"YOUR HOME COUNTY PAPER"

FORTY-EIGHTH YEAR

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 23, 1936.

NUMBER 46

ANOTHER DOSE OF RAIN GIVEN BIG RECEPTION

Second Wet Spell, Accompanied by Cold, Heighten's County's 1936 Prospects.

After a four-day recess, the spring rainy season made its second April visit to Scurry County Monday and Tuesday night.

Snyder received only 20 of an inch of rain in spite of blustery winds and heavy clouds for almost two days. But many other communities of the county received a half to an inch and a quarter of moisture.

In some vicinities, notably west and northwest, the fall was heavier than it has been in months. Deep Creek rose to some extent, although its bed was dry and water-thirsty.

Coldest Tuesday Night.

The cold wave reached its lowest point Tuesday night, when it dropped to 37 degrees. A stinging wind started the rain late Monday, and it continued through Tuesday night, even after the rainfall stopped.

All the county gave the wetness a big reception, for even with last week's moisture in most communities, there was need for considerably more rain. Even yet there hangs out a huge welcome sign for any rain that might come along, especially by cattlemen, who say heavy rains will be necessary in order to assure plentiful grass.

Heavy Wind Damages.

A check-up after the heavy wind Wednesday night of last week revealed that a number of windmills were overturned, small outbuildings were overturned, sheet-iron roofs were snatched off, sappy trees were unlimbed, and other damage was inflicted. The Roscoe country received more serious damage, many homes being partially destroyed.

Electric service was stopped here for almost an hour last Wednesday night due to heavy wind damage. In the Roscoe section, no electric power was available for a number of hours.

Home Owners of This County Get $60,847 in Loans

Home owners in Scurry County have received loans, for refinancing purposes, from the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, amounting to $60,847, as of January 2, 1936, according to an announcement made by H. P. Drought, state director of the National Emergency Council for Texas. This total represents 38 individual loans to home owners.

The total amount of loans closed in Texas by the Home Owners' Loan Corporation as of January 2, 1936, was $101,923,418, representing 43,741 individual loans. Six hundred and fifty-nine applications were pending on the above date.

As of March 26, 1936, 1,000,749 loans, amounting to $3,031,168,924 had been closed by the HOLC throughout the United States. The average loan amounted to $3,030. On March 26, 1936, 17,963 loan requests remained on file with the corporation.

A number of pictures of county resources were also taken.

Material for Snyder's panel at Fort Worth was sent to the artists late last week. WFO officials expect the panel to be ready for display at the annual convention in Amarillo next month.

August 24 was recently selected as Snyder Day at Centennial celebrations in Dallas and Fort Worth.

Hobbs F. F. A. Boy Has Prize Winning Calf at Sweetwater

In the three-county stock show held at Sweetwater fair grounds Monday, Malcolm White, Hobbs F. F. A. member, copped first prize with his pen-fed steer.

More than 500 visitors to the Sweetwater show saw entries from Mitchell, Nolan and Fisher Counties.

Young White was the only Fisher County boy to place in the show. His blue ribbon steer sold for $142, bringing 17 cents per pound. In addition, he received $10 first prize.

Hobbs F. F. A. boys, in going to Sweetwater, received 10 cents per mile for making the trip. A total of 67 steers, six hogs and 23 sheep were sold during the three-county exhibition.

Many Notables Will Gather With Young Demo Group in May

Many notables have accepted invitations to appear and take part on the program at the Young Democratic Clubs of Texas state convention in Abilene May 8 and 9.

The group will include three governors—J. M. Futral of Arkansas, Clyde Tingley of New Mexico and James V. Allred of Texas. Attorney General William McCraw, several state senators and members of the House of Representatives of Texas will also take part.

J. Bryan Bradbury, chairman of the Abilene arrangements committee, stated yesterday that in addition to this distinguished group, there will be a number of candidates for state office.

From indications already advanced, a hot fight on the selection of permanent officers and the next convention city is expected.

Lorraine Band Gets Snyder Parade Cup

The fast-stepping band from Lorraine High School won the loving cup offered by Superintendent C. Wedgworth to the best appearing and best performing band in Tuesday's parade.

McMurry College's girls' drum corps, one of the most colorful musical organizations in the state, was not eligible for the cup, but it made a hit with the thousands who lined the streets.

Colorado High School Band and Snyder's Tiler Band completed the musical units in the parade. Bad weather prevented other scheduled bands from coming.

Retabulation Shows Robison Is Elected

A retabulation of school election returns by the Commissioners Court revealed several days ago that Doc Robison instead of Frank Wilson was elected as one of the four new Ennis Creek trustees.

The error was made in tabulating, not in counting, the returns. Correct tabulation for the five high men in the race follow: George Ramage, 17; W. W. Floyd, 14; R. O. Horsley, 13; Dee Robison, 9; Frank Wilson, 7.

PAGEANT WILL BE HELD HERE NEXT TUESDAY

Entire School Program, Postponed Because of Cold, to Be Given At Tiger Stadium.

The Texas history pageant, scheduled last Tuesday evening as a climax to the Heart of West Texas Centennial Celebration, will be staged next Tuesday night, beginning at 8:00 o'clock, according to C. Wedgworth, superintendent of Snyder schools.

Postponement of the fete was made necessary because of the cold norther that swept into Snyder this week.

A brief program was held Tuesday night despite the cold. Marlin Sandlin, assistant secretary of state, brought greetings from Governor Allred, and T. C. King, assistant auditor, was introduced.

Large Crowd Present. A crowd that filled the stadium and many parked cars had turned out for the gigantic pageant, and it is expected that most of these will return next week if the night turns warm and inviting. In addition to the 15-scene pageant of Texas history, the county-wide chorus of school children will sing Texas and range songs, as originally scheduled.

As a climax to the brief program Tuesday night, Judge Jim Stinson of Abilene formally dedicated the new lighting field for Tiger Stadium. He was introduced by the local superintendent.

Judge Stinson Speaks. "When I came here a few months ago to assist in dedicating your marvelous hospital, I thought you had reached the peak of community enterprise and progress," he said. "But in this accomplishment of a lighted field you have surpassed even yourselves. West Texas and the entire state can look to you as a pattern for community spirit."

Judge Stinson also paid tribute to the heroes of San Jacinto whose sacrifice 100 years ago made it possible to celebrate the Centennial in Snyder and elsewhere over the Lone Star State.

Wedgworth again extends a hearty invitation for schools of the county to turn out in full force for the county-wide chorus.

W. R. Wren Has Document Signed By Sam Houston

From a recent issue of the Abilene Reporter-News: "On March 29 in the Sunday Reporter-News, a story from Roscoe was published telling of a deed signed by Sam Houston as governor of Texas in 1860. Since then several historical documents have been brought to light and notice given in the Reporter and News.

Thursday morning this letter was received in the mail: "SNYDER, TEXAS, "APRIL 8, 1936

"The Abilene Morning Reporter-News. "Mr. Editor: "I noticed in your issue of Sunday, March 29, you published a communication from Roscoe that the postmaster there has a Texas Centennial relic in the form of a deed to a tract of land signed by Governor Sam Houston in 1860.

"I believe I can go the postmaster one better. "I have in my possession a commission signed by President Sam Houston of the Republic of Texas on December 22, 1836, and attested by William S. Fisher as secretary, commissioning my father a lieutenant in the ranger force for the new Republic.

"In my opinion, this document is entitled to be classed as a Texas Centennial relic. "As I am a Texan by birth, I am zealous for a great Texas Centennial.

"(Signed) W. R. WREN."

Westfall in Snyder.

Among visitors to Snyder's Tuesday celebration was Leonard Westfall of Aspermont, state representative. He spoke highly of the county's enterprise in staging such an outstanding historical pageant and parade. He remained in the county for two days to mingle with folks.

Thanks Extended by Chamber Commerce

Snyder Chamber of Commerce, which was responsible for arranging the transportation history division of Tuesday's parade, through Forest Sears, president, and J. W. Scott, secretary, asks The Times to extend its thanks to everyone who helped make the day's celebration possible.

"It is through such cooperation as that displayed Tuesday that we will build an increasingly better and more progressive community," the president said yesterday. "We are grateful, too, to the visitors from other towns and counties who joined us in this celebration."

HUNDREDS OF PIONEERS MEET HERE TUESDAY

Two hundred and ninety persons who have resided in Scurry County 30 years or more registered in the county superintendent's office Tuesday during the Centennial Celebration, according to Miss Bonnie Miller, who presided over the registration book.

Knowing that many others will want to register, the book is being left at the county superintendent's office, where old-timers may go at any time to give their name, address, age and time in the county. Because of such a full program Tuesday, it was decided to postpone organization of a Scurry County Pioneers Association until a later date. An effort will be made to register all persons who have been in the county 30 years or more, and to invite them in for an organization meeting some time during the Centennial year.

J. Wright Moser, the first settler in the county, headed the list with a residence of 60 years. Several who have been here almost that long failed to register, but are expected to do so within a few days. This list includes Jim and Tom Nunn, Snyder.

Following is a list of registrants who have been in the county 40 years or more. Names of those who have been here 30 years or more, and of later registrants in

Times Fails to See Several Advertisers

In its rush to issue the special Centennial Celebration edition last Friday night, The Times did not have time to see several advertisers. The publishers and force had to prepare and print the edition in little more than a day in order to get latest information concerning the celebration.

The Times is grateful for the spirit of cooperation shown by business houses, who wished to do their part to publicize the event.

In addition to covering the county, papers were delivered to Colorado, Lorraine, Roscoe, Sweetwater, Gail, Rotan and Roby.

Dem Chairman Reminds.

A. C. Preuit, county Democratic chairman, reminds voters again this week that they are urged to gather at their respective voting places Saturday, May 2, 2:00 p. m., for annual precinct conventions.

FROM AUSTIN

As you stood on the sidelines Tuesday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock, half chilled by the norther that dashed from rain-soaked clouds, you knew for a surety that Snyder has a heart as large as the spirit that prompted and completed such a colorful parade as you had just witnessed.

You were one of 8,000 or more who termed the living ribbon of historical pageantry a new landmark of civic pride for Snyder, and a new day of unselfish tribute to the men and women who carved an empire out of a bolterous frontier.

You felt during those 30 minutes that you were a part of all you surveyed.

J. Wright Moar.

If you did not thrill to the jaunty step of the company that bore J. Wright Moar, first man who ever hunted buffalo in Texas on a commercial scale, then surely you must have been charged with some of the pride that prompted the 86-year-old hunter to sit his horse with a youthful vigor.

If you could not see a charging herd of more than 20,000 buffalo that had been killed by the heavy 50 calibre Sharpe's rifle that lay across Mr. Moar's saddle horn, the eyes of your imagination must have been dimmed by the sharp wind.

This first permanent settler ever to drive a wagon into Scurry County followed Pete Bridgeman, marshal for this Heart of West Texas Centennial parade, and a car that carried Marlin Sandlin and T. C. King, personal representatives of Governor Allred.

Companion and Escort. Beside the pioneer rode his adopted granddaughter, Julia Mae McDowell, serving as his companion as one of his men might have done to his buffalo hunting days. Lee Byrd, rancher, was escort.

Behind the key man of the parade were two wagons representing the old skimming outfit of J. W. Moar Brothers. They were followed by a number of cowhands.

Field Secretary Speaks to Camp Fire Groups, Leaders and Mothers Friday

Miss Ruby Lattimore of New York City, association field secretary for the national organization of Camp Fire Girls, was a guest of the local Camp Fire Girls and their leader, Mrs. H. A. Lattimore, here Friday. The national worker is a sister-in-law of the local woman.

Miss Lattimore spoke to a group of girls in the high school auditorium at 3:30 Friday afternoon and to mothers and guardians later in the afternoon. At 6:00 o'clock Friday evening she attended a meeting of the advisory board for Camp Fire Girls in the home of Mrs. R. D. English.

Having been a teacher for several years, Miss Lattimore told the girls and later the older women that she found herself organizing Camp Fire Girls in every school in which she taught. She resigned as principal of an Arizona junior high school to do state work in that field, and later she was called to New York City to become a member of the national board.

Friends blue eyes sparkled from a frame of naturally wavy reddish brown hair, as Miss Lattimore told of the joy of being a Camp Fire Girl leader. A member of the group since girlhood, the speaker briefly traced her work from its beginning among Texas pioneers of the Great Staked Plains.

Her love for the West was revealed as she spoke softly, almost reverently, of cowboys, ranches and western hospitality. She is a graduate of West Texas State Teachers College, Canyon, and has done work in the University of Washington.

Women, who heard the speaker, wondered if her beautiful vocabulary is an outgrowth of many happy years of work with Camp Fire Girls. "Camp Fire Girls," she said, "learn through doing." Work in the organization is so varied that it cannot become monotonous. The seven different crafts are open for the originality of girls over 10 years of age. All natural crafts, they include: Home craft, hand craft, health craft, camp craft, nature craft, citizenship and patriotism.

"Camp Fire is simply an informal teaching method through which girls may receive honors for everyday tasks as well as major achievements," Miss Lattimore explained. The program is workable for girls anywhere from the cities to the most remote rural community.

The local Camp Fire Girls organization, which is under general direction of Mrs. H. A. Lattimore, a teacher in the local junior high school, consists of nearly 25 girls, who are intensely interested in the work.

Mrs. J. D. Scott and Miss Frances Stinson are guardians for one group, and Mrs. W. P. King and Miss Margaret Dell Prim are guardians for another. Other groups are being organized and will be ready for work as soon as suitable leaders are found.

At a meeting of the advisory committee in the home of Mrs. R. D. English Friday evening were the following: Miss Lattimore, Mmes. W. P. King, H. A. Lattimore, and English, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Odom, Rev. H. C. Gordon, A. J. Cody and J. C. Smyth.

Pastel pink and green were given emphasis in appointments, and refreshments of sandwiches, salad and sweets with coffee were passed by the hostess and her sister, Ruby Curry.

Junior music students from all over the state competed in the contests held Saturday, junior day at the federation, in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church, Fort Worth, with Mrs. W. A. Stubblefield of Houston, state junior chairman, presiding. The day opened with a business session, which was followed by the contests. All women of the church are extended a cordial invitation to attend these circle meetings.

Mrs. Curry Attends Beauty Convention.

Mrs. Bea Curry, owner and operator of the Elite Beauty Shoppe here, was in Dallas the first of this week attending the annual National Beauty Convention.

She made a study of new styles in hairdress and also purchased new equipment for her shop.

The more one admires himself, the less he thinks of others.

Nervous, Weak Woman Soon All Right

"I had regular shaking spells from nervousness," writes Mrs. Cora Sanders, of Paragould, Ark. "I was all run-down and cramped at my time until I would have to go to bed. After my first bottle of Cardui, I was better. I kept taking Cardui and soon I was all right. The shaking quit and I did not cramp. I felt worlds better. I gave Cardui to my daughter, who has the same condition and she was soon all right."

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

McMurry Student Presented in Recital.

Miss Eleanor Ansley of Dumas, senior student in McMurry College, Abilene, was presented by the McMurry department of music in a piano recital at the college auditorium recently. Miss Ansley is a pupil of Nancy Craig Lasky.

Among ushers for the program were Miss Charline Ely, Snyder, and Miss Dorothy Mathews, Abilene.

Mary Jane Beall was director for a short story program at a meeting of the Cresset Junior Club last Wednesday evening in the home of Frances Boren.

The story, "Star Wishes" by Adrina Iversen, made a background for an interesting program. Almarena Heard gave the story of the author's life; and a poem, "Pink and Blue" by Ethel Jacobson, was given by Irene Wolcott, who later played "Cradle Song" as a piano solo. Frances Chennault told the story.

Refreshments were passed by the hostess to the following: Mrs. Butler Smiser of Fort Worth, a guest; Mrs. Max Brownfield, sponsor; and Mavis Shuler, Vernelle Bradbury, Mrs. Buddy Martin, Jan Thompson, Mary Jane Beall, Frances Chennault, Irene Wolcott and Almarena Heard, club members.

Next meeting of the group will be at Lake Sweetwater, Thursday, June 18, at 4:00 o'clock. Local members of the association will be in charge of entertainment.

During the business session at the Thursday meeting, Mrs. Kirk Gregory of Stamford was elected delegate to the state meeting of graduate nurses, to be held in Dallas May 13-16.

A buffet luncheon was enjoyed following the sessions by the following graduate nurses: Mrs. J. P. Morrison, Ruth Beard, Oneta Cates, Ruth A. Maxon and Vergie E. Rane, all of Abilene; Estella Robertson, Mrs. Harry Dickinson, Agnes Hanson, Mrs. Dewres, Mrs. Kirk Gregory, Letha Turley and Jane Brown, all of Stamford; and Billie Davison, Travis Hines and Leota Glen, Snyder.

Mrs. Roy W. McCurdy of Hamlin is guest of her mother, Mrs. R. M. Stokes, here this week.

Chuck Wagon Feed Is Featured Friday.

A delightful chuck wagon supper served by real cowboys was the feature of 14th District Parent-Teacher Association meeting at Spur Friday, according to local women who attended.

During elections Saturday, Mrs. Chenault was re-elected to vice presidency of the district group. Mrs. A. R. Weaver of Spur is the new president, to succeed Mrs. J. Day of Rotan.

Mrs. M. A. Taylor, Bonham, president of the Texas Congress of Parent-Teachers, was one of the main speakers on Friday's program.

Hamlin was chosen for the 1937 session of the district group. Attendance was good at the Spur meeting, according to the local women.

S. S. Class Has Thursday Meeting.

Mmes. W. W. Hull and G. B. Clark Jr. were joint hostesses to the Sordoma Class of the First Baptist Church at the Hull home last Thursday.

The class conducted a bake sale during the afternoon to replenish the treasury, and a salad course was passed by the hostesses to the following class members: Alma Nell Bell, Dempse Agee, Aileen Smyth, Lillian Wade, Evelyn Hays, Leola Williams, Mrs. Fred P. Rattan, Jeanetta Brown, Myrl Wade, Dimple Stokes and Tommie Joyce.

Merkel Couple Marry. Frank Martin and Mrs. Ruth Martin of Merkel were married Tuesday evening at the First Baptist Church parsonage by Rev. Lawrence Hays, pastor.

Twenty Years Old But Still Kicking

The purring car of ancient vintage that formed one of the most interesting parts of Tuesday's parade belongs to John Nietzler of the Hermleigh community, who drove the vehicle, accompanied by his family.

It is a 1916 Ford, which Nietzler bought from one of his neighbors for $205 about 17 years ago.

Although he has a car of much fewer years, the Scurry County farmer still uses the 20-year-old car around the place. It was given a good shinning and oiling in preparation for the parade.

Mrs. Avary Hostess To Woman's Culture.

Mrs. J. P. Avary was hostess and Mrs. H. L. Davis leader at the last meeting of the Woman's Culture Club. The afternoon's program was on fine arts.

A paper on "The Little Theatre Movement" was given by Mrs. E. F. Sears. "Noted Sculptors of Texas" was Mrs. A. C. Alexander's subject. Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn favored the group with "Texas, Our Texas" as a vocal solo.

A salad course with coffee was passed to the following: Mmes. O. S. Williamson, A. C. Alexander, F. M. Brownfield, P. C. Chenault, W. A. Morton, D. P. Strayhorn, J. R. Hucklebee, E. J. Richardson, E. E. Weathersbee, E. F. Sears, J. A. Woodfin, H. L. Davis, H. L. Wren and Mabel Y. German, club members; and Mmes. W. E. Doak, W. P. King and J. L. Robinson, guests.

Outdoor games were enjoyed, and cherryade was served on the lawn all during the afternoon. Late in the afternoon ice cream and birthday cake were served the group in the dining room.

Those present were: Mary Belle Weathersbee, Mary Nell Nobles, Mary Ellen Williams, Mary Jo Hulsey, Tippy Burns, Wana Gay, Eloise Gill, Johnnie Jean, LeMond, Betty Jean Joyce, Flora Jane Louder, Lolita Cleavenger, Frances Leath and the honoree.

John Tarleton Boys Home for Holidays

Spring holidays for John Tarleton Agricultural College, Stephenville, brought home a number of local students in the school for a few days visit with homefolks.

Snyder boys, who arrived home late last week and returned Tuesday or Wednesday of this week, are the following: Murray Gray, William Boren, Eldon Birdwell, W. H. Shuler and York Murphy.

Sonley Huets of Forsan, formerly a local boy, spent the holidays with friends here. Robert Kiedel of Fredericksburg, also a student in the school, visited with the boys here.

Dear Old Dallas Is In Mucha da Hurry

Dear old Dallas town, which has been generously accused hither and whither of being a teensie-weensie bit selfish about the Centennial, gave a few choice spots in West Texas a breezy howdy-o-ho and a bit of music this week.

A nine-car special booster train passed through Snyder at 5:25 a. m. Wednesday of last week. It was en route from Abilene to Slaton, daily newspaper reports revealed to curious Snyder folks.

Interested in Fete. Mrs. W. H. Vernon of Hermleigh had more than passing interest in the Centennial celebration here Tuesday. She is a descendant of Jesse Grimes, signer of the Texas Declaration of Independence, and of George Grimes, who died in the Alamo. She has a list of all names of those who perished in the Alamo.

Two Officials of Postal Group in Snyder Saturday

Among representatives from eight towns who came to Snyder Saturday for semi-annual convention of South Plains letter carriers and post office clerks were J. F. Wilmeth, Plainview, state vice president, and Sam B. King, Cisco, vice president of the National Association of Letter Carriers. Two city carriers from Abilene were special guests.

King talked during the afternoon on benefits of the national association. The meeting was opened with an address of welcome by Warren Dodson, local postmaster. Response was by Wilmeth.

Major objective this year for the NALC, said King, is for the optional 30-year retirement law and an increase in salary of village carriers to the same salary as city letter carriers.

In the evening, a program of entertainment was provided by Mrs. Hilton Lambert and her pupils. The banquet table was decorated with bluebonnets, and small green mail boxes were plate favors. Thirty-three plates were served. Others would have come had not a south-bound train left the Plains late Saturday, according to Hilton Lambert, president of the letter carriers group who was chief host.

All visitors declared the meeting to be the best held in the South Plains district in several years.

In the short business session after the banquet, Lamesa was selected as the next host town for the July 18 meeting.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN

A Tip to Mussolini.

Mussolini should remember the fate of two other overly ambitious wags with the same ideas as himself—Julius Caesar and Al Capone.—DeLeon Free Press.

Weekly Rooseveltism.

President Roosevelt: "We are seeking to find the way once more to well known, long established but to some degree forgotten ideals and values. We seek the security of the men, women and children of the nation."

Smile Contagion.

There's something contagious about a smile. When you see a fellow passing along the street with a cheerful look on his face and a smile for everyone, it isn't long until you'll see others. Before you realize it, you are smiling.—Nolan County News.

Punishment—Pro and Con.

Society seeks to punish crime and at the same time permits its exploitation, thereby creating an unbalanced situation that oftentimes creates a lot of mauldin sympathy for those whose punishment is essential.—San Angelo Evening Standard.

Self-Government.

One of the most difficult of all arts and activities is the art of self-government. A man may rule a kingdom, manage a business or command a battleship efficiently and well, yet may fail completely in ruling his own passions and weaknesses.—The Conservator (Brampton, Ontario, Canada).

When a Woman Starts.

When a woman starts, she keeps going, nearly always. Nothing could stop Joan of Arc, Dr. Mary Walker, or Nellie Bly on her trip around the world. Now Amy Johnson, married name Mollison, sets out alone in a streamlined monoplane to beat the record on a flight to Cape Town and back.—Exchange.

If You Are a Worm.

For years, the virtues of the early bird have been extolled. The early worm gets up earlier than the bird and he gets caught. What about the worm? He gets up earlier and that makes him a plain darn fool. If you are a worm, stay in bed as long as you can and you won't get caught.—Lamesa Reporter.

He Knows About Money.

Winthrop W. Aldrich, head of the Chase National Bank, biggest in America, knows about money, as did his father before him, the late senator from Rhode Island, who invented the Federal Reserve plan and put it through. Mr. Aldrich thinks it would not be a good idea to turn money loose and encourage a speculative, stock-gambling boom. He remembers 1929.—Rotan Advance.

"Living It Up."

There is one provision of the Townsend plan with which many wage earners will have no difficulty in complying, that is the provision that requires that all of the last check must be spent before the next month's check will be given out. That, by the way, is one of the things that has made the depression hang on so long. Too many people in the past have lived it up as they went along.—Happy Herald.

On Easter Sunday.

Easter Sunday old Sol came out in all his glory and splendor to beam upon a motley parade of fashion and a heterogeneous crowd that it takes to make a world. Easter was a lovely day to be caught at home, or at least so the college students thought, because they were given two days to spend at home and bask in the loveliness of just being themselves without having to put on an act for their fraternity brothers or sorority sisters.—Lockney Beacon.

Texas Hospitality.

It is enough for Texans to understand why visitors from other states can be greatly impressed with the magnitude of Texas, its wealth of great natural resources, its diversified climate, its unique and romantic history and its progressive spirit. It is an everyday occurrence for Texans to hear visitors praise the type of hospitality that is so typically "Texas," lauding the warm geniality and genuine friendliness that has been a natural characteristic of Texas for many years.—Texas Spur.

Words and More Words.

A Chicago University professor informs us that school children of America know 13,000 words. But after all, merely to be able to recognize those words by form, will not amount to much unless those same children are able to spell them, know their full meaning and use them correctly. Furthermore, 13,000 words constitute a very small number, when one stops to consider that there are something like 750,000 words in the English language. Furthermore, a tramp from some foreign country came to McCamey one day this week who could ask for something to eat in seven different languages, nine lingoos and 17 dialects.—McCamey News.

The Times Creed:

For the cause that needs assistance;
For the wrongs that need resistance;
For the future in the distance,
And the good that we can do.

Our Neighbors.

Now that the San Jacinto Day Celebration has passed, it might be well for Snyder to take stock of what it meant to her citizens.

Not what it meant in dollars and cents, for the dollar mark is the least important of neighborhood values; and, besides, any such celebration, by and large, is of no direct financial profit to the sponsoring community.

Values, in such a check-up, should be considered on the basis of neighborliness, good will and genuine cooperation.

The spirit of cooperation throughout the celebration has been remarkable. The full success of the parade testifies to this fact.

But the most important value that was cultivated by the giant celebration was neighborliness.

All Scurry County celebrated, and enjoyed doing. Snyder really and truly paid tribute to Scurry County and Texas pioneers, and her home-county folks appreciated that the commercializing element was minimized.

Too, adjoining communities—Lorsain, Sweetwater, Colorado, Rotan, Roby, Gall—came in force to show Snyder that they appreciated the invitation, that they appreciated the spirit of progress and genuine patriotism that pervaded the Tuesday celebration.

Snyder has been seen in a neighborly, cooperative light by her neighbors at home and abroad. Now it is up to Snyder to prove to these neighbors that the spirit pervaded not for a day only but into tomorrow's years.

Let us continue to be good neighbors. That should be the first tenet of a Snyder citizenship that has reached its zenith of progress and neighborliness during the past 12 months.

EDITORIAL OF THE WEEK

DEALING WITH THE DEPRESSION.

Conclusion of an Address by Hon. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State.

The government, by its courageous initiative, by its responsiveness to a great variety of acute needs, by its will to look squarely at and deal squarely with the problems confronting all sections of our people, has preserved the atmosphere of domestic tranquility. Its purpose, in the truest tradition of democracy, has been to make it possible for the individual to work out his own salvation and to preserve himself. We have, in a word, vindicated the democratic processes. It has been made clear that the government was concerned with the welfare of the great masses of our people; that, if you wish, government is not a thing apart. This realization is the strongest safeguard of our democracy and of the Constitution.

The job of salvation, repair and reconstruction has been immense. The work has been laid out and assigned to different agencies. Good progress is being made. I have recalled some of the principal tasks. You know of others; it is not necessary to catalog all the details. It is all one job. Even he who may forget the details will know how the job is moving when he thinks of 1930, 1931 and 1932, and then of 1933, 1934 and 1935, and of how his affairs and the public affairs stood then and stand now.

What we have done is not of interest to ourselves alone, but to the world. Others are struck not only by the improvement that has been achieved but by one thing which all Americans would take for granted were it not for reckless attempts to confuse their judgment, namely, that what has been accomplished in this country has been accomplished wholly by methods of free discussion by the normal ways of legislation and by popular representation.

CURRENT COMMENT

BY LEON GUINN.

Men of science are just now beginning to appreciate the venom of the little loved rattlesnake, for by its use it is hoped hitherto hopeless cases of cancer can be opened, successfully treated. . . . Dr. F. Duran-Reynals, Rockefeller Institute of Medical Research is contributing the most tangible evidence of snake venom use, if it be poisonous, no matter from what particular snake.

To West Texans rattlers are conveyers of death-dealing misery; to able chemists the one thing that is starting researchers off in an entirely new field of experiments. . . . Snake venom spreads through body tissue like slow-timed lightning; which is in common with poisonous insects, notably wasps and ants. . . . Cancer has the self-same power of spreading rapidly in the lymphatic system, swollen lymph nodes near an internal cancer indicating an absolutely hopeless case. . . . Yet treated with a shot of hydrochloric acid, snake venom shows no toxic effects at point of injection, although retaining its lightning like spreading ability.

If in laboratory test tubes, or under a high powered microscope a budding Pasteur discovers what makes snake venom travel so rapidly through bodily tissue, medical science will have another "find" of extraordinary importance. . . . Long known to medical men is the coagulating effect of venom when applied to body cuts, making possible surgical incisions in many emergency operations that otherwise would be impossible.

This is proved by the fact a person, when snake bitten, feels the poison spreading rapidly through the blood stream, unless a tourniquet be instantly applied. . . . Such lethal toxics block the blood stream unless a tourniquet be instantly applied. . . . Such lethal toxics block the blood stream by coagulating the blood into "knots," hence a purplish tinge colors the face, if the venom of the rattler runs its course unchecked. . . . The old, ornery rattlesnake, identifying mark of West Texas, may yet, as Shakespeare said of the Ugly Toad, wear a precious jewel in its head. . . . Cancer and snake venom may have much in common.

Old Folks' Pension.

By Mrs. Lena Webb, North Snyder. How the old folks seem to be refreshed, At whose hand they can't quite understand; Seems like a gift from fairyland. Lofly, now they speed along—I hear them sing an old-time song! Light are their hearts after anxious and blue, I know, for I am one of them, too. The pension passing was such a thrill, It almost gave me a congestive chill! Thanks to all that had a hand, Thanks to our great Texas land!

The state to us is so great, In which we now can have a small estate. We have toiled so many years with hardships and fears; But could see no way; Now the ravens will feed us day by day.

Now, I can have new teeth, And glasses that fit, as well; My dresses are worn out, so are my shoes. Folks wonder why I have the blues. I'll pull off my old rundown shoes, I'll take my seat, remove the corns from my feet.

My old feet won't drag. Both sides of my dresses won't sag. I'll buy a machine to wash and rub, I think that will beat the old-fashioned tub. I have patched all the old clothes, Mended all the old shoes. I think this was a Godsend, As I was at my row's end.

Now, I can have for my bath water both hot and cold, This I believe good for my soul. The old gentlemen can retire, their little jobs they can hire. We don't expect to live like queens. But can at least know what life means.

Church of Christ

The meeting closed Sunday night with three baptisms, and audiences increasing all of the time. Sunday was the best day in every way that we have had in a long time.

Suggestions are being offered and plans are being made for beautifying the church grounds and painting the building, and for another meeting within the next 90 days, to be preached by some leading evangelist of the brotherhood and then another meeting in the fall. "Come thou with us and we will do these good."

Services for the week: Sunday—10:00 a. m., Bible study in class; 11:00 a. m., "The Sanctuary Cleansed"; 7:00 p. m., young people's training class; 8:00 p. m., "What Will Ye Do With Jesus?" Wednesday—2:30 p. m., ladies' Bible class; 8:00 p. m., prayer meeting.—Roy J. Clark, minister.

One may start out running with a crowd and end up walking by himself.

Historic Places Of State Shown On Highway Map

Centennial edition of the official map of the highway system of Texas, recently issued by the State Highway Commission, is expected by Centennial officials to bring many thousands of tourists to the state during the fall and summer of 1936. Several copies of the map have been received in Snyder.

The map is said to be the most elaborate and complete ever to be issued by a highway body, and was prepared by State Highway Engineer Gibb Gilchrist with the counsel of State Highway Commissioner, Chairman Harry Hines and Members D. K. Martin and John Wood. Unfolded it is 28 inches deep by 34 inches wide. The map proper is in soft yellow on a white background. United States highways are in red, with numbers in a red shield. State highways are in black, with numbers in a black oval.

Various kinds of broken lines indicate all-weather gravel, improved earth, earth only, and conditionally designated roads. The highway mileage is shown between important points. State parks are shown in green, lakes and bays in blue. In corners of the square sheet, left by the peculiar shape of the state, are shown the State Highway Building, typical bits of Texas highway construction, the State Capitol, several historic buildings, and architects' sketches of the buildings now being built in the Centennial park at Dallas. In the lower right-hand corner are the music and words to a song, "Texas Over All," composed by State Highway Engineer Gibb Gilchrist. Theme of the song is an invitation to visit the Lone Star State over which six flags have waved. The back of the map, except for the title space and a brief history of the six famous flags, is entirely covered with pictures of modern Texas, so grouped as to give the effect of a great five-pointed star.

CANDIDATE

First Christian Church

All of our services at the regular hours next Sunday. We were happy to have such a splendid attendance last Sunday at all of our services. The men's Bible class is growing, and at least 30 men are expected present next Sunday morning. A new boys' class will be organized next Sunday. Both the superintendent and pastor hope all the boys of the Bible school will be present to participate in the organization. Messages of comfort and of hope will accompany both morning and evening services. We are welcome to all our services.—G. E. McPherson, pastor.

Brother and Father Of Snyder Man Die In Less Than Week

The brother and father of W. V. Jones, Snyder resident, died at Sanger last week within two days of each other. Walter T. Jones, brother, passed away early Wednesday morning. B. D. Jones, father, died Thursday night at 4.00 a. m. The latter was 51 years of age. Final rites for Walter T. Jones were held Thursday afternoon; for the aged father, Friday afternoon. W. V. Jones and his son, Jesse, also of Snyder, left Wednesday to attend the rites. They remained for both funeral services. Jesse returned Friday, his father remaining in Sanger for an extended stay with relatives.

Church of the Nazarene

We hope you will find a welcome in our services Sunday morning. We will go to Camp Springs for the 11:00 o'clock services. Subject for the sermon will be "The World's Most Amazing Fact." People of all faiths are invited to worship with us in all our services. In Snyder, at the old tabernacle west of the high school, we have a Bible school each Sunday at 3:00 p. m., and preaching at 3:30. Next Sunday's subject is "The Plan of the Ages." There will also be a night service at 8:00 o'clock. Subject for the evening sermon will be "What Will Survive the Present World Conflict." Everybody is always welcome.—J. Ollie Hux, pastor.

First Baptist Church

The pastor will preach Sunday morning on "The Measure of Love." The choir will sing "Wonderful Love." Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Since this is the closing Sunday for April, we express the hope that all of our people may be in attendance and round out the month with good offering, good attendance and a good service. The goal for Sunday school attendance for Sunday morning is 400. Our departmental superintendents, with teachers, are working this week to contact the absentees and find new prospects for the school. A little work in the right spirit will do marvelous things. The pastor will preach Sunday evening on "Miraculous Deliverance." A full corps of workers for the Baptist Training Union is on the job and looking for new members. The nursery cares for the small children and babies, so that parents may be undisturbed in their training unions. There is a place for every age. Come this way and we shall do these good. Visiting friends or strangers in the community will find a cordial welcome.—Lawrence Hays, pastor.

Hens Lay Big Uns!
Mrs. C. M. Fish of Snyder presented The Times early this week with three tremendously large eggs that were laid by her Rhode Island Red hens. Two of the eggs, Mrs. Fish is certain, were laid by the same hen. All except one of the three eggs are well proportioned.

Dad: "Ah, son. I'm proud of you. So you made a 98-yard run in the big game?"
Sister (who had seen the game): "D'd he also tell you that he didn't catch the man in front of him who had the ball?"

Studebaker Agency Pleases Local Pair

T. W. Pollard and Jesse Jones, who became Studebaker agents for this territory exactly two months ago, say they are highly pleased with the reception given Studebakers by the motoring public. Six new cars have been sold by the dealers since the new agency was taken over. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating," they remark when you ask them how the new cars are performing.

Rowena Autry, Ira, Wins Essay Prizes

Rowena Autry of the Ira school, who has liked to write for several years, was recently awarded a $5 prize in an International bus essay contest, sponsored by the Sweetwater branch of the International Harvester Company. It is nothing new for this 12-year-old girl to win essay prizes. She won in the county ready writers' contest last year and again this year.

State Man Reports On Field Continuity Work in This Area

John B. Griffin of Abilene, local supervisor of the American Guide Book, who visited in Scurry County last week, expressed himself highly pleased with the work being done by Leon Guinn of Camp Springs. Guinn, a Times staff writer for several years, is in charge of gathering Guide Book information in Scurry, Fisher and Kent Counties. Griffin quoted Robert H. Hann of San Antonio, area supervisor, as saying: "The copy sent in from Scurry, Fisher and Kent Counties is as well written as any in the state." Abilene attaches say this will assure these counties of an enviable place in the American Guide Book. The visitor found, he said, that Guinn is being given a remarkable degree of cooperation by citizens of the three counties.

Services Held Here For Leona Ann Wise

Final rites were held at the Ans residence here Saturday for Leona Ann Wise, aged one and one-half years, who died in Hobbs, New Mexico, Friday night as a result of drinking poison. The child's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wis, were former residents of Snyder. Services were at 5:30 p. m. Saturday with Roy J. Clark, minister of the Church of Christ, officiating. Burial was in the local cemetery under direction of Maples Funeral Home. Showing off may end in blowing up.

New Triple-A Soil Conservation Program Easily Understood

Details of Giant Plan Outlined by Government Men

To protect and rebuild the nation's soil resources is the object of the new soil conservation program of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. This point must be kept in mind to understand the Texas soil conservation program which is a part of the national plan.

The new program is not hard to grasp if one will remember that the central feature is a shifting of land from the production of crops that mine the soil, to crops and uses that save or build the soil.

The old AAA programs aimed to control production; the new program aims to control erosion and rebuild the soil. Each of the old programs dealt with one particular crop; the new program is concerned with the entire farm cropping system. The old programs were more concerned with getting land out of production of a specific crop than in what was done with the land rented or withdrawn; the new program is primarily concerned with the use made of land shifted from depleted crops.

To understand the new program, it is well, for the moment, to forget the old. The new program is designed to develop better balanced farming, better cropping systems, in the interest of soil conservation. If such improved cropping systems put a brake on over-production of cash crops like cotton and wheat, such a result is secondary, a side issue.

The first question to ask in applying the new plan is not "How much money can I get out of the program?" but "How can I improve my farm cropping system?" Looked at in this way it is surprising how closely the new plan fits good farming plans. It is also remarkable how much cash benefit the plan provides the man who cooperates in this spirit.

The government makes payments in this program because it is in the public interest that the nation's soil is saved and restored for future generations. At the rate the soil has been mined in the past, another 100 years will see the top seven inches of soil completely gone. Soil depletion means scarcer and dearer food and fiber for the cities. Unless arrested, soil depletion may pave the way for utter ruin of America.

There may be dozens of other reasons why farmers should receive assistance, but the constitutional reason is that of national self-protection against the famine that will surely come from impoverished soils.

Competition forces the farmer to mine his soil to survive. If society wants the soil saved society must pay part of the cost. When a farmer foregoes the income from cash soil-depleting crops by shifting to soil conserving crops, he is entitled in the new program to a payment from the government. When he seeds the land thus shifted to crops that build the soil, or engages in operations that build the soil, he is again entitled to help from the people of the United States.

For his cooperation the farmer may receive four payments: Two cash grants which he may earn from the government in 1936; a probably higher price for his chief cash products than he would likely receive with no program; and a larger income in the years to follow because yields will increase as the soil is re-built.

No contracts are signed in the new program. The farmer assumes no obligation of any kind. He first fills out a work sheet which gives an accurate picture of his old farm plan. Filling out the work sheet does not obligate him. Later in the spring he may, or he may not, make application for a grant. He is not obligated to fulfill its terms. In late summer and fall, if local committees find he has complied with the terms of the application he will receive a grant.

For every farm making application for a grant in the new conservation program there will be established by local committees a soil depleting base acreage.

To qualify for a grant a farmer must have soil conserving or building crops on his farm in 1936 either (a) equal to at least 20 per cent of his total soil depleting base, or (b) equal to the greatest total acreage of all crops for which he might receive soil conserving payments, whichever is smaller. Farms having one-fourth or more the acres in cotton will use the "a" part of scene, came next; not youthful, as they were in 1917, but marching reminders that war must be as inevitable as progress.

Not far behind marched more men, National Guardsmen, uniformed and orderly.

Now, youth. Almost 2,000 school children, some on floats, some marching; on the move, as all youth is today.

The larger schools of the county, you noticed, were led by their queens and members of her court. Floats portrayed outstanding events in Texas history. School buses spoke of modern education.

Behind these children and their teachers from progressive county schools outside the county seat came Snyder school's array of youth. The seniors wore their caps and gowns. Other marchers carried small Texas flags.

Floats depicting the history of education in Texas, from the brush arbor days, by way of the little red school house, and on to the "luxe" of modern learning, passed you by.

But because this is West Texas and West Texas is still a cow country, you were possibly more interested in the cowboys and cowgirls, several dozen of them, from Snyder schools. Appropriately enough, they were led by Miss Mattie Ross Cunningham, local teacher, who is a great grand-daughter of Samuel Shupe, a Pennsylvania Quaker, a hero of the Battle of San Jacinto, and a member of DeWitt's Colony; and of Patience Webb of Austin's noted "Three Hundred."

As the parade wended its way to Tiger Stadium, where a late-afternoon program of band music and school choruses featured Texas and range songs, you must have been tremendously proud . . . proud that you live in a community which can forget its work-a-day ways long enough to pay tribute where and when tribute is due.

(Note: Details of the Snyder queen's float, her attendants, and of visiting school courts from independent schools of the county, will be published next week in connection with the Tuesday night pageant article.)

the rule. On straight wheat or feed grain farms or truck farms the minimum to qualify for a grant will be 15 per cent of the soil depleting base in conserving or building crops.

A farmer with a soil depleting base of 100 acres, say in cotton and grain sorghums, would have to have on his farm in 1936 at least 20 acres in soil conserving or building crops. Such crops—like alfalfa or clover—might already be there, or part or all of them—like cowpeas or sudan grass, or might have to be sown this year, that does not matter: Such acreages of such crops must be there in 1936 if the farm is to be considered for a grant. It is possible, of course, that a farmer may qualify for a grant, and then not earn it, as will be seen.

Fluvanna Students Select Officers For Athletic Association

Lucian L. Thomas was elected president of the "F" Association, composed of letter basket ball players of the past season in the Fluvanna schools. Organization of the honor group was perfected Friday morning at a meeting in charge of Superintendent E. O. Wedgeworth, who will be sponsor.

Other officers elected were: Alfred Beaver, vice president; Velma Lee Edmonson, secretary-treasurer; Frances Maples, assistant secretary. Social committee for the association will be composed of Mutt Hanback, chairman, and Elmo Paver, Nadine Dyess, Hazel Evans and Jack Turner. Plans are already under way for several social affairs to be held soon. Plans were made at the Friday meeting to have group pictures made soon.

H. E. Girls Plan To Attend State Rally

The home economics girls are making plans to attend and take part in the H. E. rally at San Angelo April 23-25.

Individual entries will be a school dress, tailored dress, and special occasion or evening dress, and a "hobby."

Group entries will be a child's play suit, school dresses, tailored dresses and special occasion dresses. A local contest will determine who will go to the rally, so each girl is looking forward to the trip, and working for it. Three girls will be chosen to represent the Snyder High School.

If you get the last word, you may have to take the first kick.

First White Child Born in County Yearns to Be Here for Celebration

From Mrs. Ida Nelson (C. L.) Ezell, who was the first white child born in Scurry County, came a letter early this week to the Scurry County Centennial committee. The daughter of the late Uncle Billy Nelson, first sheriff of the county and later tax collector, expressed deep regret that she could not be in Snyder for the celebration. She now resides in Garnett, Kansas.

"Your invitation to be your guest at the Centennial celebration April 21 touched me as little else could have done," she writes. "The thoughtfulness and love that prompted it only remind me of the loving kindness you have shown me and mine so many times in the years that have passed since I left you to make my home elsewhere, and serve to make me realize over again how much I owe you. But some debts can never be paid, except in gratitude, and I'll never stop being grateful to you.

"As you know, I never did anything to build our loved western county. My parents did that, gave their lives to the building of a community. But I only lived and loved the people there, so I feel in asking me to be your guest you are paying a tribute to those who really paved the way to making a place for people to live.

"There is nothing that would give me more pleasure than seeing you every one at the celebration—nor more pride, than seeing you carry the day. But distance is the obstacle.

"So best wishes for the day, and thank you again for your thought of me. I am always a child of Scurry County and Snyder, counting you as the best friends in the world."

Fifty of extra clerks will be on hand, as usual with the One-Cent Sale, according to the store owners.

There is no mystery about PALATABLE COOKING

The idea of a cooking appliance able to turn out a savory dinner without the aid of an expert cook has intrigued engineers for many years. But not until today's modern gas range has success crowned their work.

In all divisions of cookery—top burner, broiling and oven—the modern gas range introduces new and higher standards of cooking performance. With its accurate control of cooking heat, its insulated oven, its simmer burners, anyone can prepare a dinner done to a queen's taste.

So see these new ranges. There's a model to fit your family needs. And once you learn how easy one is to use, how economical to operate, how easy to buy . . . you'll see the wisdom of modernizing with a new gas range.
