The Weekly Dozen

Mrs. Simpson of England.
After reading the front page scandal columns of our leading dailies, Talkative Tillie is of the opinion that American dailies are more interested in Mrs. Simpson than is the king of England.

Weekly Rooseveltism.
President Roosevelt: "Governments can't—presidents do make mistakes—but the immortal Dante tells us that divine justice weighs the sins of the cold-blooded and the sins of the warm-hearted in different scales."

Fathers and Sons.
Snyder men—in fact, all Scurry County men—have interest in the Father and Son banquet, to be held next Tuesday night, whether they attend or not. It is like to complain that our boys aren't subject of authority, and we even shed crocodile tears to learn that most criminals are under age, but it is a paltry few of us who are anything to make better men of our boys.

Only 40 Shopping Days.
If not, there are only about 40 shopping days left for Christmas. Snyder would do well to begin for her annual Christmas party right now. Beautiful lights that decorated the square will again give Snyder the distinction of being one of the most Christmasy trading centers in Texas. If you want to make your pennies go far this Christmas, you had better start gift buying this month.

Fodder for Fat Steers.
Cattlemen who have favored ground fodder for feeding steers now have some definite figures to show them up. In feeding experiments at the Balcones experiment station, designed to find the best of using the feeding stuffs of West Texas, steers on a limited grain ration made 33 per cent more gain on a ration that was less expensive than similar steers on a full grain ration. The roughage consisted of hedges fodder carrying 20 per cent grain, and the grain was threshed size.

Notice, College Students.
"You are overlooking a good bet when you overlook the country newspaper field," Charles A. Guy, publisher, told Texas Tech Journalism students a few days ago. Charley has never been in the newspaper field, except at Lubbock, so he is unqualified to speak on the subject. If the arley were to help issue one weekly newspaper, he would probably change his advice. It is a good bet for journalism students who have not yet become acquainted with hard work. Anyway, only three of the 20 students addressed by Charley said they planned to enter the weekly newspaper business. So what?

Cotton Logs by Weathering.
Recent experiments reveal that weathering of cotton in the field is even more injurious to lint and fiber than cotton producers and dealers have believed. Because the new cotton picking machine that has been given so much publicity will work only in cotton that is well matured, the experiment station at College Station believes that the cotton sack, the water jug and the steelyard will never be completely doomed. "Waiting for the crop to open fully so as to make machine harvesting successful may result in losses that are greater than the gains which may be expected from the less expensive machine harvesting," says a bulletin from the experiment station.

Editorial of the Week.

THE USEFUL HAIRPIN.
An observant man is Chris Billop of the Baltimore Sun, who writes an informing essay on the uses of the hairpin, in which he describes that implement as a small wire bent double in the middle, and convenient for:
Getting the meat out of walnuts, pecans, and so forth;
Twisting around the hub of a toy automobile to keep the wheel from coming off;
Picking the teeth, if done in the privacy of one's bedroom;
Making emergency repairs in the electrical lighting system, though you had better be pretty careful if you don't want to be electrocuted;
For cleaning tobacco pipes and making holes in cigars that won't draw; for fishing for coins that have fallen into cracks; for pinning curtains to curtain rods; for improvising a link for a broken chain; for holding an undershirt together when a vital button has come off in the wash;
For perforating the cap of a salt shaker in damp weather; for picking a stubborn cork out of the mouth of a bottle; for a bookmark; for buttoning gloves; for picking locks; for running strings through brassiers; for tools for delicate clay modeling; for a hook to keep the door of the medicine cabinet shut and other domestic projects too numerous to mention. Then Mr. Billop adds:
"Is it any wonder, then, that when a hairpin is needed to pin in the hair, one can never be found?"

How Scurry Is Affected.

Chief results of the re-election of F. D. Roosevelt Tuesday, as far as Scurry County is concerned, will be to resolve around these three points:
(1). Will Roosevelt continue his present plan of farm help? If so, will benefits of the triple AAA program gradually dwindle, as Roosevelt has indicated in recent statements?
(2). Will the present plan of relief be continued indefinitely? If so, will this plan too be shortened as economic recovery is assured?
(3). Will Roosevelt attempt to tear down the trade barriers between the United States and foreign countries, thus bringing back to this country the export trade that she lost during the world depression?
The answers to all three of these questions will, we believe, be answered favorably for Scurry County and the country as a whole. Judging from election returns, at least three out of every five voters have the same opinion.
The cry of that Madison Square Garden throng Saturday night, "We want Roosevelt!" was re-echoed so loudly in the general election voting that the president will surely understand that the people not only want to be helped but want to be given an opportunity to help themselves.

Farm Income Up Again.

While Scurry County harvests half of a cotton crop, farmers the nation over are counting 16 per cent more income than they did this time last year. Although it would be difficult to prove to the Scurry Countian that his cash income has grown in the same proportion, it is entirely possible that this county's actual cash receipts from all crops of 1936 will show the largest profit we have made any recent year.
After all, this is a fairly diversified county, and we must not base our prosperity entirely on the cotton crop. While we are adding our profits, let us remember livestock, cream, poultry and other so-called by-products.

Current Comment.

BY LEON GUINN.
With the approach of fall, doctors note a sudden spurt in bronchial trouble among many an able bodied patient, have long suspected someone in the field of research would find a bacteria eater that would clear up bronchial tube infection. . . . Last week an answer to the persistent plea of medical men for a new treatment was found in the research report of Dr. William F. Moore, University of Pennsylvania professor of bronchocopy.
For years Dr. Moore has believed in bacteriophage (bacteria eaters) as a sure relief for bronchial tube infection. . . . First introduced into boills, the microscopic organism known as a phage cleaned up infection in a surprisingly short time. . . . Why not, Dr. Moore reasoned, introduce a special culture into infected bronchial passages, gobble up the causative bacteria? . . . Injections of 5 cc treatments proved so effective the New York Academy of Medicine is quite interested in the new trend of treatment.
Symptoms of bronchiectasis are coughing paroxysms, frequent expectorations and fetid breath. . . . In some cases fluid, when excessive, seeps into the lungs, causing death; which has proved to be the stumbling block in effective bronchial tube treatment. . . . The new treatment promises an escape from death by fluid seepage, in that the phage gobbles up bacteria before an appreciable amount of pus is formed in tube passages.
In the field of bone surgery Dr. M. N. Smith-Peterson recently advanced a new procedure in knitting bone fractures together to the American College of Surgeons, which promises a shorter hospitalization period for patients suffering from bone fractures, a decrease in the use of plaster casts. . . . For instance, if a person has the misfortune of cracking the thigh bone (femur), usual procedure is to re-align the bone, pour plaster around the leg, and console the patient with the thought he will be out in three to five months. . . . Dr. Smith-Peterson uses a rustless steel nail, a silver wire to knit fractures together, does away with the plaster cast in most cases.

Badgers Reveal Strength Friday, Tie Locals, 7 to 7

Twice beaten this year, but by no means conquered, the Merkel Badgers Saturday afternoon gave District 6-B her greatest upset of the season by tying the leading Tigers, 7-7.

Halfback Vick of Merkel provided the biggest thrill of the afternoon, when in the third quarter he returned a Snyder punt 80 yards for a touchdown. Halfback Dye kicked the point, the ball hitting the crossbar and bounding over for the tying marker.

Snyder talked near the close of the first period when an underhand basket pass, Head to Smith, clicked perfectly, and the Snyder quarter went around end 18 yards for the score. Boren maintained his high season average by kicking the extra point.

Dye's long punts helped keep Merkel in the game in the first half. The Badgers threatened twice after their score, but bogged down on incomplete passes into the end zone.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Snyder and sons, Kenneth and Glynn Curry, were in Roscoe Sunday visiting with Mr. Snyder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Snyder, and other relatives and friends.

Hermleigh Squad To Meet Dunn In Title Tilt Friday

The Hermleigh Cardinals, only undefeated football team in the county, will go to Dunn Friday afternoon for a battle that will probably determine the Class C championship of the county. With a full line-up for the first time this season, the Owls will present a heavier line and a more experienced all around team than Hermleigh.

Hermleigh's Harless and McMillan, fast backfield men, will match their skill against Martin, Johnston and Ellis of Dunn. Hermleigh has her first football team this season, Dunn her second team.

One hundred people went from Hermleigh to Wingate Saturday afternoon to watch their Cardinals stage a come-back to tie the Wingate squad 12 to 12.

McMillan scored both Hermleigh touchdowns on off-tackle plays from midfield in the first and fourth quarters. The last touchdown was made with less than two minutes to play.

Wingate scored its first touchdown in the opening quarter on a four-yard off-tackle plunge after a 50-yard pass had been completed. The second score was on a long pass. The Hermleigh line was outplayed, but the backfield had a slight advantage except in pass defense.

Mr. and Mrs. Marel Josephson and daughter, Sandra Jean, were week-end guests of relatives in San Antonio. Mr. Josephson returned home late Sunday, and Mrs. Josephson and daughter remained until Wednesday.

Miss Irene Spears, student at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, was home for the week-end.

FIREMEN AND LIONS BATTLE TO 0-0 DRAW

Good Crowd Sees Inexperienced Teams Stage Real Ball Game As Kiddies Profit.

A net profit of $130 for the Firemen's Christmas cheer fund and the Lions Club fund for blind and near-blind children was the monetary result of the football classic of last week in Snyder when the benefit tilt was played on Tiger Stadium Friday night.

The game provided the heaviest excitement of the year for several hundred fans who crowded the high school playing field, while at least one dozen skinned shins, lame shoulders and one broken bone furnished flavoring.

A Real Ball Game.

Everyone, including the players, were peopled when they found they had paid to see a ball game instead of a mere frolic for charity. Both squads had blood in their eyes, and maybe that is the reason they could not see well enough to score a touchdown.

Although there was no scoring, there were enough threats to keep the game interesting from whistle to whistle, and not a spectator left the park between halves because of insomnia.

Shortly after the kick-off to the Lions the Firemen blocked a punt and promptly plunged the ball to the 10-yard line. The Lions suddenly started roaring and threw the offensive team for heavy losses. There were no other serious scoring threats in the first half. The Lions completed one long pass in midfield to get the ball out of their territory, but their offense bogged down after this pass completion.

Buddy Martin Featured.

Featuring Buddy Martin, who did practically everything for them throughout the night, the Firemen galloped inside the Lions' 20-yard line twice in the last half. Again the Lions roared with all their might and after the second threat the Lions took the offensive.

Two passes, Baker to Jones and Baker to Hanes, placed the ball in the Firemen's end of the field in the last quarter.

Line-ups for the game follow:

Firemen— R. E. Jones
Casey R. T. Farmer
Autry R. G. Wade
F. Jones C. Maples
Josephson L. G. Boren
Baze L. T. Lattimore
Bradbury L. E. Martin
Martin Q. B. Baker
McClinton P. B. Hanes
W. Jones R. H. B. Smyth
Smith L. H. B. Clements

Regardless of Price—The Same Personalized Service

Every year we conduct funerals in every price range. Funerals for those in the most moderate circumstances and for people of wealth. But in every instance the same expert care, the same thoughtful attention to detail, characterizes each service.

The only difference lies in the selection of the merchandise. The family alone decides what shall be the cost of the funeral.

Scurry County 4-H CLUB NEWS

W. R. Lacey, County Agent

Berry Cribbs, Fluvanna club boy, cleared $16.79 on his grade beef calf which was sold at the 4-H Club show October 31. This calf was started on feed in June and made a total gain of 345 pounds to the date of sale. In addition to the net profit of $16.49 on the demonstration, Berry received $3 as third prize in showing his animal—making a total net profit of $19.79 on the project. Berry stated to the county agent that he was preparing to enter the 1937 4-H Club show with a better animal, and that selection of his feeder calf would be done early in the spring.

E. R. Jones Jr. of Hermleigh sold his beef calf to Piggly Wiggly and also got $4 in prize money with his project.

Reginald Evans sold his prize winning pig to George Parks at 10 cents per pound, and also received $3 in prize money on his project.

POULTRY SHOW TO BE TALKED

Poultry raisers of Scurry County are invited to gather in the district court room Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock to discuss plans for a poultry show here within the next few weeks.

Several chicken fanciers report a keen interest in an exhibit this fall, especially since heavy rains have increased the feed crop and made it possible for chickens to be kept in good condition.

Enthusiasm for a poultry show was increased because of heavy attendance at the Four-H Club show last Saturday. Many poultry raisers believe that entries would be of great interest would be high, and financing would be an easy matter.

Church of Christ

Bible study, 10:00 a. m.; lesson for adult class, Matthew 15; preaching, 11:00 a. m. and 7:00 p. m.

Morning sermon subject, "The Conversion of a Backslider;" evening subject, "What Constitutes an Act of Acceptable Obedience?"

Ladies Bible class, Wednesday, 2:00 p. m.; lesson, Hebrews 3.

Prayer meeting, hot or cold, Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.; lesson, Galatians 1.

Much interest is being manifested in these studies.

There were two exceptionally large audiences present last Lord's day, when four placed membership with the local congregation.

What is a backslider? Can he be converted? Does he need conversion? When do we obey God? These important questions will be answered next Lord's day. See Psalms 122:1. Are you thus? See Hebrews 3:12. Are you thus forsaking? If so, read Hebrews 2:3. If you have forsaken the church, are you a backslider?—J. Porter Sanders, minister.

Hobbs High School Carnival Friday Is Pronounced Success

The school carnival at Hobbs Friday night proved to be an outstanding success, with overflow crowds attending the affair, which carried out the Texas Centennial theme.

Starting at 5:00 p. m. the booths, sponsored by the high school grades, opened to the public, with lunch, coffee and pie being served by the home economics class.

Main part of the program, which started at 7 p. m., began with a carnival queen. In the first race Margie Stewart, a close contender, won over the other three girls who were Oleta Weems, and Lillie Thomas.

An impressive coronation ceremony was held as Miss Marion was crowned as carnival queen. Her coronation was programed, including grades, including "Coming Through the Virginia Reel" and "Hallowe'en" followed by closing exercises.

R. K. Williams, superintendent, reports the carnival netted $110, which goes to purchase athletic equipment and school supplies. The auditorium was filled to standing room capacity for the main program, and Mr. Williams wishes to express through The Times his sincere appreciation to school patrons and The Times for making possible the success of the carnival.

Solicits for Cottage.

Mrs. Nora Odle, secretary, was in Snyder Friday to solicit contributions for the Rest Cottage Association, Pilot Point. The association maintains a home for unfortunate mothers and children.

Dickie Almost Hurt As Horse Runs Away

Dickie Jones, juvenile screen actor at Hollywood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Jones, formerly of Snyder, narrowly escaped serious injury a few days ago when the horse he was riding in a motion picture runaway scene at the Lasy A ranch at Chatsworth made the runaway a real one.

Tearing away from Beth Marion, leading woman, when she attempted to grasp the bridle, and out-distancing Kermit Maynard, leading man, "Bay Streak" carried his eight-year-old rider a mile and a half through heavy brush before stopped by cowboys.

The boy actor escaped with some scratches, and Miss Marion with rope-burned hands.

A COLD caused this!

"Colds" are dangerous! Leading doctors tell us that fifty per cent of all disabling diseases START with a "common cold." Thus the cold germ becomes America's Public Health Enemy Number One.

Any sudden change in temperature as you go from a warm room into a cold one disturbs the heat-regulating apparatus of the body and makes it susceptible to cold germ attacks. Even the brief time that it takes to answer the telephone in an unheated hall is sufficient. Fight against "colds." They create a condition of depressed physical vitality which is favorable to infection and aid the progress of serious organic diseases that frequently result in death.

If your home is inadequately heated... if you "huddle" in one room during winter, sudden temperature changes are unavoidable. Your family goes from an over-heated room where the temperature has climbed as much as ten degrees past the point necessary for comfort, into a cold hall or adjoining room; then shivering and chilled, they return to the heated room. This happens many times a day. Each time it happens they have made themselves susceptible to highly communicable winter diseases.

Fight colds this winter with proper ventilation and adequate heat in every room in the home.
