TRAIN CLAIMS LIFE OF LOCAL WAR VETERAN

Luther E. Bynum Killed at Grade
Crossing by Passenger Train
On Armistice Day.

Armistice Day to most people was a symbol of peace, a day that marked the end of the World War 19 years ago.

But to the relatives and friends of Luther E. Bynum, 43-year-old produce house employee and former farmer, it was a day of mourning. For the life of the man who saw service during the war, in the mechanical division of the aviation service, was snapped just before noon on Armistice Day by an accident that will never be fully understood.

Bynum was returning to his home eight miles east of town from the Ahlens Produce Company's local branch, where he worked, when his 1933 Chevrolet coupe was struck by the north-bound Santa Fe passenger train at the "cemetery road" grade crossing in Northeast Snyder. Others who were waiting for the fast train to pass said he evidently did not see or hear the locomotive.

Engine Carries Car.

The big engine plowed into the car, and carried it down the tracks about three-quarters of a mile before the train could be halted. Chains were placed on the car before it could be pulled from the cowcatcher.

Mrs. Audie McElyea, who lives in the house nearest the crossing, said she heard the crash and ran to learn its cause. When she saw the car clinging crazily to the front of the engine, she noticed a man's feet dangling from the crushed door. Just as the train, brakes screeching, passed the rear of the McElyea house, Bynum's body was hurled from the car, and rolled down the embankment.

Bynum was dead when Mrs. McElyea's screams brought help. His body was badly crushed.

Was Formerly Farmer.

The crash victim farmed in Scurry County for 22 years prior to January 1, when he moved to the Plainview community place and began working in Snyder. He came with his parents from Commerce in 1915. He was a member of the Church of Christ.

Funeral services were conducted at the Church of Christ Saturday afternoon, with O. D. Dial officiating. Odum Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. Burial was in Snyder cemetery.

Funeral bearers were Morgan McNeill, Clark Light, Lester McClammy, Leverett Lewis, Tolley Faver and Ollie McNeill. Mrs. Ahlens Lewis, Mrs. Alice McClammy, Moseille Mitchell and Lois Huckabee were in charge of flowers.

Surviving are Mrs. Bynum and their 12-year-old son, Harley Glendon, Plainview school student; father, J. N. Bynum, 14 miles southwest of Snyder; one brother, Jodie, Snyder; three sisters, Tennie and Mae, who live with their father, and Mrs. Walter Bishop, Hermleigh.

Towle Made Texas Optometric Member

Dr. H. G. Towle several days ago received notice of his appointment as the Texas representative on the board of the legal department of the American Optometric Association. His chief function in this capacity will be to represent the national body in Texas legislative matters and to prevent illegal practices of optometry in the state.

The local optometrist several months ago was made president of the state board of examiners in optometry by appointment of Governor James V. Allred.

T. J. Tidwell Carnival.

Snyder is busy this week trying to entertain the big T. J. Tidwell carnival, which is holding forth the whole week on the city lots northwest of the square. The carnival is here under auspices of the fire department and the American Legion.

CHURCHES PLAN UNION SERVICE

A union Thanksgiving service has been planned by several churches of the city, with the First Presbyterian Church as the site and the Methodist pastor as the preacher. The service will be held Wednesday evening of next week, 7:30 o'clock.

Most business houses are planning to close Thanksgiving, which comes Thursday, November 25. Since it is a legal holiday, the post office will be closed, as will the bank.

The Snyder schools will have a double holiday, Thursday and Friday.

Queen Frances

You are now being introduced to Frances Staveland, queen of the Fluvanna carnival that was staged on Armistice Day. This smiling daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boss Staveland was chosen after a school-wide contest. Photo by Curley's Studio.

THANKSGIVING GAME COMING

Local football fans will have their last opportunity to see the 1937 Tigers in action next Thursday afternoon (Thanksgiving) on the local field at 2:30 o'clock, when Colorado's Wolves come over.

The Snyder second team will play Friday afternoon of this week, on the home field at 3:15 o'clock, with the Dunn Class C Owls as opponents.

Since the Colorado game will be the final of the season, on a holiday, a heavy turnout is expected, from Colorado as well as from Snyder and vicinity. If the Tigers win, and Loraine loses to Roscoe, the teams from Snyder, Colorado and Loraine will be thrown in a three-way tie for second place in District 6-B.

Book Week Theme By Hermleigh Boys For Lions Tuesday

In keeping with observance of National Book Week, four Hermleigh boys, directed by Mrs. Marvin Hanchback, gave sketches from the much-read adventure story, "Tom Sawyer," by Mark Twain, before members of the local Lions Club and several guests Tuesday noon.

Luncheon guests besides Mrs. Hanchback, who was the guest of Leon W. T. Hanes, superintendent of Hermleigh schools, included H. E. Sides of DeLeon, father of Lion King Sides, Rev. G. B. Shelbourne of Abilene, who was introduced by C. Wedgeworth, and Albert Chism, introduced by his co-worker, Lion J. B. Reeves of Snyder Transfer Company.

Other program numbers were a reading by Billy Travis Hanes, son of the Hermleigh superintendent, and a Spanish dance by Mary Sue Sentel and Mary Ellen Williams, who were in costume. Margaret Williams was accompanist for the dance and the girls were coached by Wanda Newman. Both Misses Williams and Newman are teachers in the local schools.

New Church of the Nazarene Pastor in Thursday Services

There will be preaching at the Nazarene Church Thursday night of this week, 7:15 o'clock, by Rev. R. B. Williamson of Abilene, who will come to Snyder soon to become pastor of the local congregation.

Rev. Ernest Gates, former pastor of the church, says: "We invite the public to attend this service. We especially insist on those who have been coming and all members of the church to come, as Rev. Williamson would like to meet you and get acquainted. We ask all praying people to pray for us that God's will may be done. We are especially interested in the work of the Lord in Snyder."

Padueah Pastor Comes.

The First Baptist Church pulpit will be filled morning and evening next Sunday by Rev. Harrison, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Padueah. Services are at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Warehouse Overworked. Snyder's cotton warehouse, of which Dick Henderson is boss, is overworked these days. Farmers who have cotton in the warehouse are urged to go ahead and write it up in order that it may be moved out more rapidly, giving room for incoming cotton. A full write-up of warehouse activities is on tap for The Times columns next week.

ROBINSON MAY STRIKE PAY IN SEVERAL DAYS

Leasing Activity Near Ira on Mild Boom as Well Plugs Away Past 3,060 Feet.

After a shutdown to await repairs, the Robinson No. 1 well on the Martin place, near Ira, began drilling again yesterday at a depth of 3,061 feet.

Leasing activity in the Robinson vicinity has been upped considerably in recent days, as several oil operators have come into the territory. Most of them are staying in Snyder.

Judging from other wells in the Ira area, notably the Henderson, a mile east, the Robinson should reach pay between 3,100 and 3,150 feet.

The Shaw well, also in the Ira vicinity, was to resume operations today. Eight-inch casing has been cemented in the well. Drilling will continue between 2,400 and 2,500 feet.

Still Is Discovered Northeast of Town

Parts of a still, almost five gallons of whiskey, and 25 gallons of mash were discovered on and near the R. N. Koonce place in Northeast Snyder Saturday evening by Sheriff Clyde Thomas, Deputy Sidney Galvan and Constable Ather Chandler.

Koonce was arrested and placed in the county jail. He was carried Monday to Amarillo to face a federal court.

Only the mash was found in the main portion of the house. The whiskey was buried behind the house.

Autry Is Elected Local Fire Chief For Tenth Year

At the annual election of officers for Snyder volunteer fire department, held Friday night in the fire hall, N. W. Autry was named chief for the tenth consecutive year. Autry succeeded Addison Castevens in the office in 1926.

Other officers named by the fire fighters last week were: M. M. Giddens, assistant chief (re-elected); B. G. Johnson, president; J. M. Newton, vice president; Emmitt Butts, secretary (re-elected); and Rev. James E. Spivey, chaplain.

The department voiced a vote of appreciation for the cooperation of Snyder ginners in helping to keep down gin fires this year. It was pointed out as unusual that the fire boys have not been called to a gin for even a minor blaze during the 1937 rush season. Thanks were also extended to the public schools for their observance of special fire drills and fire education, and the minimum number of trash and grass fire alarms the department has been called upon to answer in recent years was attributed largely to fire safety and training children receive as a part of their education.

The firemen will have their annual Thanksgiving banquet Monday night of next week.

House Remodeled to Become Studio Site

One of the eyesores on the south edge of the Snyder business district is being remodeled.

It is the old Sims house, vacant for several months, which has been the target of abuse for small boys with rocks and other damaging weapons. The house is being transformed into a studio for Mrs. Hilton Lambert and a home for Mr. and Mrs. Lambert. It will be finished in stucco.

Dr. H. E. Rosser is purchaser of the building site. He also owns the vacant property just east of the house.

Welfare Funds Later.

A complete list of recent donations to the child welfare fund will be given in a later issue of The Times. The donation list has increased to almost $100, according to Mrs. Wraymond Sims, president.

Borden County Well.

Continental No. 1 Clayton & Johnson, wildcat Borden County test 440 feet from the north and west lines of section 27-32-4n, drilled ahead to 785 feet in sand and shale late last week.

Unemployment Census.

Postmaster Warren Dodson urges that haste is necessary in returning the unemployment census cards that were passed out in Snyder Tuesday. The cards, designed for the benefit of the unemployed, are to be mailed not later than midnight, Saturday, November 20—and they require no postage.

"—And Sudden Death" Strikes Again

One of the little girls in this picture might be saying to herself, as she looks wonderingly at the mangled car: "Why did it happen? Perhaps no one will ever know. But the crushed body of Luther E. Bynum, hurled Thursday from the car as it rode the cowcatcher of a fast passenger train, bore mute testimony to the fact that another tragic chapter has been written in Scurry's ghastly record of accidental deaths and injuries in 1937.

A Small Sample of Scurry's Bumper Crop

This picture, made by Miles Studio, is a miniature sample of Scurry County's bumper cotton crop of 1937. Snapped at the Joyce gin, just east of the square, the picture shows less than one-third of the unginned cotton that was on the Joyce yard on several occasions when the rush was at its height a few days ago. J. R. Joyce, veteran gin man, says he saw more cotton on his yard at one time this year than at any other time during his long experience. Snyder's other four gins have also been traveling at full blast since the heavy ginning season struck with a vim late in September. This week's frost and first freeze have slowed up the crop some.

Presbyterians in Special Meetings In Two Churches

Leading Presbyterians were in special conference in Snyder and Fluvanna Monday, with Rev. David J. Murray of Lamesa and Rev. W. P. Rogan of Stamford participating with Rev. James E. Spivey, county pastor.

At 11:00 a. m. Rev. Murray brought an inspirational address, and at noon the women of the church served lunch in the basement. The session continued until mid-afternoon.

Going to Fluvanna in the evening for supper at the church with the congregation there, the group of pastors concluded their special work in the county with a night service.

On Tuesday noon and afternoon the visiting pastors and Rev. and Mrs. Spivey continued to Post, and in the evening and night to Brownfield. Both these towns are without pastors. The series of services in the western end of the Abilene presbytery were concluded Wednesday noon and early afternoon with Lamesa as host. Stewardship and evangelism were stressed.

Shall the Farmers Organize—And For What Purpose? Asks Farmer

Editors, The Scurry County Times: Shall the farmers organize and if so for what purpose?

This question has been before the farming class of people for a number of years, and various organizations have been formed for the purpose of helping to better the conditions of the people who live on farms. I think all these organizations have been a help-in a way, but none of them have been perfect and if we wait for a perfect organization to come along, we will never have one.

Hon. Marvin Jones said recently, "Farmers will organize—not because they want to, but because they will have to." Meaning of course that we will have to have an organization in order to secure our just share of the national income.

We can readily see what other industries have done through organization if we will only look around us. Industry does not have to have laws passed to force it to stop producing when their manu-

ABOUT 36,000 BALES GINNED

Despite showers last week and a freeze and frost Tuesday night, Scurry County ginnings late Wednesday had reached a total of approximately 36,000 bales.

This estimate is based on Snyder's total of 18,093 bales. Comparison with government figures of November 1, which gave the county more than 28,000 bales, indicate that the proportion of Snyder ginnings over turbutts of the other county gins is gradually increasing. Using this increase as a guessing basis, Snyder's five gins have turned out about the same number of bales as the other 11 gins of the county.

Snyder's total has been pushed up not only by good local turnout but also because of a heavy influx of cotton from adjoining counties and the lower Plains.

Collier to Lubbock.

Morris Collier of Graham & Martin was in Lubbock Monday. He attended a cleaners' and dyers' school that specialized in the new fabrics that are being placed on the market this winter.

Dunn Leads With $62.25 in County Red Cross Drive

Dunn community jumped into the lead in the Scurry County Red Cross Roll Call this week with a total of $62.25—and Roll Call Chairman Hal A. Lattimore says the Dunn folks are not through yet.

Leading the drive in and near Dunn is I. N. Standefer. One of the workers at Dunn, Mrs. Harrison Durham, early this week had turned in a total of $19, plus $5 of her own. Mrs. Mill Shoffner, Mrs. J. B. Coston and Mrs. Standefer are the other faithful Dunn workers.

Mrs. J. G. Hicks, Mrs. Wraymond Sims, Mrs. A. J. Cody and Mrs. W. E. Doak have done fine work in

Snyder, says Lattimore, in addition to the business men who worked the business district. The county total early this week was $345.25, and Lattimore is sure other reports will increase it to the $500 goal for 1937.

No reports have been received from Hermleigh, Fluvanna, Ira, Byron and other communities. The chairman expects these sections to hoist the total well above $400. Too, the high school here is outstanding, and it usually signs up 100 per cent. Grammar School Principal Hadley Reeve has turned in $17 from his section of the school.

Armistice Service At First Christian

At a joint Armistice service at the First Christian Church Sunday evening, with the Baptist and Presbyterian churches cooperating, Rev. James E. Spivey has the principal speaker. He called on his hearers to seek the Christ, the prince of peace, in searching for a solution of the problems of the war-torn world.

A. J. Cody presided, Willard Jones conducted the song service, John E. Sentell read the scripture, and Hal A. Lattimore read the opening prayer. A mixed quartet, composed of Adell and Mable Watkins, Fred Jones and J. T. Patrick, sang one song.

Highway 15 Gets Austin Limelight

FIRST KILLING FREEZE VISITS

First killing freeze and frost of the season came Tuesday night—10 days to two weeks later than the average first-visit of wintertime.

The temperature dropped that night to 25 degrees, according to the government records, now kept by Mrs. B. G. Johnson. Monday night's low was 25 degrees, and Wednesday night's was 39 degrees.

Practically all vegetation was damaged by the frost. Farmers say cotton stalks are shedding rapidly, and most of them are holding off late picking until late boils are ready.

BORDEN RANGE QUOTAS GIVEN; 24,123 UNITS

Range Program Payments to Amount to $36,000.00, It Is Estimated.

The state agricultural conservation committee has audited and analyzed 70 range applications for Borden County and released a quota of 24,123 animal units.

This gives Borden County an average of 32 animal units per section of rangeland, and the total amount of money to be derived from payments under the range program will be approximately $36,000, most of which is being earned by construction of earthen tanks in the county. Final adjustments of individual quotas will be completed within the ensuing week, and all ranch operators in Borden County will be notified by mail in order to hasten completion of compliance work. December 31, 1937, has been designated as the final date for carrying out the various range building practices under the current range program. Certification and compliance forms will be forwarded to the state board for approval and payments when each operator completes his 1937 range building practices prior to January 1.

Several ranch operators have earned their 1937 allowance, and consequently their compliance forms will be immediately forwarded to the state board for clearance of payments.

In making final adjustments, the county committee has borne in mind that some ranches are above the average and others below the average in this county. Therefore the amount of payment will vary considerably over the county. Ranch operators should bear in mind that official figures for individual ranches have not been released as yet, and all calculations of range building allowances to date have been estimates based upon probable approval of preliminary adjustments.

Negro's Arm Takes One of Four Bullets Fired by Ired Man

One of four bullets fired into "Martha's house" in the colored section of town early Sunday evening struck the arm of Richard Spear, causing a painful flesh wound. The other three shots went wild.

"Little Buddy" Managan, who has been shine boy at the Gordon & Maule barber shop, fled down Deep Creek to the county jail, where he is confined to await action of the district court grand jury early next month. He admitted to Sheriff Clyde Thomas that he did the shooting. The sheriff said he believed the negro had been drinking.

Negros questioned by the sheriff said Managan became angry at another negro—who fled after the shooting—and accidentally hit Spear when he fired the four shots from the outside of the house.

Ira Carnival Ready.

"All set!" is the word from Ira, where teachers, students and patrons are planning a full evening of entertainment for this Friday. "Fall Festival" the event is called. Stunts, contests, booths and other features are planned.

Commission Has Asked U. S. Help

A modern Highway 15 will be built to the New Mexico border as soon as possible.

This was the message brought back to Snyder yesterday by H. J. Brice, county judge, and Forest Sears, president of the Chamber of Commerce. They were in Austin Monday to appear with other Highway 15 boosters before the State Highway Commission.

Harry Hines, member of the commission from West Texas, told the Snyder delegates that the highway will be built, with federal cooperation if possible, as quickly as funds are available for the construction program.

Cooperation Pledged. In the commission meeting, the two Snyder representatives "poke their pieces" concerning Scurry County and Snyder's desire to cooperate in every way possible for speedy construction of the road.

It was indicated at the commission meeting that the state-splitting Highway 15 program has been slowed down considerably by Scurry County's failure to secure right-of-way. All counties along the route now have right-of-way problems ironed out. It was indicated at Austin, and building of the road now awaits only the commission's action—and federal cooperation.

Federal Aid Asked.

The commission, several days prior to the meeting with Highway 15 representatives, requested the federal government to make 165 miles of the route eligible for federal aid in future years. This 165 miles reaches from Roby to the New Mexico border.

Borden, Gaines, Dawson, Stephens, Tarrant, Dallas, Palo Pinto, Scurry Counties were represented in person at the Austin meeting, and other counties sent their "agents" to the delegation's request for quick action of the vital highway.

Borden County was represented by C. C. Nunnally, county judge, and D. Dorward, veteran druggist.

"Home Beautiful" Contest Sponsors to Give Three Prizes

Three prizes will be given in the "Home Beautiful" contest being sponsored during the Christmas holiday season by Woman's Culture Club. People of the town are urged to add holiday decoration to the outside of their homes to promote the holiday spirit.

The town will be divided into three districts—east, west and north—and a prize will be given in each ward for the most beautifully decorated home. Competent judges will make the selections in each district.

"Let every home lover enter into the spirit of Christmas. Make plans for holiday lighting and outdoor decoration for your lawn, windows and porches. Let your neighbor enjoy your Christmas cheer."

Traditional Newcomers' Tea Honors New Residents Tuesday Afternoon

"International Good Will" was the program theme at Alpha Study Club's eighth annual newcomers' tea held at the home of Mrs. Wade Winston, past president, Tuesday afternoon from 3:00 to 6:00 o'clock. New residents of the town were introduced to more than 100 local club women.

Mrs. Winston greeted guests at the door, and Mrs. J. C. Smyth, Alpha president, headed the receiving line. Various club members conducted guests down the line, composed of newcomers, who were honored on the occasion. Rooms were decorated with autumn flowers.

Newcomers introduced were Meses. William Fuller, J. T. Browning, M. B. Hattox, Ted Moser, J. T. Ross, C. M. Duckett, Brooks Browning, H. T. Sefton, David C. Fawcett, Harvey Brown and Ruth Saunders, Misses Helen Reeves, Quata Barrow and Ethel Foster.

A world tour, with main points of interest in Hawaii, Japan, India, Spain and Ireland, with Mrs. Smyth as reader, made a delightfully unusual program. Alpha members and their daughters were presented on program, each in the native costume of the country she represented.

On the "world tour" tea guests were greeted at the first stop, Hawaii, in typical Hawaiian manner—soft music and gifts of bright colored leis, presented by Meses. J. P. Nelson, J. G. Hicks, Wayne Boren, Winston, and Misses Hattie and Gertrude Herr. Mrs. W. C. Hollis and Mrs. Melvin Blackard were introduced in vocal duet, playing their own ukulele-piano accompaniment to "Kilima Waltz" and "Song of the Islands."

Vocal selections by Mrs. John E. Sentell, representing Japan, were "Brown Bird Singing" and "Japanese Love Song." "India," a poem describing that country as seen by a native girl was read by Mrs. Eon Joyce. Mary Ellen Williams and Mary Sue Sentell, accompanied by Miss Margaret Williams, guest, gave the "Dance of the Sombroso," as guests made a brief visit to Spain.

Last stop on the journey was in Ireland, where Mrs. J. R. Sheehan sang "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen" and "Killarney," and Dorothy Winston sang "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling." Mrs. Melvin Blackard, accompanist for musical numbers on the program, and Patti Hicks entertained with piano numbers, national airs and folk tunes, at intervals all afternoon.

Guests were invited into the dining room, where plates were passed by Meses. Wayne Williams, Raymond Sims and Joe Graham, in native Dutch, Japanese and Spanish costumes, respectively.

Centerpiece for the dining table was a group of eight-inch dolls, like-like in appearance, representing America and each of the five continents around which the program centered, all made by Mrs. Alfred McClain, and arranged on a reflector outlined with tiny silk flags of 12 nations, similar to those given as plate favors. Squares of cake, decorated with colored frosting and these tiny flags, and appetizing sandwiches were served with coffee.

Mes. Maurice Brownfield, Forest Betts, G. M. Heinselmann, J. G. Hicks, G. B. Clark Jr. and Miss Norma Strayhorn presided at the coffee services during the afternoon.

Mrs. McClain, fine arts chairman, was in general charge of arrangements for the tea, with Meses. Boren and Joyce, other members of the committee, assisting.

Dinner Party Is Enjoyed by Guild.

The home of Mrs. Billie Lee Jr., past president of Art Guild, was the setting for one of the most enjoyable meetings of the year thus far, according to members present for the covered dish dinner and the entertainment which followed it Tuesday evening.

Roses and chrysanthemums decorated tables for the turkey dinner served buffet style. The affair was Art Guild's annual Thanksgiving observance.

A central impromptu pantomime of "The First Thanksgiving" by all the club members presented made the after-dinner diversion a highlight of the year in enjoyment. The dramatization was directed by Annie Fannie Sewell, high school speech instructor, who is a member of Art Guild.

Club members present were the following: Meses. R. E. Boyer, W. P. King, William A. DeBolt, O'Dell Ryan and Lee, Misses Alta Bowers, Vera Perlman, Sewell, Effie M. Leod, Ethel Foster, Rayolene Smith, Quata Barrow and Edith Grantham.

ONE KILLED AS DEATH STALKS IN AREA AGAIN

Six-Year-Old Wastella Girl Dies Instantly After Three-Way Crash Sunday Night

Death stalked Highway 7 again Sunday night. The life of Peggy Joyce Hand, six-year-old daughter of H. L. Hand of Wastella, was claimed in a crash that involved a pick-up, a truck and a car.

Geneva Hand, 17, sister of Peggy Joyce, was taken to a Roscoe hospital suffering painful but not serious injuries. Three other girls, all sisters, in the car with the Hand girls, were slightly injured.

The accident occurred about 9:00 p. m. between Wastella and Roscoe, as the five girls, with Geneva driving, were going south after attending church at Wastella.

Men Investigated.

Three men held for investigation in connection with the accident were released Monday. O. L. Smith, who resides east of town, driver of the pick-up that was involved in the accident, was assessed a fine in justice court at Sweetwater for parking on the highway. The other men were E. T. Haney, Smith's companion, also residing east of Snyder in Scurry County, and Clyde Hampton, driver of the truck that crashed into the car occupied by the five girls.

Local officers went to the crash scene to investigate, but discovered it was in Nolan County, only a few miles from Roscoe.

According to A. O. Seale, a farmer in front of whose home the accident occurred, and who testified before an investigation board at Sweetwater Monday morning, the truck, driven by Hampton, apparently sideswiped a pick-up, occupied by Smith and Haney and apparently parked on the right side of the highway facing north, and crashed into the side of the car occupied by the girls.

Truck Carries Car.

Seale stated he reached the scene only seconds after the fatal crash and it appeared to him that the girls' car had been carried considerable distance by the truck before it was pushed into the barpit.

Local officers said the truck driver declared he averted into the Hand car when he lost control of his truck as he drove unexpectedly onto the parked pick-up.

Funeral services for Peggy Joyce were held Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at Roscoe. Besides the father, the small girl is survived by five sisters, Geneva, Gurtie Mae, Cloe, Pauline and Barbara Ann, and two brothers, Leo and Lewis. The Hand family has been living on the H. E. Bruce farm while picking cotton. The came from Ellis County.

Trailers March On.

Trailers away! Modern prairie schoolers are making great headway in Texas, judging from the increased number owned during the past 10 years. There are now 45,000, which is an increase of more than 500 per cent over those owned in 1926. Since automobiles have only increased 25 per cent, the size of this figure can be appreciated in comparison.

Physic's teacher—"Now, students, can any of you tell me what force moves people along the street?"

Long-Time Resident Of Snyder Dies in Local Home Monday

Mrs. W. E. Brack, 44, died Monday afternoon of heart trouble at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hugh Davis of Southeast Snyder, after a month's illness. She moved here from Tarrant County soon after her marriage, and called Snyder her home after that time, even though the family lived in Pecos 12 years. Born in Tarrant County as Eva O. Keller on February 14, 1893, the local woman is survived by her husband, a plumber here; three daughters, Mrs. Charles Lancaster, until recently of California, Helen and Wanda Brack; her mother, Mrs. W. L. Keller; one sister, Mrs. Davis; and three brothers, Jack, John and Jim Keller, Snyder business men. All these immediate survivors live in Snyder.

Funeral services were held at the Church of Christ here Tuesday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock, with the local minister, J. Porter Sanders, officiating. Maples Funeral Home was in charge of burial in the Snyder cemetery.

Palbearers were Ira Sturdivant, E. F. Sears, Ed W. Thompson, F. T. Wilhelm, Gay McGlaun and Hiram Roper. Doris Moffett, Wilma Terry, Dorothy Pinkerton and Louise Hardin were in charge of floral offerings.

Scarlet Fever's Increase Noted By Health Chief

Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, has just issued a warning in regard to scarlet fever, as the number of cases reported in Texas are increasing rapidly. Last year nearly 3,000 cases were reported—the majority occurring from November through February.

Scarlet fever is a very contagious and serious disease. Grown people may catch scarlet fever, but children under 15 years are most likely to have it, if exposed. It is especially dangerous for children under five years, and for babies. Do not let your children take any chances with scarlet fever. Call the doctor as soon as the symptoms appear.

If your child is going to have scarlet fever, the first signs you may notice are that he seems tired, restless and out of sorts. Usually, there is a sore throat, chill, vomiting, or convulsion. The child has fever. His skin is dry and hot. His tongue is furred, and, under this white covering, it is red and swollen. In ordinary cases, these early signs are followed in a day or two by a rash. Little flat red points, close together, appear first on the neck and chest. Soon the rash is over most of the body and brilliant in color.

The doctor is required by law to report the case to the local health officer. Do your part by following carefully the quarantine instructions which the health officer will give you. Children who have had scarlet fever, or who have been exposed, must not return to school until permission is given by the health officer and physician. A severe or fatal case of scarlet fever may develop from contact with some one who has only a light attack.

Most of Borden County's Farms Checked for '37

Ninety-five per cent of the farms in Borden County have been checked for compliance under the 1937 agricultural conservation program, and forms have been forwarded to the state board this week.

Compliance under the soil program was considerably less this year than in previous years, but a substantial amount of money will be distributed to more than half of the farmers in Borden County.

Upon approval of the compliance forms by the state board, the applications for payment will be released and sent to the county for signature of the various producers. It is hoped that 1937 payments can be released for Borden County by January 1.

Borden Officials Here.

The entire Borden County Commissioners Court and the county agent were among those in attendance at the farmers' meeting called by Representative George Mahon at Snyder last week. This group included the following: County Judge C. C. Nunnally of Gail, Commissioner Mert Patterson of Fluvanna, Commissioner John Burdett of Mesquite, Commissioner Bert Maasgill of Veslmoor, Commissioner W. C. Russell of Vincent, and County Agent E. B. McLeroy.

Mrs. King Slides and H. T. Sefton spent the week-end in Big Spring. Mrs. Slides visited with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. T. Bickley, and Mrs. Sefton was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Joe B. Neel.

Mrs. W. W. Bibbee returned home Monday from a two-week visit in Dallas and Milford. In Milford she visited with her mother, Mrs. R. L. Kearse.

USE OF PHONE DISCUSSED FOR SNYDER USERS

New Directory, Distributed This Week, Gives Tips On Telephone Use.

"Be sure you know the number. Unless you are positive, it's a good idea to look it up."

"That is tip No. 1 on telephoning as discussed in the new telephone directory, just distributed in Snyder."

In case you are afflicted with other "telephone sins," here are the other three tips on the inside cover: "Wait at least a minute, to give the person you are calling a chance to answer. He may be upstairs or in the basement, and unable to reach the telephone quickly."

Answer It Promptly. "Try to answer your telephone promptly. The person calling may decide you are not at home, and hang up. You may miss an important call."

"Make sure the receiver is on the hook when not in use. Otherwise, your telephone is 'dead'—no one can call you."

The new directory carries approximately the same number of subscribers as the book that has been in use for a number of months. J. A. Williams of Lubbock is again listed as district manager.

Now for the Names.

If you go in for name-ology, you will be interested to learn that in the A column we have a man who is All-en and a family who Ar-nett.

The B's reveal Brown Banks and Bowers, Brown-field and a Byrd, a man who is Browning, one who Beegs, another who darts to Barrett, still another with a Blak-ey, a pair of Bells and a Berry.

You can C a Cunningham, Curry the favor of a Cloud, and discover Car-gile.

In the D's we have a Dod-son and a Donald-son and a Daw-son, but if you want to be DeBald Drinkard we'll we're Dunn with the D's!

And We're Not English!

Eicke is no pikar, so he lives on the Eiland with the English, who Eades E-ly.

In the F's we find a Fish and a Fisher, plenty of Fullers, and a Fox with a Forrest.

Don't get your Gatlin gun if you make a little color rhythm out of Golden. Gray, Green and Green-field. We'll dry up on G's if you'll give us a Gross Graham (or Gray-um) cracker!

Hannabass, please! Our Harr-is standing on end for fear of the Hicks who go from Hull to Helms trying to Headstream! Holcomb you don't give us a Hood?

Short on I's and J's.

The directory is short on I's and J's. But I-I-son, Isaacs (or maybe it's Joseph-son or John-son), who will re-Joyce when we get into the K's. There's a King down among the K's. There's also Lace, Lemons.

Fluvanna Schools Net $275 as Biggest Carnival Is Staged

The Armistice Day carnival sponsored by Fluvanna schools last Thursday netted the institution over $275, according to E. O. Wedgeworth, superintendent. A full day of entertainment was offered to hundreds of attendants, who declared the event to be the best of its kind ever staged there.

John E. Sentell, Snyder lawyer, was main speaker on a morning Armistice Day program held in the school auditorium. His subject was "The World War." Daisy Nell Cavin, student, gave a discussion of the causes of the World War just before the main speaker was introduced. Group songs and numbers by the girls' coterie of the school completed the opening program of the day.

All day between programs, ball games and coronation activities, attendants enjoyed the carnival attractions. Results of the Her-leigh-Fluvanna Class C football tussle left a score of 13 to 6, favoring the visiting team. A girls' basketball game at 7:00 o'clock in the evening gave Pyron a one-point margin over the Fluvanna team. Score for the game was 13-14.

A musical program in connection with the coronation of Frances Staveley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boss Staveley, as carnival queen was presented by Fluvanna school students and instrumental-vocal trio of Lunn boys, who gave a group of numbers.

The display of fireworks on the football field late that evening was one of the most spectacular shows of the day. Interest was high also in the wrestling and boxing matches, which completed the day's entertainment for carnival-goers.

Locals to Abilene for District Meeting for FSA Plans and Reports.

Home-owned farms and home-grown food were planned at a meeting held in Abilene last Thursday, from which county representatives of the Farm Security Administration and the Extension Service have recently returned. Attending from this county were: W. R. Luce, Miss Katie Potset, Vernon Slocomb, Hugh Birdwell and Miss Willie Lusk.

The home-grown food program has put low-income farm families back on their feet throughout this part of the state, it was shown in reports from FSA supervisors, who require that borrowers produce their own living at home, and also grow adequate feed for livestock. Texas borrowers from FSA now have net assets running up to $1,000 and more per family, as compared with less than $100 two or three years ago. Ten to 25 per cent of them will pay off their loans in full this year and be able to get future financing from local banks which previously considered them ineligible.

Prospects for home ownership by tenants were explained in an address by C. M. Evans, Dallas, regional director of the Farm Security Administration. He said that for the present year, ending next July, 20 or 30 counties will be selected, and in each of these loans will be made for purchase of not less than five and not more than 10 farms. Counties will be selected by a state advisory committee.

The following year, funds now authorized by Congress will permit purchase of 450 farms, as compared with only 180 in the state this year. The third year, funds now authorized will permit purchase of 900.

"This is a very small, demonstrational beginning, to blaze a trail," Evans said. "Eventually we expect this program to be extended until every qualified tenant can become owner of the land he cultivates." The plan allows 40 years time, with interest at three per cent. Applications must be made to county committees which will be named in each of the 20 or 30 selected counties.

Quata Barrow, who is a teacher in local school, spent the week-end with her parents in Abilene.

Vera Periman spent the week-end in Lubbock, leaving Snyder Thursday and returning Sunday. The local high school home economics teacher attended the homecoming at Texas Technological College, of which she is a graduate.

Former Resident Ill. Mrs. H. A. Mullins returned home Friday from a two-week stay at the bedside of her brother, Oscar McMorris, at Tarzan, north of Stanton. McMorris, a former Scurry County resident, was improved at last report from his home.

Good Record Made By Knapp Salesman

Ben Weathers doesn't have a store from which to sell his wares, but he has made quite a record during two years of salesmanship for Zenith radios and Winchagers. He lives in the edge of Borden County, but his post office address is Knapp.

Weathers has sold between 25 and 30 each of the two types of machines—radios and wind machines—including an outfit to the Murphy school in Borden County.

A feature of the new Zenith radio is the dual hook-up, which enables the owner to use either battery or 110-volt power line.

Snyder General Hospital

Mrs. Ben Davis of Rotan, Bill Van Huss of Midland, Skinny Holmes and Woodie Halston, surgical patients of last week, were still in the hospital yesterday, as was R. L. Cochran of Goldthwaite, accident victim.

Entries in the local hospital this week include four for surgery—Mrs. J. N. Harrell of Rotan, Bud House of Ira, Jack Howard of Eunice, New Mexico, and Mrs. Doyle Kiker of Colorado—and two medical patients, J. E. Ross of Dunn and Mrs. J. L. Killian of Colorado.

Father of Foreman Dies After Illness

Chris England, long-time resident of Decatur, father of Carl England, Times mechanical foreman, died November 4 in a De-atur hospital.

The local man was called to his father's bedside shortly after the Wise County pioneer became so ill that hospitalization was necessary. Carl reached Decatur several hours before death came. Final rites were held Friday, November 5.

The Times last week overlooked this notice; regretably, in view of the publishers' long friendship with both father and son.

Infant Daughter of Former Locals Dies

Cuba Ann Ramsey, five-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilsford Ramsey of Stanton, died Sunday. Funeral services were held at Knott Monday.

Mrs. Ramsey, the former Christine Day of Snyder, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Day of Big Spring, formerly of Snyder. Local people attending the funeral included Mrs. Lann Day, J. C. Day and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gibbons.

Joe Woodfin Transferred.

Joe Woodfin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Woodfin, has been transferred from Big Spring to El Paso, where he is continuing his work with the Texas Reemployment Service.

CLASS C FLAG TO HERMLEIGH ON ARMISTICE

Cardinals Bring Aerial Game Into Play for 18-6 Defeat of Fluvanna Buffs.

Just as the Dunn Owls marred the Hermleigh home coming celebration almost a week earlier, so did the Hermleigh Cardinals on Armistice afternoon mar the Fluvanna Buffaloes' most important celebration of the year—a gigantic carnival and other attractions.

The 18-6 win at Fluvanna gave the Cards undisputed claim to the county Class C championship. Their loss to Dunn was the only one they have sustained in the county in two years of play, but Dunn early in the season lost to Fluvanna and later lost one to Hermleigh.

Thus, Fluvanna won one, lost three; Dunn won two, lost two; Hermleigh won three, lost one, in county play. Hermleigh, coached by A. C. Bishop Jr., last year took the title without a loss in its own class anywhere. Gilbert Mize is coach at Fluvanna, and C. B. Connally is Dunn coach. This is Dunn's third season, Fluvanna's and Hermleigh's second season.

The passing and running of Anderson, reserve Hermleigh back, was the biggest straw that broke the Buffaloes' back. The little fellow completed five passes out of as many tries, and intercepted the Buffs' first aerial attempt. Hanback was the Cards' best ground gainer, while Voss probably looked best in the line. For Fluvanna, Belew and Pylant looked best in the backfield, Moore in the line.

First downs favored Hermleigh, 11 to 6. Fluvanna was better in the punting department, averaging 39 yards to Hermleigh's 32. Total yardage gained was 226 by Hermleigh, 190 by Fluvanna.

Collie Fish Breaks Bulls-Eye Records

Collie Fish has done it again. The former Snyderite, brother of Earl and Walla Fish of Snyder, recently broke so many bulls-eye records in inter-club matches at Breckenridge, where he now lives, that they are threatening to sue him for damaging public property.

Collie shot perfect scores at 500 and at 200 yards, to pile up his already enviable record of shooting. The two perfect scores broke all-time records for inter-city matches at Breckenridge.

Loraine to Roscoe In Feature Mix-up

The top Class B game in West Texas this Friday will be the Roscoe-Loraine mix-up on the Plovers' field. If the Bulldogs happen to win, District 6-B will see the Bulldogs, the Plovers and the Colorado Wolves in a three-way tie for the leadership, each with a loss—but no one is anticipating that the Bulldogs, potent though they be, will be a match for Flits, Gray and company.

In the district, Roscoe has rolled over Roby 25-0, Merkel 41-0, Rotan 19-0, Colorado 26-0, and Snyder 31-13. The Wolves nosed out Loraine, 13-12, but the Bulls' whipped Snyder 13-7, Rotan 52-12 and Merkel 26-0.

Last week Roby defeated Rotan, 6-0, in the annual Fisher County duel.

Scurry Ginnings Again Pace Most Westex Returns

Lured on by near-perfect weather, Scurry County ginnings, prior to November 1, were among the West Texas topnotchers, according to government figures. The county up to that time had turned out 23,532 bales, compared with 11,327 bales for the same time in 1936.

The Texas total continued to climb far above last year, too. It was 3,663,924 bales as compared with 2,302,429 bales the previous year. No Texas county had reached 100,000 bales, although Ellis, with 97,674, Nueces with 91,455 and San Patricio with 83,580 were in that vicinity.

In West Texas, some of the figures for this year read like this: Dawson, 45,904; Dickens, 16,007; Fisher, 31,182; Garza, 15,203; Haskell, 28,508; Howard, 23,751; Jones, 46,943; Kent, 5,006; Lamb, 22,289; Lynn, 49,341; Mitchell, 22,311; Nolan, 22,241; Taylor, 27,587; Runnels, 54,649 (highest in West Texas).

TIGHT FITS between engine parts That's why mere "fast-flowing" oils get beat by WINTER OIL-PLATING How hard is it for any known oil to squirm in amongst scores of close-fitting engine parts? It's hard. Hence all Winter oil ads rightly tell you that even a worn, loosened-up engine needs extra fast oil-flow this season. Free-flowing Conoco Germ Processed oil holds records for speedy flow in any cold. And yet Conoco asks you earnestly: WHY BE SATISFIED WITH ANY FREE-FLOW ALONE, WHEN YOU CAN JUST AS EASILY HAVE THE DOUBLED INSURANCE OF AN OIL-PLATED ENGINE? Only an OIL-PLATED engine is lubricated for every cold start in advance - whole hours and days before any mere free-flowing oil can do one single wiggle! Germ Process action on every working part creates OIL-PLATING. It becomes a part of all surfaces. It cannot drain down. It stays up without interruption, forever ready to speed your starter and preserve your engine every inch of the way this Winter. Oil level stays up, too, once your Conoco Mileage Merchant puts in your correct Winter grade of Germ Processed oil. ## Outside Cotton.

It is probably that more outside cotton is coming into Snyder this year than ever before. This incoming cotton is a real asset to Snyder, for every bale that comes to town is spread among ginners, gin workers, and in other directions. Too, many of those who bring cotton to town remain to eat or perhaps to buy a few clothes, groceries or what have you.

Several factors have led to this influx of cotton. Bumper crops on the lower Plains, with resultant overflows at gins around the O'Donnell country, is the chief factor. Trucks with trailers are hauling cotton down here several bales at a time.

Factor No. 2 is that Snyder is an excellent cotton market this year, largely because ginners are cooperating with farmers and because the hog-round basis of buying has been just about taboored. Scurry County has good gins, a good oil mill . . . and, for the growers in this trade territory, facilities unsurpassed for handling government loan cotton.

If the influx of "outside" cotton continues from Borden, Fisher, Garza, Kent, Mitchell, Lynn and other counties, the actual Scurry County ginning figures for 1937 will represent several thousand bales that were raised in other counties.

And that will mean, if weather conditions continue favorable, that the total ginnings for Scurry's 14 gins may pass 50,000 bales.

Anniversary.

Most Times readers have heard by now that a fiftieth anniversary edition will be issued late this month or early next month. But the publishers are afraid that most folks do not understand the magnitude of the undertaking.

The first newspaper was established in Snyder 50 years ago. It was not The Times, of course. But The Times is a direct descendant of that rugged pioneer in a small town that had hardly lost sight of the Indians.

The anniversary edition will be bubbling over with good pictures and history of yesteryears. It will have news of today, too; and perhaps even some smattering of things to come.

If you have any records, newspapers or pictures that might throw some light on the passed and passing years, The Times will appreciate an opportunity to use them.

"Code of Practice."

"We pledge ourselves, as citizens and as business men, to conduct our business in conformity with established laws in cooperation with authorities. . . . We pledge ourselves, with all thoughtful citizens, to the promotion of practical moderation and sobriety."

No, no, dear reader, that is not the pledge of a Society for the Prevention of Law Violation. That is a portion of the pledge of the United States brewing industry.

In introduction, the brewers new "Code of Practice" proclaims: "Beer is the bulwark of moderation and sobriety." And we might add, with equal truthfulness: "Japan's war against China is the bulwark of peace and Chinese security."

Editorial of the Week.

WALL STREET SUCKERS.

Suckers on the stock market have been taking a fine cleaning the past two weeks. Those who bought on margins were wiped out, and those who bought merely hoping their prices would advance lost their shirts.

Good stocks are still good stocks, regardless of the manipulations of the gamblers of Wall Street. Poor stocks cannot be improved, even by Wall Street scheming. If you wish to play the market, buy good stocks that pay good dividends, pay for them in full, and then don't be fooled by the manipulations of the professional gamblers. The stock exchange is the greatest legalized gambling joint in the world. All of the manipulations are directed by expert gamblers in order to fleece those who put up margins, or who become scared by reduced prices.

After all, gambling never pays, unless you are big enough to control the game in which you are engaged.—The Canyon News.

The Trench Silo.

Popularity of the trench silo as a means of storing grain sorghums and other feed products of farm and ranch, is growing by leaps and bounds in West and Northwest Texas. The biggest objection just now seems to be that it is not exactly suited to the needs of the small farmer. But continued research, and continued practice, will no doubt bring a solution to this problem, as it has brought to many other vital farm problems. . . . and the trench silo will undoubtedly be an important link in the new chain of farm and ranch prosperity in a section of the country where good rainfall and good feed crops are far from certain every year.

Another Hitlerism.

Hitler says Germany is for Germans; but he evidently contests the fact that Brazil is for Brazilians, Spain for Spaniards, Nazi-ism, Communism, Fascism—take your choice, if you insist. But your head may be the price of choice.

Current Comment.

By LEON GUINN

(Publishers' Note: "Current Comment" is not necessarily the editorial opinion of The Times.)

From Dr. H. E. Barnard, research director of the National Farm Chermurgic council, we glean the timely news that the scrubby post oak trees of East Texas will be in the future a new source of plastic wood for the building industry. . . . Not only eminent researchers, but the lumber kings of Texas are vitally concerned in opening up this new frontier of added revenue for the capital and durable goods industries.

There are patchwork areas of scrubby post oak trees, and plenty of decaying post oak stumps in East Texas, that have been considered one of the last sources of fencing and firewood for tenant farmers that could be turned into another of our valuable Texas resources. . . . With the diminishing sources for obtaining plastic woods being gradually exhausted we feel that Texas can become the storehouse of the Southwest for obtaining this material known as plastic wood, which is the mainstay of cabinet work and allied woodwork in the building industry.

The Texas Planning Board, plus a number of Texas citizens, might well realize that the influence of "outside" or northern and eastern capital is the one thing that is bringing about that elusive condition known as "recovery" in the major fields of Texas business at present. . . . Just to emphasize the point nearer home, the majority of Times readers will doubtless be interested to learn that northern and eastern capital is backing the oil leasing activities right here in Scurry and Fisher Counties (not to mention Nolan, Borden and Kent).

If one has ever been in East Texas in the fall, especially in the "pine woods" belt, one realizes that here is a vast area of scrubby and forgotten timber that could well be turned into a valuable natural resource. . . . One can even smell a cordwoody breath in the morning air in certain East Texas sections, when the morning mists lift their veils to disclose a frost touched section of pines and post oaks that bode for East Texas a magnificent economic outlook; if handled by the right group of researchers and industrialists. . . . And if East Texas seems so very far removed from our own beloved West Texas, reference can be made to that chamber of commerce saw that "What Texas makes, makes Texas."

The idea is gradually being filtered throughout every Punkin' Center and Cross Roads in America that the new frontiers of tomorrow will be found in the chemist's test tubes and new uses for economic goods, rather than in the broad and rolling acres of the open field (since 80 per cent of our fertile acres are already in cultivation). . . . We are awakening to the realization that in production of things to eat and wear we "lead the world;" but in distribution we have yet a long way to go.

For instance: Texas onion raisers knocked over the high price of 50 cents a hundred pounds for onions at the fields this year; Texas cotton farmers are getting the unbelievably high price of 7.40 to 8.10 cents a pound for cotton on the open market this fall; and a hundred other products might be named. . . . And the whole problem of low prices for agricultural products boils down to this: Just so long as one-third of the nation remains ill-fed, ill-clothed, and ill-housed the main problem will be one of equitable distribution; and not production.

About one of the most intriguing cases of innocence on the loose was recorded in Baltimore last week, when a local negro was hauled before Judge Rowland K. Adams on a larceny charge. . . . Negro—"Yo honor, I wants to plead guilty, because I sho' didn't steal a thing. . . . Judge Adams—"And, er, may I ask if you know what guilty means?" . . . Negro—"Yas suh, jedge, it means I didn't do it." . . . Verdict: Acquitted.

Just to stress the point of how little we know about our own natural resources right here in West Texas, we might cite the recent case of an oil company seismograph crew in core testing some land a mile and a half east of the Midway filling station. . . . At a core test depth of 45 feet a three foot strata of coal was struck; which indicates the near presence of pitch-blend and petroleum in some of its hydrocarbons forms.

The strata of coal wasn't traced out to map its probable area or deposit extent, but if a lot of this seismograph information were made available to an aggressive group of far sighted "planning boards," those local year round industries The Times has been gunning for the last 10 years could indeed become matter of fact realities. . . . We still believe in the truism of a certain New York City capitalist that "if the natural resources of West Texas were fully developed and utilized, it would be one of the most prosperous sections of So Big Texas."

A Timely Suggestion.

That nearly 5,000,000 persons are members of the Red Cross is evidence of their faith in the organization. Why do so many citizens join annually, year in and year out, without any desire for or expectancy of return from their dollars? The only explanation is that there's many a spark of kindness in most American breasts, despite the wall of pessimists to the contrary.

A lot of people think that figures can be made to prove anything, including a success on the screen.—Dallas News.

Fitts and Gray Do Not Observe Holiday Nov. 11

Fitts and Gray, Roscoe Plowboys' backfield axes, did not observe a holiday on November 11. Instead, they paraded their own football field to lead their team mates to a 31-13 victory over the Snyder Tigers.

A number of local fans saw the Tigers drop behind at the half, 18 to 0, then come back with a vim to run up two touchdowns on passes while the farmers were making the same number of tallies. It was Autry, lanky end, whose glue-fingered pass catching helped pull the Tigers within seeing distance. Smith did most of the passing.

SI Addington describes the game like this, in the Abilene Reporter-News:
Fitts Starts Fireworks.
Haliback Fitts gave the Plowboys the lead when the center handed the pigskin to him, and he whirled around right end 12 yards for the score. The next score came when Gray started around left end, fumbled, picked up the ball and interference for 65 yards. The next score was in the second quarter by Fitts again after a long run by him and short plunges by Emerson and Gray put the ball in scoring position.

It wasn't until the second half that the Tigers opened their attack. They covered a Roscoe fumble on the 25 yard line. A nine yard pass, Smith to Autry, pass snagging end, and a five yard plunge by Fullback Tate put the ball on the 16 yard line. Then they pulled a sneaker. A Plowboy jumped offside, and the ball was snapped. Quarterback Strayhorn received the ball and calmly ran through the Roscoe team which was waiting for the referee to penalize them.

Then just to prove they were in the ball game and still had tricks, they pulled the screen pass that Stephens used to score on Abilene. The pass, Smith to Tate, carried to the 12, another pass, Smith to Autry, carried the ball to the three yard line, and Tate finally scored after three tries. Smith kicked goal, making the score 18 to 13.

Plowboys Pull Trick.
The Plowboys then pulled another trick out of the bag. On the kickoff they gathered in a huddle, and suddenly Gray came running. He was finally stopped on the 50. A series of plays took them to the 20 yard line, where they pulled the age-old hide-out and Fitts scored after taking the pass from Emerson, Roscoe quarterback.

Fitts then intercepted a pass and ran to the five yard line, where Gray took the helm and finally scored in two attempts.

As an anti-climax players on each team tangled on the field as the game ended, almost causing a gang fight.

First downs were 15 to 14 in Roscoe's favor. They threw only one pass and it was incomplete. Snyder threw 31, completing 13. Roscoe was penalized five times for 95 yards and Snyder twice for 30 yards.
