THREE BORDEN COUNTY RACES ARE REPORTED

County Chairman Sam Keen and Committee Complete Ballot for July 23

Final political report from County Democratic Chairman Sam Keen and his executive committee indicates that Borden County will have only three contested races in county and precinct.

Keenest interest is in the sheriff's race, in which Sid Reeder, present deputy, is opposed by George E. Martin, present county treasurer.

C. V. Burdette, commissioner in Precinct 1, is opposed for reelection by W. M. Stephens. In Precinct 2, Bert Massingill, incumbent, is opposed by Alvin Jackson.

Sandidates in District. All district candidates are the same as in Scurry County, as follows: 32nd Judicial District attorney George W. Outlaw, Zolie C. Steakley and Truett Barber; congressman, 19th District, George Mahon; state representative, 118th District, C. L. Harris and Joe A. Merritt.

All unopposed county candidates are now in office except Waldon Wills, who seeks the commissioner's job in Precinct 4. Mert Patterson, who is not seeking reelection, is the incumbent. Mrs. Ruby Covey, lone candidate for treasurer, is now serving as sheriff.

Other candidates are as follows: Miss Maggie Williams, county and district clerk; C. C. Nunnally, county judge and school superintendent; justice of the peace, A. J. Cantrell; commissioner, Precinct 3, W. C. Russell.

Returns from Borden.

Plans are being made for gathering complete election returns at Gall on election night, and posting them on a bulletin board there. They will be phoned to Snyder, and The Times will provide Gall folks with Scurry County, state and district returns. If complete returns from Borden County are gathered election night, the Times election extra will be delivered to Gall without charge early Sunday morning, July 24.

Boxes in Borden County, by precincts, are as follows: Precinct 1, Gall, Tredway; Precinct 2, Grape Creek, Vealmoor, Ackley; Precinct 3, Durham, Willow Valley, Murphy; Precinct 4, Miller, Snellings.

POLITICS FEST SLATED LATER

County candidates, meeting in the courthouse Tuesday, decided not to conduct a Snyder political rally until a few days before the first primary, July 23.

Tentative plans for a local rally Saturday night of this week were announced in The Times last week, but most of the candidates decided on a later date.

Hundreds of voters and others are expected in Snyder for the rally, since it will be the final public appearance, before the election, of most of the candidates.

Special License to Hospital in Snyder

A special license has been granted to Snyder General Hospital to conduct and maintain a maternity division, it was learned this week.

The local hospital was inspected recently by the division of material and child health, which operates under the Texas Department of Health, of which Dr. George W. Cox is director, and full approval of its maternal and child service and equipment is the result of this inspection.

This is the only hospital in this area of West Texas that has been given such a license.

Name Omitted

The name of Mollie Church Pinkerton, candidate for county treasurer, was omitted from the list of certified candidates published in The Times last week.

The omission was entirely a typographical error on the part of The Times, as Mrs. Pinkerton was certified by the county Democratic executive committee, and her name was included on the list submitted by Committee Chairman A. C. Preullit.

Reading of the article in which candidates' names were given would reveal that Mrs. Pinkerton's name was not included among those who withdrew at the last minute. However, omission of the name naturally caused considerable comment. The Times trusts that the omission will in no way injure Mrs. Pinkerton's candidacy.

Leads Revival

In the Church of Christ pulpit for the revival services that will continue from Wednesday, July 6, through Sunday, July 17, will be Fred McClung, above, well known Ft. Worth minister and revivalist. Members of the congregation are planning an area-wide meeting that will attract hundreds.

COUNTY ADDS ANOTHER 1938 CRASH VICTIM

John M. Wilson of Sweetwater Dies When Car Plunges From Road

Another 1938 highway victim was added to Scurry County death records Friday night.

John M. Wilson, 44, Sweetwater insurance man, was dead in his partly submerged car when discovered at 8:30 o'clock Saturday morning by a passing motorist, four miles southeast of Snyder, state Highway 7.

His body was entirely submerged in water in the 12-foot creek into which his car plunged after it left the road just before it reached the bridge. The car stopped on its top in mud and water, after hurtling through space about 35 feet.

Left Snyder Friday, Wilson left Snyder about 9:30 o'clock Friday night, while it was raining moderately. Officers who investigated the accident believe he was blinded by the rain as he rounded the downward curve in the highway just before reaching the bridge. His left eye was deeply gashed, and the skull was considerably bruised. P. E. Davenport, justice of the peace, who served as coroner, determined that these wounds were the cause of death. Wilson was driving a 1936 Ford coupe.

The Wilson car plunged into the creek within a few feet of where Gradon Burt's car landed in a fatal plunge last year. The accidents were quite similar, except that Wilson was leaving Snyder and Burt was coming toward Snyder.

District manager for an insurance firm in Sweetwater for the past six months, Wilson was a wholesale oil and gas commission agent prior to that time. Before he moved to Sweetwater 15 months ago he had lived in Rotan 15 years. He was a Mason and a steward in the Methodist Church.

The body was brought to Snyder by Maples Funeral Home. Funeral rites were conducted at Rotan Saturday afternoon, with Weathersbee Funeral Home of Rotan in charge of burial in the cemetery there.

Surviving are Mrs. Wilson, two sons, J. M. Jr. and Fred Allen; three brothers, Arthur of Winters, Willie and Leon of Ft. Worth; one sister, Mrs. Pearl Black, Ft. Worth.

Tech Teacher Will Fill Church Pulpit

Dr. W. F. Fry, teacher of Bible in Texas Tech, Lubbock, will speak at five services in the Union community this week-end, according to Rev. J. F. Fields, pastor of the Union Baptist Church. People from Union and adjoining communities are invited to hear the visiting speaker.

Services will be held Friday night, Saturday morning and Saturday night, Sunday morning and Sunday night. "Songs of Solomon," title of a recent book written by Dr. Fry, will probably be the basis of the Bible talks.

Split-Payment Tax Money Is Due Today

Today (Thursday) is the final day for property owners to make the last half payments on split taxes, according to Assessor-Collector Bernard Longbottom.

Unusually good payment of these split taxes is reported by Longbottom, but several of those who made first-half payments have reached the deadline without "settling up" for the final 1937 payment.

REVIVAL TO BE CONDUCTED BY LOCAL CHURCH

Youthfully Zealous Fred McClung Leads Church of Christ July 6-17

Fred McClung of Ft. Worth, youthfully but zealous evangelist of the Church of Christ, will be in the local pulpit for a summer revival that will begin Wednesday, July 6, and continue through Sunday, July 17.

Leaders of the congregation four blocks east of the square, on the highway, declare the 28-year-old minister is one of the outstanding evangelists of the Church of Christ.

He has done work with some of the best churches in Alabama, Arkansas, Missouri and Texas, and has conducted meetings with as many as 60 to 100 baptized and restored. He has his B. S. degree from Ablett Christian College, has taught school in Texas and Arkansas, and is now doing local work with his second congregation in Ft. Worth.

"The Church of Christ invites you to hear Bro. McClung in the open-air revival, starting Wednesday night," declares the minister, O. D. Dial. "Come and bring your friends."

Midway Planning Mitchell-Scurry Meeting July 12

Under the leadership of their pastor, Rev. Buster Edwards, members of the Midway Baptist Church, 15 miles east of Snyder, are making plans to entertain their first monthly workers' meeting of the Mitchell-Scurry Baptist Association in several years.

The July meeting will be held Tuesday, July 12, beginning at 10:00 a. m. with a song service led by Lawrence Deavers. Rev. George Lloyd of Big Sulphur will lead the devotional, and Rev. R. E. Bratton of Ira will discuss "The Need of Deacons."

Rev. E. L. Redder, new pastor at Westbrook, will talk on "Why Baptists Practice Close Communion." Rev. Murray Fuqua, Fluvanna pastor, will discuss "Contending for the Faith." After special music, Rev. Ira Harrison of Snyder will preach the special morning sermon. Midway folks are making plans for an old-fashioned dinner. The board and W. M. S. meetings will follow the dinner, and Deavers will lead another song service. Rev. J. A. Strickland, Big Spring, district missionary, will talk on "The Sunday School as an Evangelistic Agency." After another special song, Rev. G. W. Parks of Roscoe will deliver the final sermon, "Roses Among the Thorns."

All-Day Program at Ira Baptist Church Slated Next Sunday

It will be young people's day at the Ira Baptist Church Sunday, July 3, with an all-day program to which young and old of Ira and surrounding communities are invited.

This announcement, made Monday by Rev. R. E. Bratton, pastor, indicates that the program will include at least three visiting speakers: Rev. J. W. McGaha, veteran county minister; Rev. Orland Cary, young county minister; Rev. Ira Harrison, pastor of the Snyder Baptist Church; and H. L. Wren of Snyder, district president of Baptist churches.

The special program will begin immediately after Sunday school. "Every feature will be arranged especially for young people," according to Rev. Bratton.

Dinner will be served on the ground. Following the afternoon program, night services will include a Baptist Training Union program and a special message by the pastor.

SEMINOLE SITE OF ROAD MEET

Annual convention of the East-West Highway Association will be held in Seminole July 15, according to announcement made this week by Sam Richardson of Lamesa, president of the association.

Snyder will be among towns from all along the route to have substantial delegation, according to Forest Sears, president of the Scurry County Chamber of Commerce. Snyder sent the largest delegation of any town on the route to the 1937 convention.

Victor L. Minter of Carlsbad is New Mexico secretary for the association, and A. G. Bearden of Lamesa is the Texas secretary.

To Gettysburg

G. M. D. GARNER

LEON GUINN

Scurry County's only Civil War veteran, G. M. D. Garner, above, left Monday morning for Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, where he will attend the probably final gathering of those who fought in the war between the states. Accompanying him is Leon Guinn of Camp Springs, Times staff writer, below. Guinn will furnish The Times and other West Texas newspapers with close-up news of the blue-and-gray reunion.

VETERAN GOES TO GETTYSBURG

For many men and women, three score years and ten is the trail's end, as far as activity and hope are concerned.

Not so for G. M. D. Garner, Scurry County's only Civil War veteran. When he boarded a Monday morning train bound for Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, he was entering a new stage in life—a stage 27 years beyond the proverbial three-score-ten. The 97-year-old veteran was headed for probably the last reunion of war-between-the-states soldiers. All of the warriors are in their nineties now, and their ranks are so thin that another get-together will probably be impossible.

Attendant to Mr. Garner is Leon Guinn, Times staff writer, who will furnish news of the trip to The Times and to several other West Texas newspapers. Expenses of both men, and of all other veterans and their attendants, are paid by the federal government.

The Gettysburg reunion of Union and Confederate veterans commemorates the seventy-fifth anniversary of the major Civil War battle.

Mr. Garner saw service from 1861 to 1865 in Company C, 32nd Tennessee Infantry.

The local reunion delegates went on the northern route to Southern Pennsylvania. They followed the Santa Fe to Chicago, by way of Amarillo; on the Baltimore & Ohio from Chicago, through West Maryland and on to Gettysburg. They were scheduled to reach the reunion city at 5:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The reunion, which includes a number of side trips at government expense, will continue through Wednesday, July 6. Mr. Garner and Guinn are scheduled to return to Snyder about July 12.

F. T. Wilhelm, veteran groceryman, announced yesterday that his Hande-Dande store, east side of the square, will be reopened at the old location Saturday morning of this week, after a shutdown since last month.

A new stock of merchandise is being stocked, according to Wilhelm.

Work on Highway 15

Cage Brothers was awarded contract by the highway commission last week for 7.2 miles of cut-back asphaltic concrete leveling-up course and seal coat on Highway 15 from Breckenridge east.

LARGER PRIZE POT TO BE PUT UP FOR RODEO

Literature for Second Annual Event, August 19-20, Being Distributed

More prize money, more special events and improved chutes and grandstands are among drawing cards for the second annual rodeo of the Scurry County Rodeo Association, scheduled at Wolf Park August 19 and 20.

Prize lists and placards for the event are being distributed during the Fourth of July holidays at various rodeos and celebrations, and many more pieces of literature will go into dozens of West Texas communities within the next two weeks.

At a meeting of the association stockholders several days ago, J. M. Stewart was reelected as president, H. H. Eiland was made secretary, treasurer and J. C. Dorward was made vice president. Directors are R. C. Miller Jr., George Parks, Leise Adams and Joe York.

York, named for the second year as arena director, says stock is being contracted.

With rodeo plans being made so far in advance, and with more money, more contests and better equipment, the officers and directors are looking forward to a rodeo even more successful than their initial effort in 1937.

ABSENT VOTE CASTERS MAY GET BALLOTS

Many Vacationers, Others Planning to Take Part in Absentee Voting

Absentee votes for the July 23 primary may be cast beginning Sunday, July 3, and ending Tuesday, July 19, three days before the election, reminds County Clerk Clark J. Lewis. Since the third falls on Sunday, and July 4 is a holiday, Tuesday, July 5, will be the actual day for the beginning of absentee voting.

Many vacationers and others plan to cast their ballots before they leave or while they are away from the county, as indicated by more than a dozen applications for ballots that have already been filed with the county clerk.

Application for an absentee ballot must be sworn to before a notary public or any officer authorized to administer oaths. The poll tax receipt must accompany the application. In case the ballot is personally applied for at the clerk's office, the application may be sworn to there.

The ballots, turned over to The Times this week by County Chairman A. C. Preullit, will be printed this week-end. Names of 102 state, district, county and precinct candidates will be included.

Important dates on the June-July official calendar are as follows: July 23-28, first campaign expense accounts must be filed; July 3-19, absentee voting; July 23, first primary.

Farmers to Cheese Plant at Plainview

A Loraine school bus, carrying 25 farmers, passed through Snyder Wednesday morning. It was en route to Plainview, where that area's plants for dispensing of milk and cream at a profit were investigated.

In the group were included two Irans, P. A. Miller and J. E. Weir. Ira will have a meeting Monday night for discussion of Loraine's proposal to build a cooperative cheese plant that would draw cream from a wide territory, including much of Scurry County.

Colorado Legislator Home From Capital

George Mahon, congressman from this 19th District, with his wife and daughter, Daphne, arrived at their home in Colorado from Washington late Monday. He has opened his district office in the Thompson and Barber Building at Colorado.

Mahon's secretary, Lloyd Croslin, and his assistant, George Witten, arrived in Colorado Saturday. They are in charge of the Colorado office. Mahon said that although he's feeling fine he is anxious to get out in the country and get his feet wet. He plans to visit in Snyder in a few days.

On Job in a Hurry!

Leon Guinn, who is attendant to G. M. D. Garner, Civil War veteran who is headed for Gettysburg, got on his writing job in a hurry. He was called to Washington Monday by "Several vets are already leaving over old days. The Lubbock and Amarillo papers are carrying group pictures Tuesday."

Saturday Meeting To Talk Products Show

CIVIL DOCKET TOPS DISTRICT COURT CASES

District court promises little excitement this summer term, which opened Monday, except for a few civil cases of more than usual importance.

A final report has not been made by the grand jury, which has been in lengthy session, according to J. P. Billingsley, district clerk. Five indictments were returned late Wednesday.

A suit for damages for $70,000, J. H. Bucket vs. H. L. Galyean, et al, is set for July 5. A mistrial resulted when this case was heard at the last session. Also set for next week is a division of estate case, Florence Garner, et al, vs. Mary Ford.

Mose Walls vs. Republic Underwriters, suit to cancel written instrument, is slated to be heard before District Judge A. S. Mauzey Monday, July 11. This date, beginning of the third week of court, is set aside primarily as criminal week, but the criminal docket will probably be light unless a large number of indictments are returned by the grand jury.

Two other civil cases of importance are pending: E. D. DeShazo, et al, vs. R. W. Webb, Scurry County attorney, suit to contest Camp Springs school election, 1936; W. O. Milson, et al, vs. Calvin Ream, et al, suit for damages, $7,500.

LOCAL STORES CLOSE MONDAY

July 4, one of the few holidays on which Snyder observes Sunday-like closing, will find all major firms in the business district closed for the day. The bank will of course observe a full holiday.

Postmaster Warren Dodson says the only service rendered at the post office will be placing of mail in rent boxes. Since practically all business houses will be closed, there will be no delivery in the business district, as on some holidays.

Snyder folks will observe Independence Day in a variety of ways. Many of them will trek to Stamford, Big Spring and other rodeo-entertainment sites. Picnicking will be a major attraction if the weather is fair. Snyder Country Club members and guests will have their annual contests and picnic at the golf course.

E. H. Lilly Comes To C. of C. Position

Taking his place as secretary-manager of the Scurry County Chamber of Commerce Friday, July 1, is E. H. Lilly, who resigned a similar place at Crosbyton in order to come to Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Lilly came to Snyder early this week, and located in an apartment in the old Dr. A. O. Scarborough home.

First meeting of the board of directors with the new official will be Friday night of this week, announces President Forest Sears.

AAA Field Man Here To Get Acquainted

In Snyder Monday was J. W. Doak, chief field assistant for AAA over 39 West Texas counties. He was visiting the local county agent's office to get acquainted with the local force and county AAA conditions.

The former assistant agent in Tom Green County for four years plans to visit Scurry County often from his headquarters at College Station.

WOMEN READY FOR IRA RALLY

With politics getting hotter daily and with the women of Ira Home Demonstration Club planning one of the community's most lively gatherings in years, candidates and other visitors are promised plenty of activity at the pie supper and rally Friday night of this week.

The rally-auction will be held in the tabernacle. Funds derived from the pie sale will be spent for wiring the community tabernacle and to help carry on club work.

Meets Friends

Meeting many old-time friends in Snyder Sunday and Monday was E. B. Barnes, former Snyder newspaper publisher and postmaster. He is a candidate for state treasurer. He was accompanied by his 24-year-old son, George, who is assisting him in his state-wide campaign. The former Snyder residents were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Monroe while in town.

THIS IS AMONG BEST YEARS IN WHEAT YIELDS

Seventy-Four Carloads Are Shipped; Several More Due This Week

In spite of late freeze and spots of drought, in spite of hail and wind, Scurry County this year is harvesting one of the best wheat crops in her history.

This fact is proven beyond doubt by a check-up of railroad shipping records.

A total of 74 carloads has already been shipped from the county this year. Inadequate, which has heretofore shipped on a small scale or not at all, leads to date with 34 cars Snyder trails with 21 cars. Fluvanna has 11, and Hermleigh has 8.

While the Inadale crop is practically out, and Hermleigh has only a small amount to harvest, Snyder is no more than about two-thirds through, and Fluvanna promises to ship several more cars. Thus, under prevailing conditions, county shipments will run more than 100 cars.

All county records were broken in 1937, when total shipments were 155 cars—45 from Snyder and the remainder from the other three shipping points. RS&P Agent A. C. Preullit says the shipments from Snyder alone totaled 103,357 bushels or 62,014,435 pounds.

Second Highest Total. If more than 100 cars are shipped from the county this season, it will be the second time on record that the 100 mark has been passed.

In 1934 Snyder shipped 13 cars, 4 cars in 1935, and 8 cars in 1936. In these years, Snyder was the principal buying point, and in at least one year it was the only buying point in the county.

This year's comparatively heavy shipments are made largely because of increased acreage, since the per-acre yield, on the average, has been low.

Ice Cream Freezing Unit for Browning's

Mills super freezer is the name of the new ice cream freezing machine installed first of the week by Browning Food Market, three blocks north of the square. And to prove that the contraption will really do what it is supposed to, Brooks and Hollis Browning, proprietors, have turned out many a pint of cream and sherbet since the installation.

Large storage compartments for keeping the cream at proper temperatures are part of the new equipment. A special section of the store has been arranged to house the new machine.

Members of Snyder Country Club, with their families and guests, will gather at the club grounds Monday evening, July 4, 6:00 o'clock, for their annual basket picnic.

Go-fing and swimming will be enjoyed throughout the day, with the kiddies' wading pool as an added attraction this year. Golfing, swimming and other contests will be staged during the afternoon.

BOOSTERS OF FARM, TOWN IN JOINT EFFORT

It will be the first gathering of its kind in Scurry County in recent years—that county-wide meeting in the district court room Saturday afternoon, 3:30 o'clock.

Continued—and widespread demand for a Fall Products Show or County Fair resulted in the Saturday meeting. Farm and ranch men and women, business men and women, civic clubs and business organizations throughout the county have requested the gathering for the purpose of making definite plans for a show later in the year.

To farmers and ranchers a circular letter is being sent by Luke Ballard, county agent, and Estella Rabal, home demonstration agent. The letter says in part:

"This is your meeting and will be your show, if and when you decide to have it. Come and bring your neighbor."

In a letter to members of the Scurry County Chamber of Commerce, President Forest Sears said: "The social and economic welfare of our people depends on the welfare of our farm and livestock interests. . . . We must demonstrate that our intentions are sincere, and your presence at this meeting is one of the first steps toward showing it."

SPONSOR WILL GO TO REUNION

Representing Snyder at the Texas Cowboy Reunion at Stamford July 4, 5 and 6 will be Julia Mae McDonnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McDonnell, granddaughter of J. Wright Moorar, first white settler in Scurry County.

A student in Snyder High School, Julia Mae spends much of her time on the Moorar ranch northwest of Snyder, where she has learned to be an expert housewoman. She will be accompanied to Stamford by her mother.

Miller Brothers Ranch, Borden County, will send its last year's sponsor, Elizabeth Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miller. She won second place at Stamford last year.

The Snyder sponsor will go to Stamford under joint sponsorship of the Scurry County Chamber of Commerce and the Scurry County Rodeo Association.

Party, Pie Supper At Pyron Thursday

Home Demonstration and Four-H Clubs of Pyron are sponsoring a community party and pie supper at the gymnasium this (Thursday) night. Proceeds will be used for sending a girl to the Farmers' Short Course and for the benefit of the Woman's Club Fund.

"There will be fun for everyone," declares a woman leader. "All are invited, including candidates and their friends."

Collier to Tech School. Maurice Collier, cleaner at Graham & Martin tailor shop, was Snyder representative at the semi-annual cleaners school held last week-end at Texas Tech, Lubbock. He took special courses in spotting and leather cleaning during the two-day school. Outstanding specialists of the country were instructors at the short course, sponsored by the federal government.

Yoder Daughters Return for Summer

Miss Ruth Yoder and her fiancé, Henry von der Hoff, arrived late last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Yoder. They came directly from San Antonio, where both took examinations for practicing chiropody in Texas. They graduated recently from the Illinois College of Chiropody, Chicago, with the degree of D. S. C. (Doctor of Surgical Chiropody).

Several days earlier Miss Virginia Yoder, student in the Chicago college, arrived to spend the summer with her parents. The Yoder-von der Hoff marriage ceremony is to be held August 12 in the Yoder home here.

The rites were performed by O. D. Dial, minister of the Snyder Church of Christ, at the home of Mrs. Ira Sturdivant, mother of the bridegroom, in East Snyder. Only members of the immediate families were present.

The bride wore a sheer navy frock with white accessories, and her traveling frock was green with rainbow accessories. The couple left immediately for Carlsbad Caverns, Cloudfcroft and points of interest in Old Mexico and Texas. They will be at home here, 223 25th Street.

Mrs. Sturdivant is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Vest of the Hermleigh community, formerly of the Hobbs community in Fisher County. She is a 1937 graduate of Hobbs High School and former Times correspondent from the Hobbs community.

Mr. Sturdivant attended Snyder High School, and is well known in the younger set of the town.

Sweethearts since their high school days, the couple was graduated together in the class of 1936 from Hardin-Simmons University. Possessor of a dramatic mezzo-soprano voice of unusual timbre and beauty, Miss Jenkins took stellar roles in musical activities of the school. Completing her work on a bachelor of arts degree with music major in three years, she continued her musical studies under Lola Gibson-Deaton last year and was presented last spring in senior voice recital. She was music supervisor last year at the Locust Street School, Abilene.

The Dermott-Martin WHD Club met with Mrs. Allen Stephens June 15 for an all-day quilting. Five members of Dermott and seven members of Martin were present. Mrs. Brown of Dermott, a new member, Mrs. J. D. Mitchell of Gail was a guest.

The club meets Wednesday afternoon, July 6, with Mrs. M. A. Davis. Miss Rabel will be present. All members please have the friendship quilt back with us at that time.

Mrs. Morris Haynes and son, Morris Jr., are visiting their husband and father, employee of Irwin Drug Store. Mrs. Haynes, former Western Union operator here, is now operator at the Seymour office.

Several guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. West in East Snyder returned to their homes Monday after visiting here a few days. The visitors were Mrs. C. S. Reynolds and daughter, Bobbie West, Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Cotten and daughter, Chiquita, Aransas Pass.

Guests of Mrs. A. M. Curry early this week were: Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Curry of Blanket; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Curry and daughter, Marjorie, San Angelo; Mrs. C. S. Coleman, Miles; and Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie of Dallas.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUBS

Estelita Rabel, County Home Demonstration Agent

Tri-Community Club.
The Tri-Community Home Demonstration Club met last Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Elmer Evans, with Miss Estelita Rabel, home demonstration agent, present.

It was decided that each member will be asked to bring a dozen eggs to the next club meeting, scheduled July 6 at Mrs. Eugene Gladson's home. The good neighbor committee reported several visits made in the interest of the club. The recreation committee was asked to submit plans for a family picnic.

Yoder Daughters Return for Summer

Miss Ruth Yoder and her fiancé, Henry von der Hoff, arrived late last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Yoder. They came directly from San Antonio, where both took examinations for practicing chiropody in Texas. They graduated recently from the Illinois College of Chiropody, Chicago, with the degree of D. S. C. (Doctor of Surgical Chiropody).

Several days earlier Miss Virginia Yoder, student in the Chicago college, arrived to spend the summer with her parents. The Yoder-von der Hoff marriage ceremony is to be held August 12 in the Yoder home here.

The rites were performed by O. D. Dial, minister of the Snyder Church of Christ, at the home of Mrs. Ira Sturdivant, mother of the bridegroom, in East Snyder. Only members of the immediate families were present.

The bride wore a sheer navy frock with white accessories, and her traveling frock was green with rainbow accessories. The couple left immediately for Carlsbad Caverns, Cloudfcroft and points of interest in Old Mexico and Texas. They will be at home here, 223 25th Street.

Mrs. Sturdivant is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Vest of the Hermleigh community, formerly of the Hobbs community in Fisher County. She is a 1937 graduate of Hobbs High School and former Times correspondent from the Hobbs community.

Mr. Sturdivant attended Snyder High School, and is well known in the younger set of the town.

Sweethearts since their high school days, the couple was graduated together in the class of 1936 from Hardin-Simmons University. Possessor of a dramatic mezzo-soprano voice of unusual timbre and beauty, Miss Jenkins took stellar roles in musical activities of the school. Completing her work on a bachelor of arts degree with music major in three years, she continued her musical studies under Lola Gibson-Deaton last year and was presented last spring in senior voice recital. She was music supervisor last year at the Locust Street School, Abilene.

The Dermott-Martin WHD Club met with Mrs. Allen Stephens June 15 for an all-day quilting. Five members of Dermott and seven members of Martin were present. Mrs. Brown of Dermott, a new member, Mrs. J. D. Mitchell of Gail was a guest.

The club meets Wednesday afternoon, July 6, with Mrs. M. A. Davis. Miss Rabel will be present. All members please have the friendship quilt back with us at that time.

Mrs. Morris Haynes and son, Morris Jr., are visiting their husband and father, employee of Irwin Drug Store. Mrs. Haynes, former Western Union operator here, is now operator at the Seymour office.

Several guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. West in East Snyder returned to their homes Monday after visiting here a few days. The visitors were Mrs. C. S. Reynolds and daughter, Bobbie West, Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Cotten and daughter, Chiquita, Aransas Pass.

Guests of Mrs. A. M. Curry early this week were: Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Curry of Blanket; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Curry and daughter, Marjorie, San Angelo; Mrs. C. S. Coleman, Miles; and Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie of Dallas.

THREE BLOCKS NORTH OF SQUARE — SNYDER

BEST GENERAL RAINS OF 1938 COME SOFTLY

All-Round Crop Outlook Is Excellent Despite Early Freeze, Sand, Drouth

Snyder trade territory's best general rains of 1938 came softly last week-end.

Beginning Friday afternoon and continuing lightly through Sunday, they drenched every inch of the county. In a few localities there were washouts resulting from two to three inches of rain. But on the average the trade area received just about Snyder's total of 1.34 inches.

The moisture here was divided as follows: Friday, 1.03; Saturday, .24; Sunday, .07.

One of the best feed crops in the county's history is forecast by farm observers, especially in view of the many acres taken out of cotton acreage and planted to feed. Thousands of acres are literally abounding with sudan. Maize and other heavier feeds are prolific in many communities.

Despite reduced acreage, cotton is expected to come well up toward the county's average yield of about 30,000 bales, barring unforeseen weather and pests.

Ranchers are jubilant over prospects for fine pasture for weeks to come. They are thankful that June, ordinarily a poor month for such helpful rains, has fooled most of the weather prophets.

Civil Service Exams

The U. S. Civil Service Commission has announced open competitive examinations for the positions listed below: Assistant home economist, junior; home economist, junior in home economist information; junior aquatic biologist, chemical engineer, cotton classifier, assistant electrician investigator. Full information may be obtained at the local post-office.

Operation of the electric sign over the New York Times building costs $10,000 per month.

Asthma Sufferers Welcome this News

Those afflicted with bronchial asthma will be glad to learn that a local pharmacy is now offering, under a doctor's prescription, a doctor's prescription that has been in use for more than 25 years, with a record of unusual relief from bronchial asthma symptoms in thousands of cases.

LETTERS RECENTLY RECEIVED

The first from Lexington, Ky.—"In 1932 I was very ill with an attack of asthma. Finally, I purchased a bottle of your asthma remedy. I was somewhat relieved. After the purchase of the second bottle, which has now been five years, I have had no further trouble." Records show sufferer had been afflicted for 18 or 20 years.

The second letter comes from Kansas, "After taking almost two bottles, I haven't had asthma for about eight years. I have a friend who has a chronic case of asthma, and would like for you to get in touch with him." Records show sufferer had asthma for 25 years and had possibly spent a sum sufficient to buy 25 bottles of Dr. Fugate's Prescription. It will place you under no obligation so call for complete detailed information concerning Dr. Fugate's Prescription at STINSON DRUG COMPANY

GRASSHOPPERS FOR TURKEYS

"Why shouldn't grasshoppers be harvested by some enterprising farmers, dried out and saved for chicken feed or tankage? Why not raise more turkeys and let them harvest the grasshoppers at a profit?" The county agent wants to know.

It's too late to do this in 1938, but it is not too late to control these grasshoppers with the poison bait supplied by the federal grasshopper control, points out the agent.

The bait is available at the mixing plant in Snyder.

The continuous rains have aided in holding the grasshoppers on the green spots in the pastures, turn rows and roadways. However, these spots will burn quickly and then Mr. Grasshopper will head for the young cotton and feed. Every day the list grows with new names of producers that thought they did not have grasshoppers but have suddenly realized that their cotton field is alive with them. In some cases acres of cotton have already been destroyed, it is stated.

PIGSKIN STAR WEDS SUNDAY AT COLORADO

Leslie (Broadway) Browning, one of Snyder's and Texas Tech's football "greats," was the bridegroom Sunday morning, 8:00 o'clock, at Colorado, in a ring ceremony that united him in marriage to Miss Etta Fern Harkins.

The simple ceremony, said by Woodie Holden, minister of the Colorado Church of Christ, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Harkins, was witnessed by several relatives and close friends. Scurry County attendants were John Browning, father, and Jesse Browning, brother of the bridegroom, Fluvanna, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Graham and daughter, Helen Jo, Snyder.

The bride wore a wedding dress of dusty pink, with white accessories, and a shoulder corsage of fern and pink roses. Immediately after the bride and groom cut the large wedding cake in the beautifully decorated dining room of the Harkins home, they left for a honeymoon trip that includes El Paso, Cloudcroft and Carlsbad Caverns.

Miss Harkins moved to Colorado with her parents about 12 years ago. She is a graduate of Colorado High School, and attended Texas Tech during the last school year.

Mr. Browning was reared at Fluvanna, and graduated from Snyder High School in 1933, after co-starring with his brother, Jesse, on championship tiger football teams. At Texas Tech, from which he was graduated at the past mid-term, he was again a star lineman and a successful member of Tech livestock judging teams.

He went immediately after graduation to Tahoka High School, where he is head of the vocational agriculture department. He and Mrs. Browning will return from their honeymoon to Tahoka, where he continues his work through the summer months.

CHAMPIONS LEARN FROM AMERICAN BOY MAGAZINE

Many famous athletes in all sports credit much of their success to playing tips and suggestions received from sports articles carried in THE AMERICAN BOY Magazine.

Virtually every issue of THE AMERICAN BOY offers advice from a coach or player. Football, basketball, baseball, track, tennis, in fact, every major sport is covered in fiction and articles.

This is just one feature of THE AMERICAN BOY Magazine. Adventure, exploration, sports, humor, flying, science, travel, detecting, animals, are well represented in stirring stories.

THE AMERICAN BOY sells on all newsstands at 15c a copy. Subscription prices are $1.50 for one year or $3.00 for three years. To subscribe simply send your name, address and remittance to THE AMERICAN BOY, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan.

SCURRY COUNTY FARM NEWS

From the County Farm Agent's Office

LUKE BALLARD, County Agent.

You can't save yourself into earnings, but you can earn yourself into savings. Pinching dollars is a poor way to make profits. Good management plus effective work creates values and is what is too frequently called luck.

Fall Products Show

Saturday, July 2, 3:30 p. m., we begin to find out just what the 910 square miles or 582,400 acres contained within Scurry County has been doing, is doing, and should be doing, to maintain the health and happiness of the community. This affects every man, woman and child within the county, and to them notices of the meeting have been mailed.

Have we a good county or not? Having a good county, are we making the most of it? It is up to you. "Let's get going." A lot of folks are willing—why not everyone? We should not be bothered about what happened last year. It is what is happening now and what will happen tomorrow that will do us the greater good.

Soil and Water Utility

A one thousand dollar opportunity is knocking at our door, the door of Scurry County. This opportunity comes to encourage us to do just what we all know that we should do. Save our soil and save our rainfall. The tears of Deep Creek have overflowed twice in 36 hours during the past week. That water would have made a crop if and when stored in the ground. The best reservoir is the ground.

The soil and water utility committee meets next Saturday to complete the details for Scurry County's entrance into the $1,000 contest put on by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce through the local chamber's cooperative help with all the people of the county. It is important that town and country people know these details and that all become conscious of these operations, since it materially affects the meat and bread account of every one of us. Let's get into this contest to win—not so much the cash prizes as the proven values it will create within our county. Ask your neighbor. Neighboring discussion develops cooperation.

Four-H Boys and Girls

Tuesday morning, July 5, at 5:00 o'clock 12 Four-H boys and girls, with their sponsors, begin their journey to the Farmers' Short Course at College Station, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday are the well-filled days of instruction and recreation schedules and then Saturday the return trip. They will make detailed reports of their trip at the county-wide Rally Day to be held in Wolf Creek July 30. This trip is made possible through the cooperation of the various communities and the Scurry County Chamber of Commerce and the school board of the City of Snyder. A project really and truly worth while.

OUTLOOK GOOD TO AID SCHOOL

Outlook for a PWA grant that will insure early construction of Snyder's new school plant is considered favorable by the school board and Superintendent C. Wedgeworth, Board President J. G. Hicks said yesterday.

The project is labeled No. 8 out of the Texas office. Because of its emergency nature, the school plant proposal has the personal backing of Senators Tom Connally and Morris Sheppard and of Congressman George Mahon. Encouraging letters from the three Washington representatives have been received within the past few days.

Several Texas projects have already been approved under the new federal PWA grant, but the Texas PWA director explained in an Associated Press report Sunday that all of the approved projects were filed under the old PWA program, and are thus first on the list for grants under the new program.

Superintendent C. Wedgeworth requests The Times to announce definitely that school—all grades—will be conducted next school year, regardless of the status of school rebuilding plans.

"Mann's the Man"

"Mann's the man" was the motto that adorned two cars in Snyder and was heard over a loud speaker Wednesday morning. Gerald C. Mann of Dallas, former football star and secretary of state, is the man. He spoke briefly on the east side of the square, and met a number of local citizens on the streets and in their places of business.

There were two individuals in the group who were difficult to convince because they had their own definite ideas both in what they had to say and the things they were doing in their own counties. Ed L. Tanner of Fisher County and John Carmichael of Scurry County were building level terraces.

Tanner had built level terraces around sandy knolls in his county that had held all of the water. They were complete rings around the hills, and as he expressed it at the meeting, "The water goes into the ground instead of over the top of the terrace." This statement brought long, loud laughter, and the fight was on.

The CCC has planted 297,000,000 trees.

Womens' Auxiliary In Regular Meeting

Presbyterian Womens' Auxiliary held its regular weekly meeting at the church Monday 4:00 p. m. The program given was the first in a unit of six worship and study programs on the theme, "Churchwomen and a Christian World Community," this topic being "A Look at the Present Social Order," arranged with Mrs. Alva Curtis, leader.

After quiet music by Mrs. A. McFarland, the call to worship, Micah 6:6-8 was used. Opening prayer by Mrs. W. L. Hendrick, Fresno, California. Names of our missionaries for the day, from year book and special prayer, Mrs. Shell. Bible reading, Matt. 25:31-46, Mrs. L. Gill. Discussion of Evidence of the economic cost of unchristian social conditions now prevailing.

Special song—Mrs. Grady Ferguson.

Benefits to Estates

Close relatives or estates of deceased wage earners who have been in employment covered by the federal old-age insurance program are eligible to file claims for lump-sum benefits. Applications from this city should be directed to the Social Security Board, 1012 Olive-Eagle Building, Amarillo.

PIONEERING IN TERRACE WORK

That Scurry was one of the first counties in Texas to use level terraces—now considered a mainstay of the soil and water saving program—is revealed in the bulletin from College Station that discusses Texas Extension Service work in 1937.

Says a letter from Minnie Fisher Cunningham, Extension editor: "The modest home with its orchard and terraced fields, depicted on the cover of the annual report, was photographed in Fisher County, where the Extension Service early tried out the level terraces now so popular for conserving moisture in regions of scant rainfall."

"R. E. Dickson of Spur (superintendent of the Spur experiment station) tells the story of the conference of Extension agents where these level terraces first broke into prominence."

"There were two individuals in the group who were difficult to convince because they had their own definite ideas both in what they had to say and the things they were doing in their own counties. Ed L. Tanner of Fisher County and John Carmichael of Scurry County were building level terraces."

Tanner had built level terraces around sandy knolls in his county that had held all of the water. They were complete rings around the hills, and as he expressed it at the meeting, "The water goes into the ground instead of over the top of the terrace." General Political Rally Postponed

In response to the requests of the candidates, who believe a general political rally will be more interesting to the voters at a later date than July 2, I am glad to announce that the general invitation rally planned for next Saturday night, July 2, will be postponed until a later date, within a few days of the July primary. The exact date will be announced later.

I, of course, will speak at the announced time of my itinerary in Hermleigh, at 2:00 o'clock, and in Snyder, at 4:00 o'clock, July 2.

Respectfully,
 ZOLLIE C. STEAKLEY.

State Candidate Gerald C. Mann Here Wednesday

Blasting rackets of all kinds and promising the relentless prosecution of all law violators, former Secretary of State Gerald C. Mann of Dallas, brought his strenuous campaign for attorney general here in a speech on the courthouse square Wednesday morning.

"I am opposed to all rackets, but the most insidious, the one most damaging to our state, is the political racket. The political racketeer is the influence-peddling lawyer, the self-styled influential politician, the schemer. When I am attorney general those fixers shall no longer sit enthroned at Austin. I want to make our capitol at Austin a symbol of justice where any man may go and get what he is justly entitled to without the aid of any racketeer."

Pledging strict law enforcement, Mann declared he would be relentless in the prosecution of all law violators whether the law breaker be the largest corporation or the smallest citizen.

"On the other hand I shall not prosecute a man or set of men for the purpose of gaining public favor nor shall I fail to prosecute for fear of losing it. I would rather be a real attorney general for only two years than be a vacillating, shifting politician. I'd rather be a one-term than a two-liner."

Mann invited a comparison of his record as a lawyer with that of any of his opponents and reviewed his past public service as an assistant attorney general, secretary of state and as a Washington representative of the Texas Planning Board.

"While secretary of state I wrote and secured passage of the present Texas securities law, which has driven the fraudulent stock broker and racketeer from the state," he said.

"I whipped the racketeers then and I'll do it again."

Snyder Speaker

Robert A. (Bob) Stuart, candidate for railroad commissioner, spoke here Thursday of last week in the interest of his candidacy. He denounced the perpetual politician and the chronic office holder as being a menace to the state. His schedule called for more than 50 West Texas addresses during last week.

Stuart said he seeks the office on the record he made while serving six years in the state senate, as district attorney of Tarrant County, as holder of major FHA positions, and as president of the board of regents of the seven Texas state teachers' colleges.

Joe Merritt Highly Praised by Paper; "Gets Things Done"

The following article appeared in the June 16 issue of The Texas Spur, published at Spur, Dickens County:

"Joe Merritt, widely known over this part of the country, and who has many friends in Spur and Dickens County, sends The Texas Spur the announcement that he is in the race for state representative from this district.

"There is evidently something in a name—Joe has for long been recognized as a man that really gets things done when he starts out to do them. His home is at Snyder, and the old home town over there is really giving him a boost.

"And further to Joe's credit comes an article from friends with the request that The Texas Spur insert the friendly advertisement for the benefit of the people who may not happen to know Joe's rating as a friend to the people."

—This ad paid by Scurry County friends of Joe Merritt.

Bastrop County was named for Baron de Bastrop, friend of the Texas colonists.

Coryell County was named for James Coryell, famous Indian fighter.

Coke Stevenson Visits in Snyder To Meet Voters

Twice speaker of the House of Representatives, presiding officer of the House four years without an appeal from his decisions—so records the campaign card of Coke Stevenson of Junction, who visited in Snyder Thursday in the interest of his campaign for the lieutenant governorship of Texas.

The back of Stevenson's card says: "Six years as county judge and county attorney of Kimble County. Ten years in the Legislature. The only man to serve two consecutive terms as speaker. Trained for the job he now seeks, by experience as legislator and presiding officer.

"As a member of the House, introduced and passed progressive, constructive and business-like measures. Among these are state auditor's law; state budget law; payment of county highway bonds out of the gasoline tax; four million dollar building program for the University of Texas; two million dollar building program for Texas A. & M. College.

"During his term as speaker, cost of government was cut 25 per cent and saved the taxpayers $13,000,000 during biennium of 1933-34, and $13,000,000 during biennium of 1935-36. At the same time the revenue for public schools was increased and all of the present old age assistance payments were provided for.

"These benefits to the people were accomplished with the assistance of the faithful members of the Legislature. Therefore Coke Stevenson is against abolishing the Legislature."

Collin County was named for Collin McKinney.
 DeWitt County was named for Green DeWitt, the empresario.

Twice Speaker

Coke Stevenson of Junction, twice speaker of the House of Representatives, was campaigning in Snyder Thursday for the lieutenant-governorship of Texas. He met a number of old friends here, including hunters and fishermen who haunt the Junction country in season. He was accompanied by Mitchell McLendon of the Junction Eagle.

Claims Being Paid.

Lump-sum payments under old-age insurance provisions of the Social Security Act are now being approved at the rate of 750 per working day. Claims are now being received by the Social Security Board, 1012 Oliver-Bakke Building, Amarillo, from wage earners reaching age 65, and from close relatives or estate of workers who die.

TEXAS OIL WAGES VS. TAXES

Annual wages of all Texans employed in the state's oil fields, refineries, pipe line operations and filling stations averaged $1,054 in 1937, against taxes of $590 average per employee, from the oil industry, which amounts to 56 per cent of the average annual wage in this one industry, one of the nation's leaders. So claims the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, which tells the story in the above diagram.

The farmers have all a smile on their faces after the fine rains. Most of them have their wheat harvested and the weather is fine on row crops.

Wheat crops have been pretty fair this season. J. H. Hohlaus has bought and shipped 29 car loads of wheat and is loading two more cars up to date, and expects to get one or two more this season. There were only six or seven car loads shipped from this place last year.

Mr. Hohlaus came here from Lockney. He has been in the grain business ever since 1914. He was at Texline at that time. Moved to Lockney some 15 years ago. He owned an elevator there which he sold just before coming here. Though he didn't get the elevator to operating this season, he says it will be ready for the first of the season next year. His two sons, Kenneth and Lawrence, and a brother-in-law have been with him. His wife is also here.

We failed to have Sunday school Sunday on account of rain.

Claude West of Ballinger, who has been visiting his sister and family, Mrs. A. E. Lee, left for his home Monday.

Herman Holcomb of Rossville, Ga., who has been with his uncle, C. C. Brannon, since last August, left for his home this morning (Monday).

This writer entertained three persons with a birthday dinner Sunday: C. C. Brannon June 30, Kenneth Hohlaus June 25, and Maxine Lee, June 26. Several were present and enjoyed a good feed.

I am glad to be back in the land of correspondence again and will appreciate all news turned into me by Sunday evening of each week.

Lump-sum payments under the federal old-age insurance program to claimants in Texas during the month of April averaged $29.73, according to Dewey Reed, manager of the Amarillo office of the Social Security Board.

The Times and Politics

To use an every-day but still-effective expression, politics is "getting hot." Regardless of the fact that state commentators have not acknowledged that the governor's race and other state races are traveling at a fast tempo, the voters are tremendously interested in what will happen July 23.

This keen interest in state politics, however, is only a mild breeze compared to the storm that is brewing in county and precinct races. It is evidently to be an old-fashioned hard, straight West Texas wind, we are glad to report—not an unpleasant, twisting, back-biting wind that blows nobody good.

This condition brings up the question of The Times and politics. For nine years the present publishers have been in Snyder. No man or men can serve in public places for so long without bringing down the wrath of a few individuals because of policies or actions.

But the present publishers are happy to state that, except in two or three instances in which the heat of the campaign overcame sound judgment on the part of candidates, they have never been accused of partisanship in their news columns.

Of course The Times has made under-statements, over-statements and mis-statements, in connection with politics, during these nine years. To err is human. But in every case of error The Times has made this proposition to the candidates involved: Correction will be made in the following issue, in any reasonable manner the candidate may suggest.

This is no admission that The Times makes glaring errors promiscuously and wantonly. The fact is that The Times is generally regarded as one of the most accurate newspapers in West Texas, because of its painstaking efforts to discover the truth. In many cases, errors can be traced to information furnished The Times, rather than to editorial or typographical errors.

The state Democratic executive committee made an error this year in the ballot sent to county chairmen, and it was necessary to contact every county in order to make correction. The committee made an error in the name of a precinct candidate—an error that was caught by The Times in presenting the unofficial ballot last week. And The Times made an error—a glaring error—in presenting the unofficial ballot.

The news columns of The Times are non-partisan. Usually, the editorial columns remain silent, too, as to individual candidates. The truth is that the two publishers, although they usually agree on issues and principles, of government and politics, often vote for different candidates, state, district, county and precinct.

To use an almost-worn-out statement, this is a free country. Every qualified man and woman has the right to vote for whom he or she pleases. The Times does not intend to meddle with that right, although we reserve the privilege of expressing editorial opinions, in a "take it or leave it" manner, designed to clarify political or other issues that might come before the people.

In short, The Times may be wrong, but it is not unfair. Its primary function is to present news and news interpretation without prejudice or favor. So shall it ever be under the present management.

Editorial of the Week

LORD TAKES CARE OF BONEHEADS

As I have said before, the Lord most always takes care of the Boneheads, but sometimes before the Lord can get there, Mr. Bonehead is a goner as was in the case of Stenwinder Bonehead.

Stenwinder Bonehead was a nephew of old Damphool Bonehead and a brother of Smarty. Stenwinder Bonehead's dad bought a new car. He let Stenwinder take the car out for a trip to Homebrew to inspect a dun mule which he intended to buy. On the trip to Homebrew, Stenwinder had to pass through Hangtown. On reaching Hangtown, Stenwinder coked her back to 90 m. p. h.

In passing Heck & Saggie's Store Stenwinder ran over Joe Pokeasy's dog and baby which were playing in the street and killed them both. So they followed Stenwinder and that night they hung him before the sheriff could get there to tell Mr. Pokeasy and his friends that Stenwinder was a Bonehead and couldn't think. The Hangtown people are decided in their views. They argued that Stenwinder wouldn't kill any more dogs and babies, which is probably true.

Cephus and Jedudiah Bonehead were traveling one night on a lonely road. They got sleepy, shut out the lights, parked their car in the middle of the road and went to sleep.

When the other car struck them, about all the discomfort they suffered was being waked up under a lot of wreckage—the Lord took care of them, but some of the other folks waked up in a hospital.

Mehtabel Jane Ann Bonehead poured kerosene on some hot coals in the kitchen stove to kindle a fire. She did. She is now one-eyed.

Smarty Bonehead turned corners on two wheels until a road cop got him and set him afire. Smarty lost his driver's license for quite awhile.—Sterling City News-Record.

The Country Press

What is happening to the country press? To the thousands of weeklies and small dailies, whose editions are largely reflections of the men who run them and work in them?

Fred Smith, a nationally recognized expert on newspapers and newspaper advertising, had this to say in a recent issue of "Advertising and Selling:—"

"The small newspaper editor is perhaps the last bulwark of a passing era of pioneering. The small town editor, if he is a good one—and most of them have to be to stay in business—is an unselfish man. He is a builder. He has vision and energy. He lives with a dream in his mind of thriving, prosperous little cities and rich, green fields; and he works to that end. He does whatever is necessary to bring that picture into being."

Current Comment

By LEON GUINN.

In Laymen Speaking, a new book released last week by Dr. George Morlan of Penn College, Cleveland, the average person will soon glean the inferences that the majority of preachers today in nearly all denominations are supposedly cramming down the throats of the congregations some "dry-as-dust" sermons. In other words, Dr. Morlan continues, most preachers buzz around interminably from one topic to another, drawing the honey of the world from none.

Now, if one will forget the fact Dr. Morlan is weighted down with a bunch of degrees around his neck, and probe beneath the veneer of the technical handles Morlan is further obsessed with, one comes to the conclusion the erudite philosophy professor does not know exactly what he is talking about. Just because "dry-as-dust" subjects are indulged in by some of the Nation's clergymen, one cannot say this is an index all preachers preach artificial, dull, and hackneyed sermons.

To pep up sermons in pulpits throughout the land Dr. Morlan would have preachers mold public opinion by lecturing on our economic and social problems, "awaken to the reality of the times," and further turn church services into public forums of social litigation. While Morlan does have some grounds to base his thesis on in some instances, our suggestion would be that the gentleman does not go far enough in his layman-inspired theories.

If congregational Good Shepherds are to go far in our turbulent times as to get entirely away from the Cross of a Crucified Christ, and delete the blood sprinkled way of salvation from each and every sermon, they might as well sandwich in brief fashion reviews, the latest sports news, and in general create an atmosphere of sacrilegious proceedings by turning the worship hour into a three ring circus.

If one could get Dr. Morlan down to earth again, advising him one cannot always remain on the mountain tops of philosophic day dreams, I think he would realize the very antics he advocates are doing more to destroy Christian influence today, than any other one thing. For instance, those preachers who lean to the modernistic schools of thought, often lean so far afield in pious utterances on social questions they leave The Master entirely out of sermonic diatribes. If one enjoys a daily dash of nonsense, however, Laymen Speaking is highly recommended.

Washington sources indicate a growing concern by AAA officials over the fact the good earth of America has yielded an abundant wheat crop this year, causing wheat prices to sink into the rutty paths of "subsistence" levels. While Americans are griping because their acres have grown grain and bread, Europe is bowed down with the weight of the worst drought in 150 years, Italy for instance having to import wheat from the troubled land of the Soviets for the first time in a decade (on a large scale).

The vineyards of Sunny France have fallen to produce much fruit of the vine this spring, the best beet crops (as sugar sources) also failing to meet with French expectations. And while Italy, Germany, France, and Great Britain prepare to get the wheat wagons rolling along, we actually get all soured up over here because our acres have indeed grown ingredients to feed the yawning mouths of flour mills with.

Although we hate to admit it, the day is actually at hand when hunger stalks the land of the "spree and the home of the big apple," impartial observers suggesting that the AAA might be more to the point in prodding relief agencies to stuff some bread—the staff of life—into commodity coffers, and get away from the cabbage and potato band wagon. AAA attaches probably wouldn't be interested in old fashioned economic truisms, but the economic fact remains that we in America lead the world in production, and in equitable distribution of goods and products continue to hover in the shadows of the Dark Ages.

Union folks report Joe Adams is gaining a local reputation as a judge of good "hoss" flesh in his part of the country. . . If you want to spend some worthwhile time checking up on Scurry County home building, drop over into the German community and see the new homes built by Frank Zolman and Emil Schatfel. . . Both homes are a credit to the entire community.

LADIES' NIGHT AT LIONS CLUB NEXT TUESDAY

Judge Omar Burleson of Anson to Install Officers for New Fiscal Year

Annual ladies' night and installation program of Snyder Lions Club will be held next Tuesday evening, 8:15 o'clock, at the Manhattan Hotel, it was decided at the regular Tuesday noon session this week.

In charge of installation of officers who will guide the club during the fiscal year 1938-39 will be Omar Burleson of Anson, county judge of Jones County and incoming governor of District 2-T, Lions International.

Burleson Well Known.
Burleson, well known West Texas civic leader, former president of the Texas Judges' Association, will govern a Lions district that includes all of West Texas north of the Rio Grande and, roughly, west of a line from Sweetwater to Wichita Falls. Lions and their wives and a number of guests are invited to the annual affair. The evening program will replace the regular Tuesday noon meeting.

On the committee to make arrangements for the special program are Wayne Boren and King Sides. Four in Pantomime.

At the meeting this week, four girls, with Mrs. Don Hilton directing, presented a pantomime as "relatives of Bob Burns." The four "hillbillies" were: Forest Crowder, Ellwanda Spears, Doris Wilson and Billie Jean Wilford.

King Sides, who made the Lions some meeting trip to Midland with Zone Chairman Frank Farmer last Tuesday night, gave a report of that meeting.

Lion C. Wedgworth explained the status of school rebuilding plans, and said all grades will definitely be taught next school year.

Snyder General Hospital

New patients in the hospital since last week's report are as follows: Mrs. Hugh Wood, Snyder, surgery, discharged Thursday; Miss Vera Periman, Snyder, surgery, discharged Friday; T. G. Carney, Snyder, surgery, discharged Sunday; J. C. Morrow, medical, Snyder, discharged Sunday; Mrs. C. D. Reed, Dermot, medical, discharged Wednesday; Mrs. Clyde Thomas, Snyder, medical, discharged Tuesday; Mrs. F. O. Brooks, Snyder, surgery, remains in hospital.

Also in the hospital yesterday were three surgery patients from last week's report—Mrs. Bryce Rea of New York City, Mrs. J. R. Hodges of Snyder and Mrs. Jack Diekey of Snyder. Charley Kelly, of Mineral Wells, accident victim, continues to show improvement after several week here.

Those who entered prior to last Wednesday noon, and have been discharged are as follows: Mrs. S. R. Rector, Post; Mrs. Marsh Springer, Wanda Jean Sims, John L. Webb, J. R. Joyce, H. D. Crawley and Mrs. C. V. Lee, all of Snyder and adjoining communities.

NEW NURSE ADDED.

Miss Celesta Freeman of Cross Plains, recent graduate of Sealy Hospital, Santa Anna, has been added to the local staff. With her coming, the regular day staff increases to four nurses.

"A Penny Saved"

(Editors' Note: This is the fifth of a series of articles furnished by T. C. Richardson, secretary of the Texas Breeder-Feeder Association, at the suggestion of R. J. Edwards, president of the Texas Press Association. Purpose behind the articles is to cooperate with Texas farmers in using to the best advantage the acres taken out of one-crop production under the AAA).

Says the adage, "is a penny earned." Thinking of that thrifty principle in terms of the farm, making the crop is not completed until it is saved. It is saved only when it has been either safely stored for future use, or consumed by livestock and transformed into a saleable product. Tons of meat and milk, eggs and wool are produced on some farms merely by "savings" grass, weeds and crop residues which go to waste on neighboring farms for lack of the animals or fowls to utilize them when available.

At this season of the year the Southwest is often threatened with drought, corn begins to "burn up" and its failure is indicated. Since the introduction of the trench silo it is quite possible to avoid a total loss by cutting the corn and storing it in the trench before it dries up. That is not merely a penny saved, but earned, but dollars on dollars, for the ensilage will keep indefinitely and can be turned into cash through livestock when ever you are ready. If rainy weather interferes with curing hay it need not be lost. Put it in a trench silo, which can be dug in a few hours, or at most a few days. You can't lose it then; it cannot burn up, blow away or deteriorate from weather.

There is nothing mysterious or complicated about enlisting a crop.

A few simple rules must be observed. Green crops with a reasonable sugar content need nothing but close packing to exclude the air, either cut or ensiled in the whole stalk. Other crops, such as alfalfa and other non-saccharine forage crops, require some cheap molasses to start fermentation. The size and shape of the trench, how to fill it and treat each crop, and how to insure its keeping, can be learned from your county agent or your neighbor who has had silo experience.

A few cross fences, either temporary or permanent, are indispensable to the full utilization of what grows on the farm. Grass, either in field or pasture, and crop residues have no market value on the ground, usually will not pay for the harvesting unless the livestock do the work. It is poor business to lose this potential cash return, whether for lack of livestock to use it or for lack of fencing so they can use it.

An Arkansas authority says an acre of good grass has made up to 400 pounds of beef, and the steer did the work, but every day's good grazing represents a pound of beef, or butterfat, to "save" it means the animal must be on the ground when the grazing is ready. Like some factories, the value of by-products saved on the farm often means the only profit in the manufacture of the main product.

A Pennsylvania Dutchman lives well and gets rich by saving what we in the Southwest too often waste—the straw, grass and manure. None of them can be sold in the market place as such, but what a difference they make when saved and used on the farm where they are! The difference between success and failure, profit and loss.

A penny saved is still a penny earned, no matter what form it takes.

Stamfordites Talk Up July 4-6 Rodeo

Traveling in a bus, 12 automobiles and two sound cars, 60 big baited, red banded Stamfordites bombarded Snyder last Thursday afternoon with song, dancing and talking. They were advertising the ninth annual Texas Cowboy Reunion, scheduled in Stamford July 4, 5 and 6.

Parking on the west side of the square, the whoopee advertisers presented string band music, cowboy singing, and snappy announcements about what to expect at Stamford. County Judge H. J. Brice responded in behalf of Snyder and Scurry County, promising a full delegation to the holiday affair.

Bob Stuart Speaks From Snyder Lawn

Bob Stuart of Ft. Worth, candidate for railroad commissioner, stood on the courthouse lawn Thursday of last week and talked over loud speaker equipment to a group of Snyder people. He promised particularly, if elected, to see that the interests of farmers are protected in transportation matters.

Stuart visited briefly in Snyder when the Ft. Worth booster train stopped here a few months ago. Several years ago he was a guest, while he was state senator, at a local highway meeting.

Flea Hopper Seen For Scurry County At Squaring Time

It now appears that there are sufficient cotton flea hoppers in the region to develop a heavy infestation by the time cotton starts to square freely, declares the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Spur in a bulletin released this week.

Experiments conducted by the station in several counties, including Scurry, lead to the above conclusion.

"The best indication of the presence of flea hoppers is the absence of little squares on cotton plants at the time that squares should appear," declares the bulletin. "Close examination of the buds and leaves of the cotton plant will be necessary to find the small pea green insect about the size of a pea. This immature flea stings and kills the cotton squares when they are not as large as the head of a match. Dead squares will be found where flea hoppers appear."

"The Spur station will appreciate the report of presence or absence of flea hoppers in the different regions of West Texas, and the cooperation of cotton farmers in the study of this insect."

Rodeo Duster

Keeping dust out of your eyes is the responsibility of Harry Lees, director in the Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Lees also helps keep the stock moving to prevent the slightest hitch in the show.

She (as he placed the ring on her finger): "I hope it isn't a cheap imitation."
He: "No, my dear, it's the most expensive one I could find."—Grit.

"Bobby, will you have some more ice cream?"
"No thanks. Mother says I don't want any more."

The first air mail was carried on May 15, 1918.

ODOM FUNERAL HOME

First Methodist Church

Revival services begin July 10, and are planned not only for our congregation, but for all who will share with us their blessings and privileges.

H. C. Smith of Amarillo, who is coming to preach for us, is a devout man and a man of ability. Every person in or near Snyder is invited to hear him and to help make the revival a success.

Next Sunday services will be given in preparation for the revival.—H. C. GORDON, pastor.

First Presbyterian Church

The high point of the day at the First Presbyterian Church next Sunday will be the celebration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at the 11:00 o'clock hour. Other services to which all are cordially invited will be Sunday School at 9:45 a. m.; Young People's Society and Tuxis Society at 7:00 p. m.; and evening preaching service at 8:00 p. m. The pastor will preach at both morning and evening services.

On Friday night of this week the "Church Family" will have a covered dish supper and program. The evening's program will be given by the ten people who attended the Buffalo Gap conference last week. All members and friends of the church are cordially invited to come at 8:00 p. m. on Friday.—Rev. James E. Spivey, pastor.
