Crops Doing Fine

Planting time has not only arrived for Scurry County crop producers, but those who watch crop conditions year by year declare they have never witnessed an April when planted row crops came up sooner and started to grow.

Producers who have been planting cotton and feed the part week report that both forms of plant life seem to be "itching to get up and start growing for victory." Scurry County producers indicate one of the most pressing needs at this time is for adequate supplies of shotgun shells with which to kill out jack rabbits, cotton-tails and other predatory pests.

Lions Hear Small Portion of People Buy War Bonds

Less than 10 per cent of Scurry County people are buying U. S. war bonds and war savings stamps in the Second War Loan Drive, A. C. Alexander, county chairman of the campaign, told Snyder Lions Club members Tuesday.

Attendants at the Tuesday club luncheon learned that county war bond and stamp sales totaled $132,275—many thousands of dollars under the $212,000 quota assessed the county.

Announcement was made that a directors' meeting of the Snyder Lions Club will be held this (Thursday) evening, 7:00 o'clock, at the E. & H. Cafe.

Ross Covey of Sweetwater was endorsed as a Lions International director, and Willard Jones, E. O. Wedgeworth and H. L. Wren named a committee to form resolution endorsement.

Hattie Jenkins, colored 'solaist, sang "There's a Land Beyond the River" and "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot."

"It's now directly up to the people of this county to do their part in buying war bonds and war savings stamps," Alexander pointed out. "It will take more than six per cent of our population to carry the heavy burden of buying bonds and stamps to prosecute the war."

Charlie Lockhart declared that "people are still chasing the almighty dollar too much, and not heeding the call of the government in buying war bonds and stamps. Scurry County cannot fall this nation in the Second War Loan Drive," he said.

C. N. von Roeder, M. H. Roe and Charlie Lockhart were elected to membership in the Snyder club.

Women now control 75 per cent of the nation's spending. Uncle Sam, of course, gets the other 25 per cent.

Hundreds Inspect New School Plant at Hermleigh Sunday

Approximately 700 people from Scurry County communities were attracted Sunday afternoon to open house festivities held at Hermleigh School's new plant, a tabulation by school officials reveals.

Visitors expressed keen appreciation of the 12-room Hermleigh plant, built under war-time conditions when materials and labor were listed on the critical side of the ledger.

New furniture for the $43,000 plant was moved in Friday, and faculty members were on hand Sunday afternoon to show patrons and visitors class rooms and study units.

Following open house festivities Sunday afternoon, school students, under general direction of Superintendent A. C. Bishop Jr., started class work in the plant—built to replace the old school gutted by fire in 1942.

School faculty personnel express warm appreciation to the delegations of visitors present from Snyder, Pryor, Dunn and other county communities.

School Softball Team Beats Firemen Crew

In one of those "once-in-a-blue-moon" softball games Tuesday evening that attracted considerable interest, Snyder High School boys nudged Snyder's Volunteer Fire Department by a tally of 15 to 13.

Following Tuesday evening's clash with the fire boys, the school's championship softball squad was said Wednesday to be ready to be ready to take on all contestants.

Smouldering ruins of a factory, supplies for the armed forces burned to a crisp, or the horns of an individual contain a very small amount of scrap material that will contribute to the war effort.

Minstrel by Lions Looking Good in Early Rehearsals

Rehearsals for Snyder's forthcoming Dixie Land Negro Minstrel were progressing so smoothly this week that officials of the production sponsored by the town's Lions Club set Thursday evening, May 13, as a definite date for staging the two-part presentation in Snyder School auditorium.

E. O. Wedgeworth, director general of the Dixie Land Minstrel, reported Wednesday that complete advertising billboards and other material on the show would be placed in circulation next week.

L. A. Chapman, assistant director, announces the following cast of end men, in addition to himself: Willard Jones, Gerald G. Gordon, Ed Stahl, Victor Baze and Roy J. Porter.

Those who have watched rehearsals this week declare that the May 13 presentation will provide people of this trade area with the type of musical extravaganza reminiscent of yesterday.

Additional details on the Dixie Land Minstrel will be carried in next week's Times.

Bond Sales $3,498.50 At Fluvanna School

Total of $3,498.50 in U. S. war bonds and war savings stamps were purchased by students of Fluvanna Schools in the recent Buy-a-Jeep campaign which drew to a close last Wednesday, H. L. Miller, school superintendent, reports.

Members of the Fluvanna School pre-flight class completed their campaign to sell war bonds and war savings stamps last week, with personnel of the student body participating 100 per cent.

Wren Talks to Zone Meeting of Lions at Loraine Tuesday

"We will learn, during this period of war-time emergency, that we will have to build our businesses on basis other than the sole basis to make money," H. L. Wren, Snyder Lions Club member, declared Tuesday evening as principal speaker in Loraine at the southern part, District 2-T Lions gathering.

Wren, as guest speaker for the southern part, District 2-T gathering declared that war-time restrictions would help in making Americans adopt a balanced type of economy for the post-war days ahead.

Tuesday evening's gathering was held in the Loraine Lions Club building. Dr. Ed Johnson presided over the zone meet which attracted representatives from Snyder, Big Spring, Odessa, Roscoe, Colorado City and Sweetwater.

Banquet for the occasion was served by the Methodist Church ladies.

Wren was accompanied to Loraine by Lyle Deffenbach, president of the Snyder Lions Club.

Farmers Busy as Planting Season Ideal in County

Feed and cotton planting time has arrived for Scurry County, generally speaking.

Farmers in all sectors of the county are working early and late this week planting feed, grain sorghums, sudan and in many instances acres and acres of peas, beans and other vital war food vegetables.

Ample supplies of bottom ground moisture are reported over the county, and both pasture and range land is greener, and furnishing more grazing, than during any other April in several years.

Those busy planting declare that both feed and cotton is coming up to a good stand within a few days after planting.

Farmers report an unusually heavy stand of weeds are being killed by planting at this time.

Predatory pests, such as jack rabbits, are said to be making inroads on young garden stuff, and farmers and ranchers report an urgent need for more ammunition immediately.

Honor Award for Red Cross Funds Drive to County

Scurry County's Red Cross chapter was this week awarded an honor certificate by the American Red Cross, Midwestern Area, in recognition of the successful achievement of the 1943 War Fund goal, Mrs. C. M. Boren, county RC chapter chairman, and E. O. Wedgeworth, county RC War Fund chairman, were informed Tuesday.

"Under your able leadership," American Red Cross officials inform Mrs. Boren and Wedgeworth, "volunteer workers have carried the message of the Red Cross to the people of Snyder and Scurry County. I am sure," H. P. Keisker, acting manager of the St. Louis Red Cross area office writes, "you feel rewarded by the knowledge that the careful planning and effective execution of this campaign has assured the maintenance of Red Cross services, both locally and on the global scale. Your chapter undoubtedly recognizes the fine contribution of time and effort you have made to bring success to the undertaking."

The citation of award for Scurry County's Red Cross chapter was conferred by Norman H. Davis, chairman of the Red Cross Central Committee.

Subjects Bro. Kelcy will preach on include: Sunday evening, "Proper Attitude Toward the Bible;" Monday evening, "How to Study the Bible;" Tuesday evening, "Are We Living Under the Old Testament?;" Wednesday evening, "How People Became Christian in Old Testament Times;" Thursday evening, "What It Means to Preach Christ;" Friday evening, "Should a Person Get Religion and Join the Church of His Choice?;" and Saturday evening, "The Rich Young Ruler."

Bralley Father and Son Team Now in Armed Services

Father and son team in military service for the "duration" was marked this week when James M. Bralley Jr. of the Hermleigh community was stationed at San Augustine, Florida, with the U. S. Coast Guard.

Mr. Bralley Sr. is located at Del Rio with the Army Air Forces where he is attending bombardier school. He has been attached to the air corps since last October 20.

James M. Bralley Jr. is a 1942 graduate of Hermleigh School, and was president of the school's senior class. He enlisted March 30, and was accepted by the Coast Guard April 8. The Hermleigh School graduate formerly worked at Camp Barkley, Abilene, as electrician's helper.

Mrs. James Bralley Sr. has been associated for some time with the Snyder Ben Franklin Store.

Hermleigh Gets Next Convention Of Area Singers

An unusually large number of out-of-county singers were attracted Sunday to semi-annual sessions of the Scurry County Singing Convention, held at Snyder's Tabernacle Baptist Church.

During business sessions Sunday afternoon, Hermleigh was approved to host the fall sessions of the convention October 24.

Rev. Earl Creswell, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist Church, gave the welcome address to convention attendants, and Joe Merritt, veteran county singer, gave the response.

Dinner, with cakes, pies and other sweet foods, was served an excellent crowd during noontime. Attendees declared dinner "on the grounds" reminded people of conventions conducted in years gone by—years before gasoline rationing.

Special song groups on program included the Patrick and Creswell quartets, the Dewey Niedeck group of Abilene and other groups which featured talent of this area, including Eddie Williams of Hobbs, well known song composer.

Charlie Lockhart gave an interesting talk Sunday afternoon on the need of purchasing U. S. war bonds and war savings stamps to help in the country's Second War Loan Drive.

Jack Patrick, convention president, and Neva Joyce Hall, secretary, were retained as convention officers.

Course in Red Cross Home Nursing Now Available in County

Enrollment of women in Scurry and nearby counties in Red Cross home nursing work assumed an added degree of importance this week with announcement by Mrs. Maude Holcomb, county RC home nursing chairman, that the National Broadcasting Company is sponsoring 13 Sunday broadcasts, "That They Might Live," to encourage early recruiting of nurses for home front work.

The American Red Cross, as the broadcasts tell, which begin each Sunday at 12:30 p. m., is urgently in need of enrolling 36,000 nurses for the U. S. Army and U. S. Navy—and 1,000,000 persons trained for home nursing duties.

Mrs. Ben Brooks, county instructor for the Red Cross home nursing program, reports that a school in home nursing will be started in the near future—if sufficient interest is shown in home nursing.

Persons interested in enrolling for home nursing are urged to contact Mrs. Holcomb, Brooks, or Mrs. C. M. Boren, county Red Cross chapter chairman.

Attendance at all our Sunday services continues to grow. This is as it should be. This is the time for growth. All nature about us has taken on new life. New life and growth give new inspiration and new aspirations are born within to go even beyond anything we have yet attained. Let every man, woman and child in Snyder find your way to the Lord's house each Lord's Day. We urge every member of this church to attend the services of your church. These services are arranged for you. You will enjoy them and be blessed if you attend. You will also add to the services by your presence and will not only be blessed but will be a blessing to others.

We extend a hearty welcome to any who are not in regular attendance elsewhere to come and worship with us. We hope to see you in the services Sunday, May 2. Come—Roy Shahan, Pastor.

THE 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

It's Ten Minutes to Midnight!

Wake Up, Americans... Your Country's Most Fateful Hour Is Near

THE hour when the final die is cast, when decisive victory hangs in the balance. The hour which will decide the future of you and your children... a future of joyous freedom or a future of endless serfdom.

Yes, it is ten minutes to midnight. And when the first stroke of that fateful hour begins to sound, it will be too late to throw your weight into the fight.

The time to do that is NOW.

Now, when your dollars can keep the production lines humming. Now, when your dollars can buy the tanks and guns and planes and ships our soldiers need to fight a winning war... the only kind of a war we can afford to fight. Now, while there are still ten minutes before midnight.

Your country is asking you to lend your dollars in greater amount than ever before. It is asking for 13 billions of dollars extra this month... 13 billions for the weapons of war to make sure that it is our side which dictates the peace.

If we do not win, the money you fail to lend now will be worse than useless to you. If we win, as we must, the money you lend now will be returned with interest... for you to spend on the good things of life... for you to enjoy in a free and safe world.

So dig down, Americans. Answer the challenge by buying War Loan securities this month with every idle dollar you have except what you need for the barest necessities of life.

Don't wait for the War Loan Volunteer. Beat the gun by going to your bank, investment dealer, broker, Post Office, or bond booth today.

Have your money in your fist... the fist that can deliver the knockout blow to the Axis. But hurry...

For it is ten minutes to midnight...

The hour that can strike the knell of doom—or the blessed song of freedom.

Your dollars can call the tune.

Spiking Ration Rumors

The federal government, in a general memorandum to the people of Scurry and adjoining counties, asks that people spike rumors that War Ration Book No. 3, which will be issued in July, will include stamps for rationing of many items of clothing and food not now limited. There is a good chance that a few items, in addition to those rationed, will be limited by July, but the new ration book is, in the main, a replacement for War Ration Book No. 1, coupons in which are already playing out.

Rationing has not hurt the American public too much so far, and those who holler the loudest, according to a governmental viewpoint, are those who waste essential supplies of food and clothing, and have not yet learned a lesson of thrift and savings.

Red Cross Carries On

Those who read the Scurry County Red Cross progress report in this week's issue of The Times for the quarter which ended Tuesday cannot help but admire the RC activities reported on the county's home front. In the surgical dressing program alone, Scurry County has contributed 46,800 dressings and bandages.

Report of the organization's Camp Berkeley Camp and Hospital Committee, Production Corps and Home Service Department also constitute basis of county-wide encouragement and stimulus.

The Red Cross progress report boils down simply to the fact, Mr. and Mrs. Snyder and Scurry County, that it is your organization, and as such is entitled to your best efforts and cooperation. The mother of mercy needs your time, your money and your brains more now than at any time in history, and every contribution you make—in time or money—will mean directly the saving of lives on the world's battlefields.

We Need Ammunition, Too

Rabbit drive conducted one day last week in a Scurry County community reveals that predatory rodents and animals are more numerous this year than at any time in the past decade, and that lack of sufficient ammunition is the only factor that prohibits the extermination of predatory game, for example, like jack rabbits and cotton-tails.

We need ammunition right now on the home front, to rid this section of the state from predatory pests, and those who till the soil feel the War Production Board and other government agencies should release enough ammunition for small arms such as shotguns to insure complete riddance of crop destroying rodents and pests.

We should, if necessary, be in favor of closed game seasons next fall if we can, as a section of the state, be assured of enough ammunition to keep these price-less victory crops of feed, cotton, grain and fiber crops growing. Without adequate home front food and feed supplies, our entire war effort could well become clogged and in a crucial state of economic status.

And there'll be sons mourned and fathers who died in mud-choked jungles and drowned in the seven oceans. And the folks back at home helpless to do anything about it except to back up and pray for the powers that be, that wisdom shall guide their actions, and that they will train our boys the very best possible and give them the best weapons to use against the enemy, and not waste the substance of the people on petty notions, and pray, too, that some good may come of all the waste we see going on in the name of patriotism and victory.

Too, that our hearts will not be hardened and our minds soured, but rather mellowed and sweetened by the Gethsemane. You say, why talk of that? And well you do. We had as well make up our minds to take what comes, to support and pray for our authorities, for the admirals and generals, the commander-in-chief. And for all those who must bare their breasts to the bullets and the diabolical machines of war which modern man, bent on destruction, has devised.

And praying, also lay our money on the counter, for we must pay one way or another for all of this. This year alone Uncle Sam is going to ask for $70,000,000,000 in loans. Thirteen billions in this very April—before another three days is gone. Have you done all that you could? Have you spent your money foolishly? Are you going to keep going on the same old basis? Have you tried to make sure that what you are doing and the way you are spending are not going to be in the way of the war effort? Surely you wouldn't be a drawback in this crisis of our nation. You wouldn't do anything for the world that might make it a little more difficult for that boy in Africa to get the best and do his best.—The Floyd County Hospesarian.

The civilian population is not hearing too much about activities of the Dies Committee right at the moment, but do not think that the committee has been hustled to the administration attic. . . . Members are busy investigating government employees—especially those employed by the Office of War Information. . . . For some reason or other the OWI has not given satisfaction at all—insofar as the American public is concerned—and quite a few government officials want to know why we are continuing to lose the battle of propaganda.

Current Comment

By LEON GUINN

Editor's Note—Expressions or opinions contained in this column are those of the writer and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of The Times. Current Comment is merely carried as a feature column.

People who have kept level-headed during the past three years, and who have, with justified reasoning, warned about our above-ground supplies of crude oil, are happy to learn that Washington is becoming alarmed over estimated reserves. . . . We have changed our entire concept on crude oil stocks since Pearl Harbor, and will change them more as the war progresses. . . . Government officials are trying to crack the transportation bottleneck, but are trying to bring about a better method of distribution and see that available stocks are put in the channels of commerce. . . . Oil executives are pressing for much higher priorities on manufacture of drilling equipment and liberalization of prices to spur wildcat exploration work.

The Office of Defense Transportation was reported this week to be earnestly attempting to avoid rationing of travel, but is getting machinery set up to launch another one of those "don't travel" campaigns. . . . Office of Defense Transportation personnel are showing considerable astonishment over the actual mileage totals on essential travel in states like Texas, but Texas, for example, is a mighty big state and requires thousands of miles per vehicle to keep cattle moving to market, commodities and foods moving to retail centers and necessary raw materials going to smelting plants. . . . Governor Coke R. Stevenson and a number of top-ranking Texas officials have not yet become convinced that gasoline rationing was ever necessary—much less beginning to curb down still further mileage for really essential movement of vehicles—all makes included.

The War Production Board, despite almost super-human efforts of attaches, is gradually losing a battle to meet the high goals in 1943 production that has been set for some war materials. . . . Increased pressure is being brought all along the line to step up output. . . . Production scheduling, redistribution of contract backlogs, greater use of small plants and adoption of incentive pay systems are parts of the WPB program to meet contemplated production goals for the remainder of the year.

Impartial observers have agreed, all along, that the War Production Board has had a hard row of stumps to root out, and admit that miracles have already been performed along numerous lines. . . . WPB officials, in all departments, have tried to change an America of peace into an America at war without disruption of economic machinery, and will doubtless have to go plenty tough before 1943, or probable 1944 production goals, are met. . . . Something like 75 per cent of our remaining civilian population are still geared to peace-time thinking and action, which means that fast and drastic changes will occur before autumn leaves begin to fall.

If you have been getting up late of a morning, and find that it's difficult to get to work on time for lack of a timepiece, you should find encouragement in the fact some 1,700,000 war-time alarm clocks will be made by relaxation of restrictions to permit making the clocks. . . . Rather than assign clock making firms a certain length of time to turn out, say 20,000 clocks, all firms in the industry will distribute war brand clocks and reap the respective profits. . . . There's a good chance that some 3,000,000 clocks will be made before production is halted, for the need of this one item has increased four-fold during the past 30 days.

With the war progressing to a point of intensified action in Tunisia that will prove costly and bloody—even to the winners—some people are wondering whatever became of our self-glorified isolationists, who predicted that the United States could steer clear of the conflict, and who even made such bold statements as to declare, for instance, the Japs could be "smoked out of the Southwest Pacific in three weeks." . . . Isolationist predictions, of course, were made before Pearl Harbor, and those who formerly advocated that we stay out of the war seem to have dropped into convenient hibernation holes in the ground. . . . Had it not been for "wall-eyed" isolationist groups two years ago steps would have been taken in armament that would, military leaders remarked a few days ago, have shortened this war by at least one year. . . . One year of war and hell can cost many American and Allied lives—not to mention costs in monetary values.

No person would be foolish enough, naturally, to even guess at an approximate date for an Allied invasion of Europe, to wipe the enemies of freedom out, but high ranking military authorities seem to agree that next fall will be the appropriate time for such large scale action. . . . The enemy, both German and Japanese, are proving tougher to handle than many at first thought, and the tremendous scope of the war—on all fronts of the world—is making the setting of a definite time clock impossible for the Allies. . . . Our enemies have made so many time clocks of operations, virtually all their predictions are entirely ignored.

When you get to the end of your rope, tie a knot and hang on.
