BABSON DISCUSSES WHEN TO BUY

GLOUCESTER, Mass., August 23—Many businesses are still feeling the effects of the strikes in the steel and coal industries. Shortages of raw materials, plus increased costs of production due to wage increases and OPA regulations on sales do not give incentive to mass production of goods. Some companies have preferred to retool out of the active market rather than risk getting into trouble with the OPA. Typical of this kind have been the big meat packers. Recently, with OPA restrictions off, some of the packers, after several months absence from the market, were again bidding for livestock. The price rises which have come in the wake of higher wages have not yet proved discouraging to those who have war savings to spend. This clamor for already scarce goods helps make the situation worse. Although one big company, close to 1941 production, is turning out thousands of washing machines and refrigerators daily and the production of other commodities is speedily rising, the demand for most things is still greater than the supply.

INSIST ON GOOD QUALITY

It may be some time before prices can be adjusted into better balance with wages and the old law of supply and demand can again operate. In the meantime, there are bound to be some compromises with quality. Higher wages and costs, plus price ceilings, have encouraged these compromises. Wise housewives will object to paying the same old price, or a higher one, for poorer materials. Although department store sales have increased greatly over a year ago, a tendency to bypass shoddy merchandise has begun to be apparent. In many lines, as in the furniture business where there is a shortage of seasoned lumber, the output will probably be designed to fill the demand and not necessarily for enduring satisfaction.

HAVE PATIENCE TO WAIT

How long must we wait to buy? The United States Department of Agriculture says food commodity price rises may be stopped with a bumper crop this coming harvest. It claims that if the good weather continues, the U. S. should have a 28 percent greater corn supply than in the normal year. Corn syrup and starch are, for example, now up 25 percent in price. These should come down. With good crops in other countries, our harvest should be a large factor in easing the world food situation. Then the grains and all their products, including bread, should begin to be less expensive. Patience to wait was rewarded recently in Florida where the price of oranges and grapefruit for butter caused a rivalry between two stores. This made their price of butter fall from seventy-seven to nineteen cents a pound in one day! Some food retailers are trying hard to "hold the line," and are in certain cases urging customers not to buy. Of course buyers strikes in any degree, can not last long against floods, or we go hungry. But on all the non-food commodities, those of us who have the patience to wait will sometime be rewarded by cheaper, or at least, better goods.

THE REVIVED OPA

The 18 percent food price rise after the original OPA was made invalid brought resistance all over the country in the form of buyers' strikes. Labor gave every indication of planning more strikes for more wage increases and used the buyers' strikes as a deliberate weapon to encourage a revived OPA. Perhaps this modified form of price control will prove a deterrent to further labor demands. It is estimated that, in any case, the cost of living must continue to go up if wages are again increased. No OPA can stop it. With OPA prices would still rise. This, therefore, is a period in which to buy only what we need unless we are sure there will be no more strikes. The time to buy is when the supply of goods is ample and businesses are competing in improving their products with an eye to enticing the public. This ideal state of affairs may not come before 1948 although remember what I wrote last week about PISH!

Vogue Beauty Shop Has Been Remodeled

The Vogue Beauty shop, owned and operated by Mrs. Bess Fish, has been moved to a new location, on the east side of the square in the building which was formerly Pitner's grocery, and purchased by Mrs. Fish for the enlargement of her shop. The building has been completely remodeled and is modern in every detail. The front will be mirrored and feature a white leather cosmetic bar and telephone table. There are eight private booths with an efficient operator for each booth. Each booth has its own shampooing unit and the customer does not move from the booth until her hair is completely finished. Eight new dryers have been added and a private facial room. A licensed manicurist is one of the special features of the new shop. Mrs. Fish states that along with the other new equipment has been added a new heating system and the shop is completely air-conditioned.

Harvey Shuler, postmaster, notified the Times yesterday, and requested that all veterans of the county be notified, that blank forms have arrived at the post office for them to fill out for Army leave and furlough pay, if they have such coming to them. The blank informs that: "The Armed Forces Leave Act of 1946 provides, among other things, for compensating all former enlisted personnel of the armed forces for unused leave. In no case may any individual be compensated for more than 120 days. Claims for unused leave under the Act must be postmarked not later than September 1, 1947. Settlement will be made to survivors of boys lost in this war. Shuler pointed out that, although the forms are available at the post office, they are not to be returned there—complete instructions for mailing are on the blanks.

A. Parker, Only 98, Planning Big Party

Parker Came To Texas In '77 To 'Grow Western'

On September 15 of this year, time looks backward for a period of 98 years across a colorful span that A. Parker of southeast Scurry County calls a joyous new century. When Texas, in her statehood, was only three years, when the smoke of battle in the Mexican Revolution had so recently cleared from her soil, and George T. Woods stood at her helm as Governor of the Lone Star state, Alec Parker entered the world as a citizen of the State of Alabama. Mr. Parker was in Snyder Monday. He is planning a big birthday party out at his farm for September 15, and dropped by the Times office to pass out an invitation. Ninety-eight years constitutes a wide stretch of history, departs somewhat from present-day longevity figures, but Mr. Parker is "still walking in high gear."

Beaver, manager of the Planters Gin at Fluvanna, and the price was given as 35c per pound. The pound price tops by two and three quarters the first bale brought to Snyder about three weeks ago. event: Jana Kpart ywanON, PdD

Sergeant Moore Has Completed Training

M. Sgt. E. A. Moore, son of J. W. Moore has completed training and graduated from the Army Air Force Training Command School. While attending the school Moore received instruction in the Aircraft engine specialist's course, and in various technical operations vital to the maintenance of the country's fighting planes.

"Times have changed a lot," Mr. Parker remarks. Seventy-five years ago everyone went to church, he stated. He likes to remember that; it cheers him. Asked what he attributed his unusually long life to, Mr. Parker had a ready response—"walking plenty, and always keeping anger from his mind." Walking, he stated, is the best all-around exercise for the body; and anger is a malady that eats away the years from the human life. Mr. Parker says he has never been angered sufficiently to

All people wishing to do so may take baskets of food with them when they go out that Sunday. A record attendance is expected, and Mr. Parker says it is really going to be the "Party of a Lifetime"—98 years of it. Take your basket of food, your good cheer and wishes, and go out to see Mr. and Mrs. Parker.

Perhaps the following is result of a misunderstanding: Ruth Gunn, 2601 Ave. U, Snyder, states that some woman on route 2 out of Hermleigh gave her some money recently, promising to send her material for covering a belt buckle but that she has failed to receive same. This may have happened by loss of address.

Hermleigh Win First Game In Fast Softball Championship Playoff

By BILL SCHEIBEL

The first game of the Championship Play off for the title in the Snyder Soft Ball League was played Monday Night August 26th at the High School Stadium and was won by the Hermleigh Team by the score of 5 to 0 over the Lions club. The game was one of the best played this year in the loop and although the Lions club out hit the Hermleigh players the Lions made four errors at the wrong times and let runs score which finally beat them.

Hermleigh scored in their half of the first inning to take the lead. The Lions had a good chance to catch up in the last of the second inning when the bases were loaded but Morrow popped up to the catcher and Leftwich grounded out to the short stop to retire the side.

In the last of the fourth Morrow hit safely and held up at first. Coffee struck out and Morrow was put out at home to cut off a run.

Miller, V. A. instructor will attend graduation exercises at Texas Tech. Wednesday of this week when he will receive his B. S. degree. He was attending Tech., when called into the Naval Air Corps in 1942. The ex-Lt. was discharged last September and resumed his studies immediately upon his return home.

The Miller family have an apartment in the J. P. Avary home.

November will be a festive month for the M. U. (Melvin) Vernon family. Not counting Thanksgiving with turkey and all the trimmings, they will have several occasions to celebrate. They are looking forward with anticipation to their 32nd wedding anniversary while he will celebrate his 26th year as a rural mail carrier. Their two eldest children were born in November.

Mr. Vernon, a native of Madison Co., is following in the footsteps of his forefathers, as his father, the late A. R. Vernon was post master here for five years and his paternal grandfather, the late John Vernon was at one time postmaster in Madison County. A sister Miss Pearl Vernon was local postmaster for seven years, retiring in 1934.

Melvin is rural carrier on route 1 from Hermleigh, a route covering 49 1-2 miles.

Helping them to enjoy their round of celebrations will be a daughter, Elsie, graduate of the Hermleigh high school last May; a son Ulmer and family of this place; and two other daughters, Mrs. Lois Green of Stanton and Mrs. Clarence Jenkins of Wink and their families. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon have five grandchildren.

Mrs. H. R. McHaney, beauty operator, is now assisting Ruth Hagood in Ruth's beauty shop on Thursday and Fridays. Mrs. McHaney is a licensed operator and formerly worked for Mrs. Woodie Scarborough at Snyder.

Miss Inez Brock and a great nephew, Billy Jordan of Seminole, a niece, Miss Onie Brock and her friend, Wendell Carnes of Lubbock were week-end visitors in the Ruffs Groves home. Inez is a sister to Mrs. Groves.

Mr. and Mrs. Elza Vanderburg and daughter, David of Spearman arrived Saturday to visit their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mobley. Elza has returned home while his wife and daughter remained for an extended visit.

when he tried to score from first on Leftwiches long hit to center field.

Hermleigh scored their second run in the fifth inning when Jordan walked and then two errors by the third baseman and the short stop let Jordan score. In the seventh inning Hermleigh went ahead when Houston got a two base hit, Corbell a single, Houston was forced at third by Laymans hit and Patterson filled the bases with a slow infield hit. Sims the next man up was trying for a hit but popped up to the catcher to make two outs. Then a wild pitch brought Corbell in and Gafford came up to get a solid hit to center field and two more runs scored to make the final score 5 to 0. The Lions club rallied in the last of the seventh inning by getting three men on base but then couldn't score as the next men filed out to retire the side and end the game.

Coffee the left fielder for the Lions played a good game and made several nice running catches despite a hard wind blowing from standing player for the Hermleigh south. Layman was the out-stump and played good ball at short stop along with his usual good base running.

Lions Even Series Win Second Game

By BILL SCHEIBEL

The Lions Club tied the Championship Play Off up at one game to one game on Tuesday night by winning the first game of a double header from Hermleigh 12 to 9. The Lions started out in the first inning by getting three men on base and then Beavers hit a solid double to score two men, Mangrum got on first on an error and another run scored on the play, the last run of the inning was scored on Morrow's infield roller that went for a fielders choice when the infield couldn't find the place to throw the ball. In the last of the first, Sims picked a three two count after two were out to hit a home run over the center fielders head.

Hermleigh went ahead in the last of the third inning when they made five hits count for four runs but the Lions came roaring back in the fourth inning to beat around and score six runs on four hits, a couple of walks and an error to go ahead and never were threatened again. Mangrum hit a home run in the sixth inning and another score came in to finish the scoring for the Lions. Hermleigh came to life in the last of the seventh to score two runs and make the Lions hustle to get them out.

The Lions made a nice double play in the last of the fourth inning to stop any scoring when two men on Patterson hit a hot grounder to Mangrum at third who touched the bag and forced Hendricks and then made a fast throw to first to catch Patterson.

The Lions by winning this game made it necessary for the play-off game which followed.

Hermleigh Wins Softball Crown . . . When They Wallop Lions Club 30-4

By BILL SCHEIBEL

CHAMPIONSHIP PLAYOFF . . . In the Championship game of the play off the Hermleigh team left no doubt that they wanted to win by walloping the Lions Club to the score of 30-4. The runs started early when Hermleigh scored 5 in the first and 4 in the second. Most of these runs were on hits but in the fourth inning they made it a run away by scoring nine runs on one hit. Mangrum started pitching in the third inning and got by with only one run being scored against him but in the fourth he lost control and walked the first four men to face him. Morrow relieved him and then walked two more himself and after that it was a combination of throwing the ball around after some infield hits and the Hermleigh team batted around with five men batting twice. The same thing happened in the sixth inning when Hermleigh scored 7 runs mostly on errors by the Lions club. The Lions came to bat in the last of the seventh with the overwhelming score of 30-3 facing them but proceeded to make a run to show that they hadn't given up.

Hermleigh helped their own killing in the second inning when Morrow hit a roller to the Short-stop Layman who fired the ball the second baseman Corbell who threw cause by making a fast double to first in time to catch the runner. Keller was forced at second.

Immediately following this game the trophy donated by the Lee Home and Auto Store was presented to the Manager of the Hermleigh team. The crowd, which had been before the largest of the season before the cold wind and the run-away score forced them to go home, gave the winning team a nice hand. This game ended the soft ball season in Snyder until next year.

TEXANS IN WASHINGTON

By TEX EASLEY

AP Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON, Aug.—AP—Biographical sketches in the new Congressional Directory which came out at the end of the 79th Congress are filled with interesting little insights on the gentlemen concerned.

The senators and representatives each personally write or at least stamp their approval on the thumbnail descriptions.

Sketches of the Texas members are no exception to the general rule. Besides the usual data such as age, marital status, length of service, they often include comments calculated to be of interest to a wide range of people. For instance, a congressman hailing from a city but having rural areas in his district seldom fails to mention it if he has a farm background. The same situation holds regarding military service. Senator Tom Connally of Marlin, Rep. Wright Patman of Texarkana and Rep. J. J. Mansfield of Columbus all have 23 lines each in the directory to tie for the most lengthy biographies. Rep. Milton West of Brownsville still has the shortest, a distinction he has held for years. He gives only his name, address and party affiliation—democrat.

Excerpts from some of the sketches:
Senator W. Lee O'Daniel—"engaged in flour milling and grain business, 1909 to 1938; although never before a candidate for public office, was petitioned to run for governor of Texas by 54,499 Texas citizens and was elected in the 1938 first primary with 573,166 votes, a clear majority over 12 opponents, the first victory of this nature in the history of the state."

Fatman—"member of the American Legion, the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, although not privileged to serve overseas during the war by reason of a service-connected disability and an honorary member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars."

Rep. Lindley Beckworth, Gilmer—"born in South Bowie community, Kaufman County, Tex., June 30, 1913, the son of O. J. Beckworth, who came to Smith County, Tex., from Georgia in 1900 . . . reared on farm."

Mansfield—"born Feb. 9, 1861, at Wayne, W. Va. (then Virginia), moved to Texas in 1881; . . . organized two companies of Texas Volunteer Guards in 1886 . . . father, also named Joseph Jefferson, was colonel in the Virginia military service at the outbreak of the War Between the States, opposed secession, but joined the Confederate Army and was killed near Coal River, July 22, 1861."

Rep. Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls—"born in sawmill camp in Sabine Parish, La., Jan. 27, 1902; reared on farms in Clay and Garza Counties, Tex."

Rep. Ewing Thomason, El Paso—"born near Shelbyville, Tenn.; son of Dr. Ben R. and Susan Hoover Thomason; moved to Gainesville, Tex., when one year old."

Rep. George Mahon, Colorado City—"Born Sept. 22, 1900, near Haynesville, La. . . moved to Mitchell County, Tex., 1908; reared on a farm."

FREE ENTERPRISE MAKES BETTER PRODUCTS

Research by the oil industry was responsible for the development and quantity production of a long list of special motor fuels and lubricants used by our fighting forces during the war. These oils, which were superior to any of their predecessors, were a vital factor in keeping our military machine rolling.

Now this progress is being passed on to the public in the form of better oils for civilian use.

One example of this is a new automobile oil which will shortly be on the market. It has a special capacity to protect against varnish deposits on engine parts, against bearing corrosion, and against deterioration of the oil itself. In addition, it cleans engines, assures easy starting and immediate lubrication of frictional surfaces, protects against engine wear, and has a long list of other desirable properties. All in all, according to the technicians, this particular oil will make for a better running car and longer car life.

This is but one important new oil product out of many that will be made available to the consuming public as materials become available. All of these products will contribute to that American goal—a higher standard of living. And all of them represent the work of free enterprise in the interest of the people of the nation.

FIRE IS A MENACE

If the news was flashed over the nation that one of our principal cities was destroyed by fire, with a loss of 10,000 lives, everyone would be running for an extra edition of their newspaper to read of the disaster. And yet such death and destruction happens every year in the amount of property and the number of lives lost by fire, and most persons think nothing of it—in fact, they help create the havoc by their carelessness.

This tremendous loss the nation suffers annually could be cut to a minimum if the public would eliminate the fire hazards which are entirely within their control.

Human beings must have fire for heat and power, but it is not necessary to be careless with this two-edged sword which destroys or creates. Fire is a hazard at best and it is advisable to treat it with respect.

MEDICINE WITHOUT INCENTIVE

The essential fault underlying all the proposals to establish vast Federal public health projects, whereby taxes would be levied on all workers and employers to pay for a compulsory medical system, is that regimented, bureaucratic medicine is inevitably bad medicine. The incentive to progress largely disappears. The drive to experiment, to learn, is lost.

Authorities who have long observed socialized medicine in England and Europe have commented on this. The doctor is overworked. He is simply an employe of the state. And the patient receives poorer treatment as a result.

Millions of men who saw service in the Army and Navy can testify to another phase of this. It is true that very remarkable progress was made in battlefield surgery and the prevention of infection during the war. The death-from-wounds rate was amazingly low. But this was because techniques developed by private medicine were adopted by the armed forces—and because the overwhelming majority of military doctors were private physicians who donned uniforms to serve during the war and returned to private practice once it ended.

Routine medicine in the military forces is a very different matter. As doctors who saw war service have said, there has been little change since the last war in methods of diagnosis and treatment. The doctor must follow a manual and a set of regulations. He is not a free agent. And progress lags.

Voluntary prepaid medical plans avoid these pitfalls. The cost per person is low, but the doctor receives a reasonable fee. The patient chooses the physician he wants, which perpetuates medical incentive. Nothing yet suggested has equal merit. It will be a sad day for American health when political regimentation dominates the practice of medicine in this country.

THE RETAILER AND PRICES

In some left-wing circles there has been an attempt to lay the blame for recent price increases at the door of retail industry. Nothing could be more unfair—or more in contradiction of the facts.

Retailers have no control over prices at the manufacturing level save that which stems from the large purchasing power of the chains and the organized independents. And manufacturers, in turn, have no choice save to pass on to the wholesale buyer the increased costs resulting from higher wages and higher material prices all along the line.

What modern retailing can and does do is to reduce to a minimum the spread between what the merchant pays and what he charges the ultimate consumer. Over the years, this margin has steadily gone down in many fields. In the merchandizing of staples, such as foods, which have a quick turnover and aren't affected by style trends, the profit to the store is often only one or two cents of the consumer dollar. If the store made no profit whatsoever, the saving to the average family would be extremely little.

Other merchandizing services to the public include anti-hoarding and anti-speculating activities. The goal of the progressive merchant is to make as much goods as possible available—and to price them at the lowest level which will return him a reasonable profit. And competition takes care of the occasional profiteer.

Stores can't do the impossible. They can't absorb increased wholesale costs and stay in business. But they are fighting the consumers' battle with all the important forces at their command.

OIL FROM MUD

A few years from now atomic-age techniques may make possible the conversion of sea-bottom mud into petroleum. This startling statement came from the American Chemical Society. It just goes to show how foolish it is to make grave predictions about American oil resources. Much of the oil that is being used today could not have been drawn from the earth a generation ago, when a petroleum famine was predicted in twenty-five years. But the scientists and the petroleum industry have always succeeded in pushing the prognosticators out on a limb and sawing it off with technology. Eventually the prophets of exhaustion may give up.

Scientists are developing the theory that crude oil is formed by the radioactive transformation of organic substances. They are duplicating in the laboratory the radioactive process that may explain how nature, over a period of ten million years, accomplishes the conversion of protoplasm, proteins, fats and other materials, into oil.

The moral seems to be to make the fullest use of the resources available to us today, and tomorrow will take care of itself—if we let the scientists and industry alone.

REAL PUNISHMENT

Nurse (suspiciously): "What have you been doing, Miss Ellen?"
Ellen: "Rover ate my dolly's slippers, so I have punished him."

"And how have you punished him?"
Ellen: "I went out to his kennel and drank."

A fiery-tempered business man wrote the following letter:

"Sir: My secretary, being a lady, cannot type what I think about you. I, being a gentleman, cannot say it. You, being neither, will understand what I mean."

STUCK WITH STALE BREAD

Not only can stale bread be "revived" to taste almost as delicious as freshly-baked bread, but if you like it oven-hot as well, Westinghouse home economists suggest this: Put bread in a paper bag—sprinkling the bread lightly with warm water if very stale—and close the bag tightly; place in a 350 degree oven for from ten to fifteen minutes.

ANY FAT, LADY?

Do you have any surplus fats around your place. What about that can of rancid lard? What became of the grease the sausage was canned in? Are you saving the drippings, skimmings and scoopings of used fat from your cooking? The sum total of all these little remnants of fats in American homes adds up to a gigantic tonnage. And this volume of fats is urgently needed by industry to help make soaps and other scarce household supplies.

Remember, every pound of used cooking fat you turn over to the meat dealer helps make for you two weeks' supply of packaged soap, five weeks' supply of toilet soap, or eight weeks' supply of bar laundry soap.

FARM FACTS WORTH KNOWING

Q. Is it to my advantage to defer grain feeding of lambs?

A. Trials at the Kansas Experiment Station have shown the following results from deferring grain feeding for 30 days at the start of feeding periods: 1. Saving in grain 2. Lower feeding cost 3. Little or no decrease in total gain or finish.

Q. I've been told that DDT will not be effective when sprayed on my whitewashed walls. Is this true?

A. It is true that whitewash lessens the killing power of DDT. If the wall has been whitewashed at least two or three weeks before the DDT is applied, DDT can still be used effectively, but it will lose its value more rapidly than on other surfaces and will have to be applied more frequently.

Q. Are pastures an important part of a profitable hog program?

A. Yes. The Ralston Purina Company's Research Farm has found that pastures are valuable and should be properly used and carefully developed, since pastures save feed and help keep the hog herd healthy.

Q. How much feed do Broad Breast turkeys require?

A. Broad Breast turkeys should consume about the following amounts of feed, per bird, per week: 3rd month.....2 to 2 1/2 lbs. 4th month.....3 1/2 lbs. 5th month.....4 1/2 lbs. 6th month.....5 lbs. 7th month.....6 lbs.

Q. How much time should it take to milk a cow properly?

A. Actual farm figures have shown that the milking machine is left on an average of 63 minutes. But close studies show that cows can be trained to milk in 5 minutes or less, and some cows can be milked in 3 minutes.

Send your questions about any phase of farm management to FARM FACTS, 415 South Eighth Street, St. Louis 2, Missouri. Questions will be answered without charge, either by mail or in this column, as a service of this newspaper.

New Purchasing Rights For Veterans Granted

Veterans of Scurry County will now have exclusive rights to buy more than a score of additional surplus items ranging from concrete mixers to cash registers. This new change was announced by Hamilton Morton, Regional Director of the War Assets Administration in Fort Worth, announced this week. The new rights for the veterans is of course nation-wide.

WAA officials cautioned that the goods in surplus stocks to take care of all the demands of hte veterans.

The list of commodities previously "set aside" for purchase by veterans—covered only about a dozen types of goods, including automobiles, trucks, tractors, plows and typewriters.

The additional "set-asides" cover a considerable range of office, bakery, photographic, restaurant and other equipment. Limits are set in some cases on the amount which a single purchaser can buy—10 rolls of barbed wire for each farmer-veteran, for example, and two coffee urns for each veteran restaurant owner.

The expanded list now covers: office equipment—dictating machines, mimeographs, cash registers, adding machines, filing cabinets, tables, desks and chairs. Photographic camera, both silent and sound, graphic equipment—moving picture projectors, still cameras, film and paper dryers, printers and enlargers.

Restaurant equipment and bakery equipment—commercial meat slicers and choppers, dough mixers, bread slicers, toasters, food mixers, potato peelers, coffee urns and grinders, juice extractors, baking ovens, ranges, dishwashers, refrigerated display cases.

Other equipment—Tool kits, bench grinders, barbed wire, fractional horsepower motors and cement mixers.

MODERN REFRIGERATION AIDS ECONOMICAL BUYING

Because of the accurate low temperatures maintained in modern refrigerators it has become possible not only to eliminate food loss by spoilage but also to buy economically. Reports from homes where Westinghouse refrigerators have been tested show that an average of $1.75 per week is saved by buying in quantity and by watching for and taking advantage of food sales.

The idea of using a cross in place of a signature dates back to early medieval times.

TARRAGON ADDS FLAVOR In frying chicken at the Westinghouse Home Economics Institute not only are salt and pepper added to the flour in which the chicken is rolled, but also a pinch of dried tarragon for something special in the way of flavor.

New Plow To Be Demonstrated By Farm Supply Co.

Of much interest to the farmers and ranchers of Scurry County is the new Graham - Home Plow Drill that has been used by Plains framers several years and has been proven very successful has been received by The Farm Supply Company.

The new plow is the first to be brought to the Snyder area. The plow does dry plowing without disturbing the surface, and can also be used as a grain drill. It has been proven that the new plow cuts plowing cost in half and doubles the sub-soil moisture.

Demonstration of the plow will be held on the Arlie Eicke farm just outside of the city limits on the Gail Highway, September 3.

Record Cotton Crop - Predicted This Year
With this year's cotton crop predicted at 9,290,000 bales and an expected price of 35-cents-per-pound for lint and a $60 dollar a ton average for cottonseed will put a close $1,852,610,000 into the pockets of the American farmer enabling them to not only better equip their farms and to buy new supplies for the coming farming year. In comparison to the previous years the prices are: In the period between 1909-1914, an average of 12.4 cents per pound; for the 1935-1939 period an average of 10.34. It is also predicted that Texas will be in the lead in the production of this year's cotton crop, with a harvest of 1,900,000 bales worth an approximate $332,500,000 — at the predicted 35 cents per pound level. The ancient custom of saying grace was observed as early as the 3rd century. The passenger pigeon became extinct in the United States in the 1880's. TEXAS Ranks Second In 4-H Club Enrollment; Alabama Is First
Texas ranks second only to Alabama in the number of boys and girls engaged in 4-H Club work, according to nationwide figures just released by the United States Department of Agriculture. The census was based on club enrollment figures for 1945. Texas had 100,820 Club members last year, while Alabama was in first place with 115,751. Mississippi's 100,239 members placed a close third. During 1945, 20.7 percent of all Texas rural-farm youth were engaged in 4-H Club projects. This percentage was based on the 1946 population census, however, so the figure could be much higher or lower now. Texas club membership in 1945 dropped slightly from the 1944 figure, which was 103,294. A report from USDA received by the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service stated that Congress, when it appointed, since July 1945, some 1390 new county extension agents, expressed the intent that these new agents would spend much of their time in bringing more boys and girls into 4-H Club work. American Doctors On Lecture Tour
WARSAW, POLAND — AP — Spearheaded by Dr. Ludwik Anglistein, tall, broad-shouldered sturdy "adopted son of Texas," nine top-flight professors of specialized medicine in American universities are on a lecture tour in Poland, bringing Polish doctors up-to-date on the cardinal things they missed during nearly six years of war and a long Nazi occupation. Dr. Anglistein, 55, a native of Warsaw and a specialist on communicable diseases, loaned by the University of Texas to UNRRA, said in an interview that "Polish doctors are as hungry for information on advances in medical science the last six years as many people are hungry for food." Anglistein, whose home is at 1011 Nineteenth Street, Galveston, Tex., was the first of the nine physicians to arrive in Warsaw. He emphasized that himself, and the other professors of medicine, in lectures to Polish physicians, were concentrating particularly upon practical phases applicable to conditions in Poland and ways and means of preventing or fighting disease. While Polish health sources estimate that the number of venereal diseases in Poland may be as high as 2,000,000 cases, Dr. Anglistein said there recently had been a marked increase in typhoid fever and malaria. Polish health officials have reported as much as 300 to 400 new cases of typhoid weekly, while in Szczecin (Stettin) alone the visiting doctors found 2,000 cases of malaria. It was emphasized that faulty reporting services on diseases made difficult any accurate estimate. Anglistein expressed himself as deeply impressed by the "misery and ruins" of Warsaw and said "if more Americans could come aboard and see the other side of the picture, they'd fall in love all over again with their own country."

A. PARKER—

want to fight—and in fact, he has never had a fight in his life. That's a good record.
Out on his farm six miles east of Dunn and six miles southwest of Hermleigh, Mr. Parker walks about a mile and a half every day. He carries a cane, but seems to support the cane rather than to depend on it to support him.
In general, Mr. Parker seems in good health, or as he says: "Fit as a fiddle." Which reminds that he is an old-time fiddler, and pulled a pretty frisky bow in his earlier days. He has been a member of the Baptist church so long he can hardly remember when he joined; must have been about '85, and he has been a member of the Masonic lodge longer than that.
"I first landed in Texas at Rockdale," he remembers, "and started living out six miles west of Cameron, Texas, on the Belton Road. Mostly did carpenter work in those days, and it was later, after coming up to Scurry county, that I carried the mail from Snyder to Old Wheat—then a small village about three or four miles that gave way later to the town of Hermleigh. My two-wheel cart and pony have delivered plenty of mail across that old trail."
Later Mr. Parker started farming, and has lived on his present farm several years.
In 1914 Mr. Parker was married a second time to Miss Mattie Casey, and their only child, Mrs. Rea, passed away about two years ago in Fluvanna. Mrs. Parker did not accompany her husband to town Monday.
In the course of his conversation, Mr. Parker stated that "Rock of Ages" was his favorite song, and he has a lot of interests that keep him pretty busy—but right at the present time his chief interest is that big birthday party that is to take place out at his farm Sunday, September 15. There's going to be lots of people, lots of barbecued chicken, pork, beef, and all the trimmings that day, and he likes people—as well as plenty of barbecued chicken.

thing," but he hopes for still more water on the ground.
RENAL ROSSON: "County needs about three inches more rain to get things underway in good fashion."
E. J. THOMPSON: "We only had a light shower, but it will do a lot of good by killing the poison dust."
A. K. PETTY: "Had about inch and half rain. Will help crops lots, especially late cotton and feed." He lives nine miles east of Snyder.
GERAL GREEN: "Need more rain so we can sow wheat—but this will help some."
H. M. MURPHY: "What rain?" he replied. He lives at Dunn, and says: "Only a light shower so far."
HARLEY STINSON: "I'm not a farmer; I just sympathize with them. More rain would help, especially in making everyone feel better."
J. C. MASSENGILL: "Not enough rain; we need all we can get as soon as possible." Mrs. Massengill lives out in the Independent district.
GRADY WILLIAMS: "Got approximately inch and a fourth, and I believe it gave the county a million dollar boost. It helped my feed and grass." He lives 14 miles east of Snyder.
J. M. AKERS: "I think the rain did everything in general a lot of good." He lives 15 miles east of Snyder.
Other farmers and ranchers are reported this morning receiving additional rain last night, and represented various sections of the county.
Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Rea Falls spent the past week vacationing in Colorado Springs, Leadville, Denver, Colorado, and came back through Taos New Mexico and El Paso

Services Held August 16 For Mrs. M. A. Stahl

By MRS. A. G. HAYGOOD
Pyrton Correspondent

Funeral services were held in the Methodist church at Inadale Friday afternoon August 16, 1946, for Mrs. Marie August Stahl, who died August 15 in a Big Spring hospital.

The Rev. Braun, pastor of the Lutheran Church of Brownlee officiated and burial was in the Lone Wolf Cemetery.

Miss Marie August Schley was born Feb. 11, 1874 at Yorktown, Texas and was married to August Stahl in the year of 1893.

Mr. and Mrs. Stahl came to Scurry County in 1908, and settled on the place now known as the Stahl home place, where the couple lived until May 1942, when the home circle was broken, as Mrs. Stahl was taken to the Big Springs hospital for medical care.

During the four years Mrs. Stahl was away, Mr. Stahl died July 26, 1944.

Born to this couple were ten children, eight of whom are now living. The surviving children are: four daughters: Mrs. Gene Schwarz of Pyron, Mrs. John Lammert of Snyder, Mrs. Herman Wenetschler of Hermleigh, and Mrs. Harvey Beights of Loraine, four sons: Mr. Herman Stahl of Pyron, Edwin Stahl of Abilene, August A. Stahl Jr. of Lubbock, and Julius Stahl of Pyron.

Twenty grandchildren and three great grandchildren and her mother, who is 91 years old are the other survivors.

Pall bearers were seven of her grandsons, Fred Lammert, Henry Lammert, Edgar Lammert of Snyder, Raymond Schwarz of Pyron, Marvin and Royce Beights of Loraine, and Henry Wenetschler of Hermleigh.

Flower bearers were two granddaughters Bobbie Jean Stahl of Pyron, Marie Beights of Loraine, and Nora Walters, and Harreita Walters.

Odum Funeral Home of Snyder was in charge.

PREVENTS A PERFECT SEAL

When canning, take care that no seeds, food or grease is lodged between the lid and sealing surface of the jar because, warns the Westinghouse Home Economics Institute, even such seemingly little "interference" will prevent a perfect seal.

A&M Pointers On Many Uses of DDT

DDT is still a very new story particularly in connection with feed and food crops. Many Scurry County farmers, ranchers, and householders, are finding the powerful DDT a life-saver in protecting their crops and livestock from the various insects.

For household and livestock insects, DDT is the best insecticide that has been found, says C. A. King, Jr., entomologist for the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. But in general, entomologists are going slowly on recommendations until they can be sure about the insecticide and how it reacts on different plants under different climatic conditions.

For houseflies, mosquitoes, fleas, roaches, bedbugs, and lice, DDT is deadly, say Extension entomologists. When DDT fails to control these insects, such as houseflies, the trouble may be that too low a percentage of the insecticide is being used in the spray. A five percent mixture should be used to kill houseflies, and the spray must be applied thoroughly on the walls of the house.

Several precautions must be practiced by DDT users. When spraying vegetables and truck crops, such as cabbage or sugar beets, the crop residue should not be fed to livestock. For stored grain insects, a three percent dust may be used if the grain is not to be used for food. In spite of extensive investigation, the use of DDT on fruits is not yet recommended. It should never be used on animals in an oil solution.

With DDT, as with many other insecticides the effect on the insect is only half of the story.

Resignation of Rev. Creswell is Unanimously No

In their annual conference last Wednesday night, the North Side Missionary Baptist Church voted unanimously to reject the offered resignation of their pastor, Earl Creswell, and voted for a far reaching "forward" program. Bro Creswell begins his sixth year as pastor of the church and states that "the church has never had a brighter future than at present." The twenty six additions during the meeting gave additional strength and others are being added week by week.

It will be interesting to note that the church was organized six years ago with nine charter members. The first year witnessed a very rapid growth under pastor Slymer Evans leadership and in November 1941 had a membership of 77. At the close of the second fiscal year the membership was 133, the third year 141, the fourth 155 the fifth 197, the sixth 241. The church is looking forward to next year to be the greatest year in their history.

For next Sunday morning the pastor has planned a special program honoring the service men of the church. Six of those baptised during the revival meeting were ex-service men; these added to the number already in the church make quite a large number of service men in our membership. We especially want service men of both World War 1 and 2 to hear the message "In Service for Christ," and all others are also invited. Come and help make this a great service for the Lord.

J. A. Moses Moves To Directorship of Libraries In Italy

J. A. Moses, husband of the former Connie Grantham of Snyder, who has been the director of the training film library at Camp Hood, is now awaiting orders that will send him to the Mediterranean Theater of Operations and to the directorship of an Army film library in Italy. The main library is located at Caretsa, with only four other libraries in Italy. He is expected to leave Camp Hood sometime in September.

Mr. Moses has been in charge of the film library at Camp Hood since November, 1944 and since that time it has been issued more films than any other film office in the world.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses have two children Sarah Lou, eight and Dinah, five.

Farmers Conserve Time With Unique Skip-row Program

Here's another way to beat the labor shortage.

Bill Nordt, Washington County farmer who works with a tractor and two-row equipment, plows two rows and skips two rows the first time over a cotton field. On the second trip, he hooks up his four-row cotton duster in connection with his cultivator and dusts insects on four rows of cotton while plowing the alternate rows he skipped on the previous plowing.

By this method he saves the time and work involved in one extra trip over an entire field. Joe C. Forbes, Washington County agricultural agent, says that this is one of many shortcuts worked out by farmers in that county during the critical labor shortage.

Swine Breeders Directory, Valuable Aid To Raisers, Soon To Be Available

On official Texas Swine Breeders Directory will soon be available to Scurry County hog growers, farmers, and 4-H and FFA boys, an announcement from Texas A&M advises. The new directory is of course state-wide.

The directory, put out by the educational committee of the Texas Swine Breeders Association, will contain a description and brief history of every breed of hog in Texas, plus a list of breeders in the state with the particular type swine that each raises. In addition the directory will have educational articles on swine breeding, selection and management, written by outstanding authorities.

According to E. M. Regenbrecht, swine husbandman with the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service and secretary of the Texas Swine Breeders Association, the directory will also be distributed, through educational agencies, in Mexico and South and Central American countries as well as the United States.

The Texas Swine Breeders Association is an educational, non-profit organization devoted to the improvement of the swine industry in Texas. President of the association is Lucien T. Jones of San Antonio. E. D. Heath, Hale Center, is vice-president.

Information in the directory was compiled by the association's educational committee, consisting of Ray Wilson, Dallas, chairman; E. S. Ballew, Clarendon; John E. Adams, Tulla; R. Beal Pumphrey, San Antonio; C. T. Johnson, Dallas; R. Lane Barron, Austin; C. L. Browning, San Antonio; W. A. King, Fort Worth; and F. I. Dahlberg and Fred Hale of College Station.

Forty thousand copies of the directory will be printed, says Regenbrecht. It will be a 100-page publication, 40 pages of which will contain educational material.

Cook Cheese at Low Temperature

Because cheese becomes tough and stringy if too much heat is used, Westinghouse home economists recommend that it be melted over low heat, and added to hot dishes before removing them from the heat. It's less apt to curdle than when combined with flour in a white sauce.

"Farmers of Scurry County have a mass meeting called by the Governor to vote on the cotton plan."

Plan Heating AS PART OF HOUSE

When heating is planned as part of house and equipment installed when it is built or remodeled, it can be included as part of monthly payments. In this way the finest automatic natural gas heat costs so little more each month that even the builder of a modest cottage can afford it. Evidence of this fact is that many of the 2,200 homes being built here in the Southwest in one of the nation's largest single home building projects will be heated with central automatic gas furnaces. Below are two popular types:

Basement-type GAS FURNACE

For large houses with basement or ground floor utility room is the forced-air furnace with filters. It sends cleaned warmed air balanced with right amount of moisture to every part of house. It is automatically controlled to maintain desired temperature.

Closet-type GAS FURNACE

For the cottage where space is limited this closet-type furnace is ideal for installation in small space. It, too, provides clean, warm air throughout the house. It is completely automatic. It is quiet, efficient and costs little to operate.

Vent to A Flue . . .

Remember, flues are necessary for venting the new gas heating equipment. Only when vented heat is used are wall sweating and stuffy air eliminated.

BOYCE HOUSE

Washington Irving's classic of Ichabod Crane and the Headless Horseman of Sleepy Hollow has a counterpart in Texas lore—a story equally as fantastic in many ways as that which came from the pen of Rip Van Winkle's creator.

About 1850, Texas was overrun with rustlers and marauders, and among the most infamous of these characters was a man named Vidal who had deserted the army of Mexico and had become one of the most feared horse thieves in the border country.

A small man, shrewd and observant, he collected a band of thieves unequalled in the "profession," and with local branches strung out along the Rio Grande, he reaped a good profit in the "horse trade" at the same time making it appear that Indians were responsible for some of his own deviltry.

One summer, he and several of his gang made a raid along the San Antonio river, with enormous losses to the settlers. He struck at a time when most of the men were away pursuing Comanches, but it so happened that two men were at home, and they immediately gave chase.

The story goes that, before reaching the Nueces, they met up with the famous frontiersman, Big Foot Wallace, who joined them in the pursuit. One evening, the three men, about sundown, located the camp of the horse thieves and, staying under cover, kept a close watch on their quarry. They saw that the band put out but one man as guard for the horses and that the other three rolled up in blankets.

When they were reasonably certain that the desperadoes were asleep, the pursuers decided to attack. One shot the man guarding the herd, while the other two sprang upon the sleeping men. The scuffle was over in short order. The horse guard, though apparently badly wounded, escaped but the three in the camp were killed outright.

Upon examination of the bodies, it was discovered that one of them was the leader, and the legend goes that one of the avengers conceived the idea of beheading him, mounting him on his own horse—a fine stallion—and, after tying the man to the saddle, let the horse loose.

This was done and, as the horse was freed, it galloped off like a streak in a cloud of dust. Soon afterward, stories began circulating—even faster than the beautiful horse and its gruesome load could travel. Soldiers, scouts, Indians and other travelers told of seeing a man without a head, mounted on a superb stallion, galloping around the country and frightening the settlers half to death.

It was said that after several weeks the horse was finally killed at a watering place where it had gone to quench its thirst, and that the headless rider was still sitting in the saddle where he had been tied.

Care Food Gifts Bring Food and New Hope to People in Europe

New York, N. Y.—At long last there's sugar and spice and something nice for thousands of hungry European families who are receiving CARE gift food packages sent over by generous Americans.

But, definitely not just sugar and spice, but stews and meat, preserved butter, bacon, evaporated milk, coffee and cocoa powders, and many other items are found in the nutritious 30 pounds of food sent through CARE.

In fact, it is the same food which fed our armies in combat zones... the former "10-in-1" raten CARE food packages was distributed among them, how quickly they forgot!

"The only way in which the worker can hope to survive the battle of malnutrition is through outside help," Pierre Neumayer, National Treasurer of Confederation Generale du Travail of Paris, writes. "You have begun to give him help, and in so doing you have added fresh hope and new strength to the workers of France... from the point of view of vitamin content and wholesome, well balanced food, your '10-in-1' packages surpass in quality and quantions which were purchased by CARE from the WAR Assets Administration.

Proof of its effectiveness pours in daily at CARE headquarters. Receipts and letters from grateful recipients... individuals, families and institutions who have had their meager rations supplemented by things to eat they haven't tasted since before the war.

Take for example, the children in the Hospital des Enfants Malades in Paris. Most of them were ill from potato poisoning. But when President Truman's gift of CARE, a non-profit organization, is approved by the United States government. It is composed of twenty-five of the principal American agencies engaged in foreign relief work.

Individuals wishing to send a 49 pound CARE package overseas are required to mail a $15 check or money order to CARE, 50 Broad Street, New York, N. Y., with name and address of both recipient and donor clearly indicated.

Shortages are holding him back...

We in the Bell System were adding telephones at the rate of three million a year until shortages started getting worse. Now it's harder and harder for us to get materials for manufacturing and building.

We aren't complaining for we are in the same boat as everyone else. But we thought you might like to know the supply situation on some of the biggest items in the telephone business.

LEAD—There is a world shortage of it. Even when conditions here straighten out, it will be some time before adequate supplies are available.

COPPER—It is in great demand but we shall probably have adequate supplies when the smelting, refining, and fabricating plants get going.

TEXTILES—A serious shortage exists in cotton and synthetic yarns and fabrics.

STEEL—Strikes in steel and coal industries have affected the supply in the face of unprecedented demand.

RUBBER—Synthetics are in fair supply, but natural rubber is on government allocation.

LUMBER—It is scarce, due to both unusual demand and dislocation of the lumber trade.

BRASS MILL PRODUCTS—These are used in telephone central office switches and other equipment. Supply will be short until disturbed conditions in the copper industry are settled, permitting brass mills to get back to full-scale production.

It's a tough situation, but we aren't giving up, any more than you have given up trying to get butter or sugar or shirts.

We're doing the best we can with what we've got and hoping these disturbed conditions will end, so that we can really go full speed ahead.

How to Treat Chocolate Stains

Chocolate and cocoa stains are "treated" the same, and included in a Westinghouse laundering manual are the following directions: for white cottons or linens only—dip fabric up and down in hot water; wash in hot suds; bleach any remaining stain with hydrogen peroxide; rinse well. For any washable colored fabric—wash in lukewarm suds, and use carbon tetrachloride to remove any grease spots caused by cream. With either type of fabric, remove stains before laundering.

SWING OF SOUTHWEST MARKETS

Steady to weak price trends, moderate to heavy offerings, and a fair demand featured southwest farm markets during the second week of August, according to USDA's Production and Marketing Administration.

Cotton held the sharp gains chalked up during the preceding week. Texas reported a strong demand for medium to high white grades, but elsewhere the market was rather dull. Sales at the 10 principal centers fell to only 51,000 bales against 81,600 the first week of August. Additional crop damage is expected to result from the continued hot dry weather with some cotton opening prematurely. Picking is almost completed in the Rio Grande Valley and Coastal Bend areas and is now general in south central Texas.

Wood demand continued active with prices at ceiling for good qualities and 8 to 10 cents below previous quotation on defective types. Mills took additional weight from Texas country points. Fall clip mohair in Texas brought 58 to 59 cents a pound for adult, 69 cents for yearling, and 78 to 79 cents for kid hair.

High prices and drying pastures combined to send another large supply of livestock to market during the past week. Grass cattle movement expanded seasonally.

Demand, except for the very best grades, was slow to only moderately active. Prices were irregular with best grain-fed steers generally steady to strong while most other cattle sold weak to lower. Hogs were under considerable pressure losing $4 a hundred pounds at Fort Worth and $1.50 to $2 at other markets in the Southwest. Sheep and lambs sold fairly steady at San Antonio but were down anywhere from 50 to $2 a hundred at other terminals.

With more meat available, consumers showed indifferent interest in liberal supplies of poultry, and prices weakened though southwest markets displayed less easiness than the large eastern and northern consuming centers. Egg prices, on the other hand, continued to strengthen with receipts decreasing seasonally in the face of excellent local and export demand.

Principal factor in grain and feed markets was continued uncertainty about reinstatement of ceiling prices, although reduced UNRRA purchases of some foods and the generally bright crop outlook were weakening influences. Wheat, still greatly needed for relief purposes, held fairly firm, but fed grains moved lower especially on corn and sorghums. By-product feeds declined under hand-to-mouth buying. However, the hot dry weather increased demand for hay which sold higher as crop reports indicated the smallest United States hay production since 1941.

Rice harvest got off to a good start in Texas and Louisiana, but little was sold. One lot of the Zenith variety with only 14 percent moisture brought a premium of 60 cents a barrel in the Lake Charles area. Combining is expected to start in Arkansas late this month.

Colorado is the principal fruit and vegetable shipping area in the seven-state southwest area at the present time, with a good volume and wide variety available. Last week's price trends were steady for potatoes and peas but weaker on cauliflower. Demand for Louisiana sweet potatoes was slow at steady prices.

Farmers in south Texas, where nearly three-fourths of the early peanut crop is harvested, are receiving support prices of $197 per ton for Spanish peanuts with 76 percent sound, mature kernels.

LESS SUGAR FOR FRUIT PIES
A fondness for fruit pies, coupled with the necessity for stretching sugar, led Mrs. Julia Kiene, director of the Westinghouse Home Economics Institute, to find that sugar in berry and apple pies can be cut at least 1-2 cup, and sometimes 1-3 cup; without noticeable difference in the sweetness. The recipe isn't otherwise adjusted.

There May Be No Tomorrow!

Few strong, healthy persons expect to become disabled or die until some far distant tomorrow. But disability often comes, and life often ends sooner than one expects. For many there may be no tomorrow. You do intend to provide for your own care if disabled, and for your family if death deprives them of your support. But tomorrow may be too late.

Call the local Woodmen representative today. Let him tell you about the safe, sound, legal reserve Woodmen life insurance certificates the Society furnishes at cost. There's one that exactly meets your needs to provide future security for yourself and your family.

Learn, too, of the benefits you will receive by taking part in Woodcraft's fraternal and social activities.

PLEASE, FELLOWS...

When you take a pot shot at a bird on a wire the victim doesn't have much of a chance . . . and neither do telephone wires.

Last year in the Southwestern Company nearly 3,000 cases of wire trouble were caused by careless hunters.

Telephone equipment is hard to get and hard to replace.

So won't you please give the birds . . . and us, a break?

Thanks.

His Farm Fields Are Factories

U. S. FARMERS have made our fields into factories.

We live better than people in other countries because our farmers get more out of the soil.

The steel industry takes pride in the way it has helped bring about this improvement in farm practice. Tools of steel—from the plowshare to the giant combine—have multiplied in number and increased vastly in quality.

Fifty years ago the typical farm in America used about 3 tons of steel. Today the figure is nearer 17½ tons.

That is a measure of the modernization of agriculture and an indication of the interdependence of steel and farming.

We no longer have separate "farm production problems" or "industrial production problems." We have but one set of problems for everybody.

If strikes, for instance, restrict the supply of farm implements and supplies through work stoppages, or make their cost prohibitive, America is out of gear.

Anything which tends in this direction is bad for the farmer—and finally for everybody. Farmers know it. Everybody else should know it.

Steel mills need all the scrap iron and steel they can get. The shortage is serious. Farmers can get extra dollars and help increase steel output by sending worn-out machinery, etc., on its way to the furnaces. AMERICAN IRON AND STEEL INSTITUTE, 350 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, N. Y.
