THE STINSONS remember their mother. It will be 11 years ago May 28 when Mrs. T. C. Stinson died at her home in Southwest Snyder. Three days later Mr. Stinson died. The pioneer Scurry County couple, parents of children who had achieved success, are well remembered by their sons on Mother's Day each year. After he teaches his large men's Bible class at the First Baptist Church in Abilene, Jim and his wife, each Mother's Day, head for Snyder. This year they were guests of the Joe Stinsons. Joining them in the Mother's Day observance were the Lee Stinsons and the J. D. Scott families. For the eleventh year, the graves of Mother and Father Stinson were decorated on Mother's Day.

FRED WOLOCOIT, this town's tow-headed timber topper, sailed along the 100-yard dash route at 9.5 seconds in Southwest Conference preliminaries last week-end to break a conference record. A tall wild helped him. He won the event in the finals in 9.8 and also took both hurdles numbers, his specialties. He was anchor man on the second place Rice Institute relay team. Texas nosing out the Owls despite Fred's filling of a big gap on the last lap. The local boy, who has not been defeated in the hurdles this year or last year, except in an indoor meet in New York City (and he has lost the 100-yard dash only once), was seen in action at College Station last week-end by his mother, Mrs. F. W. Wolcott, of Snyder.

J. S. BRADBURY, city secretary, who is getting accustomed to his new quarters in Snyder's recently completed City Hall, says he is liking his roomier location mighty fine. "I sometimes get a little lonely," Bradbury says, "for the crowds found around the square, but enjoy working in my new office location. I find the added room and light better to work in."

MORE SCHOOL CLOSINGS SET

Despite the fact Ennis Creek Schoolhouse burned Saturday night, the scheduled ending of the 1938-39 school term at Ennis Creek tomorrow (Friday) heads the list of county schools closing this week.

Ira Cottonwood Flat, Canyon, Plainview and Turner compose a quintet of other county schools closing tomorrow (Friday). Closing exercises for some of the above schools is slated for tonight (Thursday). Baccalaureate services at Fluvanna are scheduled for Sunday morning, preceding ending of the Fluvanna school term Friday, May 26. Baccalaureate services are also scheduled for Dunn Sunday night, with commencement exercises to follow Tuesday night, May 23, 8:30 o'clock, in the Dunn gymnasium.

Save Odd Jobs for Scouts This Summer

Snyder people are urged to give Boy Scouts their odd jobs during the spring and summer months, so that several who could not otherwise go may attend the summer camp. People may call The Times office anytime during the day, and a boy will be sent immediately.

The local Lions Club, which sponsors the Boy Scout troop, is also heading the odd job plea. The boys will be glad to mow lawns, cut weeds, water flowers, haul trash, dispose of cans, wash cars or any other task of this nature.

Yep, it looks like rain! Misty clouds are hanging over the county as The Times goes to press, holding promise of the wettest May in history.

LIQUOR CASES FEATURE NEXT WEEK'S COURT

Sheriff John Lynch Says He Took Oath to Enforce State Beer and Liquor Laws

Strict enforcement of beer and liquor laws was included in his oath of office, Sheriff John Lynch believes, and several beer and liquor cases docketed for county court next Monday indicate that he intends to follow the letter of the law.

Beer and liquor charges filed in county court recently are against the operator of Minute Inn on the north highway, against two local druggists, and against one local negro and one Slaton negro.

H. J. Letcher of Colorado City, operator of Minute Inn, opened recently on the north highway just outside the Snyder city limits, is charged with illegal possession of malt liquor (beer) in a dry area. Sheriff Lynch says Minute Inn has suspended selling of beer.

Officers Visit Twice. In two visits to the inn, county officers confiscated more than a case of beer, Lynch said. Lynch, Deputy Sam Nations and Constable Ray Hardin made the first trip; Lynch and Hardin the second trip. The case against Letcher is set for the June term of county court.

Illegal sale of liquor under a medicinal permit is the charge against J. D. Scott and Cleve Blackard. Medicinal permit of Slaton No. 2, the drug store with which they are connected, was suspended for one month, effective May 15, by the State Liquor Control Board. The complaint against Scott and Blackard is set for Monday hearing.

Two Negroes Included. Willie Williams, negro, is charged with illegal possession of liquor in a dry area. His place in the colored section was recently raided, six cases of beer and eight and one-half pints of liquor having been confiscated by county officers. This case, also, is on the Monday docket.

Jake Hill, Slaton negro, several days ago paid a $125 fine, including court costs, when he pled guilty before County Judge Sterling Williams to a charge of illegal transportation of liquor in a dry area.

Nineteen Enroll As SAL Receives Legion Charter

Nineteen members have been enrolled in the recently organized Sons of the American Legion chapter here, Henry Rosenberg, in charge of local SAL work, reported Tuesday. Charter for the local chapter was received last week. Sons of American Legion members, no matter what age, are eligible for membership in the organization that seeks to carry on the work started by the parent Legion organization.

Rosenberg, who states SAL officers will be installed in the near future, estimates a total of 200 potential members reside in this trade territory.

Charter members of the SAL chapter are Melvin Newson Jr., James M. Gideon, Billy Jo Stinson, Roy Allen Baze, Edwin Terry, C. V. Thompson Jr., Horace O. Nations, Glenn Nations, J. E. Shipp Jr., John Terrell Lynch, Robert Lee Norred, William Porter King Jr. and Jim Herbert Norred, all of Snyder; Billy Jo Kinsey, Hermleigh; Amil Kruse, Ira; Edgar M. Herbert W. Hervey E. and John P. Lammert of Lorraine.

Organization work will center around Americanization, which will be taught SAL members. Especially will this Legion sponsored chapter be valuable, leaders feel, since foreign countries are concentrating on various youth movements.

Infantile Paralysis Chapter Seen Soon

W. J. Ely, county chairman of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, received this week the necessary papers with which to make formal application for organization of a Scurry County chapter.

Ely announces plans are being made for immediate application, in order that the local organization may be affiliated with the state and national set-ups to take care of any cases that may come to the local chapter's attention.

"The fight against infantile paralysis provides one of the most worthy causes to which people may contribute," Ely stated Wednesday, "and deserves the whole-hearted support of county residents."

ALTMAN AT RAINBOW. H. B. Altman of Abilene assumed duties Monday morning as the new meat market man at Rainbow Market Place. An experienced meat cutter, Altman takes the place of Charles Taylor of Colorado, who operated the meat market department at Rainbow for several weeks.

Snyder Collegian Doctors Water to Pay His Expenses

"The resourcefulness of GERALD GREENE of Snyder, 24-year-old sophomore at Texas Technological College, not only is paying for his education," declares "Texas Parade" in its current issue, "but is developing a business which may furnish him lucrative employment after he graduates should he change his mind about becoming a journalist."

Presenting a picture of the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Greene of Snyder, the widely circulated magazine continues:

"Water on the Texas plains contains a high flourin content which discolors children's teeth. Heber Ellsworth, former Tech student, worked out a formula in chemistry laboratory for eliminating flourin from the water by distilling it, then adding correct proportions of calcium and iodine.

Green took over the marketing of the water in June, 1937, and has made all his expenses since. He also sells pure distilled water to drug stores for filling prescriptions, to filling stations for battery water and to mirror makers.

"During the summer months his sales run as high as 6,000 gallons a month. Greene also supports a wife and sister and furnished employment for another Tech student."

Manufacturing Has Shown Local Gains Over Former Years

The biennial report given out this week by the bureau of the census in regard to manufacturing in Texas for 1937 shows Scurry County had four manufacturing establishments employing an annual average of 34 wage earners.

Local manufacturing plants listed in the census report include Texas Utilities Corporation, Inc.; Ware's and Snyder Bakeries, bread; Fuller Cotton Oil Company, oil mill; and Times Publishing Co., newspaper and printing.

The employment of 34 wage earners by the four local manufacturing firms during 1937 shows a gain over 1935, when 26 employees were listed on payroll. The bureau of the census withheld detailed information to avoid disclosing approximations for individual establishments.

COUNTY GIVEN GOOD SOAKING FOR TWO DAYS

One of Wettest Mays on Record Has Given Good Outlook Despite Previous Dry Months

Snyder's recorded rainfall of 2.49 inches this week that fell in three installments—Monday night, Tuesday morning and night—blanketed most of the county with general rains that soaked deep into drying soils.

Monday night's precipitation of .80 of an inch moisture was followed Tuesday morning by driving sheets of rain from the northwest that gave Snyder 1.32 inches rainfall. Some hail was reported at Fluvanna, Hermleigh and other points, with most of the county receiving from one to one and a half inches of rainfall.

The total of 2.49 inches rainfall this week was completed by Tuesday night's installment of .37 of an inch precipitation. Coupled with 1.76 inches of rain received during the first four days of May, the total of 4.25 inches moisture received so far, with the exception of May, 1937, gives Scurry County the wettest May since 1925, when 4.28 inches of rain was recorded.

According to figures kept by Mrs. B. G. Johnson, official weather gauger, rainfall last May, 1937, amounted to 4.27 inches. May, 1922, was the wettest May on record since figures began to be recorded, with 5.09 inches of recorded moisture.

Many cotton farmers must plant their crop again, but this inconvenience and expense is slight in comparison with the benefits from the additional moisture. Despite extremely light moisture last fall and winter and early in the year, this May rainfall gives farmers and ranchers at least an average outlook for the year.

Many Snyderites To Convention of WTCC in Abilene

Probably 75 Snyder and Scurry County people, including the Snyder School Band, were in Abilene Monday (Tuesday) and Wednesday for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention. The town's various activities at the convention kept the name "Snyder" in the spotlight at many functions.

Ruth Line, sponsor, matched her brunette beauty with many other sponsors of West Texas towns, and made a good showing. Sweetwater's Joyce Whaley, named last year as "Miss Sweetwater" in that city's bathing beauty revue, was selected by audience vote at Abilene as "Miss West Texas."

Ernest Taylor Jr., "My Home Town" speaker, made a good showing in the first preliminary. Judges afterward said he was among the first ranking speakers in the first group, but he was not among the two winners in his group of 23 speakers.

The Snyder School Band, one of more than 40 music groups in the Tuesday afternoon parade, made a good showing as petite Bobbie Jo Gorman sang as drum major.

Mrs. Earl Louder, accordionist, appeared on three programs during the convention. E. H. Lilly presented several Snyder accomplishments in a brief radio skit Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Carl England was Ruth's chaperone at Abilene, and Bob Moser was her escort.

SET PRODUCTS SHOW MEETING

All committee members of the 1938 Scurry County Products Show organization, together with all other interested in the 1939 Products Show, will meet in the district court room Saturday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock, to outline plans for the two-day show in October.

E. J. Anderson, chairman of the central committee, who will preside at the meeting, states October 13 and 14 have been set as dates for the county-wide event that is expected to surpass the 1938 show.

"The success of last year's show," Anderson states, "was due to the cooperation of everyone interested in the Products Show, and especially to the men and women in our rural areas."

The general public is extended a cordial invitation to attend Saturday afternoon's meeting.

LIMPS INTO TOWN. Cleo Tarter, Dunn superintendent, limped into town yesterday. His limp is of a bad-acting ankle that he turned in when he stepped out of a school bus, and had to be carried into the house. But he was all smiles, as he beamed over the fine rains the Dunn section has been receiving—and over the prospects of school closing in a few days.

Local Artist

Mrs. Earl Louder of Snyder, widely-known accordionist, was one of the West Texas artists presented Monday and Tuesday nights on the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention stage show programs. She also appeared Tuesday at noon on the banquet program for Chamber of Commerce officials and newspapermen. Snyder received considerable publicity through her efforts. Appearance on the program was only by invitation of the director, Mrs. Hila Weathers, who scoured West Texas for talent.

LOCAL JUNIOR HIGH PROGRAM SET THURSDAY

May 25 Exercises Feature Highest Students, Eddie Richardson and Bobby Vann

Seventy-seven grade diplomas will be handed as many junior high school graduates in formal graduation exercises next Thursday evening, May 25, 8:00 o'clock, at First Presbyterian Church. Junior High School Principal Hadley Reeve will be in general charge of the service.

The program has been arranged by Reeve and the seventh grade sponsors, Mary Evelyn Pickle and Dorothy Strayhorn. Roy O. Irvin, county superintendent, will be the only outside speaker.

Seventh graders will sing their class song, selections will be given by hand students and Director Johnny Herasley and the junior high school choral club will be presented.

The two highest ranking students are Eddie Richardson and Bobby Vann, and both will be heard on the program. Eddie, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Richardson, is the highest ranking student in the class, and he will give a brief talk of farewell. Bobby, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Vann, who ranks second high, will give the greetings early in the program.

Perfect attendance certificates will be awarded at the close of the program, after the diplomas have been presented, and the junior high school honor roll will be read.

Heavy Sign-Up for Some REA Sections Of County Reported

Andy Jones, manager of REA's Rotan-Camp Spring Midwest Electric Cooperative, and Construction Engineer Yearout conferred with E. J. Anderson, county REA coordinator, Wednesday on progress of REA work in Scurry County.

An almost 100 per cent sign-up of subscribers in some parts of Scurry County was reported Wednesday by Anderson. Jones and Yearout are anxious to get all petitions, deposits and right-of-way contracts in hand as soon as possible, since REA headquarters looks with favor upon the Scurry County REA project.

Information received Wednesday from the state REA office indicates the rural electrification project from Camp Springs to Hermleigh, Pyron and Insdale, together with the electrification project from Fluvanna to Dermott, Union, Bethel and Arah will doubtless be approved with few changes.

Trio Chosen for Colorado City's Oil Celebration

Paul C. Teas, Maurice Brownfield and G. M. Heinzelman were appointed at Monday night's Chamber of Commerce board of directors meet to cooperate with Colorado City officials in jointly celebrating the Permian Basin's first discovery of oil in Mitchell County in July, 1920.

R. J. Wallace, chairman of the celebration committee at Colorado City, and others plan a permanent organization of the Permian Basin to include a West Texas-wide celebration of the vast basin's first discovery of oil in Mitchell County. Finding of oil in Mitchell started development of the Permian Basin, recognized as one of the nation's greatest oil reserves.

As a result of Monday night's meeting, the Chamber of Commerce civic affairs committee will consult with local railroads in regard to obtaining a loading rack for Snyder.

The highway committee was instructed to ascertain what will be done with the proposed military system of highways. A resolution was prepared and sent to Texas senators and congressmen at Washington in regard to star route mail contracts.

The board of directors gave a vote of thanks to The Times for help and assistance given in the recent road bond election.

A. Johnston Named Local Soil Delegate

At a meeting of Scurry County landowners in the courthouse Monday afternoon, A. Johnston was elected delegate of the local state conservation soil act committee to attend the district soil conservation convention.

FIRE DESTROYS ENNIS SCHOOL

Another Scurry County landmark was destroyed by a late Saturday night fire of undetermined origin that made ashes of the three room Ennis Creek schoolhouse, 14 miles north of Snyder.

A piano and one teacher's desk constituted all the equipment salvaged from the burning structure. The blaze had virtually enveloped the schoolhouse before it was discovered.

Loss of the school plant by fire is a serious blow to the Ennis Creek community, since the schoolhouse had been a community center for years. Church services were also held in the building.

Ennis Creek had been selected as host site for the Fifth Sunday Singing Convention in July.

FIRST COUNTY COLT SHOW HAS HIGH INTEREST

Twenty Animals Entered Tuesday; Others Expected Prior to Saturday Show Here

Approximately 20 colts had been entered up until Tuesday night for Scurry County's first Spring Colt Show, which will be held here Saturday afternoon at the Products Show grounds.

H. E. Smith of Robert Lee, county agent of Coke County, will do the judging for the colt show, beginning at 2:00 o'clock. Livestock owners are expressing a keen interest in Saturday's show, carrying with it ribbons in first, second, third and fourth places.

The Chamber of Commerce, jointly sponsoring the county's first Spring Colt Show in cooperation with the county agent's office, reports "everything is in readiness for a real colt show."

Winners in each class that includes saddle colts, draft colts and mule colts, together with grand champion colts of the show, will be given a free breeding by county stallion and jack owners.

Colts foaled since January 1, 1939, will be eligible for judging and exhibition. Colts can be entered for placing up until noon Saturday.

J. J. MOCKBEE, who is in charge of the Navy recruiting station at Abilene, was in Snyder Wednesday. He stated that the purpose of his visit is to try to bring the Navy in closer contact with the general public. He conferred with the postmaster, school and public officials. "Texas furnishes more good men for the Navy, in proportion to population, than any other state," he said.

George P. McCarthy's address at the courthouse Friday afternoon of the Navy recruiting station was preceded by his attendance, together with X. B. Cox Jr., at the Dunn boys' 4-H Club meeting, at which 40 members were present. Leading poultry raisers of the county heard McCarthy, A. & M. College poultry specialist, in the district court room on poultry diseases, heating, ventilation and approved blood testing methods.

Roy Stokes has as one of his most prized heirlooms the Stokes family Bible, which was given him by his father, the late R. M. Stokes. The Bible has been in the Stokes family for four generations, the earliest records were made in 1805. These records include names of some of the Stokes slaves before the Civil War. Print in the aged book is so dim that the date of publication cannot be determined. The Bible was exhibited at the local Methodist Church recently along with other old Bibles, and it was by far the oldest of the group.

The largest graduating class in Fluvanna history was entertained by the juniors in proverbial fashion at the Manhattan Hotel last Thursday evening, as an artificial moon shed beams of romance and jollity. Billy Sims was toastmaster, and Superintendent E. O. Wedgeworth, his right-hand man, Rose Marie Clawson led the juniors in a unique program of music and speaking parts. Rev. Dick O'Brien, pastor of the Stamford Baptist Church, was the humorous yet uplifting chief speaker.

Mrs. Clyde M. Boren, vice president of Ingleside Club, headed the receiving line, in which were presented two new church women of the town—Mrs. C. H. Art Guild Closes Year's Work Tuesday

A picnic supper Tuesday evening, planned for an outdoor affair but changed because of the afternoon rain, formally closed the year of work for Snyder's Art Guild. The group gathered at the home of Edith Crantham, president, for supper, and each member broiled her own meat.

A brief business meeting was held, and Betty Lynn Gatlin, daughter of one member, sang for the following members: Wilma Shropshire, Frances Boren, Raylene Smith, Vera Periman, Quata Barrow, Effie McLeod, Estella Rabel, Jewel Foster, Mrs. Ivan Gatlin, Mrs. Maude C. DeBoid, Mrs. Billie Lee Jr. and the hostesses.

Favors were printed lists of the senior girls, rolled to resemble diplomas. Assisting with the serving were Horrence Leath and Margaret Gray, junior students.

Demonstration Club Notes

Canyon Girls Meet.

Members of the Canyon girls 4-H Club met with Miss Rabel, home demonstration agent, at Canyon Schoolhouse Monday.

"Frame gardens should be planted now," Miss Rabel told club members. "Lettuce, spinach, Swiss chard, radishes and mustard are quite suitable for frame garden replanting."

Gaynelle Pherigo reported she would set out tomatoes this week. Mrs. Ernest Adams was elected sponsor of the Canyon girls 4-H Club to meet with them through the summer.

Ira 4-H Meeting.

"Salads should come in for consideration as economical foods when leftovers are used to make them," Miss Rabel told Ira 4-H Club girls who met with her at Ira Schoolhouse Tuesday.

Miss Rabel gave a demonstration in salad making, using vegetables grown in a frame garden. Twenty-five club girls and visitors attended the club meeting.

Salad Recipe Given.

"You really need raw vegetables from your frame garden in order that your body may have the necessary vitamins and minerals," Estella Rabel, home demonstration agent, stated Tuesday at a meeting of the Dunn junior and senior girls' 4-H Club.

"Salads," Miss Rabel said, "should be mixed just before serving to prevent dressing from becoming watery and salad leaves from wilting. Russian dressing can be made by grating or grinding a beet, carrot and onion; to which should be added chopped green peppers and mayonnaise. A generous helping of this dressing should be used on crisp spinach."

The Dunn Club girls decided in the business session to meet with the China Grove women the first Tuesday of each month and with Round Top Club women the second Tuesday of each month. Seventeen senior girls and 35 junior girls attended Tuesday's meet.

OUR PATRONS

tell us they appreciate the fact that floors at the Ideal Wash House are always dry; drainage pipes are all below the floor level; washing machines are all in excellent shape; and that water has that easy-to-wash "feel" in it.

These factors make washing at our place a real pleasure, our satisfied patrons say.

Registration for H. D. Meeting Is Well Beyond 250

Representatives from 16 West Texas counties attended a meeting of district six, Texas Home Demonstration Association, in Snyder Saturday. Registration reached well over the 250 home demonstration women, agents and visitors expected, in spite of the unfavorable weather. Sessions of the district meeting were held in the auditorium of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. G. F. Thorp of Lamesa Dawson County, vice president of the district group, was in charge of the meeting.

Miss Estella Rabel, Scurry County home demonstration agent, and members of 12 county clubs were hostesses for the day.

Several resolutions pertaining to home demonstration work in the state were passed, and Mrs. Dennis Knight of Gaines County was endorsed by district six for new vice president. Mrs. Thorp was endorsed as a candidate for auditor of the state association. Reports of various club delegates disclosed the fact that 960 frame gardens have been built in district six.

The Extension Service of A. & M. College was represented by Mrs. Isla Mae Chapman, specialist in home industries; Nora Ellen Elliott, specialist in food preparation; and Ruth Thompson, district six home agent. Miss Thompson spoke on the relationship of home demonstration work to the AAA program.

Mrs. W. W. Mitchell, Norton, treasurer of Texas Home Demonstration Association, was principal speaker on the afternoon program. Rev. I. A. Smith, host pastor, gave the invocation, and group singing was led by Mrs. E. L. Eikenberg of Mitchell County.

Mrs. C. R. Roberson, chairman of expansion in Scurry County, gave the welcome address, and Mrs. Claude Alexander of Eldorado responded. Hazel Doyle of Eldorado and Loy Dunn of Lamesa gave reports on work of the 4-H Clubs.

A reception honoring visiting women was held in the church basement in the late afternoon, with Scurry County women as hostesses. The two elected hostesses from each of the 12 Scurry County women's clubs stood in the receiving line. Meses. Joe T. Johnston and Guy Stoker presided at the tea table, from which food punch and cookies were served.

Counties represented at the meeting were: Nolan, Fisher, Gaines, Dawson, Mitchell, Howard, Midland, Tom Green, Schleicher, El Paso, Hudspeth, Pecos, Martin, Menard, Ward and Scurry. Irma Sealy, El Paso agent, headed the delegation coming the longest distance to attend the meeting. The El Paso group spent Friday night in Big Spring, completing their journey early Saturday.

Fifth Generation in Miller Family With Birth of Local Boy

Fifth generation was formed in a local family this week with the arrival Monday morning at 8:00 o'clock of Richard Erwin, young son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Miller Jr. The Richard is for the baby's dad, a Snyder businessman, and the Erwin in for his mother's family (she is the former Janice Erwin). Mrs. Miller and her son are still in the local hospital.

The fifth generation comes in the Miller family—Mrs. Mattie Middleton of Snyder is the great-grandmother, Mrs. R. N. Miller of Gall the great-grandmother, Mrs. Lora Miller, Snyder, the grandmother and R. C. Miller Jr. the father. Other grandparents include R. N. Miller, Borden County rancher, and on the Erwin side of the family are Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Erwin of Snyder and Mrs. Erwin's mother, Mrs. J. B. Coleman of San Antonio.

Among first out-of-town visitors for young Richard Erwin were Mrs. O. O. Harris and daughter, Evelyn, of Sweetwater.

Louise Ely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Ely, was home for the week-end from Draughon's Business College, Abilene.

I. A. Smith Jr. of Floydada was a week-end guest with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. I. A. Smith, here.

Kenneth Alexander was over from Colorado to spend Mother's Day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Alexander.

Mrs. John R. Williams had as her guest Saturday and Sunday her sister, Mrs. Floyd Countiss of Midland.

Old Heads know how to make Texas telephones talk...

Your telephone in Texas is served by folks who learned their trade in the school of experience... By men who know the feel of a sleet-lashed pole in a wintry wind... By women to whom the state's vast copper network of three million miles of wire is as an open book.

Of the 8,700 employees who watch day and night over this company's lines in Texas, nearly 4,500 have at least 10 years of telephone experience. More than 1,000 of these have been in the business for 20 years or longer, and a small group of 186 veterans count their years of telephone service at 30 and more.

From department heads down, their friendly "know how", born of years of experience, plays a vital part in giving fast, dependable telephone service, at a price that is reasonable to you.

Mahon Seeks to Secure Release of AAA Checks

Congressman George Mahon this week announced that he had conferred in Washington with Comptroller General Brown and officials of the Department of Agriculture and Commodity Credit Corporation regarding the issuance of 1938 AAA compliance checks to producers who, it is claimed, are indebted to the Commodity Credit Corporation by reason of the fact that cotton placed in the loan during the 1937 season was allegedly overgraded.

The cotton in question was stored in certain warehouses at Jayton, Haskell, Lorenzo, Snyder, O'Donnell and Hamlin.

Mahon stated that, in cases where the Commodity Credit Corporation was demanding a set-off agreement because of alleged overgrading of the cotton considerable delay had occurred in College Station and that it had been held that these cases had to come to Washington for an additional audit before final payment. Hundreds of producers throughout many West Texas counties are affected by this action.

"However, it now appears," Mahon said, "under procedure worked out this week, that these cases are cleared at College Station and referred to Washington final approval of payment can be secured very promptly here.

"Last fall producers and I myself were assured by the Commodity Credit Corporation that where the farmers signed set-off agreements or paid alleged deficits in cash there would be no delay in the issuance of checks for compliance with the 1938 AAA program.

"Chairman of the Farmers Committee Joe Zeese of Dickens, Secretary of the Committee Judge Marshall Formby of Dickens, and hundreds of farmers have joined me in demanding that this promise be kept. Moreover, we are exerting every effort to cooperate in securing more prompt delivery of all the other AAA checks which are still outstanding in many localities."

Mrs. Herman Morton of Wink arrived Sunday night to spend the week with her mother, Mrs. A. M. Curry.

Mrs. Edgar Eckhardt and Royce Teague of Lakin, Kansas, have been visiting with Mrs. Eckhardt's sister, Mrs. J. M. Doak, here. Mrs. Doak accompanied the visitors back home for a several-week visit.

Several New Blocks Of Paving Complete

A total of 10 1-2 blocks of Snyder streets have been paved within the past four weeks, Bill Geisler, WPA foreman, stated Wednesday. Paving work has been held up considerably this week, due to rains.

Tack coating has been placed on two more blocks, preparatory to hot topping operations. Calche was placed last week and this on three and a half more blocks, to be followed with tack coating in the near future. When completed, the city-wide paving project will give Snyder 10 blocks of new paving within the past two months.

Dunn 4-H Club Has 45 Girls as Members

The years of 1938 and 1939 have been a big success for the Dunn 4-H Club girls. There are 45 club girls now carrying on a 4-H project. These projects will be judged in July. The best articles will be selected and exhibited in the district fair in August at Lamesa. One girl from each club in the county will be given a free trip to College Station. Each girl in the Dunn club is striving to be one of the girls to go to College Station. A radio program will be given on station KBST by Dunn girls in the near future.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Spears were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smyth of Abilene, Faynell Spears, and Peggy Mathis of Midland, both students in Hardin-Simmons University.

Mr. and Mrs. Joyce B. Drinkard of Anton and Victor Drinkard of Odessa were week-end guests with the J. G. Drinkards and J. S. Lewis family.

Ballinger Pastor's Association Writes Ward Appreciation

The Times has received copy of the following commendatory resolution, from the Pastors' Association of Ballinger, concerning Rev. C. H. Ward, new pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here:

"Inasmuch as the Rev. C. H. Ward has been for more than two years one of the most valuable, most faithful, and greatly beloved member of this association, and as a minister has greatly endeared himself to the people of our city,

"And, inasmuch as our dearly beloved brother has moved to the City of Snyder, Texas, where he has been called to the pastorate of the Presbyterian Church,

"Therefore, be it resolved by this pastors' association, that we express our sincere appreciation and love for this our brother pastor, and that we recommend him to his new congregation and to the people of Snyder as a genuine Christian minister of the gospel, and a faithful servant of the people."

The resolution is signed by Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist and Church of the Nazarene pastors.

European Situation Discussed by Ward

An address on the present European situation by Rev. C. H. Ward, recently called Presbyterian pastor, was a highlight of Tuesday's Lions Club luncheon at the Manhattan Hotel.

Due to the fact that several Lions were attending Abilene's WTCC convention, only 20 members were present. Lion W. R. Bell was appointed chairman of the nominations committee, with Frank Farmer and J. E. Blakey appointed members.

W. L. Jones, east side druggist, and Rev. C. H. Ward were guests.

Hugh Birdwell spent the week-end with his wife and their two-week-old daughter, Huanna, in Lubbock.

Class Affair at Hotel Draws 125 Snyder Students

Snyder's annual junior-senior banquet held Friday evening at the Manhattan Hotel was enjoyable for 125 local people. Guests besides the junior and senior classes included members of the faculty, A. A. (Pat) Bullock, main speaker, and several others.

Vernon Moffett, junior class president, was toastmaster, presenting the toast to the seniors and the other numbers on program in grand style, as the group embarked on a "Sea Voyage." The voyage idea was carried out all evening.

Hosts for the evening were members of the junior class and their sponsors, Vera Periman and M. E. Stanfield, who planned for and arranged the banquet. Honored guests were members of the graduating class and Effie Elizabeth McLeod and A. W. Yeats, senior sponsors.

Table coverings were in deep blue, as were covers for the souvenir programs, which were decorated with an ocean voyage scene and contained menu, program and place for autographs. Small seashells, on which the name of each attendant was written, made unique place cards. The favors were miniature ships with peppermint stick candy smoke stacks.

The invocation was given by Superintendent C. Wedgeworth, and a two-course meal followed. The Seagoing menu was as follows: Whale, sea beans, anchors, sailor's delight, sea rolls, seaweed snickers a la seafoam, breakers and rum.

Response to the welcome was given by J. R. Popjoy, senior president. Other program numbers were as follows: Piano solos, Patti Hicks and Horrence Leath; vocal, Mildred Herod, "Shipmates Stand Together," accompanied by Horrence Leath; tap dance, Billy Jean Wilford; reading, "Little Sis Helps Things Along," Carolyn Dunn, Ruby Lavendar, guest soloist, sang "Only a Rose," with accompaniment by Horrence Leath.

A. A. Bullock, formerly county superintendent, and always a favored after-dinner speaker, was presented in the main address of the evening.

Dr. Scarborough to Give Friday Lecture

Dr. A. O. Scarborough, veteran Snyder physician, announces that he will deliver a lecture in the district court room Friday, May 19, at 8:00 p. m. The subject will be: "A Few Observations Gathered While Passing Along the Hall of Time."

An alumni of Missouri Medical College, Kentucky School of Medicine, New York Polytechnic, and the University of California, Dr. Scarborough was a well-known lecturer in his earlier days. He told The Times yesterday, as he extended an invitation for the public to hear the lecture, that he believes he is even more capable now, after many years of experience, to inform and entertain his hearers.

Open House Draws Almost 500 Friday To Snyder Hospital

Snyder General Hospital's staff of doctors, nurses and business manager was on hand to greet nearly 500 visitors, who called during open house Friday. Occasion for the festivity was National Hospital Day, and members of Altrurian Daughters Club were hostesses for the day.

Beginning at 9:00 o'clock Friday morning, and continuing until 8:00 that night the visitors were welcomed and conducted through the home-owned hospital. A linen shower, sponsored by Altrurian Daughters, replenished the stock of supplies for the hospital, with friends bringing their gifts as long as a week in advance.

The operating room with its dummy on the table and the delivery room were both open for inspection. The newly decorated nursery with its pink-checked curtains and blue crib linings seemed the center of attraction for most visitors.

The club girls served punch to the visitors and 334 of them registered, but many failed to leave their names. The hospital was decorated from one end to the other with cut flowers, mostly roses, brought by local business firms and friends.

TO TEMPLE

Mrs. George Avary, who has been troubled with a heart ailment for several months, left Tuesday night for Temple to enter the Scott & White hospital. Mrs. Avary, the former Dornie Head, has been in Snyder during part of her illness. She was accompanied by her husband, who is R. S. & P. Railway agent at Hermleigh. The children, Buddy and Ellen Jo, are remaining here with their grandparents.

West Texas Limelight

Snyder's full cooperation in West Texas Chamber of Commerce activities in Abilene this week prophesies this community's return... to the West Texas limelight. No community in West Texas was better represented in the Abilene Reporter-News special WTCC edition Sunday than this Snyder of ours. And few communities had a bigger part in the convention, thanks to the liberality of Snyder business men and the advance work of a few men who recognize the advantage of keeping the names "Snyder" and "Scurry County" in the public eye.

No county is more typically West Texas than Scurry. No town is more typically West Texas than Snyder. And we are in the heart of this great territory. Let's continue to keep our name before West Texas, the state of Texas—and the traveling and investing public!

What Jasper Says

"Friend Jasper," in "Texas Parade," has a grassroots philosophy of life that knows few equals for soundness and practicality. His May-issue remarks on the foreign situation embody an American attitude that would minimize most of our misunderstanding of the across-the-waters problems. Jasper's interviewer writes:

"I remarked that everybody was talking about a possible war and what did he think about it. 'It is,' he said, 'to my mind just a question between the 'Haves' and the 'Have Nots.' I guess you have noticed that where a family has little discipline must prevail. Japan, Germany and Italy are, in proportion to their population, poor nations and they are compelled, in order to survive, to have a dictatorial leadership. A democracy to survive must consist of a people fairly well off in material resources. Democracy and want do not stay together, because a liberal government is never highly efficient. If it had not been Hitler or Mussolini, it would have been someone else. They are merely the expression of a people's need. Those nations are acting up, but so do most people who have been made mad by circumstances. Then when had people do get away with something they act worse. The 'Haves,' England and France, can do two things. Either they can turn loose some of their vast colonial domain or they can engage in a bloody, costly war. Do you know that the Republic of France has a million more square miles under her flag than we have?"

Editorial of the Week

ARE GRASSHOPPERS LOSING A BATTLE?

While the Hitlers and Mussolinis of what we call the civilized world of mankind are threatening and bullying the rest of the world about men and nations are building bulwarks on land and sea, in the air, above and below the waters of the deep, against that next titanic struggle, other wars are also being fought and won on this mundane sphere.

Right now it is possible that grasshoppers may be losing a war in the far-flung areas of the panhandle. In Floyd County there are signs that some enemy may have penetrated to the grasshoppers' homes and are destroying their warriors before they ever emerge from their cradles—tightly-built little caches along fence rows planted underneath the surface of the earth.

If it were not for the constant warfare between various kinds of insects civilization on the plains of Texas and elsewhere might, and probably would, be destroyed by insects so tiny they hardly could be seen. This unseen warfare under your feet is declared to be one of the most fascinating studies one can make. Very soon it shall be known who wins and whether the poison mash mixer and the crews of bait catchers will be a common scene in Floyd County this spring.—Floyd County Hesperian.

Real Purpose of Fishing

We have come to the conclusion that the real object of a fishing trip is not the catching of fish, says the Shelbina Democrat. Instead, we believe it is the trip, itself, which lures the fisherman away from work or the comforts of home and ordinary occupation.

Seldom, if ever, have we talked to a discouraged or disappointed fisherman when he returned empty handed. Always they are in the best of spirits and have seemingly enjoyed their outing in spite of any lack of reward for their efforts.

Some of the best thinking a man ever does is when he sits or stands upon the bank of a stream and idly watches his pole and line. He learns much about nature and what he learns is invariably good. He rests and refreshes himself, regardless of his catch, and returns home a happy man.—Salsbury (Missouri) Press-Spectator.

He that cannot forgive breaks the bridge over which he himself must pass, for every man has need to be forgiven.—George Herbert.

Give to every other human being every right that you claim for yourself.—R. G. Ingersoll.

Current Comment

By LEON GUINN

Researchers have known for years there was very little use in allowing $3,000,000 worth of cotton burrs to go up in smoke each fall at cotton gins in the South and Southwest, but it remained last week for Professor R. C. Goodwin of Texas Tech to announce a valuable outlet for the humble cotton burr in the form of a new composition plastic material similar to masonite.

Suitable for wall boards, cafe counters, soda fountain and bridge table tops, the widely acclaimed cotton burr plastic may well become a building material that will mean $10,000,000 in additional income for the South each year. Flooring made of burr plastic has been found to be superior to other composition materials, with insulation coming in for consideration, since the material is a low conductor of heat.

Since Southern cotton farmers began boiling or snapping cotton on a large scale about 10 years ago, millions of pounds of burrs have piled up at cotton gins, only to be burned as a worthless cotton by-product; but as soon as inventors began working on improved gin stands and burring machines to handle bolly cotton, researchers have seen the need for an outlet, rather than destruction, of this valuable part of the cotton stalk.

Although chemists have admitted for years cotton burrs should be returned to the soil in the fall for fertilizer purposes, since the burrs are high in potash content, prices for picked and boiled cotton have been so nearly the same during the last few years farmers have relied on the time saving boiling process, rather than let cotton stay in the fields and deteriorate when fall rains set in. Cotton boiling is especially the order of the autumn months in the South Plains area, where early frost each fall creeps down to the caprock foothills.

According to the county agent's office, an average bale of unginned seed cotton (with 500 pound lint weight) contains 673 pounds of burrs from which 5.5 pounds of nitrogen can be extracted, together with 3.2 pounds of potassium and 21 pounds of potash. This potash content makes burrs valuable as a fertilizer for gardens, truck patches and berry farms, as well as adding to soil resources of the open field.

Professor Goodwin has also demonstrated a high grade starch can be obtained from grain sorghums, the stalks of which make an excellent stock food. Grain sorghum stalks, containing 70 per cent starch, offer another new industrial possibility that could go a long way toward finding new uses for farm products.

Just to be sure people will enjoy a bite to eat at ten, two and four, or remember the pause that refreshes, some bottling plants are experimenting with soda pop straws made of a plastic like substance that's delivered in the bottle and pops up when the cap is removed. The next thing we know, some fellow with a bright idea will be coming out with some gadget that won't allow the cap to be removed until the price of a soda pop is put in a slot or something. Solomon might have decided there wasn't anything new under the sun, but we feel sure that was before the day of enclosed soda pop drinking straws.

Although our annual output of 56,000,000 pounds of farm butter in Texas places us first in the nation with 11 per cent of the butter produced in America annually, it is a tragedy that two thirds of Texas butter is of such poor quality it serves to curb the consumption of the product on the farm and at market. This information was released this week by W. V. Maddox, dairy manufacturing specialist of A. & M. College, who says "good sweet cream butter can be produced on Texas farms if milk and cream are correctly handled."

Correct handling, of course, begins with the production of milk, which should be free of objectionable odors. This primary step should be followed up especially with clean, sterilized utensils and a cool place to keep milk. Maddox states, Maddox, who is leading an organized drive for better dairy products in Texas, has repeatedly suggested that in most instances the cause of poor grade butter and milk products really begins at home with the producer.

Since United States currency is considered the world's fastest during these restless days and nights in Europe, demands for our bills have reached such a height Paris financiers have started trading in contracts for future delivery of American greenback. Large denomination bills, for instance, are being quoted at the moment at premiums over bank balances and gold.

The introduction of a new automobile gadget that whistles when the gasoline tank is being filled and stops before it runs over is seemingly a duplication of service station men's efforts to do the same thing when a customer says "fill 'er up and check the oil." It is likely, however, the thinker-upper of this device tired of hearing some service station boys trying to whistle Ava Maria, when Mountain Music or Roll Along Little River might be never more preferable.

When Milford, Connecticut, school authorities were confronted last week with the problem of choosing between twins with all-A averages for senior class valedictorian, this logical solution was arrived at: Muriel Korach will lead the speech, with her brother, Malcolm Korach, finishing it.

trustees, the students, and anyone who has contributed to the school life of Pyron.

"Members of the staff were Velda Clark, editor-in-chief; Mary Frances Glass and Mable Glass, assistant editors; Viola Schwarz, managing editor; Oleta Blair, class editor; Pauline Coe, faculty sponsor.

"The Pyron emblem, the eagle, is presented in an excellent pencil drawing by James Reed. Harlan Reed drew the school district, showing railroads, original areas and consolidations, and, most interesting, how the school area lies in the corners of four counties—Scurry, Mitchell, Nolan and Fisher.

"There is a detailed history of the early schools, later consolidated with Pyron. The story of school equipment likewise is illustrated, including snapshots of the new nearly complete Pyron brick building. Photographs also include the faculty, headed by Superintendent M. H. Greenwood. There is a group picture of the trustees: Walter Miller, president; Bill Lauw, Verne Gilmore, N. E. Cummings, secretary, Jim Light, Carl Voss and Will Young.

"A review of the Parent-Teacher Association activities is accompanied by a picture of the president, Mrs. C. A. Clifton.

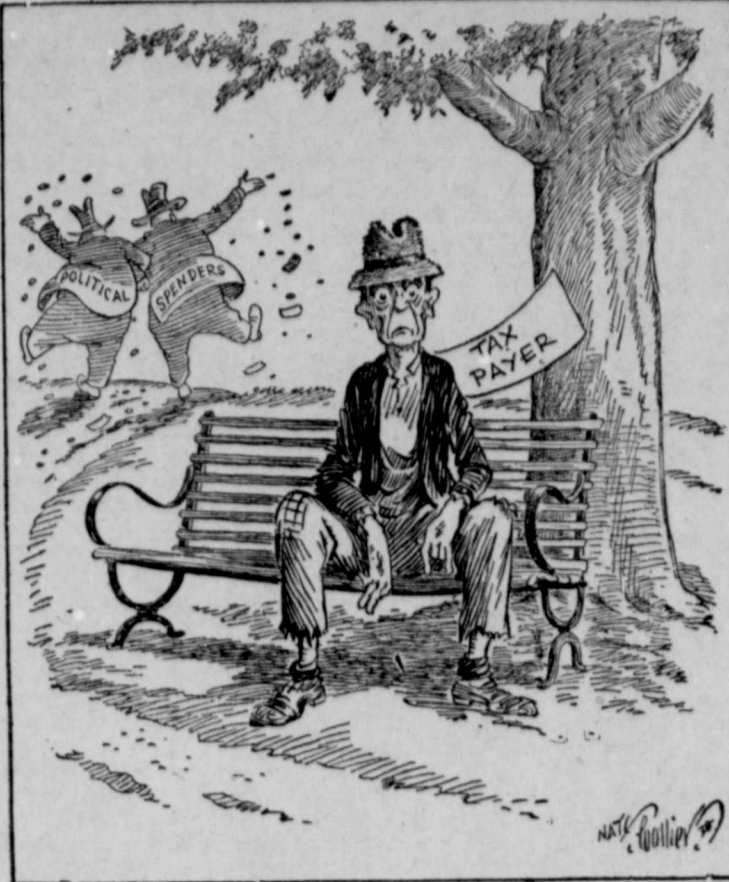

"These features are typical of the precision with which divisions devoted to class personnel, outstanding students, including the Pyron school king, James Reed; sports, Inter-scholastic League, pep squad, Boy Scouts, school paper, home economics club, choral club and 4-H club. Ten pages closing the book are devoted to community life and fun—all in snapshots.

"The Crowder book supervised by Mr. and Mrs. Leftwich, teachers, includes history of the school, snapshots and work done by the students.

"The Dunn book, 'Owl Hooks,' is distinctive with its plywood back, centered with a black oval. History of the school and community, faculty, class, club and football pictures are included.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Editor's note: J. C. Ziegler, former Scurry County resident, who with Mrs. Ziegler, is visiting a son in Honolulu, Hawaii, sends The Times the following letter from the tropical playground of the Pacific:

The Times:

I believe your readers will be interested in the Hawaiian Pineapple Canning Factory I have just inspected. Every modern convenience is offered in the factory, the world's largest, which employs 7,500 workers.

The 4,000 women and 3,500 men working in the canning plant have a cafeteria that will seat 1,000 people at one time. Radios provide entertainment that reaches each corner of the plant.

The original company, which was incorporated December 4, 1901, employs over 15,000 workers at the peak of the season on their pineapple plantations. A total of 25,000 acres is devoted to pineapple raising, with 75,000 acres devoted to ranch and other lands.

A train of 116 box cars would be required to haul one day's packing of 3,497,388 cans of pineapple. The cannery warehouse has a capacity of 5,000,000 cases.

It is interesting to watch the automatic Ginaca machines which can trim 85 to 108 pineapples per minute. The processing machine turns out 150 cans per minute, while 1,400 cans per minute are run through the labeling machine.

The cannery has turned out a carload of fruit in two and a half minutes. By-products include pineapple bean and citric acid.
