NOVEMBER 30 PART PAYMENT TAX DEADLINE

Car Tags for 1938 Received by Tax Collector's Office; To Be Used February 1.

Tax Assessor - Collector Bernard Longbotham wants to remind county folks again that November 30 is the final day to make a split payment on current taxes.

This move, Deputy Herman Darby points out, is purely a voluntary effort, and gives county taxpayers a chance to pay one-half of their 1937 taxes now and the rest by June 30, 1938, without any penalties.

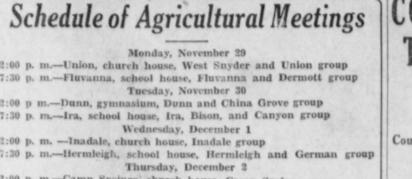

The new car tags for 1938 have been received at the tax collector's office, but can not be put on by local cars until February 1. The tags have a white background, with black numbers. This corresponds with state highway signs, and leaves officials to guess if the color motif was not more than a coincidental matter.

New tag numbers run about 75,000 higher than for 1937, which indicates an "anticipated increase" in motor vehicles for Texas next year. The new tags are about one inch wider than the 1937 tags, and with the white background are more easily readable than the yellow and black color scheme.

County Agent W. R. Lace Believes County Should Be Ready For 1938 Program.

With Congress now in session at Washington, County Agent W. R. Lace believes now is the time for the farmers and ranchers of the county to be thinking of their comnunty committeemen for 1938. "The idea is," reports Lace, "for Scurry County to be on the firing line when our 1938 program is completed."

Congressmen will probably rewrite the 1938 agricultural bill late this week, and it is necessary, Lace further states, that the community committeemen be ready to start the

TO FIGHT BOLL WORM THREAT Department of Agriculture Men Here

COUNTY URGED

ISSUE 25 NUMBER 25

Wednesday to Investigate the Cotton Pest Inroads.

Cooperation of ginners and farmers in keeping this area free of the pink boll worm, destructive to cotton crops, was urged here Wednesday by W. H. Gohmert and T. P. Mapes of the U.S. Department of Agriculture station at Lubbock.

Fourteen counties to the north and west of Snyder have been guarantined because of the boll worm menace. They are Bailey, Lamb, Hockley, Terry, Gaines, Dawson, Martin, Howard, Ector, Yoakum, Andrews, Midland and Glasscock, and the cotton on the yards at O'Donnell, Lynn County,

The Wednesday visitors investigated the possibility of pink boll worm infestation in Scurry County, but it is reported that they found no trace of the pests.

Fear was expressed by the two Lubbock men and by local officials that attempts would be made to transport some of the cotton out of the quarantined areas into this section for ginning and sales, thus spreading the insect.

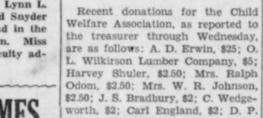

They requested that farmers, ginners and buyers keep a sharp lookout for cotton from the infested

The Big Spring Weekly News last week said, in reporting that three ginners from that area went into the Big Bend territory recently to discover just what damage the pest did in that area:

"If you want some information on pink boll worm damage in the Big Bend area, contact any of these men and permit them to tell you just what they saw in the cotton the program, which came between fields where the crop has been reduced more than 50 per cent due to pink boll worm activity." The visitors from Lubbock said present indications are that the pests of the First Methodist Church, and are marching northward in ever-Mrs. Gordon was accompanist for increasing numbers, even with strict group singing of "America" follow- control measures in force. Warning Against Overheating Put Out By Dr. Cox

"With colder weather on its way to Texas, it's time to think about home temperatures during the winter months," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"There is evidence that thousands of homes are constantly over-heated during the winter. In fact, many families tolerate an indoor temperature during the colder months to which they would and do strenuously object in the summer. Such persons are not only uneconomical with their fuel supply, but are endangering their health as well," Dr. Cox continued.

"People living in homes with overheated temperatures become soft, the system is weakened and is at a decided disadvantage in defending itself against the sudden change from a too great intramural heat to the penetrating cold.

"Consequently colds, bronchial troubles and pneumonia, taking adwantage of the situation, step in and do much unnecessary, and not infrequently, fatal damage. You will agree that this is entirely too high a price to pay for a few extra degrees of unneeded heat.

"We all know families who are starting on their annual scourge of colds and sore throats. But this does not alter their affinity for super-heat. They ignore the fact that 68 to 70 degrees is the best temperature. A thermometer kept within that range, plus proper humidity, is a definite safe-guard. We need that safe-guard. What does your thermometer read?"

HE LOVED BEAUTY

My father loved all flowers. He spaded the soil, planted the seeds, With hose supplied the showers,

Lifted their heads to the sky, Love made them grow so fast,

With promise of bloom by and by. He sleeps now 'neath the sod, Roses bloom o'er his lowly bed, He loved all nature so, O God, I cannot think of him as dead. -May Stevenso Isaacs, Canadian

Sunday school was not very well attended Sunday. We invite all to attend.

Wedding bells rang Sunday night, when Nevelin Milson, son of W. O. Milson of this community, and Syble Flippin. daughter of W. H. Flippin of Turner, were married at the Arah church. Rev. Cecil Rhodes of Pleasant Hill performed the ceremony. Several from here attended the carnival that was in Snyder last week.

Those who visited in the W. O. Milson home Sunday were Gene Freeley, Syble, Ray and Harold Flippin and La Verne Griffin of Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Berry of Union.

A large crowd was present Sunday night for singing and the wedding. Tommy O'Neal of Colorado sang and played the fiddle and guitar. Several visitors were present from Union, Turner, Gail and Bison. We invite all of you to come back, for we have singing every Sunday night. The box supper was well attended Friday night.

What is big business, anyway? And what does big business do for or against this country of ours? These questions are pertinent for Scurry County folks, for most of us at one time or another have industries to help tide us over the drouthy years.

They are pertinent, too, because there is little question but that Scurry County and Snyder, in the past and in the present, have slept at the switch in the matter of getting new industries. Nor have we given enough appreciation to the industries that are with us.

How many persons have ever stopped to realize has meant to Snyder and surrounding territory since and narrow necked legs. . . . And it means fresh pork of Colorado, Jack Howard of Eunice it was established almost 30 years ago?

of one; a major West Texas truck line; two good bakeries; major cattle breeders; and several comparatively small but nevertheless worth-while businesses mine a little nook of heaven. that keep money circulating in this area?

Along this line of thought comes another question: What about the value of big business to the United States as a whole?

Big business, regulated with care, has kept the United States in the prosperity parade. Our financial and economic condition in the heart of the depression was much better than that of most European countries in the heart of prosperity. Private enterprise will proud to keep among your treasured papers; and will nesday. always make for greater prosperty than dictatorships and over-regulation and systematization by government. Give us-Scurry County and the nation-more big business of the right caliber!

SET UP STANDARDS.

Next spring 50 Texans will be on the ballot for state senator, 75 for congress, 100 for state offices; 200 for judgeships, 500 for membership in the House, and about 10,000 for county, district and local offices.

In the primaries, the citizens who pay the cost of the offices can choose only between those on the ticket.

Now is the only really decisive time for Texans to do anything about the choice of their officials, and that is in the selection of those who should run. Otherwise, less than one per cent of the citizenship will determine the limits of choice of the other 99.

Selection of suitable candidates can be but an informal process; but the definite and positive stand taken by enough representative, substantial and informed citizens can have a lot to do with it.

The people whom candidates will want to serve, the victors will be chosen to serve, can set up their own standards of the type of service they want, and serve notice that the mere desire to get on the public payroll will not be enough.
