Perry Brothers, City Cafe Suffer Near Total Loss

Most destructive fire loss since Snyder School burned March 11, 1938, was recorded here early Sunday morning when fire destroyed parts of two business properties on the north side of the square. Originating in the City Cafe, owned by Billie Lee and B. L. Mc-Kinley, the fire quickly spread to the adjoining Perry Brothers variety store building.

Alarm of Saturday night's fire was turned in at 11:35 p. m. The fire started, N. W. Autry, fire chief reports, when cafe personnel was cleaning up the cook stove. A gas jet was knocked loose and escaping gas ignited grease on the cook stove. In a space of a few seconds the fire was all over the cafe. Firemen from Sweetwater and Colorado City were called in to help fight the stubborn blaze, which was brought under control Sunday morning at 4:00 o'clock

Initial estimates of the fire loss ran along a minimum of $50,000. All fixtures and equipment of he City Cafe were a total loss. Insurance adjustors said Tuesday afternoon the Perry Brothers loss would be virtually 100 per cent.

Economy Dry Goods Company, occupying the building owned by Mrs. T. L. Lollar just east of the cafe, suffered considerable damage, according to Henry Rosenberg, manager. Careful Driving Will Prevent Most Auto Accidents Says Cox

An automobile collision can kill human being just as certainly as cancer, and a traffic accident can cripple just as badly as poliomyelitis, and for this reason Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, urges Scurry Countians to protect their health and lives by using the utmost care on highways.

"It is the duty of the State Department of Health to do everything in its power to foster good health and prevent as many needless deaths as possible," Dr. Cox says, and because so many Texans each year are killed, permanently cripled or disabled for long periods of ne through preventable traffic cidents, I earnestly urge every driver in the state to do his concientious best to help reduce the number of these tragic and often fatal smash-ups."

Dr. Cox declares it is a driver's responsibility to know that his lights, tires and brakes are in good condition; that he pay proper attention to traffic signals and ond signs; that he give due regard to other drivers and pedestrians: that he use great caution at unmarked intersections; "and above all," he urged, "use common ense and follow a live-and-let-live policy when in your car, whether driving to the corner grocery or going from coast to coast.'

Despite the snow-covered ground we made our way to Camp Springs last Sunday morning. As we drove along the way we could csarcely see any ground, and something kept saying to us, "You are making a vain trip, for people are not coming to church in such weather as this. Something else said, "Go anywayit will clearly show your love for the work, and give your prestige in the estimation of the people, and will prove to the good Lord that you want to be faithful to Him."

We were the first to arrive at the church, and again the voice appeared, saying, "We told you that nobody would come." But again another voice said, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give unto thee a crown of life." About 25 minutes passed, but they seemed short minutes to me, for we realized that we were not alone-there was another present in the snow-covered church yard and that one was Jesus. Then we heard a car driving up behind us, then anohter, and another. We went in, started a fire and others came, and we had Sunday School and then church services, and all seemed to enjoy it.

At 7:30 p. m. quite a nice little bunch gathered in the church at Hermleigh for the first quarterly conference, as had been previously announced. We had some good singing, and Rev. O. P. Clark, cur district superintendent, brought us a message on "Stewardship." It was a good one, and all who missed it missed something that they and communities throughout that

His record is proof that in Texas a man can still do what is frequently unheard of and impossible in populous eastern states.

> He got cleated to Congress without any political machine backing. He didn't have much money behind him. His biggest asset was a desire to come to Washington and a willingness to work .- plus a helpful wite.

The 40-year-old Texan worked for 10 months as secretary to the man he succeeded former Representative Sam Russell of Stephenville. That was in 1941. He got the idea then of coming back some day as a legislator if and when the time seemed propitious. That chance came last spring right after his

Norwegian Shipping

Refore it was overrun by the Nazis in 1940, Norway ranked fourth among the world's leading merchant shippers, notes the National Geographic society. Although topped in total tonnage by British, American and Japanese ships, the Norwegian fleet led the field in proportion to the country's population. Each of Norway's nearly three million inhabitants was represented by a little more than one and a half gross tons of shipping, compared with less easily prepare a medicine, right in your own kitchen. It's very easy—a child could do it—needs no cooking, and tastes so good that children take it willingly. But you'll say it's hard to beat for quick results.

First, make a syrup by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup. Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, and pour it into a pint bottle. Fill up with your syrup. This gives you a full pint of really splendid cough syrup—about four times as much for your money. It never spoils, and lasts a long time.

And it gives quick relief. It acts in three ways—loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and helps clear the air passages.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for quick action in coughs and bronchial irritations. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

"On Saturday night you can see poor guys who get stuck with duty. Every single one, anyway," Lieutenant Stark said, "and about half the married men."

"Even Old Cyanide," Lieutenant Crawford put in. "He's over there by the window, polluting the atmosphere." Jill followed the movement of Spang's eyes and saw a tall captain sitting alone. He had reddish hair, turning gray, a leathery skin, cold blue eyes and a grim mouth under a stiff, clipped mustache.

"Go easy, Joe, the enemy is listening," Stark warned. "You mean that captain? Who is he?" Jill asked. "His name is Mackey," Stark said in a low voice.

So she glowed again, and the world was a lovely place, even with the sodden cloud of war hanging over it and dimming all the future. She would not let it dim the present.

She said, "Shall we just walk around and talk or would you like to do something else?"

"There's the officer's club. But it's mostly a big poker game on Saturday nights. I know a little spot out this way where the floor is pretty good. Like dancing?" "Oh, I'd love dancing."

Vets Are Getting Paid

World War II veterans in Scurry and other counties of the nation will doubtless find this congress irrestible to cash payment for future terminal leave allotments and for an immediate redemption of outstanding leave bonds.

If Congress decides to be generous to our service men and old man cash starts rolling, veterans getting funds from Uncle Sam should be exceptionally careful about spending, or even investing their government pay and a time when $1 saved is worth $10 borrowed.

have lean years down the road of peace, and people with the veteran's welfare at heart want him to have a little "nest egg" saved back for a rainy day. lenient with service men as he is today, and while fire of an opposition that "clicks" will be lacking. no one questions but what the boys earn much more than they actually get in service, no one wants them to squander away such hard-earned funds-and be broke later and in embarrassing circumstances.

Prison House Cleening

The cold, gray walls of Texas prisons became news this week in view of a resolution offered by slated to be in operation experimentally within two Senator Vick to the Texas Legislature, and signed by years. six other senators, calling for a thorough and impartial investigation of this state's clemency system.

It is a fact that the board of pardons and paroles has requested such an inquiry-especially after published statements to the effect convicts believe they can obtain freedom when they "corner" at least $1,000.

The public has been confused about functions of the board of pardons and paroles for many years, and doubtless will remain so after this investigation. lease them from prison as soon as possible to "make room" for others who have been outside prison walls.

We can briefly say that our supposed-to-be system of reformation within our prison system has failed miserably; and until such time as we have a different type of administration nad rehabilitation for convicts

Our Dollars Fight Polio

March of Dimes drive, which is this week going along in high gear, can well be termed a fighting dollar thing to do about the matter. for Snyder and Scurry County is determined that we will contribute our full share toward combating polio on both our local and national fronts.

against infantile paralysis serve a two-fold purpose, for 50 cents of each dollar given remains here to financially prepared we can face the consequenceswhich are life-time in endurance.

Several Scurry County communities are already gloves." over the top in this March of Dimes drive and we believe Scurry County will rally to this worthwhile cause in such a way that we will exceed our over-all quota of $2,600 by hundreds of fighting dollars.

The battle against polio is one that goes on 24 hours a day, and with the splendid start we have in research and foundation centers makes it impossible to let up until this affliction, as President Truman ably says, is wiped from the face of the earth.

Editorial of the Week

If it isn't one thing in our international relations, it's another. This time it's a question of releasing prisoners-of-war still held by France and Russia.

This week France, according to the United Press, refused to accede to a U.S. demand that she release without further delay 620,000 German prisoners-ofwar still held in that country, still working in mines and on farms. France insists that the manpower situation with her is such that if these prisoners are sent home, coal and food production would suffer seriously-and France already has crippling short-

Why are we so solicitous of the status of these former enemies? Well, they're really our prisonerscaptured in the closing days of the war and turned over to France to hold, with the understanding that they would be sent home "as soon as possible." That's what the present argument is about-"as soon as Uncle Sam's face is a little red as a result of this stalemate, for the simple reason that we've been trying to get Russia to send home some 800,000 Jap prisoners doing forced labor in Siberia. Russia is in position to say, "Send them home—when 620,000 of backs and organized resistance to labor-saying deyour prisoners-of-war are still doing forced labor in vices (such as mechanical cotton pickers, for in-France?"-The Abilene Reporter-News.

Unfortunately, and there is no need to make any bones about the matter, the Democrats will not be as effective an opposition group in the present Congress as the Republicans were in past Congresses. . . General Douglas MacArthur had informed Washington, the press learns, that the number of Japanese Fighting dollars given by donors in our drive factories permitted to operate must soon be increased. . . . There was a likelihood this week that an over-all trimming of President Truman's $37,500,000,000 budget, rather than a sharp dig in any particular place, is being planned by the Republicans in Congress. . . . The GOP has the happy idea that all major items will yield to reduction—like veteran benefits, national defense, public works and agricultural payments. . . . The Republicans, you recall, made some pretty rash promises about reducing federal expenditures and "whacking down" income taxes, but promises are sometimes like pie crusts-made to be broken.

It is rapidly getting to the point where demands by housewives for more sugar are becoming so insistent in congressional mail that an increase in the present ration is probable. . . . Really, production of sugar in the United States, plus imports, could allow more of the sweetening ingredient for housewives if business firms were not so hard pressed for sugar.

. . The candy and soft drink industries, for example, are unable to get enough sugar for actual needs, and those who keep up with day by day trends say something will be done to increase sugar allotments-if the yelling becomes loud enough from consumers.

This government at the moment has no price control plan, even though impartial observers all admit that the price of many non-food items such as textiles and clothing will go higher next spring. Increased production and stiffer buyer resistance to high prices as scarce goods become more plentiful are being counted upon to check the upward curve later this year. . . . There seems to be a chance that an amendment of the anti-trust laws to outlaw some strikes, secondary boycotts, feather-bedding, kickstance), will be provided for in the Moroney Bill.
