323.63 acres. It comprises the battle area and actual siege and defense of Vicksburg, May 18 to July 4, 1863. There are park roads which run the entire length of the park. The story of the siege, campaign and defense of Vicksburg is recorded in bronze, iron and granite on 898 historical tablets, 274 markers and 230 monuments marking the positions of the various military organizations engaged.

There are 19 beautiful memorials, three fine equestrian statues, and more than 150 busts and relief portraits that have been erected in memory of the troops and officers who served there. A historical museum is located at park headquarters. It contains many interesting exhibits of Civil War relics—maps, pictures, etc. The Vicksburg National Cemetery is a very beautiful place. It consists of 40 acres and the interments now number 17,500. Of these, 12,911 are unknown soldiers.

They traveled through many very beautiful towns in Mississippi, and declared that Jackson was the most beautiful of all. After leaving Mississippi, they entered the state of Tennessee. They saw many interesting sights in Tennessee. They visited the river front and levee at Memphis, and the double bridges called the Memphis and Harrihan Bridges, which span the Mississippi River at Memphis. The sunken gardens and Morning Side Park were very beautiful places.

Another place of interest was the natural bridge located in Wayne County, 11 miles from Waynesboro, Tennessee. The elevation is 1800 feet. This beautiful rock span once sheltered the first court of Wayne and Hardin Counties, and is still known by the natives as "rock court house." The sparkling "Lake of the Woods" is a mile long, which is well stocked with fish. There are numerous caves lighted by electricity.

David Crockett, immortal hero of the Alamo, lived here in 1808 and served as magistrate for Lawrence County in 1812. They crossed into the state of Alabama at Florence, where they visited with relatives, Claud Leonard and Ruth Flippo, and Houston Jones. This was the place where Mr. Jones was born and reared. He says the house to the old home place was in Alabama, while the barn was in Tennessee.

While in Alabama, they visited the Muscle Shoals Canal and the Wilson Dam, which are located at Florence. The Wilson Dam is only a five-minute drive from this city. It is operated by the Tennessee Valley Authority. Its length is 4,800 feet, including the driveway. Its height is 117 feet. It is equipped with tandem locks for navigation.

"A Song to Sing"

Leon Guinn, regular contributor to The Times, has written a little essay called "A Song to Sing." It appeared on the front page of the October issue of The Southern Music News, published at Dallas by the Stamps-Baxter Music Company. Virgil O. Stamps, commenting on the contribution, says: "I am anxious for every reader of the News to read and re-read the fine article by our good friend, Leon Guinn, in this issue. 'A Song to Sing' will stand reading many times—many will want to commit it to memory."

In the well-spring of the heart a song to sing is the fountain of benevolence, its cleansing waters washing away the rust of the intellect and sterilizing the wound of adversity. A good song is like a bouquet of lilacs, filling the room of the soul with fragrance.

Vaunted halls of brick and marble may decay, the grass of yesterday may wither and people live and return to the dust; only the songs they sang may live on and on in the mind reservoirs of their children—strong tides of emotion pushing against the undertow of sin. A religious song is the heart's insurance policy, paying an endowment for life. It takes the sojourner through the mists of sorrow, and the sunshine of happiness, down through the valley of death's shadow and on to the gates of eternity!

A song to sing is the opening prayer in the course of a busy and well rounded life, and a blessed benediction on life's sunset; its rhythm and melody the pulsating force behind the brain's most noble creation of mankind. Its virtues are sweet and decent without being obvious. The words of gospel songs are building stones for the temple of the inner man and woman, polished with the fineness and sparkle of quality and skilled craftsmanship, and cemented with the blood of forgiveness.

The restless voices of the earth's trade winds sing of eternal life. The children of men peopling the four corners of the globe sing of eternal life, and the universe, with its galaxy of stars and planets verify our song. A sacred song is the highest psalm of praise, the substance of faith, the condensed explanation of religion. Beneath the tears, smiles and impulses of the human race reposes a tender yearning in the soul's sanctuary for a song to sing!

Weight and Experience Make Wolves Favorites

Many Veterans on Colorado Squad Must Be Overcome by Hill's Fighting Tigers.

The band of Wolves that Snyder meets Friday night at 8:00 o'clock on Cautrill Field, Colorado, will be very much akin to the Lamesa tribe as far as weight and experience are concerned. But their record is far from as imposing as the Tornado record.

Colorado's Opening Line-up Against Midland

Midland last Friday weighed about 162 pounds to the map—which is almost exactly the weight of the Lamesa squad, and almost exactly 10 pounds to the man heavier than Red Hill's youngsters. Backfield and line have about the same poundage.

Thirty-five Men Out.

Thirty-five men are reporting for a place on the Wolf squad, one of whom, Regal Porter, has seen three years of experience. Six men, including Captain Priester, Morrison, Miller, Garrett, Smith and Shurtleff, have been on the team for two years. Eleven men have seen one previous year as defenders of Wolf traditions.

In contrast with this imposing line-up, Snyder has 30 men out for daily workouts, with only five out of the list ever having seen any football experience prior to this season. Only four—Otha Lee Clark, Bo Moffett, J. P. Tate and J. C. Morran—lettered last year, and all of these are playing their second year.

Colorado Leads on Paper.

Records for the year also give Colorado decidedly the edge. Playing their first game under their new coach, Jim Reese, they held the Class A Midland squad to a 13-0 score last Friday. At the same time, Snyder was losing, 46-0, to a strong Lamesa aggregation. The locals lost the previous week to Slaton, 8-0.

Since this will be the first meeting of the two teams in four years, due to Colorado's somewhat disastrous trial in Class A company, double interest is expected to be aroused on both ends of the line.

Coach Red Hill's proteges believe they will make up in fight what they lack in experience and weight. With two hard games behind them, they are toughened to a strenuous campaign, and may show Colorado a few things about what a green football team, worked up to a high pitch, can do in the way of dedicating the new stadium in the Mitchell County city.

The Wolf Line-up.

The Wolf line-up of 35 players, with the probable first string listed first, runs like this:

Snyder Harvests Much Experience In Lamesa Game

A green Snyder football team gathered considerable experience at Tiger Field Friday afternoon, as a fair-sized crowd of fans paraded out for the opening home game.

Lamesa's whirling Tornadoes, regional champions of 1934, and generally accepted as last season's leading Class B team in West Texas, whipped the locals by the impressive score of 46 to 0.

Halfback McKinnon, fleet Lamesan, scored on the fifth play after kickoff. This feat evidently took the starch out of the Tigers, who were lighter than the visitors by 10 pounds to the man. After that, except for brief flurries of local ground gaining, the Tornadoes ripped around the local ends and tackled to pile up 17 first downs.

End-Around Scores.

A few gains were made by passes, and a very few directly through the line, but most of them were made on an end-around play, with slight variations, that Tiger tackles, ends and backs were never able to completely solve.

By the time the fourth quarter opened, both teams had practically all second string men on the field. In fact, Coach Hill pulled all his first stringers at the quarter, and sent none of them back. Weldon Strayhorn, substitute quarterback, captained the second team instead of Otha Lee Clark, tackle, first string chief.

Every fan was struck with two things about the Tiger squad: First, they are as tough as boots. Not a local man had "time out" called for him. Second, Coach Hill has an likely a batch of prospects for the 1936 and 1937 squads as you'll find in most any Class B school. A few fans even predict that the coach will weld them into such shape this season that they may throw a scare into the district race.

Boswell Is Sparkplug.

Captain Boswell, quarterback, was the sparkplug of the Tornado attack from beginning to end. He gave most of the ball-carrying honors to McKinnon and to Jordan, big fullback, but he did some handsome delivering of the goods too. Games, big left tackle, and Walker, left end, looked best in the visiting line.

Johnny Boren, slender Snyder back-sapper, and Bo Moffett, accounted for the two local first downs on running plays, and a pass. Boren to Kite, netted 21 yards just before the half closed. Morrow, youthful end, was probably the most likely home-town lineman.

Penalties for Lamesa reached the high total of 90 yards, while Snyder penalties amounted to 50 yards. Snyder blocked two Lamesa tries for extra points, and one went wide. Boswell played the lone wolf after the last touchdown, when he dropped-kicked a beautiful arch for the point. Cozzins, center, kicked the other points.

Steering Wheel Reveals Driving Secrets

The special apparatus illustrated above was used during the "auto fatigue" researches conducted by the famous physiologist, Dr. Andrew H. Ryan of Chicago, to determine the number of movements of the steering wheel made by a driver in the course of a day's run.

This test was one of a number through which the amount of mental, nervous and muscular energy required for the operation and control of different automobiles was measured. A 300-mile drive will require 10,000 to 30,000 oscillations or movements of the steering wheel, depending on the nature of the road and traffic. The test car illustrated above is a Dodge.

ON TEXAS FARMS

By Minnie Fisher Cunningham, Extension Service Editor

For the third year Victor Kunkel of Olney, Young County, has filled his trench silo. Three other farmers are following his example and putting in trench silos this year.

Interest in trench silos in the South Plains section of the state is so great that a demonstration on filling such a silo given in Fisher County recently was attended by farmers and ranchmen from nearby counties. The big feed crop this year and the recurring drouths have combined to arouse this interest.

A trench silo with cemented sides has been constructed in sandy soil on a ranch in Stonewall County. The filling of it will be made the attraction for a meeting of neighbors to observe the process.

All King County is in earnest about conserving feed in trench silos. A barbecue followed the demonstration silo filling on the Martin Ranch and after that a farm-to-farm canvass of the county was planned to sell the idea.

North of Weimert Chester Jones put in a trench silo and southeast of Weimert B. T. Bridges planned to begin on one in September, as a result of a trench silo demonstration given on the Pace farm southwest of Haskell late in August. More than 75 farmers watched the process on the Pace farm.

Frank Luig of Scotland in Archer County made the first trench silo in his county. John Herndon of the Back Flat section dug and filled the second one in August.

Thirty farmers and stockmen gathered on the J. C. Miller farm in the Deer Creek community in August to watch a trench silo being filled with bundles of corn and grain sorghum. The "shingling" method was used.

All Time Attendance Records Broken At Panhandle South Plains Fair

All time attendance records are being smashed this week at the Panhandle South Plains Fair, Lubbock, and there is a reason.

Fair directors have assembled the biggest array of free attractions for the visitors that has ever been offered in this section.

On top of all that, exhibitors have filled every building to overflowing with the largest quantity as well as the best quality of exhibits ever to be grouped at Lubbock.

A number of Scurry County visitors have attended the fair.

Fair patrons have been keeping the rides at the Western Exposition shows busy and the shows well filled. The last three days of the week, banner crowds are expected to see Harry Sadler's new three-ring circus on the midway and the downtown parades at noon.

The boxing and wrestling shows and fireworks each evening, the Martin V-8 daredevil riders, the Al-fetta ladder and Captain Jack's 50-foot dive have been attracting mobs of fair visitors.

Friday, press day, is expected to rival that big attendance marked up last Wednesday on school day. Hon. Harry Hines, chairman of the Texas Highway Commission, will be the principal speaker at a luncheon at 12:00 noon at Lubbock Hotel when South Plains newspaper editors will be honored by the fair association and Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. After the luncheon, newspapermen will visit the fair in a group.

Fair Manager A. B. Davis and Parker Prouty, fair president, have promised to "shoot the works" Saturday, closing day. All free acts will be presented and some new features will go on for the amusement of the crowds that will jam the grounds for a last look at the big fair.

Demonstrations At Spur Seen by More Than 2,000

The state experiment station and farm at Spur had its biggest day Friday since it was established 22 years ago in the heart of what was then the Spur ranch. Among more than 2,000 guests who were entertained by Superintendent R. E. Dickson and his co-workers were 15 or 20 Scurry County residents.

Among the county delegates were County Agent W. R. Laco, O. P. Thrane, Pete Brady, Lee T. Stinson, Harrie Winston, W. C. Hooks, J. C. Beakley, L. E. Russell and Jasper Helms. The Times is unable to learn names of the others who made the trip.

More than 100 West Texas communities were represented. The register book included names of a dozen men outstanding in state agricultural research and practice.

Under Dickson's general direction demonstrations were given in filling trench silos, both by bundles and grinding, in cutting bundle feed in the field and preparing it for the silo, all in one operation, and in contouring (listing) on pasture lands.

Results of the station's cattle feeding demonstrations were given, purpose to show the importance of vitamin A in feeding cottonseed meal. Dickson and others explained timidity of northern feeders in going in for a cottonseed diet. They have claimed it would be harmful to cattle if continued for a considerable time. It was shown, however, that if combined with green stuff, a cottonseed diet may be continued indefinitely with beneficial results. Stock was fed on cotton seed and alfalfa for more than 200 days, and Dickson is thinking of extending the experiment to 800 days.

Water conservation with control of run-off was given much attention. Dickson leading the group to the tight land Caraway farm one mile away there, early this spring, Dockum creek, a deep and narrow stream given to destructive flooding, was dammed at a cost of only $400. Its waters have been directed entirely around the farm, result being the finest crop in the county.

At midday the visitors were fed on a barbecue derivative known in cowboy circles as blanket-blank, with coffee.

Fortunately that California monkey used in the freezing experiment will be unable to write a book about its experiences.—Ohio State Journal.

Charley Lockhart's Daughter Has Poem In Verse Magazine

Copy of a poem written by Lee Rene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Lockhart, formerly of Snyder, and published in a Texas literary magazine, has been received in Snyder by Mrs. J. P. Morgan.

The daughter of the state treasurer is a niece of Jim Lockhart of Snyder. She has written a number of poems that have been published.

Following is the poem, entitled "Ashes," published in "Texas Writers of Today":

Seven bells in the tower of ivory
Have tolled the hour of sacrifice,
Remove the sandals from thy feet,
Oh wine merchant, oh seller of figs,
That the alabaster temple be not defiled
With dust from the street.
Caress not the god of flame with thy finger tips.
Lest they, too, become flame.
Neither lay the white rose beside the poppy.
Or the rose will seem dead in its whiteness.
Yet do these things matter greatly,
Oh God of great wisdom,
For are not all ashes of the same dull gray?

CURRENT COMMENT

By Leon Gulim.

War clouds are bearing down heavily on small, thinly peopled Ethiopia, current Africa hot spot. . . . Next week the maschal flowers will bloom in Halle Selassie's conquered and undeveloped empire, but tribal warriors fear the maschal will be stained with blood, as were poppies in Flanders' Field. . . . Benito Mussolini has been flaunting 500,000 men in Europe's face, and last week he found war at Italy's doorsteps, if he wants it. . . . Great Britain, backed by Europe's great powers and world sympathy, awaits at the Suez Canal invading Italians. . . . When the socialist Mussolini gained power 13 years ago, he became high priest of have-a-baby movements in Italy, from whence comes the crying need for territory and capital expansion. . . . Thus Italian women became dispensers of future Fascists and soldiers.

As dictator, Benito Mussolini rules Italy with an iron fist, and according to Mr. Levy of Levy Bros. Sweetwater, who has just returned from Europe (visited nine countries), the Italian people do not want war. . . . Almost incredible is the fact Mussolini defies all nations to deter him from Ethiopian invasion (the British have a steel lock on territory southwest of the black nation). . . . In trying to recreate the grandeur that was Rome, Mussolini likely will prove the firebrand presaging his own downfall. . . . Both French and British know Ethiopian annexation will be only one step in an ambitious, long planned scheme. . . . Shrewd, full bearded Halle Selassie finds unexpected backing. If Duce the British Lion ready with yawning jaws. . . . SHU! the Italian people cry peace.
