DRIVE FOR BOY SCOUT FUND TO START OCT. 28

Roy Keaton to Direct Campaign in Snyder After Breakfast at Hotel Next Tuesday

Annual Boy Scout financial drive for the Snyder District will begin Tuesday morning, it was announced Wednesday by district officials. The drive is the regular annual financial drive for funds with which to carry on the work of the Buffalo Trail Council, composed of Scurry and 14 other counties reaching from Aspermont to Balmorhea.

A kick-off breakfast at the Manhattan Hotel Tuesday morning at 7:30 o'clock will signal opening of the campaign in Snyder.

Paul Keaton was selected by the district committee as drive chairman. Keaton in turn has appointed H. L. Wren, Lyle Deffenbach, J. E. Blakey, Leighton Griffin, Forrest Beavers and Wayne Boren as team captains for the drive. The team captains will select members for their canvassing teams.

At the kick-off breakfast Tuesday morning the personnel of the drive teams will be advised as to procedure for conducting the drive. The work of soliciting funds will begin immediately after the breakfast.

It is explained by district officials that the large canvassing teams will permit the drive to be conducted within a short time. Most of the campaign should be completed before Tuesday noon, officials said.

Blakey, finance chairman for the Snyder District, reports that a large number of sustaining members have given permission for the Buffalo Trail Council to draw drafts each month on their bank accounts. This "group accounts" for about half of the amount which the district hopes to raise.

Court Refuses Call For Route Election

VFW-Sponsored Memorial Park Open to Public

Scurry County Memorial Park, recently purchased by the Snyder Veterans of Foreign Wars Post and the Ladies' VFW Auxiliary, is now open for public use, it was announced this week by officials of the organization.

The following statement was delivered to The Times, explaining the plans for development by the VFW groups and the use of the park by the public:

"The Wolf estate, known for so many years as Wolf Park, will be known hereafter as Scurry County Memorial Park. Dedicated to the memory and as a memorial to the gallant sacrifice your loved ones and ours made in the past wars, the park will be a small token of esteem to those who did so much.

"With the help of people of Scurry County we can in the years to come make it a place of beauty and a shrine to those who would have enjoyed it as greatly as you and me.

"Will you each and every one who loved one during the past wars please send their names to the commander of the VFW post No. 8231, Snyder, Texas. Regardless of race or creed, we want to place their names on a plaque at the entrance of the park.

"We would like to announce that the park is now open to the public. Anyone caring to use it is welcome. We have picnic tables, donated by local business men already in the park and hope to have more soon.

"We are working every Sunday afternoon, clearing out the brush and dead trees in the park. Anyone wishing to help with the work will be appreciated. Also if you can donate anything toward helping to pay for the park or toward improving it, your assistance will be appreciated. We will not ask for public donations in the way of money, but if you care to donate to the park fund, please leave your donations with Dawson Moreland at the bank.

"Any group or individual wishing to stage a wienie roast or picnic in the park are urged to use the park. By next summer we believe we will have a park that the public will really appreciate."

Soil Conservationists Slate Emphasis Week

Scurry County soil conservationists and cooperators in the Scurry-Borden District of the Upper Colorado Soil Conservation District were planning this week to emphasize soil saving practices the week of November 7-15.

Governor Beauford H. Jester last week-end proclaimed the week of November 7-15 as Soil Conservation Week and called on Texans to "urge and support programs of terracing and good farming practices."

"The governor said that "Texas' greatest resource, its soil, is rapidly being depleted by erosion with the result that the agricultural productivity of our state is being seriously imperiled."

"It is our intention to coordinate our truck and rail service to points on the Santa Fe in a manner similar to this accelerated service on other parts of the Santa Fe System," Cody said. "It is our program to use rail facilities at all rail stations. Pick-up and delivery service at outlying points will be handled either by rail or truck handlers where that practice is now in operation."

Highway by Ira Settled, Hairston Tells Times Man

An election to permit voters of Scurry County to express their desires in the routing of State Highway 350 from Snyder to Big Spring will not be called by the Commissioners Court.

This decision was announced late Wednesday by County Judge P. C. Hairston in an interview with a Times representative. Hairston said that the matter of the routing of the highway was settled as far as the court is concerned.

A group of Scurry County citizens had met with the Commissioners Court Monday of last week and asked that an election be called in order to decide the routing bone of contention. The group contended that a majority of county citizens favored the straight highway—not because of any opposition to the highway running through Ira or any other community—but because the straight highway would be built at entire state expense and because it would be a major highway and connect eventually with highways that "would go somewhere."

Under the present approved plan, according to State Highway Department spokesmen, the highway would be built as a farm-to-market project, with the county paying 75 per cent of the cost with farm-to-market road allotments.

The "straight route" group has not been daunted by the Commissioners Court's decision not to call a election. The Times learns, and is proceeding with its drive for funds to build fences and move houses along the way without cost to the county. The group proposes to take the matter up direct with the Texas Highway Commission.

Question of location of the highway has been a moot one for several weeks following word from the State Highway Department that the state road body had approved a "crooked" routing by way of Ira at the insistence of a group of citizens and the Commissioners Court who represented themselves to a conference of highway officials several months ago as expressing the desires of all Scurry County people.

The highway department had surveyed two airline routes from Vincent in Howard County to Snyder as the department's choice of the highway.

County Judge Hairston said that the group of Ira citizens and the court asked for the "crooked" route at the conference in Abilene, but were advised that the straight route was the logical routing. He said that the group then agreed to a compromise for a spur south from the proposed straight route into Ira, Hairston stating that the plus was a suggestion of a highway department official.

Hairston could not explain why the straight routing was abandoned in favor of the Ira route. He did declare that Commissioners Court made no further contention for the Ira routing, other than to request that "if the routing were to go by way of Ira that the highway be built north to Union and then into Snyder instead of making a "beline" for Snyder from Ira.

When asked directly if he would favor the straight route, he replied that he would favor the direct highway if the county's farm-to-market allotment of approximately 25 miles could be withdrawn from the highway that is now approved.

Santa Fe To Take Over Motor Lines Of Johnson Soon

Improved rail and truck service will be inaugurated by the Santa Fe Railway and the Santa Fe Trail Transportation Company, a subsidiary, when the latter takes over operation November 1 of the recently acquired Johnson Motor Freight Lines, serving an important segment of Texas from Fort Worth and Dallas to Gainesville and through Dallas and Fort Worth to West Texas and the Plains area.

The Times understands local plans will include establishment of headquarters of the trucking division at the Snyder Santa Fe freight depot. The downtown office will be closed, it is understood.

H. R. Lake, vice president of the Santa Fe Trail Transportation Company announced the establishment of a new grand division of the Santa Fe Trailways in Texas to be known as the Texas Lines with headquarters in Fort Worth.

The new Trailways service will be started with approximately a half million dollar investment in new equipment and accessories. This includes purchase of 35 new trailers, 30 new bob-tail trucks, 27 new tractors and other equipment. General Manager J. R. Cody said that additional purchases would be made at local points as necessary.

"It is our intention to coordinate our truck and rail service to points on the Santa Fe in a manner similar to this accelerated service on other parts of the Santa Fe System," Cody said. "It is our program to use rail facilities at all rail stations. Pick-up and delivery service at outlying points will be handled either by rail or truck handlers where that practice is now in operation."

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardul is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion. It thus helps build resistance for the "time" to come. 2. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try Cardul. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Snider Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday

Golden wedding anniversary of a pioneer Scurry County couple was celebrated Sunday afternoon when scores of friends and relatives called at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Ella Nelson, in West Snyder. The honored people were Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Snider, who came to Scurry County in 1901.

Married October 3, 1897, in Parker County, the Sniders had farmed in the Snyder area until several years ago when they retired. D. G. Snider was born in Benton, Tennessee, and at the age of nine came to Texas, settling with his family in Parker County. He was married to Frances Martin, who was born in Cedar Grove, Georgia. Mrs. Snider came to Texas at the age of one, settling in Wise County.

Absence of a daughter prevented the celebration on October 3, so it was delayed until Sunday. Calling hours were 2:00 to 6:00 o'clock.

Children present were Mrs. Ella Nelson of Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. (Bill) Snider and children, Billy Don and Betty Lou, of Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Howell of Hamlin, and Dale Snider of Snyder.

Flowers were sent by friends in gold and white colors, accompanied by pot plants. A bed with a gold spread held the gifts in the same room with a three-tier wedding cake, which was baked and decorated by Mrs. Bill Snider and Mrs. Vera Williams. Mrs. Martha Lou Henley and Mrs. Vera Williams presided at the guest book, which was a white and gold lettered one given by their daughter, Mrs. John R. Howell.

At the 3:00 hour Rev. Earl Creswell, pastor of the North Side Baptist Church, and pastor of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Snider, lead a brief ceremony, followed by a song, "I Shall Not Be Moved" and poem by the little granddaughter, Betty Lou, who stood near her grandfather while singing.

Mrs. Charlie Williams, Mrs. Kenneth Pittner and Mrs. Bill Snider served coffee and cake, with an extra piece of the bride's cake, to 83 guests who registered.

Gifts, telegrams and phone calls were received during the day from friends who could not attend.

His First Duty.

Boss—"So you're the new office boy? Did the cashier tell you what to do afterwards?"

New Office Boy—"Yes, sir. He said the most important thing was to wake him up when I saw you coming."

Mrs. Allen Stone and girls of Andrews visited his mother, Mrs. B. N. Stone, over the week-end.

THESE SNIDER young folks, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Snider, were recipients of many well wishes and gifts from friends Sunday afternoon when they celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Ella Nelson in West Snyder. Married in Parker County October 3, 1897, Mr. and Mrs. Snider moved to Scurry County in 1901.

Parents Warned About Severity Of Scarlet Fever

State Department of Health has issued a warning to Times readers in regard to scarlet fever, since the number of cases usually increases during the fall months. The majority of deaths from this disease occur during the months from October through February.

Scarlet fever is a very contagious and serious disease. Grown people may contract it, but children under 15 years are especially apt to have it, if exposed. It is especially dangerous for children under 15 years, and Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer, warns mothers to "not let your children take any chances with scarlet fever. Call the doctor as soon as any suspicious symptoms appear."

Dr. Cox said that the first signs you may notice are that the child seems tired, restless and out of sorts. Usually, there is a sore throat, chills, vomiting, or in some cases convulsions and fever. The skin is dry and hot, the tongue is furred, and under this furry covering, it is red and swollen. In ordinary cases the early signs are followed in a day or two by a rash. Little flat red points, close together, appear first on the neck and chest and soon the rash, very red in color, spreads over most of the body.

The doctor is required by law to report the case to the local health officer. It is important that the family follow carefully the quarantine instructions which the health officer issues, since a severe or fatal case of scarlet fever may develop from contact with some one who has only a light attack. Children who have scarlet fever, or who have been exposed, must not return to school until permission is given by the health officer and physician.

The volume of production of all U. S. crops this year is expected to be a little over last year's high record, well above the 10 year average, and slight above the average for U. S. farmers' best years, 1942 to 1946.

Snyder; and Rodolfo Martinez (Mexican) of Snyder; Mrs. A. L. Minica of Route 1, Snyder; A. C. Browning of Elgin; Mrs. J. W. Eades of Snyder; and Rufugio Gutierrez of Snyder.

Accident Patients—Franklin Ray Rankins of Roby; W. B. (Bill) Taylor of Snyder; and Raymond Kellen of Terrell.

Remaining Patients—Mrs. M. E. Goss of Snyder; Ruby Speer of Snyder; Mrs. C. S. Niedecken of Snyder; Leonard Keller of Snyder; R. T. Hodges of Snyder.

Rules Hearing Reset For Sharon Oil Fields

Original hearing on the field rules now in effect for the Sharon Ridge 1700 foot and the Sharon Ridge 2400 foot fields was held on September 9, it will be recalled. The Commission will meet at 10:00 o'clock a. m., October 28 in its hearing room, in the Tribune Building in Austin.

The Commission stated that it would enter such rules, regulations and orders as in its judgment that the evidence presented may justify.

Cotton Gains Half Cent Last Week as Demand Strong and Farmers Selling

Cotton prices gained about half a cent per pound during the week-end and spot markets were very active, according to the Department of Agriculture, in a release to The Times. Farmers were selling freely and mills were buying actively.

Demand for textiles continued at a strong level. Quality of the small 1947 carry-over was considerably higher than in other recent years. World exports of cotton for 1946-47 were reported at 9,500,000 bales, or about 4,000,000 less than the pre-war average. Picking and ginning over the Cotton Belt are making rapid progress, the report continues. Prices for middling 15-16-inch cotton in the 10 spot markets averaged 31.58 cents per pound on Thursday as compared with 31.32 cents last week and 24.83 a year ago. The average price for this week ending Wednesday October 15, was 31.29 cents per pound as compared with 30.89 cents a week earlier. Prices declined early in the week, but gained strength later. December futures were about 50 points above spot prices at the end of the week as compared with 25 points a week ago.

Reported sales in the 10 spot markets for the week totaled 423,000 bales as compared with 398,000 bales last week and 197,200 last year.

Farmers were generally selling freely in the Snyder area as well as elsewhere, with less talk of cotton entering the loan. Inquiries on spot markets were very numerous and the volume of sales was very large in the central and southeastern sections of the belt. Mill buyers were active for the medium to better qualities for both prompt and forward delivery. Prices for even running lots for deferred shipment were a little firmer than for last week. Car shortages and congested conditions in warehouses hampered movement in some areas.

The carry-over of cotton on August 1, 1947, was considerably higher in grade and longer in staple length than for last year. This improvement is due to several factors, namely (1) The disposal of practically the entire stock of cotton controlled by the government; (2) the relatively high quality of last year's small crop; (3) substantial increases in production in areas that ordinarily produce a large proportion of low quality cotton; and (4) more than 60 per cent of this year's carry-over was mill stocks which ordinarily average relatively high in quality.

Mrs. Lillie Horton Back From Visit at Highest Texas Point

Mrs. Lillie Horton of Snyder has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Jim Jones, and family of Carlsbad, New Mexico. She states she spent a pleasant six weeks in and around Carlsbad, including several trips to the famous McKittrick Canyon, located high up in the Guadalupe Mountains on the Wallace E. Pratt ranch in Texas, where her son-in-law Jim Jones, is employed.

The ranch is known as the Manzanita Ranch, named for its many beautiful manzanita trees. These trees are very interesting as they shed and put on a differed colored bark each season of the year. Other trees of interest were: manie, pine, Juniper oak, sumac, cedar and the yucca and rubber plants. Still another interesting thing she saw several century plants that had grown to be 100 years old and were in full bloom.

Located high up in the jungles of this canyon, 5,280 feet above sea level, is a beautiful $40,000 lodge built of native rocks. Here she spent two days of fun riding over the mountains and in the canyons in a water jeep, built in the shape of a boat. She saw deer—lots of deer—little fawns that played all around the lodge; big elk that came to the watering tanks for water.

On one of these week-end trips to the ranch she went to see the highest point in Texas, known as Signal Peak Mountain. Height of this peak is 8,757 feet above sea level.

Mrs. Horton states that she firmly believes that if she had a home in the mountains, where she could breathe that pure, spicy air, she might—like the century plant—live to be 100 years old.

Helping Her Out. Overheard in the next booth—"What's the matter, honey? Why don't you eat your cake?" "I have to watch my figure." "You eat the cake. I'll watch your figure."

Early maps of Texas often referred to the state as "The New Philippines".

WHEN YOU PLAN TO BUILD, REMODEL OR ADD NEW ELECTRIC APPLIANCES . . .

BE SURE Your Electrical Wiring Will Efficiently Carry the Load . . .

Are you planning to build a home—add a room or wing to your house—completely electrify your kitchen—put in new laundry equipment—install an air conditioning unit? If you are, the first step should be to arrange for a complete checkup of your electric wiring system. Without adequate wiring facilities—enough circuits to provide plenty of outlets for your electrical appliances and electric wires large enough to satisfactorily carry the increased load—your whole plan for modernizing your home electrically may be upset. Electrical appliances can efficiently do their job of making housework easier and home life more comfortable only when they are provided with an adequate wiring system from which to operate.

Ira P-TA Arranges Interesting Program

Interesting series of program for the Ira Parent-Teacher Association has been arranged for the organization for the ensuing school year, it is announced by P-TA officials in a report to The Times.

Ira P-TA meets each first and third Thursday of the month, and good crowds have been attending the sessions so far. Officials of the Ira club urge others who are interested in the welfare of the school and children of the community to attend the meetings of the P-TA.

He—"Does your wife burn a light for you when you are detained?"

Him—"Yes, but I never can tell if it is red or green."

Services Scheduled at Ennis Creek Sunday

Ennis Creek community leaders announced early this week that regular fourth Sunday worship services will be conducted at the school house next Sunday. Rev. Leslie Kelley will preach at both the morning and evening services.

Prior to the morning preaching service Sunday School will meet at the school house promptly at 10:15 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Liverett and granddaughter, Bobby Lynn Gordon, returned Saturday from visiting and fishing with a son, Irvin, and family at Carlsbad, New Mexico. They visited other relatives at Red Bluff, Texas.

County Council Hears Reports of State Convention

"Going to the State Convention" was the title of an interesting skit directed by Mrs. A. D. Dodson of Fluvanna presented Saturday afternoon when the Scurry County Home Demonstration Council met in the county agent's office in the courthouse. Mrs. Dodson was one of three county club women attending the recent Galveston convention of state club women.

In business session the women voted to conduct a bake sale November 1, beginning at 9:00 o'clock, in Snyder.

County education chairman reported that seven gold stars and three reading certificates had been issued to county women.

It was announced at the Saturday conference that the Texas Home Demonstration Association chairman is urging each club to fill out the "measuring stick" questionnaire and return to her at the November council meeting. Yearly reports for club are also due at that time.

Mmes. Dodson, Ray Lunsford and Leon Andress gave reports on the state convention.

Reports were made Saturday by seven county clubs, with 13 members present.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Floyd of Snyder, Theson Withers of Hermleigh and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Rainwater and daughter of Snyder were also Sunday visitors of Mrs. B. N. Stone.

GAY APLOMB is the keynote of this play suit of candy-stripe cotton chints that is especially becoming to petite girls. As pretty Gloria Henry of Columbia Pictures demonstrates, the elastic bindings on both midriff and skirt makes the waist and shoulder line form fitting.

Farm Wage Rates Over Country at All-Time Highs

Scurry County farmers were perturbed at increasing farm wage levels that threatened to trim their profits from crop yields.

Bureau of Agriculture Economics at Washington reported this week that farm wage rates rose to record levels on October in practically all regions of the country.

It said farm wage rates averaged $4.79 a day, with board, on October 1. This compared with $4.54 on July 1, and was more than four times the 1910-14 average rate of $1.16 a day.

Employment rose about two per cent on farms during the past year, the bureau said.

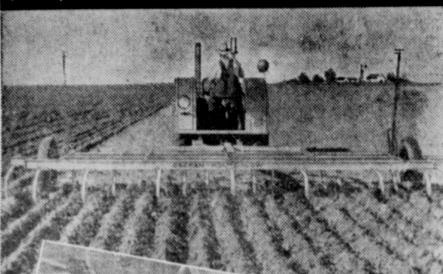

It attributed some of the wage rates increases to seasonal demand for harvest labor. It said part of the increase resulted from increases in farm commodity prices and the tendency of farm wages to follow industrial wage increases.

Sharp increases in hired workers were recorded in the South, where corn and rice harvests, cotton picking and peanut picking were in full swing.

Mrs. J. C. Card of Waurika, Oklahoma, and Mrs. Ettie Rorie of Elida, New Mexico, have been here visiting in the J. H. Trussell home and with relatives at Fluvanna and Polar.

Eureka, Kansas, Oct. 17.—To those who are troubled about the financial outlook, I want to say that only as more families adopt careful estate planning will our nation reduce its "boom and busts". In other words, for the future, the "booms" will be less dangerous; and the "depressions" will be less severe. I feel very certain about this.

Think More of Children
We give too much time to business and to little to our children. A busy executive gives almost no time to thinking of the future which is to be a very essential part to his later-life development. Also think of the farmer or businessman who has been pouring all his profits back into the farm or business. He sells out and finds himself with a grand bank balance, but no income until he puts his money to work. He has to sit down and do some very serious thinking. His entire future depends on it.

Then there is the widow with responsibilities left on her shoulders for which she is not prepared. How best in a short time can she get basic knowledge of the essentials in management of her affairs? The answer is to read such books as her local banker will recommend or attend such a college as I and my friends have opened at the "Center of the U. S."

Doctors Need "Check Ups"
Then there is the medical man, whose prime interests are far removed from the financial world. His success in his profession is largely due to his one-sided interest in it. But he runs into a problem. He must take a little pause, in order to conserve what he has accumulated and arrange his affairs to good advantage. A short course in estate planning is what he needs. These doctors are always "checking up" others but seldom take time to check up themselves physically or financially.

If you are a beneficiary of a "trust," you may have all the confidence in the world in the men who are handling things, but it is my advice that you also get enough investment training so that you can intelligently watch them. Trust beneficiaries who often consult with their trustees get the best service. Trustees usually are very glad to discuss such matters if they feel you understand what you are discussing. Books and classes exist to help people get such training.

Advice to Lawyers.
Lawyers are often made custodians of estates and get very well paid for such work. How much time are such busy men giving to the study to investments? Lawyers want their doctors and dentists to attend summer classes to keep up to date. Lawyers should be fair to their trusting clients and give the financial side of their training continuous post-graduate study.

Lawyers are also pressed with detailed work which they must do, that they seldom take time to present new thoughts to their clients. Busy lawyers are not good salesmen of their own wares. They seem to hesitate to suggest to clients that they revise their wills, form trusts and plan their estates intelligently. Yet, these things are far more important to the clients' families than the detailed legal work upon which their time is mostly spent.

Warning to Farmers.
I have just visited the wheat country where farmers are reaping much wealth. They are getting more money than they ever dreamed of, but have no knowledge of what to do with it. As a result, this Central West is now infested with "get-rich-quick" promoters. They are trying to get away from the farmers their hard earned money, much of which when low prices and poor crops come the farmers will need to draw upon again—as they will.

My advice is that after getting out of debt you spend one-third of your profits on improvements, one-third on investment bonds or cash for "the day it doesn't rain", and then use the other one-third to start an irrevocable trust for your family's protection. Regarding this consult—not your "dentist" as the radio talks about—but your lawyer and banker. They also should be visited every six months!

Average Price of $94.80 a Ton Paid For Cottonseed

Movement of cottonseed to crushing mills increased considerably in the Snyder area and remained about the same for most of the state as compared to last week based on the number of cottonseed grade certificates received, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, production and Marketing Administration, in a special release to The Times.

Generally good weather prevailed and good progress was made in harvesting and ginning. Average price paid for seed in Texas was $94.80 as compared with $95.40 last week. Texas prices ranged from $90 to $105, the highest being in the Northwest Texas district around Wichita Falls. In Oklahoma the average price declined from $79.99 last week to $58.50. Reported 11 mill prices ranged from $85 to $100 per ton, the latter figure prevailing in most areas. Grades of cottonseed remained about the same last week as for the previous week, the report to The Times showed. For Scurry County S. standard grade of 1025 was average.

Water Picture in State Looks Bad For Range, Crops

A gloomy crop, range and water picture boiling down to an urgent need for moisture over most of Texas was given this week in state-wide surveys by two federal agencies.

Scurry County cotton farmers were enjoying the long dry period, but other farmers interested in small grain crops, and ranchers who are in need of water for grass lands, were "down in the dumps" over the dry spell.

The United States Geological Survey found the state's eight principal reservoirs held water reserves 21 per cent lower in September than they were a year ago. The Red Bluff Lake on the Pecos was described as "practically empty."

The United States Department of Agriculture found that a general rain is "urgently needed" for pasture grass over the western two-thirds of the state as well as in some southeastern counties.

Flow of streams in the northern half of Texas, eastern New Mexico, all of Oklahoma and much of Texas approached a new record low during September. No serious water shortage has occurred thus far, the USGS said, but if the present sub-normal precipitation continues, the lowest stream flow on record is in immediate prospect.

Run-off was found to be sub-normal in all parts of the state, and definitely deficient in the northern half.

Ed Durham Awarded $3,000 in Damage Suit

Taken to Sweetwater from Colorado City on a change of venue, the damage suit of Ed Durham vs. H. S. (Dick) Hickman was terminated in the 32nd District Court Friday when damages of $3,000 were awarded the plaintiff.

Plaintiff was represented in the damage suit by H. J. Brice, John E. Sentell and Ben Thorpe of Snyder. In the suit Durham cited, he was courthouse janitor in Mitchell County when on or about December 23, 1944, Hickman assaulted, struck and beat plaintiff in a violent manner. This damage suit, it will be recalled, was postponed on September 25, when hearing was originally scheduled.

OLD AND NEW in Texas City are here contrasted: Beside a shop almost destroyed in the explosion and fire disaster which struck Texas City on April 16, a new business building is going up on one of the post city's main streets. The shell at the left is one of the few badly damaged buildings still standing in the city.

City officials estimate that six months after the disaster 80 per cent of all property damage has been repaired and most signs of the tragedy are gone.

Sammie Williams to Be in Play at College

A Snyder student has been cast in a leading role for the production of the play "Arsenic and Old Lace" by the dramatic arts department of Abilene Christian College, Abilene. She is Sammie Marie Williams daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Williams of Route 3, east in the role of "Aunt Martha."

To be presented the nights of October 23-24, the play will be given in Sewell Auditorium on the campus of Abilene Christian College. It is the major fall production of the college dramatics department.

Miss Williams is a junior student in A. C. C., where she is a member of the Melpomenean Dramatic Club, the A. C. C. chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, and is majoring in dramatic arts.

Her father is an ex-student of A. C. C.

P-TA Sponsors Ira's Halloween Carnival Oct. 31

Spirited race between the classes of Ira High School for election of the Halloween Queen will be climaxed on October 31 when the winner will appear as queen of the annual Halloween Carnival to be staged by the Ira Parent-Teacher Association. The celebration will be staged in the high school gymnasium.

Besides the carnival queen each of the classes and grades will have a duke and duchess, P-TA officials state, who will attend the queen as her court. The queen also will have an escort named from the winning class.

In conjunction with the festivities merry-making articles will be sold at booths sponsored by each room of the school. Sandwiches, hot dogs, cake, pie, coffee and other things to eat will be sold as part of the parents' contribution to the carnival.

Thunder is rarely heard at a distance of 15 or 20 miles, but the discharge of a cannon as far as 100 miles.

Area Quail Survival Is Lowest for Years

Survival of quail through the hot and dry summer is reported to be close to the lowest in the Snyder area in many seasons. Hunters of the region are not counting heavily on much bird shooting this fall when the season opens.

Farmers and ranchers quizzed by a Times reporter in recent weeks report also that depredations on the good hatches of young by wild house cats, foxes and other animals and hawks have practically wiped out many covets of the birds.

Hunters are reminded of the closed season in Precinct 3 of Scurry County, as they arrange for their hunting of quail when the season opens November 15. Precinct 3 is the southwest one-quarter of Scurry County.

Crenshaw Barbers with Garner

Herbert L. Crenshaw came here last Wednesday from Gorman, Eastland County, to become associated with Jess Garner in his barber shop at the rear of the Times building. Probably Snyder's youngest barber, Crenshaw welcomes Snyder area folks to meet him at the Garner shop.

Area Towns Hear WTCC Plans At Stamford Meet

Representative Sterling Williams and Bill Schiebel, Scurry County Chamber of Commerce manager, last Tuesday attended the first of eight district meetings of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce tentatively included in the WTCC program for 1948. The session was held at Stamford. A. C. Kincaid, named recently as Scurry County's WTCC director, was unable to attend the Stamford meeting because of illness in his home.

The six policy plans, as submitted by the executive board, make up this year's referendum ballot to be voted upon in Abilene by the WTCC directors November 11.

Hosts at the Stamford meeting were Frank H. Kelley, Colorado City district director; C. C. Westfall and C. E. Coombs, Stamford directors, and A. C. Bishop, Stamford Chamber of Commerce manager.

The six WTCC plans follow:

- 1.—Abolition of the state ad valorem tax for general revenue purposes, allowing counties to vote higher taxes for various programs.
- 2.—Freight rate parity.
- 3.—Authorizing continuance of the West Texas industrialization campaign.
- 4.—Hospitalization and surgical benefits for WTCC workers.
- 5.—Creation of a Latin American relations commission.
- 6.—Invitation to member towns to suggest additional regional activities.

Light Run on Nylon Hose Follows Rumor

Following a rumor that was rampant in Snyder a week ago, local stores reported a slight pick-up in sales of nylon hose.

Recalling war-time shortages of the flimsy leg-wear, Snyder area women gave only slight reaction to the rumor that nylon hose were about to be frozen again. Several sales of multiple pairs of nylons were reported by stores.

Similar to expressions of store clerks in other area towns, the clerks had not heard of the possibility of the hose being frozen. Store managers declare they had heard nothing of shortages or of present stocks being frozen.

RENAMED DIRECTOR of the American Gas Association this week at its annual meeting in Cleveland, Ohio, was D. A. Huley, of Dallas, above, president of the Lone Star Gas Company which serves this territory. Mr. Huley also was appointed to the AGA promotional committee which originated the slogan, "Gas Has Got It" tying in with the industry's million dollar national newspaper and magazine advertising campaign to stimulate replacement of more than 12,500,000 asserly outmoded gas ranges with modern, automatic ranges, and to educate the American housewife on modern gas cookery.

Snyder Cafes Serve Meats Tuesdays, Too

Snyder restaurants and those in other towns of Scurry County continued to serve meats through the third meatless Tuesday in spite of President Truman's conservation plan. Proprietors explained that as long as their customers demand the meat they will endeavor to serve them. But if their demands are curbed, the restaurants are only too glad to cooperate by encouraging meatless meals.

The Texas Restaurant Association last Thursday rejected Truman's plan, substituting a six-point program of its own. Numbers of Texas restaurants curtailed meat dishes on their menus.

Lack of organization seems to be the general rule with the cafes, as owners reported that they would be willing to carry out the wishes of the president if others would do likewise.

Funds Accepted For Unit to Serve Entire County

Delivery of a Blanchard iron lung will be made to the Snyder Fire Department within a few days, it was announced over the week-end by fire department officials. Purchase price of the machine was underwritten by the blaze-fighters after demonstrations last week of the respirator in Snyder.

Demonstrations of the new type iron lung were given several days ago at the fire department, school house and on the courthouse square by James M. Compton, representing the Blanchard company.

Snyder Fire Department is sponsoring the purchase of the machine and it taking contributions to the fund. Series of demonstrations for communities outside of Snyder is being conducted under direction of W. E. (Tony) Holcomb, J. M. Newton and others connected with the fire department.

Cost of the machine is about $1,200 with complete accessories.

Fire department officials point out that iron lungs have been purchased by medium size cities all around Snyder during the past few months. Colorado City, Post, Slaton, Hamlin, Lamesa and Tahoka are among area towns that have bought the machines. Holcomb states. Larger cities have had them for several years. When a victim of polio, pneumonia or other respiratory attacks required an artificial respirator it has been necessary to take Scurry County victims to other cities. Presence of a machine in Snyder, it is pointed out, will make prompt and efficient treatment of victims easy—and may even save lives of area victims.

Decidedly different from first iron lungs, the new Blanchard is a light weight, portable machine that can be operated off house current, car battery or by hand. Weighing less than 100 pounds complete, it can be rushed to a given spot in any car. With three sizes of transparent "lungs," adaptable to bodies of infants, medium size persons or persons weighing up to 275 pounds, the "breathers" fasten about the waist, shoulders and neck of victims, leaving the lower body portions, arms and head free.

Fire department leaders point out that the constant presence of the machine at the fire department will make it convenient for every citizen of the county. The entire fire department personnel will be trained in its operation, Holcomb says.

Mahon Tells of Europe's Plight At Friday Meet

Several Scurry County people attended the appreciation homecoming meeting staged at Colorado City last Friday night at Ruddick Park for Congressman George Mahon.

Mahon declared that "it is a sad state of affairs which American has never desired" in referring to the present political war between the U. S. and Russia.

The big question facing the United States, he said is "how can we prevent a political war with Russia from becoming a shooting war?"

He said that "Congress, like you, is concerned and disturbed—and, like you, we don't know all the answers."

During his address the congressman told of his visit to Europe and the conditions that exist there. He praised the British people and said "there is something intrinsically fine about the German people."

He said that in France there was a spirit of defeatism, "but the Italian people are hopeful for the future. The big problem in most of the smaller countries of Europe is the poor people, who are hungry and are afraid of the Communists."

Mahon was introduced by Charles C. Thompson, Colorado City business man, who is head of the board of regents at Texas Tech College and is a former law partner and boyhood friend of the congressman.

Preceding Mahon's talk, representatives of the various groups of Mitchell County spoke briefly, each praising Mahon and his work in Washington. The representatives included Dr. Harry A. Logsdon, Price Maddox, Claude Hooks and Frank Kelly. Lerna Mahon's boyhood home, was represented by Rev. R. T. Barton who said of Mahon, "We consider him not a politician, but a statesman." LeRoy Gressett of Waybrook said simply, "Out our way we're mighty glad he's home."

State Senator Pat Bullock was master of ceremonies for the program, which was preceded by a 30-minute concert by the Colorado City High School Band.

The Salmon River in the Sawtooth Mountains of Idaho, is known as the "River of No Return." Flat bottom boats can navigate it downstream, but no boat has ever been able to pull upstream.

Kathleen Norris Says: Mother Threatens Family Peace

Bell Syndicate—WNU Features.

"All the time she kept up a running commentary on Dory's and Larry's families."

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

I WISH you'd write an article for my mother," writes a harassed wife from Oregon. "Everyone says mother is an angel, and her four children would be the last to say anything else—seriously, we adore her. But the way she messes up our lives is nobody's business!"

"She agonizes over our troubles, exaggerates our successes, makes us constant presents and always is willing to let everything else drop and rush to us in any crisis. And the result is that we have to keep our problems secret, handle very gingerly the story of anything that goes right and never express the slightest need of help."

"Because, at the first sign, Mother interferes. If she suspects that everything isn't smooth between my brother's wife and me, for instance, she writes Jane a long, tactful letter. She telephones my husband to remind him of our wedding anniversary, and Oliver says it makes him so mad he decides he won't bring home flowers after all. Once when my sister was miserable with cold and pregnancy and no domestic help and winter weather, Mother paid out of her small income for a nurse for four days. The nurse demoralized everybody in their crowded little flat, and Dory's husband hasn't yet gotten over his resentment. Bill says that if his wife needs a nurse he'll get one and pay for one."

Plans for All.

"Mother has a suggestion for everything. She was here for two days last week and I'll tell you what I remember, to give you an idea of the situation. She got out dollies for the dinner table, observing that she'd wash them herself, that a man liked a house dainty. She didn't wash them, but that didn't matter. She took their suckers away from my boy and girl, as 'nasty-nasty.' She felt their clothing and said it was too tight. She told Bill he ought to write often to his mother—such a lovely mother. She reminded him playfully that if a man can't afford to give his wife a cook he ought to wipe the dishes. She stayed my hand when I was turning to his favorite radio program and said, 'you spoil him, dear.' She had brought a large casserole of noodles as an addition to our dinner, and was hurt when he didn't eat it. She put a rinsing pan on the sink and told me never to forget that little nicety. And every word to the children was admonition; 'little boys in Poland would love that nice pudding, little girls always say thank you.'"

"All the time she kept a running commentary on Dory's and Larry's families. They knew nothing of children. Dory's husband was penurious; Larry's wife was terribly extravagant. She had taken them the little Foster girls' outgrown coats—practically new—but Virginia had bought them other coats, just the same. Virginia packed a lunch every day for Larry, poor dear boy, to eat out of a paper bag! So Mother goes down three times a week to take a man of 34 to lunch, and tell him, no doubt, all through the meal, exactly what he and Jimmy do wrong. She means so well—and we've all gotten so that the very sound of her voice on the telephone fills us with fear. What can we do about it?"

You can't do much, Gillian. It is up to Mother herself to do something.

FAMILY HARMONY

Overabundant love and concern on the part of doting mothers frequently leads to tragic consequences, Miss Norris warns in today's article.

To many mothers and even grandmothers, their children, although grown and with families of their own, are still children, "darling, helpless little ignorant things" who need the constant attention of their elders. This is the case with the harassed Oregon housewife, who writes Miss Norris that her mother "means so well," but causes so many complications among her children's families.

The world moves on, Miss Norris advises, and even though some of the steps may be in the wrong direction, many of them are toward simplicity in living, better health and more honest points of view. Mothers who refuse to keep step with the new ideas which prevail throughout the world as well as in their daughters' homes can cause very real trouble.

Interest, understanding and generous cooperation, Miss Norris counsels, are the keys to a better understanding and perfect harmony between mothers and their children's families.

thing. Because all her activities are cloaked by actual love, she cannot see how trying and superfluous they are. To her, you are still children, darling helpless little ignorant things who need Mother every instant.

Everything Is Changed.

She can't realize that everything has changed since her children were little. Nursery procedure has changed. Any mother who gave her baby mashed bananas and orange juice 50 years ago ran a risk of being charged with criminal neglect. Any mother whose youngsters wore one brief garment all summer long, and hardly more in winter, would have been considered mad. Youthful nursery sins were punished then with brisk spanking; nowadays they are sympathetically analyzed under the headings of fixations, inhibitions, complexes, escape trauma. Modern children frequently don't know what punishment, law, duty, obedience are. They spend lots of time in boarding schools and in summer camps, they know a good deal of divorce and other grown-up troubles, and nobody ever says to them "children should be seen and not heard," or sends them to bed without any supper.

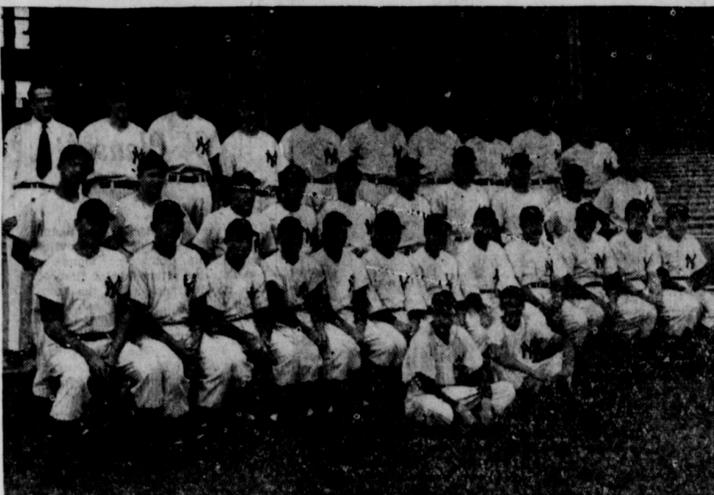

We anxious mothers and grandmothers can't change this. The world moves on, and if some of its steps are in the wrong direction, many of them are toward simplicity, better health, more honest points of view. Interference and lamentation and fussing won't help. Interest and understanding and generous cooperation will. Mothers who can't keep step with the new ideas can be a tiresome clog on the younger feet, and even make very real trouble. But sometimes it is impossible to convince them that even love and concern can be overdone, can be a costly mistake.

ANOTHER PROBLEM SOLVED

American ingenuity has solved another long standing problem of table etiquette—how to start ketchup flowing from a bottle without spattering the tablecloth or your shirt front.

The answer, revealed at a packaging conference of American Management Association in Philadelphia, is a small hydraulic pump. Special tongs for extracting olives from long, narrow bottles and a funnel to help keep tooth powder on the brush also were exhibited.

The Times' Weekly Page of World News in Pictures

THE WINNERS . . . It was a daffy, record-breaking World Series that the New York Yankees, American league pennant winners, took from the Brooklyn Dodgers in the seventh and final game after "Dem Bums" had managed to square the count at three games apiece. The Yankees, who now have won the world's baseball championship for the 11th time in World Series history, are shown here in one of their more passive moods. The big baseball show reached such zany heights at times that a rumor started circulating to the effect that Olsen and Johnson were staging the series.

FOUR-YEAR PLOWING JOB . . . What once were two run-down hill farms near the village of Brownsville, Ohio, now appear as an excellent example of contour plowing. Yet the transformation was begun at sun-up and completed eight hours later. Task was undertaken by 600 volunteers, mostly ex-G.I. agriculture students, using 75 trucks and tractors. Some 40,000 farmers attended the unique operation held on the farms of John Rodman and George Latham.

INTERESTED SPECTATORS . . . What are these children looking at? Nothing that would call for a second glance in this country—just the changing of a tire for an American Red Cross field truck in an isolated area of western Japan. The villagers demonstrate a Japanese national characteristic which Americans often find difficult to understand. Told to remain outside a circle of twigs, they stood for three hours without entering the tire-changing area.

BEAUTY GADGETS . . . Not a visitor from Mars, this young lady is rigged up in beauty booties, mitts, facial mask and cap, all heated for enhancing beauty by stimulating circulation and inducing relaxation.

MEATLESS BUT NOT FISHLESS . . . Joseph Prouke of Chicago is pictured here as he weighs in an extra supply of red snappers for one of the now famous meatless Tuesdays—days when fish sales go swimmingly. Meatless Tuesday, as part of President Truman's food conservation program, is coupled with poultryless and eggless Thursday to make up America's effort to help alleviate hunger in Europe.

UNION CHIEF AT CO-OP STORE . . . Walter Reuther, president of United Automobile Workers union (CIO), is shown with his wife, May, and their daughter, Linda, as they carried weekly supply of groceries from the cooperative grocery store operated by local 400 of the U.A.W. in Highland Park, Mich. Store was set up by union to sell goods in case lots at wholesale prices as a method of resisting soaring living costs.

LUCKY CHIMP . . . Beautiful screen actress Carole Landis finds "Mona," a four-year-old chimpanzee, a willing subject as she picks her up in a mock kiss to which Mona responds with distinct enthusiasm. Well, wouldn't you, partner?

WORLD'S MATCH-MAKER . . . The fabulous Otto Krueger is dead, but the Swedish match industry is still the heart of one of the world's largest combines. In fact, two out of every three persons on the globe use its matches. This modern and efficient machine in a match factory at Lidköping, Sweden, is one of the reasons why the combine can make millions of dollars out of splinters of wood.

ANOTHER OPERATION . . . Three years ago Forrest (Nubins) Hoffman of Cheyenne, Wyo., had his life saved by an operation after the whole nation helped him celebrate his "last" Christmas in November. Recently he had another operation and once more pulled through against odds.

EVACUATION HEAD . . . Maj. Gen. L. C. Jaynes, commander of U. S. military forces in Italy, is supervising the evacuation of American troops and equipment from the entire Italian peninsula. It will take 90 days.

TAKE IT EASY . . . Mrs. John R. Steelman, wife of the assistant to the president, models "Take It Easy" safety dress, displays AAA campaign poster with slogan "Go slow and live."

"Mother has a suggestion for everything."

Police Fight 'Lurid' Comic Books

In connection with its campaign on juvenile delinquency, the Fraternal Order of Police has launched a drive against comic books that glorify criminals.

A resolution passed at the organization's 28th annual national convention in Indianapolis, described such books as "one of the contributing factors to the cause of juvenile delinquency" and as "unrestrained, bold, vicious and immoral."

civic, religious and educational groups unite to abolish the publication of all literature that is detrimental to the youth of this nation.

The nation's mothers are helpless to protect their children from the "lurid" booklets, Police Chief Christ H. Keisling of Carnegie, Pa., chairman of the resolutions committee, charged. He added, however, that he did not object to newspaper comic strips where not so many victims were murdered or maimed SCANDINAVIAN ADVENTURERS . . . Led by Thor Heyerdahl (left), Norwegian scientist and explorer, these men floated 4,000 miles across the Pacific on a 45-foot balsa raft to prove a theory. The theory: that the South Sea Islands of the Polynesian group originally were populated by natives of Central or South America who floated there on the Humboldt current, employing just such a crude type of raft.

BING IN THE ROUGH . . . A new and bewhiskered Bing Crosby sips coffee amid tall timbers of Jasper national park in Canada after a day of hunting during his vacation.

HOW'S THAT AGAIN? . . . Complete and utter amazement is written all over the face of Charles Asmus, 66, of Chicago, as he points wordlessly to the 15-pound (that's fifteen pounds) daughter born to his 21-year-old wife, Lucille. Melody Ann, the hefty new arrival, sleeps peacefully in the arms of Dr. Bernard Abrams of Chicago maternity center who officiated at her birth. He was a little surprised, too.

Mahon Says Most of Europe Does Not Need Aid for Several More Months

Back from a tour of Greece, Trieste and Italy, Congressman George Mahon, who arrived last week at his home in Colorado City, declared that additional American aid to those countries is not needed until next March.

"Most people seem to have forgotten," the West Texan said, "that Congress appropriated money to aid European countries this year. More may be needed elsewhere, but Italy, Greece and Trieste can get along for three or four months at the least."

Mahon said he had gone to Europe expecting to see people drop dead on the streets from starvation. "That idea, which has been successfully put across to the American people, is a great exaggeration," Mahon asserted. "Of course, the European people are under-nourished and are not living according to American standards, but you will find the rich living in luxury and the poor in poverty. There is no equal of sacrifice such as you find in England."

Mahon will not commit himself on the long-range Marshall plan, saying that he needs more time to study it, as well as the United States resources.

The Texan believes that "You don't find out about a country by sitting in the lobbies of the best hotels and in the embassies"—so he spent his month in Europe "going out among the people." He went into workers' homes and ate with them, he said. He talked to Communists as well as those who are fighting communism most intensely. "I was surprised to find that the people of Greece and Italy do not hesitate to express their opinions, no matter what the opinions are," Mahon said.

Mahon, a high ranking Democrat on the House appropriations committee, went to Europe with the so-called Herter committee. The group broke up into sub-groups, with each visiting different countries, thereby giving each country a more intensive study.

Mahon pointed out that the "Truman Doctrine" sent $300,000,000 to Greece, which is "adequate" to meet that country's needs for "some time."

He recalled that Italy was given an appropriation of $125,000,000 for aid purposes by Congress this year. "It's still warm in Italy," he said, "and they have plenty of fruit. Of course, they will need money for wheat—they eat breadstuffs principally—but the $125,000,000 should last them until March."

Trieste also has enough American money to last until spring, Mahon said.

Mahon is miffed at finding that most Europeans do not realize they are already receiving American aid—and have been for some time.

"You hear them talk about the Marshall plan as if they are about to get aid for the first time," Mahon said. "You see an Italian sitting in a bombed out building holding a sack of American flour. If you ask him where he got it, he won't realize that the U. S. A. sent it to him. It's disheartening."

Mahon said he did not gain the impression that World War II is imminent.

"Of course, everyone in Europe realizes that we are now witnessing a great contest between the East and West, but I do not think anyone well informed thinks war is around the corner," Mahon said.

Mahon, who is visiting in his district, in which Scurry County is included, and will return to Washington by November 5, where the Herter committee will meet to write its recommendations following the European trip. Mahon's appropriations committee goes into session November 18.

County Show-Goes Enjoying Busy Week

With two outside shows playing in Snyder this week, together with three picture shows in operation, entertainment seekers have had a full bill on their hands.

Manager P. W. Cloud opened the Ritz Theater for Mexican pictures two weeks ago to augment billings already posted for the Palace and Texas Theaters.

Harley Sadler and company are playing stage presentations at the city lot north of the square, and the D. S. Dudley carnival is showing northwest of the square. The latter shows are being sponsored by the Snyder Pipe Department and the VFW post at Snyder.

Winston Herefords Place at Dallas Fair

Herefords of Winston Brothers of Snyder placed in two divisions for Herefords at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas, which closed Saturday, it was announced last week by fair officials.

Winstons showed fourth place winner in summer yearling bulls; and fourth and fifth in senior bull calf.

Lone Star Folks are Working...

You hear and read a lot these days about this troubled world. Some believe that the end is near. Some labor-management strife continues in the news, some prices, judged by pre-war levels, are high, and it must be true that we have a fifth column actively at work to change our form of government. The foreign situation is exasperating. From one point of view, things generally are in a state of confusion, and to some, disaster looms ahead.

But here in Texas and Oklahoma, where Lone Star furnishes gas service to homes and industry, most folks are living well, having babies, going to church, improving their homes, educating their children, and turning in a good day's work for a good day's pay. These people have faith in themselves, in their country, and in their communities. They are willing to work. They know that in America a man can still be what he wants to be.

Self Reliance and Hard Work made our country.
Self Reliance and Hard Work will keep us free!

Boy Helped Solve Problem Of Bridging Niagara Falls

When the first bridge over Niagara Falls was planned in 1818, the problem of getting a cable from the American to the Canadian side was solved by offering $5 to the first person who could make a kite carry a string across the 800-foot chasm.

After this had been accomplished by a boy, the string was used to pull over a small steel cable which, for several years, enabled persons to go back and forth, two at a time, in a little wire basket. The original steel suspension bridge thrown across the river just below the American falls had a span of 820 feet, and was long considered to be a feat of engineering.

Let's Bake a Cake That's Feathery Light! (See recipes below.)

Parade of Cakes
Now that the weather is cooler and we're spending less time out-of-doors, there's more call for mother's delicious cakes. A cake somehow seems to top off evenings at home perfectly when the youngsters have their school chums in for an evening or if guests drop in unexpectedly.

Week-ends, too, probably are full of light entertaining if the week is a busy one, and it's time the old custom of baking a cake on Saturday afternoon were reinstated.

Then, no matter who comes in that evening or stops for dinner or tea on Sunday, we have a cook's treat to set before them.

There are loads of cakes to please every palate, from feathery-textured spice cakes to delectable combinations of banana and pineapple cake, as well as spiced dark devil's food and light-as-down, delicate whipped cream cake.

First, let's start off with a hot milk cake, easy on the budget and easy to mix. Top it with a broiled icing.

Hot Milk Cake.
2 eggs, well beaten
1 cup sugar
1 cup sifted cake flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup hot milk
1 tablespoon butter

Beat eggs until light and thick. Slowly add sugar and continue beating until very light and thick. Sift flour, baking powder and salt. Fold into egg and sugar mixture all at one time. Melt butter in hot milk and fold into cake. The addition of the flour and milk should take no longer than one minute. Pour into a well greased pan and bake in a preheated, moderate (350°F.) oven for 30 minutes.

Broiled Icing.
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup butter, melted
1/2 cup cream
1 cup coconut

Combine ingredients, blending well. Frost cake and return to hot oven or broiler just long enough to brown.

Banana Cake.
1/2 cup butter
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 cup banana, mashed
1/2 cup dates, chopped
1 cup crushed pineapple, drained
2 cups cake flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup nutmeats
1/2 cup sour milk

Cream sugar and butter thoroughly. Add bananas, dates, pineapple, and blend thoroughly. Sift dry ingredients three times and mix in nuts; add alternately with sour milk. Bake in a moderate (350°F.) oven for 35 to 40 minutes. Frost with caramel icing:

Let the Hips Fall

Milady's wardrobe for this winter of 1917 is going to take us back to the McKinley versus W. J. Bryan era in spots. The dress industry's cry of "We can't get the material" has been replaced by an eager shout of "Tack on 10 more yards, let the hips fall where they may!"

In the impression of those new coats with hoods attached the gals give the impression of trying to look partly like a Bundle for Britain and partly like a midge smuggling herself out of town.

We have seen blankets tossed over auto radiators that had more swank. And certainly fitted better.

When the wife struggles down Main street in one of those new fall numbers, she is carrying more sail than Old Ironsides or the Flying Dutchman.

The rest of mamma's wardrobe also will carry out the excess material motif. If you can get a laugh out of those old red plush family album photos after seeing this season's fashion, you are no judge of good comedy.

There are some frocks that make you wonder if they were turned out by a dress designer or a specialist in overstuffed upholstery. Nothing like them has appeared on the American scene since the passing of the bustle, the high-wheeled bike, the seashore tintype and the "Vote For Women" riots.

For once the men in the news-reel audiences are not falling asleep at the fashion revues. They find them funnier than the screen cartoons or the interviews with sweepstake winners.

The wasp waist, the padded shoulder, the long skirt and even something resembling the bustle are back. With bows, ruffles and drapes popping out all over.

And the millinery reflects the women-will-wear-anything mood, too. There are hats right out of the Easter parade in the days of the Rough Riders, Mark Hannas, the magic lantern and Edison's first talking machine.

Hold Your Breath, Traveler!
The New York Central has introduced the wonder of wonders, the supposedly unattainable and the answer to the traveler's prayer: A roomy diner with kitchen to match. For the first time in history a dining car kitchen does not have the general aspect of a hectic clambake in a narrow corridor.

And the diner itself is a two-car affair seating 64 as against 40 persons. It includes a cocktail bar, a lounge and all the gadgets, equipment and decor that make for class in the modern railroad dining room.

It is the kitchen that is the eye-opener and the seventh wonder. This is no longer a hot-box with stew pots attached; an alley full of chaos; a cross between a crematory, a fire in the gas works and an interlude from Dante's Inferno.

No man has ever peeked into a routine railroad kitchen without wondering whether the food was prepared by chefs, midgeets, black magic or remote control.

The Dining Car of Tomorrow is here. Which is okay by us provided it does something about the food of today.

Railroad grub was never entrancing or extra reasonable. Now that the two car diner with cocktail bar is here "how's chances" for the two-egg omelette and the three-bean soup?

Once upon a time the typical American was born in a log cabin, started life as a newsboy and became a millionaire. Today he is born near a radio studio, craves the cash prize quiz programs and attains the objective faster.

Eighteen hundred neck-piece radios are being used by delegates at the UN sessions. One can go to the bar and hear the speeches. And one can stay in the assembly hall and hear the drinking.

What the world is indulging in today is toil, sweat and jeers.

Carnegie hall after 56 years has installed a bar. We understand a favorite drink there will be the "Side-car-negie."

Suggestion for an international theme song: "Fendin' and Fightin'."

Chemists say a clue to a long life for man may have been found in the food of the queen bee. It subsists on a jelly rich in panthoic acid in which are important vitamins. The queen bee lives 20 times longer than the male. Applied to mankind this would mean a life span of over 1,000 years. Okay, professor, but have you found a bee that eats in lunchwagons, travels in subways and spends week-ends in a sort of daze?

PACKS 40,000 MUSCLES

Trunk of an Elephant One of the Wonders of Nature

Though the casual observer may be unimpressed, the trunk of an elephant is one of the wonders of nature. It is estimated to contain something like 40,000 muscles, strangely interlaced and curiously arranged so as to give it the fullest diversity of movement. It communicates with the head by a system of nerves which give it almost the precision and delicacy of the human finger.

The elephant breathes through his trunk, and when wild it is not an infrequent thing for it to take to the water and swim for some distance completely submerged, with nothing but the tip of its trunk visible. In those great forest fights that one reads about, this lord of the woods, even when most severely pressed, takes care to fight with its trunk aloft.

The elephant's tusks are almost as remarkable in construction as the trunk. Hard as we all know ivory to be, the roots of the tusks are a sort of ever-growing pulp, which, as the tusks wear out from year to year, gradually pushes forward and hardens. It is no uncommon thing to find bullets thus embedded in the solid ends of these tusks - bullets which originally lodged during some hunt, in the pulp at the roots, but which have, in the course of years, been steadily pushed forward and forward, until, in the end, they would have been thrown off altogether.

How to Successfully Grow and Care For Your House Plants and Flowers

House Plants Ruined By Faulty Watering

POTTED chrysanthemums are a fall favorite that bloom until near Christmas. They must be kept cool, and flourish best in an unheated room or sunporch.

Water only enough to keep them alive and in the spring start new plants by pinching off slips from tops of growing stems or using the new shoots around the base for slips.

Mums can be potted all year and planted outside in summer but during these winter months they need cool, moist air to survive.

You may want to know about preserving other indoor plants—cyclamen, primrose, cactus, geranium. Proper planting and watering for these and others are discussed in our booklet No. 29.

Grains and Cotton Gain Last Week as Other Farm Product Prices Decline

Many Southwest farm products set lower trends last week, but the grains and cotton continued to climb, the United States Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports in a special release to The Times.

Despite current grain saving efforts, corn and milo advanced 13 to 26 cents, and wheat and barley followed with gains of five to six cents. Large world requirements remained the principal strengthening factor.

Alfalfa hay prices advanced about $1 per ton. Lower grades of hay moved slowly. Favorable weather spurred peanut digging, but most sales went at government support prices. Buying of fall clip wool for private interests continued in Texas. Mohair remained generally slow.

Cotton harvesting made good progress but car shortage hampered movement to market. Spot sales scored a record volume for the season, although some farmers still held for higher prices. Prices advanced around $3 for the week.

Poultry showed considerable weakness off and on during the week, but most markets steadied somewhat toward the close. Eggs held mostly unchanged. Dallas and Fort Worth bought select eggs at around 55 cents per dozen. New Orleans paid 63 cents for fresh grade eggs, and Denver gave 55 to 60 cents for large white grade. Heavy hens turned generally at 24 to 28 cents per pound and freese 22 to 27 cents.

Texas hog markets closed steady for the week, while other Southwest terminals suffered losses up to 50 cents or more. Top hogs sold late in the week at $28.50 at San Antonio, $29 at Fort Worth, $26.85 at Wichita, $29.50 at Denver and $23.25 at Oklahoma City. Sows ranged mostly from $25 to $27.50 and pigs $20 to $26.

Most cattle markets lost 25 cents to $1 compared with a week earlier.

One exception was Houston, where common to medium cows sold steadily at $12 to $14.50. Another was San Antonio, where cutter and common cows brought $11 to $14. Cutters and common cows turned at $11.25 to $13.50 at Fort Worth and $10.50 to $13 at Oklahoma City. Wichita took common and medium grades at $13 to $15.

Most lamb prices weakened by 50 cents to $1.50 and ewes 25 to 50 cents per 100 pounds for the week. However, lambs sold 50 to 75 cents higher at Denver, where choice range Colorado closed at the week's top of $23.50. Late top at Oklahoma City was $19.50, while Wichita bought good and choice truck-ins at $19.50 to $20.

Cotton Is Still King

With cotton crop prognosticators now risking estimates of the Scurry County cotton crop for 1947, we are realizing what the cotton crop means to this section. When a good cotton crop comes, prosperity comes along with it.

Cotton in itself is poor farming. Its continued use as a one-crop farming program will bankrupt any section of the country. When a crop fails, everything is lost.

But with the employment of other crops, spiced with hogs, cows and chickens—plus good gardens—cotton is a good money crop. Living costs financed with the diversified incomes supplied by the other projects permitted the farmer to look to cotton for much of his "velvet."

Now that cotton is bringing close to an all-time high price, and with Scurry County producing around 20,000 to 25,000 bales this year, farmers of this region should be "sitting on top of the world" as the year 1947 comes to a climax.

Current Comment

Editor's Note—Expressions or opinions contained in this column are those of the writer and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of The Times. Current Comment is merely carried as a feature column.

BY LEON GUINN

There is every indication (since the Brewster burlesque over a $42,000,000 war-time deal) and the groups of veterans do not mean maybe that there should be a full-fledged Congressional investigation of the $772,000,000 Veterans Administration hospital building program, which is already more than two years behind schedule. . . . A major problem has been the VA's increasing trouble in getting good locations for the simple reason that citizens' groups are opposing the VA hospitals—arguing that the government hospitals depreciate neighboring property or are undesirable for health reasons. . . . Then there are behind-the-scenes clashes with civilian architects who say the VA obtained the best possible designs but at this time, since many hospitals will cost one-third more than anticipated, most plans will have to be redrawn.

Season on Waterfowl Opens November 4

Attention of all Snyder and Scurry and Borden County sportsmen is called by the district game warden, R. W. St. John of Abilene, to the following provisions on open season for ducks and geese:

"Open season, November 4 to November 17, both dates inclusive, on brant, coot, ducks and geese, and December 16 to December 29, both dates inclusive, will be governed by shooting hours, November 4 and December 16, for 12:00 o'clock noon to one hour before sunset. All other days of season, sunrise to one hour before sunset."

Although the Battle with the British at Bunker Hill was lost by the Americans, June 17, 1775, so many British lives were lost compared with the American losses that it was the equivalent of a victory for the Continental army. A $100,000 monument was erected on the site in 1842, in tribute to the American soldiers.

Save Those Elm Trees

A serious menace to one of our most beautiful shade trees is the Dutch elm disease, that is sweeping across the country and which is causing national concern. Although a more recent plague, it is going unchecked in many sections, and if something is not done soon, the favorite shade tree of America will disappear.

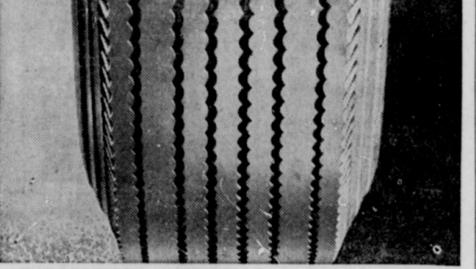

An oasis for elm trees in this semi-arid territory, Snyder is proud of its beautiful elms. The town is pointed to as one of the prettiest towns from the standpoint of trees in West Texas. We do not want to lose our trees.

The chief carrier of the Dutch elm disease is a bark beetle, and the best we can do to halt the destruction of this winged insect is the weapon of spraying and sanitation.

We take pride in the trees that add to the attractiveness of Snyder and Scurry County, and with some care on our part we will continue to keep them a part of the local scenery for many long years to come.

It is a little interesting to notice, while a real, first class investigation is pending, however, that the Veterans Administration in hospital plans will cut out "luxury" features such as theaters, offices for doctors and space for chapels. . . . Charge by a high ranking VA official that contractors are adding from 15 to 30 per cent "fear contingency cushion" to their estimates should bear careful investigation. . . . Even civilians realize that the problem of caring for GIs in a medical way will extend down the years ahead, and whatever is done will have to be started some time.

Many weeks must yet elapse before the 1948 Presidential Sweepstakes, but already presidential campaign buttons are beginning to bob up here and there—indicating that recurrent and inorganic fever known as "white house-itis" will soon assume epidemic proportions over this great land of ours. . . . Should health permit Anderson, agriculture chief, to become lead man for Democratic national chairman, farm organizations have plans ready to drum up Under Secretary Dodd to succeed him. . . . Dodd, however, is in bad presently with the White House for support of the vetoed wool bill. . . . It seems to be in the political mill that War Secretary Kenneth C. Royall will resign next spring to run for governor of North Carolina.

Farmers in the Air

The small plane finds its place on the farm along with the tractor, combine and family auto. Imagine living to do your crop dusting from the family helicopter, Scurry County farmer! Or viewing your cattle from above without arduous drives to the "back pasture" and to those out-of-the-way tanks, Scurry County rancher.

At an August meeting in Illinois, 2,000 Flying Farmers, members of an organization founded in March, 1946, at Sweetwater, gathered in the interest of rural aviation.

Originally 600, the group now has 6,000 members, users of small airplanes on the farm. They hope to promote the construction of more of the small airports and the distribution of serviceable, small planes for farm folks.

Buying cattle, tending to farm business and all of the other jobs connected with running a modern farm, the plane becomes as important in the life of some farmers as their pleasure cars.

Agricultural students with ears to the ground will detect sadly that Farm Credit Administration officials who spark-plugged President Truman's farm price conference in Washington now admit it was a total failure as an attempt to check or even cool the farm price inflation threat. . . . Although, for example, the increase in farm prices for the country as a whole was only two per cent between March 1 and June 30, tremendous price jumps have occurred in the South, Southwest and Mountain States. . . . Banks and other agencies are trying to hold the lip on borrowings (where prices are out of reason), but purchasers are still able to get plenty of money from individuals and small-town business men with money to spare.

The way the wind is blowing, it looks like the United States may take over some of Britain's foreign obligations such as cost of food for Germany. . . . Once we find out whether Britain's disappearing dollars are as grave as hinted, some sort of concrete self-help can be worked out—even if it takes an unofficial boost along some temporary avenue until the Marshall Plan can become effective. . . . Snyder, treasury secretary, who is handling negotiations for us with the British, will no doubt prove a tougher bargainer than State Department officials who up until now handled most of the loan negotiations.

Latest report from Washington reveals President Truman's loyalty investigation of government personnel is getting off to a slow start. . . . Officials are want to blame Congress' delay in passing the necessary legislation. . . . When it is considered, on the other hand, that some 2,000,000 government workers will go through the mill this will prove indeed a tremendous job. . . . Rather exacting respect for all civil rights but a thorough house-cleaning of Communists and fellow travelers now in government service will be demanded by Truman in the present investigation.

Readers between the lines will detect the fact the Kremlin is trying desperately to find some way to recapture the initiative in world affairs which Secretary of State Marshall seized so gallantly in his Harvard speech of June 5. . . . One can expect virtually anything now from the Soviets but a sense of tolerance, and seasoned observers feel the Kremlin will make new attempts to put the United States in the wrong in the eyes of the world. . . . Very little is known about the intricate workings, but already it has become evident that Soviet Russia has instructed Communist parties in France, Italy and elsewhere in Europe to sabotage recovery but not be caught in the act. . . . The Russians are making it entirely too evident (for their argument) that the world needs convincing the U. S. cannot save Western Europe without Russia's help.

GINNERS NEED HELP

Cotton, which has been a step-child in Southwest industry for the past decade, is slowly regaining its rightful place in the economy of the area. Despite all the promotion given to grain and specialty crops, West Texas is still a cotton country. The step taken by the Plains Ginners Association to invite the 1948 National Cotton Council Belt-Wide Mechanical Conference to Lubbock next summer reflects the trend of the country back to cotton consciousness. If the conference can be secured for Lubbock, the entire West Texas cotton industry—farmers, ginners, implement men, compress men and brokers—will have the opportunity to see a preview of what is in store for cotton. An estimated 350 or more of the nation's leading cotton factors and machinery manufacturers could be brought here if suitable accommodations can be arranged to house the conference.

By bringing the industrialists to West Texas, an opportunity will be afforded for a study of machinery and methods as they apply definitely to this area. Farmers know that the Plains area requires particular machinery—particular planters, particular cultivators, particular weed burners and particular cotton harvesters. This conference, if secured for West Texas, will have a profound effect upon the agriculture future of the area—Southwestern Crop and Stock, Lubbock.

Even though the highly controversial Taft-Hartley Act is taking effect, the full, hard-hitting impact of the measure will not be fully felt until next year. . . . Most existing labor contracts covering large aggregates of workers do not expire until next Spring. . . .
