INTEREST LOW IN CLOSING OF COURT SESSION

Only Three Criminal Cases, With One Conviction, Come Before District Court Here.

Interest in district court continued at low ebb yesterday, as Judge A. S. Mauley and District Attorney George W. Outlaw prepared to close out the spring term in preparation for invading Gall for a one-week session beginning Monday.

Clement Couch, charged with stealing three mares from C. D. Teaff, received the only conviction out of three criminal cases tried this week. He was sentenced to the state penitentiary for three years.

John Norris was found not guilty on a forgery charge. Red Hightower of Sweetwater, indicted for burglary in connection with the loss of several hundred dollars worth of clothing from the J. D. Mitchell home here last month, was freed when the district attorney moved for dismissal of the case.

Two Not Apprehended.
Bill Holiday and Harold Mooney, indicted with Hightower, have not been apprehended by officers.

Fred Joiner, indicted for burglary in connection with losses from the Perry Brothers store several months ago, has not been apprehended since he was freed under a justice court appearance bond. His case was called this week.

Divorces have been granted as follows during the past week: Ann Thelma Brazell from John Edward Brazell; Viola Nelson from James Nelson (colored).

Civil Cases Go Through.
Civil cases have been disposed of in the following manner:

P. Freytag vs. J. E. Walton, et al, suit on note, judgment for plaintiff.
Durant National Bank vs. Scurry County, suit on debt, judgment for plaintiff.

Dorsey Ward, minor's disabilities removed.
Mose Walls vs. Republic Underwriters, suit to set aside agreement, plea of privilege over-ruled, set for next term.

Raymond Smith vs. Ida Lou Curry, et al, trespass to try title, judgment for plaintiff.

J. E. Murphy vs. Royal Oil & Gas Corporation, suit on trespass of title, to be tried Friday of this week.
William Alfred McGlaun Jr., et al vs. H. H. Eiland, et al, suit for damages, set for July 6 by agreement.

Says Maize Silage Lamb Feeding Best For Weight, Price

George Brunley recently shipped 75 head of lambs that had been fed maize silage and made highly satisfactory gains, having gained an average of 20 pounds per lamb.

Brunley states that the lambs were on feed for 70 days and never had a sick lamb. They were fed all this maize silage they would eat, with 1-3 pound of cottonseed meal and 1-4 ounce of limestone flour after the first 30 days. The last three weeks of feeding period a pound of threshed maize per head per day was added to the ration.

Brunley was well satisfied with the low cost of his ration, yet the lambs when sold established a new top for the spring lamb market.

Lovell Baze Takes Position at Maples

Lovell Baze, who secured his funeral director's license several months ago, last week became permanently associated with Maples Funeral home.

Baze secured his license after several months of study and actual experience with the local funeral home, and looks forward to the time when experience and study will qualify him for his embalmers' license.

Tiger Band Seeks Grand Prize

The $350 grand prize trophy pictured above (the cup, not the girl) will be the goal of Bandmaster R. L. Reschar and his Tiger Band when they journey to Abilene for the annual band festival April 9-10. Sponsored each year by Hardin-Simmons University, the contest will draw approximately 40 bands. Holding the cup is Billie Gambill, student "beauty," who will present the trophy to the winner. The Abilene Eagle Band is present holder of the cup, having won it at last year's contest.

Change in Local WPA District Is Made This Week

In a re-arrangement of WPA District 13, with headquarters in Abilene, Scurry County will have a new supervising engineer, and will be placed in another area. The changes are effective late this week.

Lamar Cunningham, area engineer for Scurry and Mitchell Counties since mid-August, with offices in Snyder, is being transferred to Abilene, where he will be senior estimator in the district office. He will be replaced by B. C. Rogers, who comes from Hamlin.

Rogers' area will include Scurry, Fisher and Kent Counties. He will probably make his headquarters in Roby, most central town of the three-county area.

No immediate changes of any consequence in Scurry County WPA projects are contemplated.

Rogers, in Snyder yesterday, said he appreciates Scurry County's cooperation with WPA projects in the past, and hopes for continuance of a cooperative program.

It's Not Too Late For Returning Car Data for Road Use

According to the latest available report from the highway planning survey, less than 200 car owners of Scurry County have mailed the post cards which were handed to them at the time they paid their 1937 automobile license fees at the office of Bernard Longbotham, tax assessor-collector.

Since the number of cards thus far returned from this county is insufficient to give complete proof of the real needs of the county, every car owner should request one of these self-addressed, postage-free cards and should fill it in and mail it at once.

This data, with information compiled by other branches of the survey, will be used by the State Highway Department and the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads in allocating federal funds which will soon be spent in improving the secondary road system and in planning the future construction and maintenance of the roads and highways.

Van Sumruld Gives Lawn Working Over

All that agitation you have been witnessing on the courthouse lawn this week was brought about by Van Sumruld and others, who have been preparing the Bermuda sod for sprightly spring growth.

The entire lawn is being plowed up and resodded. With the large trees that circle the outer rim of the lawn having attained good growth within the past two years, the lawn is expected within a few weeks to be more attractive than it has been in several years.

DELAYED SOIL MONEY COMES IN THIS WEEK

Farmers Get 216 Checks Tuesday And Wednesday for $23,375.57, First in April.

Two hundred sixteen checks for $23,375.57 were received Tuesday and Wednesday by the county agent's office for farmers who cooperated in the 1936 soil conservation program.

These two batches, the first to be received in the county since dribbles including and just prior to March 27, bring the total number of checks to 1,427, the total contracts represented to 910, and the total government money received to $159,639.74.

The county will probably receive about $200,000 from its total of approximately 1,100 contracts.

The new money that arrived this week is expected to prove a slight boon to Saturday business, which is said by most merchants to have been above par beginning last month.

First checks from the 1936 program were received in the county February 27.

Methodists Plan To Attend Gipsy Smith Services

England's great lay evangelist, Gipsy Smith Sr., will open the third state-wide conference for pastors and laymen of the Methodist Church, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 12, 13 and 14. Rev. H. C. Gordon, local pastor, and other Methodists of the county plan to attend the conference.

This will be Gipsy Smith's last message in America prior to his return to England for the coronation of King George VI. The conference, at which he is principal speaker, is being sponsored by the recently appointed Commission on the Future Work of Methodism in Texas, in which all five Texas annual conferences are sharing.

The program will feature Bishop Ralph S. Cushman, Denver, Dr. J. C. Schluter, Miss Barnett Spratt of Nashville, out-of-state speakers; five Texas Methodist bishops, H. A. Soaz, A. Frank Smith, John M. Moore, Arthur J. Moore and Sam R. Hay; and leading laymen and ministers, including Mrs. Nat G. Rollins of Abilene.

The Methodist Home will feature a 30-minute program Tuesday night. Sectional meetings for workers with children, young people and adults, and a section for ministers, will be featured.

Gannaway Planning Rabbit Drive Soon

Gannaway community announces that a rabbit drive will be staged Tuesday, April 13, over a wide scope of ranch and farm country. Snyder hunters are invited to join in the hunt.

Hunters will meet at Marvin Snowden's, Green Springs, at 8:30 o'clock in the morning. A barbecue dinner will be served at Otis White's.

PLOW OWNED BY REV. M'GAHA IS PROBABLY 75 YEARS OF AGE

A staunch garden plow which turned hundreds of miles of furrows in its day is owned by Rev. J. W. McGaha, pioneer preacher and farmer of the Canyon community.

The plow was given Rev. McGaha 30 years ago by Thomas Lindley, father of Henry Lindley of Snyder. The present owner judges that the rough implement, evidently sharpened many times by hammering, is at least 75 years old.

Grand Jury

The district court grand jury, completing its work late last week, made the following report to Judge A. S. Mauley:

"We find conditions good, relative to law enforcement in this county; and especially do we wish to commend the officers for the good work they are doing.

"We ask that the law-abiding citizens of the county continue their support of the officers who are trying to make Scurry County a better, more law abiding place in which to live."

The report was signed by W. E. Clarkson, foreman; W. C. Hooks, C. M. Wellborn, N. W. Autry, W. W. Linecum, S. G. Lunsford, A. W. Mobley, J. W. Clawson, T. E. Grimes, H. M. Murphy, W. P. Sims, M. A. Glass.

MONROE AGAIN NAMED IN CITY

Dwight Monroe was re-elected as a city alderman from the north ward in the only contested race in the city election Tuesday. In a race that brought out practically the entire voting strength of the ward, the incumbent defeated H. L. Wren, 92 to 43, according to the unofficial count.

C. H. Leath was re-elected in the east ward and W. J. Ely in the west ward. S. J. Casstevens' name was on the east ward ballot, but he withdrew from the race last week.

County Holds Pair Of District Records In Track and Field

A check of all-time district track and field records reveals that Scurry County holds two out of the 14 recognized high marks.

Ashley of Dunn vaulted 11 feet 5 inches in 1932 to set up a record in that event that has not been reached. He is the only title holder from a rural or small town school.

McClinton of Snyder copped the 220 yard low hurdles in 1934, and his time of 25.2 seconds has not yet been touched. He won first in the state event that year, teaming with Buck Howell, who ran second in the 220 yard dash, to bring third state honors to Snyder.

Other district marks to be shot at by athletes at Sweetwater Friday and Saturday are held by towns as follows: Big Spring, 3; Abilene 3; Colorado 1; Merkel, 2; Rotan 1 (one tie); Putman, one tie; Roscoe, 1.

Presbyterians Plan Revival This Month

Snyder will have a second opportunity during the week beginning April 25 to hear Dr. Everett B. King, pastor of the Hemphill Presbyterian Church, Fort Worth. Dr. King, who led in a revival here last year, recently said "yes" to the First Presbyterian's invitation for a return evangelistic campaign.

Preceding the revival, fellowship meetings will be held, with Rev. H. C. Gordon, pastor of the First Methodist Church, leading the preceding Thursday night, and Rev. Lawrence Hays, pastor of the First Baptist Church, leading Friday night.

FIRST IN PLAY CONTEST GOES TO FLUVANNA

Hermleigh Performance Second and Ira Third in League Entries Last Friday Night.

"Clipped," Fluvanna's entry in the county interscholastic league one-act play contest, walked off with first place among the four entries presented at Fluvanna Friday night. S. L. Morgan, Ira, director of the contest, was in charge during the evening.

"Flittermouse," presented by the Hermleigh students under direction of Victor Drinkard, placed second, and Ira's play, "That Awful Letter," directed by Morgan, was third. Pyron's "Enter the Hero" failed to place. E. O. Wedgworth directed the winning play.

A full house greeted the performers in the Fluvanna High School auditorium. Fluvanna won the contest in this county last year also.

Individual acting honors went to H. D. Sneed, who played a comedy part in Fluvanna's winning play, and to Rossa Smith from the winning play cast. Two other characters, who completed the cast for "Clipped," were favorably mentioned—Cecil Boren and Marionette Patterson. Performances by Billy Pigman and LaVohn Roberts, Hermleigh, and Bernice Birdwell, Ira, were commended by the director.

The Fluvanna cast will compete in district contests held in Sweetwater this week-end. Between plays vocal selections by groups from Fluvanna and Ira entertained, as did music directors from both schools, Margaret Dell Prim of Ira and Margaret Miller of Fluvanna, who gave piano selections.

Preutt, Autry, Boren Named by School District

In a local school election that polled more votes than the past several years combined, A. C. Preutt, N. W. Autry and Clyde Boren won the three places. Preutt and Autry were old board members, Boren a new board member.

Votes of the winners were: Preutt, 133; Autry and Boren, 126 each. J. C. Smyth was given 125 votes, Edgar Wilson, up for re-election, 112 votes, and Wraymond D. Sims, 98 votes.

At the first meeting of the new board Tuesday night, Dr. J. G. Hicks was elected president to succeed H. L. Davis, who has been in that position for four years; W. W. Smith, vice president; A. C. Preutt, secretary, re-elected after serving in that capacity four years.

Lions to Be Pyron Visitors Next Week

Fourth of a series of visits by the local Lions Club to schools of the county will come Tuesday at 12:15 o'clock. Pyron school will be host, including program and food. M. H. Greenwood, superintendent, will have charge of the program.

Previous visits have been made by the club to Hermleigh, Fluvanna and Snyder schools.

Club members will gather on the north side of the square at 11:30 a. m. in preparation for the trip.

Church of Christ's Homecoming Is Set

Sunday, May 2, has been announced by J. Porter Sanders, minister of the Church of Christ, as homecoming day for that congregation.

It will be an all-day meeting, including dinner on the ground and preaching by a visiting church leader.

Invitations have been or are being extended to former church members, now living elsewhere, to be present for the homecoming day.

Accordionist

Miss Marie Clark of Abilene, accordion player and singer, will have a feature role in the musical concert that will be given at Ira Friday evening, climax of a singing school that is being conducted in the community by Otis Echois and Harley Lester.

RIGGING READY FOR NEW WELL

Rigging is going up as rapidly as weather will permit on the location of the Gooch-Henderson No. 1 oil test, and the well is expected to spud in the latter part of the week. Two other wells are already drilling in the southwestern part of the county.

The test is situated in the north-east quarter of the southwest quarter of section 48, block 97, near Ira. Putnam Supply Company of Baird, drilling contractor, will use a new Wichita drilling machine and new Diesel engine—probably the best equipment ever used in the county.

Drilling on the Gooch-Murphy No. 1 was reported late yesterday at 2,850 feet; on the Bristow & Cantrill Tomlinson No. 1, at 2,102 feet.

Von Roeders Save Majority of Fruit Despite Late Cold

The Von Roeder orchards in Borden County, totaling more than 1,000 trees, came through the recent spring freezes with not more than 40 per cent loss, Nolan von Roeder said late last week.

A large amount of the fruit was saved by smudging. Nolan has been ill, but his brother, Clemens, Ed Murphy and other neighbors put out buckets filled with crude oil, cobs and maize heads. Except when the wind was high, a healthy smoke-screen enveloped the best trees, and only a few of them lost all their fruit.

Too, Nolan has a number of varieties of trees, mostly plums and peaches, and most of them were bred for cold weather resistance.

Barring another visit by Old Man Winter, the Von Roeder fruit crop, the largest in this trade territory, will yield several hundred dollars worth of revenue.

Most other fruit growers in the area are expressing surprise at the amount of fruit saved from the severe late March and early April weather.

Former Legislator Has Birthday Party With Entire Family

All children, grandchildren and in-laws of Joe A. Merritt, former legislator, gathered in Midland several days ago to help the prominent Scurry County farmer celebrate his sixty-fourth birthday. It was the first time the entire family had been together in 12 years.

The all-day gathering, held at the home of a son, Edwin, in Midland, was featured by a hearty lunch, topped by a large cake centered with 64 candles.

A number of friends and relatives, totaling 40, enjoyed festivities of the day. The group included W. W. Merritt and family, formerly of Scurry County, now of Midland.

The seven children and their families at the gathering follow: Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Merritt and two sons, Snyder; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Merritt and one son, Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Merritt and one daughter, Pecos; Mrs. Bill (Mamie) Deel, husband, one son and one daughter, Big Spring; Mrs. Alfred Rosson, husband and one daughter, Dermott; J. A. and Bud Merritt, who reside with their parents seven miles south of Snyder.

Asks NYA Continuance.

Application to continue National Youth Administration soil projects in seven counties of District 13, and to continue Texas Relief Commission clerical work in eight counties will be made to the state NYA office soon, Frank Shafer Jr., Abilene, district NYA director, said this week.

COUNTY GOING TO AREA MEET FOR TWO DAYS

McMillan of Hermleigh, Martin of Dunn Probably Best Bets in District Track Meet.

Winners in Scurry County Interscholastic League events will be in Sweetwater Friday and Saturday of this week for competition in the annual District 5 literary and athletic meet.

As usual, little is known of the county's strength in literary events, but she is expected to garner her share of the athletic honors. McMillan, Hermleigh's star dash man, and Martin of Dunn, all-round athlete, are probably the county's best bets to get track and field honors.

Meet Events Saturday.
R. S. Covey, Sweetwater superintendent, is district director general. He announces that only preliminaries in tennis, debate and one-act play are to be held Friday. All other contests, with the exception of junior girls and boys tennis, junior boys playground ball and senior girls volleyball, are to be Saturday of this week. Stockholders of Snyder Hospital To Meet April 20

Stockholders of Snyder General Hospital are being requested by the board of directors to meet Tuesday, April 20, for the purpose of discussing a proposal for enlargement of the 14-bed building now in use.

The meeting was called after a meeting Wednesday of the board, which is headed by Lee T. Stinson, president. It will be held in the courthouse at 8:00 p. m.

Opened September 25, 1935, the modern structure has served about 800 patients in a year and a half of operation. The entire plant, building and equipment, is valued at more than $35,000.

Secretary A. C. Preutt reports that the hospital is operating on a strictly cash basis.

Fesmire to Nocona.

LeRoy Fesmire left Tuesday for Nocona, where he is employed by the Nocona News, a weekly newspaper. Fesmire, full-time and part-time Times employee for several years, has seen extensive experience as a printer in Texas shops.

Curb Parking

Parallel parking against the curbs on two blocks of the Snyder business district became a reality several days ago, after the new style was postponed last month except for a half block.

The blocks effected are on Highway No. 7, leading onto the square from east and from north. The City Council ordained parallel parking in the two areas last month at suggestion of the State Highway Department, but protests of several business men on the effected streets, ending in petitions, halted the plan. Practically all the merchants effected have agreed to accept parallel parking without protest. Most of them report, after a few days' trial, that safer parking more than offsets the plan's disadvantages.

SNAPPY TEXAS TECH BAND COMING HERE MONDAY AFTERNOON

Bedecked for the first tour in natty scarlet and black whipcord uniforms, 60 members of the Texas Tech Band will play in the local school auditorium at 1:00 o'clock Monday afternoon.

A portion of proceeds will go to the Tiger Band. The band's repertoire includes 1937 high school band contest numbers, concert pieces and several novelties.

Art Among Local Boys Is Discussed. Wood carvings and leather work, arts which have been discovered among boys in the local school, were exhibited and discussed at a recent meeting of Women's Culture Club at the home of Mrs. J. R. Huckabee.

Mrs. H. L. Davis was director for the program on "Art," which centered around art in our own town. A pair of lovely carved wooden candle holders and a hand-carved jewel box, made by Lyle Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Alexander, were exhibited, as were wood carvings made by Ewan Kite, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Kite, who specializes in ornamental carvings of initials and names for dress and scarf pins.

Leather boots and saddle, decorated by Kite, were also shown at the club meeting. Roll call for the day was "Modern Art Centers." Mrs. Huckabee discussed the "Development of Art in the West," and Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn told "Where the Great Art Treasures Are." Of special interest to club members was the piano solo, an original composition, played by Mrs. W. B. Rodgers.

Guests for the meeting were Mmes. Minnie Stewart and Joe Hale, and the following members attended: Mmes. Alexander, Avary, Chenault, Davis, Egerton, Germain, Hukabee, Moxon, Richardson, Rodgers, E. F. Sears, Strayhorn, Williams and Woodfin. The hostess served a lovely salad course.

Look for BIRELEY'S Orangeade
WHEREVER GOOD BEVERAGES ARE SOLD

LET'S TALK ABOUT CLOTHES BY A YOUNG MODERN

Filmy chiffons and crisp taffetas, two popular extremes in materials this spring, have both brushed aside their traditional roles as fragile evening fashions and are blazing forth in daytime wear.

Chiffon appears in hat-trimmings, blouses, frocks and scarfs, with bright tones leading in favor. A navy blue dress, tucked from neckline to hem and edged with white pique, makes a suitable number for street wear and demonstrates the practicality of the sheer weave.

Patent leather trimming is employed with a smart effect on chiffon, either in the belt or in bright-colored flowers for the dress or hat. Chiffon itself also makes good trimming for hats and dresses of other materials, and it comes in solid colors and prints.

The clever idea of using taffeta for day dresses was discovered last spring by girls at Texas State College for Women (CIA), Denton, and they find that it is still a good trick. This crisp cloth is being shown in gaudy checks, stripes and plaids and demure navy blue—so it can please anyone, whether her tastes run toward the more giddy or her tones.

Not so silk petti-coats are being worn with sheer wools, dull crepes, suit skirts, and ensembles, so the swish can be obtained without the purchase of a complete dress. Some of these underskirts have fluted ruffle edges, and others lean toward flounces, but all of them rattle.

Two Are Hostesses To Esrudoma Class. Mmes. Opal Cleavenger and Amos Joyce were co-hostesses to the Esrudoma Class of the First Baptist Church at the home of Mrs. Cleavenger's sister, Mrs. Gail Bell, last Thursday afternoon.

Nineteen members of the class attended the enjoyable meeting and heard the program directed by Mrs. A. A. Bailey. Mrs. Roy Stokes gave the devotional, and Mmes. Joe Graham and John E. Sentell entertained with a vocal duet. Mrs. Rodgers, class teacher, who was a special guest at the meeting, accompanied the vocal selection.

Games were played during the social hour, and the hostesses served delicious refreshments.

Snyder General Hospital

Only one person entered the local hospital for surgery the past week. That was H. U. Salley of Colorado. O. H. Holladay of Ira, a medical patient of last week, and P. W. Cloud, local theatre manager who was operated early last week, were still in the hospital yesterday.

Medical patients since last week have been the following: M. Stacy, Snyder; Miss Hattie McKel, Colorado; Mrs. Maude Fox, Colorado; Marie Lewis, Linn; N. H. White, Colorado; Patsy von Roeder, Knapp; Bonnie von Roeder, Knapp; Nowell Johnson, Pivanna. Only Mrs. Fox, Miss Lewis and Mr. White had left the hospital yesterday.

"Arioso" by Bach is the required number in Patti's group this year, and her other selection will be "No. 1" by Arndt.

BANQUET FOR LUCKY 13 CLUB IS SATURDAY

A gypsy theme was effectively employed in decorations and appointments at the annual banquet held by members of the Lucky Thirteen Sports Club at the Manhattan Hotel Saturday evening.

Table decorations, favors and the program all followed the chosen theme—brilliant in color and clever in ideas. Club members, their escorts and the sponsor, Miss Mattie Ross Cunningham, were present for the banquet.

A woods effect was portrayed by the wood fire, with tripod campfire pot holder at the entrance and the trailing ivy down the center of the long banquet table. Gypsies were exemplified with the bright colored tapers, which furnished light for the two course meal. Combination place cards and souvenir programs were gypsy dancing girls, designed and painted by Mrs. Gail Bell, local artist, especially for the occasion.

Among the red mints held by smaller tripod campfire pots and holders each attendant read his fortune from small slips of paper, an idea typical of fortune-telling gypsies. Miniature covered wagons formed centerpieces for the table and the piano. Corsages for the girls and white boutonnieres for the boys were complimentary of the entertaining club.

Virginia Egerton, club president, presided for the after dinner program, which featured talent from the club. The club song formally opened the program, and the toast-mistress welcomed guests.

Vocal numbers were given by Dorothy Winston and Elizabeth McCarty, soloists; Jonisue Cogdell, Dollie Clements and Virginia Egerton, trio; and Paynell Spears, Jusette Burt, Milton Joyce and Hortense Ely, the "disappointing quartet," novelty number, "Little Liz Jane." T. J. Teter accompanied for the trio.

The prophecy, visualizing the girls 13 years from now, given by Jonisue Cogdell, was also in keeping with the gypsy idea. Doris Wilson gave a clever tap dance number, Ernestine Morton told a number of spic stories, and Irene Taylor read. Doris Davis, club member, and Mattie Ross Cunningham, sponsor, were the other members present.

Guests for the evening were: Jack Shaw of Sweetwater, Hadley Reeve, Tommie Winter, Harry Chapman, Wallace Smith, Max West, Roy Allen, Bess, Corwin Patterson, Bobby Mitchell, Murray Gray of Lubbock, John Bliskey, Jimmie Roberts, Jack Smith and Foster Stevenson.

Miss Cunningham Is Guest Speaker.

Maurine Cunningham of Lubbock, formerly a teacher in Snyder, was guest speaker on program at the Friday evening meeting of Altrurian Daughters Club at the home of Vesta Green. Miss Cunningham, who is teaching in the Spanish department of the Lubbock senior high school, is a charter member of the Altrurian Daughters.

Mrs. Herman Doak, president-elect of the club, introduced the speaker, who gave interesting and instructive facts and history concerning Old Mexico. The speaker took her masters degree in foreign languages from the University of Mexico, Mexico City, following her fourth summer's work in the school, and her remarks were made from knowledge gathered in those months.

Outstanding in her discussion of "romantic Mexico," were the pleasures received from visiting Mexico. She assured listeners that a knowledge of the Spanish language is not necessary to make a trip to Old Mexico enjoyable. English speaking people have visited the country in such large numbers that natives contacted by visitors are able to understand English and often speak the language fluently.

In her talk, Miss Cunningham dwelled at length on a description of the volcanic mountain overlooking Mexico City—Popocatepetl (smoking mountain), 17,800 feet high, which is only 40 miles distant from the heart of the city. No eruption of the peak has been recorded since 1540, but smoke issues constantly from the crater. Discussion of earthquakes in the section of Mexico City were also of special interest to club members.

Miss Green passed a dainty salad plate to the guest and club members as follows: Kenneth Alexander, Mattie Ross Cunningham, Gwen Gray, Dorothy Strayhorn, Mmes. Cleve Blackard, Joe Catron, Herman Dorby, Herman Doak, Robert E. Gray Jr., Fla Joyce and J. D. Scott.

Busy Bee Club Meets. Sixteen members of the Busy Bee Club were present at the club's last meeting, held in the home of Lissy Ann Brooks. Handwork—crocheting, tatting and embroidering—were diversions for the afternoon. The club meets Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock with Bernice Crowder.

Range Emphasis Placed on Study Of Best Grasses

Dwight Monroe and County Agent W. R. Lacey attended a school for training range inspectors for the agricultural conservation range work held at Big Spring March 29, 30 and 31.

Emphasis was placed upon the careful study of grasses, weeds and shrubs, both as to kind and their degree of covering of the soil in order to arrive at the carrying capacity of a pasture or range.

The range program has as its chief aim the control of erosion and better protection of our range land. A good plant growth is one of the best means of controlling both wind and water erosion, so a range is carefully studied for the degree of covering.

The kind of covering is very important, since a palatable plant to livestock that prevents this erosion would have a double value. Yet due to over-grazing, many of our best weeds and grasses are either destroyed or reduced to such an extent they occupy only a small part of the plant growth on the ground and are replaced with plants the stock does not eat, or if so, only to a limited extent, so the carrying capacity of the pasture is reduced.

Thus another aim will be to assist the rancher to protect his better grasses and weeds by deferring grazing of certain pastures.

Farms That Are Foreclosed Not Touched by Act

Texas farmers whose land has been actually sold under foreclosure proceedings have no way to redeem it under the Frazier-Lemke Act, upheld by the supreme court this week, according to Ben F. Smith, chairman, Joe Catton and Giles Bowler, of the farm debt adjustment committee of this county.

News dispatches from Washington carried by the larger dailies stated that the decision would help farmers whose land had been foreclosed. The debt adjustment committee stated that this is true in states where there is a period of redemption provided by the state laws, but that no such redemption period is provided in Texas. He urged farmers who were threatened with foreclosure to take prompt action, as they must avail themselves of the moratorium privileges provided in the Frazier-Lemke amendment before actual foreclosure has taken place.

Farmers interested were invited to get in touch with the county superintendent of the Resettlement Administration, or directly with the farm debt adjustment committee, which is composed of volunteer, unpaid workers. This committee will endeavor to bring about an agreement between the debtor and the creditor, under which the debt will be adjusted and possibly refinanced.

If a voluntary agreement cannot be reached, the debt adjustment committee will assist the farmer in placing his case with the conciliation commissioner. Such commissioners have been appointed in every county of the state that has as many as 500 farmers. The conciliation commissioner holds a hearing with the farmer and his creditors in further effort to bring about an agreement which will provide a composition of debts and a further extension of time.

If this fails, the farmer is allowed to amend his petition and ask that he be left in possession of all or any part of his property, and that appropriate be appointed to fix a reasonable rental for the property left in his hands. This rental must be paid into the conciliation commissioner for the account of mortgage holders, and distributed according to priority of claim.

The farmer is allowed to continue payment of this rental for a period of three years, at the end of which time an agreement must have been reached for final settlement. In the meanwhile, if the mortgage holder feels that his rights are not being protected, he has the right to ask that the property be sold immediately.

LIONS INSTALL NEW MEMBERS

Three new members—N. W. Autry, H. L. Wren and Brud Boren—were installed by the Lions Club Tuesday at noon.

"If you have in mind any financial gain from your membership in this club, you will be doomed to disappointment," said John E. Serpenty, past president, before he presented Lions International buttons to the trio of new members. "The Lions Club stands for service to one's community and to the world at large, over and above the service one can render in church, in lodge and individually."

Frank Farmer, president, was given a Lions International key in recognition of his bringing two new members into the club. Joe Catton and Abe Rogers were guests of the day. Rogers, a former member, said he has noticed with pleasure that "many eyes set in this club have been hatched into outstanding achievements for the community and for children with defective vision."

"Spring Came on Forever," novel by Bess Streeter Aldrich, was reviewed at the last meeting of Alpha Study Club by Mrs. Joe Graham. The book tells the story of pioneer settlers of Nebraska. Mrs. J. G. Hicks was hostess to the club at her home, and two guests were present for the meeting, Mmes. Earl H. Louder and R. J. Handalls. Mrs. Leon Joyce will be delegate from Alpha Study Club to the district convention.

1-MINUTE SAFETY TALKS

I got a traffic ticket, but I know a guy who can fix it. And you call yourself a public-minded citizen! I know a man who violated a traffic ordinance—who got a ticket—and who got it "fixed." In my opinion, that man is worse than any Grover Bergdoll who ever lived. Under certain circumstances there may be such a thing as conscientious objection to war. There may be people who have such deep-seated fervor for peace that they will die for their pacifist ideal. They may be silly sentimentalists, but they are not cowards. There is, however, no such thing as justifiable conscientious objection to the war on automobile accidents. There is no excuse for sympathy with our common national enemy, Care-emore, which kills and maims more of our people than war. (From 1923 through 1935, deaths from automobile accidents have aggregated 350,000, which exceeds by 55 per cent the record of those killed in action, or who died of wounds in all the wars in which this country participated.) A man who regards a traffic ticket as a scrap of paper is a modern Benedict Arnold. Even if there may be a slight measure of justice in his ticket (and we always feel that there is, don't we?), he should be glad to turn over backwards to take his medicine. Traffic discipline may not always be fair, but traffic discipline has been established for your own good, and for the safety of your child. Submit to this discipline graciously. Take what's coming to you. Don't try to beat the traffic game. (It's your game.) Don't cheat or fudge. Don't try to get your ticket "fixed." In short, don't be a "safety sacker."

Fred Wolcott of Snyder, wearing Rice Institute colors for the first time in a big athletic event, last Saturday won the freshman-junior college high hurdles race at the Texas Relays, Austin, in 14.3 seconds, to equal the time made in the university class. The former Tiger star halfback and track man told officials that his best previous time in competition was 15.5 seconds.

County Resident 48 Years Dies in Santone Sunday

James Turner, 80, the man for whom the Turner community in Scurry County was named, died early Sunday morning in a San Antonio hospital, where he had been confined 11 days. He had been ill a year and a half.

He settled west of town 48 years ago. The land on which the three-teacher Turner school stands was donated by the pioneer settler. He had been retired from active farming for several years.

Born in Missouri, James Turner came with his family to Texas as a boy. He was married June 7, 1883, to Miss Mathina Jackson. Final rites were held Monday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, at the Union Baptist Church, of which Mr. Turner was a long-time member. Maples Funeral Home had charge of burial in Snyder cemetery. Rev. J. W. McGaha, also a veteran county settler, officiated.

Surviving are his wife; two brothers, Sam Turner of Stanton, Isaac of Waco; two sons, T. L. of Benton Harbor, Michigan, A. R. of Snyder; six daughters, Mrs. H. L. Williamson, Mrs. J. H. Barkley and Mrs. Joe Clinkenberg of Snyder and nearby communities, Mrs. Arthur Humphrey of Dallas, Mrs. P. A. Conner and Mrs. P. B. Conner of California; and 19 grandchildren.

Pallbearers for the Monday afternoon services were: Clifton Turner, H. L. Williamson, Lester Martin Turner, Joe Clinkenberg, J. H. Barkley and Luther Williamson. Winnie Turner, Ethel Williamson, Estel Williamson and Ethyl Lynn Hays were in charge of flowers.

Scurry Invited for Crossroads Singing

Scurry County singers are invited to the Fisher County Singing Convention, which meets at Crossroads Sunday. According to officials, the program for the spring session includes special numbers by the better known singers of Fisher and adjoining counties.

Highlight of the Crossroads convention will be "dinner on the ground" in the old fashioned, help yourself way. Singers are invited to bring a basket lunch, along with their supply of song books. Located six miles directly east of the Hobbs school house, Crossroads was selected as the convention site due to its central location in Fisher County.

Mmes. I. W. Boren and Hugh Boren and Frances Boren were in Lubbock Saturday. Pauline Boren, a student at Tech, returned home with them to spend the week-end here.

Incle Jim Says

"Phosphates make pastures produce more on most any farm."

The most commonly known deficiencies in Texas pastures are generally phosphorus, humus and nitrogen. These deficiencies not only result in a lowered yield of forage and an increase of undesirable grasses, but in a lowered mineral content in all plants. In other words, if a soil is lacking in phosphorus, the grasses will not only make less growth, but animals grazing the pasture will not get enough phosphates for their needs.

Barnyard manure at the rate of five to eight tons an acre, and usually applied in the fall, will give good results on most pastures. Since manure is strong in nitrogen and weak in phosphorus, it should be supplemented with superphosphates. Superphosphates alone may be the most profitable, because it costs less than the other mineral fertilizers and encourages growth of legumes, which in turn produce more nitrogen for the grasses.

The agricultural conservation program carries provisions for benefit payments for the use of superphosphates. County agricultural agents can explain this feature of the program.

Pentecostals To Hold Next Meet Here In Summer

Next fellowship meeting of the Pentecostal Church, practically state-wide in scope, will be held in Snyder June 25-27. It was decided at the quarterly meeting held several days ago in Pioneer.

Between 300 and 500 delegates attend the quarterly gatherings, according to Rev. A. M. Fox, pastor of the local congregation.

Rev. T. J. Pickling of Snyder, who preached at the Pioneer meeting, was elected as assistant editor of the paper, "Fellowship of the Brotherhood," published at Pioneer. Rev. Fox, who attended with his wife and baby, also preached, as did Richard Fortenberry of Snyder, Frances Way and Mrs. Ball also attended from Snyder.

Rev. W. E. Rogers of Amarillo, head of the state work Brotherhood of Jesus Christ, was chief host and speaker at the recent meeting. He is pastor of the Pioneer church.

Delayed and Miscarried, Justice Rides Texas in Procedural Saddle

(Note—The following timely slants on Texas court justice grew out of an interview by Joe Storm, Sweetwater Daily Reporter staff writer, of George W. Outlaw, district attorney, who is this week busy with district court at Snyder.)

GEORGE OUTLAW

Criminal trial procedure in Texas should get in on spring house cleaning. Most of the liabilities of our criminal jurisprudence can be charged up to laws—not men.

Things are in the saddle, and lawlessness is the horse. Off by themselves those phrases do not mean much, but to George Outlaw, 32nd district attorney, they mean something very definite. They mean that Texas people are not getting the full benefit of laws now existing in America.

The Legislature will amend the statutes referring to the trial of criminals with George Outlaw's hearty approval. That is, if the Legislature does indeed amend them. Some bills to that effect are written and awaiting legislative approval.

In Outlaw's candid opinion, the "severance law" and the "first continuance rule" are the biggest real trouble makers.

The base of prosecuting attorneys throughout the state, according to the attorney, they permit most of Texas' miscarriages of justice and invite criminals to "do it again, if it's that easy to get out of."

Blind Justice. To paraphrase Outlaw's statements: When an unlawful act is committed by two or more individuals in league, the severance law provides that if either defendant so desires each accept to the crime shall be given a separate trial by a separate jury.

With proper affidavits, the offenders may determine the order of their separate trials. Usually defendants will favor separate trials.

Those against which evidence is the weakest are thus directed to be tried first. After each has passed the buck to the other, before separate juries, usually the case is severely weakened. Separate trials of partners in crime make it impossible for a jury to obtain a complete picture of the offense.

Puzzle in the Dark. An offense committed by several individuals in league may be compared to a jig-saw puzzle, each of pieces comparable to one of the pieces.

According to the severance law, a defendant may force the puzzle to be torn apart and each piece given to a separate jury.

A clever defense can prevent all of the juries from knowing whether their assigned parts of the puzzle are big or little pieces—whether from the edge or from the middle of the puzzle.

Where partners in crime may demand separate trials and direct the order, often the administration of justice is like trying to work an unfamiliar crossword puzzle in the dark.

To cite an example of justice miscarried because of the severance rule, a man in a famous Fort Worth murder trial was given a death sentence while the person who actually committed the crime was given a life sentence by another jury.

The point may be illustrated as follows: A steals some feed, B hauls it off and C buys it knowing it to have been stolen.

If they so desire, each may be tried separately. They so desire, as separate trials are seen to be an advantage. Each can pass the buck to the other before separate juries, and all go free.

B and C petition that A be tried first, as it happens that the evidence against A is the weakest.

Great expense is involved in summoning a jury. Acceptable jurors become increasingly scarce as each case is tried. No one can serve on the subsequent juries who is acquainted with the facts in the case. New jury panels must be chosen for the trial of each defendant.

A is tried. He contends that C is the only man against which evidence is found. C had the stolen goods. No evidence was found to prove that A had actually stolen the feed.

A new jury is summoned at great expense for B's trial. B contends that he was framed by the other two and provided the use of his

Long-Time Program Needed to Cure Evils of Farm Tenancy Says Trent

By D. P. Trent, Regional Director, Resettlement Administration.

We have always considered the United States as a land of independent home owners. But as we look back upon the history of our land settlement, we see that instead of a growing community of farm owners-operators, we have produced a growing community of tenants. Today 60 per cent of Texas and Oklahoma farmers own no land at all.

Some tenant farmers, particularly in the poorest farming sections, may not have the ability to become farm owners at once. If these families are to reach independent self-support, the process will have to be a gradual one. No hurry up process will answer the need. Education and guidance will have to go hand in hand with financial help.

Step by Step Improving. Helping the poorer farm families improve their own position step by step has been the guiding principle of the rural rehabilitation program of the Resettlement Administration. The program originally started by caring for farm families on relief, and broadened out to include other farm families on the poverty border line and beyond the help of the existing farm lending agencies.

Leans averaging $350 have been extended to these families who occupied land suitable for farming, and along with the loans came the technical assistance of trained agriculturists and home management experts. A special attempt is made to put the home in better condition, and the housewife is helped to care for a garden and can food for the winter months. If the farm is rented, we try to secure three to five year leases on equitable terms.

21,000 Families Helped. In this manner 15,000 Texas farm families and 6,000 in Oklahoma are being helped this year to take the first step from poverty and distress to independence and a comfortable standard of living. Several thousand, who had started as relief clients, now have the necessary capital and knowledge to run their own affairs independent of further support. In other words, rural resettlement now has that many graduates.

But it is more significant that thousands of additional families are on their way towards complete rehabilitation. It is far more important to raise a large number of families a few degrees, and place them in an upward instead of a downward progress, than it is completely to rehabilitate a small percentage.

It has frequently been said that the mass of poor families in Texas and Oklahoma do not have the necessary energy or intelligence ever to manage their own affairs. Of course there are such people. We have found them in our rural rehabilitation program. The problem of how to handle them satisfactorily remains to be solved. But our experience reveals that this is by no means the whole story.

Very often we have found that families considered to be "no account" were in reality suffering from pellagra or some other disease, and that after they had obtained some medical care and learned how to provide a better diet for themselves, their native human energy and intelligence began to function again. In other cases, families have been burdened by an economic system that has kept them perpetually in debt at a high rate of interest.

That the condition of these people is not usually a matter of deficient character can be shown by the results of a little dose of economic independence, decent food, and some educational guidance.

Smith Traps 62 Ravens In Week With New Device

Louis Smith of the Canyon community has been successful with a raven trap he recently built, having caught 62 ravens in the first week of operation.

So far as is known, this is the first trap of the design developed by biological survey of the United States Department of Agriculture in use in this county. However, this type of trap has been used in other counties with remarkable success when properly cared for.

The control of ravens is becoming of more importance with the increase in their numbers. Their damage in many sections is not only to watermelons but to standing feed and even to the barnyard, where eggs become their favorite food.

This is one of the best times of the year to trap them, since their food supplies are more limited.

The county agent's office furnished Smith with the plans and has had requests from others who are interested. The cost is small, and any farmer can build a trap for the most part from old scrap lumber.

Mr. and Mrs. Mosquito, Mr. and Mrs. Fly Reported on Way to This County

Word has just been received by the state department of health that Mr. and Mrs. Mosquito and Mr. and Mrs. Fly, with their kindfolds, are on their way to Texas for the summer.

Dr. H. E. Rosser, county health officer, says these annual visitors and their families always visit Scurry County, and that their favorite haunts are unclean places.

State officials state that, although many members of the two families have died since last summer, they will soon have large families. Mrs. Mosquito raises from 50 to 300 children at one time and only takes around two weeks to have full grown children. Mrs. Fly admitted that she and her husband could be ancestors to a million flies in one season.

Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, stated that Texas hospitality could be refused the Fly and Mosquito families if annual Clean-Up Week, April 4 to 11, is used to begin a thorough campaign to eliminate the breeding spots of these pests. Mosquitoes are responsible for the spread of malaria, dengue, and yellow fever. Flies help spread typhoid fever, dysentery, diarrhea, tuberculosis, anthrax and cholera. They breed, live and feed in filth.

LEGIONNAIRES MEET APRIL 15

Continuing work on their major 1937 proposition of purchasing site for an American Legion hut, executive men of Scurry County, with Legion Auxiliary members, are urged to be present Thursday night, April 15, 8:00 o'clock, for a meeting at which definite decision is expected to be made on the location.

At a meeting Thursday night of last week, the Will Layne Post discussed plans leading up to next week's meeting, according to Commander Hal A. Lattimore and Adjutant Walla D. Fish.

Next Thursday's meeting will be held in the regular hall over Winston & Clements.

When regular registration time closed last Thursday night for motor vehicles and trailers, the total for passenger cars stood at 1,679, 120 less than the total for the same date in 1936.

Registrations the first week after this date have picked up, however, and the margin was reduced under last year to 73 late Wednesday. A total of 105 cars have been registered since April 1, bringing the figure to 1,784. These late registrations must be accompanied by affidavit that the vehicle has not been used since April 1.

A check-up by Herman Darby, deputy tax collector, reveals that the average price paid for tags this year was $9.63, which is more than $1 higher than the average a few years ago. The rate remains the same, but increasing weight of cars makes the difference.

Truck and pick-up registrations through Wednesday were 283; trailers and semi-trailers, 22.

Burl Belew, Eura Sneed and Gertrude Brown, ex-graduates of P. H. S., were visitors in Fluvanna last week-end.

April Fool's Day found P. H. S. having a big time. Regular classes were held in the morning, but in the afternoon the whole school took off and the high school classes engaged in spirited volley ball games.

The sophomore class came out victor. That night the sophomores and juniors enjoyed a picnic together. The seniors also had their fun, in the form of a picnic and a theatre party.

Crying Wolf?

Says the Abilene Morning News in its Saturday edition:

In their Scurry County Times, Willard Jones and J. C. Smyth sound sharp editorial warning against reliance for prosperity on cotton of the present and oil—possibly of the future. Texas' cotton-oil economy is all right as far as it goes, "but it just does not go far enough into the future," notes The Times.

This may be crying wolf, for the same issue of The Times records that Scurry County's present income from sale of chickens and eggs is running nearly as high as in the big year of 1929 when the total reached $225,000. Add turkey sales, butter and cream sales, small and grain sorghum sales, and it is easy to see how Scurry County could remain prosperous on a short cotton crop and no oil crop.

But the necessity of expanding diversification of a cotton section's income-producing activities is, as The Times further notes, clearly emphasized by the drubbing American cotton is continuing to take in world markets. We cannot laugh away the disturbing fact that Texas' cotton and cottonseed income declined from $413,000,000—the average for 1929-30—to less than $200,000,000 for 1935-36. Decline in the per-acre yield and quality of the staple has had something to do with this, but the principal reason is that foreign countries formerly dependent on the United States for cotton are now growing their own.

The answer is for the farmer to take his economics in his own hand; raise a greater variety of income-producing crops; and, mainly, feed himself from his own produce. The farmer has been getting that advice for a long time, and, in Scurry County at least, he seems to have heeded it.

Crying wolf? Perhaps The Times, in its eagerness last week to present a picture of the present poultry prospects in the county, overstressed the 1937 chicken and egg crop. Certain it is that the county is yet some distance from the peak poultry, cream and other "sideline" income she knew in the twenties.

Maybe The Times is radical on this point . . . but after observing Scurry County income sources and Scurry County depression experiences for eight years, we cannot understand, for the life of us, how any farmer tries to "get by" any year without an effort to raise his own eggs, meat, milk, butter and vegetables. Joining us in this attitude is E. J. Anderson, former secretary of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce, who is credited with originating the famous slogan, "The Cow, the Sow and the Hen." Joining us, too, are practically all the Scurry County farmers who have been successful year after year.

Editorial of the Week.

The outstanding evidence that tax laws can and should be enforced is, when the Legislature "lightened up" on the collection of gasoline and cigarette tax, the duty of enforcing the law was placed in the hands of Geo. H. Sheppard, comptroller, who collected millions of dollars that had been escaping, and it only cost 2 1/2 per cent to place these additional millions in the state treasury.

There are two reasons the regular elected tax collector will never make a success in collecting delinquent taxes. They are:

1.—He and his bondsmen are responsible for the money collected and correct bookkeeping, forces him to constantly give the office his personal attention and the best he could do in collecting delinquent taxes would be in a spasmodic way, when the matter should be worked at continuously.

2.—Two year tenure of office requires every candidate to keep up an active campaign for re-election. In fact, common business judgment forces any one to the conclusion that the average county should have a deputy tax collector whose duty should be the collection of delinquent taxes, the installation of a tax system, assisting the board of equalization in arriving at a proper valuation, looking after property subject to escheat, etc., and such person should be appointed by the comptroller and the commissioners court and his duties set out in the law.

Before his appointment, he should be given an examination as to his knowledge of the tax laws and procedure. He should also take the oath of office and be required to give an adequate bond, and be paid, on a salary basis, out of the delinquent taxes.

A continuation of our present doing nothing attitude will keep us on the back track instead of going forward in a workable and intelligent business way.—Texas Tax Journal.

Clean-Up Suggestion.

One of the first objectives of Snyder Clean-Up Week, it seems to me who views south side windows two to four times daily, should be the cleaning of interior and windows of the building formerly occupied by Ed Dodds grocery and market.

Livestock Work Invites Raids By Screw Worm Fly

In animals, many wounds, such as snags and scratches from brush, are accidental and cannot be prevented, but the greatest number of wounds in animals, such as those caused from dehorning, branding, marking and other surgical operations, are man-made injuries. Whenever possible, branding and surgical operations should be performed during the winter months when screw worm flies are not present. In places where screw worm flies are active during the winter months and in localities where it is absolutely necessary to perform operations during warm weather, the wound should be coated immediately with pine tar oil.

The brains of young animals in the spring should be watched very closely. Wherever possible, young calves should be examined as soon as born, the navel cord painted with iodine, and pine tar oil applied around the navel to repel flies.

Sows that farrow in the spring should be kept in an enclosure. As soon after birth as feasible, the litter of pigs should be examined and pine tar oil placed around the navel cord. At the same time the small milk teeth of the pigs should be removed with pliers. The latter procedure will prevent many injuries to the pigs and to the sow, and is recommended by the division of screw worm control, bureau of entomology and plant quarantine, United States Department of Agriculture.

During the shearing of sheep and goats, shear cuts should be avoided, but when they do occur, they should be coated with pine tar oil. Every infestation occurring in the spring can cause a great deal of damage if it is allowed to go untreated. Every such case may produce a hundred or more maggots which, upon dropping to the ground, will transform into adult flies. Care should be taken in treating cases to see that every worm is killed.

To follow all of these recommendations under range conditions is not an easy matter, but stockmen should remember that relief from screw worms is possible only through prevention of wounds, through prompt treatment of injuries with pine tar oil and through prompt and proper treatment of infested injuries with benzol and pine tar oil. Stockmen are urged to prevent injuries and treat early cases so that screw worms cannot develop a big population of flies.

First Presbyterian Church

Every activity of the church from this time until May 2 will be centered around the special evangelistic services which have just been announced for April 22 to May 2. This is the time for every Christian man, woman, boy and girl to commence working and praying for the revival of religion in our own hearts and in the hearts of those who have not been taking their places in the work of the Kingdom of God. Next Sunday the sermon topics will be "The Church Faces a Task," and "Speak for Yourself," at the morning and evening services respectively. The church worship services are at 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. Sunday school is at 9:45 a. m. and Christian Endeavor is at 6:45 p. m. Immediately following the morning service next Sunday there will be a special meeting of the congregation for a few minutes. The purpose of this call meeting is to report on some church business that will be of great interest to every member and friend of the church. The roll of members will be called.

Let nothing deter you from the joy of worship next Sunday, the joy that can be found only when we come together in the house of prayer.—James E. Spivey, pastor.

Thanks Voters.

To the Voters of North Ward, City of Snyder:

I wish to thank each and every one of you who, in any way, helped me to win in the city election Tuesday. To those who did not see fit to vote for me, I want to say that there is no ill feeling whatever. I want all of you to help me make a better commissioner, for I assure you that I will help and advise.

Let us all pull together for the good of the whole city. Again assuring you of my appreciation for your confidence and friendship, I remain,
Yours respectfully,
DWIGHT MONROE.

Sherlock on the Job.

Ah, ha! Violent snooping by the Times detective reveals that the Texas Planning Board's most recent publicity release is taken almost word for word from a recent article in the Star-Telegram that originated in Snyder. We refer to the article that deals with Texas farmers' new crop of bones and iron. Speaking of junk: Last week's Times suggested that professional junk collectors might take the chicken-coop front from the post office some dark night; but we failed to suggest the brass used by some folks in attempting to get their names in The Times.

No Wantum Sitdowns.

Texas has declared herself against sitdown strikes. Governor Allred has warned Lewis and his satellites that their methods will not be tolerated. Labor's right to strike and to otherwise seek adjustment of disputes with employers, in many instances, is unquestioned. But when labor becomes so enamored with a bushy-headed, bow-tied demagogue that it resorts to such unlawful means as sitdown strikes, it is time for someone to stage a hard-boiled anti-strike. Governor Allred, the Legislature and the people of Texas should combine to be that "someone."

Letters from the People

Our Readers Speak

Court Could Be Wrong.

If you have space in your paper for the following article by Clarence Ousley in a recent issue of the Star-Telegram, I shall be happy for you to publish it. Mr. Ousley presents a sane, sensible view of the Supreme Court controversy.

J. C. BEAKLEY, Dunn.

Much of the controversy concerning the proposed change of structure of the federal judiciary grows out of an apprehension that the precedent which the president proposes would open the way for other and more serious encroachments of the chief executive upon the judiciary branch of the government, and usually such comment assumes the Congress would be wholly subservient to the executive.

I am fully aware of the influence of such a popular president as Roosevelt upon members of Congress, as it is of the human tendency of any man in the presidency to use the whip to effect his purposes, but I submit that members of Congress are more in awe of the public opinion which the president represents than they are of the executive himself. While there are some men of small mind, small independence, small courage, even of small political conscience in the Congress, I submit that for the most part the representatives of the people in both Houses of Congress are men of more than average intelligence and good conscience. Party loyalty persuades many of them, justifiably, to follow the leader whenever they can do so without violence to their convictions, but the present array of dissenters from the president's proposal is proof enough that in matters of conscience and conviction the most of them are far from being subservient to executive whim.

It seems to me more to the point of the present issue of judicial usurpation of legislative functions to point out that members of Congress are as much under solemn obligation to respect the Constitution as members of the court. They take an oath of office to "uphold the Constitution," and they are quite as apt to cast their votes in accordance with that oath as the justices are to render judgments in accordance with the same oath. I believe the representation in Congress from Texas, for example, is as faithful to the constitutional oath as any member of the Supreme Court, and that some of them are as intelligent in the interpretation of the Constitution.

Therefore, I hold that an act of Congress is entitled to respect, if not to judicial concurrence. But when the court differs from the Congress, I am not thereby convinced that the court is right and the Congress wrong, particularly when the court divides in the ratio of five to four. No logical mind can accept a five-to-four decision as an infallible judgment, for it is manifest that the turn of a hair would have recorded a contrary judgment.

Not only are many members of Congress lawyers of equal learning with members of the court, but the language of the Constitution, like the language of any other law, means precisely what the language of common speech means, and any intelligent layman is as apt to interpret the Constitution correctly as any lawyer congressman or any lawyer judge. If the language of the Constitution and of all law is not the language of common speech, then the sovereign people, the "we the people" who enacted the Constitution, as the instrument itself affirms, are the victims of a fraud.

I am a layman; I believe I have a fair knowledge of the meaning of words and some slight skill in their proper use. Therefore, I hold myself, in common with millions of my fellow citizens, entirely competent to interpret the words of the Constitution. If this is not a sound assumption, then the law is an occult.

YEARS OF EXPERIENCE—

Adding disappointment to the grief of any bereaved family by a confused or awkwardly conducted funeral service is never worth the cost, however low. Such services are the result of inexperience.

The impressive character of every Odom Funeral Home service is due to understanding . . . acquired by 12 years of service in Snyder.

thing and the democracy which it pretends to establish in the rule of the people is a rank delusion on the part of the framers of the Constitution and the judges who claim the exclusive right to interpret it.

The Constitution, like all human speech or writing, is subject to contrary interpretation by contrary minds. The inspired Word of God which we recognize in the Bible is subject to like contrary interpretations by like contrary minds. But the interpretation of an intelligent layman is quite as apt to be correct as the interpretation of an intelligent divine or jurist.

The point I am trying to make in the hope of clarifying the pending judicial issue is that both the Congress and the people are entitled to interpret the law of the land. If they are not, then there is no reason in the rule that ignorance of the law is no excuse for its violation, for if a citizen can not understand a law he is as ignorant of its meaning as if he had never read it and he should not be held accountable for what the lawmakers knew he could not understand.

Bratton Writes of Tragedy in School

Writing last week in the Baptist Standard, Rev. W. T. Bratton, pastor at New London, gave aspects of the recent school tragedy. He is a brother of Rev. R. E. Bratton, Scurry County minister.

The East Texas pastor said: "We pastors here appreciate every word and deed rendered by our brethren from nearby and afar. Rev. A. D. Sparkman, pastor at Old London, and I had perhaps the greatest toll in the sad loss. His church lost 32, our (New London Baptist Church) lost 29 from the church and Sunday school. There were two left in my Royal Ambassador chapter of 15."

First Methodist Church

Through the next three Sundays we shall join with all Methodist churches of our connection in giving consideration to missionary enterprises. We feel that He who said, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature" will be pleased to have us do so.—H. C. Gordon, pastor.

Homecoming at Union.

Leaders of the Union Baptist Church, five miles west of Snyder, announce that a homecoming will be held there Sunday, April 18. Charter members, many of whom live outside the county, are being given a special invitation to attend the special services.
