DOUBLE DOSE PROGRAM FOR SERVICE CLUB

Trip to Fluvanna Next Tuesday Is Planned by Lions; Scouts Invite and Challenge.

Boy Scouts, a trip to Fluvanna, unemployment and social security legislation, and a variety of visitors—not to mention baked chickens—were in the Lion Club menu Tuesday at noon.

Several members of Boy Scout Troop No. 35, which is sponsored by the club, visited for a few minutes, led by Scoutmaster James E. Spivey. Chalmers Watkins, spokesman, invited the Lions to be guests of the scouts at the county championship basketball game Tuesday night of next week, and also challenged the Lions to play a follow-up basketball game with troop members.

The scouts warmly thanked the Lions for their financial and other support, and said the ball game treat was in partial repayment for this assistance.

Lions will meet on the north side of the square next Tuesday at 11:15 o'clock in preparation for a trip to Fluvanna, where all members will be entertained at a luncheon given in the school building. One hundred per cent attendance was urged by President Frank Farmer.

Hermon Eary, secretary of the club, carrying out the 1937 plan of members giving talks on their business or profession, discussed duties of the tax collector-assessor's office, in which he is deputy, and outlined the growth and nature of accountancy, which he termed one of the county's youngest professions.

L. Thurmond Krueger, field representative of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission, was a club guest. He discussed phases of the new Texas unemployment law and of the federal government's new social security legislation.

Other guests of the day were: Jim Montgomery, Brud Boren, Ernest Yeatts and E. W. Warren, Snyder; George P. Williams and John B. Darnell, Sweetwater.

Baptist Workers to Colorado Church in Meeting for March

Colorado was selected Tuesday afternoon at Buford as the place for the March meeting of Baptist workers of the Mitchell-Scurry Association. Local attendants report a well attended, highly spiritual meeting at Buford this week.

One of the most interesting reports of the day was given by Rev. E. P. Gonzalez, Mexican missionary for the district. The regular district missionary, Rev. J. J. Strickland of Big Springs, also gave a full report of his activities.

"Holy Spirit" was the theme of the all-day meeting. Lawrence Dever of Snyder had charge of the song service, and Rev. R. E. Bratten led the devotional. Rev. Cone Merritt talked at 10:30 on "The Holy Spirit's Work in the Christian." "The Holy Spirit's Work with the Lost" was discussed by Rev. Clyde Childers of Westbrook. Rev. G. W. Parks of Roscoe preached the morning sermon.

After a sumptuous lunch was served by Buford women, board and W. M. U. meetings were held. Rev. Capps of Lorraine gave the concluding sermon.

Sidney Johnson Is Buyer at Wimberly

Sidney Johnson, Scurry County rancher, purchased Mabelle 44th, straight line bred heifer, at Wimberly Hereford Farm sale of 40 head at Sweetwater Monday. The sale was held at the fair grounds sale pavilion.

Johnson paid $475 for the animal—one of the three top heifers in the sale of choice Herefords. Mabelle 44th was calved June 8, 1935.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were in Albany for the big Hereford sale there Wednesday. They continued to Fort Worth on a business trip.

Local Supervisor Reviews What Administration Has Done and Hopes to Do.

In an interview with Vernon Slocomb, local supervisor for the Resettlement Administration, The Times learns something of what the Resettlement Administration has accomplished and what it hopes to accomplish.

It has helped over 950,000 families, comprised of more than 4,000,000 people, with the average loan of $200 to a family, amounting to less than the cost of relief for a year. Over 1,000,000 people are again self-supporting. They are able to carry on without further aid from any governmental agency; they are again paying their share of taxes instead of being a constant drain on the local communities.

Loans Only One Phase.

Loans for crop production purposes are, however, only one phase of resettlement work; land ownership being the final goal. Considering the fact, however, that there are 286,000 tenant farmers in Texas alone, it is easy to see that providing land for them is a program of many years.

The most ambitious plan yet suggested would appropriate fifty million dollars of federal funds each year, the supervisor said, and Texas share would be only around 1,000 farms a year. In the meanwhile, we must help the other low-income tenant farmers to improve their present status.

Means of improving the tenant's situation, include longer terms of leasing, in order that the tenant may become more closely attached to a specific piece of land, in the care and improvement of which he will take personal interest.

Assists in Buying.

Another step, which has been taken in Texas for more than 32,000 tenants, is to assist them in purchase of lands and tools, thus removing them from the class of share-croppers dependent upon their landlord for "furnishing."

Only the highest type of tenants are now being selected for purchase of farms, said Slocomb. Fifty have been nominated for the whole state, out of 588 to be provided with farms under this year's allocations.

These 59 nominees have been located on their present farms an average of six years, as compared with the fact that less than half of Texas' tenant farmers have been on their present farms more than one year," he said. "Those nominees have average net assets of $1,421, mostly in tools and tools. Their average is 40 years.

FARMERS GET FACTS ON FDA

Several debt distressed farmers met with the farm debt adjustment committee and Hush P. Weaver, district farm debt adjustment supervisor, Tuesday, to work out plans to give them relief from urgent financial problems. Several creditors also attended the meeting, and Weaver says he expects the committee to be able to help all these farmers find a way out of their problem without asking the creditors for unjust concessions.

Many of these farmers need nothing more than sound financial advice, and the farm debt adjustment committee serves as financial advisers only, as they have no money to lend.

Farmers making any financial move, including new or renewal of loans, are at liberty to ask the committee for their advice. The committee in this county are: Ben F. Smith, Giles Bowers and Joe Catton of Snyder. The committee meets regularly every 30 days, and have special meetings any time they are needed.

First Postmaster at Hamlin Is Interred

M. H. Johnson, 62, of Olton, died Tuesday afternoon in a Lubbock hospital. First postmaster of Hamlin and a pioneer of that Jones County town, Mr. Johnson had been farming near Olton for three years.

Funeral services were to be held at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Hamlin Natarene Church. Rev. Jones of Olton was to officiate, assisted by Rev. J. F. Rutherford and Rev. J. A. Young of Hamlin. Maples Funeral Home prepared the body here, and had charge of burial arrangements.

Mr. Johnson's wife died 26 years ago. Survivors included three sons, Mabelle of Hamlin and O. C. and Neely of Sweetwater.

The Long and the Short of In-Laws

"Yep, that's the long and the short of it," C. M. Eley of Snyder may tell you as he recalls two of his son-in-laws in California. Believe it or not, his statement is all truth and no poetry.

For Bill Long of Los Angeles, who married Mr. and Mrs. Eley's daughter Mildred, is really shorter by far than Charley Short, who married the Eley's daughter Carrie, now of Quincy.

Although the local man is long on his son-in-laws, he says he and his wife think just as much of Charley Short as they do of Bill Long.

In short, the story of these Long and Short son-in-laws must end before it gets too long.

McClinton & Noble Opening Feed Store

Snyder has a new feed store. It has just been opened a block north of the square on "Jackass Alley," with Howell McClinton and Charley Noble as proprietors.

McClinton and Noble are continuing their livestock buying, in which they have been engaged for some time, at their new location.

Legion Talks Big Feed.

At its regular session last week the American Legion discussed plans for one of the biggest social "feeds" of the year, to be held early in March. Several out-of-town visitors are anticipated, says Commander Hal A. Lattimore.

This project was given new importance several days ago, with announcement that work will probably begin soon on extension of the paved route from Colorado to Robert Lee.

Four Churches Will Join in Observance of Special Prayer

An inter-denominational committee has announced plans for the observance in Snyder of the World Day of Prayer Friday of this week.

The formal service will be at 10:00 o'clock a. m. in the basement of the First Baptist Church, at which time there will be a program in which delegations from four of the local churches will take part.

Following this hour-long service, the church basement will be kept open and heated for those who may desire to drop in for a short period of personal devotion and prayer. This open door period will extend until 3:00 o'clock p. m., and it is hoped that many will come to this central point and pause for a few moments in prayer for the work of Christ throughout the world.

It is appropriate also that this be made a time of special intercession for the ones of our nation who have so recently suffered the devastation of flood and storm.

LOCAL PRESS GROUP PLANS ABILENE TRIP

On February 12, delegates from the Press Club will attend the Texas High School Press Association at Abilene. The leading schools of Texas will be represented.

Classes in Typing, Other Subjects Are Being Offered Free

Fifty have already enrolled for free classes in typing, shorthand, spelling, arithmetic and English at the American Legion meeting place, over Winston & Clements, and others are solicited to take advantage of the classes.

This word came yesterday from Mrs. Emmett Hargroves and Mrs. Lucile Smith, who are teaching the classes under WPA sponsorship. They say plenty of room is available for larger classes. Classes meet Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, 2:00 to 5:00 o'clock.

The meeting place was made available by the American Legion at its regular meeting last Thursday, and the local post assisted in making the free classes available to those who wish to take any portion of the work.

Mrs. Hargroves and Mrs. Smith ask The Times to thank the legionnaires in their behalf, for their assistance in making the classes available.

Affiliated Schools Checked This Week

Scurry County's affiliated schools are being checked this week by Miss Madge Stanford, assistant state superintendent, who is being accompanied and assisted by Frank Farmer, county superintendent.

These inspections are for the purpose of determining the schools' classification for the coming school year.

Schools that are being visited are: Snyder, Hermleigh, Fluvanna, Ira, Dunn and Pyron.

SURVEY MADE FOR IRA LINE

A survey that may lead to a rural electrification line into Ira, from the Dunn highline, is being made this week by a Texas Electric Service Company crew. Ira, as well as other communities southwest to southeast of Snyder, have been promised lines if they secure enough subscribers.

Erection of poles for the highline through Buford and Dunn is practically complete, and it is reported that wire is being strung near Buford.

A group of China Grove citizens was in Snyder Tuesday to continue their efforts looking toward electric service in their community.

Sentell Chickens Take Top Prizes At Merkel Event

C. F. Sentell's single comb Rhode Island Reds took five out of seven grand championships and several other honors at the annual poultry show at Merkel February 3-6. Out of 15 birds exhibited by the local breeder, 13 were winners. Three hundred birds competed in the show, which recorded keen competition among high quality entrants.

A pullet exhibited for the first time took top honors in her class, then was selected as grand champion pullet of the entire show, with 108 pulls competing.

Mr. Reschar, band director, received a wire from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reschar, Jeffersonville, Indiana—located just across the river from Louisville—on January 25. This was a wire reporting they were safe.

In a following letter, they told him: On January 22, Mrs. Reschar was taken from her home in a boat to the American Legion headquarters. Mr. Reschar, who is in the postal service, was on duty from 5:00 o'clock Friday morning, January 22, until 2:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon. He was working in the post office, without relief.

From the American Legion headquarters, Mrs. Reschar was moved twice, both times to higher ground. Finally she was taken by train to Sellersburg, a town about 10 miles distant. From there she went to the home of relatives, where she was joined in a few days by her husband.

For four of these days, Mr. and Mrs. Reschar were separated, neither knowing where the other was.—Tiger's Tale.

Founders' Day Will Be Observed by Local P.-T. A. Thursday, February 18

Founders' Day will be observed by the local chapter of Parents-Teachers Association Thursday, February 18, at its regular meeting. The program will commemorate the founding of National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Special tribute will be paid on the occasion not only to founders of the national movement, but also to those who were instrumental in forming various state branches and local organizations.

National organization of parents and teachers was perfected at a meeting held in New York City on February 17, 1897. Texas, Rhode Island and Mississippi, which were among the last states added to the national congress, were admitted in 1909. This year marks the 40th anniversary of the national congress, and next week's meeting will commemorate its organization.

Mrs. B. M. West will direct the Founders' Day program, which will be presented in the local school auditorium February 18 at 4:00 o'clock. Miss Mattie Mae Tomlinson and Mrs. King Sides will be in charge of music to open the program. A one-act play directed by Mrs. West is entitled "A Founders' Day Ceremony," and will be presented by a cast of eight characters.

The tree-planting ceremony will be in charge of Mrs. W. R. Bell, who will give the dedicatory talk following a vocal solo, "Trees," by Mrs. W. W. Smith, soprano. A pecan tree is to be planted in the school park and dedicated to the memory of Mrs. C. Wedgeworth, wife of the local superintendent, who was active in P.-T. A. work during the years she lived in the community.

Perfected organization of the local Parents-Teachers Association took place about 1916, and it has been an outstanding civic group of the city since that time. Such work had not been carried on under state and national regulations before that time, even though the work was organized locally possibly two years previous to 1916.

Among active leaders of early organization of the local P.-T. A. were Mrs. A. W. Waddill (then Mrs. C. C. Higgins), Mrs. Fred A. Grayum, Mrs. E. J. Anderson and Mrs. J. T. Whitmore, all of whom are past presidents of the organization.

Mrs. J. Nelson Dunn, president of the local chapter for the past year and a half, is eager to have a number of the veteran P.-T. A. workers, as well as a large group of present members and other school patrons, attend the special ceremonies. An invitation is issued to all patrons to attend the memorial services.

R. L. Grays Are Hosts to 42 Club.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gray were host and hostess to members of the Friendly Fellows Forty-two Club and guests at their home last Thursday evening with a lovely Valentine party.

Club members present included Messrs. and Mrs. W. R. Bell, W. W. Smith, Wade Winston, W. J. Ely and E. J. Brice.

Guests were the following: Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Grady Shytle, Miss Lary Beth Waskon, Mrs. P. C. Chenault, Messrs. and Mrs. Fred A. Grayum, Sterling Williams, Hugh Boren, H. P. Brown, A. C. Preult, W. H. Hamilton, Joe Stinson, Sidney Johnson, E. J. Randals and E. J. Anderson.

Interesting Book Reviewed for Club.

"Spring Came on Forever," novel by Beas Streeter Aldrich, was the theme of discussion for members of the Cresset Junior Club at its regular meeting Tuesday night. Mrs. Harry McManey was hostess to the club at her home three miles west of Snyder.

Mrs. Willard E. Lewis directed the program. Mrs. Buster Curtis gave an interesting discussion of an autobiography of Mrs. Aldrich, called "How I Mix Stories With Doughnuts." Clever working and unique thoughts combined with actual facts were outstanding in the article.

The director gave the book review. Historical facts in the story, which covers a period of more than 70 years, combined with romance of a beautiful girl who fell in love with a man her father refused to let her marry, made a beautiful story. The two members of pioneer families, finally saw their love realized in the marriage of her great-grandson to his granddaughter. The story is described by reviewers as "refreshing like the spring," and the book has filled its expectancy as becoming Mrs. Aldrich's most popular work.

Allene Curry completed the program with discussions of several reviews of the story. The hostess was assisted by Mr. Jack Wright in serving a salad plate with cookies and coffee to the following: Mrs. Robert E. Gray Jr., sponsor, Frances Boren, Mrs. Buster Curtis, Mrs. Willard Lewis, Vernelle Bradbury, Mrs. Jack Martin, Mrs. Buddy Martin, Irene Wolcott and Allene Curry.

LET'S TALK ABOUT CLOTHES

BY A YOUNG MODERN

Beige has staged one of the most exciting and successful revivals of fashion. Beige clothes fill shop windows and cause more fur than a new hat. Beige suits, stunning two-piece wool outfits to wear under a black Persian lamb fur coat with telling distinction, slim dresses with demure high necklines, and swagger coats to wear over straight line black wool dresses are a few of the new beige numbers.

It's a warm, magically flattering tone of beige, nicely flatteringly tone of beige, to be exact. The wools are soft, feminine and smooth, and the clothes are flawless. Dull black ball buttons fasten the prim front of a beige jacket blouse top to a skippy straight skirt, and a dull black silk ascot muffles the throat.

Another beige wool one-piece dress that is a favorite with girls at Texas State College for Women (CIA), Denton, has one of those tricky swathed necklines, short sleeves, a pencil straight skirt, and not a sign of plait, tuck or trimming. This makes an ideal dress for daytime to wear with dark accessories for fur or wool coats.

Beige dramatized with black is a knockout! You can buy beige fitted jackets with black wool skirts, and you will find swagger coats of beige wool with chevron shaped pockets outlined with a black zipper, the zipper ending in coal black wool tassels.

You'll find beige topcoats that end at the kneeline, or short and smartly made coats that end at the thigh made with braided edges or tuxedo collar, cuffs and pockets. These are lined with black silk, and you can wear them with anything.

Dignity Reigns at Annual Program Presented by National Honor Groups

Dignity reigned at the annual formal assembly program held jointly Friday morning by Snyder High School chapters of National Honor Society and National Junior Honor Society, after members of the two groups, dressed in formal robes, marched to the front of the auditorium to the strains of the processional played by Mrs. W. C. Hillis.

Active members of the senior organization wore royal purple robes, and juniors were dressed in white. To open the program, Wallace Smith blew "Taps," preceding the processional. The group of honor students was headed by Superintendent C. Wedgeworth, Principal King Sides and Rev. James E. Spivey, main speaker for the program.

Virginia Egerton Presides. Virginia Egerton, outstanding member of the older group, presided for the formal program, which held junior high and senior high school students in the auditorium at attention for more than an hour and a half.

A discussion of "Standards of National Honor Societies" was given by Ruth Davis; history of the senior chapter was by Doris Davis; and Dorothy Winston gave the history of the junior organization in local schools.

Main address of the morning by Rev. Spivey, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, centered around the subject, "The Art of the Woodcutter." The local pastor likened the art to the student. He insisted that students be sharp and ready for use when needed, if they expect to achieve success.

Other Program Parts. A girls' chorus composed of nine active members of the organization was directed by Miss Mattie Mae Tomlinson, as it sang "Cradle Song" by Brahms. Superintendent Wedgeworth talked briefly, emphasizing the significance of the occasion, and offering words of congratulations to members. Principal King Sides welcomed new members of the Honor Societies, and gave the pledge to each group separately.

Tigers Lambast Hamlin, Tourney Champs, 31 to 20

Breaking a 4-4 tie early in the game, the "hct" Snyder Tigers kept five to 11 points ahead of Hamlin's Piedpipers all the way Friday night, finally downing the champions of Colorado's recent invitation tournament, 31 to 20.

This startling win on the home sym definitely catapulted the Tigers into the district picture, since they had defeated Sweetwater, 31 to 9, and Loraine, 23 to 9, within eight days.

Leon Autry, forward, scored 12 points—more than any two Hamlin players. Wayne Gladson, the other forward, tallied seven to rank second. Forward Farmer of Hamlin was third, with six points.

Between-halves and between-games features included a firemen-Lions tug-of-war, and a game between a team of independents and the local faculty team. The faculty won.

In the main game, Address, Snyder center, Tate, guard, and Wayne Gladson, guard, made four points each. Hall, substitute guard, played a good game for more than a quarter.

Whalen, Hamlin captain and center, made two field goals for four points; Walraven, forward, and Bonds, guard, made three each. McCoy, guard, made two, and Longino, substitute forward, made two. Other Hamlin reserves were Alexander, forward, and Vaughn, guard.

Eight of Hamlin's 20 points were from the foul line. Snyder took five points by this route.

Northwest Texas education meeting will be held in Lubbock, March 5-6. Local teachers are to be on the program.—Tiger's Tale.

DON'T HUDDLE

Warm the whole house and live all over it

RIGHT

- This man's family has an easy winter, without colds, because the whole house stays warm. They go right ahead with their lessons, housework and entertaining, without crowding up. And it's not expensive. They simply turn their heaters to a moderate warmth all over the house, instead of running one or two little heaters at top speed. The rooms stay open and the air circulates, and there's no wall-sweating.

WRONG

- This house is blocked off in a shivering quarantine with just one room heated, and the family has numerous colds. The "huddle system" is hard on their health and dispositions, because the closed room loses its oxygen and this means sniffles and colds, and sluggish heads. Many of the serious winter illnesses start with colds that people develop in tight, hot rooms.

ENJOY your house all over! . . . one room by itself takes much more heat than it would take if the adjoining room were warm too.
Heat the whole house for your health and pleasure, and let the air circulate.

PLANS TALKED FOR AIR SHOW

Plans for Scurry County's and Snyder's 30-minute radio broadcast over station KRBC at Abilene on Thursday afternoon, February 18, were discussed at the Lions Club meeting Tuesday at noon, and were worked out in detail at a committee meeting following the luncheon.

Entertainers will be invited to compete in a preliminary audition here in a few days, program numbers to be selected by a representative of the Abilene station.

R. R. Cumble to Leave Church at Dunn Next Week

Next Saturday night and Sunday morning will bring to a close the work of the writer as pastor of the Dunn Baptist Church. We moved to this field the last of October, 1934, and took up the work of the pastorate of the Dunn Church. About one month later he was called to serve the Ira church; for half time, and served there for about two years.

During our stay in this part of the state we have been able to baptize for the two churches above mentioned 44 people and we received 29 by letter, making a total of 66 additions. From meetings held with other churches we received 22 by baptism and five by letter, making a total of 66 baptisms, and making a grand total of members received 100.

Our stay with the people of the Mitchell-Sevier Association has been a very pleasant stay, and as we leave we are leaving a host of friends. We have enjoyed the fellowship of the pastors, and regret to have to give them up as direct associates in the ministry of the kingdom affairs. However, we will be coming into contact with each other as we come together in our district meetings, since I am remaining in District 8.

We are resigning at the morning service Sunday, February 14, to accept the care of the Wilson church in the Lamesa association. This is a church with half-time preaching; just completing a new church building with three additional Sunday school rooms. This gives us two good churches, with one in the Blue Spring association and the other in the Lamesa association.

As we take our leave, we wish to be remembered at a throne of grace by our many friends, that our work in our new field may be a fruitful work, and we will assure you that we shall do the same for you.

No only has the membership of the Baptist churches been good to us, but those of other denominations as well. We have had very good neighbors who are not of our faith and if they read this we wish to express our sincere thanks for the many deeds of kindness they have shown.

We would not close without saying a word about our county paper men and women. They have been very kind in assisting us in keeping the general public informed as to our church services. We truly appreciate their cooperation.

The church at Knott is providing through one of its members a place for us to live until a new home can be erected. We don't know just what day we will be moving, but we think it will be within the next two weeks.—R. R. Cumble.

Ice Making One of Best Conveniences Of Electric Boxes

One of the greatest conveniences attached to the use of the electric refrigerator since its advent was the making of ice cubes for table or beverage use, declare Porter King and Earl Brown of Snyder. In the light of the advantage of having them available, the inconvenience that often was a part of the removal of trays and individual cubes was overlooked or tolerated.

Yet even manufacturers of electric refrigerators conceded that some day somebody would solve the problem of ice tray and ice cube removal, making this task as simple as removing a bottle of milk from the food compartment.

This prophecy now sees its fulfillment in the announcement of the 1937 line of Frigidaires with their instant cube release trays, according to King & Brown, local Frigidaire dealers.

"The 1937 Frigidaire solves this cube and tray problem completely, permanently and satisfactorily. Trays themselves are released with the now famous automatic tray release which delivers the tray, no matter how tightly frozen, at the touch of a finger," say the local dealers.

Resident of Texas Seventy-one Years Dies at Son's Home

Mrs. N. E. Scott, 77, resident of Texas 71 years, died early Monday morning at the home of a son, J. W. Martin, two miles south of Dunn, after an illness of less than a week.

T. F. Strother, Church of Christ minister, Sweetwater, had charge of final rites Tuesday morning, 10:00 o'clock, at Dunn Church of Christ. Mrs. Scott was a member of that church. Odom Funeral Home had charge of arrangements for burial in Dunn Cemetery.

The aged woman moved with her son and family to the farm near Dunn, from East Texas, more than four years ago.

Surviving are the son with whom she lived and one other son, S. B. Martin of Mineral Wells; one daughter, Mrs. Emma Duke of Colorado; three sisters, Mrs. Fannie Brown of Oplin, Mrs. Cynthia Gofford of Cottonwood and Mrs. Bertha Fabion; two brothers, Bill and Walter Childers.

Palbearers were Floyd, Arvil and Bill Martin, grandsons; Wallace Hanson, Travis Greenfield and L. D. Harrison. Jessie Mae Hanson, Edna Duke and Fay Gill were in charge of flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Savage of Abilene were guests of friends here Saturday night and Sunday.

My Debt.

If I have strength, I owe the service of the strong;

If melody I have, I owe the world a song;

If I can stand when all about my post are falling,

If I can run with speed when needy hearts are calling,

And if my torch can light the dark of any night—

Then, I must pay the debt I owe with living light.

If heaven's grace has dowered me with some rare gift,

If I can lift some load no other's strength can lift;

If I can heal some wound no other's hand can heal,

If some great truth the speaking skies reveal—

Then, I must pay a broken, wounded thing,

If, to a wounded world my gifts no healing bring.

For any gift God gives to me, I cannot pay;

Gifts are most mine when I give them most away;

God's gifts are like His flowers, which show their right to stay

By giving all their bloom and fragrance away.

Riches are not gold, nor lands, estates, nor maris—

The only wealth there is, is found in human hearts.

Several Boys Back From CCC Camping; To See Snow Queen

By J. L. Bellotte.

The following boys have returned to Snyder and vicinity from CCC Camp Tuolumne, California, in recent days: Roy Holdrege, W. P. Thompson of the Ira district and James N. Milson of the Arak district. All of these boys returned to help their parents out with their farms. All received honorable discharges.

It seems that all the boys who are left out here seem to like this country, and some will be sorry when the time comes for us to move.

The boys in this camp are planning a recreation trip to the "Big Slide" at Long Barn, one of the most popular winter resorts in this part of the country, on February 6 and 7. At the carnival they will see the crowning of the snow queen, the events on skis, the dog sled race and a big carnival dance.

On a trip to Long Barn in January, the boys enjoyed tobogganing, skating and skiing—sports that most of us had never previously experienced.

THE 25-MILLIONTH FORD HAS JUST BEEN BUILT
It HAS never occurred before in automobile history that 25 million cars of one make, bearing one name, have been manufactured under one management. The 25,000,000th Ford car rolled off the Ford Rouge Plant production line on January 18, 1937.
25 million cars since 1903... more than one-third of all the cars ever built... enough cars to transport the entire population of the United States.
The figures represent a remarkable contribution to the social welfare, the industrial stability and the general progress of our country.
People respect Ford efficiency. They know Ford uses fine materials, the best workmanship at good wages, the most exact precision measurements. They know these things are passed along to purchasers in the form of extra value. Naturally, they like to do business with such a company. That is the only reason it has been required to produce 25 million cars.
Naturally, too, they expect more of a Ford car, more this year than last year — more

McCORMICK-DEERING
Kerosene Tractors Operate Perfectly on No. 1 FURNACE DISTILLATE
INVESTIGATION shows that the widely known oil companies now market a No. 1 Furnace Distillate which makes a very satisfactory fuel for McCormick-Deering Kerosene Tractors. The use of this clean, low-priced fuel results in a considerable saving over the cost of kerosene. . . . For your guidance, specifications of a No. 1 Furnace Distillate suitable for use in McCormick-Deering Kerosene Tractors are included in this advertisement.
Tests prove that the number of cylinders in a tractor engine has nothing at all to do with the success or failure of furnace distillate as a fuel. Experience shows, however, that multi-cylinder engines produce a smooth flow of flexible power that lengthens tractor life, improves traction, and reduces driver fatigue. McCormick-Deering Kerosene Tractors have modern 4-cylinder, valve-in-head engines of the most efficient vertical type.
Specifications of No. 1 Furnace Distillate for McCormick-Deering Tractors:
Gravity, 37 to 37½ Baume, or a specific gravity of .83 to .84 maximum. Flash, 150° F. maximum. Sulphur not to exceed .50%. Carbon not to exceed .03%. Color, Saybolt Universal 16 minus.

The Mahon Tangle.

All we know is what we read in other papers. Therefore, all we know as we quote two quotes from the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal is what the two quotes have to say:

"It ain't so, that story picture all the newspapers carried last week," J. W. Hale says in the Youkum County Review, "but it was for Editor Guy of the Lubbock Avalanche to dig up the fact that although there are two in Congress named Mahon, there is only one G. H., as the man from South Carolina is J. H. Mahon. Of course, we country eds swallowed the hook line and sinker, for this ed had never chased cottontail rabbits on the banks of the Potomac."

"Editor Chas. A. Guy of the Avalanche-Journal turned the tables on those boys that have been giving him the razz about all his petty mistakes," the Richards twins say in the Ropes Plainsman. "In his Wednesday issue he called their hand on a picture they printed of 'Two G. H. Mahons in Congress.' He was skeptical of the news service, so he looked it up, and sure enough it was a publicity stunt."

Current Comment.

By LEON GUINN.

Of the men who are doing a lot for Scurry County and her farmers, no two rank higher at the moment than Russell Luce, county agent, and Vernon Slocumb, resettlement office supervisor. . . . For both men have been at bat late at night—Russell checking over soil compliance sheets, and Vernon poring over RA applications, trying to carry as many clients this year as possible.

I doubt if one will find anywhere two gentlemen, in their respective fields, who are doing half as commendable work (in government employ) as W. R. Luce and Vernon Slocumb. . . . In the office of each Saturday, it was eye opening to observe the amount of work being turned out, the magnitude of running the government's business in your home county. . . . Uncle Sam demands strict form in all his business dealings with you and me, and when a government employee can keep a gillion facts at his finger tips all the time, he is more than filling his position!

While most of our county farmers are making a good start on winter plowing and breaking, a number being through with this phase of making a crop, there still are fields that "air," one farmer puts it, "gittin' wild and woolly with winter weeds." . . . Winter weeds, which fall in the category of flora, technically, are mostly tall weed, wild verbena, peppergrass, "butter-cups," and a few others. . . . All notorious moisture drainers, these winter pests are profitable fertilizer; if plowed under after they first come up. . . . Farmers realize it's hard to make a crop if the land isn't "put up" until planting time.

While ye scribe appreciates a cub reporter on a certain city paper having "lifted" copy sent in to WPA headquarters, to base a feature article on concerning the origin of towns in this territory, it was surprising to learn we are supposed to have a Roscoe, Spur and Pacific railroad through Snyder. . . . I am depending on Judge Crane of Sweetwater to advise me when the new line begins operation. . . . It's bad enough to be quoted on mistakes; hence all thanks for no by-line mention, my dear young reporter; a cigar if you write for it. . . . The American Guide, incidentally, is slated to be off the press by June 15, and in it will be found many an interesting fact about your county and mine The Texas Almanac and other publications haven't touched upon.

In the Day's News.

It's all in the day's news. . . . finding facts that bolster the contention that the United States, and Texas in particular, is returning to the realm of prosperity. Retail sales of 697 independent stores in Texas showed an increase of 17 per cent in dollar volume for 1936 as compared with 1935, according to preliminary estimates. Dallas showed the biggest percentage of gain. Lumber and building material dealers led types of business in percentage of gain.

Changing Public?

Justice Precinct No. 1 of Tom Green County has the distinction of achieving the first major dry victory of 1937 in this country. Greatly increased dry strength was shown over one year ago, when voters of the San Angelo precinct reaffirmed their opposition to the establishment of liquor stores. Two weeks previously, Justice Precinct No. 2 of Tom Green County voted against the return of 14 per cent beer and wines. Is the public in reality, as dry leaders have been affirming, disgusted with liquor's new lease on life; and is it possible that the returning sentiment will again bring on prohibition?

Whitsit Impressions: Most missionaries can explain their religion but can't explain their civilization.

The Times Creed

For the cause that needs assistance; For the wrongs that need resistance; For the future in the distance, And the good that we can do.

Fire! Fire! Fire!

From 1922 to 1936, inclusive, more than 4,990 men, women and children have lost their lives from fire in Texas. Of this number, more than 450 died in 1935, and complete 1936 figures will probably reveal an even larger number.

Marvin Hall, fire insurance commissioner, calls attention to another startling fact in this connection: That approximately 52 per cent of the fire losses paid by insurance companies were losses that occurred in the home. And most of the fires that occur in the home are from simple and easily preventable causes. If you value your property, the lives of your loved ones and friends, it might be an excellent idea to clip the following 15 fire cautions, and study them with an eye to following them and teaching them to your family:

FIFTEEN FIRE CAUTIONS.

- 1. Keep children and fire safely apart. Children can be taught the dangers of fire. Keep matches out of the way of children.
2. Do not throw away cigars, cigarettes and matches without first extinguishing them. A careless smoker is as bad as an electric storm to burn the buildings.
3. Do not allow accumulations of combustible waste materials in or near the house. Without them fires from carelessly discarded smoking materials would be less frequent.
4. Keep chimneys and stovepipes clean with all joints and connections tight. Provide separate metal can for ashes and for rubbish. Never mix.
5. Place substantial fire-resistant guards in front of all woodwork close to sources of heat. The open flames of gas, kerosene, alcohol and gasoline stoves should be particularly shielded.
6. Keep greasy and oily rags in tightly closed metal cans provided for that purpose.
7. Avoid the filling of lighted lamps. Avoid the use of kerosene to light or quicken fires. The application of heat to kerosene results in the generation of gases which are very explosive.
8. Do not use gasoline, naphtha or benzene for cleaning. Use some of the safer solutions now obtainable and these, in any considerable quantity, out of doors and during the day.
9. Keep all open flames away from gas leaks. Explosive mixtures of gas and air are quickly formed in such places, and they only need a lighted match or taper to cause disastrous results.
10. Avoid hanging lace curtains and other draperies near gas-jets or other open flames. The draft from nearby windows may cause fires quick to spread and difficult to extinguish.
11. Avoid toy wax candles. Each year a number of deaths of children due to placing candles on Christmas trees produces a sad ending for an otherwise joyful season.
12. Never leave babies alone in the house—not even a minute—where there is a lighted lamp or open fire.
13. This is an age of electricity. Let's learn to use it with safety. Permit only experienced persons to install or repair electrical fittings and appliances. There are definite rules for wiring, which if known and observed will prevent electrical fires. Keep a supply of fuses on hand. Do not use a penny for a fuse. When a fuse burns out, replace it with a new one.
14. Turn the current off on an electrical pressing iron or other electrical appliance before leaving it.
15. Two good safety points: (A) Make it a point to know how to get out of every building you enter. (B) Never sit in a closed room or office. Always ventilate with fresh air. These two precautions may mean the saving of your life and of others in case of fire.

Editorial of the Week.

DESTRUCTIVE LEGISLATION. Legislation can be destructive as well as constructive. Under destructive legislation may be classed laws of a discriminatory or punitive nature.

A bill that would seem to come under this category, is one that has been introduced by Harry Graves of Georgetown, which has for its purpose the forbidding of "any person, firm or corporation" engaged in supplying the public with heat, water, gas or electricity to sell the appliances which have to be employed in using these services.

Although presumably this bill has for its purpose the protecting of the individual appliance dealer, in practice it just works the opposite. This has been found true in both Kansas and Oklahoma, where a similar law was passed and later repealed. It has been found that the utilities, primarily interested in securing new outlets for their service and in general broadening their market, have created the desire for appliances that has been cashed in on by the local or individual dealer. They have borne the expense of appliance promotion and the dealer has benefited accordingly.

Aside from this angle, however, it would seem that our legislators would have more to do than to cast about for ways and means to seek to enact into law, bills that have for their purpose the strangulation of trade and are discriminatory towards legitimate industry. Why seek to hamstring business when there are so many obvious corrective measures that need attention?—Sweetwater Daily Reporter.

Throwing Kisses.

When former King Edward throws kisses promiscuously, it makes news; witness Tuesday morning headlines. When common mortals play at this doubtful game . . . well, maybe the divorce court or a scene at home. Not headlines, certainly.

Several Dollars Added To County Red Cross Fund

Several dollars have been added during the past week to the county's Red Cross fund for the assistance of refugees in the Mississippi Valley flood. The county's suggested quota of $325 is still far from reached, however, by about $50, and Mrs. Carrie Line, county chairman, urges that more donations be made this week.

A partial list of names was published last week. The following list practically completes county donors. Others will be printed as they are reported by Mrs. Line.

Letters from the People Our Readers Speak

Editors, The Times:

The end of the year is a time when we look backward and forward. How has it fared with us in the year just passed? What have we gained and lost? Has there been progress or just stagnation?

And what of the future? What will the New Year bring? There is a veil upon it that we would sometimes like to pierce. There is a way, however, in which we can make sure that the past will bear its harvest of good, whatever its events have been. There is a way, also, in which we can make sure of the future.

In the long run character decides, to a large extent, what we call material success. It decides the kind of influence we have. If we think of the people who have won the hearts and the loyalty of others, we know that their secret lies in what they were.

Yes, some of them were poor, many of them had little reputation. Some of them found little but disappointment in their ambitions. But that indefinable something we call character shone out, bringing them the trust and respect of their fellows, and therefore it gave them influence.

But what is it that decides character? It is what lies within. It is the thoughts and motives and desires we cherish in our hearts. What we are within decides how we react to a situation. It decides whether we shall fall under a temptation or overcome it. It decides how we shall meet trouble or prosperity.

There is a gladness message for us all about the secret rooms of our hearts. They can be swept clean of evil things that bring disaster. What is in will out. But what is in us can be changed. Christ can dwell in the heart, expelling and controlling. That is the secret of hope for us and for the world.

How can we help to direct the future of ourselves and others so that it will bring nothing but good? Let us look within, with the light of Christ to help us. Let us get rid of the debris of old enmities and resentments.

"Search me, O God, and know my heart. And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting." (Rev. James Reid, D. D., London, England.) Snyder, Texas. H. C. GILL.

First Presbyterian Church

"A Lesson in Greatness" will be the topic for the sermon at the 11:00 o'clock hour. At this morning service an opportunity will be given for those who so desire to make contributions to the fund for repairing the church buildings which were destroyed during the flood in the Ohio Valley.

In the evening the Presbyterian congregation will join with the other congregations of the city in a service honoring the Boys Scouts of Scurry County. This is an opportunity for the older people of the town and county to show the young manhood of our country that they have the support and prayers of their elders in every worthwhile enterprise.

A delegation will go from this church on Friday to attend the men's convention of the Synod of Texas which meets in Abilene for an all-day session. The opening service is at 9:30 a. m.—James E. Spivey, pastor.

A Common Sense Discussion of Costs....

There is nothing mysterious about the cost of a funeral. At the same time, we believe that the advertising of funerals at a fixed price is bound to be misleading. "Bargain" funerals that are advertised at the lowest possible price are bound to be disappointing and pretentious funerals that are advertised at highest prices place a false estimate on the value of professional services. For this reason we prefer to have everyone who comes to us to select the kind of services wanted, with full confidence that the prices we quote represent honest value for the supplies and services they select.
