"YOUR HOME COUNTY PAPER"

FORTY-NINTH YEAR

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 27, 1936.

NUMBER 12

LITTLE WEIGHT BUT MUCH FIRE IN TIGER CREW

Coaches Whipping Inexperienced Footballers Into Shape In Pre-Season Training School.

If you have sauntered out to Tiger Field this week to see the lads go through their paces, you will be convinced that the 1936 squad will make up in fight what it lacks in weight and experience.

That vital punch that was never completely gained last year is budding out early, under coaching of "Red" Hill and Glen Berry. The mentors see better than an average team ahead for performance under the new lights, and they may iron out enough wrinkles before the opening game to make the going rough for any Class B opponent.

Tommy Winters, one of the five lettermen who is supposed to return this year, has changed his mind. With the nucleus of four smooth working lettermen, however, Hill and Berry are convinced that their material is looking better than anticipated.

The quartet of returning lads is J. P. Tate, 180-pound tackle; Charley Morrow, 150-pound end; Ardath Head, 155-pound back; and Weldon Strayhorn, 140-pound signal caller. Tate has lettered two years, the others one year each.

Youngsters with two years of reserve work behind them, with approximate weights and positions, are: Jay Rogers, 147, guard; Johnny Boren, 150, end; Wallace Smith, 153, back; Clyde Boren, 170, and Jackie Scarborough, 180, tackles.

One-year reserves are: Leon Autry, 147, center; Carl Hargrove, 130, end; and D. J. Hall, 140, back.

Buck Woolver, slow but willing, is the heaviest of the 26 men who are working out. His 190 pounds, decorating a gridiron for the first time, promise plenty of power at tackle.

Church of Christ Meeting To Begin Sunday, Sept. 6

Plans are being completed by officials of the local Church of Christ, Avenue O at Twenty-fifth Street, for a revival meeting to begin on Sunday, September 6, Roy J. Clark, minister, announces.

The meeting will be held at the city tabernacle for two weeks. Robert R. Price, until recently of Childress, will do the preaching for the series of services. Minister Clark will direct the music.

"Assistance of one of the foremost preachers of the twentieth century was secured some three months ago," Bro. Clark stated in speaking of Bro. Price, "and it is anticipated that every man, woman, boy and girl within reasonable distance of Snyder will avail himself or herself of the opportunity to hear a man who has traveled extensively in foreign countries and has served his nation in time of war and in time of peace."

Bro. Price was reared in Indian Territory, and is of Indian descent. During the World War he served as a member of the secret service unit in Japan, and later as a member of the United States Diplomatic Corps in Vladivostok, Russia.

Services will be held twice daily, 10:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m.

Registration For Local Schools To Begin Next Week

Classes will not begin in the local school system until Monday, September 7, but high school registration will begin Thursday, September 3, say Superintendent C. Wedgeworth and High School Principal King Slides.

Seniors will register Thursday morning, juniors Thursday afternoon, sophomores Friday morning and freshmen Friday afternoon. High school teachers who are in town will assist with registration. The first general faculty meeting of the year will be held Saturday morning, 9:00 o'clock, in Room 103.

New high school students are urged to have their transcript of credits ready in advance of registration. With 12 new faculty members and four new high school courses, the local system will present many changes this year. New courses are secretarial training, commercial law, advanced choral singing, and orchestra.

Preliminary work of training the Tiger Band has already begun under direction of Ralph L. Reschar, new director from Somerset, Kentucky. Twenty musicians are gathering for instruction at 8:00 a. m. daily.

No Change in Tax Levy.

The county Commissioners Court in session last Thursday made no change in the 1937 tax levy from the 1936 figure of $1.20 on the $100 valuation. A detailed explanation of the new rate and the 1937 state rate will be made in next week's Times.

This Week in Texas History

1826—On August 24 the federal Congress decreed that a permanent cavalry force be raised to defend the frontier.

1836—On August 27 Henry M. Morfit was sent to Texas by President Jackson to investigate the military, civil and political conditions of the new republic. This information was necessary before recognition of the new government could be considered.

1843—Following recognition of the Republic of Texas by Great Britain, Captain Charles Elliott of the British navy was sent to Texas to sponsor cordial relations. He arrived on August 23.

1856—An act to establish the state institution for the deaf and dumb was passed on August 26.

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY RODEO

The E. F. Sears Ranch near Arah, 14 miles west of Snyder, will be the scene Saturday and Sunday of a rodeo, open to all comers. Advance entrants and interest indicate that good jackpot prizes will be paid.

J. D. Lambert Jr. will be in charge of the program. He announces that wild cow milking, bronc riding, calf roping, steer riding, roping horse race and match roping will be featured. Rodeo performances are to be at 10:00 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. daily.

72 Head of Scurry Livestock Marketed

Among rather heavy sales on the Fort Worth livestock market early this week were the following from Scurry County:

P. L. Fuller—16 cows, averaging 751, at $3.00; 3 cows, averaging 695, at $2.95; 1 cow, averaging 530, at $2.00; 32 calves, averaging 264.

Addison Casseveens Goes to Odom Staff

Odom Funeral Home announced early this week the addition of Addison Casseveens, resident of Snyder for a number of years, to its staff. R. H. and Mrs. Odom and Gauthier Bell are other members.

Casseveens secured his embalmer's license in 1928 under his new employer, Odom. He also is licensed as a funeral director.

PROCLAMATION

Snyder-Colorado Day, Monday, September 14

Since Monday, September 14, has been designated as Snyder-Colorado Day at the Frontier Centennial, Fort Worth, and, since our entire community will be greatly benefitted by participation in the joint program of the day, I hereby call upon all our citizens to cooperate in every way possible to make the day a milestone in our community progress.

I urge every citizen possible to take advantage of the special train that is being planned at extremely low rates; to tell their friends and neighbors about the special train and the many other advantages of the week-end trip, which will include the Dallas Centennial; to prove, by our 100 per cent cooperation, that Snyder appreciates the many courtesies extended by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and the city of Fort Worth.

LOW RATES FOR TWO-DAY TRIP

When Snyder and Colorado agreed to accept Monday, September 14, as their special day at the Frontier Centennial, they let themselves in for several hours of widespread publicity, fun and enlightenment.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce building on the Frontier grounds will be the scene of most of the activities of the special day. The WTCC is offering to Snyder and Colorado the following services, all without cost:

- 1.—A lighted sign run up on top of the WTCC building on the Frontier grounds, announcing the special day.
- 2.—A 15-minute radio program over station WBAP, for each town, through arrangement with the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.
- 3.—The town's panel exhibit, motion pictures and souvenir literature to be distributed from the WTCC building on that day.
- 4.—The town's sponsor (Mary Ellen Brown, Snyder sponsor) to be introduced at Casa Manana by Paul Whitman.
- 5.—The town's hostess for the day (Mrs. Elaine Rosser Lambert, Snyder hostess) to be in charge of the WTCC information booth in the exhibit building.
- 6.—Leaders of the town's delegation to be interviewed for the newspapers and press wires, and to be honored at an official reception given by Centennial executives.
- 7.—Use of the exhibit building for pulling any town stunts.

Honors for Nimble Snyder Girl

On Friday night this 10-year-old Snyder girl, Mary Ellen Brown, was enthusiastically received by several thousand persons who packed Ruddy Park, Colorado, for an all-star amateur program, feature of the Mitchell County Centennial celebration. Yesterday it was announced that she

Addison Casseveens Goes to Odom Staff

Odom Funeral Home announced early this week the addition of Addison Casseveens, resident of Snyder for a number of years, to its staff. R. H. and Mrs. Odom and Gauthier Bell are other members.

Casseveens secured his embalmer's license in 1928 under his new employer, Odom. He also is licensed as a funeral director.

SEPTEMBER 14 IS SPECIAL DAY

Snyder and Colorado joined hands and ambitions this week in order to make Snyder-Colorado Day at the Frontier Centennial an outstanding milestone in the history of the neighboring cities. Monday, September 14, is the special day.

Plans have been perfected for citizens of the two communities and of adjoining communities to ride a special train to the Fort Worth show and to the Dallas Centennial—provided a minimum of 200 round-trip tickets may be sold for the joint train.

The round-trip rate of $5.90 for regular coach travel and $10.90 for complete tourist pullman accommodations is declared by civic leaders and railroad men to be one of the cheapest prices ever made for train travel in West Texas.

No Hotel Bills to Pay.

- 1.—No hotel bills to pay at Dallas or Fort Worth. Trippers will have access to the special train at all times during the trip, day or night.
- 2.—No taxi or street car bills to pay in Dallas or Fort Worth. The train will be sidetracked near the entrances of both positions.
- 3.—No hard driving or chances for accidents. Every convenience of regular trains will be provided, with the added fact that few stops will be made on the trip.

Saturday Night Starting.

The special train will leave Colorado Saturday night, September 12, at 11:00 o'clock, reaching the Dallas Centennial grounds about 7:00 a. m. Sunday. It will remain in Dallas all day Sunday, Sunday night and until noon Monday.

Trippers will have all Monday afternoon and until 2:00 o'clock that night, when the train leaves for Colorado, to "take in" the special Snyder-Colorado program and other features of the Frontier Centennial.

Thus, a $10.90 ticket will give transportation and all pullman accommodations to and from Dallas and Fort Worth, for two days and three nights. Conservative estimates place the regular cost of this transportation and equivalent hotel facilities at $18 to $20.

Cheaper on Chair Car.

The chair car price of $5.90 will mean a saving of at least $8 to $10 over regular transportation and hotel bills.

First joint plans for the special day were made at a meeting Wednesday evening, in Mayor H. G. Towle's office, of representative citizens from Snyder and Colorado. Jimmie Greene, Colorado Chamber of Commerce secretary, headed the visiting group, which was also composed of Floyd Quinney, Dick Delaney and R. H. Barber.

Colorado's quota of tickets out of the 200 was placed at 125; Snyder's at 75. A lively contest to determine which town will sell its quota first is expected to be waged.

Committees Being Named.

Mayor Towle, in whose hands general supervision of the Snyder part in the big day has been placed, said ticket selling committees will be at work late this week and early next week. Reservations can be made by seeing J. W. Scott, local Chamber of Commerce secretary, in his office over the Towle Building.

ELECTION NEWS

Unusual results of Saturday's election included:

It was one of the heaviest second primary votes on record here, although there were no major state races, and only 14 names were on the ticket.

Thomas and Woodfin tied in West Snyder, 166 apiece. Lewis and Trimble tied at County Line and at Turner.

No "blanks" were registered in any box for any candidate—an unusual circumstance in any election in Scurry County.

Heaviest voting was not in the sheriff's race. That race netted 2,659 votes; the clerk's race, 2,680 votes.

PLAN BUDGETS FOR SCHOOLS

School budgets for 1937 will be surveyed by the public at meetings to be held at Snyder and Hermleigh this week.

The Snyder meeting will be held Friday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock, at the office of the secretary, A. C. Preuitt, R. S. & P. passenger station. Hermleigh's hearing will be held Saturday morning, 10:00 o'clock at the school building.

The public is invited to these and all other school budget hearings to be held by the various districts, but if experience of the few years since the public hearing law was passed is a criterion, only a handful of citizens will go to the hearings.

A few citizens of Scurry County were present when the county budget hearing was held in the courthouse last Thursday morning.

THOMAS RUNS FAST TO TAKE LEADING RACE

Chas. J. Lewis Made County Clerk; Robison and Landrum Elected As New Commissioners.

Clyde Thomas, Ira farmer, showed his heels to J. A. Woodfin, former Snyder city marshal, just as he pulled safely ahead of five opponents in the first primary. So it is that Scurry County will have her third consecutive sheriff from the south end of her territory.

This major result of Saturday's second primary election, giving Thomas a lead of 1,698 to 961 votes, was closely followed in interest by election of Chas. J. Lewis, who headed a three-candidate first primary, over Mrs. Mattie B. Trimble, serving her second term as county clerk. The vote was 1,515 to 1,163.

Robison Beats Jones.

With the two county races disposed of in earliest returns, interest of many Saturday night watchers turned to the Precinct No. 1 commissioner's race, in which Hubert Robison maintained a slight lead over Forest Jones, incumbent, and finally won by a vote of 353 to 214. This was the closest race on the ticket.

J. E. Huffman, newcomer to county politics, won handsily from J. G. Landrum, 283 to 192, in Precinct No. 2.

Election of Robison and Huffman gives the county its youngest commissioners court, in point of political service, in recent years. Neither Robison nor Huffman has been in a public office aside from school board service.

J. E. Hairston, who won the Precinct No. 4 toga from H. E. Brock in the first primary, is likewise a newcomer to county politics, and H. M. Blackard, in Precinct No. 3, is completing his first term as commissioner—his first political office. Judge H. J. Brice, also elected in the first primary, is a comparative newcomer to county politics, having become judge by appointment, after election as county surveyor, the previous election, without opposition.

Harris Wins Handily.

C. E. Harris, 28-year-old candidate for state representative, came out of Dickens County to keep Leonard Westfall from being elected to a second term. His lead in Scurry County was 1,624 to 944, his approximate average over the district.

Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the State Railroad Commission, led Frank S. Morris, 1,583 to 916.

J. E. McDonald won in this county, too, over George B. Terrell, 1,383 to 1,045.

Two Teachers In Adult Education Work Dismissed

Scurry County has lost two WPA teachers who have been working in the emergency education program. It was announced this week from the office of Nolan Schulze, District No. 13 supervisor, Abilene. One teacher is in bookkeeping and the other is a general assistant.

This decrease in Scurry teachers is in line with the 20 per cent reduction announced for all counties of Texas.

Seven teachers will continue in the county, according to Frank Farmer, county superintendent, through whose office the work is handled.

Art, singing, typing, handicraft and aesthetic dancing are taught in classes for white persons. A white teacher has a charge of a Mexican class, and a colored teacher has charge of a negro class.

Revival Will Close Here Sunday Night

The First Baptist Church revival will close its 15-day outdoor stand Sunday night, Rev. C. E. Lancaster of Pampa remaining through the final service.

Despite inclement weather for the outdoor meeting for two nights, plus severe inflammation of the evangelist's throat, crowds have continued to be good and several have professed Christ and joined the church, according to church leaders.

Reservations must be made early in order to assure the special train. Colorado plans to include its 40-piece band in its quota of special train tickets.

The band, plus Snyder and Colorado entertainers and speakers, will perform during the program that is turned over to the two cities for the special day at Fort Worth.

C. L. Harris To Austin By Handy Ballot Saturday

Validators of the 118th District sent C. L. Harris to the Legislature in Saturday's primary to the healthy tune of approximately 5,700 to 3,200 votes. Leonard Westfall, first-term incumbent, was the loser.

The youthful Dickens County campaigner won by a wide margin in every county except Stonewall. Westfall's home, where home folks gave the incumbent a lead of 954 to 700.

The following returns are official from only Scurry County. Dickens, Stonewall and Garza are complete, while one small box is not reported from Kent. Borden County returns had not been reported Wednesday night.

County	Harris	Westfall
Scurry	1,624	944
Dickens	1,706	495
Stonewall	700	954
Garza	862	463
Kent	598	260

Located several blocks north of the square, the word "Camp" flashes merrily to the main business district. Ollie Stimson, proprietor, reports good cabin, service station and general supply business this summer for his all-night place of business.

Mellow Melons Melt.

Vacations and conflicting engagements shortened the crowd at the Lions Club lawn cutting on the school park lawn Thursday evening, but the Lions and guests who gathered for an hour enjoyed many mellow cold melons from the patch of Clemens von Roeder, Borden County donor.

Correct Kind of Food Important To Good Health

That vigorous good health depends not alone upon freedom from disease, but upon the proper amount and kinds of foods eaten is stressed in a statement from Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer.

"The human body," he said, "may be compared to a steam engine burning fuel for the steam, which furnishes power. The food we eat is fuel and when digested and absorbed gives the energy necessary to live and go about our daily activities."

"In considering the proper amount of food for our individual needs we should take into consideration the kind of work our body will be called upon to perform during the days. When more food is taken into the body than is needed to carry on its activities, extra work is thrown on the organs that carry off waste. This is especially true of the kidneys, and often results in serious after effects."

Two Are Picnic Honorees Friday.

Alberta Sturgeon entertained Friday evening with a delightful picnic and theatre party honoring her guest, Mrs. Roy Currie, of Paint Rock and Miss Orene Wilborn of Abilene.

Both girls are school friends of Miss Sturgeon—Mrs. Currie in Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, and Miss Wilborn at University of Texas, Austin. The Wilborns formerly resided here, and Mrs. Currie has visited here several times. The picnic supper, served at the school park, was delicious—fried chicken, potato chips, pickles, sandwiches, sliced tomatoes, lemonade, cookies and ice cream composed the menu. The theatre party followed at the Palace Theatre.

Those present were: The honorees, Mrs. Bunker Hill, Mary Nell Morton, Hazel Pollard, Allene Curry and the hostess.

Miss Louise Gibson returned home Saturday from West Texas State Teachers' College, Canyon, where she has been attending summer sessions. She left Saturday night for a trip to Dallas, Glen Rose and Cleburne, where she will visit relatives and friends.

Three members were hostesses to the Win One Class of the First Methodist Church Tuesday evening with a delightful swim and picnic supper at Martin's Pool. Misses Evelyn Erwin, Mary Margaret Towle and Estine Doward were the hostesses.

Following the supper, the group held a sing-song while sitting on benches near the pool. Miss Juanita Burt was a guest for the evening; Mrs. Joe Caton, teacher, was present; and 14 members of the class attended.

Mrs. M. Caton and daughters, Mrs. Hugh Birdwell and Dossie Mae Caton, are Centennial visitors this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ben Shell of Colorado, formerly of Snyder, visited with relatives and friends here during the week-end.

Which Dress Did Mother Wear?

Uniform styles at Texas State College for Women (CWA) have changed with the prevailing fashion, and the demure miss of 1916 bears little resemblance to the trim young modern of today. Miss Joy Hawley of Denton models the uniform worn by her mother two decades ago, and the uniform she will wear this fall.

Women Who Have Pains Try CARDUI Next Time!

On account of poor nourishment, many women suffer functional pains at certain times, and it is for those that Cardui is offered on the record of the safe relief it has brought and the good it has done in helping to overcome the cause of womanly discomfort. Mrs. Cole Young, of Jewell, La., writes: "I was suffering with irregular . . . I had quite a lot of pain which made me nervous. I took Cardui and found it helped me in every way, making me regular and stopping the pain. This quieted my nerves, making my health much better. . . . If I would do not benefit YOU, consult a physician."

Not Many Yarns, But They're O.K.

Many Scurry County old-timers who have dry weather stories to tell are too modest or too retiring to tell them for publication.

But from its offer last week to give a first prize of $1 and a second prize of 50 cents to writers of the best brief stories on dry weather in Scurry County, four good replies were received.

Winners of the contest will be announced next week. The publishers will be guided to some extent by opinions expressed after the following four stories are read:

Prairie Dogs Starve

By L. S. Trevey.

If you think it's dry in Scurry County now, you just didn't live here in 1893, when it got so dry that the prairie dogs starved to death.

I don't remember exactly, but we must not have had much more than an inch of rain that whole year. The country was thick with prairie dogs then, and when the weather turned so hot and dry the dogs just ran out of anything to eat or drink.

We used to find them hundreds of yards from their holes, where they had gone foraging for food, stretched out as dead as door nails. I can't tell how folks managed to live then, unless it was that they didn't know any better than to work hard for a living.

Really Dry

By Mrs. Dock Kelley.

In 1918 Scurry County had its most destructive drought within the memory of newer citizens. Maybe the real old timers can remember a time that was more "scary." Various predictions as to the time of probable rainfall were broached, but as the days came and went a leaden sun burned on in a blue sky. The farmers of that day, for the most part, placed great faith in a man named Foster, whose business was to forecast the weather in long range periods for a farm newspaper. A group of them finally decided to write this man and ask for his individual forecast for Scurry County. They settled back amid the dust and heat and waited. Within a few days they received a reply which, much to their consternation, read something like the following:

"Gentlemen: I'm very sorry, but I don't know there was such a place as Scurry County, but I managed to find it in the records. I don't know whether it will ever rain in your county or not. My records show that the original settlers were hauling water during the great flood of Genesis 7:17-24."

Irrigation Talk

By Dock Kelley.

Several years ago the Chamber of Commerce of many West Texas towns became very active. A great deal of publicity was sent out regarding the many merits of various towns, most of it justifiable, but sometimes the boys themselves had to admit that perhaps they had been just a little too extravagant in their claims. One man from Arkansas was attracted into this county to farm because of glowing reports of rainfall and other material advantages which had reached him. Unfortunately, he struck a year in which rainfall was very sparse, and after it did rain leaf worms ate the little cotton plants and a few other major calamities happened. With anger mounting in his breast, the farmer returned to the foothills of his native Ozarks the following winter. The next summer he was talking to a neighbor one day.

"That country has surely been boosted sky high," he proclaimed bitterly. "There's not but one thing wrong with it. They just can't get water when they need it. I never could see myself why they don't irrigate."

The neighbor knew something about the country. "Why," he argued, "I don't believe they could get the water to irrigate with."

"Hmph!" snorted the farmer who had lost his previous year's work. "The Pacific Ocean is about the nearest water there is, but if that country's lofers can suck like their boosters can blow, they won't have any trouble in getting the water there."

Hot Weather Story

By T. L. McCormack.

A Leghorn hen went up the side of a haystack to lay an egg. When deposited, the egg rolled to the sand in hot sunshine. The hot sand and the fiery sunshine burst the egg. It was on that hot day, this year, August 17, when the heat was around 116 degrees in the shade.

It didn't take a long-time heat to burst the egg. It cooked in a few minutes. Someone came along and put cayenne pepper in it. A young dog that ate raw eggs saw it and ate it. The dog's mouth was so badly burned it never tried to suck any more eggs.

County First Baler Raymond Lloyd Gets Box of Shortening

Raymond Lloyd, who sold the first bale of 1936 cotton in Scurry County, has just received an eight-pound carton of Mrs. Tucker's shortening, and mention all over the Southwest by way of radio and other advertising media.

Lloyd and the producers of the first bales of cotton in every county are being given cartons of shortening by Mrs. Tucker of Sherman, to show her appreciation to the people who raise the cotton which furnishes the seed for the cottonseed oil used in the manufacture of her product.

Mrs. Tucker's shortening is made from choice cottonseed oil produced in the Southwest. This oil is not only easily and quickly cleaned, but its sale helps produce a greater market for the chief money crop in this section.

A committee of five usually consists of the man who does the work, three others who pat him on the back and one to bring in a minority report.

The fellow who invented that "truth serum" must have taken a shot of it himself—we haven't heard anything from him for some time.

It is not such a difficult matter to get up in the world if you never give up on it.

A good citizen is one who would conduct himself just as decently as he does now even if there wasn't a law against anything.

Texas Makes No Changes In Her Political Family

The official family of Governor Alfred's administration was left intact as a result of Saturday's primary election. Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the state railroad commission, and J. E. McDonald, commissioner of agriculture, were renominated over Frank S. Morris and George B. Terrell, respectively.

Less than 35,000 votes were estimated to be outstanding when the Texas Election Bureau ceased its unofficial tabulation Monday night. Only 743,853 votes were accounted for.

Thompson emerged from the runoff with a majority of 107,000 votes over Morris, the totals being 455,434 and 288,419.

County Judge Clyde Garrett of Eastland had a majority of almost 15,000 votes over Representative Thomas L. Blanton of Abilene, as returns from all 12 counties of the 17th District, with 11 complete, showed 33,419 votes for Garrett and 18,454 for Blanton. This race attracted considerable attention here, since many county residents know the two men, and since Scurry was once in Blanton's district.

Unwieldy Ballot to Face Voters When Big Election Held

Marlin E. Sandlin, assistant secretary of state (who visited Snyder during her recent Centennial celebration), said this week the general election ballot in Texas in November apparently would be larger than the average newspaper page.

Six parties have announced they would have candidates, which would require six columns. One column would be left blank for write-ins and in counties in which independent candidates filed the ballot would be eight columns wide. The ballot columns would be nearly 20 per cent wider than a newspaper column.

The ballot size will be enlarged by the printing at the bottom of six proposed constitutional amendments.

The Democratic party's nominees will be placed in the first column on the left because the party polled the largest number of votes in the last general election. Republicans will be in the second column.

The Union party, supporting William Lenke for president, and the Prohibition party, filed presidential electors but no aspirant for state offices.

Sandlin said the laws were not clear as to the final date for filing of party candidates. He concluded that Monday midnight would be the deadline for filing of independent candidates.

The secretary of state's office, Sandlin said, would delay preparation of the ballot as long as practicable.

Abilene Commends Centennial Affair

Editorial in Abilene Reporter. Only in West Texas, home of the grand gesture, would a fifty-year old town put on a hundred-year birthday party. Hearty congratulations to Colorado, really a little older—five or six years—than fifty.

Its "Centennial" celebration, starting Thursday, has been all the heart could desire. So say the home folk and native Coloradans who have moved elsewhere but returned to the ancestral hearth for the big show. More than three thousand qualifying as old-timers had registered before the celebration started, and that is a good indication of the interest that was aroused.

Never miss an opportunity to make someone else happy—even if you have to let him alone to do it.

Bullock Family, Reared on Scurry County Ranch, Reunited At Abilene

Nine brothers and sisters who were reared on a Scurry County ranch and who have scattered to seven Texas towns Sunday gathered in Abilene for a family reunion.

They are the five sons and four daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bullock, and the old family home here at 1858 North Tenth Street, now occupied by one of the sons, John Bullock, and his family, was the scene of the party. It was the first time all the children had been reunited since the death of their mother in May last year. Two years earlier their father had died, both parents having reached the age of 75. The family moved to Abilene in 1918.

The group here totaled 35, including a cousin, Homer Bullock of Sweetwater, and his wife.

The brothers and sisters and their families in attendance were:

Plate Glass Crashes

The stiff, twisting wind that brought sand and a touch of rain Wednesday afternoon knocked one of the largest pieces of plate glass in town out of pocket at the Scurry County Motor Company. The thick glass crashed inward, barely missing a nearby car.

Message for Men Only

A message from the tenth chapter of Luke will be delivered in the form of a lecture for men and boys only, Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock, in the basement of the First Christian Church, by the teacher, A. J. Cody. Men and boys who are not attending Sunday school elsewhere are invited by class leaders to hear the message.

A very methodical Scotman staying at a hotel used to read 20 pages of his book every day, recording his progress by a marker.

At the end of a week they asked the reader how he liked his book. He replied, "It's a verra interesting book, but there's a certain amount of repetition in it."

HOME OWNERS GIVEN $68,067

Residents of Scurry County received a total of $68,067 from the Home Owners Loan Corporation during the three-year period of refinancing operations which terminated June 13, 1936, according to the final figures furnished H. P. Drought, state director for the National Emergency Council. This sum represented 41 individual loans.

A total of 44,361 distressed home owners in Texas were extended aid in the sum of $103,208,774. Of this money it is estimated that $6,343,000 went toward the payment of taxes and assessments, the estimated average of tax and assessment payments per loan in Texas being $143.

According to the 1930 United States census reports there were 374,755 owned non-farm homes in the state of Texas. The Home Owners Loan Corporation refinanced mortgages on 11.8 per cent of this number.

For every trouble maker there is at least one trouble taker.

Miss Mary Marie Fox of Decatur arrived here Sunday. She will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Willard Jones, and attend high school.

Mullins Gets Business.
Horace Mullins, assistant manager of the J. C. Penney Company store, brought in the business with an "Opportunity Days" event that began last week-end. In charge of the store while Manager H. L. Vann is vacationing, Mullins is highly pleased with the results obtained from last week's advertising. The Times was in error when it stated that one price was good for Saturday only. The store maintains a set low price, Mullins says, that is good for any day.

Mr. and Mrs. Talmage Turner of Wink spent their vacation here last week as guests of their parents and of friends.

Mrs. Tom Knighton and two sons of Canyon were week-end visitors in the Egerton and Buchanan homes.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

Austin—A smashing public endorsement by the people of Texas for the policy of sane conservation of the natural resources of the state was the universal interpretation placed here upon the runoff victory of Colonel Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission, over Frank Morris of Dallas.

The Weekly Dozen

We Begs to Submit.
W. D. Beggs, Scurry County rancher, in "West Texas Today," speaking of the Frontier Centennial at Fort Worth: "No type of exhibit could do more to explain the resources of the area in better fashion."
* * *
Even to the Fourth Generation.
Paul Pace Jr., fourth assistant postmaster general, speaking at Galveston last week: "While Roosevelt has been president, only eight banks over the United States have failed. During Hoover's administration, 1,242 banks failed."
* * *
Weekly Rooseveltism.
President Roosevelt: "The American people can trust to decide wisely upon the measures taken by the government to eliminate the abuses of the past and to proceed in the direction of the greater good for the greater number."
* * *
Over in Baylor County.
Baylor County Banner: "The drought of 1936 is said by United States weather observers to have been probably the most widespread and severe this country has ever known. A man wrote here from Henrietta, for instance, that it was so dry down there that the hogs won't hold slop."
* * *
What a Scurry-Fisher Boondoggle?
Rotan is building a $36,000 swimming pool, chiefly from WPA funds. Water for the pool will be supplied by the wells near Camp Springs, 15 miles away, in Scurry County. Some folks are wondering if this project wouldn't assume the shape of a "boondoggle" if the Camp Springs wells were to go on a strike, as they have threatened to do.
* * *
Not for Women Only.
Ladonia News: "It has been observed that although President Roosevelt has been in office only three years, he looks fully 20 years older. This is the best argument we have heard against the probability that we will ever have a woman for president. No woman would undertake a job that would add 20 years to her appearance in two or three years."
* * *
Jones County Farmers Raising Chickens.
Stamford American: "Chickens are kept on about 93 per cent of the farms of Jones County, a high percentage compared with other counties of the state. Chickens on the farm are a sign of thrift and industry. Of course, in most instances, it is the wife, son or daughter who raises the chickens, but we never heard of 'Pa' refusing to eat the grub they buy."
* * *
Or Was It Anti-Climax?
American Legion Monthly: "The communist agitator was working up to the climax of his speech. 'Today,' he said, 'mit capitalism, der rich man eats der strumberries mit cream, and der workin's man eats black bread mit grass. Comes der revolooehin, und den der rich man eats black bread und grass, und der workin's man eats der strumberries mit der cream!'"
* * *
Just a Shot in the Arm.
Happy Herald: "No amount of legislation is going to make up for wrong practices in farming or other industries. Wrong practices are being followed, and a pay day will come some day. Artificial means of restoration is but a shot in the arm that works until it wears off. Any program of relief that does not include remedying causes will not produce permanent results but will merely put off the pay day."
* * *
Nebraska's Finances.
Abilene Daily Reporter: "Nebraska's state treasurer is a greatly puzzled man these days. The state has so much cash that it's become a problem what to do with it. The banks don't like to qualify and put up a bond to handle it, and one bank has asked the treasurer to withdraw a state checking account he has with it. The surplus is now nearing $10,000,000. Unlike Texas, Nebraska steadfastly refuses to go into debt."
* * *
A Word from Henry Ford.
Henry Ford: "Industry and farming depend upon each other. The farmer must have prosperity in the cities to sell his crops at prices that yield a fair return for his labor. The people whose livings come from manufacturing need prosperity in the rural districts for a receptive market to keep the products of their factories flowing into consumption. It is a job deserving the best thought and efforts of city and country folks to move forward abreast."
* * *
Soil Erosion vs. Nature.
Stuart Chase in Harper's Magazine: "Food supply is but one of several important reasons for controlling erosion. Man-made erosion disrupts the natural balance between land and water resources and thereby affects many other basic activities. Unless erosion is controlled, water supply, irrigation, power and navigation developments will be impaired by silt, floods will increase in magnitude, droughts and low-water periods will multiply, wild life will decline, and recreation facilities become more limited."

Our Officers.

One of the defeated county candidates struck a responsive chord this week, when he said no man can make a full success as a servant of the public unless the people support him.
He pledged his support to the successful candidate. All of us, composing that great unknown quantity called "the people," should take this cue when the new set of officers takes its place in the courthouse January 1.
No sheriff or any other officer is justified in laying down on the job because the people do not give their enthusiastic support to his administration. Just as in any other pursuit, most folks wait for the leader to show that he means business before they follow. But, given an officer who really wants to enforce the law—or to fulfill any other duties of his office—the people will generally rally to him.
The Times extends congratulations to Messrs. Thomas, Lewis, Robison and Huffman. But we temper our congratulations with the worn-out admonition that their real races have not begun.

American Boy Offers World of Adventure

During the coming year American Boy stories will take readers into thundering transport planes, into Annapolis and through the Caribbean with the navy, into the soundless tangles of Georgia's Okefenokee swamp, and even into an imaginary future of space ships, strange machines and science. All are swift moving, instructive and gripping.

Editorial of the Week

A NATION OF CRY-BABIES.
A nation of cry-babies is what the United States is in danger of becoming if trends of the past several years continue unabated. It is nothing less than the plain truth that since the depression depths of 1932 and 1933 a spirit of what some forthright persons would refer to as chronic belly-aching has been displayed on a scale that is nothing short of alarming. The idea appears to be that hard times are enthroned, nothing's right with the world.

Current Comment.

BY LEON GUINN.
The front page news story of the week is the bitter civil warfare in blood-bathed Spain, with 25,000 men and women killed, a fitting prelude indeed to a serious sequence unless shortly terminated. . . . Backers behind the Loyalist-Rebel warfare include Juan March, Spanish millionaire; Germany and Italy on the rebel side, resorting to poison gas in a carefully plotted effort to wipe out Loyalist, or Leftist, control in the strife-bedeveloped country that is Spain.
While Germany and Italy have backed the civil clash under cover since its inception, one finds France and Russia lined up in sympathy with the Socialist-Loyalist party that is the present government. . . . Which means that Spain, world neighbor of America, may be another Sarajevo, another field of dishonor for what price glory.
Yet Spain is typical of all other countries where Communism and Socialism creep in and run riot, in radical endeavors to make any and all property a thing to be dished to every Communist, the fault-filied idea being a Communist is big enough to handle anything he feels big enough to. . . . Only 70 years ago we in America had a fulsome taste of what civil warfare will do to a nation, hence we have no desire to get in on another nation's civil war, however unfortunate.
Chief goal of the Fascist Rebels is the wiping out of the Catholic Church in Spain, with the expected destruction of church property. . . . Most barbaric horrors yet exposed in the bitter warfare, that knows not respect or reason is the hanging of Loyalist mayors (in captured cities) to trees for the vultures to eat. . . . And the execution of many a Loyalist after being tortured. . . . With women enlisted in the conflict, to be mowed down with hard-fighting brothers all under the skin, the civil conflict has been in recent weeks the best imitation of hell the world has witnessed in recent months.

Highway Delay.

Good roads advocates are wondering why, with no plans to be made for spending emergency relief funds this year in Texas, the Texas Highway Department is already a month behind its last year's record in preparing the 1936-37 regular federal aid road program. It was ready for submission to Washington about August 1 last year, but this year October 1 is the earliest date anybody around the department is promising. Funds were available July 1, and the department's procrastination has lost the opportunity to take advantage of several months of fine summer construction weather, which other states have taken advantage of. It now appears November 1 is the earliest date any of this new program may be put under construction in Texas, and Commissioners Wood and Hines have not given any satisfactory explanation of the delay.

Political Observers Here Were Interested.

Political observers here were interested, after the vote was counted, in some probable future developments it may engender. The position of Lon Smith, minority member of the commission, is unenviable and many here were inclined to regard it as untenable. Smith vigorously and bitterly attacked Thompson and Terrell, and the emphatic public endorsement which the latter pair received at the ballot boxes left Smith "out on a limb."

"THE CALL TO ATTACK"

The common cold germ is marshalling his forces for the annual attack. Soon this insidious enemy will prepare to live up to his reputation as America's greatest enemy to good health. Each year more than two hundred million "common colds" undermine the health of the nation and often pave the way for such serious illnesses as pneumonia, bronchitis, influenza, tuberculosis, and other health-wrecking respiratory diseases.

Leading doctors tell us that fifty per cent of all disabling diseases start with a "common cold." And the invisible but dangerous cold germ finds one of his best opportunities in homes where occupants are most liable to sudden changes of temperature. Therefore, it is a wise precaution to avoid the possibility of sudden changes of temperature in your home this coming winter by providing a constant circulation of pure warm air throughout the house.

Use your home to the fullest this winter as you have during the summer. It will assist you to fight the common cold germ, the leading threat to good health.

Local Happenings

On Sunday, August 6, the Ira Baptist meeting came to a close with the baptizing at the Golden tank. Five were baptized and received into the fellowship of the church. The pastor did the preaching of the preacher who had agreed to be in the pulpit during the meeting postponed his engagement twice, and no other preacher was available.
 In addition to those who were converted, several who had grown cold and backslidden in spirit rededicated their lives, and others were received by letter. This meeting had more of the earmarks of a revival than any revival in which this writer has had a part since coming to this section of the state two years ago.
 With the baptizing this writer closed the second year as pastor of the Ira Baptist Church. During these two years the Sunday school has been standardized, and 100 seals have been granted in the Sunday school and B. T. U. The Ira Baptist Church is now pastorless, and the writer is available for full-time work; half-time or two fourth-time churches, and wherever the Lord leads that is where I want to go.
 Rev. L. L. Trott of Sweetwater did the preaching for the meeting that closed at Dunn Sunday night. Four were baptized Sunday afternoon. This was a good meeting, and the preaching was well done.
 In October the writer will have been with the Dunn church as pastor two years. It has been my pleasure to baptize for the two churches 45 converts. The Dunn church is discussing the matter of going to full-time preaching and we wish it could be possible.
 If you don't attend Sunday school elsewhere, we extend to you a very hearty welcome to the Baptist Church at Dunn, where everybody is somebody, and where you are made to feel welcome.—R. R. Cumble, pastor.

 Young persons who are ambitious to play a big part in the drama of life should remember that a small role is often better than a long loaf.

MICKIE SAYS—

There is no substitute for the old virtues that made our fathers and mothers good folks." Rev. B. W. Dodson of Abilene told the Lions Club Tuesday at noon in concluding what he termed a "well-prepared extemporaneous address."
 "There is just as much call now for men to live right as there was then," said the McMurry College teacher.
 Other guests of the day were Rev. Lawrence Hays of Snyder, A. C. Dodson of Sweetwater and Forest Crowder, who was presented in an athletic dance, and T. J. Tetter, her accompanist.
 Rev. Dodson, touching on several pertinent subjects, hooted at the idea that a dictatorship is eminent in this country, declared that the government does not owe a man a living but rather an opportunity to give honest toil in return for a living wage, and declared we still have plenty of the spirit of brotherly kindness.

Thanks There Is No Substitute Possible For Parents' Virtue

I wish to thank the people who voted for me for sheriff. I do not hold any ill will against those who failed to support me.
 If the officers are going to make a success, it is up to the people to cooperate with them. Therefore, let's help Mr. Thomas and the rest of the officers of this county. Sincerely,
 J. A. WOODFIN.

Rotan Begins Work On Swimming Pool

Preliminary work on Rotan's $36,000 swimming pool, a WPA project, was started Tuesday morning at the 32-acre city park one-half mile east of the business section. All local labor will be used, a small crew beginning Tuesday to be increased as the main work gets under way.
 Water for the pool will be supplied by the city water works, Rotan's water flows by gravity from six wells, 110 feet deep, at Camp Springs, in Scurry County, 15 miles west of the Rotan town. The wells, 400 feet higher than the town, provide an abundance of sparkling, soft water, says a publicity article concerning the new swimming pool.

To the Voters of Scurry County.

I want to express to you the deep feeling of gratefulness for the splendid vote cast for me in the final runoff. Thank you good people for the confidence and good will reflected in this vote.
 It shall be my continuous effort to serve you faithfully and impartially throughout the tenure of this office. Sincerely,
 CHAS. J. LEWIS.

Thanks Voters.

I wish to express my appreciation for the votes that elected me as your commissioner of Precinct No. 1 in Saturday's election.
 I will do my best to serve each and every one alike.

Anything That Is Right.

Shortly after General Grant became president, he was visited by General and Mrs. Pickett.

Knowing that Pickett had been impoverished by his patriotic service in the war, the president offered him the marshaling of Virginia.

Pickett, realizing the heavy demands that were being made upon Grant by a vast horde of office-seekers, replied, "I can not afford to take it, and you can not afford to give it to me!"

With firm dignity Grant replied, "I can afford to do anything I please that is right."

Postmistress (to worried looking gent)—"Is there anything wrong, sir?"

Gent—"Yes! You see, it was on the tip of my tongue a moment ago and now it's gone."

Postmistress—"Well, think hard and it will come back."

Gent—"Oh, no, it won't; it was a three-cent stamp."

He toyed with some loose pebbles, tossing them one by one into the sea.

"I'm just a pebble in your life."

"Then, why not become a little boulder?" she said.

Teacher—"How do you spell Schenectady?"

Schoolboy—"WGY."

HAVE YOU LEARNED THIS LESSON?

IT COST MR. BROWN $1,000.00 TO LEARN IT!

His name isn't Mr. Brown, but this incident actually occurred. We suggested to him that he insure his house against fire. He decided to wait until his business improved. But fire wouldn't wait—as a result it cost him $1,000 to repair fire damage when he could least afford it.

It cost Mr. Brown $1,000 to learn that insurance is really the only way to safe economy.

CCC Camps Will Accept More Men For Winter Work

An enrollment of young men to attend CCC camps for the first two weeks in October, in order to fill camps to their normal capacity for the winter, will include Scurry County, according to C. J. Sweeney, district manager, District No. 13 administrator.

Young men between the ages of 17 and 29 will be eligible, providing members of their families are now receiving relief in some form or another. However, only one boy who is physically fit for hard labor, and who has been out of camp by honorable discharge for at least one year, will be accepted from each family.

It will be necessary to furnish figures to the government before September 15 showing the actual number available in each county, and those boys desiring to go are asked to immediately call on either their county welfare case worker or the Texas Relief Commission case worker in their respective counties. Those who have already made application and not been called are asked to call and advise the case workers if they still desire to go.

Both white and colored persons will be listed at this time. Young men who are members of rural resettlement families are eligible if they are not needed on the farm and meet other requirements. Those who wish to re-enlist are requested to bring their discharge papers with them, so that dates may be correct and no delay occasioned by any omissions.

A certificate should be brought from a doctor showing that, after examination, the applicant is found free from all diseases which are contagious, and able to do manual labor without danger of injury to himself.

Even though one or more members of a family are working on a WPA project, and there is a boy available to enroll, he will be accepted.

Scurry County 4-H CLUB NEWS

E. B. McLeroy, Club Agent

Substantial gains have been reported by 4-H Club feeders in Scurry County despite extremely hot weather and absence of green feed and pasture of any kind.

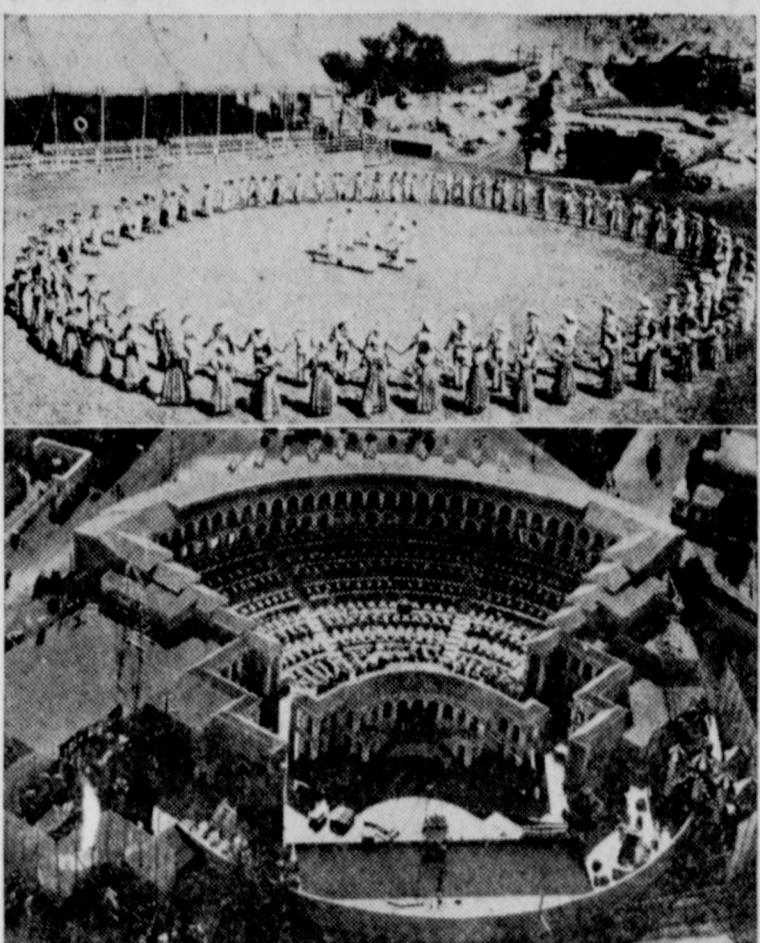

Leon Andrews, feeding a beef calf from the C. J. Harrell herd, reports a gain of 2.2 pounds per day over a period of 86 days. Leon's calf now weighs 360 pounds.

J. T. and J. W. May checked the weights of their calves at one of the local gins Tuesday, and the figures indicate an average daily gain during the past 32 days of 3.2 pounds an d2.9 pounds respectively for their two calves. Both of these calves from the A. C. Martin herd have made an average daily gain of 2.3 pounds for 85 days.

A. V. Ball, 4-H Club boy of Ft. Vanina, is feeding a beef calf from the Pat Jones herd in that community. This calf has made an average daily gain of 2.4 pounds over a period of 78 days.

Other 4-H Club calves and pigs have made substantial gains since feeding began in Scurry County in June and July. As complete and accurate weights and records become available they will be published in this column from time to time.

Broadway and Sunset Trail Cross

Hermleigh's School Opening Postponed Because of Picking

With cotton bursting open rapidly, students must go into the fields in the Hermleigh section. So announced W. T. Hanes superintendent early this week that school will be opened Monday, September 21, instead of Monday, August 31, as stated in The Times last week.

Postponement of opening date means postponement of the football training camp, to be held at Leuders the week before school opens. C. B. Bishop will be coach, and E. E. Mullins will be his assistant, as well as head girls' basketball coach.

Mullins was elected principal of the school a few days ago. He comes from a similar position at the Dunn schools, where he has been head athletic coach.
