"YOUR HOME COUNTY PAPER"

FORTY-NINTH YEAR

SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY AFTERNOON, FEBRUARY 25, 1937

NUMBER 38

M'PHERSON TO HOME TOWN OF TOP HUMORIST

Pastor of First Christian Church is Called to Take Leadership at Claremore, Oklahoma.

Sunday, February 28, will mark final appearance of Rev. G. E. McPherson as pastor of the First Christian Church.

Called recently to the pastorate of the First Christian Church at Claremore, Oklahoma, home town of the late Will Rogers, world-famous humorist, Rev. McPherson's official duties there will begin March 1. Members of the local church are planning to be out in full force at all Sunday services as a tribute to their departing pastor. Rev. McPherson's morning subject will be "The Prayer of the Aged." In the evening he will speak on "Christians, Having the Mind of Christ."

Rev. McPherson has been pastor of the local church two and one-half years. Church leaders say the congregation has been led forward and upward during this time, and that they see him leave with reluctance.

Claremore, with a population of about 5,000, has a First Christian membership of between 500 and 600.

Farewell Service.

The Times learned Wednesday night that the First Presbyterian Church and the First Methodist Church will dismiss their Sunday night preaching services in order to join members of the First Christian Church in a farewell service to Rev. G. E. McPherson. The three congregations will gather at the First Christian Church.

Projects Suffer From Duststorm, Other "Put-Offs"

Duststorms and other interferences have delayed three of Scurry County's top projects within the past week.

Electricity for Dunn, which will receive the first current from an all-rural line in West Texas, may not reach the community until some time next week. Last week's hope by Dunn folks that they would have current by Saturday night was not realized.

Snyder's street paving program has also been delayed, although work of getting other streets in readiness for the surfacing is continuing.

Highway 161 construction of which is proceeding just southeast of town, has been delayed because most workers have been taken from the project to help complete a strip of farm-to-market road southwest of Snyder in Precinct No. 3.

Two of the major county projects are expected to be going at top speed before another week has passed, say sponsors and workers.

FIRST MONDAY INTEREST HIGH

Give Snyder good weather Monday—first Monday—and you will probably give her the best trades day crowd she has seen in many moons.

With "Red" Townsend again at the helm as auctioneer, folks are invited to bring in their livestock, shotguns, farm implements and what-have-you, to be turned over to the highest bidder.

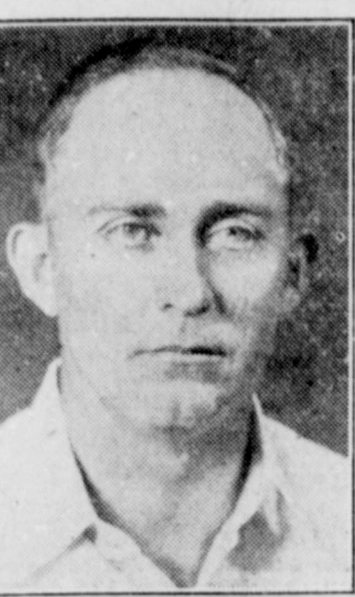

Major portion of the county's land is up new, and folks are expected to have more time to spend on swapping mules, calves, farm equipment and yarns.

MICKIE SAYS—

"THE BOSS-SEZ FOLKS SHOULD REMEMBER AS HOW WE ARE HIRED BY OUR READERS 'T' PRINT 'N' NEWS, 'N' SHOULDN'T BE ASKED TO LEAVE OUT GOOD ITEMS TO SUIT SOMEBODY'S WHIM OR IDLE FANCY"

MAKES RECORD

Glen Berry, local basketball coach, made one of the most remarkable uphill records in athletics this year that Snyder has ever seen. He led a green tribe of Tigers through a tough schedule, beaten at the beginning by all comers, to become one of the top teams in West Texas. Beaten by only eight points by Hamlin Pled Pipers, district champions, the Tigers easily rated as the third best team in the area. Earlier in the season they won from the Pipers. In 1936 Berry coached the Cushing basketball team to a state championship.

COUNTY DROPS SURVEYOR JOB

The surveyor's office was declared officially vacant by the Commissioners Court in its regular session Monday. This action was taken several weeks after B. E. Robinson, elected surveyor last year, moved from Snyder to Dallas.

Supplies and records of the surveyor's office were moved this week to the county clerk's office, where they are in the custody of Charles J. Lewis.

The court made effective from February 1, 1937, to December 31, 1938, an order making it possible for the county to pay from $10 to $40, according to age, toward funeral equipment for burial of Scurry County citizens. An affidavit by two credible citizens, certifying that no funds were otherwise available for the funeral, is required.

Bar Association for County Lawyers in First Session Today

The attorneys of Scurry County met in the Commissioners Court room February 24 and subscribed their names to a constitution, establishing The Scurry County Bar Association. The attorneys subscribing their names as charter members are: E. J. Brien, Warren Dodson, W. W. Hamilton, C. P. Senter, J. E. Senter, Ben F. Therpe, R. W. Webb and Sterling Williams.

W. W. Hamilton was elected as president, J. E. Senter as vice president and Warren Dodson as secretary. Regular meetings will be held quarterly.

Cotton Checks May Reach City Any Day

County Agent W. R. Luce said yesterday that Scurry County's government crop conservation checks are due in Snyder any day. The first batch is expected to total from $150,000 to $175,000. Total county receipts from the program will be about $212,000.

Small Additions to County Flood Fund

Addition of $3 to the county's flood relief fund, bringing the total to $279.40, was reported this week by Mrs. Carrie Line, county Red Cross chairman. Two dollars was from J. L. Denson of Dunn, $1 from G. R. Austin of Snyder.

"The Scurry County chapter is to be commended for its prompt response to the appeal for funds," said William M. Baxter Jr., manager of the midwestern Red Cross branch, St. Louis, in a letter to Mrs. Line early this week.

Tom Sells Turkeys. Tom Stodghill, one of the county's leading turkey breeders, this week shipped three hens and a gobbler to the state farm at Wichita Falls. The sale brought him $25 in cash.

EXPERT URGES SEED TESTING, VITAL IN 1937

A fair germination test should be given all sorghum and cotton seed before planting, Dr. A. W. Young, assistant professor of agronomy at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, warns farmers. Rain in late September, in many sections of the state, damaged grain and seed crops, agricultural authorities say.

Scurry County farmers are faced with this problem, of course, not only in view of late rains but in view of the exceedingly poor quality of cotton and feed last season.

County ginners and other cotton authorities think the germination of much Scurry County seed will fall below 50 per cent, and they urge full germination tests if good stands are to be expected.

Dr. Young, the Tech authority, says more than 25 tests of cotton seed submitted by farmers indicated germination ranging from 20 to 85 per cent. "Most of the germination was 50 per cent or less," he declared.

Precipitation not more than 70 per cent of grain sorghum will germinate, Dr. Young says. "After the September rain we checked and found that as much as 20 per cent of cotton seed in the field has germinated. It would be well for farmers with early matured cotton seed to test it before planting. It is difficult to determine how extensive the pregermination was."

P. C. Blaz, chief inspector for the Lubbock Grain Exchange, says he made a number of tests for Lubbock dealers and the percentage of germination was below normal. Kaffir and heari ran as high as 75 per cent, with milo lower. The average germination was below 70. At the state experimental station, where a higher type of seed is used than generally found on farms, milo tested 86 per cent, compared to 92 per cent the year before; kaffir, 90 and 99 per cent and sudan 90 and 85 per cent. Much of the original seed for state certified seed breeders comes from the station.

Honorable Mention To County Players In Roscoe Tourney

Evans of Pivanna and Harkins of Hermleigh received honorable mention for individual performance in the girls' invitation tournament at Roscoe last week-end.

Both Scurry County teams were eliminated before the semi-finals. In the consolation, Pivanna lost to White Flat, 15 to 14, and Hermleigh B lost to Roscoe B, 11 to 7. Hermleigh won from Pivanna by one point in the final game of the Scurry County girls' court games recently.

Jayton won the Roscoe tournament, defeating Roscoe, 19 to 6, in the final game Saturday night. Talpa won third place with a victory over Needles, and Roaring Springs copped the consolation prize by defeating Roscoe B, 15 to 7.

School Revolution In This Generation Hanes Tells Lions

There has been a revolution in the school business during the past few years, Superintendent W. T. Hanes of Hermleigh told members of the Allen Lions Club at noon Tuesday. He referred not alone to new curricula but to a new attitude toward the teacher and school leader.

He said that although the school is the biggest business in any community, and the whole purpose of the school is to make better men and women, citizens as a whole are inclined to place the school man or woman in a class to themselves, condemning teachers for things they (the citizens) indulge in or allow their children to indulge in.

W. R. Bell, chairman of the blind committee, announced that a pair of glasses had been fitted recently for a Pylon citizen.

J. R. Reeves, Boy Scout committee man, urged that Lions take active part in beginning the cub movement in this county for boys under scout age.

Lloyd Croslin Gets Texas Club Office

Lloyd Croslin of Lubbock, secretary to Congressman George Mahon, was elected secretary-treasurer of the Texas Club of Washington at its regular meeting Friday night, February 19.

The Texas Club is composed of Texans in official life in Washington and other Texas residents in the District of Columbia. Hon. Karl Crowley, solicitor general of the post office department, is president of the club.

PROCLAMATION

Designating February 28 to March 6 as Texas Week

Whereas, the approach of Texas Independence Day and the anniversary of the Fall of the Alamo herald a week sacred in the hearts of all Texans; and

Whereas, I am prompted by the patriotic motives of the members of the Forty-Second Legislature, as expressed in Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8, and by my own feelings of love and patriotism toward my state;

Now, therefore, I, H. G. Towle, mayor of the City of Snyder, Texas, do hereby proclaim the week of February 28 to March 6, 1937, as

TEXAS WEEK

And I urge all citizens to cooperate in observing Texas Week in an appropriate manner, to the end that we shall recall the heroic deeds of the founders of this Lone Star State as they were exhibited in the Declaration of Independence on March 2, 1836; then in the heroic deeds of those brave patriots who gave their lives for Texas in the Alamo on March 6, 1836; and in the many other significant events connected with the early history of Texas.

Let us all, during the brief days of Texas Week, make much of the cultural and spiritual values of our wonderful traditions and dedicate our lives anew to the lofty ideals of statesmanship, character, leadership and service which our forefathers exhibited in their lives of consecration to liberty and sobriety.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the seal of my office to be impressed hereon at Snyder, this 24th day of February, A. D. 1937.

H. G. TOWLE, Mayor of Snyder, Texas.

HERMLEIGH TO HAVE CLEANUP

Next week is clean-up week at Hermleigh, with Boy Scouts leading the way.

From school campus to the business section, from alleys to caliche streets, from the humblest cottage to the town's most imposing home, the drive is expected to make Hermleigh cleaner and more attractive than she has been in some time.

Clean-up week was suggested when Hermleigh invited and was awarded the annual Intercholastic League track, field and literary meet, to be held March 26 and 27.

Senator Collie, Says Writer, To Ask Lieutenantcy

Raymond Brooks, well known Austin political writer, said last week that he could record as a fact, for the first time, that Senator Wilbourne B. Collie of Eastland is in the race for lieutenant governor next year.

"He will seek the seat from which Lieutenant Governor Walter Woodul of Houston will retire in making the race for attorney general," says Brooks, who continues: "There is a crop of prospective candidates for lieutenant governor, but none known here with the certainty of Collie. It should be said that Senator Collie has not announced for the office."

Collie has served as acting governor because of absence from the state of both Governor Alfred Woodul at the time he was president pro tempore of the Senate.

After Collie's proposed candidacy was given publicity, a Cisco dispatch to the Dallas said: "Eastland County folks are rather proud of the record Collie has made as senator from the 24th District, and if he is in the race for lieutenant governor he will have a large following in this his native town."

Browning Among Hosts.

Leslie "Broadway" Browning, son of John Browning, Fluvanna, was among the hosts at an annual dance given by Tech lettermen at the Allen auditorium in Lubbock Friday night. Invitations were issued to all social clubs on the campus, and more than 300 persons attended. Dick Dickerson's orchestra, clad in football uniforms, played for the dance, and doormen also wore football uniforms.

Golden Wedding Day Remembered by Mr. and Mrs. Merket of China Grove

All their children, with their children's families and a number of friends, gathered Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Merket in the China Grove community to help the pioneer couple celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

Since 1925 the Merketes have been one of the leading farm families in the south end of Scurry County. Jim and Floyd Merket, their two sons, have the gin and general store at China Grove. Mrs. Roe Rosson and Mrs. Frank Stevenson, Snyder, and Mrs. Earl Brown of Colorado are the daughters.

These five children have presented the proud grandparents with 16 grandchildren, and one of these grandchildren, in turn, has a great grandchild for the entertainment of the pioneering couple.

The complete family circle was broken only by the absence of Aileen Rosson, a granddaughter, who died a few months ago. A valued correspondent for The Times, she was the first death in the immediate family during the 50 years of Mr. and Mrs. Merket's marriage.

WAR VETERANS TO CELEBRATE HERE TUESDAY

J. M. Wilson of Floydada, District Committeeman, to Be Top Visitor at Meeting.

World War buddies, their wives and many other guests will gather at the armory Tuesday night, 8:00 o'clock, for what Commander Hal A. Lattimore expects to be the Will Layne Post's top meeting of 1937.

Principal speaker and most distinguished visitor will be J. M. Wilson, whose position as district committeeman of the American Legion makes him the leading legionnaire of the 19th District. He will bring to Snyder not only a background of long and active association with legion work, but a record of civic and church leadership that mark him as an outstanding West Texan.

In connection with the full program of entertainment and speeches, there will be a feed typical of the kind for which the local post has become famous.

Hut Question Talked. At a brief business session, in connection with the meeting, the question of purchasing a lot for location of a legion hut is expected to be definitely decided.

Commander Lattimore says a special invitation is being extended to war veterans and their wives who are not affiliated with the American Legion. All members and their wives are of course invited and expected.

Assisting with preparations for the season are members of the American Legion Auxiliary, of which Mrs. W. A. Fish is president. The legion committee in charge of the food and its serving is composed of W. M. Nichols, Melvin Newton and Frank Arnett. J. E. LeMond, J. E. Shipp, A. C. Pruitt and W. P. King compose an arrangements committee. Lee T. Sinton, former commander, will be toastmaster.

Several Lubbockites. Several Lubbock legionnaires have accepted an invitation to be present. They will be featured on the entertainment program. George Berry, former district attorney, J. A. Raley, attorney, George Meiser, manager of the P. W. Woolworth store, and Charles Whitacre, insurance agent, all active in Lubbock and district legion work, are coming, a letter said yesterday.

Child welfare work of the legion, Wilson's hobby No. 1, will probably be his chief topic of discussion. The local post has been active in this type of work, notice having just been received that an additional grant of $20 per month from the state department has been allowed for the family of a deceased local veteran.

Wilson has been to Europe and Asia twice in recent years, once as a representative of Rotary International, and once on his own initiative, principally for a visit to the Holy Land.

Eye Failure Forces Bruce Murphy Out of Naval Training

Bruce Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Murphy of Borden County, returned this week from Annapolis, Maryland, where he has been attending the United States Naval Academy for eight months.

Bruce was admitted to the school conditionally, after he was at first turned down because of weak eyesight. He was passing his subjects and otherwise measuring up to Annapolis standards, but his weak eyes could not pass final muster.

The Borden County boy, whose parents make Snyder their headquarters, was appointed to the naval training school by Congressman George H. Mahon when he passed all entrance and pre-entrance examinations with flying colors.

Mitchell McMATH to Callis Partnership

Mitchell McMATH, who has been connected with the grocery business here for several years, announces this week that he is now associating with C. H. Callis in the wholesaling of gasoline, kerosene and distillate for stoves and tractors.

McMATH has most recently been associated with Brown & Son. Callis has been in the wholesale oil, gas and distillate business here for several years.

Newman & Crowder At City Meat Market

City Meat Market, just east of the post office, has been purchased by Henry Newman, former sheriff, and A. R. Crowder, long-time Snyder butcher. Roy Stokes has been in charge of the market for some time. Newman and Crowder will handle a complete line of fresh and cured meats, featuring home killed beef and hogs. They announce that they will buy cattle and hogs.

HERE TUESDAY

J. M. Wilson of Floydada, 19th District American Legion committeeman, will be principal speaker for the local post's big-time social and business session next Tuesday night, 8:00 o'clock.

CAMPUS WORK MOVING ALONG

Further work of beautifying the Snyder school campus is going forward this month, with special emphasis on an addition to the gymnasium and on clearing the recently purchased half block of land across Dry Creek from the old campus.

The new portion of the campus is expected by Superintendent C. Wedgeworth to be equipped later with many items of playground equipment.

Improvement of the football field and addition of bleachers on the east side of the field are also contemplated improvements, with WPA assistance, to the local school system.

Church Leaders Urge Regulation Of Texas Liquor

Seven resolutions petitioning the governor and Legislature for legislation on liquor traffic and gambling were passed unanimously Tuesday at a joint meeting at McMurry College, Abilene, of ministers of the Abilene, Sweetwater and Stamford districts of the Northwest Texas Conference, M. E. Church, South.

Scurry County was represented at the gathering by Rev. H. C. Gordon of Snyder and Rev. M. W. Clark, Fluvanna church.

The resolutions urged creation of a zoning law to restrict operation of all liquor stores to the business districts of towns and cities, changes in local option laws enabling unincorporated towns and public school districts to vote wet or dry, protection of dry territory from liquor trafficking, outlawing of all forms of gambling, prohibition of use of pictures of girls and women in liquor advertising, prohibition of employment of girls and women as sales people in liquor stores, and that scientific temperance instruction be required in public schools.

Copies of the resolutions were sent to Governor James V. Allred, Lieutenant Governor Walter W. Woodul, Speaker Robert W. Calvert.

Public Invited for Another Community Sing-Song Tonight

Those who like to sing, as well as those who like to hear singing, are invited to attend the second of a series of community sing-songs this (Thursday) evening at the First Baptist Church. Hour for the sing-song has been set at 7:30 o'clock.

Lawrence Dever, one of Scurry County's leading songsters, is directing the weekly affair. He states the gatherings are non-denominational, and everybody interested in singing is invited. Religious songs are principally used.

At a later date, Dever says, a musical program, featuring vocal numbers of various kinds, probably will be given.

Fifty-first Wedding Date Remembered

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Roper, long-time residents of this area, celebrated their fifty-first wedding anniversary Monday at their home in Northeast Snyder. Friends gave them good things to eat, and Mrs. Roper tells The Times that it was a happy occasion, in spite of the fact that Mr. Roper, now 87, was still confined to his bed with illness that has kept him inside for several months.

Mr. Roper is a native of Virginia, and his bride of a half century-plus came to Texas from Kentucky. He has been in Texas 65 years.

NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH OPENS AT HERMLEIGH

Formal Dedication Services Open To Public Sunday Morning At 9:00 O'Clock.

The Rev. Robert E. Lacey, bishop of the Amarillo Diocese, will conduct formal dedication service Sunday morning, 9:00 o'clock, of the new $11,000 Catholic church at Hermleigh. Leaders of the church invite the public to be present for the special service.

Members of the church are rushing completion of the interior of the beautiful cream brick building, which will seat probably 250 persons. Erhard - Wirtz Construction Company had charge of erecting the building, but finishing touches are being given by members.

The $11,000 auditorium, with floors of oak, dark antique ceiling and artistic appointments, is in striking contrast to the small building to its rear, which it supplants.

Another Service Later. The 40 families that belong to the church are planning a less formal celebration and dedication of the building later, when all details of grounds and building have been completed.

Established in 1908—the year the R. S. & P. Railway was built through Hermleigh—the original church has served an average congregation of about 200 persons for almost 30 years. It was constructed at a cost of about $2,000.

Among the families that now belong to the church, whose names were on the roll when the church was established, are these: Albert Kuss, Joe Roemisch, Frank Wenetschlaeger, Herman Schulze, Thomas Hupler and Joe Naebling.

Pastor at Sweetwater. The Rev. Victor Martin of Sweetwater is pastor of the church. Prior to his pastorate, which began last summer, the Rev. Austin Cubilo was pastor. Regular services are held at 11:00 o'clock each Sunday morning.

The old church was known as St. Francis Church, the new one as St. John Church. St. Francis Church was established under the pastorate of the Rev. John Hittler, then of Abilene. The Hermleigh church was the first Catholic building erected in this section of the state, Abilene and Stanton being the nearest at that time.

Building committee in charge of the new edifice includes: Frank Wenetschlaeger, chairman; Robert Schulze, secretary-treasurer; Joe Kuss, Jacob Brom, Charles Clask, Albert Kuss and H. A. Wimmer. Mrs. H. J. Schulze is chairman of the women's society of the church.

COUNTY RANGE GETS BENEFIT

Scurry County is one of 152 Texas counties designated last week in which the 1937 range conservation program will operate. The agricultural adjustment administration has announced.

Adoption of practices for which payments will be made include deferred grazing, contour listing or furrowing, grading of land, construction of spreader dams, terraces or reservoirs, eradication of rodents, establishment of fire guards, and freeing land from noxious weeds.

Practically all counties of this area, including Borden, Mitchell, Fisher, Garza, Howard, Kent and Nolan, will receive advantages from the program.

William Boren of Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Boren, will participate in a competition meet among members of the John Tarleton track team, to be held at Hays field, Stephenville, Friday afternoon.

Largest Attendance of Year Greets P-T. A. Program on Founders' Day

Largest attendance of the year was the feature of last Thursday's meeting of the local Parent-Teacher Association at its observance of Founders' Day. School patrons showed their loyalty by being present to pay tribute to the founders of National Congress of Parents and Teachers, and to state and local leaders.

The Thursday program was declared by local people to be the most impressive Founders' Day program ever presented here. A patriotic note was also given emphasis in the program in keeping with birthdays of famous Americans which come in February.

In observance of George Washington's birthday, Mrs. King Sides and Alta Bowers, teachers in the local school, directed a group of children in a musical. Girls were costumed in quaint Martha Washington frocks, and boys wore short pants and frock coats, as was the custom in early days for the graceful exhibition dance.

Mrs. B. M. West directed the program for the afternoon. "A Founders' Day Ceremony," the official candle-lighting service used in connection with the observance, was presented in pageant form by a group of eight members. They were: Misses Wilbur, Marjorie, Hester Snyder, J. M. Newton, E. E. West, Mrs. J. E. LeMond, Ikon Joyce, A. A. Bailey and A. C. Pruitt.

Interspersed in the pageant were various illustrating songs sung by the Girls' Chorus, composed of local school girls, directed by Miss Mattie Mae Tomlinson. Attendants adjourned to the school park at the close of the musical and pageant for the tree dedication, which was in charge of Mrs. W. R. Bell, with Mrs. Wayne Boren assisting. The vocal solo program consisted of a special solo, "Trees," by Mrs. W. W. Smith, who sang without accompaniment; the address by Mrs. Bell, and prayer led by King Sides, high school principal.

In her dedication talk, Mrs. Bell spoke beautifully of Mrs. C. Wedgeworth, late wife of the local school superintendent, and dedicated the pretty little pecan tree to the loving memory of the former P-T. A. worker. Mrs. Wedgeworth was a valuable member in the local organization for several years.

Members of the executive board covered the tree, each placing a shovelful of soil around its roots.

During the business meeting, over which Mrs. J. Nelson Dunn, president, presided, a free will offering was taken to contribute to national P-T. A. headquarters. Donation of $20 was also made by the group to the local unit of Child Welfare.

Discussion of the district convention was held, and members learned that the district congress will convene in Hamlin March 25-27. Delegates from the local chapter will be selected by the executive committee, and several others plan to attend.

Margaret Mitchell's Novel Is Reviewed.

Margaret Mitchell's best-seller novel, "Gone With the Wind," which has proved so popular in this section for club book reviews, was the subject for discussion at a Tuesday evening meeting of Cresset Junior Club at the home of Mrs. Willard E. Lewis.

Irene Wolcott gave the book review, and the entire club entered into the discussion which followed. As a biographical sketch of the author, Mrs. Jack Martin gave an interesting article from a recent issue of Pictorial Review, "The Woman Who Wrote 'Gone With the Wind'."

During the business meeting, which preceded the program, a committee composed of Mrs. Buster Curtis and Allene Curry gave reports on proposed club federation. Cresset Junior Club was organized under the sponsorship of Altrurian Daughters almost two years ago.

The hostess served delicious refreshments of strawberry shortcake and coffee to Mrs. G. W. Hicks, guest, and the following members: Mrs. Robert E. Gray Jr., sponsor, Irene Wolcott, Frances Boren, Mrs. Curtis, Vernelle Bradbury, Mrs. Eddy Martin, Allene Curry and Mrs. Jack Martin.

Vernelle Bradbury will be next hostess to the club, and Mrs. Curtis will give the book review.

Mrs. Brice Has Six-Table Party.

Mrs. H. J. Brice was hostess Friday afternoon to members of El Peliz Club and guests with a delightful six-table forty-two party. Her color scheme of red, white and blue was used in observance of the birthdays of famous Americans which come in February.

A dainty plate of fruit salad, wafers and hot coffee was passed at 6 a. time to the following: Mmes. B. M. West, Joe Graham, J. Nelson Dunn, C. T. Glen, A. M. Curry, Lora Miller, R. W. Cunningham, H. P. Brown, Harold Brown, A. J. Cody, Lawrence Hays, J. P. Morgan, J. E. LeMond, Allen Warren and J. S. Bradbury, Misses Nellie Cotton and Zula Soogins, guests; Mmes. Joe Freshorn, Warren Dodson, W. J. Ely, Sidney Johnson, W. E. Doak, C. P. Sennell, P. G. Chensault, I. W. Eoren and Grady Shytle.

LET'S TALK ABOUT CLOTHES

BY A YOUNG MODERN

A more versatile spring showing of new clothes couldn't have been ordered! Even the most exacting clothes collector will be satisfied, while the appreciative shoppers are jubilant over the newest ideas. If you're weary of suits, balk at giddy boleros, sniff at swagers, you still have all kinds of cape ensembles and redingotes to praise.

While these time-tried get-togethers bloom afresh each spring, this time girls at Texas State College for Women (CIA), Denton, have all their cheer exuberantly for the clever details, the new streamlines, the unobtainable slenderness, and the lavish color treatments.

Capes are not the uninteresting, overwhelming things they sound. They are skimp, slenderizing, and very smart. Square cut shoulder lines, straight effects, perky outlines, shorter lengths, and vividly colored linings all contrive to make them individual. Capes with long sleeved dresses afford the imaginative owner the opportunity to go out with the dress under a fitted jacket, and the cape to swing over new gaily printed dresses for another good change.

This season capes reach the waistline or snap smartly around the hip-line, and sometimes are longer, but most important they are made of less material and keep you slim. The redingotes are spectacularly suggestive. The skirts wrap smoothly and flare just enough at the hemline. The best finds are cut in one piece at the back and separate at the sides and front, showing the contrasting print or silk of the dress under the outfit. Some tie in position, some swing free, and some are just plain fraids, redingotes to the casual chloaker, but really a clever one-piece outfit cut to stimulate the becoming lines of a redingote.

Progressive Club Studies Welfare.

Progressive Study Club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Lora Miller for a study of public welfare. Roll call was "One Way to Safeguard the Public," and following it Mrs. Edgar Wilson directed the program.

Parts on program were given by Mmes. Miller, J. E. Shipp, Anton White and J. W. W. Patterson. Topics were: "Fire Prevention," "Street and Highway Safety," "Public Welfare," "Child Welfare," and "Recreation and Right Use of Leisure."

Mrs. Miller served a lovely salad plate with hot coffee to two guests, Mmes. W. H. Ware and Forest Wade, and the 12 members present.

Mrs. Anton White was a recent hostess to Progressive Study Club. The lesson study was "The Life of Abraham Lincoln" directed by Mrs. J. E. Shipp. Mmes. Leon Wren and Marion Newton also took part on the program. Mrs. W. H. Ware was a guest for the meeting, and 12 members attended. The hostess passed dainty refreshments at the close of the program.

Progressive Study Club members honored their husbands and guests with a forty-two party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pierce recently. Decorations in keeping with the February holidays were used on tables and about entertaining rooms. Guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Roy Strayhorn and W. H. Ware and husbands of club members.

Mrs. Keese Is New President of Class.

Mrs. Orville Keese is new president of the Crusaders Class of the First Methodist Church. She succeeds Mrs. M. L. German, who recently moved to San Angelo. The election was held at a combined business and social meeting last Friday at the home of Mrs. Nana Wade Vaughn, with Miss Mattie Mae Tomlinson as hostess.

COUNTY STORY TOLD ON RADIO BY W. T. HANES

'Where Farmers Ranch and Ranchers Farm' Given as Slogan on KRBC, Abilene.

"Where farmers ranch and ranchers farm" was the slogan used last Thursday for Snyder and Scurry County in last week's program in the "Know Your West Texas" series of station KRBC, Abilene.

Master of ceremonies and principal speaker was W. T. Hanes, superintendent of the Hermleigh consolidated school.

Snyder's central location as seat of Scurry County, center of West Texas, was mentioned first by Announcer Hanes. It is almost equidistant from Fort Worth, Carlsbad and Amarillo, and halfway between Abilene and Lubbock, he said.

'Typical of West Texas.'

Hanes continued: "If any county can be called a typical West Texas county, it surely must be Scurry. Her average annual cotton crop of 30,000 bales is her chief money maker, but her other major interests are almost as varied as the physical aspects of all West Texas." The speaker mentioned breeding of Hereford cattle, sheep raising and raising of polo ponies.

"That popular slogan, 'the cow, the sow and the hen,' he said, 'was originated in Snyder. It is fitting, therefore, that Scurry County should follow the plan of diversified farming suggested by that renowned trio of farm 'rops'.

Hospital Subscribed.

"Situated in the heart of the county, Snyder has one of the most unique water systems in the state. Two city-owned wells a half block from the public square have a total pumping capacity of more than 2,000 gallons of water per minute.

"Scurry County is proud of her schools. She pioneered in bringing the rural child closer to fully graded and accredited schools. She has six large consolidated districts, with a total enrollment of 2,500 students, and 23 smaller schools. A half dozen accomplishments of the past two years prove that Scurry County has a spirit of constant progress that neither depression nor drought can over-ride.

"An open-staff hospital was built and equipped at a cost of $35,000, all subscribed by county citizens. Four schools have completed or have under construction modern gymnasiums of native stone. The Snyder athletic field was lighted for night games. Highway No. 7 was rerouted and modernized through the county and work is now going forward on Highway No. 101. West Texas' first all-rural electric line is being completed this week in the southern portion of the county, and definite plans are underway for construction of a new city hall and American Legion hut in Snyder."

Students Give Songs.

Opening number in the Snyder broadcast was a song, "When My Dream Boat Comes Home," by Doris Glen Wills and Dorothy Rea of the Fluvanna community, accompanied by Margaret Miller. "Trust in Me" was presented by Nell Carleton, accompanied by Mrs. W. C. Hollis of Snyder. A Fluvanna trio, Jessie D. Juanita Elkins and Elmo Payer sang "Gazing at the Blazing Fire," after which a quartet from Ira gave

Mrs. Martin Johnson, Housekeeper

Martin Johnson's life that ended so tragically as the result of an airplane crash on a lone snow-covered mountainside near Los Angeles January 12, though full of adventures, was an extremely happy one because of the enjoyment he and his wife derived from their experiences while making motion pictures of wild life in the tropics. One of Mrs. Johnson's functions on these trips was to make life home-like and comfortable no matter how far away from civilization their camp might be.

The above photograph, taken by Mr. Johnson toward the end of the expedition in Borneo, where they spent most of last year in the jungles, shows Mrs. Johnson in a characteristic scene. Two Electrolux refrigerators, operated with kerosene, were part of the scientific equipment of the expedition. One of these was installed on the back veranda of the raft. Mrs. Johnson is explaining the function of the American-made cold maker. Roche & Gilmore are distributors in Snyder for Electrolux.

Demonstrator Talks To Pyron Junior 4-H

Pens for poultry should be equipped with a brooder, feeder and waterer, said Miss Jewel Hipp, assistant demonstrator of Fisher County, to the Junior 4-H Club of Pyron in a meeting last week. The feeder and waterer should not be open all across the top, as the chickens then get their feet in the feeder. There should be a wire flooring so that it can easily be moved for daily cleaning.

There were 27 members present at the meeting. New members this month are Sarah Julia Taylor and Emma Jean Taylor.

At our previous meeting, with our sponsor, we checked our sewing box and planned a Valentine party.

Our next meeting will be March 2 at which time we will discuss diseases of chickens.—Reporter.

Masons, Friends, Hear Washington Talk By Mauzey

"George Washington was not the great man that he was because of his brilliance, but because he observed three great principles of living." District Judge A. S. Mauzey of Sweetwater Monday evening told a large group of Masons of this community, who assembled with other friends in their annual Washington birthday celebration at the local lodge room.

"These principles were love, truth and faith. Washington loved his neighbors and his country. He sought after truth in everything. He had undying faith in the future of his country and in his Creator." The judge told his hearers that the country's first president was a great Mason, who did much to further the tenets of this great fraternity.

More than 200 Masons, their families and several invited guests were present for the annual affair. H. J. Brice was director for the evening's program, which featured group singing, piano numbers by Misses Nell Verma Lefford and Dorothy Pinkerton, and accordion renditions by Mrs. Earl Luder.

At a meeting of the county executive committee Tuesday night I presented my resignation to the committee, with my reasons for resigning, and told the committee that I should publish my reasons. I discussed with the executive committee the things I want now to make public.

I was duly elected director general at a county-wide teachers' meeting. It has been my policy to work harmoniously with the county committee and carry on the work of my position for the best interests of the league. I have shown no partiality to any particular section of the county. I have been willing to compromise on important questions, and abide by the rulings of the executive committee, even when those rulings were unreasonable and resulted in discord and loss of money.

The committee demanded three games of basketball to decide the county championship, to be played between the winner of Class B tournament and the Class A team, even when the schools concerned preferred to play only one game. The loser of the first game even offered to forfeit the other two games. It resulted in the loss of $2.85 on the second game.

There have been objections to dividing the gate receipts the night of the final Class B games, two-thirds to the league and one-third to Snyder. Snyder's game, the third at night, was with Forsan, a strong contender for the district championship. Snyder put on a special advertising campaign for the game. It had no relationship with the tournament except that it was played the same night. Chances were that the Snyder-Forsan game would increase the receipts 50 per cent for the session. Whether it brought more or less than 50 per cent in-

Quartet of Open Dates Remain on Hill's Calendar

Four open dates remain on the Tiger gridiron calendar as released several days ago by Coach W. W. "Red" Hill. One of them will probably remain open in order to give the football boys a two-week rest in the heart of the season, but the others will be dated soon.

With practically all the 1936 squad returning—the exact number is not yet known—Snyder has the best football prospects she has seen in several years, believes Coach Hill.

Following is the new schedule, open dates and all: September 10—Spur at Snyder. September 17—Open. September 24—Lamesa at Snyder. October 1—Snyder at Rotan. October 8—Roby at Snyder. October 15—Open. October 22—Snyder at Loraine. October 29—Merkel at Snyder. November 5—Open. November 12—Snyder at Roscoe. November 19—Open. November 25—Colorado at Snyder.

Lace's Father Improves.

After lingering near death for several days from an attack of flu and pneumonia, the father of W. R. Lace, county agent, began steady improvement two days ago. Mr. and Mrs. Lace have been at the bedside at Burleson for several days. They returned Tuesday.

Priest—"Do you take this woman for butter or for wurst?" Groom—"Oh, liver alone, I never sausage nerve."

There has been complaint, too, about paying for the use of the gymnasium at Snyder. This building is well equipped, and is expensive to operate. Admission was charged to the games. It is reasonable for such an activity to pay expenses.

Bills incurred by me are as follows: Officials $18, telephone calls $3, correspondence $1, telegram $5 cents, gymnasium, lights, heat, etc. $10—total $37.50. Of this amount only $10 has been paid. The balance I have paid personally and have had no reimbursement. Snyder has not proposed to make money from the meet. Its cooperation in the past financially proves its willingness to give for the league. Past hospitality and donations should not be forgotten. I have no apology to make for my decisions on emergency issues. I acted within the authority of my position, and believe I decided them to the best interests of the league.

It is not my intention to arouse antagonism nor do I wish to shirk responsibility. But if the activities of the league are to be decided outside the executive committee meetings I can not honestly give my time and approval to such action.

Showman Fries Egg Over Fantastic Table Top Stove

Ernest Fess, ace showman, is shown frying an egg on a stove that is literally cold. The stove looks like an ordinary table top. It is cold to the touch of the hand but still can cook by means of a new development of research. The stove incidentally will not be available for the public for some years to come. It is demonstrated merely as an evidence that America is progressing. It is shown at the General Motors Parade of Progress Exposition which is coming to Big Spring Tuesday and Wednesday, March 2 and 3, at the request of the Chamber of Commerce there.

General Motors Parade of Progress To Be Shown at Big Spring March 2-3

Big Spring is to have the honor of a showing of the famous General Motors Parade of Progress exposition. The exposition, costing over a million dollars to construct, is to be in Big Spring March 2 and 3, with showings on Tuesday evening and all day Wednesday.

The exposition, heralded as a "circus of science," is a fantastic, fascinating world's fair, which depicts the march of time with progress. It is entertaining to the nth degree, as well as instructional. It has been acclaimed by countless millions of people in its year or more of operation. The show, while sponsored by General Motors Corporation, is non-commercial in nature. No effort is made to sell the products of the sponsor, nor is advertising a part of the show. It is an exposition which endeavors to build confidence in Americans that America is progressing and is continuing to progress, that with the hand in hand cooperation between research and industry, progress is inevitable.

The exposition comes to Big Spring at the invitation of the Chamber of Commerce, which has been endeavoring to secure it for the past six months. The show is made up of 43 huge trucks, the largest ever built, some weighing as much as 20 tons, and 60 men make up the personnel. The trucks are set up side by side, and their sides lift to form roofs. Inner panels come down to form floors so that a series of rooms is formed. These rooms consist of an old kitchen, with kerosene lamps, hand pump and the conveniences of yesterday. Adjacent to it is the kitchen of today, with its gleaming porcelain, metal and modern conveniences. Next to it is the living room of today, with its luxurious appointments in soft colored, comfortable surroundings. Next to it is the living room of yesterday, with its harsh color schemes, uncomfortable seats, etc.

Many rooms depict progress by a graphic demonstration of the commodities of today and days gone by. A huge tent seating 2,000 people houses a stage show and moving picture presentation. Sound is transmitted through space without radio or wire but on a light beam. Eggs are fried on a really cold stove. The stage show is the highlight of the show. It is free to man, woman and child. School holidays have been declared by most of the schools in the surrounding area so that every child in the trading area might avail themselves of the opportunity to see what the children of Dallas saw at the Centennial.

Recognition For Home Supervisor Of County's R. A.

Recognition of the important part the home supervisor is playing in the advancement of home economics in rural life has just come from the Texas State Home Economics Association through an invitation to Willie Lock, Scurry County home supervisor for the Resettlement Administration, to join the association. Invitation to join the association indicates recognition of a professional standard of work in a program which contributes definitely to a better understanding of home problems and the part home economics can play in creating a more ideal family life.

Miss Lock confines her activities to work with home-makers in families who have borrowed money from the Resettlement Administration under the supervised loan plan. She works with the women in planning their annual home budget, in executing this budget, and in carrying their share of the burden of repayment. Their "share" is the raising and conserving of every possible item of food, the making of clothing and bedding, and the planning of inexpensive recreation so that cash income from crops may be applied against family indebtedness.

Mrs. Nelena Kirkland, district home supervisor for this county, has also been invited to join the Texas Home Economics Association.

PROFITS FROM AREA TOURNEY

Superintendent C. Wedgeworth, who was largely responsible for bringing the district basketball tournament to Snyder last week-end, and Principal King Sides, who directed the games from a local standpoint, report the two-day affair was profitable to Snyder in several ways.

Despite the fact that no entry fees were charged for competing players of 11 cities and counties, contrary to past tournaments, the meet had enough interest to bring an actual profit to the school system, after all expenses were paid.

On top of this direct tournament profit, eating places, drug stores and other places of business report extra returns. Too, interest of 10 counties was focused on Snyder for the tournament, and that, of course, had considerable advertising value, in the opinion of civic and school leaders.

The San Antonio livestock market, one of the important cattle markets in the Southwest, handled more than $7,039,063 worth of livestock during 1936. The 1935 volume was $5,739,396.

Representative James P. Buchanan of Brenham, Martin Dies of Orange and Nat Patton of Crockett were recorded as not voting.

HAMLIN TAKES DISTRICT FLAG FROM FORSAN

Blasting the lid from all dope concocted before, during and after the district basketball tournament here Friday and Saturday, the Hamlin Pied Pipers took the flag in the final tilt from the sure-footed Forsan quintet, 26 to 23.

In the most dazzling finish ever seen in a court game in Snyder, the Pipers pulled out of a 20-9 Forsan lead at the end of the third quarter, piled up 17 points in about five minutes while the bewildered Howard County champions could throw in only one field goal and one foul.

It was Center Hubbard, tallest man in the tournament, who started the sharpshooting rally that found the Jones County team slipping in shots from all angles. Farmer made three, Bonds one, Hubbard three and McCoy one field throw in that stunning five minutes.

Highlight of Tournament. This highlight game of the tournament was seconded by keen interest from beginning to end, despite the fact that Snyder's Tigers, one of five pre-tourney favorites, were eliminated in the first round. The local defeat was by Hamlin, 21 to 29. Since Snyder held Hamlin to a closer score than any other team except the finalist, she was easily the third best team in the two-day play-off.

Hamlin goes to Abilene Saturday to vie with Dublin, Crews and Ewart for regional honors. The winner goes to the state meet to compete with seven other regional winners for the Texas Interscholastic League crown.

The first three teams of the week-end tourney were awarded black and silver trophies. Members of an all-tourney team, selected by coaches, were given small gold basketballs.

Hubbard Leads List.

Hubbard of Hamlin led the first string line-up. Bonds of Hamlin, Chambers, Scuddy and Loper of Forsan were the other topnotch five. Honorable mention went to C. Fogle and Powell of Tuscola, Farmer of Hamlin, Crafts of Peacock, Parker of Forsan, Reese and Halley of Abilene.

Early elimination of Abilene by Tuscola and Tuscola's later loss to Hamlin were biggest upsets of the games. Peacock, coming unheralded from Stonewall County, advanced to the semi-finals, where they were taken out by Forsan, 29 to 18. In the tilt for third place, Forsan eliminated the short-handed Peacock five, 23 to 12. Scores for all games of the tournament were: Abilene 32, Jayton 18; Hamlin 29, Snyder 21; Peacock 23, Big Spring 17; Tuscola 24, Abilene 20; Hamlin 29, Colorado 11; Forsan 30, Hobbs 17; Peacock 24, Sweetwater 13; Hamlin 29, Tuscola 18; Forsan 23, Peacock 11; Tuscola 22, Peacock 16; Hamlin 26, Forsan 23.

Church of Christ

Last Lord's Day the subject was: "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature, he that believes and is baptized: into the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit shall be saved or have remission of sins." (See Matt. 28:18-20; Mark 16:15-16; Luke 24:46-47.)

Next Sunday the subject will be "Conversion," as based on the Great Commission. Sunday night: "The Blessedness of Dying in the Lord." Come and hear those subjects discussed.—J. Porter Sanders, minister.

First Methodist Church

Rev. Sam Young, presiding elder of the Sweetwater district, will preach at the 11:00 o'clock service next Sunday. Let's greet him with a full house.

In the evening our congregation will visit with the First Christian Church to join in farewell services of Bro. McPherson.—H. C. Gordon, pastor.

Six-Foot Twins Help Tiger Cause

These six-foot twins, Wayne and Waylan Gladson, were the spark-plugs that started Tiger cagers on a winning streak three weeks ago, and left them near the top among district teams. They were ineligible to play before mid-term.

Miss Barrett at Lubbock. Lela Mae Barrett, daughter of Mrs. Stone Carden, is doing well with her courses in the nurses' training school at West Texas Hospital, Lubbock, her mother reports. She takes work in the Lubbock High School and at Texas Technological College in addition to regular hospital routine. Already doing special, the local girl entered the hospital in September.

D. 1937, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court as No. 3026, wherein Anna Thelma Brazell is plaintiff, and John Edward Brazell is defendant, and said petition alleging that plaintiff is an actual bona fide inhabitant of the state of Texas for one year and of the county of Scurry for six months. That plaintiff and defendant were legally married on July 22, 1934, at Sierra Blanca, Texas, that they lived together as husband and wife until on or about the 25th day of July, 1936. That about one month after said marriage defendant began a course of cruel, harsh and inhuman treatment toward plaintiff, which continued to grow worse throughout the time they lived together as husband and wife. That on or about the 25th day of July, 1936, defendant came home drunk, cursed, slapped and choked plaintiff, that because of said cruel treatment which rendered their further living together as husband and wife insupportable plaintiff was forced to leave and did leave defendant on July 25, 1936, and they have not since lived together as husband and wife. That there were no children born of said marriage and there was no community property of said plaintiff and defendant. Plaintiff asks judgment of the court, dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant and that her maiden name of Anna Thelma Lov-Elace be restored to her, and for such other and further relief to which she may be entitled. Robinson is plaintiff, and Eulalia Robinson is defendant, and said petition alleging that plaintiff has been an actual bona fide inhabitant of the state of Texas for 12 months, and has resided in Scurry County for six months next preceding the filing of such petition; that plaintiff and defendant were legally married April 10, 1935; that they have no children and no community property; that defendant, after their marriage, was harsh and unkind and tyrannical towards plaintiff and abused plaintiff by words and acts and failed and refused to administer and nurse plaintiff in time of sickness, rendering their living together further as husband and wife insupportable. Plaintiff prays for judgment divorcing him from defendant.

Herein fail not, and have you before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Fisher County Show For Club Boys Will Be Held This Week

When is the Fisher County boys' club show to be held? When must I bring in my calf? Does a pig have to weigh under 200 pounds? Who will be our judges? Are we going to have a parade? Will my calf be a winner?

These and many other questions that are being asked of T. H. Roensch, Fisher County agent, assure him that the club show, scheduled to be held at Roby Saturday of this week, is creating much interest in Fisher County and adjoining communities.

"We expect a large number of people to attend to see one of the finest exhibits of boys' livestock projects ever to be exhibited in one county in Texas," says Roensch.

The show will open at 9:30 a. m. with the parade. Judging will start promptly at 11:00 a. m.

Justiceburg Taking Drama to Fluvanna

Justiceburg dramatic club will present "One Minute to Twelve," a comedy mystery drama, Friday night of this week, beginning at 7:45 o'clock, in Fluvanna High School auditorium.

One-half of the proceeds—10 cents and 20 cents—will go to the Fluvanna school system. Special vaudeville numbers will be presented between the acts. Justiceburg and Fluvanna folks invite the public.

Santa Fe Loads Gain.

Sharp freight load gains on the Santa Fe and Union Pacific systems provided an important footnote to observers of business this week. Samuel T. Bledsoe, chairman and president of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway, said carloadings on the company's lines for the first 19 days of the month indicated an average increase of about 20 per cent.

Similarity of Congressmen's Names Has Repercussion from Plains Paper

Times Must Have Been Mistaken; Apologies to Charley Guy for Too Many Assumptions.

If two G. H. Mahons had not been elected to Congress—one of them from Colorado, Texas, and the other from South Carolina—there would be no necessity for this article. In fact, there is no absolute necessity for it now. But The Times follows Al Smith and the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal in wishing to "keep the record straight." So we elaborate.

The Times, in an editorial last week, gently scolded Charley Guy, editor-publisher of the Lubbock paper, for seeming to cast reflections on our G. H. Mahon's motives in posing for a much-published picture with the other Congressman Mahon. Guy thought he discovered information that the South Carolina name is really J. Heyward Mahon. Actually, both are named G. H. Mahon.

The Times doesn't blame Guy for getting upset over the affair. A letter received from him this week reveals that he is not only a Mahon backer, but an enthusiastic, active Mahon backer. So our apologies are in order... apologies from one George Mahon friend to another, from one newspaper friend to another. And with apologies we gladly submit these paragraphs from Guy's letter:

"I have read with interest, amusement and some chagrin, the editorial in your last issue of The Times, entitled 'Mahon vs. Mahon.'"

"For your information—and I shall be pleased to show it to you upon occasion of your next visit to Lubbock—the list of congressmen, as issued by the national Democratic party in what is called by the party its official list, shows the South Carolina Mahon as 'J. Heyward Mahon'. However, whether he is 'G. Heyward', or 'J. Heyward'—a small matter, amusing to me and not the reason for this letter to you—'Where I was chagrined at your editorial was in the implication that I have been 'sharpshooting' at George Mahon, engaging to quote your 'usually right' Mr. F. I. Townsend, in 'cheap sniping' and in your flat statement that I have 'never been overly enthusiastic' about George Mahon. Your 'usually right' Mr. Townsend is entitled to his opinion that I have been doing some 'cheap sniping', but his opinion does not make it a fact. If I did any 'sniping', cheap or otherwise, it was at numerous Washington 'feature services', which, to my certain knowledge, never let the facts spoil a good story.

"Now, as to your statement that I have never been 'overly enthusiastic' about George Mahon, I have become personal friends and, I hope, will continue to remain as such forever. I have the highest respect and regard for him as a man and as a public official, as well as a warm personal fondness for him. It may be that when George made his first race and we were supporting Clark Mullen, George discussed with me, not once but several times, political questions and problems in Lubbock and over the South Plains. He came to me for information and said, at the time, that while he knew we were supporting Judge Mullen he felt that I would be honest and square with him.

interest you to know that when he is in Lubbock or I am in Washington, we are together frequently—and for social, not political purposes. You might ask George about these statements next time you see him. Joseph's Granary.

Secretary Wallace: "Yes, it is high time that we worked out a modern and practical adaptation of the ever-normal granary of Joseph. . . This whole problem of bringing about agricultural stability in the face of widely varying weather is one which will demand the best thoughts of the wisest farmers and the most conscientious business men."

Letters from the People

The President, the Constitution, the Supreme Court and the People. Editors, The Times:

A few days ago the president of the United States submitted a message to the Congress, in which he made certain recommendations with reference to the judiciary.

I take no stock in this talk that the president is seeking to become a "dictator." I do not believe that the president has any such intent or desire, but that he is sincerely endeavoring to promote the welfare of the people.

The president, carried away by his overwhelming victory at the polls, has evidently reached the conclusion that his program is of more importance than the Supreme Court or the Constitution, or both.

I relied upon this promise made by the party and voted for the nominees of the democratic party, as I have done since I became a voter.

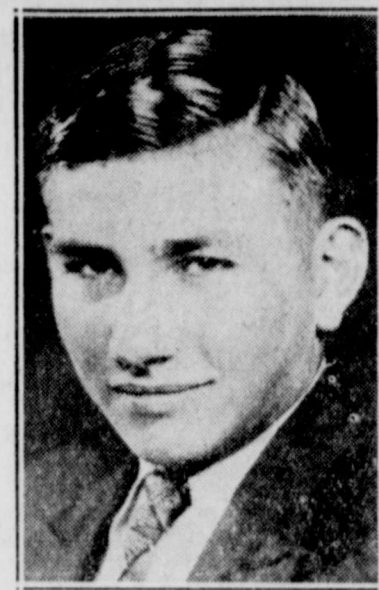

The effect of his proposed action does not stop when his administration ends, but stands as a precedent for all time. I admit and appreciate the fine things that the president has accomplished, but there is a solemn duty resting upon every citizen, and that is to protect and preserve the heritage bequeathed to us by our forefathers.

SNYDER HIGH PERSONALITIES

TOMMY WINTERS

Tommy has brown hair, gray eyes, and weighs 165 pounds. His hobby is playing ball. He likes to play football, basketball, baseball and other such games.

Even though Tommy has finished high school, he plays on an independent basketball team and sometimes referees for games.

He then asks: "What prevents such assaults which however immoral in substance would be perfectly legal in form? Not the mechanism of the government, for all its checks have been evaded."

Article 3 of the Constitution provides: "The judicial power of the United States shall be vested in one Supreme Court, and in such inferior courts as the Congress from time to time ordains and establishes."

Section 2 of Article 3 provides: "The judicial power shall extend to all cases in law and equity arising under this Constitution."

Sawdust from Texas cedar trees, when pressed into boards, makes ideal sounding boards for musical instruments and the boards are unexcelled for interior paneling.
