FORTY-EIGHTH YEAR.

NUMBER 33

SAYS TEXAS FARMERS SHOULD ADOPT LIVE AT HOME PROGRAM

Extension Service Director Calls It $250,000,000 Group Insurance Policy for New Year.

In planning the agricultural program for 1936, Texas farmers can and should take out a $250,000,000 group insurance policy, H. H. Williamson, director of the Texas Extension Service, said this week. This, he explained, means simply the adoption of a "live at home" program on every Texas farm. Such a program of "insured or protected" farming, outlined and stressed at all of the Extension workers conferences in December when plans for the new year were being considered, is, in the light of present conditions, especially important, he added.

Scurry County Plans.

Terracing, club work, better turkey and chicken products and markets, club work, and following of the Extension Service program for development of farm leaders are major Scurry County projects for 1936, according to W. R. Luce, county agent. "A live-at-home program is being adapted to Scurry County," he said.

"In this immediate period of uncertainty and confusion engendered by the abrupt halting of the agricultural adjustment program the economic importance of a live at home program on the farm, is emphasized more than ever," Williamson said.

"Such a program is not only economically sound but it is beyond controversy. Immediate decision on the part of farmers to adopt such a program would represent a definite and a sound step in planning for the new year, irrespective of whatever may happen insofar as government crop control is concerned."

Pondering Over Programs.

"The half million farmers in Texas today no doubt, figuratively speaking, are scratching their heads and pondering over their farm programs for 1936," Williamson continued in amplification of the need and in explaining the details of a widespread "live at home" program. "It is only a few weeks before it will be time for seed to go in the soil. There is no knowledge of the probable planting, harvest or price of farm crops for 1936. "The real purchasing power of the farmer is the difference between the cost or expenditure for production and the amount received. The cost of the food and feed consumed by the farm family and livestock has a direct bearing on the cost of production. "It has been conservatively estimated that the value of the food

Gain in Small Grains Seen in Census Report

More small grains were grown in Scurry County in 1934 than in 1929, according to preliminary figures from the 1935 federal farm census, just released by Director William L. Austin, Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce. The principal increase was in wheat, but increased acreages were also noted in grain sorghums, oats and barley.

Other highlights of the preliminary report are: Crop land harvested fell from almost 200,000 acres in 1929 to about 131,600 in 1934; there is a reduction of 1,200 in the number of mules; the number of farms and ranches has increased 39 since 1930; all crops failed on over 63,000 acres in 1934, as compared with about 4,900 acres in 1929.

Cotton Acreage Falls Most. Most of the drop in crop acreage was in cotton, but hay and sorghums for forage decreased over 12,000 acres. Wheat increased practically 4,000 acres, and production increased 647 acres, barley 205 acres, and grain sorghums over 1,800 acres.

Livestock figures as a whole changed very little between April 1, 1930, and January 1, 1935, with the exception of a reduction of 1,200 in the number of mules. The 1935 inventory of livestock shows 4,109 horses, 2,751 mules, 17,518 cattle, 16,502 sheep, and 2,789 hogs. Further figures from the report will be given in a later issue of The Times.

DEEPEST SNOW IN FOUR YEARS VISITS COUNTY

Mercury Drops to Lowest Point of Winter as Dry Flakes Drift Before Norther.

Driven much of the day before a stiff norther, a barrage of snow, dry and fluffy, was laid down in Scurry County Saturday. Most of Texas and the nation was snowed under in varying degrees.

The mercury dropped to low points Friday and Saturday nights, the lowest point of winter coming Saturday night. Eight degrees was the bottom.

The snow drifted several inches deep in places, and would probably have been two inches had it remained smooth. The government gauge registered about a quarter inch of precipitation.

Low temperatures were brief, and a minimum of damage to water pipes, stock and human-kind was reported. The plants were hit hardest by the shifting weather, suffering from people and livestock and moderate property damage, especially from accidents on icy streets and highways, being reported from many points.

Snowflakes fell intermittently from about daylight until late afternoon Saturday. Always they came dry and fluffy—so dry and fluffy that warm sun rays Sunday and later melted them quickly except where they had been drifted or made icy by traffic.

The moisture was welcomed by farmers and stockmen. None of it was lost. It was equivalent to the crop season of at least the ordinary three-quarters inch rain.

Fluvanna Hears School Chieftain Dr. L. A. Woods

Fluvanna people, along with visitors from several other communities, turned out in numbers last Thursday afternoon to hear Dr. L. A. Woods, state superintendent of public instruction. He was accompanied by Miss Madge Stanford of Abilene, deputy superintendent, and Frank Farmer, county superintendent.

Featuring the distinguished visitor's talk was the Texas Centennial and the part schools of the state will play in its success. He told of plans, especially, for a giant chorus of 50,000 school children from all parts of the state, which will perform for Centennial visitors June 13.

Superintendent Farmer said yesterday that plans are being made for Scurry County schools to send several children for participation in the chorus. He shares with Dr. Woods an intense interest in this method of selling Texas music to Texas people and other Centennial Exposition visitors.

The songs include "America," "Music in the Air," "Love's Old Sweet Song," "Beautiful Texas," "Old Pathful," "Sweet Love" and "Juanita."

The case was set for Tuesday morning at 9:00 o'clock. Frank Sentell is the plaintiff's attorney. Jim Stinson, representing Stinson, Hair, Brooks & Duke of Abilene, represents McKinney.

County Salaries And Fees Will Be Continued As Is

Salaries and fees of county officials will not be changed, the Commissioners Court decided last week.

The fee amendment to the state Constitution, passed last year, provided that commissioners' courts might, in counties of 20,000 or less, place officials on a flat salary instead of a salary and fee plan. In counties of more than 20,000, the court is required to change to the straight salary basis.

Judge H. J. Brice, who investigated possible results of the change to straight salaries, said that if the new plan were adopted it would mean an increase in every office effected, which would mean an added drain on county finances. The amendment provided that the new salary should equal at least the amount of the salary and fees in 1935. Since some fees are uncollected in practically every office, the amendment actually provided for an increase in pay to county officials.

The court heard petitions signed by two groups of citizens in Precinct No. 4 asking for closing of strips of old Highway No. 7—strips for which there is no further need because of the new highway. The petitions were granted unanimously in both cases.

A number of accounts were paid. The court authorized borrowing of $800 from the jury fund for the general fund special.

Matrimonial Knots Tied in Courthouse

The courthouse family and a dozen other persons were witnesses Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. to a wedding ceremony performed by County Judge H. J. Brice in his office.

After a simple yet forceful ritual, Judge Brice proclaimed the marriage of Mrs. Isadora Baker of Snyder and F. M. Lewis of the County Line community. The well-known couple, both of whom have passed the half-century mark, said they were very happy. They left for parts unknown to the speculators.

To complete her conquest, she was neither tardy nor absent during the last semester of her high school career.

Dr. Don Morris Of A. C. C. Talks To 21 Graduates

Rosanna Reynolds was named valedictorian of the mid-term graduating class at the close of the commencement address Friday evening. During the past two years her average grade was 93.5. Dossie Mae Caton was salutatorian with an average of 91.8.

Dr. Don Morris, vice president of Abilene Christian College, Abilene, delivered the commencement address in the presence of several hundred relatives and friends of the graduates. He was introduced by Superintendent C. Wedgeworth as the youngest college vice president in the South.

Five First Thoughts. In the course of his talk Dr. Morris gave the following five first thoughts of the graduate: School, home, country, God and yourself. Of the first he said, "You are more than a high school graduate. You are a Snyder High School graduate, and upon you rests the honor of the school."

Discussing the home, Dr. Morris gave John Howard Payne's poem, "Home, Sweet Home." "The highest type of patriotism is not war," he said in giving his views of the love of country. His illustration of love for country was John Chapman (Johnny Appleseed), as he was familiarly called, and his apple trees. When the state of Ohio created a monument to Chapman he was called the "Savior of Peace."

He urged graduates to think of God, christianity and heaven, and in closing he said, "Remember, graduates, you are the master of your fate and of your soul."

Bob Gray Gets Well Drilled Last Week

Bob Gray, peppery proprietor of Snyder's most unique rendezvous, "The Tavern," was well drilled by a pair of smart young men Saturday night.

While the crowd was heavy and business was rushing, one of the visitors played a marble machine. The other, apparently an innocent bystander, operated a small drill, punctured the side of the machine and inserted a wire. He managed to contact the "50" hole with his wire, and the pair left "The Tavern" about $1.50 to the good.

Love's Base was tipped off, and the smart young men were promptly accosted down the street. "But what could we do about it?" Lovell and Bob went to know.

The bride wore a becoming frock of powder blue trimmed with navy. Her accessories were of navy, and she wore a shoulder corsage of lovely sweet peas and lacey ferns.

Mrs. Belk has lived in Snyder all her life, and Mr. Belk came here from Cleburne nine years ago. He has a blacksmith shop just back of the Highway Garage. The couple will make their home temporarily with her parents.

Graduation guests of Miss Genevieve Jarratt, a member of the mid-term graduating class of Snyder High School, included the following: Her mother, Mrs. F. T. Jarratt; her brothers, Curtis and David, and her sister, Frances, all of Lubbock, and Paul Wilson of Abilene.

Truman Cannon Gets Five-Year Term For Sweetwater Automobile Theft

Sweetwater, January 21.—O. T. (Truman) Cannon, until a week ago the object of a wide-spread search instigated by the finding of his blood-stained and bullet-marked automobile near Snyder December 19, was convicted in district court here today on a charge of robbery and sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary.

The jury, which heard the case Monday, returned its verdict at 3:00 p. m. today. Cannon was charged with robbery in connection with the theft of an automobile from C. A. Ragan last August 7. Ragan's automobile was stolen, he testified, about 11:30 at night on the highway east of here, after he was shot at from a car behind him.

Taxicab Driver Testifies.

The second machine was a taxicab, and the driver in court identified Cannon as the passenger who had fired at a car ahead. The driver, who said he had been instructed to follow Ragan's car, said he did not know Cannon was going to shoot, and that after he did stop his car, again at Cannon's instruction, beside the second machine. The cabman said his passenger got in the other automobile and drove away and that he returned to Sweetwater.

City police testified they recovered the stolen auto and arrested Cannon in Sweetwater an hour after the theft was reported to them.

There was no defense testimony offered. Bryan Bradbury of Abilene, counsel for Cannon, moving for an instructed acquittal on the ground that the prosecution's case was inadequate in that Cannon was not in possession of the car when he was arrested.

The motion was overruled and the jury began its deliberation at 3:30 p. m. Monday.

Was Under Bond.

Cannon was under bond in the robbery case at the time he disappeared at Snyder. Monday, January 13, he returned here and surrendered to his bondsmen, telling of "aimless wanderings, not knowing where I was." He said his amnesia was induced when he was waylaid on the highway near Snyder, struck on the head with a blunt instrument and robbed of more than $550, which he had collected as a liquor salesman for a Big Spring wholesale drug firm.

Cannon appeared in district court for his trial nattily dressed and apparently in good spirits. He had no comment to make when the jury returned the verdict.

He is also under indictment on a charge of driving while intoxicated. District Attorney George Outlaw who conducted the prosecution of the robbery case, has not indicated whether he will be tried on the other charge at this time of court.

The communion service to be held at the morning worship hour will be conducted by the pastor and elders of the church. Theme for the service will be "He Took the Cup," and will be followed by the reception of new members and the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

At the Sunday school hour at 9:45 a. m. special promotion day exercises have been arranged under direction of Mrs. Dorsett and at that time certificates of promotion will be presented to those who have met the requirements for being promoted to a higher department. This program will also carry out the theme of "Young People's Day."

At the evening worship hour at 7:00 o'clock, the theme will be "Fishers of Men," and will be a continuation of the sermons on the Gospel according to St. Mark. Both young people and intermediate Christian Endeavors will meet at 6:30 p. m.—Alfred M. Dorsett, pastor.

Sinclair Station to Be Completed Soon

Bob Curmutte, the local Sinclair wholesale dealer, says his new service station on the east highway, work on which was begun two weeks ago, will be completed within a short time. The station is located on the south side of the new routing of Highway No. 7 in East Snyder. G. B. Clark Sr. is contractor for the job.

A total of between $4,000 and $5,000 will be invested in the station and equipment. In addition to expansive station room, approached by concrete drives, the building will include three rooms to be used as living quarters by the station operator.

Mrs. Randals Gives Devotional Monday.

Mrs. R. J. Randals presented a devotional on "Blessedness" at the meeting of the Ruth Anderson Auxiliary at the First Methodist Church Monday afternoon. Mrs. B. L. Kent gave a reading on stewardship to complete the program. A business session followed.

Nineteen Year Rule Effects Two Tigers

Because newly-adopted interscholastic League rules made it possible for 19-year-olds to play football next fall, two Tigers will be reinstated on Coach Red Hill's squad. Charley Morrow, end, and Dick Fowler, lineman, are the pair who will help bolster Tiger hopes. They would have been eliminated by the 18-year rule, which would have been in effect had the ruling not been changed last week.

If the eight-semester rule had been abandoned, as many coaches and school leavers wished, several other Tigers would have had an opportunity to play next fall.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN

Pity the Poor Newspapermen.
If all the political articles that are now being issued from state and national campaign headquarters were one big article, what a huge wastebasket that would take!

Suggestion to an Inventor.
The man who perfected the snore silencer should next turn his attention to a sound-prevention device that will automatically function when crooners, saxophonists and illyric sopranos get on the air.

Weekly Rooseveltism.
President Roosevelt—"The thing we are all seeking is justice in the common sense interpretation of that word—the interpretation that means 'do unto your neighbor as you would be done by.' That interpretation means justice against exploitation on the part of those who do not care much for the lives, the happiness and the prosperity of their neighbors."

The Nation Is Conquering Fire.
Snyder is not alone in her better fire record. "A decade ago," says a statistician, "the annual national fire loss was in excess of $300,000,000. Today it is less than half of that, being in the neighborhood of $250,000,000. . . . Fire can be curbed. It is perfectly possible and practical to cut the annual loss to well below $100,000,000."

Congratulations to Our Graduates.
The mid-term graduating class was one of the most energetic and capable that has left Snyder High School in several years. Its play was pleasing to a large audience; its issue of the Tiger's Tale was praiseworthy; its four-year record for scholarship was outstanding. So The Times congratulates, and hopes for each class member a full measure of post-graduation success.

How to Save Gasoline.
Engineers of one of the country's largest automobile manufacturing concerns call attention to nine practices which contribute most to unnecessarily high gasoline consumption: Starting unnecessarily often, driving with choke on, tramping on the accelerator, too much second gear driving, accelerating on hills, fast driving against wind, sustained high speed driving, idling motor, and too fast driving on slippery road.

Reducing Traffic Accidents.
A nation-wide effort to reduce traffic accidents is netting quick results. All branches of the motor industry are uniting with nationally-recognized safety agencies in a coordinated working program. Colleges and college students are joining in the crusade. Women's clubs, civic clubs, governments, individuals. If these joint efforts continue, highways and streets may again become avenues of pleasure and relaxation.

Oil Activity on the Upgrade.
After several sluggish months, Scurry County oil activity appears to be on the up-and-up. Most of us have learned not to get excited about oil tests, although county landowners have shown a remarkable degree of cooperation with oil concerns seeking drilling rights. But we are still sitting on the sidelines with the confident hope that a field of likely proportions will eventually be found beneath the surface of our home county.

Tillie Takes Her Choice.
Talkative Tillie says she'll be riding an airplane every chance she gets, even if a serious accident happens occasionally. "For," says she, "statistics show that it's really safer to ride in a plane than it is to drive a car on a highway, do your daily home work or walk across city street intersections. Besides, I'd rather die dead because of mechanical trouble in the air than to be half-mangled by a drunken driver's hit-and-run machine."

What's Happening to Our Soil.
A sample of a major farm activity in Texas this season: From Brown County come reports that soil conservation work was carried on affecting 417 acres on 11 farms in December. A tour was arranged on which 83 farmers and Four-H Club boys visited four soil conservation demonstrations. If the soil is really the root of our prosperity, as nearly everyone is saying, certainly there should be manifold plans to conserve it for present and future generations.

Farm Leaders in Unison.
Never in history have national farm leaders united so harmoniously in a declaration of a protective policy for agriculture as in the national farm conference in Washington January 10-11, according to Texas farmers who attended. Republican and diehard opinions to the contrary, the vast bulk of American farmers and their leaders are believers in the fundamental principle of the AAA . . . and you may look for a continuation of a modified AAA program for 1936.

Connally Asks a Question.
"When the manufacturer cannot compete in the domestic market with imported goods the government gives him an import tariff in order that he may do so," said Senator Tom Connally recently in discussing the export debenture farm relief plan as a substitute for farm relief legislation. "If the farmer cannot compete in foreign markets, why not give him an export tariff to equalize conditions and enable him to buy manufactured articles which cost him more by reason of the tariff."

"He Liked It All."

Rudyard Kipling, renowned English writer who died last week, left many poems, short stories and novels for the centuries. But he left, to those who knew him intimately or indirectly, an abiding love for humanity and the world in which humanity lives.

This world-straddling love was expressed in one of Kipling's poems, "He Liked It All."

He liked it all. He was akin to Will Rogers in that respect. He saw the humor and the folly, the hate and the love, the injustice and the patriotism, the beauty and the sordidness of it all. Yet he liked it all.

What a glorious world this would be if it could be said of every man, "He liked it all!"

Do you like it all? Do you like the country in which you live? Do you overlook the claims and counter-claims of politicians, and see through the fog a country that still has its eyes to the front, a country that will continue to grow and prosper, no matter whether Democrats or Republicans are at the helm?

Do you like it all? Do you like the state of Texas, with its 100 years of glorious history and unparalleled growth? Do you like its folks and its plains and its hills and its valleys and its opportunities?

Do you like it all? Do you like Scurry County and West Texas, where hospitality reigns supreme, where a man's a man for a' that, where the bulk of folks are law-abiding and God-worshipping? Do you like your neighbors and your school and your pastor and your whole bloomin' family? Do you like the land you work or the store you tend or the house you keep or the office you maintain?

Do you like it all? Do you like the very opportunity of living with other human beings on God's created earth . . . in a country, a state, a neighborhood that is largely what you make it?

CURRENT COMMENT

One of the toughest problems the Democratic National Committee has faced until recently was the huge party fund deficit, created at a crucial political moment, and amounting to $400,000. . . . Last fall baldish pated W. Forbes Morgan pondered a way out of debt, for as secretary of the Democratic committee, he had utterly failed to dig up contributions from the wealthy, and besides the party owed the embarrassing amount of $35,000 to John J. Raskob. . . . Then Forbes decided: Why not eat up the deficit? . . . Ballyhoo banquets in every city, charge as much as loyal Democrats would pay. . . . Chairman Farley fell for the idea, and a young member of the party, Frank Kiekem, was selected to work out details. . . . Andrew Jackson's birthday seemed a great dinner day, so last week Democrats in 2,000 odd communities gathered to eat up the deficit, listen to 1936 campaign plans, made in the face of minor strife in the party. . . . As usual, Georgia's New Deal hating Eugene Talmadge refused to attend, the only discordant note struck.

In most cities party members paid $5 for $2 dinners, in New York $25 per plate, with the party of parties given at Washington's crusty Mayflower Hotel. . . . There 2,000 banquetees paid $50 per head, $45 of each plate going to the war chest. . . . Washington dinners alone netted $95,000, and with 2,000 more added in, the party had eaten up $250,000 of the deficit. . . . Then Philadelphia climaxed the Jackson Day events by giving Farley a $200,000 check for the national convention nomination city. . . . June 23 is the date set for renomination, and in a rousing 24-hour party loyal Democrats found themselves out of the red for the first time since 1923. . . . Now with finances ironed out, the party finds itself in the best fiscal condition as of recent years. . . . And it dates back to the idea Mr. Morgan had the members should eat the deficit up.

EDITORIAL OF THE WEEK

JANUARY TREES.
There is no wind at the edge of the wood, and the few flakes of snow that fall from the overcast sky flutter as they drop, now one side higher, then the other, as the leaves did in the still hours of autumn. The delicacy of the outer boughs of the great trees visible against the dark background of cloud is as beautiful in its own way as the massed foliage of summer. Each slender bough is drawn out to a line; line follows line as shade grows under the pencil, but each of these lines is separate. Great boles of beech, heavy timber at the foot, thus end at their summits in the lightest and most elegant penicilling. Where the birches are tall, sometimes the number and closeness of these bare sprays causes a thickening almost as if there were leaves there. The leaves, in fact, when they come, conceal the finish of the trees; they give color, but they hide the beautiful structure under them.—From "January in Sussex Woods" by Richard Jefferies.

Congressman Jeff Davis of Arkansas never lost a campaign. "In case you come down to the capital," he told them, "don't go to a hotel. Just come out to my house and make it your home." They believed him.—Nation's Business.

Dr. Estes Will Be Honor Guest At Family Night

The second "Family Night" of the First Presbyterian Church, scheduled for Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock, will be featured by the presence of Dr. Charles W. Estes of Eastland, moderator of the Presbytery of Abilene, of which Snyder is a part.

Presence of this honor guest is especially significant because Dr. Estes is to preside at the meetings of the Abilene Presbytery to be held in the local church in April.

"Family Night," a recently established quarterly event, always precedes the quarterly communion service, and is a time for fellowship when members and friends of the church become better acquainted with each other and with the new members of the church.

"Every member and friend of the church is invited to bring a lunch and come to the church, where a full evening's entertainment will be provided after the supper is finished," according to the pastor, Rev. Alfred M. Dorsett. "This event is for every member of the church family, regardless of age."

Governor Pardons Local Groceryman; Fred Won't Accept

Fred Wilhelm was granted an unconditional pardon last week, but he wouldn't take it. "I've been a prisoner for 31 years," he told a Times news hawk who looked into the matter, "and I've decided not to back out this late in life."

The veteran groceryman wrote to Wilbourne B. Collier, president of the state Senate, when that official was governor for a brief period due to absence from the state of Governor Alfred and Lieutenant Governor Woodul. "Thirty-one years in the grocery business is a long time," Fred wrote to Austin, "and I'd like to ask for a pardon if it can possibly be granted."

Collier, long a friend of the Wilhelm family, wrote that he would do anything within his power for old friendship's sake.

But the pardon was flatly turned down by Fred. "I just changed my mind," he said. "I appreciate Wilbourne's interest, but I told him to pardon some other hardened criminal in my place."

Collie Battling for Criminal Code Bills

Says the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's Austin observer: Senator W. B. Collier Eastland, has not given up the battle for his criminal code bills, which seek to liberalize the code all down the line, and for which purpose he has prepared 16 bills. These measures were offered in the last regular session, but like hundreds of others died on the calendar. The principal objective of the series of bills is in Collier's own words, "to give society more protection and criminals less." Should they become effective, the proposed laws would compel state courts to operate similarly to federal courts.

Mrs. W. H. Canible and daughter, Helen, of Aspermont, former residents of Snyder, visited friends here early this week.

on your winter gasoline

If you work your starter only eight or ten times a day, from now till March 21st, that will be 400 to 500 starts altogether. Let's say you only cut your time in half on each start, using Winter Blend Conoco Bronze gasoline. Even so, that's something like saving your battery 250 starts before next Spring!

Right there Conoco Bronze might easily save you the price of a battery, or the fuss and expense of re-charging. Besides, you choke less, with Conoco Bronze, so you will not waste gasoline, or risk the life of your engine. And neither will your oil get so thin that you change it too often—another good saving.

Now Conoco Bronze costs you only the same as a gasoline you might buy for no special reason at all. Then isn't this a fair request: test a tankful of sure-start Conoco Bronze. Continental Oil Company, Established 1875

Dick Henderson Is Asking Re-election As Public Weigher

Dick Henderson, who is serving his first term as public weigher in Precinct No. 1, announces this week as a candidate for re-election, subject to action of the Democratic primaries.

"When I announced two years ago as a candidate for public weigher, I pledged only that I would guarantee courtesy, honesty and efficiency in office. I have done my best to carry out that pledge, and I leave it up to the voters as to how I have succeeded. "If elected again, I shall continue to conduct duties of my office according to the best of my ability. I solicit the continued support of my friends and neighbors."

G. H. Bishop Asks Support of Voters In Race for Sheriff

To the voters of Scurry County: I am asking you for your votes and influence for sheriff of Scurry County. I have lived here among you for 25 years, and claim to be a law-abiding citizen. I think I understand how to handle all classes of people, and if you elect me I will be sheriff for everybody alike.

I had a sheriff's race in the spring of 1897 when George Baiton was sheriff at Brownwood. I had to pay a $9.70 fine for fighting. George wanted me at town. My pal found it out, so I got my steel-dust horse and rode into town. The sheriff said he wanted to see me. I told him to take a look. He said, "Come pay your fine." I said, "Catching's before hanging," and rode around the square.

He got his horse and took after me. He ran me through Springtown, pulled his gun on me. I held my horse about 50 yards ahead. He ran me a mile and stopped. I waved my hat for him to come on. He came in 90 yards of me again, but I kept my distance on him.

We came to Jim Neel Creek, turned up the creek west. By this time it was getting dark. I rode up a draw south. The sheriff kept going west. I turned east and went home.

Next morning I rode into town and paid my fine. The sheriff said, "George, the next time, I'll get you." "All right—I had $9.70 worth of fun."

I am choosing a steel-dust horse to run this race, and hope to win it. Thank you.

Your friend,
G. H. BISHOP.

Mrs. Williamson Is Seeking Re-election To Treasurer Place

I take great pleasure in making this formal announcement of my candidacy for a second term as treasurer of Scurry County.

First, I wish to express my appreciation to all of my friends and supporters who honored me with this office at last election. I have greatly enjoyed the work and the contacts with the people of the county during this term. I have endeavored to perform the duties of my office with the greatest degree of efficiency and courtesy that it is humanly possible to command. I want the people of the county to be the judge of my merits as an office holder, and if I have rendered a satisfactory service, I shall greatly appreciate the vote and influence of each of you in the coming elections. Again thanking you for the courtesies shown me and the trust put upon me, I am,

Respectfully yours,
MRS. OTTO S. WILLIAMSON.

Growth Seen In Texas Insurance Company Report

Unusual conditions of the past five years have had a marked effect on the investment portfolios of life insurance companies. While few companies have increased in size, measured by total insurance in force, changes in the character of assets of some companies are apparent.

A brief analysis of the balance sheet of Southwestern Life, the first of the large Texas companies to publish its annual statement, reveals a high degree of liquidity. The net liability to policyholders is less than 27 millions. The company owns securities valued conservatively at 30 millions. Of this amount, 15 millions is represented by U. S. government bonds, cash, and the highest grade state, county and municipal obligations, which could be sold in today's market for a million dollars more than the amount at which they are carried in the balance sheet. The remaining 15 millions is invested in first mortgage loans on Texas real estate. In addition the company owns real estate, including its home office building, worth about three millions.

Five years ago Southwestern Life had only about one-ninth as much invested in bonds, but owned one-third more real estate mortgages than it does today.

The gain in insurance in force for 1935 is approximately the same as for 1934, and the company is now larger than at any previous time in its history, with a total of 288 millions of insurance on the lives of approximately 140,000 Texas citizens. During recent years the amount of the average policy has decreased slightly. The rate of mortality for 1935 among Southwestern Life policyholders was almost the same as for the previous year. Lapses are steadily decreasing and loans against policies have remained at about the same level.

Increasing liquidity of assets has resulted in lower interest earnings, but the net return for 1935 was 4 1/2 per cent, which the company considers highly satisfactory under present conditions. W. A. and Maude DeBald are local agents for the company.

Damage $95,000 in Cotton Fire at Post

Fire of undetermined origin, discovered early Friday morning, at Post, destroyed the warehouse of the Garza County Warehouse and Marketing Association, a farmer owned group, together with between 1,400 and 1,500 bales of cotton. Loss was estimated at nearly $95,000. The blaze started outside the warehouse in ten bales of cotton left there by a customer after the warehouse had closed for the night. Only four of these bales were saved; none of the bales inside were saved. Flames burned brightly until daylight, and ruins were smoldering at noon.

Arlie Biggs Comes Out This Week for City Marshal's Job

The city marshal's race added a new name this week. It is A. P. (Arlie) Biggs, native of Scurry County and a Snyder business man for eight years.

Born and reared in this county, Biggs believes he knows the needs and the wishes of the people in regard to law enforcement, and he promises, if elected, to serve as a peace officer without fear or favor. He has been a member of the volunteer fire department for five years, and is now serving as secretary of the organization.

The candidate plans to make a city-wide canvass, and says he will do his best to see every voter in Snyder.

"The vote and influence of every citizen is solicited, and I will appreciate any support given me during the campaign," Biggs said in making his announcement.

EMERGENCY HOSPITAL

An eight-pound baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Horace Crumley of Northeast Snyder Friday night. Mrs. Crumley and her son are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson Durham of Fluvanna are the parents of a baby girl, born in the Emergency Hospital early Tuesday morning. Mrs. Benson and the baby were moved home late Tuesday, and are fine, according to friends.

Hugh Fambro of Ira entered the hospital Saturday night after an automobile accident between Snyder and Ira. He was treated for cuts on his head and face.

Following a car wreck Monday night, a colored man, Richard Spears, was in the hospital for severe cuts on his head and face. He remained until Tuesday.

Relief Office Moved.

Relocation of relief districts of the Texas Relief Commission to correspond with Works Progress Administration divisions has resulted in removal of district offices in a wide West Texas area to Abilene. F. A. Wells is in charge of the new consolidated district, which includes Scurry County.

Substitute Plan For Triple A On Way Says Mahon

"A practicable farm program can and must be worked out, the Supreme Court notwithstanding; however, the far-reaching effects of the decision must not be underestimated. The fight for equality of agriculture has only begun."

Thus stated Congressman George Mahon in commenting upon the Supreme Court decision which ruled the Agricultural Adjustment Administration unconstitutional recently. He is now in Washington.

"I am confident that Congress will pass a bill now pending which provides for taking care of obligations already outstanding where the producer has complied with the terms of his contract. Such action is a responsibility which the federal government must assume, and action along this line should be expected in a very short time."

In discussing a possible substitute for the AAA program, Mr. Mahon said, "It will no doubt be a matter of several weeks before a definite plan can be worked out. I am going to work with our farmers, the House committee on agriculture, and Department of Agriculture officials, in an effort to assist in developing a workable program that will help to maintain the progress realized under the AAA during the last three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Heath of Nevada City, California, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crawley.

100,000 Club Is Chief Topic For Baptist Workers

With "The 100,000 Club" as their chief topic of discussion, 300 pastors and laymen of the Mitchell-Snyder Association gathered at the First Baptist Church Tuesday for what Pastor Lawrence Hays describes as one of the most inspirational Pastors' sessions in many months. Remarkable results during the past year were reported for the club that was formed to help clear Southern Baptist of heavy indebtedness. Carrying out the theme, a sermon on "Our Universal Debtorship to a Lost World" was preached at 10:00 a. m. by Rev. W. S. Gornett of Big Spring. Rev. James Easterwood of Roscoe discussed "The 100,000 Club, Its Origin, Plan, Receipts, Goal, Enrollment."

Rev. P. D. O'Brien of Colorado talked on "The Cooperative Program." Rev. J. F. Fields of Snyder led a song and prayer service. The morning session was concluded with the day's key sermon, "The Master's Map of Missions," by Rev. A. C. Powell of the University Baptist Church, Abilene.

After a hearty lunch, held in the church basement by members of the Woman's Missionary Union, another period of song and praise was led by Rev. Fields. "The Sunday School Enlargement Campaign" was the topic of Rev. J. Willis Ray of Big Spring, district missionary.

Various features of "The Plan of Work for 1936" were discussed by association leaders, as follows: Baptist Training Union, Ernest Winman, Roscoe; W. M. U., Mrs. C. B. Reed, Lorraine; the Brotherhood, T. D. Wiman, Wastella; Mexican Missions, Rev. Forest Huffman, Snyder; district finance, Rev. H. B. Naylor, Champion. Rev. E. P. Gou-

Refreshing Relief When You Need a Laxative

Because of the refreshing relief it has brought them, thousands of men and women, who could afford much more expensive laxatives, use Black-Draught when needed. It is very economical, purely vegetable, highly effective. . . Mr. J. Lester Roberson, well known hardware dealer at Martinsville, Va., writes: "I certainly can recommend Black-Draught as a superior medicine. I have taken it for constipation and the dull feelings that follow, and have found it very satisfactory."

supply of the average farm family of five, provided it is well balanced, has a retail value of approximately $500 a year. This means that the farm table market of Texas is worth $250,000,000, which is equal in value to five million bales of cotton at 10 cents a pound.

The Extension Service is recommending that each farm family, insofar as possible, take out a $500 protection policy by including in their 1936 farm program such features as will make possible the production and storing of an adequate food supply for home use. This is equivalent to group insurance.

"If such a program could be carried out completely by each of the half million families it would mean approximately 250,000 acres of garden and truck crops for home use, 250,000 acres in half acre plots of fruit for home use, twenty-five million hens for an adequate supply of eggs and poultry for home use, one million head of hogs of average weight for the smoke house for next winter and a daily consumption of milk on the farm of at least a million gallons.

Not Sufficient Alone. "It will be recognized that such a program as outlined is not sufficient within itself. It must be part of a larger program. There must be a cash income, but no part of the cash income, large or small,

A MATTER OF CONFIDENCE . . .

The Funeral Director who does not win the trust and confidence of his clientele is doomed to early failure. Like the doctor, his standing in the community depends entirely on the faith people have in his good judgment, professional skill and complete dependability.

Through the years we have built a solid foundation of public confidence. Clients know that our service does not begin and end with the individual case; that we meet later obligations honestly and with an honest desire to serve as capably as we can.

That is why a funeral entrusted to this firm is handled efficiently and with a strict regard to the wishes of our clients. In such a policy lies the reason for our continued success.
