FORTY-NINTH YEAR

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 6, 1936.

NUMBER 9

LIQUOR CASES TO BE CALLED HERE MONDAY

Nine Men Charged With Whiskey And Beer Law Violations to Appear in Court.

Liquor and beer charges against nine men, outgrowth of two raids made in June by state, county and city officers, will be heard before Judge H. J. Brice in county court Monday.

Charges were filed against seven of the men after several raids Friday night, June 12. More charges were filed two weeks later, against two new men and against two who had been charged in the first series of raids.

Men arrested and charged in the first raids are: Crockett Davis, Pete Davis, Aubrey Stewart, Clarence Myers, Dee Myers and Chicken Green, Snyder; J. E. Cunningham, Big Spring.

Pete Davis and Green were arrested again during the second series of raids, and John C. Day Sr. and Jess Dixon were added to the line-up.

The two nights of raiding netted officers more than $3,000 worth of whiskey, beer and home brew, as well as a car and truck alleged to have been used in illegal liquor transportation.

Fines that are collected as an aftermath of the trials will go into county funds. Charges growing out of possession, transportation or sale of liquor make the defendant subject to fine of $100 to $1,000, imprisonment for one day to one year, or both fine and imprisonment.

Those convicted of beer possession, sale or transportation are subject to the same penalties, except that the minimum fine is $25, and the maximum fine is $500.

Drilling of Test In Southwestern Borden Planned

Equipment for drilling a wildcat well in Southwestern Borden County, on the ranch of R. M. Clayton and W. D. Johnson, is being moved onto the location this week, according to reports reaching Snyder. Moore Brothers of San Angelo will do the drilling with a National machine.

Kirkpatrick and Lamb of Brownwood have the contract to drill Moore Brothers' Borden County test 3,500 feet unless production is obtained or sulphur water is struck in the Permian lime at a lesser depth. They expect to spud this week. The location, originally 590 feet from the south line and 1,320 feet from the east line of section 20-32-4n-T&P, has been moved on account of the topography 250 feet south and 50 feet east to 740 feet from the south line and 1,270 feet from the east line of the section. Ground elevation is 2,548 feet.

Moore Brothers secured from the Continental Oil Company leases on 8½ sections out of its 16-section block comprising sections 15-22 inclusive, and 27-34 inclusive, all in block 32, township 4 north, T & P Ry. Co. survey, Continental, Gulf and Sun have contributed to the exploration. The test will be 14 miles east of Ackery.

Firemen Entertain Families.

Members of the Snyder Volunteer Fire Department enjoyed a chicken fry on the lawn of the fire station last Thursday evening. Wives of the boys and city officials were guests for the occasion. A sudden shower of rain scattered the picnickers at the close of the lunch, and formal get-together that had been planned was rained out.

"Merchants Instead of Storekeepers"

A northwestern country editor was recently asked to comment on the "chain store problem". Here is his terse and meaty answer: "It has been my observation that the chains have not hurt the independent in any material way. They have made a merchant of him instead of a storekeeper. They have made an advertiser of him and have improved his store—the independent had to step out with improvements, advertising and real merchandising to keep up with the parade.

"The consumers have benefited by lower prices and any independent who can see the light can compete with chains in every way through cooperative buying power. The trouble with legislators is that they hear the voice of the disgruntled few among retailers and fail to hear that of the consuming public and the independent who has met and passed chain store competition by newer methods and real merchandising."

The proof of this editor's opinion can be found in the fine record of independent store progress during years in which the chains were developing. The wide-awake independent has "shown the world" he can offer chains competition they have to stay awake nights to meet. —Industrial News Review.

Harless, who transferred early this week from the Burion-Lingo managership at Snyder to Denison, late last week was introducing the local yard's temporary manager, Dick Pierson of Colorado, to many local folks. Tyler Baker, permanent manager of the Snyder yard, will come to his new location from Sweetwater later in the month.

ADVANCE VOTE UNTIL AUG. 19

You may cast absentee ballots in the second primary election through Wednesday, August 19, reminds Mattie B. Trimble, county clerk.

Absentee voting began Monday, and several ballots have already been marked and filed with the clerk.

An all-time record was broken prior to the first primary, when 162 absentee votes were cast. This record will probably not be approached for the August 22 election, for the shortest ever to face county voters. Candidates for only two state offices, one district office, two county offices and two precinct offices—14 names—are up for election.

CITY PLEDGED TO COOPERATE FOR FRONTIER

Public Budget Hearing to Be Held Thursday, August 20, City Council Decides.

Approval of plans that have been made for Snyder-Colorado Day at the Frontier Centennial, September 14, and pledging of cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce in making arrangements for the affair was a major action of the City Council in its regular meeting Monday night.

The council also urged that local citizens attend the Fort Worth show in large numbers on Monday, September 14.

All councilmen voted for cooperation with the Fort Worth event except Forest Sears, who expressed his disapproval.

Budget Hearing Set.

The council tentatively accepted the annual budget prepared by City Secretary J. S. Bradbury, subject to action of the public budget hearing Thursday, August 20, in the secretary's office.

The September council meeting was attended by a full quota for the first time in several months. Mayor H. G. Towle, Secretary J. S. Bradbury, and Councilmen G. H. Leah, Dwight Monroe, W. J. Ely, J. E. Shipp and O. D. McGlaun attended.

The matter of constructing a bridge across Deep Creek on Avenue S was presented to the council by Alderman Sears, who said a number of citizens were interested, but no action was taken.

Scattered Rainfall For Few Localities

A few localities of Scurry County received spotted showers Thursday evening of last week, but the fall was so light in most of this territory that it did little more than give the dust a good settling and stop a young heat wave.

Cool nights are helping crops in the county, but continued dry weather is rapidly trimming the county's prospects for even a normal yield of cotton and feed. Tight land in the southern end of the county that looked fine a few weeks ago is beginning to be pinched by the young drought.

Former Local Boy Visits.

Cy Jones, graduate of Randolph College, Cisco, and Howard Payne College, Brownwood, visited here with his parents and friends Tuesday and Wednesday. Cy is auditor for the Hotel Brownwood in Brownwood.

Company G Finds Plenty of Rain

about 3:00 a. m. today, and is still falling.

Now we don't know what the weather man has given the Scurry County people since last Friday, but when Company G departed, rain was just something to wish for. Here's hoping you get it there and we don't get it here.

The first big fish story is being told by Private Pettit and substantiated by Sergeant Portis and others. No doubt it's true. However, yours truly tried his hand yesterday and had "fisherman's luck."

Someone please meet the train about two days from now and welcome Private Hood. Private Hood says he is going home soon, maybe. Well, possibly all the boys will decide to stay until the end of camp.

Nobody seems to know just how it happened, but Sergeant Spence,

PREFERENTIAL PRIMARY PLAN FAVORED HERE

Abolition of the Second Primary Suggested in Motion at County Democratic Convention.

A preferential primary system, whereby the second primary would be abolished in Texas, was favored in a motion passed by the Scurry County Democratic convention, in annual session Saturday afternoon.

Under the proposed plan, voters would make first and second choices in the first primary, and the candidate receiving the majority of places would be the party nominee.

The following resolution regarding old age assistance was also passed by the convention, after considerable discussion:

Old Age Assistance.

"Whereas, where the voters of Texas amended the constitution of our state providing assistance for the citizens of Texas who are 65 years of age, intended that the Legislature should provide assistance in the sum of $15 per month, and that assistance to those who are 65 years of age or over that age would be paid in such amount.

"Now, therefore, Be it resolved by the Scurry County Democratic convention that we favor more liberal provision for our aged citizens than they are receiving at present, and be it further resolved that we favor amending the law now in effect, so as to provide more liberal assistance to those who are entitled to it."

Delegates Are Named.

The county convention named the following delegates to the state convention, which is to be held September 8:

Joe Monroe, P. M. Bolin, A. C. Allen, J. E. Sentell, J. G. Allen, F. I. Townsend, Joe A. Merritt and A. Johnston.

The convention was held in the courthouse. Attendance was light, several voting precincts not being represented. County Chairman A. C. Preuitt presided.

HIGH RANK FOR JUDGING TEAM

The 4-H livestock judging team from Scurry County made a creditable showing at College Station, according to the club agent, E. B. McJerey.

The team of four boys placed 16th in the state-wide contest and scored 2,549 points out of a possible 4,006. The team was composed of the following boys: A. V. Ball, Ross Belew, Berry Cribbs and Kenneth Mull.

Two hundred boys from all sections of Texas took part in the contest.

Only 171 points separated the Scurry County team from the five highest teams in the contest. This was the first time that any of the Scurry County boys had judged in a contest, and is also their first year in club work. Many of the boys placing higher than the Scurry team, as well as boys from larger counties that placed below the Scurry team, had several years club work to their credit.

The highest score on the Scurry County team was made by A. V. Ball, and his score was only 35 points above the lowest score of any boy on the team, which indicates a well balanced group.

Grid Workout To Begin August 17 For Local Squad

Football practice for Snyder Tigers will begin Monday, August 17, it was announced this week by Coach W. W. Hill. All Scurry County boys who wish to play football are urged to see Hill before that date and make arrangements for taking part in the practice sessions.

Since the first game will be played in September with the strong Spur aggregation at Spur, and Colorado will come to Snyder on the following week-end for a non-conference tilt, the training camp will be pushed through in double quick order. Ten games are on the 1936 schedule.

Boys will call for their equipment at 9:00 o'clock on the first practice morning. Practice will be held regularly at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

These five lettermen are scheduled to return this season: Charley Morrow, J. P. Tate, Ardath Head, Tommy Winters and Weldon Strayhorn. At least a dozen reserves from the 1935 squad and former grammar school prospects are already making preparations for the practice days.

A third member of the boys' coaching staff for Snyder High School has not been named.

Entertainment ranges from mammy and breakdown songsters to dialogue artists and instrumental musicians.

The annual Bible school picnic will be held at Wolf Park Tuesday afternoon, August 11, at 5:00 o'clock. All of the students and teachers are invited to be present for an afternoon of fun.—Reporter.

Roy Howell, who has been in charge of the Edd Dodds meat market for almost a year and a half, announced this week that he will leave Sunday for Pecos, where he will be in charge of the market in the Leader Grocery and Market, one of the largest food houses in that part of the state.

The Howells have resided in Snyder for about three years.

Mrs. Howell and Erol Howell, drum major for the Tiger Band last year, will remain in Snyder at least until January, in order that Erol may continue her school work here.

Rev. J. K. Westbrook announces that there will be preaching at Turner Saturday night, August 8, and Sunday night. "You are invited," he says.

LOCAL GROUP PLEASUED WITH AUSTIN JAUNT

Returning late last week from a scheduled hearing before the State Highway Commission at Austin, delegations representing the Snyder and Colorado Chambers of Commerce reported promises of full surveys in the near future on Highways 101 and 15.

The commission pledged surveying of the route from Snyder to the Mitchell County line, by way of Dunn, on Highway 101, and also of the Highway 15 route west of Snyder. Pledges had previously been made for the Highway 101 survey from Colorado by way of Robert Lee.

Highway 101 from Scurry County to Colorado has already been re-surveyed and practically modernized, and Highway 15 from Snyder to the Fisher County line has also been surveyed.

Funds Not Allocated.

The commission made it plain that new work is being held to an extremely low figure this year, unless federal funds are allocated to supplement the state budget, and it is therefore not known when work on either 101 or 15 will be renewed, with the exception of the survey.

The Snyder delegation included Forest Sears, Judge H. J. Brice, J. W. Scott, A. D. Erwin, Dr. H. G. Towle, W. J. Ely, and Harrie Winston. Colorado was represented by Mayor J. A. Sadler and County Commissioners Frank Crowmover of Lorraine, M. Holt of Buford and J. S. Boyd of Hyman. None of the Dunn highway committee members could make the trip.

On $3,000,000 Program.

That Highway 15 is being given considerable mention as a part of a major state artery is proved by an article in Sunday's Dallas News, which says that No. 15 is one of the four roads included in Dallas County's $3,000,000 highway program.

Completion of Highway 15, known in Dallas County as the North Fort Worth road, Dallas to the Tarrant County line, with a connection to the northwest highway, will be carried out, along with the other three Dallas County projects, when the federal and state money becomes available, according to the state commission's promise last week to Dallas committee. The News indicated.

First School to Open This Year Has Good Start

Pyron, first county school to begin its 1936-37 term, was off to a good start Monday morning when 220 students out of a scholastic enrollment of 250 signed up for the three R's.

Because of a changed district and loss of several families, scholastic possibilities dropped from 276, bringing consequent loss of a tenth teacher. M. H. Greenwood, new superintendent, is highly pleased with opening of the term, however, and he is looking forward to a successful year.

Attendees at the opening program included Frank Farmer, county superintendent, and Rev. Marvin Leach of Wastella, who brought brief messages. A number of patrons and all school board members except one also attended.

The school board is composed of D. Z. Hess, president, R. M. Garrett, secretary, Charles Ince, Lynn McClothlin, Hy Coldevey, Herman Stahl and Walter Miller.

4500 GUESTS CAN DINE AND DANCE UNDER MILKY WAY

That Casa de Manana, the House of Tomorrow, is 100 light years ahead of anything else of its type in the world came from Billy Rose's own lips. He should know. He's seen 'em all at home and abroad. Besides Billy is director of the Fort Worth Frontier Centennial on whose spacious esplanade the gaudy facade of Casa Manana fronts.

To begin with, it's the largest cafe-theatre in the world. As another staggering item, it contains the big, big, big stage in the universe. Compare its 130-foot diameter with Radio City Music Hall's 40-foot one and what do you get?

What the Casa Manana Looks Like

The dazzling array of 600 arches in the building pattern suggests a general style copied from the land of the bullfighters. Dotted the huge tiered amphitheater will be tables, where 3,500 guests may wine and dine. More secluded parties can be arranged for balcony tables. The brilliant blue and white contrast will, to say the least, knock your eyes out.

There inside as Paul Whiteman twitches his baton to extract rhythm from the orchestra, the stage will spin around on a mammoth pool to reveal an elaborate setting for the glamorous show guaranteed to quicken the pulse.

With modest pride there will be presented Texas' own fairest daughter, Faye Cotton of Borger, winner of 75-city "Texas Sweetheart Contest" glittering in a Hollywood premiere in a $5,000 gold mesh gown. Other blossoms of the Texas plains will hold their chins up among the Broadway show girls. Big-name stars of radio, stage and screen will have you rubbernecking. Shirley Temple, Dick Powell, Fannie Brice and Everett Marshall to name a few.

If you can come down to earth after the show there will be moonlight dancing designed especially to start a romance and patch up a quarrel each time around the floor. And here's where sweet revenge comes in for the females. There'll be a Prince Charming for every Cinderella.

If the boy friend winks at a beautiful chorus drifting past in a gondola, the jilted femme can pick a waltz partner from a stag line of 100 bona fide dukes, counts and princes.

To say it is colossal dwarfs its real magnitude.

Mrs. Brice Has Tuesday Bridge

Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club met with Mrs. H. J. Brice this week with only one table of members present. Following bridge-games, the hostess passed dainty refreshments to those present.

Mrs. L. Y. Duke and Mmes. Wright and Vaughn of Amarillo visited in the N. W. Autry home Tuesday. They left Wednesday morning for Texas golf points, accompanied by G. L. Autry.

Mmes. W. R. Johnson and A. J. Towle returned home late Monday from a pleasant visit to the Centennials in Fort Worth and Dallas. While in Fort Worth they were guests of Mrs. Marshall Fuller.

LET'S TALK ABOUT CLOTHES

BY A YOUNG MODERN

Are you wearing the right type of clothes? So many women give little consideration to the styles they wear, except whether or not they are fashionable. They think nothing of the design in relation to their respective figures.

A tall, slender person is blessed with a willowy appearance. She can get away with long trains, sweeping shoulder drapes, and can look perfectly stunning in huge fur coats or slim suits that boast large fur collars. The short person never try to wear these items. They'll make her look dumpty and will cut what little height she has. Her evening dresses should give a swaying motion when walking, and should be short enough so that a tiny part of the slipper will show—otherwise she will give the appearance of being stuck to the floor.

Breaking the line of dresses is the best way designers have to give your figure just the style it needs. Some use peplums if the line is to be broken at the waist, others use capes of varying lengths to suit their individual preference; and girls at Texas State College for Women (CIA) suggest tunics.

Skirt lengths should be adjusted to the individual figure and legs. Even if everyone is wearing dresses 11 inches from the floor this season, you certainly shouldn't do so if that length exposes the fattest part of the calf. It will mar the entire effect of your costume.

Arms and neck should also be taken into consideration when discussing types of clothes suited to individuals. If you have a short neck, wear only the simplest, flattest necklines. Sleeves should be governed by the proportions of the arm.

Lady's Painful Trouble Helped by Cardui

Why do so many women take Cardui for the relief of functional pains at monthly times? The answer is that they want results such as Mrs. Herbert W. Hunt, of Hallsville, Texas, describes. She writes: "My health wasn't good. I suffered from cramp-like pain which would be so intense it would nauseate me. I would just drag around, so sluggish and 'no-les'. My mother decided to give me Cardui. I began to mend. That tired, sluggish feeling was gone and the pains disappeared. I can't praise Cardui too highly because I know it helped me." — If Cardui does not help YOU, consult a physician.

Scurry County 4-H Club News

E. B. McLeroy, Club Agent

Ross Belew, 4-H club boy of Fluvanna, reports an average daily gain of 2.43 pounds on the beef calf that he is feeding for spring shows in West Texas. This calf, selected from the N. B. Reynolds herd, has been fed 46 days under supervision of the club agent.

J. T. and J. W. May, 4-H Club boys of Snyder, reported an average daily gain of 2.1 pounds on the two calves that are being fed for spring show. This gain was made over a period of 55 days.

All 4-H Club members who plan to feed pigs for the spring shows should be interested in locating some quality feeder pigs this fall. White pigs cannot be shown at any of the major shows, and it will be necessary that pigs of other breeds be selected. Cross bred pigs are acceptable, but such pigs should be selected with regard to color markings resembling one of the major breeds, such as Duroc Jersey, Poland China, etc.

Snyder Invited to Send Princess for Rodeo at O'Donnell

Officials of the rodeo which is to be held at O'Donnell August 14-15 have extended an invitation to Snyder to send a princess to the court of the rodeo queen.

She will ride in the parades, will be presented at the coronation ceremony which will be the highlight of the evening performance on the opening night, and will be a guest at the queen's ball, which will follow the rodeo program that night, as well as at various other social affairs which have been planned by O'Donnell ladies.

Wild horse races, bronc riding, both bareback and with saddles, roping, chuck wagons—all the traditional features of a rodeo are arranged. Two hundred and twenty-five dollars will be given in cash prizes. O'Donnell merchants have assisted in making up these purses, and scores of nationally-known rodeo stars have already filed their entries to compete for the purses.

Coleman County and Roscoe Outlaw Beer

Roscoe, by a decisive vote, Saturday outlawed legal sale of beer, and Coleman County did likewise by a close margin.

Roscoe, Wastella and Champion boxes voted against sale of the brew, the first two by a majority of 443 to 282, and the latter by a margin of 30 to 3. Divide and Blackwell communities in Nolan County had previously outlawed beer.

Fairly complete returns in Coleman County showed beer ruled out by a vote of 1,490 to 1,324.

A Ford and a Chevrolet sideswiped Tuesday on the northwest corner of the square when one of the vehicles, according to onlookers, failed to halt at the stop sign. Great was the noise thereof, but the danger was slight.

J. M. New, field representative for the West Texas Cotton Growers' Association for several years, left Colorado recently to become associated with the Anderson-Clayton cotton concern at Houston. Snyder has been included in his territory.

STILL RAIDED, MAN ARRESTED

A 25-gallon still was confiscated and a farmer residing near Ira was arrested Saturday by officers representing the Texas Liquor Control Board.

The farmer, Hosea Wyatt, citizen of the county for more than 20 years, was charged in federal district court at Lubbock with operation of an unlicensed still. He was placed in the federal jail at Sweetwater, and had not been released yesterday.

Wyatt resides on a place two miles north and three-quarters of a mile east of Ira.

State officers also raided a place at Roscoe Saturday, arrested Jim Terry, and confiscated 25 gallons of home brew and 10 gallons of unbotled brew.

Rosenbergs Back With Praise for Jaunt to Mexico

High praise for the Mexican and Indian people they contacted, and for attractions offered Old Mexico tourists was given by Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Rosenberg when they returned several days ago from Mexico City and other points in the neighboring country.

They found the new highway good all the way. Gasoline along the all-weather route cost only 21 to 22 1/2 cents per gallon, and the Snyderites found hotel rates and meals under American rates.

The Mexicans were found to be not only friendly and courteous, but extremely proud, and resentful of any kind of relationship with Spain. This friendly feeling was carried out even at the customs offices, where both Mexicans and Americans were courteous and where little delay was caused by inspections.

The local variety store proprietor returned with a number of Mexican dolls and other curios, on which he paid duty, and which he is offering for sale at the Ben Franklin Store.

Mexico City is described as an extremely beautiful metropolis, with no beggars, no legalized gambling, and little drinking to excess. The most popular eating place, say the Rosenbergs, is Sanborn's, owned by an American, where no liquors or beers are served. Many lotteries are conducted in the country, under government sponsorship, with proceeds going to charity and hospitals.

Ninety-eight per cent of the better grade automobiles in Mexico are American built. Past driving is allowed over most of beautiful Mexico City. Many Americans were seen in all parts of the country visited by the Rosenbergs.

Preaching Saturday

Letters from the People

Our Readers Speak

Editors Times:

I am constrained to write a simple justification and defense of the race of A. A. Bullock for state superintendent. In justification I would like to say that I believe Pat's many friends should look on the effort as worth while. It was the earnest effort of a clean cut, aspiring and ambitious West Texan. Since I know it to be that, I am proud of the opportunity of supporting it.

As to his defeat, I honestly and sincerely believe he would have won if he had money available sufficient to have made a counter opposition to the "Woods machine drive."

As to the methods employed by the opposition, I will state from first-hand observation in this section of the state that the so-called sacred institution of public schools was converted into a political football so corrupt it should cause a wave of indignation to rise in the breast of every honest, decent, respectable citizen of the state.

School supply companies and phonograph companies spent too much money in the campaign. If you care to investigate, see whose phonograph records are being used in the Texas public schools by decree of the state superintendent. The same will be found true in regard to textbook and supply companies.

As to the contention that the school standard should be upheld, it was an insult to the intelligence of honest thinking people. One would almost think it was a crime to be a self-developed, rising, ambitious doer of things.

However, the inconsistency of the arguments of the proponents of the "higher standard" leads us to the conclusion that there is such a thing as them being educated beyond their intelligence.

In conclusion, I would like to say to the loyal supporters of Pat Bullock: You are never beaten until you give up. I would suggest that we begin plans now to have enough cash on hand two years hence to see that our standard bearer can wage a successful fight for an independent, real standard for Texas public schools.—L. M. BYNUM, 523 Milam Building, San Antonio.

A Kick Against Snyder Evils

Folks, I think it is time for somebody to take a stand for the right in our little city. Our town is populated with some of the finest people to be found in all Texas. But it seems we have gone to sleep and let the devil run wild in our midst. We are made to wonder what can be and what will be said of Snyder 20 years from now.

A town that encourages sin and the evil that is going on in our town will go to the rocks. I have reference to the bootleggers, the marble machines and the bank night picture show. These things are a violation of the law, and we know they are, and yet we sit down and let them go on. What is their influence?

Let us look at the bank night show. I go to the show and bet my money I will get the "pot." Some of our best people are doing that very thing. We are getting to be a fine bunch of gamblers. Our church members are going this route. Then they go to church on Sunday and blame the pastor because there is no spirit in the church; no conversions, no finances to carry on the Lord's work. Folks, there is enough money spent on bank night to take care of the relief of this town.

Let's now give the whiskey point the once-over: Go just outside the city limits and see the cans and bottles dumped on the sides of the roads—a disgrace, a shame. Who drinks the stuff? Perhaps your boy and your girl. If they don't it is not because they cannot get it. I believe there is a way to stop these things. Why not see your county attorney and register a kick? He may believe you want to keep these joints in your town. Maybe you do.

Folks, we have the finest young people the world has ever known. Why not take these evils out of their way and help them to be the men and women that we shall be glad to call ours? Whiskey and beer have never made a town better or a people wiser.

Surveyor's Steno Is Born Last Thursday

The B. E. Robinsons are announcing the birth of a daughter at Snyder General Hospital last Thursday. Mrs. Robinson, the former Angie Haynes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Haynes of Fluvanna, and her 7 1/2 pound daughter are doing quite well.

County Surveyor Robinson says that he ordered a chain carrier, got a stenographer, and yet is fairly well pleased with daughter Patricia Ann, who will, of course, be called Patsy Ann.

The marble machine is just as bad as the bank night show or the bootlegger's joint. I heard a business man a few days ago cussing the picture show. He said the people would come to him and buy groceries and have them charged, and then carry all the family to the show. Now, this fellow just a few days back had two marble machines in his place of business.

One is just as sinful as the other in the sight of God. Let's swat the pests and make our town a better place in which to live. This is a challenge to the pastors of the churches of our town to take a stand. Let's let our officers know that we want the laws enforced. They are good men, and I believe if we will stand by them and cooperate they will be glad to take steps to stop these evils.

A petition was started in the Union community asking our officers to get on the job. This petition will be presented to you within the next few days. It means that the people whose names appear on this list are against the bank night picture show, the marble machine and the liquor dives of our town. Signed—

J. F. FIELDS, Union Pastor.

Soil Conserving By Weed Control Meets Approval

That the eradication of noxious weeds and grasses including Johnson grass, Bermuda grass, nut grass, blueweed and bindweed will be considered as a soil-conserving practice in Texas and will qualify farmers for a soil-conserving payment acre for acre in lieu of a soil-conserving crop, has been approved by the state agricultural conservation committee.

Two methods of eradication were approved. One consisted of flat-breaking the infested land, followed by intensive cultivation during the months of July, August and September with a knife cultivator or disc harrow.

The other method that may be used is that the infested land be bedded and rebedded with a sweep or "middle-buster" at intervals of not more than 30 days, followed each time by a harrow in order to expose the roots to the weather.

Eradication can be carried out for payment only on badly infested crop land, location of which is filed with the county committee before eradication starts.

Following the recent rains many Texas farmers are planting buckeye peas, cow peas and other legumes. In parts of the state where there have been excessive rains, soil-depleting crops are badly damaged, so the land is being planted to legume crops to qualify for payments under the agricultural conservation program.

Farmers can harvest legume seeds for home planting before plowing under the crop and still qualify for payments.

The Weekly Dozen

Weekly Rooseveltism.

President Roosevelt: "You have a right to expect that those in authority will do everything within their power to help restore conditions that make employment and opportunity possible."

The New "Party" Frocks.

Christian Science Monitor: "Advices from Topeka say that women's dresses, dotted with sunflowers and elephants, are on display there. They would appear to be the last word in 'party' frocks."

Collin County's Dutch Supper.

When Collin County's defeated candidates gathered a few days ago for a Dutch treat to celebrate their defeat, it is alleged that the cheese was stale, the beer (if any) was under-ripe, the cocktail was shrumpy, and the toast-master was half burned.

The Great Commission.

Pessimism Pete says the families that are going through Snyder by way of the trailer-car route are doing nothing more than following the biblical admonition: "Go thou into all the world." But most of them, Pete fears, are not following the remainder of the great commission.

Chemistry at Work.

Chemistry is at work on power alcohol for motor fuel, vegetable plant fibres, plastics, new uses for cotton, tung oil, soy bean plastics and oil starch from sweet potatoes and many other experiments that will probably do as much for the average farmer as Uncle Sam's various assistances.

Do You Need Flowers?

One of the most friendly gestures we have seen in a long time is that made by Mrs. J. K. Westbrook, who resides three and one-half miles west of Brookleigh. She has plenty of pretty zinnias, and invites anyone who needs flowers for a sick friend or for funerals to help himself in her yard.

The Price of Recovery.

Editor Merle Thorpe in Nation's Business: "If the American people really want to recover the business activity we once had—and advance it even to higher levels—they can do it. The price they must pay is not money, but something even more difficult to part with than money, namely, prejudices."

His Bet Was Covered.

An Anson merchant covered a bet made by a salesman, who believes cotton will be 20 cents per pound before the 1937 crop is harvested. The merchant hopes he loses. The majority of Scurry County farmers will not have much interest in the price of cotton unless the weather about-faces and insures them some cotton to sell.

Queens of the West.

Snyder has had opportunity to select so many rodeo queens, bathing beauty queens and queens in general this season that an innocent spectator is made to wonder if celebrations of one kind and another are not being run into the ground. It's the old, old story of folks seeking out every medium of recreation and pleasure they can find when economic conditions begin to improve.

Two-Cent Burial in Dallas.

If you want to be buried really cheap, go to Dallas and get on the pauper list. A maximum bid of two cents per body was made by Dallas funeral homes recently. One funeral home offered the city $1 for the privilege of carrying out a contract for negro burials. It's a case of good will building for the funeral homes, a case of excellent service for the deceased, and a case of tax saving for Dallas citizens.

Two Bits of News.

The same daily paper this week carried two news items that probably made Townsend Plan advocates do some wondering. One said that Julien C. Hyer, Townsend evangel, has withdrawn from the Fort Worth congressional race, after barely getting into the runoff against the veteran Hatten W. Summers. The other related that Father Townsend of the pompous movement said of the two major political parties: "Damn both of them."

Highway Work on Horizon.

Highway work is on the horizon for Scurry County, but it will probably take several weeks or months to get here. Not that the State Highway Commission is not favorable to completion of the county's major arteries... they are out of money, that's all. The road committee from Dunn, Snyder and Colorado was given a favorable hearing at Austin last week, but they join delegations from other highway-seeking counties in hoping that the highway department stays out of the red in its building program.

Credit the Democrats.

We must credit the Democrats with one of the cleverest bits of propaganda that has been issued since both major parties announced their nominees. "Boondoggling" is the subject. Taking the words out of Republican mouths, Democratic press agents have turned the tables, and have proven that many so-called "boondoggling" projects throughout the country have been true public benefactors. The booklet reveals, for instance, that the $25,000 dog house in Memphis, Tennessee, about which the Republican press tore its hair for days, was constructed because Memphis killed more than 10,000 dogs in 1935, and because 1,500 people were bitten by dogs, many of them rabid-infected, during the last three years.

Section 11 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Texas, as to provide for a board of pardons and paroles, and to make the governor's pardon power subject to recommendation of said board, except in cases of treason the governor may grant pardons, commutations and paroles with the advice and consent of the Legislature.

Adventures In Farm Life.

Farm improvement has been so marked within the past 20 years that country life is a new adventure in 1936.

The Santa Fe allay outlines a 10-point plan of rural improvement that has been the foundation stone of this upward trend:

- 1.—Crop diversification.
2.—Soil building and conservation.
3.—Seed selection.
4.—More bushels or tons per acre.
5.—Insect and weed control.
6.—Better livestock.
7.—Poultry on the farm.
8.—Marketing.
9.—Farm business methods.
10.—Better farm homes.

Not that farm life is any bed of roses. The farmer even yet has fewer advantages, aside from the freshness of his air and the freedom of his actions, than the town or city dweller.

But the comforts and conveniences and profits of farm life are improving for active, wide-awake farmers. The farmer continues to be the backbone of the nation. And the kinks he being gradually taken out of the backbone, as the farmer deserves.

The Santa Fe estimates that where its well known demonstration train has run, showing improved farm practices, the number of "single croppers"—farmers who raise wheat only, or cotton only, or corn only—has decreased 50 per cent since the war.

"Soil improvement is marked," says the Santa Fe's "Earth," monthly magazine. "Seed selection is taught in the schools, and most of the states have pure seed laws. Insects and weeds are fought as they never have been fought before."

"Livestock on the small farm has increased in spite of the depression, and the quality has been improved by the use of pure bred sires. Marketing facilities have been improved."

"The advancement noted is due to the dissemination of information about what can be accomplished by the adoption of sound business practices."

The Times would like to add that advancement has also been accomplished by the inborn desire of the majority of farmers to improve farming practices and living conditions.

Editorial of the Week.

OLD AGE PENSIONS AND TAXES.

Old age pensions and taxes played a very large part in the governor's race. Governor Allred upheld before the people of Texas the existing old age pension law, under which payments are made on the basis of need, while all of his opponents advocated the payment of pensions to all citizens 65 or more years of age.

It seems to us that the majority by which Governor Allred obtained the nomination is conclusive evidence that the people of Texas have a common sense attitude regarding old age pensions; they endorsed the present state law. Furthermore, it is worthy of note that Governor Allred consistently stressed in his campaign that few new taxes are needed in Texas; he pointed out that the state needs no more taxes for highways, that it needs no more taxes for education, that it needs no more taxes for general government, and that the only new taxes needed are such as will be sufficient to supplement already existing funds necessary for the complete payment of old age pensions. Each of his opponents had a special tax measure which he advocated.

It is our idea that the voters of Texas gave an overwhelming endorsement of the policy of economy in government; they do not favor pork-barrel old age pensions; they do not favor needless taxation. And it seems to us that this is much more significant than the election of any particular candidate could be.

Last Saturday's primary election proved that the people of Texas have a sane and sensible slant on matters that are stirring not only the state but the entire nation; it proved that they possess a definite grasp on reality. Texas, at least, recognizes the fact that the cost of government is borne by no other than the governed, and we think the voters of the state gave a well deserved rebuke last Saturday to some of those individuals who have been prone to soar into the realms of fantasy in dealing with such matters as old age pensions and government finance.

And that is by far the most important result of the election, as we see it; it is one that state legislators should remember when they start tinkering with the tax laws. Texans voted Saturday against wild taxation schemes; they showed definitely what their reaction is to tax ideas that have no merit save the doubtful one of novelty.—The Times Weekly.

An Advertising Commandment.

One of ten advertising commandments that were promulgated by the famous merchant, John Wanamaker of New York, has a vital message today: "Thou shalt not covet nor imitate, nor run down thy neighbor's business; thou shalt not covet, nor imitate, nor run down thy neighbor's name, nor fame, nor his wares, nor his trade-mark, nor anything that is thy neighbor's."

And the good that we can do.

S. J. R. No. 14 A JOINT RESOLUTION Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas fixing the salaries of certain constitutional officers by amending Section 5 of Article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Texas fixing the salary of the governor at twelve thousand ($12,000.00) dollars per annum; the salary of the comptroller, treasurer and commissioner of the general land office at six thousand ($6,000.00) dollars per annum, and the salary of the secretary of state at six thousand ($6,000.00) dollars per annum. And those voters opposing said amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "Against the amendment fixing the salary of the governor at twelve thousand ($12,000.00) dollars per annum; the salary of the comptroller, treasurer and commissioner of the general land office at six thousand ($6,000.00) dollars per annum; and the salary of the secretary of state at six thousand ($6,000.00) dollars per annum."

The voters of Scurry County were good to me in the first primary, and I wish to thank them from the depths of my heart. I had rather lose the race and have the support of my home folks than to win and not have their support.

Mahon Joins Other Solons at Dallas to Honor John Garner

Leaving Colorado Monday afternoon, Congressman George Mahon went to Dallas this week, where he attended the Garner Day celebration sponsored by the Texas Centennial Exposition.

The vice president was honored with a luncheon and banquet on Wednesday, and made a radio address over a nation-wide hook-up Wednesday evening, speaking from the Cotton Bowl on the Centennial grounds.

Mr. Mahon was invited with other members of Congress from Texas and other Texas officials to serve as a member of the vice president's official party.

Mrs. Mahon joined the congressman in Dallas on Wednesday. She was a guest at a luncheon honoring Mrs. Garner on that day.

Church of Christ communion service and Bible study Sunday, August 9, from 2:30 to 3:30 p. m., conducted in the Primitive Baptist Church building, Avenue M at 21st Street. A hearty welcome is extended to all.—R. C. Huggins.

Thrane Recognized. O. P. Thrane, formerly of Snyder, was officially installed last night at McMurry College, Abilene, as business manager or bursar of the school. The installation and special recognition took place during College Week exercises at Abilene in which McMurry, Hardin-Simmons and A. C. C. took part.

Highway 7 Improvement. Among highway improvement projects for which low bids were tabulated late last week by the highway commission was 36.1 miles of seal coat on Highways 10 and 7 in Runnels, Coleman and Brown Counties. The contract went to R. W. McKinney of Naacoches, who handled the Highway 7 contract in Scurry County recently.

To the Voters of the 118th District.

In the closing hours of the last called session, when house bill 46 was locked in a conference committee, and the Senate had placed an amendment calling for a luxury sales tax of one per cent, Bob Calvert offered a resolution, stating that the house would accept a reasonable sales tax on luxuries in order to get the bill out and pay the pensions as provided by law.

Some of the members that had pledged the people against any form of a sales tax were about to decide to vote for this bill, but to their surprise the lobbyists for special interests showed them their home paper with their pledge against any form of a sales tax.

They are now fortifying their positions to repeat this same thing and do everything in their power to keep the legislature from passing revenue bill to carry out the mandate of the voters and pay the old age pensions. Their plan is to go into every legislative district and give their assistance to any candidate that will pledge himself against any form of a sales tax.

They came to me and wanted me to change my mind as to this selective sales tax to pay the pensions, offering their assistance if I would pledge myself against any form of a sales tax. I wanted to know some better plan but was informed that it was their intention to kill it outright by defeating all revenue bills that come before the legislature to pay it.

I may be defeated, but it will be because I made a desperate effort in the closing hours of the last called session to pass that bill to pay you old folks, and because I would not align myself with these special interests to rob you of the help you justly deserve, and pledge myself to help kill every selective sales tax bill to get you this money.

There are other things that are important, but the influence that is trying to defeat me is special interests that have in mind defeating all revenue bills to pay these pensions. If I am returned to the legislature I will do everything in my power to provide the necessary revenue to pay this worthy obligation regardless of the circumstances.

Thanks Voters.

As the successful candidate for constable of Justice Precinct 1, I wish to thank citizens of this precinct and of the entire county for their liberal support.

Borden Ballot One Of State's Tiniest

Borden County's second primary ballots may take a state-wide prize for brevity, in case anyone decides to make such an award.

Printed this week, the tickets contain only six names: Ernest O. Thompson and Frank S. Morris for railroad commissioner, George B. Terrell and J. E. McDonald for commissioner of agriculture, C. L. Harris and Leonard Westfall for state representative.

S. C. Keen, Borden County Democratic chairman, says most voters, and certainly the candidates who must foot the bill for second primary expenses, would prefer to skip the August 22 election. But the law says otherwise, so the second primary must go on.

New Mail Boxes On Rural Routes Become Popular

The July issue of "Texas Parade," a new magazine published at Houston, says the State Highway Department's new rural mail box supports have become popular with patrons, rural carriers and highway maintenance men.

Several hundred of the boxes have been installed in Scurry County within the past few months under direction of G. R. Austin, Scurry and Borden maintenance foreman. Following is the "Texas Parade" article, written by Charles E. Simons:

With an eye for utility and beauty, the State Highway Department has developed a new type installation for rural mail boxes and is moving rapidly ahead with the plan under the direct supervision of the respective division engineers.

After three years' investigation, the department adopted a standardized type of mail box support that is cheap to construct but that adds many times its cost to the beauty and usefulness of the highway system.

The unthinking traveler might construe the activity as a philanthropic gesture on the part of the highway department. Such, however, is not the case. The chief motivating factor was a desire to develop a rural box that would decrease the high cost of hand operations in maintaining road shoulders and to improve efficiency of machine operations.

The department experienced much difficulty in working with machines around box posts permanently stationed in the shoulders along the right-of-way. Frequently it was necessary to move mail box supports in grading and dragging operations. The new support will permit better shoulder maintenance because the boxes can be moved by machine operators with little difficulty and replaced immediately without the necessity of placing the support back in its permanent niche and retamping the ground around it.

The device has eliminated the hand cutting of weeds and hand grading and maintenance operations. There also is the added factor of safety since the boxes can be set conveniently at a greater distance from the traveled portion of the road. In addition, should a motorist wander from the pavement and strike one of the box supports it would offer less resistance than a rigidly installed post.

The beauty of the new support is readily apparent. The plan has received enthusiastic support from rural mail carriers.

Collie Re-election Makes History In This 24th Senatorial District

In his successful campaign for re-election to the state Senate, Wilbourne B. Collie of Eastland broke a precedent in this district. Never before has a senator been re-elected since the district was organized.

Collie won a clear majority in the balloting over two veterans in Texas politics, Harry Tom King of Abilene and Y. L. Thomason of Haskell. The certified vote by county chairmen shows he received a majority over his opponents of 3785 votes.

"The results of the campaign are indeed very gratifying to me," he said. "I am deeply grateful for this splendid majority in the first primary, and I esteem friends beyond measure for making it possible for me to continue a service which I hope will result beneficially to our district and the people of Texas."

To My Friends and the Voters of Scurry County.

I take this occasion to express my appreciation and thanks to those who so kindly considered and supported me in the July primary. As to those who saw fit to support either of my opponents, I bear no malice or ill will and trust that I may at least merit their confidence as a friend and citizen. Sincerely, BEN F. THORPE.

He was a good-natured Irishman, and was one of a number of men employed in erecting a new building. The owner of the building said to him one day: "Pat, didn't you tell me that a brother of yours is a lawyer?" "Yis, sor," replied Pat. "And you a hood carrier! The good things of life are not equally divided, are they?" "No, sor," said Pat. "Poor fellow—my brother couldn't do this to save his loife."

To the Voters of Scurry County.

I am trying to meet as many of you as I can without making a house to house canvass again, which I am unable to do. I am trying that you will appreciate the situation and keep up the interest.

I further assure you that in the event of my election, I shall render you the same courteous service that you have enjoyed in the past.—CHAS. J. LEWIS, Candidate for County Clerk.

Dunn Baptist Church. Rev. Lawrence Hays will preach at Dunn Saturday evening at 8:30, and Buster Edwards will preach Sunday morning and evening. All services will be held at the Methodist tabernacle.—R. R. Cumbie.

Pat Bullock Thanks Friends for Support

"Although I failed to receive the nomination for state superintendent July 25, I am just as grateful to my many loyal friends in Scurry County as if I had won," writes Pat Bullock, former Scurry County superintendent.

"All of you were great, and it was worth everything I put into the campaign to be able to look back and remember all those who gave of their time and money fighting for a just and laudable cause. I wish to express my thanks to the good people of Snyder and Scurry County. I may be down right now, but I am not out by a long shot."

District Candidates Working in County

C. L. Harris of Dickens County, leading man in the first primary, and Leonard Westfall of Stonewall County, incumbent, are making an intensive campaign in Scurry County, looking toward the decisive ballot August 22.

Political observers say Scurry is the key county in the six-county district, since the candidates will be trying for the topheavy vote received in the first primary by Joe A. Merritt.

Interest Manifest In Fair This Year

Why not have a Scurry County fair this fall?

This question has been raised many times recently, especially by farmers of the Snyder trade territory. The Times learns that E. B. McLeroy, Four-H club leader and assistant county agent, will take the lead in presenting a club show later in the year.

McLeroy and County Agent W. R. Lacey are anxious that the entire county and trade territory join in a fair of modest proportions, and many business men have the same sentiments.

If you are interested in a fall fair, why not talk it over with the county agents?

Annual Meeting at Ira Baptist Church To Begin This Week

The annual protracted meeting of the Ira Baptist Church is to begin at the community tabernacle Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The meeting is to run for 10 days, and the pastor will do the preaching through Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Rev. V. M. Loller of Keller-ville is to arrive on Monday and will do the preaching to the close of the meeting. Bro. Loller has been with the church in a revival meeting some years ago.

Cottage prayer meetings started Monday night, meeting for four nights, and spiritual uplifts and a good spirit is prevailing.

Beginning Sunday evening at 8:00 p. m., we will have three prayer groups meeting for prayer and personal testimony. These meetings we hope will be the time when each person will feel free to take a part and give expression to their heart's desire.

We extend to one and all a cordial invitation and a hearty welcome to attend these meetings, and you may rest assured that there will be no proselyting done by anyone throughout the meeting. The Christian religion is a personal matter together with church relationship. We believe that the gospel has a personal appeal and that each and every person should be left to make his or her own choice in matters pertaining to the Christian religion, and for this principal our forefathers fought, bled and died.

The success of these meetings will depend on our loyalty to our Christ and his gospel, and we trust that each Christian will endeavor to do whatever the Holy Spirit leads him to do, and if this is done a revival that is heaven-born and heaven-sent will come. The time is come. Let's be busy.—R. R. Cumble, pastor.

Second Installment Of Pension Checks

The second monthly old-age assistance checks were placed in the mails at Austin Friday. They arrived in such small quantities in Scurry County that there was no noticeable ripple in the regular run of mail or in bank clearances.

Austin officials said 61,116 checks were mailed in the second batch, and that the total value would be $965,735. The number of persons represented by the checks was 59,616, as 1,500 received checks for both July and August.

When payments started July 1 there were 40,099 persons on the rolls. Completion of investigations of the need of applicants, it was estimated, would boost the number to about 65,000.

First Presbyterian Church

Subject for the sermon at 11:00 o'clock Sunday morning will be "Devotion." There will be no service at the evening hour, due to the fact that the pastor will be at the union meeting at Fluvana, which comes to a conclusion next Sunday night. Christian Endeavor will meet at 7:00 p. m., as usual, for the second lesson in a series on the parables. All members of the Sunday school will gather at Wolf Park Tuesday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock for a picnic.—James A. Spivey, pastor.

Help Wanted.

Two young men and three young women may now earn attractive part of tuition by working in college office. Excellent opportunity to prepare for good position at reduced cost. More calls than we can fill. First come, first served. Clip and mail today to Draughon's College, Abilene, Texas, for full information.

With adjustments brought about by the close of the fiscal year ending June 30 completed, Works Progress Administration projects in District No. 13, which includes Scurry County, are operating under slightly altered regulations for the new year. The change has been accomplished without complete shutdown of projects, and with comparatively small loss of time.

Under the new wage scale, which was originated in the State Works Progress office, San Antonio, and based on prevailing wage rates in the various communities, workers will work fewer hours but will receive the same monthly wage as formerly paid them. The state has been divided into 24 groups as to wage scale, with the wage ranging from 20 cents to 35 cents per hour for unskilled labor, with skilled labor carrying a rate of 65 cents to one dollar per hour, and intermediate labor class from 35 cents to 55 cents per hour.

Range of Wages.

District No. 13, which comprises 12 counties, with Abilene as headquarters, falls in groups 11 and 24, with a range of from 22½ cents to 30 cents per hour for unskilled labor. In Taylor County, 30 cents per hour will be paid for unskilled labor, with a maximum of 60 hours per month. Forty-five cents will be paid for intermediate, with the same maximum of hours prevailing. Skilled labor will be paid 75 cents per hour, with a maximum of 64 hours per month. Professional and technical workers will receive 75 cents per hour, with a maximum of 71 hours. These rates will apply also to Eastland, Stephens and Nolan Counties.

The following rates will prevail in Calahan, Coke, Jones, Fisher, Kent, Scurry, Mitchell and Shackelford Counties: Unskilled labor, 22½ cents per hour, with a maximum of 64 hours; intermediate, 35 cents per hour, with a maximum of 64 hours; skilled labor, 65 cents per hour, with a maximum of 60 hours; professional and technical workers, 65 cents, with a maximum of 65 hours.

Projects Cut Down.

Reduced hours of the new schedule will result in the consolidation of many projects in order to properly maintain remaining ones. In most instances, it is planned to work two shifts in order to carry work and supervision uniformly.

It is planned to carry on prevailing projects insofar as possible, as a majority of these are road and paving projects formulated in units, which will eventually lead to completed road and street paving systems in the various towns and communities. It is not anticipated that a general call will be made for new projects except in localities where the unemployed load demands or completing projects makes labor available.

A recent check of unemployed in District No. 13 gives a total of 6,629 registrants. District No. 13 is now operating under an assigned quota of 3,800 workers as set by the Works Progress Administration on May 30. In some instances, other districts have had severe reductions in quota since that date; no reduction has been ordered for District No. 13, however.

With prospects for a bumper crop in most of the district, a heavy seasonal decline in workers is anticipated, which may cause shutdowns as cotton picking nears.

Under a recent ruling, relief owned and operated trucks will receive as much per hour for truck and driver as is paid for non-relief trucks and drivers.

Miss Evanelle Arnold, student in Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, was home for the week-end. Miss Arnold was one of the candidates for summer queen of the school recently, as was Miss Bonita McGahey, formerly of Snyder.

Mrs. John Keller of the Hollywood Shop, and her daughter, Wynona, and Miss Juanita Burt returned home Sunday from the fall markets in Dallas, after spending a week there. They attended Centennial celebrations in both Dallas and Fort Worth.

Guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. D. English from Friday until Tuesday included Mrs. English's sister-in-law, Mrs. E. E. Brown of Floydada, her niece, Mrs. Decker Ridge of Lubbock, and Mrs. Amy McDaniel of Lubbock. Mrs. English and Brown visited in Colorado Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Walker spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Felix Rossen at Brownfield. The Rossens were formerly residents of Scurry County. Dr. Walker reports the crops late in that section of the country, and rain has been spotted there just as in Scurry County.

Santa Fe Report Reveals Most of Texas Prospers

The Santa Fe Railway agricultural report for August 1 evidently did not include Scurry County, for it says: "Cotton in Texas is responding most favorably to excellent growing conditions resulting from recent rains and the hot weather which followed."

"July rains aided feed crops to such an extent that another good feed year is in prospect. Corn, hog, sorghums and grazing crops are in excellent state of growth and development in East Texas; Central Texas, Temple to Lometa and San Saba; and in San Angelo territory, as well as in Central North Texas. The Panhandle country is pretty dry. Wheat harvest is about over."

"Little insect activity has been noted excepting in bottom lands, where continued wet conditions have stimulated insect infestation. Cotton acreage in Texas and Louisiana for 1936 has increased from 6 to 12 per cent over that of 1935. There are 12,000,000 acres of cotton for the 1936 harvest."

"Wheat harvest in Northwest Texas is about over. The government's July estimate of 17,600,000 bushels for the state has not yet been revised, and it probably will stand."

Save Subscriptions And You'll Be Safe

The Times is anxious to protect its subscribers against solicitors who are not authorized to take subscriptions, and the publishers are therefore issuing an early warning. Within a short time, the county will probably have subscription solicitors for various publications who come into the county's best crop territory, and leave with plenty of cash and promises. The Times authorizes only its employees and its correspondents to take subscriptions, with the exception of county postmasters and regular agents for daily newspapers. If you want to play safe, give your subscription to any paper to someone you know.
