

When It's Springtime Below The Caprock

WITH SPRING, each year, the old yearning comes back . . . a desire to own something new, or at least to change things around and clean up the old things that must, of necessity, be carried over to the new season. Such a yearning is justified, too. It does one good to want to blossom out in new things.

SNYDER MERCHANTS are heralding the new season which Springtime and Easter bring. Their stocks of merchandise and professional services particularly fit them to offer you every assistance to satisfy that yen for the new and the colorful. On the following pages they bring you their timely messages.

The Snyder Merchants below prove they are abreast of the Times with New Spring Modes and Services—

Simple Feminine Trend Is "Tops" Says Mrs. Caton

"Fashions have gone feminine, even in sports wear," comments Mrs. Joe Caton, head of Bryant-Link Company's ready-to-wear department, as she returns from spring fashion shows in Dallas and Lubbock. "Prints are so good," she points out, "that they speak for themselves."

In her department, she follows the idea of leading manufacturers of women's clothing, who say of the new spring and summer Snyder-knit and Bradley knit frocks, "Sell customers with the fun of wearing these delightfully simple dresses, each with its own amusing little tricks of trimming," and Mrs. Caton does that very thing. As a foundation for these and other frocks in her department she suggests, "Be glorified by Gossard," a garment which will keep you irresistibly lovely.

The better lines of silks featured by the local store include LeVine and Franklin dresses. Each frock in the famous LeVine line lives up to the tradition of being "just a little better than necessary," and Franklins are known for their snap, youth and individuality. With either of these, Mrs. Caton says, "You'll win all honors in fashion, if not in bridge, with these distinctive interpretations of spring fashion."

Bryant-Link also offers the Annie Rooney and Prima Donna in both silk and cotton in their tub frocks—colorful prints and soft pastels—and a full line of Line Lady blouses are shown in devastating styles. A group of smart but inexpensive spring coats is arranged in Bryant-Link's display window this week, and the local store shows smart children's frocks—printed wash silks, pastel crepes and crisp organdies and dotted swiss.

"Straw heads the Easter parade," says Mrs. Caton, and she displays the "Catalinas" and "Patricias" in her better lines of hats, and others smart in style. Moderately priced felts will set off the popular tailored suits.

Bryant-Link features in men's

RITZ AIDS TO SKIN AT SEARS

"The skin has a personality all its own," says Mrs. C. J. Sims of J. H. Sears Company, "and Charles of The Ritz beauty aids are perfected treatments and make-ups to glorify your beauty." Mrs. Sims personally recommends the line as truly "beauty in the modern mode," and she reminds local women that Charles of The Ritz is "dedicated to her majesty, the smart American woman."

The local store offers a full line of Charles of The Ritz perfect creams, lotions and make-up.

At Sears, one of Snyder's leading department stores, buyers may find smart spring styles in ladies' dresses, hats, shoes, men's and children's wear.

To brighten up the old frock, Mrs. Ollie Stinson at Sears suggests that a new scarf, fresh collar, new button and buckles, corsage or one of their lovely hand made linen handkerchiefs is ideal. Gay new prints are shown for spring frocks, too.

Airmaid Hosiery Is Handled by Stinson

Makers of Airmaid hosiery, handled in Snyder exclusively by the two Stinson Drug Stores, insist that women "Wear Airmaid and compare them with your former hose expense." "More miles per pair" is the slogan for the sky clear ringless hosiery.

Airmaid hosiery, Airmate socks for men, and Airmate Ankle for children are shown at the two Stinsons in attractive display cases. Hose are an important part of an Easter costume, the dealers say, and they say that they can suit your color taste in Airmaid.

Newest hosiery shades in Airmaids are Cubatan, noonday, plaza beige, avenue, swanky, moondusk and smokemist. In Airmate socks there are the navy, black, white, gray, nubrown and French tan.

wear, Hart Shaffner & Marx and Rose Brothers suits in spring patterns, new spring fashions in Lauderdale hats, and Arrow shirts.

CAVE ADVISES FITCH BEAUTY

"Beauty by Fitch" will enhance your natural beauty and correct skin ailments, according to Mrs. Jack Colwell of the Cave Beauty Shop. "New Easter permanent waves under the Easter bonnet will make you feel distinctive, and the new spring hat styles call for smart new coiffures and lovely skin to cleverly catch the spirit of Easter," she says.

The Cave's machine permanent wave, the Du-Art, and the machineless wave, the Nu-Ray, are expertly handled by Mrs. Colwell and her assistant, Mrs. Jack Wright, the former Maxine Shuler, who has been with the Cave for several weeks. Before her marriage, Mrs. Wright had her own beauty shop here, formerly located in The Fair Store.

Facials, manicures, finger waves, hot oil treatments, as well as permanent waves, shampoos and sets are offered at the Cave Beauty Shop.

"MORE THAN FIFTY-TWO YEARS OF SERVICE TO WEST TEXAS"

Simplicity Tops Spring Modes At Hollywood Shop

"Simplicity is a characteristic of new spring styles," according to Mrs. John Keller of the Hollywood Shop, "but it is a simplicity without dullness. Soft lines are enhanced by tricks of trim, novelty belts, clever jackets."

Examples of these are in the lovely new Ellen Kaye frocks, "famous for their fit," and in the smart little College Campus dresses. Their lines of frocks and suits in beautiful fabrics dress the modern style seeker with distinction for every important occasion. Mrs. Keller says. Nellie Don wash frocks for at home or town wear make one feel smart, yet simply clad. Makers of these frocks insist that you "Just try one on."

Printzess suits, charmingly designed by the famous makers of Printzess coats, are softly tailored as are the spring coats by Printzess and West Way suits at the Hollywood Shop.

Adding one of the smart suits or dresses to a foundation of Vanity Fair underthings, topping with one of those delightful "New Manselle" straws, with a crystal leathersgoods bag, soft Fownes gloves, a gay kerchief and one of the variety of pretty corsages at the Hollywood Shop will make milady indeed proud to head the Easter parade, Mrs. Keller thinks.

The dainty feminine evening dresses, wraps and bags shown at the Hollywood Shop simply breathe romance, and spring and summer formals would indeed be joyful for wearers of them.

Shirley Temple frocks and hats for children are also being featured at the Hollywood Shop. These saucy little costumes would make any youngster happy to join the Easter parade of spring fashion.

What About Skirt Lengths?

Probably the most asked question of all about new clothes is "what about skirt lengths?" To which the answer is, "definitely shorter." Twelve inches from the ground seems to be the average accepted length, but many smart women are having their dresses made as short as 13 1/2 inches from the ground! This still covers the knees amply, and thanks to the flared skirtlines, keeps them covered, even in a seated position.

Peasant Influence Seen.

Peasant influence still continues in all phases of fashion, and in neckwear may be recognized in lovely embroideries and effective borders, styled much as are the festive native costumes taken out and worn for holidays.

JOE SUGGESTS TAILOR MADES

"With returning prosperity and the ability to enlarge their wardrobes this spring and summer, men will have a strong demand for made to measure suits," predict Joe Graham of Graham & Martin, tailors and cleaners.

"For these made to measure suits we have the largest and most complete line of samples ever carried, including all sorts of plaids and tropical worsteds in a variety of weights and colors. For the more conservative dressers, our imported gabardines are better for spring and summer," he continues.

In stock at Graham & Martin's, there is a nice group of suits ready for Easter—they are in grays, tans and blues. Fine woollens, expert needlework and outstanding values are the fundamental principles on which suit business at the shop is built.

The famous Dri-Sheen method of dry cleaning used at the local tailor shop is sure to please the most fastidious customer, and if the new suit won't be here until later, the local firm invites you to dress up your old suit or frock with a trip to their plant.

Flowers in Bloom.

Flowers seem to be growing everywhere, and corsages are more plentiful than ever before. In the very youngest type of gown, flat flowers are used to form complete boleros, little capes or jackets. Some flowers are made to be applied as clips on low necklines. Embroidery occurs again and again, particularly on the sheerest of nets.

LET'S TALK ABOUT CLOTHES

BY A YOUNG MODERN

Chill March winds and April rains make practical-minded women a little fearful about venturing out in their new, light-weight spring finery. The problem of achieving a stylish appearance and also preserving comfort is perplexing but not impossible to solve.

The trick can be managed by combining some of the warm, dependable numbers from your wintry wardrobe with gay new accessories that announce spring. For instance, that dark suit, which still feels good on biting days, can be transformed with a fresh, new-looking striped blouse. Or perhaps a dotted one in bright colors will suit the taste better.

Next comes the dark crepe dress, another winter hangover which can be revamped. Be sure that the sleeves are short, and add to it one of those string, hemp or woolen belts plaited in wild colors. Then invest in one of the shining patent leather bags that come in so many shapes and sizes. Get one of the smart new shades, and it will give you good service all summer.

As the finishing touches to this early-season affair, try a pair of beige, white or light-colored gloves that will contrast with your dress or bag. Now perch on your head one of those small dark straws that are guaranteed not to blow away, and you're ready to start out. If an icy blast suddenly comes your way, you can don the heavy coat without ruining your outfit.

Some people economize only when they are broke.

ADELLE GIVES BEAUTY HINTS

"You'll be at your lovely best, we know, in the Easter parade if you take advantage of our beauty treatment by modern science in the demonstration of Luzier beauty aids," Mrs. L. O. Smith of Adelle's Beauty Shop tells her patrons. The Luzier slogan, "Service Above Everything," is stressed by Mrs. Smith as she gives the Luzier facials to correct and freshen skins for the new spring fashions.

"New equipment is being added to our already well equipped shop," and Mrs. Smith asks that local women let her attend to their beauty needs. A variety of special approved modes of hair styling to fit individual personalities are offered at Adelle's.

Specialties at Adelle's include facials with the Luzier products, permanent waving, shampoos and sets, finger waves, manicuring, tints and dyes.

Mrs. Smith will be one of Snyder's representatives at the annual beauty show in Lubbock first of next week, where Paul Compan, famous Hollywood hair stylist, will give demonstrations and lessons in finger waving.

Mrs. Grant Better Equipped to Serve

Mrs. Lee Grant, who is well known to the public, is better equipped to serve local people and assist with their sewing needs since she moved to her present location, across the street from the fire station.

She will be glad to handle commercial sewing of all kinds—covered buttons, hemstitching, button holes and general sewing are the regular services offered by Mrs. Grant. Tailoring and dressmaking are her features of the new shop.

One of the most obvious developments in the men's style world is the fact that manufacturers are making each suit style in more of a diversity of fabric patterns. In this way, the most conservative.

Feminine Flavor Features Penney Easter Costumes

Dozens of new Easter frocks and hats are being shown at J. C. Penney Company this week by Mrs. Margie McClinton, head of the ready-to-wear department, to buyers of Easter costumes. "Every dress is sparkling with the 'feminine flavor' that is so taking the country by storm."

She says, "Dramatic styles in new frocks fairly breathe originality and distinction. . . Princess types with their flattering lines are predominant. . . One piece dresses are interesting with their new necklines, exciting sleeves. . . Smart dusty shades and refreshing prints are sharing equally in the spring fashion parade."

"Hats are so designed to glorify your Easter costume. They are so youthful and flattering—these salons, medium brims, off-the-face models and tailored straws. And draw it must be for Easter, any one of a number of straws. It may be one of the Sisal straws, imported rough straws, fine soft straws. These new hat models are shown at Penney's in the most delightful colors."

If you make your own Easter frock, Manager H. L. Vann suggests that Snyder women look over Penney's stock of lovely new silks, crepe and taffeta, and follow the design of Excella patterns.

Coats in spring weights and soft spring colors as well as the new suits are being displayed in the ready-to-wear department at Penney's, as are frocks and hats for children.

New spring shoes, hose, bags, corsages, handkerchiefs must express the 1937 spring styles along with the Easter bonnet and frock, too, Penney's salespeople tell buyers in this area. New accessories brighten even your oldest costume, they say.

A nice display of men's hats, shirts, underwear, suits, ties, socks and shoes are found at Penney's, also. Fashions for men are new and interesting this spring.

Plenty of Choice.

Choosing a coat can't be a very great problem this spring, because there are only three major types to choose from, and although there is a variety in each type, they are so definitely suited to particular requirements that once you see them all you know exactly what you want.

PENNEY'S

J. C. PENNEY COMPANY, Incorporated

Mrs. Fish Chose These Adjectives To Greet Spring

"Radiant, gracious and charming," are some of the adjectives used by Mrs. Walla Fish of The Economy Store to describe new spring fashions. "Morning, afternoon and evening dresses, all, are found in our ready-to-wear department."

The well known Cardinal frocks are outstanding in the group of daytime frocks shown at Economy. Cardinal dresses are seen with fitted jackets, boleros, redingotes—any kind of a jacket dress will be fashionable for the Easter parade. Solid colors and splashy prints, which are so very smart this season, are designed with graceful sleeves, new necklines and "different" trim.

Flowered chiffon party dresses from Economy's large stock are suggested by Mrs. Fish for afternoon and evening parties and club meetings. In that group are also the saucy little nets and taffetas, featuring the feminine note in spring styles more than ever before. Hats of soft straw, gay patent bags, spring shoes and other accessories also follow the gay idea in style.

Economy's selection of evening dresses for spring and summer formals are startling in design. Lace is combined with taffeta, and other popular materials are net, mousseline de sole, crepe and satin. With these lovely creations, Mrs. Fish suggests their metallic sandals with either high or low heels and a selection of gold and silver sequins or beaded evening bags.

Simplicity patterns will assist style seekers in planning the fashionable homemade spring wardrobe. The selection of silks and cottons in refreshing patterns will also help as will the array of button buckles.

Peters shoes, nationally advertised all-leather styles, are handled by The Economy Store for men, women and children. Packards for men and Vitality shoes for women are also shown by the store.

Ben Franklin Store Featuring Vanette

Ben Franklin Store is Snyder's dealer for the lovely Vanette full fashioned ringless hosiery, famous for its appearance and long wear. Stock of Vanettes at Ben Franklin is complete to give knee lengths and full lengths in service weight or the sheerest chiffon in newest spring and summer colors, according to Manager Nathan Rosenberg.

Featured new colors in Vanette hosiery are Oubatan, plaza, beige, swanky and noonday. Oubatan, the favorite, is a rich copperish tone to be worn with white, pastels, navy and medium blues, warm beiges of coppery castis, greens, tortoise and light browns, rust and black. Plaza beige is lighter in the beige group; swanky is a blend of the plaza beige with gray; and noonday is the pretty gray shade.

How to "Make" Your Dress.

An attractive fashion detail, and one which often "makes" the dress, is found in sleeves which have grown shorter and shorter, so that those coming a little below the elbow, and the regular short sleeves are most popular, with broadened, stiffened shoulders accentuating the "lifted" young silhouette. Softly feminine effects are also gained by means of gathers, shirring, groups of tucks, and softly unpressed pleats.

Choose Your Own Style.

There is so much to know about the new dresses, yet there is on one specific style which takes pre-eminence over all others. In other words, you needn't try to follow any fashion dictum this season, because you can individualize whatever you wear by your own personality. There are, however, two predominating trends; the one the princess flare adaptation, and the other the straight silhouette dress.

In the softer, dressier blouses, jabots and frills are very well liked, because they can be so flatteringly revealed by the suit jacket openings. Hand detailing is seen much more generously than heretofore, particularly in the collars and cuffs, and in the broderie treatments.

REVERSE ROLL RECOMMENDED

"With spring just around the corner, hair stylists from the Atlantic to the Pacific are designing new modes to greet the new season," says Mrs. Woodie Scarborough of Every Woman's Beauty Shop.

Of the new hair styles, Mrs. Scarborough comments, "The reverse roll creates a casual charm and interesting variation in the around-the-head roll in evening enchantment. Forehead flares and swept-up waves at the temples bring the halo roll high on the head. For the lady of sports a popular coiffure is that with tailored curls and a smooth crown."

"The arrival of spring," she says, "is always a signal for us to feature a special reconditioning scalp service to prepare for new permanent wave. My patrons are sure to purchase to compliment the season's gay new costumes. I believe that every head of hair should have at least one reconditioning scalp treatment before permanent waving, if best results are to be obtained."

"We also assist our patrons in the selection of cosmetics to suit their particular needs, and show them how to apply rouge and powder in a professional manner so that it does not merely cover up a shiny face, but enhances the appearance of the face."

Men's Interests in Good Clothes Grow

So many men are facing the problem of replacements with the purchasing of spring wardrobes that it's just as well they go about the whole thing right, from start to finish. Snyder's tailor shops and dry goods stores are showing an outstanding array of men's clothing, and are anxious to help local men make choices of spring and summer clothes.

There is an added formality to men's wear this year, and if they must admit the truth, it's only partly due to woman's desire to see men dressed in keeping with her own formality, because men have become equally style-conscious.

TOWLE'S GIFTS ARE FEATURED

Mrs. H. G. Towle and Mrs. Velma Bruton have an array of beautiful jewelry to show Easter shoppers at the Towle Jewelry Company. New shipments of beautiful costume jewelry, lovely gifts and Chinaware and silverware for the Easter dinner are specialties.

Now that you're making Easter plans for dinner parties, take advantage of the fact that you need new table accessories, and shop Towle's newest China and glassware. Styles are fascinating, colors are interestingly new, and a full line of items gives you so much from which to choose.

In honor of the Easter bride, there is a handsome collection of jewelry at Towle's, all quite specially priced to start the young couple on a thrifty journey through life. There are solitaires for Easter engagements, too, and it's so satisfying to know that this firm's reputation for quality diamonds is one of the best.

Youngsters Finding It Fun to Dress Up

Everything about the new spring clothes for the younger members of the family is delightfully simple, irresistibly colorful, and refreshingly new. Choosing a spring and Easter wardrobe for the youngsters can only prove a delightful adventure, both for parent and child.

With so many clothes specially designed for little screen stars, any little girl can be glorified as well as is her favorite young actress, and all Snyder stores have so many pretty things for youngsters. Shirley Temple, Jane Withers, Anne Shirley, Virginia Weidler—all lend their names to clothes designed exactly as their personal garments.

What's New for Her?

What are the details that make the new blouses "new?" That is a most logical question, and one very easily answered. Firstly, there is a great deal of tucked detail in all clothes, and it appears at its best in the semi-tailored and dressier shirt blouses, often worked to give the entire bosom effect. Similarly, stitching in glove stitching effect is a repeated favorite and cuff studs give that "well dressed man" look to every woman.

Singing your own praises makes poor music for the other fellow.

In line with the new aspect of sophistication are the lower necklines, usually in V's, and occasionally in squared effects, which are such a refreshing change from the more usual higher necklines which, however, will continue, because they're too good and too wearable to go out of fashion!

Although very few women feel sufficiently well poised to wear it, the cape is undeniably smart, and so should be in every complete wardrobe. More comfortable than ever, it now offers shoulder shaping that completely does away with slipping off, and it is equally smart over dresses as it is over two piece suits.

WITH A GIFT FROM TOWLE'S

You'll make it a really happy occasion if you choose your gifts here. A large selection of Diamonds, Wrist Watches in all designs, and costume jewelry for all occasions make selection of an appropriate gift an easy matter at our shop.

Fair Store Says All Dresses New In Color, Design

"New romantic colors, festive nosegays scattered on bright backgrounds—print or plain—every dress is new in design and color for the Easter parade," says H. L. Davis, manager of The Fair Store.

The remarks are credible to the new stock of lovely dresses at The Fair. Prints and pastels are shown in a lovely variety of sheers and novelty crepes. You are in a costume that will mark your fashion wisdom, when you select from this collection of smart frocks.

The Fair's new shipment of Easter millinery is here. Types of "The Janice" to wear with your suit, your print or your sheer Easter frock. The new straws are in colors and types to flatter the Easter dress. Wash frocks, featuring the Polly Ann and Suzette, at The Fair are fresh and dainty. The pastel linens and cottons are pretty, too.

New shipment of yards and yards of cotton prints are displayed near the front of the store, and the gay printed silks are shown along with a variety of buttons, buckles, corages and other trimmings for the make-your-own wardrobe.

At The Fair, buyers will find the widely advertised Dr. Austin's shoes for both men and women, as well as the Bob Smart shoes for men and children's school and dress shoes. White, black, brown, gray and bright colors are seen in women's spring shoes.

Stetson, Davis and Bancroft are the three best known styles of men's hats found at The Fair. New shipments were received just last week.

HERMLEIGH READY FOR LEAGUE MEET FRIDAY-SATURDAY

French Gives Road Pointer

MANY LOCALS GO TO LAMESA

"If I were a citizen living along the route of the East-West Highway, who was interested in its completion, I would do several things which I believe would bring this important trans-state route to fruition."

These words, coming from the lips of W. A. French, district highway engineer, were followed by an outline of suggestions to the group of 200 delegates to the annual session of the East-West Highway Association, meeting last Thursday at Lamesa.

Snyder with a delegation of about 75 business men and band members, was the best represented town along the route, which covers territory from the Louisiana-Texas border on the east to El Paso, by way of Carlsbad Caverns.

Right-of-Way First

Continuing his address, Mr. French said in substance: "The first thing, if I lived on any section of the route which has not been surveyed and work started, I would lose no time in getting the right-of-way. You know one has to have a lot before he can build a house, and you have to have a right-of-way before a highway could be built. In fact, a county without a right-of-way for a highway has little chance of getting the road itself." (The speaker dwelt at length on this point, and to a Snyder citizen is seemed as if he were talking about Scurry County in particular.)

"Another thing I would do," he further said, "would be to get acquainted with the highway engineers who serve my county. I would acquaint them with the needs for the highway. I would do likewise with the State Highway Commission."

Keep on Keeping on

"I would keep the proposition before these road officials constantly, being careful not to become too insistent. In other words, I would endeavor to sell the officials on the highway rather than try to use coercion in getting the road built."

State Highway Engineer Gibb Gilchrist, scheduled as the main speaker for the meeting, wired his regrets at being unable to attend and speak. County Judge Omar Burleson of Anson, John M. Chamberlain of Mineral Wells, Colonel E. A. Thompson of Dallas, Porter Whaley of Fort Worth, Senator Harris of Hobbs, New Mexico, and others took part on the program.

Colonel Thompson presented a master plan of the important travel artery, pointing out attractions and advantages all along the route. Vast raw materials in the territory served by the road were stressed as arguments for the highway.

Vest Pocket Resume

Victor L. Minter, Lamesa secretary of the association, gave a vest pocket resume of the trip since meetings since the Lamesa gathering started two years ago. About three-fifths of the 730-mile route from the Louisiana line to El Paso has been completed and hard surfaced. Minter said New Mexico has done much work on the project, and the neighbor state hopes to complete the road within one year, he stated.

Snyder Band, directed by R. L. Reschard, gave a concert on the courthouse lawn previous to the meeting. Sporting new uniforms, the musicians were given wide acclaim by Lamesa and visiting citizens. The Lamesa Band also played several numbers for the crowd.

Borden County, with six delegates to the conference, showed keen interest in completion of the road.

Officers Re-Elected

All officers of the association were re-elected, upon recommendation of the nominating committee, headed by W. J. Ely of Snyder. They follow: Sam Richardson of Lamesa, president; A. G. Bearden of Lamesa, Texas secretary; Victor L. Minter of Carlsbad, New Mexico, New Mexico secretary.

Besides the band members, the following from Snyder attended the meeting: Chamber of Commerce Secretary J. W. Scott, County Judge H. J. Brice, County Commissioners Hubert Robison, H. M. Blackard and J. E. Huffman, Mayor H. G. Towle, G. H. Leath, Dwight Monroe, Jack Martin, Frank Farmer, J. R. Reeves, Pete Bridgeman, N. W. Autry, E. P. Sears, W. E. Doak, E. E. Westphalen, Henry Rosenburg, D. P. Yoder, Marcel Josephson, A. C. Alexander, Earl Louder, R. C. Miller, W. H. Ware, W. E. Holcomb, C. Wedgeworth, J. P. Billingsley, W. A. Perry, Mrs. R. J. Randals, Willard Jones.

Wanta Be in Big Car License Jam? Hurry Up, Then!

If you are one of almost 1,500 car and truck owners who had not purchased 1937 license tags yesterday afternoon, you must be a demon for punishment.

For Bernard Loughbom, tax assessor-collector, says it won't be humanly possible to dish out that many tags within two or three days without a lot of waiting and jamming in line. Thursday, April 1, at midnight, is the deadline for purchasing the plates if you expect to run your car or truck after that time.

Less than 700 sets of license plates had been purchased late yesterday for Scurry County passenger cars, commercial trucks and farm pick-ups and trucks. The total before the deadline should run at least 2,100, thinks Loughbom.

Top Fort Worth Female Hereford From Winston's

The Winston Brothers herd, Snyder, continued its winning ways last week, for the local herd being the top female out of 50 animals sold in the annual Texas Hereford Association criterion sale at Fort Worth.

The animal topped the female list at $950, and was sold to Fred DeBard of Kremling, Colorado. Top price for a bull was paid by G. P. Micham, Cisco, who purchased Don Axtell 99th from J. C. Andras & Sons, Manchester, Illinois, for $4,100. Winston Brothers animals did not place as high as usual in the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show Hereford exhibit, because, says Harrie Winston, they were not fed quite up to par. But in private sales in connection with the show, Harrie and Wade made choice consignments of several animals ranging above $1,000 and in one case above $2,000.

Winston animals captured a seventh, a twelfth, an eleventh and an eighth in various classes of the show—one of the best Hereford exhibits ever held in the Southwest.

Harris, former president of the Texas Hereford Association for two years, was re-elected as a director.

Sandstorms Carry Big Spring Wallop; Freeze Anticipated

March winds marched with sand in their claws this week, and they spewed the disagreeable particles as they marched. They also came two or three days last week, loaded with fragments of farms.

Tuesday's sandy blow furious for a short time, then settled down to a steady purr, with winter threats late in the day. Wednesday's visitor was heavier and steeper, decreasing visibility to four blocks a portion of the time.

Orchard and garden owners are waiting with anxiety for Easter weather to pass. Most of the fruit and young vegetables were only slightly hurt by freezes two weeks ago, and if they can weather the next 10 days they will increase the county's 1937 dividends by thousands of dollars.

HIGHWAY HEAD VISITS SNYDER

Chairman Robert Lee Bobbitt of the State Highway Commission, and Harry Hines, member of the commission, along with the county judge of Tarrant County, were Snyder visitors Saturday.

The trio was returning from Lubbock, where they attended semi-annual convention of the West Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association. Interest in Highway 15 prompted the group to go from Lubbock to Lamesa, thence to Snyder, in order to make a personal inspection of the East-West Highway. The Tarrant judge said Fort Worth is intensely interested in completing the road, and the commission members likewise commented favorably on the possibilities of an all-weather route in the near future.

VARIED MUSIC SCHEDULED BY LOCAL SCHOOL

Concert Band, Primary Rhythm Band and Junior High Choral Club Featured Friday.

A varied and interesting musical program will be presented Friday evening, March 26, 8:15 o'clock, in the high school auditorium, by several musical organizations of the school, promises R. L. Reschard, band director.

Featuring the program will be varied concert marches, overtures and novelty numbers by the Snyder Concert Band. Among the numbers will be "Daphnis," by Holmes, which is the required number for all Class B bands in the state band contest to be held at Lubbock late in April.

Future Tiger Band members will be seen in action as the Primary Rhythm Band plays several selections, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. W. C. Hollis.

The program will be concluded by the Junior High Choral Club, under direction of Miss Margaret Williams. The group presents a striking appearance in their special uniforms of white and blue.

Much interest has been manifested by the townspeople, and a large crowd is anticipated for this event, reports Reschard. Admission will be 10 cents to all.

Ralph Odom Better Following Operation

Ralph Odom, local businessman, was continuing gradual improvement this morning, two days after an abdominal operation in Snyder General Hospital. He was taken to the hospital Monday.

Odom's condition was critical the day of the operation. Mrs. Odom reports that although he continues to be seriously ill, he is showing steady improvement.

RACQUET FANS ENTHUSIASTIC

Tennis enthusiasm among students and townspeople reached a new high this week, when it was announced by W. C. Hollis, school racquet coach, that school and city officials will probably cooperate to build two hard-surfaced courts soon. The proposal calls for construction of the courts, headed together, just west of the new gymnasium. They would replace the caliche courts that were partially destroyed to make way for the gymnasium and its recent addition.

Funds contributed by tennis fans and business men for construction of at least one hard-surfaced court will be supplemented by funds to be raised by the graduating class, which has determined to make the courts one of its paring tokens to the school.

Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Redwine had as their guests the past week Mrs. Redwine's father, E. E. Ruse of Kerrville, and her aunt, Miss Katherine Ruse of Baltimore, Maryland.

"IDEAL GIRL"

Velma Lee Edmonson is a senior in Fluvanna High School, a star athlete and a favorite around the campus. She was recently selected by the student body of her school as "ideal girl."

Snyder Selected District Baptist Host Next March

Snyder was awarded double honors at the District 8 Baptist convention in Lamesa Thursday and Friday. She was selected as host city for the 1938 session, scheduled for March 17 and 18, and one of her laymen, H. L. Wren, was elected to serve a third consecutive year as president of the district Brotherhood, composed of Baptist men.

In his capacity as men's Brotherhood president, Wren is a vice president of the district organization, which is composed of the Mitchell-Scurry, the Big Spring and the Lamesa Associations.

A number of Baptists from Snyder and surrounding communities attended the convention. They heard a number of the denomination's state leaders, and returned with reports of one of the most spiritual and beneficial conventions held in recent years.

Mrs. H. L. Wren and Mrs. D. V. Merritt of Snyder were leaders for convention conferences. Others attending from Snyder included Rev. Lawrence Hays and H. H. Eiland; Mrs. W. T. Strickland, J. M. Newton, Jack Inman and A. C. Leslie; Misses Lola Mae Littlepage and Lillian Huffstutler.

Rev. E. F. Cole, host pastor, was elected District 8's general president. He will conduct a Baptist revival here in August. Other district officers are: C. I. Darling, Lamesa, secretary; J. H. Douglas, Big Spring, treasurer; Claude Crane, Midland, Sunday school president; W. H. Finley, Big Spring, B. T. U. president; Mrs. J. J. Strickland, Big Spring, W. M. S. president. Rev. E. P. Gotszales was elected as district missionary to the 7,000 Mexicans who reside in the district.

Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Redwine had as their guests the past week Mrs. Redwine's father, E. E. Ruse of Kerrville, and her aunt, Miss Katherine Ruse of Baltimore, Maryland.

EARLY EASTER SERVICE TO BE HELD SUNDAY

Musical Coterie, Knights Templar Invite the Public to Annual Sunrise Observance.

Sunrise Easter service, annually sponsored by Snyder's Musical Coterie and the local chapter of Knights Templar, will be held at the First Christian Church Sunday morning at 7:00 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

This traditional sunrise Easter service will be a formal opening for other special religious services during the day in churches of the town. Knights Templar will present their formal Easter readings and ceremony at the sunrise service, and Musical Coterie's contribution will be their Easter cantata.

"The Promise of Easter" by Fred B. Holton is the cantata selected by the local music club for presentation at the sunrise service. Mrs. Novis Rodgers will direct the musical portion of the program, and Mrs. A. C. Preullit will accompany. Solo parts are taken by members of the club—Mmes. Hugh Boren, W. W. Smith, Homer Snyder and John E. Sentell.

All churches of the town are requested to join in this annual Easter service, and Mrs. John E. Sentell, Musical Coterie president, urges a full attendance.

Order of the arranged program will be as follows: Processional—Mrs. A. C. Preullit, piano.

Hymn, "Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow"—Congregation. Invocation—Rev. Lawrence Hays. Formal Easter ceremony—Knights Templar.

Cantata—Musical Coterie. Benediction—Rev. James E. Spivey.

Three Communities Want Wolf Hunter

Three communities east and northeast of Snyder have organized the Cottonwood Flat Wolf Trapping Association, for the purpose of securing a government trapper to help exterminate coyotes from their farms and ranches.

Citizens of Lloyd Mountain, Cottonwood Flat and Camp Springs compose the organization.

The new association will seek to use the government trapper who is being brought into the county this month. Contributions for financing trapping in the community are requested. A. R. Church will receive the funds.

W. D. Fowler Now County's Surveyor

At a called meeting Wednesday of last week, the Commissioners Court named W. D. Fowler, who has been working on road jobs in the county for several months, as Scurry County surveyor.

The surveyor's office was vacated early this year by B. E. Robinson, who had been elected for two years. Robinson moved to Dallas.

Two Dunn Projects Completed

Dunn community has completed two outstanding projects within the past month—the first truly rural electrification line in West Texas, and a $17,000 gymnasium of native stone. In the top picture, left to right, are John Brown, member of the Dunn electrification committee, J. C. Beakley, veteran community leader, who was keenly interested in the project from beginning to end, and Cleo

W. Tarter, school superintendent, who is a member of the electrification committee and a prime mover in building the gymnasium. W. C. Hooks, chairman of the Dunn committee, general chairman of the area-wide executive committee for rural electrification, is a leader who is not included in the picture. In the lower photograph is the new gymnasium from a northeast angle.

FIVE OUT FOR SCHOOL JOBS

Names of five candidates for Precinct 3 and Precinct 4 county school trustee jobs have been filed with County Superintendent Frank Farmer.

This election will be held Saturday, April 3, along with district school elections.

W. B. Lemons, Precinct 3 incumbent, is opposed for reelection by Rev. E. Bratton. Names of W. C. Hooks, Joe A. Merritt and D. Z. Hess have been submitted in Precinct 4. S. L. Johnson is the incumbent.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Heinzelmann and son, Gerald, made a trip to the Carlsbad Caverns during the weekend. They were accompanied by New Mexico by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wheeler of Midland, whose guests they were before the trip and several days afterwards.

J. D. MITCHELL HOME LOOTED

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mitchell in North Snyder was looted Monday night, while the occupants were attending the picture show.

This election will be held Saturday, April 3, along with district school elections.

W. B. Lemons, Precinct 3 incumbent, is opposed for reelection by Rev. E. Bratton. Names of W. C. Hooks, Joe A. Merritt and D. Z. Hess have been submitted in Precinct 4. S. L. Johnson is the incumbent.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Heinzelmann and son, Gerald, made a trip to the Carlsbad Caverns during the weekend. They were accompanied by New Mexico by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wheeler of Midland, whose guests they were before the trip and several days afterwards.

The looters had apparently just entered the car with the stolen clothing. Driving behind them for several blocks, the Mitchells secured the license number and a good description of the car—a 1928 or 1929 model Ford coupe. By the time the officers were put on the trail, all trace of the car had vanished. The sheriff's department continues an attempt to trace identity of the looters and ownership of the car, which is believed to belong to a Sweetwater resident.

Articles taken from the Mitchell home included more than 40 garments and a cowhide bag.

Scott Is Transferred

Grover Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scott, received promotion recently, when he was transferred to Hamlin as timekeeper for WPA projects. He was with the government workers as timekeeper here for several months before being transferred, and previous to that time he was associated with his father in the real estate business.

NEW 101 ROUTE LOOKED OVER

Members of the Commissioners Court were in the south end of the county early this week to look over proposed re-routing of Highway 101 through Dunn, and to make preliminary plans for securing right-of-way.

Judge H. J. Brice said yesterday he believes landowners along the route are anxious to see the road completed, and will be glad to provide right-of-way at a reasonable price.

Work continues to progress rapidly on the stretch of Highway 101 that joins No. 7 two miles southeast of Snyder, continuing southward just below the on Ranch.

TRACK, FIELD AND LITERARY CONTESTS SET

Rural Track, Tennis and Playground Ball Champions of County Already Decided.

Dozens of choice students from almost a score of Scurry County schools will gather at Hermleigh Friday and Saturday for major sessions of the 1937 Interscholastic League meet.

With rural track and field events concluded last week-end, and with several county-wide events completed or down to the finals, the league this week-end plunges into the task of selecting champions in track, field and literary contests.

Through Superintendent W. T. Hanes, League Athletic Director A. C. Bishop Jr. and the citizenship as a whole, Hermleigh reports that she is ready to entertain not only students and their fans, but school friends from all parts of the county as well. Hermleigh school and merchants are financing the meet.

Snyder Host in Past.

Snyder has been host to the league meet in past years, but the county executive committee recently voted to accept Hermleigh's invitation to hold practically all events there. The local school system is not entering the county meet.

Frank Farmer, director general, announces that choral singing contests will be held tonight (Thursday), at the Hermleigh school auditorium, instead of at Snyder, as originally planned.

Volley ball games were scheduled to be held at Ira Wednesday evening and night, beginning at 6:00 o'clock.

Final event on the 1937 league schedule will be the exact play contest, scheduled at Fluvanna April 1, 2 and 3.

Literary events will be held Friday morning and afternoon. Following are times and room numbers for the various contests:

Declaration—Rural school, 9:30-11:30, room 205; ward school, 10:30-12:00, gym; high school, 10:30-12:00, room 204.

Extemporaneous speech—1:00-12:00, room 102.

Athletic preliminaries. Track and field preliminaries, to be held Saturday morning, will qualify six men in each event. All distances made in the preliminaries in the broad jump, shot put, discus throw and javelin throw will be considered in the finals.

The following events will be run off from 9:30 to 11:30 o'clock: Senior high school pole vault, 100 yard dash, broad jump, discus throw, 220 yard dash, high jump, 440 yard dash, shot put and javelin throw.

THERE'S NO STOPPING NOW

AN EDITORIAL

Now that Scurry County has worked herself up to red-hot enthusiasm for completion of a well-rouned highway program, let us not fold our tents, and like the Arabs, silently steal away . . . to "let George do it."

George just won't get the job done. We have tried that plan too long.

We tried it on Highway 7, and we were at least two years later than we might have been if a few Georges had not been given the job almost single-handed.

We tried it on Highway 101, and we are just now getting really started on that important route.

We have tried it on the East-West Highway, now No. 15, for 10, these many years. And we have almost nothing to show for this half-hearted trying except an imposing overpass leading east onto a disreputable dirt road.

What next? Shall we continue to let George do it? Shall we continue to fret and fume and fuss when the job is not done as soon as we expect or exactly like we desire . . . and then sit back like a passel of scared pups when something really important is suggested for us to do about this highway program?

Last week's remarkable demonstration at Lamesa was a gesture in the right direction. It reflected spontaneous interest on the part of many Snyderites. It revealed that practically all of us—practically all the county, for that matter—wants a more useable, more inviting highway system.

But did it reflect enough deep-rooted interest to keep the highway ball rolling through thick and thin until it lands in the lap of a triple highway network for which we would not take off our hats to any West Texas county? These questions are asked because keen interest has arisen in the past—and little has come of it. Remember those hullabaloo conventions several years ago, when talk was ripe and wisdom was green? Remember that motorcade from points east to the Caverns . . . when dozens of carloads of Snyderites went to the east county line to greet a caravan of cars that left dust settling over Fisher County farms for hours?

And remember a few short months ago, when dilly-dallying led to temporary loss of a Highway 15 rebuilding project?

Yes, we remember all these highway landmarks. But are we not inclined to begin blaming everyone except ourselves when we seek to get at the root of the trouble?

One blames the Commissioners Court. One blames state highway engineers. One blames landowners. One blames politics. One blames the Chamber of Commerce. One blames the depression. One blames George—or Tom or Dick or Harry.

The sooner we realize that solid, conscientious, sympathetic cooperation is the only thing that will lead to the completion of Scurry County's highway system, the sooner will we have a modern network of roads.

The time is ripe. There is no stopping now. No unselfish person can deny that building of modern roads over expertly-surveyed routes is one of the most all-serving projects that can be proposed.

Labor is served, with cash on the barrel-head. Farmers and ranchers are served, with better roads to come a-marketing, with prospect of lowered taxes—because easier marketing and heavier traffic soon mean better tax paying. Business men are served, with growing trade from tourists, with an easier outlet and inlet to their own trade territory.

No stopping now! Let us continue last week's well begun cooperative efforts to complete our triple-threat highway system—without recourse to "George got us into this mess" or "Let George do it."

New Showhouse to Open in Short Time

Snyder's new showhouse, on which work has been going forward on the east side of the square for some time, will be open in the near future. A. M. Morgan, owner, said yesterday while he was in Snyder.

An arch, finished in aluminum, has been almost completed, and the front wall has been plastered. The wall will later be painted white. Interior equipment is being added. Work on the show has been delayed because Morgan's Colorado show, known as the Gem, was burned shortly after work started here, and it was necessary to delay the local job while the Mitchell County show was being prepared for reopening. The Snyder show will also be known as the Gem.

FULLER-POLK WEDDING DATE IS ANNOUNCED

Of social interest in Snyder is the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Adelaide Polk of Fort Worth and William Marshall Fuller of Snyder, which will take place at the First Presbyterian Church in Fort Worth at 8:00 o'clock Friday evening, April 9.

The announcement was made in Fort Worth at a luncheon given Saturday by Miss Josephine Orr at her home there. Formal wedding invitations marked places for the guests at the luncheon and announced the wedding date.

Miss Polk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Polk, graduated from Paschal High School, Fort Worth, later attending Hollins College in Virginia and the University of Texas. At the University she was a member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority. She was presented to society in Fort Worth at the 1935 assembly ball and was honored that year by the Steeple Chase Club.

Fuller, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall A. Fuller, whose Fort Worth home is 1400 Ellameth Boulevard, has been living in Snyder for the past year. His father has extensive ranch and other real estate interests here. He has attended Culver Military Academy, the University of Texas, where he was a member of Kappa Alpha, Sigma Chi, and the University of Pennsylvania.

Details for the wedding have not been completed, but Rev. Thomas Curry of Dallas and Austin, a cousin of Miss Polk, will read the ceremony. Miss Milbry Polk, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor, and Andrew Fuller, a student of Princeton University, will be best man.

The Fuller family is widely known in this section of West Texas, and Miss Polk has visited here several times and is known to a number of local people. The couple will make their home here following their Fort Worth wedding.

Pyron Four-H Girls Study Style, Materials.

Pyron Four-H girls studied style, color and materials for school dresses at their meeting last week. Miss Vannoy, Fisher County demonstrator, was present for the meeting and presented interesting discussions.

"Color of clothing should be becoming to the hair, eyes and complexion," Miss Vannoy told the girls. They learned through discussion and experiments that blondes should wear pink, orchid and green; brunettes might choose deeper colors; brunettes look well in richer colors; and green, lavender and peach are becoming to red heads.

Necklines in dresses are important, according to the demonstrator, and pearl buttons are suggested for school frocks in preference to covered ones. All members of the Pyron club will make a school dress, keeping in mind the suggestions made by Miss Vannoy, soon.

At next meeting, designing and making slips and the making of a sewing box will be the subjects for discussion. Katherine McGlothlin will furnish materials with which to demonstrate at the next meeting.

Attend Style Revue.

Members of Cresset Junior Club met at the home of Mrs. Buster Curtis Tuesday evening, transacted business of the evening, heard roll call and adjourned to attend the spring style revue held in the high school auditorium. Mrs. Curtis served a lovely salad plate with pickles, wafers, cake and iced punch.

Less Monthly Dis-comfort

Many women, who formerly suffered from a weak, run-down condition as a result of poor assimilation of food, say they benefited by taking CARDUI, a special medicine for women. They found it helped to increase the appetite and improve digestion, thereby bringing them more strength from their food.

Naturally there is less discomfort at monthly periods when a system has been strengthened and the various functions restored and regulated. CARDUI, granted by thousands of women, is well worth trying. Of course, if not benefited, consult a physician.

Mrs. Wilmeth Goes To Visit Parents.

Mrs. Lex Wilmeth and daughter, Alice Meryl, left Snyder this week for Forest, Ontario, Canada, to spend several months with Mrs. Wilmeth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Luckham.

The Luckhams are returning to their home next week, after spending the winter in Florida, and Mrs. Wilmeth and daughter will be at their home to greet them on their arrival there.

The local woman and daughter will spend several days in Detroit, Michigan, on their way to Canada. They plan to remain there with Mr. and Mrs. Luckham until after they celebrate their golden wedding anniversary in April.

Orphan Child Will Get New Clothing.

Little Miss Dora Lee Burrows, five-year-old girl in the Waco Orphanage, will this week receive her Easter frock from the Crusaders Class of the First Methodist Church. The class "adopted" little Miss Burrows several years ago.

Twice each year the class sends a season's wardrobe to the little girl, and this week's box contained her spring and summer clothing, as well as novelty Easter gifts from class members. This year Dora Lee may choose between a dainty little silk frock and a crisp little dimity to wear Easter morning. Gifts are sent the child on special occasions, too.

Other articles contained in the large box were the following, which constitute needs of the child for the summer: Five print dresses with pants to match, slip, anklets for each dress, hair ribbons, two pairs of pajamas, two pairs of silk panties, a spring coat, handkerchiefs, sheets, towels, wash cloths, talcum powder, tooth brush and money for her new shoes.

The box was prepared at a class meeting of the Crusaders held Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Mitchell McMuth, with Mrs. Paul F. Allen as assistant hostess. Mrs. R. H. Odom is teacher of the class.

Easter decorations were used for entertaining rooms, and an Easter motif was followed in the dainty refreshment plate passed by the hostesses to the following members of the class: Susie Black, Lola Biggs, Hattie Bell, Deasie Gay, Emogene Farmer, Snowbell Harvey, Gertrude Herm, Hattie Herm, Henrietta Lee, Jewell McCintion, Neoma Strayhorn, Georgia Taylor, Gladys Williams, Mrs. Orville Keese and Mrs. R. L. R-schar.

Mrs. Gus McCintion returned here early this week, after spending last week with her sister, Mrs. L. H. Williamson, in Clovis, New Mexico. Mrs. Williamson, who was injured in an automobile accident last Saturday night, is doing nicely.

February Wedding Is Announced Here.

Mrs. G. R. Newman of Ira is this week announcing the marriage of her daughter, Clara Fields, for several years a correspondent for The Times, to Lewis Thomson of Eunice, New Mexico. The couple recited their vows in Sweetwater February 24.

The bride was a member of the 1934 graduating class of the Ira High School. Her wedding dress was a white wolen suit, which she wore with navy blue accessories. Mr. Thomson's mother is Mrs. L. V. Thomson of Kermit.

SEVEN BLOCKS OF WEST SIDE PAVING OPENS

Asphalted Concrete, New Surfacing Material, Viewed by Several Road Men, Engineers.

Snyder's paving project has become more than a postponed dream within the past few days.

Traffic has been turned on seven blocks of newly surfaced streets, and work continues on two more blocks—from 25th Street to 27th Street on Avenue U.

The completed blocks are three running north to south 27th Street to 30th Street, on Avenue W, and four running east to west, Avenue S to Avenue W on 27th Street. A connection is thus formed with the paving of the business district, at the First Christian Church corner.

The asphalted concrete used on the job, under direction of W. L. Johnson, city engineer, is said to represent probably the first project ever started in Texas with this type of material. Several road builders and other engineers who have viewed the work here declare it to be one of the best paving jobs in West Texas.

Instead of pouring asphalt on top of packed rock and chat, as in the past, the new plan calls for mixing asphalt and base material, hauling it to the street, and spreading and depressing it while it is hot.

Johnson perfected a mixer for this purpose in a southeast of the city hall on Deep Creek. He also directed construction of improvised equipment 10 miles north of town that separates sand, gravel, chat and rock with a minimum of trouble and labor.

Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs Will Present Program March 31

On Wednesday, March 31, at 2:45 o'clock, the boys' and girls' Glee Clubs will give a musical program. A small admission charge of five cents will be charged, and it is hoped that every one will come and lend his presence as well as his financial aid toward making the Glee Club program a success.

The clubs are planning to participate in the annual invitation meet held at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene. This year the meet will be held April 3, in the university auditorium, and the local clubs will compete against organizations from all the neighboring towns.

All clubs must sing one number, which was chosen by a committee of instructors from the university, and in addition to that, one number of its own selection. The selections which will be performed by all the clubs are: "Around the Gypsy Fire" by Brahms, girls' trio; "Anchored," girls' three-part chorus; "On Wings of Song" by Mendelssohn, girls' sextette; "To a Wild Rose" by MacDowell, boys' glee club; "The Blind Piousman," boys' trio.

In addition to these numbers, Snyder High School will be represented by soloists, who will not be selected until a later date.

Caskeys Have Accident

Alma Alice Caskey of Wink visited with Laura Banks here late last week, leaving her Saturday morning for Houston to spend several weeks with her mother, Mrs. J. L. Caskey. While en route to Snyder, Miss Caskey and her father were in an automobile accident, which demolished their 1937 Pontiac. Miss Caskey received a dislocated arm, and Caskey escaped with minor cuts and bruises.

PROCLAMATION

By the Governor of the State of Texas

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

Whereas, in the interest of public health and fire prevention, a Spring Clean-Up Campaign is conducted annually in Texas to permit the sanitation of yards, premises and alleys, and to remove fire hazards from around buildings, lots and driveways; and

Whereas, the present campaign being sponsored in our state by what is known as the Governor's Traffic Safety Committee could be served by giving consideration to those matters which would protect the lives and property of our cities against the spread of disease, disabling sickness and property loss through fire damage; and

Whereas, the Texas State Health Department and the State Fire Insurance Department have, together with various civic organizations, suggested April 4 to 11 for this protective work;

Now, therefore, I, James V. Allred, Governor of the State of Texas do hereby set aside and proclaim the week of April 4 to 11, 1937, as

STATE CLEAN-UP WEEK

In Texas, I call upon the schools, churches, clubs, newspapers, the radio, civic organizations and all good citizens to cooperate in the observance of this week. I further urge that all our citizens consult with their city officials as to the best ways and means of conducting this campaign so that each community may receive maximum benefits.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the seal of state to be impressed hereon at Austin, this, the 10th day of March, A. D. 1937.

JAMES V. ALLRED, Governor of Texas.
Attest: EDWARD CLARK, Secretary of State.

Press Club Style Revue Declared Tops in Fashion

Spring Style Revue, sponsored by the High School Press Club, held Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium, was a marked success, says club officers. Co-operating merchants were pleased with the entire program, and attendants say that it was a delightful evening of entertainment.

Merchants participating were: The Hollywood Shop, The Fair Store, Economy Store and J. C. Penney Company. Coiffures were complimentary of three local beauty shops—Adelle's Beauty Shop, Cave Beauty Shop and Every Woman's Beauty Shop, each of which presented models for the new spring styles in hair dress. Corsages worn by a number of the models were presented through courtesy of Bell's Flower Shop.

Virginia Egerton, editor-in-chief of the Tiger's Tale, high school newspaper to which proceeds from the affair went, was mistress of ceremonies. Miss Margaret Henderson, business advisor, and Doris Davis, business manager of Tiger's Tale, were in general charge of the show.

A group of 30 local girls modeled the Easter creations with the grace, charm and dignity of trained mannequins. Five groups of costumes were presented—children's frocks, morning frocks, sport wear, street wear and evening dresses. Mrs. W. C. Hollis, pianist, played for the revue.

Entertainment between groups of fashions was varied. Opening numbers were played by a high school orchestra, presented by R. L. Rescher, local band director. Girls' tumbling team, directed by Miss Wanda Newman, performed; Nell Carlton, high school vocalist, gave a group of songs.

The Junior High School Choral Club, composed of almost 30 girls, wore brand new white uniforms with coronation blue kerchiefs as it was directed by Miss Margaret Williams in several selections. The verse speaking choir, composed of 24 high school girls, were directed in choral speech numbers by Miss Annie F. Sewell. A group of dance pupils of Elaine Rosser Lambert were presented, with T. J. Teter playing accompaniment.

Modeling for The Hollywood Shop were the following: Misses Hazel Jones, Milton Joyce, Frances Lewis, Wanda Shepherd, Dorothy Winston, Johnnie Mathison, Nell Carlton and Juaise Burt; Raymona Keller, Camille Cloud, Bettian Hicks and Lillie Martin. Presented for Economy Store were Misses Lee Alvin Hays, Gladys Crowder, Janie Erwin and Jonisue Cogdell.

For the Fair Store were Misses Hortense Ely, Ruth Line, Wanda Newman, Mary Davis and Margaret Williams; Geraldine Brown. Representing J. C. Penney Company were Misses Doris Wilson and Macel Nokes; Mary Ann Randals and Pat Ann Warren.

Beauty shop models were Patti Hicks and Mary Sue Cogdell for Every Woman's, and Irene Taylor and Elizabeth McCarty for Adelle's.

Noticeable style wisdom was displayed in the closing remarks made by Virginia Egerton, following the presenting of lovely evening gowns, whose models remained on the stage for the finale. Miss Egerton said, "As varied as the colors of these gowns arrayed on the stage, so should your Easter wardrobe be filled with varied colors. Indulge in riotous colors! Nineteen thirty-seven is a spirited year!"

County Autoists Lag in Returning Highway Surveys

With approximately 3,000 vehicles affected by the registration law, car owners of Scurry County have returned to the Highway Planning Survey only 63 of the post cards that were handed to them at the time they paid their 1937 automobile license fees at the office of Bernard Longbotham, county tax assessor-collector.

Car owners of Scurry County have failed to respond to pleas of the Highway Planning Board to provide information on which the highway program of the future will be based, a tabulation of returns received to Wednesday disclosed. The number of car owners sending in information on cards received when they registered their vehicles is insufficient to provide an accurate picture of the road needs of this county.

The information which is being collected will be used by the Highway Department and the United States Bureau of Public Roads in planning the future construction and maintenance of roads and highways in this county and in this section of the state.

Local motorists should be sufficiently interested in improving the road system of this county to ask for these cards at the time they pay their license fees and should fill in the cards and mail them, because information collected by the Highway Planning Survey will be used in designating federal funds which soon will be spent on improving the secondary road system of Texas.

The cards on which this information is being collected are self-addressed and require no postage. The Highway Department and the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads have gone to considerable trouble in order to offer highway users the opportunity of helping to plan their own roads. Just as citizens were long ago given the right to vote, car owners are now being given a similar right and should take advantage of their opportunity. It is to the advantage of each county to return at least as high a percentage of these post cards to the highway department as are returned by its neighboring counties.

Baptist Brotherhood Meeting Set Monday

Parole Board Created

Texas acquired a legal system of pardon and parole, carrying out the terms of the constitutional amendment adopted last year, when the long deadlock between house and senate on where the board's headquarters should be located was broken by a compromise, with Austin designated as headquarters, but stipulating that the board must spend at least 15 days each month at either Huntsville or the prison farms. The new law removes much of the load and responsibility from the governor and prevents forever, it is believed, a repetition of "pardon peddling" by making it impossible for the governor to grant any pardon not first recommended by the board.

Labor Trouble Looms

Possibility of a re-enactment in the Texas oil fields of the bitter labor warfare and sitdown strikes staged in Detroit was seen by some observers here as the date neared for the April drive of John L. Lewis' organization to enlist oil field workers under the banner of his committee for industrial organization. Seeking apparently to head off this drive, some major oil companies announced wage increases and others forecast such a step. The International Association of Oil and Gas Well Workers, already well entrenched in the Texas fields, is an affiliate of Lewis' union and provides a substantial nucleus for the drive, which will be launched by Lewis in person.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By Julian Capers Jr.

Austin—Out of the pall of grief which fell over Texas and the nation in the wake of the New London school disaster, claiming the lives of 425 children and teachers, will doubtless come legislation designed to prevent a repetition of the disaster. A joint committee of East Texas senate and house members, named promptly, was studying the cause of the catastrophe, which early reports indicated was the result of accumulated gas in the basement or hollow tile walls. Whether this was from leaking gas connections within the building or from drifting gas from near-by oil wells had not been determined at this writing. But sentiment among the legislators indicated very positively that possible laws requiring a malodorous in commercial gas, a more rigid inspection of school buildings generally and other indicated legislative measures will come out of the un-paralleled tragedy.

County Flood Help Total Was $307.90

Scurry County contributed a total of $307.90 to the relief fund disaster in the Ohio and Mississippi Valley, reports Mrs. Carrie Line, chairman. Acknowledgement of this amount has been made by Wm. M. Baxter Jr., manager of the midwestern branch office, St. Louis.

The total was heightened by $26 from Ira, through Oscar H. Miller, not previously reported in The Times, by $2 from J. P. Nelson and by 50 cents from Joe C. Turner.

Oil Cut Anticipated

Meanwhile, a reduction of allowable oil production was announced after the statement by Rail Commission Chairman C. V. Terrell, pointing out the ample stocks of refined gasoline on hand, the decline in winter consumption of fuel oil and recent additions to crude stocks in storage. Continued drilling of new oil wells in Texas has brought the differential between marginal and flush wells to about three barrels, and many operators feel that some step, such as enactment of the pending Clint Small bill to prorate marginal wells below the present 20-barrel minimum, must be taken soon if the commission is to continue to maintain the differential in favor of flush wells required by the federal courts to uphold the legality of the proration orders.

Pyron Leads In Giving Practical School Subjects

The Pyron school is rapidly meeting the general demand in education, of teaching practical subjects instead of straight academic work. This is one of the things that marks Pyron above other schools.

There is no other school of its size that offers so much vocational work. Pyron offers seven and one-half units of vocational education, something that will aid students to do some kind of professional work when they have finished high school and are unable to attend college.

In commercial work, Pyron instructs her students in bookkeeping and commercial arithmetic. This subject is open to seniors, and they are taught double entry bookkeeping, which is made practical by the working of actual business practice sets and the use of legal papers.

In typewriting, each student is required to write at least 30 words per minute with a maximum of three errors. In addition to this, students are taught business letter forms and how to use carbon paper. This training enables them to do actual business work when they have finished high school.—Eagle's Voice, Pyron.

Second Tabloid to Readers This Week

The Times is this week publishing its second consecutive tabloid size section.

Last week the theme was rural electrification in the Dunn and Buford communities. This week spring is in the air; so spring fashions in clothing and hairdressing hold sway in the tabloid.

How do you like these small size pages? Several folks have said they are more easily read, more attractive and unique. Published several times in the past, they have always struck a responsive chord.

and the publishers plan to print them from time to time as special occasions or seasons prompt them.

Echoes From New London Explosion Heard in This County

RELATIVES OF LOCALS DEAD

County Shocked at East Texas Tragedy

News of the explosion in New London High School, East Texas oil field last Thursday afternoon, spread through Scurry County rapidly. Several residents had relatives in the oil town; others had friends; others sympathized for humanity's sake.

Practically all teachers in the local school system knew at least one faculty member at New London. Several victims of the disaster were personal friends of teachers throughout the county. P. F. Allen, local teacher, was offered a place at New London last year, but chose Snyder instead.

Relative of Snyder Woman Among Dead

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Henderson and children and Edd Millhollon attended final rites at New Hope, Stephens County, Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for 10-year-old Jackie Newman, who was killed in the East Texas explosion.

The child was a daughter of Ennis Newman, cousin of Mrs. Henderson and Millhollon. Newman has been a driller with the Humble Oil Company 18 years.

The local people met the body at Ranger and accompanied the funeral procession to New Hope, where funeral and burial rites were held.

Brother of County Man at New London

Rev. W. T. Bratten, pastor of the First Baptist Church at New London, scene of the recent major school disaster, is a brother of Rev. R. E. Bratten of Canyon.

Rev. Bratten of Canyon is deeply grieved over this calamity that snuffed out the lives of 453 students and teachers at New London last Thursday afternoon.

Interviewed in Snyder Saturday, the Scurry County man was trying to get word from his brother, to learn if any of his folks were injured in the school catastrophe.

Schools, Churches Join for Memorial

Practically all schools and churches of the county joined late last week and Sunday in memorial services to victims and survivors of the New London tragedy.

Snyder public schools, at the close of a special assembly service Friday morning, contributed almost $50 to a burial fund, each student and faculty member in the system giving.

Most churches had periods of silent prayer and tribute in memoriam.

Memorial Committee Named by Governor

Announcement was made Tuesday by Governor James V. Allred of the formation of the New London school memorial committee, composed of Mrs. M. A. Taylor of Bonham, president of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers; Drury M. Phillips of Huntsville, commander of the American Legion of Texas; George Clarke of Austin, to represent the governor; Mrs. Fay Bedleman, president, New London Parent-Teacher Association, and Mrs. H. R. Whittington, president, Rusk County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations.

Contributions may be mailed directly to the New London memorial committee in care of the governor's office in Austin. The committee appointed by the governor will handle funds received for this memorial.

Loran Maples Aids With Disaster Work

Loran Maples of Snyder, who recently became a student in the Victor Landis School of Mortuary Science, Houston, was among a number of embalmers from Texas cities who assisted in caring for bodies of more than 450 victims of the New London disaster.

The entire mortuary school assisted in the emergency work. Maples was formerly in charge of the Maples Funeral Home here.

No Solicitation by National Red Cross

Mrs. Carrie Line, county chairman, has been notified that no special appeal is being made by the American Red Cross in connection with the New London disaster. "In view of the recent generous response to the Ohio and Mississippi flood relief appeal."

"The National Red Cross will provide the funds needed for relief purposes," writes the midwestern branch manager from St. Louis. "It is not intended to deny those wishing to contribute to this disaster the privilege of doing so." Mrs. Line will accept contributions and dispatch them immediately to the Red Cross.

Sisters Are Killed.

Two sisters of Mrs. Madge Holley's daughter-in-law were killed in the New London explosion, according to the Times' Ira correspondent. Mrs. Holley resides in the Ira community.

Snyder Trustees Seek to Prevent Flaw in Heating

A letter of instruction, from Superintendent C. Wedgworth of Snyder schools to Hardy Hulsey, head janitor, is published at the request of the board of trustees, that patrons may know every precaution is being taken for the protection of life and property.

The letter, dated March 23, is in line with actions taken by school officials throughout the state, aftermath of the fatal New London school explosion.

This letter is to direct some concrete and specific instructions to you that I will say must be followed out hereafter, beginning with today. These instructions are to be read and explained to your other janitorial forces.

1.—I request that an immediate inspection and general survey be made of the entire heating system of the Snyder school. I demand that all gas connections be examined and thoroughly inspected. Any faulty connection or trouble found must be reported to me immediately.

2.—I request that a sign be placed over the boiler room door in large type, "Danger—Keep Out." This boiler room front door must be kept locked at all times regardless of how frequently janitors have to pass through. Any time the boiler room is found unlocked and one of the janitors not there on business, janitors will be subject to severe reprimand. In addition to the outer door and furnace room being locked, I request that a lock be placed on the gas jet in order to insure against prowlars turning the gas on.

3.—No gas connections or extensions or changes in any form are to be made anywhere in the school plant without first consulting the superintendent regarding such change.

4.—Inspections referred to above apply to all buildings, gymnasium included. This inspection is to be followed up by frequent inspections from time to time.

5.—Janitors are requested to begin now with a general clean-up in basement, closets, vacant rooms, etc. All rubbish, trash and unnecessary accumulations of inflammable materials are to be removed from the building and burned. Oil rags, dust cloths, etc. must no longer be tucked away in pigeon holes, but left in tin cans in cool places.

6.—Due and extraordinary caution against fire and explosions must be taken and more rigidly executed from this day on. Conditions discovered that might be termed dangerous to the safety of the occupants of this school building, must be reported to the superintendent at once.

7.—All gas meters must be checked at night after gas is turned off and rechecked the first thing next morning. If the reading is not the same something is wrong, there is a gas leakage somewhere; do not turn on gas and fire up until the leak is found and correction made.

HERMLEIGH IS GIVEN CREDITS

Hermleigh High School has been given five additional credits of affiliation, according to a report just received by Superintendent W. T. Hanes from the State Department of Education.

Ten-Night Singing School Is Started at Mount Zion Monday

A 10-night singing school began at Mt. Zion Monday night, with Eddie Williams of Hobbs teaching the classes. The Mt. Zion folks start singing school classes at 7:30 o'clock each night, and invite the Midway, Camp Gabriel, and Plainview people out for the spring singing and rudiment instructions.

Eddie Williams, teacher and composer, reports "a wide awake interest is being shown in the school, and we are having a large nightly attendance."

Roy Adams, president of the Mt. Zion singing class, adds: "We are glad the people of several communities are right behind us, backing our school, and we want to make this one of the best spring singing schools held in the county. Quite a few from Gannaway are also attending. We appreciate the support being given our singing school."

Community leaders who are instrumental in getting the school started are: Cecil Galyean, Roy Adams, and Rev. Jimmie Maule. Bro. Maule says, "We have started out to revive our church by the side of the road, and a singing school is the first step, I believe, in a community revival. So all you folks come out to our school and help us with your presence and moral support."

Plainview Singings Will Be Continued

Plainview has re-organized the Sunday night singings. Bud Merritt is new president of the group, and Mrs. Bryan Etheredge is secretary at once. All singers are invited to attend the singings each first and third Sunday nights at 8:00 o'clock. Election of new officers was made Sunday.

Borden County Farm - Ranch News

Ninety-five per cent of the "Applications for Payment" in connection with the 1936 soil conservation program have been forwarded to the state board at College Station. The first group of checks for Borden County is expected in the first week of April. The majority of the 1936 checks will probably clear through the regular channels during the month of April.

Borden County has a large number of out-of-county landlords, which entails much "milling out" of various forms in connection with the soil conservation programs. For this reason, checks have been delayed pending return of the "Application for Payment" from non-resident landlords.

Of the entire group of producers in compliance with the provisions of the 1936 soil conservation program in Borden County, there are less than 20 cases wherein the "Application for Payment" has not been completed and cleared through the county agent's office during the past three weeks.

Ranchmen of Borden County have shown a genuine interest in the new range program. There will be some good work done in Borden County in rebuilding dams to store water for livestock. This particular phase of the range program will mean much to livestock men in the county, as water for livestock is normally a problem in this area. In extremely drouthy years, the lack of sufficient stock water constitutes a serious handicap to ranchmen in Borden County. Applications for approval of varipraisal work have not been received in this area.

The farm of W. J. Huff in Borden County was terraced recently, and the equipment has been moved to another farm in the same community. The Huff farm consists of 235 acres, which was terraced at a cost of $123.75, with county road equipment at a rate of $150 per hour for the time that the machinery was in the field. Nine long terraces and two short ones were built together with border terraces on the farm. The terraces were approximately 18 inches high and 23 feet wide.

This farm is now in condition to receive the full benefit of the water, which has heretofore been running off into road ditches and onto other adjoining farms.

M. R. Bentley, Extension agricultural engineer, has estimated that terraces of the above standard will add approximately $8 per acre to the value of the average Texas farm.

Safety authorities, in studying the accident records, have put drivers who are prone to accident in three classes: First, the mentally incompetent driver; second, the physically incompetent driver; third, the driver who has both the brains and the physique to drive carefully, but who is too unsocial and stubborn to use these gifts.

Of the three, the last-named type is the most deadly.

The largest average flow of water, which is 193,000,000 gallons daily, but the Goodenough Springs on certain occasions reach a maximum flow of 452,000,000 gallons daily. During dry periods these streams often flow into the larger rivers and keep them from drying up.

KNOW TEXAS

By F. L. McDonald, Texas State College for Women, Denton

Many Texas streams seldom run dry, because of the abundance of artesian springs. Besides the East Texas rivers, which are entirely in the coastal belt, and the rivers in their upper basins in the plains and prairies, there is a whole group of streams with their headwaters in the great springs of the Edwards plateau.

Although these streams have small channels and small drainage areas, they are characterized by a large and constant flow. Arising along the eastern and southern edge of the plateau, they spring from one of the greatest natural water reservoirs in the United States.

Principal springs from this reservoir are Barton Springs near Austin, San Marcos Springs at the head of that river, Comal Springs near New Braunfels, San Antonio and San Pedro Springs in San Antonio, Los Moras Springs near Bracketville, San Felipe Springs near Del Rio and Goodenough Springs near Comstock.

CONOCO GERM PROCESSED OIL

All the other "serious stuff" is out, if you take just one thing seriously about your engine oil... In selecting it—for a '37 model or anything else—be guided by things you really know for yourself.
You know that a plating on metal cannot come off like any mere liquid. Thus Oil-Plating, formed in your engine by Conoco Germ Processed oil, cannot come off the working parts like any mere film of oil. Though the patented Germ Process puts abnormal strength into the so-called movable oil film, it goes much farther and gives you exclusive Oil-Plating.
With this firmly fastened layer of lubricant always maintained on cylinders, bearings and other parts, it stands to reason that friction never finds them naked. They remain all covered constantly with slippery Oil-Plating, as though they were built with it on. It's on, every time you start the engine, because Oil-Plating can't run down "between times." And it's on throughout your hardest run, because Oil-Plating isn't liable to the usual "squeeze-out, scrape-off and burn-up." None of those worries any more, as you change to Conoco Germ Processed oil—and Oil-Plating economies. Continental Oil Co.

Thank You, Dunn.

Several Dunn citizens have been kind enough to congratulate The Times for publication of last week's special section dedicated to the new rural electric line...

This special section had a significance that probably few county citizens have stopped to analyze. First, it honored the completion of a project whose promotion was in the hands of leading Dunn citizens...

Second, it emphasized the fact that utilities and their officials are very human, after all. Residents of the communities served and to be served by the new electric lines are earning that utilities are nothing more than the shadows of real, honest-to-goodness men...

Third, it revealed that Snyder has a keen and not altogether selfish interest in these progressive communities to the south. It revealed that Dunn and Snyder can be of mutual benefit to each other if they continue to bend their efforts together.

Altogether, last week's special section, without special merit in itself, may have been an outstanding milestone in Scurry County's cooperative progress...

Editorial of the Week.

PREVENT SIT-DOWN STRIKES.

Industrial centers of the nation have been severely crippled since the first of the year by sit-down strikes. While we do not know which side may be justified in the conflicts between capital and labor, we do believe that the sit-down strike is wrong in principle and that believe that it should be eliminated from this nation.

While the strikes thus far have been only in the industrial centers with only a few industries in the South and in Texas having been the site of such strikes, there is good reason to believe that eventually Texas industry will be affected.

As has been explained before in these columns, the Democrat-Voice favors the laboring man and this newspaper is not against organized labor. At the same time this newspaper certainly is not in favor of sit-downers taking possession of a plant or factory.

We believe in a policy of live and let live. If a union man is dissatisfied with the wages he is receiving it is up to him to ask his boss for a raise. Then, if the boss refuses, the union man can lay down his implements of work and seek another job.

Those laborers in Detroit realize, of course, that they are doing themselves damage while injuring their employers. They do not realize that at the same time they are injuring every automobile dealer that handles automobiles manufactured by the plant of which they have taken possession.

It seems to us that the Committee on Industrial Organization is employing un-American and unfair practices in the sit-down strike.

RACE TRACK GAMBLING.
Race track gambling is making a desperate effort to save its life. Two weeks ago Nelson's amendment proposing repeal, tacked on to a House race-horse jockey bill, passed to enactment by a vote of 20 to 8.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch: What Europe needs is a permanent sit-down strike for standing armies.

The Times Creed

For the cause that needs assistance;
For the wrongs that need resistance;
For the future in the distance,
And the good that we can do.

Current Comment.

By LEON GUINN.

City editors the nation over froze in their swivel chairs last Thursday when AP and INS wires burned with the tragic news of America's worst school disaster, a terrific blast at New London that snuffed out the lives of 455 students and teachers.

In New London, life will never be the same for the grief stricken parents and relatives, who only yesterday sent Johnnie and Mary to school, bright bundles of sunshine who have today been transferred to the Consolidated School beyond the gates of Eternity.

While the cause of this heart breaking calamity will undoubtedly be laid at the door of natural gas, either a 10 to 12 per cent accumulation of methane gas in heating mains, or too much pressure in the "feeder" lines; and the money mad people of East Texas will learn that seven producing wells on a public school campus is the worst possible type of public policy, the New London school tragedy will never be detected of its bitterness until the sons of men reach that "city not built with hands."

For in that home eternal, Johnnie and Mary will be given new bodies, unbruised by school disasters, and the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof. (Zach. 8:5). . . . Folks may live and die, saying religion is a "bunch of old fashioned ideals"; the grass of yesterday may wither and decay; and empires pass away, but the hardest boiled rewrite man knew last week in his heart that the Christ of the cross reached down with a nail scarred hand, and lifted the New London school kiddies up under His protecting wing; gave them a warm place near His tender bosom. . . . Even in storm and catastrophe, when human life is snuffed out and gone with the wind, the Master finds many a jewel in broken bodies; and is "gathering buds for His place on high—for some must be young and unblown."

Chicken Fever?

When C. F. Sentell of Snyder captured several top prizes in the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show poultry exhibit recently, a number of Scurry County poultry fanciers were surely given a dose of chicken fever. With the incentive toward raising better birds that was provided by Sentell's winnings, and with prospect of cheap production during 1937, there will certainly be enough emphasis on purebred birds to justify an outstanding Scurry County poultry show within a few months.

It's an Ill Wind . . .

Talkative Tillie says if women's dresses really become as short within the next two or three years as they did eight or 10 years ago, as some fashion leaders proclaim, West Texas sandstorms will increase in popularity.

And Borrowing, Too.

Pessimism Pete says his wife's been attending so many of these popular Snyder spring parties of various hues that he wouldn't be surprised to hear of a boom in the tuna fish, salad dressing and baby-keeping markets.

"To Sum It All Up."

Magazine Editor Compliments The Times in Letter

In a letter to Times Staff Writer Leon Guinn last Thursday, S. T. Williamson, executive editor of News-Week, requested a copy of The Times' editorial page for his private study and consideration.

Williamson states: "It is good news that you are pleased with News-Week, and I am very glad also that you can learn about the conducting of your editorial page. I understand it is a fine one, and I should be interested in seeing a copy of it."

Continuing, Williamson suggests News-Week might glean a few pointers in editorial page make-up, "since the editorial columns of The Times are reported to be outstanding in viewpoint; a leader among West Texas weeklies."

The Times appreciates this bouquet from so able an editor as S. T. Williamson of News-Week, "the illustrated news-magazine," and since the trend is toward most news magazines giving the weekly press a few pointers, The Times is proud News-Week may glean a few pointers from its editorial columns.

Easter is the high time of the year for the Christian, and next Sunday should find every man, woman and child in the place of worship. Our services throughout the day will carry out the resurrection message.

The topic for the morning sermon at 11:00 o'clock will be "He Is Risen;" and the message in the evening will be brought through a dramatic presentation of the Easter story. The play will be presented by the young people of the Christian Endeavor, and will show the transformation of life which comes through faith in the risen Lord.

Times Rate Continues.

A number of Times subscribers have taken advantage of the special rate that enables them to get the paper in this trade territory—from now until January 1, 1938—for $1. Outside the trade territory, the price is $1.50.

Value Is What You Receive—The Price Is What You Pay—

No modern funeral director wishes to distress a bereaved family with needless discussion of price, but we believe that every responsible person should be shown that the price of a funeral represents more than the mere cost of the casket. The services of professional men, the use of special equipment and the facilities of a modern planned funeral home are but a few of the factors that enter into the cost of a funeral.

Owing to the extra comfort and conveniences provided, services conducted in our beautiful funeral home may appear more costly, yet are never higher than elsewhere.

Letters from the People Our Readers Speak

Connally on Supreme Court.

Editors, The Times:
Since the Star-Telegram did not see fit to print a single line of that masterly address delivered by Senator Tom Connally to a joint session of the House and Senate at Austin, March 2, on the subject of the president's Supreme Court proposals, notwithstanding the fact that it has printed every word of speeches on the other side of this controversy, I am here enclosing a few paragraphs from a Senator Connally's speech with the hope that you can find the space in your paper to print them. The public is entitled to hear both sides.

JOHN E. SENTELL.

Extracts from the address of Senator Connally:
"I cannot vote, and I shall not vote to impair or destroy independence of that great court that has in its keeping the rights of every citizen in this hall, and the protection of those rights, and the protection of these rights against the government itself."

"Why, you haven't got any rights if you cannot assert them against the government. If the Congress can take away your rights you have no rights; if the president can take them away you have no rights; if the judges can take them away you have no rights. And so here in this old Constitution of ours there are 41 prohibitions against the government, 41 things which the government cannot do to the citizen. How is the citizen going to secure the protection of those rights against the government itself unless he can go in yonder to an unbiased, to an impartial, to an unafraid, to a courageous, to a wise, to a patriotic, to an independent court that owes its seat and its tenure to nobody?"

"Ladies and gentlemen, let me remind you. I spoke of European situations. In Germany tonight the citizens of Germany have no supreme court such as we have here to which the citizen may appeal for his life or his liberty. The government of Germany is the absolute master of the lives and liberties of the people of that land. And you know the melancholy cries that come out from Germany. In Russia there is no supreme court such as ours to which the citizen can appeal for protection from the government itself, and the result is that the citizen and his property and his liberty and his life are absolutely subject to the dictates of whoever is running the government of Russia for the moment."

"You heard echoing across the Atlantic the rattle of musketry only a few weeks ago when scores of Russian citizens were lined up against a wall and shot by the military in a court martial trial. My friends, Italy—Italy and Europe has no supreme court to which the citizen may appeal like we may here against the force of the government, and the result is that the Italian parliament and the Italian ruler—the premier are the absolute autocrats of the lives and liberty and property of the people of Italy."

"Do we want such a constitution here in America? The government is master; whatever it decrees is the law, regardless of constitution, because it has none except a statutory constitution. 'I want to revert just a little bit now to say to you that here in America—that the Supreme Court is the only tribunal on earth that may say to the government itself, 'Thus far, and no farther, may you go against your citizens.'"

"A distinguished Englishman, the great historian, Burke, once said of the American Declaration of Independence—listen to these words: 'In 1776 the American laid before Europe that noble declaration, which ought to be hung up in the nursery of every king, and emblazoned on the portals of every royal palace.' He was talking about the Declaration of American Independence. You know what that Declaration contains. Among the great list of charges which it lays at the feet of King George, it says: in that declaration one of the causes of the revolution against King George, it says: 'He has made judges dependent upon his will alone for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment for their salaries.'"

"When Thomas Jefferson penned that great declaration he remembered that King George had the judges in his hand, and said who might serve, and claimed the right to fix their salaries, and one of the things against which the American colonists rebelled was a judiciary controlled by the king. And so, when they established this government, the Americans, remembering the judiciary that was subservient to the British government, king, and parliament, set up this court and made it independent and made it secure. They placed it so high that the hand of Congress could not reach it; they placed it in a position where the executive could not sway it and could not influence it, leaving to them and their patriotism to meet the great issues of that time.

"Now, shall we change that magnificent conception? Shall we in a moment of exasperation, because of a few decisions that do not suit us, destroy a great instrument that has been the glory history, with its jurisprudence and the glory of American life—an institution for 150 years? Shall we, in a moment of petulance, do that, which in the years to come, yonder to your children, perhaps to your children's children, way down the road of this republic, may rise up to damn and condemn us? I don't think we want to do that."

"Let me give you a little more history; let me give you a little more constitutional history, with which I am sure most of you are familiar—a history as it affects the liberty of the individual, and the power of the court to protect its citizens. 'One of the greatest decisions in the history of America is the Milligan case. Milligan was a citizen of Indiana. During the war between the states he was a Southern sympathizer, and he gave utterance to his sympathies. President Lincoln ordered him arrested by the military authorities. He ordered him hauled before a military court convened by the commanding general of the department of Indiana. Milligan was tried by that federal military court. He was sentenced to death. 'Finally, in 1866, or 1865, perhaps it was, his attorney sued out a writ of habeas corpus. It finally reached the Supreme Court of the United States. That court held that he had not had the right of a trial by jury, one of the most sacred possessions of the Anglo-Saxon race. The Constitution says that a citizen shall have the right of trial by jury in federal courts. When that case reached the Supreme Court, Judge David Davis, a Republican, but a great and honest man, rendered the decision in that case. He held that since federal courts in Indiana were open during the entire time and were expected to have business transacted within them, that Milligan was entitled to be tried in a civil court and was entitled to a jury trial. It held that the trial before the military tribunal was void; that the action of the executive was unconstitutional. Here we have a brave, courageous republican court—Republicans, all of them, rising up and saying: 'Mr. President, powerful as you may be, president of the great republic, the commander-in-chief of the army and navy, you are not powerful enough to order a private citizen, no matter how humble he may be, no matter how odious his conduct might have been, no matter how much passion and prejudice, Mr. President, you cannot command that that citizen be denied his right under the Constitution for a jury trial in a civil court, and not by a military tribunal.'

"Let me read you just a little of what Judge Davis said in that decision. It reads like a bugle call in the cause of liberty. Here is what he says—Judge Davis in the course of the opinion of the court said: 'The Constitution of the United States—hear me now—The Constitution of the United States is a law for rulers and people, equal in war and in peace, and covers with the shield of its protection all classes of men at all times and under all circumstances. No doctrine involving a more pernicious consequence was ever invented by the whim of man than that any of its provisions can be suspended during any of the great exigencies of government.'"

"There is a great court unafraid of the president, unafraid of a congress, unafraid of the powers of both of them, saying to the president, and to a fanatical congress, stirred by passion and hatred of the South, saying, to both of them: 'You have violated the Constitution. It is law—that the man at bar has odium all over him, and he is humble; but he has a right and that right is given to him by the Constitution of the United States, to be tried by a civil jury in a civil court,' and Mr. Milligan's life was saved because the court was brave enough to uphold the Constitution of the United States against both the president and Congress. Thank God for such a court; may we always have such a court."
