How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardul is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

- 1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.
- 2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try Cardul. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Range Condition At Lowest Since 1934 Survey Says

Range feed in Scurry County and other areas of West Texas is in the lowest reported condition for this season of the year since 1934, the United States Department of Agriculture reported this week from its Austin office. Livestock is going into the winter much thinner than usual.

Rapid deterioration of range feed took place during October as normal fall rains failed to develop and severe drought conditions continued. Some drought-breaking late October rains improved grass and feed supplies in parts of the west central, northern and northeastern counties and improved winter grazing prospects from small grains, winter weeds and grass in the favored areas.

Range feed condition for the state as a whole was reported at 70 per cent, representing a five-point decline during October and a 12-point drop below the 10-year average of 82 per cent.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture said cattle and calves have shown heavy shrinkage during the past 30 days on the short dry range feed over most of the state.

General rains are needed in the sheep country where, in most parts, sheep are in "unusually poor flesh," said USDA.

FARM FACTS WORTH KNOWING

Q.—How can the dairyman conserve grain?

A.—The dairyman can do a lot toward grain conservation if he will (1) Feed cows according to production by weighing the milk and feeding accordingly; (2) cull dairy herds carefully and intelligently. Sale of low producing and defective cows will increase the meat supply as well as conserve grain.

Q.—Will feeding a supplement to hoes save corn?

A.—A good supplement can save about six to six and one-half bushels of corn for every 600 pounds of pork. For instance, 50 pounds of pig and hog chow and five and one-half bushels of corn on a feeding plan can do the job of about 12 bushels of corn fed straight.

Q.—How often should poultry flocks be culled?

A.—Culling is particularly important now when grain must be conserved. More and more poultrymen are culling on a monthly basis. They go into the houses at night when the birds are on the roost and use a strong flashlight, removing all birds which show "crow heads," pale and shriveled combs, yellow beaks and other indications of being out of production. This system has the advantage of not disturbing the birds and does not require the handling of the entire flock.

Q.—How can you tell by its appearance when a turkey is ready for market?

A.—A turkey is ready for market is light in color and no dark meat shows through the fat; (b) It is fairly free from pin feathers; (c) fat is deposited over the bird in broad layers; and (d) the breast and thighs are well fleshed.

Q.—Should broilers fed an all-

Legionnaires To Attend District's Annual Meeting

Several members of the Will Laine Post of the American Legion are slated to attend the annual fall convention of the 19th Legion District to be held Saturday and Sunday, November 22 and 23, at Big Spring, according to Hilton Lambert, post adjutant. Rev. Alan Harvey-Brooks of Borger, chaplain of the American Legion, Department of Texas, will make the principal address at the convention.

Bruce Zorne of Brownfield, 19th District commander, will preside, and Howard County Post No. 359 at Big Spring will be host.

Registration of delegates will begin Saturday afternoon at convention headquarters, the Big Spring American Legion Home, and continue Sunday morning. A dance for all registered delegates is scheduled at the Legion Home Saturday night.

A joint session with the Ladies' Auxiliary will be held Sunday morning with the main business session of the convention due to convene Sunday afternoon. Formulation of plans for the current Legion year, with special emphasis on membership, will top the business agenda. Commander Zorne has announced.

A barbecue lunch for all Legionnaires and guests will be served Sunday noon. Adjournment will be Sunday evening.

Fire losses in the United States are zooming to an all-time high, and threaten to exceed $700,000,000 this year.

Q.—No, grit is unnecessary as chickens can digest such a ration without use of grit just as well.

Send your questions about livestock or poultry problems to Farm Facts, 835 South Eighth Street, St. Louis 2, Missouri. Questions will be answered without charge, either by mail or in this column, as a service of this newspaper.

VETERAN'S QUESTIONS

Q.—Is Veterans Administration doing anything to keep abreast of improvements in prosthetic equipment so that veterans may get the benefit of them?

A.—Veterans Administration employees who aid disabled veterans in selecting and fitting artificial arms, legs, eyes and other devices are going to school to learn the latest developments and improvements in the prosthetic field.

Q.—I received an over-payment in subsistence allowance after I left school. Will I have to return the amount I received to the government?

A.—Yes. I am being rehabilitated under Public Law 16 and I would like to know what medical treatment is available to me?

Q.—Under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act (Public Law 16) you are entitled to any kind of medical treatment needed (hospital or outpatient) to prevent interruption of your training.

Q.—How and where do I apply for hospitalization for a service-connected disability?

A.—See your nearest Veterans Administration contact representative or apply at a VA regional office or hospital. A letter addressed to the nearest VA office will suffice. In case of emergency, you can telephone the nearest VA office collect.

Proper packing methods are a necessary part of the whole plan of quality conservation in eggs from the time they are produced until they are consumed.

Soldier of County Describes Visit to Grave of Fallen Airmen in France

Following letter received by Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bryant of the Martin community gives such a vivid description of the cemetery where the Bryants' son, Harold Alvin Bryant, was buried. The Times reproduces it.

Harold was killed April 24, 1944, when a plane on which he was the first aerial engineer, was shot down over Germany. The letter, from Wilbur N. (Tiny) Guinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Guinn of the Camp Springs community, was postmarked at Weilsbaden, Germany. It follows: I hope this letter will be of some solace to you, although I do not know how to begin.

I have been to St. Avold Cemetery and visited Alvin's grave. I will do my best to describe the cemetery. The beauty and feeling I cannot describe.

St. Avold is a small village in Eastern France. It is in the fringes of the old Maginot Line. You can see the old pill-boxes, and here and there a burned-out tank or a twisted gun—things to remind you that war passed this way twice in a few years.

The cemetery is perhaps one-half a mile from the little village of St. Avold. It is between rolling hills that slope very little up until they touch the sky. You can see the cemetery, the rolling hills on a blue bowl of sky. Its beauty astounds you because of its stillness and neatness, the white crosses against a green field forming straight lines down and across.

Down at the bottom of the cemetery is the chapel and the office. I went into the office and asked if I might take a few pictures. There were an Army sergeant and a captain in charge of the cemetery. They were very nice to me and asked if I cared to sign the visitors' book, which I did.

We went out into the cemetery, up the slope to plot GGGG, back to Row 5 and Grave 51. The cross is beautifully white and seemed so naturally beautiful. The name, "Harold A. Bryant" and below it

Living Cost at New All-Time High for Month of September

Snyder and Scurry County housewives were concerned at the report that retail food prices in September hit a record high, sending the cost of living up another two per cent for moderate-income families. This information was released by the Bureau of Labor Statistics Friday.

Preliminary estimates placed the consumers' price index at a peak of about 164 per cent of the 1935-39 average.

The September index is 12 per cent higher than a year ago, 23 per cent above June, 1946, when most OPA controls were abandoned, and 66 per cent over the August, 1939, level.

The food index for September was 233.5 per cent of the 1935-39 average. This was 40 per cent above June, 1939, the post-war peak of World War I.

The consumers' price index is based on surveys in 18 cities of retail prices of goods and services purchased by moderate income families.

Food Items For Thanksgiving To Be Plentiful Here

Another hike in the cost of the family Thanksgiving dinner in the Snyder area is in prospect with current retail prices of turkey here up five to nine cents a pound from the 1946 holiday.

As to what you will be paying Thanksgiving week, retail butchers first of the week were reluctant to forecast. However, Snyder area folks who have a particular yen for the fine feathered bird were assured there would be enough to go around.

In spite of the fact turkeys still are considered a delicacy for the Thanksgiving dinner, many people of this area compromise for a good fat hen, a ham or beef. With the popularity of frozen food lockers, and the fact that beaves are killed and placed in the boxes at a saving, buying turkeys on Thanksgiving has lost much of its tradition in the Snyder section.

Most other items that go to make up the traditional holiday feast will be available in good quantities. There are large supplies of potatoes, pumpkin, citrus fruits and nuts.

Heavy boulders in the bottom of river beds have been known to be raised to the surface and floated downstream by ice which has formed around them.

The Dunn-Buford Sunday Rally day was a success, as we had 175 in attendance and each Church rendered a fine program.

At the 10:00 o'clock a. m. period, the Buford Church School had charge, and 11:30 o'clock Dr. Clark our district superintendent, brought a fine message and one of the finest dinners ever spread was laid on the ground.

Dunn Church lost in the contest and had to furnish the cream and cake, they did a good job of it, for the cakes were plentiful.

In the afternoon the Dunn School rendered another program. Everyone expressed themselves as having a good time.

Annual Reports Given by County Club Women at Council Meeting Saturday

Nine clubs were represented when the Scurry County Home Demonstration Council met Saturday afternoon in the office of Miss Mary Louise Wehler, home demonstration agent. Annual reports were given at the gathering. Two other county clubs are slated to mail in their reports.

Finance chairman reported that $26 was made from the bake sale held November 1 at Fidelity Wigly. The yearbook chairman reported the yearbooks are well underway and the committee hopes to have them printed and ready for use by the first of the year.

Mrs. Ben Weathers, marketing chairman, reported: "The Christmas market will open December 8. Go light on your fattening feed for the time being, as feed is high and the turkey market is unsettled. The report comes to me that some weighing over 18 pounds will be docked."

Exhibit chairman displayed some crocheted pieces that were from 20 to 35 years old and were made by girls nine and 10 years of age. A hat, coat and dress were modeled by a young girl at the meeting.

Mrs. Roxie Soules, who presided, introduced Miss Thelma Casey, district home demonstration agent, who talked a few minutes. She welcomed the Scurry County women into her district, and explained why the county women were moved from District 2 into District 7.

Miss Casey then introduced Miss Helen Swift, sociologist in women's organization, from A. & M. College, who talked on women's organization. "Women should work on drawing together your community and also each club should work with their 4-H Clubs," Miss Casey declared. Miss Swift also stated that "The Messenger" will be mailed out within a few weeks and this copy will have a program of work for next year. Every woman was urged to study the program.

Mrs. A. D. Dodson, chairman of the Christmas party, appointed committees for the party, as follows: Mrs. Clarence Moore, Mrs. Ben Weathers and Mrs. Tom Mason, song committee; Mrs. Ray Lunsford, Mrs. Theo Soules and Mrs. J. W. Coffee, program committee; Mrs. Mel Andrews, Mrs. I. N. Hataway and Mrs. E. L. Vandiver, refreshment committee; Mrs. Leon Andrews, Mrs. Buford Licht and Mrs. John Woodard, decorations committee; Mrs. W. H. Prescott, Mrs. James Davis and Mrs. Frank Nachlinger, gift distribution committee.

Besides 22 members present, there were three visitors, Miss Casey of San Angelo, Miss Swift from A. & M. College, Mrs. W. H. Ward of Big Spring.

Special Program Slated for Dec. 12 P-T-A Gathering

Mrs. Dan Hamill's junior high school room won the attendance prize at the meeting of the Snyder Parent-Teacher Association held at the school Thursday afternoon, when a representative crowd of parents and teachers attended a regular session of the P-T-A.

Mrs. W. D. Sims presided in the absence of Mrs. W. D. Casebolt, who was ill, and Mrs. W. P. King was secretary for the day.

Elmer Taylor, treasurer for the Snyder P-T-A, reported that 362 members are now enrolled in the organization.

The group voted unanimously to join the Scurry County Parent-

County 4-H Boys Win Two Places In District Show

In the Bears Foundation Annual Pig Show which was held Saturday at Sweetwater, Donald Cave of Nolan took grand champion honors with his pig in the gilt show, and James Arp of Roby had the grand champion boar.

The show, attended by County Agent Oscar Fowler and several of his Scurry County 4-H Club boys, was composed of Nolan, Mitchell, Philre, Scurry, Kent and Stoneall Counties. Each county had its own show prior to the district event at Sweetwater. Scurry County's show was held November 1.

At the district show the gilt of Wendell Hess of Pyron placed sixth, in the boar division the animal of Joe Burleson of Ira took third place.

E. R. Eudaly, in charge of animal husbandry for Universal Mills at Fort Worth, did the judging in the show. Also present at the show and luncheon at noon Saturday given by W. S. Pratz, manager of the Sweetwater store, were Oscar Fowler, Scurry County agent; Ken Lewis, Sweetwater V. A. teacher; and M. E. Templeton, Nolan County agent, who was in charge of the show arrangements.

Adults Gifts May Be on Lean Side If Costs Continue Up

Santa's pack will be chock-full of presents for youngsters this Christmas, but adults' gifts may be on the lean side, a survey conducted this week by The Times reveals.

Reason for the curtailed Christmas gift list may be blamed on the high cost of living. The extra dollars most Snyder and Scurry County folks would like to spend on friends and relatives will not be extra. They will be gobbled up by the grocery bill and other set expenses.

Right now, most Scurry County folks are feeling the sensible approach to giving, adhering to the Christmas-for-children theory. But by December 25 they may turn to theory that has changed in the past with "we'll do it whether we can afford it or not."

Supplies of toys, books and other appropriate gifts for the children are being displayed in Snyder stores in fairly complete lines this year, the most since the war. Prices are somewhat higher than ever before—but everything is higher, isn't it?

Kathleen Norris Says: Some Women Can Do It

Bell Syndicate—WNU Features.

"My son, 11, having long teased us for a bicycle, 'borrowed' one, saying a man gave it to him, and last week the police were here."

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

MY LIFE is one long fight against despair," writes Charlotte Green from Minneapolis. "That's a dreadful way to put it, but it's true. I've been married 17 years, and every day of every one of them has been hard and disappointing. 'It's time,' says my 14-year-old daughter Claire, 'that something nice happened to the Greens,' and I have been saying that in my heart for all these years. But the nice things happen to other folks, never to us.

"When Fred and I married we had no money but his salary of $55 a week, but our friends were marrying on less than that, and we had no fears. Fred also had a comfortable old house; we moved into it, determined to make it all over some day. But Fred's salary today is $48 a week and commissions, and we are still in the unchanged old house.

"This isn't all his fault, nor all mine. Three years after our marriage, before my second daughter was born, he had a long illness, and he has never been strong since. He is laid up for weeks every winter and unable to hold his own with other men.

"Fred is 42, I am 38. We have five daughters and one son. One of our girls is not quite normal in mind or body, needing special care and teaching. My two oldest girls, Doris and Claire, are already working, deprived of the young freedom and pleasure girls ought to have, knowing nothing of college, frocks, sports, trips, advantages. Claire is good and steady, working in a factory. Doris on the other hand is pretty and discontented, and is an usher in a movie house, a very undesirable occupation for such a girl.

"Rut of Discouragement." "I take care of my delicate little Yvonne, and of the three younger children, a steady grind of domestic work, unlightened by any hope that things ever will be any easier. My son, 11, having long teased us for a bicycle, 'borrowed' one, saying a man gave it to him, and last week we had the police here. The case was dropped, but Richard's hard and resentful attitude frightened me; I am afraid he will do the same thing again. He is a strong, determined boy, and bitterly resents our poverty and the shabby old house in which we live.

"Fred strains himself to the utmost to earn more, and I scrimp, save and plan every moment of the day and often for most of the night, but the Greens seem sunk in a rut of discouragement and discomfort, and nothing we can do gives us any hope of escape.

"Now, with prices rising every day, and the younger children's needs of clothing, dentistry, schooling, rising too, I really—as I began by saying, am engaging a long fight against despair."

This is a tragic letter, and Charlotte Green's situation is a hard one. It is that of thousands of women who find themselves suddenly engulfed in widowhood, home-making, motherhood, with increasing cares and responsibilities and expenses clinging like a ball and chain about their ankles. Whatever

Snuffing Safer Than Nose Blowing, Asserts Doctor

"Nose blowing is believed to be the most important single detrimental factor to the proper care of acute or chronic upper respiratory infections," Capt. Angus C. Randolph states in the bulletin of the army medical department.

He recommends "forceful inhalation or sniffing." "The patient must be reeducated in the matter of the time honored habit of nose blowing. "This habit must be broken be-

POOR BUT HAPPY

When a family can't afford the comforts and luxuries that other people in the community enjoy, they often become resentful and discouraged. That is the way with the Greens of Minneapolis.

Charlotte Green writes that she is tired and embittered, although she does not blame her husband. He is a salesman, earning less now than he did 17 years ago when they were married. The Greens have six children. The two oldest daughters are reaching the age where clothes and spending money count very much.

Despite all their efforts, the Greens can't increase their income noticeably. The two older girls work and Fred struggles to earn more, but he is sickly and unable to compete with more vigorous men. Charlotte scrapes and saves, but the rising cost of living wipes out their economies and extra earnings.

his good points as husband and father, the man of the family finds himself completely unequal to the rising demand, and once the morale of both husband and wife begins to slip, it is a hard thing to reestablish.

Income Unimportant.

Some women manage it. But perhaps it takes a special temperament, or vision, or faith, to do so. And perhaps this particular generation of girls is more unfortunately placed than any other ever was, when it comes to development of character, of old-fashioned goodness, of self-control and service. Nothing teaches them that self-denial in the matter of clothes, amusements, extravagant cars, beauty treatments, useless and expensive possessions of all sorts, are infinitely less valuable, in the years ahead, than the courage to forego them.

Yet, there are households still, and many of them with no greater advantages than Charlotte's, that not only provide a safe and happy background for youth, but contribute to the happiness of many more than just the members of the family.

Households in which there are books, music, good talk, joyous sharing of domestic duties, ambitious dreams. Homes in which shabbiness is disguised by perfect order, the beauty of flowers, of simple hospitality. It is from homes like Charlotte's that half of our nation's great men and women have come; their story is not one of easy beginnings, of indulgent parents and financial irresponsibility. They may have missed more exciting pleasures of youth, but their pleasures are denied no one who has the inestimable benefit of a good father and mother; and the increased appreciation of success and leisure, later in life, makes these hard younger years well worth while.

And the catch in that is that Charlotte and Fred actually could afford to give their children not only a happy, but a busy, eager, hopeful childhood and youth, with just what they have in hand, if only they knew the secret.

One-Hand Typewriter

Veterans' administration has supplied a Washington, D. C., law student with the first one-handed electric typewriter manufactured for the agency to help paralyzed and amputee veterans.

The new machine groups letter keys on one side of the typewriter, with less frequently used number and punctuation keys on the other. The first machine was given to Albin Ulrickson, 34, a student at Georgetown university, whose left side was paralyzed by a shell.

The Times' Weekly Page of World News in Pictures

SURPRISE FLIGHT . . . When Howard Hughes, multimillionaire sportsman and industrialist, took his gigantic plywood flying boat out on to the waters of Long Beach harbor, he was only supposed to be making a few taxi runs. But on the third run, surprising the thousands of cheering spectators, he put down the flaps and the world's largest airplane crept into the air and flew for about a mile at an altitude of 70 feet. At bottom left is shown the immense tubular interior of the flying boat. The beach balls are to give added buoyancy in case the hull springs a leak. Howard Hughes, who was the center of interest in the senate war contract investigations last summer, is shown bottom right looking over the array of instruments on the panel of the plane.

SIDEWALKS OF NEW YORK—FISHERMAN'S PARADISE . . . When torrential rains and high tides flooded low-lying areas around New York, they provided, among other things, an opportunity for a photographer to snap a picture of a fellow catching fish on the sidewalks of New York. The angler is Johnny Palm and the fish came from the flooded Fulton fish market, complete with rigor mortis already set in.

ROOTS AND SADDLE . . . Riding across country in the interest of "world peace," Sen. Glen Taylor (Dem., Ida.) rises early in the Arizona desert to continue his Paul Revere jaunt in the direction of Washington. From the looks of the picture, the senator must have saddled his horse before putting on his boots—risky business in a land where cactus grows.

LONG TIME BETWEEN SHIPS . . . Stephen Decatur 8th, the great-great-nephew of Stephen Decatur, famed U. S. naval hero, scans with interest a portrait of his great, sea-going ancestor. Portrait was loaned by the U. S. naval academy for the opening of Stephen Decatur hall in Philadelphia, new home of the naval reserve officers training corps at the University of Pennsylvania. Stephen 8th is a student at the University of Virginia.

ATOMIC POTATOES . . . Takeo Furuno, Japanese agricultural expert, holds plant bearing eight abnormally large sweet potatoes grown in area affected by atomic bomb blast in Nagasaki.

ROYALTY'S FRIEND . . . Mrs. Cobina Wright, New York socialite, is shown as she left for England to attend the wedding of Princess Elizabeth. She knew the bridegroom for 12 years.

DESTRUCTIVE BALL GAME . . . The engineer at the controls of this giant crane has to keep his eye on the ball, literally. The pellet he is swinging, a two-ton steel sphere suspended from a 120-foot boom, is being used to demolish a building in the vicinity of New York's East river where a site is being cleared for construction of the United Nations world capital.

FOOD CRISIS WILL LAST THROUGH 1949 . . . Sir John Boyd Orr, director general of the U. N. food and agriculture organization, warned that the world food crisis will last through 1949, and that "long continued hunger in wide areas will result in increasing social and political unrest." With him in the photo are Lord Bruce of Australia (center), chairman of the U. N. food council, and U. S. Undersecretary of Agriculture Norris E. Dodd.

TURFDOM'S TOM THUMB . . . Meet Jimmy Lane, the tiniest horseman in the world. Jimmy, a native of Newmarket, England, weighs only 49 pounds and is so short that he has to be lifted on a mount when he works one out, as he often does.

GREECE ARMS AGAINST CHOLERA . . . As the death toll in Egypt mounts into the thousands as a result of the cholera epidemic sweeping that Middle East nation, Greece, fearful that the disease may spread to the north, is taking precautionary methods. The government, in cooperation with the Greek Red Cross, is providing anti-cholera inoculations free to the people in specially improvised centers. Shown here are some Athenians, eager to immunize themselves against the disease.

GERMAN BISHOP . . . Bishop Friedrich Otto Dibelius, ranking Protestant minister of Berlin, paid a courtesy call on President Truman when he arrived in the U. S. to visit theological seminaries.

SPELUNKER . . . Mrs. Norma Lee Fisher, shown with son Freddy, 2, is Pittsburgh's only woman spelunker. A spelunker, by the way, is a member of the national speleological society, a group of cave hunters and explorers.

ANOTHER DECORATION . . . Gen. "Hap" Arnold, retired chief of army air forces, received a new decoration, this one from the Chinese government for achievement in military aviation.

BIT OF OLD CHINA . . . Authentic wedding dress, with an original headdress from Peking embroidered with seed pearls, makes Virginia Lee look like an emperor's bride.

Four Dens of Cub Scouts Function In Snyder Pack

Four dens of Cub Scouts have been perfected and the youngsters are meeting regularly each week. Scout leaders have reported. Bill Schiebel is Cub Scoutmaster for the Snyder dens.

Den mothers are Mrs. A. P. Roe, Mrs. C. L. Williamson, Mrs. Bill Grmitt, Mrs. P. W. Cloud, Mrs. E. E. Wallace Jr. and Mrs. Maurice Brownfield.

The following boys have registered for Cub Scouting: Gerald Crawford, Bob Coffee, Arthur Dennis, Norman Grmitt, Elvin Weathers, Franklin Minton, Robert James, Douglas James, Billy Wayne Harris, Morris Wayne Williamson, Bobby Knollenberg, Billy Herod, Charles Roe, Carl Burns, Arnold Wallace, William Brownfield, P. W. Cloud Jr., Fred Williams, Jack Spikes, Butch Martin, Eddie Casebolt, Hal Holladay, Jimmy Wentz and Wayne Ramsey.

The pack committee is composed of M. E. Stanfield, Phil Burns, C. L. Williamson, Sam Spikes, Earl Horton and W. D. Casebolt. Weekly den meetings are held in each neighborhood, and the Cub work on handicraft projects and their advancements for the next high grade under the leadership of the den chief, who is a Boy Scout.

Once a month a pack meeting will be held. It is announced, where the Cubmaster will present the boys and their dens. Each den will put on some sort of an entertainment for the rest of the dens and the parents. After the entertainment the parents will meet with the Cubmaster to talk over the problems.

Government Men Do Not Realize Drouth Severity

The full import of drouth in the winter wheat producing areas of the American Southwest has not dawned on many government officials, a release to The Times from Washington declares. They still insist that our export commitments of grain can be met by the end of next July.

They add, however, that if there is as big a loss in winter wheat as is now threatened, there will be serious lowering of exports in the period following the harvest of next June and July. The period just before the harvest, they say, may be very tight, when it comes to deliveries from farm to market. Growers may wait to see wheat rolling from field to bin or elevator before they truck their stuff to commercial markets.

Very little wheat has been planted in the Snyder area and in the upper Plains regions, where millions of bushels of wheat are produced. Agricultural officials refuse to give up hope on the 1948 wheat crop. They voice their optimism in these words: "If rain comes this week, the crop will be planted. Farmers in some areas still have another month for seeding."

Meanwhile, the price of wheat took another rise on the market. Government buying for export, plus adverse weather reports, were given as the major reasons.

Texas' famous Fort Alamo at San Antonio, was originally a mission church. It was converted into a fort during the War of Independence, in 1836.

Two County Men Sell Livestock at Abilene

Market was considerably higher on all classes of cattle last Thursday at the Abilene Livestock Auction Company, and two Scurry County cattle dealers were on hand for the sale. Demand was good on all classes.

Raymond Hill of Snyder sold 12 mixed cattle, that brought up to $16. Morris Miller of Ft. Worth sold 13 mixed cattle that brought up to $20 on the Abilene market.

Not until they can get a living without working will some people admit that good times are here.

Merrian Crowder at Homecoming at ACC

Miss Merrian Crowder, teacher in Snyder High School, was among ex-students of Abilene Christian College attending homecoming festivities at the Abilene school last week-end.

Miss Crowder was one of those honored at a homecoming dinner given by the Delta Theta Sorority at an Abilene cafe Friday evening. The dinner was held Friday evening instead of the usual Saturday morning breakfast in order to avoid conflict with other ex-students' breakfasts.

Slaughter Well to Be Plugged Below 8400

Plymouth Oil Company No. 1 J. B. Slaughter estate in Garza County, wildcat nine and one-half miles west of Justiceburg, and about 25 miles northwest of Snyder, recovered 5,200 feet of salt water with no shows of oil or gas, on a one-hour drillstem test of the Ellenburger from 8,384-8,405 feet. The Ellenburger was entered at 8,384 feet, 5,894 feet below sea level.

It was expected that the No. 1 Slaughter soon would be ordered plugged and abandoned. It was deepened from 4,506 feet in lime, where it had been abandoned in July, 1946. Location is 330 feet out of the northeast corner of Section 32-2 T. & N. O. Railway Survey.

In parts of Arizona, California, Syria and Arabia, dew forms in such great quantities as to be an important irrigation factor in agriculture.

Winston Brothers to Consign in Area Sale

Winston Brothers, Hereford breeders of Snyder, will be among consignors of cattle in a Sweetwater Area Hereford Sale that will be staged at the Sears arena in the Sweetwater Park, November 28, according to Dr. H. W. McIntyre of Sweetwater, who is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements. Charles W. Lewis is president of the association.

McIntyre stated that this area is one of the most outstanding Hereford areas in the state, and the sale is being staged to recoup some of the enthusiasm and notoriety lost to other sections of the state.

Earl Gartin is the auctioneer, and sales will start at 1:00 p. m. the afternoon of November 28.

Splendid Cough Relief Is Easily Mixed at Home To get quick and satisfying relief from coughs due to colds, mix this recipe in your kitchen. Once tried, you'll never be without it. First, make a syrup by stirring 2 cups granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. A child could do it. No cooking needed. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup. Then get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from any drugist. This is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well-known for its quick action on throat and bronchial irritations. Put the Pinex in a pint bottle, and fill up with your syrup. This makes a full pint of splendid medicine and you get about four times as much for your money. Never spoils. Tastes fine. And for quick, blessed relief, it is surprising. You can feel it take hold in a way that means business. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes and eases the soreness. Thus it makes breathing easy, and lets you sleep. Money refunded if not pleased in every way. Pinex Is Swift Acting!

HOUSEHOLD HINTS Save needless hours of repair work by catching small tears and tiny rips promptly. Besides, if you darn a small tear, the repair job will be less conspicuous. Tuck a pot-holder into the knee of each stocking when you scrub the kitchen or bathroom floor. No sore knees tomorrow. Don't forget those top shelves in the kitchen that hold infrequently-used items. They should be given a periodic washing. Remove items from the shelf and then go over it with a soapy cloth. Use godels to widen peg-style skirts. These are circular inserts set into the seam. Make them narrow at the top, tapering almost to a point. The full width is at the hemline to make a flared style of a straight skirt.

Cotton Advances $4 Bale and Other Farm Products Up at Area Markets

Most Southwest farm products sold at fairly steady to moderately higher prices last week, according to the Production and Marketing Administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, in a release to The Times.

Unfavorable prospects for next year's winter wheat crop and large export demands still dominated the grain markets. Wheat registered further substantial gains to sell Friday at $3.11. Other grains held close to last week's levels.

Uneven trends continued to rule feed markets, with average prices a little higher. Peanut oil and meal strengthened, but shelled peanuts remained dull. Domestic wool moved slower. Less than 15 per cent of domestic offerings sold in an auction sale held on Thursday, November 13. Mohair was slow at uneven prices.

Cotton harvesting and ginning continued active during the week although cool days and sandstorms retarded progress somewhat in Northwest Texas and Western Oklahoma. Sales decreased slightly despite net price advances of around $1 a bale.

Week's cattle sales went largely at steady to stronger prices, with many lots selling higher at Wichita and Denver. However, low grade cows at Texas markets moved counter to the trend to sell as much as 50 cents lower at $3 to $12 for cullers and cutters. These grades brought $2 to $12 at Oklahoma City; $10.50 to $15 at Wichita, and $11 to $14 at Denver. Texas paid $7 to $15 for common and medium cows.

Sheep prices held mainly steady to stronger for the week, but lambing season was slow at Oklahoma City, Wichita and Denver. Common and medium lambs sold at $14 to $14 at San Antonio, as medium and good grades cashed at $19 to $21.50 at Fort Worth, and $17 to $21 at Oklahoma City. Denver paid $24.25 for choice natives.

Hog markets rallied some during the week but butcher classes suffered losses up to 25 and 50 cents at some terminals. Feeder pig prices dropped 50 cents to $1 at San Antonio and Oklahoma City and $4.50 at Fort Worth, where top offerings sold at $20. Closing top butchers ranged from $24.75 at San Antonio to $25.50 at Denver.

Turkey moved to market in volume for the Thanksgiving trade. Prices stayed close to support levels at most places. Fryers and broilers in the Northwest Arkansas surplus area weakened further to mostly 28 to 31 cents per pound for 2-3-4 pound birds. Other live and poultry changed little for the week.

Those having typewriter troubles phone The Times, No. 47.

Sports Teach Fair Play

Interest in high school sports is the highest now it has been for several years, and that's a good sign for any community. Such interest not only reflects solidarity in a community by evincing loyalty for one's school, children and neighbors' children, but maintains greater interest in all activities of that school.

Community spirit is no less important than the feeling of cooperation among the players and spectators on the sidelines. Nothing will so teach a youngster to be a good winner or a sweet-natured loser than a good game of school football or basketball. Tenets of fair play, team-work and directed aims acquired in modern day athletics will stay with the boys and girls of Scurry County and help them to play better in the game of life.

Let us older sportsmen encourage our youth to participate in clean sports at school. Let us support them by words of commendation for displays of sportsmanship. We will be repaid in young manhood and womanhood with more cooperative minds and spirits that will build better homes and communities.

Current Comment

Editor's Note—Expressions or opinions contained in this column are those of the writer and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of The Times. Current Comment is merely carried as a feature column.

BY LEON GUINN

There is a good chance France may get about $350,000,000 from some financial maneuvers already in process of completion. . . Italy may receive up to $39,000,000 out of uncommitted balance of a relief bill passed by Congress last spring, and just how large an emergency bill the president hands the Congress will depend, to a large extent, on how much can be squeezed out of existing funds and assets. . . There is already disagreement over the proposal to create a continuing international agency to help administer Marshall Plan projects. . . U. S. officials want to convert the European steering committee, now working in Washington, to such an agency. . . As one might suspect, the British object to such conversion on the ground it will embarrass "fence huggers" like Switzerland and the Scandinavian countries—countries which agreed to take part in the Paris conference before they knew the Russians would stay out.

Rearing Children Costs

Scurry County people have never questioned the good investment they have made in their children, but we doubt if few have ever estimated the actual cost of rearing children.

The home economics department of Wayne University at Detroit, Michigan, has come up with a disquieting statistic—that it costs $10,000 to raise a child to the age of 18.

After surveys, the department found that to be the cost of raising a boy or girl in a family of five with an income of $2,500 a year.

The outlay starts with birth expenses of $250. From then on the major items are $2,755 for food for 18 years, $3,333 for clothing, $1,150 for education, $570 for incidentals and $413 for health and recreation.

Clothes for a teen-age boy cost less than for a girl, but on the other hand, he eats more.

The department does not include the value of the mother's services, which it admits are considerable.

We have heard many a parent say he wouldn't take a million dollars for one of his children—and that proves that the investment is slight compared with the value of a grown child.

It's Unfair to Merchants

Influx of out-of-town peddlers and solicitors has gradually grown since the war. Snyder and other area towns were not molested much by these folks during the war because of shortages of various kinds.

The Times has particular reference to mattress peddlers, salespeople for various clothing, cosmetics and household furnishings.

We contend that it is unfair to the local merchant who stays here the year round, pays taxes, supports churches and civic organizations with his time and money—to make the town and county a worthwhile place in which to live—then permit these peddlers to come to town and go into direct competition with these merchants without paying a dime of taxes. If it were not for these loyal business men there would be no town for these peddlers to come to.

We believe the real thinking person, who depends on the community for a livelihood, can not equitably patronize these out-of-towners—and then expect these local merchants to build their schools and churches and provide law enforcement and protection for their families.

Ask these same peddlers who take money out of the community to contribute to local charities and they will sneer at the suggestion.

Editorial of the Week

FARMERS HAVE BIG PROBLEM

Farmers, like all other people engaged in the same line of production or manufacture, have different opinions. This was discovered by the agriculture committee of the Congress when it made a 5,000-mile tour of the country and talked personally to farmers in every section.

The farmers are justified in asking that their subsidies and parity supports be continued, so long as such aid is given to industries and organizations engaged in other lines of production. The industrialists are aided by tariffs that allow them to ask and receive higher prices for their product. Labor is aided by statutes that add to their ability to get higher wages while in many cases producing less. Tax exemptions are granted to this and that branch of endeavor, giving them an advantage over competing agencies not so favored. Surely the farmer should have as much protection as any other member of our production force.

If support of one is to be reduced, all must be reduced. It cannot be done piece-meal, for a reduction of support to one and not all would bring such a wave of protest that no Congress or Legislature could be found to attempt it. Besides, it would be unfair to the group who suffered the reduction while others retain their advantages. It is a big problem.—San Angelo Standard-Times.

Whatever things were written aforesaid were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.—Romans 15:4.
