THE TIMES TABLE

THE BIGGEST thing on the Scurry County menu this week is the Borden County agricultural field day and club boys' show at Gail. Scurry County has become more "trade territory-minded" in recent years, and there is no question but that Snyder business men, as well as ranchers, farmers and others from the county as a whole will rally to help make the day highly successful.

—The Times Table—
LAMESA, BIG SPRING and other nearby trading centers will be well represented. . . you may lay to that. Borden County helped us make our rodeo and our Products Show successful last year. Let us help them make their big day successful this year.

—The Times Table—
B. S. TATE was the father of 10 sons and one daughter. He reared them to be respectable, law-abiding citizens; and they, in turn, have reared their sons and daughters to be important elements in their respective communities. He was not a public man, as we think of public men; but he will leave more influence than most of those whose names are written in brass or marble. As someone has said, we write the names of many of our best people in water, while many of the ingrates are carried down to posterity in brass. More men like B. S. Tate and a lot of the other old-timers who are passing away would mean more abiding regard for the simple foundation virtues of Americanism.

—The Times Table—
C. C. NUNNALLY, son of County Judge Charles C. Nunnally of Borden County, is recognized as one of the state's best judges of beefsteers. He and Ralph Howe, first Borden County agent, will be among those present at Gail Saturday. Both of them helped judge the livestock show in Knox County last week—and they did a praiseworthy job. Howe will do the judging at Gail this week. Young Nunnally, by the way, was a wheelhorse on the Texas Tech judging team not so long ago.

—The Times Table—
J. F. WOODSON, one of our favorite poets, has modernized some nursery rhymes. Some of them are particularly timely for these flighty times of ours. For instance:

Ole King Cole was a merry old soul,
And thought he ran the show;
But when he called for his fiddlers
and bow,
He found they'd gone C. I. O.

Little Boy Blue wants to sell his horn,
Uncle Sam killed his cows and he raised no corn.
He has no milk and he can't eat hay,
And he's too small to work on the W. P. A.

Mary, Mary, got contrary
And led the garden go.
She said, "I'd rather buy the stuff
Than swing that darned old hoe."

TURNER SELLS TO JIM ADAMS

Effective last Friday, Jim Adams has purchased the interest of J. C. Turner in Rainbow Market, after an 18 months partnership. Jim reports he will continue business at the same stand.

Jim Adams started five years ago operating the Adams Apple House. Turner has made no definite plans for the future.

Assisting Jim will be Smith Adams, Horace Williamson and Louie Minton.

GIRLS TELL OF NEED IN RURAL ROAD BUILDING

Erdice Reynolds of Lloyd Mountain, Mable Glass of Pyron Are Essay Contest Winners

Erdice Reynolds of Lloyd Mountain, Gwendolyn Tate of Plainview, Mable Glass and Jane Gilmore of Pyron were announced Monday as the four winners in the county-wide Rural Road Betterment essay contest which closed last Saturday evening.

A total of $9.50 in prizes was given the contest winners, with all entries in the form of letters addressed to Governor W. Lee O'Daniel stating why one-eighth of the gasoline taxes collected should be used for rural road improvements.

Winners by divisions follow: Division 1, grades six, seven and eight—Erdice Reynolds of Lloyd Mountain, first, $2.50; Gwendolyn Tate of Plainview, second, $1.

Division 11, grades nine, 10 and 11—Mable Glass of Pyron, first, $5; Jane Gilmore of Pyron, second, $1.

E. J. Anderson, a Chamber of Commerce director, acted as critic after the essays were judged. Winning essays, which will be published in the Times as space permits, will be sent to Governor W. Lee O'Daniel.

"We received some fine cooperation in this essay contest," Irvin stated Monday, "and hope something definite will be done to improve our county school bus and mail routes." The contest was endorsed by both the local and rural letter carriers' organizations.

TRENCH SILOS SEEN AS CHIEF DAIRY ASSETS

State Inspector of Weights and Measures Says Green Feed Essential Year-Round

Because trench silos provide green feed the year-round, no matter the condition of pasture and current feed-crops, this popular method of feed-keeping is the salvation of the dairy farmer.

So declared H. R. Tarwater, state inspector of weights and measures, in Snyder last week to check cream and milk buying places.

Asked if he believed a cheese plant would pay in this territory, he said it would pay if the producers support it through thick and thin, and if they provide for year-round feeding through trench silos.

Tarwater said these plants in West Texas include those at Spur, Haskell and Tulsa, which are fairly new, and older plants at Lubbock, Abilene, Abertown and Plainview.

The inspector seldom visits Snyder, for it is one of 90 towns, reaching from Vernon to Del Rio, in his territory. He is one of only three state inspectors who specialize in cream and milk inspections, and only 12 inspectors of all kinds cover the state for the weights and measures division.

"If you are interested in thorough inspections of cream and milk, gasoline pumps, scales and other weights and measures projects, you will be doing the state a good turn by urging your legislators to increase the appropriations for this division," Tarwater said. "A slight increase would repay Texas citizens many times over in fair weights and honest measures."

Pat, as the returned business man is generally known, says he will probably be open for business within two weeks.

Pastor Moves

Rev. James E. Spivey, above, beloved pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, was transferred to Denison Church of the Paris Presbytery last Friday.

Rev. and Mrs. Spivey, both active in church and community life, came here in 1935. He will preach here for the last time Sunday morning and evening.

DENISON WILL BE NEW HOME OF J. E. SPIVEY

Presbyterian Pastor Preaches Last Times in Local Pulpit Sunday Morning and Evening

Rev. James E. Spivey, who has been pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here since 1935, was transferred to the Paris Presbytery last Friday in a special session of the Abilene Presbytery. He will be pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Denison.

Pastoral relations with the Snyder church were dissolved, and Rev. Spivey was granted a letter of transfer by the local church to the Paris Presbytery. The pastor was called by the Denison church recently.

Both Rev. and Mrs. Spivey have been active in civic and school as well as church life, since coming here in June of 1935.

Rev. R. A. Walker, pastor of the Grace Presbyterian Church, Merkel, was appointed to moderate the sessions at Snyder and Pivanna during their period of vacancy.

The officers of stated clerk and Buffalo Gap assembly chairman, which Rev. Spivey left vacant, were filled last Friday by Rev. W. F. Rogan of Stamford and Rev. D. J. Murray of Lamesa.

SUPPLY STORE TO OPEN SOON

At the helm of Western Auto Supply Company when it opens in March will be A. A. (Pat) Bullock, former superintendent of Scurry County schools, more recently associated with Snyder Transfer Company as public relations man.

In town this week to begin supervision of the new store's equipment installation, Bullock said a portion of the fixtures are being manufactured here and a portion will come ready-made. The completely remodeled modern-front building on the east side of the square, just to the south of Dick & Pay Store, will be occupied by the new business. Gem Theatre was formerly in that location.

Pat, as the returned business man is generally known, says he will probably be open for business within two weeks.

WORK STARTS ON BUILDING OF LOCAL SCHOOL

Dunlap & Coughran of Abilene Is Low-Bidding Firm on General Construction Contract

Dunlap & Coughran of Abilene was the low-bidding firm on the proposed contract for general construction of the Snyder school plant. The low bid was $92,500, it was announced when all bids were opened Thursday afternoon of last week.

September 24 is the final completion date set up under terms of the contract, said Superintendent C. Wedgeworth.

With a low bid of $16,550, David Vickers & Company of Sweetwater was declared low bidder on the heating and plumbing contract.

A. K. Bass of Amarillo submitted the low electrical work bid. His figure was $4,487.73.

Turned Down at First. Bids on the three divisions of work were opened three weeks earlier, but all proposals were turned down because they did not come within the amount available for the job.

The foundation was recently completed, after demolition of the old building, at a contract cost of $11,480, with Will O'Connell of San Angelo as the contractor.

Bids in addition to the lows were submitted last Thursday as follows: General construction—Balfanz Construction Company, Abilene, $94,591; Will O'Connell, San Angelo, $98,515; Abilene Construction Company, Abilene, $101,793; Martin & Johnson, Dallas, (low bidders when the first bids were opened) $102,946.

Plumbing, Electrical. Heating and plumbing—Modern Plumbing & Heating Company, Dallas, $16,600; Milton B. Levy, Dallas (low bidder at first), $16,950; R. E. Wild, Ft. Worth, $17,991; Adams Plumbing & Roofing Company of Shawnee, Oklahoma, $18,068; Roche, Newton & Company, Lubbock, $18,000; Acme Plumbing Company of Dallas, $18,290.

Hermleigh to Be Visited Sunday by Amarillo Bishop

The most Rev. Robert E. Lucey, bishop of the Diocese of Amarillo, will administer the sacrament of confirmation at Hermleigh next Sunday afternoon, 4:00 o'clock, to Jimmie Lynn Wadleigh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Wadleigh. The child was born in Sterling City, January 11, and was baptized in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, February 12.

It will be the bishop's first visit to this county since the Hermleigh Catholic Church, in which the service will be held Sunday afternoon, was dedicated two years ago by the Amarillo church leader.

The bishop will say the mass in the Church of the Holy Family, Sweetwater, at 9:00 o'clock Sunday morning. Confirmations will be administered after the mass to English-speaking people and at 2:00 o'clock to Mexicans.

At 7:00 o'clock Sunday evening, the same rite will be performed in St. Anne's Church, Colorado.

JONES NAMED REA MANAGER

Andrew Jones of Camp Springs was named manager of the first of this week of REA's Midwest Electric Cooperative Association, which has set up a main office at Rotan. Midwest will start construction of a 176 mile REA line from Rotan to North Roby, Midway, and Camp Springs as soon as right-of-way arrangements are made.

Borden County Ready With Best Event In Many Years

BORDEN FIRST IN EFFORTS TO SAVE WILDLIFE

Highest Percentage of Acreage in State Signed Up Under Game Management Program

Exact figures are not available to The Times, but several persons who are in a position to know the facts in the case have said:

"Borden County is head and shoulders above every other county in the state in the percentage of acreage signed up under the game-management program."

Charles E. Priley, in Snyder Tuesday, said without hesitation: "Borden is easily ahead of any of the other 37 counties in my Region 9, and I am positive that it is second in state acreage only to one of the large Big Bend counties that has several times more area than Borden." He is the regional game manager.

Not only does Borden County lead in acreage percentage signed up under the state-wide program. It is as far or farther advanced in accomplishments as any other county in the state.

The membership at the last check-up was 138 farmers and ranchers, who accounted for at least 90 per cent of the total area of the county. More than 505,000 acres have been signed up, and most of their owners are actively carrying out a full program of game conservation practices under direction of the county agent's office.

A map in several colors, hanging in the agent's office, reveals exactly the acreage that is under the wildlife saving program. A large sign on the Scurry-Borden line tells a brief story of Borden's game-management program. And many smaller signs throughout the county declare boldly and proudly: "Game Preserve Demonstration."

The accomplishment in Borden County is even more remarkable when one considers that the program was born less than a year ago. The first organization meeting was held May 15, 1938.

FEW COUNTIES EQUAL BORDEN

Borden is one of 13 counties in Texas that had no traffic deaths in 1937 and 1938, it was revealed Monday in a report compiled by State police.

A total of 30 counties were without a fatal crash in 1938, but only 13 could boast this record for the two-year period. Hemphill, Roberts, Kennedy and Loving Counties did not report even a traffic accident. Other counties on the select two-year honor roll are Armstrong, Castro, Hansford, Hartley, Llano, Morris, McMullen, Real and Terrell.

Walls of Courthouse At Gail Are Bricked

Walls of the new Borden County courthouse at Gail have already gone up and brickwork is up as high as the window sills.

This modern structure, made possible through a PWA appropriation and county funds, will replace a wooden building that has served Borden for many years.

The old building has been moved aside, but is being used temporarily for all offices except the county agent and the county-district clerk. County Agent E. B. McElroy and Clerk Maggie Williams have temporary offices in the old bank building.

Scenes From the Dean Ranch

That John Henry Dean, owner and operator of the Dean Ranch, between Snyder and Lamesa, is thoroughly sold on soil conservation and better livestock programs is proven by these three pictures. Upper picture shows check dams which are stopping the gully by retarding the flow of water in a deep ravine. This is a part of a program that will soon cover the entire 36,000-acre ranch. The central picture shows the largest of 11 dams which form lakes on the ranch. In the construction of this dam 13,000 cubic yards of dirt were moved. The lake holds 36 acre-feet. The lower picture shows New Prince Domino 29th, winner of three firsts, a grand championship, and two second places in some of the best shows in the country. Dean's show herd is now on the winter Hereford circuit, along with herds from Winston Brothers of Snyder and other well-known West Texas breeders. Most of Dean's herd came directly from Winston Brothers or descended directly from the local Domino Return herd.

BORDEN GETS $28,108 IN SOIL SAVING FUNDS

Only Two Other Counties in This District, Fisher and Howard, Have Any Checks

When $28,108 in 270 checks came to Gail several days ago as part payment on Borden County's soil conservation program, the county was marked as one of the first in Texas to receive any of these funds.

Only two other counties in this Extension Service district, Fisher and Howard, have received any of their soil program money. Checks are dribbling into Borden County intermittently.

These first checks represented about one-half of the total to be received by the county from the soil program. No range checks have been received. Range and soil checks combined will bring Borden about $100,000.

Approximately 90 per cent of all soil and range program applications from the county have been certified by the state office.

RIBBONS TO BE GIVEN TO BEST BORDEN STOCK

General Exhibit to Promote Better Livestock Production, Interest in Boys' Projects

Ribbons for first, second, and third places will be given at Gail Saturday for a general livestock exhibit in connection with the Four-H and FFA livestock show, with competition limited to Borden County exhibitors.

"The purpose of this general livestock exhibit will be to encourage better animal production, and to promote interest in boys' feeding projects," E. B. McElroy, county agent, reported. Poultry will also be included in this exhibit array.

Cattle and Sheep. Classes in the general livestock exhibit to be judged Saturday afternoon follow:

Beef cattle—Bulls under two years, bulls over two years; stocker-feeder, calves under 400 pounds, calves over 400 pounds; heifers under two years, and cows over two years.

Dairy cattle—Bulls, under two years, bulls over two years; heifers under 18 months; cows under three years, and cows over three years.

SATURDAY SET AS CLUB SHOW AND FUN TIME

More Than 2,000 Expected to Be On Hand for Exhibits and Chuck Wagon Feed

More than 2,000 people from Borden and adjoining counties are expected to gather at Gail Saturday for the first annual Borden County Agricultural Field Day and Boys' Livestock Show, County Agent E. B. McElroy of Gail stated Wednesday.

Around 50 choice animals (beef calves, hogs, and lambs) from Scurry, Borden, Dawson and Fuvanna Four-H and FFA chapters will be exhibited for over $50 in cash prizes.

A group of 50 Snyder business men, headed by Snyder's Tiger Band in uniform, will leave Snyder Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock and go to Gail in a body for the all-day affair.

Chuck Wagon Style. Farm families of Borden County are bringing basket lunches, with lunch to be served regular "chuck wagon" style at noontime. The Scurry County Chamber of Commerce is furnishing tin cups for refreshments.

Scurry County's cooperation in the Borden County show is evidenced by arrangements made by the local Chamber of Commerce for Duncan (Admission) Coffee Company to furnish free coffee during the day.

A committee composed of John Conrad, L. E. Long, and T. J. Good is arranging for plenty of barbecue and other edibles. Other ranchmen are cooperating to furnish the barbecue.

Best Entertainment. Judge C. C. Nunnally, Sid Reeder, Mrs. Ruby Covey, Miss Maggie Williams, E. C. Wedgeworth, superintendent of Fuvanna School, and Warren Berzert, who compose the entertainment committee, state top-flight entertainers will be featured on the program of song and music.

A tent has been erected for use during the lunch hour, with a platform being provided for the various entertainers on the day's program. Dunn's Hibilly Four-H string band, together with two other string bands, offer only one outstanding feature of the song and music program on tap.

The Soil Conservation Service will have an exhibit on hand under direction of F. A. Vestal of the Lamesa CCC camp, as will R. R. Lancaster of the Texas Extension Service, who will cooperate with the county agent in a display of range plants.

Exhibits of Cotton. Von Roeder Seed Farms of Borden County, which have won Texas-wide recognition for their state certified Western Prolific (Mebane 141) and Texas Mammoth cotton-seeds, will also have an exhibit at the Gail show.

Ralph Howe of Crosbyton, who was Borden County's first agent, will judge the show. Howe at present is agent of Crosby County. Ribbons will go to all placings in a general livestock exhibit that will be open to Borden County exhibitors.

And last but not least McElroy says "be sure to put the family in the fluffer and come on up to Gail Saturday. We'll all be looking for you." And if a Wednesday survey is accurate, we'll all be at Gail Saturday!

New Highway Moves Rapidly in Borden

Work is moving along rapidly on construction of Highway 15 along a partially-new route, from the Dawson County line toward Gail.

Dirt work has come toward Gail from the county line for three or four miles, and right-of-way has been cleared almost to Gail. Several bridges are under construction. A number of Borden County men are employed on the state project.

Old Fiddlers Will Stage Gail Contest

A feature attraction at the big Borden County event Saturday will be an old fiddlers' contest, in which several entries are reported by the entertainment committee.

Mrs. Dud Anz Elected President of Snyder Parent-Teacher Association

Election of new officers. Founders Day discussion and an interesting program were features of last Thursday's regular monthly meeting of the local Parent-Teacher Association. Attendance was low, due to the bad weather, but leaders report an enthusiastic meeting.

Mrs. Dud Anz, for the past two years publicity chairman for the organization, was elected president for next year. Mother of two young daughters, Mrs. Anz has been associated with Parent-Teacher work for only four years, but her untiring efforts as publicity chairman and on other committees during those years has made her a useful member of the local organization.

Mrs. Raymond Sims, president of the past two years, presided for the election of Mrs. Anz and other new officers, as follows: Mrs. Jesse Jones, vice president; Mrs. W. P. King, secretary; Mrs. Ixon Joyce, treasurer. The new leaders will take over their duties at the beginning of school in September.

Subject for the afternoon's program was "The Citizen in the Nursery," directed by Mrs. Paul Cates. Mrs. J. C. Smyth discussed the program topic, and Mrs. Wayne Boren presented a discussion of "Choosing Books for Our Children."

Mrs. H. J. Brice, an early leader in local Parent-Teacher work, was introduced to speak on Founder's Day, which is observed by organizations all over the United States this month as the 42nd anniversary of founding of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. At the close of Mrs. Brice's discussion a free will offering was taken to further work of the extension division of the National Congress.

Business Women in Missionary Group

Organization of a Business and Professional Women's Missionary Society was perfected in a group meeting held at the home of Mrs. Joe Caton Tuesday evening. Other women are invited to join the society at next meeting, Tuesday, March 7, at the home of Mrs. King Sides.

Society study will begin at the next meeting, as new officers take over their duties. Mrs. Francis Pierce has been elected president, Grace Holcomb vice president, and Eda McFarland, secretary-treasurer.

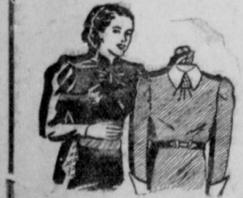

Mrs. M. W. Clark will be sponsor of the new missionary unit. Mrs. J. C. Dorward, general president of Methodist women, was present for the organization meeting Tuesday evening.

Delectable refreshments of creamed chicken, strawberry shortcake and coffee were served to 14 members and the following guests: Mrs. Joe Strayhorn, Nelson Minix, Mrs. I. W. Boren, Mrs. R. J. Randals and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Harral. Interesting forty-two games were enjoyed all evening.

Patriotic Note in Bridge Party Details

A clever patriotic note in keeping with Washington's birthday was used in party accessories—flags decorating the tables and score pads and prizes wrapped in white with red and blue ribbons—at a Duce Bridge Club party last Thursday with Ruby Lee as hostess at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. B. Lee.

Frances Chenault, charter member of the club back after a leave of absence, won the high score award, and Allen Curry retained the traveling prize. A salad plate with angel's food cake topped with strawberries and whipped cream and hot tea was passed by the hostess.

Only guest was Dorothy Strayhorn, and other members present were: Mmes. Loy Logan, Buster Curtis, Paul Cates, R. C. Miller, Willard E. Lewis, Billie Lee Jr., R. E. Boyer, Misses Johnnie Mathison, Margaret Deakins, Gwen Gray, Bonnie Miller, Vesta Green, Frances Boren and Allene Curry.

Pyron Club Meets.
The Pyron Home Demonstration Club met last Thursday with Mrs. J. D. Rowland. A demonstration on selection and arrangement of bedroom furniture, together with the making of feather comforts, was given by Miss Rabel, home demonstration agent.

The club had previously met at the home of Mrs. Boyd Moore, and made a number of the blocks for use in frame gardens.

During the business session it was decided each member should donate a toy—and members alternate at entertaining the children during club meetings. This nursery would allow more women to attend each weekly meeting.

Pie and coffee was served by Mrs. Rowland to Mmes. Jim Glass, E. N. Cummings, C. Stahl, Boyd Moore, Bauman, Cecil Campbell, C. A. Clifton, P. A. Ammons, W. P. Tatum, M. H. Greenwood, John Roland, Mearse, Link Glass, the hostess and Miss Rabel.

To Attend Short Course.
During the business session a suggestion was made that various clubs make money with which to attend the A. & M. College short course via the "pantry and linen chest way."

A committee, consisting of Mmes. Stahl, Revier, Mearse and Hudnall, were appointed to work out the details. Mrs. Sam Williams, a council representative who attended the district TAA meeting at Big Spring, gave an interesting report.

The next council meeting will be held Saturday, March 18, at the home demonstration agent's office. Reporters of all the women and girls clubs in the county are requested to meet in the home demonstration agent's office Saturday afternoon, March 4, at 2:00 o'clock.

Furniture Styles Discussed By Guild

"Traditional Styles of Furniture" was the topic for discussion at a Tuesday evening meeting of Art Guild held in the home of Mrs. Maude C. DeBolt. Vera Periman directed the program.

Answering roll call, members told what style of furniture appeals to them. Estella Rabel was presented in a discussion of furniture of Italy, Spain and France in the late 18th century, and Quata Barrow told of furniture in the United States from 1790 to 1825. Both talks were interesting.

The hostess passed refreshments of pie and coffee to these club members: Rayolene Smith, Quata Barrow, Vera Periman, Effie McLeod Jewel Foster, Edith Grantham, Estella Rabel, Ethel Lynn Hays, Frances Boren and Mmes. Billie Lee Jr., O'Dell Ryan, Ivan Gatlin and Glen W. Berry.

American Novel Is Reviewed By Member

Mrs. B. M. West was hostess, and Mrs. J. Nelson Dunn, Twentieth Century Club president, was director for the program at the Tuesday meeting of the study club. "The Scarlet Letter," American novel by Nathaniel Hawthorne, was the subject for an interesting program.

Quotations from Hawthorne were given in answer to roll call, and Mrs. H. M. Blackard gave a brief outline of the life of the American writer. Mrs. Dunn gave a sketch of description, characterization and philosophy of the book, and Mrs. W. J. Ely talked on "Modernism and the Puritan Moral Code."

Mrs. West passed refreshment plates of sandwiches, cherry pie and spiced tea to the following club members: Mmes. Blackard, I. W. Boren, H. J. Brice, W. H. Cauble, P. C. Chenault, R. W. Cunningham, Dunn, Ely, J. E. LeMond, Joe Strayhorn, W. H. Ware, Allen Warren, E. H. Lilly and Bessie Perkins.

The bill provides a two-year fund, and Twentieth Century Club is anxious to have the bill passed. The study group has been working on the library project for the past few years, and cooperation of other study and civic organizations is urged in the movement.

MABLE GLASS, PYRON, WANTS BETTER ROADS

Irregular School Bus and Lack of Medical Needs Cited as Bad-Road Drawbacks

The following message to Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, written by Mable Glass of Pyron, copied first prize of $5 in Division II of the recently closed Rural Road Betterment essay contest conducted by Roy O. Irvin, county superintendent. Division II covered grades nine, 10 and 11.

Hon. W. Lee O'Daniel, Austin, Texas.

Dear Governor: We find that in our county, Scurry County, there is a great need for hard surfaced roads. In this region of the state the rainfall is above the average for West Texas, which makes the need for hard surfaced roads much greater.

Our school, Pyron, is a consolidated school, and because of this we have to run buses. Their routes are mostly roads that are not well-kept. If these roads were caliche, or graded and made wider, they would then be passable, and the school district, as well as the community and county, would be in a much better condition.

Sometimes we are not able to have school for three or four consecutive days because the buses cannot get over the muddy roads. At times the mail carrier is unable to make the run he is assigned, because of the condition of the roads.

Quite often, too, in rainy weather, a physician is needed, but he cannot make the trip on account of the roads, and sometimes the result is death. There are many other instances where the impassable roads have caused serious disasters to many families.

Mr. O'Daniel, we would not call on the state to finance the building of these country roads, but Scurry County does not have available funds for road construction.

We would appreciate it very much if you would use your influence in obtaining hard surfaced roads that are used for school buses, for counties of Texas that are not able to make good roads.

'HELP US' SAYS LLOYD MT. GIRL IN ROAD ESSAY

Erdice Reynolds Says Children Do Not Have Chance to Learn When Roads Are Bad

First prize of $2.50 in Division I of the Rural Road Betterment essay contest was won by Erdice Reynolds of Lloyd Mountain. The recently closed contest was conducted by Roy O. Irvin, county superintendent, cooperating with local and rural mail carriers. Grades six, seven and eight were entered in Division I.

Miss Reynolds' letter to the governor on rural road improvement follows:

Hon. W. Lee O'Daniel, Austin, Texas.

Dear Sir: I am just a rural school girl in the seventh grade, but I would like to tell you why I think the rural roads should be improved.

First, rural roads should be improved so that the school buses which carry rural pupils to the city schools can make the routes in all kinds of weather.

One bus in our county got into a ditch and failed to get to school for a week and three days. When it was taken out, it had to have a tractor to aid it. Now, do you think those children can in any way hope to make a passing grade?

If and when all the small schools are to dissolve and conditions as they are now, are in favor of it, there must be more buses put on to accommodate the pupils, and the roads must be improved in all sections.

And if the roads are not improved and buses can't travel, the rural children will not have a chance to go to school. I have listened with much interest at your talks over the radio, and I know you will understand, for you have repeated often that you were brought up in a rural community.

Second, people can't get to church to worship, unless the roads are improved for the rural schools, which many communities use as a place of worship. Many are being dissolved and moved to the place of consolation.

These people must go long distances to the city churches, and very few ever attend any form of worship, and as a result crime will grow by leaps and bounds; for once men forget God they are likely to do evil deeds.

Third, rural people need doctors and medical attention the same as city people. Often the roads are in such bad condition that medical aid is not given until the person needing aid is beyond helping.

The fourth reason I would like to give in the favor of rural road improvement is that most rural people do not buy their food but once a week—and you must know that day is Saturday.

If old man weather sees fit to send lots of rain, most rural roads get impassable, and as a result many children in the remote communities are not given the proper kind of nourishment.

Fifth, if a teacher has to go back and forth from school she can't get to school during bad weather. You must realize that rural communities do not furnish their teachers with suitable living quarters.

Both of the teachers at my school go back and forth to their homes. One of them crosses three creeks before she reaches school. Many days she fails to reach school. These are the reasons why I think the rural roads should be improved.

Kent and Dickens in Water Conservation Area, Just Formed

Louis P. Merrill of Ft. Worth, regional Soil Conservation Service chief, stated Tuesday that 640,000 acres in Kent and Dickens Counties will be improved under a pending program providing for water conservation in the Dookum, Duck Creek and Croten watershed areas.

The Kent-Dickens County watershed area is one of seven planned for 28 west and southwest Texas counties. Altogether, 6,000,000 acres will be affected in the new watershed areas designated by the Soil Conservation Service.

Merrill stated that farmers of Kent and Dickens Counties could shortly qualify for water facilities loans under the Pope-Jones water facilities act, which authorizes federal assistance to farmers and ranchers for building up and improving water supplies.

The 640,000 acre water conservation program planned for Kent and Dickens Counties is one of the largest proposed SCS projects in West Texas at this time.

W. Clark.

They Don't Need Coats in Hawaii Even in Winter

Editor's note: J. C. Ziegler, author of the following letter, and Mrs. Ziegler are visiting with their son at Honolulu, Hawaii. Mr. and Mrs. Ziegler have been long-time Dermott community residents.

The Scurry County Times, Snyder, Texas, Dear Sirs: Although we're having warm days and cool nights here, it hasn't been cold enough lately to need a coat. I told you once we had no snakes, but since then there have been three or four types of vipers found here—one a deadly Japanese snake.

There are three important buildings I've found here. The oldest frame house is a three story structure where the early missionaries lived. This structure was built the later part of 1700, and has a very interesting history.

One of the outstanding missionary stations is the Chamberlain Home, built of coral around 1830. It was constructed by Levi Chamberlain, who was secular missionary agent from 1823 to 1849.

The Chamberlain Missionary station contains the Carter Library and various mission relics. History of the centuries lives on in this house, for they still have the crane in the fireplace and vessels with which these agents of civilization did their cooking.

An especially interesting landmark is the oldest printing establishment west of the Rocky Mountains, a one story edifice of coral stones plastered together with mud. Early day missionaries built the plant in 1823, and brought over one of the first printing presses to be had at that time.

Miss Sophie Judd, who has charge of the plant now, is a granddaughter of the Judd who brought the printing press over to Honolulu. Yours truly, J. C. Ziegler.

Only One Precinct Increased Its Poll

A list of precincts from the county tax assessor-collector's office of the 1,795 poll taxes paid by county residents for this "off" voting year indicates a decided decline from 1938, when 2,500 poll taxes were paid. Fluvanna was one of the few communities where poll taxes paid showed an increase over 1938 figures.

Payments by precincts follow: Northeast Snyder, 250; Cottonwood Flat 14; Ennis Creek, 25; Dermott 38; Fluvanna 90; Turner 32; Bison 43; China Grove 26; Ira 95; Bethel 30; Dunn 193; Lone Wolf 29; Pylon 76; Hermleigh 176; Camp Springs 61; Canyon 37; Lloyd Mountain 32; Arch 11; Northwest Snyder 10; County Line 16; Southeast Snyder 207; Southwest Snyder 261; and Crowder 42.

Thousands of Boys Enjoy Magazine

Hundreds of thousands of boys and young men read The American Boy Magazine every month and consider it more as a living companion than as a magazine. "It's as much a buddy to me as my neighborhood chum," writes one high school senior. "The American Boy seems to understand a boy's problems and considers them in such a sympathetic and helpful way. It gives advice and entertaining reading on every subject in which a young fellow is interested. It is particularly helpful in sports. I made our school basketball team because of playing tips I read in The American Boy."

Many famous athletes in all sports credit much of their success to helpful suggestions received from sports articles carried in The American Boy Magazine. Virtually every issue offers advice from a famous coach or player. Football, basketball, track, tennis, in fact every major sport is covered in fiction and fact articles.

Teachers, librarians, parents and leaders of boys clubs also recommend The American Boy enthusiastically. They have found that as a general rule regular readers of The American Boy advance more rapidly and develop more worthwhile characteristics than do boys who do not read it.

Trained writers and artists, famous coaches and athletes, explorers, scientists and men successful in business and industry join with an experienced staff to produce in The American Boy, the sort of reading matter boys like best. The American Boy sells on most newsstands at 15c a copy. Subscription prices are $1.50 for one year or $3.00 for three years. Foreign rates 50c a year extra. To subscribe simply send your name, address and remittance direct to The American Boy, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan.

Sons of Legion To Be Organized By County Post

Plans are being perfected this week for the organization of a Sons of the American Legion chapter at the Legion Hut next Thursday night, March 2, states Henry Rosenberg, who has full information concerning this veterans' activity.

"We urge every member of the Will Layne American Legion Post and his son to attend this meet the first Thursday night in March," states Sam O. Nations, Will Layne Post commander.

Regardless of age, a boy whose father served in the World War, and who at present belongs to a Legion post, is eligible for membership in the Sons of the American Legion chapter. Annual dues will be $1.

"When we American Legion members die out," Henry Rosenberg stated, "we will expect these veteran sons to fill our places, and carry on the principles of the Legion organization."

Boys who become Sons of American Legion members will be taken on hunting and fishing trips, and will be taken on "outing" through spring and summer months. Baseball games, and other forms of recreation will be indulged in by the boys.

Beginning with the people of New Zealand at sunrise, the observance moves westward around the globe and will be completed with services held by the missionaries on the St. Lawrence Island, off the coast of Alaska.

The Presbyterian Church will be opened at 10:30 P.M. on Monday, and a continuous program will go on until late afternoon. Local people are urged to go to the church at any hour of the day and remain as long as possible. Congressmen of Texas Seeking to Whip Bollworms

Headed by George Mahon, a group of Texas Congressmen then included Richard M. Kibberg and Milton West, together with Ralph W. Moore, Texas Grange master, asked the budget bureau last week to approve an increase of $800,000 in the congressional appropriation for a pink bollworm eradication program.

Although the budget bureau has already approved $446,000 for this work in the agriculture department supply bill, iniquous reports from the Rio Grande Valley and Central Texas indicate pink boll eradication may be a serious problem this year.

The requested funds would be used in Texas, New Mexico, and Arizona. A department of agriculture release last week to the effect the presence last year of pink bollworms in Scurry, Fisher, Howard, Martin, Terry, Gaines and Nolan Counties in "small quantities" gave added weight to Mahon's additional fund request.

The insidious insects were repeatedly found by department of agriculture field men in "gin trash." Mahon has also requested that Texas Tech at Lubbock be designated as a student training post for West Texas under the government's proposal to train 2,000 student pilots this year and next to bolster up our national air defense personnel.

Oil Front Quiet; Fishing Job Over For Rotary Test

Late Wednesday night reports indicated a tone of quietness prevailed in both the new Ira oil fields, and the northeast part of the county, where conflicting reports have been the order in regards to the Forest Development Company-Jesse Koonsman test five miles north of Camp Springs.

A report Wednesday night from the Coffield & Guthrie No. 1 A-First National Bank rotary test in the new Ira field revealed that a fishing job was being completed, after a bit had been lost in the hole by the spudder moved on the job. Operations were being resumed this morning (Thursday) on the Coffield & Guthrie "air well" just east of the No. 1 A-First National Bank. Casing was cemented at 632 feet, with drilling to be carried to about 1,250 feet in order to tap the pocket of "free air."

The Yarborough & Wheeler No. 1 W. H. Sterling test was drilling Wednesday at 2,084 feet. Since pay is expected to be struck around 2,250 feet, interest in the Yarborough & Wheeler test is reaching a new high this week.

The Sterling well to date has had the best showings in the "upper pay" of any of three wells now drilling in the Ira field. The Paul Teas No. 1 W. P. Thompson, which topped lime last week at 1,150 feet, was drilling this morning (Thursday) at 2,000 feet. The Paul Teas will be a one-half mile north-west extension well to the W. L. Callahan well, if completed for a producer.

Plainview Essay By Girl Is Second In First Division

Gwendolyn Tate of Plainview won the second place award of $1 in Division I of the recently closed rural road betterment essay contest conducted by Roy O. Irvin, county superintendent, cooperating with local and rural mail carriers. Division I included the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Miss Tate's message follows:

Hon. W. Lee O'Daniel, Austin, Texas. Dear Governor: I think it would be a very good idea if one-eighth of the gasoline tax could be used for rural roads.

If our rural roads were better, it would be easier for the school buses to run, easier for the mail carriers to make their runs, and easier for the children to go to school.

When it rains, sleets, or snows, the parents would have a better chance to stay out of the ditch. There would not be so many accidents. I believe if this money were used on rural roads it would benefit more people than if it is used for something else.

PUBLISHERS MEET.

Several newspaper publishers were in Snyder Saturday to make plans for the annual West Texas Press Association convention at Pecos in mid-August. Second Showing of Fluvanna Play Set This Friday Night

Declared one of the best amateur performances ever witnessed in this locality, "The Night Owl" three-act mystery play, will be presented a second time in the Fluvanna auditorium Friday evening, 8:00 o'clock. Admission will be the same, 10 and 20 cents.

Bad weather prevented a number of people from attending the play last Friday, although the cast played to a near-capacity crowd. People from all parts of the county were present. Snyder High School Band attended in uniform and played a group of selections before the play. Other vaudeville numbers were enjoyed, also.

"The Night Owl" is a presentation of the Fluvanna School faculty, and half dozen property men of the stage were required to furnish sound. All members of the cast are experienced on the Fluvanna stage. Mrs. Joe Hale, the mysterious housekeeper, and E. O. Wedgeworth, cast as a hunchback, head the cast.

Supporting players in the mystery play are: Elizabeth Miller, Guy Turner, E. L. Ball, Frances Stavelly, Rose Marie Clawson, J. W. Haynes, Mildred Cornelius and Don Terry. Superintendent Wedgeworth and Miss Clawson are the directors.

Deputy Income Tax Collector H. C. Broadbuss will be in the Snyder County courthouse Friday, March 3, to give assistance to anyone wishing to receive help in completing income tax returns. The hours are 8:30 a. m. to 4:00 p. m.

"The new income tax law presents many complicated problems which the layman, in attempting to file his income tax return for 1938, cannot solve," says W. A. Thomas, collector of internal revenue, Dallas. "This office is therefore anxious to be of help to all taxpayers who desire our assistance in making out their returns."

1939 License Plates Are Moving Slowly

Only 25 sets of 1939 license plates had been issued by the tax assessor-collector's office up to 5:00 o'clock Monday afternoon, Herman Darby, assessor-collector, stated Tuesday. Although car and truck owners are not required by law to have the purple and gold car tags for 1939 on motor vehicles before April 1, they can be put on after March 1. Purchase of tags now, Darby points out, would help avoid a last week rush later.

A Community Loss

When Rev. James E. Spivey moves from Snyder to Denton in a few days, he will be leaving vacant spots in the hearts of his own Presbyterian people. More, he will be leaving a tremendously large vacant spot in the community heart.

Texas Says "Amen"

The declaration on the floor of the Senate Monday that members of the Legislature should give Governor O'Daniel a chance to make good will find a ready "Amen" throughout Texas. Not many citizens of Texas are doubting O'Daniel's intentions; but only a few over-ardent supporters contend that he has not made some serious mistakes since he became governor.

Editorial of the Week

CONSIDER OURSELVES If you were in Germany, you could buy only as much bread and butter as Herr Hitler says you could have, regardless of how much money you might have.

Worthy and Beautiful

Those of us who view the square day after day are looking forward with pleasure to the spring days that will make the courthouse lawn blossom forth with Bermuda, trees and flowers. The greenery and flowers will come forth this year against a background of native-stone wall and bandstand that were not there last year.

Yards in the Spring

In years past Snyder has been known as a town of beautiful yards—but not too many beautiful yards. Never has there been the town-wide interest in yard improvement that Snyder-pride should bring forth. This year there is more reason than ever before for better care of yards, whether they are the site of two-story homes or two-room homes.

They Stopped, Paid

Presidium Pete says numerous "arrests" made by Boy Scouts last week-end, when the youngsters served as traffic officers, serve to magnify the flagrant manner in which all of us disregard driving and walking rules. . . when we think we can get by with it. We are so anxious to get somewhere—anywhere—that we feel insulted if the city marshal or some other officer calls our hand on a traffic law violation. Ain't human nature grand!

Top flight attaches of the American Medical Association say they dare not "contradict" Dr. Nelson's statement without additional study of research data at hand. . . Meanwhile, the partakers of "rare" meat and other undercooked pork delicacies have something very real to have the flitters after, since trichinosis has long been recognized in medical circles as a disease that afflicts many otherwise healthy people.

Current Comment

By LEON GUINN Although it's too early in the year to be making predictions in regards to a possible fruit crop for Scurry County, fruit growers say conditions so far are looking favorable for that once in a year's crop.

Man has been waging a relentless war against the insect world for thousands of years, but so far has failed to completely conquer any one species of insects. Pharaoh in his time bowed before the locust and locust, as did the uprooted Mormons at Salt Lake City, Utah, bow before the "Mormon crickets" in 1854.

Federal authorities are already drawing the battle line for the 1939 grasshopper war, since the mild winter we've had so far has been conducive to preservation of "hopper eggs. Although Scurry County at present is listed in the light infestation area, we have on hand around 57 tons of unmixed bran with which to war on the pests.

On first thought many would suppose plastic surgery was a comparatively new innovation in medical science, but it is actually one of the oldest medical practices on record. The World War, however, put the business of rebuilding human bodies on a scientific basis, with notable advances in plastic surgery having been made through the years since 1920.

In fact, plastic surgery is considered so important now the February issue of The American Journal of Surgery was devoted entirely to a symposium on reconstructive and plastic surgery practices. One of the toughest problems confronting surgeons up until now concerns patients who have received severe burns, but last week Dr. Earl Padgett of the University of Kansas School of Medicine announced a special machine that cuts grafts "any size in one sheet."

Skin grafting has been so improved lately, an ordinary surgeon can take large areas of healthy skin (by small installments of course) from one part of the human body and rebuild on an injured part a new skin that will have only a few scars to show that alterations have ever been in order. Maybe skin grafting isn't a very pleasant subject to discuss, but as long as car accidents continue to give us more injured bodies each year, plastic surgery will indeed occupy a top-rung position in medical practice.

Mrs. Raymond Porter of Chicago explained to a judge that whenever her husband became intoxicated, he would throw part of her out the window. In fact Porter seemed to enjoy unstrapping her wooden leg and heaving it to the street. The judge decided the wooden leg business had gone far enough last week, so Porter was heaved to jail. Which reminds us that divorces have been granted for less actual causes than the episode of the wooden leg.

While 2,000 spectators looked on last week, Peter Weaver of Maysville, Kentucky, won the "world's tobacco spitting" championship" with a 27 foot cast. Weaver and his defeated rivals, however, had another story to tell concerning Maysville's tobacco derby when each was compelled by Dr. C. W. Christine, county health officer, to pay a $1 fine for "spitting in public."

A number of O'Daniel followers who assumed he would be passing the biscuits after the inauguration are finding, instead, that he proposes passing the transaction taxes, which is a slightly polite way of saying we need a state sales tax. If one judges by the size of our state deficit, it is an evident fact we need something in the way of additional funds; but to assume we should jar loose all at once with a sales tax that hits every consumer straight in the eye is an entirely different colored horse.

MARCH 2 WILL BE OBSERVED VIA PROGRAM

County-Wide Texas Day Event in Snyder Gymnasium Next Thursday, 8:00 P. M.

Final plans were being drafted this week to hold a Texas Day program at Snyder School gymnasium next Thursday night, March 2, that will be second to none of the Independence Day programs planned in this territory.

Opening number of the program which starts at 7:30 o'clock, will be the "Star Spangled Banner" by the Tiger Band. Rev. I. A. Smith, Methodist pastor, will offer the invocation.

A group singing of songs will be directed by S. L. Morgan of Terrell, after which an Independence Day dramatization will follow by Snyder School Texas History class.

Closing number of the Texas Day program will be Tiger Band's final number of the evening, "The Eyes of Texas."

Gold Wool Body Jackets Given to 16 Grid Players

Gold wool body jackets with black leather sleeves were given last Thursday to 16 lettermen of the 1938 Tiger football squad.

Bill Shield was picked some time ago as all-district tackle. Carl Hargrove was captain of the 1938 squad. The gold and black jackets were selected by the lettermen in preference to the usual football sweater.

Three-Act Comedy Will Be Given at Ennis Creek School

Ennis Creek Parent-Teacher Association is inviting the public to attend its play Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The P.-T. A. is presenting the young people of the community in a three-act comedy, "Wild Ginger" by M. G. Eisey.

Admission for adults and young people will be 10 cents, and children will be admitted free. An evening full of fun and entertainment is promised attendants, according to Mrs. Dee Robison, association president, and the play directors, Gladys Wiman and Woodrow Smith.

Musical numbers will furnish between-acts entertainment. Out-of-community folks will be given a hearty welcome, P.-T. A. leaders have said.

Farmers May Buy Aerial Maps From Local Agent Office

"We have received information from the state AAA office to the effect all county producers who so desire may purchase aerial maps of their farms," the county agent stated Tuesday.

In its state-wide aerial mapping program, the AAA has acquired a photographic bird's eye view of 370,000 Texas farms and ranches. Photos will be used in 176 counties this year to check farm compliance with.

Farmers or others wanting aerial maps for private use are urged to call at the county agent's office, where private orders will be pooled and admitted to the state office at College Station.

"A schedule of aerial map prices for private use will vary from district to district," George Slaughter, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee, report.

"But we want every farmer who desires an aerial map of his farm to place his order with the county agent."

The aerial maps, which are to the scale of 600 feet to the inch, are accurate to within .0010 of one per cent. IT'S A BOY. Lewis Blackard was passing out the cigars to friends around the square last Thursday and receiving their congratulations on the arrival of his son. Young Rodgers Lewis was born in a local hospital early Thursday morning, weighing over six pounds. Mrs. Blackard, the former Boley Rodgers, and the baby are doing well. Among first out-of-town visitors to the newborn were his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rodgers of El Centro, California, who arrived last Thursday night and are still here.

Extends Snyder Special "Invite" To Borden Event

Borden County Agent E. B. McLeroy, principal speaker at the Lions Club program Tuesday at noon, extended the members and all other Snyder and Scurry County citizens a cordial invitation to attend the field day and boys' club show at Gail Saturday of this week.

"You won't find too many club boys or too many animals on exhibit," he said, "but you will find that the boys, the animals and the hospitality are just about the finest quality you'll find anywhere."

Also guests for the day were: Estrella Rabel, home demonstration agent, and X B Cox Jr., county agent, Scurry County; Pat Bullock, former president of the club; Leon Guinn, Times staff writer, and R. I. Malone of Sweetwater.

Recently-elected new members at the meeting were Hollis Browning and Ollie Stinson. King Sides, program chairman, asked several questions of members in regard to Lions International citizenship training, featured in connection with the celebration of Washington's birthday.

C. Wedgeworth, of the progress of school contract plans. President H. L. Wren was in the chair for the first time since his recent operation at Temple. He expressed his appreciation to Lions and others for their remembrances of flowers, cards and letters.

Boy Scouts Reaped More Than $33 for Traffic Violations

Snyder Boy Scouts, who acted as traffic officers last Friday and Saturday, supplied a surprising index to city traffic violations by making 310 arrests and collecting $33 in fines for legal infractions during the two-day "obey the law" drive.

While most offenders gladly paid their small fines for running red lights and failing to halt at stop signs, a few supposedly solid citizens "exploded" over the tolls levied by the Scouts.

John Baum, scoutmaster, stated Tuesday that the fines collected will go "entirely to the local chapter for carrying on a spring and summer Scouting program in Snyder."

City officers turned the job of corralling traffic violators over to the local Scout troop last Friday and Saturday as a climax to nationwide observance of Boy Scout Week. Probably one of the most interesting arrests made by the Scouts concerned a state employee from Austin, who was "pinched" for running a red light. Although this gent said a "whole tribe of Scouts" couldn't get away with stopping him, they did—for about 50 cents worth of traffic violation fines.

Royce C. Eiland and Frances Largent of Merkel, Hardin-Simmons University students from Abilene, were week-end guests of Eiland's mother, Mrs. Ethel Eiland.

Big Spring AAA Range Meeting Attracts Locals

C. D. Jones, Harrie Winston, X. B. Cox Jr., Edward S. Hyman, Frank Wilson, I. S. Cross, and Perry Echols represented Scurry County Saturday at a District 6 AAA range practice meeting at Big Spring.

Jones and Winston, county range inspectors; X. B. Cox Jr., county agent; Edward S. Hyman, administrative assistant agent; and Wilson, Cross and Echols, county committee members, were among delegates from 10 counties that attended the Saturday Triple A meet.

Principal speakers included J. W. Deak, Triple A field assistant for District 6; A. L. Smith, chief field assistant, and M. R. Bentley, engineering specialist with the Texas Experiment Station Service.

It will be necessary, it was learned Saturday, for those wishing to build dirt tanks as a 1939 range practice to have the site or location inspected and approved by a representative of the county committee.

"Those wishing to start building tanks as a 1939 practice are urged to contact the county agent's office at once," X. B. Cox Jr., county agent, states. "There are some changes in the Triple A range program for 1939 that will effect one's range payments, unless accepted practices are adhered to."

Fred Wolcott, Snyder-reared boy who became the No. 1 hurdler of the nation as a sophomore at Rice Institute last year, left Houston Tuesday by airplane for New York to participate in the National A. A. U. indoor meet.

Wolcott will be trained by Coach Carl Merner at Columbia University for several days before the meet. It will be Wolcott's first time to run on boards.

Wolcott, who is entered in the 65 yard hurdle race, holds several hurdle records in the United States, and has lost only one race in his college career. This occurred when he finished second to his team mate, Jack Patterson, after stumbling on the last hurdle.

West Texas region pays a penalty on first-class rates for equal hauls of over 72 percent more than official territory.
