H. & R. MARTIN FLOWS AS NEW SHARON WELL

Oklahoma Concern Gets Another
Producer in Consistent Drilling
Campaign—Others Active

Described as the best well on the firm's 100-acre lease in the Sharon Ridge oil field, Helmerich & Payne's No. 7 Walter Martin, south-west quarter of Section 141, was completed this week to flow 150 barrels by heads during the first 12 hours of potential test.

Helmerich & Payne has the southwest quarter of Section 141 leased from Walter Martin. The Tulsa, Oklahoma, firm has been engaged in a program of consistent lease development for the past four months.

D. & R. Oil Company spudded Tuesday their No. 1 W. F. Burney, 330 feet from the north and west lines of the northeast quarter, Section 145, Block 97, H. & T. C. RR. Survey.

After completion of their mile west extension producer in the Sharon Ridge pool, Ordovician Oil Company has staked next location in the southeast corner of the northeast one-fourth, Section 145.

N. V. Hilburn's No. 1 Strain in Northern Mitchell County, a mile south of the old Ira pool and in the southeast corner of Section 82, Block 97, H. & T. C. Survey, was cleaning out following a 200-quart shot from 1,701 to 1,801 feet, in lime, the total depth. Test showed 150 feet of oil in the hole prior to shooting.

One mile southwest of the Hilburn test, B. R. S. Oil Company's No. 1 Berry, 467 feet out of the southeast corner of Section 83, Block 97, H. & T. C. Survey, had 450 feet of oil in the hole while cleaning out after a 250-quart shot from 1,739 feet to 1,793 feet, total depth.

Three other wildcats are being drilled in the same general area to the east. The Hilburn and B. R. S. producers indicate a spread of the old Ira pool to the south, with drilling activities in the southern edge of the county scheduled to pick up considerably within the next two weeks.

It will be recalled that West Texas' first oil production, the West-brook pool, was developed in Mitchell County in June of 1929.

To the northwest of Snyder, and 12 miles north of the Sharon Ridge pool, Coffield & Guthrie's No. 1 J. Wright Mocar test was drilling at 4,155 feet, in lime. Shale breaks were hit in the test, which is being watched closely by the oil fraternity, at 3,941 and 3,979 feet.

Attention of Sharon pool operators and those who have holdings in the Sharon field were focused Wednesday to the forthcoming Ridge anniversary celebration which will be staged July 4 in the Riss Bishop pasture.

Ranchers Sign AAA Range Applications

Tuesday marked the final day at the county agent's office that range applications under the 1940 AAA program were signable for participation in this year's benefit payments.

Range program forms, which the county agent states were promptly signed by county ranchers, were delayed in being sent out from Washington, which resulted, naturally, in a delay in getting the forms to county agents.

Since this week also marked the deadline for getting range program forms sent to the state Triple A office, action is expected to be taken on the forms by AAA officials in the near future.

The local youth has been assisting the manager at the airport as part payment for his flying lessons. Martin left last Saturday for Los Angeles to obtain employment at one of the numerous West Coast airplane factories.

Towle Returns from Flying Illinois Trip With Degree Honor

Dr. H. G. Towle, local optometrist and president of the state board of examiners in optometry, returned Sunday night from Chicago, Illinois, where he inspected the Monroe University for the State of Texas.

Friday morning at 10:00 o'clock Dr. Towle received at St. James Methodist Church in Chicago an honorary degree of Doctor of Optometric Science from the Northern Illinois College of Optometry. A highly coveted award, this degree is considered the highest honor anyone can receive in the profession of optometry.

"I certainly enjoyed my trip," Dr. Towle said Monday, "and while the trip by plane from Abilene to Chicago and back gave me a real thrill, I'm glad to be back at my office."

The local optometrist will be at his offices until July 20, when he leaves for Havana, Cuba, as the Lions Club delegate to the Lions International conclave.

Shultz Displays Fine Cabbage Wednesday

W. R. Shultz, who lives in North Snyder near the Santa Fe depot, placed on exhibit at The Times office Wednesday a fine head of cabbage from his garden that tipped the scales at 10 and a half pounds.

The cabbage plants in the Shultz garden, numbering 200, were set out in late February, and have received plenty of irrigation. In addition to canning 50 quarts of cabbage for their own use, Mr. and Mrs. Shultz have given away a considerable amount of cabbage to friends and neighbors.

"I have always believed," Shultz said, "that cabbage can be successfully grown here with sufficient water facilities. Proper care of plants and proper control measures, I find, insures the grower of raising cabbage free from insect damages."

Colored Nine Slates Lamesa Tilt Sunday

Snyder's fast-stepping Black Tiers, who have played eight baseball games this season with a loss to Rotan marked up as the only thing to mar an otherwise perfect record, will meet the Lamesa hard-hitters Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in an interest-spiked game at Winston Field.

Devotees of good baseball, and those interested in the progress of the local colored boys are invited to witness Sunday afternoon's classic of the diamond. The Lamesa boys, who haven't made such a good record this year as the local colored boys, are rated by fans as having "a very slight chance to do something."

PICNIC JULY 4 TO CELEBRATE OIL FIELD FIND

Rodeo Events Will Furnish Variety
For All-Day Affair Thursday
On Riss Bishop Place

Members of the oil fraternity from Lubbock to San Angelo, and Big Spring to Fort Worth and Dallas, expressed a marked degree of interest this week in the forthcoming anniversary celebration that will be staged in the Sharon Ridge oil field July 4.

The celebration, details of which are being worked out this week by Emmitt Trevey, Louis Vaughn, Sharon pool operator, Snyder's Air-Field Oil Association and the Chamber of Commerce, will mark the anniversary of what oil writers say is "one of the most sensational new oil fields in Texas today."

Opening event of the Sharon Ridge celebration July 4 will be goat roping at 9:00 a. m. Site of the picnic and rodeo will be in the Riss Bishop pasture, one mile north and two miles west of the Sharon Store.

A United States flag, to be erected atop two joints of casing, will make the picnic site visible for two or three miles.

Following goat roping events, for amateurs only, a regulation nine-inning baseball game will occupy the attention of attendants.

Thursday afternoon's rodeo performance, limited also to amateur contestants, will begin promptly at 1:00 o'clock. A wild mule race will be followed by calf roping events.

Third program highlight will be a wild mule belling contest, a thing that adds an old-time western color to West Texas rodeos.

Calf bell and other events will be followed by a concluding ball game, members of the picnic arrangements committee state.

Women are requested to bring basket lunches for a picnic lunch that will be staged at noon.

Not only are members of the oil fraternity invited to the Sharon field anniversary celebration, but people of the Sharon and Ira communities, Snyder merchants and business men who are helping to make the celebration possible, and others directly interested in the southwest county oil field.

Sharon pool operators, together with lease and royalty holders in the field, point out that whereas the Sharon field had only three producing wells a year ago, it has 76 today, with seven drilling rigs active.

Evangelist Denning, widely known in this area as a BMA Baptist, conducted the summer revival at Ennis Creek last year. At the 1938 meeting 19 new additions were made to the Ennis Creek church.

Assisting Denning with the day and night services will be Rev. C. Evans of Lamesa, pastor at Ennis Creek. Church leaders extend the public a cordial invitation to attend the meeting. Day services will be held at 11:00 a. m., night services at 8:00 p. m.

Most of Snyder Stores to Observe July 4 by Closing

July 4 will be a red-letter day with Scurry County people.

Not only will many Snyder and county residents be on hand at the Texas Cowboy Reunion at Stamford Thursday, but a number of residents will be at other points visiting relatives and friends, and taking part in various forms of festivities.

Right here in the county, people of the Sharon Ridge community, cooperating with the local Air-Field Oil Association and Chamber of Commerce, will stage an all-day anniversary celebration in the Sharon field in honor of the expanding southwest county oil pool.

In keeping with full observance of July 4, The Times will be printed Wednesday night. Merchants and advertisers promise their wholehearted support to make early printing of the paper possible.

Since Snyder business firms will be closed all day Thursday in commemoration of the event that marks American freedom, the local post-offices announces that mail will be placed in postoffice boxes early Thursday morning.

Stamford Rodeo Visitors Slated to Visit Here Today

Stamford's rodeo trippers, advertising Stamford's eleventh annual Texas Cowboy Reunion July 2, 3 and 4, are scheduled to storm the city this (Thursday) afternoon at 2:55 o'clock.

Aware of this move to invite the citizenship of Scurry County to Stamford for the annual reunion that attracts some 65,000 West Texas people, the Chamber of Commerce has arranged to have a full convoy of cars at the east city limits to welcome the trippers to town.

Women are requested to bring basket lunches for a picnic lunch that will be staged at noon.

Not only are members of the oil fraternity invited to the Sharon field anniversary celebration, but people of the Sharon and Ira communities, Snyder merchants and business men who are helping to make the celebration possible, and others directly interested in the southwest county oil field.

Sharon pool operators, together with lease and royalty holders in the field, point out that whereas the Sharon field had only three producing wells a year ago, it has 76 today, with seven drilling rigs active.

Lending a new aspect to the Texas Cowboy Reunion this year is the first official show of the American Quarter Horse Association that will be held during the celebration, with $1,000 in cash prizes offered in four classes. The gaited horse show carries with it $480 in prizes.

First meeting of the oldtime cowboy's association, which has a number of members in Snyder and Scurry County, will be held July 2 at 1:00 o'clock.

The daily schedule includes rodeo performances at 8:00 a. m., 2:00 p. m. and 8:00 p. m. Square dances will be held at the Coombes Roundup Hall and modern dances at the sponsor's pavilion each night at 10:00 o'clock.

Former Snyder Citizen Claims Shell Device with 750-Mile Range

The World War armistice shelved the plans of former Snyder citizen Ollie Bruton, who lives now at Monahan, for an electrical device he says can throw a 1,000 pound shell 750 miles.

He described it this way: "The machine resembles an ordinary eight or 10-inch cannon. The barrel is 32 feet long.

"A series of electro-magnets pulls the shell to the end of the barrel, gaining velocity as it goes. Then a switch on the shell is opened and the motor which drives the propeller carrying the projectile is closed and the shell soars on its way.

"The explosive bomb is a torpedo-like affair with a conventional 16-inch propeller, operated by a normal electric motor which gains its impetus from batteries. Fins which guide the path of the bullet and stabilize its flight are folded until the shell is released from the barrel.

Bruton worked out the plans with an architect and draftsman.

RADIO STATION WILL BE SET UP BY NYA IN CITY

Short Wave Transmitter To Be Part
Of National Defense Program
In Case of Emergency

Stressing the scope of training that will shortly be available to NYA employees, C. M. Fuller of the state National Youth Administration, accompanied by Jennings T. Lewis of the district NYA office at Lubbock, stated here Monday that the local NYA work shop will soon be equipped with an amateur short wave radio station.

These short wave stations, which offer no interference to radio fans in any way, will soon be in operation for point to point communication in all NYA districts of Texas.

"By this method," Fuller states, "we plan to train many of our National Youth Administration employees to become short wave radio operators as a tie in with our national defense program."

Employees of the local NYA work shop this week formed a radio club known as the Tiger City Radio Club. Robert Keller is president of the newly created organization and James Lee Woods is secretary.

State NYA officials state the goal in amateur short wave radio stations for the fiscal year beginning July 1 will be 24 for Texas, with hopes of possibly setting up as many as 40 of the proposed point to point communication systems.

Harry Horn, district NYA employment officer, was also a Snyder visitor Monday afternoon.

Checking of Farm Compliance Work Delayed by Rains

County farm compliance work, which is this week getting underway at a nice clip, is slated to get started at a full stride next week, the county agent's office reported Tuesday.

Due to the excellent rain that blanketed the county Sunday night, farm compliance work has been temporarily slowed up this week in most county communities, but will be pushed as soon as crop conditions permit on all farm fronts in the county.

Claude D. Cotten, administrative assistant at the county agent's office, suggests that county farm operators keep in close touch with performance supervisors when they begin work in a community. In this way they can ascertain on which day their farm will be measured for compliance, and thus cooperate with the supervisor in getting farms okayed at an early date.

Sweetwater Quartet Features Song Meet

Regular weekly sessions of Snyder's community singing tonight (Thursday) at the First Christian Church will be featured by the appearance on program of the Shepherd Quartet of Sweetwater.

In addition to the Sweetwater visitors, a number of singers from out-of-the-county points will be on hand for the gospel song festival.

Officials of the community singing organization state weekly sessions each Thursday night will begin promptly at 8:15 o'clock. County singers are urged to bring plenty of song books with them.

Feature of last Thursday night's program was the appearance on program of Eddie Williams and a delegation of Hobbs singers.

Officials of the Will Layne American Legion Post reported Wednesday afternoon that plans for dedication of the new Legion Hut four blocks west of the square are rapidly being completed, with date for the dedicatory services to be announced within the next few days.

Prospects Look Good for County Crops This Year

County residents are already beginning to compare local crop conditions to those of 1932, when the county yielded both grain and row crops in abundance, as a result of the county-wide rain received Sunday night.

Beginning about 9:45 o'clock Sunday night, rainfall continued at intervals through the night to give Snyder and most of Scurry County 1.51 inches of precipitation. Total of 1.75 inches of rainfall was received in the Strayhorn community.

Badly needed, Sunday night's installment of moisture has put ranges in excellent condition, and was especially beneficial to ranchers whose supplies of surface tank water were almost exhausted.

While some replanting of cotton and feed was necessary this week in scattered parts of the county, the rain put both cotton and feed already up in prime condition.

An area from Brownfield on the west to Albany on the east was benefitted from the rainfall Sunday night—which included Scurry, Borden and Fisher Counties.

Large Crowds at Session Expected By BMA Baptists

Excellent attendance of BMA Baptists from all parts of the North Colorado area is expected to feature the fifth Sunday meeting of the church workers at the First Baptist Church, Fuvanna, Friday through Sunday.

Church leaders of the northwest county church have completed plans for taking care of a capacity crowd during the three-day gathering.

Devotional for Friday's program will be given at 8:00 o'clock Friday morning by Rev. Buchanan, which will be followed by a sermon from J. E. Corbin and C. T. Leslie.

Saturday morning's program will open with devotional by Andy Hague at 10:00 o'clock. "What is the Baptism of the Holy Ghost" will be taught by Elder Jesse Grey and Elder J. W. Webb. Other speakers on Saturday's program include Elder L. H. Stidern, J. W. Webb, Alderman; Bro. Spencer, Elders Roger Wells and G. B. Thornton, J. A. Welch, John Harris and W. E. Lee.

Sunday's devotional precedes a sermon by Elder C. E. Leslie and J. P. Leslie, and sermon by A. B. Thornton. Following lunch, congregational singing will be followed with a lecture from C. E. Evans. Sunday night marks the beginning of a series of services, day and night, that continues through the first Sunday in July. In charge will be elder W. E. Lee.

Statistics furnished by the bureau of the census were compiled in compliance with an enactment approved June 14, 1938, designed to make available information of the production of cotton in each county.

Solons Wire They Will Work to Hold Congress Session

In reply to communications addressed by the Will Layne American Legion Post to Senator Tom Connally and George Mahon, 19th District congressman, urging them to use their influence in inducing congress to stay in session during the present emergency, these answers were received Tuesday:

Senator Tom Connally: "I shall vote to remain in Washington all summer to raise taxes and provide all necessary measures for defense and security."

George Mahon, congressman: "I fully agree with your view that congress must stay at its present post of duty until everything possible is done to expedite our program to annihilate enemies within this country and until a powerful national defense program is fully provided for and underway."

"Naturally, I would like to be at home if conditions were normal, but I know I should not consider returning to Texas now, because of the urgent business at hand in Washington."

Rain Causes Delay in Cemetery Working

Although a good sized crowd of workmen gathered Monday morning at the city's first cemetery in East Snyder to clean up the early-day burial grounds, wetness of the ground caused workers to postpone the general cemetery working until Friday.

Claude Ingram and Odie Temple, members of the cemetery committee, state the local Masonic lodge, as sponsor of the cemetery working, "highly appreciates the interest shown in working the graves Monday morning, and requests that all people interested in working our first burial grounds to gather again at the gravesides Friday morning."

Wolcott Loses Hurdle Event to Negro Star

Defeat of Fred Wolcott of Snyder and Rice Institute on a muddy track in Minneapolis last Saturday almost overshadowed all other events at the national collegiate track and field meet.

Winner of the 120-yard high hurdles two years straight and holder of the American mark of 13.9 seconds for the race, Wolcott lost to Big Ed Dugger, negro star from Tufts.

Running on a track soaked by a long rain, Dugger stepped over the hurdles in 13.9 seconds to clip one-tenth of a second off the meet record set by Wolcott two years ago. Only inches separated the two at the finish line.

Young Beeman, who has been a 4-H Club boy two years, and has completed a hog project in club work, expresses, with his parents, his "sincere gratitude to the merchants of Snyder for their interest in furnishing the calf that was awarded."

Beeman keeps the calf, obtained from the W. H. Robison herd nine miles north of Snyder, with the provision that he exhibit the calf at the 1940 Scurry County Products Show this fall.

Prior to the drawing that was conducted for the calf, X. B. Cox Jr., county agent, Miss Estela Rabel, home demonstration agent, who were sponsors of the 4-H Club Rally Day with the Chamber of Commerce and local merchants, gave brief talks.

R. G. Dillard, Chamber of Commerce manager, was introduced, as was Edward J. Strout, local WPA recreation project supervisor.

Hazel Pollard Becomes Bride of Medlin Carpenter Sunday Morning

Hazel Pollard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Polard, became the bride of Medlin Carpenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Carpenter of Ralls, in a ring service held at the local Methodist Church Sunday morning at 8:00 o'clock. Rev. I. A. Smith, pastor, read the ceremony before an improvised altar of ferns and cut flowers. Approximately 50 friends of the couple attended.

Pre-nuptial music was presented by LaFrances Hamilton, vocalist, who sang "I Love You Truly," with organ accompaniment by Mrs. King Sides of Big Spring. Mrs. Sides also played the traditional wedding marches and a medley of love songs during the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a two-piece ensemble of hyacinth pink crepe with pearl studs. Her accessories were navy blue, and she wore a corsage of gardenias. For "something old" she carried her mother's wedding handkerchief of linen and lace, and her "something borrowed" was the engagement locket of Mrs. H. T. Sefton, family friend.

The couple left immediately after their marriage for a wedding trip to points in New Mexico. They will return to Ralls late this week to live in their recently completed new home.

Mrs. Carpenter holds a bachelor of arts degree from Texas Technological College, Lubbock, as a speech major. At Tech she was a member of Las Leales, social club, Alpha Phi Omega, dramatic fraternity, and she represented the school on debate teams two years. She has been teaching in the Ralls High School the past two years. Gift parties both at Ralls and Snyder have been given in her honor in recent weeks.

Carpenter attended West Texas "Build-Up" Important Protector of Women

A weak, undernourished condition often enables frigidus symptoms to get a foothold; thus leads to much of woman's suffering from headaches, nervousness, and other periodic discomfort.

CARDUI'S principal help for such distress comes from the way it usually stimulates appetite; increases flow of gastric juice; thus aids digestion; helps build energy, strength, physical resistance to periodic pain for many.

Another way, many women find help for periodic distress: Take CARDUI a few days before and during "the time." Women have used CARDUI for more than 50 years!

IT'S REALLY A "PICNIC" WHEN REDDY DOES THE WORK

Yes, Reddy Kilowatt is a handy fellow to have around, even on a picnic. Usually you think of your electric service as something you enjoy at home, but this is a way you can enjoy the benefits of your economical electric service even while on a picnic.

Just put the meat and vegetables in your automatic electric cooker and by the time you're ready to start, the meal will be ready. Put the cooker in the back end of your car and it will keep the food warm and appetizing for several hours.

If you don't have an electric cooker to take on your next outing, drop by a store which sells electric appliances and ask to see the new model cookers. They cook without heating up the kitchen for only about 2 cents an hour.

"Very lucky. You look lovely." His arms released her reluctantly. "Can we say all the polite things now and get away?"

"Of course we can." She held his hand tightly as they made their way through revolving couples toward the table which her step-father had engaged. No one was there. The other members of the party were dancing in the glow of artfully mellowed lights on the crowded floor.

"We'll have to wait," John sighed. "No, we won't."

"But politeness, darling."

"Wait!" She caught up her evening bag from the table, opened it, took out a lip-stick. Holding fast

"We'll have to wait," John sighed. "No, we won't."

"But politeness, darling."

"Wait!" She caught up her evening bag from the table, opened it, took out a lip-stick. Holding fast

with her left hand to his hand, she printed in staggering bright red capitals on the table cloth—

GAY AND JOHN."

John set his cup in the saucer and pushed back the sleeve of his top-coat to glance at his watch.

Gay watched him with widened eyes, holding her breath.

"Fifteen minutes," he said. "She let her breath exhale with a sighing sound."

"Time for another cup of coffee," she said, and glanced toward the waiter drowsing against the wall.

"No, darling. All those steps." His lips smiled at her across the table in the station restaurant, but the smile did not reach his eyes.

"Do you want me to miss the train?"

"That's the object of drinking two cups of coffee. John must you go?"

"Must, Gay." He rose and walked around the table to her chair. "I don't want to go."

"Don't you?" She caught his hand resting on the back of the chair. "Even after—everything?" She tilted her head back to look up at him, her eyes soft and bright, a half-smile curving her lips.

"None of that seems important now, darling, come."

She rose slowly. He held her coat. She slipped into it. He bundled the collar about her throat.

"I shouldn't have let you come with me." Going out through the door of the restaurant, he held her arm tightly. "It's so late and so cold."

"Carl is waiting. I'll be all right."

A red-cap with John's luggage followed them across the vast vaulted concourse of the station. Only a few late travelers moved past and before them. Their footsteps made a hollow echoing sound. She pressed close to him.

"Take me with you, John."

He smiled down into her lifted eyes, sad in the depths beneath the brilliance. "What would I do with you, Gay?"

"Couldn't we rent something? A house or an apartment. How do people in Portland live?"

"I live in Dr. Sargeant's home, as you know very well."

"Was—is that a stipulation?"

"A very important one. I couldn't have come here to see you if I'd had to pay board since October. I couldn't have bought this new hat which you don't admire."

"I do. It's a marvelous hat. Now that I've gotten used to it, I think it makes you look very handsome and distinguished."

"Liar!" He pressed her arm with his hand against his side. "Darling!"

"The Dr. Sargeant a family, John?"

"Mrs. Sargeant. Their elder daughter is there this winter with two small sons. Her husband is an officer in the Navy. There's a younger daughter in college who comes home pretty often for week-ends."

"Is she attractive?"

"I don't know. I'll look at her when I get back and send a report."

She laughed.

"I've never really seen a girl since I've known you."

"Darling! I'd like to believe you."

"Do you know how you look now?"

"Wan and exhausted from trying not to burst into a flood of tears."

IRVIN SPEAKS ON ALIENISTS AT LIONS FEED

New Officers for Ensuing Year Are Installed at Country Club Affair Tuesday Evening

Using "What Will We Do With Foreign Agents" as the subject of his remarks, Lion Roy O. Irvin brought a highly interesting address Tuesday evening to the Lions Club members and guests assembled at the Snyder Country Club northwest of town for induction ceremonies held for new Lions Club officers.

First event of the evening was an old-fashioned steak fry, with trimmings, prepared by Harrie Winston and Melvin Newton. In addition to the delicious steak, salad, potato chips, pickles, cookies, wash pot coffee and iced tea were served attendants.

Lions Alen Beadel, H. L. Wren and J. E. Blakey were in general charge of food preparation arrangements.

Retiring Lions Club president Willard Jones, who had charge of the preliminary program that followed the steak fry, introduced Irvin as the evening's principal speaker.

Irvin stated, "The best thing Americans can do to show their appreciation of freedom and keep the nation safe for Americanism as our only creed is to report un-American activities directly to the proper federal authorities."

Lion H. L. Wren, former club president, had charge of the formal induction ceremonies. The following Lions Club members were installed into office, for the fiscal club year beginning July 1:

Pat Bullock, president; Roy O. Irvin, first vice president; Joe Graham, second vice president; Wayne Boren, secretary; Leighton Griffin, treasurer; R. C. Miller, Jr., tail twister; Marcel Josephson, lion tamer; Earl Louder and W. R. Bell, new directors.

W. E. Holcomb and other officials of the local Country Club were thanked heartily for the preparations they made in placing the club at the disposal of Lions for the induction services.

Cecil Meadows of Seminole visited briefly with friends in Snyder Friday en route to Seminole after a two-week vacation spent in Oklahoma, Arkansas and various points in Texas. Meadows is an employee of the Magnolia Petroleum Company in the Seminole oil fields.

Elizabeth Grantland of Colorado City was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Buster Curtis and son, Phil, this week-end.

H. J. Brice, local attorney, was named one of the organization's executive committeemen for the coming year at Saturday afternoon's business sessions.

In addition to Brice, other committeemen named included James L. Greene of Midland, retiring Permian Basin president; Frank Eckley, Colorado City; Ben Lefever and Cliff D. Wiley, Big Spring; William R. Edwards, McCamey; E. L. Farmer, Odessa; Tom Duggan Jr., Lubbock; C. M. Armstrong, Seagraves; Carl Roundtree, Lamesa; and Deen Nowlin, Tahoka.

Lubbock was selected unopposed as the 1941 convention city of the oilmen's group, and Hamilton McRae, Midland attorney, was chosen president of the Permian Basin organization.

Adopting the report of the program and policy committee, the association fixed taxation, legislation and prorations as its main objectives for the coming year. A central tax committee composed of two members from each district, of which Scurry County is a part, will seek as consultants 10 or more tax men representing oil, railroads, real estate and utilities.

It was pointed out the public debt in Texas approximates 65 per cent of the entire assessed value of property, and officials asserted that oil is bearing an excessive tax burden, amounting to 11.2 cents out of every dollar's worth of oil produced.

By-laws of the association were amended to provide for the election of three directors from Snyder and every other town in the Permian Basin area, regardless of membership. The directors will be named by association members, the Chamber of Commerce, or a leading civic organization.

The Texas Tech Band of Lubbock gave a concert Saturday morning and took part in a parade of oil field equipment Saturday afternoon. Convention registration totaled 3,300 people.

Gene Boyd Louder returned last week from a several-week vacation visit in Kilgore and Denton. His guest for the remainder of the summer is Bobby Joe Blum of Kilgore.

Approximately 2,000 people Saturday afternoon witnessed Johnny Stovall of Fluvanna cop first place and John Burdon, also of Fluvanna, cop second place in bull riding at Merkel's week-end rodeo performance.

Some 1,800 people, including a number of Scurry and Fisher County people, attended Friday afternoon's performance, at which some excellent time was made in initial bronc riding and steer riding events.

In Saturday afternoon's exhibition, Burch Wilfong of Throckmorton and Leonard Huff of Merkel tied for first and second money in the calf roping event with time of 16.2 seconds. George Brown of Woodson clocked 14.2 seconds time to lead the cow milking entries.

State Fair Catalogs Mailed to This Area

Listing more than $125,000 in premiums, the 52nd annual premium list of the State Fair of Texas was distributed early this week to prospective exhibitors of Scurry, Borden, Fisher and other counties who plan to attend the 53rd Annual State Fair October 5 to 20 in Dallas.

The increased interest being shown in white-faced cattle by breeders of this trade area, State Fair officials point out, has served to increase the interest in other beef breeds as well as dairy breeds, with almost $50,000 in livestock premiums to be offered.

The first three classifications of beef and dairy breeds will be open to the world, with the remainder of the prizes to go to cattle of the Southwest.

This year's State Fair premium list covers practically every phase of endeavor in livestock, agriculture, poultry, 4-H Club work, fine arts and many other classifications.

Superintendent Asks Return of Textbooks

Due to the fact that many people have borrowed school textbooks, and in some instances schools have closed, leaving books in the abandoned school houses, many textbooks that belong to the state have been lost, Roy O. Irvin, county superintendent, reports.

People who have borrowed state-owned textbooks, or who know of the whereabouts of such books, are urged to bring them to the county superintendent's office, or notify the superintendent's office where they may be found.

Mattress Firm Gives Program Saturday

Approximately 1,500 people were attracted Saturday night to the south side of the courthouse lawn for an hour's free concert given by the Western Melody Boys of San Angelo, who appeared here under the sponsorship of the Western Mattress Company of San Angelo.

Marked interest was shown in the amateur contest held in connection with the concert of music of this trade area, State Fair officials point out, has served to increase the interest in other beef breeds as well as dairy breeds, with almost $50,000 in livestock premiums to be offered.

T. A. Bralley was winner of a regulation inner spring mattress given away by the visiting mattress makers.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Wade and Mrs. O. C. McDermott and children are visiting in Carlsbad, New Mexico, this week. Mrs. Wade and son, Reavis, are to leave from Carlsbad for California, where they will have an extended visit with Mrs. Wade's children, Norman and Doris, at Placerville.

HOLE-IN-ONE

Marcel Josephson, local grocer, accomplished a feat Sunday, of which few local golfers can boast an equal. He made a hole-in-one on the Colorado City golf course, while playing with his Berman relatives there Sunday morning. For most golf players holes-in-one come once in a lifetime, and according to Marcel, they furnish a thrill seldom felt. The ninth hole on the course was the local man's big moment Sunday.

About 175 yards in length, the ball must travel over a creek to reach the green. And Marcel admits that he was so excited that he could hardly eat lunch!

Mrs. J. C. Maxwell arrived home Saturday from a five-week visit with her son, Dr. E. S. Maxwell, and family in Lexington, Kentucky, and her daughter, Mrs. G. B. Hamilton, and Mr. Hamilton in Chickasha, Oklahoma.

JUDGMENT FOR $2,200 AWARDED TO SLAUGHTER

Dallas Insurance Concern Appeals To Higher Court—Court Will Reconvene Friday

Highlight of the first week's proceedings in the summer term of district court centered Wednesday morning on a judgment rendered in favor of S. L. Slaughter, who entered suit Tuesday morning against the Texas Employers Insurance Association of Dallas.

Slaughter was given a $2,200 judgment against the Dallas Employers Insurance Association, amounting to 110 weeks of compensation payments, of which 19 weeks compensation has already been advanced.

The Dallas firm, through their attorney, gave notice of appeal to the Court of Civil Appeals, Eastland.

Grand jury members met Monday morning and recessed Tuesday at noon after returning six indictments. Jury members follow:

W. P. Sims, Fluvanna, foreman; G. H. Leath, Snyder; Pat Jones, Fluvanna; Frank Wilson, Hermleigh; L. N. Periman, Dermott; Buddy Martin, Snyder; Wilmet Wade, Snyder; Ollie Richardson, Dunn; W. A. Wade, Ennis Creek; V. A. Wills, Fluvanna; and J. E. Brown, Dunn.

Only seven divorce suits have been filed to date for the summer term of court, least number on record during any district court session here in the past three years. One divorce suit was uncontested this week.

A. S. Mauzey of Sweetwater, district judge, states district court, which recessed Wednesday afternoon, will reconvene Friday. At Friday's session two or three cases are on docket for disposal.

To the Voters:

It is through the newspaper and as I meet you on the streets of Snyder that I solicit your vote. It is too big a job for me to try to visit all of you in your homes, hence I am not going to make a personal visit to any. I am asking for re-election to the office of County Clerk on the record I have made.

At all times I have endeavored to serve you in an efficient way. Thanking you for past favors and assuring you that your support in this campaign will be appreciated, I am, your friend—Chas. J. Lewis. 1p

A SIX-POUNDER

William Leftwich was all smiles last week as he reported his largest catch of the fishing season. A 21-inch bass weighing six pounds was his finest fish last Wednesday afternoon; another weighed three pounds, and he caught several others. Best fishing luck to date for the youthful fisherman, William caught his record string from Sweetwater Lake.

Candidates Plead For Low Expenses In Slow Campaign

At a meeting Saturday afternoon in the courthouse, candidates for district and county offices drafted the following resolution, which will be of vital interest to county voters:

"In view of the fact only a few county and district offices are contested in the coming election, this has resulted in higher assessments made against each candidate whose name is to be placed on the official ballot.

"Due to the apparent lack of interest in political affairs because of war conditions, the candidates for county and district offices respectfully request that the public cooperate in a movement to minimize expenses of candidates to the extent that communities do not invite candidates to pie suppers or any affair designed to raise funds for community causes."

A. C. Preult, county Democratic chairman, joins the office seekers in asking the public to keep the above situation in mind. Whole-hearted cooperation of county voters in this movement to minimize candidates' expenses will be highly appreciated, Preult states.

Nations Asks Friends To Write-In Name

Sam O. Nations, former deputy sheriff, who entered the race for sheriff of Scurry County two weeks ago, requests his friends to consider him a write-in candidate in the July 27 primaries.

"In making this race," Nations states, "many friends are pledging their full support throughout the race. Duties on the farm will keep me from making a county-wide vote canvass, but I'll greatly appreciate every write-in vote I receive."

WREN SPEAKS AT ODESSA

H. L. Wren, District 8 brotherhood president, addressed approximately 2,500 people Sunday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock, in Odessa's new civic auditorium on "God's Call to Men Today." Wren, who was visiting friends in the Ector County city, returned Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Harless Jr. of San Angelo and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Phillips and son of Anton were week-end guests of the W. J. Elys. Mrs. Phillips and young son were in Snyder last week.

Area Sends Number To Rodeo at Lamesa

Scurry and Kent County people by the dozens were attracted to Lamesa last Wednesday and Thursday for the Lamesa rodeo and roundup.

Snyder's delegation to the two-day Dawson County boots and saddle festival was led by Jeanie Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Miller of Fluvanna, as official sponsor.

Heading Hermleigh's delegation of rodeo fans was Opal Etheredge, who previously represented Snyder at the Spur rodeo.

Total of $650 in cash prizes was given away to contestants both last Wednesday and Thursday. A number of Scurry and Borden County cowboys entered the various events staged at the Lamesa rodeo.

There was a time

—when old fashioned heating methods blistered your face while your back shivered.

But now...
 with natural gas service, winter can be just another pleasant, healthful season in the modern home.

A timely reminder

Make your plans now for winter heating ahead of the usual fall rush

Do you remember the old days? Old-fashioned methods of heating... children wore heavy underwear and long stockings in order to keep warm... members of the family "huddled" in one or two rooms during cold weather... mother went shivering about the house with a shawl around her shoulders... someone was always "catching cold"—Remember? There is a direct relationship between your family's health during winter months and the way you heat your home. Sudden changes of temperature during the treacherous months of cold weather are dangerous. If you follow the old-fashioned practice of "huddling" in one or two rooms while the rest of the house remains unheated—YOU ARE TAKING CHANCES WITH YOUR FAMILY'S HEALTH. Plan now to have adequate heat and healthful temperatures in every room in the home this winter. It's the modern way to fight the "common cold."

The cold germ is responsible for more than two hundred million illnesses each year. Don't give a "common cold" an even break!

Rally Day Clicks

One of the most encouraging things that has happened in recent months to people of this territory interested in the future of our boys and girls was the staging Wednesday at the city tabernacle grounds of the most successful 4-H Club Rally Day yet held in the county.

Rally Day for club boys and girls had its origin as a brilliant idea in the mind of one extension service worker. From this beginning, the thought has grown until today we have an annual rally in almost every county in Texas for club boys and girls.

Not only is club work one of the greatest blessings possible to rural boys and girls, but the plan behind the whole idea of rally days is great. It teaches boys and girls the virtue of work, the value of taking it on the chin in contests and competition, and the rewards awaiting those plucky young citizens "who keep everlastingly" at club work.

Club work not only teaches boys and girls the value of raising better products, but lays the basic foundation for making the men and women from adolescent youth who must till the soil in the world of tomorrow and reap the first fruits of a new order that, increasingly, is evident in America.

That local merchants are vitally concerned with the future of county club boys and girls is shown by the spirit with which they helped in securing a calf to be given away Wednesday morning.

Rally day clicks! This point is best illustrated by the successful event staged Wednesday, with the cooperation of the county home demonstration agent, the county agent, the local Chamber of Commerce and local merchants.

What we need in Scurry County are bigger and better rally days . . . events that prove to the world that we in this county have in our hands the power to mould out of our efforts a unit of the Texas commonwealth that will ever hold its rightful place in the course of human events.

Times Change

Times do change. Witness the truly magnificent spectacle of thousands of merchants in virtually every county of the nation striving to dispose of the South's surplus cotton! This is the kind of Union that Abraham Lincoln visualized over half a century ago amidst the bitterness of the bloodiest civil war in history.

Cotton is the life of the South. Cotton is bread and butter to millions of people, both in the South and other sections of the country. A glutted cotton market imperils the welfare of these millions. Cotton exports are at dismal lows. The solution of the cotton problem must be found, in part at least, at home. This is a nutshell, is the impelling motive behind the cotton "campaign."

Every resource of modern distribution is being called into action. The promotional campaign in behalf of "King Cotton" is far more than merely another sales promotion stunt. It is indicative of a new era, an era in which organized cooperation between producers and retailers promises to reign supreme, the kind of cooperation that benefits consumers. Efficiency, and service, at minimum cost, are its by-words.

Yes, there is far more than appears to the eye in the promotion of cotton week. It is a powerful example of "more perfect union."

Editorial of the Week

OUR DESTINY TO THE SOUTH!

For years this newspaper has been saying that the destiny of the United States of America lies to the south of us, in Latin America. Today events of shattering impact are forcing us to look at our destiny with more understanding eyes.

We are being given our choice of two evils, one endurable, the other incredibly bad.

Circumstances are speeding up and making easy the choice of the lesser of these two evils. For one reason and another Latin America has preferred to trade with Europe. Today that trade is blasted into smithereens, perhaps for five years, certainly for two years. That gives us our chance to step in and take over for ourselves, under highly favorable circumstances, a destiny that must be ours in any event—by careful and expert planning, or willynilly.

The European countries which have enjoyed the major portion of Latin America's export and import trade won't give up the fight without a struggle. They will return to the fray as soon as the present unpleasantness among them is settled one way or another. And as soon as the guns cease to shoot they will all with one accord become our competitors for the Latin American trade.

We have a chance to grab that trade now, while Europe is otherwise engaged. To capitalize on it fully we must take the lead in building a new Latin America, a Latin America that is a good customer because she is able to buy our wares. That means we must buy more of the things she has to sell. We must study her needs, court her cooperation, finance her enterprises, hold out the hand of fellowship and mutual helpfulness.

If we displace Europe in the affections and business life of Latin America we must work fast and intelligently. It isn't ours for the mere asking. For one thing we must realize that the Latin Americans are just as proud and independent as we are. They consider themselves our equals. We must lay aside our patronizing airs and cultivate their friendship and understanding.—The Abilene Reporter-News.

More Boy Scouts Leave for Camp In New Mexico

Camp Wehnapay, near Weed, New Mexico, was filled to overflowing this week with 154 Boy Scouts and scouters from Odessa, Monahans, Pecos, Wink, Big Spring and Lamesa, marking the first time in many years a large number of scouts from the western end of the Buffalo Trail Council have attended summer camp.

Scouts who arrived at the summer camp this week followed closely behind the Boy Scouts from Snyder, Colorado City, Rotan, and other points in the eastern part of the Buffalo Trail Council who attended the first 10-day period of the annual summer gathering.

At the end of the first period of camp in the picturesque Sacramento Mountains, 10 new members were initiated into the Order of the Arrow, national Scout honor campers' fraternity.

Membership in the Order of the Arrow includes Neil C. Burnett, Snyder scout who recently moved to Brownfield, Clint Carter Jr. of Rotan, Scout Leaders O. Z. Forstner of Sylvester and Charles Caniff of Sweetwater, and others.

Members are chosen each camp period. Buffalo Trail Council officials point out, by the campers themselves and the initiation is carried on by the old members of the order.

Overnight horseback rides, pack trips, day hikes to Rim Rock and handicraft projects features the second 10-day period of the summer scout camp. Buffalo Trail Council executives stated Tuesday.

Theme of Sunday afternoon's gathering was the "Training Union Camp." Rev. Lon A. Ward of Wastella had general charge of departmental meetings, which were held under the directorship of BTU departmental heads.

"The Training Union in God's Work" was emphasized in vesper services that were conducted by W. C. Harrison, District 8 missionary.

During the business session a committee was named to draft a budget of BTU expenditures in the Mitchell-Scurry Association, preparatory to presenting an itemized account to the yearly meeting of the two-county association in September.

HERE IS MORE CONCERNING 4-H Club Rally

This picture was donated by J. O. Stimson, Chamber of Commerce president.

Mr. and Mrs. Clemens von Roeder and Mr. and Mrs. Nolan von Roeder all of Knapp, were awarded prizes for having come the farthest distance to the club rally. Nolan and Clemens each received five gallons of Sinclair gasoline, donated by O. D. McGlaun.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Gill of Round Top were given a $2.50 order on Piggly Wiggly store for having the largest family of any folks present. Of the seven children in their family, four are active in 4-H Club work.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carrell of Union, voted the longest married couple at the all-day affair, were given two bushels of peaches from the Von Roeder orchards at Knapp. Mr. and Mrs. Carrell have been married 46 years.

Mrs. Stewart, 76-year-old county resident, received an order from Economy Dry Goods Company for being the oldest person present at the festive gathering.

Principal speaker of the afternoon was Judge James P. Stinson of Abilene, who complimented highly the novel feature of the best-groomed girl contest.

"We cannot doubt," the Abilene attorney said, "but that the dictators who are causing so much grief and woe in Europe today have plenty of brain power—even though it is directed in the wrong channels."

"Europe's dictators will be all right until they tackle America, but at this point in their world-wide conquests they will hit-up against a proposition they cannot handle."

"The defeated nations of Europe are standing at the foot of a tyrant simply because they failed to keep up with the changing order of the times," Stinson declared.

"The people of America," Stinson continued, "might as well prepare for a new order, an order that will be brought about through 4-H Club work over the nation."

Miss Rabel and County Agent Cox expressed thanks, on behalf of the county club boys and girls, to the Appreciation Day Association for furnishing funds to purchase the Jersey heifer given young Beman, local merchants and business firms, and the Chamber of Commerce for its cooperation in making the Rally Day possible.

Gail and Borden County Will Get Electricity July 1

Officials of the Lyntegar Electric Cooperative, with headquarters at Tahoka, announced Tuesday that rural electrification for Gail and Borden County will be a reality by July 1.

According to John Heck, president of the cooperative that is making rural electricity available in Borden, Lynn, Terry and Garza Counties, linemen completed putting up high line wires to Gail, county seat of our neighboring county to the west, Saturday.

Section A of the Lyntegar REA project, Heck states, consists of 330 miles of electric lines now in operation. Section B, which is now under construction, has 350 miles of line. Both sections will be energized by July 1.

In addition to the REA service that will be available for Borden County people, the electric cooperative announces from its Tahoka office that new extensions on the line's C section are being made.

How to Serve Tasty Meals That Hold Husbands

What do we know of nuptial bliss? Well, all we know is what happy housewives tell us. For example, just the other day we gratefully listened to a homemaker who told us that we are responsible, to a great degree, for her successful married life! She said, "I've been serving Browning meals for many months now. And let me tell you . . . every time my husband spies a tender and juicy roast that I bought here, he gets that look in his eyes—you know the kind—pleased, grateful, happy and loving!"
