"YOUR HOME COUNTY PAPER"

FORTY-EIGHTH YEAR.

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY AFTERNOON, FEBRUARY 6

NUMBER 35

Resettlement Office Is Moved to Snyder

Three Counties to Be Administered by Supervisor Slocumb

Snyder was designated yesterday by Robert Fisher, supervisor of District 8, as headquarters for a three-county Resettlement Administration zone. Garza, Mitchell and Scurry Counties are in the new administrative area. Eastland is district headquarters city.

Vernon Slocumb, formerly of Lubbock, is supervisor of the three-county zone. He has already moved to Snyder, and was in the local office yesterday to pair with Jesse Allen, assistant supervisor for the three counties, in helping Resettlement clients.

The district supervisor made arrangements while he was here Wednesday for office upstairs in the old First State Bank Building. At least two office workers will assist Slocumb and Allen there when furnishings are moved in late this week. Rent on the office is being paid by the local Chamber of Commerce.

New County Revenue.

Opening of the new office means that Scurry County will not only benefit from direct expenditures on clients who reside in the county, but will receive additional revenue in connection with administration work for Mitchell and Garza Counties.

Thousands of dollars will be spent during the next few months on teams, tools, livestock and other needs of Resettlement Administration clients.

Slocumb and Allen estimate that the average loan to each client during a year is $500. Scurry County has about 150 clients, and the number is increasing daily. The work has been administered here in recent weeks by Allen, who resides in Roby. Scurry County has been attached to Fisher County for Resettlement purposes since early last fall.

Who Gets These Loans

Resettlement Administration loans are available only to farmers with places already owned or rented who have exhausted all other sources of securing money on which to make a 1936 crop.

Miss Dorothy Gore, who has been serving Fisher and Scurry Counties, as home supervisor, is continuing in the work for this county, but she may be changed to fit the new zoning plan.

Before Scurry County was attached to Fisher County for Resettlement administration last fall, David C. Fawcett was supervisor and Mrs. Mary E. Baker was home supervisor. They officed in Snyder, and served Scurry County only.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS BY JULIAN CAPEPS JR.

Austin—Complete harmony between the state and national machinery of the Democratic party, with the incumbent state Democratic administration taking a militant leadership for the Roosevelt-Garner ticket in Texas, and some of its able campaigning members lending their aid in other states for the national ticket, was reflected by the meeting of the state Democratic executive committee in Austin.

The committee voted to cooperate fully with Rep. Sam Rayburn, Bonham, designated by National Committeeman Garner to represent this

Girl Whistler and Floating Lion Are Tuesday Features

An eight-year-old Fluvanna girl who whistled without moving her lips and a 28-year-old Weatherford "floatie" who talked Lionism's fun and philosophy were features of Tuesday's Lions Club program.

The girl is Doris Glen Willis, one of a group of entertainers from Fluvanna. The "floatie" is Roy Keaton, traveling representative of Lions International, who crowded his 15 minutes with mock oratory, friendly fun and the far-flung program of service of which Lionism is made. He was escorted to the club meeting by W. W. Smith, his brother-in-law, whose presence elicited hefty Bronx cheers and the tall twister's delight.

Led by E. O. Wedgworth, superintendent, the Fluvanna group presented this program: Juanita Eklins and Isora Patterson, vocal solo; Dot Ren and Doris Glen Willis, vocal duet; Doris Glen, whistling; Mrs. Allen; Perrell, new Fluvanna music teacher and accompanist for the group, piano and whistling.

Smith and J. C. Gay were local guests. Attendance was at a new high peak for the year. The club gave O. P. Thrane and Frank Farmer, members of the program committee, a rising vote of thanks for the excellent program.

Ground Hog Sees Shadow, All Right

Scurryites awoke Sunday morning with keen anticipation, for the sun threatened to hide his face throughout the day. But old Sol came out in full glory while the morning was young, and superstitious folks moaned.

It was Ground Hog Day, and the wisecracks have it that if the ground hog had not seen his shadow, we would be facing an early spring. Now, they say, six weeks of wintry weather are in store.

Judging from the behavior of the thermometer since Sunday, the ground hog prophesied well, for temperatures have ranged from slightly above freezing to 14 above zero.

About 3,500 May Vote During 1936 County Elections

Emerging early this week from a mass of figures and last minute tax-paying mail, County Tax Assessor-Collector Bernard Longbotham told the world that approximately 3,500 Scurry County folks are eligible to vote in 1936 elections.

The total figure includes 2,698 tax payments, about 182 regular exemptions and an estimated 400 to 500 over-age exemptions.

Although a complete check-up has not been made, the assessor-collector believes more state and county taxes have been collected for this year, and more delinquent taxes, than at any other time since the last prosperity year.

One per cent penalty is being assessed during February for late payment of state and county taxes. The penalty will be two per cent in March.

City and school taxes have also shown an increase over recent years, collectors report.

AREA PENSION MAN IS NAMED

Owen Shelton of Abilene has been named as supervisor of District No. 13, of which Scurry County is a part, for administration of old age assistance grants when the law goes into effect February 14.

Orville Carpenter, state administrator, said early this week that the state has 20 administration districts, and that practically all supervisors and office points had been named.

The Abilene district includes these counties: Callahan, Coke, Eastland, Fisher, Jones, Kent, Mitchell, Nolan, Scurry, Shackelford, Stephens and Tyler.

School Patrons Are Invited to Program By Honor Societies

Superintendent C. Wedgworth will make the principal address at the high school assembly hour, Friday morning at 10:30, when the National Honor Society, both the Junior and senior chapters, will give its semi-annual formal program before the student body.

School patrons are invited to be present at the program, according to Miss Mattie Ross Cunningham, sponsor.

New members of the senior chapter, whose names have not previously been announced, are as follows: Lillian Logan, Tessie Merritt, Cuida Birdwell, Garland Parks, O'Leary Ware, Josie Lee Hue and LaRuth Johnston.

Wylie Bree will play the precessional as the members march to the front of the auditorium with Superintendent C. Wedgworth and High School Principal King Sides heading the procession. Old members of the senior group will be attired in purple robes, and old members of the junior society will wear white robes.

The program will be sounded by Wallace Smith at the beginning of the program, which will be under the direction of Joetta Beauchamp, chairman of the committee. Both the United States and Texas flags will have prominent places on the stage during the hour.

Principal Sides will speak briefly before giving new members the pledge and membership cards.

Initiations for the two groups have been planned to take place later this week.

Teachers to Lubbock.

The West Texas Teachers Association, headed by W. C. Blankenship, superintendent of the Big Spring schools, will convene Friday and Saturday, February 14 and 15, at the Lubbock High School. Several county teachers will probably attend, although Scurry is in the Oil Belt district.

SPECIAL WEEK FOR BOYS SET FEBRUARY 7-14

Boy Scout Work to Be Emphasized in Several Ways Through Two Snyder Troops.

The old adage of "Boys will be boys" will be changed next week to "Boys will be Boy Scouts" if you give them half a chance.

Friday, February 7, through Friday, February 14, are dates designated nationally as Boy Scout Week. Snyder's two troops will join the nation-wide observance with a series of special programs that will emphasize the work and value of scouting.

Troop 35 is sponsored here by the Masonic Lodge, Troop 36 by the Lions Club.

The week will be ushered in Friday morning with special observance in Snyder High School. A portion of the morning assembly program will be in charge of the boys of Troops 35 and 36 and W. F. Cox, scoutmaster of Troop 35.

A Boy Scout program will be presented at the Lions Club Tuesday. Another Boy Scout program of the week will be a service at the First Methodist Church Sunday morning, W. J. Ely, chairman of the Snyder district, Warren Dodson, a member of the Lions Club troop committee, and other scouts will speak. Boy Scouts will be seated in a reserved section. Rev. H. C. Gordon, pastor, will speak briefly on the boy training work.

Members of both troops, with their dads and local scouts, will meet Tuesday night, 6:30 o'clock, at the scout hall, over Winslow & Clements, for a friendly supper. Games will be played and other forms of entertainment will be featured.

The public is invited to attend the school and church Boy Scout services.

Prominent Grocery Salesman of Abilene Dies Sunday Night

Last rites for T. C. Moore, 41, sales representative of General Foods, who died at 11:00 p. m. Sunday in an Abilene hospital, were held at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday in Danversfield. Burial was in the family lot in the Daingerfield cemetery, beside the graves of his father and mother.

Mr. Moore was well known here, especially among grocers, for he had called in this territory for several years. "He was one of the best salesmen and most likeable men that called on us," one local grocerman said.

He was ill only a few hours. Stricken Sunday morning at his home, 1110 Amarillo, he was moved to the hospital for emergency surgery for removal of ruptured appendix. Complication developed and he died unexpectedly 30 minutes after the operation.

Taking an active part in church work, Mr. Moore was a member of the First Baptist Church and the Victory Bible Class. He also was a member of Parramos No. 57, American Legion.

"Power on Parade" Seen by Hundreds

Several hundred Scurry County farmers and their families saw "Power on Parade," a talking movie drama of the modern tractor industry, at the Ritz Theatre Monday afternoon. The show was sponsored by J. C. Day & Son, local Minneapolis-Moline Twin City dealers.

Power was the theme of the entire film. The first reel was an exciting trip through a maze of fire, gears, machinery and gigantic factories, plus accompanying music by a 30-piece symphony orchestra. The story of the M-M Twin City tractors in actual operation was told in the remainder of the film, with power continuing as the central theme.

Kincaids Have Grandson. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kincaid are announcing the birth of a small red-haired grandson. Parents are Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Smith of Plainview, who formerly lived here. The baby was born in a Plainview hospital last Wednesday night, and will be called "Tommy," even if his name is Thomas Lee, they say.

To Penney Conference. H. L. Vann, manager of the J. C. Penney Company store here, spent Wednesday of last week in Abilene, where he and Mrs. Vann attended a district conference of executives of the organization. The weather was so bad when the meeting dismissed about 5:00 p. m. that Mr. and Mrs. Vann remained in Abilene for the night.

Estine Doward, co-ed at Southwestern University, Georgetown, visited here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Doward, several days the past week during her between-term vacation.

To Express Indignation. "Another purpose was to express our indignation over the unjust political decision handed down by our Supreme Court."

NYA PROJECTS FOR SCHOOLS

A total of 36 school youths may be employed in Scurry County schools through projects sponsored by the National Youth Administration, according to word received by County Superintendent Frank Farmer from state NYA headquarters.

The youths, assigned to practically all rural schools of the county, will be drawn from relief families. They will be used for improving school grounds and buildings and for other similar work. The projects are scheduled to begin this week or early next week.

Classifications for the workers are as follows: Thirty laborers at $7 monthly; three helpers at $10 monthly; three project clerks at $14 monthly. NYA is furnishing $23 for the projects; the schools, $233.00.

Lumber Dealers of Area Plan Meeting

Colorado will be host Tuesday, February 11, to scores of lumbermen, members of the Mid-West Texas Lumberman's Association. The occasion is the semi-annual convention of the organization.

Snyder's three yards will probably be represented, along with the yards at Fluvanna and Hermleigh. C. L. Gray of Nolan is association president. Ross Jennings of Abilene is vice president and Lee Langley of Sweetwater is secretary.

Don Windsor's the New Mullins Name

Don Windsor Mullins is the name. We're just telling you in case you haven't heard the details about the firstborn son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Mullins, who was born early Wednesday night—while one of winter's worst spells was at its height—in Snyder General Hospital.

Statistics given by the proud papa, who admits he hasn't been very useful to J. C. Penney Company during the past week, read like this: Weight, eight pounds, four ounces; complexion, ruddy; health, excellent; lungs, A-1.

"99" Service for Tavern. Bob Gray announces that his "99" service, introduced at The Tavern last week, is proving popular with local citizens. Nine-nine is Bob's telephone number. He invites folks to use it when they want free delivery of good things to eat.

STATE FARMERS SCORE SUPREME COURT FOR RECENT AAA VERDICT

Complying with a Times request, that he prepare a report of the state-wide mass meeting of farmers at the Waco Cotton Palace last Friday, C. N. von Roeder of the Murphys community, Borden County, has submitted an article that reflects the Texas trend since the Supreme Court wrecked the AAA.

Von Roeder and three other Borden county farmers made the trip. They are: Ed Murphy, Alex Murphy and W. L. Russell. The von Roeder report follows:

"The main purpose of the meeting was to show official Washington—especially those in Congress who are opposing a practical substitute for the AAA—that we are much concerned over what can and will be done for us by way of giving agriculture equal opportunity with industry.

To Express Indignation. "Another purpose was to express our indignation over the unjust political decision handed down by our Supreme Court."

CONSTRUCTION OF UNDERPASS IS UNDER WAY

Preliminary Work Begun by Highway Engineers, Contractor And Railroad Crew.

Preliminary work on the Highway No. 7 underpass northwest of Snyder started early this week, with engineers of the State Highway Department, the contractor and his assistants, and Santa Fe workers on the job.

A small crew will be worked for several days by J. B. Clardy, contractor, who is here with his son to have active charge of the work. Only a few freeways and a few single hands are now on the job. The number will be gradually expanded.

The Santa Fe Railway already has its pile driving equipment on location, and a crew is here to man it. A larger railway crew is stationed here to do ballast work in this sector of the line.

H. M. Dyer is the new resident engineer in charge of the county's highway work. W. F. Gaches is his chief assistant. A total staff of six men is working out of the local office.

Condemnation proceedings were begun this week by the county Commissioners Court for a portion of the property involved on the Highway No. 15 Santa Fe overpass two miles southeast of town. Contract for the overpass is scheduled to be left Tuesday, February 11.

Rites Held Tuesday For Man Killed by Snyder Automobile

James Hash, 19-year-old Roscoe youth, died in a Sweetwater hospital shortly after midnight Monday from injuries received Saturday night when he was struck by an automobile driven by Miss Louise Wilsford of Snyder. The accident occurred on Highway 1 near the Texas & Pacific underpass about five miles west of Sweetwater.

Funeral rites were held Tuesday at 4:00 p. m. from the Roscoe Baptist Church, with Rev. G. W. Parks officiating.

The accident victim was a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hash of Roscoe. The body suffered fractures of both legs, a crushed chest and fractured skull.

An inquest conducted Monday morning at Roscoe resulted in a verdict of death from injuries, and Miss Wilsford was freed of liability.

Miss Wilsford told Roscoe officers that she was returning from a dance at the Rio Rita Club, near the Sweetwater airport, with Louis and Louise Wilsford, Ed Sung, Junior Thompson and Maurine McIver.

Miss Wilsford said she was blinded by lights of an oncoming machine and that the young man, who was walking along the side of the highway, was thrown several feet by the impact. She and the five other occupants of the car rendered aid and brought Hash to the Sweetwater hospital.

Mahon Asks Million For W. T. Hospital

A bill introduced in Congress Monday by Representative George Mahon of Colorado would authorize construction of a $1,000,000 veterans' hospital in West Texas.

He did not name a definite site, but already has asked the veterans' bureau to place the facility at a centrally located city such as Lubbock. Representative Marvin Jones of Amarillo introduced a bill last year to place the hospital in his city.

Pollard & Jones Awarded Agency For Studebaker

Pollard & Jones announce this week to the motoring public of this trade territory that they have taken the agency for Studebaker cars. A carload of the 1936 models is now on display in the Pollard & Jones show rooms, southeast corner of the square.

"We are proud of the fact that we have been chosen as distributors in this area for a car that represents the ultimate in style and safety, yet costs only a few dollars more than the lowest priced cars," T. W. Pollard and Jesse Jones said when they were awarded the agency.

"Studebaker is the oldest name in America transportation—a name that harks back almost 100 years, and has been identified with the prairie schooner, the wagons and buggies used by our fathers and grandfathers, and, in recent years, with the best that can be produced in the motor car industry."

Pollard & Jones point with pride to the new beauty, the new comfort, the new economy of the Studebakers of 1936, but they take special pains to explain the 14 new economy features, the 12 new safety features and the 21 new performance features. "Studebaker," they say, "holds unchallenged every stock car record for 3,000 to 30,000 miles—and these 1936 models have even more sturdy and dependable motors, plus greater economy of operation and the highest degree of safety."

The new Studebaker dealers invite those who are interested in the "tops" in 1936 cars—and who is not interested? they want to know—to visit their show rooms.

Native Son Says Good of Schools Prompts Action

The 900 daily, semi-weekly and weekly newspapers in Texas are telling their readers this week that A. A. (Pat) Bullock, native West Texan and former superintendent of Scurry County schools, is a candidate for state superintendent of public instruction.

Announcement of this favorite Scurry County son stills rumors that have been flitting from one end of the state to the other in recent weeks.

"I am resigning my position with the federal government to offer myself as a candidate for state superintendent at the urgent request of hundreds of school executives, classroom teachers, school board members and school patrons of Texas, and because I know there is a strong demand for a change in the administration of the State Department of Education," Pat said in his official statement.

For Good of Schools.

In announcing his candidacy, the popular school leader declared his action in resigning as director of adult education in Texas for the government "is prompted for the good of the schools of Texas and to bring back harmony to the school officials of the state."

As West Texas citizens well know, Pat has been active in the schools of Texas for the past 20 years as teacher, school superintendent and county superintendent. For two and a half years after his resignation as Scurry County superintendent he served as director of the Rural Aid Division of the State Department of Education.

He went to the Works Progress Administration on September 3, 1935, where he established the WPA emergency education program in Texas. This program is now well set up and is in progress over the entire state.

What Pat Stands For.

"A constructive, economic and democratic public school administration" is the first plank in the platform of what Pat stands for. Other leading points in the "for" platform are:

A minimum per capita apportionment of $20.

Abolishment of the district system of supervision under deputy state superintendents.

Definite rural aid allotment that can be depended upon by school officials.

A sane, practical course of study, based upon the fundamental principles of education, eliminating needless subjects now required for high school graduation.

Developing rural schools for rural children so that equal educational opportunities may be provided for all.

What Pat Is Opposing.

Plank No. 1 in the platform of what Pat is opposing to reads: "A czaristic, bureaucratic and extravagant administration of the schools of Texas."

Following are other major planks in his "against" platform:

The control of the school system in Texas by agencies outside the state.

Using any school funds for any purpose other than that for which they were appropriated.

Employees of the State Department of Education being permitted to attend the University each summer at state expense with salaries paid.

Invaliding existing legal certificates and certificate laws by special rulings.

Members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club were entertained in the home of Mrs. H. J. Brice this week. Seven members and the hostess enjoyed games of contract bridge throughout the afternoon.

Delicious pie, salad and coffee were passed to the following: Mmes. W. M. Scott, W. J. Ely, J. C. Dorward, Joe Strayhorn, E. M. Deakins, W. R. Johnson and R. L. Gray.

Next club meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. D. Beggs, February 18.

LET'S TALK ABOUT CLOTHES

BY A YOUNG MODERN

The advent of February marks a turning point for fashions. Herebefore, when spring was two months off, only scattered glimpses of the approaching season were noted in the fashion world. Now, these timid attempts toward brightening a winter wardrobe have blossomed into spring frocks, and regardless of what type of dresses the designers may show, they all seem to concentrate on the creation of flattering wearable clothes rather than on startling departures from the accepted modes.

Dresses, coats and suits for the coming spring season are to have individuality—but not in the extreme dictated by some past era. Every trick known to designers is being utilized toward becomingness and femininity.

Plotting, tucking and shirring are used extensively, and of special importance on dark daytime frocks are the lingerie touches of lace, chiffon and organdy. Necklines are quite high, and much interest is concentrated on sleeves.

The broad shoulder theme is being somewhat revived, and is much softer rather than severe and masculine in appearance.

Skirts for sports, street and dressy afternoon wear are scarcely a fraction shorter than last year (varying from 12 to 14 inches from the floor) and most of them are very slim and straight. This straight slim skirt silhouette is carried into the evening things, and although many dance dresses of very sheer fabrics have yards and yards of skirt, they appear to be only slightly bouffant.

For early spring there are, of course, the black and white, navy and white, brown and white combinations. Black and white predominates for tailored and dressy daytime wear. Gray, a color that has been "high fashion" many seasons but never quite attained popularity, shows every indication of being among the chosen few.

Mariwyn Wren Is Honored Sunday.

Mrs. Walla Fitch entertained, honoring her little niece, Mariwyn Wren of Dallas, on her sixth birthday with a party at the Fish home Sunday afternoon.

The following were present: Cyrella Fish, Maxine Miller, Virginia Preuitt, Durell Stokes, Helen Jo Graham, Madlin Burt, Sandra Jean Josephson, Billie Jean Koonrod, Patsy Brown, Leslie Thompson, Sam Bernard Rosenberg, Tommy Yoder, Terry Yoder, Bud Koonrod and Robert George Preuitt.

Progressive Club Studies Government.

Progressive Study Club members met at the home of Mrs. J. W. W. Patterson last Thursday afternoon for a study of the "Government of Texas," directed by Mrs. Giles Bowers.

Parts on program were given by Mmes. A. P. Morris, Patterson and Lora Miller.

Eight members were present, and as the hostess served a plate of salad, cake and coffee at the refreshment hour.

Mrs. Tricie Barton and daughter, Juanita, of Colorado were guests of their sister and aunt, Mrs. W. A. Morton, here Sunday.

Women Who Have Pains Try CARDUI Next Time!

On account of poor nourishment, many women suffer functional pains at certain times, and it is for these that Cardui is offered on the record of the safe relief it has brought and the good it has done in helping to overcome the cause of womanly discomfort. Mrs. Cole Young, of Seattle, Wash., writes: "I was suffering with regular... I had quite a lot of pain which made me nervous. I took Cardui and found it helped me in every way, making me regular and stopping the pain. This quieted my nerves, making my health much better." If Cardui does not benefit "OU," consult a physician.

Baptists Meet Tonight.

Baptist laymen are planning to gather in the church basement tonight for a Brotherhood gathering at which Rev. P. D. O'Brien of Colorado and Rev. Willis J. Ray of Big Spring will be principal speakers. The meeting was postponed last Thursday because of inclement weather.

Chalk Brown was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Gee in Sweetwater Monday.

Mrs. S. D. Hays returned home Friday after a visit with friends and relatives in Dallas, Louisville and Frisco.

Mmes. H. G. Towle and Pearl Shannon were guests of their daughter and niece, Mary Margaret Towle, at Southwestern University, Georgetown, from Thursday until Monday. Miss Towle was free from classes to entertain her guests during their between-terms visit.

Health Official Warns Citizens About Pellagra

A definite increase in the number of cases of epidemic spinal meningitis has been noted in Texas, according to Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer. While the number of these cases is not alarming as yet, preventive measures should be followed.

The best method of escaping this disease is the prevention of overcrowding either at home or in public. Overcrowded conditions in camps, barracks, jails or other institutions where men are brought in close contact are most favorable for outbreaks. Children and old people are more susceptible than those of middle age, and negroes contract meningitis more frequently than whites.

Persons with colds and coughs should stay indoors if possible, should practice personal hygiene and cough into their handkerchiefs.

Russell Shaw of O'Donnell is visiting with friends here. Mr. Shaw attended high school here several years ago and lived in the county.

Royce Eiland, who spent last week with his mother, Mrs. Ethel Eiland, returned Monday to school at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene. W. W. Eillands in Stanton.

William Miller, who attended A. & M. College first of this year, is at home with his parents on their ranch west of Snyder.

Miss Margaret Deakins, who has been in Dallas for several months attending Ursuline Academy, is at home for the remainder of the winter.

The early symptoms of meningitis are those of a cold or influenza. If one has headache, backache, fever and chilly sensations, he should consult his family doctor at once. Healthy carriers spread the disease from their nose and throat to those who are susceptible. Most adults are not susceptible to the disease. The earlier the diagnosis is made, the better are the chances of recovery. All suspicious cases must be isolated.

There's a month of steady cold plus a Blizzard on your present Gas Bill!

Gas service statements being received now include the season's worst blizzard. In addition to this period of unusually severe weather there was not a single day from the middle of December to the middle of January when heat was not required. This is one reason statements covering this period are higher.

Another reason is the Christmas Holiday season. During this season extra gas was required for entertaining, extra cooking and for the comfort of house guests.

During this continued spell of steady cold weather your gas company has been alert to its responsibility of having sufficient gas at all times for every need. From the many hundreds of wells in the many fields where the supply originates, on along thousands of miles of pipe-line system are employes with years of experience in giving service and seeing that the gas supply to every home is adequate at all times.

So when you receive your statement this month, consider what you receive for the amount you pay for househeating, cooking and hot water service. Compare the healthful comfort, convenience, service and leisure hours you have bought with the price of anything else you purchase. You'll find that your gas service is the least expensive of anything you buy—and the greatest value.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN

The Good Collector.
Talkative Tillie says a good bill collector is known by the number of coffee nickels he keeps.

And Their Critics, Pete.
Pessimism Pete becomes philosopher: "Candidates may come and candidates may go, but their blah-blah goes on forever."

Give Them Their Room.
The thoughtful motorist will consider the rights of others. Especially those of truck drivers.—Midland Reporter-Telegram.

And How About the Women?
"Let any man speak long enough," said Robert Louis Stevenson, "he will get believers." Please, dear reader, don't show this to any of your candidate friends!

Weekly Rooseveltism.
President Roosevelt: "I repeat, with the same faith and the same determination, my words of March 4, 1933: 'We face the arduous days that lie before us in the warm courage of national unity; with a clear consciousness of seeking old and precious moral values; with a clean satisfaction that comes from the stern performance of duty by old and young alike.'"

Another Automobile Dealer.
Congratulations to Pollard & Jones, whose gaining of the Studebaker agency is a tribute not only to their energy and vision but to the conditions that make a new automobile agency possible in Snyder. Snyder now has seven full-fledged automobile dealerships in addition to one truck dealership. You can buy any one of four kinds of trucks or nine kinds of automobiles right under your nose.

It's the Superlative in Us.
It's no wonder that marriage is considered a new experience "for better or for worse." Every day, here in the United States, we find something that's worse than ever before or better than ever before. A few minor examples: "The mumps are worse this year than I have ever seen them before." "That's the prettiest snow I ever saw." "I've never heard of so many automobile accidents." Now you add one.

An American Legion Task.
With the bonus measure aside, outsiders are hoping that the American Legion will concentrate its efforts on the safety campaign it recently launched. As the Baton Rouge (La.) State Times observes, "If the Legion can help reduce automobile accidents, and the resulting casualties and fatalities, then the safety campaign it is launching will have been worth all the effort."

Athletics for the Weak.
Within a few months, at least five Scurry County schools will have gymnasiums, or, more properly, physical education buildings. If these imposing structures are used only for basket ball and similar games, they will fall far short of their possibilities. In the past, all of us have stressed athletics for the strong, for the spectator's sake. These buildings will make it possible to stress athletics for the weak, for health's and happiness' sake.

"A Compulsory Spending Spree."
Says an exchange on the Townsend Plan: "Will our fathers ask for bread and receive a stone? No! But they will not get what they ARE asking for, to the point of disrupting that great American institution called 'family.' Ask the young man in business who will be paying tomorrow's pay rolls and taxes! He wishes devoutly to honor his father and mother. He will give bread and shelter and love and care—but not an exorbitant pension based on a compulsory spending spree!"

Let's Plant a Cornerstone.
If it were possible to do so, there is no doubt but that Scurry County and Snyder would implant a cornerstone, with due ceremony, at a suitable point near the new underpass site. Work is actually beginning there, after a series of delays . . . and that means work for many a Scurry County man who might otherwise be in dire circumstances. If the cornerstone could be erected, it would be a tribute to a few local men, as well as a cooperative State Highway Department.

Pat Becomes a Candidate.
When Pat Bullock became a candidate for state superintendent of public instruction, he made the hearts of many Mitchell and Scurry County folks beat faster. For Pat is a native, a product of these two counties, and it gives almost any sane person a thrill to know that one of his friends and former associates is making good. Pat has not made good in the ordinary political sense, but in his service to the schools of Texas. Pat, candidate for one of the highest offices in the state, has the 1,000 per cent support of his home folks, who believe he will come home in July and August with the superintendency. What's more, they will actively and energetically support the man who has hewn a wide path in his educational race for 20 years.

An Open Letter to "Nation's Business."

Attention: Mr. Merle Thorpe, Dear Mr. Thorpe: As editor and publisher of "Nation's Business," official publication of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, you represent a wide swath of American opinion and philosophy. Your magazine goes out every month to 275,000 business men, including several Snyder subscribers.

We are writing you this letter to ask you a question that has been bothering us for several months. It is: Why do you use your magazine almost solely as an organ of attack on President Roosevelt and his administration?

We feel safe in making the assertion that you ARE using "Nation's Business" as such an organ because we read a portion of your magazine every month. Witness your three leading articles in the February issue: "Wanted: A Second Declaration of Independence;" "The Plight of the Rails;" "The Government Scatters Culture."

Just to satisfy our curiosity, we examined the issue page by page. We discovered that approximately 60 articles, counting each editorial comment as one article, are between the covers. In round figures, 40 of these articles attack the New Deal either directly or innuendo. Twenty articles discuss some constructive phase of industrial or business life without reflection on the present administration.

It is our candid opinion that your average reader does not appreciate your hammer-and-long attacks, even if he is opposed in principle to some or all of the New Deal's activities. Most real business men are constructive, not destructive. They feel that the Chamber of Commerce of the United States has so many constructive, educational, informational matters toward which it might bend its strength that it should not stoop to a campaign of political bombardment.

Nor could we understand your attitude, even if every reader believed every article you publish against the New Deal. Practically every one of the 20 "neutral" articles to which we referred in your February issue speaks an optimistic word. Two cases in point: "The New Year report of recovery is heartening . . . Nineteen thirty-five closed on a cheerful note with business volume surpassing four preceding years . . ." Almost without exception, your 275,000 readers are enjoying higher profits than they have known at any time since 1929; in some cases, more profit. Their stocks and bonds are in practically every case worth two to ten times as much as they were when President Roosevelt took the national helm.

Maybe we're just dumb. Or maybe we're just so old-fashioned that we can't understand why any man or institution should bite huge hunks from the hand that is helping feed him or it. Anyway, we'd appreciate an explanation in an early issue, Mr. Thorpe. Sincerely,
A SMALL TOWN BUSINESS MAN.

EDITORIAL OF THE WEEK

LIVING STANDARDS VS. CASH INCOME.
Outlining the primary objectives which Texas A. & M. College Extension Service will pursue during 1936, H. H. Williamson, its director, lately stated the aim to be a planned agriculture. During its entire 32 years thus far, that service has been urging the Texas farmer to formulate a plan for himself and then stick to it. To the extent that such educational work has succeeded, Texas agriculture has prospered—for the farmer's economic status is not to be measured in terms of cash income alone. His living standard counts for a great deal more. Wherever county agricultural and home demonstration agents' influence has extended, that standard has been raised steadily.

That measure of progress has been achieved mainly through more effective use of resources in hand, under the extension workers' competent direction. It is pertinent to recall that in his annual report for 1932 (when crop prices were at low ebb), the late Dr. O. B. Martin, director of Extension Service, set forth the principle that the farmer's best market is his own table. It follows that the most valuable product of the farm home is healthy children. Director Williamson now re-emphasizes that principle. He points out that the farmer should be growing still more foodstuffs for his own use.

To provide the average household (five persons) with a balanced diet—recent surveys by home demonstration agents have shown—an additional $500 worth of green vegetables and fruit annually would be required. All that stuff might be grown on Texas farms. It would add a quarter-billion dollars a year to the actual value of crops. Of course, the gains in health and general well-being cannot be calculated so readily. Accordingly, during the year ahead the Extension Service will continue urging farmers to plant and till kitchen gardens, sow larger feed crops and keep more cows, pigs and chickens. Regardless of what Congress shall do about the defunct AAA, that course will spell strength for Texas agriculture. It is the first of Dr. Martin's "trends of the times in Texas agriculture—a return to self-sustaining farms." It also may lead to "the discovery of new sources of farm and home income open to individual initiative," as that eminent authority counseled.—San Antonio Express.

Mr. Youngusband: "I tell you, matrimony produces a lot of changes."
Neighbor: "What's that got to do with the case?"
Mr. Youngusband: "Why, for instance, in one short year I have been changed from a sighing lover to a loving sire."

During the 1934 drought the government bought 8,279,000 head of cattle and 3,608,700 sheep. Ethiopians detest being called Abyssinians because Abyssinia means "mixed race," while Ethiopia means "burned by the sun."

Texas Ranges Have Plenty of Feed; Santa Fe Says Truck Acreage Grows

Ranges and pastures have an abundance of feed, with few exceptions, says the Santa Fe Railway report of farm conditions for February 1. A snow covering on wheat probably will make a large grazing area available to both cattle and sheep in the early spring, the report continues.

The area to be planted to cotton in Texas and other states for the 1936 crop will be about what it was in 1935, specialists report to the agricultural development department of the railroad.

Other highlights in the report are follows:
Truck Acreage Grows. Texas vegetable growers have planned to increase their 1936 truck crop acreage, notably in cabbage, onions, spinach, tomatoes, potatoes, peas, cucumbers and beans. "Signs" are favorable for a good truck year. New peach orchards are being planted in several parts of Texas, in connection with the terracing of rolling lands.

Grain from the harvest of 1935 is moving in fairly good volume from all grain growing states for this time of year.

Cotton loadings have been satisfactory. Picking of the 1935 crop is still in progress, but not much is left in the fields.

Hog Crop to Increase. An increase of 31 per cent in the fall pig crop of 1935 over 1934, a decrease of five per cent in the combined spring and fall crop of 1935 from 1934, and a prospective increase of 24 per cent in the number of sows to farrow in the spring of 1936 over the small farrowings in the spring of 1935 are reported by government agencies.

More than 125,000 sheep and lambs were on feed for market in Texas in January, twice as many as in January, 1935.

Hogs, cattle, calves, sheep, lambs, milk cows, horses, mules, poultry and eggs and butterfat brought higher prices in most places in 1935 than in 1934.

San Angelo Fishing O. K. Says Neeley

E. C. Neeley, former wholesale commission agent here for the Texas & Pacific Coal & Oil Company, was telling some remarkable fishing tales concerning the San Angelo lake when he was visiting in Snyder early this week.

He and Clyde Harms, former local druggist, pulled out 16 crappies (or was it 12?) more than half as long as your arm out at the lake, within walking distance of town, when he first moved to San Angelo, in less than a half day's fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Neeley visited several local friends while they were in town for a mixture of business and pleasure.

He: "Let's get married. It wouldn't be much trouble. You know my father's a minister."
She: "It's O. K. with me. We might try it anyway. My dad's a lawyer, you know."

First Auto License Plates Are Issued

First of the new auto license plates are being issued this week from the tax assessor-collector's office. Less than a dozen sets of tags had been issued this morning. Motorists may buy their tags any time during February, but they cannot legally use them on their cars until March 1.

Paving Speeded as Clear Days Return

With the return of clear days this week, the WPA paving project on East 26th Street is being speeded. Side walls of concrete for a dip at the intersection of the street with Avenue L are practically complete, and fills have been made from there to the school corner.

Calleche has already been placed from the east end of the street to Avenue L.

The concrete bridge over Dry Creek, northwest corner of the school grounds, is almost ready for pouring of heavy concrete structures. Approaches are being filled with many loads of dirt preparatory to building up the street to a flood-resisting level.

HEALTH NEWS

From Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer

Smallpox epidemics would never occur if everyone, especially children, could be effectively vaccinated, stated Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer. At present there is an increasing lack of vaccination among school children and this constitutes a menace.

Modern safeguards have removed every legitimate objection to vaccination. The virus is made from calves, and consequently is incapable of transmitting human blood disease. Among some ten million vaccinations performed in the Philippine Islands, there was no loss of life or limb or demonstrable injury to health.

A primary vaccination with one successful revaccination will, as a rule, protect throughout life from the milder forms of smallpox, but this is not true in the severer types of this disease. Therefore, be vaccinated and revaccinated at least every five years, so that you will have the greatest protection possible and the least chance of being sick. Revaccination should also be done after each time you have been near a known case of smallpox, for you know that the old vaccination protects if the new one fails to "take." Vaccination is not to be feared but rather to be sought as the only safe, positively harmless and absolutely certain safeguard against smallpox. See your doctor today and be sure that you are protected.

June bride: "This chicken-a-laking doesn't taste quite right, darling. I'm afraid I left something out of the recipe."

Darling: "That taste could never come from something you left out. It must be something you put in."

Her dad (angry): "What do you mean by necking my daughter?"

Boy friend (sad): "I was just carrying out the scriptural injunction to 'Hold fast that which is good.'"

Crabsaw: "I see where a western woman is able to shoot a coin right out of her husband's fingers."

Dingus: "Well, isn't that the limit? They are bound to get it one way or the other, aren't they?"

"This is tough luck," said Ham mournfully, as he leaned out of a window of the Ark.

"What's the kick now?" inquired Shem.

"Why, we've got all this water all around us to fish in," replied Ham, "and only two fish-worms on board."

TWO STATIONS IN SNYDER FOR BONUS SIGN-UP

Proper Procedure Given for Getting Ready to Cash the Adjusted Service Certificates.

Commander J. E. Shipp of the Will Layne Post of the American Legion late last week established two local stations at which veterans may learn the proper procedure for getting ready to cash their adjusted service certificates.

One station is in the county agent's office; the other in the office of John and Elmer Spears, real estate agents, on the north side of the square.

Veterans may obtain application blanks and secure advice and information concerning the bonus payment at either of these offices. No charge is made for any of these services.

Proper Procedure.

If no loan is outstanding against the adjusted service certificate, it should be brought to one of the local offices, along with the army discharge certificate or the old serial number, date of enlistment, date of discharge, rank and the organization to which he belonged.

If a veteran obtained a loan he was furnished a pink slip. This slip should be attached to the application.

It is important that the information required in the application be furnished in order to insure positive identification.

The fight for the bonus, won in Congress late in January over the President's veto, means that adjusted service certificates will be paid when the mechanics of pay-

George S. Outlaw Seeks Re-election To Attorney Place

While visiting in Snyder late last week, George S. Outlaw of Sweetwater asked The Times to announce that he will be a candidate for re-election as district attorney for the 32nd Judicial District.

The attorney is serving his first term. He was elected in 1934 over two opponents to succeed George Mahon, now a congressman. He serves four counties—Scurry, Mitchell, Borden and Nolan.

"I wish simply to state to the people at this time that I appreciate their past favors and solicit their continued and active support on the basis of the record I am making as district attorney," said the Sweetwater man.

Home gardener (to agent): "This 'Sure Death to Bugs' that you sold me last year doesn't seem to kill the pests at all."

Agent: "Yes, that's the advantage of using our patent exterminator. The properties of this preparation are not to kill off the bugs at once, but to gradually but surely undermine their constitutions."

We guarantee it to relieve you of your blue bugs, lice, worms, and dogs of running fits. For sale by Stinson's two Rexall Stores. 51-61.

Virnstein: "Would you be angry, Cecelia, if I gave you a little hug?" Cecelia: "Angry! I should be furious. I don't like such familiarities. You surely have your nerve with you to suggest such a thing. If you start anything like that I shan't speak to you again in my whole life—and besides this isn't a good place, anyhow."

O'Flaherty: "Who was the best man at the O'Connor wedding?" O'Toole: "I don't know. They didn't fight."

Campaign manager: "I hear poor Jobson lost his memory. He can't remember a thing from one day to another."

Candidate: "He'd be a good man to take care of our campaign contributions."

er know that he is thoroughly indignant over what he considers harsh and thoroughly unfair treatment at the hands of the Supreme Court; but that is not enough. He must make known, in the high places, his indignation.

"The most fiery and severe denunciation of the unfairness of our Supreme Court ruling and the consequent jeopardy agriculture and 'the general welfare' of our country sustained as a result, was delivered by Frank Tacey, Waco lawyer and farm owner.

"There was a roll call of counties represented at the meeting. Most counties were well represented, some having over 50 representatives. Borden County had five. Your county was not represented at all. I saw many of my old pals of last spring's Washington trip.

The Farmers' Business.

"But it is certainly a pity that not more farmers attend their own meetings and see the necessity of taking a hand in their own affairs, but are prone to let someone else—even their enemies—see after their business. As a result the farmers don't get and possibly don't deserve much favorable consideration. We have never before had the favorable opportunity to elevate our economic status that we have under the present glorious administration, yet we will pass up the opportunity if we don't get busy. Do we not care what becomes of us?"

"There are a few farmers in nearly every county—your county has several—who are interested and would attend meetings such as the Waco meeting, but they usually have to give not only their time, but their expenses also, and it becomes a burden upon them. If every farmer in every county would pay ten cents per month, or ten cents per bale of cotton produced, or on some similar basis, all such matters could be well taken care of, all counties would be represented in farm conferences, and the farmer could help shape his own programs. Will we do it?"

King Cotton's Price Depends on Supply and Amount Used

Cotton consumption and industrial production move together. The rate of cotton consumption in this country is influenced more by the general business situation than by cotton prices. Cotton consumption in the United States was the highest for the past November than for any November since 1932. This increase in consumption reflects an increasing industrial and retail demand, government purchases, and the existence of a large volume of reserve orders.

The chart in the lower right corner shows that excessive world supplies of American cotton depress prices and that prices recover with reduced supplies. The supply in 1932-33 was 25,961,000. With that large supply on the market, cotton prices could not recover. As contrasted with such excessive supplies, the world supply of American cotton in 1934-35 was 20,270,000 bales, and prices improved.

national organization in the Texas campaign. It laid plans to finance and carry forward a vigorous fight to obtain an enthusiastic Roosevelt-Garner instructed delegation from Texas. Of special significance was its resolution praising the Allred administration and pledging "continued support" to him.

This resolution, adopted in the face of the announced candidacies of Roy Sanderford, the Ferguson entry, and Judge F. W. (Big Fish) Fischer, Tyler, means the Democratic state organization intends to do what it can to discourage the good old Texas custom of "tearing the state wide open" every two years regularly with a bitter primary fight that engages all the time and energy of every able political leader in Texas—and denies to Texas, in presidential years, the opportunity of rendering a needed service to the national party.

This year, the national democracy needs the aid of capable campaigners in the doubtful states. Texas in Gov. Allred, Chairman Ernest Thompson of the rail commission and Atty. Gen. Bill McCraw, has three young leaders who, between them, originated and carried to a successful conclusion in Washington, Texas' memorable fight for states' rights in oil control. All are brilliant campaigners, and with his background, they are ideally fitted to demolish the "states' rights" issue which Gov. Alf Landon of Kansas and other GOP aspirants have so brazenly sought to steal from the party that went to war for states' rights in 1931. The national committee has passed along word that it wants them and State Chairman Myron Blalock, too—for this service. The governor laid the groundwork when he devoted most of his keynote talk to "reading the record" on Gov. Landon, who urged "the iron hand of dictatorship" for oil, in 1933—and now as an active GOP presidential candidate, is offering "states' rights" as a vote-catcher.

The inside story behind the governor's decision not to call a special session of the Legislature "immediately" involves a good deal more than the one reason he gave—lack of pressing need for funds for pension purposes at this time. With the pension board preparing to set up its organization by February 14—and several hundred jobs to open up thereby—the wise ones in Austin foresaw a multitude of job-seekers sufficient to swamp both the governor and the Legislature in their frantic efforts to land a job. Nobody dares complain openly about the situation, but both state officials and members grin privately whenever anything happens that brings down the army of job-hunting constituents upon them.

Continental Oil Company, through its February newspaper advertisements, is inviting more than 25 million people living in 38 states and the District of Columbia to spend their vacations in the Lone Star state this year.

The first of this series of advertisements appears in today's Times. It will also be reproduced in nearly 1,200 other newspapers, according to Wesley I. Nunn, Conoco advertising manager.

Today's advertisement includes an invitation to enjoy the Centennial, while the second of the series, due to appear during the week of February 9, calls attention to "famed San Jacinto" and the Centennial. Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Theodor's Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draught for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught, the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweets. Mrs. C. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Theodor's Black-Draught (powder) about thirteen years, taking it for biliousness. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I wanted a good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that!"

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed. How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminators thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and bacteria. Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds. Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)
