BABSON DISCUSSES "FACT-FINDING"
PHILADELPHIA, May 3.—There are many subjects of which I know nothing; but a few concerning which experience has taught me much. One of these is "fact-finding." My entire life has been given to this.

BEWARE OF THE BUNK
Hence, I am much interested in the various "fact-finding" committees which are being appointed by the government in connection with labor disputes. Well, let me say that most of them are the bunk. The idea is crazy that three men, unacquainted with an industry, can—in four weeks or even four months—get enough facts about that industry to say whether wages should be increased 5 cents or 20 cents.

To add to this bunk, our good President goes into a trance and, by palmistry or tea-leaf reading, pulls 1-2 cents out of the blue sky and calls that "fact-finding." It has long been an old joke that there are three kinds of lies, namely, simple lies, damned lies and statistics. Well, that joke should now be amended to include a fourth kind of lies—the worst of all—namely, "fact-finding."

WAGE INCREASES CAUSE INFLATION

However, as a result of this bunk, we are now having wages artificially fixed by one fact-finding board, prices fixed by another fact-finding board, hours fixed by another fact-finding board, profits fixed by another fact-finding board, and so on. All these things are supposed to prevent inflation. Yet, Congress is now passing a minimum wage bill which is the greatest inflation-producing law ever conceived.

All these things are done without any regard for the nation's welfare; but only to help Congressmen get re-elected. They know in their hearts that all these "fact-finding" boards and the wages-prices-profits legislation will lead to utter confusion so that the entire structure will fall as the Tower of Babel did 3,000 years ago. Yet, during these 3,000 years the same fact-finding schemes have been tried by many great nations such as Babylon, Persia, Egypt, Greece, Rome, Spain and finally France. All were found unworkable and given up.

TWO BASIC LAWS
Now let me put readers right on two fundamental economic truths which are as sound and unchangeable as the multiplication table. The first is that wages, prices, profits, etc., will adjust themselves if let alone; but will cause unemployment if monkeywrenched. They all are linked together like the wheels of a watch.

The second is that the only solution of everyone's problem is a proper mixture of work, education and religion. These are two facts which history has proved to be true but politicians like to admit. WE ALL MUST WORK HARDER
When we apply these two facts to the present situation, the answer is this: The country can stand the new wage increases okay if prices are allowed to find their natural level under a truly free competitive system with the same laws applying to employers and wage workers. I, however, make this one proviso: AS WE RETURN TO WORK, WHETHER FROM THE ARMY OR FROM STRIKES, WE ALL—EMPLOYERS AND WAGE WORKERS—MUST DO SO WITH A DETERMINATION TO PRODUCE MORE AND BETTER PRODUCTS. UPON THIS, ALL FACT-FINDING DEPENDS.

Of course, we cannot keep hiking wages and prices indefinitely without the balloon bursting. As the collapse of the 1910's was caused by the railroads getting too powerful; as the collapse of the 1930's was caused by the utilities getting too powerful; so the next collapse of the 1950's will be caused by labor unions getting too powerful. Today, the labor barons are making the same mistake as did the railroad and utility barons years ago. But business should be so good for a few years that we can stand a general wage raise if we all will cheerfully put our shoulders to the wheel and produce to our very utmost. This should be accompanied by even higher stock prices.

SPIRITUAL AWAKENING
Whenever I refer in this column to the need of a "spiritual awakening," I have a flood of letters asking me to explain what I mean. Readers seem to think I am interested in some special theology or creed. Let me say again that there is no formula or definition of what is needed for a spiritual awakening. In fact, it varies from time-to-time. Today, however, it means a desire by us all to produce as much as possible for the good of all God's creatures.

Texas Electric Co. Show Of New Electrical Equipment To Be Held In Sweetwater, May 16-18

County To Benefit On Repair Jobs

Expenditures totaling more than $227,000 will be made in the next few years by home owners on farms and in small communities of Scurry County to improve present electric service and home plumbing.

These outlays will mean additional income to practically every local business and will finance additional wiring, bathroom improvements and new electrical equipment for the county's 606 farm and rural homes already served with electricity, according to a study released by the T. E. Council of America.

Introduction of running water, installation of tiled bathrooms and replacement of out-moded plumbing fixtures head the list of most wanted farm home features, D. P. Frost, chairman of the Council's Residential Construction Committee, revealed. One in five farm families throughout the nation plan bathroom improvements, he said.

Additional wiring is needed in practically every farm home with electricity, according to the study. A huge market likewise exists for milking machines, quick freezing units, electric motors, baby chick brooders and other equipment.

Expenditures in the county are part of a $94,617,000 program to be undertaken by Texan farm and rural home owners in the next five years, the study revealed. An estimated $2,294,900,000 on similar improvements to present electric service will be spent in the nation during that time.

Vets With Lapsed Insurance Urged To Reinstate It

All Scurry County veterans who have let their Government Insurance lapse are urged to contact your local service officer for reinstatement before it is too late.

The contact service of the Veterans Administration today was seeking every veteran who has let his G. I. Insurance lapse to offer reinstatement without a medical examination.

Robert W. Sisson, Lubbock Veterans Administration Regional Manager, said success of the campaign would result in invaluable service to thousands of veterans.

Ex-GI's can now reinstate policies without a medical examination, regardless of how long they have been out of the service, provided their health has grown no worse during the lapsed period, Sisson said.

"This liberalization is only effective until January 1, 1947," he pointed out. "Time is running out for many of these veterans and we must use every means to inform them of this priceless opportunity."

"It is importance cannot be over-emphasized. It will not only be simpler to reinstate policies, but many veterans are now able to reinstate who would not be able to pass a rigid physical examination."

"These uninsurable veterans may never again have the opportunity to provide adequate life insurance protection for their present and future dependents."

Term insurance carried on service people during the war can be reinstated by payment of only two monthly premiums. Veterans can reinstate all or a part of the government policy.

Sisson urged veterans to see their local V. A. representatives immediately. Local veterans service organizations, the county service officer or the Red Cross can also supply information about insurance reinstatement.

Bernard Longbottom, Jr. Scurry county service officer has his office in the basement of the courthouse in Snyder.

Boy Scout Work To Be Reorganized At Fluvanna

Reactivation of Boy Scout work has taken place at Fluvanna this school term. Under the sponsorship of Fluvanna Public School, of which C. A. Landrum is Superintendent, both the Boy Scout and club programs have been carried forward.

The cubs have made model airplanes, done soap carving and are now at work on scrapbooks and a program for Indian Month in pack activities.

Ordinarily there are several patrols in each Boy Scout Troop, and several Dens in each cub pack, but Fluvanna is forced to operate with only one Den and one Patrol.

Committeemen for both groups are: Wallace Jones, Chairman; Foulter Mathis, John Stanley, and Leo Beaver.

Scoutmaster and submaster is Melvin Roy Mathis. This is the report of Troop 39 and Den 38, according to Mr. Mathis.

First Yank Shell By Money Spent Being Sent To U. S.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — Forty surviving members of Battery B, 151st Field Artillery, 34th Division, which fired the first American shot in World War II in Europe, are looking forward to the arrival here of the case of that first shell. It is being forwarded from Belfast, Ireland, to Lt. Col. Eugene E. Surdyk of Minneapolis, who as a captain commanded the battery at a firing practice in the Sperin Mountains in North Ireland, February 21, 1942.

The shell case was saved by Staff Sergeant John C. Burnette. Later it was engraved with the roster of the battery. When the battery embarked for North Africa, the case was turned over for safekeeping to D. Hall Christie, former mayor of Coleraine, North Ireland. The battery fought in the African campaign, at Saleano, Cassino, the Anzio Beach head, through the Po Valley to the Alps. In its 45 months of overseas service, it had more than 600 days of combat and lost 13 members killed in action.

Before shipping the case, Christie placed inside it a bottle of fine old Irish whiskey. The case will remain sealed until only three survivors of the battery are left. They are then to drink a toast to their comrades who have gone on.

Colonel Surdyk is now arranging the first of a series of annual Last Man's Club dinners of the battery.

Junior C of C Reorganize

Dormant here since 1942, Snyder's Junior Chamber of Commerce was reorganized Wednesday night with a full roster of officers and a five-man board of directors.

Frank Teagarden, who served as a captain in the Army Air Forces, served as temporary chairman for the open-air meeting, which was held on the courthouse square.

In addition to the Jaycees present at the gathering, Leamon Land, city policeman, was guest of honor for the convale.

In balloting for Jaycee officers, L. M. Crowley was elected president. Rex Lightfoot was the other candidate for organization prey.

Bernard Longbottom, Scurry County Service Officer, was elected first vice president by acclamation. Marion Cochran, Don Sealy and Leon Guinn were candidates for second vice president, with the office going to Marion Cochran.

Rex Lightfoot and Gerald Sheid were candidates for organization treasurer, with Sheid emerging as race winner.

Frank Teagarden was elected Jaycee secretary. Five men elected as the Jaycee board of directors were Lester Hanback, J. O. Sheid Jr., J. P. Tate, Dr. John Blum and Hollis Fields.

The Jaycees, it was voted, will meet next Wednesday evening, 8:00 o'clock, at the E & H Cafe.

Junior Chamber of Commerce members present Wednesday night heartily endorsed the suggestion of Policeman Land to see the city and county authorities with a view to ward securing a portion of the Red Cross building, back of the city hall on 26th Street, as a permanent meeting place.

Every interested young man in Snyder is extended a cordial invitation to attend next Wednesday evening's Jaycee meeting at E & H Cafe.

Snyder's Junior Chamber of Commerce, through its officers, is formulating a program of activities; and cooperating with the Senior Chamber of Commerce will endeavor to get Snyder "in the groove" for post-war projects vital to the welfare of Snyder and Scurry County.

The Jaycees plan, as a starter, some worthwhile projects for Snyder and this county that will not only bring more new money to town but some new life blood and adequate recreational facilities for this trade area.

Hermleigh Boy - Wins First Honors In Speech Contest

Billy Sims, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waymond Sims, who lives in the north eastern part of the Hermleigh School District, represented the Hermleigh Future Farmers of America in a District Speaking Contest, held recently in Lubbock, Texas, and won first place. He is an outstanding student in his school work, now taking Vocational Agriculture for the first time. He is a leader in this class.

Billy took for his subject in the contest "The Outlook of the Farmers of America." He declared that farmers have always been the objects of pressure groups who spent large sums of money for lobbies. He told the Future Farmers and their fathers of the need for farmers to get together, to organize and get what was due them from the Federal and State government. The farmer offers something that everyone in the world must have. He has never received what was due him because of these pressure groups.

He commented favorably on the program that was now being carried out and expressed the hope that out of such groups as the F.F.A. would come farm leadership of such strength and demanding so respectful a hearing, that it would result in farmers securing a sound economic basis in the future.

He concluded that behind the Future Farmers of America is a glorious history with no dark spots of glory; while before it are marvelous opportunities; that no institution becomes great or remains great that does not have high ideals, great hopes and large ambitions and these ideals, hopes, and ambitions must crystallize in the minds of the members of a Democratic organization such as ours, the F.F.A., before they live and make the organization count for good. He explained how just in their dealings, honest in all things, and above all, to play the game fair.

J. B. Pattison, Hermleigh Teacher of Vocational Agriculture.

New Well Being Staked at Polar

The West Texas Geological Society has plenty of backing this week in advocating that "Polar Field" be used in conjunction with the Humble Oil Company No. 1 Lida Vick Ellenburger strike in Southwestern Kent County.

American Liberty Oil Company of Dallas has moved equipment in for their No. 1, Connell-Young Ellenburger test, one and one-half miles northwest of the Humble No. 1 Vick.

The American Liberty deep project has been staked 660 feet from the south and east lines of Section 56, Block 5, Houston & Great Northern Railroad Company Survey.

Humble Oil Company's No. 1 Lida Vick, Section 45, Block 5, H & GN, has proven not only the first oil well for Kent County but the most northeasterly from the Ellenburger in West Texas.

The discovery "Polar Field" well is one and a half miles west of Polar. On potential test, the well flowed 23 barrels per hour. On a one-hour gauge the well flowed 23-58 barrels of fluid of which 56 per cent was oil and 44 per cent basic sediment and water, according to The Oil and Gas Journal.

J. S. Golden and wife and sister, Emma Graham, went to Ballinger last Sunday to visit his brother, M. C. Golden.

A large attendance is expected at Sunday School and Training Union and at both preaching hours. The subject for the pastor's evening message will be "The Other Side of Life."

Airplane Gas Tank Falls On Farm Near Plainview

An airplane gasoline tank fell on the R. D. Glasscock farm which is about three miles northeast of Plainview. According to eye witnesses there was no plane in sight nor could one be heard. The tank fell about 3:00 p. m. last Saturday. The concussion of the falling tank knocked a hole in the ground about six or eight feet across and about four feet deep.

According to several neighbors boys who saw the tank hit the ground it threw dirt and fuel over fifty feet into the air.

J. R. Booth who reported the incident to the Times stated the fuel tank was about six feet by three feet and 165 gallons capacity was stamped on the Tank. Mr. Booth stated the strange thing about the fuel was that it seemed to be more of a Kerosene mixture than gasoline.

Arris Winfield Freeman was recently discharged from the Navy after over two years service, 22 months overseas.

Freeman received his boot training at San Diego and further training in Hawaii. He participated in the battle of Leyte.

Olen R. Sterling, seaman, first class, USNR, Snyder, Tex., was one of the first sailors ashore at Bikini Atoll, in connection with the Navy's "Operation Crossroads". At the time he was serving aboard the USS Thompson, a destroyer minesweeper, which directed smaller aircraft in sweeping the area of Japanese mines in preparation for the atomic bomb tests.

General Over County

Snyder and Scurry County received rainfall over the week-end and through Monday night that gave "planting" moisture in many sectors and brought smiles to the faces of county farmers.

Dermott, in a section where droughty conditions have prevailed, received around half an inch rainfall. Ennis Creek community, 10 to 12 miles northeast of Snyder, received a quarter inch rain, and a portion of the Camp Springs community received precipitation of an inch. Most of the Midway community received a half-inch fall.

With the county's moisture total below par for the first four months of the year, and April rainfall gauging only .54 of an inch, moisture received over the week-end was greatly appreciated by both farmer and stockman.

Hermleigh and Fluvanna received good "cotton" showers and rainfall extended south to Dumas on the Colorado Highway. Buford community, south of Dumm, received an inch rain.

Farmers were busy this week planting both grain sorghums and bundle feed, and considerable cotton planting is underway in communities where sufficient moisture is on hand to bring the cotton up.

Grain men are still worried over the fate of Scurry County's wheat and oat crop. Yields in most instances will be only one-third to one-half of normal, and stock have been turned in on fields where dry weather has caused booting out of grain before time.

Rainfall in Snyder Monday night gauged 60 of an inch. The rain, which began about 1:30 a. m., was accompanied by small, peppery hail which did only slight damage to garden stuff.

Snyder people are reported to have more gardens than at any time during the past five years, and considerable quantities of tomato plants have been set out during the past four weeks. Onions and beans seem to be a favorite in town gardens, and even though English Sparrows are plentiful, mustard, lettuce and beets are reported to be growing rapidly.

The rainfall situation has become so critical in some spots of Scurry County that many farmers are fearful of losing their 1946 cotton crop—unless a general rain is received before June 1. In some spots it is yet too dry to plant and the Divide east of Snyder remained on the "dry" side of the ledger Wednesday night.

In rural communities, gardens, where water is available, will be strongly emphasized this year to help with the family food situation. Through home gardens, Scurry County farmers hope to achieve a nice degree of "self sufficiency" and insure canned vegetables through next winter.

Scurry County still has a mighty bright spot with its fruit and berry crop, and if hail or some other calamity does not hit, the county's 1946 fruit and berry crop will go far towards insuring filled fruit jars in rural cellars and food closets for the next 12 months.

Marines Separated Over 90 Days May Now Reenlist

Former Marines who have been separated more than 90 days from the service may now be admitted back into ranks provided they have been discharged subsequent to September 1, 1945, it was revealed today by the U. S. Marine Corps recruiting office in Abilene.

Depending on the rank held at time of discharge, former Marines of the first pay grade will be appointed to a rank in the third pay grade; of the second or third pay grades, appointed to fourth pay grade rank; of the fourth pay grade, a rank in the fifth pay grade; fifth pay grades will be given sixth pay grade rank and sixth grade men will be re-appointed to that rank.

Sgt. Guinn Writes of Holy Land

Now en route to the United States by boat from Cairo, Egypt, Sergeant Carl M. Guinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Guinn of Camp Springs, writes of an interesting trip he recently made through the Holy Land.

Sergeant Guinn is an aerial engineer, Air Transport Command. He has been stationed at Barrackspore, India, and on numerous trips across "The Hump" to China got to see Mount Everest twice. He says of his trip through the Holy Land:

"Last Thursday I went to Palestine for a tour of the Holy Land. We flew up from Cairo in a C-47 and after landing at Lydda we caught a GI truck to Jerusalem, and the first thing we did was hire a guide.

"We went first to a gate that was built some 1,200 years ago so some emperor could ride into Jerusalem a different way. Then down through a narrow street, lined with shops on both sides, and to the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. This church was originally built by the Crusaders and added to by various kings, governments, etc., until it now covers Mount Calvary and the site of what is believed to be the tomb of Christ's body was laid away in.

Five different religious faiths worship in various parts of this huge church. Greek Orthodox, Moslems, Jews, Roman (Christian) Catholic and Coptic. We did not get to visit the tomb because of the services being held there at the time.

There are many small details of our visit to the church that will have to wait until later.

"From the church we went to the Jewish Walling Wall. Many people were there, mostly Jewish people of course, and more coming in all the time. Leaving there we went to the original site of Pontius Pilate's house and walked back the Via Dela Rosa almost to the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. Along the way we saw the places where the woman wiped Jesus' feet, where Simon of Cyrene helped carry the cross and where Jesus told someone "weep not for him but for this person's sins." Via Dela Rosa is Latin for "Way of the Cross."

"The Via Dela Rosa is sometimes referred to as "The Path of Sorrows." There are 13 places or stations along the path, and the Catholic Church has a service revering them.

"We left the 'Way of the Cross' by a street that was lined the entire length by open front shops where one could buy almost anything. The truck was waiting at the end of the street and took us back to the YMCA for lunch.

"After chow we went to the Garden of Gethsemane and the Church of All Nations. The Garden has in it olive trees believed to have been there when Christ went there to pray. The Church of All Nations is built on the approximate site where the three disciples went to sleep while Jesus was praying. It has domes built in the roof representing the 12 great nations. From there we went to the Mount of Olives and visited the Chapel of the Ascension. This chapel is built over a stone having the imprint of a foot in it. I believe this is taken to be one of the footprints of Jesus. On, or about this spot Jesus ascended to Heaven after showing himself to the disciples.

"From here we went to Bethlehem and visited the Church of the Nativity. We saw the spot where Jesus was born, and the spot where the manger stood. We visited the Grotto of the Holy Innocents and the grotto where Saint Jerome worked on the translation of the Scriptures from Hebrew to Latin.

We saw the bells of Bethlehem that are broadcast throughout the world at Christmas time. Services were going on in the Greek Orthodox

We're doing all we can to serve people waiting for telephones

THE urgent job of getting telephone service to those waiting is going ahead. We are nearing a milestone: Soon everyone who needs only a telephone instrument itself to get service will have it. That shortage is about over.

In the first three months of this year we have installed 150,000 new telephones in the five states we serve. This is as many as we would have installed in six months of a normal year.

Although 170,000 new applicants for service during this time kept the waiting list long (223,000 in the Southwest as April began), we now are getting service faster to those waiting longest. A great many of the people waiting for service on V-J Day now have it.

Two big jobs remain:

- As quickly as we can get it, we are wiring all the precision, intricate machinery that handles your calls at the exchange. This takes time and skill. We must do years of work in the next few months.
- In a great many places we also need outside cable and wire. We plan to have this in and ready when the new equipment in the telephone office is completed. Where we can, we are wiring homes in advance for telephones, ready to connect them the moment we are able.

Meanwhile, we are trying every way we know to s-t-r-e-t-c-h the service . . . and we are temporarily squeezing in everyone we can with party lines, hooking more telephones to already loaded switchboards and dial equipment, putting disconnected lines back into service faster. If for a while telephone service is not always as fast as you'd like it, it is because of this crowding.

We repeat: The telephone company is doing all it can to provide service for waiting customers. We're looking forward to the day we get in touch with you to arrange the details of installing your telephone.

THE EDITOR AND THE PUBLIC

Most editors are interested in being a part of the growth of their community. The editor or might we say the progressive editor will support the groups and organizations in the community that represent progress. Any intelligent editor takes an unselfish view when it comes time for him to become a part of progress for his community. He does not think too much about how this will affect his business or how it will affect his status in the community; he is primarily interested in helping to motivate progress in his town and community. The progressive editor takes pride in being a part of this progress. He does not worry too much about what the little four-by-nine fellows in every community who assume that everything in the paper is written with a malicious heart that it the work of a friend, whose soul is filled with a throbbing lust to stab, to wound, to torture, those who come near him. No that is not the case for every community has those four-by-nine's, those joy killers that attempt to iron the smiles out of happiness, take the strength out of progress.

Yes it is the little four-by-nine's that try to impede progress; they start by whispering, taking little jobs at the progressive elements, try to disprove facts presented by the progressive group. If that does not take or get the desired results this four-by-nine group gets a little louder, maybe their methods get a little more ruthless. Maybe they will still go a little further—time will tell.

If you were to investigate this four-by-nine group or individual you will find his motive is purely selfish. They are trying to put over something for their profit or gain. Maybe it is just to satisfy something as small and unimportant as their vanity, even though it may cause something good for the community to fail. That something that might make the community a better place in which to live, raise your family and in the twilight of your life you could enjoy the fruits of a great era of progress. Then in the end be able to lay down your pen and say—I did my part without fear, without malice and above all with kindness and charity toward all fellow townsmen.

DEPENDS UPON MEN

"Good Government" is something that everybody praises, desires and defends, but what various individuals mean by the term, "good Government," is not always the same thing.

Occasionally, a speaker comes out with the observation that "good Government" is impossible under existing forms, but we are inclined to believe an intelligent citizenship and officials who are efficient and incorruptible. In brief, "good Government" is a particular framework of government.

Theoretically, government justifies itself when it serves the interests of the governed. As it is impossible to have any form of government which pleases everybody, a government is considered good when it happens to suit a large majority of its citizens. It is bad when it acts contrary to the wishes of a distinct majority.

A government, however, cannot function properly by giving unrestrained expression to the wishes, desires and interests of a mere majority. There must be a recognition of the rights of the existing minority and a scrupulous regard for constitutional and legal principles designed to protect them from the tyranny of a majority.

One of the faults of modern political administrations is the tendency of majorities to ride roughshod over the legal rights of minorities. This is evident, we think, in the determined drive of various majorities to compel minorities to conform to the wishes of the majority. In some instances, of course, it is necessary if government is to function properly, but there is a wide field of human activity in insistence upon too much uniformity amounts to an unjustified usurpation of minority rights.—The Baid Star.

Nuell Mebane Felton Receives Discharge From Navy

Nuell E. Felton, AMM 3c of Route One Snyder was discharged from the Navy on April 17 after over one year's service.

Felton received his boot training at Brownfield and Chula Vista, California, after enlisting in the service on March 31, 1945 in Dallas, Texas.

MOVE THE GOODS—NOW

Suppose you had an article which you wanted to manufacture and sell. To whom would you go for advice? The logical place would be to those who have made a success of selling—the retail distributor friends—if they are representative of the industry—are interested in price and volume. Can the article be produced at a price that will be conducive to high level sales? They would probably talk in terms of tens of thousands of units—how to get that many consumers.

This is the way the modern mass merchandiser, chain as well as independent, approaches every distribution problem today—including inflation. His business depends on volume—in other words, high production. Inflation is simply a cost goosing element to be overcome by trimming unnecessary costs and stepping up volume as an alternative to sales-killing high prices. The OPA has called various retailer proposals looking toward the goal of higher production, attempts to "break the line," whereas retailers feel they are suggestions to help the OPA solve its cost-price problem in a manner that will move the goods.

Dr. Paul H. Nystrom, marketing professor of Columbia University, and chairman of the Central Council of National Retail Associations, states that retailers want four changes in price control legislation. Speaking for his group, he used: That any and all controls that stand in the way of legitimate production be promptly eliminated, including the maximum average price program; that producers be ganted a price sufficient to enable them to manufacture prewar quality goods at current costs with an opportunity for profit; that OPA be required to adopt realistic incentive pricing programs; that the theory that all increases needed to produce and distribute goods at current cost, can be absorbed, be discarded.

Their background of experience eminently qualifies the nation's retailers as important spokesmen in getting the biggest manufacturing and distributing job that has ever faced this country, underway before the pressure of consumer demand beaks all bounds.

Let modern competition solve the problem—that is what has established free enterprise—one of the 'greats' in America.

FARMERS, DAIRYMEN AND STOCK RAISERS IT IS TIME TO ORGANIZE—YES ORGANIZE

It is time the farmers, dairymen and stock raisers of Scurry and adjoining counties organize into one unit for your protection and for your growth. So organized you can get things done. You will have strength, you will have the unified effort of a group of thinking individuals. A group who's aims are the same—you will have much in common, enough in fact to get something of importance done.

Possibly if you were to ask for an increase in some of your products you would receive little or no response. Possibly you would be completely ignored.

Some Federal agencies are so busy keeping alive they forget the little fellow they are supposed to represent.

The labor unions are organized, if they go out on strike government officials get busy and see that the unions get what they want, that is because the unions are strong, they are organized—you too, can do that if you will organize. Organization means strength, it is a part of the art of getting something done. In fact it is one of the elements of success in any group or organization.

Possibly if the Federal group that are so busy hindering the farmer, the dairyman and stock raiser had to get up at 4:00 a. m. start shoveling manure every day then do a bunch of other hard duties about the farm or ranch instead of coming to work at 8:00 a. m. setting down in a swivel chair, putting his number nines on a desk and punching a few buttons on his desk for abattery of secretaries they would change their minds.

Farmers, dairymen and stock raisers if you want to get something get organized!

One forecaster states that within ten years, American tourists will be spending $1,500,000,000 annually for travel abroad. In view of current progress in the ocket field, we assume this figure includes vacation trips to the moon.

WHAT CONTEMPORARIES ARE SAYING

Making a go of a weekly newspaper requires years of work, an understanding of the community needs of offering the paper at a rate to carry costs and not exceed the subscriber's ability to pay. Acting in the interest of our town, we have tried to keep the paper not a shopping news, not a publication without plenty of local coverage, personal items, with salesmanship for our advertisers. We have tried to follow home town desires with home town color, yet giving space for national and international interests.

Then reviewing our product, we gave thought to what slant the subscriber might view this subject. Some folks pay three cents a day to rent a book. Magazine are bought in every home and add up to the cost of these over a year. Compare both book and magazine rates with your newspaper subscription.

A Wisconsin weekly, which was using some salesmanship before raising its rate to four cents a week, figured it this way: You pay more per week for any of the following than for the home town newspaper—five ounces of beer, four cigarettes, a capdy bar, one package of gum, a cigar, a cup of coffee. The point is, do you get more benefit from any one of them than your paper? For our money, we hope not. We will attempt to keep our product in your line-up of low cost weekly pleasures.

Advertising rates in The Star and job printing have been held down too. You pay no more now than you did in 1940, which makes these two of the few services which have not increased in price.—Burk-burnett Star.

HAPPINESS A COMMODITY

Happiness is a commodity which may be paid for at the time of purchase, or obtained through credit that is secured by a mortgage on the future. Interest is based on the quality of happiness and the length of the loan.—Matador Tribune.

Corn Sugar May Be Substituted For Sugar Use

Corn syrup may be substituted for part or all of the sugar used in home canning or freezing of fruits, according to Miss Estella Rabel, home-demonstration agent. Corn sugar may be used for the same purposes, but brown sugar or syrups such as sorghum, which have a strong flavor, are not desirable.

Honey may be used as a substitute for a small part of the sugar, but it affects the flavor of the fruit more than corn syrup. However, it is satisfactory for canning figs and for making fruit pickles, the agent says. It is not recommended for use with frozen foods.

"Never use saccharin in canning," Miss Rabel warns, for heat makes it bitter. Saccharin can only be used when the fruit is served, but a doctor should be consulted regarding its use for too much saccharin may be harmful.

In substituting corn syrup for part of the sugar in canning, use one cup of sugar and two cups of corn syrup to six cups of water. This makes a thin syrup which is desirable from a nutritional standpoint. If the syrup is used to replace all the sugar, the proportion used should be one-half to three-quarters cups of syrup to one cup of water.

One syrup which is said to be excellent for use in canning is "invert sugar" which can be made at home and is sweeter than natural sugar or syrup. To make it, mix two cups of sugar and one cup of water. Add one-fourth teaspoon of tartaric acid, obtainable at any drug store. Sover this sugar, water, and tartaric acid mixture and simmer gently for 30 minutes. Allow it to cool. The invert sugar made this way is nearly twice as sweet as plain syrup of the same weight.

Candidate for Governor Advocates Help for Texas War Veterans

AUSTIN, May 4.—The Veterans Land Fund amendment to the State Constitution holds three-fold benefits for Texas, Attorney General Grover Sellers said Saturday, and he announced he will campaign for its approval while running for Governor this summer.

The amendment offers the "only way" Texas can help her World War II servicemen to acquire land any time soon, Sellers said.

The Legislature, at its last session authorized submission to the voters in November of a proposal for creation of a Veterans Land Fund of $25,000,000. The fund would be used to purchase lands for resale to veterans of World War II.

Sellers explained that approval of the proposed amendment is important because the State Constitution, as it now stands, prohibits grants of State money or pledges of State credit to any individual.

Unless the proposed amendment is approved, it will be two years before another can be drafted, authorized by the Legislature and submitted to the voters, he said. That will be too late to help many veterans, he added.

The gubernatorial candidate said he will advocate long-term, low-interest loans to veterans.

As Governor, Sellers would be a member, with the Attorney General and Land Commissioner, of a board which will administer the fund and negotiate the sales to veterans.

"This is the kind of help the veteran wants," Sellers said. "It will give him the opportunity to own his home and make a living. It will help relieve the housing shortage in cities and will put back into use much of the war-use land which no longer is needed for its original purposes."

"What is more important, it will make more home owners and more farm families, and that is the best safeguard against juvenile delinquency. You don't have any juvenile delinquency on the farm."

Sellers, a stock farmer and Jersey cattle breeder himself, said his platform for the Governorship also will include a broad program for construction of farm-to-market roads, and expansion of rural electrification lines.

Robbie Nell Jones Weds Kenneth Bowlin in Easter Morn Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Jones, Sr., of Hermleigh have announced the marriage of their daughter, Robbie Nell Jones of Lubbock to Kenneth Bowlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bowlin of San Diego, Calif., which took place at 9 a.m. Easter Sunday. The Rev. H. G. Gantz read the double ring ceremony in the First Christian church at Lubbock, before a large group of relatives and friends.

White gladioluses with greenery and candelabra decorated the church. Floyd Parr, organist, sang "Because" and "Always." Mrs. Mitchell played "Easter Parade" and "Some Sunday Morning." The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of frost white satin, fashioned with a basque bodice, sweetheart neckline, outlined with seed pearls, and long sleeves that tapered into points over the hands. The skirt was made of mousseline de soie and extended into a train. Her full length veil of chantilly lace, was attached to a headpiece decorated with seed pearls. She carried Easter lilies.

Mrs. Nathan Campbell of Hermleigh was matron of honor and wore a dress of blue dotted swiss fashioned in the same style as that of the bride. She carried deep rose carnations and wore a finger tip length veil. Bridesmaids, dressed in colonial dresses of pastel dotted swiss over taffeta, were LeVerne Duke, Raedean Scot, Betty Lee Pierce, and Mary Van Coffee, all of Lubbock. They wore halos and carried bouquets of sweetpeas. Gloria Nell Bowlin of San Diego, Calif., sister to the bride-groom, and Sylvia Bentley of Lubbock were candle lighters. They wore victorian gowns of pastel colors of dotted swiss and gardenia corsages.

Best man for the wedding was Nathan Campbell of this place. E. R. Jones, Jr., of Snyder, brother to the bride, Bob Watson, Rex Douglas, Homer Odom and Frank Ruhn, all of Lubbock, were ushers. A reception was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bentley following the wedding. Others assisting with the hospitalities were Billie Gunter, Miss Duke and Mrs. Campbell. Sylvia Bentley played "Till the end of Time" and "Indian Love Call." Decorations were baskets of white gladioluses and red roses. The table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with the wedding cake. Mother of the bride wore a dress of black sheer crepe with black and white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage.

Mrs. Bowlin is a graduate of Hermleigh High school and Texas Tech college, Lubbock. She has been employed in Lubbock several months. Mr. Bowlin is a graduate of the Hermleigh High school, and spent several months overseas with the armed service. He plans to enter Tech this summer.
