COURT TITLES WON BY SOUTH COUNTY TEAMS

Pyron Boys and Hermleigh Girls Nose Out Ira and Fluvanna Teams in Finals.

Both county basketball titles found new resting places Saturday night at the Fluvanna gymnasium, when Hermleigh girls and Pyron boys scamped to clearcut yet fairly close decisions.

Hermleigh girls downed Fluvanna, 40 to 29, in the final tilt, while Pyron boys were harder pressed to oust Ira lads, 33 to 29.

Pyron boys advanced to their title by downing Fluvanna, 30 to 15. In the first boys' game, Dunn won from Hermleigh, 18 to 15. Ira won from Dunn, 37 to 35, in the semi-finals.

Hale Is Scoring Ace.

Hermleigh girls beat Dunn, 34 to 25, in the opening girls' game, and Fluvanna girls won from Pyron, 24 to 10.

E. Hale of Pyron was easily the scoring ace of the tournament among the boys. In the Fluvanna game he scored seven field goals and a total of 18 points. In the final mix-up with Ira he made 11 field goals and a total pointage of 23 out of his squad's 33.

Kasper, Hermleigh girls' team forward, surpassed Hale's scoring record in the two games she played. She rolled up eight field goals and total pointage of 18 points against Dunn in the opener, then tallied 14 field goals for a total of 28 points in the finals against Fluvanna. Casey, Dunn girl, rolled up 21 points in her squad's defeat by Hermleigh, 34 to 25, in the preliminaries.

Times-Signal Chief Of Other Days Here

Many Snyderites greeted J. L. Martin, publisher of the Times-Signal several years ago, when he visited his former stomping grounds Monday.

Business Man Is Victim of Short Siege of Illness

G. A. Hagan, 65-year-old abstract and insurance man, died early Saturday in a local hospital after an illness of six days. He became ill Saturday while he was in the business district, and was not able to leave his sickbed.

Friends and relatives gathered at Odum Funeral Home Sunday afternoon, 3:30 o'clock, to hear Rev. H. C. Gordon refer to the local business man as a Christian gentleman, a worthy citizen and a devoted husband and friend. Burial was in Snyder cemetery.

Mr. Hagan came to Snyder from Dallas in 1927. He became associated here with H. J. Brice, Wayne Boren and Ivan Dodson in the Scurry County Abstract Company and the Snyder Insurance Agency. In Dallas he was connected with the Federal Reserve Bank. Prior to his service there he was assistant auditor of the Federal Reserve Bank in Atlanta, Georgia. He was married in 1924 to Claudia Curmutte, sister of the late Judge R. H. Curmutte and of John Curmutte of Scurry County.

COUNTY PLANS TO ISSUE NEW AUTO PERMITS

Driving Licenses Must Be Secured By All Drivers Not Later Than April 1.

Plans are being made by Bernard Longbotham and his force to issue drivers' licenses to all Scurry County residents who wish to legally drive automobiles or trucks during the next three years.

Under legislative decree, the original licenses must be issued from the county tax assessor-collector's office on or before April 1, 1936. The application blanks and licenses are scheduled to arrive not later than Friday, and if they come as planned they will be issued when called for, Longbotham said yesterday.

The official is contemplating leaving application blanks at several points in the county. These must be signed before a notary public. Drivers' licenses can be issued only at Longbotham's office.

Accident Prevention

Legislators indicated when the drivers' license law was passed at the last session that they believed it would help save lives in traffic accidents, since license holders will be subject to revoking penalties.

The act provided that licenses for other than chauffeurs and "professional" drivers would be free. Chauffeurs and professional drivers must pay a $3 license fee, as in the past.

L. G. Phares, acting director of the safety department, calculated that on the basis of 2.2 drivers to each of 1,250,000 vehicles registered there would be 2,500,000 licenses issued.

Licenses, issued without examination, would be automatically revoked or suspended on conviction of:

1. Negligent homicide in operation of a motor vehicle;
2. Driving a vehicle while intoxicated;
3. Any offense punishable as a felony under motor vehicle laws;
4. Three convictions in 12 months for speeding and reckless driving;
5. Failure to stop and render aid after an accident; and
6. Two charges of aggravated assault upon a person with a motor vehicle.

How Revocations Work

The first revocation would extend for six months and the second for one additional year. The revocation would be extended for a like period upon conviction of driving while a license was suspended. Penalties for driving without a license also included a jail sentence of two days to six months and a fine up to $500.00.

Licenses would be denied persons under 14 years old, habitual drunkards and narcotic users, those adjudged insane, epileptic or feeble-minded, and those shown by common experience to possess defects rendering them incapable of efficient driving.

CAR LICENSES MOVE SLOWLY

Only 68 car licenses, two pick-up licenses and one truck license had been issued by the assessor-collector's office late yesterday.

The bright yellow and blue tags which will be legally attached until March 1. Collector Longbotham reminds car and truck owners. Several cars have been seen on Snyder streets this week with the new tags attached.

Presbyterian Men Gather Wednesday For State Session

The men's convention of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Synod of Texas, met in Breckenridge Wednesday of this week. This was the tenth annual convention of this men's group, and advance copies of the program indicated one of the best convention programs ever presented.

Outstanding speakers on the program include Governor James V. Alfred, Dean J. O. Gordon of Texas Technological College, and Dr. T. W. Currie, president of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Austin. Other outstanding Texas ministers were guests and speakers at this meeting.

The meeting is annually attended by 400 or 500 Presbyterian laymen of Texas Synod, and this is the first time that it has ever been held in Abilene, Texas.

The Scurry County delegation to attend the convention included: W. R. Luce, D. C. Howell, Rev. Alfred M. Dorsett and Louis R. Bailey, all of Snyder; John Stavelly, Pat Jones and Wallace Jones of Fluvanna.

Ex-Convict Confesses He Forged Gin Checks

Claud Mathis, 32, signed a confession in the Taylor County jail Tuesday that he cashed seven bills of exchange, under forged names, that he stole from the Ely-Arnold-Gin here November 27. The confession was secured by a member of the local sheriff's department.

Mathis, said by the sheriff's department to have escaped recently from a Texas penitentiary, signed the confession after he was identified by an employee of the McCord Dry Goods Company, Sweetwater, where one of the bills of exchange had been cashed. Mathis was sentenced Monday at Abilene to 20 years in the penitentiary for cashing four gin checks in Taylor County to which he had forged names.

The ex-convict admitted in the signed confession that he cashed the bills of exchange at Stinson No. 1 in Snyder and at Tansil's Department Store, J. C. Penney Company, Levy Brothers, Leader Store and M. J. Vaughn's Men's Store in Sweetwater. The checks totaled $305.90, some of which Mathis received in merchandise and some in change.

He said he broke a window at the local gin on the night of November 27, taking 10 bills of exchange and 10 seed checks. He said he destroyed the three that were not cashed.

The local sheriff's department, which had been investigating the theft since the gin missed the bills of exchange, secured its first lead when an Abilene paper published the name of Claud Mathis in connection with the ex-convict's trial at Abilene. The real name closely resembles the two names, Calvin Morgan and Carl Moore that Mathis is signed to the bills of exchange he cashed, and this similarity led to the investigation and confession.

R. L. Williams Is Again Leader of Lockhart School

R. L. Williams was re-elected last Wednesday afternoon for a two-year term as superintendent of the Lockhart Independent School District, according to the Lockhart Post-Register. He was principal of Snyder High School for two years before he went to Lockhart as superintendent last summer.

The Post-Register says of the re-election:

"A member of the board, in conversation with a representative of the Post-Register, stated that it was deemed advisable to re-elect Superintendent Williams thus early in order that he may begin at once plans for another year.

"The informal discussion revealed that it is the consensus of opinion among members of the board that Superintendent Williams' administration this, his first year in connection with the schools, has been of such success as to warrant a two-year term in which he may lay broader plans for the future progress of the school.

"Mr. Williams assumed the duties of the office of superintendent of the Lockhart Independent School District July 1 and at once began work of organization for the year's work which will end next June. Success has attended his efforts and he has grown in favor in the community as a school executive and as a citizen.

"The action of the board is generally approved.

"Mr. Williams is a young man and has work to do on his degrees. The two-year term to which he is elected enables him to proceed with greater assurance with his post-graduate work.

"As he gains knowledge and experience, Superintendent Williams may be expected to carry forward a broader program of development. The work that he has done here indicates that he may be expected to become one of the strongest superintendents in Texas.

"Mrs. Williams is a lady of culture, is appreciated in the community, and has been a factor in Mr. Williams' success."

ABOUT OLD AGE PENSIONS

(Note: This is the first of a series of articles concerning Texas' old age pension law, which becomes effective this month.)

Because $7,500 worth of property for a married and $5,000 for a single person are listed as legal disqualifications under the old-age assistance law, applicants necessarily should be able to give adequate description of all real property owned, as well as personal property if the latter is valued at $1,000 or more.

Orville S. Carpenter, who will be executive director of the Old Age Assistance Commission, said recently concerning the new law:

"Each applicant should be able to describe all personal property, including jewelry, furniture, automobiles, and live stock, in addition to his or her real property," Mr. Carpenter explained.

All applicants should have the following information available:

- (1) Original purchase price and date of purchase of all property.
- (2) Description of property from the county tax assessor telling block number, etc.
- (3) Amount property rendered for on tax rolls.
- (4) Name of lien holder and amount still due on mortgage, as well as total equity in property. Also date and amount of lien.

EIGHT DEGREE WEATHER HITS COUNTY AGAIN

Farmers Busy With Spring Work As Higher Temperatures Trail Siege of Cold.

Scurry County's second siege of eight-degree weather came Friday night on the wings of a fearing, sand-laden norther. The low of official point was reached about 8:30 o'clock Saturday morning. Unofficial figures, gleaned from thermometers that were struck by the norther wind's keenest breath, dropped as low as four degrees.

The wintry visit has been broken two or three times since Saturday in short spasms, and Wednesday turned sunshiny and spring-like. Weather reports had it, however, that another low-temperature siege was on the way.

Although no moisture accompanied the cold spell, farmers and ranchers are highly pleased with prospects. Previous moisture, practically all of it coming in slow, soaking spells, has given an excellent planting season, and most farmers are already at work on advance spring plowing and other duties.

Ranchers continue to be tickled over the outlook for excellent spring and summer pasture, and few of them have suffered appreciably during the coldest weather.

It is generally agreed that the cold weather has been of actual benefit in checking illness and in holding back fruit and other crops that might be inclined to burst into fruitage too early for safe escape from freezing in the early spring.

Most gins continue to run on Saturday, and a few bales are trickling into gin yards. The official total is expected to run between 24,000 and 25,000 bales.

No Trace of Truck Stolen From Store

Piggly Wiggly's truck, stolen about 6:00 o'clock Saturday evening from the rear of the north side food store, has completely disappeared. Officers report that no clues that might lead to the truck's recovery have been uncovered.

Maurice Brownfield, store owner, says the car, which had been driven only a few thousand miles, had been used by one of his employees less than a half hour before it was missed.

"I had the thugs fixed up," says Maurice. "The truck was equipped with puncture-proof tubes, and it carried almost a full tank of gasoline."

West-Sider Given Knockout Decision

Joe Stinson, lightweight pugilist, champion of the north side gossip-mongers' gang, admitted at Snyder General Hospital Monday, as he emerged from the X-ray room, that he had lost a one-round bout eight days earlier to Joe Dave Scott, his grandson, who is reigning champion of the west side toughies.

The X-ray print revealed to even casual eyes that one of Joe's upper ribs was cracked by some portion of the young brawler's anatomy, probably a knee or a heel.

Joe's seconds, Mrs. Stinson and Mrs. J. D. Scott, advised the lightweight gossip-and-pill pusher to retire from the ring permanently, and to keep his good weather eye peeled for the west sider the next time he reclines for a Sunday afternoon siesta.

COUNTY ASKED TO HELP CARRY RELIEF BURDEN

District Administrator Says Many Needy Can Be Helped Only By Local Cooperation.

An urgent suggestion that Scurry County citizens organize to help care for many needy persons who cannot be given necessary assistance by the Texas Relief Commission was brought to a number of local people Tuesday afternoon by F. A. Wells of Abilene, relief administrator for District 13.

The meeting was attended by several county and city officials, civic club officials, school officials, women's club leaders and other local citizens. It was held in the first Presbyterian Church.

Wells pointed out that the Texas Relief Commission stopped supplying medical attention January 1, and that the commission at present has only enough funds to supply each average family (considered as 4.2 people) with $13 per month, plus a small amount of surplus commodities such as groceries and clothing.

"In District 13, which comprises 12 counties," he said, "we have 25 workers caring for 1,024 families. Of these 16 are case workers. You can readily see that administration costs cannot be said to be unreasonable.

"America is known as the land of the free, yet is it? It is not for a certain class of people who, for a generation or two, have been on the verge of starvation.

"There are people today bringing children into the world who themselves cannot cope with our economic situation. The growth of population has so far exceeded our ability to care for needy peoples that many relief offices cannot care for case loads unassisted."

Several counties of District 13 have already perfected local organizations to care for the extra relief burden, the Abilene visitor said.

Wells was introduced by W. J. Ely, local director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. The meeting was opened with group singing of "America," led by Rev. Alfred M. Dorsett, host pastor.

Annual Sweethearts' Dinner Held at Manhattan Hotel for Alpha Study

Annual sweethearts' evening for the Alpha Study Club was held in the form of a banquet at the Manhattan Hotel Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A formal program was followed by a number of interesting contests and games at the affair.

Cleverly emphasizing a Valentine motif, Misses Alfred McGlaun, J. C. Smyth and Ixon Joyce planned decorations, appointments and entertainment for attendants. Fun was written in every line during the entire evening.

The color note of red and white was used for streamers of hearts over doors, between lights and from the lights to the banquet table. Pretty candle holders for more than 20 tall red and white candles were fashioned of cardboard with red crepe paper frills around the base. The candle holder design was copied in smaller holders, which served as place cards and party favors.

Sprays of ivy entwined with red and white hearts were placed between candles down the center of the long table. Lovely red and white carnations and sprays of ivy in a silver bowl placed directly in front of the toastmistress, who was Mrs. Wayne Williams, Alpha Study Club president. The top of the piano was lined with ivy and lighted tapers furnished soft light for entertainers.

Misses McGlaun and Wayne Boren and Miss Hattie Herm, who compose the club's program committee, arranged the formal banquet program, which was given between courses and following the three-course meal.

Mrs. Williams welcomed the guests, and gave words of appreciation to special guests: E. J. Anderson, who made the main address of the evening, and Mrs. Anderson; and Mrs. Novis Rodgers, pianist, who gave a group of numbers during the program.

Mark Twain Chief Topic of Discussion.

Placing emphasis on the life and works of Mark Twain, American humorist, Mrs. Lee T. Stinson directed an interesting program on the subject, "Pilot the Mountaineer," which closely followed the club's theme for the year, "The Southwest in Literature."

Mrs. R. D. English was hostess to the club at her home in West Snyder. Mrs. J. C. Smyth, a former member, was the only guest.

Mrs. Fred A. Grayum gave a sketch of "Life on the Mississippi" by Mark Twain. Mrs. Joe Stinson followed her on program by telling of Fred Oaks Sylvester—poet, painter and a lover of the Mississippi River—and giving his poem, "The Mississippi." Mrs. W. W. Hamilton's review of "An Ozark Santita" by Charles Finger, an author of many books, tales and ballads, who lives in the Ozark Mountains near Fayetteville, Arkansas, was quite interesting. "Pirates" was the title of Mrs. E. J. Anderson's paper, the presenting of which closed one of the most interesting programs of the year.

A lovely plate luncheon was served by Mrs. English to her guest and to the following members: Misses E. J. Anderson, W. R. Bell, J. C. Dorward, F. A. Grayum, W. W. Hamilton, J. C. Stinson, Lee T. Stinson and O. P. Thrane.

LET'S TALK ABOUT CLOTHES

BY A YOUNG MODERN

Designers furnish interesting blouse information for the many shoppers who are sliding their shoulders into suits these days. They point out that the suit buying public does not approve of the severely tailored blouses, but prefers the frilled or more feminine models to contrast with the masculine tailored wools and suiting used for the popular simple suit.

So, with this in mind, we visit the shops and find soft striped silk in stunning color contrasts, made with a chest pocket, turn-over collar and short sleeves. The stripes are about an inch wide and are used vertically.

Another big success is the two faced printed silk taffeta blouse. The under side is navy blue, the upper scarlet, and the small design is in reverse on both sides of the silk. A peplum is worn over the skirt, the sleeves are short and the neckline is furnished with the contrasting side of taffeta tied in a large bow under the chin. Girls at Texas State College for Women (CIA) smartly recommend this blouse for a navy suit.

Printed silk blouses are especially effective with monotone suits. The soft, mellow designs in cheering bright colors are exquisite, and most of the blouses are made with long fitted sleeves. Hand blocked silks in bright colors against chalk white backgrounds—the kind that have fine details, such as tucked bosoms, tabs for monogramming, short or long sleeves, and convertible collars.

Crisp white neckwear is an interesting addition to suits. You'll like the ruffled collars and the exquisitely sheer embroidered organizes with matching cuffs. Be as mannish as you choose in the selection of your suit, but top it with a feminine collar.

Third, the child must be presented with situations he will find outside the school. "Just What the Doctor Ordered" FOR MY FAMILY," says T. L. Woolhouse, Cranford, N. J.

The popular phrase "Just what the doctor ordered" fits my big, new Dodge to a "T"—so far as my family is concerned.

My wife demanded safety, and I don't know where I could find a car with more safety provisions. My son was impressed by the quick responsiveness of the new Dodge; and my daughter insisted that we have a good looking car.

I have to foot the bills, and while all these things sold me on Dodge, I know that Dodge owners have reported getting 18 to 24 miles to the gallon of gas... and saving up to 20% on oil. I have averaged over 19 miles to the gallon.

Sun Hidden Since First of Year in Atlanta, Georgia

A tale of extreme cold and damage in the Old South is told in a letter received this week by The Times from Mrs. John C. Moor, wife of a former Scurry County resident, now of Atlanta, Georgia. The letter is dated February 7.

"Today is the first time we have seen the sun this year," writes Mrs. Moor. "I am sending you a few pictures of the ice storm we had. We are still having sleet storms and snow storms."

Large pictures in an enclosed copy of the Atlanta Georgian-American reveal that hundreds of trees were broken to the ground, street cars were stopped, automobile passage was blocked, telephone and telegraph communication was virtually tied up, and the entire city bowed to the white conqueror.

Lee Smyth of Abilene spent the week-end in Snyder.

Beware The Cough From a common cold That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Wild Cherry and Menthol, but also has fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect. Fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results.

Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote and they rank Creomulsion top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations and especially those stubborn ones that start with a common cold and hang on for dreadful days and nights thereafter. Even if other remedies have failed, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund every cent of your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

Reports from health authorities advise that "colds" are widespread and especially severe this year and urge citizens to arm themselves against this insidious illness. Health-wrecking sickness is all too prevalent during this bad-weather season and it is vitally important to take special precautions against the attack of the common cold germ which has become America's Public Health Enemy Number One. Beware the dangers of the treacherous weeks ahead. For your health's sake keep your entire house comfortably warm!

Uneven and inadequate indoor temperatures are a constant danger to health during the treacherous winter months. Sudden changes of temperature, such as those experienced in passing from a warm room to a cold one, appear to be harmful to the tissues of the nose and throat which are the starting places of health-wrecking respiratory diseases. Quick chilling of the body lowers resistance and invites attacks from cold germs.

According to government statistics, diseases of our breathing apparatus are responsible for more deaths than any other single cause. While respiratory diseases often start seriously, they are closely related to "colds" and in many instances are directly traceable to catching cold. There is good reason, therefore, why physicians advise extra care in protecting health during the threatening winter months.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure when your family's health is concerned and you can reduce the possibility of "colds" during the treacherous weather ahead by the simple precaution of proper ventilation and adequate heat in every room of the house. Try it for your health's sake!

... Community Natural Gas Co.

Don't gamble with America's Public Health Enemy Number One, the common cold germ. Fifty per cent of all disabling diseases start with a "common cold." If you do catch a "cold" consult your family doctor before it has an opportunity to undermine your health.

Where's My Part, Uncle? Talkative Tillie arose, just after Uncle Sam figured that an average of $44.96 is in circulation for every man, woman and child in the country, to inquire of Secretary Morgenthau: "Where's my $44.96?"

Weekly Rooseveltism. President Roosevelt: "It is a synthetic, manufactured, poisonous fear that is being spread subtly, expensively and cleverly by the same people who cried in those other days—'Save us, save us, else we perish!'"

The Greatest Enemy. The greatest enemy of all new ideas is ignorance. The next greatest, loyalty to customs long established, and war is the old institution in the world. The third greatest enemy is the war institution itself.—Carrie Chapman Catt, woman suffrage leader.

There Is Nothing Truer. A pleasant smile pays big dividends. An act of kindness pays more than the legal rate of interest. Giving your true friendship to another gets you an extra stock dividend. If you do not believe it, be grouchy, unkind, and disloyal, and then see what happens.—Van Amburgh.

It Must Be "Buy Real Estate" Year. One of the most heartening features of the New Year is the sale of homes, farms and ranches. Local real estate men have been humping lately to find places for prospective buyers. Of course there is no hefty rise in real estate prices, but certainly it is a good sign that prices are crawling above the low level that struck for three or four years.

This Is Boy Scout Week. Friends of scouting are observing Boy Scout Week in various ways. In Snyder a full week of observance should bring scouting anew to the minds of local and county citizens. Boy Scout work suffers because it does not have leadership, not because the boys do not take to its program. Did you ever see a man who strenuously curses the modern goin'-to-the-devil spirit of youth who has turned his hand toward a remedy such as scouting?

Little Room for Complaint. From all indications, there will be little room for complaint on the part of sideline critics as to how war veterans spend the bonus payment that will be coming along later in the year. Practically every man contacted by The Times has expressed a desire to invest his money wisely—in a home, a set of farming tools, a small business, and so forth.

Did Texas Get a New Deal? Figures of the U. S. Bureau of Census reveal that Texas received a new deal, all right, under the Bankhead allotment plan, but states of the Old South received a far more acceptable deal. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is to be congratulated because it is taking the bull by the horns in an effort to have this question answered: Why did the five cotton states of the Old South gin more cotton in 1935 and almost as much in 1934 as they did in 1932, the Bankhead plan notwithstanding, while the three Southwestern cotton states during the last two seasons ginned not much more than half their 1932 baleage?

Following the Roosevelt Way. Democratic leaders are in better spirits these days than they were earlier in the year, when the first bitter Republican barrage was fired in their direction. The principal reason is that every major Republican candidate for president, announced or suggested, has proposed virtually the same farm program as that sponsored earlier by President Roosevelt. Knox, Dickinson, Landon and Hoover... each member of this prominent Republican quartet has proposed soil conservation and government subsidies as major planks in their farm program. Roosevelt has been laying those planks almost continuously since he went into office.

For Student and Community. Pat Bullock's candidacy for state superintendent is based on an urgent desire for change on the part of school leaders and patrons throughout the state. The State Department of Education should be a common meeting ground for school people and it should have sympathies attune to the needs of our schools. Those who have known Pat through the years know that in all his school leadership he has thought first of the youngsters and the communities in which they live. The Times prophesies that this spirit, on which Pat will conduct his campaign, will permeate the voting public sufficiently to elevate this native son to leadership in educational forces.

Without Gas Pressure.

Many folks have the profound and vociferous belief that nothing good can come out of a public utilities office. They are just mistaken, that's all.

They forget, for one thing, that electricity for light and power, gas for heating and telephone service for general use are cheaper and more efficient now than ever before.

They forget, for another thing, that the utilities are so closely regulated that they could not possibly to the public malefactors they are often cracked up to be.

They forget, in place number three, that public utilities pay more taxes, salaries and other monies for direct local usage than practically any other concerns or individuals, income considered.

Not that we have any special brief for the utilities. This introductory discussion is given merely as a preliminary to a new bouquet The Times wishes to throw in the direction of the Lone Star Gas System, which supplies this vicinity.

Stockholders of the concern have agreed to furnish $50,000 for construction of a Hall of Religion for the Texas Centennial Central Exposition at Dallas. "No part of this expense is to be charged to the consumers," President L. B. Denning declares. Lone Star deserves the congratulations of even those who still cling to the belief that nothing good can come out of a utilities office.

Another observation: No gas pressure was brought to bear on The Times before this editorial was written. We just saw the newspaper account of the donation, and it struck us that a donation of $50,000 by anyone merited an editorial.

EDITORIAL OF THE WEEK

"WHAT NEXT FOR THE FARMER?"

The Supreme Court decision in the Hoosier Mills case, growing out of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, is tough meat for the lay public to chew on. Not only is the opinion clothed in legal verbiage, but the issues themselves take on an unfamiliar guise.

Discussion of the matter during the weeks immediately following, aided by some pronouncements from Washington, cleared up a great deal of misunderstanding. It brought general realization that the court was considering only certain phases of an act which is extremely comprehensive in character and elaborate in its provisions. By count, a majority of the devices provided in the Agricultural Adjustment Act were untouched by the decision of the Supreme Court. Those which had been made operative (other than reduction contracts) continue in use and others which were authorized but not yet employed could now be resorted to by merely administrative action.

If AAA was a good remedy to use at the time of agriculture's crisis, we may now recognize that something different is called for during the convalescent stage or, still more so, for the maintenance of health thereafter. It would be well to take at face value what the act said as to its own emergency character, though calling into use much of its remaining powers as will not expose the patient to relapse during the period before he gets really back on his feet. But we should frankly recognize that production control is not a type of treatment well suited to an industry in normal health.—The Monitor (Boston).

CURRENT COMMENT

BY LEON GUINN

Likened unto a public utility plant is the nervous system of the human body, one of the most precise power houses created, for with nerve wires throughout the human body, a spider web relief of electric power lines, the nervous system has control centers science does not yet fully understand.

So several months ago, Dr. Edmund Jacobson (University of Chicago physiologist) decided to get definite info on suspected brain control centers. To a dairy farmer having a section of his left frontal skull removed Dr. Jacobson punched a platinum wire through the skin covering and sank it 2 inches into the patient's brain.

The brain registers no pain sensations within itself, and since this procedure was painless an electric circuit was rigged up, amplified and registered on a galvanometer dial. The farmer moved arms, legs and hands; no results. Yet when the patient moved his jaws the dial went up to 200 microvolts.

Concluded by Dr. Jacobson: He had tapped the brain control center governing the jaw only. Recalled was the fact in 1822 Dr. William Beaumont looked into the open stomach of an Indian and gave science its first factual description of digestive processes.

With snow blanketing sunny Scurry County, and making the loveliness of its hills grown old a newborn horizon to view, comes temperatures that really get nippy. Yet in our siberland to the north, Canada, King Winter downs the mercury to 50-60 degrees below zero with his chilly breath.

Writes Mrs. Lillian B. Cummings of Shellbrook, Sask., Canada: "One thing I especially love about Canada is our beautiful evening twilight; in fact the night never seems to be dark. Here one can always see at night, the Canadian Northern Lights often making the twilight a thing of enticing beauty. Our aurora borealis covers the sky in rainbow waves, each purple or pink shaft a merry dancer it seems. One has so much electricity in one's body in the winter, when a jacket is removed, a thin flame sparkling like matches covers the coat."

The Times Creed:

For the cause that needs assistance; For the wrongs that need resistance; For the future in the distance, And the good that we can do.

Mrs. Kate Cotten Becomes Candidate For City Secretary

To the voters of the city of Snyder:

In announcing my candidacy for the office of city secretary-treasurer, I do not deem it necessary to introduce myself to the good people of Snyder, as I have been a citizen of this city for a number of years.

I served the county heretofore in the capacity of county clerk from 1920 to 1927. During that time it was also my privilege to collect the city taxes. I feel that I am thoroughly capable of holding the office I seek.

If honored with this office I will serve you loyally and faithfully. It would be a pleasure to see each of you personally but this is impossible, for I do not have a car.

Please consider this an earnest appeal to each and every one of you for your careful consideration and I assure you your support will be deeply appreciated.

If elected, I promise to prove myself worthy of your trust.

Sincerely,
MRS. KATE COTTEN.

ON TEXAS FARMS
By Minnie Fisher Cunningham, Extension Service Editor

Texas yards will be on parade this year of the Texas Centennial, and Texas rural home makers have been getting ready for the show if one is to judge by annual report figures of the Extension Service.

In Austin County Mrs. H. A. Neumann, yard demonstrator of New Uim, began her work in October, 1934, by preparing a cutting bed in which she put out 117 cuttings of evergreens and roses to be rooted and transplanted to her yard in 1935.

Miss Celesta Albert, another yard demonstrator in Austin County, increased the size of her yard so that it would correspond with the large house, then planted native shrubs in a screen planting across the back to cut off the view of the service buildings. Youpon, coral berry, lantanas and wild orange were used.

Preliminary to this work, the home demonstration agent held a training school for yard demonstrators last spring in which they learned how to identify plant material, ball and burlap them for transplanting and trench them.

WPA, NYA Jobs In County Going Forward Rapidly

County WPA and NYA projects are going forward rapidly, a Times survey reveals.

Seven hands are working on the underpass northwest of town, in addition to the contractor's and railway's trained crews. Several more WPA workers will go on that job next week.

The street project payroll reached a new high yesterday, when 51 men were working on the 26th Street bridge, drainage structures and surfacing.

Twenty-five youths have been assigned to the park project beyond Dermott, and a number of other NYA young men and young women are assigned to school projects and regular WPA jobs.

The local gymnasium is proceeding rapidly, with a full crew of WPA workers on the job. Ira gymnasium lacks only the flooring, and the Dunn gymnasium is also moving forward rapidly.

A number of women are engaged at the sewing rooms, now located just west of the square.

Precinct road projects are also moving forward.

All projects are suffering from lack of funds, but supervisors are pleased with the excellent showing in the face of reduced monies.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS
BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin—Rumors of friction and prospective warfare between the national and state Democratic organizations in Texas over the leadership of the delegation to be selected in May to the Philadelphia national convention, being circulated throughout the state, are some two months behind the actual happenings which inspired them, and are without tangible foundation.

There is, and has been for months, a substantial agreement upon broad party policies between Gov. James V. Allred, head of the state Democratic administration, and Vice President John Garner, Allred's chosen Democratic national committeeman from Texas. Garner has publicly supported Allred throughout his career, and it can be said on the highest authority that there exists now the closest friendship, personally and politically, between the two men. Their respective representatives to handle pre-convention details in Texas are Rep. Sam Rayburn and Democratic State Chairman Myron Blalock. These two are lifelong friends and are reported working in complete harmony. Blalock is in Washington this week for conferences with Rayburn, Garner and other national leaders.

Texas will send a solid delegation of 46 votes to Philadelphia, instructed to 100 per cent support of the renomination of Roosevelt and Garner. There is no question whatever in the minds of Texas party leaders as to the overwhelming preponderance of sentiment in Texas for Roosevelt and Garner. The only possibility of friction apparent to those on the inside now is the minor bickering of factional leaders, jockeying for places and honors on the Philadelphia delegation. These doubts will be ironed out in due time. But that Texas is going to send a "grass roots" Democratic delegation, representative of the people and chosen by the people of Texas—to work harmoniously and loyally with the national organization—appears fairly certain at this writing.

Alarmed at President Roosevelt's suggestion in his budget message that regular federal matching appropriations, totaling $125,000 a year, for joint highway construction projects with the states, under the Hayden-Cartwright act, be "skipped" this year, county judges and commissioners of Texas this week are preparing to send a delegation of about 20 influential members to Washington at once to protest and urge aid from Texas congressmen. Led by Judge Clyde Garrett of Eastland, president of the association, the judges met in special called session at Dallas, adopted strong resolutions urging the administration not to postpone highway allotments, but to vote at least $125,000 a year for the next four years, allocate $300,000,000 extra, of unallocated relief funds for highway work, and compare the excellent results obtained by the bureau of public roads and the state highway commissions in using relief money to put people to work and build enduring public works. Texas draws about $7,500,000 a year which it matches under existing federal practice. Highway Commissioner Harry Hines told the judges to cut this off would mean no funds for closing gaps in cardinal federal highway routes in Texas this year.

With an estimated 20,000 candidates already announced for state and local offices, and an all-time record estimate of 1,250,000 poll tax and exemption certificates issued, Texas is going to see its greatest political year in 1936.

Two members of the House of Representatives, in Austin to urge a special session during the recent period of doubt about this question, were talking in a hotel lobby.

"If the governor don't call a session right away I don't know what I'm going to do about making my campaign for re-election," said a West Texas member.

"Why," said his colleague, "you oughtn't to be worried. I thought you had a pretty good record on

WTCC PROTESTS THAT SOUTH FAVORED IN COTTON ACREAGES

Southwestern States Suffer Under Former Allotment Plan, Texas Congressmen Told.

Figures submitted by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to Texas congressional leaders this week reveal that Texas cotton allotments under the Bankhead Act suffered considerably in comparison with allotments for cotton growing states of the Old South.

Through its manager, D. A. Bandeen, the WTCC has let political leaders know that it favors a cotton control measure embodying the domestic allotment plan. The organization is likewise making it known that it considers the old path of Bankhead allotments entirely unfair to West Texas and the state as a whole.

Measures Introduced.

Representative Martin Dies and Senator Tom Connally, with whom the WTCC has been in constant correspondence, have introduced cotton measures embodying the domestic allotment plan under which a grower would be given a subsidy from the Department of Agriculture on that portion of his cotton to be domestically consumed, while the balance would be allowed to move—tax free and without any restrictions—into the market at world prices.

Analysis of five states, Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, North and South Carolina, known as the Southern states, and three Southern states, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas, were made by the WTCC.

The five southern states produced 4,559,241 bales in 1932; 100 per cent of the 1932 figure and 113 per cent of the quota in 1934; and 106 per cent of 1932 and 119 per cent of the quota in 1935.

Production by States.

Southwest states produced 6,663,137 bales in 1932; only 52 per cent of the 1932 figure and 73 per cent of the quota in 1934; and 62 per cent of the 1932 figure and 87 per cent of the quota in 1935.

Bankhead quota for the Southern states was 89 per cent of the 1932 production, for the Southwest states only 72 per cent of the output that year.

Excerpts from the Bandeen letter follow:

"You will note: (1) That five cotton producing states east of the Mississippi received a Bankhead allotment of 89 per cent of the 1932 production which was the last year before either voluntary or compulsory control while Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas received an allotment of 72 per cent of their 1932 production. It appears, therefore, that our state started off with a discrimination and penalty under Bankhead quota in favor of the old Southern states.

Two Years of Control.

"(2) That in the two years under Bankhead allotments the states east of the Mississippi produced 100 per cent of their 1932 production in 1934 and in 1935 produced 106 per cent of their 1932 production. Our three states, on the other hand, produced in 1934 only 52 per cent of their 1932 production. It is, therefore, apparent that the Bankhead allotment has resulted in greatly curtailing our production, while the production of the states east of the Mississippi has increased. The old Southern states have actually produced more bales under the cotton control program while we have produced around 45 per cent less bales.

"(3) That the states east of the Mississippi in 1934 produced 113 per cent of their Bankhead quota and in 1935 produced 119 per cent of their Bankhead quota, while our states in 1934 produced 73 per cent of their Bankhead quotas and in 1935 produced 87 per cent of their Bankhead quotas. The eastern states, therefore, not only received rental and parity payments on a higher basis than our states, but also received the benefit of increased production under the Bankhead control plan.

Local People Attend Celebration in Honor Of Dr. D. M. Yearly

Mrs. C. W. Harless and daughters, Mmes. Aubrey Stokes and Red Moore, were among the 400 people to attend the 81st birthday celebration of their father and grandfather, Dr. D. M. Yearly of Farmersville, last Sunday.

The celebration was held in the form of open house at the home of Dr. Yearly's daughter, Mrs. A. C. Corry and Dr. Corry in Farmersville. Mrs. Yearly shared honors with her husband during the celebration.

Persons at whose birth Dr. Yearly has officiated were honor guests on the occasion, and members of the family and close friends made up the house party.

The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, which were gifts of friends. Many telegrams and other gifts were presented to the honoree during the day. A huge tiered cake decorated in pink and white centered the lace-covered dining table as plates of sandwiches and sweets were served with coffee to the 400 friends and relatives, who joined in congratulating Dr. Yearly.

Of the veteran doctor the Farmersville Times said, "During the past 50 years Dr. Yearly has performed a truly great service to the people of this section—a service which only a big-hearted, whole-souled country doctor, who loves his fellowmen, could perform."

LIONS OBSERVE SPECIAL WEEK

Snyder Lions and several guests observed Boy Scout Week with a special program Tuesday at noon. Frank Farmer, program chairman, introduced W. J. Ely, Snyder District Boy Scout chairman, who outlined the history and the accomplishments of the boy-training movement since its inception 26 years ago.

Thirty-seven members of Snyder's two Boy Scout troops, along with Scoutmasters W. F. Cox and Willard Jones, were presented. Jones is leader of Troop No. 35, sponsored by the club, and Cox of Troop No. 36, sponsored by the Masons.

Warren Dodson, member of the club's troop committee, brought a message concerning the worth of the Boy Scout movement. President John E. Sentell also presented briefly the value of scouting. Dr. J. G. Hicks, a committeeman for the Masons, and E. E. Weatherbee, club guest, also a scout, were introduced.

Dr. H. P. Redwine and Jesse Jones were also guests at the meeting.

HEALTH NEWS

From Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer

Tuberculosis, in common with the other major killers, is a criminal whose work is effectively carried on under cover of ignorance, stated Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer.

Carelessness is its greatest ally. How otherwise explain the conduct of persons who, despite poor appetite, faulty digestion, loss of weight, loss of strength or a sensation of tiredness in the afternoons, refuse to admit that their condition requires a professional investigation? Personal cooperation is necessary if we would cut down the ravages of this preventable disease.

Tuberculosis is no respecter of persons; no one is immune to tuberculous infection. Children who are in repeated contact with tuberculous persons almost invariably contract the infection. All children, therefore, should be protected at all times from protracted exposure to infection from persons known or suspected of having the disease.

Removal of the contact cases, protection of the infant and very young, and prompt professional advice when symptoms suggestive of tuberculosis arise, will do much to reduce the tuberculosis death rate. But, as has been indicated, these measures by their very nature are largely outside the province of health officials. The problem is quite definitely a personal one.

Health Official Warns Citizens About Pellagra

Pellagra, while not a communicable disease, is of concern to the State Department of Health as many people die of it each year in Texas. Pellagra is a disease that is caused by the lack of proper foods. It comes on slowly and may not be recognized until the victim begins to have a sore mouth, stomach trouble, and reddening and scaling of the skin. When these symptoms appear, the disease has been present for some time, stated Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer.

The longer a person has pellagra the harder it is to cure, so one should be on the lookout for the early symptoms, such as nervousness, indigestion, and burning of the feet and hands. The disease may become so severe as to affect the mind.

Pellagra is not contagious. As long as a person eats enough of the right kind of food and is not otherwise diseased, he is in no danger even if he lives with a pellagra patient.

The prevention of pellagra depends upon eating the right kind of food at all times. To make sure that the diet is right, it should always include plenty of milk daily, some fresh meat, and as many fresh vegetables as possible. Tomatoes, whole wheat products, salmon, fresh fruits and brewer's yeast are especially valuable. Having provided these essentials of a proper diet, the rest may be arranged according to family and personal likes. In this way pellagra may be avoided.

Veterans May Sign In Agent's Office

Elmer "Sheep" Louder is in charge of a single local office where war veterans may make application for their bonus payment. One location established several days ago on the north side of the square has been discontinued, and all applicants should now apply at the county agent's office, where Louder is located.

Veterans are urged by J. E. Shipp, commander of the Will Layne Post, to make their applications as quickly as possible. Plenty of blanks are now on hand.

IT'S FALSE ECONOMY TO TURN OFF YOUR REFRIGERATOR

Your electric refrigerator is so constructed that it adjusts itself instantly and accurately to changes in temperature without your assistance. If the weather is warm, it buckles down to hard work and keeps the inside of the box at its proper temperature. If the weather is cold, it automatically turns itself off as long as the temperature remains in safe bounds. That's why we say it's false economy to turn your refrigerator on and off according to your ideas of the weather—your electric refrigerator catches temperature changes quicker and more accurately than you do.

PENNY WISE SAYS:

"The cost of electricity is so small that an electric refrigerator keeps food fresh and appetizing for only a few cents a day."
