LEGION NAMES BAZE AS CHIEF FOR NEW YEAR

M. M. Gideon Elected Adjutant in Annual Business Session Last Thursday Night.

Boss Baze, whose ability as jack-of-all-trades has featured activities of the Will Layne Post since its organization, was named last Thursday night as commander for the new fiscal year.

Baze and other officers will take office Thursday, August 5. The new commander will succeed Hal A. Lattimore.

M. M. Gideon will become adjutant. Other officers are: W. W. Hull, finance officer, reelected; Rev. D. R. Todd, chaplain, reelected; Porter King, historian, reelected; Hal A. Lattimore, service officer; J. E. Shipp, chairman of the child's welfare committee; Dick Henderson, sergeant-at-arms.

Mother of Local Rancher Dies in Ft. Worth Home

Mrs. Maria Deborah Dickey Beggs, 67, pioneer resident of Tarrant County, died at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at the home of a son, George Beggs, in Fort Worth. She was the mother of W. D. Beggs, long-time rancher of this section, and had visited frequently in Snyder and on the Beggs Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Beggs and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Price Stell, were in Long Beach, California, when they learned of Mrs. Beggs' death. They left immediately for Fort Worth, and were scheduled to arrive there by car Wednesday night. John Billy Beggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Beggs, and wife left Wednesday for Fort Worth.

The elder Mrs. Beggs was the widow of George Beggs Sr., who died in 1920. Both she and her husband were born in Ballymena, County Antrim, Ireland. They came to America, were married in Boston, and later moved to Illinois, where they resided eight years.

They came to Village Creek near Handley in 1876, pioneered there until 1893, when they moved to Fort Worth. Mr. Beggs engaged in the livestock commission business throughout his life.

HOSPITAL SETS NEW OPENING

Plans are being made by the staff and directors of Snyder General Hospital for formal dedication and open house for the south wing that is being completed this month. Sunday, July 18, has been set as the dedication date, according to Lee Simpson, chairman of the board of directors.

Total bed facilities of the hospital will be more than doubled by the addition.

To Estacado Meeting.

Rev. T. J. Pickling, Apostolic Christian pastor, left yesterday for Estacado, where a union meeting of at least two weeks duration is to begin tonight under his direction. Estacado is 20 miles east of Lubbock. Free camp grounds and water are offered at the meeting site.

It Means $40,000

If interest rates on farm loans are changed as contemplated in legislation vetoed a few days ago by President Roosevelt, Scurry County farmers will lose approximately $40,000 annually, according to Hugh Boren, manager of the Snyder National Farm Loan Association.

The agriculture committee voted Tuesday to ask the House to override the President's veto, and the House did so yesterday. If the Senate overrides the veto, the legislation which would continue low interest rates on farm loans for two years will become law.

Under terms of the vetoed legislation, the interest rate on federal land bank loans would remain at 3 1/2 per cent during the 1938 fiscal year and advance to 4 per cent in 1939. The short term land bank commissioner loan rate would be reduced from 5 to 4 per cent during the two years.

In his veto message, President Roosevelt said he did not believe continuation of the low rates, put into effect in 1933 during the depression, was justified.

Plane Purchased by Snyderite

Carl England, shop foreman for the Times Publishing Company, last week went to Sweetwater to receive this "Taylor Cub," advertised as the world's safest lightweight airplane. The two-place ship will be left temporarily in the Sweetwater airport hangar. England plans to move it to Snyder soon.

NO FEAR FROM GRASSHOPPER

Scurry County has little to fear from the grasshopper this late in the season, believes W. R. Lacey, county agent, who returned several days ago from hopper-infested Colorado state.

Nearest heavy infestation is 300 to 350 miles northeast of this county, and Lacey sees little likelihood of the insects traveling in this direction, since they move largely with prevailing winds. Poison is ready if it is needed here, however.

Principal infested areas include far Northwest Texas, small portions of New Mexico, Western Kansas and Nebraska, and Colorado state.

Debt Adjustment Committee Plans Aid for Farmers

Farm debt adjustment committees in this county took time by the forelock July 13, when they helped several farmers start planning, well ahead of the due date, to meet their next financial obligations.

"We expect this practice to eliminate much of the 'past due' obligations in Scurry County, including back taxes on property belonging to these farmers," Hugh P. Weaver, district FDA supervisor, said. "This supplements other resettlement activities in that farmers who borrow money from resettlement must also plan ahead, with a written, carefully worked-out budget."

Farm debt adjustment committees in this county are handled by the district supervisor, and the voluntary county committees who serve without pay. These committees are Ben F. Smith, chairman, and Joe Canton and Giles Bowers, all of Snyder.

The next meeting will be held in the rural supervisor's office at Snyder at 10:00 o'clock, Tuesday, July 27. All distressed farm and ranch debtors are invited to attend this meeting.

W. L. Johnson, Local Engineer, To San Antonio

W. L. Johnson, engineer for the city of Snyder for more than a year, several days ago resigned his position to accept a place as consulting engineer with the Col-Tex Refinery, Colorado. He is this week doing preliminary work at Colorado, and will move with his wife in a few days to San Antonio, where he will be stationed for several months.

Johnson is being replaced by W. H. Giesler, who has come from Amarillo. Under Johnson's direction, 23 blocks of paving have been completed in Snyder, and 23 more blocks have been prepared for topping with caliche base. It was here that Johnson put down the first paving in Texas of asphalted concrete, a mixture that differs from the old style of topping in that it is mixed with hot asphalt in a specially made mixer before it is applied to the street.

Johnson asks The Times to express his regret at leaving before the job is completed. He and Mrs. Johnson say they have enjoyed their stay in Snyder, where they have become widely acquainted. The engineer is especially anxious to express his appreciation to the City Council, and to citizens with whom he has dealt here, for cooperation that has enabled him to leave a project that is well on the road to successful completion.

Will Preach Saturday. Rev. Lawrence Hays, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will preach Saturday afternoon, 4:00 o'clock, on the east side of the courthouse. He has announced "The Invasion of Communism," or "Will America Stand?" as his subject. The public is invited.

SUMMER BIBLE CLASSES WILL OPEN MONDAY

Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist and Christian Churches Cooperate
In Summer School.

Kiddies between the ages of 18 months and 14 years, at least 200 strong, are expected to attend the community vacation Bible school, which begins in the First Presbyterian Church with a general assembly Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

Leaders of the four cooperating churches—First Methodist, First Presbyterian, First Baptist and First Christian—point out that although the school is sponsored by these churches, it is open to all the children of the community.

Herman Darby, registrar, reports this morning that a large number of children have already signed for the summer Bible school.

Rev. Spivey Is Dean. Rev. James E. Spivey, Presbyterian pastor, is dean of the school, and Mrs. Lida M. Hardy is co-dean. Similar summer Bible schools have been held in recent years under Presbyterian sponsorship, and Rev. Spivey has taken the lead in promoting the 1937 school.

Opening assembly will be held at the Presbyterian building each morning at 8:30 o'clock for 15 minutes. Sessions will close at 11:00 o'clock each morning, thus giving two and one-half hours of work daily.

After assembly, age groups will go to their separate meeting places as follows: Intermediate (12, 13, 14), First Christian; junior (9, 10, 11), First Baptist; primary (6, 7, 8), First Methodist; beginners (4, 5), First Baptist; nursery (1 1/2, 2, 3), First Presbyterian.

Other School Leaders. Superintendents of the various departments are as follows: Intermediate, Mrs. W. R. Lacey; junior, Mrs. D. V. Merritt; primary, Mrs. J. W. Leftwich; beginners, Mrs. H. E. Eiland; nursery, Marva Nell Curtis.

Other specialized leaders and departmental leaders include: Rev. H. C. Gordon, Rev. Lawrence Hays, Mrs. Homer Snyder, Mrs. Armer McFarland, Mrs. Roy Brown, Mrs. Allen Warren, Mrs. Marion Newton, Miss Geneva Glascock, Mrs. H. B. Winston, Miss Florenta Winston, Mrs. A. M. Curry, Mrs. Dick Handale, Mrs. H. P. Redwine, Miss Margaret Dell Prim, Miss Estine Dorward, Miss Mary Bess Abernethy, Mrs. Herman Darby, Mrs. H. C. Gordon, Mrs. Adelle Curtis, Mrs. L. A. Chapman, Mrs. Hugh Boren, Miss John Greene, Miss Elizabeth Blakey, Miss Georgia Maulle, Miss Zeaunte Patrick, Miss Adelle Watkins, Mrs. John Irwin, Mrs. L. R. Gill, Mrs. H. L. Vann, Mrs. James E. Spivey, J. W. Leftwich, Miss Margaret Brown and Herman Darby.

With its building gay in new colors, inside and out, the natural resource exhibit of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at the Fort Worth Frontier Fiesta is open again this year.

Included in the exhibit of town panels is Snyder's, which proclaims that Scurry County is the land where farmers ranch, and ranchers farm. "So successful was the exhibit of town panels and factual information last year that no general change has been made in the exhibit. Added interest has been gained by displays of relics and curios, tying the history of old West Texas into the picture of development and progress shown by the town panels, relief maps and resource exhibits."

Another interesting exhibit is that of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, an animated replica of a West Texas stock farm, showing the methods of soil and water conservation advocated by the soil service administration.

The Will Rogers Room, popular last year in displaying the Rogers trophies, has been converted into a typical old-time West Texas ranch sitting room and hospitality headquarters for visitors.

Sixteen FFA Boys, Fathers to Dublin From Hobbs Friday

A total of 16 fathers and FFA boys of the Hobbs chapter went to Dublin Friday, to spend a day at the Dublin soil conservation project.

With arrangements in charge of C. Littlepage, the group went by school bus, returning Friday night. Members of the party were: Will Etheridge and sons, Bob, Sam and Pete; Jeff Scott and sons, Norris, Orbie and Marvin; John Akers and son, John Akers Jr.; Guy E. Casey and sons, Bunk and Jim Tom; Henry Williams; Junior and Jim Frank Taylor; English Dooley, and Rush Gallan.

Not only were the latest methods of combating erosion studied by the group, but an inspection tour was made of the experimental plots.

Lionesses Reign Supreme as Service Club Installs Officers for 1937-1938

Almost a month ago, Snyder Lions decided to install their officers for the new fiscal year and to entertain their ladies in a joint program.

When the joint program came to a head at the Manhattan Hotel Friday evening, it turned out that about all the Lions did was to be installed, entertained and fined. The women did the rest.

Mrs. A. C. Preuitt was chairman, and Mmes. Earl Louder and J. G. Hicks were tall twisters. When the women took their places of leadership, W. E. Holcomb promptly spoke in heavy terms concerning his female domination of a Lions program. Mrs. W. R. Bell put him back in his silent bachelorhood by giving her unvarnished opinion of men.

Entertainment numbers, in addition to the excessive fines assessed on the men for failure to have their buttons (which the women wore), and fines assessed for other reasons included a vocal solo, "That Old Gang of Mine," by Lion Harold

Proposed Trinity Canal as it Is Seen by Aerial Map

Realization of the long-sought Trinity River canalization plan for a commercial waterway to the gulf, tapping Texas' rich interior, is imminent, according to the All-South Development Council.

An aerial compositograph (background) shows the "headwaters" of the proposed canal the newly-impounded lakes in the Fort Worth-Dallas area. Inset at left is Gen. Herbert Deakney, retired U. S. Army engineer in charge of perfecting engineering plans. At right, a modern, Diesel-engine jugsboat such as will ply the waterway, moving through the 21 locks along the straightened, 400-mile course from Fort Worth to Galveston bay.

Opponents of the Trinity River canalization project, which

Tuesday was given approval by directors of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Fort Worth, have been called to meet at Hotel Wooten in Abilene Friday morning at 10:00 o'clock to discuss further organized opposition. The meeting was announced by Dudley B. Foy, traffic manager of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce.

Said the Abilene Reporter-News of the proposal Wednesday afternoon: "The Abilene Chamber of Commerce will participate as one of the many chambers of commerce of West Texas and Oklahoma which have opposed canalization for a number of years, while the cities of Fort Worth and Dallas doggedly continued their movement to obtain water freight connection via the Trinity.

"Eighteen West Texas and Oklahoma cities had in the past week renewed opposition to the project. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce announced its directors had voted to give canalization endorsement after an all-day meeting in Fort Worth Tuesday."

Good Attendance And Interest for Church Services

The following statement concerning the revival that began at the Church of Christ Sunday morning, with Robert E. Price of Clinton, Oklahoma, in the pulpit, and Pleasant Crenshaw of Sweetwater leading the singing, is made by J. Porter Sanders, minister:

"The revival services now in progress continue with interest and attendance increasing with each service.

Around 100 are attending the morning services at 10:00 o'clock. The open air night services are wonderfully delightful, affording the speaker an abundance of 'cool' air with which to speak.

Visitors from neighboring communities and congregations are co-operating and thus lending much assistance and encouragement. The apostle Paul's command to the young preacher of the gospel, 'Preach the word,' is being adhered to tenaciously, realizing that nothing but the truth will avail, justify and save.

"The meeting will continue daily at 10:00 a. m. and 8:30 p. m., through next Wednesday night, except there will be no services Saturday morning. There will be a basket dinner spread on the church grounds next Sunday immediately after services. Come and fill up physically and spiritually."

County People to Blanco. Several Scurry County singers, including J. P. Tate, Lentie Bell Tate, Jack Patrick, and Zeuteau Patrick, attended the Coke County singing convention Sunday at Blanco. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young of Big Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. DeBald were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Stephens and son, Don Franklin, in Midland.

Two in a Row

Probably an all-time record was set in district court Wednesday when juries returned verdicts in two murder cases.

Not even one murder case had been tried in the county in recent years, and old-timers remember no occasion when two cases were completed in a single day.

Verdict of five years in the state penitentiary was rendered shortly after 9:00 o'clock in the morning against Leonard Heard, charged with murder of Jim Reynolds.

Jury selection began shortly before 9:30 a. m. in the case of the state against Cordell Campbell, charged with the murder of Haskell Cornelius. The jury was quickly formed, and most testimony was heard in the morning.

The case was given to the jury in mid-afternoon.

Judge Mauzey is scheduled to hear five burglary cases the remainder of the week.

TWO YEARS IN PEN FOR NEGRO

Cordell Campbell, negro, was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary for the murder of Haskell Cornelius. This verdict was rendered Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in district court, after short deliberation by the jury.

Through his attorneys R. W. Webb and Ben F. Thorpe, Campbell and defense witnesses sought to show that Cornelius was shot and killed in self defense during a gambling brawl in the colored section of Snyder early in the morning of last November 21. District Attorney George W. Outlaw and Scurry County Attorney Sterling Williams were prosecuting attorneys.

On the jury that tried Campbell were Carl Hairston, foreman, Tim O. Cook, M. M. Maulle, W. T. Sumruld, J. E. Eaton, John Cargile, H. C. Huckabee, R. E. Adams, Fred Cotton, W. E. DeShazo, Floyd Market and Lee Holladay.

Series of Meetings To Begin Sunday at Church in Fluvanna

The Church of Christ in Fluvanna begins a series of gospel meetings next Sunday, to continue 10 days. Evangelist J. Porter Sanders, minister of the church in Snyder, will do the preaching, while his son, J. P. Jr., will direct congregational singing.

There will be two services daily, at 10:00 a. m. and 8:30 p. m. The services will be held in the community tabernacle. Basket dinner will be spread on the church grounds each Sunday of the meeting.

The subject for the initial service will be "How to Have the Biggest Meeting Fluvanna Ever Had." Sunday night the topic will be: "The Diseases That Afflict Christians," based on the scripture, "They that are whole have no need of a physician, but they that are sick."

FIVE YEARS IN STATE PEN FOR KAUFMAN MAN

Leonard Heard Found Guilty of Murdering Jim Reynolds, His Trapping Partner.

Five years in the state penitentiary was the sentence meted out at 9:00 o'clock Wednesday morning to Leonard Heard, Kaufman County man charged with killing his life-long friend, Jim Reynolds, on December 21, 1936, in Borden County.

Counsel for Heard announced shortly after the verdict was read by District Judge A. S. Mauzey that no appeal would be made. Heard was immediately transferred to the Scurry County jail, where he will remain until taken to the state penitentiary.

Transferred to Scurry County on a change of venue, the trial attracted 250 to 400 persons from the time selection of jurors began Monday morning until the verdict was read Wednesday morning.

Tedious Jury Naming. Selection of jurors from a special venire of 72 men began at 10:00 o'clock Monday morning, ended at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon. State witnesses were examined for one hour Monday afternoon, from 8:00 until 11:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. Defense testimony was completed late in the afternoon. After a recess, the judge read a lengthy charge, and six attorneys presented their arguments from 8:25 to 10:05 o'clock.

The jury was composed of Tim O. Cook, Snyder bank teller, foreman; Joe Graham, Snyder tailor and dry cleaner; E. A. Kruse, Ira service station operator; S. A. McPherson, Snyder mechanic; Frank Wilson, H. L. Williamson, John T. Cargile, R. E. Adams, W. A. Jones, Lee Holaday, D. P. Ammons and H. E. Glass, farmers. Sixty-six of the venire of 72 men were dismissed or temporarily excused in selection of the jury.

Defense attorneys were George W. Outlaw, district attorney, and Sterling Williams, county attorney of Scurry County. Heard was represented by Taylor Carlisle and Arthur Henry Kaufman, and Zollic O. Steakley and C. L. Nunn, Sweetwater.

Borden People Attend. Many Borden County people attended the full proceedings. About 75 witnesses were subpoenaed, but only 32 of them—15 for the state, 17 for the defense—were called to the witness chair.

Examination of the witnesses was punctuated by numerous objections, most of them by the defense. Twice the court was recessed for brief consultation of attorneys.

Pleading not guilty to the murder charge, Heard said during two hours of questioning Tuesday afternoon that he killed Reynolds in self defense, after Reynolds had threatened to kill him at a fishing and trapping hole down the river a mile and a half from where the two men were camped at the Colorado River bridge on the Gall-Big Spring road.

Heard Testifies. He testified that Reynolds became angry when he (Heard) advised him concerning the baiting of a hatchet, and that he (Heard) wrested the hatchet from his former Kaufman County neighbor, struck him with it in the scuffle, and shoved him at an angle into a water hole in an effort to get away from him.

Heard said he shortly went back to the water hole, dragged his partner out, attempted to revive him, and finally decided he was dead. He declared he first planned to notify officers, but later decided, in view of being in a strange country without friends, to tell questioners that Reynolds had disappeared while setting traps up the river. He

Three mission revivals in various parts of Snyder are being held beginning tonight (Thursday), and continuing through Sunday night, July 25. They are under sponsorship of the First Baptist Church, "in the interest," says Pastor Lawrence Hays, "of soul winning and evangelism."

On the east side, block east of the high school on 27th Street, Rev. Forest Huffman will preach and C. T. Burnett will direct the music.

Rev. Hays will preach and A. P. Morris will lead the singing for the north side meeting, corner of depot street and 16th Street.

West side services will be in charge of Rev. Cecil Rhodes, with Fred Jones leading the singing. This meeting will be a block south of the old Gibson lumber yard.

All services begin at 8:30 p. m. Church leaders point out that the meetings are open to all, and are especially designed for those who seldom go to regular church services.

Odum Funeral Home and Maples Funeral Home announce jointly this week that they will no longer offer free ambulance service of any nature, inside or outside the city limits of Snyder.

Representatives of the two local funeral homes state that they can not continue to give efficient and satisfactory ambulance service without making a reasonable charge.

They state that no other town or city in West Texas, as far as they know, provides free ambulance service.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Deakins and small daughter, Margaret Ann, of Floydada, were week-end guests of the E. M. Deas in family here.

Wynona Keller as "Miss Snyder" Places Second in Goddess Contest

Wynona Keller, Snyder's representative in the Sweetwater revue for the title of "Goddess of West Texas," was a favorite from the start in the Saturday evening contest, judging from the applause given her by legionnaires and their wives and other attendants at Sweetwater's municipal swimming pool.

"Miss Snyder"

Wynona Keller as "Miss Snyder" won second place in a beauty contest held in Sweetwater two years ago, when Bonnie Miller represented Snyder, the local girl placed second with "Miss Stamford" winning first honors. Two years ago Mrs. John Bryant, then Dorothy Baker, won the title for Stamford, with Miss Miller placing second. This year first honors went to Frances Prewitt of Stamford. Twilight Stewart, "Miss Mineral Wells," was third in Saturday's revue.

Smiling, brown-haired, brown-eyed "Miss Snyder," still in her striking white satin latex swim suit and white sandals, received congratulations along with other contestants for almost an hour following the revue before leaving the pool. Stamford and Mineral Wells, both blondes, also wore white suits.

Evelyn Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Harris, formerly of Snyder, who was last year's "Miss Sweetwater," Betty Lou Crimes of Merkel, winner of the "Goddess" title last year, and "Miss Sweetwater of 1937," Margaret Fife, led the grand march of beauties first to parade before the judges, dropping out after the first round.

Judges for the Saturday night contest, held in connection with the five-district American Legion convention in Sweetwater, were attendants at the convention—Drury Phillips of Huntsville, Lou Roberts of Borger, George Epple of Kerrville, Mrs. Tillman Jones of Post and Mrs. Will M. Benton of Amarillo. Zolzie Steakley, Sweetwater attorney, was master of ceremonies.

Frank N. Watson, director general of the Pan American Exposition in Dallas, crowned "Miss Stamford" as "Goddess of West Texas" before a crowd estimated at more than 5,000 people. Her reward will be an expense-paid trip to the Dallas show. Watson issued a special invitation to Snyder's representative.

Picnic Supper Is Served After Party.

A delightful picnic supper served on the lawn was enjoyed by members of the Duce Bridge Club and guests after their bridge play last Thursday evening, when Bonnie Miller was hostess at her home.

Giant zinnias in a variety of colors graced the living room, where four round tables were arranged for bridge, in which high score was made by Allene Curry, and Gwen Gray took the traveling prize.

Guests were Jeanette Lollar and Evelyn Erwin, and the following members were present: Margaret Deakins, Ruby Lee, Gwen Gray, Vesta Green, Mrs. R. C. Miller, Dorothy Egerton, Frances Stinson, Mrs. R. E. Boyer, Mrs. Billie Lee Jr., Alia Boyers, Mrs. Buster Curtis, Johnnie Mathison, Mavis Webb, Allene Curry and the hostess.

Novel feature of after supper entertainment was the appearance of a one-man street band, complimentary of Dean Mattison, Abilene, and Mmes. E. M. Deakins and Nathan Rosenberg, who entertained for half an hour with selections played on his combination accordion-guitar-French harp-bazooka, as his instrument was termed by the listeners.

Mavis Webb will be next hostess to the club.

Mari Jo Burk Is Birthday Honoree.

Mari Jo Burk, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Burk, was complimented on her birthday, last Friday, with a delightful birthday party, given by her mother.

Guests honoring the 10-year-old on her birthday were the following: Gene Gordon, Billy Wayne Thompson, J. D. Vaughn, Allie Ivson, Eldon Thompson, Gladys, Ralph and Harold Evans, Mariani Gordon, Nan Blakey, Genevieve Yoder, Marciel and Mozell Newman, LaTrice Roper, Lida Lee Wilson, Estelle Wilson, Douglas McGlaun, Mary Jo Hulsey, Billy Don Burk, Iva Nell Johnson and Mrs. W. A. Vaughan.

Water Cooling System Introduced

This young miss thinks it just heaps of fun drinking glassfuls of water several times a day, but mother knows it's an exceedingly healthful habit. The youngster likes to do it because she gets the water refreshingly cold directly from a new type automatically refrigerated water cooler designed for the kitchen by Frigidaire, makers of the refrigerator of the same name, for which King & Brown are local dealers.

Mrs. W. T. Baze Is Birthday Honoree.

Mrs. W. T. Baze, long-time resident of Snyder, was honored at a surprise supper last Thursday evening in the backyard of her home in North Snyder to celebrate her 74th birthday. Six of her eight children attended the enjoyable affair.

Sandwiches, salad, iced tea and cake were served to about 30 members of the family and close friends present.

Children and families honoring the 74-year-old local citizen included: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baze and son, Victor; Mr. and Mrs. John R. Baze and daughter, Mrs. Riggs Shepherd, of Colorado; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Baze and daughter, Johnnie Ruth; Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston and children, Mr. and Mrs. Boss Baze and Mrs. Inez Brown, a daughter, Mrs. J. L. Suits of Lockney, and a son, W. E. Baze of Denver, Colorado, were not present.

Other relatives and friends who were guests for Thursday night's supper were Mmes. T. M. Maples and M. F. Baze, Mr. and Mrs. John Carl Portis and son of Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Leatherwood, Billie Mae Leatherwood and Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Popcoe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gay and daughter, Wanna, of Memphis visited friends in Snyder early this week. Formerly manager of the Perry Brothers store in Snyder, Gay was recently transferred to Memphis.

Miss Irene Hutcherson of Raton, New Mexico, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Lora Miller, here this week. Miss Hutcherson, Mrs. Miller and daughter, Bonnie, and Gwen Gray will leave Sunday for a vacation trip to points in New Mexico and Colorado.

Crusaders Class in Enjoyable Meeting.

Members of the Crusaders Class of the First Methodist Church were in an enjoyable class meeting Monday afternoon, when they spread a picnic supper at the school park. Mrs. R. H. Odum, class teacher, several guests, and members of the class were present.

Gift of appreciation was presented Mrs. Orville Keese, former president of the class, who left with her husband this week to live in Val Verde County. Mrs. Sterling Williams is the newly elected class president, and Mrs. O. M. Belk is vice president.

A delectable picnic supper was served to Mrs. J. C. Gay, Geneva Franks, Fannie G. Warren, Eugenia Farmer, Billie Biggs, Wanna Gay and Maxine McClinton, guests, and the following members: Mrs. Odum, Hattie Belk, Mrs. Settle, Henrietta Lee, Mrs. Land, Jo Halley, Vivian Hill, Jewell McClinton, Lola Biggs, Snowball Harvey, Gladys Williams, Oleta Robinson, Ora Pierce and Eugene Farmer.

Grace Avary Visits Parents on Vacation.

Grace Avary, employed with the Lone Star Gas Company at Bryan is spending her vacation with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Avary, here this week.

Taking only half of her due vacation now, Miss Avary, who is a graduate of the local high school, will spend the rest of the week here, returning the latter part of September for another week in Snyder. "It's good to be home with my folks and old friends," she said yesterday, "and even though I like my work in Bryan, West Texas still looks good to me."

School Head's Mother Visits.

Mrs. J. R. Wedgeworth of Nacogdoches is visiting here in the home of her son, Superintendent C. Wedgeworth, and at Fluvanna with Superintendent and Mrs. E. O. Wedgeworth. Mrs. Wedgeworth came here from Mineral Wells, where she has been under care of doctors for several weeks. A daughter, Mrs. Herman Darby, teacher in the Snyder schools, is also receiving medical treatment in Mineral Wells.

Mrs. Nathan Rosenberg has as her guest her niece, LaVera Cox of Comanche, who arrived Sunday to spend several days. Miss Cox has attended the local high school.

Estelle Hancock of Rochester, who is known to a number of local people, is a guest this week of Evanelle Arnold. Miss Arnold spent last week in Rochester, and Miss Hancock accompanied her here Sunday. The two girls were classmates at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene.

MRS. TURNER IS ELECTED TO PRESIDENCY

Mrs. Edgar Turner was elected president of the American Legion Auxiliary at a meeting of the group held in connection with that of the men last Thursday at the Legion hall.

The newly elected president will take over her duties along with other new officers at the August meeting, to be held Thursday night, August 5. Mrs. Walla Fish, retiring president said yesterday.

New leaders named at the last Thursday meeting include: Mrs. Turner, president; Mrs. W. J. Ely, first vice president; Mrs. Melvin Newton, second vice president; Mrs. Wesley Evans, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Jim Beavers, historian; Mrs. Ross Pate, chaplain; Mrs. W. M. Nichols, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Boss Baze, reporter.

A report of the past year's work done by the auxiliary will be given by Mrs. Fish in next week's Times. Financial condition of the group is good.

Patriotic Theme Is Featured at Meeting.

A clever patriotic note was featured in decorations, appointments and refreshments at the last meeting of Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club at the home of Mrs. Gailther Bell. The refreshment plate held fruit salad, sandwiches and iced punch, with red, white and blue favored as a color scheme.

High score prize was presented to Mrs. P. W. Cloud at the close of a series of bridge games, and other club members present were: Mmes. Amos Joyce, W. W. Hill, Pia Joyce, Robert E. Gray Jr., Max Brownfield, Weldon Johnson, J. D. Scott and Aubrey Stokes, and Dorothy Strayhorn. Clarabell Clark was the only guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lankford have as their guests this week his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Lankford of Grand Saline.

Party Compliment To Haskell Guest.

Complimenting Miss Madlin Hunt of Haskell, guest here of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Yeatts, Mrs. Wraymond Sims entertained Friday afternoon with a three-table bridge party. Mrs. Sims and Miss Hunt were school day friends.

Guests for the delightful afternoon party besides the honoree were: Mrs. J. W. Dougherty of Cincinnati, Ohio, Mmes. Forest Sears, Melvin Blackard, E. B. Yeatts, Wayne Boren, J. C. Smyth, Gailther Bell, John E. Sentell and G. B. Clark Jr., and Clarabell Clark.

High score prize was awarded Mrs. Forest Sears, and the honoree also received a gift. The hostess prepared a refreshing salad course at tea time.

Western Union Man Here.

F. E. Smith, formerly manager of the local Western Union office and now manager at Plainview, arrived in Snyder during the week-end to join his wife, the former Dell Kincaid, and son, Jimmy Joe, here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kincaid, for a vacation visit.

A number of Snyder attended the Sweetwater water carnival and bathing revue Friday and Saturday nights.

Strength During MIDDLE LIFE
Strength is extra-important for women going through the change of life. Then the body needs the very best nourishment to fortify it against the changes that are taking place. In such cases, Cardul has proved helpful to many women. It increases the appetite and aids digestion, favoring more complete transformation of food into living tissue, resulting in improved nutrition and building up and strengthening of the whole system.

LET'S TALK ABOUT CLOTHES
BY A YOUNG MODERN
Just as flutters, full skirts and femininity have monopolized the formal dress field, so have these soft fashions taken over the realm of lingerie. Among the more expensive look one finds frothy nightgowns in pink tinted or pale blue chiffons. One luxurious pink and white affair is trimmed with black lace, which swoops around a full skirt and forms a tricky design around the neckline. In organza there are printed floral creations with butterfly short sleeves and appliqued yokes. Over these gowns many stylists recommend long chiffon coats, either with quantities of shirtings or with yards of fine pleating. If one is in search of cool charm without the output of a small fortune, the new designs in cottons are a perfect answer. Old fashioned dimities with brief bodice tops and delicate handwork, offered in heavenly shades of shell pink, cloud blue, yellow and white, will make one sleep as beautifully as chiffon and satin. Luscious ribbons are being used on these cottons, tied like little-girl sashes or made into shoulder straps. Narrow lace trims other models, and a few crisp cottons even boast nose-gays. These cotton triumphs stay colorful after weeks of tubbing, and become softer and more delicate as they grow older. Even the pajama enthusiasts will have a hard time resisting these offerings of gown stylists, and she who has always favored gowns can find everything her heart desires.

No Happiness in Indigence, Lions Told by Visitor

"There is no happiness in indigence," blind J. P. Sanders told Snyder Lions in regular Tuesday noon session, as he explained that it is not pensions or favor in specially created work that is wanted by the majority of blind persons.

The young man, son of J. Porter Sanders of Snyder, also said in a brief message to the club: "There is no handicap where there is a good mind. Success in any line does not depend on the eyes, but on that which goes just above the eyes."

Guest artists for the day were Miss Minnie Frank of Grapevine, singer and tap dancer, and Mrs. Earl Louder, her accompanist. M. H. Frank, deputy sheriff of Tarrant County, father of Miss Frank, and Abe Rogers, Snyder, were also guests of the day.

A. C. Preult, new president, in the chair for the first time, pledged his best abilities to the club work, and announced that he would favor Lions Club sponsorship of a fall fair as a major project. Earl Louder later suggested that completion of Highway 15 through Scurry County be added to 1937 activities, and Hal A. Lattimore suggested that the club might go after a proposed veterans' hospital for West Texas.

John E. Sentell briefly discussed the Lions Club zone meeting at Hamlin Tuesday night of last week. Warren Dodson and Marcel Josephson were named members of the July program committee.

AIR CRAZY YOUNG SOLDIER NOW HAS YELLOW PLANE OF HIS OWN

Bachelor-elect Carl England, shop foreman for the Times Publishing Company, has been air-minded since World War days, when he longed to shoot at the Kaiser's Heintzes from a cockpit instead of a trench.

Part of this longing was stilled in post-war days, when the Decatur, Texas, youth, ready for anything after many weeks on the front line trenches of France, had the opportunity to tinker with, ride in and pilot army planes.

In recent years he has seized every chance to zoom into the air, and, on rare occasions, to have the feel of the "stick" in his own hands.

But it was only this year that England's longing began to reach the buy-your-own proportions, lack of finances of course being a major part of the picture.

The "Taylor Cub," distributed in Texas by Lou Foote of Dallas, caught his eye in air magazines, on display in airports. He dreamed Cub and talked Cub and almost ate Cub.

Now, Cub it is. Several days ago England went to Sweetwater and received a Taylor Cub at the airport. The sleek yellow plane is in the hangar there now, where it receives the local man's undivided attention several hours per week. He is adding up solo hours, beginning this month, and expects in a few weeks to secure a pilot's license.

Then he will bring the two-place ship to Snyder, place it in a small hangar that will be constructed, and organize a flying club. A number of young men have already announced their intention of joining such a club, said England. He plans to give lessons at nominal fees—fees just large enough to help the plane pay its way.

Advertised as the world's safest lightweight plane, the Taylor Cub is likewise the world's fastest selling plane, according to department of commerce records. Its features are summed up thus: It lands at only 29 miles per hour; short take-off; fast climbing; dual controls; easy to fly; exceptional gasoline and oil mileage; reliable enough to fly anywhere.

England has been named by Foote, state dealer, as the Taylor Cub distributor for this territory.

PERSONALS

W. H. Cauble and daughter, Helen, were guests in the John Spears home here early this week. They returned Wednesday to Aspermont accompanied by Irene Spears, who will be their guest the remainder of this week. The Cauble family at Aspermont was sold recently, and Mr. Cauble says the family will move back to Snyder in a few weeks.

York Murphy left Tuesday for Stephenville to spend the last six weeks of the summer term studying at John Tarleton Agricultural College. Murphy, a graduate of the local high school, has attended both the Stephenville school and A. & M. College since graduation here.

Mrs. Jessie Voss of Post was a week-end guest of her aunt, Mrs. A. M. Curry. Mrs. Curry and daughter, Mrs. John Booth, visited in Post and Lubbock Friday, and Mrs. Voss and Genevieve Jarratt of Lubbock, former Snyder resident, accompanied them home.

Jan Thompson of Fort Worth, formerly a Snyder girl, is spending this week with her father, Ed J. Thompson, her grandmother, Mrs. B. S. Gann, and friends. She is on vacation from her secretarial position with the Commercial Standard Insurance Company in Fort Worth.

Miss Ione Wilson of Tulsa, Oklahoma, will be the guest of Miss Louisa Wilford here soon. The two were school friends when the Wilfords lived in Okmulgee, Oklahoma, several years ago. Miss Wilson will arrive by air, leaving Tulsa Saturday.

Arvel Hall was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Owen Martin, her husband and baby on a trip to Midland and Odessa the past week-end. In Odessa they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frankie Hall, D. J. Hall and their father, Lando Hall.

Mrs. Ethel Eiland was a week-end guest of Loraine McCormick in Lamesa. Miss McCormick, now an employee with the gas company in Lamesa, was formerly a resident of Snyder.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Watts part of last week were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Watts and Mr. and Mrs. Newell Butts of Fort Worth, Will Huckabee of Haskell and Sam Huckabee of Abilene.

Rosemary Camp of Dublin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Camp, former Snyder people, was visiting here with her brothers, Henry and Junior Camp, and families, and with friends last week.

Branch Archer of Austin was a week-end guest of Faynell Spears. He was accompanied here by Frank Hamer Jr. and his sister, Beverly, who is remaining for a two-week visit.

Social Security Question Box

Editors' Note: The Times is publishing a series of questions and answers concerning the federal old-age benefits provision of the Social Security Act. Employers who wish to have further questions answered should write to the Social Security Board of Office, 1530 Allen Building, Dallas.

Question: How may an individual figure the amount of his benefits under the old-age benefits provisions of the Social Security Act?

Answer: Add up the total amount of wages received in covered occupations after the year 1936 and prior to the attainment of age 65, including only wages received in any one calendar year up to and including $3,000 from one employer. If total wages during the entire period are less than $2,000, the worker is not eligible for monthly retirement benefits but will be paid 3 1/2 per cent of such wages upon attainment of age 65.

If wages total $2,000 or more for the entire period, calculate monthly benefits as follows: One-half of one per cent of the first $3,000; one-twelfth of one per cent of the next $42,000; one-twenty-fourth of one per cent of any amount in excess of $45,000.

A total of $129,000 is the largest amount which may be credited for old-age benefits monthly income, and the maximum monthly benefit payable is $85.

For example: A man makes $62,100 in covered occupations after December 31, 1936, and before reaching age 65. One-half of one per cent of the first $3,000 is $15; one-twelfth of one per cent of the next $42,000 is $35; and one-twenty-fourth of one per cent of the remaining $17,100 is $12; a total federal old-age retirement benefit of $62.12 per month for the remainder of this man's life.

Civil Service Exams. The U. S. B. F. Collier, 78, Interred Tuesday Afternoon at 3:00

Final rites for B. F. Collier, 78, Fluvanna farmer, were held Tuesday afternoon at the Missionary Baptist Church in Fluvanna, with Rev. J. W. McGaha, Baptist minister, officiating. Odum Funeral Home was in charge of interment in the Fluvanna cemetery.

Collier, who had lived on the eastern edge of Borden County, near Fluvanna, for the past 22 years, died Monday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bessie Smith, in Crosbyton during a visit to the Plains city. Death came following a 40-day illness.

Survivors include two brothers, Joe Collier of Hico and Icham Collier of Pecos, Arizona; four daughters, Mrs. Jessie Smith and Mrs. Beale Smith of Crosbyton, Mrs. Ina Ainsworth and Mrs. Mattie Shipman of Fluvanna; three sons, Ben and Tom of Fluvanna, and Eddie of Denton; 28 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers at the Tuesday afternoon funeral were Mert Patterson, J. P. Dowdy, Ray Daugherty, Siras Landrum, H. Carmichael and Arch Odum. Isora Patterson, Rossa Carmichael, Rita Dowdy and Marionette Patterson were in charge of flowers.

S. C. Porter Operated. S. C. Porter underwent a major operation in a Santa Anna hospital Monday morning of this week, and, according to reports received here, is resting well today. He was accompanied to the hospital by his daughter, Mrs. Roy Stewart, Mr. Stewart and their daughter, Louroy. Attending physicians say that Porter will probably be in the hospital about three weeks.

Farmer to A. & M. Frank Farmer left Monday for A. & M. College, where he is attending annual sessions of the county superintendents' group of Texas. The meeting continues through Thursday. He was accompanied to College Station by Earl Isbell, Jones County superintendent, as far as Lampasas by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Farmer.

"Why do you say that Crimsenbeak is a man of stable habits?" "Because he kicks like a mule."

Snyder General Hospital

Mrs. Weldon Johnson and small son, Sidney Wallace, will leave the hospital late today, according to favorable reports from the hospital yesterday, for their ranch home northeast of town. E. A. Moore, surgical patient of several weeks ago, was still in the hospital Wednesday.

Mrs. B. Y. Rea of Hernalleigh, Wilson County and Dr. A. C. Leslie, Snyder, medical patients this week, had been dismissed from the hospital yesterday.

Patients still in the hospital Wednesday were the following: Dwan Ball of Fluvanna, surgery, last Thursday; Mrs. Gilbert Richter, Knapp, medical; Miss Minnie Falls, medical; Carlton Gordon, surgery, Tuesday; Mrs. Irene Parks, medical; Mrs. Fleming James, Abilene, surgery, Wednesday; Louise Whitfield, Pampa, surgery, Wednesday.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission has announced open competitive examinations for the following positions: Assis in a clerk-stenographer, for the blind, experienced in use of Braille; senior motion picture director; motion picture specialist; junior motion picture specialist.

Willard Jones Goes To Lions Sessions

Willard Jones, recently named as delegate of Snyder Lions Club to the Lions International convention at Chicago July 20-23, left this morning for the Great Lakes capital.

The newly elected local last twister was accompanied by Mrs. Jones and their two children, June and Annetta Jeanne.

The family group plans a leisurely trip to and from the convention, traveling on different routes to and from Chicago.

First Baptist Church

Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.; morning worship, 10:30; B. T. U., 7:30 p. m.; evening worship, 8:30. Sunday evening is young people's night. The young people's department will have charge of the service, form the choir, lead the music, usher and take offering.

We express the hope that many of our people will give their support to the mission revivals under direction of the church throughout all next week.

Mrs. A. E. Lock of San Angelo arrived here last week for an extended visit with her daughter, Willie Lock.

Hundreds Gather to Pay Last Tribute to Local Santa Fe Man

Hundreds of friends and relatives paid last tribute to Fred W. Wolcott, Santa Fe agent in Snyder for several years, at rites held at the First Baptist Church here last Thursday afternoon. The local man died in a San Angelo hospital two days earlier after a lengthy illness.

Burial in the Snyder cemetery followed the service at the church, for which Rev. Philip C. McCahey, Breckenridge, officiated, assisted by Rev. James E. Spivey and Rev. Lawrence Hays. Maples Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Surviving are Mrs. Wolcott, one daughter, Mrs. Armor McFarland; one son, Fred Wolcott Jr.; his father, J. F. Wolcott, a brother and sister, Norman Wolcott and Miss Rena Wolcott, all of South Carrollton, Kentucky; and another sister, Mrs. Esther Purdy, Seattle, Washington.

Pallbearers were J. Nelson Dunn, Hugh Taylor, Lee T. Stinson, Joe Stinson, W. R. Bell and Ollie Stinson. Bonnie Miller, Virginia Egerton, Edith Grantham and Mrs. H. P. Redwine were in charge of flowers.

Out-of-town relatives and friends attending the funeral included Mrs. Wolcott's mother, Mrs. G. W. Arrington of Canadian, and her brother, John Arrington of Miami; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gowen and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith of Post; Mrs. Roy Chapman, Roscoe; Mrs. F. E. Jolly of Houston and Mrs. Hopson of Sweetwater.

SCOUTS COME BACK TUESDAY

Snyder's two delegates to the recent Boy Scout Jamboree at Washington, D. C., returned home Tuesday night from an 18-day trip that included experiences that will be remembered a lifetime.

The travelers, Billie King and Ardath Head, have promised to prepare a full account of their trip for next week's Times.

Horned frog trading, visit to the post office department, and visit to Washington Monument are listed by the boys as their top thrills outside regular Boy Scout activities. Bill returned with a coyote that came originally from West Texas, thence to New York. He said it was the most photographed of all the pets in the Washington encampment of almost 30,000 boys.

KNOW TEXAS

By F. L. McDonald, Texas State College for Women, Denton

Oil may not mix with water, but it evidently does a good job of it with roses. One of the centers of the East Texas oil field is also the center of the East Texas rose-growing industry, which now furnishes nearly half the nation's supply of rose bushes.

Outdoor rose nurseries were begun in Texas over 20 years ago, but they did not gain momentum until within the past five or six years. In 1935 the production amounted to 4,000,000 plants, and the figure made another jump in 1936 to about 6,000,000. This means that the total income now reaches approximately one million dollars.

This million dollar rose business is not a hothouse affair, but is confined strictly to the open air. Soil and climate conditions in many parts of Texas are particularly well suited to rose growing.

Smith County, which ships around 7,000,000 plants annually, is the heart of the industry, and other important farms are in Gregg, Van Zandt, Rusk, Henderson and Anderson Counties.

Rose creations which are developed by breeders and distributors over the United States are sent to many East Texas farms for multiplication. The field grown roses of Texas lack the weaknesses of hothouse plants, and can be shipped anywhere in the nation.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack DeWald and daughter, Jane Webb, of Lubbock were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Webb here.

YOU'LL GET A BANG OUT OF THIS ONE!

Do you get a kick out of a golf ball's click when you really lean into one on the tee? Does your heart beat faster when the big fish strikes, and your singing reel almost smokes? Can a brisk breeze and a taut sail make you feel like a kid again, forgetting care in the sheer joy of action? Mister, if you're like that, what a bang you'll get out of this big Buick!

You'll go for the way it goes for you. You'll like the quick, eager spurt of its get-away, the buoyant, swayless steadiness of its travel.

You'll thrill to the businesslike manner in which it settles to the pull, its quiet, dogged competence in long, tough going.

You'll welcome the way it cradles you over the bumps, the neat, compact, handily mobile feel of it. You'll be proudly aware of its beauty, of the picture you make riding in its this-minute style.

But don't forget this major thing—it's the buy of the season, price-wise as well as on performance! It's still selling at the lowest price in all Buick history—you can still get a big Buick eight for less than some sixes would cost you.

So don't hold back. Good things, you know, can't last forever. Don't pass up a buy such as Buick is at its low prices now.

Ten Rules Given For Living Until Old Age Arrives

Ten rules are given by Hygeia on how to live 100 years. If you have ambitions for becoming an octogenarian or some other old-age disciple, here are the rules:

- 1.—Breathe fresh air, both day and night.
- 2.—Exercise your larger muscles regularly every day.
- 3.—Look on overfatigue as your enemy and on rest as your friend. Take at least eight hours of sleep. (The voice of wisdom says one should turn off the radio at 10.)
- 4.—Drink plenty of water at meals and also between meals.
- 5.—Eat temperately, partaking of vegetables and fruit for "roughage" and health's sake, and sparingly of meat and sugar. Avoid overweight.
- 6.—Have regular bowel habits.
- 7.—Avoid infection from both outside and inside sources. Make a thorough recovery from colds and sore throat.
- 8.—Wash your hands before eating. (That the teeth are to be cleaned night and morning is taken for granted.)
- 9.—Think wholesome thoughts. Face unpleasant situations frankly and sensibly, and don't worry. Keep your play spirit.
- 10.—Have a health examination by your physician each year; ask his advice and follow it.

Baptist Missionary Loses Battle With Disease in Africa

Yellow fever claimed the life of Miss Lucile Reagan, Baptist missionary to Lagos, Nigeria, Africa, according to word received in Big Spring Monday by Mr. and Mrs. E. Reagan, prominent Big Spring residents, the missionary's parents. Miss Reagan has been buried in Africa, where she had served as a missionary 16 years.

Miss Reagan is known to practically all local Baptists. One of the four women's circles of the Snyder First Baptist Church was named in her honor, and she spoke here while she was on her furlough several years ago. One of her sisters is the wife of Tracy Smith, formerly of Snyder.

Other immediate survivors are a second sister, Mrs. Seth H. Parsons, Lockhart, and two brothers, Horace and Paul Reagan.

Miss Reagan was principal of the Baptist Academy at Lagos, one of the largest foreign mission schools on the continent. Following her graduation from Big Spring High School she attended Hardin-Simmons University two years, received her degree from Baylor University, Waco, and attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, before she went to Africa.

Big Head Reported Prevalent in Sheep Of Trade Territory

Several shepherds of Scurry and adjoining counties are reporting an unusual malady among their animals, commonly known as "big head."

Sheep infected with the malady have swollen heads, especially in the ears and eyes, causing blindness soon and death in a few days.

Dr. J. D. Williams, Colorado veterinarian, here early this week to make post mortem examinations of infected sheep, says the malady is not contagious, but is due to sheep eating certain weeds or grasses.

Exact origin of "big head" in this area is not known, but the county agent's office suggests that sheepmen having animals so affected need to take them from the pasture and put them in the dark, since sunlight aggravates the condition.

June Colwell of Rotan was in Snyder late last week visiting with his uncle, Jack Colwell, and Mrs. Colwell, and also with friends here.

Vallee Brings Band to Exposition

Rudy Vallee and his famed Connecticut Yankees opened at the Pan American Exposition in Dallas Saturday afternoon, July 10. Vallee and his orchestra are a feature at the Pan American Casino. The orchestra plays for the Casino dances and between the twice-nightly Casino revues, which feature such acts as Georges and Jalna, Stan Kavanagh, juggler, and Borrah Minevitch's Harmonica Rascals. And, of course, there is that Chester Hale precision chorus of 50 dancing girls.

Spiveys Have Lead Parts in Meeting at Buffalo Gap Camp

Rev. and Mrs. James E. Spivey had leading roles in the Buffalo Gap encampment for Presbyterian young people of Central West Texas, held Wednesday of last week through Wednesday of this week. The local minister taught two courses in the training school and Mrs. Spivey was girls' sponsor.

Dean of the encampment was Dr. William Ralph Hall of Philadelphia, head of all young people's conferences of the church in the United States. "We were fortunate in having this outstanding leader," declares Rev. Spivey.

Two others from Snyder attended the encampment—Irene Barron and Wenette Faver. A total of 75 young people and leaders enrolled.

First Presbyterian Church

Regular church worship services will be held next Sunday morning and evening, with the pastor occupying the pulpit at both occasions. The morning subject will be "This Is My Body." The evening service will include a report on the Buffalo Gap conference by those who represented this church, and a sermon on the subject, "Convictions."

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend these services at 11:00 a. m. and 8:15 p. m., the Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. and Christian Endeavor at 7:00 p. m.—James E. Spivey, pastor.

Dr. Cox Declares Paralysis Is Also Summer Disease

Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, states that infantile paralysis, like typhoid fever, is largely a summer disease. Although cases may occur during any month of the year, over half the total number come in July, August, September and October. To date, 69 cases of poliomyelitis have been reported to the state health department in 1937.

Direct contact between persons is regarded as being the chief factor in the spread of infantile paralysis. Because of the seasonal prevalence of the disease, flies and other insects have been suspected of conveying the virus or germ. Insect transmission has not, however, been demonstrated. Although animals are subject to paralysis they are seemingly not susceptible to the human type of this paralytic disease. Carriers are difficult to determine; this fact makes advisable the reduction to a minimum of human contact during an outbreak.

Early symptoms of infantile paralysis comprise headache, fever, vomiting, bowel disorder, drowsiness, and irritability, followed by neck or back stiffness. Prompt medical care, early recognition and reporting of cases make possible the use of valuable preventive and control measures.

After the acute state of the disease has passed and walking is finally permitted the patient, under no circumstances must the affected part be fatigued. It is thus observed that the secret of successful rehabilitation lie in continuance of professional guidance and large doses of patience.

Children under five are more susceptible to the disease, and all children under 12 should be watched for suspicious symptoms. There are important things to do when a child shows symptoms. Your family physician should be called at once and physicians should report all cases to the health authorities immediately. When the disease occurs all cases should be isolated for 21 days. All milk should be boiled unless it has been pasteurized.

Children should not visit homes where the disease exists or there are symptoms of it. Flies should be killed and their breeding places destroyed. Promptness in diagnosis of poliomyelitis is important in preventing spread of the disease.

County Behind With Road Planning Data

Intense state-wide interest in the future of the road system in Texas, on the part of the average motorist, is reflected in returns from post card questionnaires distributed during the motor vehicle registration period by the state-federal highway planning survey.

The state-wide percentage of cards returned was 31.7 per cent of the motor vehicles registered. Scurry County's per cent was 18.5. Starr County led the state, with 89.1 per cent. More than 20 counties exceeded 50 per cent.

Percentages of nearby counties are: Fisher, 17.8; Howard, 51.3; Nolan, 23.6; Jones, 15.3; Mitchell, 28.8.

Plenty of Bolls

Henry Ellerd, out south of town, brought in some hefty cotton bolls last week-end—bolls that should be in full flower by early August, he thinks. The cotton was planted April 10. Henry says all his crops are looking good.

Two Irishmen roomed in an apartment on the top floor and could not sleep on Sunday mornings because the sun would shine in the windows and wake them up.

They bought some black paint, painted the windows and lay down to sleep. When they woke up they realized they were late for work as the clock showed it was 7:15.

They rushed to their jobs and the foreman looked at them in bewilderment. Said Pat: "Faith and what's the matter, boss? We're only 20 minutes late."

"Twenty minutes!" replied the foreman. "Where were you Monday and Tuesday?"

THE TIMES MARCHES ON—

FORTY YEARS AGO

From The Coming West, July 15, 1897.

It is unfair to place the seal of condemnation upon the act of a public officer until you have first investigated the matter thoroughly and ascertained for what reasons he has pursued a policy that strikes you as an unwise thing.

The building of more tanks in the country creates a vast amount of surface water, and this accounts for an increased rainfall. With irrigable works comes more evaporation and consequently more rainfall. This theory is becoming generally accepted.

Farmers are well up with their work. Corn, milomaise and cotton are present but fair to yield a handsome income. The worms have left the cotton alone and are linking their forces upon the mesquite leaves.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

From The Snyder Signal, July 12, 1912.

Fort Worth, Texas, July 6—M. J. Healy, president of the Estacado & Gulf railway, is in the city arranging for the transportation of ties and rails, which he says have been purchased for the further completion of the part of the road not yet finished. From Roby the work is progressing westward to Snyder, 48 miles with Gall in Borden County, 30 miles more, as the present destination. When Snyder is reached, a connection with Fort Worth will be made by way of the Roscoe, Snyder and Pacific to Sweetwater, and from there by the Texas & Pacific to Fort Worth.

The appearance of the courthouse yard in Snyder is a beautiful revelation of what can be done here with the soil and water in Scurry County.

TEN YEARS AGO

From The Scurry County Times, July 14, 1927.

September 15, 16 and 17 are important dates for Scurry County, as those three days will be given over to the annual Scurry County Fair. The program for this event is now being printed at the Times-Signal office, and officers and directors emphatically declare that the 1927 show will be the biggest yet.

Saturday, July 23, is the start of the motorcade to Carlsbad, New Mexico. Highway No. 33 Association is planning for one of the greatest publicity campaigns ever yet attempted for any highway in the state. In pursuance of this plan they have designated Sunday, July 24, as official day for the visiting of the great Carlsbad Caverns.

Forty-two Colorado merchants have joined in a "Gold Saturday" proposition, and have copied the plan that Snyder has been using. Last Saturday was the first day they started the idea to work.

Jack Deakins left Sunday for Floydada, where he has accepted a position as manager of the two theatres at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bell left Sunday for El Paso, where they attended the state florists convention. They will return home by the Carlsbad Caverns.

P. L. "Pi" Fuller left Sunday for an extended automobile trip through the Pacific Coast states. He expects to be gone over a month. Frank Crenshaw accompanied him and will do the driving on the trip.

ONE YEAR AGO

From The Scurry County Times, July 9, 1936.

With unexpectedly high yields of good quality, and with the hefty rise in prices, Scurry County wheat farmers may sell 20,000 bushels for a total of almost $18,000. A local buyer said yesterday that he would pay $1 per bushel for No. 1 wheat in quantity on the basis of the market at that time, but that he had no takers at that price.

Snyder Lions, Lionesses and guests, at least 100 strong, are planning to gather at the Nathan Billingsley place near Dunn Friday evening to hear Congressman George Mahon, principal speaker for the annual installation program and chicken barbecue.

Glen W. Berry, who led the East Texas village of Cushing to a state basketball championship last year, was named yesterday as a member of Snyder High School's coaching staff for 1936.

Efforts to build an all-weather, newly-routed section of State Highway No. 101 from the Mitchell County line to the intersection with High-

Mrs. Casey Dies West of Snyder Early This Week

Mrs. J. W. Casey, 66, for 23 years a resident of Scurry County, died at the family home, the John Moore farm three miles west of Snyder, Tuesday afternoon at 2:40 o'clock, following a six-month illness.

Funeral services were held at the Ira tabernacle Wednesday morning at 10:00 o'clock, with Rev. C. D. Dameron of Dunn, Methodist minister, officiating. Burial followed in the Ira cemetery, under direction of Maples Funeral Home.

Born in DeKalb County, Alabama, Mrs. Casey, then Nancy A. Bryant, moved with her parents to Texas 47 years ago. She was married to Mr. Casey in Ellis County in 1895, moving to Scurry County 23 years ago.

Surviving are her husband, one brother, M. J. Bryant of Ira; one son, Joe Casey of Barnhart; three daughters, Mmes. Lola Roach, Lois Daniels and Daisy Rinehart, all of Snyder; and 15 grandchildren.

Palbearers for the funeral were R. G. Nabors, Whit Farmer, W. L. Clark, Sears Cook, Albert Miller and B. B. Black. Cordelia Eubank, Ida Mae Webb, Marine Clark and Clara Webb were in charge of floral offerings.

Texas Cattle Sales

Cattle sales brought about $60,000,000 to Texas in 1936. Each year approximately two million head of cattle move to market. Pasture land in Texas equals farm acreage of 16 other states.

Bob Hamilton, son of Mrs. W. C. Hamilton, formerly of Snyder, more recently of Memphis, has been an employee for some time of the Lubbock Hotel, Lubbock.

Ft. Worth Livestock Market Review Through July 13—By Livestock News Service

The better grades of slaughter steers, fat cows and yearlings sold at steady prices with the strength of the Fort Worth market at last week's close. Slaughter and stocker calves were strong to higher Monday, but the market Tuesday did away with the advance.

Hog prices were 10 cents up from last week's close, with a top of $11.85 to small killers and $11.75 to packer buyers.

Following the sharp reduction in prices around the major market circuit in the North, slaughter lambs were 50 to 75 cents lower and feeder lambs and yearlings were off about 25 cents for the first two days this week. Aged sheep declined 25 cents.

Steers selling from $9 upward were steady, with shipments from Jack County on each of the two days at $12.50. Last Friday, a shipment of Parker County steers brought $12.75. Several loads of steers turned from $10.50 to $12.50. A load of South Texas Brahmas steers cashed at $10 on Tuesday. Three loads of South Texas grassers sold Monday at the same price. They came from Maverick County. Trading in steers at $8 and down was slow and some sales were a little easy. One load of bulls turned at $5.85, but the bulk of the weighty bulls sold from $5 to $5.50, with lightweights from $4 to $4.75.

Scattering sales of fat cows reached the $8 mark. Most loads and packages of good cows turned at $6.75 to $7.50, with canners and cutters making $2.75 to $4. Butcher cows sold to a narrow demand at uneven lower prices. Order buyers were a big prop in the cow market.

Good yearlings were scarce. Some sales were made at $10 to $11.50, but choice grades were quotable at $12. Grass fat yearlings sold up to $2.25. Weighty calves sold from $8 to $9.25 to an active demand. Plain calves moved in the $7 range and culls from $4 to $5.

Good stocker steer calves made $5 to $5.50 and yearlings $7.25 to $7.75.

Packers paid $11.75 and shippers and small killers $11.85 for hogs. Most packing sows cleared at $10.50 and down. Lightweight hogs sold from $10.50 to $11.65.

Early Monday, some sales of good spring lambs reached $9.25 and $9.50, but medium to good lambs sold Tuesday at $8.75 and down. Shorn fat yearlings brought $7. Aged wethers cashed at $4.50, with two-year-olds in the $5 range. Feeder lambs Tuesday brought $6.50 to $7 and yearlings $6.

Uncle Jim Says

"Winter cover crops hold rainfall, check soil losses through erosion and leaching, and provide early spring pasture several weeks before permanent pastures are ready for grazing."

Dairymen who have planted winter cover crops of oats, barley, Italian rye grass, and similar small grains or grasses, have long noticed that the fields devoted to this purpose are more fertile than other fields which remain bare during the winter.

In addition to offering protection against loss of rainfall and of soil, winter cover crops offer green roughage at a time when livestock need it the most.

WHEAT NEARS 160 CARLOADS

Wheat shipments from Scurry County are nearing 160 carloads, averaging 1,200 bushels to the car, according to a fairly up-to-date survey by R. S. & P. Agent A. C. Preult and The Times.
With a few cars yet to be loaded this month, and a few cars to be held for higher prices, the full total may pass 170 cars, or more than 200,000 bushels.
Gradually rising prices continue despite the bumper crops that are being harvested in most portions of the grain belt.

County Looking for High Cotton Prices After U. S. Report

Scurry County farmers are looking with expectant eyes to last week's government cotton report, which said:
"Cotton prices advanced sharply during the week, and the 10 market average of 12.85 cents for middling 7-8 inch on Friday, July 9, was 55 points higher than a week earlier. The government's estimate of the cotton acreage in cultivation on July 1, 1937, was smaller than generally anticipated by the trade.
"Excessive rains and heavy weevil infestation were indicated for a considerable portion of the belt. Prices of other commodities and of securities advanced sharply.
"The official estimate of 34,192,000 acres of cotton in cultivation in the United States on July 1, 1937, is 10.4 per cent more than the 30,960,000 acres on July 1, 1935, but 17.5 per cent less than the average for the five year period 1928-32.
"The 1937 acreage of Egyptian cotton is expected to be from five to 10 per cent larger than a year ago, according to reports from that country. The Argentine cotton crop estimate of 243,000 equivalent 500-pound bales for 1936-37 has been revised to 192,000 bales, and compared with 373,000 in 1935-36. Severe insect and drought damage are responsible for the reduction from first estimates."

Baptists to Gather In Midland August 17 for Group Meet

Baptists of the Mitchell-Scurry Association voted in their monthly workers' meeting at New Hope Baptist Church in Mitchell County Tuesday afternoon to join the Big Spring and Lamesa Associations in a district meeting at Midland Tuesday, August 17, to replace the next regular meeting of this association.
Snyder played a prominent part in the New Hope meeting. Rev. Forest Huffman of Snyder was host pastor. Rev. Lawrence Hays of the local congregation conducted a round table discussion, and H. L. Wren spoke on "God Needs Men."
Other speakers were Rev. H. B. Naylor of Colorado, Rev. N. W. Strickland of Big Spring.
Rev. Strickland's announcement of the death of Miss Lucile Reagan, Baptist missionary to Africa, cast a pall over the program, according to local attendants, but it also helped raise the gathering to one of the highest spiritual planes of any associational workers' meeting in recent years, they declare.

then told of placing the body in a gulch near the water hole.
He traced events until his arrest at Odessa more than three weeks later, and declared he confessed to Sid Bruton, deputy sheriff, in the Scurry County jail, when Bruton promised the confession would be kept confidential until Heard's attorneys were contacted. He said Bruton immediately told other officers. On the stand later, Bruton denied he promised confidence.
Other Threats Claimed.
Heard testified that he believed Reynolds would carry out his threat to kill him, because of two other occasions at camp when Reynolds had become angry and threatening, and because he knew Reynolds had previously killed two men in Kaufman County.
The state endeavored to show that Reynolds was struck more than once (Heard claimed he struck only one blow); that Heard cashed a four check sent to Reynolds after Reynolds' death; that a wrist watch, glasses and other articles belonging to Reynolds were kept by Heard after the killing; that Heard did not notify Reynolds' daughter at Fort Worth of Reynolds' disappearance or death, although he had promised to notify her in case of accident to her father; that the murder was deliberately planned, and that the Heard story was fabricated in large part.

Near the close of the testimony, the state insisted that after Heard's confession he told several stories of the tragedy, all different, and that he repeatedly refused to sign purported statements after questioning officers wrote them. Heard's and Bruton's testimony on this point clashed, and District Attorney George W. Outlaw took the stand to corroborate state witnesses' testimony that Heard was not in any way threatened or forced into making statements.
Other State Witnesses.
Other state witnesses were Mrs. Susie Dillard, Fort Worth, Reynolds' daughter; Clyde Thomas, Scurry County sheriff; Arnold Strey, state trapper, member of an early searching party; J. H. Doran, Midland, fur buyer; Dr. H. E. Rosser, Scurry County health officer; Ralph Odom, funeral home owner; G. W. Taylor, justice of the peace, Borden County, who conducted the inquest of Reynolds' body; Bill Jones, Ector County deputy sheriff; Earl C. Evans, mail carrier; Jim Covey, son of the late D. R. Covey, sheriff of Borden County; Virgil Clark, who resides near Gail; and A. V. Pace, trapper.
Practically all defense argument was built around Heard's own story and testimony of 16 Kaufman County men who testified as to Heard's and Reynolds' reputations in the Kaufman country, where Heard and Reynolds were neighbors. A few state witnesses were cross examined briefly.

Guests in addition to the out-of-town visitors and the honored women visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. William Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Boyer, Worley Early.

750 MAPS FOR FISHER FARMS

T. H. Roensch, Fisher County agricultural agent, announces that Fisher County has received approximately 750 aerial maps, covering all farms in the county, which will be used for compliance work on the 1937 agricultural soil conservation program.
These maps show each individual farm's boundary, and these can easily be distinguished, said Roensch. In making the calculation the accuracy is one-tenth of one per cent.
Maps are the property of the government, and will be kept for permanent records.

For Women Only.

Editorials, as a rule, are not written directly to women, although The Times sometimes feels that its editorial page is more generally read by women than by men.
But here is an editorial for women only, picked up here and there, pieced together, and relayed with small comment:
The three major forces which guide the lives of women, according to an analysis made by the girls at the Columbia School of Journalism, are:
(1)—To get a man—and if not to keep him, then to replace him with some more desirable one.
(2)—To keep themselves looking young, beautiful and charming.
(3)—Babies and children.
But Anna Steese Richardson, one of the country's best known observers of women, is not eye to eye with the college girls. Says she:
"Women are now more concerned with, first, preservation and rejuvenation of their faces and bodies; second, with active pleasures such as dancing, sports, trips, games and home entertainment; and third, bridge, though with less fury than in the past; and fourth, she found modest absorption in cultural and civic affairs."
There! Some of your conceptions, and mine, have been jilted. Mere man is left entirely out of the picture by Anna Steese. Babies are evidently taboo, too, except in an absent-minded sort of way.
How about religion? How about the business world? How about political affairs? How about a career?
You answer, sweet reader. Then, subject to dispute, repudiation and denunciation, we shall choose the four things in which we hesitantly believe women are most interested:
(1)—Other women; (2)—men; (3)—babies and children; (4)—personal appearance. We dare not suggest the order in which the points should appear. And order is such an important matter in most any woman's busy life!

Play—But Where?

Only parents and civic leaders who think they are still living in the nineteenth century believe that the kiddies of 1937 can keep out of mischief on their own initiative.
Most of us know that clean recreation and fun are necessary for the rearing of clean, healthy children. Play is fundamental.
But where can Snyder children play?
We have spent thousands on football field and lights, gymnasium and equipment. Fine equipment, all, but what use can they be put to during the summer, when the play problem is most serious?
We have spent thousands on highways and byways, with Uncle Sam's benevolent assistance. These are essential if we are to keep step with these auto times—but certainly not more essential than the proper rearing of this generation of lively youngsters.
Snyder has an opportunity—probably a final opportunity—to have a little playground and park built with some government assistance. NYA youths will do the work, if we do the rest.
While the iron is hot, the city and civic leaders should pool their forces to start a recreation center in Snyder—a place where our children can learn and do something besides fast driving, hard drinking and hot dancing.

By LEON GUINN.
Nomination for the week's most enterprising farmer goes to a gentleman in the vicinity of Camp Gabriel. . . . This gent was plowing his feed last week with a cultivator, and as if this were not enough, he had a "goose neck" to chop the weeds out of his up and coming frop crop. . . . Now, the idea of a fellow riding and hoeing is just about the niftiest set-up a farmer could wish for.
This farmer would stop Jack and Rhoda when a fair patch of weeds hove in sight, and without getting off of the cultivator would behold the struggling briars and brambles with well aimed swings of the "goose neck." . . . It looks like this intriguing idea of lording it all over the place, when it comes to riding and hoeing may well prove contagious to other farmers. . . . We will qualify the above asseration of "most enterprising," by letting you in on the secret that this farmer either was doing high powered brain work, or else believed in the adage (as Robert Louis Stevenson put it) that "laziness is one of the higher virtues."
Last January the advertising department attaches of P. Lorillard Company were dilly dallying around with sales doldrums, when one executive got the bright idea that a series of picture puzzles might whoop up Old Gold sales immediately. . . . Why not, he reasoned, announce suitable prizes for correct solutions (plus Old Gold wrappers with each solution), and let the world know Old Gold white collars wouldn't catch a cough if one smoked a carload of this supposedly "honeyed tobacco."
Word expert F. Gregory Hartwick was put to work checking over Old Gold picture puzzles. . . . He hired 17 college girls to check the correct answers five times, to make sure only one answer would work the puzzle picture. . . . P. Lorillard Company plastered the daily press with advertising broadsides about its series of 90 puzzles, with $100,000 to the first prize winner. . . . The other 899 prizes would total $100,000 also, in order that the contest might gather in puzzle addicts from Maine to California, and Canada to the Gulf of Mexico.
Puzzles No. 54 and 60 mowed down a few entrants, but No. 80 with Jenny Lind as a correct answer (from "wide awake hats" phrase), mowed down the majority of losing entrants. . . . Then last week Philip Lennen discovered that 40,000 people had qualified for first place in Old Gold's brain teasing contest. . . . The 2,000,000 Americans who entered the contest had bought $13,500,000 worth of Old Gold cigarettes, but 40,000 people could hardly be awarded $100,000 apiece. . . . After the contest was started, Educational Research Institute of Boston had the 90 correct answers ready in four days—at $5 for the whole 90 brain rakers. . . . Instead of wallowing around now in indecision, it might be the part of discretion for Old Gold executives to divide the $100,000 between the 40,000 "winners." That would do more good than $100,000 in one person's hands.
Last week the scores between the big boys in the Republican and Democratic parties stood even. . . . About two months ago a Republican plea for funds was sent out from Republican headquarters (by stenographic mistake) to James A. Farley, requesting that he, "as a loyal Republican contribute to the Republican war chest." . . . Then last week James A. Farley called up a California assemblyman, Ken B. Dawson. . . . "The postmaster general dislikes bothering you, Mr. Dawson, but could you send that $1,000 check you promised for the campaign fund?" . . . Dawson, a stand pater Republican, and arch enemy of the Democrats, "couldn't be bothered."
Polyandra, that primitive practice of paganism, is a queer custom that allows a woman more than one husband. . . . It is practiced among Tibetans, New Zealanders, Malabar natives, and in the Marquesas. . . . But probably the outstanding home of polyandry is found in the Galapagos Islands, located 500 miles from the coast of Ecuador. . . . Don Antonio Gil established a plantation on the Galapagos Islands long ago, but of recent years the place has been a haven for political exiles. . . . There are 50 men on lonely Isabela, and eight women. . . . The custom is that each woman must have three husbands.

There! Some of your conceptions, and mine, have been jilted. Mere man is left entirely out of the picture by Anna Steese. Babies are evidently taboo, too, except in an absent-minded sort of way.

Editorial of the Week.

"SEE TEXAS FIRST!"
From The Texas Parade.
Scenes in far-off places and climes, like the pasture on the other side of the road, have, for many of us, an allure so potent that often we are inclined to overlook the beauties so lavishly splashed about in our own front yards. All Texans should be proud of their grand state, its matchless resources, its beautiful scenery.
S. H. Dunkin, advertising manager of the Magnolia Petroleum Company, believes Texans should adopt the motto, "See Texas First." Mr. Dunkin has done quite a bit of traveling in Texas and knows whereof he writes. His expressions on this topic, we believe, are well in point at this time of the year. The advice he offers on safe driving also is sound.
"No one state on the American continent offers such a variety of beautiful scenery as does Texas," comments Mr. Dunkin.
"Rugged mountains in the Big Bend country—vast plains in West Texas and the Panhandle—majestic pine forests in East and Southeast Texas—and mile after mile of entrancing scenic beauty of Central, South and Southwest Texas, not to mention the nation's vegetable and fruit basket of the Magic Valley, the tropic of Texas, where millions of grapefruit and orange trees bear the nation's choicest fruit.
"Accessible? Yes—all of these beauty spots are connected by the most modern highways of any state in the Union, thanks to our efficient state highway department.
"But, remember—drive safely and wisely, for other people are on the highways also. The highway department has furnished us with smooth, beautiful and safe highways, so it's up to us to keep them safe by driving carefully.
"It doesn't take much of a memory to go back a few short years ago to the old macadam roads (and even at that they were few and far between) and the old chugging cars which were a trial and tribulation. Oh, yes, they were good cars for those days, but compared to the modern luxurious low-priced cars of today, one has to smile.
"God made the lovely Texas scenery for us to enjoy and the state highway department has spared no effort or expense toward making Texas highways safe, efficient, and pleasant to use.
"Why not get out in the open more often in the future and enjoy these blessings to a fuller extent? Get a new vision and renewed health—they will pay you bigger and better dividends than any investment you can make."
Let's make it a "See Texas First!" vacation in 1937!

The South Lynches.

Mississippi, often referred to as the most ignorant state in the Union, led the country in lynchings during the first half of 1937, with two. Alabama had one, Georgia one. These figures are negligible when it is considered that lynchings were once almost as common as political campaigns. The intellectual tone of the South (and the intestinal fortitude of her officers, who prevent many slayings) must be improving as the Civil War's curse recedes.

Washington Runners.

Karl A. Crowley, solicitor of the post office department: "We, who complain of high taxes, must quit running to Washington or Austin, asking for state or federal handouts. . . . We all seem to feel that the thing for us to do is to get the money while the getting is good."

To The Public...

This is to advise you that I shall return Monday, July 25, from a vacation trip. Appointments may be made for that date or thereafter.
During my absence from Snyder, I commend you to our Mr. Burnett, who is an expert Watch and Jewelry Repair Man with years of experience.
