Marguerite Wilson And Elmo Favé Wed

Marguerite Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Wilson, became the bride of First Sergeant Gaines Elmo Favé August 28, 9:30 o'clock, Rev. C. S. Cadwallader, pastor of the Riverside Baptist Church, officiated with the double ring ceremony at the home of C. M. Knight at San Antonio. Mr. Knight is an uncle of the bridegroom.

For the impressive service the bride chose to wear a two-piece crepe ensemble of heavily blue with white accessories. She wore a shoulder arrangement of pink carnations. For the traditional "something old and borrowed" she wore a gold pin belonging to Grandmother Favé. She carried a white Bible given her by brothers.

Mrs. W. W. Melson was matron-of-honor and T. J. Favé was best man. Mrs. T. J. Favé served as a bridesmaid.

Setting for the ceremony was the outdoor garden of the Knight home, which was decorated with some of the season's most colorful summer flowers, arranged in tall baskets.

Mrs. Favé was graduated from Phuvanna High School in 1939, where she was popular among the younger set. She attended Draughon's Business College at Lubbock. Since February, 1942, she has been employed at Duncan Field, San Antonio, as a supervisor in the supply department.

Sergeant Favé, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Favé, was also graduated from Phuvanna High School. Mr. and Mrs. Favé and Elmo moved to Snyder in 1938 to make their home. Sergeant Favé has been in the armed forces a little over two years. For the past nine months he has been stationed in the Panama Canal Zone.

The couple visited with their parents and other relatives and friends in Snyder Sunday. Favé left Monday for New Orleans, Louisiana, where he will be until he returns to his post of duty in the Panama Canal Zone. Mrs. Favé plans to continue with her work at Duncan Field for the time being.

McCarty-Reed Rites Said in East Texas

Veta Bell McCarty became the bride of Mason Reed August 18 in the spacious farm home of the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. John Mason, in Pleasanton. Rev. Tink, pastor of the Bear Lake Methodist parish, officiated.

The impressive ceremony was performed before an improvised altar banked with gladioli and other seasonal flowers and fern.

"Wedding March" by Mendelssohn was played by Mrs. Arthur Elbert, who also accompanied her son, Raymond, with a violin solo. Mrs. Ray Mason sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride wore a street length frock of navy blue crepe with white accessories and she carried a bouquet of mixed pom-poms and fern.

Frances Brown, who was maid-of-honor, wore a street ensemble of tan crepe with brown accessories and she also carried a bouquet of mixed pom-poms. Roscoe Lamont was best man. Both bridegroom and groomsmen wore conventional blue suits.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held for relatives and close friends. Mr. and Mrs. Reed left following the reception for a brief honeymoon trip.

Mrs. Reed, daughter of Mrs. Minnie McCarty of Big Spring, was graduated from Ira High School and a Carlsbad, New Mexico, business college.

Reed, son of Leo Reed of Pleasanton, was graduated from Bear Lake High School and Michigan State College.

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding were Mrs. Elizabeth Bourdage of Ludington and Mrs. Sig Johnson of Saginaw.

Demonstration Club Notes

Estella Kabel, County Agent

Union Home Demonstration Club members met recently in the home of Mrs. Mel Adams.

Members answered roll call with "something new I have learned about clothing and how I care for my shoes." Miss Kabel gave a number of hints on shopping, both in local and mail order stores. Following this she gave some points on how to make a shoe rack from scrap lumber and also ways in keeping shoes.

After the meeting the following members enjoyed lemonade, cookies and cake: Misses Carroll Adams, Paris McPherson, Walter Coonrod, G. M. Garner, Weldon Samrud, Edgar Wilson, Robert Chambers, E. McGford, J. N. Buffington Wiley Eubanks and Miss Kabel.

Next meeting will be held October 1 in the home of Mrs. Adams.

Waste Fats Are Vital

"Making soap on the farm, long considered an act of thrift, is contrary to the patriotic spirit of the times. Our vital question now is, Shall we save money or lives?"

"From the economical standpoint it is cheaper to make a good quality of soap at home," explains Estella Kabel, county home demonstration agent. "But in making soap on the farm all the glycerine which is badly needed for war purposes is lost.

All glycerine, except about one per cent, is extracted from commercially made soap. That is why soap is of poorer quality than during peace time."

Valuing waste fat at about four cents per pound, Miss Kabel says home-made soap costs only about half that much, but the appeal now is for glycerine to save lives rather than to save money.

During the month of July Texas collected less than 40 per cent of its waste fat allotment. This is one of the few war-time programs in which Texans are falling behind, and this failure is reducing the output of explosives.

Many rural families believe they do not waste any fat, but they should check themselves carefully, the agent says. It is easy to let a teaspoon of fat remain in a skillet and go down the drain or into the garbage.

The first principle of the government's fat salvage program is to use kitchen fats as long as they are suitable for food. But as soon as they become old they should be turned into a fat collection center before they become rancid. The glycerine content is reduced when fats are rancid.

Old Highway 15 Designation Now Officially Erased

The State Highway Commission announced Wednesday in Austin cancellation of State Highway 15 from a point on U. S. Highway 390 west of Albany to the New Mexico state line.

Cancellation of the Highway 15 designation from Albany west to the New Mexico line was announced after the American Association of State Highway Officials designated U. S. Highway 190 from Weatherford via Mineral Wells, Breckenridge, Albany, Anson, Ruby, Snyder, Lamesa, Seminole and Carlsbad, New Mexico.

Since the AASHO cancelled designation of U. S. Highway 90-A, the Texas Highway Commission designated a state highway from Abilene to a point on U. S. Highway 190 west of Albany and will continue maintenance.

Federalization of Highway 15 was announced several weeks ago through Mayor H. G. Towle of Snyder, County Judge Sterling Williams and a Scurry County delegation that conferred in Austin with the State Highway Commission. Designation of State Highway 15 as U. S. Highway 190, however, was not announced through the American Association of Highway Officials until this week.

Lubbock Flying Unit Stages Open House

South Plains Army Air Field, Lubbock, where a number of Scurry County men are stationed, last Thursday observed its first anniversary with "open house" festivities that attracted people from a 12-county area.

Visitors last Thursday at South Plains Army Air Field not only were treated to an incendiary demonstration, but "Winged Commandos" put on an exhibition of formation flying, "blitz" landings, spot landings and the double tow, in which big twin-engined tow planes pulled two big gliders at the same time.

New Gas Tickets To Curb Bootleg Gasoline Market

Snyder and Scurry County motorists learned Monday that strips of serial numbered tickets will soon replace gasoline ration books to cut off the bootleg market in loose ration stamps and to tighten control over civilian supplies of gasoline.

The Office of Price Administration announced over the week-end that the change-over from present coupons to the serial numbered type will be made after January 1. It will take that long to use up the present supply of ration books.

The numbered tickets, easily traced, will eliminate the loose stamps which now show up at filling stations with nothing to identify the motorist to whom they were issued.

Under the new system a record will be kept of the ticket numbers issued each motorist. If he reports them lost or stolen the numbers will be sent to all filling stations in his neighborhood so attendants may keep a look-out for them.

To speed the handling of extra gasoline allowed essential motorists, OPA will set up "central issuance stations" in major cities soon to handle detail work of getting the stamps to car owners.

Car owners still will have to apply to local rationing boards for extra gasoline, but, once the request is approved, the ration tickets will be sent out by the central issuance stations.

W. C. Hammit's Have Surprise Boys' Visit

Unexpected family reunion for Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hammit Sr. was brought about over the week-end, when their two sons in military service arrived on furlough visits.

Corporal O. L. Hammit, stationed at Randolph Field, San Antonio, first to arrive, got here Wednesday night. He will be here until Wednesday of next week.

Sergeant W. C. Hammit Jr. of McAdill Field, Florida, U. S. Air Corps, got here Sunday morning on furlough visit, and will remain until this week-end.

Allen Fenton Makes Army Boxing Record

Military Policeman-Baker Allen Fenton was cited this week in a service publication, as a soldier boy to watch in coming sports events.

Allen, who won one bout in one go-around in ARC clashes, pounded his way to the district Golden Gloves championship, welterweight class, in 1942.

The Snyder boy, weighing 147 pounds, has won 12 out of 14 fights. Two wins were by k. o.'s, one by a technical k. o. and nine by decision. His two losses were by decision, and coming contenders are warned to watch for his left jab.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Fenton, Allen is stationed somewhere in Africa with the U. S. Army.

Third War Loan Drive

"Back the Attack" with war bonds and war savings stamps will be heard in every section of Scurry County, when the county's Third War Loan drive officially gets underway here Monday, September 13.

We're going to have a big job ahead of us, Scurry County, in meeting our quota for the third campaign, but with the type of determination that has accomplished past jobs, county war finance committees believe we can meet our quota within a week after the drive opens.

War bond and war savings stamp purchases during the Third War Loan drive do not constitute gifts, but safe, sound investments in the American government and the American way of life. That we cannot fail our boys in this crucial hour is evident from the fact thousands of Americans are overseas and depend upon us for all the ammunition, food and clothing it will take to win. We not only need to "Back the Attack" with bonds during the Third War Loan drive, but we need to "Brace the Attack" with purchase of an extra war bond each week of the drive. Why not plan now to buy an extra war bond every Tuesday until the county goes "over the top" in the forthcoming drive?

Early Harvest

Due to unprecedented weather conditions of the past two months, farmers of this immediate trade zone are witnessing the earliest cotton harvest since 1932—a harvest that can result, despite many adverse factors, gathering what crops we have before the leaves of autumn fall and rain commences.

Straws in the wind indicate that Old Man Winter will be with us before too long, and those farmers fortunate to get their feed and fiber crops gathered before inclement weather can be truly thankful for their good lot. Naturally, one of our most important crops this year will be feedstuff, and one ton stacked or put in the barn now will be worth many tons left to the mercy of the elements.

Too early harvesting of crops this year will make it possible for farmers to get early plowing over with and take advantage of every single rain we may have through the winter season.

Rancher Relief

Some direct rancher relief was provided stockmen of this area last week with announcement from the War Food Administration that all quota limitations on slaughter of livestock for a two-month period have been suspended.

Ranchers of this area have said all along they would gladly do their part and solve their own problems—if left alone to keep supply and demand on an even keel. While the quota suspension for a two-month period will help, it may serve—unless considerable foresight is used—in a more critical meat situation for the country next year. Only string to the present WFA edict is that 40 per cent of livestock slaughtered be available for armed force purchases—with remaining 60 per cent available, as usual with ration book points, to civilians.

Editorial of the Week

A TROUBLED CONSCIENCE

The conscience of the average American should be giving him trouble. Far from suffering any physical or financial hardship from the war, the average person is making money out of it. Not that we are blaming the individual for that. War economy, prices, wages in war-time are things that even the experts don't seem to be able to understand—or at least, to do much about.

Nevertheless, your conscience should be burdened over the situation and doubtless is. You don't feel right making more money than ever before and living better than ever before just because our boys are out beyond the oceans fighting and dying to save our necks.

Well, here's something you can do about it. Here's how you can help them fight. They need you to pass the ammunition. The way you do that is simple—though not all easy. You invest all your surplus money in war bonds. But that's just the beginning. Next you take a large slice of the money you really need, money you were going to spend for what looked like necessities, and buy more bonds. You're not sacrificing a dime when you invest your surplus money in bonds. Only when you loan your country the money you actually need are you taking your place alongside our fighting men.

The bond quota for Jones County in the Third War Loan is double the amount of our quota last spring. That looks like a heavy assignment. It is, in fact, a big load. It is a goal that can be reached only by sacrifice.—The Stamford American.

Practical Washington observers, worrying now about the feeding of Europe, are beginning to contemplate much greater sacrifices on America's home front than was thought probable even four weeks ago. . . . Key officials give broad hints that the United States should be reducing its diet to stockpile food for the feeding of conquered and liberated peoples—when the opportune time rolls around. . . . Naturally, any common sense policy of feeding peoples of the world should give our own people first choice and make available any—or all—remaining supplies of foodstuff on an equitable basis for conquered and liberated races.

There is nothing to be more esteemed than a manly firmness and decision of character.—Hazlitt.

Current Comment

By LEON GUINN

Editor's Note—Expressions or opinions contained in this column are those of the writer and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of The Times. Current Comment is merely carried as a feature column.

With the week-end resignation of William Jefferson as national rubber czar, Washington sources revealed the rubber has ceased to be a pressing problem, what with synthetic rubber of good quality to be available, in the immediate future, to maintain transportation on both the war and the home fronts. . . . Next 60 to 90 days of course, will be "tight" for both gasoline and tire supplies, but a gradual improvement in the entire situation is expected to be felt prior to January 1.

Biggest source of worry at the present, insofar as tires are concerned, is the supply of cotton fabric and cord and lack of sufficient tire plant capacity to build 30,000,000 synthetic tires for civilian use next year—in addition to the great number of tires scheduled to be made for military and lend-lease uses. . . . Companies in the rubber industry plan to expand their plants and in instances reconvert facilities formerly used for ordnance purposes. . . . Tire outlook for next year reveals a book owners will have to get by on rations, but such rations, for example, will be better than former "turn outs" because they will be made from a mixture of reclaimed and synthetic rubber. . . . Synthetic tires will not be as good as those from the natural rubber product, but with proper care will be good for thousands of safe driving miles.

While we're on the rubber subject, it is realized—once crude rubber again becomes available on a major scale—industry leaders envision tires that will utilize the best features of natural and synthetic rubber. . . . Indicating a recent trend in opinion, rubber companies will insist that synthetic tire manufacture be maintained to prevent possibility of a squeeze any time in the future. . . . American ingenuity and brain power is gradually solving our critical rubber problem, and both governmental and private leaders of industry are to be highly commended for the remarkable progress made during the past six months in "locking" our critical rubber problem.

Political interest, on the whole, is increasing week by week, and war contractors, in some instances, are taking employees into their confidence in discussing reorganization difficulties. . . . Future of business and industry in the post-war world will prove a major factor in influencing political trends for the 1944 presidential sweepstakes, and one can look for some unexpected developments after January 1. . . . Civilians should not forget, however, that the Roosevelt administration holds the inside tracks on politics, and will put such machinery in motion as may become necessary when the presidential race warrants such action.

Uncle Sam's army of the United States last month acquired some 65,000 ready-made soldiers, all of them women, when members of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps were transferred from an auxiliary unit into the Women's Army Corps, U. S. Army officials report. . . . Signing of enlistment papers and administering of oaths were completed on September 1, making WAACS regular members of the army. . . . High ranking army officials state that performance of members of the WAC has brought about a full army status. . . . Lieutenant Colonel Marvin B. Durette, commander of the West Texas Recruiting and Induction Station, Lubbock, reported Monday that if auxiliary corps unit work had not been of the highest quality members would not have been given the privilege of becoming members of the U. S. Army.

Fifth annual horse issue of The Cattleman, official publication for the ranching industry in the Southwest, released this week, contains much material of vital importance to all ranchers and livestock owners of this trade area. . . . Articles, ranging from "Cowboys and Their Horses," "Cow-Horse Sense," "Cortes and His Steeds" to "How to Care for Feet of Horses and Mules," contains much illuminating material stockmen will want to refer to through the months and years ahead. . . . The Cattleman is recognized as the outstanding livestock publication of the Southwest, and information contained in each issue is not only authentic, but written in the common language of the range that endears the magazine to those who must keep well posted on livestock developments.

Shortage of manpower, as predicted in this column several months ago, has become our No. 1 war production problem and supercedes materials and plant capacity as the chief headache for national leaders to worry over. . . . Discussions on manpower shortages throughout the nation will have an important bearing on the forthcoming fight in Congress on the drafting of fathers. . . . Indications of a growing manpower shortage over the country will put plenty of pressure on congressmen to stop induction of family men. . . . Outlook at the moment calls for placing many more women in war work than the 17,000,000 presently employed, and look for the War Manpower Commission to have more trouble with national Selective Service System "big wigs."

Right actions for the future are the best apologies for wrong ones in the past—the best evidence of regret for them that we can offer of the world receive.—Fryson Edwards.

Home Nursing Course at Gail to Be Planned Soon

A Red Cross nurse from the Midwest Division of the American Red Cross arrived in Gail Wednesday to lay foundations for a RC home nursing course—a project jointly sponsored by the Borden and Scurry County chapters—Mary L. Cantrell, Red Cross publicity chairman for Borden County, reported Wednesday afternoon.

Classes have already been organized in Borden County communities, Miss Cantrell reports, and each community is making arrangements for class rooms and equipment. Books for the course will be available within the next few days.

Chairman of Borden County communities for the RC home nursing program, as released by Miss Cantrell, follow:

Mrs. Bert Massingill, Vealmoor; Mrs. J. H. Isaacs, Berry Flat; Mrs. Nolan von Roeder, Knapp; Mrs. W. M. Stephens, Mesquite; Mrs. R. B. Willis, Snellings; and Mrs. J. C. Johnson, Gail.

A delegation of Borden County Red Cross representatives is expected to meet here Monday afternoon with Scurry County's Red Cross chapter, at which time Miss Thompson, area Red Cross representative of home nursing, will assist in activating the Borden and Scurry home nursing program.

Little Bit Helps

"I don't know that it will help too much," an elderly Scurry County farm woman said Tuesday, "but during September—in addition to my regular purchase of war bonds and war savings stamps—I plan to set aside half my cream and egg money to buy stamps during the Third War Loan drive."

Just such willingness to invest during the Third War Loan drive is what Scurry County's War Finance Committee covets from every citizen of the county. E. O. Wedgeworth, county war finance committee chairman, says the contribution of 50 per cent of income—no matter how much or little—will get the job done in quick order.

Special Services Set At Nazarene Church

In keeping with the Third War Loan drive that officially begins here Tuesday of next week, Snyder's Church of the Nazarene will hold special services Sunday to which people of this trade area are cordially invited.

Rev. Doyle Wilson, pastor, will preach Sunday morning on "What Have I Done in Comparison with You?" He will take his text from Judges 8:2 and also verse five of the same chapter, "Give, I pray you, leaves of bread unto the people that follow me."

"Just as Gideon was engaged in the common cause of Israel, and had a right to expect success, so is President Roosevelt," Rev. Wilson says, "engaged in a common cause—one that justifies all Christian people to do their best."

The general public is cordially invited to worship at the Church of the Nazarene.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Sanders and son, William Darrell, of San Antonio visited in the homes of relatives over the week-end. Sanders returned to San Antonio Tuesday and Mrs. Sanders and the baby will remain in Snyder until the latter part of the week.

Interest in Assembly Of God Meet Grows

Increasing attendance for evening services, plus a greater response from people of the Snyder community, marks the open-air meeting at Snyder's Assembly of God Church.

Rev. H. M. Reeves of Plainview, who is conducting preaching services, reports the revival will be concluded Sunday evening. Rev. Reeves is reported to be bringing powerful gospel messages to attendants.

Following Sunday School Sunday morning, 10:00, Rev. C. L. Hundley, pastor, will preach at the 11:00 o'clock hour on "The Bible, Our Democracy and the War."

Dinner will be served "on the grounds" at noon, and services Sunday afternoon will include singing and special music.

The public is invited by congregation leaders to attend remaining services of the meeting.

Rex Beard Dies for Slaying of Officer

Rex Beard, the paper sack bandit who killed Deputy Sheriff Wade Willis of Abilene, former Scurry County resident, died early Friday morning in the electric chair at Huntsville for his crime.

Besides the now customary 30-day governor's reprieve, Beard last Wednesday received a 24-hour stay from his scheduled execution because last Wednesday night constituted the regular weekly broadcast from within the Huntsville prison walls.

Fire Department Gets Three Calls Since Last Week

Snyder's Volunteer Fire Department really "hooked up" last Thursday noon when roof of a residence at Mitchell's Dairy caught on fire.

When firemen arrived at the scene, most of the residence roof was aflame. Booster tank water of both trucks was used to fight the fire, and a bucket brigade was formed to keep the truck booster tanks filled.

The Mitchell Dairy fire was rekindled of yesterday, as firemen, in bucket brigade fashion, kept water going to fire truck booster tanks from a storage tank and stock tank.

Roof to the residence was a total loss, but only nominal damage was reported to the interior of the structure.

Snyder firemen answered another call Sunday afternoon, 4:00 o'clock, to Browning Food Market, when fire of unknown beginning caught egg crates placed on a back loading platform, on fire. Only slight damage was reported.

The town's Volunteer Fire Department had a third call Tuesday afternoon, 4:45 o'clock, to Northeast Snyder to fight a grass fire. No damage was done to property in the vicinity.

Mrs. O. T. McMahan, formerly Opal Etheridge, who resides with her husband at Amarillo, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Etheridge, at Hermleigh and other relatives and friends in Snyder. Mrs. McMahan's husband is a sergeant in the United States Army Air Force at Amarillo.

Four County Schools Opened This Week

Snyder, Martin, Dunn and Plainview constitute four county schools that opened Monday of this week for the 1943-1944 school year, the county superintendent's office reports.

Mrs. Georgia Martin is directing policy of the Martin School, located six miles northwest of Snyder.

Dunn School started Monday with C. J. Smith as principal. Other teachers and Mrs. Hanson and Mrs. Sallie Gillum.

Directing Plainview School for the new term are Mrs. Eupha Shields and Treasa Williams.

Separate story on the opening of Snyder Schools Monday will be found elsewhere in this issue of The Times.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Durham and sons, Mark and Billie, Mrs. J. O. Sheld Jr. and small daughter visited another daughter and sister, Mrs. Willie Smyrl, and family at Lubbock over the week-end. While they were gone they also visited with their grandmother at Levelland.

Tests for Tb Being Made on Dairy Cows

Testing of Scurry County dairy cattle for tuberculosis is progressing this week at a very satisfactory rate, Dr. N. B. Giles, with the U. S. Department of Agriculture Bureau of Animal Industry, reports.

Limited help and time will make it impossible to test all cattle contemplated when the TB program for this county was planned, but personnel here intends to test all stock possible this week.

J. E. Blakey, manager of Snyder's Texas Electric Service Company office, has a broad smile now—backed by a mighty good reason.

Interior of the Snyder Texas Electric Service Company office has been refinished and coating of white paint put around the utility offices. Too, office furniture has been rearranged and considerably more room made for TES customers. Front of the office is receiving plenty of new paint this week.
