LEGION MAKES BIG PLANS FOR YEAR OF WORK

Boss Baze Is Installed as New Commander at Meeting
Last Thursday.

Installation of Boss Baze as new commander of the Will Layne Post of American Legion last Thursday night was the feature of the regular fourth Thursday meeting at the legion hall.

Other officers installed by Legionnaire A. C. Preuit at the meeting were: M. M. Gideon, adjutant; W. W. Hull, finance officer, re-elected; Rev. D. R. Todd, chaplain, re-elected; Porter King, historian, re-elected; Hal A. Lattimore, service officer; J. E. Shipp, chairman of child welfare committee; Dick Henderson, sergeant-at-arms.

Plans for the new year are rapidly taking shape, according to the new commander. Definite plans are under way to build the long-looked-for forward-to-legion but this fall, members of the legion say. The organization will be busy adding to their hut fund with carnivals and other attractions during fall months.

The group has applied for concessions at the Scurry County fair, being sponsored by the Lions Club. Committee in charge of arrangements is composed of Walla Fish and Hal A. Lattimore.

Cooperating with the local Chamber of Commerce and Lions Club, the American Legion will do all in its power to secure the federal legion hospital, to be built in this territory, for Snyder. Appropriations for such a hospital over 220 miles have been made, and Snyder is some 300 miles from the nearest veterans' hospital.

Highway Awards Given Allen and Stimson Places

Awards in the 1937 highway beautification contest in Scurry County were announced recently, following judging by a local committee composed of Mrs. Woodie Scarborough, chairman, Mrs. R. D. English and Mrs. J. W. Leftwich.

First award for the most attractive farm or ranch home on any highway in the county went to the W. C. Allen home near Dermott, 11 miles northwest of Snyder.

Stimson Camp Ground in North Snyder received first award for a service station and surrounding grounds.

First place winners in each division will be presented a bronze plaque, appropriately inscribed, to become a permanent award if won three successive years.

The beautification program and contest are sponsored annually by the State Highway Department. Judging in the contest is on the basis of general attractiveness, sanitation, cleanliness, shrubs, flowers, trees, and other factors.

Adams and Turner At Rainbow Market

Rainbow Market Place blossoms forth this week—Friday morning—with a change of ownership and with a full line of groceries and meats added to its fruit and vegetable line.

Jim Adams announces that J. C. Turner, an experienced local grocerman, is his partner in the enlarged enterprise. The building, slightly more than a block east of the square on 25th Street, has been moved back from the sidewalk, enlarged, given a plate glass front, and equipped with grocery shelving and a complete fresh meat outfit.

Associated with Adams and Turner will be Smith Adams and Horace Williamson, who have been with Rainbow for some time.

More Wetness

The flurry of rain that gushed into Snyder late Wednesday afternoon measured one-fifth of an inch.

But outside Snyder city limits, if a hurried Times survey is correct, even lighter showers, sprinkles or drizzle prevailed.

The rushy wetness followed a brief spell of sandy wind.

The hot, dry weather that has been baking the county in recent days has left some fields of feed and cotton at low ebb. But for the most part county crops are above average.

Thousands of tons of feed are already made, and most observers estimate cotton will total 30,000 to 35,000 bales without another general rain.

To West Texas

H. A. Vandercreek, shown here, president of the Chicago Vandercreek School of Music, will head a two-week band school and recreation camp at Hardin Simmons University, Abilene, beginning August 23 and closing September 4. This will be the second annual session held at Abilene and is the only school conducted by the noted band teacher in Texas for directors and students.

CECIL SEAMAN HERE SUNDAY

Bishop E. Cecil Seaman of the missionary district of North Texas, Protestant Episcopal Church, is scheduled to be in Snyder Sunday, August 15.

By invitation of the First Presbyterian Church, Bishop Seaman will speak at the 11:00 o'clock service there. At 10:00 a. m. communion service will be held in the parlor of the Manhattan Hotel. Local Episcopal leaders say a cordial invitation is extended to all interested persons to worship at both these services.

Bishop Seaman goes Sunday afternoon to Lamesa for a service. He makes a semi-annual tour of this section of West Texas.

Baseball Nine From Von Roeder's Wins First at O'Donnell

Von Roeder's Seed Farms baseball team won its first start in the 10-team summer tournament at O'Donnell Tuesday, whipping Harmony, 19-2.

The Von Roeder nine, composed of Borden and Scurry County players, struck an easy team in the opener, but they meet one of the best in the tournament Friday when they tangle with Pumpkin Center, a community near O'Donnell.

First, second and third prizes of $100, $65 and $35 make the tournament attractive to all entries. Von Roeder's tourney hopes were dampened when Hunter and Pope Swan, two of their topnotchers, became ill.

"Radioneer" Added To D. & D. Supply

D. & D. Auto Supply this week announces addition of a "radioneer" to its staff. The newcomer, Worden Mann, has been in Dallas, Arlington and other points. He is one of five men in Texas with the title "radioneer."

Merl Price, manager of the local concern, which is agent for Stewart-Warner electric and battery sets, explains "radioneer" as follows: "He is a radio service man who, by passing rigid examination conducted by the national board of radio service standards, has demonstrated his superior ability in servicing all types of radio receivers."

Cone Merritt Will Lead Dunn Baptists

Rev. Cone Merritt, pastor, will lead Dunn Baptists in a series of revival services that will begin at the Methodist tabernacle Friday night.

This is one of a series of meetings being conducted by Texas Baptists—services that are expected to cover every school house community.

Rev. Merritt and his congregation invite people of all faiths and of no church to join them in the services.

TRENCH SILOS ON TWO FARMS SEEN BY MANY

Ben Brooks and Cornelius Davis
Farms Are Sites of Practical
Feed Demonstrations.

Between 200 and 250 farmers, ranchers and others visited the Ben Brooks farm Tuesday afternoon and the Cornelius Davis farm Wednesday afternoon to witness practical demonstrations of what the trench silo is doing and can do for Scurry County feed growers.

The crowd at the Brooks farm, six miles east of Snyder, heard brief discussions of the advantages of trench silos, led by County Agent W. R. Lacey. Several farmers who have the feed storage systems testified to their many advantages.

Among the farmers who told of trench silo advantages was Brooks, who filled a large silo in 1935. He used this feed last year, and the silo was being filled again Tuesday, with three feed cutters demonstrating how the job can be done by power.

Virtually the same procedure was carried out at the Davis farm, eight miles northeast of Snyder, except that only one cutter was demonstrated. An International cutter, handled by Snyder Hardware & Implement Company, was on the job both days. Bryant-Link Company's Letz and Ivan Teter's Paper were on hand Tuesday.

Following the demonstrations, several farmers and ranchers said they plan to dig trench silos. Fourteen were dug in the county prior to this year, and several others are in process of completion.

Four Schools of County to Start Early Next Week

Four county schools will begin 1937-38 sessions Monday morning, according to County Superintendent Frank Farmer. They are Fluvanna, Canyon, Crowder and Ennis Creek. School will probably close in six weeks for cotton picking.

Crowder school, with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Leftwich returning as teachers, will open Monday morning for instruction of its seven grades. The eight grades at Canyon will be taught again this year by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Goolsby and Miss Evelyn Worley.

A new principal will be in charge of school opening at the Ennis Creek school Monday morning. He is W. M. Smith, who takes the place of W. T. Robertson, last year's principal. Misses Katherine Northcutt and Gladys Wiman are back again this year for primary work in the nine-grade school.

Formal school opening exercises at Fluvanna Monday morning will be in charge of Superintendent E. O. Wedgeworth, who begins his tenth year as head of the Scurry County school. Nine teachers and Wedgeworth will have charge of the 290 scholars, part of whom will be transported to and from school by six school buses.

Post Office Soused With Summer Paint

Snyder's post office lost some of its eyesore several days ago when a full dose of white paint was given its north-looking face.

Bids were requested from property owners several months ago looking toward a possible change in the post office location, or a renewal of the contract for the present building, but nothing has been done along this line as far as Postmaster Warren Dodson has learned.

SHORT COURSE IS CANCELLED

Word came to Snyder yesterday that the annual farmers' short course at A. & M. College will not be held this year. It was slated for August 16-19, and several Scurry County citizens were planning to attend.

The course was cancelled on recommendation of the state health officer, because of the threatening state-wide infantile paralysis epidemic.

New Yoder Grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Yoder learned by wire Tuesday morning that they became grandparents of Peter Dennis Yoder at 9:45 o'clock, Eastern time. The newcomer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Yoder of New York City.

Bulldogger

Robert (Pinkie) Brooks, above, will go to Loraine in September as principal and athletic coach. He succeeds Newby Pratt, who goes to Colorado as junior high school principal and assistant coach. Brooks, McMurry College griddler for the past three years, will conduct a two-week training school for his gridders soon.

Australia Given Spotlight as Old Snyderite Talks

Australia, remotest and smallest continent on the globe, was spotlighted by Snyder Lions Tuesday noon as they heard Charley Winston, former Snyderite, tell of the land in which he has made his home, as a representative of the Texas Company, for the past eight years.

Charley, a brother of Harrie and Wade Winston, local Hereford breeders, was chartered by Wade. The club's third guest of the day was Miss Geraldine Shuler, who was present in two readings.

Leon Roland Bell of the blind committee reported that an invalid child was examined for glasses by Dr. H. G. Towle during the past week but that glasses were not necessary.

Charley Winston, who has definitely been assigned to the United States again after a number of years in foreign countries, pointed out that half of Australia's population of seven million people resides in six cities of the southern portion, the central and northern portions being thinly populated.

He described Australians as a friendly, free spending, sports loving, healthy people, living in a temperate climate that knows few extremes. The continent's population is largely of English, Scotch and Irish descent. Practically no other nationalities are on the continent, which is approximately the size of the United States, except a few of the black aborigines, and a few Orientals and Italians who have been imported as laborers and farmers.

Winston said Australia's giant ranges boast the finest sheep in the world, more than twice the number raised in the United States. He also described huge wheat farms covering thousands of acres.

Wayne Boren was made a member of the Boy Scout committee.

Several Scurryites To Classing School For Ginner Benefit

Scurry County attendants at the two-week cotton classing school at Abilene, which concludes this week, include J. T. Browning, Delmus Perry of Snyder, Foster Watson of Hermleigh.

The school is sponsored by Texas Technological College and other cotton interests.

"The purpose behind the school," says E. M. Heard, head of the Tech textile department, in charge of the Abilene classes, "is to teach ginner to grade cotton and thus put an end to hog-round buying. Knowledge of cotton classing will enable ginner to pay the farmer a premium for good cotton, and pay the farmer who raises bad cotton less, thus penalizing him."

A similar school was recently held at Lubbock, and another is to be held at Quanah.

C. L. Harris Visits Here From Capital

C. L. Harris of Spur, representative to the state legislature from the 18th District, came to Snyder yesterday for a visit that is scheduled to include today and possibly tomorrow.

The state representative said he has been so busy in Austin that he has not found time to do much mingling with his constituents in Scurry, Kent, Dickens, Stonewall, Garza and Borden Counties.

Even 'Skeeters' Favor G Guards

Weather Fine, Trip Fine, Health Fine, Write
Locals From Camp Hulen

Dear Times:

This is a pretty tough job for the first week of camp. As usual, there is little to write home about during the first two or three days.

The trip from home station to Camp Hulen was just about on the usual schedule. We arrived in Palacios at 10:40 a. m. Sunday morning.

The trip down always proves to be one of the enjoyable parts of the annual field training period. The new men see new country for the first time probably, and the older men in the company see new country over again. We have plenty of fun coming down on the train, and then detrain for a good hard day's work setting up camp and getting the company in working order.

Weather: fine. Those homefolk who feel sorry for the boys while they are down here because of the heat, needn't. We're thinking of bringing some of this cool breeze back to Scurry with us. It's going to be a pleasant two weeks if the weather man continues to give us the kind of weather we have had so far.

Monday and Tuesday mornings Company G was on the drill field. Wednesday and Thursday mornings will be spent on the rifle range. Some of the men who did not fire on the range at Snyder this spring will be out there trying their skill with the 30 calibre. Others will do some practice firing. We hope our men will do some sharp shooting when the musketry competition takes place this year. Just this minute Lieutenant Irvin is lining up a rifle team for some team competition tomorrow (Wednesday).

If some of us haven't written home yet, it is just because we haven't had time, and we send regards to all the folks.

No men sick. Only two men reported on the sick book and both cases happened to be toothache. This is a good place to get your dental work done. Uncle Sam is OK.

Yours,

Appeal Made by County Agent on Trench Silo-ing

"Do you recall the years when you had a short feed crop and that you needed to buy some feed, how high the prices had gone, or the years when you had feed to sell and you found the bottom had dropped from feed prices? How many times, with a surplus on hand, have you wished that you could keep your feed in good shape until you needed it?"

In that way County Agent W. R. Lacey started a letter that was mailed last week to the majority of Scurry County farmers concerning trench silo demonstrations Tuesday and Wednesday. The appeal of the whole letter is so sensible that The Times reproduces the following additional paragraphs from it:

"There is an answer to this long felt need and it is the trench silo. The use of trench silos began with practical farmers some years ago and has grown to such an extent that in Texas last year there were 6,000 in use. Right in our own county 14 are being used now and many are being dug."

"It now appears that this county will produce one of the best feed crops in years, so what are you going to do with it? May I suggest that you dig a trench and fill it with your green feed and have it when you need it whether this winter, next year or five years from now? This is a practical way to protect yourself against drought prices. It is practical feed insurance."

"The cost is small for digging and you can fill it with whole bundles or heads or cut the feed up as you put it in the trench."

White Folks Invited To Colored Church

White people are invited to attend the meeting being held at the colored folks' church each evening at 7:30 o'clock, according to the local pastor, H. Norris. Opening inside the church Monday, the meeting will be moved out-of-doors Thursday, and will continue to the fourth Sunday, he says.

Elder J. G. McFristen of Stamford is doing the preaching, and Noah Morrison, a local boy, is leading the singing. Elder McFristen is also an accomplished violinist, the local preacher says.

Mrs. Yoder Heard Over Abilene KRBC

Mrs. D. P. Yoder of Snyder was heard Tuesday afternoon, 5:00 to 5:15 o'clock, in a group of religious solos over radio station KRBC.

She was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. H. C. Gordon. Also making the trip were Misses Ruth and Virginia Yoder.

Several Snyder radioists tuned in to hear the voice of their fellow citizen on the Abilene station.

Nothing but favorable comment for our mess shack force. They are keeping us all well fed. Mess Sergeant Spence, with Cooks Barnett and Kemp, seem to know what they are about when it comes to preparing the edibles.

By the way, Sergeant Spence says it is going to be too bad for that young son of his if he ever catches him stepping off on his left foot. Well, I imagine the sergeant is thinking all the time, "What a fine soldier that boy of mine will make some day."

Athletic events will be taking the evenings for many of the men in a day or two. Our boxers and wrestlers have their names in the pot. We'll send in the names and results later.

We are missing some of our non-commissioned officers and privates who could not attend camp this year. This message to you: "Having a wonderful time; wish you could be here."

It is going to be a fine period. We'll even have to come to Snyder to get mosquito bitten—we hope. Anyway, most of the men are not troubling themselves about raising mosquito bars.

If some of us haven't written home yet, it is just because we haven't had time, and we send regards to all the folks.

No men sick. Only two men reported on the sick book and both cases happened to be toothache. This is a good place to get your dental work done. Uncle Sam is OK.

Yours,
Co. G, 142nd Inf.

Snyder Cooperative Stockholders Meet

Stockholders of Snyder Cooperative Gin Company are scheduled to meet Saturday, August 14, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, reports Sterling Taylor, gin manager.

W. B. Lemons, president, and Nolan von Roeder, secretary, on a postal notice mailed to all members this week, urge stockholders to be present, and add that their friends are cordially invited.

Coach Hill Thrills Over All-Star Tilt

Among more than 300 coaches from Texas and several other states who witnessed the all-star high school game at Waco Saturday night was Coach Red Hill of the Snyder Tigers. He was in the Central Texas city for the annual coaching school of the Texas High School Coaches Association.

Hill declares the game, which was won by the north team, 7-0, and the school, which featured teaching by the coaches of the two all-star teams, were among the best in their class.

Raymond (Bear) Wolf, coach of the University of North Carolina, formerly of T. C. U., was north coach; D. X. Bible, new head coach of the University of Texas, the south.

Snyder Lions, sponsors of a rejuvenated fall fair for this trade territory, are seeking a location for the event. Refusal of the local school board to allow use of the gymnasium and grounds for the fair forced the central committee, headed by W. R. Lacey, to look in other directions.

The city tabernacle, with the city property adjoining it to the north, is just now being given preference in locations that are being considered.

Fair plans call for a general display of crops and livestock, with plenty of home talent attractions. A season ticket to sell to anyone at 25 cents will be offered.

New Manager

Several Snyder folks early this week met A. S. Legg, above, new district manager of the Texas Electric Service Company, with headquarters in Sweetwater. He succeeds the late Lon J. Geer, who died of a heart attack last month.

LOCAL GINNERS TO CONVENTION

Led by W. J. Ely, a director in the state ginner's association, several local ginner were in Abilene Wednesday for annual convention of the West Texas Ginner's Association.

Other local attendants were A. D. Erwin, W. E. Holcomb, A. W. Arnold, J. T. Browning, Sterling Williams, Harry Lee, Bill Nichols and Ab Perry. Guests at the convention included John C. Thompson of Dallas, state secretary; F. E. Litche of the textile division of A. & M. extension service; Sam Faust of the Cotton and Cottonseed News. Problems which face West Texas ginner during this 1937 season—probably the best they will have had in several years—was the central point of discussion.

C. A. Douthitt of Stamford, president, was in the chair for the Abilene session.

Local School to Start Classes in Early September

Monday, September 6, has been set as opening date for Snyder schools. The Times learned Monday from High School Principal King Sides. Superintendent C. Wedgeworth is teaching in West Texas State Teachers College Canyon, during the six-week semester.

With practically an intact faculty returning this year, trustees and other school leaders are looking forward to one of the most successful school years on record.

First pre-school activity will be a two-week training camp for boys who will come out for places on the Tiger football team. The camp will open Monday morning, August 16, at 9:00 o'clock, with Coach W. W. Hill in charge. Indications point to upwards of 40 boys in the camp, says Hill.

Next pre-school activity will be band practice work, to begin Monday, August 23, at 9:00 a. m. Director R. L. Reschar will be on hand to direct a crop of healthy musicians—a crop that he directed for the first time last year.

Coach Hill Thrills Over All-Star Tilt

Among more than 300 coaches from Texas and several other states who witnessed the all-star high school game at Waco Saturday night was Coach Red Hill of the Snyder Tigers. He was in the Central Texas city for the annual coaching school of the Texas High School Coaches Association.

HILL TO OPEN GRID TRAINING CAMP MONDAY

Return of 12 Lettermen, Several Promising Greenhorns Brighten
Tiger Prospects.

"Snag that par! Block that man! Smeat that play!"

These yells will begin Monday morning to punctuate the summer air near the school gymnasium and around Tiger Field.

For Coach Red Hill of the Snyder Tigers says all boys who want to play football this fall should be at the gym promptly at 9:00 o'clock Monday morning, August 16, for two weeks of pre-season training.

"The boys who come out for this training camp will be the boys who make the team," declares Hill. He says it is impossible for a boy to get in good condition if he waits until school opens September 6.

Expects More Than 35. Hill expects more than 35 boys to report for practice Monday. The return of 12 lettermen, a hefty batch of last year's squadmen, and several promising greenhorns gives Snyder the best pre-season prospects it has seen in recent years.

These youngsters will be getting ready for what should be the best season in the district in some time. Most teams have plenty of old material returning, and four teams—Roscoe, Lorraine, Merkel and Rotan—have new coaches.

The local season will open here September 10 with Spur as the opposing team. Next on the schedule will be the Sweetwater Mustangs at Sweetwater September 17.

Lettermen's Line-Up. Lettermen returning to the backfield include Wallace Smith, 1936 quarterback, and Weldon Strayhorn, 1935 quarterback; Ardath Head, fullback; Vernon Moffett, halfback; J. P. Tate, end and back. Tate has lettered three years, Head two years, and the others one year each.

These old-timers, all one-year lettermen, will be out for places in the line: Carl Hargrave, center; Gordon Rogers, end; Nuel Mebane, guard; Jackie Scarborough, tackle; Jay Rogers, guard; Buck Woolever, tackle; Leon Autry, center and end.

Lettermen who were lost to this year's squad are Charley Morrow, Johnny Boren, Arlin Rossen and Tommy Winter.

Two Ira Products. Two of the brightest greenhorn prospects are J. M. Sterling and Jesse Sorrells of Ira, star forwards on the basketball quintet there last season. Both these all-around athletes came out for spring football training.

In addition to the 12 lettermen, several youngsters will be on hand who played briefly last season. They include Prentice Riley, D. J. Hall, Fred Bullard, Ervase Keller and Ray Neal, all of them backs except Riley, who holds forth at tackle.

A few others who tried out for places last year and have added several pounds of weight, plus several eager freshmen who will be out for the first time, will complete the group that could run as high as 40 boys.

Lee Stinson Set to Attend Drug Confab

Lee Stinson will be the chief Snyder representative at the West Texas Pharmaceutical Association convention at Lubbock Tuesday through Thursday of next week, for the local druggist is a director of the association.

Several other local druggists and drug employees are also planning to attend, along with at least 500 druggists and their wives, drug travelers and jobbers.

Everything from the fair trades acts to merchandising methods will be discussed by leading speakers inside and outside the trade, says Lee.

Marriage of Margaret Dell Prim And Texarkana Man Announced

The July 3 marriage of Miss Margaret Dell Prim, for several years teacher of high school, English at Ira, to Don Hilton of Texarkana announced Saturday came as a surprise to local friends. The announcement was made by the bride's mother, Mrs. R. W. Webb.

Miss Prim became the bride of the Texarkana man in a simple service held in Galveston Saturday morning, July 3. John Harris, justice of the peace, read the ceremony. Attending were Miss Marie Casey of Snyder, also an Ira teacher, and Mr. and Mrs. Ike Schmidt of Houston, friends of the bridegroom.

The bride, a graduate of the local high school and of Texas Technological College, Lubbock, in 1933, has taught in the Ira schools for several years. She is prominently known in music and study circles of Snyder and Scurry County. Her mother was formerly a teacher in local schools, and Margaret Dell was born and reared in Snyder.

Hilton is a commercial artist with headquarters at Texarkana, where he and his wife will probably live. His territory includes East Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas. Guest of his bride in the R. W. Webb home here the past two week-ends, Hilton is known to a number of local people. His parents have been dead for several years, and his ability to paint was inherited from his artist father, who was a portrait painter. His only brother is a resident of Memphis, Tennessee, where Hilton received his education.

Party Compliments Bride.

Complimenting Mrs. Don Hilton, the former Miss Margaret Dell Prim, whose marriage was announced here late last week, a delightful gift party was given Monday night in the outdoor living room of the R. E. Gray home in East Snyder. Hostesses were the Grays' two daughters, Mrs. P. W. Cloud and Gwen Gray, Mrs. Allan Moses of Lubbock, Dorothy Strayhorn and Edith Grantham.

Guests were greeted by the hostesses. Following a clever toast to the honoree by Mrs. Robert E. Gray Jr. after the guests had gathered, the array of lovely gifts from party guests and several other friends were presented.

The lace-covered tea table was centered with a frostaria punch bowl, surrounded by garden flowers and ferns, from which Mrs. Cloud ladled refreshing lime punch. Dainty cookies and mints were passed.

Less Monthly Discomfort

Many women, who formerly suffered from a weak, run-down condition as a result of poor assimilation of food, say they benefited by taking CARDUI, a special medicine for women. They found it helped increase the appetite and improve digestion, thereby bringing them more strength from their food.

Naturally there is less discomfort at monthly periods when the system has been strengthened and the various functions renewed and regulated. CARDUI, praised by thousands of women, is well worth trying. Of course, if not benefited, consult a physician.

PROTECT THEIR EYES

When They Go Back to School . . .

Now

—Good eyesight gives boys and girls a flying start in sport and school. Young people should have their eyes examined before the strain of school starts again.

—So-called "dull" pupils frequently are not "dull" at all—just handicapped by eyes that need the help of glasses—possibly only temporarily.

—You can rely upon your local optometrist for understanding care and professional advice about the care of your child's eyes.

Legion Auxiliary Officers Installed.

Mrs. Edgar Turner, president, was installed along with other new leaders of the American Legion Auxiliary at a meeting of the group and formal installation services last Thursday night at the Legion hall. The service was held in connection with the men's organization.

Other new officers are: Mrs. W. J. Ely, first vice president; Mrs. Melvin Newton, second vice president; Mrs. Wesley Evans, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Jim Beavers, historian; Mrs. Ross Pate, chaplain; Mrs. Bill Nichols, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Bess Baze, reporter.

Action was taken on two important issues following the installation. Milk bottles bearing signs, "Help Needy Children," will be again placed in business houses soon, proceeds to take care of a milk fund for undernourished children of the local school. Last year the auxiliary raised more than $32 for this fund with the money jars. Quilts for the group's charity boxes are also being made by members.

Plans for other work during the year will be placed in the hands of new committees to be appointed soon by the president.

Willie Mae Minor Birthday Honoree.

Willie Mae Minor, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ex Minor, was honoree at a birthday party last Thursday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock at the home of her parents in North Snyder.

Following the opening of birthday gifts and a group of games, the hostess was assisted in serving by Mmes. C. E. Walker, Jess Barron and Yokum and Miss Irene Barron. Cake and refreshing drinks were passed to the following: Marcella and Mollie Newman, Dora and Anna Floyd, Inez, Dorothy and Margaret Barron, Charlene Tatum, Letta Belle Burns, Doris Williams, Mary Ruth Martin, Wilma Allen, Willie Mae and E. J. Minor.

After the party the guests were treated to ice cream cones at Rigby's Cafe by Mr. Minor.

Couple to Live In New Mexico.

Marriage of Miss Alena Stepp and Alton Gathings was solemnized at the local Methodist parsonage Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock, with Rev. H. C. Gordon, pastor, officiating.

Mrs. Gathings, a former resident of Roscoe, and her husband will make their home in Lovington, New Mexico, where the bridegroom has been residing for several years.

Frances Lewis is a guest of Hazel Bannister in Lubbock this week. She will also visit with her sister, Mrs. Gloyce Drinkard, in Anton.

Virginia Dalton of Rotan is a guest this week of Irene Spears. The two girls were in school together at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, last year.

Mrs. A. C. Kincaid visited last week with her daughter, Charlyne, who is manager of the Western Union office at Dalhart. Miss Kincaid received her training in telegraph work in Snyder.

Sue Snider of San Angelo has spent several week-ends recently in Snyder with her sister, Mrs. W. W. Nelson. Miss Snider, transferred from the Texas Relief Commission office in Abilene several months ago, is now with the compensation department of the commission in San Angelo.

Margory Davison of Abilene is a guest of her sister, Millie Davison, here this week. Margory is a student nurse at Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene.

MUSIC GROUP TO BEGIN CLUB YEAR SEPT. 23

"Music is a human need," members of Musical Coterie say, and they begin the new year September 23 in proving the truth of the club's motto. Worth of the local music club's activities since organization in 1922 is heartily recognized, approved and appreciated by the entire community.

Musical Coterie's annual Easter cantata has become a tradition in Snyder, since the custom of presenting a sunrise Easter service yearly originated several years ago. The club's work among junior musicians of the town is outstanding, as is the usual sponsorship of the observance of National Music Week each spring in Snyder.

Mrs. John E. Sentell will begin her second year as president of the local music organization with the September meeting, and this week she has placed new yearbooks in the hands of club members, who will begin immediately preparing fine arts parts for the year's programs.

"The most attractive in several years," is the expression used by Musical Coterie members and friends describing the new printed yearbooks, which carry out the group's chosen colors, white and yellow.

Other officers of Musical Coterie for the year are: Mrs. J. R. Sheehan, vice president; Mrs. W. W. Smith, secretary; Mrs. Francis Pierce, treasurer; Mrs. Homer Snyder, reporter; Mrs. W. W. Hamilton, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Lydia M. Hardy will be instructor for the new course of study, "Discovering Music," by McKinney and Anderson, which is a course in appreciation. Meetings will continue on each fourth Thursday as in past years, beginning September 23 and closing May 28.

October 26, the club's second meeting, will be guest day, when guests will hear an outstanding fine arts program presented by members of the group. The annual junior program, directed by Mmes. Novis Rodgers and E. E. Spears, junior club sponsors, will come February 24. The high school verse speaking choir directed by Annie Fannie Sewell, and the Snyder High School Band, directed by R. L. Reschlar, will be presented on the March 27 program.

The 1938 Easter cantata will be early in the morning of Easter Sunday. Miss Mattie Mae Tomlinson, director of the school choral club and glee clubs, will direct members of Musical Coterie in the cantata, and Mrs. King Stiles, also a teacher in local schools, will be accompanist. Eighteen members of the music study club and Mrs. Sentell, president, look forward to an interesting and profitable year.

Visits From Melvin.

Rev. Walter Dever, pastor of the Baptist Church at Melvin, visited here early this week, after completing a revival near Midland. His family has been visiting here while he was conducting the special services.

Mrs. A. C. Kincaid visited last week with her daughter, Charlyne, who is manager of the Western Union office at Dalhart. Miss Kincaid received her training in telegraph work in Snyder.

Sue Snider of San Angelo has spent several week-ends recently in Snyder with her sister, Mrs. W. W. Nelson. Miss Snider, transferred from the Texas Relief Commission office in Abilene several months ago, is now with the compensation department of the commission in San Angelo.

Margory Davison of Abilene is a guest of her sister, Millie Davison, here this week. Margory is a student nurse at Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene.

Friendship Class in Regular Meeting.

Several members of the Fellowship Class of the First Presbyterian Church enjoyed a delightful afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Roberson, east of town, last week.

No program was heard, but members lived up to their class name in conversation and fellowship all afternoon. Mrs. Roberson is teacher of the class.

Fried chicken and all the accessories, including iced tea and lemonade and iced watermelon, were served buffet style late in the afternoon by Mrs. Roberson to Mmes. P. C. Chenault, W. R. Lee, John Abercrombie, Mary B. Shell and J. T. Hays.

Wednesday Bridge Party Is at Cloud's.

Last week's meeting of Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club was an enjoyable one, with eight club members present and eight guests invited for the bridge games by Mrs. P. W. Cloud, hostess for the afternoon. Several out-of-town guests attended.

High score prizes were presented to Mrs. R. C. Miller, guest, and Mrs. W. W. Hill, club member. The hostess served delicious peach ice cream and angel's food cake at the tea hour.

Guests were: Mrs. Robert H. Curd, Mrs. San Angelo, Mrs. Wilson Hartgrove of Paint Rock, Margaret Williams of Frederick, Oklahoma, Mrs. Herbert Bannister of Lubbock, Bonnie Miller, Mrs. R. C. Miller, Mrs. Herman Doak and Mrs. E. E. Spears. The following club members enjoyed the afternoon: Mmes. Weldon Johnson, W. W. Hill, Gailther Bell, J. D. Scott, Max Brownfield, Robert E. Gray Jr. and Aubrey Stokes, and Miss Dorothy Strayhorn.

Little Jane Webb DeWald of Lubbock is visiting this week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Webb. She was accompanied to Snyder by her mother, Mrs. Jack DeWald, who spent the week-end with the Webbs. Mrs. DeWald was accompanied back to Lubbock Sunday by Mrs. Buster Curtis and Mrs. Ivan Gatlin, who are spending the summer in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Currie of Paint Rock were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sturgeon and daughter, Alberta. Mrs. Currie and Miss Sturgeon were roommates at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene. The local girl returned home with the Paint Rock couple Sunday to spend two weeks.

Mary Nell Morton left Saturday night by train for Dallas to attend the Pan American Exposition and visit with friends and relatives.

Hazel Bannister and Ann Smith of Lubbock, who returned from a trip to Fort Worth and Dallas last Thursday, visited with the J. S. Lewis family here late last week. Miss Smith returned to Lubbock two days earlier than Miss Bannister, who was formerly a Snyder girl.

LET'S TALK ABOUT CLOTHES

BY A YOUNG MODERN

Men usually get suggestions from the family circle on "what to wear when," but perhaps they would like to know what women in general have to say on the subject.

The first opinion voiced by girls at Texas State College for Women, Denton, is that above all a man should seem perfectly comfortable in his clothes. No matter whether he is relaxed in tennis slacks or suffering in a full dress suit, if he can just look as though he feels at ease the battle's won.

The man who formerly had difficulty in matching his ties and socks must be in a terrible predicament now, for color is one of the most important points in men's clothes today. The winter stylists predict even greater warmth and life in masculine wear. To guard against these color clashes which make any woman heart sore, we advise all doubtful males to ask the salesman for good combinations.

However, just because one is a little uncertain whether that red tie in the suit should be matched by the tie or the shoestring, he should not give up the idea of bursting forth in color. All women like for men to dress in the latest popularly accepted mode at times, and surely the black and blue solid suits must get a little tiresome even to their most ardent champions.

The main difficulty, in the opinion of these TSCW students, is that most men lack "clothes courage." The stores and magazines are offering gay new styles and ideas, and any man who neglects this opportunity to shine is wasting his possibilities.

Week-end in San Angelo.

Katherine Northcutt, Polly Harpole and Thelma Leslie spent the week-end with friends and relatives in San Angelo, spending the major part of Saturday and Sunday on the Concho River, swimming, boating, and aquaplaning, along with Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Longbotham and small daughter. The Longbothams, who spent the spring months in Snyder, returned to San Angelo Saturday to stay during the ginning season.

Mrs. Wilmeth and Daughter Returning.

Mrs. Lex Wilmeth and daughter, Alice Meryl, will probably be home by next Thursday or Friday from a five-month stay with Mrs. Wilmeth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Luckham, at Warick, Ontario, Canada. Leaving Warick Sunday, they will visit briefly in Detroit before coming home.

The local woman and her daughter left Snyder in March and were in Canada for the golden wedding anniversary celebration of the Luckhams April 20. Since then Mrs. Wilmeth, Alice Meryl and Mrs. Luckham visited two weeks with Mrs. Wilmeth's brother at the Port Elgin resort on Lake Huron.

Since her visit there, she has been writing to local friends on thin layers of birch bark, which she stripped from trees at Port Elgin. The bark makes beautiful writing paper, and taking the thin layers does not injure the tree. There are worlds of birch trees and tall pines at Port Elgin, Mrs. Wilmeth says.

Nelsons Hosts to Thursday Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Nelson were host and hostess to the Thursday Night Bridge Club and guests at their home last week. High score prizes were awarded Miss Edith Grantham, guest, and Mrs. J. D. Scott and Wayne Boren, club members. Mrs. J. L. Daugherty of Cincinnati, Ohio, was the other guest for the party.

Club members present were: Messrs. and Mmes. Melvin Blackard, Herman Darby, J. G. Hicks, G. B. Clark Jr., Wraymond Sims, J. P. Strayhorn, Wayne Williams and J. D. Scott and Wayne Boren. The hostess passed a dainty fruit salad plate at the close of the bridge games. The J. D. Scotts will be next club hosts.

Night Fire Destroys Walter Sharp Barn

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed Walter Sharp's large barn at 2:00 o'clock Sunday morning. Sharp lives three miles east of Camp Springs on the Ernest Hawkins place.

Lost in the fire was all of Sharp's harness, 10 tons of maize, 50 bushels of seed wheat, and a large amount of bundle feed. The farmer thinks rats probably started the fire by biting a match head, since the conflagration started in the loft.

Mother of Local Business Men Is Called by Death

Mrs. Virginia Hill Newton, 77, mother of J. M. and Marion Newton, local business men, was claimed by death early Monday at Marion's home in Southwest Snyder. She had been ill several weeks.

A resident of Snyder 29 years, Mrs. Newton was the widow of A. J. Newton, local carpenter, who died several years ago. She was a member of the Baptist church.

The home of J. M. Newton was the scene of funeral rites Tuesday morning, 10:00 o'clock, with Rev. Lawrence Hays officiating. Odgm Funeral Home had charge of arrangements for burial in Snyder cemetery.

Surviving are the two local sons and two others, W. C. Newton of Newcastle, who was here for the rites with his family, and B. M. Newton of Topeka, Kansas, who visited his mother Friday and Saturday but could not return for final services; two daughters, Mrs. W. L. Slaydon, Dallas, who was here with her husband, and Mrs. J. M. Hollingsworth, Oceana, California; one brother, J. T. Hollingsworth, Dickinson.

J. A. Woodfin, Ernest Taylor, J. D. Mitchell, J. W. Scott, W. J. Ely, S. J. Castevens, Eugene Smith and Bernard Longbotham were pallbearers. Mmes. E. Taylor, J. A. Woodfin, Hattie Hargrove and E. E. Weatherbee were in charge of flowers.

Lone Star News

Mrs. E. N. Smiley, Correspondent

Our revival, which was to have started Sunday, August 8, has been postponed until the 15th. Bro. Emory Scott of Hobbs is to do the preaching.

Bro. Ware, our pastor, filled his regular appointment Sunday. Only a few were present, as folks thought there would be no ser. es.

Farmers would certainly appreciate a good rain, although we have had a rain since some other communities nearby got any. There is some talk of cotton "throwing off" considerably for need of rain. Some late feed is suffering also.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burklow and son, Lee, went to see Mrs. Burklow's sister at Littlefield last Thursday night. The woman is seriously ill.

Sunday visitors of Mrs. Stone were Charlie Lawrence and family of Hermleigh and Lewis Terrell and family of Fluvanna.

Mrs. Wenonah Dowdy of Langley, Arkansas, is visiting relatives and friends here.

Lone Star school children will attend the Hobbs school this winter. School there will begin August 23.

William T. Falls of Wichita Falls, former teacher in Snyder schools, is visiting with relatives and friends in the county.

Dermott Rancher Dies Tuesday in Service Station

Acute indigestion brought instant death Tuesday afternoon at 3:50 o'clock, in the local Ods Service Station, to W. C. Allen, 48, well known rancher of Dermott.

The rancher was sitting on a curb at the station when he slumped to the pavement. A doctor was called, but attendants at the station believe death had come before they reached the man.

Mr. Allen had been slightly ill the previous day, but had come to Snyder alone in his car Tuesday. Mrs. Allen was brought to Snyder at once from their ranch home.

The Allens came to Scurry County four years ago from Kentucky, purchasing a large ranch at the outskirts of Dermott. Their ranch home was recently adjudged the most attractive farm or ranch home on a state highway in the county.

Mr. Allen was a thirty-second degree Mason and a Shriner. Masons were named as pallbearers for the service at the Snyder cemetery graveside Friday morning. Funeral rites will be at the First Methodist Church at 10:00 o'clock, with Rev. H. C. Gordon, assisted by Rev. James E. Spivey, officiating. Odgm Funeral Home will be in charge.

Pallbearers will be John Spears, Boss Stavelly, Oliver Willis, Johnny Browning, Joe Stinson, W. R. Bell and Luther Edmonson.

Surviving the rancher are his wife and one brother, Jim Allen, Lexington, Kentucky; one sister, Mrs. Bettie Buddy, also of Lexington; a nephew, Norman Lewis, Monahans; two nieces, Mrs. Bill Huddleston, Clark, Wyoming, and Mrs. Leora Jarvis, Weston, West Virginia. Final rites were postponed until Friday morning to await arrival of distant relatives.

Pat Falls of Canyon, student at West Texas State Teachers College, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Falls of Ira, and with relatives here.

Huckabee Conducts Camp Springs Meet

Rev. Ira T. Huckabee, Methodist pastor of Hermleigh, began a week revival at Camp Springs last Sunday. The meeting will close next Sunday.

Services start at 8:15 o'clock each night. Rev. Huckabee reporting fine crowds for each night's message. The day services have been deleted, due to Camp Springs farmers being busy with maize heading and other field work.

Browning, McLeroy To Abilene Meeting To Talk Farm Juice

Among a number of West Texans who attended a rural electrification meeting at Abilene last Tuesday were E. B. McLeroy, Borden County farm agent, and Buford Browning, vocational agriculture teacher at the Fluvanna school.

McLeroy and Browning are working together in projects that concern their communities. A number of Borden County students attend Fluvanna school.

The farm workers hope for a rural electric line into the Fluvanna and adjoining communities.

They visited Wednesday with T. H. Roensch, Fisher County agent, who showed them several of his 4-H Club projects. Browning selected two registered gilts and one registered sow for projects to be conducted by his V. A. boys.

Hobbs, One of Largest Rural Schools In West Texas, Will Start August 23

Monday, August 23, has been set as opening date for Hobbs consolidated school in Fisher County, one of the largest and probably the leading rural school in West Texas.

Enrollment for the school year is expected by Superintendent N. J. Gullett to reach about 400 students. This enrollment will include not only Hobbs and the other consolidated districts, but also students from Claytonville, Camp Springs and Lone Star.

Camp Springs, which has sent its high school students to Hobbs for several years, is now sending all its scholastic population to the Fisher County school. Lone Star, with its 30 scholastics, has been permanently transferred, and Claytonville, with its 55 scholastics, is being transferred by contract this year.

Six large buses will transport this host of rural students to the Hobbs buildings.

Thirteen teachers will guide the school this year. Superintendent Gullett came this year from Old Glory to succeed R. K. Williams, leader at Hobbs for five years. Williams is now superintendent at Men-tone.

Most of the other faculty members are also new. C. Littlepage, vocational agriculture teacher, returns. Miss Thelma Rice comes from Wichita Falls to teach home economics. R. W. Bounds, coach and mathematics teacher, is a newcomer from Stamford. Mr. and Mrs. Gullett complete the high school staff. H. C. Denson and Mrs. Ellis Porter are transferring from the Claytonville school to do departmental work in the grades. Other teachers, the grades they will teach, their tenures at Hobbs school, and their homes, are as follows:

Miss Dorothy Ann Newman, primary, first year, Abilene; Mrs. Mable Day, second grade, third year, Rotan; Miss Mary Rose Black, third grade, second year, Eagle Pass; Mrs. Roger Murff, fourth grade, first year, Rotan; Miss Edith Engle, fifth grade, second year, Alpine; Bert Milam, sixth, second year, San Antonio.

Hobbs, majoring for several years on courses that will be of practical use to graduates, is more than half through construction of a new home economics building. Vocational agriculture students are already working on pre-school projects.

Borden County Farm - Ranch News

By E. B. McLeroy, County Agent

Construction of earthen tanks has progressed rapidly during the past few months in Borden County. Ranchers are making the new government range program a source of permanent improvement of watering conditions for livestock, and the extent of their interest is reflected in the latest summary of tanking work.

Forty tanks have been completed and measured since last March, and several large dams are under construction at this time. Over 103,000 yards of dirt have been used in building these dams and two tanks have been completed with dams of over 9,000 yards of dirt.

Nathan Reynolds of the 9-R Ranch has completed the largest dam of the present group. This dam contains 9,223 yards of dirt. The value of these tanks cannot be estimated, but in view of past water shortages, it is clearly evident that Borden County will be in a much more favorable position to go through the drouthy years such as that experienced in 1934. With very little underground water available in the county, the construction of earthen dams for surface tanks has been the only practical means of watering ranges and continued activity along this line is expected throughout the duration of the range program.

One of the interesting results of the range program tank work has been the effect of causing small ranch units to build dams on these ranches without government aid. In several instances where the allowance under provisions of the program has been inadequate to finance the construction job, the small operator has used the estimated payments with personal funds in order to construct a larger tank than would have been possible under the range program allowance.

Homer Patterson of Fluvanna has filled a trench silo with sudan grass as a means of storing a supply of feed for milk cows and lambs. This silo was constructed on the Mott Patterson farm in Borden County. Approximately 1,800 cubic feet of silage was stored in this trench, which was conveniently placed near the barns and lots on the farm. Ninety-eight barrels of water was used along with the sudan, and the trench was covered with a layer of soil. Caliche was taken from the trench after a depth of two feet, and this was used in the lots adjoining the location of the silo. E. E. Hines and A. M. Clayton of Gall are filling a trench silo this week on the farm operated by Hines. Corn and grain sorghums will be stored in this trench. This is the first silo in the county to be filled cooperatively between a share tenant and an owner, and division of the silage will be made by measuring the respective portions belonging

Cuthbert Boy Dies Saturday Afternoon After Brief Illness

Seven-year-old Lynn Flowers, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Flowers of the Cuthbert community, died Saturday afternoon in a local hospital, after a brief illness. He was born August 2, 1930.

Final rites were held Sunday afternoon, 2:00 o'clock, at the Ira tabernacle, with Rev. Cone Merritt officiating. Burial was in Ira cemetery, with Odum Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were W. M. Wall, Ab Perry, Clyde Brown and A. E. Sumruid. Mrs. Cone Merritt and Miss Hazel Pollard were in charge of flowers.

Surviving are the parents, one brother, Joe Robert; and the two grandmothers, Mrs. J. R. Flowers of Holly Ridge, Louisiana, and Mrs. Mary Ellen Thornhill of Winnsboro, Louisiana.

Gospel Meeting at Big Sulphur Church

A gospel meeting will begin at Big Sulphur Friday night, August 20, to continue through August 29, according to J. K. Westbrook of Route 1, Hermleigh. Services will be held nightly at 8:30 o'clock.

Ganey Westbrook, minister for the Church of Christ at Combes, will do the preaching. Roland White of Hermleigh is to direct the song service.

"Everyone is invited and urged to attend these services," says Bro. Westbrook.

Mrs. T. L. Lollar and daughter, Jeanette, and N. R. Clements returned home early this week from a three-week vacation trip into Old Mexico and to Mexico City. Accompanying the local people were Mrs. Lollar's sister, Mrs. E. A. Warren, and son of Big Spring.

First Presbyterian Church

At the 11:00 o'clock service next Sunday morning Rev. E. Cecil Seaman of the Protestant Episcopal Church will be the visiting preacher. This is the annual visit of Bishop Seaman to Snyder to minister to those of his denomination and it is our privilege to have him lead us in our worship while in our city, as has been his custom for several years.

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. and Christian Endeavor Societies at 7:15 p. m. will be the other services of the day. There will be no evening preaching service at this church so that our people may join with the Baptist church in the closing service of their revival.

The pastor and his wife leave on Sunday afternoon for the Buffalo Gap camp meeting, where they will conduct the vacation Bible school. They will be there for the entire week, but will return for the service on next Sunday, August 22.

The Sunday school will hold its annual picnic on this (Thursday) afternoon at Wolf Park. All members and friends are invited to come to the park at 5:00 o'clock and enjoy the outing.—James E. Spivey, pastor.

"Mama, I Wanna Play!"

Yes, Mama, Johnny wants to play. But Snyder has not provided a very desirable play site for your Johnny.

So Johnny will probably do as most other Johnnies and Marys do. He will do the best he can on his own initiative. And his own initiative may lead him into paths he should never tread.

Snyder would do well to set her best brains to working together on a community playground or park of some description. The school park is fine as far as it goes, but it just doesn't go far enough.

Children need healthful, clean recreation. Where can they find it, day in and day out, unless the community provides it for them? Swings, giant slides, seesaws, slides, and so forth, will get the job done.

The cities learned a lesson long ago that the smaller communities did not learn to any great extent until federal aid stepped into the picture: The lesson that plenty of parks and recreation centers actually pay in dollars and cents because they keep youngsters and oldersters out of mischief—mischief that often breeds expensive crime.

"Mama, I wanna play!"
 Johnny will continue that plaint until the leading Papas and Mamas of Snyder get their heads together and provide an answer to the youngster's "wanna."

Editorial of the Week.

The cotton year closed Saturday, and in one important respect the 12 months which ended with July 31 this year are unique in cotton history. For the first time during a period of peace for the United States the amount of American cotton consumed within the borders of this country has exceeded the amount consumed outside the country by more than 40 per cent.

The final figures are not available, but the excess of domestic consumption this year may even reach 50 per cent. Nothing like this has ever happened in time of peace before.

A new record of domestic consumption was set during the past year, but this was not the chief cause of the immense excess of domestic over foreign consumption. The chief cause was the low consumption of American cotton abroad.

The precise figures on foreign consumption of American cotton during the past year are not yet available, but it is certain that, with the exception of the two years we were in the World War, less American cotton was consumed abroad during the 12 months ending July 31 than during any other similar period in more than 30 years!

This, of course, is not because of any reduced capacity of the outside world to consume cotton. On the contrary, the world outside the United States has been consuming cotton during the past three or four years at a higher rate than ever before since mankind first began to use cotton. It is expected that consumption of all kinds of cotton outside the United States during the past year will reach at total of 22,000,000 bales.

There has been no reduction of the world's capacity to consume cotton, but there has been a sharp reduction of the world's capacity to buy and pay for American cotton. It is buying and paying for cotton from practically everywhere else in greatly increased amounts, but it has been compelled to reduce its consumption of American cotton because of reduced ability to pay for cotton within the United States.

And the cause of this situation is not far to seek. It is the high tariff system of the United States.—The Texas Weekly.

Another W. T. Legg.

West Texans this month are welcoming A. S. Legg, once of Midland, who goes to Sweetwater as district Texas Electric Service Company manager. First impression of the newcomer to this territory is that he will uphold the utility's reputation for being intensely human despite its bigness. And if last impressions are first impressions, West Texas will be glad to shake a new Legg!

Farm Cash Increase.

In almost every daily paper one can find 1937 stories of tremendous increases in farm income. Texas shares—probably leads—the nation in this increase. The bureau of business research of the University of Texas discovers that Texas farm cash income has increased 64 per cent in June, based on income for the 60 months from January, 1928, to January, 1932. The improvement from May to June last year was 6 per cent and from June last year to June of the current year the gain was 52 per cent.

Titanic vs. Accidents.

Fifteen hundred persons died a generation ago when the Titanic sank. More than 2,200 died in the Johnstown flood. The World War claimed 50,000 American victims. The recent explosion at New London school killed 294 children . . . and the entire world sympathized. But last year 111,000 Americans met accidental death—more than twice as many as were killed in all the above-mentioned disasters combined—and it caused hardly a ripple in the flow of news. And the motor car is the greatest killer of all. "Ho bum!" says America. And the 1937 toll will probably be at least 125,000.

Detroit News: A local owner of a farm 40 miles out reports 11 known relatives among callers at the dinner house Sunday and three he wasn't sure of.

Hobbs Moves On.

Hobbs consolidated school will open the 1937-38 term with probably the most students of any rural school in West Texas, and Scurry County, which furnishes a large number of her students, joins Fisher County in a rousing vote of congratulations.

Hobbs school has moved forward at a rapid pace in recent years. She has turned out some graduates who have gone forth to conquer. She has advanced in scholarship and in community progress.

Now, with a new superintendent, with a new group of students, with several new teachers, with new physical equipment, and with new community prosperity, Hobbs should go forward this school year as never before.

Yes, Hobbs moves on. The citizens of that community and adjoining communities should be and are justly proud of the educational advantages they offer their boys and girls.

Current Comment.

By LEON GUINN.

Over at Rotan all the symptoms of a mild boom are evident, since oil has come to this cotton city, which used to ship more cotton than any other inland place (its size) in the world. . . . Rotan has been needing a money miracle for the last few years, and city dads calculate the local oil boom will supply spending shekels.

Merchants are experiencing the first flush of the game of course, and after conditions become more prosperous, many will realize that an oil boom has its limitations; for many will realize these West Texas counties can become oil poor. . . . Scurry County merchants will indirectly benefit from Rotan's mushroom boom, and county oil men appreciate the fact that the oil industry is looking to Scurry County as the next extension in the quest for black gold; the liquid gold Coronado unknowingly trampled underfoot.

Which reminds us that Rotan is using 70,000 gallons a day of that 97 per cent pure Scurry County water, a reminder that Scurry County is simply blessed with natural resources herself. . . . I was talking to one of the "big boys" the other day who hit it lucky when a well came in on one of his leases. . . . He had "dough" in every pocket, and "chicken" change dollar bills in his watch pocket. . . . And to complete the picture, the gentleman had oil on his hair and gas on his stomach!

We extend congratulations to Fort Dodge Laboratories Inc. on the occasion of their 25th anniversary. . . . In 1912 the Fort Dodge Serum Company started out producing a few million cc's of anti-hog cholera serum (whole blood) annually; and today this veterinary supply house has kept such a close pace with progress that its pharmaceutical products are the exclusive standard with ethical veterinarians America over. . . . Dr. D. E. Baughman, president, has shrewdly guided Fort Dodge Laboratories to an envied place in the world of veterinary medicine.

The Miller Veterinary Supply Company of Fort Worth handles Fort Dodge products in Texas, Texas ranchers figuring the use of Fort Dodge biological products saves $10,000,000 worth of Texas and West Texas livestock annually. . . . Until Fort Dodge opened a branch office in Fort Worth, Texas veterinarians had to rely upon gallon jugs and unbranded capsules to save sick livestock. . . . Scurry County ranchers rely upon trade marked vaccines, serums, and biologics these days, have little use for old line drug firms who used to peddle "hoss" medicine as a sideline.

As though the deluge in the world of books were not enough, Rev. J. F. Carlyle of Macon, Georgia, who is a Baptist missionary, is sending to the printers a 13,000 word novelette (The Gladiator's Choice), which has words that begin only with the letter S—"for personal reasons." . . . S swinging sample: "Seagulls swiftly sped, sometimes swooping suddenly (scraping sea surface), stopping several seconds, seeing something stomach satisfying." . . . Seeing S's so sadly swooned setting splurges, sighing settlers said: "S screw stomach satisfaction."

White House attaches deny it, but there is an "unofficial" break between President Roosevelt and John Nance Garner. . . . Garner critics claim "he sold the Democrats out" just because he was for a compromise in the bitterly fought "court plan." . . . Cactus Jack Garner is, and always has been a Jacksonian apostle of party harmony, and keenly foresaw what the uncalled-for "court packing" plan would do for the Democratic party.

To assuage Mr. Roosevelt's grief over his fallen "reform of the judiciary" Congress handed him authority to appoint six presidential assistants, but unlearned New Dealers cannot refrain from taking a few digs at Garner. . . . We are for Garner 100 per cent, for were it not for a few old line Democrats like Texas Nance, the Democratic party would be needlessly split by party strife. . . . The Democrats will have their hand full getting America on its feet, without internal strife. . . . A few congressmen are like some old maids we know. . . . If they can't pull hair, they'll at least keep the gossip train loaded with "don't tell" (which means spread the word) stuff.

The Right Policy.

The policy of the Lone Star Gas System wouldn't be a bad policy for any business or profession or individual: "First, find out what is the right thing to do; second, what is the right way to do it."

NEW ELECTRIC CHIEF VISITOR

Local Manager J. E. Blakey was early this week introducing A. S. Legg, new district manager of Texas Electric Service Company, to a number of local citizens. Legg promised to return often not only to check affairs of the local office but to get acquainted with more Snyder people.

The new manager will move his family soon from Eagle Pass to Sweetwater, district headquarters. He succeeds the late Lon J. Geer, veteran district manager, who was found dead in his home last month, victim of a heart attack during the night.

Legg has been district manager at Eagle Pass for five years. Previously he was district manager at Midland four years. He has been associated with Texas Electric Service Company and its parent company, Texas Power & Light Company, for 15 years.

Many Visitors See Movies of Snyder, Other W. T. Towns

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce motion picture theatre in the natural resource exhibit of that organization at the Fort Worth Frontier Fiesta is attracting many interesting visitors again this season.

Among the 40 films shown in the theatre is Snyder's, most of it taken during the Centennial celebration here last year. The movies depict the industries, business life, home, educational and recreational facilities in these 40 cities. View depicting agricultural, livestock and other activities in their rural sections are shown.

At the conclusion of the 1936 show the films were loaned to the bureau of visual instruction, University of Texas, and by that agency were routed through the public schools of the state during the winter.

Larger Scales for Joyces' Yellow Gin

Joyce Gin, known in this trade territory as "the yellow gin," is adding 10-ton scales this week to take the place of the formerly used six-ton scales. Increasing size of trucked cotton loads necessitated the change. The gin is ready to help move the 1937 crop, say J. R. Joyce and his sons.

The Joyces are this year operating only one gin. They recently sold their other gin, two blocks north of the square, to J. T. Browning of Welch, Dawson County.

Fisher Boys' Team.

Fisher County's 4-H Club livestock judging team to compete in the state livestock judging contest at the annual farmers short course at College Station, August 16-19, will be represented by Tommie Stuart, Harold Naves, Elton Upshaw and A. J. Jarnigan.

Probably the first state candidate to make a more or less political visit to Snyder prior to the 1938 campaign is Ralph W. Yarbrough, above, judge of the 33rd District court, Austin, and presiding judge of the third administrative judicial district. He is seeking to be attorney general of Texas. He was a brief Snyder visitor yesterday.

Ethyl Gas Offered By Wade's Station

Foy Wade's service station, a block east of the square on the highway, has just added a pump with ethyl gasoline, a product that has been difficult to secure in Snyder. A new pump offers the added gasoline, and another new calculating pump has also been installed.

Wade recently added Badger tires to his line, and he also announces addition of a new Globe hoist for the benefit of greasing job customers.

Moffett Home Two Weeks.

Bo Moffett, backfield star on the Tiger football squad for several seasons, is spending a two-week vacation here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Moffett. Moffett, a 1937 graduate of the local high school, is connected with the government soil conservation service at Grand Junction, in middle-western Colorado.

BAPTISTS PLAN LAST SERVICES

Through Tuesday night, the First Baptist Church revival had resulted in 15 additions to the church, and in 13 professions of faith by those who did not unite with any church.

This report comes from Pastor Lawrence Hays, who makes the following further statement in regard to the services that are being conducted morning and evening by Rev. E. F. Cole of Lamesa and Singer Johnny Cohen of Palestine.

"We are anxious to do the most good for the largest possible number of people these closing days of the revival. We want to warm the hearts and revive the Christians, and to get the unsaved in touch with Jesus for salvation and assurance."

Services continue through Sunday night, with both visiting revivalists making for the final service. Morning services are being held in the church building at 10:00 a. m.; evening services at the rear of the church at 8:15 p. m. Prayer meetings are being held for several age groups each evening at 7:45 o'clock. The singer is in charge of the young people's conference, largest group. Rev. Cole's Sunday morning subject will be "Heaven;" Sunday night, "The Second Coming of Christ."

Oswald Frets Over Delaying His Jaunt To Pelican Capital

Oswald (or Oswaldine), as he swims in his rock-ribbed bowl over at Piggy Wiggly, appears to fret at times because his master, Maurice Brownfield, will not leave for the annual Piggy Wiggly convention at New Orleans, Louisiana, until about Friday of next week.

Oswald, hand painted little turtle that he is, is anxious to get into that race in the pelican state, a race in which each Piggy Wiggly operator will have a similar entry. The convention holds sway August 22-25. Brownfield has attended every national convention for several years. But he is looking forward to this 1937 session with new gusto, for he declares he has developed a real affection for hard-shelled Oswald, and he wants to see whether Oswald will return his love by winning at New Orleans.

National Guards in Thirteenth Annual Camp at Seashore

Telegrams have been received by local people from members of Company G, 142nd Infantry, Texas National Guard, since they left Snyder Saturday afternoon by train for Camp Hulen, near Palacios, for their 17-day annual camp. They arrived at the seashore camp Sunday.

Three officers, Captain John E. Sentell, First Lieutenant Tim O. Cook and Second Lieutenant Roy O. Irvin, mascot Sears Sentell and 65 men from the local group of guardsmen are making the camp this year.

Mrs. Sentell and daughter, Mary Sue, left Wednesday morning to join Captain Sentell and the boys at Camp Hulen, where they will participate in social activities with wives and daughters of other officers. Corporal Ernest E. Birdwell of the local guards drove Mrs. Sentell and daughter to Palacios this week.
